Valuation of Gifts-In-Kind

Gifts-in-kind received through private donations are recorded in accordance with industry standards, referred to as the Interagency GIK Standards, as developed by an interagency taskforce appointed by the Association of Evangelical Relief and Development Organizations (AERDO). Gifts-in-kind are valued and recorded as revenue at their estimated fair value as provided by the donor or, in the absence of donors' valuations, at wholesale values estimated by the Organization, at the time the goods are received from the donor. The recognition of gifts-in-kind revenue is limited to donations where the Organization takes possession or constructive title of the gifts-in-kind and either the Organization is the original recipient of the gift, is involved in partnership with the end-user agency, or the gift is used in World Vision Inc. or World Vision International programs.

Gifts-in-kind expense is recorded when the goods are distributed for program use. While it is the Organization's policy to distribute gifts-in-kind as promptly as possible, undistributed gifts-in-kind at year end are recorded as inventory. The inventory is valued at wholesale values estimated by the Organization. The Organization believes that this approximates the lower of cost or market.

GRANTS MADE TO OTHER ORGANIZATIONS THROUGH DONOR ADVISED FUNDS
These grants are made to other organizations from Donor Advised Funds (DAFs). The DAFs are the property of World Vision Inc. and may be commingled with other funds held by it. World Vision has ultimate authority and control over all property in the DAFs. The Donor is permitted to recommend which organization may receive grants from the Donor Advised Fund, however, World Vision is not compelled to follow those recommendations. When a distribution to a nonprofit organization such as a symphony or a college is shown it is because World Vision has heeded a donor's advice to direct the money in that way. World Vision does, however, independently evaluate all such distributions to ensure that no receiving organization is involved with activities that are contrary to the Christian ethos of World Vision. The DAFs are only used for charitable, religious, or educational purposes and are used for the support of charitable organizations whose purposes are not inconsistent with those of World Vision. All grants made to other organizations from DAFs are recorded as program expenses in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

SCHEDULE 3

World Vision Inc
Federal Identification Number 95-1922279
For Fiscal Year Ended September 30, 2004

Form 990 –Part III

World Vision Inc is a non profit, humanitarian organization that raises funds, along with other World Vision organization in other countries, and channels these funds to the needy and hurting peoples of the world through World Vision International, a related organization.

- a. Child Sponsorship: Seeks to demonstrate the love of God for all people by providing community-based programs that improve children's lives through health care, nutrition, and opportunities for education. Families, communities, and churches are encouraged to work together to create thriving communities where all children prosper and their dreams for the future are enabled. The number of sponsored children worldwide in the fiscal year ended September 30, 2004 is 2.4 million, of which 776,800 children are sponsored by US donors.
- b. Emergency relief and Community Development: Responds appropriately to natural and man-made disasters with goods and services that help people get back on their feet and on the road to self-reliance. Child-focused programs seek to overcome the root causes of poverty in a region and provide assistance to recipients without regard to their race, gender, religion, or ethnic background. Staff seeks to strengthen grassroots efforts of people to transform their lives and realize their own vision for a better future through health care and nutrition initiatives; agricultural improvements, Christian witness and spiritual nurture activities; income-generation programs; safe drinking water and sanitation projects; and literacy, leadership, and vocational training.
- c. Domestic Programs: Focuses on needs within the United States, working with churches, volunteers, and community organizations to provide children and youth living in poverty with solid educational foundation, stable family environments, and healthy neighborhoods.
- d. Grants to Other Ministries: Provides gifts-in-kind and monetary donations to partner ministries that share World Vision's ethos.
- e. Public Awareness and Education: Promotes awareness of poverty and justice issues, seeking to protect children and families from exploitation and abuse through various educational means and by influencing corporate, government, and international policies.
