Lloyd's Clerical Directory

1910

(FOURTH ISSUE)

EDITED BY FREDERIC E. J. LLOYD, D. D.

A TREASURY OF INFORMATION FOR THE CLERGY AND LAITY OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH
IN THE UNITED STATES, AND THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND IN CANADA AND NEWFOUNDLAND

AMERICAN CHURCH PUBLISHING COMPANY
4741 EAST RAVENSWOOD PARK
CHICAGO,

PREFACE

For the fourth time, in a decade, I am privileged to offer this Directory to the Church in the United States of America, and for the first time, to the Church in Canada. I no longer fear the result, for with an almost complete unanimity it has come to be understood by the clergy, and this issue goes forth to receive a welcome more hearty and more intelligent than ever before. I can speak with this assurance because of the abounding words of gratulation and welcome that have been received from many sources. To the revered Presiding Bishop I am indebted for the suggestion that this edition be prepared and amongst the very first of the Bishops to write to me when the work had been taken in hand, was the Bishop of Western Massachusetts, who said: "That you are bringing out a new edition of your clerical directory is good news. I have missed your publication, as I fancy most bishops have, and I hope the present venture will be remunerative. The book is of special value for wardens and vestrymen, and I hope that you may succeed in making them subscribers."

So strongly has this issue of Lloyd's Clerical Directory been supported that it goes out, for the first time, without the least financial misgiving. For the help afforded me I am grateful, and I hope that the additions made will be deemed improvements.

In the main, I trust it will be found that the Directory for 1910 is trustworthy. Wherever imperfections appear I think they will be seen to be due to causes which I have not been able to control. For example, I have found it very difficult to procure a large enough number of returns in relation to the founding and founders of parishes and missions to tabulate them; but, at the same time, the number has been sufficiently large to enable me to promise that in the next issue I shall do for parishes and missions what I have done for the clergy, and so present in permanent form a mass of information that could not otherwise be collected. I deem this matter of the utmost importance to the Church and I shall spare no pains to discharge my responsibility regarding it with intelligence and fidelity. In the meanwhile I very respectfully ask the reverend clergy to look up the history of their respective parishes and note carefully names and dates in order that when my circular is received the information may be set down without difficulty or delay.

The present interest that is being taken in the salaries of the clergy dates, I am thankful to notice, from the reference made to the matter in a preface to a former issue of this work, and, strangely enough, to the protests of some of the clergy against my efforts to publish them. I am profoundly thankful for this. For there can be no doubt of the fact that efficiency of service, even among the ministers of the Gospel, largely because of present conditions in the economic world, is dependent on the length and the strength of their purse. To adjust the wages of the laborers in the vineyard of God (to adequately remunerate them for service rendered would be impossible), to shift, at least, one unnecessary burden from their back, to make it possible for them to pay their bills like other self-respecting men, to enable them to go forth to their daily task without the withering blight of anxiety about money is a nobler duty than we think. Much of the heavy-driving, the slow-progressing of the work of the Church today is due to slimness in provisioning the clergy. Nothing so stimulates to alertness (we are not speaking of the saints in glory but of mortals on earth) as a consciousness of financial security—note, I say security not affluence. And funds for every object, grist for every mill, hands for every task, hearts for every enterprise, and lips for every message would speedily be found if the clerical salary was what it should be. Unquestioningly some of the clergy do not need all they get (they are few, of course), similarly all the rest ought to have more. In some dioceses it will be found that clerical salaries are tabulated, in others not so. I take it that no better contribution to the work we have in hand could possibly be made than to publish them. So far as I can do so I have done so and the pages of this issue of the Directory, from this one point of view, will be found of amazing interest.

Whether it be due to a feeling on their part that the editor is a sort of father-confessor or no I cannot say; but it remains a fact that I have in my possession more heartbreaking information in relation to the material condition of the clergy of the Protestant Episcopal Church than anyone else except, perhaps, Dr. Anstice and Mr. McClure. And when good men, whose record is clear, whose ability has been put to the most rigid of tests, whose piety cannot be questioned, whose bishops have never had occasion to reprove or rebuke them, write and disclose their material conditions, one trembles for those among us who are not interested enough in the welfare of their brethren as even to know what their sufferings and privations are. Let Bishops and Laity see to it (as many of them, thank God, are already doing) that one reproach less is bound to the Church and one glory more added to it. The figures following the date of the appointment of the clergy in their respective entries will indicate the real situation as to salaries. I note the absence of the largest as well as the smallest. I had almost said, in popular advertising terms, "there's a reason," but from this I politely refrain and, instead, ask what is the reason? A weak spot in the Protestant Episcopal Church is the clerical salary.

The briefest discussion of the wages of the clergy would not be complete without some reference to the bold and splendid enterprise of providing a clergy pension. This cannot be too highly lauded and I pray that it will be in all respects successful. But even this had been unnecessary had the clergy at any time been given a chance to provide for the future—for old age. Let us, therefore, work unceasingly to make the provision now for those old soldiers in the ranks of the ministry of Christ who, as one of them wrote to me, "are laid on the scrap-heap," but who, when in the midst of the battle, were not properly cared for in things material; but that they may have to the full all that is their due, there should, at the present time be made such efforts to improve the financial condition of those younger men at the front, as to enable them to get along on what they have received in wages while fighting rather than to receive consideration when the battle, for them, is over.

What shall be the standard of the wages for the clergy? A hundred dollars a month (no less) for the unmarried, and one hundred and fifty dollars (no less) for the married. With the wealth we have, with the zeal we profess to have and with the knowledge we cannot help having, there should be no real difficulty in accomplishing this result within the next decade.

The vexed question of degrees gives the editor no little concern. Of course a man is what he is with or without a degree. No degree, however flaming its accompanying hood or whatever its source, can change a man's ability or character one whit; but it is plain as the sun that not a few of the clergy feel that with the addition to their names of certain letters they must carry greater weight with somebody or other, something or other, or there would not be such unmistakable zeal in pursuit of them.

Some years ago a few of the clergy, taking advantage of the editor's greenness or pliability (presumed) played pranks with him, with the result that he marred his book by placing after their names certain distinctions to which they had no lawful claim. Of course, they were making me the victim of their fun. But it has since appeared to me and it still appears a very serious matter. A degree honestly earned or honorably received stands for something not to be despised; but the source of the degree is the thing. I have been bombarded by certain of my brethren (not many) with requests to print various things about them in this relation; and though I cannot claim that this issue of Lloyd's is free from errors of this sort yet, save in a very few cases, those distinctions which are set down are honorable and of value. A certain degree-giving institution whose amazing fertility has threatened to swamp the market and from whose boundless enterprise some of the clergy have reaped certain rewards and distinctions (though I have lopped off a good many, at the request of their clerical holders in the present issue) seems, at length, to have been brought to book, with a fair prospect of going out of business. May a gracious heaven hasten the day! I suggested to a young layman a short time ago who was engaged in Sunday School work, a member of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew and an usher that he might greatly improve his standing by the addition of "Ush.; S. Sch.; B. S. A." to his name. I impressed upon him the truth that there was no law to forbid it. I could not help telling him that those letters really stood for something. He saw the point and smiled.

Some of the clergy have refused to send in the information requisite about themselves, though nothing could be more polite than the manner in which it was asked for. They simply do not understand the aim of this work. With the first issue many found fault before and after publication; but now there are only a very few. With conscientious objections one must have sympathy and for them respect; I have. But so good and so great is the proved usefulness of such a publication as this to the work of the whole Church that I feel constrained to ask those who oppose it to make a careful study of the present issue and do me the kindness to set down in a letter, addressed to me, the real difficulty they have. If it is possible for me to do so I will dispose of it, though one might well conclude that the Directory is its own justification. It is a real gratification to learn from their own communications that so many have been radically converted from opposing my work to stout defenders of it. I cannot but feel that it will be the case with all in a short time.

The brilliant and persevering Crockford has now done a service of more than forty years in England and the colonies though at first with that publication as with this, some considerable travail had to be undergone in order to establish satisfactorily the ground of appeal for co-operation and support. To this magnificent piece of enterprise and to its kindly editor I wish to express at this point my obligation for help received in preparing this issue of Lloyd. The whole Church has a right, I think, to all the information she can have about those to whom she has given commission and because of which the clergy enjoy the dignity and influence (other than personal) they indubitably possess. Here is, in brief, the radical reason for our being.

It has been a source of more or less regret to the editor to receive requests from some to suppress certain dates and certain appointments. Conditions have been laid down in this relation which one will ever keep sacred. But it must be remembered that the interests of the Church are never well-served by suppression of weakness or failure. Let frankness and honesty prevail and in the long run things will right themselves. Righteousness and justice have a tremendously potent way of declaring themselves in spite of anything and anybody or everybody and everything. The uniform highmindedness and devotion of the clergy of the Protestant Episcopal Church (not to mention, character) is something to be thankful for and proud of. It is impossible (and this will be a sufficient reply to some of my correspondents, I trust) to secure, in justice to all, the real purpose of such a publication as this is, without fullness and accuracy. Should this seem to work hardly for anyone we must only regret the fact and go steadily on in fulfillment of our aim.

One writes to demand that his name be "cut out" on the plea that he has been denied access to certain positions he sought because of "your publication." Another declares that "unless you put me in exactly as I have written my record, though I send you an order for the book, when it is presented I shall refuse to take it." In former issues this good man (and he is a good, worthy fellow) had a complete account of himself. The same applies to the present.

It is impossible to present all diocesan statistics for 1909 in this issue because of the late date of some conventions. While, however, they are as full and complete as possible, some will be found to be for 1908. Due directions have been supplied so that whatever is set down is indicated or explained.

For suggestions and practical help afforded me by so many of the clergy, for their innumerable letters of encouragement and for the good wishes of all I am profoundly thankful. I have to ask that corrections for whatever may be incorrect in this present issue of the Directory be sent as soon as they are observed so that due regard may be paid to them in the next volume. For errors, I crave forbearance and pardon.

—THE EDITOR.

"The Tissot Series of Church Lessons"

Printed on the back of handsome color cards reproducing the subjects and original colors of the famous

Tissot Bible Pictures

There has long been a crying demand for properly colored cards—not cheap chromos—containing Church lessons for little children. By special arrangement with the owners of the Tissot pictures, The Young Churchman Co. is, for the first time, able to publish editions of these Bible pictures containing on the back appropriate lessons for the little children written by Emma Anderson Tew, author of Church Teachings for the Little Ones. These are sold in series but little in advance of the cost of the picture alone. There are two quarter-year series and one half-year series as follows:

Series of 13 Lessons on Old Testament Stories. Price 20 cents per set.

Series of 13 Lessons on Sayings of Christ. Price 20 cents per set.

Series of 26 Lessons on the Life of Christ. Price 35 cents per set.

Prices net in any quantity.

The lesson becomes a much prized souvenir, and is taught pictorially as well as by question and answer. Try it in the Sunday School Primary Classes.

The Young Churchman Picture Series

Reproductions of Wood Cuts on heavy enameled paper, 8x6 inches. Subjects not duplicated in any other series. List on application. Price, one cent each in any quantity. Orders must be for ten or more cards.

THIRD

VINDICATION OF

BY

REV. ARTHUR

Two Volumes. 8vo. Cloth. Copious

This work had the unique honour paid to it of being commended to the Universal the Rt. Rev. Dr. Seymour, Bishop of Springfield,

Mr. Gorham has the privilege of presenting the following few extracts Anglican Communion, commending this great work :

From the Archbishop and Primate of Australia.

"The writer has adopted an exhaustive method in his treatment of the subject, and the book is a valuable repertory of all that is pertinent in argument and information about the question. I may find myself differing now and then from particular assertions of opinion but admire and appreciate Dr. Lowndes' successful presentation of the whole argument, in his remarkable 'vindication.'"

From the Bishop of Aberdeen and Orkney.

"You have conferred a very great boon on the whole Church. The Work is of inestimable value to the whole Church throughout the World."

From the Rt. Rev. F. D. HUNTINGTON, D. D., Bishop of Central New York.

"Making and filling a permanent place, in the highest literature, for a defence of the Faith to which scholars, authorities, and generations to come must look with grateful satisfaction and for instruction."

From the Rt. Rev. and Hon. AUGUSTUS LEGGE, D. D., Bishop of Lichfield.

"A work of permanent value and setting forth fully and clearly the principles of Scriptural and Primitive Authority and National Church Government."

From the Rt. Rev. MANDELL CREIGHTON, D. D., Bishop of London.

"Dr. Lowndes' Vindication of Anglican Orders is a work of great importance, and is a monument of careful research.

"The whole Church is under a debt of gratitude to the author."

From the Bishop of Los Angeles.

"The books form a marvelous compendium of information. I feel that Dr. Lowndes has conferred a great boon upon the Anglican Communion."

From the Bishop of Pittsburg.

"As an American, one can only render thanks to God that so much learning and skill has been manifested by priests on this side of the water in the production of an argument which will surely command the attention and elicit the commendation of Churchmen the world over."

From the Bishop of Rochester.

"It was a happy thought on the part of American Churchmen to draw us all together in the matter, and certainly we of the older Church gratefully welcome such a reinforcement from the younger."

From the Bishop of Southern Florida.

"I have been able to enjoy the great pleasure of reading and indeed of going over for the second time the admirable work of the Rev. Dr. Lowndes 'Vindication of Anglican Orders.' I have thoroughly enjoyed it. I regard it as a monumental work, if not an epoch-making Book, at the very least an epoch-marking production."

From the Bishop of Truro.

"I am grateful for the large learning and reverent mind which Dr. Lowndes has inspired into his work."

From the Bishop of Bangor.

"A clear presentation of the Anglican position in regard to Holy Orders. It will take its place as a standard book in showing the hollowness of Roman claims and pretensions, and the rightful claim of our Church to be considered a branch of the Catholic Church of Christ."

Episcopate in an Encyclical signed by the Rt. Rev. Dr. Littlejohn, Bishop of Long Island, and the Rt. Rev. Dr. Coleman, Bishop of Delaware.

from the many letters received from the most distinguished [scholars] in the

From Bishop MITCHINSON, Master of Pembroke.

"I took the opportunity of my month's residence at Gloucester this Christmas to study Dr. Lowndes' Vindication of Anglican Orders and am much impressed by its thoroughness, its lucidity, its excellent arrangement, and its general completeness. It will unless I am deceived in my judgment, be a work of permanent value to the Church, and may fairly be expected to take its place as a standard work in Anglican Apologetics."

From the Bishop of Goulburn.

"The method adopted of examining the Papal Bull, sentence by sentence, gives the work its particular form, and no doubt, the end which the author had in view is by this means most successfully carried out—that end being the complete exposure of the historical misstatements and the theological fallacies of that pretentious document.

"The whole Anglican Communion, therefore, has reason to thank God for the accumulated learning and marked ability which has so ably vindicated the historical and spiritual validity of its Sacred Orders; and I earnestly pray that the work as a whole may be widely studied, and may serve more and more, as time goes on, for the confirmation of faith, the settlement of doubts, and the conviction of gainsayers."

From the Bishop of Newcastle, New South Wales.

"The Work is well worthy of its character as a 'Vindication.' Its historical and liturgical matter gives a solid basis and cannot be shaken. The tone is scholarly and calm, and the whole work will stand as standard literature on the subject it discusses."

From the Rt. Rev. Bishop NICOLAI, Chief the Russian Ecclesiastical Mission in Japan.

"After perusing the work, I found it the best on the subject among the others, and fully appreciate the weight of all arguments in it against the pretensions of the Roman Church."

From the Bishop of Gibraltar.

"It will be recognized as the standard authority on the subject with which it deals."

From the Bishop of Marquette.

"I know of no work which contains an equally rich treasure of information on the whole subject of Holy Orders, as Dr. Lowndes' masterly 'Vindication of Anglican Orders.'"

From the Bishop of Derry and Raphoe.

"Learned, comprehensive, and reasonable. A treasury of information."

From the Bishop of Ohio.

"Its spirit is firm but temperate, in view of the aggravations that at times must excite the defender of his Orders. Its scholarship is of course unquestioned. Its conclusions are so plain and so definite and so admirably put, that, 'the wayfaring man, though a fool, need not err' in grasping them."

From the Bishop of Wellington.

"Of very great value, and the greater because it is written independently and confirms in a remarkable degree the conclusions at which other writers have arrived, besides presenting new facts of great importance."
