Bibliography

Archival Sources

General Services Administration. Saint Elizabeths Hospital Database. Compiled by Zimmerman Associates, Inc., 2005. The database consists of well over 700 scanned images, both photographs and drawings, gathered from various repositories. These include the National Archives, the American Institute of Architects (where the majority of materials originating with the hospital are housed), and the St. Elizabeths Hospital Health Sciences Library. The database is the most complete single resource of visual images of the hospital. The database also includes scanned documents. The most useful of these are listed individually below.

Library of Congress. Washington, D.C. Geography & Maps Reading Room.

--- Manuscripts Division, Records of the Olmsted Associates. Series B, Job Files.

National Archives and Records Administration, Cartographic and Architectural Drawings Division, College Park, Maryland. Record Group 23, Records of the U.S. Coast and Geodetic Survey.

--- Record Group 418, Records of St. Elizabeths Hospital.

National Archives and Records Administration. Textual Documents Division. Washington, D.C. Record Group 418, Records of St. Elizabeths Hospital. Entry 20, Records of the Superintendent, Annual Reports of the Subordinate Units, 1919-66.

Olmsted Archives. Job no. 2825, Government Hospital for the Insane. Frederick Law Olmsted National Historic Site, Brookline, Massachusetts.
