Executive Director, Gator Boosters, Inc.

DEAR GATOR BOOSTERS,

We want to thank you for your loyal support that has provided our student-athletes and coaches the opportunity to compete for championships, both on and off the fields. The support you give our program has given us another year's worth of wins, championships and honors. Those accolades are awarded for the work of our teams both in the classroom and in athletic competition and wouldn't have been possible without your generosity.

The past year gave us the first full year in the Otis Hawkins Center for Academic and Personal Excellence at Farrior Hall and witnessed the opening of the fantastic Exactech Arena at the Stephen C. O'Connell Center. These two projects are vitally important to both our student-athletes and our fans, and will continue to be essential to our program for years to come.

2016-17 has been another year of tremendous accomplishments for our student-athletes and coaches. I hope you take great pride in your role in what our student athletes achieve.

Any academic and athletic success our program experiences is made possible through the gifts of over 13,000 Gator Booster members who make up the Team Behind the Teams.

You support us with your time and resources, and I hope you'll take some time to read about all the accomplishments of the past year.

- Third in Learfield Sports Directors' Cup standings. Florida is the only program among the nation's top 10 in each of the last 34 national all-sports standings.

- In all, 13 Gator teams turned in top-10 national finishes—a total one away from program's record set in 2009-10.
- Five Gators named national athlete of the year for their sport.

- Seven Gators claimed 13 NCAA Individual titles in 2017.
- Swept GateHouse Media Southeastern Conference All-Sports trophies. Six Gator teams claimed conference titles in 2016-17.
- Conference athlete of the year honors claimed by eight Gators.
- Five named conference coach of the year and two are national coach of the year selections.
- Seven Gators named Academic All-Americans.
- Southeastern Conference Academic or First-Year Academic Honor Roll accolades claimed 273 times by Gator student-athletes in 2016-17.

Thank you for supporting the University of Florida athletics program and helping to solidify its place among the nation's elite. Together we will encourage and empower UF student-athletes to achieve their highest potential.

Go Gators and we look forward to seeing you in Gainesville for another exciting year in Gator athletics!

NATIONAL ALL-SPORTS RANKINGS

Three NCAA team titles to close the collegiate season lifted the University of Florida athletics program to third in the 2016-17 Learfield Sports Directors' Cup standings. It marks Florida's ninth consecutive season among the nation's top five athletics programs.

In the span of just over a month, three Gator teams celebrated NCAA Championship wins. The three NCAA titles equaled the program's single season high set during the 2011-12 campaign.

- The Gator men's track & field team successfully defended its NCAA Outdoor title, scoring points in six of the final 11 events to move past NCAA Indoor champion Texas A&M for the team win. The Gator men's track & field program has collected seven NCAA titles (three indoor and four outdoor) since 2010, leading all Division I programs by two titles during that span.
- The Gator baseball team won its first NCAA title after sweeping LSU in the College World Series Final. Florida is now one of six schools (California, UCLA, Michigan, Ohio State and Stanford) to win a national championship in baseball, basketball and football—and is the only one to win all three within the last 50 years. UF won football titles in 1996, 2006 and 2008 and back-to-back basketball titles in 2006 and 2007.
- Women's tennis moved its program-leading total of NCAA team titles to seven—the second-most in the nation for the sport—after its 4-1 win over defending NCAA champion Stanford on May 23. Florida is the first preseason No. 1 team to win the NCAA title since the 2012 Gators.

The junior won the third long jump NCAA indoor title for the program and was runner-up in the triple jump.

2016-17 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

1. KeAndre Bates took both the NCAA indoor and outdoor long jump titles. At the NCAA Outdoor Championships, Bates also took the triple jump crown, marking the 11th sweep of the horizontal jumps in Division I outdoor history.

2. Grant Holloway became the first freshman in Division I history to win both the indoor 60-meter hurdles and outdoor 110 hurdles NCAA titles. He is the third freshman to win the 110 hurdles title since 1976, the first year it ceased being the 120-yard hurdles.

3. Caeleb Dressel won his third straight 50-yard free, second consecutive 100-yard free and added the 100-yard butterfly at the 2017 NCAA Swimming Championships. His 100 free time of 40.00 set American, NCAA and U.S. Open records and he topped 2016 Olympic 100-meter fly gold medalist Joseph Schooling of Texas to take the NCAA 100 fly crown.

4. Junior Mark Szaraneck shared the NCAA 200-yard individual medley title. His time of 1:40.67 is a career-best and captured the program's first 200 IM title since 2014.

5. The time of 22.02 by senior Kyra Jefferson broke the 28-year-old collegiate record and won the first outdoor 200 meters national title in UF history. That win also marked the 300th national individual title for the Florida Athletics program. (The first national title for Florida Athletics was the 135-pound weight class boxing title by John Joca in 1940.)

6. On the championship day of the NCAA Track & Field Championships, Eric Futch became the eighth man in Division I history to defend his 400-meters hurdles title. His personal best time of 48.32 made him the No. 10-ranked 400 hurdler in collegiate history.

7. Junior Alex McMurtry took the NCAA all-around title and shared the uneven bars crown. A Gator has taken the all-around title in five of the last six NCAA Championships and her winning total of 39.8125 set a NCAA semifinal record.

ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA HONORS

Seven University of Florida student-athletes earned College Sports Information Directors Association (CoSIDA) Academic All-America honors in 2016-17—Kelly Barnhill (softball), Canyon Barry (men's basketball), Savannah Jordan (soccer), Josie Kuhlman (at-large/tennis), Kayli Kvistad (softball), Alex McMurtry (at-large/gymnastics) and Betsy Middleton (soccer). It is the program's second-highest total, just two away from the nine Academic All-Americans in the 1995-96 season.

Barry joins Matt Bonner as Gators earning Academic All-American of the Year honors for men's basketball. Barry is one of four Gators (Kuhlman, McMurtry and Middleton) on CoSIDA Academic All-America teams this season with 4.0 cumulative grade-point averages.

Juniors Kuhlman and McMurtry both received the NCAA Elite 90 Award, given to the student-athlete with the top grade-point average at each of the 90 NCAA Championship sites. They are the first Gators to receive the award since it began in the 2009-10 season.

BRIGHT GATORS

The combined grade-point average for all Gator student-athletes was 3.02 for fall 2016 and 3.04 for spring 2017.

83% Graduation Success Rate for UF, as reported last fall in the 2016 NCAA Graduation Rate Data.

2 2017 NCAA Elite 90 Honors claimed by Gators—Alex McMurtry (gymnastics) and Josie Kuhlman (tennis). The award goes to the student-athlete with the top grade-point average at each of the 90 NCAA Championship sites and both Gator honorees own 4.0 GPAs. They are the first Gators to receive the honor, which began in 2009-10.

22% Of the 89 Gators receiving diplomas since summer of 2016 graduated cum laude (or better).

4 Gator teams—men's basketball, women's golf and men's & women's tennis—recognized by NCAA for outstanding 2017 NCAA Academic Progress Report (APR) scores released in May. All Gator teams are in good academic standing in the latest APR.

273 Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll accolades earned by the Gators in 2016-17-205 on the SEC Academic Honor Rolls and 68 on the SEC First-Year Honor Roll. Florida is the only program to place 100 or more student-athletes on the Academic Honor Roll in each of the last 20 years.

FLORIDA SWEEPS SEC ALL-SPORTS STANDINGS

Another sweep! The University of Florida athletics program took all three titles—men’s, women’s and overall—in the 2016–17 GateHouse Media SEC All-Sports Trophy race.

Florida’s sweep is the 16th for the program and its second consecutive. UF is the only school to take all three titles in a single season.

The overall SEC All-Sports title is the 27th for Florida, while the Gator program also earned its 23rd women’s and 20th men’s titles.

- The Gators won their first SEC All-Sports Trophy in 1987–88. Florida has claimed 27 of the last 30 SEC All-Sports trophies, including 25 of the last 26.
- Florida’s 234 all-time league team titles is the most in the SEC. In the last 10 seasons, UF leads the conference with 58 titles.

FLORIDA’S 2016–17 SEC TITLES:

Five Florida teams won league titles:

- Baseball
- Men’s Swimming & Diving
- Women’s Golf

Kevin O'Sullivan has led the Gators to the College World Series six times in the past eight years. Florida is just the second school to make six appearances in an eight-year span since the tournament expanded in 1999 (North Carolina, 2006-13). With its sweep of LSU in the 2017 CWS Final, Florida became the 14th Gator program to win an NCAA Championship crown.

1. After opening the season as a midweek starter, sophomore Michael Byrne transitioned to the bullpen and proceeded to set a school record for saves in a season. He earned All-Southeastern Conference and All-America honors after finishing the year with 19 saves and a 1.67 earned run average.

2. For the third year in a row, JJ Schwarz powered the Gators offense with a team-high 56 RBIs. He led the squad with 12 home runs and now has 37 home runs and 189 RBIs in his career, both ranking among Florida's top-10 career totals.

3. Shortstop Dalton Guthrie continued to flash the leather in his junior season. He was named to the Southeastern Conference All-Defense Team for the second year in a row. The Philadelphia Phillies selected Guthrie in the sixth round of the 2017 MLB Draft.

AUSTIN POWERS

Alex Faedo (left) worked his way into the Gators' weekend rotation as a freshman and became the Florida ace as a junior. He ended his career with a 28-6 record, the best win percentage (.824) in school history among pitchers with at least 20 decisions.

GATOR MOMENT Freshman Austin Langworthy had not pitched in nearly two months. Facing elimination in the 2017 NCAA Gainesville Regional, head coach Kevin O'Sullivan asked the left-hander to take the mound, hoping to get a few outs out of the Williston native, as Florida tried to scrape together enough pitching to advance to the Super Regionals.

Langworthy delivered all that O'Sullivan could have asked for, and then some. He did not allow a hit through the first 15 batters he faced and pitched four innings with just one run allowed to keep the Gators in the game.

Meanwhile, Langworthy also provided the heroics at the plate. After showing some power early in the season, he suffered a broken hamate bone that sidelined him for a month.

Locked in a 0-0 game, Langworthy stepped to the plate in the top of the sixth inning with a pair of runners on base and launched a towering home run into the trees in right field to put Florida on top 3-0.

The home run proved to be enough in the end, as the Gators beat Bethune-Cookman 6-1 to advance to the Super Regionals.

The Gators returned to the Elite Eight for the fifth time in seven years, and the team's 14 Southeastern Conference wins matched the second-most in school history. Florida peaked at No. 12 in national polls and received a No. 4 seed in the NCAA Tournament despite playing just 10 home games. Mike White has fast-tracked the Gators' return to the spotlight, as only three other SEC coaches in history have matched his 48 wins through two seasons on the job.

ONE TEAM ONE MOMENT

Kasey Hill (above) capped his Florida career helping return the Gators to national prominence and earning a spot on All-Southeastern Conference and SEC All-Defensive Teams. Hill became the sixth player in league history to record 1,000 points, 500 assists and 175 steals.

GATOR MOMENT The Gators were down and, it seemed, most likely out. An improbable Wisconsin buzzer-beater forced overtime in the Sweet Sixteen at Madison Square Garden.

With 4.0 seconds showing on the overtime clock, the Badgers hit a pair of free throws to take a two-point lead. The Gators needed a miracle of their own.

Two Wisconsin defenders blanketed Kasey Hill, so trigger man Canyon Barry hit Chris Chiozza on the move.

"Basketball 101 says you have one dribble per second on the clock, but I always tell Kasey and Chris they're fast enough to get an extra dribble in," head coach Mike White later said.

And sure enough: one, two, three, four, five dribbles, jump stop, floater just beyond the arc. Swish. Pandemonium.

The sport's biggest stage. The world's most famous arena. No Gator fan will ever forget Chiozza's shot.

1. KeVaughn Allen earned first-team All-Southeastern Conference honors, leading the Gators with 14.0 points per game as a sophomore. His eight games with 20-plus points included a 35-point explosion versus Wisconsin that marked the most points ever by a Gator in an NCAA Tournament game.

2. Canyon Barry brought his trademark underhand free throws to the Gators and was named Southeastern Conference Sixth Man of the Year and CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year. On the court, he averaged 11.4 points per game. In the classroom, he posted a 4.0 GPA as a nuclear engineering graduate student.

3. On Dec. 21, 2016, the Gators opened Exactech Arena at the Stephen C. O'Connell Center following a $64.5 million renovation. Florida took to its pristine new home floor quickly, beating Little Rock, 94-71, while pouring in 16 3-pointers.

1. Delicia Washington was voted by the league's coaches as the 2017 Southeastern Conference Co-Freshman of the Year. It marked the first time in program history a Gator was honored as the conference's top rookie. Washington averaged 11.1 points per game, the third-highest on the squad.
2. Junior Dyandria Anderson dished out 4.9 assists per game in 2016-17, the second-highest average among all Southeastern Conference players. Before assuming the lead point guard role in 2016-17, Anderson handed out 47 assists during her sophomore season for an average of 1.6 per game.
3. After playing a program-record 12 consecutive road games to start the 2016-17 season, the Gators ushered in a new era. On December 28, Florida played host to Southeastern Louisiana at the $64.5 million renovated Exactech Arena at the Stephen C. O'Connell Center, where the Gators produced a 102-51 victory.

Senior Ronni Williams (left) averaged 19.2 points per game and became the first Gator to lead the Southeastern Conference in scoring. She collected All-SEC first team honors by the coaches and media and became a second-round selection in the 2017 WNBA Draft.

WHAT A PERFORMANCE 43 POINTS & 14 BOARDS!

GATOR MOMENT The Gators were on the road again, this time traveling to Nashville where they faced Vanderbilt, in what was to be their 16th game away from Gainesville.

The Commodores boasted the Southeastern Conference's top 3-point shooting attack, an area Florida struggled to defend.

3

But with Ronni Williams having a senior year to dream about, the Gators always had a chance.

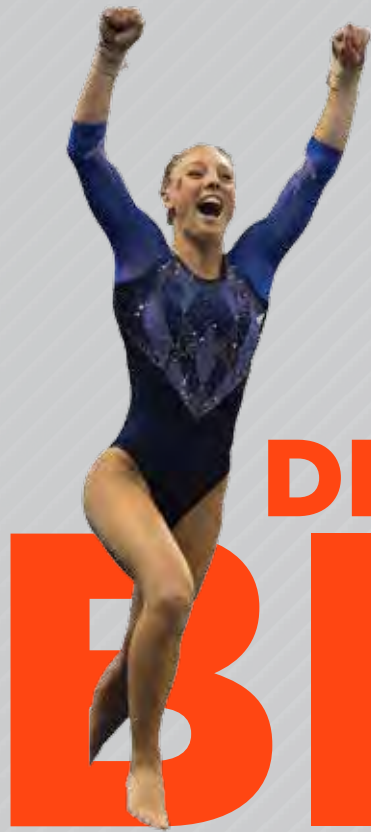

She scored a modest 10 points in the first half, and Florida led 36-28 at halftime.

The second half was when Williams moved into the record book, scoring 33 points en route to 43 total in the game—the third-most in program history and just the third Gator to net 40 or more in a game. Her 43 points led all SEC players for the 2016-17 season.

Williams also pulled down 14 rebounds for her sixth double-double of the year, becoming the first SEC women's basketball player to drop 40-plus points and 10-plus rebounds in a game since 2003.

Oh, and Florida did pull out the 93-73 victory, despite 11 threes by the Commodores.

Florida was one of two schools with gymnasts to score 10.0 marks in three or more events in 2017. Kennedy Baker and Alex McMurtry earned 10.0 floor exercise marks as juniors. McMurtry also earned 10.0s for vault and uneven bars.

2017 Honda Award winner Alex McMurtry's (above) three collegiate all-around wins all came in 2017 championship action—Southeastern Conference, NCAA Regional and NCAA Championships. She was the 2017 SEC Gymnast and Scholar of the Year—the second gymnast in league history to claim both honors in a single season. Florida's first NCAA Elite 90 Award in any sport went to McMurtry.

GATOR MOMENT NCAA All-Around Champion. The achievement, frankly, wasn't in Alex McMurtry's plans as she sat with the Gator coaching staff for a 2017 preseason goal-setting meeting. A nagging back injury limited her all-around contributions to five times in the 28 meets of her first two collegiate seasons.

But the Gator coaches saw potential in her.

Coach Jenny Rowland had a simple, but direct message for McMurtry. "Dream big" was the mantra Rowland planted that day.

Those two words guided McMurtry all season.

When the collegiate all-around victories started for McMurtry, they all came in championship succession—Southeastern, NCAA Regional and, finally, the NCAA Championship. Her total of 39.8125 is the highest ever by a NCAA all-around champion in the meet's 36-year history.

"I'm thankful that the coaches sat me down and told me that it was in my potential so I could reach for it," McMurtry said.

3. Rachel Slocum celebrated her vault at the Southeastern Conference Championships, which shared second at 9.95. She twice turned in a collegiate-best vault mark of 9.975. Slocum led Florida with seven vault wins in 2017.

Since Jim McElwain arrived at Florida prior to the 2015 season, only Alabama (28) has more total wins than UF's 19 in the Southeastern Conference. In addition, McElwain's 13 conference wins rank second to Alabama (15) since the start of 2015. Overall, the Gators are 19-8 under McElwain, which ties Steve Spurrier for the second-most wins by a UF head coach through his first two seasons. He is the only coach in league history to reach the SEC Championship in each of his first two seasons.

THE NEXT STEP

GATOR MOMENT Gators head coach Jim McElwain and six of his players watched the first half of the UF men's basketball game against Vanderbilt on January 21. Late in the first half, players Antonio Callaway, Marcell Harris, Johnny Townsend, Martez Ivey, Jordan Scarlett and Duke Dawson were introduced at midcourt, followed by McElwain.

After receiving a loud ovation for leading the Gators to back-to-back Southeastern Conference Eastern Division titles, McElwain fired up the sellout crowd at Exactech Arena with a bold statement likely aimed at those recruits in the building as much as the crowd.

"And it's because of these guys," said McElwain, pointing toward the six players on the court, "that when we get back to Atlanta this next season, we're going to kick the door down."

The Gators claimed five team titles—the most tournament wins for the team since the 2010-11 season. It was only the eighth time in program history the Gator golf team won five or more tournament titles in the program's 80-year history.

Tallying two victories during the season (Tavistock Collegiate, Southeastern Conference Championship), junior Alejandro Tosti (above) led the team in stroke average (70.56) and was a first-team selection for both Golfweek All-America and All-SEC honors.

GATOR MOMENT

Heading into the final round of the Schenkel Invitational, the Gators stood third, eight strokes behind tournament host Georgia Southern and top-ranked Vanderbilt.

The Gator coaches had a simple plan for the final round. Play for each other.

Would the Gators embrace this challenge? The answer was a resounding yes. When the round started on that brisk Sunday morning, the attitude and enthusiasm exuding from the Gators was visible.

The Gators did all they could to put golf's individual nature aside and show their support and encouragement for each other.

That eight-stroke deficit dissipated like a morning fog. With three holes remaining, the Gators moved into a tie for the lead. The Gators joined the other teams to watch the finishing hole. When Sam Horsfield's birdie putt dropped, they rushed to celebrate the team victory together.

The team enjoyed winning for each other and for the University of Florida. The 342-mile drive from Statesboro, Ga., back to Gainesville passed quickly, as the team shared stories and anecdotes from the win they earned together as a team.

1. After a stellar freshman season, Sam Horsfield followed up with an excellent sophomore campaign. Horsfield defended his title at the Mason Rudolph Championship and led the team in birdies (124) and top-25 finishes (8). A Golfweek and PING All-America honorable mention selection, Horsfield also appeared on the All-Southeastern Conference second-team.

2. Andy Zhang played a major role for the Gators in his first season. The freshman racked up six top-25 finishes in nine appearances. He earned a spot on the Southeastern Conference All-Freshman team.

3. Sophomore Gordon Neale was a key contributor to the team, leading the team in its first victory of the season at the Windon Memorial Classic. Neale was an All-Southeastern Conference second-team selection.

3. The Gators captured the SunTrust Gator Invitational title for the second straight season and the 20th time in the tournament's 45-year history. I DIDN'T WANT IT TO BE CLOSE

GATOR MOMENT It was a feeling the Gators didn't want to revisit.

The Gators were in position to win the 2016 Southeastern Conference Tournament as they shared the lead with top-ranked Alabama after the second round. But the Tide pulled away on the final day to take the title.

Fast-forward to the 2017 SEC Tournament. Four of Florida's five-member lineup were part of last year's group. And this team wanted to write a new ending.

The Gators owned a five-stroke lead after the second round. Five strokes wasn't an unsurmountable lead, and the Gators knew it. To take away any theatrics, the Gators put the final-day focus solely on them.

As senior Kelly Grassel said after her seven-under final round of 65, "I didn't want it to be close."

The drama came in the form of how low the Gators' record-setting SEC team score could be. The 22-under par of 842 gave Florida its ninth SEC Tournament title and first since 2008.

It also gave the Gators the ending they began planning a year earlier.

Since 2006, Florida is the winningest NCAA Division I program with a record of 623-113 (.846). During that span, Florida has appeared in 12 NCAA Regionals, 10 Super Regionals and eight Women's College World Series.

A PROMISE KEPT OKC BOUND

Amanda Lorenz (above) opened her sophomore campaign by reaching base safely in the first 42 games, surpassing the season record set by Gator standout Kelsey Stewart of 41 games. When adding in an 18-game streak that dated back to the end of the 2016 season, Lorenz's streak pushed out to 60 games. For the 2017 season, she reached base safely in all but two games.

GATOR MOMENT

This will never happen again.

Head coach Tim Walton received those very words in the form of a text message from then freshman Amanda Lorenz at the Gainesville's intersection of 43rd Street and 23rd Avenue.

Walton, who remembered the exact location, was on his way home in the late hours after rival Georgia eliminated Florida from the 2016 Super Regional on a walk-off home run.

Lorenz and the Gators fulfilled that promise this past season and sent the program to its eighth Women's College World Series after it took the Super Regional series over Southeastern Conference foe Alabama, 2-1, at Katie Seashole Pressly Stadium.

In her second career NCAA Super Regional action, Lorenz led by example at the plate, hitting .625 in the series and was responsible for three of the four Florida runs scored.

After clinching the WCWS berth, Lorenz found Walton during the team's celebration on the field and gave him a hug, followed by two words:

"Told ya."

1. Kelly Barnhill racked up postseason awards after her stellar sophomore campaign. She was Florida's first to claim an ESPY for Best Female Collegiate Athlete. The nation's top player of the year honors went to Barnhill—Honda Award, USA Softball and espnW. She also collected the Southeastern Conference Pitcher of the Year award and was a CoSIDA Academic All-America first-team selection.

2. Delanie Gourley concluded her career with the Gators in resounding fashion. She became the just the fourth Florida pitcher to ever hurl a perfect game. The 8-0 victory over Iowa at the Judi Garman Classic March 2 was also just the sixth perfect game in program history. Gourley orchestrated the fourth no-hitter of her career against Florida A&M in the opening round of the Gainesville Regional and finished her career with 11 total one-hit performances.

3. Florida captured its league-leading seventh Southeastern Conference title—and the sixth under head coach Tim Walton—after going 20-3 in league play. The Gators secured the title after a 6-1 victory at Tennessee the final weekend of conference action.

Florida is one of two NCAA Division I programs to place a pair on both National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) All-America and NSCAA Scholar All-America teams. Savannah Jordan appeared on the NSCAA All-America second-team and Meggie Dougherty Howard earned third-team honors. Both were on NSCAA Scholar All-America first team.

THAT'S USING YOUR HEAD

GATOR MOMENT Time in the Southeastern Conference Tournament Championship's first overtime was dissolving.

The cross from Meggie Dougherty Howard went to the far post, where senior Brooke Sharp was presented with an opportunity. An opportunity for a first.

She had scored 17 goals as a Gator, but her 18th was her first off a header.

That goal gave Florida a 2-1 win over Arkansas for its second consecutive and 12th overall SEC Tournament title.

"In my sophomore year, I wasn't too good at heading. [UF Assistant Coach] Alan Kirkup would say 'If you score with your head, I can retire,' and he still says that in practice," Sharp shared after the match. "So this is a big deal for me to score the winning goal with a header."

NOTE: The goal did not result in a Florida staff vacancy. Coach Kirkup will be back teaching Gators to use their heads again in 2017.

GATOR MOMENT As much success as Florida had enjoyed over the years at the Southeastern Conference Championships, one thing eluding the Gators was a sweep of the five relays.

That changed in February when Maxime Rooney, Mark Szaraneck, Caeleb Dressel and Jan Switkowski locked up a first-place, school-record time (2:47:09) in the meet-closing 400-yard freestyle relay to top runner-up Alabama by nearly 2.5 seconds.

It was a Florida program first—the Gators swept the SEC Championships' five relay titles (200 and 400 medley relays; 200, 400 and 800 free relays) in a single year. The five wins generated 320 points, a quarter of Florida's winning total of 1,271.50.

FLORIDA THEIR ALMA MATER

GATOR MOMENT Singing the Florida alma mater after a meet is a UF tradition in place since the 1990s. Since the Gators were unable to access their indoor pool until Senior Day in January due to the Stephen C. O'Connell Center renovation, the first time they would sing the alma mater at home in the 2016-17 season would also be the last.

"The alma mater is a really big thing—it's just something that brings us all together at the end of a meet," said senior Alyssa Yambor-Maul. "It's really special. I got really emotional knowing at the last meet it was my last time."

Three Gators collected Southeastern Conference honors in 2017. Alfredo Perez and Elliott Orkin both were All-SEC first-team selections. Johannes Ingildsen appeared on the SEC All-Freshman team.

Perez and Ingildsen also collected doubles All-America accolades. In addition, Perez was one of eight in the nation to earn All-America recognition in singles and doubles.

COMPETING UNTIL THE LAST BALL IS STRUCK

In their first season as a doubles team, Johannes Ingildsen and Alfredo Perez (above) had a breakout year, earning a 22-10 record in 2016-17. The team went 14-6 at the No. 1 position with a 7-3 conference record and clinched a team-high nine doubles points for UF in dual play. In the fall, the duo went 8-1 to claim the Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) Southeast Regional title and the National Indoor Intercollegiate Championship consolation title.

GATOR MOMENT Florida was starting to see its win streak come to an end, as it lost the doubles point for the first time in 2017 against the Southern California Trojans—a team UF last defeated in 2003.

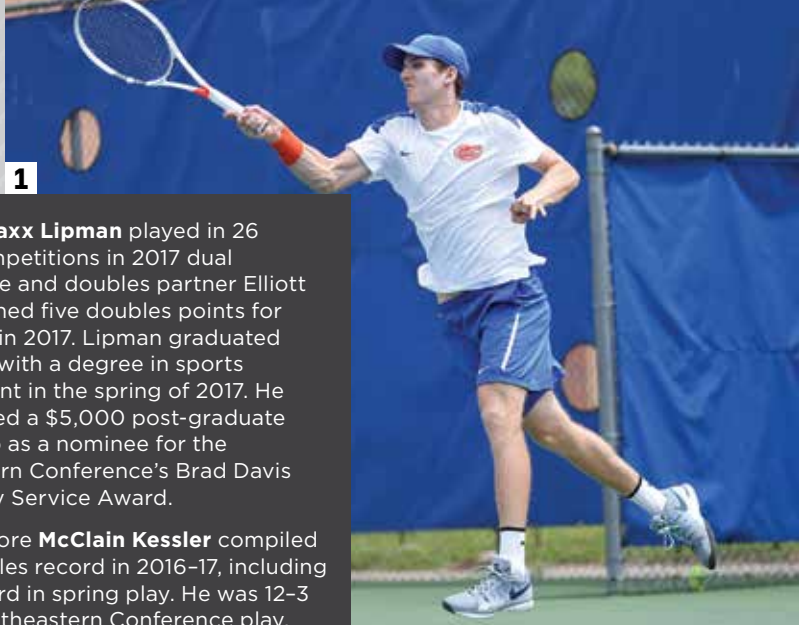

Heading into singles play down 1-0, Florida found its momentum to win three singles matches for a 3-1 lead. The Trojans retaliated and tied it up 3-3.

The crowd rallied behind McClain Kessler, cheering him on as he found his groove on Court 4. Kessler pulled out a huge win to give the Gators its third-ever win over USC and first upset victory of the season.

“We really set the tone and sent the message early that you’re not going to roll through us,” said Head Coach Bryan Shelton. “We’re resilient and we’re tough, and we’re going to continue to compete until the last ball is struck.”

Senior captain Kourtney Keegan, (left) who also served as president of the 2016-17 Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, compiled a combined 214 singles and doubles wins in her career, the 11th-most in program history.

GATOR MOMENT The heart and soul of the 2017 Gator squad was team captain Kourtney Keegan, whose leadership was never more on display than during her senior season.

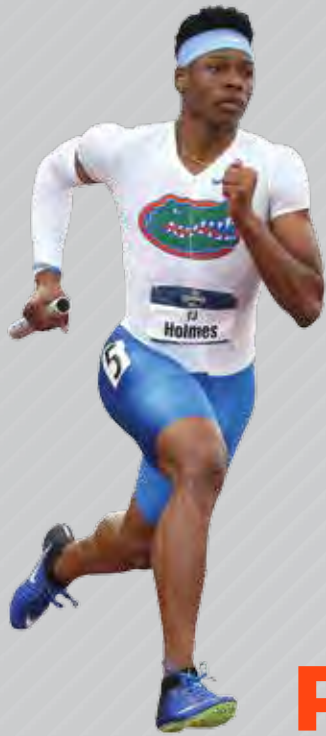

That included playing ‘down’ in the lineup—the No. 6 singles spot to be exact—after earning a place in the middle the last two years.

It didn’t matter to her that younger players shined in the spots ahead of her.

After three years of NCAA heartbreak, Keegan and the Gators battled their way into the NCAA Finals for the first time since 2012.

Florida beat defending NCAA champion Stanford—the team that ended Florida’s 2016 NCAA run—to win the 2017 national championship.

“Our goal from the beginning of the year was to not only get to the finish line, but to cross the finish line,” Keegan shared. “I think we for sure did that. There is no greater feeling than doing it with all of your best friends.”

Behind four individual champions and some unexpected career-best performances, the Gators won their second consecutive NCAA Outdoor Championships team title, giving them four outdoor national titles in the last six seasons. PRIDE PASSION FAMILY

TJ Holmes (above) was the 400 hurdles national runner-up a year ago. He slipped to sixth this year, but Holmes had no time to dwell on his personal disappointment. The Gators needed him to run on the 4x400 relay. "I just remember, after the 400 hurdles... he looked me in the eye and goes, 'Coach, I got you,'" Coach Holloway said. "That's what this senior class is about."

GATOR MOMENT Of all the national championship teams Mike Holloway's coached, the 2017 Gators have a special place in his heart.

Best team he ever coached? Probably not. Where they rank among the title-winning teams before them has nothing to do with why Holloway will cherish these Gators forever.

No, it was their inexorable fight, the selflessness with which they picked each other up if things didn't go their way, and the fierce passion they unleashed with every Gator chomp and primal scream toward the boundless forests blanketing the distant Historic Hayward Field horizon.

"Anyone who had a Gator uniform on was a highlight," Holloway said. "We didn't have one guy that laid down and didn't do their best. There wasn't one person or one performance. We're a team, we're a family, and we got this done as a team and as a family."

1

1. Florida called on senior Nick Uruburu for the opening leg of the championship 4x400 relay race. Uruburu was a key cog in Florida's 4x400 teams in 2015, even leading off the SEC title-winning quartet. Injuries and rattled confidence left him as an alternate until the final two meets of his career. His effort in Eugene, Ore., helped Florida to a team title-clinching fourth-place finish. "I've always told Coach Holloway I'm ready for anything whenever he calls me," Uruburu said.

2. Senior half-miler Andres Arroyo, who didn't even qualify for NCAA Outdoors a year ago, picked off a runner on the homestretch to place fifth, his highest finish at a national meet.

3. Jhonny Victor suffered a gruesome leg injury in his first outdoor meet last season. He missed a whole year of action, only returning this March. Victor was the lowest seed in the 24-man field at NCAA Championships, but he cleared a personal best and tied for seventh. "For him to come back and just fight how he did, that's amazing," fifth-year senior Eric Futch said.

3

Florida posted its fourth top-five finish in its last eight NCAA Championship meets at the 2017 outdoor nationals. The Gators were one point short of nabbing their first podium finish since the 2015 NCAA Indoor Championships. Individually, Florida collected two Southeastern Conference titles and four top-five finishes at the NCAA Outdoor Championships.

1

2. Lloydricia Cameron put together a breakout junior campaign, winning the SEC outdoor shot put title and finishing seventh at both the NCAA Indoor and Outdoor Championships.

3. Had she not faced the collegiate and American record holder, triple jumper Yanis David would have won an indoor national title and swept the indoor and outdoor SEC titles. Instead, David took runner-up finishes all three times, still a remarkable achievement for a sophomore. David also finished third in the triple jump at NCAA Outdoors.

RUNNING THE CURVE TO A RECORD

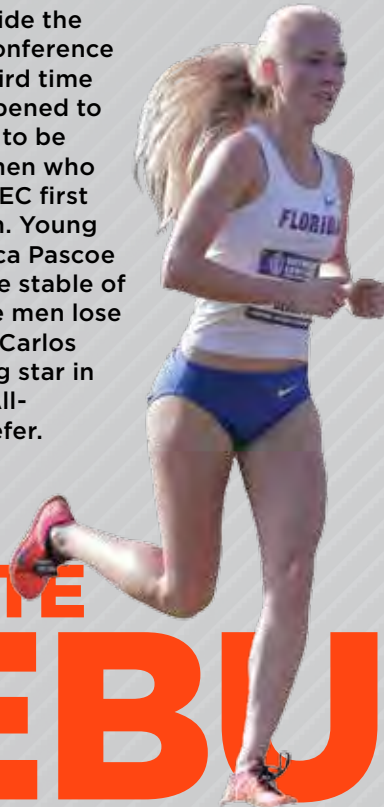

GATOR MOMENT Just once, Kyra Jefferson wanted to show the world what she could do when she actually ran the curve. The result? She broke the 28-year-old outdoor 200 meters collegiate record. "My whole career I've been half running the race and not going to my full potential," she said. "Before the race, Coach Holloway just told me I need to go out there, have heart, dig, and give him everything I got. That's just what I did in order to win.

"It took everything to win. I was trying not to cry too hard. It was just a shock," continued Jefferson, who battled nagging hamstring issues much of her career. "I've had a lot of setbacks. Finally getting what I wanted and being an outdoor national champion means so much. Didn't even know I broke the collegiate record."

Kyra Jefferson's (above) collegiate record-breaking run, the Gators' first outdoor 200 meters national title in school history and second Southeastern Conference outdoor 200 title in three years, was impressive enough to make her a semifinalist for The Bowerman, collegiate track and field's highest individual honor.

This year marked just the third time since 2005 the women finished outside the top five at the Southeastern Conference Championship, and only the third time since 1997 the same thing happened to the men. Brighter days appear to be coming, especially for the women who will be led by sophomore All-SEC first team selection Elisabeth Bergh. Young and talented newcomers Jessica Pascoe and Noora Wallenius add to the stable of Gators returning next year. The men lose two-time All-Region selection Carlos Miranda, but bring back a rising star in Jack Guyton, along with SEC All-Freshman honoree Colin Schaefer.

LONG-AWAITED COLLEGIATE DEBUT

Despite missing the start of the season due to injury, Elisabeth Bergh (above) starred for the Gators. The Norwegian sophomore finished sixth overall at the Southeastern Conference Championship to earn a spot on the All-SEC first team. She followed it up with a top-10 finish at the NCAA South Region Championship to earn a USTFCCA All-Region accolade.

GATOR MOMENT Lauren Perry's first cross country race as a Gator was three years in the making. After battling bilateral compartment syndrome and rheumatoid arthritis, the long-awaited debut was a moment her teammates will remember forever.

Perry missed her freshman cross country and indoor track season recovering from surgery to alleviate bilateral compartment syndrome. She debuted at the 2015 Southeastern Conference Outdoor Championships, finishing 11th in the 5,000 meters.

Before her sophomore season, Perry was diagnosed with rheumatoid arthritis, forcing her to redshirt in both cross country and track for the 2015-16 season. But on Sept. 2, 2016, Perry started her first cross country race for Florida, finishing ninth. At the Mountain Dew Invitational in Gainesville, 22 days later, Perry took sixth.

"I hope people who know me and see what I've gone through will use it as motivation," Perry said. "There's a light at the end of the tunnel."

2. Fifth-year senior Mac Reynolds turned in one of the best performances of his career at the Southeastern Conference Championships. He was the first Gator to cross the finish line in Fayetteville, Ark., finishing 19th overall, just missing an All-SEC laurel.

3. Taylor Tubbs just missed earning an All-Region honor, but the day before her race at the Southeastern Conference Championship, she secured her future. Tubbs, who earned both her bachelor's and master's degrees in international business in four years, was hired by Deloitte's Washington, D.C., branch as a federal business analyst in strategy and operations.

1. Alex Holston was Florida's lone senior in 2016, but the 2014 Southeastern Conference Player of the Year will be sorely missed come next season. Holston led the Gators in kills per set the last three seasons, and she departs as one of six Gators in history to be named to one of the AVCA's three All-America teams on three occasions.

2. Rhamat Alhassan was a monster in the middle for the Gators once again. She ranked in the top 15 nationally in both hitting percentage and blocks per set for a second consecutive season, making her one of only two players in the country since 2010 to accomplish the feat.

3. Due to the Stephen C. O'Connell Center renovations, Florida played its home schedule in the Lemerand Athletic Center, the team's practice gym. Florida volleyball became one of the toughest tickets to find in Gainesville and the Gators embraced the setup of what affectionately became known as "The Lemdome."

Florida won a share of its 22nd Southeastern Conference title—which is tied for the 10th-most in conference history in any sport, regardless of gender. The Gators' 22 titles are also the fourth-most by any SEC team, regardless of sport or gender, since 1979, the first season the conference crowned a volleyball champion.

ALL-AMERICAN PERFORMANCE FOR SEC TITLE

GATOR MOMENT With a feisty Arkansas squad hoping to spoil Florida's Southeastern Conference title aspirations in the final match of the season, Alex Holston (pictured, center), the Gators' lone senior, carried her teammates to victory with a performance for the ages.

Holston amassed 24 kills in the three-set sweep, tying the highest three-set kill total by a Gator in the last 21 years.

Mary Wise went on to say: "From afar, it will look like a 3-0 win, but anybody who saw it knows it was much closer than that. A senior-laden Arkansas team played very well. Fortunately, we got an All-American performance from Alex Holston to pull out this one."

Allie Monserez (above) led the nation in assists per set (12.36), becoming just the second player in Southeastern Conference history to do so. Monserez's assists per set number was a school record for the 25-point scoring era, and it helped the Gators lead the nation in hitting percentage (.338) for a second consecutive year.

The Gators set a program record with seven players appearing on the watch list for lacrosse's highest honor in 2017, the Tewaaraton Award: Taylor Bresnahan, Sammi Burgess, Caroline Fitzgerald, Haley Hicklen, Shayna Pirreca, Lindsey Ronbeck and Mollie Stevens. Burgess, Fitzgerald and Stevens would finish the season as Tewaaraton Award Top-25 Nominees.

SIZE IS JUST A NUMBER

GATOR MOMENT Freshman Madisyn Kittell stands at just four feet, seven inches tall. Put into perspective, that is almost a full foot below the team average of five feet, five inches.

However, that did not stop Kittell from having a career day against Marquette in early April. The shifty attacker poured in three goals, three assists, and a draw control for good measure in a 21-7 BIG EAST win over the Golden Eagles.

"We played great as a team today," said Kittell. "The ball found me when I was open, and I just tried to keep it moving when I wasn't."

Head Coach Amanda O'Leary put it best after the game; "A great day for Florida Lacrosse."

Kittell would finish the season eighth on the team with 16 points.

1. Goalkeeper Haley Hicklen recorded 142 saves in 2017, the second-highest total in program history. The sophomore had a career-high 13 saves in a home win over No. 3 Southern California.

2. Junior Shayna Pirreca (#7) and freshman Brianna Harris (#20) celebrate during introductions before facing No. 5 Syracuse. The Gators would take down the Orange, 19-12.

3. Mollie Stevens (middle, #17) is mobbed by teammates after scoring a career-high seven goals versus No. 7 Stony Brook.

4. Caroline Fitzgerald leaves Florida as the all-time leader in caused turnovers, with 87 in her career. The senior defender also started in 82 games, the second-most in program history.

STEPHEN C. O'CONNELL CENTER RENOVATION EXACTECH ARENA

The O'Connell Center underwent a $64.5 million renovation that added a new concourse, concession stands and shopping locations, new video boards and premium seating. The project broke ground in April of 2016 and was completed in December of 2016.

"Our facilities have an incredible impact on the experience of our student-athletes, staff and fans and we are committed to make sure those experiences are the best that they can be."

-Scott Stricklin, Athletic Director

INDOOR PRACTICE FACILITY

In 2015, Florida added a fully air-conditioned practice facility that features a 120-yard synthetic turf football field with camera platforms, video work room, equipment storage and restrooms. The project broke ground in February 2015 and was completed in August 2015.

FOR MORE INFORMATION ON HOW YOU CAN SUPPORT THESE PROJECTS, please contact Gator Boosters, Inc. by phone at (352) 375-4683 x5000. Facility gifts are eligible for three (3) priority points for every $100 contributed through December 31, 2018. These points can be applied to your football or basketball membership.

OTIS HAWKINS CENTER FOR ACADEMIC AND PERSONAL EXCELLENCE AT FARRIOR HALL

This $25 million dollar project added 40,000 sq. ft. of learning and development space to the central academic facility for our student-athletes. Expansion/renovation began in March 2015 and was completed in December 2016. Naming opportunities are available in this state-of-the-art facility that is used by all 500 Gator student-athletes.

FOOTBALL FACILITY & DINING HALL STAND-ALONE COMPLEX

The complex is a new football facility featuring a players' lounge, nutrition station, strength and conditioning area, training area, locker room, meeting rooms and coaches' offices. A new Gator Dining venue for all student-athletes will be built adjacent to the new complex. Current plans are to break ground for this project in December 2017, with a completion date targeted for the opening of fall football camp in 2019.

BASEBALL FACILITY RENOVATIONS

Conceptual renderings for the renovation of Alfred A. McKethan Stadium, home of the 2017 National Champion Gators Baseball Team, feature shade structuring, five new rows of premium seating directly behind home plate, new club seating, expanded press box, a new second-level concourse, plus refurbished and improved player amenities. The renovations are projected to begin in June 2018 and are scheduled to be completed prior to the 2019 baseball season.

SOFTBALL FACILITY RENOVATION

A renovation of the softball complex at Katie Seashole Pressly Stadium. Existing bleachers behind home plate will be replaced with chairback seating, with additional bleachers extended down each foul line to accommodate 750-1,000 more seats; expanded press box, concession and restroom areas; upgraded coaches and players' facilities, as well as some shade structure. The renovation is projected to break ground in June of 2018 and be completed before the 2019 season.

GATOR TALES

Bob and his wife, Catherine, have been Boosters since 1979 and have enjoyed every minute of those 38 years of Gator athletics. They have experienced every SEC football venue and several SEC basketball arenas. Bob and Catherine have observed 19 (of 21) Gator teams in competition and have never missed a post-season football game. They have traveled to Hawaii and Europe to watch Gator basketball and have not missed a tournament game since Kruger was Coach! They attended the first Gator softball, soccer and lacrosse matches. The Snyders hold season tickets for football, basketball, baseball and softball. They have followed Gator baseball to the College World Series several times and traveled to Oklahoma City to support our softball team pursue championships. Through the years it has been a family affair to attend sporting events as their two children have also enjoyed going to Gator events and the tailgating at football games, both home and away.

In the Gator off-season, Catherine enjoys gardening and reading while Bob enjoys golf and volunteers at the Mark Bostick Golf Course.

Bob & Catherine Snyder, Gainesville, Florida

ATHLETIC EDUCATION FUND

It is through a robust scholarship endowment that our Gator coaches are able to recruit the best student-athletes in the country. We are committed to underwriting the maximum number of scholarships allowed by the NCAA in every varsity sport. Each and every scholarship endowment provides critical resources to fulfill that promise and get us a step closer to being the best athletics program in the country. Thanks to many generous donors, we are on our way to fully endow the Athletics Education Fund.

Together, the following donors share the dream of academic and athletic excellence. Each of these Gators have contributed a minimum of $50,000 to establish an endowment.

For more information about how you can participate in the Athletic Education Fund, please call Gator Boosters (352) 375-4683 x5000.

Tim Tebow is arguably the greatest college football player of all time: a Heisman Trophy winner, a key factor in winning three SEC Championships and two National Championships. He is also a devout Christian and the son of parents, missionaries, Pam and Bob Tebow, also Gators, who have spent most of their lives serving in the Philippines. Further, Tim is following in their footsteps with his own philanthropic and ministerial efforts which include Uncle Dick's Orphanage in the Philippines, prison ministries, and numerous programs for children with diseases around the world. GATOR TALES

In November 1977, Mike Ricketts stepped onto the University of Florida's campus for the first time and knew that he was home. Originally recruited by Steve Spurrier as a fullback, Mike began his career as a Gator in August of 1978 and, over the course of the next four years, he was developed into a linebacker position. Although Mike hung up his football jersey in the early 1980's, his commitment and passion for the Gator Nation continues on. His experiences with Gator athletics were major catalysts to fine tune his work ethic, strong will and determination—characteristics that would stay with him and lead him to become a successful businessman and entrepreneur later in life. Today, Mike is an active member of the Black Alumni Association, as well as a board member of The Florida Players Network, Inc. (FPN), which provides support to UF Football alumni players and their families who are financially distressed. The FPN also provides assistance to nonprofit organizations and other foundations in the Gainesville community. A firm believer in empowering future generations, Mike has channeled his passion for leadership beyond the football field and the boardroom, making it his mission to mentor current and former UF players towards achieving their goals, especially in the areas of financial literacy and the creation of generational wealth. It's great to be a Florida Gator!

GATOR TALES

My life as a Gator began around 1945. I attended the big game in Jacksonville, even though I had to hitch a ride from Orange Heights. I was unable to attend many games after that but I do remember Haywood Sullivan, a Gator Great in football and baseball.

After meeting Lucille, and convincing her that marrying me would be a good thing, we spent our early years together starting a big family and following work to Jacksonville and Cocoa. We finally made it back to Gainesville in 1968. No more house painting or drywall work as now I was a Bar-B-Que cook.

Since that time, Lucille has become more of a Gator sports fan than me. I was always a football, basketball, and baseball fan, but she takes interest in softball, volleyball, and gymnastics as well. Earlier I mentioned a "big family." We had five daughters and one son, all of which became Gator fans, too. The Bar-B-Que business allowed us to become very dedicated Gator fans and, over the past 50 years, we have been fortunate enough to attend all of the football title games as well as all the Final Four Basketball games.

One of my most vivid memories of Gator Football was during the first game we attended after moving back. It was the Reaves-to-Alvarez pass on the third play of the 1969 season opener against Houston. "79 streak" for a touchdown, that was the beginning of the "super sophs" and the last season for Ray Graves, the original Bull Gator. He will forever be remembered by loyal Gator fans.

The University of Florida, its students, and faculty have played a big part in the success of Sonny's BBQ while at the same time providing my family with many fond memories. We still enjoy following the Gators but have curtailed most of the traveling.

From our first game in the O'Dome, through many years in the same seats, the new and beautifully remodeled Exactech Arena allows us to continue to enjoy Gator basketball. Our new seats have a different feel to them—still great seats, but I just miss some of the old gang that we used to sit with. We have had some great times with Gator sports and look forward to many more as the future looks bright for Gator athletics.

From Sonny, Lucille, and all my daughters, GO GATORS!

GATOR TALES

Celebrating twenty-five seasons together! Doug and Stephanie (Layton) Davidson met in 1992 while attending a business marketing class together in Anderson Hall and have never been apart for a Gator game since then. From their earliest days together, while squeezing into his fraternity's block seats in The Swamp, or traveling to watch the Gators play in memorable games such as the 1996 and 2008 National Championship games as well as many bowl games and SEC Championship games, Doug and Stephanie love to support the Gators. They also display this love by wearing Orange & Blue in their travels while skiing, hiking or traveling abroad. This passion has lead to Doug's role as a member of the Board of Directors for both Gator Boosters and the University Athletic Association. Now, in celebration of their twenty-fifth season together, Doug and Stephanie officially became Bull Gators with spacious seats in Touchdown Terrace, and they have answered the Bull Gator Challenge to support the future of our athletic program.

GATOR TALES

Richard "Bubba" and Joanna Morrow moved to Gainesville from Clearwater Beach after their first retirement in 2009. Prior to that, their involvement in Gator athletics was limited to football and basketball. Since 2009 they have become immersed in all Gator athletics. They say the benefit of living in Gainesville is being able to witness some of the best student-athletes in the country compete in all the sports. Bubba and Joanna can be seen at most sporting events on campus. They are season ticket holders for all sports that offer such. In addition to being members of Gator Boosters, they are members of "Gator Attack Club" volleyball's booster club, the "Backcourt Club" for women's basketball, and the men's Golf Boosters. They also are Life Members of UFAA affiliated with the Florida Keys Gator Club. They feel the advantage of being a member of the individual team booster clubs is the personal interaction with the student-athletes. You get to know them personally and you get insight to how hard they train, the sacrifices they make, their commitment to their sport and the University of Florida. Bubba and Joanna have traveled to every SEC stadium to watch the Gators play, including the inaugural games at Missouri and Texas A&M. They have not missed a SEC Championship game in Atlanta that their beloved Gators played in and have witnessed the National Championship games against Ohio State, Oklahoma and the beat down of FSU at the Sugar Bowl in New Orleans. In addition, they have followed the Men's Golf team to Sea Island, Ga. for the SEC Championship Tournament the past several years. One of their major Gator highlights was being invited to New York to witness Tim Tebow receive his Heisman Trophy award. It is an honor to be a member of the Gator Nation.
