DAWLEY MAGNA is a town and parish on the road from Wellington to Bridgnorth, with a station at Horsehay in this parish on the Wellington and Severn Junction branch of the Great Western railway, 4 miles south-east from Wellington, about 2½ north-west from Madeley and 5 south-west from Shifnal: it is in the Wrekin division of the county, in Wellington division of South Bradford hundred, Madeley county court district, petty sessional division of Wellington, rural deanery of Shifnal, archdeaconry of Salop and diocese of Lichfield. The town is lighted with gas from works in Chapel street, built in 1857, and belonging to the Dawley Gas Co. Limited. In 1909 an arrangement was made with the Madeley and Broseley Water Co. of Harrington, for the supply of water at a cost of about £15,000; the pumping station is at Little Dawley; the engines are of the Producer type and force the water to the two reservoirs at Lawley Bank for distribution to the district. The parish was formed into a Local Government District in 1876, but under the Local Government Act, 1894 (56 and 57 Vict. c. 73), an Urban District Council was established. The church of the Holy Trinity, erected in 1845, is a building of sandstone in the Gothic style, consisting of chancel, nave, baptistery and an embattled western tower containing 6 bells: there is a font of Norman date: on the east wall is a tablet in memory of the men of the parish who fell in the Great War, 1914-18. The register dates from the year 1666. The living was declared a vicarage Dec. 11, 1866, net yearly value £350, including 2 acres of glebe, with residence, in the gift of the Bishop of Lichfield, and held since 1936 by the Rev. Edgar Stanley Banfield, of Lincoln Theological College. There is a Mission church in Hinkshay; a Baptist chapel, erected in 1846, seating 550 persons; also two Methodist chapels. The Town Hall, a commodious building, is the property of the Urban District Council. The Market Hall, erected in 1867 and also the property of the Urban Council, is an oblong structure of red brick, with an ornamental frontage and vaults underneath, and is surmounted by a turret containing one bell and a clock, presented in 1867 by the late Lt.-Col. William Kenyon-Slaney. A piece of ground of about 2 acres in extent was given by the late Rt. Hon. Col. William Slaney Kenyon-Slaney M.P. and H. C. Simpson esq. to be used as a public park, and was opened in 1901. In the High street is a monument, erected in 1910, in memory of Capt. Webb, born in this parish in the year 1848, who lost his life in an attempt to swim the Niagara rapids in 1883. A charity of £7, derived from land, was left in 1684 by Richard Hodden, gentleman, of Ludlow, and a third of this is distributed to the poor of this parish on St. Thomas' Day. Lewis' charity of £200 was left in 1887, and the interest is given to the poor annually in blankets: Greenhalgh's charity of £1 yearly, left in 1892, is also for the poor. The Coalbrookdale Co. Ltd. are the principal landowners. The soil is various. The minerals are ironstone and coal. The chief crops are wheat, oats and barley. The area is 3,259 acres of land and inland water; the population in 1931 was 7,669 in the civil parish and Urban District and of the ecclesiastical parish, 2,815.

By the Salop Review Order, 1934, parts of the parishes of Priorslee, Stirchley and Wellington Rural were added to the parish and Urban District.

DAWLEY PARVA is an ecclesiastical parish formed Oct. 24, 1845, from the parish of Great Dawley, and includes Little Dawley, Doseley, Horsehay, Lightmoor, Stoneyhill, The Potteries and Burrough's Bank, in the Wrekin division of the county, South Bradford hundred, Madeley county court district, petty sessional division of Wellington, rural deanery of Shifnal, archdeaconry of Salop and diocese of Lichfield. Dawley Parva is 1 mile from Horsehay station on the Wellington, Shifnal and Craven Arms section of the Great Western railway, 5 west from Shifnal, 4 from Wellington and 3 from Madeley. The church of St. Luke (locally at Doseley, and erected in 1845) is an edifice of brick in the Norman style, consisting of apsidal chancel, nave, south porch and a stone turret at the south end containing one bell: there are 508 sittings. The lych gate was erected by the parishioners in memory of the men of the parish who fell in the Great War, 1914-18, and was dedicated by the Bishop of Lichfield in January, 1920. The registers date from the year 1846. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £378, including 1½ acres of glebe, with residence, in the gift of the Crown and Bishop of Lichfield alternately, and held since 1929 by the Rev. Harry Gordon Davies B.A. of St. David's College, Lampeter. The vicarage house was considerably enlarged in 1899. Attached to the church is a Sunday school, erected in 1912. At Horsehay are extensive iron works belonging to the Horsehay Co. Limited. The minerals are coal and ironstone. The trustees of the Earl of Craven (who is a minor) are lords of the manor and principal landowners; part of the property has been divided into sections and sold. The chief crops are wheat, oats and barley. The soil is various; the subsoil is clay. The population in 1931 was 1,474.

MAESBROOK UPPER & LOWER, see Kinnerley.

MAESBURY, see Oswestry.

MAINSTONE is a wide and thinly-populated parish and township, partly in Salop and partly in Montgomeryshire, comprising the hamlets of Castlewright, Edenhope, Knuck and Reilth, in the Ludlow division of the county, hundreds of Clun and Purslow, Clun rural district, Clun and Purslow petty sessional division, Craven Arms county court district, rural deanery of Stokesay, archdeaconry of Ludlow and diocese of Hereford. Mainstone is south-west from the road from Bishop's Castle to Clun, 4½ miles west-by-south from Bishop's Castle railway station. From Bishop's Moat (an ancient earthwork) a commanding view of the country for many miles round is obtained. Offa's Dyke intersects the parish. The church of St. John the Baptist, built at an unknown date prior to the Reformation, and rebuilt in the year 1887, is situated in a narrow valley at the foot of Clun Forest; it is an edifice of stone, consisting of chancel, nave, south porch and a western turret containing 2 bells. The east stained window was erected in memory of Richard Sankey esq. d. 1871, and his brother John, d. 1890, by Susan Sankey, of Bishop's Castle, and there is also a window in memory of her son, d. 1903. The register dates from the year 1604. The living is a rectory, annexed in 1935 to the vicarage of Bishop's Castle, joint net yearly value £501, including 5 acres of glebe, in the gift of the Lord Chancellor, and held since 1935 by the Rev. Harold John Smith M.A. of Sidney Sussex College, Cambridge, hon. canon. of Manchester, rural dean of Stokesay and surrogate, who resides at Bishop's Castle. The charities, of £5 yearly value, are distributed on Easter Monday. Here is a Methodist chapel, erected in 1802. Sydney Rankin Heap esq. J.P. Montagu William Lowry-Corry esq. (who owns most of Edenhope), Sydney Wilson esq. T. M. Wilding esq. and Mrs. A. M. Harris, are the chief landowners. The soil is chiefly loam; the subsoil is stone and gravel. The chief crops are wheat, oats and barley. The area of the entire parish is 4,993 acres; the population in 1931 was 155 in the civil and of the ecclesiastical parish, 250.

Edenhope, 1 mile north, Knuck, adjoining Mainstone on the south, and Reilth, half a mile south-east, are hamlets.

Castlewright is a hamlet 2 miles north, in the parish of Mainstone, but in the county of Montgomery.

MALINSLEE, or Dawley Nova, is a township, and was formed into an ecclesiastical parish July 28, 1843, from the parish of Dawley Magna, which township it adjoins; it has a station on the Coalport branch of the London, Midland and Scottish railway, and is 3 miles north from Madeley, 4 west from Shifnal, and 4 south-east from Wellington, in the Wrekin division of the county, South Bradford hundred, petty sessional division of Wellington, Madeley county court district, rural deanery of Shifnal, archdeaconry of Salop and diocese of Lichfield. The church of St. Leonard, erected in 1805, is an octagonal building of freestone in the Classic style, consisting of chancel, nave, aisles and an embattled western tower containing 6 bells: four of the windows are stained. The registers date from the year 1835 for burials, 1837 for marriages and 1848 for baptisms. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £391, including about 2½ acres of glebe; with residence, in the gift of the vicar of Dawley Magna, and held since 1936 by the Rev. Thomas Norman Crowther-Green, of London College of Divinity. There are two Methodist chapels. Here are the remains of an ancient chapel, supposed to have been connected with the Cluniac monastery of St. Milburga, at Much Wenlock; it is a plain rectangular building of the 12th century, of which the walls and a portion of the east window still remain. The charities are of about £13 yearly value. The ownership of the land is divided. The soil is loamy; subsoil, gravelly. The minerals are coal and ironstone. Population in 1931, 2,965.

MARKET DRAYTON

MARKET DRAYTON is a parish and market town and head of a county court district, situated on a hill near the Tern stream and the Shropshire Union canal, with a station on the Great Western Railway Company's main line from London to Manchester, 173 miles by rail and 154 by road from London, 19 north-east from Shrewsbury, 16 north from Wellington and 14 north-west from Newcastle-under-Lyme; the London, Midland and Scottish Railway Company's branch line from Stoke-upon-Trent, Newcastle-under-Lyme and Silverdale also forms a junction at the station, which is conveniently situated a short distance from the town on the Cheshire side; for civil parochial purposes it was divided into four districts, viz. Market Drayton, Little Drayton, the hamlets of Sutton, Betton, Woodseaves, and Longslow, and the township of Tyrley, which latter place is in the county of Stafford. By Local Government Board Order dated 24th March, 1914, Drayton Magna and Drayton Parva were constituted an Urban District, governed by a council of fifteen members. By the same Order Betton was transferred for civil purposes to Norton-in-Hales, Longslow to Moreton Say, and Sutton and Woodseaves were formed into a new civil parish named Sutton-upon-Tern. The old manorial customs still obtain, the fairs being proclaimed by the steward of the manor, during which a court of piepoudre is held, to determine all disputes that may arise during the time of the fairs; the market was originally granted by King Henry the Third. The parish comprises the hamlets of Drayton Magna, Drayton Parva, Sutton, Betton, Woodseaves and Longslow, in Shropshire, and the township of Tyrley, in Staffordshire, in the Oswestry division of the county, North or Drayton division of the hundred of Bradford, rural deanery of Hodnet, archdeaconry of Salop and diocese of Lichfield; the town is lighted with gas by a company, formed in 1862, from works at Market Drayton, rebuilt in 1889, and also by electricity, from works in Great Hales street belonging to a company formed in 1902; water is supplied from springs at Burnt Wood and Cold Comfort farm, Bloore Heath. The church of St. Mary is a 12th century building of stone in the Gothic style, consisting of chancel, nave, aisles and an embattled western tower, with pinnacles, containing a clock and 8 bells, the 6 old bells having been re-hung and 2 new ones added in 1887; in 1931 the bells were re-cast and a new metal frame added: the west door is a fine example of Norman work: the stained west window, erected in 1901, is a memorial to Queen Victoria: there are other windows to the Corbet and Radford-Norcop families; in 1898 a rood screen was put up: in 1884 the church was completely restored at a cost of between £8,000 and £9,000; it was re-seated in 1901: a reredos and altar were erected in 1912: a War Memorial chapel was opened in 1921: there are 500 sittings. The register dates from the year 1558. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £570, with residence, in the gift of Reginald Corbet esq. who is lay impropriator (the yearly value of the impropriated tithes being £785), and held since 1927 by the Rev. William Benjamin Dowell Lee M.A., B.D., LL.D. of Trinity College, Dublin, who is rural dean of Hodnet and a surrogate. The parish room was erected in 1907. Emmanuel church, in Burgage street, erected in 1882, was a proprietary chapel until February, 1904, when it was consecrated and the living made a full benefice: it is an edifice of red brick, in a modern Gothic style, from designs by Mr. Bower, architect, and consists of chancel, nave, vestry, west porch and a low western turret containing one bell; in 1899 a new vestry was added at the expense of J. Cecil Clay esq.: in 1891 a memorial window was erected to Mr. and Mrs. Embrey, who built the church and left money for its partial endowment: in 1900 new choir stalls were erected, and in 1904 a stone font was presented by the vicar: there are 320 sittings. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £280, with residence, in the gift of the Church Pastoral Aid Society Patronage Board, and held since 1928 by the Rev. William Cole, of St. Aidan's and the Royal University of Ireland. The Roman Catholic church, in Great Hales street, dedicated to SS. Thomas Aquinas and Stephen Harding, was erected in 1886. The Methodist chapel, in Frogmore road, was built in 1867, and the Congregational chapel in 1776; both will seat 300 persons. The cemetery, opened in 1868, occupies 4 acres, 2 of which have been consecrated; two-thirds of the other portion of the ground, with the use of one of the two mortuary chapels, is reserved for Dissenters of all denominations; it is under the control of a burial board of 9 members. The Town Hall, in Cheshire street, built in 1897, will hold 500 persons. There are manufactories of agricultural implements and a foundry in the town. The Fire Brigade Station is at the Town Hall; there is a Morris fire tender and Dennis trailer pump, a portable fire pump and a hose cart. The market for fish and meat is in High street; the general market is held on Wednesday, one for meat on Saturday and another for cheese every third Thursday. A large business is also done here in corn. The cattle market adjoins the railway station, and the sales are held every Wednesday. Fairs are held in the town on September 19th, October 24th and November 24th. The Butter Cross is in Cheshire street. The charities amount to about £247 yearly, which sum is partly distributed in coals, bread and money, and partly appropriated to the apprenticing of poor boys and the clothing of a number of poor men and women. Bloore Heath, a short distance from the town, was the scene during the Wars of the Roses of a sanguinary encounter, September 23, 1459, between the Yorkists and Lancastrians, in which the latter were defeated and their leader, Lord Audley, slain; a cross is erected on the spot where he fell. The chief landowners are Reginald Corbet esq. J.P. who is lord of the manor, John Radford-Norcop esq. J.P. the Earl of Powis (lord-lieut.) and Maj. A. E. C. Wilson. The land is undulating; soil, loam; subsoil, gravel and sandstone. The
