OLD HAVANA

One of the most picturesque sections of Miami is "Old Havana," lovingly carved along Flagler Street and the Tamiari Trail by the city's half million Latin Americans.

Quaint restaurants—many of them with sheltered tables next to the sidewalk—serve espresso in tiny china cups, great mounds of chicken and yellow rice, fat Cuban sandwiches layered with meat and cheese, steaming bowls of black beans and paella, which is made with clams, chicken, shrimp, mussels, ham, peppers and tomatoes over rice. Sangria, made with wines and fresh fruits, is served in frosty pitchers.

At many of the restaurants, waitresses and waiters sing and dance as they serve. Flamboyant Spanish shows are given nightly, just as they were in the finest nightclubs of Old Havana in pre-Castro Cuban days. At two Miami superclubs, Les Violins and Flamenco, Latin extravaganzas are presented by full casts in elaborate costumes.

Los Boceros, a family-owned restaurant on the Trail, also presents exciting shows. Other well-known Spanish restaurants include Vircaya Spanish-Basque, Centro Vasco, the Miamian, Bilbao, El Baturero, El Minerva and La Tasca.

A visit to Old Havana is incomplete without a stop in some of the hideaway little shops which feature hand-crafted works of art—Spanish dolls, exquisite filigree jewelry, elaborate combs inlaid with mother-of-pearl, ceramic figurines and intricately carved guitars.

ORCHID JUNGLE

The world's largest outdoor orchid garden has jungle trails leading through it. Every woman loves an orchid. Old Havana is open 9:30 a.m.-5 p.m. Admission for adults is $1.50; children 10-14 75¢; children under 10 admitted free. 26715 SW 157th Ave., Homestead, 247-4824.

PARROT JUNGLE

Against a background of bougainvillea and scarlet hibiscus, 70 species of tropical birds perform tricks, such as riding bicycles and roller skating. Open daily 9:30 a.m.-5 p.m. Admission for adults is $3; children $1.50. Group rates available. Eleven miles south of downtown Miami on SW 57th Ave., 11000 SW 57th Ave., Miami, 661-3636.

PENNEKAMP CORAL REEF STATE PARK

An undersea park off Key Largo has 75 square miles of living coral formations and hundreds of varieties of tropical fish. Floating, skin diving and underwater photography are encouraged. There are camping grounds and a snack bar. Glass-bottom boat tours cost $5 for two-and-a-half hours; children half price. Admission to park is 25¢ per person. Open daily 8 a.m.-sunset. Sixty miles south of Miami, 1-451-1202.

SERPENTARIUM

Reptiles and snakes gathered from every clime are on exhibit here. Continuous tours daily. Climax of the show is the extraction of venom and scientific feeding of the deadly cobra. Admission for adults is $2.50; children 5-12, $1; children under five admitted free. Open daily 9 a.m.-5:30 p.m. U.S. Hwy 1 and SW 126th St., Miami, 235-5722.

SEAQUARIUM

The Seaquarium, set on sixty acres, houses the famous TV dolphin, Flipper, two two-ton killer whales and hundreds of giant fish in glass tanks. Open daily 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Admission for adults is

$2.75; children $1.25; children under six admitted free. A monorail ride costs 75c. Villa Victoria Key, 361-5703

SPANISH MONASTERY OF ST. BERNARD

The oldest building in the Western Hemisphere, the monastery was originally built in Spain in 1141. William Randolph Hearst bought it and had it disassembled and shipped to the U.S. in straw-filled crates. Two years and several stone masons later, it was reassembled here. Admission for adults is $1.50, children .75c. Open Mon.-Sat. 10 a.m.-4 p.m., Sun. noon-4 p.m. 16711 W. Dixie Hwy., Miami, 945-1462

this week

Phil Donahue arrives in Miami this week to prepare for the telecast of his nationally syndicated show, originating the week of October 29 from Channel 7's studios on the Seventy-Ninth Street Causeway. Several top show business personalities are on hand for the occasion. The telecast is to be shown live for South Florida audiences and shown on a delayed basis in sixty cities elsewhere.

For the eleventh consecutive year Barry Ashton has produced a winning show for the Bal Masque Supper Club of the Americana Hotel, 9701 Collins Avenue. This year's French spectacular, "Femmes Fatales," is in the best tradition of the Follies Bergere and the Lido in Paris, with the emphasis on beautiful girls, lavish costumes, exciting choreography, pulsating music and top international novelty acts. Shows are at 8:45 and 11:45 p.m. every night except Monday when Bal Masque is closed. There are no cover or entertainment charges.

Vocalist Tony Martin, who just entertained a turn-away crowd at the new Carriage House Make-Believe Ballroom, 5401 Collins Avenue, is one of the guests of honor at Casa Santino's birthday party—by invitation only—October 22. The restaurant, which specializes in northern Italian cuisine, is at Biscayne Boulevard and One Hundred and Tenth Street.

A riotously funny body musical, "Tom Jones," is the fall production in Le Cafe of the Carillon Hotel, Sixty-Eighth Street and Collins Avenue. Produced by Stockton Briggle and Stephen Willig of New York, the play has won accolades from entertainment critics. It's a fun show. Dinner service in Le Cafe begins at 7 p.m. and the curtain rises at 9 p.m. Guests are invited to view the play only, if they wish. Luncheon matinees begin at noon Wednesday and Saturday and curtain time is 2 p.m. Le Cafe is closed Monday.

Opening October 23 in Club Gigi of the Hotel Fontainebleau, 4441 Collins Avenue, is a handsome young singer, Bill DeShara. Continental cuisine is served from 7 p.m. and shows begin at 9:30 and 11:15 p.m. Saturday's show is at 11 p.m. only and the Gigi is closed Monday. In the Fontainebleau's Boom Boom Room, Ron Headrick's all-new mini-revue, "Bang Bang Burlesque," is presented three times nightly except Monday. The admission charge is only $3 per person.

The ever-popular Minsky's Burlesque, the longest running show in Miami Beach history, continues to draw enthusiastic crowds to the Playmate Bar of the Playboy Plaza Hotel, 5445 Collins Avenue. The production stars comedian Dick Richards and exotic dancer Saki Tumi. Other lead dancers are Pat Johnson, Wanda Coffman, Claudine Ferraro and Rick Hamilton. Shows are at 10:15 p.m. and midnight Monday through Thursday and at 9:15 p.m., 10:45 p.m. and midnight Friday and Saturday. The Playmate Bar is closed Sunday.

For smooth jazz sounds, Sneaky Pete's in Hallandale and The Harbor Lounge of the Place for Steak, located on the Seventy-Ninth Street Causeway, are the in places. Currently appearing at Sneaky Pete's are the combos of Lenny Perna and George Anaya, The Myrtle Jones trio and the Frank Callen combo alternate at the Harbor Lounge. Both places are open until 5 a.m. and specialize in late late suppers.

An unusual event this week is an occult cruise planned by the Bahama Star of Eastern Steamship Lines. The Star sails from Miami at 4:45 p.m. for Nassau and a three-day weekend cruise.

The special occult program includes the Yogi Ram Singh and his wife and partner, Sita, with early morning Hatha Yoga; Roby Yonge, veteran radio personality lecturing on Atlantis and the Devil's Triangle; Carol Friend, holding midnight seances and giving palmistry readings; lectures on astrology and

Other special events this week include Miami Philharmonic concerts with guest pianist John Browning October 21, 22 and 23 in Gusman Philharmonic Hall; a star-studded ballet program October 20 in Dade County Auditorium; a Mexican dance show, "Folklorico" October 22, also in Dade County Auditorium; a concert by Elton John October 20 in the Hollywood Sportatorium; a rock concert October 26 by Three Dog Night in Miami Stadium; an appearance October 26 by Bette Midler in Miami Beach Auditorium; and a Renaissance Festival October 28 at Vizcaya. "Godspell," the soft rock musical based on the Gospel according to St. Matthew, has been held over through October 28 at the Coconut Grove Playhouse, 3500 Main Highway, Coconut Grove.

The seventh annual Dinner Key Boat Show continues through October 24 at the Dinner Key Auditorium in Coconut Grove. Hundreds of boats are on display, as well as the latest marine equipment.

One of the largest premieres of 1974 cars and recreational vehicles in the United States goes on display October 27 at Miami Beach Convention Hall, 1700 Washington Avenue, for the third annual South Florida Auto Show's "Wonderful World of Wheels." The first five hundred children, accompanied by an adult, on opening day, receive free model car kits.

ROOFTOP DINING

The King's Wharf, high atop the Marriott Hotel, is a restaurant so nautical it is almost shocking to look out the windows and see thousands of the city's night lights instead of the bounding main.

Walls, of weathered gray planks and aged brick, hold polychrome sternboards and views of Florida ports. Rafters of oars are suspended from the ceiling and gleaming brass ships' lamps shed a soft oil-lantern type of glow. Tables, of highly-polished dark oak, are set with thick cork mats and pewter service plates, as well as individual hurricane lights.

The view, from the walls of windows, is spectacular—planes landing and departing with tiny flickering red and green lights from nearby Miami International Airport; curving ribbons of lights on the adjacent expressway; and myriads of twinkling city lights dotted throughout the area.

The entire tenth floor of the Marriott, located at 1201 Northwest LeJeune Road, encompasses the King's Wharf and the Windjammer Lounge. A long, smooth plank hallway joins the two rooms. It is decorated with stacks of barrels, chains, anchors and other shipping and dockside artifacts. Currently entertaining in the Windjammer, shaped like a luxury yacht, is Rose Tydus and her trio. The group, with a soft rock sound and undertones of cool jazz, plays for dancing and listening.

Seafood, steaks and prime ribs of beef are the specialties of the King's Wharf. Among the more unusual dishes, and also the more popular, is Key Largo green turtle steak, served either broiled or parmigiano style. Other special entrees include veal oscar, made with milk-fed veal cutlets, crabmeat, asparagus and Hollandaise sauce; and crabmeat Benedict, prepared with cheese, tomatoes and Hollandaise sauce.

A delicious appetizer is oysters J.W.—oysters and cheese and lemon sauce lightly browned under the broiler. Snapper turtle soup also is a much-requested prelude to dinner. Oranges Seville is a pleasant finishing touch. It is made with orange slices in liqueur served on vanilla ice cream.

Food and Beverage Director Earl Armstrong points out that the Marriott serves only top quality beef. Everything on the menu is a la carte and prices start at $5.15 and range to $8.90 for twin lobsters.

SIMPLY FAMOUS

The subtle touches are there: Meissen china from the family's heirloom collection, near dazzling chandeliers in the banquet rooms, mirrored walls, red-flocked wallpaper. Yet, in the gusto of dining—in dining for the pure pleasure of it—the decor fades pleasantly into shadows.

It is a famous place, the Famous restaurant at 671 Washington Avenue, Miami Beach, as its original owners Morris and Ruth Lerner knew it would be when they opened some twenty-nine years ago.

Predominating in the restaurant, kept famous by its knowledgeable and diligent present owners, Ira Zuckerman and Larry Winkler, is an atmosphere of congeniality and delight. Ruth Lerner still greets guests at the door as she did on the restaurant's opening night.

Consistently good food at moderate prices, hearty portions and traditional old country dishes which recall childhood spent perhaps in Poland, Roumania, or Russia, are the specialties at the Famous. The same chef has run the kitchen for twenty-four years and many others on the staff have been with the Famous as long or nearly as long. All food preparation, including the baking, is done on the premises. A single employee has as her sole function the preparation of kreplach, a job which cannot be relegated to a machine.

The Famous features complete dinners which include choice of appetizer, soup, entree, dessert and beverage. Dinners—which include steaks and seafood, as well as traditional Jewish-European specialties—range in price from $4.95 for cheese blintzes with sour cream to $8.75 for lobster tails or sirloin steak. A special dinner offered because of the popularity of appetizers, includes a choice of four appetizers, stuffed derma, dessert and beverage. Another popular dinner is the "special mixed grill" consisting of lamb chops, Romanian steak, duck, sweetbreads, liver, karnatzlach, potato pancake and stuffed derma. Pickled fish, made of sweet water pickler that has been cooked and jellied; Hickory smoked Long Island duckling, pastrami style, smoked on the premises; sweet and sour boiled beef chunks Famous style en casserole and chicken blintzes, prepared with diced chicken and vegetables that have been encased in a blintz leaf and fried to crispness, are just a few Famous specialties.

Altogether, there are forty-four different dishes and twenty-four different desserts on the menu. The wine list is ample and varied and includes both domestic and imported red and white wines, sparkling wines and champagnes.

A seltzer bottle containing two-cent plain—a traditional Famous touch—is placed on each table. A child's menu is offered and catering for parties of up to 150 can be arranged. The Famous is open from 4 p.m. each day. American Express, Carte Blanche, Diners' Club and Master Charge credit cards are honored. The telephone number for reservations is 531-3987.

NEVER ON MONDAY

Angela Sotiriou, a laughing girl with smoky eyes and long auburn hair, is a serious art student part of the time. The rest of the time the vivacious 19-year-old native of Crete is at Zorba's The Greek, where she is part-owner, hostess, stage technician for the dancing waiters, assistant chef, sometimes waitress and full-time blithe spirit. Her partner in the restaurant is her mother, Maria, a strikingly handsome woman.

Zorba's, located at 2280 Southwest Thirty-Second Avenue, just on the edge of Coral Gables, is a small, unpretentious restaurant. Although it is away from the madding tourist paths, it is well worth seeking out—for its charming simplicity and unusually delicious Greek food.

Copper goat bells, hung inside the front door, signal the arrival of each new guest. Off the main dining room is a tiny alcove, just the right size for a private birthday party. A vine-covered white wrought iron divider creates intimate candlelit nooks. Spirited Greek music is played in the background, and at a signal from Angela, the handsome waiters form a line and perform intricate Greek dances. Small paintings of the Grecian countryside, all done with painstaking detail, hang on the walls.

Dinner may begin with any of a number of unusual appetizers, including spinach pie and cheese pie. Diners may order a variety of appetizers on one platter, for a sampling of several tastes. Although steaks and other American entrees are on the menu, the specialties are all Greek, and are served in super generous proportions.

Moussaka, made with sliced eggplant, delicately spiced meat sauce and baked in layers, is a perennial favorite. Another popular dish is pastitsio, which is similar to moussaka, but is made with layers of pasta. Again, for those who wish to try some of everything, there is a combination platter. Either lamb or beef shishkebabs also are among Zorba specialties. Zorba's takes extra pride in its salad, rich with herbs and feta cheese, and in its baklava, a dessert made with thin layers of pastry dough, honey and nuts. Greek coffee and several Greek wines are added pleasures on the menu.

Prices range from $1.95 to $4.95. The restaurant is open for lunch from 11:30 a.m. until 2:30 p.m. Tuesday through Friday and from 5 p.m. until 11:30 p.m. Tuesday through Friday for dinner. It stays open until midnight on Saturday and Sunday and is closed Monday. American Express and other major credit cards are accepted. The telephone number is 445-2818.

specialty beef Argentinian style is featured. "Parilla" means cooking by grilling, and "parillada," the house specialty, is a combination of sweetbreads, kidneys, pork sausage, black sausage and assorted meats.

Nick and Arthur's restaurant, 1601 Seventy-Ninth Street Causeway, has received the Business Executives National Dining Award. A national selection board of Sales Meetings, Sales Management and Dining magazines made the award selection.

The Miami-Metro Department of Publicity and Tourism sends these statistics: As of August of this year, 18 airlines operate a total of 164 non-stop flights to Miami from 23 Latin American cities. The Latin American country with the most non-stop flights per week to Miami is Panama, with 35.

Jack Eigen, known as "the original late night talk show host," is anchorman each Saturday night from 10:30 p.m. to midnight for a live WGBS radio broadcast. The show originates from the Diplomat Hotel's East poolside lobby.

Thomas Entwistle, a popular lounge waiter at Don Berg's Jamaica Inn and English Pub, recently appeared on Joan McHale's radio show. Originally from Bolton, England, and from a family of innkeepers, Mr. Entwistle was interviewed about celebrities who visit Don Berg's popular lounge.

A full-length film, "The Great Masquerade," is being shot on the Eastern Steamship Lines' Emerald Seas. Gino Conti, cruise director aboard the Emerald Seas, plays a cruise director in the comedy murder mystery. Passengers also are participating in the movie.

BAHAMA STEAK HOUSE

The flavor of the old days when a round-up meant fresh new beef pervades the Bahama Steak House. One long wall is painted with a mural of the cattle roping and the cowboys having supper around the chuck wagon. Huge horns, bulls' heads and fall-size galloping steers are used for wall decorations. The restaurant is located near the airport, Miami Jai-Alai and the 36th Street Expressway, and the specialty is steak. Open daily 11:30 a.m.-1 a.m. 3890 NW 36th St., 634-8001

BAILEY'S CUISINE EXCEPTIONALE

The low, rambling building sits far back from the road in a grove of giant oaks. Like a French country inn, Bailey's has a charming courtyard centered with a stone wishing well. A crystal chandelier, 900 years old, graces the foyer. Chef and owner, John Bailey, is the youngest cordon bleu chef in the country and the fifth member of his family to be awarded the coveted title. A variety of seafood, poultry and charcoal-broiled entrees are available as well as specialties including lombo au Roquefort, a prime sirloin stuffed with Roquefort cheese. Hours are from 9 p.m.-1 a.m. daily. 11495 Biscayne Blvd., 893-5254

BALMORAL

THE PUB. Don't go into this lounge without reading the sign outside the door. The motif is old English tavern, with Scotch plaid curtains. No cover or minimum charge. THE BETSY

Seasonal change fantasized is the theme of this new, intimate restaurant with sky blue, grass green and pure white as predominating colors. A giant white tree hung with miniature lights dramatizes the surroundings which are harmonious with the time of year. Though the menu changes every day, The Betsy's specialty is the same: imaginatively prepared continental beef, poultry and seafood dishes. A game room for relaxing with an after dinner cordial or coffee is part of The Betsy's congenial atmosphere. Open daily from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m., and from 5 p.m. to midnight. Flamingo Residence club, 5875 Collins Ave., Miami Beach, 861-9000

BLACK ANGUS

Children are welcome at Black Angus, where western artifacts—wagon wheels, cattle brands, "wanted dead-or-alive" posters, even a miniature covered wagon—decorate the brightly lighted dining rooms. Grow-ups may order cocktails, and for the youngsters there's the Bronco Cooler. The house specialty is the Black Angus charbroiled sirloin steak dinner for $2.69. It includes a baked potato, salad and garlic toast. A New York sirloin strip steak is $4.89. Open daily 11 a.m.-11 p.m. The five locations are: 17700 Collins Ave., Miami Beach, 945-3651; 985 W. 49th St., Hialeah, 821-6051; 7900 SW 104th St., Miami, 271-5511; 8650 Bird Road, 223-9971; and 18851 S. Dade Hwy., 232-1166

BODEGA

In Spain, a bodega is a cool thick-walled cellar above ground where vineyard owners store their wine, meet to taste each other's wares and eat. In Miami, the Bodega is a restaurant with high wooden ceilings, wide walkways, with rounded arches and big stone and stucco fireplaces. High-backed chairs with rose velvet seats are used in the dining areas, with black leather armchairs in the lounge. The hostesses wear long dresses. Dinner prices range from $3.45-$6.95. House specialties include charbroiled prime rib and lobster, teriyaki steak and sliced sirloin lobster. Hours are Sun.-Thurs. 5-11 p.m.; Fri. and Sat. 5-midnight, 1980 S. Dade Hwy., Miami, 667-2574

CAFE CHAUVERON

Cafe Chauveron has come to Miami from New York City, with its original chef and staff, and has made its new home in a charming setting beside the Intracoastal Waterway. Diners may arrive by boat and dock by the picturesque cocktail terrace. All is detail perfect, from the oil paintings around the walls to the hand-blown wine glasses and white linen service. A la carte entrees start at $5.50 and all dishes are cooked to order. Specialties include canned bigarade flambe, roast duckling in gourmet sauce, les quenelles de brochet, pike dumplings; and les cuisines de grenonilles provencale, specially prepared frog legs. Dinner is served from 5:30 p.m. daily except Mon. and orders are taken until 10:30 p.m. Jackets are required and reservations are suggested. 9561 E. Bay Harbor Dr., Bay Harbor Islands, 866-8779

CARILLON

SUGAR 'N' SPICE. Coffeshop and dining room whose name should go on to say, And Everything Nice. Lemon yellows, oranges and whites are used to create a cheery setting and sunburst draperies canopy the poobide windows. Full-course dinners start at $2.50 for Hungarian cabbage with sweet and sour sauce. A favorite entree is grilled baby calves liver, $2.65. Open daily 8 a.m.-2 a.m. BURGUNDY LOUNGE, LE CAFE. (See Night Life listing.) Collins Ave. and 68th St., Miami Beach, 865-7561

CASA SANTINO

Northern Italian and Roman cuisine is the hallmark of Casa Santino, which also has a large collection of fine vintage wines. The decor in the seven dining rooms is Mediterranean, highlighted by alabaster statuary, gold-flocked wallpaper, crystal chandeliers and gilt. Special dining spots are the cave-like Wine Cellar and La Cantina. The menu includes eggplant parmigiana, veal scaloppini, lobster Santino and twin tournedos barolo. Entrees begin at $3.95. Antipasto and pasta are specialties. The early dinner menu offers a five-course dinner from $4.95. The Piano Bar features entertainment from 8 p.m. Open daily, 5 p.m.-1 a.m. Biscayne Blvd. and 110th St., Miami, 895-1440

CHEZ VENDOME

Anyone who has ever been to Maxim's in Paris will think he is there again when he enters this exact replica of the Parisian restaurant authentic to the last crystal chandelier. A fresh rosebud on each table lends a mood of subdued elegance. Walls are hung with red velvet and dotted with paintings. Each waiter speaks French and English. The menu is Continental, including entrees such as filet de sole cardinal and le perdreau a la vigneronne, which is partridge en casserole with grapes and sauce vigneronne. Open Mon.-Sat. for lunch, noon-3 p.m.; dinner daily 6-11 p.m. 700 Biltmore Way, Coral Gables, 443-4646

CHRISTINE LEE'S GASLIGHT

This so intimate little restaurant, located off the lobby of the Golden Strand, has the enviable reputation of serving the finest Chinese cuisine on Miami Beach. Popular dishes represent the hot and spicy cooking of Szechwan. The Gaslight is decorated in bright cherry reds and ebony. A small cocktail lounge adjoins and features continuous entertainment. Favorite entrees are Chinese steak, cashew chicken in hot sauce and Christine's Special, made with chicken, lobster, shrimp, scallops, pork and duck and vegetables. Open daily, 5-10:30 p.m., lounge open from 5 p.m. Golden Strand Hotel and Villas, 17901 Collins Ave., 945-9075

CRACKED CRAB

One of the few open air raw bars in this area, holding a tempting array of fresh oysters, clams and other cold seafood appetizers, is at the Cracked Crab. Diners also are invited to help themselves to as much salad as they wish from the salad bar, which features homemade salad dressings. Thirty-one different dinners are offered from $2.65 and include salad, baked potato and homemade bread. Seafood including Maryland style crabs, stone crabs and lobster, is broiled, fried or sautéed. Steaks and chicken also are available. Open daily from 11 a.m. until 11 p.m., until midnight on Fri. and Sat. 3622 Coral Way, 448-2861 and 8800 Sunset Dr., 274-5551

CSARDA

The happy mood of a Hungarian festival smiles around the room. Waitresses wear red-ribboned flower headresses and native costumes. Colorful folk art and lively music lend a gypsy air. Quaint tables are set with hand-painted crockery in traditional flower, rooster or King Matyas designs, and vintage Hungarian wines are featured. Csarda is acclaimed as the one and only authentic Hungarian restaurant in Florida. Csarda specializes in Hungarian beef goulash served in hand-made copper pots and a variety of flamed platters. Dinners start at $3.95. Reservations are suggested. Open daily from 5-11 p.m. Closed Mon. 1385 Biscayne Blvd., 940-1095

DE CONTINENTAL

The days of wine and roses can be relived at the De Continental Restaurant, where a golden statue of Diana, Goddess of the Hunt, stands watch over the dining room. The grandeur of bygone days is spelled out with clusters of grapes twined on white wrought iron, a red floral carpet, dusty rose velvet flocked wallpaper, Italian bronze statues and an outdoor patio nestled in lush foliage. The menu lists chicken livers sautéed with mushrooms for $5.25; veal fraicasse at $5.50 and Maine lobster Fra Diavolo for $12.50. Open daily 5:30 p.m. to 10 p.m. 1045 95th St., Bay Harbor Island, 865-8224

DEAUVILLE

RICHIELU ROOM. Madam Pompadour would have loved the elegant French dining room with its red-flocked walls. Steaks and lamb chops are popular entrees, and prices start at $6.95. Open daily for dinner 5-9 p.m. CAFE DE LA MER. With a view of ocean railings, this restaurant lends a sidewalk cafe atmosphere in this coffee shop. GREEN GLASS

Greek gods smile in golden glory from reliefs mounted on black velvet in the dining room, which is high-ceilinged and has a charming old-fashioned air about it. Round streetlight globes of another era frame a small floor-level stage where Greek guitarist Kosmas entertains. Greek specialties include moussaka, baked lamb tips with orzo, stuffed grape leaves, meat sausage in white sauce, tenderloin tips, shish kebabs and stuffed cabbage. The house motto is "dress casual and come hungry." Entrees start at $3.25 and dinner is served from 5-11 p.m. daily. 12500 Biscayne Blvd., 893-1177

GRIST MILL

Three old barns from Ohio were gently pulled apart, plank by plank, to panel and decorate the Grist Mill. An old waterwheel churns a stream of water in the entranceway and a 150-year-old peanut machine squats in the lounge. Candles glow from the tables, and the menu, a reproduction of an 1884 newspaper, carries the full history of grist mills in this country. Great stacks of loaves of bread, ears of corn and gourds add to the Midwest farm atmosphere. Favorite dishes are pepper steak casserole for $6.50; and Grist Mill chicken amandine, $5.50. All ice cream is made on premises. Open daily 7-10:30 p.m., 5-11 p.m.; Sat. until midnight. Bar open until 5 a.m. daily. 19400 Collins Ave., Miami Beach, 947-2076

GREENTNER'S FOR STEAK

Greentner's is off the beaten track, but beef-lovers find it well worth seeking out. It's nestled on a side street in South Miami, and the mood, with a pianist in the evenings and fashion shows during lunch, is much like a supper club. Caesar salad, made at the table, is a Greentner's specialty. A seafood specialty is Shrimp Queen Elizabeth, shrimp sauteed in garlic butter with sauteed and parsley. Reservations are suggested on the weekend. Open Mon.-Fri. 11:30 a.m.-midnight, Sat. and Sun. 4:30 p.m.-midnight. 5859 SW 73rd St., Miami, 666-3361

GYPSY PUB

The aroma of open-fire gypsy cooking wafts through the air in this rustic eatery. The ceiling is of heavy beams and the walls and tables are highly polished wood. No tablecloths are used, just thick red napkins. The specialty is Gypsy's Honor Roll—black lobster tail, deviled clams, oysters Rockefeller, escargots and coquille St. Jacques. A la carte prices begin at $2.95 for lunch and $4.25 for dinner. Open Mon.-Thurs. from 11 a.m.-11 a.m., Fri. from 11 a.m.-3 a.m. and Sat. and Sun. 4 p.m.-3 a.m. 7400 Bird Rd., Miami, 223-1151

HARRIGAN'S

This is one of Miami's most unique restaurants. It is located in the Miramar, an old Spanish style stucco waterfront hotel with canopied walkways through landscaped gardens. Guests enter through a rustic arched wood door, flanked by a magnificent stained glass window, divided into intimate little nooks and crannies. Harrigan's resembles a cozy English pub with red burly wall, black leather captain's chairs and a small mirror-backed bar. The variety of menu items features steak Alfredo, veal omelet bleu, Danish lobster tails and several other specialties. Entertainment daily except Mon. Hours are from noon-5 p.m. daily for lunch and from 3 p.m.-1 a.m. for dinner. 1744 N. Bayshore Dr., Miami, 371-4090

THE HASTA

Soft red leather booths with high backs circle the main dining room and diners look out the windows at the lush Florida gardens and driftwood. Exotic trees and hanging flower baskets in the foyer reach two stories high. Specialties are Panamanian shrimp stuffed with crabmeat, a cut of the rib eye, surf and turf, filet mignon and African lobster tails and prime ribs of beef with Yorkshire pudding. A special after 11 p.m. menu features beef bits, French roast beef dip, eggs Benedict and the Hasta club sandwich. Hasta has an exceptionally complete wine list. Entertainment nightly in the Wine Cellar Lounge by the vocal group The Sweet Seasons. Hours are from 11:30 a.m.-1 a.m., Mon.-Fri.; from 5 p.m.-2 a.m. (Sat.); and from 5-11:30 p.m., Sun. 2665 SW 37th Ave. (Douglas Rd.), Miami, 445-3636

IVANHOE

STAN MUSIAL AND BIGGIE'S Stan (The Man) Musial, famous baseball star, frequents this restaurant and will present guests with autographed photographs of himself as he does in his internationally-known St. Louis restaurant. Children are treated to a special menu. The mood is that of an Old English pub. Specialties are steaks, chops, seafood and prime roast ribs of beef ($6.50 for a large cut). Open daily from 8 a.m. Dinner served from 6-10 p.m. Entertainment 7-10 p.m. No cover or minimum. KNIGHT LOUNGE. No cover or minimum charge. Valet or free parking. Open daily 11 a.m.-5 p.m. The Cabana bar is open daily 11 a.m.-6 p.m. 10775 Collins Ave., Bal Harbour, 865-3511

JADE PALACE

The name evokes the mystery of the Orient and conjures images of Charlie Chan and his number one son peering from behind silk shantung draperies into a room of inquiry. But the Jade Palace, located off the main tourist path near Tropical Park, is a cheerful Chinese restaurant, tastefully decorated with understatement. The chef and owner is Ram-F. Chiong, a Cuban-born Chinese expert in Mandarin and Cantonese cuisine. Among his specialties are chow mein yong, shredded beef with fine cut vegetables, topped with Chinese crisp vegetables, and princess shrimp, mixed vegetables sauteed and topped with fresh shrimp cooked in gumma ham and scallion sauce. Open weekdays 11:30 a.m.-10 p.m., weekends until 11 p.m. 9591 SW 56th St., in the Miller Heights Shopping Center, 274-5488

JAMAICA INN

THE ENGLISH PUB

The two picturesque restaurants are on opposite ends of the same building in a jungle thicket on Key Biscayne. Shiny black English style stand at both entrances. Waitresses in the less formal Pub wear Scottish kilts and plaid kilts. It is a labyrinth of little bars and dining areas. Over 500 pewter beer tankards, owned by members of the Pewter Vessel Drinking Society, hang from the beamed ceiling in the front room. Charbroiled filet mignon is $5.95 and fried bay scallops are $3.95. Open daily 11:30 a.m.-midnight. In the Jamaica Inn, service is more formal. Tables are arranged around a two-story glassed garden full of tropical plants and wild orchids. A cocktail table in the bar is made from a cross section of a redwood log 20 feet across. Inn specialties are Jamaica duckling and fried Everglades frogs legs. Open Mon.-Thurs. 6-11 p.m., Fri., Sat., Sun. 6 p.m.-midnight. 320 Crandon Blvd., Key Biscayne, 361-5481

JOE'S STONE CRAB RESTAURANT

Miami Beach of 1913 is recalled in Joe's Stone Crab Restaurant, which was built that year. The decor is simple—terrazzo floors, white-covered tables, dark oak gypsy chairs with a high, hand-painted alcove in the center of the ceiling. Guests at Joe's all wear bibs to eat stone crab claws, the specialty of the house. They come with crocks of hot melted butter. The favorite dessert is homemade Key lime pie. Joe's has won a Holiday Magazine dining award every year since 1961. Open daily 5-10 p.m. 227 Biscayne St., Miami Beach, 673-0365

KELLY'S SEAFOOD

A rotating beacon sprays long beams of light along Collins Avenue beckoning diners to Kelly's, noted for its steaming platters of crab cakes, fried oysters, finger filets of flounder and crisp hush puppies. Long fishing nets, hatch covers, portholes and two giant antique anchors encrusted with barnacles and coral speak the romance of the sea. Specialties are bouillabaisse, $4.95, baked stuffed Maine lobster with shrimp and crabmeat filling, $7.95, and Florida stone crabs. Steaks and chicken are also available.
Open daily from 4 p.m. 17550 Collins Ave.,
Miami Beach, 944-4021

KENILWORTH

LOS BOCHEROS

The Spanish-Basque restaurant, located in the heart of Miami's Little Havana, is flamboyantly Iberian, with rough stucco walls, low arched ceilings and wrought iron lamps. Spanish dancers stage a spectacular flamenco show during dinner.
Specialties include fabada soup of Asturias, red snapper and bacalao of Bilbao, lobster Costa Brava style and paella Valenciana. A la carte diners range from $4.95-$8.95. Reservations are recommended. Diner 7 p.m.-1 a.m., nightly except Sat. when the restaurant is open until 2 a.m., and Mon., when it is closed. 981 SW 8th St., Miami, 856-3313

LUAU

Tongues of orange flame leap skyward from a 20-foot statue of an Hawaiian god and a narrow foe-bridge crosses a stream at the thatched entrance. Inside, a seashell waterfall cascades beneath the fishnet ceiling. Sarong-clad pinapples guy serve drinks in hollowed-out pinapples.
Favorite dishes are duck Pekin, boned duck roasted in crushed almonds with Hong Kong sauce; sesame coconut chicken; broiled shrimp in Tahitian sauce with pineapple and coconut;
Szechuan specialties, if you like your food spicy, as well as sizzling steaks. Complete dinners from $4.95. Polynesian revue Mon., Tues., Wed., Fri. 9 and 11 p.m.; Sat. 9 and 11 p.m.; and 12-3 a.m.;
Sun. 6-30 and 9 p.m. Open daily 5 p.m.-2 a.m.

LUAU II

A long crudely-carved canoe of tropical wood in the foyer of the Luau II holds three busy Polynesian boatmen, frozen in sculpture as they row. This sister of the 79th St. Causeway Luau is located downstairs at the Marco Polo Motel with separate entrance and free valet parking. A circular bar is surrounded by soft black leather swivel chairs. The feeling is that of plushness, with candlelight, thick scarlet table linens and authentic Polynesian accents. Menu prices start at $2.95; complete dinners from $4.95. Open daily

LUIGI B.G.'S

Behind the carved double doors is a happy outdoor cafe of old Europe, decorated in bright reds, yellows, greens and blues. An aged brick bar, topped with black marble, runs the length of the restaurant. Guests are invited to help themselves to complimentary antipasto from the Italian vendors' carts. Steak is the specialty although eggplant parmigiana, spaghetti and meatballs, chicken romano and shrimp diablo also are featured. All dinners are served with a choice of pasta. Prices for dinner range from $3.50-$7.95. Hours are from 5-10:30 p.m. Mon.-Thurs., 5 p.m.-11:30 p.m. Fri. and Sat. and 4-10:30 p.m. Sun. 2475 NE 163rd St., just off Biscayne Blvd., 949-5436.

MANSENE'S

For 27 years Duke Mansene has been creating spaghetti sauces for his restaurant and he now has 50 different kinds on the menu. Mansene's is elegantly Italian, with glittering chandeliers, polished paneling and much old brick. Favorites are veal cutlet parmigiana and veal scaloppine Francaise. Open for lunch daily from 11:30 a.m.; for dinner until 11 p.m. nightly except Fri. and Sat., when it is open until midnight, and Tues. when it closes at 2:30 p.m. 291 NW 37th Ave., Miami, 649-4111

MARCELLA'S LA CUCINA MIA

The Italian name means "my kitchen" and Marcella learned the trade in her mother's restaurant in Rome. An Italian vendor's cart laden with fresh fruit stands in the foyer and antique Italian cookware gleams from shelves over the stone fireplace. The 8-course meal—and there is no menu because the chef simply cooks what he wishes—takes about three hours to eat. First comes a cart crammed with 14 kinds of antipasto, followed by soup, salad, meat, fish, pasta courses and ending with fruit, homemade ice cream and pastries. Holiday Magazine dining award winner. Reservations are suggested. Open daily 7 p.m.-midnight, 13800 W. Dixie Hwy., North Miami, 891-8220

MARCO POLO

SULTAN'S TABLE. Silk canopies, brass and beads suggest Persia, but the menu—except for fish kebabs—is American. Prices range from $3.95-$7.95. Open daily 5-10 p.m. BIRD LOUNGE. White birds of all sizes and shapes hang from the ceiling and peer from cages in this gathering place. Open daily 5 p.m.-2 a.m. CARAVAN COFFEE SHOP. Open daily 7 a.m.-midnight. The pool bar is open 10 a.m.-4 p.m. Mon. through Sat., 1-4 p.m. Sun. 19201 Collins Ave., Miami Beach, 949-1461

MARRIOTT

WINDJAMMER LOUNGE. Features Lani at the piano bar from 6-9 p.m. Complimentary assorted hours Dovesaves, both hot and cold, with cocktail hours, 5-7 p.m. Entertainment and dancing from 9-30 p.m.-2 a.m. KING'S WHARF. The entire tenth floor of the Marriott Hotel encompasses the King's Wharf restaurant and the Windjammer Lounge. The King's Wharf has a nautical theme and houses a rare collection of shipping and dockside artifacts. The room has a spectacular view of Miami International Airport. A buffet lunch is served from 11:30 a.m.-2:30 p.m. Mon.-Fri. for $3.50. A popular Sun. brunch is served from 11 a.m.-2:30 p.m. for $4.50, featuring 99-cent Bloody Marys or 50-cent Bloody Shames. Open for dinner from 6-11 p.m. Mon.-Sat., Sun. 5-10 p.m. Selections range from prime steaks or ribs to Keys trout steaks. Prices are from $5-$8.90. FAIRFIELD INN. This family-style restaurant is a cheery dining place 24 hours a day. The menu ranges from soups and sandwiches to steaks. A family night smorgasbord alternates with German, Italian and seafood buffets. 1201 NW Lelaine Rd., 649-5000

THE MIAMIAN

Half a million Cubans now call Miami home and many of them frequent restaurants such as they knew in Old Havana. One of these is The Miamiian, whose classic Spanish elegance is enhanced by jeweled chandeliers and carved wood spindles outside the windows. Wind bottles and grapes adorn the foyer. A bufflighter painting hangs just inside the ornate front door. Paella Valenciana for two is $6.95 and a filet stuffed with ham and cheese and topped with cheese sauce, $4.95. Open daily 11:30 a.m.-11:30 p.m. 1115 NW 22nd Ave., Miami, 643-6463

MIKE GORDON'S SEAFOOD

Flanked with red-and-white checked tablecloths at Mike Gordon's bring to mind Cape Cod in the summertime. Biscayne Bay laps at the back door and glistens through the windows. The nautical decor is carried out with seascapes, ship's wheels, fishing gear and porpoises. Although steak and chicken are available, seafood is the specialty: New England fried clams or Maryland crab cakes, baked Maine lobster, oyster stew, broiled red snapper. Open daily noon-10 p.m. 1201 NE 79th St., Miami, 759-6825

MONK'S INN

If you should wander into a rustic moorland retreat somewhere in the countryside of France, you would sit within the cool stone walls and be served great slabs of cheese, crusty loaves of bread and sweet-smelling red apples, along with a glass of wine. And if you should visit the Monk's Inn in Coral Gables, the same thing will happen. The restaurant is decorated with kegs, copper boilers, barrels of wine. The library has ceiling-high rows of books. French dishes are served, with emphasis on cheese entrees such as quiche and fondue. Prices range from $3.25 to $7. Open Mon.-Sat. 11 a.m.-midnight, Sun. 4 p.m.-midnight. 3181 Coral Way, 446-8310

MONTMARTE

MONSIGNORE DINING ROOM. Red velvet draperies are set off by delicate pink table linens and glittering chandeliers. The menu changes daily but a seven-course dinner averages about $6.75. Open daily 5:30-8:15 p.m. BARDOT LOUNGE. Different shows are presented nightly in this club adjoining the dining room. Johnny Varro's orchestra plays for dancing. No cover or minimum charge. Complimentary hors d'oeuvres are served during the cocktail hour when pianist Al DiCiccio entertains. Open daily 5 p.m.-2 a.m. 4775 Collins Ave., Miami Beach, 532-1731

MR. KELLY'S

Chief Carrier, recipient of the International Gourmet Award and former caterer to European houses of royalty, prepares hundreds of special gourmet dishes from around the world at Mr. Kelly's, a restaurant resembling an English country inn surrounded by graceful tropical palms. Among the entrees are veal piquante, medallions of beef medice, chicken Princess Margaret, New York steak Rasputin, dolphin boone femme and many more from fourteen different countries. A cocktail lounge adjoins. Reservations are suggested. Open daily except Tues. 5-11 p.m. 21440 Biscayne Blvd., Miami, 931-2072

MY OTHER PLACE

A combination of modern and provincial European decor highlights this Coconut Grove restaurant. Wood-paneled walls hold chrome-framed art posters. Especially fascinating is an original Tiffany lamp which once graced New York's old Penn Station. Cane back chairs complement butcher-block tables. The American menu features steaks, Alaskan king crab, a strongoff beef sandwich, the "Grove" salad and several other unusual dishes. No reservations. Annual membership, $10. Live music for listening and dancing nightly from 10 p.m. to closing. Open 6 p.m. to 3 a.m., with lounge open from 4 p.m. 2669 SW 27th Ave., Miami, 444-4555

NICK & ARTHUR'S

Giant murals of the English countryside during the days of Robin Hood decorate the walls. A champagne fountain bubbles from the Queen's Barge in the center of the spacious dining room which has a wall of windows overlooking a little patio on Biscayne Bay. In the adjoining Venetian Room, murals of Venice, complete with wide windows and street lamps lighted from behind, circle the setting. A singing pianist entertains from a raised stage. Specialties are jumbo steaks, oysters, prime rib and Maine lobster and veal Piccata la Francaise. Open for dinner daily until 11 p.m. 1601 79th St., Causeway, 866-9759

NEWPORT PUB

The Newport is leather and wood, brick and brass, gargantuan salads and the aroma of charcoal cookery. It is a delightful place to relax in front of a warm fire on a cool evening. Specialties are prime ribs of beef and sirloin steak. The family combination plate includes barbecued ribs and chicken, sliced beefsteak. Long Island duckling, chicken livers and chopped sirloin steak. Open from 5 p.m.-1 a.m. daily except Sat., when hours are 5 p.m.-1:30 a.m. 167th St. and Collins Ave., Miami Beach, 949-7433

OMAR'S TENT

At Omar's Tent, ancient Lebanon meets Miami Beach in a 30-foot mural of a desert scene. Other paintings depict a sheik squatting in his tent and a mid-east bazaar. Turkish water pipes, coffee pots and incense burners add decorative accents. Shish kebab, with Omar's special seasoning, is a specialty. The variety dinner includes stuffed rolled grape leaves. All entrees include Omar's famous salad and Oriental rice. Open Tues. through Sat., 4:30-11 p.m., Sun. 2:30-11 p.m. closed Mon. 534 Arthur Godfrey Rd., Miami Beach, 532-8422

PAOLETTI'S

Behind the massive carved double doors of Paoletti's is an Italian garden. A flowing fountain, its mosaic tile walls covered with ferns, centers the main dining room. Strolling guitarists wander among the lamp-lit tables. All the noodlers here are home-made, with cannelloni at $2.95 and lasagne at $2.95 much-asked-for items. Another specialty is lobster Paoletti for $8.50. For those who seek privacy, there are a few tables on a balcony overlooking the dining room. Reservations are suggested during the week-end. Open Mon.-Fri. 11:30 a.m.-2:30 a.m., Sat. and Sun., 5:11-30 p.m., 2900 Ponce de Leon Blvd., Coral Gables, 444-2755

PICCADILLY HEARTH

London meets Miami at the Piccadilly Hearth, a restaurant so British it almost has a clipped accent. It is located on colorful Decorator's Row, has natural wood cottage shutters to shade the front windows. All the serving plates are pewter, and aged brick archways meet paneled walls. A large wine cellar is built into the main wall of the dining room. Specialties are beef fondue bourguignonne and tournedos of beef. Open for lunch Mon.-Fri. 11:30 a.m.-3:30 p.m.; for dinner Mon.-Sat. 5:30-10:30 p.m.; dinner Sun. 5-9:30 p.m. 35 NE 40th St., Miami, 576-1818

PLACE FOR STEAK

As the name implies, there is only one specialty at the Place for Steak—steak, big, extra thick, sliced, chopped or broiled. The decor is understated with hued tiles on the paneled walls and intimate little pilot lamps. The modified a la carte menu lists two sizes of New York strip steak and filet mignon. Baked, stuffed or French fried potatoes, salad and garlic toast or bread come with the steaks. Stone crabs are available in season and there is a fish of the day. Open daily 5:30 p.m.-4 a.m.; lounge until 5 a.m. Supper served until 4 a.m. Continuous music is by well-known jazz combos. 1335 79th St. Causeway, Miami, 758-5581

PLAYBOY PLAZA

VIP ROOM. The red velvet setting of this intimate dining room is punctuated here and there by flashes of bunny tails. Dance music is by the Stan Music Trio, with Maria Marshall singing. Popular entrees are steak, Maine lobster and stone crabs. Open daily 7-11 p.m. PLAYMATE BAR. (See Night Life listing.) CELIBRITY BAR. Dancing to the music of the First Impression. Open daily 11 a.m.-3 a.m. POOL BAR. Open daily 11 a.m.-5 p.m. 5445 Collins Ave., Miami Beach, 865-1500

(3 Bks. So. of Diplomat Hotel)

nautical decor is carried out with anchors, ships' wheels, clipper ship sculptures, mounted fish and netting. Focal points of the main dining room are two square masts complete with rigging. Live Maine lobster, Dover sole, scallops, clams and other specialties are featured. The seafood combination platter includes fish chowder, lobster tail, scallops, shrimp, crab cake, fried oysters and clams, fish fingers, potato, salad and bread. Open for lunch Mon.-Fri., 11:30 a.m.-3 p.m.; for dinner from 5 p.m. daily. 14411 Biscayne Blvd., 945-2567

PRINCE HAMLET

Scandinavia at the turn of the century is the mood here where dark mahogany beams are hung with dozens of pieces from the period—an old baby buggy, wine barrels and casks from 1900. Coats-of-arms and Danish Christmas plates parade around the walls. Entrees include bouillabaisse, sirloin steak and a combination platter of three lobster tails and filet mignon. A specialty is the Danish cold table which offers a wide range of delicacies. A Holiday Magazine dining award winner. Reservations are necessary. Open daily from 5:30 p.m.; closed Mon. 8301 Biscayne Blvd., Miami, 757-5541

PUMPERNIK'S

More than 100 entrees are listed on the menu at Pumpernik's, which specializes in Dagwood-sized sandwiches as well as complete dinners. Pumpernik's is much like a New York delicatessen and is a popular after-theatre rendezvous. It has a fast service counter. The restaurant is decorated with tones of turquoise, marble panels, bright paintings and black leather booths. Open Sun.-Thurs. 7 a.m.-2 a.m., Fri. and Sat. 7 a.m.-3 a.m. Three locations: 6200 Collins Ave., Miami Beach, 866-0246; 12599 Biscayne Blvd., Miami, 891-1225; and 917 E. Hallandale Beach Blvd., 925-8281

RINCON ARGENTINO

To the Argentinian, a rincon is a special place where he can always feel relaxed and welcome. Now there is a rincon here which specializes in the same happy feeling. It also specializes in tasty golden-brown gauchito pies, baby beef steaks grilled slowly, Argentinian style, and parrillada, a grill of variety meats. The spacious restaurant is decorated in shades of rose and green and features an intimate lounge right off the foyer. Pianist and organist Candido Figueroa entertains and provides music for dancing. Prices start at $4.50. Hours are from 5:30 p.m.-5 a.m. daily. 11806 Biscayne Blvd., 893-7632

RED COACH

The Red Coach looks much like a hunting lodge straight out of the Ontario woods. The interior matches the mood—rough plank paneling and low lights flickering on wood tables. A specialty of the house is the oversized, on-the-rocks cocktail. Dinner prices range from $3.45 to $8.95, and Maine lobster, prime ribs, steaks of all kinds and several shrimp dishes are featured. Open 4:30-11 p.m. Mon.-Sat., 4:30-10 p.m. Sun. Reservations accepted. 18050 Collins Ave., Miami Beach, 949-5466

ROCKY GRAZIANI'S

A heady aroma of old-fashioned Italian cooking greets guests stepping into the cool dining of Rocky Graziani's. The menu is a long list of Italian favorites—baked ziti, cheese or meat ravioli, manicotti, lasagne and more—at one price, $2.95. Nothing costs more than $4.95, which is the price of New York sirloin and lobster tails Fra Diavolo. A seafood platter for $4.95 includes shrimp cocktail, broiled lobster tail, fried shrimp, broiled red snapper and fried clams. Open daily 10:30 a.m.-11 p.m. There are two locations: 12575 Biscayne Blvd., Miami, 944-4896; and 2471 SW 32nd Ave., Miami, 443-2122

RONEY PUB

Emerald carpeting and crimson draperies enfold the Roney Pub, located by the ocean where the Roney Plaza Hotel used to be. The polished paneling is lined with paintings of the English coastline and countryside. Steaks crackle on an open brick hearth. Specialties include sirloin steak and roast prime ribs of beef. The family combination platter includes barbecued ribs and chicken, sliced beefsteak, lobster and duckling, chicken liver and chopped sirloin steak. Desserts are Bavarian brandy sticks and the do-it-yourself sundae. Open Mon.-Fri. 5 p.m.-midnight; Sat. 5 p.m.-1 a.m.; Sun., 4:30 p.m.-midnight. 23rd St. and Collins Ave., Miami Beach, 532-3353

ROYAL BISCAYNE-SHERATON

OUT ISLAND. A feeling of the tropics permeates the Out Island dining room. Large murals depict sunny scenes and a wall of windows overlooks a green courtyard with thick jungle foliage and palm trees. Monday the specialty is fondue bourgeoise, a variety of gourmet dishes are offered Tuesday through Thursday, a seafood buffet is served Friday and a prime rib buffet on Saturday. From 10 a.m.-2 p.m. Sunday a champagne brunch is featured. Dinner is served from 6-10 p.m. nightly. Open daily 7:30 a.m.-10 p.m. PIRATE'S COVE. Open daily 8:30 p.m.-1 a.m. SANDPIPER POOL BAR. Open daily 10 a.m.-5 p.m. 555 Ocean Dr., Key Biscayne, 361-5775

RUSTY PELICAN

At the tip of a sandy finger of land probing Biscayne Bay, the Rusty Pelican room is a picturesque setting of sea-grapes, weathered pilings and driftwood. Floor-to-ceiling windows overlook the bay and give a sweeping view of both the Miami and Miami Beach skylines. Menu prices range from $4.50 to $7.95 for dinner. Specialties include teriyaki steak, Polynesian sparebribs and seafood curry, Bombay style. Steaks and seafood also are available. Open for lunch Mon.-Sat., 11:30 to 4 p.m., and for dinner from 5 p.m. Open Sun., 10 a.m.-3 p.m. for brunch from 5 p.m. for dinner. 99 Rickenbacker Causeway, Key Biscayne, 361-5753

SAN REMO

It looks like a rustic two-story stucco home on Biscayne Boulevard, but it is a quaint candlelit restaurant specializing in Northern Italian and continental cuisine. Scenes of the Italian countryside are framed in tapestry on the walls, some of old brick, some paneled in wood. Near the front door is a magnificent floor to ceiling wine display. The house wine is imported from the restaurant's vineyard in Italy. Although the restaurant features a different special dinner each evening, favorite entrees include veal imperatrice, lasagne verdi ala bolognese and ciccoppo san remo. Open daily 6-10 p.m. Closed Tues. 2655 Biscayne Blvd., 573-7340 (Closed for vacation)

SHERATON FOUR AMBASSADORS

CAFE OF THE AMBASSADORS. Biscayne Bay and the dancing lights of Miami Beach lie beyond the picture windows. The candlelit room has red velvet furnishings with rose pink table linens and glittering chandeliers. The cuisine is continental with excellent service. Entrees range from $6.50 to $12.50 and include beef stroganoff, veal fraiseiche, tournedos Rossini, scampi provencale and other European dishes. Open Tues.-Sun. 7 p.m.-1 a.m., closed Mon. 801 S. Bayshore Dr., 377-1866

SNEAKY PETE'S

Some of the best jazz in Miami can be heard at Sneaky Pete's which has continuous entertainment. Symbolic of a red fox, Sneaky Pete's are used throughout the candlelit restaurant. Scarlet tablecloths and rugs, black leather booths and wood paneling make up the decor. Varied menu selections include chicken and ribs, steak, shrimp scampi and roast duckling. Open daily 5 p.m.-5 a.m. 1010 S. Federal Hwy., Hallandale, 944-7197

SONENNA BEACH HOTEL AND

TENNIS CLUB

RIB ROOM. Located on tropical Key Biscayne, this restaurant has a sophisticated tropical setting, enhanced by candlelight and rich burgundy and white decor. The menu is a la carte and prices start at $5.25. The Buddy Lewis trio plays for listening and dancing. Open daily 6-10 p.m. FIDDLERS GREEN NIGHTCLUB. Live music for dancing starts at 9 p.m. Caffe', a seven-piece vocal and instrumental group, entertains nightly. Open daily except Sun. until 2 a.m. GALLERY LOUNGE. Pianist and vocalist Billy Steele entertains from 8 p.m. Open daily noon-midnight, 350 Ocean Dr., Key Biscayne, 361-2021

SORRENTO

Sorrento, owned and operated by one family for 25 years, is classic Italian. Glittering chandeliers spin pinpoints of light against the red-flocked walls. Florentine statues pose in frozen splendor against stone and miniature Italian paintings are caught in gilt frames. Full-course dinners start at $3.75. Veal, Scalloppine alla Marsala is $5.75, broiled prime sirloin steak is $7 and lobster tails oregano are $6.50. Sorrento is on the Tamiami Trail in Miami's colorful Little Havana section. Open Mon.-Thurs. 11:30 a.m.-11:30 p.m., Fri. and Sat. 11:30 a.m.-12:30 a.m., Sun. 11-11:30 p.m., 3059 SW 8th St. (Tamiami Trail), Miami, 643-3111

SOUTH PACIFIC

Across a rustic foothillside and under a broad thatched roof is a Polynesian hideaway. Fishnets, beaded curtains, bamboo, lanterns, rattan furniture and rice cloth combine for a Baha atmosphere. The Patio Gardens behind the restaurant are lush with tropical plants. Polynesian revues are staged twice nightly except Saturday when there are three shows. Cantonese entrees, including such favorites as Mandarin duck and baby sweet peas are priced, range from $3.50 to $4.95. The menu also lists American dishes. Open Mon.-Sat. for Polynesian buffet 11:30 a.m.-3 p.m.; for dinner Mon.-Fri. from 6-11 p.m., Sat. 6-midnight, and Sun., 5-10 p.m. U.S. 1, one-half mile south of Hollywood Circle, Hallandale, 945-6457

STEAKING

Brushing through the beaded curtains into the Gay 90s Lounge at the Steaking is like a visit to a swank San Francisco saloon of long ago. It is a room of flocked wallpaper, red curtains, black leather and copper tankards. The lounge is on a low balcony where each table is lit by its own Tiffany lamp. Dinner includes the salad one can make, a giant baked potato, and all the free beer and wine one can drink. Fresh seafood and other specialties start at $3.50, and a boneless choice N.Y. sirloin is $4.95. Open daily from 4:30 p.m. for dinner. Lunch at LeDere Rd., South Miami and Ft. Lauderdale restaurants from 11:30 a.m. daily. Three Miami locations: LeDere Rd. at NW 16th St., 871-3430; Biscayne Blvd. and 131st St., 891-8286; and S. Dixie Hwy. and 158th St., 233-6151. Also in Ft. Lauderdale and Pompano Beach.

THE STUDIO

As its name implies, the Studio could well be headquarters for a host of artists. Paintings cover the dining room walls and spill over into the cocktail lounge, stone and concrete gonged and troweled into an intimate grotto. Wrought-iron grillwork, need with flowers and tin bubbling fountains separate diners who seek privacy. Gourmet specialties include roast duck flambe a Torange served with prime stuffed apple on a bed of rice. For fondue bourguignonne you do your own cooking at your table. Lunch 11:30 a.m.-2:30 p.m. Mon.-Fri. Dinner daily 5-11 p.m., cocktails 4-6 p.m. daily with complimentary hors d'oeuvres. 2340 SW 32nd Ave., Miami, 443-2536

SUEHIRO OF KYOTO

Hostesses and chefs from Kyoto, Tokyo and other cities in Japan wear bright kimono to cook and serve at one's table. Each of the four dining rooms has cabinets full of Japanese art objects—carved ivory elephants, mint trees, porcelain bowls. Full-course dinners start at $7.50, and a fifteen per cent service gratuity is added. Specialties include beefsteak marinated in teriyaki sauce and prime filet mignon with lobster meat. Reservations are suggested. Open Mon.-Sat., 6 p.m.-11 p.m.; Sun., 5-10 p.m. 711 N. Federal Hwy., Hallandale, 949-6455 or 923-2110

TONY SWEET'S RESTAURANT

A large batik—it covers an entire wall—is the focal point in this restaurant, which is part of the Tony Sweet's complex embracing the Fish

Market and the Yacht South Seas. The room is elegant, adorned with paintings and chandeliers. Specialties are spring chicken pot pie l'Ecoisaise, milk-fed veal cutlets parmigiano and spaghetti marinara, prime ribs of beef crossaint and imported Dutch sole meuniere. Open daily 6 p.m.-midnight, 1900 79th St., Causeway, Miami, 865-5766

TONY'S FISH MARKET

Fishing boats bob on the tide outside Tony's Fish Market. For those who want to be on the water, there is the Yacht South Seas behind the restaurant where cocktails and dinner are served from 6 p.m.-2 a.m. Fish Market specialties are curry of fresh lump crabmeat with chutney sauce, broiled Maine lobster stuffed with crabmeat and green turtle steak. Open daily noon-midnight, 1900 79th St., Causeway, Miami, 865-8688

THE TURF PUB

Sand sifts across the road in front of the Turf Pub and the sound of breathing surf mingles with the rustle of palms. The restaurant is a cool retreat from the beach—dark teak cypress, a long copper-topped bar, low black leather booths. Menu favorites include Rock African lobster tails, fried Digby Bay scallops, and boneless New York sirloin steak. Lunch served daily from 11:30 a.m. Dinner served until 1:30 a.m. but the bar is open until 5 a.m. 22 Ocean Dr., Miami Beach, 672-3182

VALENTI'S

Going to Valenti's, established in 1939, is like taking a Roman Holiday—the mood is festive all the way from the parking lot guarded by Italian statues to the low stone grotto with tables for two. Round red tiles along the walls hold hundreds of bottles of wine. Complete dinners start at $4.95 and range to $8.50. Broiled scampi and veal franchise specialties. Sitrolingale, and musicians entertain. Two locations: 1400 NW 7th Ave., Miami, open Mon.-Thurs. 11:30 a.m.-10 p.m., Fri. 11:30 a.m.-11 p.m., Sat. 4 p.m.-1 a.m., closed Sun., 324-7661; 9101 S. Dixie Hwy., Miami, open 4:30-midnight daily except Mon., 667-0421

VICTORIA STATION

In the days when businessmen set their pocket watches by the morning express, the railroad passenger was treated as if he were king. So it is at Victoria Station in Miami, a nostalgic meeting place where railroad buffets may study artifacts from the original train station in London. Guests have their choice of dining in any of the four authentic freight cars or, if they wish, they may linger over cocktails in the caboose. The house specialties are prime ribs of beef for $5.45 or $6.45, and a large selection of California wine. Lunch is served from 11:30 a.m.-2:30 p.m. and dinner between 5 and 11:30 p.m. The restaurant is open daily, 6301 NW 36th St., 871-1563

VIZCAYA SPANISH-BASQUE

Vizcaya resembles an elegant home in Old Spain. A high wrought iron fence surrounds the two-story white stucco building and red clay tiles march across the roof. The waiters are clad in white uniforms with red sashes, and one waiter is covered with a flamboyant Spanish mural. Red snapper au marinara—filets of snapper simmered in a Spanish wine sauce with shrimp, clams and lobster—is $6.35. Paella a la Valenciana is $4.95 and filet mignon is $6.25. The menu is printed in both Spanish and English. Open daily noon-11 p.m., 2436 SW 8th St. (Tamiami Trail), Miami, 642-2452

ZORBA'S THE GREEK

Zorba, perhaps the most joyous of literary characters, would have come here and sipped retsina from a goavakin flask, click his heels and joined the darkly handsome waiters in a spirited dance, and then, if the mood were right, dash a glass to the stone floor as a final fling of camaraderie. Such is the soul of a Greek restaurant and Miami's Zorba is authentically Greek, and then the tastefully simple decor and dancing waiters to the last full-bodied sip of coffee. Mousaka, pastitsio, spinach pie and lamb and beef shish kebabs are among specialties. Prices range from $1.95 to $4.95. Open 11:30 a.m.-2:30 p.m., Tues.-Fri.; for dinner, 5-11:30 p.m. Tues.-Fri., until midnight Sat. and Sun., closed Mon. 2280 SW 32nd Ave., 445-2818
