WATERLOO NATURE CENTER provided a number of activities for the students from Beach Middle school during their 6th grade camp last week. Cold, wet weather prohibited a number of scheduled activities but, with 90 or more activities in the works, students were all

Historical Society Hears About Operation of Waterloo Farm Museum

In the absence of president Sally Rendell, Jean Storey presided at the monthly meeting of the Chelsea Historical Society. Leon Shutes, a resident of the Chelsea United Methodist Retirement Home welcomed the members and 50 residents of the home attended as guests of the Society.

Ben Bower introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Pat Russell of the Waterloo Farm Museum. Mrs. Russell is a member of the Waterloo Historical Society and a director of the Farm Museum.

She gave a brief history of the farm museum and told of the "growing pains" in getting it started. She explained how buildings have been moved to the farm from various locations and what each of the buildings depict. The facilities are used as a teaching and learning center, also for preserving the history of the community and the pioneer family farm.

Pioneer crafts are taught during the summer and fall seasons. Individual crafts people are used in these sessions. The crafts are varied from year to year thereby giving participants the chance to choose the craft they are most interested in.

To maintain a facility such as the Waterloo Farm Museum takes a great deal of volunteer work and the directors rely on donations to help defray expenses. Mrs. Russell said they would be glad to have volunteers from the Chelsea area if anyone is interested in helping out.

The Museum is open during June, July and August from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. every-day but Monday. School tours are available during the month of May.

The Heritage Room at the Methodist Home was opened during the evening to give the Historical Society members an opportunity to view the displays and ask questions.

Punch, coffee and cookies were served at the close of the evening.

The June meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. Monday, June 8 at McKune Memorial Library.

Methodist Home Seeks Volunteers

For a number of years, the Chelsea United Methodist Retirement Home has recruited the volunteer services of junior high and high school age students for the Chelsea area as activity aides to assist during individual and group activities.

Currently, the Methodist Home is again seeking volunteer aides. According to Bill Champion of the Methodist Home, "This is a good program for both the volunteers and the residents. Volunteers get to know older people and are able to get a broad perspective. Where else can you meet a 102-year-old?"

As a volunteer aide, students visit with residents and provide companionship by assisting with various craft programs and social activities. Wheel chair rides, letter writing and visiting are included among the activities.

This is an opportunity to meet interesting people and to provide a service for someone who both needs and appreciates it.

Champion explains that "in the past, residents love the visits (Continued on page four)

Band, Orchestra Boosters Elect

An election of Executive Board members was held at the March regular meeting of the Chelsea Band and Orchestra Boosters. The 1981-82 elected officers are Phyllis Muncer, president; Dave Wolter, vice-president; Betty Mull, secretary; and Gerry Sullivan, treasurer.

Waterloo Nature Center Offering Summer Camp

In its continuing attempt to serve the community, the Waterloo Nature Center, in cooperation with the Western Washtenaw Task Force, is offering a summer day camp for the children of Chelsea and surrounding communities.

The sessions will run one week and will be geared to different age groups. Six- and seven-year-olds will meet from June 22-28, eight- to 10-year-olds from July 20-24 and 11- to 14-year-olds will meet Aug. 17-21. Daily programs will run from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Attempts are being made to provide transportation to the Center from downtown Chelsea at an additional cost.

The week-long sessions will feature many hands-on experiences and each day will have a different theme dealing with the environment or the natural history of the Waterloo Area.

Children will enjoy spending a day learning about Waterloo's native Americans. On this day, they will have the opportunity to learn how to weave baskets from cattails, grind corn and sample Indian foods. Additional offerings will include a study of Michigan mammals, building a glacier to study land formations, identification of birds, insect safari and much more. Songs, games, hikes and crafts will reinforce the learning process.

The cost for a one-week session to members of the Waterloo Natural History Association is $20; non-members, $25. Registration (Continued on page two)

Donaldson's Bible Collection Will Be on Display Sunday

The Benjamin R. Donaldson Bible collection is being exhibited to the public on Sunday, May 24 at the First United Methodist church, 128 Park St., Chelsea. According to the best information available, the collection is the second largest privately held library of rare Bibles in the United States, and one of the most representative collections of the English Bible.

Mr. Donaldson began collecting Bibles prior to World War I and continued to do so through the years of his employment with Ford Motor Co. He retired in the early 1950's to Cavanaugh Lake. His collection was shown to local church groups, confirmation classes and Bible study societies periodically and is now being shown to the public on a very limited basis by the wish of his widow, G. Louise Donaldson.

The collection consists of over 850 volumes of the Holy Scriptures and approximately 250 related works. Of these, some 100 will be exhibited at the First United Methodist church.

The oldest complete manuscript is an Old Testament, cir. 1225, written on fine vellum with large red and blue print. Other medieval works include rare English manuscripts, and a fine illuminated Psalter with raised gold and pages of music. Two fine Italian and French Books of Hours with traditional illuminated portraits round out this segment of the exhibit. Of singular note is a 1375 Spanish Antiphonal with German leather (Continued on page five)

4 Years Ago . . .

Thursday, May 26, 1977—
 Voters in the Chelsea School District turned down the third millage request by the Chelsea Board of Education in less than one year Monday as they cast 1,193 votes against the proposed 4.4 mill hike and 1,088 votes in support of the increase. A total of 23 ballots were declared spoiled by election officials.

Charles Cameron, 62, a mainstay of the Chelsea School District for the past 40 years, announced to the Chelsea Board of Education that he planned to retire upon the completion of the 1977-78 school year. The announcement was formally received by the board May 23, three months after Cameron first informed the board of his decision. Chelsea's annual Memorial Day parade and festivities will be held Monday, May 30 when veterans, school bands, officials and residents join together to parade through the village to Oak Grove Cemetery where ceremonies honoring deceased veterans will be held.

In a record turn out, voters turned down the district's request for 4.4 additional mills to operate the schools for the coming year. The defeat represents a loss of $475,000 from the district's operating budget; programs will inevitably be cut.

Extension of Energy Conversion Tax Credit Okayed
 The State House of Representatives has overwhelmingly approved a two-year extension for the income tax credit available to homeowners installing alternative energy conversion devices such as solar panels and windmills. Business would also be granted a single business tax credit of 25 percent of the cost of installing such devices for the first $25,000, under a second bill approved by the House.

The income tax credit to individuals began in 1979 and was scheduled to be phased out, with homeowners getting credits of 20 percent on the first $2,000 cost of the system in 1981, 15 percent in 1982 and 10 percent in 1983.

Under the recently approved legislation, the credit would be revised to 25 percent on the first $7,000 in 1981 and 1982, then the credit would go to 20 percent in 1983, 15 percent in 1984 and 10 percent in 1985.

A move to include woodburning stoves in the tax credit program was narrowly defeated.

Seniors Need More Help From Substance Abuse Programs
 A report from the Governor's Advisory Group on Seniors and Substance Abuse indicates that although substance abuse services are available in 65 of 83 counties, they are not nearly as extensive nor as good as they need to be, especially services to senior citizens.

"Seniors were only slightly more than one percent of the 85,270 clients treated last year (in substance abuse programs) and we know their rate of problems is higher," said chairperson Dorothy Walker. Earlier reports have estimated that 80,000 to 90,000 of the state's 1.3 million senior citizens have serious problems due to alcohol abuse.

Another major problem is misuse of medication and the report identified a need for training senior citizen agency staff to better monitor medication. A recent survey found 14 percent of clients were undermedicated, 27 percent were overmedicated, 21 percent had inappropriate medication and 20 percent had a drug-induced organic brain syndrome.

Additionally, only 15 percent of the agencies saw themselves as responsible for monitoring medication. Minors Cannot Form Corporations

Persons who are under the age of 18 cannot help incorporate a business nor may they serve on a corporate board of directors. Attorney General Frank Kelly has ruled. The prohibition applies to both profit and non-profit corporations. Kelley added, however, that the opinion has no bearing on minors holding and owning stock. There is no specific legal prohibition against people under 18 either helping to form a corporation or serving on its board. However, he noted, common law has traditionally prevented minors from serving in a corporate office or forming a corporation. Because the state follows common law unless specifically abrogated by the state, that prohibition must follow, Kelley said. The state has changed common law to grant adult status on people turning 18, instead of 21, but "it cannot be said that the common law has similarly been abrogated with respect to legal capacity of minors in relation to the formation and management of profit or non-profit corporations in Michigan," Kelley concluded.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Zeke Grubb brung a report to the session at the country store Saturday night where five old folks in Spokane recent heard a new version of the dentist report that your teeth are fine, but your gums got to go. They were told that their bad teeth are gone, but their new teeth ain't coming. Zeke said the state paid to have all their teeth pulled, but the dental aid program run out of money before it could buy them store-bought teeth. Zeke said he reckoned the Washington Department of Social and Health Services told em if they couldn't bite the bullet with the rest of the folks caught up in Government service cutbacks, they'd just have to gum it.

Clem Webster said Zeke's item sounded like one of them good news and bad news stories that get popping up. He was reminded of the Indian chief that told his tribe the bad news was that winter was coming on and they had nothing to eat but buffalo chips. The good news was there was plenty to go around. In a heap of cases that's how Government help works, there's plenty of it around, such as it is, was Clem's words, but are you better off with it or without it? And Clem said this question has never been better than when put to farmers.

Just the other evening, Clem said, he was walking by the road on his few acres when a young feller drove up and said he was with the EPA or some such initials and that Clem was in his area. Clem allowed as how he thought he was in his own area, seeing as how he'd been paying taxes on it for 50-odd year. The feller went on to say he was so studies of water and air and such like, and that even soil parasites was listed on the form he wanted Clem to help him fill out. He asked whether Clem knewed that fire ants would nest in his wooden fence posts, and that wheat straw left in the field was an open invite to all manner of creeping and crawling critters. Before he got through his list, Clem said, there wasn't a thing quite right with the whole place.

General speaking, the fellers was agreed that in most cases the answer to Clem's question is we're better off without it. Bug Hookum allowed that a good 80 percent of Government farm advice has to be took with the understanding that it is give for the purpose of keeping Government farm advisors advising farmers. Time was, Clem said, when a farmer or a rancher had a problem he couldn't handle he'd git help from his neighbors, and he'd give help in return. Now if lightning sets fire to his barn he don't have a barn raising so he can git on with farming, he writes his Congressman to declare his place a disaster so he can git a grant.

Personal, Mister Editor, I try to look on the bright side. Zeke's report on the folks that had their teeth pulled called to mind the happy old lady that said she didn't have but two teeth in her head "but thank God they hit." We lambast all the Government rules and services till we need one. I recall the time the same Clem that had been screaming against land zoning went screaming to the county Government to keep a junk yard off land next to his.

Yours truly,
 Uncle Lew.

Woman's Club Observes 50th Anniversary

The Woman's Club of Chelsea celebrated its 50th anniversary on Tuesday, May 12 with a dinner held at Win Schuler's in Jackson.

It was well attended by active members, associate members and honorary members.

The club was started on April 5, 1931 by a small group of women in Chelsea; its expressed purpose was to serve the community. There were three specific intentions: to start a Girl Scout troop, to start a library and to help the needy.

Following the dinner, the program was initiated by a presentation of an American flag by Chelsea Girl Scout Troop 689. The color guard consisted of Anna Muncer, Meredith Johnson, Minta van Reesema, Kathy Hoffman and Kelly Kanton. Troop leader Carol Hoffman led the troop in the presentation.

The flag was received on behalf of the club by president Joyce Vogel. A special gift, a framed scroll was also presented to Mrs. Hoffman, "for giving us our beginning." The Woman's Club had started the first Chelsea Girl Scout troop in 1932.

Mrs. Katherine Wagner, an associate member of the club represented the McKune Memorial Library Board. She gave a short history of the library from its start in 1932 by Woman's Club members to the present day.

Members of the Woman's Club were responsible for obtaining McKune House to be used as a library. It had been willed to the Village by Mrs. McKune with the stipulation that it must house a library within a given length of time.

Donations of varying amounts were collected by the club in order to prepare the building for occupancy. Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Leonard of the Standard, who were special guests at the dinner, helped immensely by publishing weekly donations and donors in The Chelsea Standard until the goal was achieved.

The present library building in Chelsea was occupied in 1959. The club continues to support the library with yearly donations.

Mrs. Jean Eaton, a member of the club since 1932, presented a history of the club. She had written a 40-year history of the club in 1971. This year, Mrs. Eaton completed a history for the years, 1971-81. Copies of this work were distributed at the dinner. Mrs. Eaton spoke of her club membership for 49 years as an honor.

Cathy Hamilton Graduates Cum Laude from EMU

Cathy A. Hamilton was graduated cum laude from Eastern Michigan University on April 25 with a bachelor's degree in interior design. Cathy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hamilton of North Lake. She is a 1976 graduate of Chelsea High school and lives in Ann Arbor.

FLAG PRESENTATION: Chelsea Girl Scout Troop 689 presented the Woman's Club with a flag during the 50th anniversary party of the Chelsea Woman's Club Tuesday evening in Jackson. The Chelsea club founded the first Girl Scout troop in Chelsea in 1932. Making the presentation was color guard, left to right, Anna Muncer, Meredith Johnson, Minta van Reesema, Kathy Hoffman and Kelly Kanton. Troop leader Carol Hoffman presented 1980-81 Woman's Club president Joyce Vogel with a framed scroll expressing appreciation to the club. Both gifts will be placed in the McKune Memorial Library club room.

Chelsea, gave a report on the operation as it exists at present. In 1931, a committee had been formed in the Woman's Club, consisting of two members, Jean Eaton and Martha Schaible, in order to help the needy. From this nucleus, Chelsea Social Services was eventually formed with its own board and was supported by the Community Chest.

Special guests at the dinner included honorary members Jean Eaton, Lois Palmer and Dorothy Soule. Letters were read from charter members Alma Merseriva, Rena Walworth and Ruth Wilkinson. Each honorary member present spoke a few words about their memories of their years in the club.

All past presidents of the club had been invited to the dinner. Those able to attend were Winifred Moore, Electa Wagner, Helen Weiss, Dorothy Fisher Mielke, Virginia Allhouse and Wilma Miller. Present also was special guest Marjorie Daniels. She had designed the cover for this year's program booklet, a sketch of the library.

Honorary guests were Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Leonard, publishers of The Chelsea Standard. They were thanked for their many years of service to the club and the community by publishing events and meetings in the paper. As the only man in the audience, Mr. Leonard gave a brief response.

Installation of officers took place following the various reports. This was led by membership committee chairwoman, Jo Spade. The program concluded with entertainment by the Contemporaries, a well-known singing group from Chelsea High school under the direction of Tamara Barbret.

Mrs. Lila Pawlowski, program chairman and vice-president and her committee did a marvelous job organizing the evening. The committee consisted of Betty Oesterle, Edith Hoffman, Jean Schmidt and Shirley Smith. All guests received program booklets prepared by Mrs. Pawlowski. Flowers were everywhere and each guest received a single marigold as a favor; honored guests were presented corsages. A golden anniversary cake was served to all those present.

Views On Dental Health

By ROBERT A. BURNS, JR., DDS, P.C.

TOOTH FOOD

The first thing to teach your children about preventive tooth care is that good eating habits are important. Foods that keep the whole body healthy will also keep teeth, gums and jawbones in good condition. Milk, cheese, meat, eggs, vegetables, fruits, whole grain breads and cereals are excellent for healthy teeth and gums.

If your child eats between meals, remember that snacks should be low in sugar. In-between-meal treats such as candy, cookies, ice cream, sugared chewing gum and sweet drinks may play havoc with a child's teeth. Bacteria which are normally present in the mouth combine with sugar to form acids—acids which attack tooth enamel. Eventually, it causes cavities.

When sweets are eaten between meals there is more apt to be a chance for cavities to develop, since the child will probably not brush right after—before acids have a chance to form.

Some toothworthy snacks for children are: apples, oranges, bananas, plums, peaches, fruit juices, milk and cheese. The greater distance between sweet junk foods and teeth, the better.

If you have dental health questions you would like to see answered, please mail them to the address below.

Donaldson's Bible Collection

and brass binding over oak boards written on vellum leaves 14"x20 1/2".

Beginning with Gutenberg in 1456, the Bible first produced in printed form. The Donaldson collection includes a page of a Gutenberg which was disassembled in 1921. The Gutenberg Bible and other books printed before 1500 are known as "incunabula." Included in the Donaldson collection is the Fourth Edition of the German Bible by Gunther Zainer printed in Augsburg, 1475. This is considered to be the first illustrated Bible and the best of all black leather Bibles; an important woodcut book; Anton Koberger's fourth Vulgate Bible, 1478; Jenson's Latin Bible Second Edition which is famous for its exquisite beauty and superior quality of typography and it has been said of Jenson that "he had no rival and left no successor." The last of Donaldson's complete incunabula is the "Poor Man's Bible" done by Johannes Froben of Basel in 1491. The productions of Froben led directly to the heart of Benjamin Donaldson's accumulated works.

In 1516 Erasmus produced a New Testament in Greek, publishing the Greek and Latin translation in parallel columns. Working with four Greek texts of the New Testament, none older than 1100 A. D., Erasmus prepared his Greek edition of the Gospel. His publisher, Froben of Basel, pushed him into early publication. Erasmus, a man of the New Learning, correctly anticipated that his work would incur the wrath of the established Church.

His Greek text and new Latin translation set off a furor, the most explosive passage being the difference in his rendition of I John 5: 7-8 and that of St. Jerome's Latin Vulgate. The omission of this Trinitarian verse implicitly discredited the Doctrine of the Trinity. Erasmus answered his critics by challenging them to produce one copy of an original Greek New Testament containing the suspected verse; such an original Greek text was located in Ireland although undoubtedly a forgery

Erasmus recanted in his final commentary. The Vulgate text of I John was used through the English editions including King James, until the discovery of the 3rd Century Greek manuscripts which led to the development of the Revised Standard Version. Erasmus' translation of Matthew 4:17 to "be penitent" instead of "do penance" was a theological insight that did not escape Martin Luther.

Luther cited Erasmus' translation of this verse in defense of his 95 Theses which he posted on the castle church door at Wittenberg protesting the sale of indulgences in 1517. Literally, this is a book which changed the Western World. Donaldson has collected not only the 1516 edition but also the 1519 edition which Martin Luther used to translate the New Testament into German. The many ornate woodcuts and borders done by Holbein of these and the three subsequent Erasmus productions by Froben are included in the Donaldson collection. The First Edition of Martin Luther's Old Testament, 1523, with full page woodcuts done by Luka Cranach demonstrates Luther's contribution to the development of the Bible as an educational instrument.

William Tyndale was a student of Erasmus' and, in his fervor to produce an English New Testament, traveled to Wittenberg to study under Martin Luther in 1524. With the aid of Lutheran scholars, Tyndale produced an English translation of the New Testament in 1526. Henry VIII condemned the edition and only one copy of the First Edition of this work exists. The Donaldson collection includes a copy of the Fourth Edition of Tyndale's work in parallel translation with Erasmus' Latin. Tyndale was proscribed by the Crown except for a short but popular respite upon Henry's marriage to Ann Boleyn in 1534. Although Henry took as his two closest advisors Archbishop Cranmer and his Secretary of State, Thomas Cromwell, he refused to recognize the validity of the English translation. Henry's agents betrayed Tyndale to the Catholic Emperor, Charles V at Brussels and in 1536, he was condemned for heresy, tied to the stake, strangled and burned. According to tradition, his last words were "Lord, open the King of England's eyes!"

Although prohibited from acknowledging their debt to Tyndale, the Church of England was ordered by Henry to prepare an English translation. Other scholars including Miles Coverdale and John Rogers had begun translations of the New Testament, but did not make them public until authorized by the Crown. All of these worked from Tyndale's translation with the aid of German Lutheran analysis. The Coverdale Bible, first printed in 1535 is a prize of the Donaldson collection as is the 1538 edition.

John Rogers, publishing under the pseudonym of Thomas Matthews, produced his version without any authorization. Cromwell, anxious to obtain an authorized version, but disliking Coverdale's theological interpretive marginal notes, directed Coverdale to prepare a new text based upon Matthews' Bible. This produced the "Great Bible" or Henry VIII Bible of 1539, which is graced by the fine Holbein woodcut on the title page showing Henry VIII enthroned above the Bishops of the Church, dispensing copies of the Bible to Cranmer and Cromwell, who thereupon pass out copies to the clergy and laity, with the populus thronged underneath joyfully shouting "Vivat Rex" and "long live the Kyng." Donaldson has a 1541 production of this work which is remarkable in that Cromwell's seal is struck and his face is changed from the original woodcut. Henry's Secretary of State was executed in 1540 as the result of the King's displeasure with Cromwell's selection of a royal bride.

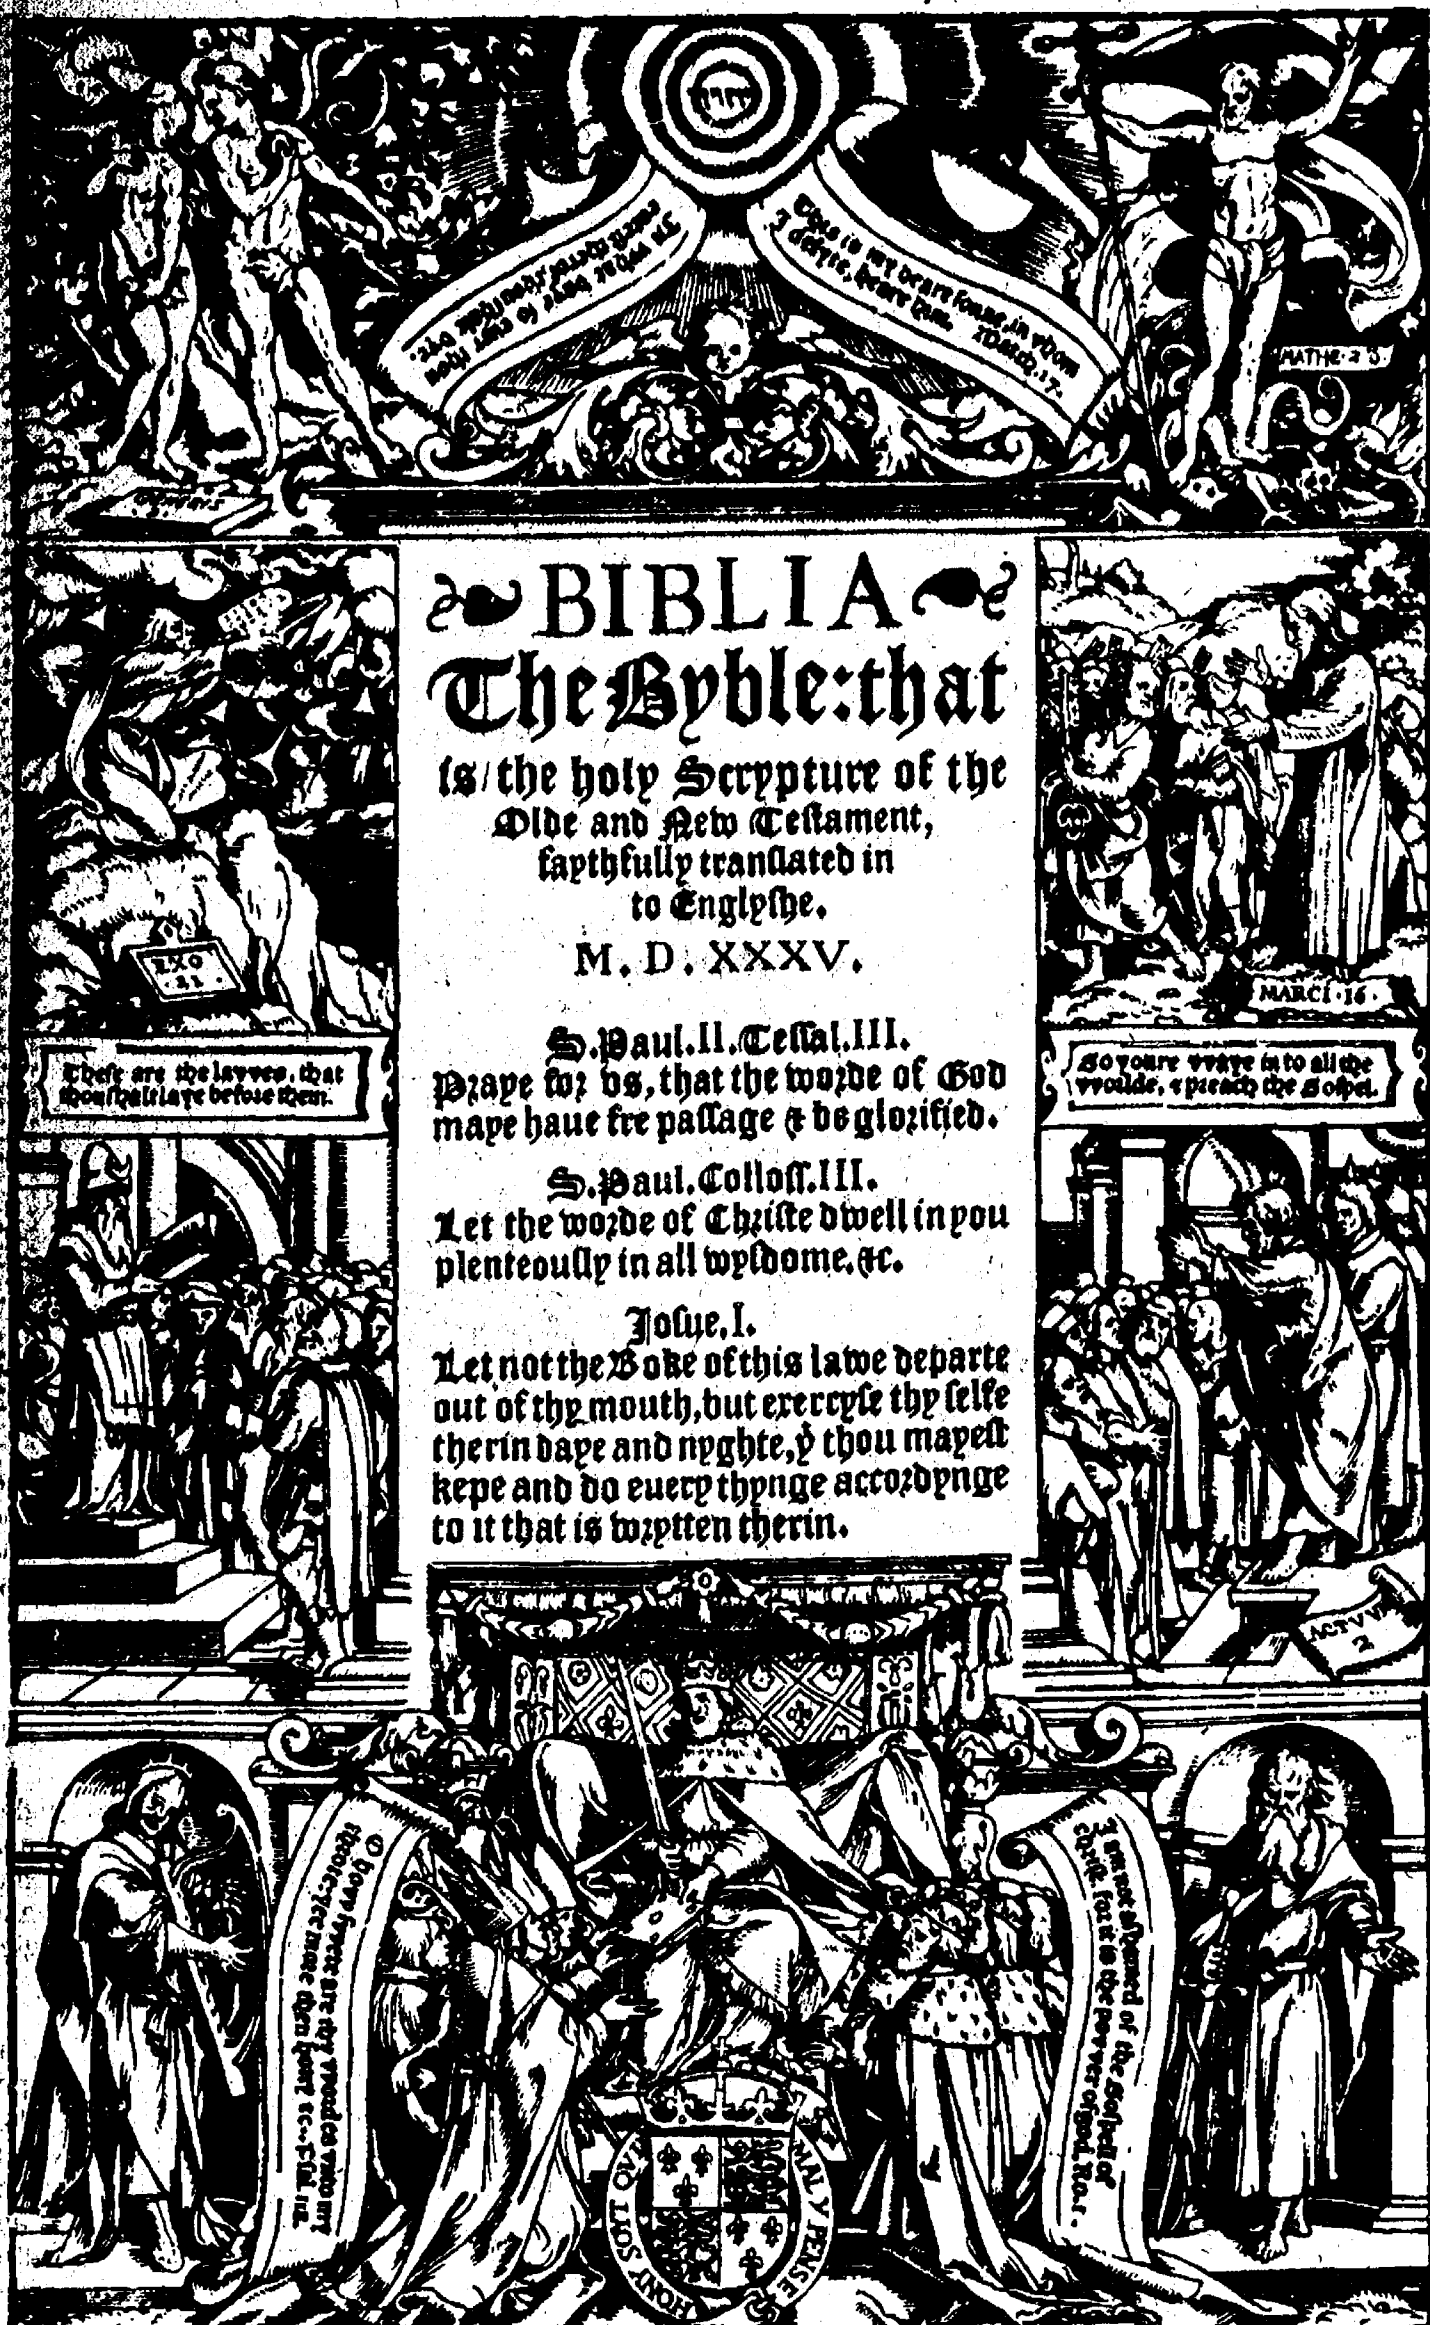

After the publication of the Great Bible, the work of translation in England was halted by Henry's decree until the reign of Queen Elizabeth. During the reign of "Bloody" Mary, the English reformers fled to the continent and there produced the Geneva version of 1557 and 1560. Donaldson has these editions which are known as the "Breeches Bible" because of the Puritan preference to clothe Adam and Eve with "breeches" instead of "aprons" as they fled from the Garden of Eden.

During her reign, Mary put to death Archbishop Cranmer, John Rogers and the other scholars who had not escaped. The Geneva version was so popular that it was republished in 160 editions, finally being dedicated to Queen Elizabeth. Although popular, it was not an appropriate version for public reading and the Church of England attempted to produce its version in competition to that of the Puritan party. The First Edition of the Bishop's Bible appeared in 1568, containing the first order for authorization that this Bible is to be placed in every church. Several Bishop's Bibles are to be included May 24.

An answer to the English production, the Roman church and its scholars who gathered at Reims first produced the Douay version in 1582, a copy of which Donaldson has, and then with a 1609 and 1610 version of the complete Bible, also in the Donaldson collection. In an attempt to stave off the popularity of the Catholic Edition, King James attempted to heal the schism between the established Church and the Puritans by calling together both parties and commanding that they produce a single version. This led directly to the First Edition of King James. This is known as the "Great He Bible" of 1611 for its one error in referring to Ruth as "he." Together with Donaldson's Second Issue King James, the "Great She Bible," and the other three issues of First Edition of King James, the Donaldson collection presents a complete showing of King James. This Bible is singular not only for its beauty of language but also for its illustration and educational value to the reader. Although popular, it took many years for King James to gain priority over the Geneva version which continued to be the Bible of the Puritan Church and accompanied the Pilgrims to Massachusetts.

Bibles have nicknames and peculiarities in translations, the most notable of which have been collected by Donaldson. A version of the Bishop's Bible is (Continued on page six)

Donaldson Bible Display

known as the "Brayne Panne" Bible for its unique rendition of the word, skull. The famous "Bugg Bible" produces this rendition of the famous passage from the 91st Psalm, "so that thou shall not need to afraid for any Buggs by night nor for the arrow that flyeth by day." This Bible is also known as the "Wife Beating Bible" by reason of the note in III Peter, which says that if your wife "be not obedient and helpful until him (the husband) he shall endeavor to beat the fear of God into her head; and that thereby she may be compelled to learn her duty and to do it." Likewise, there is the "Treacle Bible" and the "Vinegar Bible." Finally, there is the infamous "Wicked Bible," 1631, which commands that "Thou shall commit adultery."

Donaldson has also collected Bibles important in Americana; a portion of the Elliott Indian Bible, the Sauer German Bible, the Aitken and a significant collection of translations into North American Indian tongues. Rounding out the exhibit are limited and special editions of the Bible, a New Testament the size of a thumbnail and the Lord's Prayer in seven languages, done in typeset and small enough to sit fully atop one's little finger.

The rarest of the Donaldson collection are housed for safekeeping at the Ann Arbor Trust Co. This special showing of the Benjamin R. Donaldson collection is under the auspices of the Chelsea Ministerial Fellowship and will be open to the public between the hours of 2 p.m. and 5 p.m., Sunday, May 24. Interpreting this unique collection will be attorney Peter Flintoft, who will speak at both 2:30 p.m. and 4 p.m. A free-will donation to cover expenses may be given.

MEMBERS OF JUNIOR TROOP 719 traveled to Camp Linden last week-end for a two-night, three-day outdoor adventure. A total of 11 girls from Troop 719 participated. Above, four scouts survey the wilderness of Camp Linden, jotting down notes for future reference.

Girl Scouts Enjoy Camp Session

Eleven girls from junior Girl Scout Troop 719 spent the weekend of May 15 to May 17 camping at Camp Linden near Linden. They were Kelly Dale, Christina Hughes, Ann Weiner, Karen Paulsell, Jennifer Ghent, Lisa Taylor, Jennifer Rossi, Peggy Hammerschmidt, Holly Martin, Martina Grenier and Allison Thornton.

Though there was a slight rain on Friday afternoon, by Saturday the sun matched the girls' spirits. In addition to successfully cooking their dinner over an open fire, they spent Friday night listening to ghost stories and eating s'mores by the campfire. Saturday morning, they joined Troop 58 for a nature hike through Camp Linden. After lunch they finished making a message center for their parents. That night the two troops got together for foil dinners of hamburger, onions, potatoes and carrots. The evening included a trip to the lake, stargazing, compliments of Mr. Colbry of Troop 58 and to top the night off, a campfire, s'mores and singing. Sunday included picking up camp, a scout's own and a wind down trip to McDonald's on the way home.

Hospice Group Helps Families of Terminally Ill

Hospice, n., an establishment providing special services, to address the needs of the terminally ill and their families.

Hospice of Washtenaw is a developing community agency organized as a charitable activity and incorporated by the State of Michigan. Financial support is received through a grant from Washtenaw United Way and private contributors. As a home-based hospice, volunteers provide services to people in their Washtenaw county homes.

The organization's stated purposes include being an advocate for the terminally ill and their families; to utilize to the fullest extent possible already existing community resources; to coordinate activities with those resources so that a single service plan per patient and family can be constantly and consistently addressed; to provide services for the terminally ill and their families which are presently non-existent in the community; and, to promote community understanding of the needs of the terminally ill and their families.

The services are provided by multi-disciplinary teams consisting of nurses who volunteer time to the program, lay volunteers, volunteer social workers and clergy. Direct nursing care is provided by nurses from the local home health care agencies who are considered members of the teams.

Hospice of Washtenaw is a network of people and services specifically organized to help someone facing a terminal illness. It is an organization that stresses that anyone facing the possibility of death should be able to obtain whatever help is necessary to continue to live as comfortably and as fully as possible. The hospice program draws on its resources to help alleviate the suffering, uncertainty and fear which is often associated with dying.

Following the developmental stages of Hospice of Washtenaw last summer, 11 volunteers began training last August as hospice volunteers and by September, the group began providing services to two patients. In October, 30 persons trained as direct care team members—working directly with terminally ill patients and their families.

Direct care volunteers work as teams. Volunteer members may be lay persons or persons from any profession though professionals serve specialized functions on the teams; each Direct Care Team consists of a volunteer nurse, social worker, clergy person and one to three lay volunteers. Direct care volunteers provide social and emotional supportive service for patients and their families.

Indirect care volunteers function in a variety of roles which increase the capacity of the agency to provide effective and efficient service to patients and families.

Tasks are varied and can include office work, speaking engagements, fundraising and providing child care for Direct Care Team members. Hospice of Washtenaw is dependent on volunteer membership on its Board of Directors and committees as well.

Acceptance into the hospice program is based on a mutual agreement among those concerned—the individual, family, physician, and hospice—that such help is both timely and desirable. During assistance, family members are helped to act as caregivers and are encouraged to retain personal responsibility and involvement. Hospice assists families in adjusting to difficult circumstances and provides bereavement support when necessary.

But, hospice, utilizing existing community services, provides a complete continuing program of help. In addition to medical and nursing services, the agency can arrange for assistance with housekeeping and errands, special equipment, and individual and family counseling. It makes every effort to provide its services to those in need despite personal or financial situations.

As of last month, Hospice of Washtenaw was providing care to seven patients and their families with the help of direct care teams. Two families were receiving bereavement support, an area which has grown from inter-hospice to a total community bereavement support group available to anyone in the county who has recently lost a loved one.

TREMENDOUS TOMATO: At 1 lb. 12 1/2 oz., Lee Ferguson's tomato afforded him recognition in Michigan Natural Resources magazine's Monster Vegetable Contest. Harvested during the 1980 season, Ferguson was deemed worthy of seven additional monster vegetable awards for his gigantic crop.

Ferguson Grows Giant Vegetables

Lee H. Ferguson of 10425 Jackson Rd., Dexter, received eight certificates from Michigan Natural Resources magazine last week, commending him for his obvious green thumb resulting in the cultivation of "monster vegetables" in 1980. The preceding year, Ferguson was the recipient of five "monster vegetable" awards.

The certificates awarded proclaim Ferguson a "Michigan gardener known throughout the land for his annual production of the largest vegetables in North America, if not the world."

His stupendous produce consisted of a 1 lb. 12 1/2 oz. potato, a 12 oz. ear of corn, a 2 oz. radish, a 6 lb. 11 oz. melon, a 1 lb. 12 1/2 oz. tomato, a batch of 160 lima beans equal to 1 lb., a batch of green beans equal to 1 lb. and a batch of 747 peas equal to 1 lb.

Michigan Natural Resources magazine, sponsoring its second annual contest, had three times as many entries as last year and 12 existing records were broken. Ferguson won hands down in submitting the most entries.

Deemed winner or runner-up for his enormous ear of corn, radish, melon, batch of lima beans, tomato, batch of green beans, batch of peas and potato, Ferguson grew the giant vegetables on his Dexter property.

SPELL OUT "LICENSE"

There are ways people may gain the permanent right to use your land without your formal consent—if you do not take the proper action in time to protect your rights. You might tell your neighbor, for example, that it's all right for him to use part of your land as an extension of his garden. You are giving him a "license" to use the plot. But if he does so for several years (local law dictates the time span), you might find you have agreed to a permanent easement.

Another problem could arise if your neighbor claims he has given you some consideration in return. Say he spends money to improve the land by leveling and tilling it. Or he gave you lots of vegetables from the garden each year. It may not be so easy to revoke the license in that case.

To avoid such situations, make sure any license you grant is in writing and clearly spells out the terms. To be safe, check with your attorney.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at FRISINGER REALTY CO., 935 S. Main St., Chelsea. Phone: 475-8681; evenings 475-2621. We're here to help!

CHS Symphony Orchestra Presents Concert in Toronto

Chelsea high school symphony orchestra, under the direction of Kevin Miller, performed to an enthusiastic audience at Bloor Collegiate Institute in Toronto, Ontario on Friday, May 8 as part of a cultural exchange. The capacity audience, consisting of the entire student body, teachers and administrators, heard the orchestra play music it had performed at District and State Festivals.

Hans Gasteiger, the Bloor Orchestra Director, said, "It has been a long time since such a fine orchestra has played on our stage. You have given us a thrill we will long remember."

The orchestra arrived in Toronto Thursday night, May 7 where they stayed in the homes of the Toronto students. The community has a diverse ethnic population and many of the parents spoke no English. After the performance, the orchestra members were given lunch at the school. Then the students toured Casa Loma, a 98-room mansion built from 1904 to 1914 by a wealthy Canadian financier.

From there, the students toured Toronto's elegant city hall and the surrounding business district before going to Toronto's most impressive structure, the CN Tower. There they ate dinner in the world's highest revolving restaurant and enjoyed a spectacular view of the entire Toronto skyline.

That evening, Chelsea students were entertained by Bloor students in their annual Caravan Night, an ethnic festival featuring native foods, costumes, singing and dancing.

Saturday morning, the orchestra visited Toronto's famous Science Centre, followed by a shopping trip in the late afternoon at Eaton Centre, Toronto's most elegant shopping mall. The orchestra then rode the subway back to Bloor where they were guests at a pot-luck banquet prepared by Bloor students. A dance followed the meal and the Bloor students presented the Chelsea orchestra with a plaque commemorating the cultural exchange between the school and a tape of the concert. After the dance, the orchestra members said good-bye to their generous hosts, spent their last night in Toronto at the Ramada Inn, and returned home Sunday.

Commenting on the trip, Kevin Miller said, "It was a great experience for all of us. I thank the Band and Orchestra Boosters, Mrs. Gay Dalton, the administration, and the entire community for making this trip possible."

Michigan Travel Centers Offer Free Phone Calls

Michigan's travel industry is getting a shot in the arm from a special new phone reservation system which officially goes into operation this month in the state's 10 travel information centers.

The system will enable travelers stopping at the centers run by the Michigan Department of Transportation to dial toll-free to any travel-related establishment in the state, ranging from hotels to museums and campgrounds.

The phone reservation system was installed on a pilot basis last summer at four centers, and more than 2,000 calls were logged during the three-month period.

Cost of the system for one year is approximately $10,000, according to MDOT officials.

The department operates centers on I-75 near Monroe, Sault Ste Marie, and Mackinaw City, along I-94 near New Buffalo and Port Huron, I-69 near Coldwater, US-23 near Dundee, US-27 near Clare, US-2 at Ironwood and US-41 at Menominee.

Last year, the 10 centers attracted a record 1,726,000 visitors.

Michigan Near Bottom in Road Aid

Michigan is being "badly short-changed" in the amount of federal money it receives for highway work, a state transportation official contends.

Over the past 25 years, Michigan has received only 82 cents for every dollar it sent to Washington in taxes on highway users, said G. J. McCarthy, deputy director for highways in the Michigan Department of Transportation (MDOT). The state's return is the eighth lowest among the 50 states, he said.

In 1979, the last year for which figures are available, Michigan ranked 48th with its 72-cents return on the dollar.

McCarthy, testifying in Washington this month before the House Appropriations Subcommittee on Transportation, called for legislation providing for more equitable distribution of federal highway aid. He said the federal government should return at least 90 cents of every dollar it receives from a state.

McCarthy proposed special consideration for northern states where winter creates special problems in highway construction and maintenance. He also recommended taking the age of the pavement into consideration when money for repair and rehabilitation of the interstate freeway system is divided up.

Michigan, a snowbelt state which led the nation for several years in the 1950s and 1960s in building its segment of the interstate system, would gain on both counts.

McCarthy told the committee that Michigan's apportionment of federal funds for its primary state highway system has been declining while construction costs are climbing an average 12.5 percent a year.

In the current fiscal year which extends through Sept. 30, he said, the state's remaining apportionment for the primary system is $6 million — $84 million short of what is needed to continue three major construction projects now under way. Additional funds are needed for other smaller projects, he said.

A requirement that no state should receive less than 90 percent of the federal highway taxes it collects would have given Michigan an additional $20.5 million last year, McCarthy said.

SNEAKY JUICES

During these warm summer months, you'll be drinking plenty of ice-cold, fruit drinks. If you happen to spill any juice on your clothing, be sure to get garment to us just as soon as you can.

Don't be fooled by the juice leaving no immediate stain. Remember when you used lemon juice as "invisible ink" when you were a child? You can well imagine what that juice can do to your clothes! When juices dry, they appear to be gone. But if you get them into sunlight or apply heat with an iron, these stains will turn brown — and may leave a permanent stain.

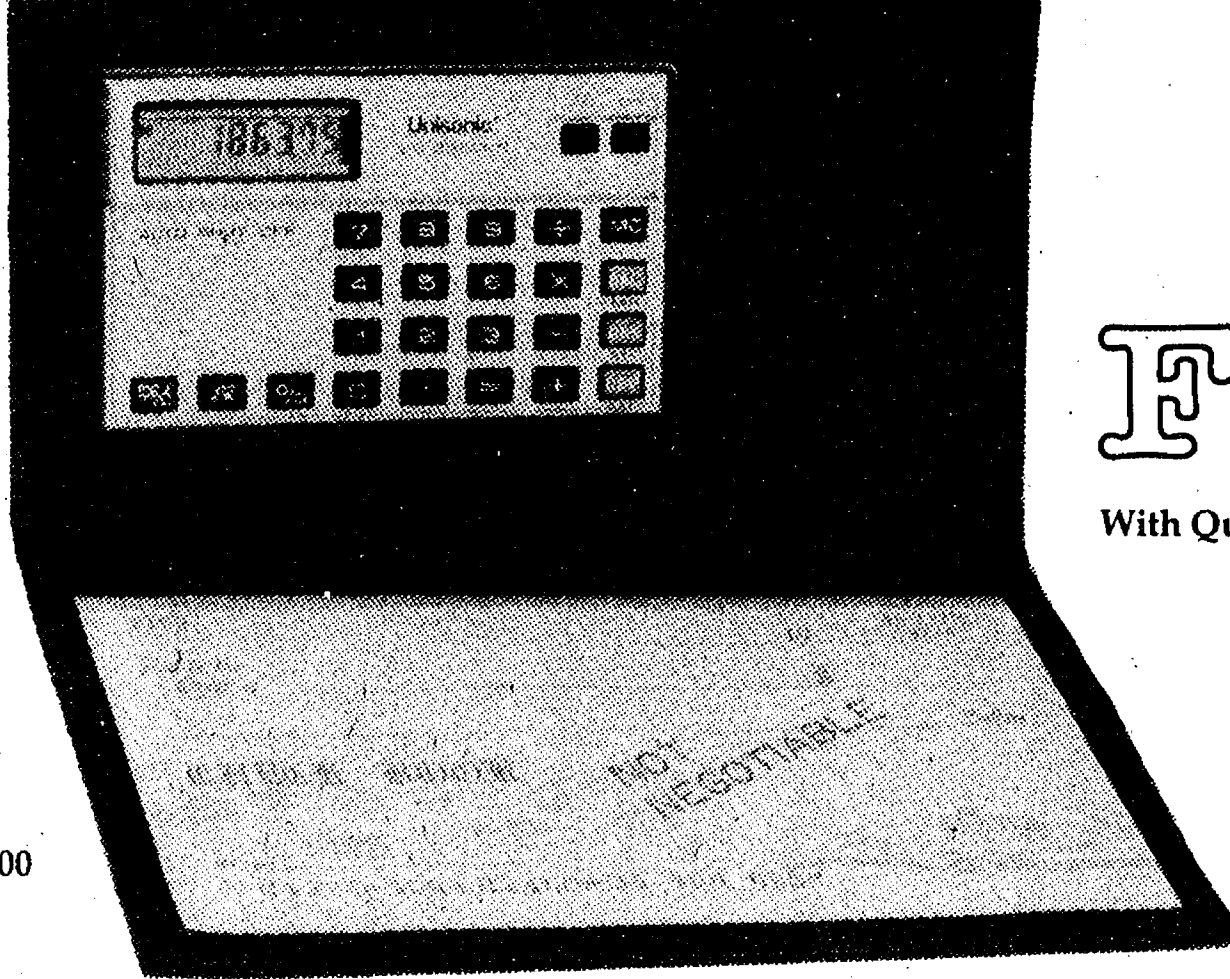

Get the clothing to us right away. Be sure to tell us where the stain is and what the staining agent was. We'll use our professional cleaning experience to get the stains out safely.

For a number of years, Beach Middle school has sponsored a two-day camp for students in the 6th grade. With the camping experience, students, parents and teachers have the opportunity to get to know each other prior to the onset of the following school year.

Approximately 150 students in two groups of 75 gather at Mill Lake Camp for a two to three day learning experience complete with varied daily activities. This year, group one met at Mill Lake Camp Monday and left Wednesday; the second group arrived thereafter. Students, divided into cabins with two adults as supervisors, then spent the days and nights involved in a vast array of relevant activities.

Staffing the camp are parent and teacher volunteers who arrive and depart at different times, depending on the time of their scheduled activity. Nearly 90 different activities were scheduled daily between the hours of 9 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. to include canoeing, fishing, bog walks, cemetery studies, nature photography, hiking, wildflower identification, campfire sings, charades and star gazing, to name a few. A new activity was begun each hour.

Donating their services for this worthwhile annual activity were the Waterloo Nature Center, Beach school staff members including Nola Borders, Tammy Barbret, Joe Beard, daytime activity and camp director, Barbara Brown, Al Conklin, John Capper, Betty Cox, Jim Hoffmeyer, Dave Johnson, David Knisely, Margaret Koch, Bert Kruse, Jean Mann, Warren Mayer, Alice Steinbach, Paul Simon, Pete Warburton, Bill Wescott, evening activity and camp director, Marge Lazarz, Susan Hull, Debbie Saravolatz, Pat Tchiblakian and Bev Yelsik.

Calling during the evening square dancing were Walter and Helen Bone while naturalist Tom Hodgson led the evening program of star gazing. Waterloo Nature Center provided a Native American Indian and a Michigan geology program.

Co-ordinator of the cabin arrangements were Betty Cox and Marge Lazarz who also recruited all of the parent volunteers. Cooking "camp-like delectable delights" were Debbie Saravolatz, Pat Tchiblakian and Bev Yelsik while Paula Schneider of the Livingston County Ambulance Service brought an ambulance and taught the students first aid.

The annual event was a terrific success despite threatening weather.

Varsity Softball Team Wins First In State Tourney

The Chelsea varsity softball team took their first step in the state softball tournament Tuesday, May 12 as they defeated a good Lincoln team, 7-2, in their first pre-district game. Amy Unterbrink pitched a strong game for Chelsea, giving up two runs on six hits and four Chelsea errors. Unterbrink struck out 12 Lincoln batters while not giving up a walk.

Cara Feeney, Laurie Cobb, Molly Elsele, Kelly Hense and Amy Unterbrink all singled for Chelsea while Jennifer Ringe collected a double in a strong hitting performance by the Chelsea team.

Chelsea's next state tournament game is Friday, May 22 at Carlton Airport.

Tennis Team Participants In Regional

Chelsea's tennis team participated in the Class B Regionals held at Monroe Racquet Club, Friday, May 15. The team did quite well as a whole, being a novice team this year with very little experience.

The first and second doubles teams fared the best by getting past two teams from Schafer. Steve Wilson and Craig Thams beat their opponents 6-1, 6-1 to advance to the second round. The second doubles team, composed of Tom Schumann and Kurt Eisenbeiser won over their opponents 6-1, 6-1 and advanced to the second round as well.

Both of these doubles teams then met the number one and two seeds in the tournament and lost out. Wilson and Thams met the number one seed from Monroe Catholic Central. They played excellent tennis and managed to get two games each set from MCC. Schumann and Eisenbeiser met the number two seed from Grosse Ile and lost 6-1, 6-0 to a very experienced team.

Doug Inglis lost to Brad Koch of Saline, 6-0, 6-1; Bill Merkel to B. Rottet of Southgate, 6-0, 6-3; Mike Reid to J. Marcouf of River Rouge, 6-4, 6-4. Reid played an excellent game but lost. Damon Mark lost to K. Wlodkowski of Riverview, 6-0, 6-1 and the third doubles team of Rob Moore and Bob Bentley lost to Cherry Hill, 6-3, 6-2.

The regionals were to have been played at four different sites in Monroe but were rained out shortly after first round play. The rest of the matches, made up of 15 teams and 150 players, had to be played inside and were played at Monroe Racquet Club, finishing at 8 p.m.

In all, the Chelsea team did very well in its first year in a B Regional. Everyone played well and it was a worthwhile experience.

Varsity Softball Team Wins 3 To Stay Undefeated in SEC

Chelsea varsity softball team chalked up two wins Wednesday against Milan to bring their season mark to 19-2.

Anita Powell pitched the first game of the doubleheader, defeating the Big Reds, 6-3, and posting her 10th win of the season without a loss. Anita is now 6-0 in SEC league play as the lady Bulldogs remain atop the conference with a perfect 9-0 record. Kim Boyd picked up the win in the second game with a 12-0 shut-out of Milan in five innings.

In the first game, Milan went out in front, 3-0, in the fourth inning, but Chelsea fought back to tie the game in the bottom of the fourth inning as Amy Unterbrink led off with a triple and Kim Boyd followed with a double. Anita Powell then laid down a perfect bunt single and stole second base. Molly Elsele then tied the game with a sharp single into right field.

Chelsea finally took the lead in the sixth inning as Laurie Cobb walked with two out and Cathy Wade was hit by a pitched ball. Jennifer Ringe singled to load the bases and Amy Hume came up with the big hit of the game as she tripled into left center field to score all three runs.

In the second game, Kim Schmid led the Chelsea attack with a double and a single to drive in three runs. Cathy Wade and Laurie Cobb also had run-producing singles as the Chelsea girls put the game away in the first three innings.

On Monday, the Chelsea girls defeated Dexter, 12-0, in five innings as sophomore Kim Boyd pitched her first no-hit shut-out of the season. Boyd has made only three pitching starts for Chelsea this season while playing full time as the varsity's right fielder. Kim is now 3-1 on the season and picked up her first SEC victory over Dexter.

Amy Hume and Kelly Hense each smacked doubles off the Dexter pitchers as Chelsea took the victory. Cathy Wade, Anita Powell and Molly Elsele also collected hits in the icy cold as Chelsea put Dexter away in five innings.

Girls Track Team Goes to Conference Meet in 3rd Place

The girls track team ended its dual meet season Tuesday with an 86-37 victory over Jackson County Western. The win gave the Bulldogs a 5-3 record over-all and a 4-2 record in the Southeastern Conference. They go to Wednesday's conference meet, third in the league standings. As they have so often in the past four years, Mary Boylan and Lorrie Vandegrift got the Bulldogs an early lead against Western by finishing 1-2 in the shot put and discus events.

"Mary and Lorrie have been major factors in our success this season," said Coach Bill Bainton. "They have been steady, consistent performers and team leaders."

Vandegrift also won the 110 hurdles and the high jump, which the Bulldogs swept with all three jumpers, Vandegrift, Tracy Bohlender and Sharon Glassford clearing 4'10". Sue Young added a victory in the long jump to give Chelsea a 30-6 lead after the field events.

The highlight of the day's running was firsts in all three relays for the lady Bulldogs. Lisa Vandegrift ran on each of those teams. The 880 relay was made up of Lisa Vandegrift, Carolyn Chandler, Kathy Honbaum and Tracy Bohlender. It was the first win of the season for the 440 relay of Vandegrift, Chandler, Sue Young and Carrie Parkins. Running in the mile relay were Vandegrift, Honbaum, Bohlender and Nancy Hastings.

Other scorers for Chelsea were Carolyn Chandler with a first in the 220; Kathy Honbaum, first in the 440; Tracy Bohlender, first in the 220 hurdles with a good :32.6 clocking. Nancy Hastings was second in the two mile and third in the mile runs. Freshmen Carol Warren and Wendy Wolfgang finished second and third in the 880 and Sue Young added a first in the 100 and a second in the 220.

"It's good to see Sue improving," commented Bainton. "The last two meets have been her best of the season."

Sandy Frame continued her excellent running, winning the two mile at 23:18.7. Chelsea's Western's Deb Kuntzelman won the mile in 5:25.7 and the 880 in 2:25.2.

In Wednesday's conference meet at Dexter, league leading Milan will be the favorite probably followed by Tecumseh, currently in second place in the SEC. Chelsea, Dexter and Saline will be in a battle for third.

Some of the top individuals in the meet will be Mary Boylan of Chelsea and Laurie Murphy of Tecumseh in the shot and discus, sprinter Tracy Early of Milan, hurdler Martha Hans of Tecumseh and distance runners Kelly McKillen of Dexter, Jennifer Pratt of Milan and Deb Kuntzelman of Western.

Sluggers Eliminated From District 3 Last Week

Chelsea's varsity baseball team traveled to New Boston Huron Saturday for its pre-district qualifying game. A 3-0 loss dropped Chelsea from district competition.

According to Coach Wayne Welton, it was a good ballgame and the first time Chelsea was shut out in two years.

Both teams had a total of six hits but the Bulldogs were unable to capitalize on their advantages. The Huron team was able to score twice in the third on a double, an error and a single but when Chelsea attempted to follow suit in the sixth inning, they were stopped.

"We just didn't get the hits we needed," explained Welton, "and this was one of the top two teams we have played all year."

Though the Bulldogs were shut out, Chelsea had strong pitching from John Welton who allowed six hits and struck out five Huron batters. "John pitched a fine game; he pitched well enough for us to win," explained Welton, "but we got very few breaks."

Leading the Bulldog hitting attack were Welton and Ross Stofflet with two hits apiece while Ross Murphy and Mike Bohlender added a hit each.

Chelsea's 1981 baseball season comes to a close this week following a double header against Fowlerville at Fowlerville Tuesday and a final league encounter Wednesday against Jackson County Western.

A Bumpy Ride

George A. Wyman of San Francisco, Calif., began America's first transcontinental trip by motorcycle in that city on May 16, 1903. Driving a 3½ horsepower, single-cylinder, belt-driven Yales-California motorcycle, Wyman completed his 2,000-mile trip on July 8, a mere 81 days later. His early motor bike averaged 50 miles per day on the journey. A stroll through Henry Ford Museum's Transportation Collection in Dearborn offers a chance to view some vintage motorcycles, including a 1903 Aster, a 1904 Indian and a 1909 Excelsior.

Big Boy Edged in First League Game

Chelsea Big Boy restaurant opened its league play in the Men's Major "A" Fast Pitch league Tuesday evening. The Chelsea team took a 6-4 loss at the hands of defending champion Wolverine Supply of Ann Arbor.

Wolverine took an early 3-0 lead in the top of the first inning, scoring three unearned runs after the first two batters had been retired.

Chelsea gave up an additional run in the third inning and trailed 4-0, when Al Augustine broke the ice in the bottom of the third with a shot over the left field fence, his first homer of the year. Greg Sollner, a newcomer to the team, then hit a single and stole second base. With one out, Mike Laverman drove him in with a double; Len Kozma then reached base on an infield hit, putting runners on first and third. Laverman then scored on a bounce out, with the third run of the inning.

Wolverine scored two more runs, one in the fifth inning on a homerun by Mike Piesko, and another in the seventh as Dennis Hutchins tripled in a run.

Chelsea second baseman Randy Brier hit a solo homerun in the bottom of the seventh to cut the score to 6-4.

Chelsea's bid for a comeback was foiled by three close plays at first base in the seventh inning.

Lou Tarach went all the way for Wolverine to pitch his first win and Ron Hodge went the distance and was tagged with his first loss for Chelsea.

Chelsea's next game will be Tuesday, May 19 at 8:15 p.m.

Chelsea's varsity baseball team suffered three defeats last week at the hands of Dexter's Dreadnaughts and the Milan Big Reds. Against Dexter, the Bulldogs were defeated 12-3 in a game that was "all Dexter."

The Dreadnaughts banged out 20 hits at the hands of Chelsea pitchers John Welton and Sean Peterson, who deserved a better fate. Welton allowed 10 hits in four innings, Peterson allowed the final 10 in three. Dexter took a quick 11-0 lead before the Bulldogs could muster their three home runs of the afternoon. Thereafter, the Dreadnaughts collected their final run of the game.

"The ball was all Dexter's," commented Chelsea Coach Wayne Welton. "None of their hits were cheap."

Chelsea's only two hits came from Jeff Dilis and Ross Stofflet. Wednesday, May 13, the Bulldogs hosted Milan in a double header. Chelsea came up short in both games, 13-5 in the first and 4-2 in the second.

Steve Grau, pitching a good first game, allowed the Big Reds eight hits on a couple of errors. The Bulldogs also slammed out eight hits but, according to Coach Wayne Welton, "Their's counted, our's didn't."

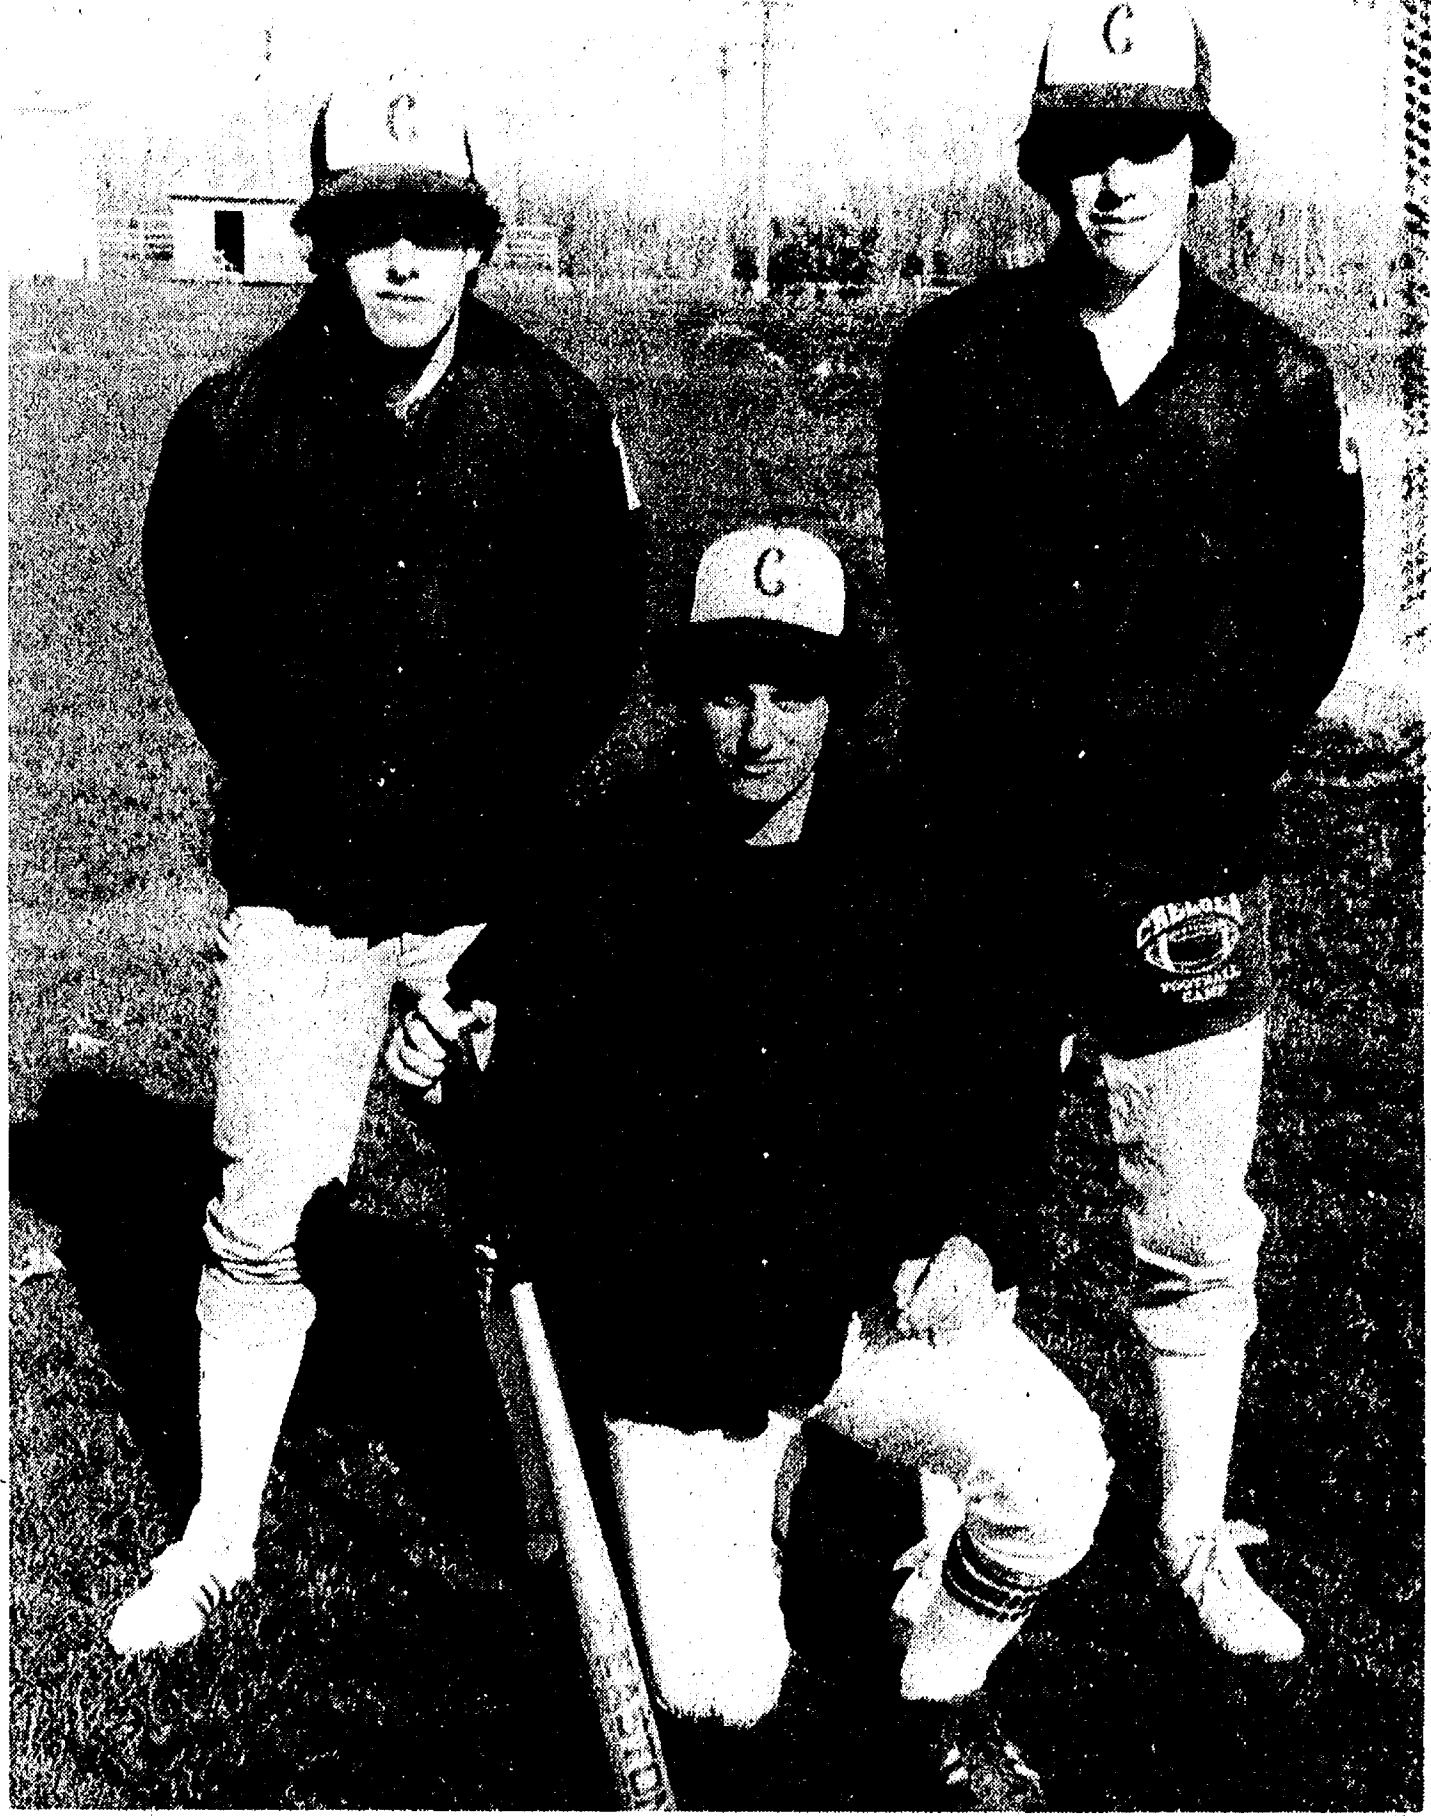

Leading the Bulldog hitting attack was Ross Murphy with four RBIs on three hits, one of which was a double. Mike Gipson also pounded out two hits as did Stofflet, Bohlender and Welton with one apiece.

The second game lasted only six innings because of darkness. Sean Peterson, who had pitched three innings the day before against Dexter, again took the mound and did a "nice job." Pitching nine innings in two days, Peterson gave his opponents a "gummy performance."

Leading the Chelsea hitting attack was Mike Bates who pounded out a double off the fence in left field. Craig Olmsted, Jeff Dilis and Sam Coomes also contributed hits in the Bulldog effort. Nevertheless, Chelsea was unable to come up with the big play when it was needed and bowed to the Big Reds, 4-2.

Thursday's games against Ann Arbor Pioneer were rained out.

Sluggers of the Week

FEATURED BASEBALL PLAYERS This week include, left to right, John Preston, Sam Coomes and Ross Stofflet. Junior John Preston is a two-year baseball letterman currently playing in center field. According to Coach Wayne Welton, Preston is an "outstanding defensive outfielder" who may make the move to the infield next season. In addition to baseball, Preston is a three-time football player and member of the CHS wrestling team. In his first year on the varsity squad, Sam Coomes has moved out to left field this season. In summing up his talents, Welton explained that Coomes is a "good contact hitter." Ross Stofflet is currently playing his second year on the varsity baseball team. As a senior this season, Stofflet was the Bulldogs leading hitter, one year ago and is among them this season. A left hander, Welton explains that Stofflet is "a good player with unlimited potential."

Trackmen Are 4th in Relays

Chelsea's boys track team placed fourth in an eight team field at the Cardinal Relays held at Michigan Center, Saturday, May 9. The meet was won by Lincoln with 56 points, Mason was second with 36 points, Saline third with 32 points and Chelsea fourth with 30 points.

The Bulldogs were led by the shot put relay team of Todd Sprague, Ken Nichola and Bill Freeman, who captured first place with a combined total of 133 feet.

Other Bulldog placers were

Matt McCallum, Daren Pierson, Mike Hintzen and Ray Williams, second in the shuttle hurdle relay.

In the distance medley relay, Chelsea placed third with the help of Bob Benedict, Dave Kies, Jeff Bradley and Mark Brosnan.

A First Automobile, Built Later On
 George Baldwin Selden filed a patent on May 8, 1879, on a self-propelled vehicle powered by an internal combustion engine. Satisfied with that step at the time, he went no further. In later years, with the rise of many different auto manufacturers, Selden went to court to prove he held the sole patent. He went so far in 1904 as to build a working, full-sized model of his vehicle to prove it, but to no avail.

St. Mary's Church Group Sponsoring Consignment Sale

St. Mary's Christian Service Committee will present "Trinkets to Treasures," a consignment sale of donated merchandise this week-end. Proceeds will go toward serving the needs of the elderly, needy and infirm, in the Chelsea community.

"Trinkets to Treasures" is neither a rummage nor garage sale. Instead, it is a consignment shop which will sell slightly used, good quality items on a 50 percent consignment basis.

The sale will be held at the Longworth Plating Building Friday, May 22 between the hours of 9 a.m. and 7 p.m. and Saturday, May 23 between the hours of 8 a.m. and 3 p.m.

Persons interested in donating items to the sale are asked to drop them off at the Longworth Building Thursday, May 21 between the hours of 10 a.m. and 12-noon. Pick-up service is available by calling 475-9815 or 475-7161.

The 1981 "Trinkets to Treasures" committee is made up of chairwoman Ann Comeau and members Diane Killelea, Louise Hubal, Jan Coffman, Karen Dixon, Liz Hollo, Kathy Payne, Adamine Michelson, Barb Robinson, Janet Salyer, Mary Degener and Pam Magyar.

Lady Bulldogs Win In Tourney of Champs

The Chelsea varsity softball team traveled to Memorial Field in Royal Oak two week-ends ago to play in the Tournament of Champions on Saturday. The Chelsea girls got off to a great start by defeating Grosse Pointe North, 6-2, in the opening game.

Chelsea jumped off to a 3-0 lead in the first inning as Laurie Cobb walked and Cara Feeney and Jennifer Ringe followed with singles to produce the first two runs. Amy Hume sacrificed in the third, bringing in what proved to be winning, run. Jennifer Ringe produced the safety margin in the seventh inning as she followed singles by Anita Powell and Molly Eisele with a base-clearing triple.

Chelsea then faced Royal Oak Kimball who boasted a 14-0 season record and came away with a 4-3 squeaker against the powerful Class A school.

Amy Unterbrink picked up the win for Chelsea, pitching a strong game as she gave up three runs on eight hits and three Chelsea errors. Unterbrink struck out seven Kimball hitters who proved to have fine batters, threatening to score in each inning.

Chelsea trailed 2-0 and then 3-1 until the bottom of the sixth inning when the Chelsea girls got their bats into action. Amy Hume opened the attack with one out with a walk and Amy Unterbrink and Kelly Hense each followed with singles to load the bases. After a fly out to right field, Anita Powell stroked a single into left to score two runs and tie the score. With two outs, Molly Eisele singled into center field to score the winning run and give the Chelsea team a great upset win over Kimball.

Sunday's games were rained out and were to be made up at a later date. Chelsea is scheduled to face Class A Royal Oak Dondero in one of the two games between unbeaten teams who remain in the tournament.

ARTIFICIAL LARYNX: THIS SMALL INSTRUMENT IS FOR PERSONS WHO HAVE LOST THE USE OF THEIR LARYNX. IT SUBSTITUTES ELECTRONIC VIBRATIONS FOR THE NATURAL VIBRATIONS OF THE VOICE. CALL YOUR LOCAL MICHIGAN BELL BUSINESS OFFICE FOR MORE INFORMATION.

800 NUMBERS: Some out-of-town businesses provide an "800" number that you can dial without charge. For example, when you want to call out of town about reservations, look for 800 numbers provided in ads by hotels, motels, resorts, airlines and ground transportation.

MOVING? AVOID UNNECESSARY PHONE INSTALLATION CHARGES. PLAN HOW MANY PHONES AND WHAT KIND OF SERVICE YOU'LL NEED. THEN CALL AND TELL YOUR MICHIGAN BELL REPRESENTATIVE. REMEMBER, ONCE YOUR NEW SERVICE IS INSTALLED, EXTRA VISITS BY YOUR INSTALLER CAN MEAN EXTRA EXPENSE FOR YOU!

IN 1915, Michigan hooked up to the first cross-country long distance line and the first DETROIT-TO-SAN FRANCISCO call was made. It took 30 minutes to set up the three-minute call and cost the customer $16.70!

IN 1877, THE FIRST COMMERCIAL TELEPHONE LINE WAS USED BY A DETROIT DRUGSTORE. THE DETROIT POLICE DEPARTMENT WAS THE SECOND TO USE THE NEW BELL TELEPHONE. A NEWSPAPER ACCOUNT STATED THAT THE "TELEPHONE IN THE POLICE STATIONS CONTINUES TO AFFORD VISITORS AND ATTENDANTS MUCH ENTERTAINMENT."

SEVA Benefits from Rock Star Concert in California

Judy and Kevin Gallagher have just returned from a whirlwind week spent in San Francisco and Berkeley, Calif. where the SEVA (Society for Epidemiology and Voluntary Assistance) Foundation's sister office is located. Judy is administrative assistant for the SEVA Foundation, whose world headquarters is located in Chelsea. The reason for the Gallagher's visit was a SEVA benefit concert held there Saturday, April 25.

SEVA is privileged to have some popular musicians as its friends and volunteers. One of them, Bob Weir of the famous rock group "The Grateful Dead," has been aiding the SEVA Foundation in its latest endeavor. Weir was quoted in a California newspaper as saying, "Right now I'm trying to get a donated helicopter that's in Arizona moved to Nepal." Weir, explaining with far more enthusiasm than he musters in discussing music, continued, "That involves finding spare room in a cargo plane going that way. Once it gets there, the helicopter will be used by the SEVA doctors . . . to do medical survey work for themselves and the World Health Organization."

It had been the Grateful Dead members' names that had instantly sold out the Saturday concert at the Berkeley Community Theater weeks earlier.

Most of the audience probably had no idea what "Sing Out for Sight" was when they arrived. But by the time the show concluded four and one-half hours later, many of them were minor experts on the state of world health. The audience listened intently through emcee Wavy Gravy's monologues about the SEVA project during the set changes.

SEVA BENEFIT: Bob Weir of the Grateful Dead and Judy Gallagher, SEVA administrative assistant, look over a model of the helicopter donated to the Berkeley musicians Kate Wolf and Country Joe McDonald performed as did Rosale Sorrels and Odetta. All of the music was excellent. The thousands of "Dead Heads" in the audience went just as wild for Wolf as they had for their heroes, The Grateful Dead.

The concert netted $25,000 for the SEVA Foundation. Last year, SEVA staged the first official "Sing Out for Sight" concert at Carnegie Hall. Its performers appeared at the United Nations to publicize the SEVA project and became the first people to sing a hymn, "Amazing Grace," there during a press conference.

Odetta closed the most recent "Sing Out for Sight" with the same hymn, aided by most of the other musicians and audience. According to Gallagher, a strong feeling of sharing and closeness passed through the auditorium during the closing song.

The Gallaghers were impressed with the growing popularity of SEVA on the West Coast. "The support from volunteers there is overwhelming when you think of the many people and amount of time and work donated to put on a production of this kind," they explained.

The SEVA Foundation is presently looking for volunteers for their Chelsea office. Persons interested are welcome to phone 475-1351.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor,
May 25 is Memorial Day. As the years go by I feel people have a desire to forget the past. Perhaps remembering the past isn't always good thoughts but there is one part of the past that should never be forgotten and that is the men and women who served in the armed forces and gave their lives so we would have the enjoyment of freedom.
Memorial Day is a special tribute provided by those alive to honor those who died for our country.
All you veterans, whether associated with American Legion, any other veteran associations, or none at all, please march in the parade, stand straight, head high, saying thanks to those who died so we may live.
For the people of Chelsea, take the time to stand at the curb or on the sidewalk and watch Old Glory and the living veterans go by with a prayer of thanks for those who died for us.

Celebrity
Tennis
Benefit

The Jay Richards Celebrity Tennis Challenge, a benefit for Muscular Dystrophy, will be kicking off the On Deck Production for the summer of 1981. This tennis benefit will be held at Buhr Park, Ann Arbor, Saturday, May 30 from 1 to 4 p.m.

A minimal donation will be accepted for all spectators desiring to watch the personalities play tennis. However, for an additional fee, the spectators will have the opportunity to actually play the celebrities.

Some very exciting people have volunteered their time for this benefit. Mayor Belcher will be playing Sheriff Mlnick for a match from 1 to 1:30 p.m. This is a fun match and should be quite interesting to watch.

Also many radio personalities will be popping on the court for you to play. Jay Richards, Allan Allman, Jim Stewart, Jeff DeFran, Jeff Carter and Stacy Taylor are just a sampling of the people who have been lined up.

Some well-known professionals from the Ann Arbor area tennis clubs are scheduled. Jimmy Holeman, Steve Carter, Clare North and Lisa Bonder will be there most of the afternoon.

Some important people will be coming from the University of Michigan Athletic Department (along with some local businessmen) to play this "breath of good clean fun" tennis match.

All these people will be on the court waiting for volunteers to play them. Come challenge your skill against the pros; or take the opportunity to play your favorite radio personality.

In Memoriam 17

IN MEMORY In memory of my wife and our sister, Margaret Helen Guinan, who passed away one year ago, May 20, 1980.

Faster Than A Traffic Jam

New York City began its crackdown on speed-crazed motorists when it made its first automotive speeding arrest on May 20, 1899. The unhappy culprit was cab driver Jacob German, who was jailed for cruising the city at the "breakneck speed" of 12 mph.

Ask the Governor Question: It seems like we're paying an awful lot for pot and beer since the "Bottle Bill" took effect in 1978. Has this bill been effective? Is the deposit really worth it environmentally?

Governor: Studies are showing that the bottle deposit law in Michigan has been greatly beneficial to our environment. A new study by the Department of Transportation shows that litter along Michigan's highways has been cut in half since the banning of throwaway containers in 1978.

It is a fact that prices have increased since the deposit law took effect. But the consumer price of these drinks—especially beer—is not an accurate measure of the law's effect in a time of high inflation when all costs are rising sharply.

And no suit or proceedings at law or in equity have been instituted to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof.

When you have your engine tuned, check to be sure that tires are properly balanced and wheels aligned properly. If not, they can create drag, forcing the engine to use more power—more gas—shortening tire life. A bent frame does the same.

In 1980, 3,543,000 babies were born in the United States.

Traffic Experts Contend That Many Stop Signs Unneeded

Stop signs, those time-honored deterrents to speed and accidents, are actually increasing traffic dangers in some locations.

So says the Michigan Department of Transportation (MDOT), which is asking cities and villages throughout the state to weed out unwarranted signs in their areas. Across Michigan, these may number in the thousands.

"Stop signs don't guarantee that drivers will stop," said Maurice Witteveen, MDOT's engineer of traffic and safety.

You need both. Allstate homeowners insurance and mortgage protection life insurance.

Allstate's homeowners insurance will help to rebuild your house if an insured disaster strikes. But, what if something happens to you? Who will pay off the mortgage? That's why you also need Allstate Life's mortgage protection life insurance. It helps pay off the mortgage if you die.

So your family will have help to live in a debt-free home. You need both kinds of insurance.
