

The accessories line for notebooks

Why a "Mobile World" product line?

Notebooks add a new kind of freedom to PC users. More and more people opt on a mobile use of their PCs and wish to extend, expand and protect their notebook with suitable accessories. Vivanco's "Mobile World" product line offers a broad selection of useful and attractive accessories, from mouse to notebook trolley and thus adds to an optimised individual usage.

Our sales-effective "Mobile World" packaging

Only a good product measures up to its packaging because only a didactically clear and self-explaining communication warrants a correct product selection and a satisfied customer. The outstanding features of our design specially adapted to the product line are:

- 1 Blisters for hanging or standing presentation
- 2 Fully visible products displaying all major features
- 3 All major features in a prominent place
- 4 All relevant properties clearly shown "at a single glance"
