DIVISION I

Johns Hopkins Sports Information

Jesse Schwartzman limited Virginia to eight goals in the 2005 Division I semifinals and Duke to an identical total in the championship game. Those performances earned the Johns Hopkins goalkeeper the Most Outstanding Player honor and the Blue Jays the title.

2005 Championship

Highlights

Blue Jays Win First Championship Since 1987: Johns Hopkins completed a perfect season May 30 to win the Division I Men's Lacrosse Championship at Philadelphia's Lincoln Financial Field.

The Blue Jays came from behind to beat Duke, 9-8, and become just the third team in NCAA men's lacrosse championship history to finish the season undefeated.

The game was played before a Division I men's lacrosse championship-game record crowd of 44,920. The previous record was 43,898, set at the 2004 championship game in Baltimore between Syracuse and Navy.

Duke led by as many as two goals on several occasions, but the experienced Johns Hopkins team, which has appeared in the postseason tournament every year since 1972, scored the last three goals of the game to take the title.

On a Blue Jays team filled with seniors who still felt the sting of a 2004 semifinal loss to eventual champion Syracuse, it was the underclassmen who stepped up their play to engineer the win. Freshmen Kevin Huntley and Paul Rabil joined junior Greg Peyser and senior Kyle Harrison with two goals apiece. And the one goal sophomore Jake Byrne scored happened to be the game-clincher in the fourth quarter.

Underclassmen also dominated the Duke scoring. Sophomore Matt Danowski, who broke the Duke single-season points record with 92 (50 goals and 42 assists), was one of three Blue Devils to tally twice.

The largely back-and-forth game featured strong defense, with neither team scoring after Byrne connected with 13:35 remaining in the game. Blue Jays sophomore goalkeeper Jesse Schwartzman had seven of his 12 saves in the final 30 minutes. He credited defensemen Chris Watson, Tom Garvey and Matt Pinto with keeping the ball away from the net.

"Our defense did a tremendous job of forcing their shooters away and buckling down in the second half. To have two seniors and Matt playing in front of me like that helps make my job a little easier," Schwartzman said.

Johns Hopkins coach Dave Pietramala praised the play of his seniors and the quality of the Duke team.

"I am so proud of these guys right now, of what they've endured and what they've overcome. But more importantly, I'm proud of how they've handled all of that. They've handled winning and losing with dignity," he said. "In regards to the game, hats off to Duke. To come from where they were one year ago with basically the same core team, to turn it around like they did and be one goal away in the national-championship game speaks volumes to their players, their coaching staff and their program. It was a great game."

Duke coach Mike Pressler also praised the way his team rallied from a 5-8 season in 2004 to go 17-3 in 2005 and reach the final. Pressler downplayed the role the Blue Jays' experience played in the win.

"We're still going to battle hard, even though we're not a senior-laden group like Johns Hopkins. I don't think that (experience) was the case at all," he said. "It's tough to put this into perspective. We were one play away from a national championship."

Lacrosse

DIVISION II

2005 Championship

Highlights

Bears Bask in Overtime Glow: Before last year, the Division II Men's Lacrosse Championship hadn't experienced an overtime final since 1974. But now extra periods seem to be a trend, since for the second straight year, the champion wasn't decided until after regulation play.

This year's thriller also produced another similarity to last year's in that Limestone was on the losing end, this time by a 14-13 count to New York Institute of Technology. The game was played at Lincoln Financial Field in Philadelphia May 29. It is the second title for New York Institute of Technology in three years.

Limestone came out strong, scoring the first two goals of the game. Throughout the contest, the score remained close, and neither team scored more than two consecutive goals. The Saints led at half-time, 7-6.

But Bears senior midfielders Joe Gabrysiak and Tom Zummo were difference-makers after the break. Zummo led the team with five goals, and Gabrysiak scored four, including the game-winner in overtime.

After the game, Gabrysiak downplayed his performance.

"It was my last game as a senior," he said. "I didn't want to go out as a loser, and this was a great way to go out."

Both teams combined for more than 40 turnovers, and the Bears were plagued with penalties, giving the Saints five power-play opportunities. Limestone afforded New York Institute of Technology only two power-play chances.

Limestone, which had six different players score in the game, provided a spread-out offense that challenged the Bears. Senior midfielder Patrick Cardiff scored the last two goals of regulation to send the game into overtime for the third time in Division II championship history. Despite Cardiff's efforts, the Saints fell in overtime off an aggressive play from Gabrysiak.

Head coach Jack Kaley praised the play of his senior midfielder.

"(Gabrysiak) had a great game in the biggest game," he said. "That's what the best do, and he's one of the best."

New York Institute of Technology held Limestone's strong offense, which had averaged more than 20 goals per game coming into the final, to 13 in the championship game.

Limestone has appeared in six consecutive championship games, a Division II record. The team beat top-ranked Le Moyne in the semifinals, a match-up between the nation's best offense (Limestone) and defense (Le Moyne). The victory avenged the 2004 double-overtime loss to Le Moyne in the championship game and ended the Dolphins' 30-game winning streak.

Saints coach Chris Hasbrouck said that despite a second consecutive championship loss, his team played well.

"I'm proud of my kids," he said. "They played their hearts out, and we just came up a little short today. We both had great athletes, and in the overtime, emotions take over. Tech was able to force a couple of turnovers, and they played a great game."

The game was played before a Division II-record crowd of 21,052.

Joe Gabrysiak of New York Institute of Technology prepares to unleash a shot in the Division II championship game. Gabrysiak lifted the Bears to the title with his game-winning goal in overtime, and his four-goal, four-assist effort was good for Most Outstanding Player honors.

Salisbury goalkeeper Dan Korpon (33) clears the ball out of harm's way in the Sea Gulls' Division III title-game triumph over Middlebury. Korpon made 12 saves and was named the Most Outstanding Player in the 11-10 victory.

2005 Championship

Highlights

Sea Gulls Soar to Third Straight Crown: An accurate shot in the last six seconds of play lifted Salisbury over Middlebury, 11-10, in the Division III Men's Lacrosse Championship game May 29. The game was played before a Division III-record crowd of 20,803 at Philadelphia's Lincoln Financial Field.

The victory clinched the Sea Gulls' third consecutive title and sixth overall. The Gulls finished the 2005 season with a perfect 20-0 record, while the Panthers posted a 17-2 slate.

Salisbury has been dominant all season, never trailing by more than one goal all year until Middlebury opened a two-goal margin with just over five minutes left in the championship game. But Salisbury scored two quick goals and then ran down the clock to set up the game-winner by junior attackman Chris Phillips with 5.6 seconds left. Phillips also clinched the 2003 title over Middlebury with the final goal in a 14-13 victory.

Besides Phillips, team members also credited senior goalkeeper Dan Korpon for playing a huge role in the win. Korpon in fact was named the tournament's most outstanding player, finishing with a game-high 12 saves. In the first quarter, Korpon registered five saves, the same number he posted in the last period.

"I've been a Danny Korpon fan for years," said Salisbury coach Jim Berkman. "You don't win championships without a great goalie, and Danny has proven over and over he's exactly that. He played a great game today and deserves the recognition he's getting now."

The 2005 victory over the Panthers brings Salisbury's consecutive win streak to 49, a record for all NCAA divisions.

Salisbury's championship win came despite a range of statistical victories for Middlebury. The Panthers led the Sea Gulls in face-offs, shots and ground balls. The Panthers' dominance of face-offs was especially surprising to the Sea Gulls - Salisbury senior Bryan Bradford entered the game having won 258 of 391 in his career, but Middlebury allowed him only five of 18 in the championship game.

Middlebury has appeared in six of the last seven Division III championship games and has faced Salisbury in four finals.

"Our styles of play are so similar that when we do play them, there have been some great matchups," Panthers coach Erin Quinn said. "That fuels the rivalry a little bit, and makes it a lot more exciting and a little more fun."

Individual Records

Official NCAA women's lacrosse records began with the 1982 season and are based on information submitted to the NCAA statistics service by institutions participating in the statistics rankings. In statistical rankings, the rounding of percentages and/or averages may indicate ties where none exist. In these cases, the numerical order of the rankings is accurate.

A player whose career includes statistics from five seasons (or an active player who will play in five seasons) because she was granted an additional season of competition for reasons of hardship or a freshman redshirt is denoted by '$.'

Team Records

Official NCAA women's lacrosse records began with the 1982 season and are based on information submitted to the NCAA statistics service by institutions participating in the statistics rankings. In statistical rankings, the rounding of percentages and/or averages may indicate ties where none exist. In these cases, the numerical order of the rankings is accurate.

Individual Records

Official NCAA Division II women's lacrosse records began with the 1998 season and are based on information submitted to the NCAA statistics service by institutions participating in the statistics rankings. In statistical rankings, the rounding of percentages and/or averages may indicate ties where none exist. In these cases, the numerical order of the rankings is accurate. A player whose career includes statistics from five seasons (or an active player who will play in five seasons) because she was granted an additional season of competition for reasons of hardship or a freshman redshirt is denoted by '§.'

Team Records

Official NCAA Division II women's lacrosse records began with the 1998 season and are based on information submitted to the NCAA statistics service by institutions participating in the statistics rankings. In statistical rankings, the rounding of percentages and/or averages may indicate ties where none exist. In these cases, the numerical order of the rankings is accurate.

Individual Records

Official NCAA women's lacrosse records began with the 1982 season and are based on information submitted to the NCAA statistics service by institutions participating in the statistics rankings. In statistical rankings, the rounding of percentages and/or averages may indicate ties where none exist. In these cases, the numerical order of the rankings is accurate.

A player whose career includes statistics from five seasons (or an active player who will play in five seasons) because she was granted an additional season of competition for reasons of hardship or a freshman redshirt is denoted by '$'.

Team Records

Official NCAA women's lacrosse records began with the 1982 season and are based on information submitted to the NCAA statistics service by institutions participating in the statistics rankings. In statistical rankings, the rounding of percentages and/or averages may indicate ties where none exist. In these cases, the numerical order of the rankings is accurate.

Wildcats Puts Perfect Stamp on First Title: Northwestern capped a perfect season May 22 with a 13-10 victory over Virginia in the championship game at Navy. The Wildcats denied the Cavaliers a second consecutive NCAA title.

Northwestern finished the season 21-0, a school record for consecutive victories. The Wildcats' last loss in fact was to the Cavaliers in the 2004 NCAA tournament quarterfinals.

Early on, the contest was a scoring battle between Virginia junior Cary Chasney, who tied a championship-game record with six goals, and Northwestern's Kristen Kjellman, who scored the Wildcats' first five. The last of Kjellman's goals knotted the game, but Chasney tallied twice more to put the Cavaliers ahead.

Northwestern's Sarah Albrecht and Kristen Boege scored to give the Wildcats the lead for good, 8-7. Virginia appeared to score at the halftime buzzer, but officials ruled otherwise.

Northwestern scored three goals in the first 12 minutes after the break, including a pair from Albrecht, to go up, 11-7. Soon after the third goal, a wide-open Chasney scored for Virginia, but Northwestern scored two more to take a 13-8 lead.

The Cavaliers did not retreat, scoring two goals in 17 seconds to pull within three, but time ran out on the Virginia rally.

Northwestern's Kjellman earned most-outstanding-player honors. Albrecht scored three times and goalie Ashley Gersuk made eight saves en route to the win.

Chasney's goal total for Virginia tied that of Georgetown's Erin Elbe, who scored six times in the 2001 championship game.

Northwestern coach Kelly Amonte Hillier said her team was thrilled with the win.

"I have no words for this team. They are such an amazing group of girls and for me it's so special to be a part of this team," she said. "The reason we are here today is because these kids are such good people, and they are so coachable. They have worked so hard to get here and earn this honor."

Kjellman said the whole team believed it would win the national title.

"I think we all knew we could do it. We were so confident this year going into every game, and especially this tournament," she said. "We had faith in all of our teammates. I think that carried us this year and it will in the future."

The national championship is the first for Northwestern in any sport since 1941, when the school's fencing team captured the NCAA crown.

Stonehill's Colby Confer (77) drives to the goal as West Chester's Megan Shisler chases her during the 2005 Division II final. Confer led all Stonehill scorers with three goals in its 13-10 triumph that also wrapped up an undefeated season at 21-0.

2005 Championship

Highlights

Stonehill Storms Past Host Team: Stonehill finished the 2005 season undefeated with a 13-10 victory over West Chester in the championship game May 15 at West Chester.

Stonehill's final record was 21-0. West Chester finished the season 17-2, and both losses were at the hands of Stonehill. The Golden Rams also finished second in 2004.

Stonehill scored four times in the first five minutes, jumping out to a 4-0 lead off goals from seniors Colby Confer and Colette Carpenter, junior Erin Acone and sophomore Tracey Hoffman. West Chester's Caitlin Pettit answered with an accurate shot with 13:38 remaining in the first half.

The Golden Rams closed the gap to two late in the first half, but a second goal from Hoffman made the score 7-4 for Stonehill at the break.

Less than a minute into the second half, Golden Rams junior Katelyn Martin scored to close the gap to 7-5. But Stonehill scored three straight goals after that, two from Kristin Darrell and another from Carpenter. The teams traded goals until West Chester rallied with four unanswered goals in just more than three minutes of play. With a little more than four minutes left in the game, Stonehill led, 11-10.

In the span of 20 seconds, though, Confer and teammate Courtney Duggan each scored to make the final tally 13-10.

"They (the players) carried me today," said Stonehill coach Michael Daly. "To finish undefeated and as the national champions is a tribute to the hard work and dedication of everyone on this team. They earned it, and they deserve all the credit for it."

Stonehill snapped West Chester's home winning streak of 19 games and won its second Division II title.

Stonehill's victory is the first for a road team in the championship game. The 2001 and 2004 championships were conducted at neutral sites.

Stonehill also is the first team to win the championship twice, having previously won in 2003. West Chester, winner in 2002, has now been runner-up three times. C.W. Post, which had been the only institution to be a part of the championship every year since its inception in 2001, was not in the tournament in 2005. C.W. Post is now tied with Stonehill and West Chester for the most appearances with four.

2005 Championship

Highlights

Lions Turn Tide on Sea Gulls: The College of New Jersey won its first national championship since 2000 with a 9-7 victory over previously No. 1-ranked Salisbury. The game was played on the Lions' home turf May 22.

The College of New Jersey's senior midfielder Lauren Gossner struck first four minutes into play, and the goal stood until nearly 19 minutes later when the Sea Gulls' Amanda Tack connected. The Lions answered with two quick goals, both from junior Bridget Bigley, to put them up, 3-1. With about 11 minutes left in the half, Salisbury attacker Lynsey Bateman reduced the lead to one with an unassisted goal, but Gossner quickly answered to restore the two-goal lead with a free-position goal. Bateman scored again in the final minute to reduce the margin to 4-3.

The College of New Jersey came out strong in the second half, scoring three unanswered goals - two from Gossner and one from Lauren Dougher - putting the Lions up, 7-3.

Bateman scored her third goal of the game with about 15 minutes to play, but Gossner was having a career-best performance, scoring again for a 9-5 Lions lead at the 10-minute mark.

Salisbury's Linda Ackermann completed a hat trick of her own with back-to-back goals, pulling the Sea Gulls to within two, but neither team scored in the remaining 6:43 of the game. The Lions monopolized the ball for more than five minutes down the stretch before turning it over with just 12 seconds left to play, but Salisbury couldn't capitalize.

The College of New Jersey head coach Sharon Pfluger said she was proud of her team, which started the season with two early losses, including one to Salisbury.

"I'm so happy for them; we've worked so hard this year. We've never started a season with two losses early on," she said. "These girls fought really hard to get what they earned today."

Gossner led the Lions with a career-best five goals and six points. Bigley had three goals, while goalkeeper Megan Marquardt recorded nine saves. Salisbury was led by Bateman and Ackermann with three goals apiece, while Sea Gulls goalie Ali Goetz had 10 saves.

The Lions have won 11 titles, 10 under Pfluger's tutelage. The national championship appearance was a first for the Sea Gulls, who finished the season 17-1, including earlier victories over The College of New Jersey and then-No. 1-ranked Middlebury.

The College of New Jersey's Lauren Gossner (24) and Toni-Anne Cavallo (3) celebrate a second-half goal during the 2005 Division III title contest. Gossner scored five goals in the Lions' 9-7 victory over Salisbury.
