

Hicksville's PU2 Paul Jurgensen was among the first group of soldiers to enter Panama.

Special Christmas Gift For the Jurgensen's

By Rita Langdon

For many of us, the invasion of Panama was just another piece of history taking place far away, but for the Jurgensen family of Hicksville the action might as well have been in their own back yard.

On Dec. 26 Joyce and Richard Jurgensen received a call from a retired military officer who is a HAM radio operator in Georgia.

"We were holding our breath," said Joyce. "But, this operator had good news. He patched through a call for us and it was Paul," her 19-year-old son who was among the first group of soldiers to enter Panama at the start of the invasion.

Since then, Paul's parents have been anxiously waiting for him to call. Joyce and Richard haven't seen Paul in more than a year.

During the HAM radio conversation, which lasted about a minute, Joyce said it was difficult to hear Paul, but he did say not to worry about him. She asked him when he was coming home, and he said he did not know.

She said that she really didn't have much time to talk because his voice was fading and she was crying.

He also kept mentioning something about an "award" but his voice started to sound like "Max Headroom." At the end of the conversation Paul said, "Mom, I have to go now... Merry Christmas."

While Joyce was waiting for the call to be patched in, she chatted with the HAM operator. She asked how many calls he had put through. "This is about my 75th," he answered. After the conversation was over with Paul, the operator said, "You did good Joyce. I thanked him profusely, he was an angel!" Luckily, she was able to tape the conversation on the answering machine as Paul's dad was working. She said that she will be saving the tape to be played back to Paul when he gets married and has children.

"Getting a call from him was the best Christmas present ever," Joyce said.

Across the globe, the Jurgensen's other son

Hicksville Man Killed in Jerusalem Accident

Fourth Fatal Accident on Jerusalem in '89

A 37-year-old Hicksville man was killed Thursday night when his 1985 Plymouth Voyager collided with a 1981 Mazda driven by a Levittown man, according to Nassau police spokesman Hank McCann.

Robert Gorski of West Avenue, Hicksville, was traveling westbound on Fourth Street and Robert Dandrea, 54, of Rock Lane, Levittown was southbound on Jerusalem Avenue when the accident occurred at about 10:45 p.m., McCann said. There is a traffic signal at Fourth Street. Four fatal accidents have occurred on Jerusalem Avenue in 1989.

Gorski, who was thrown from his van after it rolled over several times, was pronounced dead at the scene at 1:15 a.m.

Dandrea was taken to Nassau County Medical Center where he was treated and released for facial injuries.

No charges have been filed and the Homicide Squad is investigating.

Car Drives Thru Stern's

A 39-year-old Hicksville man drove into the southside of the former Stern's Automobile Center in the Broadway Mall Thursday at about 8:20 p.m., Police spokesman McCann said.

Thomas Callari of Haverford Road was driving a 1988 Oldsmobile Cutlass. He was taken to Nassau County Medical Center where he was listed in critical condition with internal injuries.

McCann said that police do not know the cause of the incident.

Man Killed by Train

A Levittown man was killed early Saturday morning when he drove his 1988 Pontiac sedan through the lowered railroad crossing gate on South Oyster Bay Road, Eighth Precinct police said.

Richard McQuillen, 33, of Bloomingdale Rd. was driving southbound on South Oyster Bay Road in Hicksville when he apparently drove through the gate and ran into the second car of a northbound passenger train at about 12:05 a.m. The wheel section of the second car was derailed, not the car itself.

The victim was pronounced dead at the scene and his body was taken to the County Morgue in East Meadow. No disruption of service occurred due to the accident.

Man Robbed of $10

Two men robbed a 22-year-old Hicksville man of $10 on Meade Avenue last Thursday, Dec. 28, at 3:50 a.m., McCann said.

The Hicksville man was driving his car on Meade when he was bumped from behind by a following car. As he stopped and exited his car to check for damage, he was robbed of $10 by the two men who hit into him. A blunt object was used in the robbery, possibly a gun or pipe, McCann said.

Hicksville Wraps Up The 1989 Holidays

By Rita Langdon

This holiday season, Hicksville's residents were frantically clearing the shelves of local businesses. Most stores sold at least one hot item and many merchants said retail sales were good.

According to Michael and Matthew Garry, owners of Best Bet Deli at 77 North Broadway, the holidays were a time for local businesses to eat and be merry. The Garrys, who have completely renovated their store since they purchased it in May, said six foot heroes and trays of baked ziti, veal parmigiana and their special chicken-and-broccoli salad were in great demand at holiday office parties.

Silvio's Bakery at 495-26 South Broadway, Hicksville Terrace Shopping Center, reported that the majority of customers were buying pies which included holiday favorites such as apple, peach, pumpkin, pecan and especially lemon meringue, which has no cholesterol, the way baker Silvio Alessi makes it.

The ladies of NaA Mat USA sponsored a holiday gift wrap in the Broadway Mall recently to help raise money for day care centers, vocational training, child welfare, and others. Taking advantage of the gift wrap are Timmy Quinn and his friend Willy Favore of Hicksville. They are having gifts wrapped for Timmy's new bride of three weeks. The lady wrapping the gift is NaA Mat member Ruth Golub.

Doretta also said that the bakery did well this year considering Silvio's has only been in Hicksville a little over a year.

Some residents, however, do not stay in the area during the holiday. Mimi Linden, a travel agent at Hillside Travel at 20 W. Marie St. said most people visit relatives in Florida. "It's always the heaviest time of the year," said Mimi. "They go to Disney World, then on to grand-ma's house."

Mimi added that Florida is most likely the prime location for a vacation because the prices for the trip are reasonable.

The next popular hot spot this year was the Caribbean, that is, the parts that were not devastated by Hurricane Hugo, Mimi said. Cruises throughout the Caribbean were also desirable among local residents, with their next favorite vacation site—Mexico.

"Families will go anywhere looking for warm weather," Mimi said, adding that most flights for December and January are booked solid because most people are coming and going at the same time.

This year, Hicksville residents were buying up the Nintendo Video Games at Video Quest, 412 Jerusalem Avenue in the Allied Shopping Center.

Nintendo sold more this year than in 1988, according to Video Quest's owner Sean Tracey. "Last year it was pretty big and now rentals are booming," he said referring to the video game customers can rent from his store.

The most popular holiday movie rented was Scrooged with Bill Murray, according to Tracey, who added that the movie was especially popular the week before Christmas.

The most popular cassettes sold at Video Quest this holiday season were Batman and Bambi.

And, what would a holiday be without flowers? Hicksville Florist at the Broadway Mall reports that the poinsettias and fruit baskets were the number one and two sellers this year.

Wonder what next year's fads will bring? Well, maybe we shouldn't touch upon that just yet, 1989's bills are still coming in.

Everybody's Having 'Em

Last week we missed wishing Robert Rupp a happy December 25 birthday—from his new wife, Sarah, and his mom and dad, Marge and Bob. (Wonder who's walking the dog now?) Having a birthday on that day keeps Robert in pretty good company, doesn't it? ... and then on Dec. 27 Mark Thomas celebrated his birthday with his his three sons and wife Karen ... December 31 brings the fifth birthday to Rita Russo, and Jan. 2 is the day our 1988 New Year Baby will be celebrating his second birthday. His name? Anthony Russo. Mom and dad, Suzanne and John really do have a lot of shopping to do to get all those gifts that are expected during Christmas week.

Hometown People is written by Flo Givens, a lifelong Hicksville resident. She loves receiving all your weddings, engagements and family news. You can write to Flo at 132 East Second Street, Mineola, N.Y. 11501. All photos will be returned if you include your name and address on the back.

Brittney Ann Hayes

Who's Having a Birthday?

Eugene C. and Suzie Salerno are sending belated birthday wishes to his mom and her mother-in-law, Bertha J. Salerno on Dec. 31. Bertha was born and raised in Hicksville.

It's always such a pleasure to see that so many people born in Hicksville decide to remain here for good. That keeps the community very family-oriented.

What A Proud Grandpa!

Hicksville certainly has one heck of a proud grandfather. Stanley Kacprzycki is one of the proudest grandpas. He took the picture shown on this page of Brittney Ann Hayes, his 22 month old granddaughter. He said, "What joy she gives me."

Ed. Note: She really looks like a doll. It'll be fun to watch her grow up. Kids are great, aren't they?

Billy's Back

I know that many Hicksville residents went to see Hicksville's hometown pride in concert at Nassau Coliseum.

At the Dec. 27 concert, Billy Joel mentioned Hicksville. While introducing the song "Scenes from an Italian Restaurant," he said, "I lived over in Hicksville. I guess you could call this a local song." In this piece, Billy mentions the Village Green in Hicksville.

He also dedicated a song to former Yankee manager Billy Martin.

Also, at the beginning of the show, the crowd shouted "Where's Christy?" referring to his wife, model Christy Brinkley. He said that she went skiing, although Christy was at the Dec. 21 and 22 concerts. She sat right up front, of course. Also on the 22nd, young pop star Debbie Gibson of Merrick performed a song with Billy.

Most residents will recall that Billy made a surprise visit in May at Hicksville High School. All the students were thrilled!

Don't forget to come for a visit again, Billy.

Get Well Tommy

We heard through the grapevine that our old friend, Tom Hennerty hasn't been feeling too well. We're sending him our best wishes for a speedy recovery and expect to see him at Cantiague Golf Course the first day that it opens. Tom and I go back a long way—to the days when Hicksville was a really small town.

A Birthday Message

"Happy Birthday to Thomas Myron who will be celebrating nine years of age on January 4 ... Love always, Mommy and Daddy, Christopher and Katie."

John Komara waves to the cheering crowd at Rockefeller Center after he proposed to Marie Ingrassia—and she said "Yes."

What A Way To Get Engaged!

What will these guys think of next? John Komara, Jr. wanted to surprise his girlfriend, Marie Ingrassia, with a beautiful engagement ring while they were at Rockefeller Center in the City on Saturday, Dec. 14.

While they were looking at the tree and the skaters, John mentioned to a guard that he was going to pop the question. Before he knew it the word had spread throughout the thousands of people surrounding the tree. There was a hush about the crowd and then after John proposed the crowd began to cheer. (See photo on this page of John waving to the cheering crowd).

Of course Marie said "Yes," and now the happy couple will be married in 1990.

John, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Komara Sr. of Jericho is the owner of Komara Insurance Agency in the Broadway Mall, Hicksville. He is also a member of the Hicksville-Jericho Rotary Club.

His lovely bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sal Ingrassia of West Bay Shore. Marie is an internship coordinator for the Suffolk County Executive.

Editor's Note: As I mentioned last week—I can't get over how romantic these guys are today. Good luck Marie and John.

Nicole Paige Polimeni

Nicole Has Arrived

A daughter, Nicole Paige, was born on Dec. 6, at 1:34 p.m. to Dr. and Mrs. A. Polimeni, who are now residing in New Jersey.

Mommy, former Tracey Schelin, is a graduate of Hicksville High School and her daddy is a graduate of Northport High School. They are both graduates of Hofstra University.

Grandmother Josephine Schelin is a longtime resident of Hicksville. Her other grandparents Jan and Dominick Polimeni are residents of Northport. All grandparents are so happy—it's their first grandchild.

The victim was not hurt during the robbery and he described the two suspects as black, in their 20s, possibly armed. Their car, a silver-colored Pontiac Grand Am, had been reported stolen on Dec. 27.

The Second Squad is investigating.

Bias Incident

A 35-year-old Hicksville man was walking his dog on Miller Road at David Avenue at 12:01 Friday morning when a red car drove up to the man and three ski-masked occupants, wearing leather jackets shouted ethnic slurs at him, Nassau Police said.

They then exited their car and threw rocks at the man, who managed to pick up one of the rocks, which he threw at the car, breaking the windshield. The suspects then drove off. The victim was not hurt during the incident and he called the police after arriving home.

The Second Squad is investigating as well as the police department's coordinator for bias related incidents, Inspector Ronald Olsen.

School Sign Vandalized

The clear plexiglass announcement board in front of the Administration Building next to Hicksville High School was spraypainted with ethnic slurs Dec. 27.

At 7:30 a.m., employees at the high school on Division Avenue discovered the vandalism which consisted of words spray painted in white that were hateful in nature and contained racial, ethnic and Semitic slurs that are denigrating, Nassau Police said.

The graffiti included the design of a swastika and the letters "THC" which police say may be a signature of the person(s) responsible for the criminal mischief.

Rotary Club Donates Funds to Library, Families

President Augie Cassella of the Hicksville-Jericho Rotary Club presents a $1,200 check to Mark Madden, coordinator of the club's annual "Christmas basket" project. Each year families are recommended through various community agencies to receive a gift certificate enabling them to buy food at a local supermarket during the holiday season. "Rotary has been assisting needy families in the Hicksville community for many years through this and other projects. We hope the Rotary can bring a little happiness into many homes during this season in this way", said Mr. Madden, the prime i.e. mover of this particular endeavor.

President Augie Cassella of the Hicksville-Jericho Rotary Club presents a check in the amount of $500 to Celeste Watman, Assistant Director of the Hicksville Public Library. Rotary hopes that this donation will assist in building a community wide fund to purchase a new reading machine to assist the blind and visually impaired. As reported by Ms. Watman to the club, the fund is at the 50 percent level with this contribution. This machine will assist many people now dependent on others to become more independent.

General Town Tax Due

Residents are reminded that the first half of the 1990 General Tax Levy which was due on Jan. 1, 1990, may be paid, without penalty, through Feb. 13, 1990, according to Town Receiver of Taxes Gary F. Musiello.

"By law, a taxpayer has a 40-day grace period from the date the tax is due during which payment may be made without penalty," Musiello said. "After the 40 days, a 1 percent penalty is added for each month the tax remains unpaid, retroactive to January 1st.

"While residents can pay by mail, for their convenience, the Town Clerk's Annex in Hicksville, will be open on several days to receive General Tax payments," Musiello continued. The dates are Tuesday, Feb. 6, through Friday, Feb. 9, and again on Tuesday, Feb. 13, between 9 a.m. to 4:45 p.m.

Musiello noted that residents can also pay in person at the Tax Office, Oyster Bay Town Hall West, Audrey Avenue, Oyster Bay, or at the Town Clerk's Office in Town Hall South, 977 Hicksville Road, Massapequa, during the hours

"When paying in person, residents are reminded to bring the entire tax bill with their payment," Musiello said. "Payment being made by mail for the first half of the year should include Stub #1 only. Stubs #1 and #2 should be included if the entire tax for the year is being paid.

Knights Host Children's Christmas Party

More than 100 children, and their parents, were on hand Dec. 10 at the annual children's Christmas party held by Joseph F. Lamb Council No. 5723 Knights of Columbus, Plainview. The party was held in the school basement of Our Lady of Mercy in Hicksville.

Everyone filled up on hotdogs, soda, cake, candy, icecream and cotton candy. Many balloons dominated the premises and recorded Christmas music added to the festivities.

A clown (Knight Bill Ohm) entertained the children and a sing-a-long for the children was led by Grant Knight Josef Ort who enticed many of the children to sing Christmas carols at the microphone. However, the real event of the party was the arrival of Santa Claus (P.F.N., F.D.D. Bob Corrado) who presented each child with a special gift. To say the least, Santa Claus was a real hit. Many knights from the council were on hand to assist in serving the food, refreshments and giving out gifts.

The cotton candy machine was supplied by member Sal Detorris. The cakes and Christmas candy were donated by Harry Gang of Plainview, who has on other occasions donated to many of the Lamb Council's affairs.

Foodtown of Hicksville donated the hotdogs, rolls and other fixings. Lamb Council members said they were grateful for Mr. Gang and Foodtown's generosity.

The co-chairmen of this affair were Frank Detorris and P.G.K. Sam Repoli who is also warden for the 16th District.

This annual party for the children was a huge success.

Letters From Our Readers

Letters to the editor are welcomed by the editors and publishers of the Anton Community Newspapers. However, they must follow certain guidelines in order for us to print them: they should be as short as possible; we reserve the right to edit in the interest of space; they MUST be signed (a typed name at the bottom will not suffice); they must include an address and telephone number so that we can verify their authenticity. We receive many fine letters which we would like to share with our readers, but we are unable to use them because they are unsigned or have a typewritten name only. We cannot publish every letter we receive because of space limitations, but we try to present both sides of all issues. Personal attacks and letters considered to be in poor taste will not be printed.

Thanks from Councilman

To The Editor:

I'd like to take this opportunity to wish Town of Oyster Bay residents a healthy, happy and prosperous 1990.

The holiday season also seems a fitting time to extend my sincere appreciation for the vote of confidence and support you gave to me in the recent election.

The opportunity I had during the campaign - my first ever for public office - to meet and speak with so many of my Oyster Bay Town neighbors - was a uniquely rewarding experience and truly one of the high points of my life.

Having seen, firsthand, the civic awareness and concern that was inherent in the overwhelming majority of Oyster Bay residents, it is quite clear to me why our town has a well-deserved reputation for excellence.

Once again, my very best wishes to you in the New Year. I look forward, with great enthusiasm, to being a part of Oyster Bay town government and continuing to work with you as we enter the exciting and challenging decade ahead.

Holiday Surprise

To The Editor:

During a recent hectic shopping spree at Sears, I was happily surprised by a group of talented singers from Hicksville High called the Madrigals. They sang beautifully throughout the store and certainly brought in the holiday spirit.

I also would like to thank the students in the Hicksville Band which played Christmas carols down Myers Avenue on a freezing cold night two weeks ago. It was a surprise and a delight.

Abrams Sues Sears

Attorney General Robert Abrams has filed suit against Sears, Roebuck & Co. for falsely claiming that its recent adoption of an "everyday low price" marketing strategy represented substantial savings for consumers compared to the store's former prices. In fact, the actual prices paid by customers remained largely unchanged on items shopped by his office during an 18-month investigation of the nation's largest retailer, Mr. Abrams said.

In addition, the suit, filed in State Supreme Court in Buffalo, alleges that during 1987 and 1988, Sears violated a 1986 agreement with the Attorney General to stop advertising sales that pretended to offer goods at discounts of up to 50 percent off Sears' "regular prices". In reality, the "regular prices" were frequently inflated, fictitious figures that consumers rarely, if ever, paid, and the "sale" prices were prices at which almost all sales were made, the suit stated.

Hicksville has a Sears branch on North Broadway.

Environmental Commitment

Assemblyman Fred Parola (R-C, Wantagh) received one of the highest scores in the state legislature each year in the annual legislative "scorecard" issued by the Environmental Planning Lobby (EPL), the state's major environmental lobbying group. This year's scorecard was based on a total of 27 votes, with Parola's vote on 23 of these bills in accordance with standards set by the EPL.

Also, Parola was promoted to Assistant Minority Leader of the Assembly in leadership appointments made by Assemblyman Republican Leader C.D. "Rapp" Rappleyea. As Assistant Minority Leader, Parola will be responsible for advancing legislative initiatives within the assembly and will help design statewide issue agendas.

The Investor's Corner

By Dr. Joseph P. Frey

A Review of the 1980's

America as we know it, had some startling changes during the 1980's. Sylvester Stallone's Rambo, became the new super hero, Barbie was as popular as ever, though she changed to reflect the new image of the 1980's woman. The role of women in the society changed tremendously. It was the result of the civil rights acts of the 1970's which included women as a minority with rights. The doors opened in business and the professions, as never before. No longer were women relegated to the assigned roles of nurse or teacher as the only profession. They were able to be more than "educated fingers" (secretaries) in business. The business schools were flooded with them (still are). Now they can be "whatever they want to be." Their rise through the ranks has started. Soon there will be major corporations run by women who did not inherit the position from a dead husband. I believe that this is a great development. Business needs the brains, it is in such short supply.

We saw the 1980's bring on the rise of the older person. Reagan knew that there was a tremendous base of people who were getting older. He was one of them. He used this base to become president on the promise that there life style would not be cut by the government. To a great extent, he succeeded. In addition, the social security "perks" were dramatically increased.

Reagan also knew that there was very active resentment against President Carter because of his perceived impotence and the inefficiency of our armed forces. The Iranian excursion dealt Carter a fatal blow. President Reagan spent money on the armed forces like no peacetime President before him.

He also followed the tactic of every presidential candidate. He said that he would cut taxes. He certainly did that. He also raised them tremendously when the social security "premium" was raised. We still feel the effects of that every payday. The older persons' social security has been protected as a result.

But his article is not an assessment of Reagan's presidency, it is a review of the 80's. We saw beginning in 1982 a dramatic rise in stock prices and dealmaking. We saw the rise of the young wheeler dealer on wall street and the dramatic rise of the use of corporate debt.

It became the age of the "yuppie", who became the "dink" (double income, no kids). Young people, men and women, who made large sums and spent even larger sums. They were accurately personified in "Bonfires of the Vanities." Along with the huge incomes came their huge greed.

The wheeler dealer is personified by M. Milken of Drexel, Burnham, Lambert. He was the ultimate artist at capitalizing on other peoples' lust for money. In the process he earned, with his fertile brain, billions of dollars in commissions for himself and his firm. He took the business of corporate borrowing and turned it into an art form. Corporations have borrowed money for ages, reasonable amounts, to arrange takeovers, mergers and acquisitions. It was generally large companies with healthy balance sheets taking over smaller companies. Milken raised so much capital for takeovers that firms with capital and with no manufacturing ability took over increasingly larger firms in leveraged buyouts. He used deep discounted, high yield bonds to accomplish the job. What Milken pioneered, and the reason he was rewarded well, was the fact that he could turn companies to "junk." He became a person of immense influence, a present day J.P. Morgan. This spurred a whole new business for the mutual funds, "junk bond" high yield funds.

There is so much more that happened. It was the decade of the Japanese and the Pacific rim countries dominance around the world, the rise and slippage of Chrysler with Lee Iacocca. Lastly, it has been the pervasive influence of drugs in the world, especially in the United States.

Doctor Frey is a professor of investments and finance at LIU/C.W. Post campus on Long Island.

ROBERT R. McMILLAN'S

Direct Line

Before we make Mikhail Gorbachev a saint, how about paying respect to the American Presidents who along with NATO, defended western Europe against the "evil empire."

Remember when Ronald Reagan first used that phrase? Much of the liberal media was very critical of his firm stand — too strident and too harsh. But was it? In retrospect, it is clear that underneath the smothering of individual rights was a seething eastern European community desirous of freedom. Stifling free expression, using tanks to force submission, no open elections, and constitutions guaranteeing communist party power are all direct examples of the "evil."

After World War II, there was Harry Truman. President Truman knew the threat, supported the formation of NATO, and stopped communist aggression in Korea. He drew the line with his policy of containment and said no more territorial grabs for communism. But, China fell and additional portions of eastern Europe were overrun by the "red tide."

After Truman, President Eisenhower, with his deep knowledge of Europe, galvanized NATO to head off the expansionist goals of the Soviet Union. He even organized one campaign which mobilized Italian-Americans. They were asked to write letters to relatives urging them to reject communism in Italy. And, the letter writing paid off — the communists were defeated at the polls.

In our own hemisphere, John F. Kennedy confronted Khrushchev over Soviet atomic missiles in Cuba and the Kremlin withdrew.

President Johnson, through miscalculation, attempted to stop communism in Vietnam. We lost the will at home and lost the battle in southeast Asia as well.

Next, Richard Nixon, "played the China card." That move kept the Russians off balance. President Nixon then sought to reach agreements with the Soviet Union on missiles — the result was a first sign of any thaw in the cold war.

Ronald Reagan strengthened our military posture — a military which the faltering Soviet economy could not match. The Kremlin was forced to bargain, and the rest is seen each day as we view the headlines about changes in eastern Europe.

Throughout the forty-four-year period from the end of World War II, a strong U.S. military has been the deterrent. There were times during those years when doves in the Congress, the "organized" peace movement, and some of the media would have had us unilaterally disarm. How fortunate we were to have presidents of both parties who understood the threat and took the heat in maintaining a strong military.

Now we have the opportunity to turn closer to home. Castro will have nothing to do with glasnost or perestroika. Nicaragua still exports arms to the Marxist rebels in El Salvador, and Soviet influence flirts with Panama.

There are some in the Congress who would have us give up in Central America. Are they really ready to transfer the "evil empire" from eastern Europe to this hemisphere? Do they really want constitutions guaranteeing communist power a few hundred miles away?

Only when the arms stop flowing to El Salvador, and free elections are permitted in Cuba and Nicaragua, can we acknowledge Gorbachev as a peace maker. Until then, communism, in our own hemisphere remains a threat to our national interests.

President Bush is proceeding cautiously and prudently with the Soviet Union. He anticipated what was to come — "The totalitarian era is passing, its old ideas blown away like leaves from an ancient lifeless tree." Those words were expressed by George Bush at his inaugural. But neither he, nor anyone else, could anticipate the leaves would be blown by hurricane force winds. The "leaves" are almost gone.

Questions and opinions may be addressed to Mr. McMILLAN, Anton Community Newspapers, 132 East Second Street, Mineola, NY 11501.

A Letter from Lulabelle...

Here it is another year—and resolution time again. This year I resolve to keep the resolutions I have made for me, these many years. . . . One is so ordinary that they even make plaques about it—I simply must get rid of it. . . . That means throwing out all the clothes that I'll never fit into again. . . . How much I like them—also, chucking those spiked heel shoes with the sharp toes which are really quite cracked from hanging around so long waiting for me to return. . . . And then there are the magazines—I never throw them away until I'm "done" with them, and being "done" with me takes a lot of doing. . . . I have to read all the ads, clip the pictures of the rooms I like. . . . You can imagine how far back I am—to tell the truth, I still have lots of copies of the Ladies Home Journal in that large size they had years ago—but don't tell anyone. . . . Then there are all those other resolutions—go on a diet—be sure to exercise ten minutes every day (surely everyone could find ten minutes?!). . . . I don't smoke so I can't give that up—and I simply can't make the impossible resolution to give up chocolate ice cream—that would be cruel and unusual! . . . so I'll go back to getting organized. . . . I really will file all those clippings I have piled in boxes all over the attic—and somehow or other, I'll finally make a decision about those years of National Geographic—they're much too good to throw away, but where to keep every copy from the last thirty-two years?! . . . yes, that's the resolution for me—and this time I'll try—honestly!!

Yours, Lulabelle

THE WHOLE TOOTH

by Laura Selub, D.D.S.

PUTTING FIRST THINGS FIRST

There's no escaping choice. It's the core experience of human life, from the serious to the frivolous—from a mate, a job, a home to a hair dresser or an ice cream flavor.

It also includes a dentist. That's a serious choice. Healthy teeth are an essential part of a healthy, normal, comfortable and productive life.

So, how do you go about selecting a dentist who can help you attain that goal? Unless you trust in chance and blindly stick a pin in a Yellow Pages list of dentists, your best starting point is to consult a source you trust. This could be your physician, the pharmacist you deal with regularly, a nearby dental school that will provide the names of faculty members in private practice, or a responsible friend.

I like the approach a present patient of mine used several years ago after his company transferred him to the Midwest. He talked with a business associate who had young children needing dental care. The simple truth is, there's no better test of quality dentistry than the treatment of a child. This is where a lifetime of sound dental care begins and a dentist shows whether s/he is a true dental professional. The important point here is that responsible dentistry takes the long view—not what is merely expedient but what will best serve the patient throughout his or her life. This means you should receive, if you are an adult, a thorough examination, an open discussion of the proposed treatment plan, and—most important—an emphasis on prevention. I stress the latter because prevention, as opposed to long, continuing treatment, separates the amateurs from the professionals in dentistry. Decay and loss of teeth are not the inevitable lot of humankind. They can, and ought to be, intercepted. That's what you should expect from your dentist.

That's what you have a right to expect from your dentist. Choose carefully. Choose wisely. You will not regret the time, effort, and patience you devote to this vital choice.

PERSONAL DIALOGUE

ATTENTION LONG ISLAND SINGLES... THIS PAGE IS FOR YOU

Dear Reader,

Would you like to meet a partner, a companion, or just a friend? The ads on this page were submitted by readers in your area who want to meet you. Read the ads carefully. Some might intrigue you, some might appeal to you, and some might make you chuckle. Circle the ones that look interesting.

Behind every ad is a voice. And behind every voice is a person. But first things first. To listen to the voice, call 540-5060 from your touch tone phone and enter the extension number of the ad you circled. You'll hear the advertiser's special voice message. If that message isn't exactly what you're looking for, simply try another. But if you like what you hear, leave your own message at the tone.

Personal Dialogue isn't just convenient—it's fast. And it works! For example, if you call on Wednesday, it's entirely possible to arrange a date before the weekend.

The service operates 24 hours a day. And it costs only $1.50 a minute.

If you want to experiment first, call customer service at (212)-935-5077. Our reps will gladly connect you to the extension of your choice, at absolutely no cost to you.

Doesn't this beat the bars, the letter writing, the postal delays, or any other way to meet quality people?

Join the thousands of singles who found a partner through Personal Dialogue. Start your own dialogue today.

Sincerely,

Jamie Rivers

THE SCHOOL NOTEBOOK

At Woodland Avenue Annual Carnival Fun

Woodland Avenue PTA sponsored its annual carnival on Dec. 2. A large variety of games were set up in the school's gymnasium where all the children had fun with the ring toss, bean bag toss, the Black Hole and the 'hit of the day', Woody's Wheel where winners were given live goldfish.

In the All-Purpose Room there were craft tables with beautiful homemade articles for sale. There was also a white elephant table set up and a bakery table with delicious baked goods. Woodland Alumni did a great job with face and nail painting.

Thanks to all who make this year's carnival a success.

At St. Ignatius Brownie Investiture

Saint Ignatius Brownie Troop 3682 with their leaders.

The first grade girls at Saint Ignatius Loyola School were invested into Brownie Troop 3682 recently. The investiture ceremony opened with a blessing given by Father Bob Guintini. During the ceremony, the girls pledged the Girl Scout promise and received their Brownie pins.

The girls were led during the ceremony by co-leaders, Mrs. Elizabeth Panarelli and Mrs. Anne Berner. The girls' parents, first grade teachers, and the other Brownies in the school joined them to celebrate their special day.
