A Hundred Thousand Welcomes

Fáilte, welcome to the 2018 Ambassador's Awards Luncheon. We are delighted to have you as our guest as we honor and celebrate this year's distinguished award recipients. The Irish American Business Chamber & Network proudly presents Adapt Pharma with the Ambassador Award, Jerry Maginnis with the Taoiseach Award, and Edward and Ellen Hanway with the Uachtarán Award.

We are doubly honored to have with us the Consul General of Ireland, Ciarán Madden, to confer these awards. Consul General Madden is with us today to represent His Excellency Daniel Mulhall, Ambassador of Ireland to the United States, and the Irish Government's support of our honorees and the Chamber's mission.

A special day such as this is not possible without the generosity of our sponsors. We are grateful to all of them and recognize their support in this program. Most importantly, each of these sponsors acknowledges our honorees in an exceptional way with their patronage.

The Irish Chamber excels at providing networking forums for American and Irish executives, for the exchange of contacts and information on trade relationships, market research, and indigenous business. A hallmark of these forums is the participation of top executives, government officials, and directors who share similar interests and goals. We often collaborate with Irish agencies such as Enterprise Ireland, IDA Ireland, Údarás na Gaeltachta, and Tourism Ireland. We invite you to enhance your business prospects by becoming a member and put the resources of the Irish Chamber to work for you and your company.

Thank you for joining us today, and for your support of the Irish Chamber.

Ciarán Madden

Consul General of Ireland

Ciarán Madden began his career at the Department of Foreign Affairs in November 1994. His early career with the Department included various roles in the Department in Dublin; at Ireland's Permanent Representation of Ireland to the European Union, and as Advisor to the Oireachtas Joint Committee on European Affairs, 2002 – 2003.

From 2003 - 2005 he was assigned as the Press Officer for the Department and following this he spent a year in the Department's Development and Co-operation Division. During his time here he co-drafted the White Paper on Irish Aid. Ciarán also served as Private Secretary to the Minister for Foreign Affairs before moving on to become the Head of Finance and Planning from 2007 to 2009.

Ciarán served for four years as Ambassador of Ireland to the United Arab Emirates (also accredited to Qatar and Kuwait), from 2009 to 2013. Upon his return to Dublin, he was appointed Director for the Irish Abroad Unit in September 2013, and led the drafting of The Global Irish – Ireland's Diaspora Policy. Following this role, Ciarán was appointed Director for the Middle East and North Africa in January 2015. He took up duty as Consul General of Ireland in New York in August 2017.

Ciarán, a native of County Cork, is married to Lana Fitzsimons and they have one daughter, Ruby.

Ambassador Award

The Ambassador Award, named in honor of the Ambassador of Ireland to the United States, is presented annually to honor a company that has furthered the goals of the Irish American Business Chamber by developing business between the Isle of Ireland and the United States. Daniel Mulhall is the current Ambassador of Ireland to the United States.

Previous recipients of the Ambassador Award include: Beneficial Bank, Almac Group, QVC, SAP, The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia, Shire plc, Aramark, The Vanguard Group, ICON plc., Amicus Therapeutics, Cross Atlantic Capital Partners, GMAC, ICT Group, Wyeth, and Siemens.

Adapt Pharma

Accepting on behalf of Adapt Pharma: Eunan Maguire, Chief Operating Officer

ADAPT
PHARMA

Adapt Pharma was founded in Ireland in 2013 and is proud to call Pennsylvania its U.S. home, with operations based in Radnor, PA. Adapt developed and distributes Narcan (naloxone) Nasal Spray – the leading FDA approved community use emergency treatment for reversal of known or suspected opioid overdoses. As it continues to meet the public health goal of expanding access to Narcan Nasal Spray throughout North America, it is also developing new treatment options for those with opioid addiction.

North America is in the midst of an unprecedented opioid overdose epidemic. This human tragedy is claiming almost 100 lives each day in communities throughout the nation - more than gun related deaths and traffic accidents. Adapt works alongside multiple stakeholders who are collaborating to respond to this crisis.

As most opioid overdoses happen in homes and communities outside the immediate reach of professional medical assistance, Narcan Nasal Spray was designed to allow non-medically trained people, like parents, siblings and friends, to rapidly treat a person experiencing an opioid overdose until professional help, which should always be sought, arrives.

Adapt has also pioneered a novel affordable pricing approach to make this potentially lifesaving medicine available at a deep discount to all first responders, law enforcement, community outreach groups and governmental entities. For individuals, this approach has achieved almost universal insurance coverage at affordable co-pays. Adapt also supports education about opioid risks and offers a free Narcan Nasal Spray to high schools and universities throughout the United States.

Taoiseach Award

The Taoiseach Award is presented to an Irish Chamber member of Irish descent who has, by example, shown exceptional business leadership and compassion. The Taoiseach Award takes its name from the original Irish title meaning Chieftain or Leader. Today, An Taoiseach is the Prime Minister of Ireland, Leo Varadkar, T.D.

Previous recipients of the Taoiseach Award include: Eileen McDonnell, Bill & Natalie McLaughlin, Frank Reynolds, Denis P. O'Brien, James and Frances Maguire, Daniel J. Hilferty, Rev. Timothy R. Lannon, S.J., Henry J. "Harry" McHugh, John & Joan Mullen, James and Jacqueline Delaney, and Father John McNamee of St. Malachy's Parish.

Jerry J. Maginnis

Managing Partner, KPMG (Retired)

Jerry spent 36 years with the Philadelphia offices of KPMG, a global network of professional firms providing Audit, Tax and Advisory services, retiring on September 30, 2015. He served as the Managing Partner of the firm's Philadelphia office from 2006 through 2015. Previously, he spent five years as the Partner in Charge of the firm's Audit practice in Pennsylvania, overseeing operations in KPMG's Philadelphia, Harrisburg and Pittsburgh offices. Jerry is a Certified Public Accountant and a graduate of Saint Joseph's University.

Since retiring from KPMG, Jerry has joined the Board of Cohen & Steers Mutual Funds based in New York City. Cohen & Steers is a global investment manager specializing in liquid real assets. The twenty-two funds' assets under management were estimated at $32 billion as of October 31, 2017. He is also a Board Member of the Faith in the Future Foundation and the Foundations of both the American and Pennsylvania Institutes of Certified Public Accountants. Jerry continues to serve on the Pennsylvania Early Learning Investment Commission and as an Executive in Residence at Rowan University in Southern New Jersey where he chairs the University's Accounting Advisory Board.

Previously, Jerry served as the President of the 22,000 member Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants (PICPA), a member of the Board and Executive Committee of the Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce, a member of the CEO Council for Growth, a member of the Board of Trustees of Gwynedd-Mercy University and Saint Joseph's Preparatory School, and on the Boards of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania and The Union League of Philadelphia.

Jerry was awarded the Father of the Year award from the Philadelphia Chapter of the American Diabetes Association in 2009. In 2011, he received the Distinguished Public Service Award from the PICPA as well as the Breath of Life award from the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. In 2015, he received the Heart of Philadelphia award from the American Heart Association and the Medal of Excellence award from Rowan University's Rohrer College of Business in 2017.

Uachtarán Award

The Uachtarán Award is named in honor of the President of Ireland, or Uachtarán na hÉireann, in Irish. In the 1990s, Mary Robinson, the seventh President of Ireland, transformed the role of the President by developing a new sense of Ireland's economic, political, and cultural links with other countries and cultures, especially those of the Irish Diaspora. Michael Higgins, the ninth and current President of Ireland and the former Minister for arts, culture, and the Gaeltacht in the 1990s, has excelled in this cultural and economic "building bridges" role.

Previous Award recipients include: Sean Rooney, Monsignor Michael J. Doyle, CBS3 and the CW Philly, Ann Claffey Baiada, Sister Marguerite O'Beirne, OSF, Timothy Chambers, James and Sarah Hasson, and Norbert J. McGettigan Sr.

Edward and Ellen Hanway

Edward is the Chairman Emeritus, Cigna Corporation and Chairman of the Board, Faith in the Future Foundation and Ellen is a past Board Member of Drexel Neumann Academy

H. Edward Hanway is the former Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Cigna Corporation and now serves as the non-executive Chairman of Marsh & McLennan Companies, Inc. He currently serves as the Chairman of Faith in the Future, an independent foundation that provides strategic management and operational oversight of 17 high schools and four schools of special education in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia and provides support services to all Archdiocesan schools in the five county Philadelphia area.

Through the years, Mr. Hanway has been active in a wide range of issues and initiatives associated with children's health, education and international business. He serves as Chairman of Drexel Neumann Academy and is a board member of the Crozier – Keystone Community Foundation. He is a former board member of The Philadelphia Orchestra, and was a member of The Business Roundtable and the Eisenhower Exchange.

A member of the Pennsylvania and American Institutes of Certified Public Accountants, Mr. Hanway earned his B.A. from Loyola University of Maryland and his M.B.A. from Widener University.

Ellen M. Hanway embodies the principles and values of a Catholic education. Mrs. Hanway attended Nativity BVM Parish School and Notre Dame High School before graduating from the Keystone School of Business.

An ardent supporter of Catholic education, Mrs. Hanway is a past board member of Drexel Neumann Academy and St. Francis de Sales Lenni Parish Council and Home and School Association.

BLOOMSDAY

❧ JUNE 16 ❧

Join the Rosenbach and its partners in celebrating the rich tradition of Irish literature as we read Ulysses aloud on Bloomsday. Lauded as the greatest novel of all time, James Joyce's epic Ulysses tells the story of a day in the life of everyman Dubliner Leopold Bloom. Each year, Ulysses enthusiasts and novices alike join us on June 16 in beautiful Delancey Place for a day-long reading of this unforgettable book. Enjoy Irish music, food, and theater under the trees.

About the Irish American Business Chamber

The Irish American Business Chamber & Network is a nonprofit and nonpartisan business organization promoting the interests of its members – companies and individuals – and the development of economic and educational relationships between the United States and the Isle of Ireland.

We provide growth opportunities through a series of networking forums for business executives, helping them to exchange information and ideas on doing business with one another.

These forums are hallmarked by the appearance of top CEOs, government executives, and directors who share similar interests and goals. Visit the events section of our website to review some of our past events to gain an appreciation of the opportunity for networking created by the Irish American Business Chamber & Network.
