I write this poem on sentence strips and place it in the pocket chart, for us to practice during Shared Reading time.

When the time comes to create this keepsake, I have students fill in the missing words. Next, I have students come back to a table where I paint their hands and place the print on their particular paper. After it dries, students use a sharpie to add the waddle, legs, beak, and eye.

I laminate each poem and punch 2 holes in the top. Together, each student and I use a pipe cleaner as the 'hanger' and string beads and add a raffia bow.

I do this project every year and my parents love this keepsake!!

Enjoy and don't forget to follow my blog, kindergartenchaos.com and all of my social media channels!
