WELCOME

The IUP community extends a warm welcome to the families and friends of a very distinguished graduating class. Over the past several years, the class members have worked and studied and are now ready to begin a new chapter in their lives. For some, this will mean a job and the responsibilities of a family. For others, it will mean graduate or professional school. Whatever course their future takes, the university hopes that its graduates will look back on their years here as having prepared them to meet and deal with the challenges that life will present.

In today's ceremony, more than one thousand undergraduate and graduate students are recognized for their academic achievement. The university joins parents, spouses, relatives, and friends in congratulating the graduates on their accomplishments and in wishing for them the happiness of a productive life, the respect of their fellow human beings, and the love of their families.

Best of luck and congratulations.

Welcome to the IUP Alumni Association. Did you know you are now a member? Once you've been a student at IUP, you'll always be a part of the family. THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER

O Say! Can you see, by the dawn's early light,
 What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming,
 Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
 O'er the ramparts we watch'd were so gallantly streaming
 And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
 Gave proof thro' the night, that our flag was still there.

O, say, does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave
 O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

ALMA MATER

To our noble Alma Mater's name
 We, her children, sing a joyful lay
 And to her a new allegiance pledge,
 That lives beyond a day.

Refrain: Sing, O Sing, Our Alma Mater's praise,
 Hail, O Hail, her colors' gleaming hue!
 Give to her our homage and our love
 And to her name be true.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT GLENN M. CANNON, ESQ. '71

In the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina, when the Federal Emergency Management Agency's shortcomings made international headlines, the agency turned to Glenn Cannon—as a key member of an exclusively short list of this nation's most highly trained and experienced management leaders—to build a "new" FEMA. As director of FEMA's disaster operations, Cannon wasn't just responsible for coordinating the development and execution of interagency plans, policies, and procedures and for response operations in Presidential disaster and emergency declarations and other Incidents of National Significance. He was also charged with getting FEMA "back on its feet." Now, as senior vice president for Hillard Heintze, Cannon is helping clients bring best practices to all phases of their emergency preparedness efforts. Mr. Cook served as a Regular Army officer from 1964 until 1969 with service in Europe, Vietnam, and Washington, D.C. He holds the Bronze Star, Army Commendation Medal, and the parachutist's badge.

Before his leadership role at FEMA, Cannon served as chief operating officer of Allegheny County from 1996 to 2001. Cannon streamlined forty-one departments into six, reduced operating costs by $218 million, directed the development of the countywide 911 system, and successfully negotiated the county's labor agreements with eighteen unions. Mr. Cook and his wife, Paula Brooks, are active vintners in St. Helena, California. They planted and actively manage the Dancing Hares Winery, which produces an estate-bottled wine that is blended with Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Cabernet Franc, and Petit Verdot varieties of red wine grapes and was mentioned as "a cult wine to watch" by the San Francisco Chronicle.

Cannon holds a master's degree in public management from Carnegie Mellon University and a law degree from Duquesne University. Highly active as a member of many public and private boards, Cannon is frequently called upon to brief Congress on key emergency planning and response matters. He has also been a prolific public speaker for decades and is an author or coauthor of publications on topics ranging from critical issues in emergency planning and response to best practices in establishing public-private partnerships.

An alumnus of IUP's College of Education and Educational Technology, Cannon began his public service career as a student in 1966 with Citizens' Ambulance Service in Indiana. He later fought his first fire with the town's volunteer fire department before becoming a member of the Monroeville Fire Department.

On April 10, Cannon was honored at the 2010 IUP Legacy Gala with the presentation of the Presidential Legacy Award for Civic Service. He also received IUP's Distinguished Alumni Award in 1985 and has served as a member of the IUP Alumni Association board.

PRESIDENT TONY ATWATER

Before becoming president of Indiana University of Pennsylvania, Tony Atwater served as provost and vice president for Academic Affairs at Youngstown State University in Ohio. In this capacity, he oversaw academic programs, academic policy, and academic assessment, while providing leadership and strategic direction to approximately 750 faculty members serving six academic colleges, the School of Graduate Studies and Research, and the Library. He earned a Ph.D. degree in communication research from Michigan State University (1983), where he was the recipient of a competitive doctoral fellowship. He completed postdoctoral study in the Department of Communication at the University of Michigan (1989). President Atwater earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in mass media arts (magna cum laude) from Hampton University (1973). He is the recipient of three graduate certificates in higher education administration from the Harvard Graduate School of Education.

President Atwater is a Ford Foundation Postdoctoral Fellow, and the focus of his research has been news selection behavior in the mass media. He has published approximately thirty refereed journal articles on the subject. Earlier administrative assignments included roles as dean of the College of Professional Studies and Education at Northern Kentucky University, chairperson of the Rutgers University Department of Journalism and Mass Media, and special assistant to the provost at the University of Connecticut. He also served as associate vice president for Academic Affairs at the University of Toledo.

President Atwater has assumed significant community leadership roles throughout his career. These efforts have included serving on the (Kentucky) Governor's Task Force on Youth and Substance Abuse Prevention, on the Board of Trustees of the Northwest Ohio Public Television Foundation, and as a member of the 2000-2001 delegation of Leadership Cincinnati. He also served as a member of the Advisory Board of KeyBank (Northeast Ohio Region) and as a board member of the Youngstown Business Incubator. He is a past president of the Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication.

During his tenure at IUP, he has assumed several leadership roles. He is a member of the Pennsylvania Economy League of Southwestern Pennsylvania Board of Directors, the International Student Exchange Program Board of Directors, and the American Council on Education's Commission on Lifelong Learning. He is a member of the Indiana County Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors, the Indiana County

Center for Economic Operations, Rotary Club of Indiana, the Greater Indiana Revitalization Steering Committee, and the Indiana County Tourist Bureau Board.

President Atwater's wife, Dr. Beverly Roberts-Atwater, received both Ph.D. and medical degrees from Michigan State University and is in private practice as a physiatrist.

These safe, inquisitive spaces allow students not only to understand the technique and theory necessary for successful classroom instruction but also to experience the fluidity and spontaneity that exemplify truly engaging teaching. Students and faculty peers alike note Dr. Knickelbein's strong content knowledge, collaborative nature, and open, easy-going style. Her creative use of semester-long case studies to access the emotions and frustrations of special needs students and their parents provides insight that is critical for the success of her pre-service teachers.

His work is always first-rate, professional, and intelligent."

INDIANA UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA

Indiana University of Pennsylvania was established in 1875 and is the largest and only doctoral research university in the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education. IUP has a long tradition of academic excellence and receives frequent accolades, including designation as one of The Best 371 Colleges in that name. The university provides an intellectually challenging experience to fourteen thousand students at three campuses, all easily accessible from Pittsburgh and the Middle Atlantic region. IUP is the largest member institution of the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education and the only one authorized to confer doctoral degrees.

Academic offerings include more than one hundred forty undergraduate programs with a variety of internship and study abroad programs, more than sixty master's degree programs, and ten doctoral degrees. Unusual opportunities for research at all levels and the Robert E. Cook Honors College provide special challenges for academic growth. The variety and quality of instruction are characteristic of a big university, yet at IUP, close, one-to-one relationships develop within the teaching framework, and a strong sense of community prevails.

GRADUATION HONORS

LATIN HONORS

Asterisks denote Latin honors for first-time bachelor degree candidates as follows:

-  Summa Cum Laude 3.75 to 4.00
-  Magna Cum Laude 3.50 to 3.74
- * Cum Laude 3.25 to 3.49

Asterisks denote non-Latin honors for associate degree candidates as follows:

-  With Highest Honor 3.75 to 4.00
-  With High Honor 3.50 to 3.74
- * With Honor 3.25 to 3.49

Graduation honors are tentative and are based upon the cumulative grade-point average after conclusion of the student's next-to-last semester. Final honors for these graduates will be noted after final cumulative grade-point averages have been calculated.

Averages are determined on the basis of the following: 4=A; 3=B; 2=C.

The appearance of a name on this program is not a valid indication of graduation. The diploma of the university and an official transcript, signed and sealed by the proper officers, provide authentic testimony to the conferring of a degree.

GOVERNING AND ADVISORY BOARDS

THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE SYSTEM OF HIGHER EDUCATION

Since its creation on July 1, 1983, the State System of Higher Education has developed a reputation for service, achievement, and vision. Strong student demand for the academic offerings at the fourteen public universities in the State System is evidenced by the growth in head count enrollment to nearly 117,000 for 2009-2010. The State System universities are working to fulfill their potential as one of the largest human resource development infrastructures in the commonwealth.

THE SYMBOLS OF LEARNING

Participants in the commencement procession are attired in regalia that reflects a history and heritage that can be traced to the medieval universities of the eleventh and twelfth centuries. Modern academic regalia evolved from the kinds of apparel worn by monks and students in the Middle Ages to keep warm in the medieval castles and halls in which they studied.

Academic life as we know it today began in the Middle Ages, first in the church, then in the guilds. The teaching guild was the Guild of the Master of Arts, and the Bachelor was the apprentice of the Master; their dress was the outward sign of stature and responsibility. Academic regalia was thus a visible manifestation—in color and pattern and design—that unified those of common discipline and like purpose.

In later centuries, to preserve the regalia's dignity and meaning, universities set rules of academic dress. American universities agreed on a definite system in 1895 establishing a code of approved attire. In 1932 the American Council on Education revised this code, which, for the most part, governs the style of academic dress today. The principal features of academic dress are three: the gown, the cap, and the hood.

The Gown. The flowing gown dates to the twelfth century. Many think it was worn as protection against the cold of unheated buildings. It has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it completely covers any dress of rank or social standing. It is (with a few institutional exceptions) black for all degrees. Pointed sleeves indicate the bachelor's degree; long closed sleeves with a slit in the arm, the master's degree; and round open sleeves, the doctor's degree. The gown for bachelor's or master's degrees has no trimmings; the gown for the doctorate degree is faced down the front with velvet and has three bars of velvet across the sleeves, in the color distinctive of the faculty or discipline in which the degree pertains.

The official colors of the college may also appear in the gown or its decorations. The trustees and some administrators of IUP wear gowns of slate trimmed in crimson velvet.

The Cap. The freed slave in ancient Rome won the privilege of wearing a cap, and so the academic cap is a sign of the freedom of scholarship and the responsibility and dignity with which scholarship endows the wearer. Old poetry records the cap of scholarship as square, symbolizing the book, although other authorities claim that it is a mortar board, the symbol of the masons, a privileged guild. At the baccalaureate level the color of the tassel on the cap denotes the discipline. The tassel is moved from the right side of the cap to the left side upon conferral of the degree.

The Hood. In regalia, the hood is an inverted shield with one or more chevrons of a secondary color on the ground of the primary color of the college. The color of the facing of the hood denotes the discipline represented by the degree; the color of the lining of the hood designates the university or college from which the degree was granted.

The Mace is a ceremonial staff carried by the chief university marshal, who is the most senior faculty member. The chief university marshal opens and closes all academic convocations, such as Honors Convocation and Commencement. Artist and metalsmith Walter J. Kipp designed and constructed the mace for IUP in 1967. The design was created around the state seal, which was placed at the top of the mace. The large keystone which comes next symbolizes the state emblem, and on this keystone the letters IUP are placed. The handturned shaft is made of native Pennsylvania walnut.

The President's Medallion is worn by the president of Indiana University of Pennsylvania during academic convocations as a symbol of the leadership responsibilities vested in that office. The previous medallion, designed and created by professor emeritus Robert W. Hamilton, featured the university seal in a jeweled setting. Professor Hamilton fabricated that medallion in 1998 to replace the original medallion crafted by Walter J. Kipp in 1968 for the fifteenth president, William W. Hassler. The current medallion was crafted at Wendell August Forge. President Tony Atwater was the first president to be inaugurated with the current medallion.
