FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CAROLINA GROUP REPORTS NET INCOME AND PRO FORMA RESULTS FOR THE THIRD QUARTER OF 2002

NEW YORK, November 7, 2002—Loews Corporation (NYSE:LTR) reported today Carolina Group net income for the 2002 third quarter of $191.7 million, compared to $229.6 million in 2001. Net income attributable to the Loews Group intergroup interest for the third quarter of 2002 amounted to $147.3 million. Net income attributable to Carolina Group Stock for the third quarter of 2002 was $44.4 million, or $1.10 per share of Carolina Group tracking stock (NYSE:CG).

Carolina Group net income for the 2002 third quarter includes net investment gains of $14.3 million. Net investment gains attributable to Carolina Group Stock were $3.3 million, or $0.08 per share of Carolina Group Stock.

Carolina Group net income for the first nine months of 2002 was $521.2 million, compared to $475.4 million in the comparable period of the prior year. Net income attributable to the Loews Group intergroup interest for the first nine months of 2002 amounted to $417.4 million. Net income attributable to Carolina Group Stock for the three quarters of 2002 was $103.8 million, or $2.58 per share of Carolina Group tracking stock and reflects eight months of actual results, commencing with the initial issuance of Carolina Group Stock by Loews Corporation in February 2002.

Carolina Group net income for the first three quarters of 2002 includes net investment gains of $21.2 million, compared to $1.4 million in the comparable period of the prior year. Net investment gains attributable to Carolina Group Stock in 2002 were $4.8 million, or $0.12 per share of Carolina Group Stock.

Net income for the Carolina Group in the first nine months of 2001 included a $200.0 million pretax charge ($121.0 million after taxes) related to an agreement with the class in the Engle case.

Net sales for the Carolina Group were $3.0 billion in each of the first nine months of 2002 and 2001. Net sales in the first nine months of 2001 were restated for comparative purposes to reflect the adoption of new accounting principles related to the classification of certain sales incentives.

On a pro forma basis, assuming the Carolina Group Stock had been issued at January 1, 2001, net income attributable to Carolina Group Stock for the first nine months of 2002 was $117.8 million or $2.93 per share of Carolina Group Stock, compared to $88.9 million or $2.21 per share in the comparable period of the prior year.

This pro forma information is based on the historical financial statements of the Carolina Group, adjusted to accrue interest expense at 8% per annum on $2.5 billion of notional intergroup debt and an adjustment to income taxes for the impact of the interest expense. Per share amounts are based on income available to Carolina Group shareholders.

The Carolina Group Stock, commonly called a tracking stock, is intended to reflect the economic performance of a defined group of the Company's assets and liabilities, referred to as the Carolina Group, principally consisting of the Company's subsidiary Lorillard, Inc. The Carolina Group, a notional group, is not a separate legal entity. The purpose of this financial information is to provide investors with additional information to use in analyzing the results of operations and financial condition of the Carolina Group, and this financial information should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial information of Loews Corporation.

As of September 30, 2002, there were 39,910,000 shares of Carolina Group Stock outstanding. During the quarter ended September 30, 2002, the Company purchased 340,000 shares of Carolina Group stock, for the account of the Carolina Group, at an aggregate cost of $7.7 million. Depending on market conditions, the Company, for the account of the Carolina Group, from time to time may purchase shares of Carolina Group stock in the open market or otherwise.

###

Loews Corporation has issued a separate press release reporting its consolidated results for the third quarter of 2002, which accompanies this press release.

* Revenue for the three and nine months ended 2001 has been restated for comparative purposes to reflect the adoption of new accounting principles related to the classification of certain sales incentives by Lorillard. Revenue also includes premiums of $612.0 for the three months ended 2001, and $1,151.0 and $1,659.0 for the nine months ended 2002 and 2001, respectively, related to the National Postal Mail Handlers contract at CNA which was transferred on July 1, 2002.

** The Company has two classes of common stock, Loews Common Stock and Carolina Group Stock, issued in February 2002. Earnings per share data are presented for each class of Common Stock for the periods they are outstanding.

Consolidated net operating income, which excludes net investment gains and discontinued operations, for the quarter ended September 30, 2002 was $231.3 million, compared to $116.3 million in the third quarter of 2001.

Net income attributable to Loews Common Stock for the third quarter of 2002 amounted to $196.0 million or $1.06 per share, compared to $165.7 million or $0.85 per share in the comparable period of the prior year. Net income in the third quarter of 2002 includes net investment gains attributable to Loews Common Stock of $5.8 million or $0.03 per share, compared to $44.8 million or $0.23 per share in the comparable period of the prior year.

Net operating income attributable to Loews Common Stock, which excludes net investment gains and discontinued operations, for the quarter ended September 30, 2002, was $190.2 million or $1.03 per share, compared to $116.3 million or $0.60 per share in the comparable period of the prior year.

Net income attributable to Carolina Group Stock for the 2002 third quarter amounted to $44.4 million or $1.10 per Carolina Group share. The Company is issuing a separate press release reporting the actual and pro forma results of the Carolina Group for the quarter and nine months ended September 30, 2002 and 2001.

Nine Months Ended September 30, 2002 compared with 2001

For the nine months ended September 30, 2002 consolidated net income (including both the Loews Group and Carolina Group) amounted to $655.6 million, compared to a net loss of $777.2 million in the comparable period of the prior year.

The first nine months of 2002 included a loss for discontinued operations at CNA of $31.0 million or $0.16 per share of Loews Common Stock, compared to income from discontinued operations of $6.7 million or $0.03 per share of Loews Common Stock in the comparable period of the prior year. The first nine months of 2002 also included a charge for accounting changes of $39.6 million or $0.21 per share of Loews Common Stock, related to accounting for goodwill and other intangible assets, compared to a charge of $53.3 million or $0.27 per share of Loews Common Stock in the comparable period of the prior year, related to accounting for derivative instruments at CNA.

Consolidated net operating income, which excludes net investment gains (losses), discontinued operations and accounting changes, was $819.2 million in the first nine months of 2002, compared to a loss of $1,285.0 million in the comparable period of the prior year.

Net operating income attributable to Loews Common Stock, which excludes net investment (losses) gains, discontinued operations and accounting changes, for the first nine months of 2002, was $720.2 million or $3.82 per share, compared to a loss of $1,285.0 million or $6.54 per share in the comparable period of the prior year.

Net income attributable to Carolina Group Stock for the first nine months of 2002 amounted to $103.8 million or $2.58 per Carolina Group share.

At September 30, 2002, the book value per share of Loews Common Stock was $61.09, compared to $50.39 at December 31, 2001. The increase in book value per share of Loews Common Stock is primarily due to proceeds from the issuance of the Carolina Group Stock in February 2002 and the Loews Group's net economic interest in the notional intergroup debt receivable from the Carolina Group.

As of September 30, 2002, there were 185,441,200 shares of Loews Common Stock outstanding. During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2002, the Company purchased 664,000 and 6,065,600 shares of Loews Common Stock at an aggregate cost of $33.4 and $343.5 million, respectively. During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2002, the Company purchased 53,500 and 2,717,876 shares of CNA common stock at an aggregate cost of $1.4 and $73.1 million, respectively. The Company also purchased 340,000 shares of Carolina Group stock during the three months ended September 30, 2002, for the account of the Carolina Group, at an aggregate cost of $7.7 million. Depending on market conditions, the Company from time to time purchases shares of its, and its subsidiaries', outstanding common stock in the open market or otherwise.

###

In February 2002 the Company created a second class of common stock, called Carolina Group Stock, a tracking stock intended to reflect the economic performance of a group of the Company's assets and liabilities, called the Carolina Group, principally consisting of the Company's subsidiary Lorillard, Inc., and in an initial public offering the Company issued shares of Carolina Group Stock representing 23.17% of the economic performance of the Carolina Group. Loews Common Stock will continue to represent the economic performance of the Company's remaining assets, including the interest in the Carolina Group not represented by Carolina Group Stock.
