REVISED CONSTITUTION OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A., INC.*PREAMBLE

Whereas, it was the sense of the Negro Baptist of the United States as represented in several Baptist organizations convened in Atlanta, Ga., September 28, 1895, and known as the Baptist Foreign Mission Convention hitherto engaged in Missionary work on the West Coast of Africa; the National Baptist Convention which had been doing missionary work in the United States; the National Baptist Missionary work on the West Coast of Africa, the National Baptist Convention that these organizations should unite into one organization for the purpose of putting into effect the benevolent intentions of their constituents by eliciting, combining and directing the energies of denomination: therefore said organizations did unite and agree upon certain fundamental principles of organic rules, which as amended from time to time, are as follows:

ARTICLE I—NAME

This organization shall be known and styled as the National Baptist Convention of the United States of America.

ARTICLE II—OBJECT

This Convention by uniting Baptist churches and other Baptist organizations, such as may desire an organization of this kind, shall undertake to promote home and foreign missions; to encourage and support Christian education; to publish and distribute Sunday school and other religious literature; and to engage in whatever other Christian endeavor is required to advance the Redeemer's kingdom throughout the world.

ARTICLE III—MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. The membership of this Convention shall be representative, annual and life.

Section 2. Representative membership shall be composed of messengers from churches, associations, district conventions and state conventions all known to be in harmony with the purpose of this Convention. These organizations shall pay into the treasury of this Convention sums as are set out in sections of this Article.

Section 3. Basis of Representations. (a) Churches with 200 to 500 members, $25.00; 500 to 1,000 members, $35.00. (b) Churches above 1,000 members, $50.00 paid in as representation, not to exceed two messengers. (c) District State Convention, $50.00. (d) Association $35.00.

Section 4. Life Membership—Any person who is in good and regular standing in any Missionary Baptist church that is a member of this Convention may become a life member by the payment of the sum of $200.00 into the treasury of this Convention.

Section 5. Annual Membership—Any person who is a member of a church that is in good and regular standing with this Convention may become an ANNUAL member of this Convention by payment of the sum of $10.00 into the treasury of this Convention. Said ANNUAL member may engage in the discussion of the Convention but not vote.

DR J. H. JACKSON, President
National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.

Section 6. Associations and State conventions shall elect their messengers to the National Convention in their annual meeting preceding the Convention and certify said messenger to the secretary.

Article 3 would be so amended that section 7 would read as follows:

"Since the convention is primarily a fellowship, and since the fellowship owns the corporation, membership in the fellowship does not give to any individual member or group of members equity or special property rights in the assets of the corporations. The annual representation fees are designed primarily to carry the expenses of the convention and to help in its work in general and cannot be construed as capital investment in the corporation.

Section 8. The question of the rights and privileges of membership are settled only by the convention itself or its Board of Directors in the convention's absence.

Section 9. No member or group of members of the convention shall have the rights to use the civil courts to settle matters regarding membership rights and convention procedures. In these matters the convention itself is the supreme court from which there is no appeal. The majority vote of the fellowship is therefore binding on the individual, the convention and corporation itself.

ARTICLE IV

Voting in this convention shall be by the delegates assembled without reference to member organizations, states or sections of the country, and shall be by voice, or show of hands, or standing.

ARTICLE V

Dear Brethren: April 5, 1866, an open letter to the Baptist clergy and laymen was issued by Rev. Wm. J. Simmons, an American Baptist, asking if we should have a National Convention to discuss questions of interest to our beloved denominations. At that time the following reasons were given:

1. To promote personal piety, sociability, and a better knowledge of each other.
2. To be able to have an understanding as to the great ends to be reached by the denomination.
3. To encourage our literary men and women, and promote the interest of Baptist literature.
4. To discuss questions pertaining especially to the religious, educational, industrial, and social interests of our people.
5. To give an opportunity for the best thinkers and writers to be heard.
6. That, united, we may be more powerful for good and strengthen our pride in the denomination.

Having been solicited to write the Call by many whose names and endorsements are here unto affixed, the Call is hereby made by their advice and solicitations for said convention to meet in St. Louis, Mo., August 25, 1866, 10 o'clock a.m., in the First Baptist Church, and the pastor thereof is hereby requested to serve as a Committee of Arrangements, with power to select his associates.

Wm. H. Steward, Louisville, Ky., and Rev. R. H. Cole, 2808 Goode Avenue, St. Louis, are hereby requested to serve as a Committee on Transportation.

WM. J. SIMMONS

The chronological report in our National Baptist Minutes is hereby corrected, viz: The parties as they appear below were officers of the Foreign Missions or National Educational Conventions, as were their predecessors. Said conventions merged into the National Baptist Convention in 1880 or met co-jointly with it, or otherwise.

There was no convention in such national scope as the National Baptist Convention, 1866. The Foreign Mission Convention, however, having been organized in 1860, the National Baptist Convention accepts that day as the starting point.

JUNE BOARD MEETING

BOARD OF DIRECTORS
of the
NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U. S. A., INC.

June 18, 1969

The Board Meeting was held in the St. John Baptist Church in Miami, Florida Pastored by Dr. Theford Johnson. The meeting was opened and presided over by Vice-President-At-Large E. Doyle Billoups. The song service was led by the Convention Singers under the direction of Mrs. Johnny Howard Franklin. Dr. Billoups, the presiding Officer selected the Reverend W. H. Dudley to read the Scripture. He chose as the Scripture Lesson, 13th Chapter of 1st Corinthians. We were led in singing "O How I Love Jesus." Following this selection Sentence Prayer were given by the Reverend Victor H. Wells, the Reverend J. T. Weeden, and the Reverend R. E. L. Hardmon. The closing prayer was offered by the Reverend E. E. Spencer. At the close of the prayer, the Reverend Emory L. Johnson sang, "There is A Fountain Filled With Blood."

The Vice-President-At-Large Dr. Billoups with well chosen words presented our President, Dr. J. H. Jackson. Dr. Jackson apologized for being late, and stated he was detained due to an important Press Conference.

The agendas were passed out and President Jackson called for Secretary T. J. Jamison to read the minutes of the last meeting. On a motion by the Reverend W. R. Matthews and seconded by the Reverend O. L. Sherrill. That the minutes would be adopted with the necessary corrections if there be any. The motion passed with a statement from the Reverend W. L. Wilson of South Carolina that a vote of appreciation be given Secretary Jamison for a well-organized and comprehensive record. This was done.

The agenda was read by Secretary Jamison. The agenda became order and guide for the meeting with two items added. (1) The Invitation from Fort Worth Texas by Dr. S. T. Alexander and a Resolution by some Brethren from New York relative to the work and worth of our Chieftian, Dr. J. H. Jackson. On a motion by the Reverend Louis S. Beauchamp and seconded by the Reverend Roy Love the agenda was adopted as the guide for the meeting.

President Jackson called on Secretary Jamison to read a prepared statement by the President on National Unity. After reading the Unity Document, on a motion by the Reverend C. C. Coleman and seconded by the Reverend K. L. Taylor the statement be adopted, words of praise were given by the Reverend C. G. Coleman. The motion was amended by the Reverend E. A. Freeman that the document would be offered as the sentiment of the Convention. The amendment was seconded by the Reverend W. L. Wilson. The amendment was adopted unanimously.

President Jackson spoke to the section dealing with some of the young people being employed by individual churches during the summer to help tell the story of the National Unity Program of this Convention. These young people would become conversant with our statement on Unity, the Bill of Rights, the Federal Constitution and other literature that would be helpful in such a program. These young people would be able to earn money to help them with their schooling.

The Reverend A. L. Davis, Jr. suggested that the young people selected would be sent to some place for a period of orientation on the work of National Unity. It was felt by many, that, Nashville, Tennessee would be the place because of our Printing Plant, the Sunday School Publishing Board is there. Various brethren spoke in behalf of the idea, and the Reverend E. E. Spencer suggested that State Conventions could do something to enhance this program. The Reverend Charles H. Williams, stated that the Pastors were asked by the President and not Conventions and Associations. The Reverend J. Wendell Mason, New Jersey, spoke on the need for such a program and pledged his cooperation in the venture. At this point literature was given to the Pastors who indicated their cooperation by standing so that the program could get started.

A partial report was given by the Reverend William J. Harvey, III, and Treasurer U. G. Carr on the progress of advanced registration. Secretary Jamison read a supplementary report that had been sent to his office. President Jackson thanked the Brethren who had taken advantage of the opportunity of advanced registration and urged others to do likewise.

The Reverend F. N. Nixon of Alabama spoke of the need of more funds from the churches for the work of the convention.

Following the lead of President Jackson, many of the brethren spoke of the need for getting someone to work the 100,000 acres of land in Liberia. An appeal for workers was made by Secretary William J. Harvey, III, of the Foreign Mission Board.

President Jackson appointed members of the Program Committee. They were the Reverend Moses Newsome, Chairman, the Reverend A. B. Coleman, the Reverend O. L. Sherrill, the Reverend E. E. Spencer, the Reverend Robert H. Wilson, and T. J. Jamison. It was agreed that the theme for this 68th Annual Session would be "Victory Through Christ."

The Reverend A. B. Coleman announced that Vice President J. A. F. Finlayson was in the hospital at this time and would be unable to attend this meeting. The financial report and the naming of Officers for the next twelve months had already been adopted. The Moderators presented the Reverend J. H. Ross of Chicago to preach the sermon. We were all inspired by the message of the speaker. The Moderator's Hour came to a close with remarks by Chairman J. L. Vaughn.

The Soup and Stew Hour that had been so designated earlier by President Jackson was to be presided over by the Vice-President-At-Large E. Doyle Blum. This Hour was so termed so that the brethren could discuss all their likes and dislikes. All grievances were to be brought to light. After a thorough discussion the ministers who had caused some disruption in the orderly procedure of the Convention's business, it was recommended that the Reverend L. K. Curry of Chicago and the Reverend Timothy Mitchell of New York would be silenced until the Convention itself saw fit to remove the silence. The motion was made by the Reverend J. H. Nixon of Alabama and seconded by the Reverend J. T. Weeden. The motion passed without a dissenting vote.

It was recommended by Dr. D. C. Washington that the name of the Reverend J. A. Foster of Norfolk, Virginia would be in the place of the Reverend J. M. Baker of St. Louis, Missouri. The recommendation was adopted on a motion by the Reverend D. C. Washington and seconded by the Reverend J. T. Weeden.

The meeting of the World Council of Churches was held in Uppsala, Sweden. The delegates from our Convention were Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Jackson, the Reverend Robert L. Taylor, the Reverend Robert Laws, the Reverend Bernilee Faison and Mrs. Mary O. Ross.

The Laymen were presented to make their Annual Report. The Male Chorus sang, "It Is Well With My Soul." Brother Allen Jordan in making his report pledged the loyalty of the Laymen to the Parent Body. The list of Officers for the next twelve months were approved. The Laymen presented $1000.00 on their pledge to the Educational Foundation.

A vote of appreciation for the fine Male Chorus and a motion for the adoption of the report was made by the Reverend C. C. Coleman and seconded by the Reverend V. W. Glanton. The motion was adopted.

The World Baptist Alliance report was made by the Reverend E. A. Freeman. The Reverend Mr. Freeman spoke of the coming session of the World Baptist Alliance in Japan this July. President Jackson's Address

INTRODUCTION

Mr. President, Delegates of the 89th Session of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated, visitors and friends of Kansas City:

The fortunes of life have brought us safely across another twelve months. The winds of fate have taken their toll, and the scrutinizing hands of providence have selected us from among other deserving sons of men to make this journey to this place and this peak of human history. But more than this, we have been thrust from the frontiers of an old age into the dawn of a new. History must record that July 20th, 1969, is the date-line that divides the terrestrial exclusive from the lunar possibilities. This is the age in which the first human being set foot on the surface of the moon. The knowledge of modern science, the practical engineering skills of some of our best technologists, the wisdom of scholars, the courage and daring of our astronauts have opened for us new vistas, new dimensions of life and new hopes.

As a taxpayer and an American citizen, I am proud of what my nation has done in the field of science and in the realm of navigation and inter-planetary travel. I would not, if I could, reverse what America has done in this new venture of science. I must hasten to thank those American statesmen and scientists who were diligent enough to see to it that this nation maintained its historic lead in this aspect of scientific discoveries and ventures. I would invite all Americans to enter into these labors and fruits of this new age.

Let not fear deter us. Let not self-seeking and a feeling of revenge divorce us from this great achievement. We are a part of this nation, and heirs of its great adventures and discoveries.

What the results of this new venture will be we know not. And the goals to which it will finally lead, only time can tell. One thing is sure, this new age has not lessened, but has deepened the mystery of this universe. It has all but made doubt a thing of the past, for it seems to say to us, "All things are possible" to them who believe and labor and tarry to receive. I am not among those who contend that the money invested in this experiment should have been saved and spent to add to the comforts of the poor. I say the nation should have done the former and yet not left the latter undone. We need both the lofty ventures of science and the practical improvement of the lot of mankind on this earth. If America had not led in this venture, our statesmen and leaders would have been criticized and cursed for allowing another great power to move ahead of us in such a scientific venture. Now that America has been successful, many are making the same criticisms that Judas Iscariot made against that devout woman who broke the alabaster box and anointed the feet of Jesus. Judas said this should not have been done, but the money should have been given to the poor.

An old man, about 102 years old, still denies that men walked on the moon. He says that the only way that men could walk on the moon they would have to bring the moon down to the surface of the earth. A century of time has not armed this man with the knowledge and the truth that science can give. He does not know that there are some things, including the moon, that can be reached by ascending and not by pulling them down. But I am among those who believe that these men went up there. I believe the blastoff was real and that they did find their place in the orbit of the earth and then tore themselves loose from the pull of gravitation and then flew through space until their ship was claimed by the pull of the moon. I am certain that the lunar module was cut loose from the command ship and descended onto the surface of this heavenly planet. I saw them and observed them walking on the surface of the moon. But if you ask me if I expect personally to walk on the moon, my answer is somewhat in line with the old man's theory. I will walk on the moon only if it is brought down to the surface of the earth.

After this great scientific achievement, my faith has been deepened and my appreciation for the greatness of the universe heightened. This is not time for theologians to doubt or for people of religion to turn materialistic and to become self-centered. For this practical discovery has revealed to us, who are not scientists and astronomers, more of the mystery of the heavens. I had not been conscious that on the moon there was the kind of soil that was returned to earth. I did not know there were stones and crags and rocky mountains, which doubtless had been formed by lakes of burning lava out of the jaws of active volcanos. I had thought that any study of rocks and any kind of geological formations would have to be done by the excavation and the discovery of ancient formation in the bowels of the earth. But now I am convinced that there are rocks and stones among the stars and that even now there is going on a great conflagration above us. What a grim life would man lead on earth if he could see daily these things taking place above our heads. What has been revealed to us is the fiery splendor of the sun as the king of day and as the master and conqueror of night. To us the moon in all of its silvery splendor is that lesser light created to grace the darkness and lend beauty and splendor to the heavens until the sun comes in view again. The stars, in all their splendor reflect a calm and attractive beauty in which there are no threats to the earth below and no signs of any conflict or confusion of nature. The divine mystery still stands and the songs and anthems of praise for the beauty and the glory of the heavens are still in order. In spite of this new discovery and the modern age of science the ancient words of the Psalmist are still appropriate and very much in order.

The heavens declare the glory of God and the firmaments sheweth forth His handiwork.

SCIENCE AND PEACE

As we have seen what men can achieve when working together in a scientific experiment without jealousy, envy and strife, mankind now ought to be willing to employ the same skills, the same united efforts and the same dedication in a serious quest for world peace. War is an old-fashioned way to settle human grievances and a primitive and barbarian way to solve the problems of the right relation of nations to nations and people to people. An expanding knowledge of the universe should remind us of how small is this spot called EARTH and how insignificant is our little world and how insecure into this new age we should not bring the malice, the envy, the prejudices and the hatred out of which the fires of a destructive war may easily be kindled. Every venture of mankind on this planet now should aim at the correct use of its values and resources, its salvation and the enrichment of the life of all mankind.

Peace is more than the cessation of war, the silencing of guns and bursting bombs. Peace is more than a political venture. It is an economic, moral and spiritual necessity, and every nation stands to gain more through peace than through the devastation and destruction of war.

One basic step towards peace is a new sense of ownership among the peoples of the world. This was indicated and reflected in the words and actions of Neil Armstrong and Edwin Aldrin, Sr. Said Armstrong, as he was making the last step from the lunar module to the surface of the moon: "That's one small step for man, one giant leap for mankind." Although the flag of the United States of America was raised and left to remain on the moon as long as weather and temperature would allow it, but there was no gesture of claiming any segment or any part of the moon or any area of its Sea of Tranquility as a part of America's possessions and America's territory.

The official message from the United States was on a plaque attached to the descent stage of the lunar module. It was signed by both the President of the United States and the three astronauts of Apollo 11. It reads, "Here men from the planet Earth first set foot upon the moon, July 1969, A.D. We came in peace for all mankind." These were reminders that Americans had camped there, but the moon does not belong to any nation or to any civilization for that matter. Hence, it is not the burden of our nation's defense.

Let the nations of the world learn to think of the sea lanes as the watery highways of the nations on which ships may float to carry cargo to the peoples of the world and to bear passengers from one port to another. The seas were not made for battleships and submarines, they belong to the people. The terra firma must be considered as a dwelling place for all mankind. For convenience certain geographical spots may be claimed by nations to give them a chance to assume the responsibility and the stewardship of the care and cultivation of all these resources for the blessing of all mankind. The fight among nations of the future should no longer be to keep one nation's title clear by destroying other nations, but the fight should be against all those forces that would endanger the health and mar the happiness of all mankind and impede the moral and social progress of people everywhere.

Science has done much to clear the forest, fertilize the soil, people arid deserts and increase man's power and mastery over the indifferent and hostile forces of nature. Morality and religion are needed to motivate man to do the good as he sees it.

With the history of mankind set clearly before us, we can recount the horrors and the pestilence of war that have cursed the land and damned the lives of innocent people; but we need now a new commitment to the pathway and to the goals of universal peace. For science can join hands with the best in moral philosophy and validate what the Master Preacher said in days gone by, that the way of war is the broad way to destruction; said he: "They that take the sword shall perish by the sword." The only sure guarantee against perishing by the sword is to rise above the lust for the things and for the power that the sword promises to give and then to heed the words and the directives of The Prince Of Peace.

FACING OUR DOMESTIC PROBLEMS

It is a privilege to dream of the glorious things yet to be. It is fascinating to talk of the wonders and beauties of the heavens and to react joyfully to the glory of the stars. But we must never forget that we are dwellers on earth, part of a great host called the United States of America. And here all is not well.

Our nation is one of the most wealthy, the most comfortable and with the highest standard of living in the world today. America is blessed with thousands of acres of fertile land yielding annually, an abundant harvest, while possessing unlimited natural resources stored away in the lower regions of the earth. As we have noted above, this nation is one of the outstanding leaders in the field of scientific invention and exploration. In addition to its wide open spaces, this nation has small towns and crowded and congested cities. It has a machinery of government that, in theory at least, puts the burden and the responsibility on the people who are both the governed and the government. The luxury of this nation is not restricted to the wealthy few, but it overflows into the larger community. So you will find as many cars on the streets of the so-called ghettos as you find in the neighborhood of the rich—or maybe more. Television sets and other luxuries are shared by many Americans of humble circumstances and ordinary income. A study of the history of other nations, past and present, will reveal how glorious is this our American Republic.

But in spite of the goodness and the glory of this great republic, our nation today is torn with strife, dissatisfaction, jealousy, bitterness and hatred that render the life in our local communities most hazardous and dangerous. Guerrilla warfare, after a form, still goes on. Crimes plague our streets so that young and old are not safe by day or night. The spirit of the jungles has invaded our metropolitan centers and thieves and thugs and murderers prowl as wild beasts in search of prey, burning and looting still threaten many of our cities and many so-called American citizens daily damn the nation of their birth and seem to be committed to its desecration and death. It seems that America has reached an impass where citizens are more concerned about what they receive for themselves and when, than they are about the welfare and the preservation of the nation's life. There is a determination to use the nation, to make the nation our victim without committing ourselves to the nation's life and welfare. There has developed in this great country an erroneous feeling that somewhere tucked away are great reservoirs of comfort, happiness and peace and these may be had only for the asking or for the picketing, or the marching, or the cursing. It seems that this obsession has blinded many Americans to the fact that this is a nation of the people, for the people and by the people and the sins of America cannot be placed in one city or in one state or community. The sins of the nation are not only the sins of political leaders and captains of industry. They are the sins of laborers, the man on the street, the poor as well as the rich.

Whenever there are sins in America, they are the sins of the people by the people and for things and thrills that the people desire. Often I have heard it said that the few men with money control this country. But we know money does not possess any intrinsic value. It only has exchange value. And no man with money can control others who do not possess money unless the latter are willing to do anything to get money. A corrupt politician cannot buy votes if there are not voters for sale. People who refuse to be bought will stop the political control of men who have the money with which to buy.

A MONEY MORALITY

We have developed in the United States of America a kind of money morality. A money morality is one based on and motivated by a desire to receive and keep money. It springs not from the oughtness of conscious but from the oughtness of cash. Here the dispenser of money becomes the primary determinant of action and character.

In the matter of school desegregation today it seems we have come to a form of money morality. If certain school districts do not comply with desegregation, they will not receive any federal funds. If the adult members of the community do not desegregate the schools, they will not receive the much-needed funds to operate the schools. It means that the children of these districts will suffer for the sins they did not commit and school teachers and leaders of culture will be deprived of a sufficient economic base, on which to stand and live.

A money morality cheapens and downgrades the proper respect for human personality and for the highest principles of human relations and association in a democratic society. People who do right to get control of several thousands of dollars, or to build a bigger budget may not be qualified mentally and morally to help build a more free and a more just society.

America has learned the hard way, what a money morality can do abroad among the nations and peoples who claim to admire the United States when they are receiving this nation's cash. But such people soon become the enemies of this country and are willing to join with others for the nation's defeat.

There are some leaders and politicians in the United States who have concluded that the so-called sins of the ghettos can be removed if millions of dollars are invested in these sections of the city. Of course, all of us are concerned about better housing, more employment, better wages and a better opportunity to enjoy all of the good things of life. For these we must continue to strive and to strive earnestly, but we must deny and deny passionately the assumption that where there is little money there is little or no character. Here the logic breaks down and truth is outlawed by falsehood.

The same type of sins and the same elements of crime that is seen among the poor is evident also among the rich. The student revolt in this country is of the same calibre at Harvard University, Northwestern Chicago University and many of the other universities, where the majority of the students are from the homes of well-to-do and the rich, have experienced the same type of revolt as the students from the so-called ghettos.

Money is valuable and wealth does guarantee luxury, new opportunities, in the field of culture, comfort and education, but money alone does not guarantee character or insure morality. We need more than money.

The American theory of justice, freedom and first-class citizenship is a lofty one, but in too many instances the practice of this theory has been missing, cheapened or degraded. Whenever this nation has been victimized with a low-tide in politics; and in morality, it has been when her own theory and her own ideology and principles of life have been negated or forsaken.

The institution of chattel slavery marks a low point in the politics and the morality of this nation for here the concept of man as advanced in the Declaration of Independence was overlooked and negated and the nation's doctrine of freedom was ignored and sinned against.

When American citizens advanced and practiced the doctrine of racial segregation, again many of the high principles of America were further desecrated and reduced to shame and dishonor.

Look carefully at the facts and examine the true story of America without prejudice and you will find that every step forward in the history of this great country has been due to the just interpretation of the existing Federal Constitution and an obedience to the American philosophy of freedom and citizenship and to the wise and constructive use of our American ideology. Let us briefly refresh our minds with a chapter in contemporary American history.

MAY 17 A DAY OF VICTORY

May 17, 1954, stands today as one of the great turning points in the long and difficult struggle for first-class citizenship. This marks an unquestioned victory of the forces of justice and freedom over the forces of oppressions, segregation and racial discrimination. Before the Supreme Court of the United States of America, some of the country's most gifted lawyers argued the case for unrestricted freedom in public education. Thurgood Marshall, now Justice Thurgood Marshall, was the leading mind. Assisted by other talented attorneys, he battled with all of his legal genius other legal minds who spoke in the defense of continuing segregation. When the arguments had closed and the facts were all in, nine judges—all white, but all Americans, decided that the arguments and the facts marshalled by the attorneys for desegregation were right and just, and hence the historic decision that put an end to the old dogma of "separate but equal." This was a victory for America. This was a victory not only for Thurgood Marshall and the lawyers who worked with him, but in reality it was a victory for America. This was a victory not only for Thurgood Marshall and the lawyers who worked with him, but in reality it was a victory for the true moral insights and for the inner truth that reigned in the hearts and souls of the white attorneys who opposed this victory of freedom. For in losing the case, these white attorneys, as Americans, won with America's new insights, new ideas, and a new awareness of the strength and power of freedom as it reigns in the hearts, not only of the Supreme Court, but of the people of the United States.

At the dawn of this victory many ancient fetters on the limbs of innocent people were snapped. Prison walls of segregation and discrimination toppled, and many vessels of dishonor that had been moulded by racial prejudice and by customs and mores of segregating communities crashed at the feet of disappointed politicians and leaders.

But in spite of disappointments; in spite of the ungrounded fears that haunted the souls of many, a new day had dawned for America. The sun of hope had again pushed its way out of the murky mist of dawn and defied the lingering shadows of a dying night and flung their golden rays upward and out over the broad horizon of our national life. And this dramatic event proclaimed and declared a new day of freedom had come; a new declaration of independence had been written and a new emancipation proclamation had been announced and signed by logic, by law, and by dedication to the American way of life. This high victory for freedom was won without the hawks of war filling the skies and belching cannons being heard on distant battlefields, and without human blood flowing like water, and soldiers dying in the fray. May 17, 1954 was a victory for righteousness and truth—for law and order, and for the highest values and promises of the American way of life.

In spite of the handicaps; in spite of the delays, the last fourteen years of American history have seen more legislative progress and more political inclusiveness and the ballot more widely distributed than at any other corresponding period in the annals of American History.

THE SHADOWS THAT HAVE MARRED THE NEW DAY

It was expected that some apostles of segregation would seek to hold on to their old creed. There were many young people in the white community who had learned to rely on segregation as a natural barrier to protect them from other peoples and a means of preserving the virtues of the majority from the vices of a helpless minority. The resistance of the white citizen's council and other such organizations came because of misunderstanding and fear. And yet painfully, many white Americans soon learned to put their country's cause above petty jealousy, fear, and strife and bowed to the behest of the law and took their places in the vanguard of those who are determined to lead America on to new heights of freedom and to make this country in truth as well as in theory, a land of the free and a home of the brave.

But little did we expect that from the ranks of Negro America would come a new army marching in the defense of segregation and disavowing the progress of legitimate integration, and advocating the turning back of the clock of progress and going into a new period of voluntary racial segregation and discrimination.

Oddly enough, the leadership in this new drive for segregation did not come from conservatives or moderates, but from so-called militants who were deeply entrenched in the ranks of the civil rights movement. They have advocated black separatism. They have gone to the campuses of many universities and have requested that there be black dormitories and other arrangements that would separate and segregate Negro students, from white students. These young minds have, for some reason, negated many of the high achievements of the civil rights struggle and requested that they be allowed to live again in a type of segregation prescribed by Negroes themselves. Many Negroes have become more bitter and are now afflicted with anger, revenge and hate. Some have developed a negative attitude toward the progress made in the field of civil rights and have now learned to disrespect the due process through which justice is meted out to the citizens of this nation, deliverance guaranteed to the oppressed, and freedom assured to the free. There are local and national cells determined to destroy order, to disrespect the law and the freedom and the rights of others who do not see eye to eye with them and agree with their programs and purposes. Many of our people have put civil disobedience ahead of the Federal Constitution as the means of achieving further freedom and solving other remaining problems.

During the past twelve months we have seen many of our Negro students in many of our oldest and most respected universities turn from the constructive and creative use of the available resources of learning to the task of instructing the university instructors, teaching the professors and leading the presidents and their faculties in setting up what seems to be a double standard of education—one for whites, and another for Negroes. Many of these universities have done what they call "yielded to the demands of black students." But in reality, these universities have now accepted Negro students as a class, and an inferior class that cannot cope with white students. This inferior status Negroes have advocated for themselves. On the 3rd of May of this year, I received a communication from a large university in Michigan from the Speech Department. They said they were scientists interested in gathering more facts to justify the development of a special dialect for Negroes which they called non-correct Negro English, leaving general American English as the language of cultured whites. And there are Negroes who are advocating this idea of the two languages.

NEGROES AND THE ENEMIES OF THE NATION

Some Negroes are accepting the role with the enemies of the nation. They are opposing some of the same freedoms for which they once fought; namely, the freedom of speech. Some object to statements from those Negroes as well as whites, who do not agree with all of their demands and all that they say.

The freedom of assembly has also been opposed if these assemblies do not do everything requested of them by so-called militant leaders.

Freedom from fear is being lost. There are many people today in America afraid to speak the truth as they see it, and are afraid to trust themselves to operate and own businesses in their own neighborhood. In the city of Chicago, since 1966, many Negro business people on 47th Street kept their doors locked during business hours out of fear of what might happen to them from their own people who live in the neighborhood. There are some ministers today who are afraid to speak the truth against the evils that plague their community. They say if we are not quiet our churches will be burned to the ground.

The freedom to worship is also being attacked, and in some cases lost. This attack did not start in 1969, it was in evidence as far back as 1960 when the same spirit and the same ideology sought to disrupt some of the leaders and churches of our National Baptist Convention. This spirit incorporated itself in some of our own people, and I told you then that this spirit to destroy worship would spread from us to others, and now the day is here and the tragedy is upon the United States of America.

Some Negro people are walking today, hand in hand with those who curse and seek the nation's destruction.

I repeat what I have said before, that our nation is not perfect. It has shortcomings that could have, and should have been overcome many years ago. It has evils and errors at the present time that can be removed by dedication and commitment to all of its own ideals by the citizens of this great nation. But this does not justify those critics who see nothing right with the nation.

Many of the critics of America are biased in their judgments and unfair in their conclusions. They compare the worse in this nation with the best in other systems. They concentrate on the failures of American and play down, and in some cases, ignore the constructive values and the lofty achievements of the nation. These critics, the opponents and enemies of the nation have frequently overlooked the reasons and the steps for the growth and progress that are peculiar to America. Some have deliberately misinterpreted the facts of American history to justify their opposition and to aid them in their campaign of vilification and destruction. Many still use the freedom and security of the nation to shield them as they seek to undermine the foundation on which our democratic structure stands. Some are bold enough to petition this government to make available to them the protective powers of the law while they themselves insist on disobeying the just laws of the civil order. They would ask the nation to see to it that other citizens give to them all of their rights while they themselves go forth violating the rights of others. Some activists insist in taking all the credit for the gains that have been made in the past in civil rights. They play down the fact and ignore the truth that all of the gains made in this country for the welfare of her citizens came about because of the nature, structure, vitality, and the lofty ideals of America. Every case that has been argued in the courts of this land was argued in the light of some accepted and established principles of justice, freedom, and equality. The gains in desegregation, voting rights, and all of the other forward steps have come through a call to, and an acceptance of, and an obedience to the constructive and creative principles of the supreme law of the land and those rules that make and regulate community and fellowship.

Since its birth in 1787, the Federal Constitution has remained as the bedrock of this nation's life and the basis of union between the several states, and the refuge of every citizen in the nation. It survived the dark days of slavery, and through amendments, outlawed legalized racism and stripped ex-slaves of the worn and tattered garments of servitude and offered them the honored togas to first class citizenship. This same Constitution has not yielded to the exploitation of heartless capitalists nor given free reign to the designs of Ku Klux Klans. It has been the Federal Constitution that has stopped the vicious threats of many monopolies and breathed into the nostrils of capital a life concern, or life regard for the less fortunate, and has given to labor a platform on which to stand in its outreach for freedom and new opportunities to work and enjoy the fruits of their labor. This Federal Constitution still stands, and still is a reference book for the writers of new laws, and is a guide for the work of the United States Congress, the President of the United States, and all the other branches of government. Its basic philosophy is, all can be done through unity, coordination, cooperation, and goodwill; not through strife, hatred, bitterness, and class conflict and class war. The Federal Constitution is the great legal and moral bulwark of this nation and the great Gibraltar of this establishment. Winds have blown against it, but it remains. The waves of many incoming tides have lashed it, and the rains and floods of many conflicts have beaten upon it. But it has not failed or corroded—it still stands with promise and with hope.

I am for the improvement of this nation, but I am not for its destruction. For, as we have noted, there is a type of goodness and social righteousness in our midst that is too valuable to be destroyed with the evils that plague us.

We must remember what our American establishment is. It is more than the evils of the past generation. It is more than the acts of prejudice and the oppression of cruel masters and the hatred of haters. It is more than a class struggle. America is a fellowship with a supreme law that reduces the ground of class war by the power and potential of justice and freedom. The American establishment is a commitment to justice and a dedication to freedom. This establishment is the work of physical science, social science, the science of production, the science of investment, the science of agriculture, and every other science and art that have enriched this nation. This establishment is the family, the church, the right to vote and to participate in the affairs of government. This establishment is free public education. It is art, literature, music, philosophy and religion. Oh, what righteous and lofty principles of the human spirit that have made this our American establishment! It must be cleansed when needed, saved when lost, rescued when threatened, and redeemed when set at naught; but must not be cast down nor destroyed.

THE FUTURE OF AMERICANS IS WITH AMERICA

It is clear from what we have said above that we believe the establishment called America is worthy of preservation, development and trust. We do not share the point of view of those who say that the way to build a better social order is to destroy the existing one. We do not believe that from the ashes of a burned and destroyed society will spring a new and better social order without the guidance and the efforts of mankind.

The way of progress is that of preserving the tested values of the past and building new features according to an existing blueprint that the architect already has.

The future of all American citizens is with America. If America is destroyed, our future is in jeopardy and the possibilities of further growth is called in question. Negro Americans who seem to be committing themselves to a new form of segregation are headed in the wrong direction. It seems to me they have now entered the first stage of wilderness wandering at a time when we were so close to the land of promise. If the campaign of civil disobedience and lawlessness of any form continues, it may be another 40 years of wandering in the wilderness of political indecision like ancient Israel before we enter the land of promise. If a people continue to reject the light they already have and sin against the values that are within their reach, I doubt very seriously if they will ever overcome, or if they will deserve to overcome.

WHAT, THEN, MUST WE DO NOW?

We must not despair, we must not compromise. We must no longer be motivated by the foul deeds that have been done against us in the past. But we, like other Americans, must return in earnest to our American ideology, in all seriousness and seek to solve our problems in the light of the nation's life and growth.

The civil rights movement must now modify its course and move in a different direction. It must cease to be a campaign of color, that is, of Negro Americans against white Americans. It must be a campaign to help America become, in theory and in practice, a more perfect and more wholesome and more constructive society. The goals should be, not Negro rights alone, but the rights of all Americans. The emphases must be as much on civil responsibility as on civil rights. The appeal in the future must be made to the maturity, the existing ability of Negro people and to their historic spirit of patriotism. The call is now to harness the health, physical, mental, moral and spiritual and not over-dramatize their hurts. We need now to match our civil rights clubs with as many or more responsibility clubs. We do not wish to be deceived or pampered any longer by our community or our nation.

We desire protection, of all of our rights. We wish our communities to be protected against crimes of all sorts and against criminals, be they colored or white, but we do not wish to be PAMPERED. If we are guilty, punish us. If there be those of us who have conducted ourselves in such a way that we can rightfully be listed among the enemies of freedom and democracy, we ask the Department of Justice not to shield our deeds and overlook the secret files.

If we have done wrong and repent of our sins, then pardon us and give us another chance, but don't pamper us. If we do not know, give us a chance to learn and classify us according to our mental gifts and our moral fitness. When we have done well, promote us, but don't pamper us. Don't pamper us by excusing our mistakes and finding alibis for us when straight talk is better. Don't pamper us with the old smear campaign of what happened in the days of slavery. Don't pamper us by giving us dole and refusing jobs on which we can earn an honest dollar. For in pampering Negro People the government, local and national drive a wedge between honest white Americans and Negro Americans.

We Seek one Standard

We do not need two Americas. One is enough. We do not need to keep before us the relics of a Confederate and a Union army. We do not need to divide this nation any longer with a Mason and Dixon's line, with one section in the North and another in the South.

We do not need two Americas. One rich and the other poor. One white and one black. One free and one in chains. We need only one America. And that America should be free, just and strong.

We do not need two Federal Constitutions. The one we have is enough. It is enough to break the barriers between races and nationalities and merge this great country into one great American family under one glorious flag.

We do not need two standards. We are equipped already with all of the faculties and talents of first class citizenship. As a race we are not going to condone in ourselves the doctrine that standards must be lowered in order to give us our rightful place in life. For we know that we cannot be counted in the ranks of first class citizens if we advocate or accept for ourselves second class standards and an inferior share of our responsibilities. We resent and resist the attempts of the scholars, black or white, who advocate the adoption of a two language system in the United States—broken English, as the legitimate language of Negroes, and correct speech as the legitimate tongue of American whites.

Incorrect English is not a racial trait. There are many white Americans who speak an English dialect and there are many Negroes who know and appreciate correct English. Many Negroes know and rejoice in Shakespeare's dramas and weep in grief at his blood-stained tragedies. We know John Milton and can feel the pain of his "Paradise Lost" and find new hope in his "Paradise Regained." We have joined with Robert Browning in the "Journey of Paracelsus," and we move gracefully from youth to old age in his fascinating "Rabbi Ben Ezra."

We can appreciate the vision of beauty revealed by Byron, Shelley and Keats, and one of America's sons, Jonathan Brooks, has added his lines to the glory of poetry.

So leave the language as it is. Let incorrect English be incorrect and leave a standard to which all may aspire.

We do not need two standards of scholarships—one for Negroes and one for whites. Already the records of some of our best universities and colleges in this country tell us that Negroes have qualified, and can qualify, as the valedictorians of their classes and as outstanding thinkers and scholars among other races and nationalities.

We do not need two standards of ethics. Keep the standard as high as possible and let all men aspire for the heights. We understand the oughtness of conscience. We can heed the call of the highest and the best, and can appreciate the grandeur and the beauty of that which is sacred and holy. We ask not, and seek not a lower morality than that proclaimed by Jesus in the Sermon on the Mount. It is true the standards here are most exacting. The requirements are unselfish; and here morality is deeper than actions, and has its foundation in motives and attitudes. But by the help of Divine Providence, and through the mercies of God we can hear the voice of Jesus in the Sermon on the Mount, and we can understand His claims, His demands, and His directives. Don't scale down the heights or lower the most lofty peaks thereof. Give us also the Mount of the Beatitudes as Jesus left it, and He will teach our feet to climb and our souls to behold the heights from which our help will come.

We do not need another gospel—a gospel of compromise, a gospel of convenience, and a religion of ease and complacency. We accept the one gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, for we have already produced some of the greatest preachers that America has ever known. When the history of great preachers is written in America the volume will not be complete until the names of C. T. Walker, E. C. Morris, E. K. Love, and L. K. Williams are included in the ranks.

We do not need two Calvarys—one is enough. We can hear what it says to us, and we know full well what it does for us. The One Calvary, breaks down the middle wall of partition between the soul and the Savior. Its redemptive power is just as great in ghettos as it is in the homes of suburbia, and the vitalities of Calvary is just as effective for the vileness of the poor as it is for the lust and the pride of the rich. We accept no compromise, and we seek no substitute, for the one transaction on Calvary satisfied all the claims against humankind, and included the scattered tribes of Africa, the ebony sons of America, as well as kings and princes of Europe and the crown heads of the ancient world. One transaction of Calvary paid the whole debt, and from Immanuel's veins enough blood was drawn to give the needed transfusions, and from the eternal Son of God an abiding, copious, and abundant stream gushed forth for all the weary sons of men, and He opened a fountain not only in the House of David, but in every hut, in every hovel, and in every clime. We can join with others in singing with hope of that fountain—the cleansing fountain, the flowing fountain, and the full fountain. We too can sing with the poet:

There is a fountain filled with blood
 Drawn from Immanuel's Veins,
 And sinners plunge beneath that flood, lose all their guilty stain.
 The dying thief rejoiced to see
 That fountain in his day
 And there may I though vile as he,
 Wash all my sins away.

What a message! What words of hope! And what a lift for every troubled and sinful soul. It is no longer money or wealth, race or nationality; it is the grace of God. Here is a new freedom that no oppressor can take away—a new liberty that chains cannot bind, and a new democracy that reaches all mankind.

In the shadow of Calvary we need not cringe or lose our souls in the bitterness of despair; for here is no discrimination, no class distinction, and no special rank. The searching and pure light of divine holiness that beams from Calvary reveals the sins and guilt of all, and testifies that there is no difference, all have sinned and come short of the glory of God. But its redemptive message gives to each soul a new chance and a new benediction, and whosoever will may rise from gloom to the boundless glory of God. We need not pity, but apply ourselves. We need not hold grudges against enemies or seek revenge against those who have wronged us. Calvary will right every wrong. It has not only forgiven us our sins, it has taught us to forgive those who have trespassed against us.

CONCLUDING WORD

And now I bring this message to a close. Allow me to thank this Convention for your trust and your confidence for another twelve months. You have supported me and have sustained me. The truth is whatever I am this Convention and its influence have made me.

I am grateful to a faithful wife, who has been patient and long-suffering. The hours of solitude she has gladly shared with me since that day 36 years ago when she stood at a pier in New York City and waved goodbye as I set sail for Africa for the first time. I knew not the perils or the dangers of the trip but I went on a mission for the Convention and the words of encouragement from my companion sustained me.

Thanks to the Olivet Baptist Church of Chicago that has enfolded me in their prayers and has allowed me the time to serve the Convention and the nation.

My thanks to the Board of Directors, a team of loyal men with whom I have worked for the past 16 years. We have been as brothers in times of joy and in seasons of sorrow. It has been their help, their advice, and their fellowship that have enabled me to press on and help keep this Convention going forward. They have been constant when the storms were wild and the tempest was high.

Eight years ago in this very hall they stood firmly with patience and devotion and helped to save this great body and bring it to honor and strength. Any Convention is fortunate to have such a team of dedicated and responsible men who voluntarily give their services to this Convention and to their race. Today the National Baptist Convention is at the peak of its history, and is stronger now than ever before and it is recognized throughout this nation as one of the powerful forces for good, for freedom and for the advancement of the kingdom of truth and righteousness. Let me now thank one other person who is with us today. For to him goes the full credit for every victory and every blessing we have received. You do not see him, but he is here today by invitation and request.

On May 23, I was invited to this city to take part in the 25th Anniversary of the pastorate of Dr. J. H. Henderson, Jr., of the Friendship Baptist Church. It was a most glorious experience.

But when I was left alone for a few minutes' rest I came to this auditorium and paid it the first visit since we were here in 1961. I walked the length of this great hall. It was filled, not with people, but with a strange and haunting silence. I came up on the platform and stood and meditated and thought of the long journey that we have made from 1961 to 1969, and then I gave thanks to Him for his assistance and for his protection.

I also went to my left and down on the floor beneath the stage I was moved to bow upon my knees and thank God for the blessings of the past. I then asked Him if it were His will to allow me to come back to this spot on this day and to join with you in another great Convention and now we're here and His presence is with us.

Some Who Are Not Here

Eight years ago with us were the following faithful ones. Thomas Harten, of Brooklyn, New York, H. R. Stevenson of Chicago, Oweez D. Pell also of Chicago, D. W. Hoggard, of Philadelphia and a host of other faithful ones. Today they are not here. They have gone to answer the summons and they will not return.

But because of our responsibilities and because of our dedication we must keep pressing on.

In spite of the burdens and the responsibilities that are upon us, I feel like going on. I do not ignore the perils of the journey and I am not unconscious of the rough roads ahead and the stone-infested mountains that we must climb. I see shadows deep and dark and hear the voices of warning of tragic things yet to come to this great nation and yet I feel like going on.

When enemies have said the last bitter word and unkind assailants have thrust the most poisonous darts into the pulsating chambers of tired hearts: when complaints seem more logical than expressions of confidence and trust, I shall still feel like going on.

When the cold world has done its bit to block the highway of truth and sin had smitten the mind and troubled the soul and wretched senile hands have pulled down the blinds and dimmed what were once sparkling eyes, when time has written deep furrows in aging cheeks and the weight of years has changed once nimble steps into slow and woody strides, I shall still feel like going on.

When the hastening years have plucked from our side a multitude of friends so that we may count more in the grim old yonder than we can in the here-and-now, when the last blow is struck and we are pushed by the grim reaper beyond the sad and dark perimeter of the grave, then on wings of faith we shall keep going on.

We are pushed by the chronology of time, but we are also pulled by the gravitation of eternity. We are repelled by the sorrows and sufferings of our Egypt of bondage, but we are also attracted by the beauties and promises of the land of promise.

So our journey is not determined by the short stand between the cradle and the grave. Dust is not our destiny and death is not the goal of life.

There is a land of pure delight where saints immortal dwell.

And so we pass on through this vale of tears to that faraway strand into that land where we never grow old.

THE ANNUAL REPORT OF SECRETARY
T. J. JEMISON TO THE 69TH ANNUAL SESSION OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION,
U. S. A., INCORPORATED
Kansas City, Missouri

Mr. President, presiding officer, members of the official family, delegates and friends who have come to this our 69th Annual Session, meeting in Kansas City, Missouri.

Here we are again assembled in this beautiful and historic city with both Conventions of Missouri and Kansas led on by two Baptist giants, the Reverend I. H. Henderson, Jr., and the Reverend E. A. Freeman as Chairman and Co-Chairman of the entertainment committee.

Each year it has been my happy privilege to report to you as your General Secretary that your Convention continues to grow. This year will be no exception. In fact, some weeks ago we were informed by the Convention Bureau here in Kansas City, we have requested some 376 more hotel rooms than we did in Atlanta just last year. We believe when all delegates will have registered and count is tabulated we will have registered more than we did last year. The advanced registration as conceived by President Jackson has gone real well for the initial year. We have word from a number of new churches they will seek memberships in this annual session.

We have endeavored to keep our identity with and to support the program of the Baptist World Alliance, the World Council of Churches and the National Council of Churches of Christ in the United States. We are current with all of our fees in these bodies having paid $3,000.00 to the World Council; $3,000.00 to the Baptist World Alliance and $2,500.00 to the National Council. Recently our convention was represented at a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Baptist World Alliance by the Reverend E. A. Freeman who represented President Jackson who was unable to attend.

You will be happy to know that your Educational Foundation is growing, but I must add, all too slow. We have in this fund better than $133,452.32. Because of your investment and the pooling of our funds together, we were able to save Natchez College with a loan of $100,000.00. The Educational Foundation, as you know, is to provide funds for struggling private Baptist Colleges and churches. We have a number of churches inquiring about this fund for loans. We would be able to help all of them if we as Pastors would ask our churches to invest more into this fund.

The Retirement Fund of our Convention continues to grow, but far too slow for the number of Pastors and churches we have enrolled in our Convention. The Chairman of the Fund is Mrs. Isabel E. Hosard, and she has made many appeals that have gone unheeded by you to invest more in this Retirement Fund for your future security. In spite of the support of a vast majority of the Pastors of our convention this Fund has now grown to $478,438.30. This is your Fund, brethren and you should invest in it now while you are still strong and doing well.

We have done our work for the past twelve months with a smile. We have tried to answer all of your requests, and the requests that come daily from individuals and Colleges, Foundations, etc., about information concerning our National Baptist Convention. This work of this office is never ended. It goes on day after day. We love the work and we enjoy being Secretary of this great and historic religious body.

It has been my happy privilege as your Secretary to serve in several churches and conventions during this year. Time will not permit me to name all of them but I would like to name just one. It was the Installation Service of the Reverend Henry L. Davis as the new pastor of the First Union Baptist Church in San Ysidro, California. It was a great fellowship and a number of the brethren from the community came to the afternoon service and we had the chance to see so many of the old friends of the National Convention. First Union is a great church and has just installed a great pastor.

It has been my pleasure and honor to appear before most of the State Conventions of this great convention since being elected Secretary in 1953. Just this year we had to miss two great conventions due to an untimely death in our church family. We were to have spoken to the Iowa Missionary and Baptist State Convention and the General Baptist State Convention of West Virginia. Perhaps the opportunity will be extended again.

The Minutes of the convention have been mailed to those of you who represented at Atlanta last year. We hope you received your copy before leaving home. However, if you didn't, perhaps you will find it on your return home. If you don't please don't hesitate to let me know. We want you to receive everything you are entitled to as long as we are your secretary. We are forever indebted to the Reverend Dr. D. C. Washington for his cooperation in getting the Minutes printed. Without his aid and assistance it would be a most difficult task to get them to you. We salute Dr. Washington for his cooperation.

We are happy to report to you again, that, this office works in complete harmony with the office of the President of this convention. We take pride in being a cooperative Secretary.

We were given the usual amount to operate Office of the Secretary for the ensuing year—$5,400.00.

Thank You—Your Secretary
T. J. Jemison

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL PUBLISHING BOARD
NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A., INC.
330 CHARLOTTE AVENUE, NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE
D. C. Washington, Executive Director

President Jackson, Officers, Members of the Board of Directors, and Messengers assembled here in Kansas City, Missouri, I am very pleased to submit the Annual Report of the stewardship of the Officers, Board of Directors and Employees of the Sunday School Publishing Board:

"The spacious firmament on high, with all the blue ethereal sky,

And spangled heav'ns, a shining frame, their great original proclaim.

Th' unwearied sun from day to day, does his Creator's power display.

And publishes to every land the work of an almighty hand."

Our successful invasion of the moon has broadened the boundaries of human endeavor, for no longer need we say that "the sky is the limit." It is altogether fitting and proper that we acclaim the accomplishment of science and the ingenious inventions of men. However, let us not forget that space travel is possible only because we can depend upon each planet to operate in its own unvarying orbit, as ordained and controlled by the divine creative plan. God, from time to time, reveals to us broken pieces of His plan, but we are incapable of visualizing the total composition, or understanding the purpose of each of its parts. Much concern is being expressed over the lack of life on the moon, and the doubt that life as we know it, will be found on Mars. We are tempted to question the reason for their existence, until we realize that the creation of the planets indicates that they perform a function designated by their maker, although we may not know just what that function is. Similarly, each of us has a definite role to play which we must endeavor to perform in our own sphere of operation, while maintaining the proper relationship with the other participants in God's plan.

The Sunday School Publishing Board has been assigned the three-dimensional responsibility of publishing and distributing curriculum materials for the spiritual nurture of our Baptist young people and adults; of promoting a program of Christian leadership education among our constituents, and of fostering the development and growth of Sunday Schools in this our country and throughout the known world. For more than fifty years we have addressed ourselves to this immense task, with results which though gratifying, indicate that we have but scratched the surface in our goal of "reaching the unsaved."

We now invite you to join us in a space walk through the various spheres of our operation for the past year.

THE EDITORIAL SPHERE

The fiscal year, just closed, indicates an increase of above $93,000.00 in sales, and we take this opportunity to thank you, our loyal constituents for your continued patronage and generous support. While we served some twenty-five thousand churches last year, we recognize that many of you purchase only a portion of your materials from us. We deeply appreciate your use of these publications, and invite you to avail yourself of our total offerings. We have timely, well-written curriculum materials for all age levels, church and Sunday school supplies, devotional and worship aids, missionary tools, guides for laymen's groups, Bible commentaries, and leadership training aids. We invite you to visit our booth here at the convention, where in addition to seeing some of the above items, you may examine our Vacation Church School materials which are being widely received with great commendation.

The Vacation Church School material is still relatively new to all who are concerned with its production, beginning with the writers. However, we feel that we have settled upon a highly suitable writing staff for the Series I material. Series I-A and I-B have been released. Series I-C is being written. Series I-D is still in the planning stage but assignments are expected to be made soon so as to have it into production at an even flow with no rush for release in 1971.

The Editorial Department has not been uncognizant of the current "black awareness" of our people. However, we do feel that the cause of Christian Education in general and Negroes in particular might best be served by our emphasizing our denomination—its history and its people. We are black people. When we write about ourselves, we cannot help but write with a black emphasis. This, we know, will be solid and lasting regardless of what future turn the present fad might take. And moreover, our literature for Vacation Church Schools is being written to be used in a cycle for many years to come. The best principles of general education as well as Christian education are being incorporated in these works.

Now in regard to the Sunday School literature, we are presently committed to Uniform Bible Lessons for Sunday School teaching. The tests of time and of economics prove this to be the best policy for our publishing house. Uniform Bible Lessons do not have the flexibility of Cycle Graded Lessons. The demand for Cycle Graded Lessons is not great enough among our churches to make their production economically feasible. More than that, a racially grounded presentation is not compatible with Christ-centered Biblical interpretation. Now that does not mean that Biblical principles are not applicable to racial problems, or that illustrations cannot be drawn from Negro History and biography. But that is quite different from the production of slanted propaganda.

The National Baptist Pulpit was doubled in size and released for 1969-70. The next new issue will appear in 1971.

The last edition of the Townsend Press Commentary under the old calendar of the National Council of Churches was released for 1970. The next edition will cover January, 1971 through August, 1971 in order to adjust to the new calendar. All publishers of Commentaries have agreed to this plan. The edition for September, 1971 through August, 1972 will be the next twelve month issue.

Under the able direction of Dr. Maynard P. Turner, Jr., our Editorial Department will continue to produce attractively presented, easily read, doctrinally sound literary offerings.

THE SPHERE OF PROGRAM SERVICES

Today, the need for trained Christian leadership is greater than ever before. Our young people are constantly confronted with vast social changes which challenge the basic teachings of home, school and church, and they need the support and counsel of informed leaders who can help strengthen their faith in the age old values upon which meaningful lives are built. The Sunday School Publishing Board offers leadership program services through its Department of Christian Education. You may participate through your local church, city or state Sunday School and B.T.U. Congress, district association, or the National Sunday School and B.T.U. Congress. Our ultimate goal is to have every member of every church in our constituency engaged in an on-going training program, for this is the only way we can achieve total denominational progress. The Department of Christian Education has staff members available to assist in planning programs of Leadership Education, to conduct Area Work Shops, or to appear on state or regional convention programs.

The Department of Christian Education of the Sunday School Publishing Board serves as the Accrediting Agency for our denomination, and is responsible for certifying Faculties of Training Schools, and issuing course cards and certificates of progress in recognition of study. The department statistics for the year are as follows:

Leadership Education Schools	377
Deans Certified	44
Instructors Certified	987
Course Cards Issued	32,965

CERTIFICATES OF PROGRESS

First Certificates	156
Second Certificates	109
Third Certificates	66
Certificates of Achievement	5

THE SPHERE OF PUBLIC RELATIONS

The Division of Public Relations expanded its work of research, leadership education activities, communications, and evaluation this year that more and more those who serve at the ground-root or local church levels may become more proficient in the use of our published materials and supplies. The division assisted in district associational, state, and national meetings including clinics, conferences, congresses, conventions and retreats in Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, Ohio, Tennessee, Virginia and the District of Columbia this year.

Area "Spot Studies" made in 1968 have been repeated in 1969 to ascertain progress being made to help increase the sales and services to our present and potential markets in these geographical areas.

Leadership Education Guidelines have been sent to several district and state meetings for free distribution, and displays of our publications have been shown at some of these meetings. Several of these guidelines have been distributed widely as articles of the Baptist Teacher under the caption of "Leadership Workshop" and in other denominational literature.

New and regular channels of communications have been used to acquaint our growing constituency with the availability and use of our publications and services. Recently, the division of public relations has been equipped with the necessary modern audio-visual aids which add to more creative presentation of our publishing ministry. The director in the division has shared in the planning and promotion of such meetings this year as: The Business Education Day at our Publishing Board for Nashville Metropolitan School Teachers, Baptist Men's Congress on Evangelism and Lay Involvement in both the District of Columbia and Nashville, Tennessee meetings; Nashville Urban League Job Fair, 24th Annual National Baptist Student Union Spring Retreat held at the Sophia Sutton Assembly, Mississippi, and the National Sunday School and Baptist Training Union Congress Board Meeting held at the Publishing Board Building.

J. Robert Bradley, our Music Co-ordinator, appeared in numerous states, including Missouri, Kansas, Mississippi, Tennessee, Illinois, North Carolina, Alabama, Michigan, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Florida, Ohio and Georgia.

Mr. Bradley's services are available for your State Sunday School Congresses, or other conventions, as a service of the Sunday School Publishing Board.

Other representatives of the Board have appeared in Kentucky, Indiana, Illinois, Tennessee, New York, New Jersey, Georgia, Alabama, Louisiana, Florida, North Carolina, Maryland, West Virginia, Ohio, Michigan, Missouri, Arkansas, Kansas and Pennsylvania.

We are appreciative of your invitations to participate in your State Conventions, Congresses and other meetings, and trust that you will continue to afford us this opportunity for the interchange of ideas, and the presentation of improved methods of using our curriculum aids.

THE FINANCIAL SPHERE

In order to perform our responsibility as the publishing arm of our denomination, it is necessary that the Sunday School Publishing Board have the full cooperation of many different people. In a chaotic operation such as ours, the flow of work from one department to another must be timed so that the finished product can reach the churches early enough for their full use. When writers submit their manuscripts late, every department in the production division is required to rearrange its work program, usually resulting in overtime expense. When manuscripts for our Convention or Congress materials are not sent to us in sufficient time to be processed during our lull periods, we must crowd them into already full schedules, with excessive overtime labor costs as the result. We sincerely urge those who are responsible for manuscript preparation to submit them in complete form and in ample time to permit us to observe our production schedule.

We need our customers' cooperation in ordering early and paying promptly. The revenue from the sale of our materials is needed to provide the raw materials, labor and other operating expenses which every business requires. When our collection of customers' accounts is slow, we have to borrow funds with which to meet our obligations, thereby incurring additional interest expense. The rising costs of paper, ink and other materials, plus the wage increases necessitated by the keen competition for skilled personnel, have practically negated the additional profit from our increased sales. The slight increase in prices of our material has not been sufficient to absorb these added costs, and so additional increases may be indicated.

The Sunday School Publishing Board must also have the cooperation of the financial institutions which handle our business transactions. We enjoy a good relationship with the Banks and other lending institutions because we meet our commitments as scheduled, and take care of creditor's accounts systematically.

THE SPHERE OF NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION SUPPORT

The attached Audit Report shows that the Sunday School Publishing Board made a total contribution of almost $14,000.00 to objectives of the National Baptist Convention during the past year.

The Sunday School Publishing Board printed and distributed the National Baptist Voice at a cost of $5,405.00, and printed other material for the convention in excess of $5,516.00.

In addition to the regular expenses of operating Morris Memorial Building for the convention, we are presently faced with the possibility of being subjected to heavy taxes on the property itself. Heretofore, the religious publishing houses in the city of Nashville have not been required to pay taxes on their operations nor on their premises. However, under a recent interpretation of the law by the City Tax Assessor, it was ruled that non-profit organizations were subject to taxation. We have appealed this decision to the State Board of Equalization, and must appear before them shortly to present our case. An unfavorable ruling will make us liable for thousands of dollars in additional annual taxes.

The Sunday School Publishing Board pledges continued support for all objectives of our convention, and cooperation with all of its subsidiaries.

As soon as Astronaut Armstrong set foot on the moon, his first words were, "That's one small step for a man, one giant leap for mankind." God's divine revelation to the human mind had made the moon landing possible, and opened to our view undreamed of heavenly vistas!

The officers, Board of Directors and Employees of the Sunday School Publishing Board daily rededicate ourselves to those small steps which result in the publishing of the story of God's redeeming love. With your continued cooperation and steadfast support, we can make the giant leap in spreading God's truth from pole to pole!

Gentlemen:

We have examined the financial records of the Sunday School Publishing Board, a subsidiary of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1969, and now submit as our report the exhibits, schedules, and comments listed in the preceding index.

SCOPE OF EXAMINATION

Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records, and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances to enable us to render an independent accountants opinion on the fairness of the representations in the statements showing the financial position of the Company at June 30, 1969, and its operating results for the year then ended. The extent of certain procedures employed, including sampling of transactions was based principally on our review of the system of internal control and the efficiency of its functioning.

Cash in banks was independently reconciled, and bank balances were confirmed by direct written communication with the depository. Customers accounts receivable were reviewed and requests were sent to the customers for confirmation of book balances.

Physical inventories were taken by management. We reviewed their method of inventory taking, checked the extension of their inventory sheets and checked the cost by use of ratios of prior years, raw material invoices and consistency of cost methods employed.

All major additions to fixed assets were vouchered and found to be properly classified.

All notes payable were confirmed by communicating directly with the holders. Accounts payable were reviewed and requests for confirmations were sent to a representative group of accounts selected by us.

Federal Tax returns were examined and reconciled with the records. We made sufficient test of the operating accounts to satisfy us that accepted accounting practices had been followed, and that the transactions had been properly and consistently classified.

ACCOUNTANT'S OPINION

In our opinion the accompanying balance sheet and related income statement fairly presents the financial position of the Sunday School Publishing Board as of June 30, 1969, in accordance with generally accepted accounting standards.

Very truly yours,

JONES, ANDERSON & COMPANY

THIRTY-EIGHTH ANNUAL REPORT
OF THE
HOME MISSION BOARD
OF THE
NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A., INC.

DR. JOSEPH H. JACKSON, Convention President
DR. MARSHALL C. CLEVELAND, Board Chairman
DR. CHARLES P. HARRIS, Corresponding Secretary

Mr. President, Presiding Officer, Mr. Chairman, Officers, Delegates, Ladies and Gentlemen of our great Convention now assembled in its Eighty-Ninth Annual Session here in historic Kansas City, Missouri:

I. Again it becomes my responsibility to report to you on the Home Mission phase of our great National Baptist Convention of the United States of America, incorporated, the illustrious Dr. J. H. Jackson, President. This marks the tenth time that as Corresponding Secretary of our Home Mission Board, I have had the responsibility of reporting to you on the year in retrospect as well as the current status and future out-look of our Convention in the challenging field of mission work on the home field.

To begin with let me report that in general, our work is now in better condition than it has been since I have been connected with it as Secretary. However, this does not mean that we have been able to meet the ever-increasing Macedonian calls for help that have come to us in these times of church-burning and bombing, property destruction, street violence and the like; nor does it mean that we are able to go into the fields which we see and know to be ready for harvest; nor yet does it mean that we are completely meeting the obligations that confront us as a great Convention here on the home field. What we mean to say is that we are at least up to date with all our obligations and commitments and that, what is more encouraging, interest in our work, confidence in our workers and a widening of support of our Board happily have been a part of our experience during the past year. Again let me hasten to say that we feel that support of missions at home has by no means been what it should be. As strange as it may seem, not too many of our big churches and prominent pastors do very much toward supporting the home mission work of our beloved Convention. And this does not apply only to the general pastorship of the Convention as a whole, but I am afraid it applies in great measure to the officary of our Convention as well. Yet, while I am happy to report that in general, support of our work has been on the increase, yet that support has seemed for the most part, inversely to dwindle downward to the vanishing point according to the size of the church and the prominence of the pastor. Thus, it is disturbingly noticeable that many of our great churches and renowned pastors, while outstanding contributors to the Convention in general, have not contributed $1.00 to Home Missions through our Board during my whole ten-year tenure as Secretary. When I think of these great churches and brethren, I think of the Judgment words of Christ, "Inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me." The verse which follows this Matthew 25:45 quote declares, "And these shall go away into everlasting punishment." I sincerely trust that the awful sentence of this latter quote will never be pronounced against any of our great churches and pastors because of having neglected the work of our Home Mission Board which, acknowledgedly, is indeed "one of the least of these" among the departments of our great Convention. We plead for the support of all of our churches and brethren, irrespective of size or standing, in trying to carry on the work of Christian Missions here on the home field.

While the figures of our finances regarding receipts and expenditures are certainly not astronomical, yet to give them in detail would require more time than is at our disposal. Therefore, since printed detailed reports are obtainable at our Home Mission Booth, I shall, with the Chairman's permission, give a summarized report on Finances.

Fellow Pastors, Missionary Heads and Brethren of the Convention, we come pleading for your support of a great phase of our Convention work. As our Home Mission Board seeks to do Christian missions here on the home field we are not only carrying out "The Great Commission" to "go ye into all the world"—of course including the home land—but we are following the example as well as the command of Christ—who was himself a missionary on the home field. Although Christ commanded and commissioned his followers to "go ye unto all the world" yet he himself confined himself almost exclusively to the home field, seldom, if ever, venturing beyond the limits of his native land. It is doubtful if he ever set foot on what could rightly be called foreign soil, yet he was the greatest missionary the world has ever known. He was a Preaching Missionary; He was a Teaching Missionary; He was a Medical Missionary; He was a Wonder-working Missionary and He was a Life-Giving Missionary all in one.

As a preaching Missionary, climb in retrospect with the multitude into the mountain and listen to Him as He delivers "The Sermon on the Mount." Listen to Him and He utters forth that great series of beatitudes—"Blessed are the poor in spirit; for their's is the Kingdom of Heaven. Blessed are they that mourn; for they shall be comforted. Blessed are the meek; for they shall inherit the earth. Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness; for they shall be filled. Blessed are the merciful; for they shall obtain mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart; for they shall see God. Blessed are the peacemakers; for they shall be called the children of God," etc. Yes, Jesus was a great Preacher!

As an Evangelizing Missionary, come with me back in sacred history to a man sitting on a well to which a woman comes to draw water. There on that well sat a travel-worn, tired, thirsty man, as a woman of Samaria walks up with a water pitcher in hand—there to draw the families water for the night.

"Give me to drink," asks the man on the well, whose dialect, dress and appearance identified him as a Jew. "How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? for the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans," replies the astonished and outraged woman. Jesus, taking cue from the woman's words, proceeded to preach one of the most effective evangelistic sermons ever heard. You remember the subsequent dialogue between Jesus and the woman which was carried on with such evangelizing power on the part of Jesus that the woman, having tasted the water of life, forgot her original purpose at the well and, leaving her water pot, started a great revival by running into the City crying with a loud voice, "come see a man . . ."

Also, Jesus was a Teaching Missionary — Go with world's first recorded night-school pupil, Nicodemus, and listen to him as he addresses Jesus by saying, "I know that thou art a teacher come from God." Then listen to the "teacher come from God" as He gives a physio-spiritual lesson on the lesson on the new birth to his nocturnal pupil, "marvel not that I said unto you, ye must be born again," says the teacher, illustrating the process by reference to the ways of the wind — "The wind bloweth where it listeth."

As a Medical Missionary, Jesus was proficient in the various branches of the profession — as a Physician, take a glance at the women with a 12 year history of the issue of blood but who was cured by a mere touch of the hem of His garment; or go to the pool of Siloam before which a man had lain in vain for 38 years; but now when Jesus came by and prescribed, "Arise take up thy bed and walk"; the man arose and went away "walking and leaping and praising God."

As a Psychiatrist — go out to yonder tomb where a demented man with craze-induced super-strength is cutting himself with stones. But Jesus came by — and you know what happened — the next thing we know the man is sitting "clothed and in his right mind."

As an Optometrist, let us watch Him as He ministers to blind Bartimes on the way to Jerusalem; then watch as He prescribed to the man born blind — "Go wash in the pool of Siloam."

As a life-Giving Missionary, watch Him as He stops the funeral procession of the widow's son and restores him to life; or watch Him as He enters the mourning chamber of the dead maiden takes her by the hand and commands, "talathia cumi";—"I say unto thee, damsel, arise;" or watch Him as he stands by the grave-side with weeping Mary and Martha and cries with a loud voice, "Lazarus come forth." Then listen to Him as he declares "I am the resurrection and the life. He that believeth on me, though he were dead, yet shall he live."

And all of this was said and done by Him who never traveled a hundred miles from the place of His birth. Yes, Jesus was a Home Missionary indeed. The objective of His concept was the whole world, but the perimeter of His own work was within the boundaries of His own land.

Although the perimeter of our work is by far larger, more difficult and challenging than that in which the Savior worked, we of the Home Mission Board are seeking, as He did, to make of the Homeland a part of His Kingdom that ultimately shall "spread from shore to shore." In this effort we are seeking through our "Travelling Evangelist" project and other means, to get the Gospel message and Christian helpfulness to the sparsely settled regions of this land where there is not sufficient local strength to maintain their own religious set-up. Through our Distribution Center, we are sending clothing, foodstuffs, medical articles and other material necessities to destitute regions of our land. Educationally, we operate the Walter H. Brooks Baptist Student Center off the Howard University campus in Washington, D. C.; we have paid the full year's salary of one of the professors in one of our schools of religion; we have given a number of partial scholarships to worthy and needy students; we have sent at least token aid to institutions of higher learning, and have sent reasonably substantial aid to a non-denominational fire-ravished secondary school in the deep South. Miscellaneously, we have at least sent some financial aid to a number of churches, orphanages, senior citizens homes, and the like. We are happy to say that, Civically, we have identified our Board with the Civil Rights struggle by taking out a "Life Membership" in the N.A.A.C.P.

I close this report with a fervent plea for your support, so that we may more fully meet the challenge of our time in America.

Mr. Chairman — I motion the adoption of this report.

Report of the 1969 Session

Mr. Presidents and Messengers assembled:

It is indeed a pleasure, as well as an official responsibility, to extend to you sincere and hearty greetings in the name of our Christ. We are united in one common bond of Christian fellowship with one common "charge to keep."

The sixty-fourth annual session of the National Sunday School and Baptist Training Union Congress was held in Miami, Florida, June 16-22, 1969. In many respects, it was indeed another historical session with what promises to be far-reaching implications. This report will relate only the highlights.

The local Entertainment Committee, under the leadership of the Rev. Theodor Johnson, general chairman, worked diligently in making available the necessary facilities for the session. They deserve a special word of commendation for accepting the responsibility upon short notice after a previous commitment for estimating the 1969 session had to be withdrawn. The natural beauty of Florida and the enthusiasm of our workers made for a successful session.

More than six thousand messengers registered and attendance at the general assembly sessions, the morning classes and the afternoon discussion groups was quite noteworthy. States leading in representation were Michigan, Alabama, Tennessee, Ohio, Illinois, respectively. The sermons, inspirational messages and special addresses were challenging and motivating to those who were desirous of improving their skills in Christian Education. Official greetings from our leader, Dr. J. H. Jackson, was a highlight of the session. The President Emeritus, Dr. O. Clay Maxwell, was unable to attend due to illness.

The session culminated the Four-year theme "Christian Education and the Challenge of Change." The body approved three new features to become effective at the 1970 session.

1. The next Four-year theme: The Church's Response to the Challenges of the Seventies
2. Change in the session format: Opening on Tuesday and closing on Saturday, instead of Sunday
3. Increase in Representation Fee

Full details relating to these changes will be given in the Board Meeting Saturday, 10 o'clock A.M. at the First Baptist Church, Kansas City, Kansas.

The following officers were elected:

President—Dr. E. A. Freeman, Kansas City, Kansas
 Vice-President—Dr. James B. Cayce, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania
 President Emeritus—Dr. O. Clay Maxwell, New York, N. Y.
 Secretary—Mrs. Bessie S. Estell, Birmingham, Alabama
 Assistant Secretary—Mrs. R. C. Harper, Madison, Illinois
 Treasurer—Mr. J. C. Oliver, Little Rock, Arkansas
 Director General—Dr. T. Oscar Chappelle, Tulsa, Oklahoma
 Associate Director General—Dr. I. H. Henderson, Jr., Kansas City, Missouri
 Dean—Dr. Charles L. Dinkins, Memphis, Tennessee
 Assistant Dean—Dr. A. McEwen Williams, Memphis, Tennessee
 Assistant Dean—Dr. Horace N. Mays, Los Angeles, California
 Music Director—Mr. J. Robert Bradley, Nashville, Tennessee
 Assistant Music Director—Mrs. Bessie McKenzie, Memphis, Tennessee

The 1970 session will be held in Omaha, Nebraska and the 1971 session in Little Rock, Arkansas.

Respectfully submitted,

E. A. Freeman, President

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF AUDIO-VISUAL AIDS

Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc.
 W. D. Thompson, Jr., Executive Director
 4015 Fair Avenue, Saint Louis, Missouri 63125

President Jackson, officers and members of the Convention. We are pleased to submit our annual report on work done by the Department of Audio-Visual Aids, for the year nineteen hundred and sixty-eight.

The past year has been one of outreach. We have gone all out to reach the cries of churches calling for help in the field of Audio-Visual Aids. Many have asked for help, and many have received help from our department. We get joy in going to and helping these dear souls who are groping and hungering for a more adequate way of executing God's program in the church.

By close observation you will notice, the church that uses Audio-Visuals to assist them in teaching and preaching, is the church OUT FRONT. Search the churches in your town and state, and you will see for yourself the great work they are doing with this God-given gift: Audio-Visuals.

May the day soon come, when all of us will catch the spirit, and enjoy the blessings derived therefrom.

We thank God for the men and women who work with us in the Department of Audio-Visual Aids.

W. D. Thompson, Jr.

Executive Director

NOTES:

A complete laundry has been installed in the basement of the Bath House. The laundry was installed at an aggregate cost of $12,673.00. The previous year outside laundry service was utilized at a cost of $11,096.51; it can be readily seen that since outside laundry was such an exorbitant amount that the new laundry installation was very feasible. During the month of March 1969 all 86 of our rooms were occupied in our Hotel and our Laundry was able to adequately supply our HOTEL and BATH HOUSE.

ICE MACHINE: A large crystalized tip Ice Machine with a capacity of 300 lbs was installed in the first unit of our Hotel for the convenience of our guests.

TELEVISION: A large R.C.A. Colored Television has been installed in the lobby for the pleasure of our guests.

We had more guests in our Hotel and Bath House during the year of 1969 than any previous year, yet, the period of January 1st, 1969 through June 30, 1969 discloses a general increase of $11,445.40 over the period of January 1st, 1968 through June 30, 1968. This is substantiated in the Audit Report of Jones, Anderson and Company, Certified Public Accountants of Chicago, Illinois dated August 2d, 1969.

In January a total of $4,879.19 was advanced our Hotel and Bath House by the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., to meet our obligations. Last year we paid $1,500.00 toward this indebtedness, at the Sunday School Congress in Miami Fla., June 1969 we paid $1,000.00, today, we are paying 2,379.19 on this debt leaving a balance of $1,000.00.

In conclusion we would like to emphasize the awareness of priority to you, the Members of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc. You have the largest and most modern Hotel and Bath House in America owned and operated by members of our race.

Our Hotel and Bath House is the epitome of luxurious comfort and elegant living with "EVERYTHING UNDER ONE ROOF." 96 rooms and luxury suites with down to earth rates beginning at $3.00. Air-Conditioning, Colored Television, Radio 24 hour Telephone Service, Dining Room, Beauty Shop and Free Parking Lot.

INTERCULTURAL RELATIONS REPORT

National Baptist Convention, U.S.A.

Dr. J. H. Jackson, President

Maxie S. Gordon, Chairman

September 12, 1969

President Jackson, Reverend Presiding Officer, Board of Directors, Messengers, and friends: It is with genuine gratitude that I would engage your minds in intercultural concerns. As so many times before, my most serious task has been that of trying to decide on the priorities for this report. The field has been especially crowded with events, books, people, and experiences which should be of real interest to all of us here assembled.

I know of no better lead sentence for my report than the one I used once before, the one I paraphrased from the popular British T.V. serial, "The Week That Was!" Indeed, "This is the Year that was!" It might even be the decade that was, or even the century that was. To use modern jargon, the Moon Men did their "thing," and that which they did ended one era and opened another. No, I dare not suggest that the new era will be better than the era now ended, although we might prayerfully hope so. All we know is that, for better or for worse, our lives shall be set within a non-earthbound frame of reference. The Moon Landing had intercultural implications, intercultural implications, unless one insists on the obvious. It is true that no signs of life have been reported. But there will surely be other landings and deeper penetrations; more intensified study of dust and rocks, and of other moon stuff, and effort to find evidence of life out there either past or present. But this is only the beginning of explorations which will take man far into the recesses of space. We cannot know what rare materials, potentials for living, social, economic, and political structures we may have as a result of subsequent follow-up adventures. I suspect that, man being what he is, the old temptation to challenge and rival God will persist. At 10:50 P.M. (E.D.T.), July 20, 1969, Neil Armstrong "placed his feet firmly on the fine-grained surface of the moon." "That's one step for man," he said, "a giant leap for mankind!" Minutes later, Edwin Aldrin joined Armstrong. While Michael Collins kept his lonely vigil in the Columbia, these men spent historic hours on another world. In the larger meaning of the word, this was intercultural. In the affirmation of the potentials which are yet hidden in man, this strange creature which the Psalmist declared but little lower than God. It doth not yet appear what we shall be, nor where!

Potentials indeed! For, even as we hail the triumph of July 20, we are aware of our broken intercultural relationships on this earth. Norman Mailer has an excellent article on the Moon Venture (Life, August 29, 1960) in which he refers to a radio announcer who, in his excitement spoke of America as his country: "An empty country filled with wonders" he said. Early on July 21, a Negro teenager trying to sell Black Panther literature in Harvard Square, Cambridge Mass, desperately tried to drown out the newspaper sellers who were cashing in on the moon landing. Using language I would not use in private, not to speak of in your presence, he urged those who passed to take their eyes off the moon and do something about the problems of earth. If you don't, he cursed, you're going to find yourself in hell right here on this earth! We cannot pursue this further, but man's success on the moon venture is a serious reminder of home work yet undone. Dr. Thomas Paine, NASA Administrator, said to Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, who, with a few other representatives of the poor, went to Cape Kennedy to watch the launching of Apollo XI. "If it were possible for us not to push the button tomorrow and solve the problems with which you are concerned, we would not push the button." Parenthetically, I doubt that. But Abernathy answered Dr. Paine philosophically: "This is really holy ground." Mailer reports him as saying, "And it will be more holy once we feed the hungry, care for the sick, and provide for those who do not have houses." This is the year that was when we remember the unheeded, the sick, and the hungry people of the nation and of the world. The 24 to 30 billions of dollars spent to make that "little step for man" must be seen also in the light of the giant steps we need to take to heal the earth.

The madness of war is still with us. We here the words "peace, peace," but there is no peace! And war is most intercultural in a negative sense. Actually or potentially, we are on edge in so many places. South View Nam, where more than 2,000 young men have died since our so called cut back in the fighting. The anniversary of Russia's invasion of Czechoslovakia reminded us how precarious peace is in Europe. The border-line clashes between China and Russia surely serve as an ill omen. Israel and the Arab Republic may turn the Middle East into a boiling cauldron at any moment. The religious struggle in Ireland, where Protestant and Catholics have confronted each other in physical conflict is both a serious threat to peace and a scandal. The extremists in our own nation, whether white or black, now threaten to tear this nation to bits and deter the progress of the world. Add to this a recognition of political assassinations in our country, in Africa, and elsewhere, and you see the grim picture of the year that was in terms of violence.

Briefly, I mention a couple of more positive things: [1] Recognition of the passing of Karl Barth, that giant religious thinker and theologian of our time, the man who was referred to as a tall pole by which all other theological thought had to be measured. The March 23 issue of the Christian Century was largely dedicated to the life and influence of Dr. Barth. I recommend you to read these articles for this man will remain with us a long time, helping us to solve tough problems and to find solutions beyond mere pragmatic concern. There is nothing more intercultural than disciplined thinking. Dr. Barth was a premium thinker.

A younger American scholar, Harvey Cox, is bringing some good news from something new under the sun, the beginning of dialogues between Protestants, Catholics, and Marxists. I consider this very intercultural because it holds promise for some kind of co-existence rather than annihilation. I heard Dr. Cox report on such dialogue at Harvard this Summer, shortly after this return from a meeting of this kind arranged by the Pope. It is too early to predict results, but we at least see Elijah-like hope, something at least the size of a man's hand.

I rejoice with you as we recognize the significant travels and services rendered by President Jackson, most especially his preaching in Brazil. It would have been good for any voice to have been lifted on behalf of Jesus Christ in the Conside of the Americas, but it was more significant to have had a distinguished Negro preacher to make the emphasis interracial, international, and, therefore intercultural. This we must salute in our report!

There is a second (2) thing to which I call attention in this report, the broad of the ecumenical gatherings about the world, a emphasis which I hope will be intensified in the coming 12th Baptist World Congress when it meets in Tokyo next July. I speak of the new awareness of the radical changes which are taking place in relation to our fellowmen and to nature. Indeed, the revolution of our time is more than technical and social. It is in its depths spiritual and has to do with religious self-understanding. I know that it is popular to write off the church, but people who know what the struggle is all about are beginning to hesitate to do this. They are beginning to see that the church possibly still has a message to which we need to listen. I think this is the only way to understand much that is going on these days, including the international student rebellion. And, you know, it is international! All around us is the demand for participation in the decision-making processes. "As the Zagreb Consultation Statement in Study Encounter, Vol. IV., I.V., No. 2, 1968, p. 70-81 puts it, "Indeed, it is human dignity, not just bread alone that people are seeking." We cannot deal with the problems unless we see them from a true perspective: non-Western peoples struggling for political independence from the West; non-white people determined to gain racial equality; the poor in revolt against the combined economic and political structures which have suppressed the poor in a world of plenty. Thus, we have the revolt of the outcasts, a demand for basic justice, for fundamental human rights. The form may be Civil Rights Movements, Peace Demonstrations, Black Power from moderate to extremism, urban renewal, student attack on the Establishments, etc., etc. But all of it bids us to rethink the life, mission, unity and ministry of the church. It is our faith that the forces of society and the cosmic powers of this universe can be re-created in Jesus Christ. On the walls of a subway in New York City someone painted the words: "God is dead-Nietzsche." But someone, using a different color of paint wrote beneath the first sentence, "Nietzsche is dead-God." In this report, the Commission subscribes to the latter. For we believe that out of the chaos God is still creating. It is up to us really to extend our hands and hearts to Him, and to become co-creators in the venture to create a New Earth.

Dr. J. H. Jackson, our esteemed and honored President, officers, messengers, Visitors and Friends of the 89th Annual Session of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc. Greetings!

Some noble spirit has uttered out of keen observation a truism that has lingered long, to guide us, its golden leaves stand even now to remind us, "Time and tide wait for no one." This often repeated and years' worn utterance is a case in point for us today; for time has with Eagle-like swiftness passed since last we met in Atlanta, Ga. a year ago, and we find the duty incumbent in our involvement at home base of Worldism, the which, I call the Hub of the world, for United Nations, must be made manifest.

Mr. President, I am here today to report on that which is obvious, yet not depressing. That the Ship of International Accountability, that began sailing more than two and a half decades ago toward a Port, called Peace for All Mankind, from the scourge of War, hunger, ignorance, under the protection of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, has not landed in safe waters yet. The ship lags and languishes amid the torrents of fear and trepidation, toddling still in low ground of hatred, welling in the muck and the mire of greed and despair; and only now and then, does she inch along toward the real and true objective: that of making the world safe from the dark and foreboding shadows of War.

One has but to refer to the elements of paradox that make for our world scene, Vietnam, where the "Bells" have tolled for the prize youth of our day in the tune of more than 37,000 killed and the nasty tune of the Bells continues to toll their message of sadness daily, all this, while the talks they say, to end this madness are bogged down in meaningless motion, moving nowhere.

My friend, Ambassador Henry C. Lodge the clever hard liner has not been able to move the men from the north, our word is only the lament of old, How Long? How Long?

I was talking out loud to myself the other day and reflecting on the gravity of our plight and I told myself that there is too much war in our kind of a world, too much killing, too much hunger, too much ignorance, too much hatred, etc., and I had to conclude to myself that which I have said in my dialogue with men and nations at the UN as Christians and National Baptists following the way made plain by the Man who treaded the wine press alone, and brought God to walk and talk with us in the Word that became flesh, being committed to Him, we are drawn to conclude that there is no little War; for any War is too much War, any of God's children hungry is too much hunger, any hatred, killing, ignorance is all too much. And we are going to Hell we must care, it's too, too much. How dare we bury our heads in the sands as if nothing is happening?

Viet-Nam, Nigeria and the fighting in Biafra-Sino-Russian Conflict-Mid East and ablaze, and add to this, the fire burning of the Alaksa Mosque in Jerusalem, Northern Ireland-student unrest, drug abuse and addiction-Black Panthers and white Negro-Racism-school segregation-Hippies and Yuppies, Mini-Skirted old fools, and many among fools who will never get to be an old fool as they gamble with the dance of death hijacked planes add to these the facts of the absence of normal relations among the great powers, the ever-accelerating nuclear arms race, the danger of the spread of nuclear weapons, the widening gulf between rich and poor nations, the impending population explosion and the pollution of Human Environment, and it is not natural, when you consider the situation, that the hearts of men should be filled with a sense of crisis and foreboding. Yet the Stars and Stripes have been planted on the moon flying and landing where birds cannot soar or land.

America has opened the draw where was planted His secret of outer space and America has used that talent, but the Golden Rule, Fair-Play in race relations have not been obeyed or used, moon landing, yet abject poverty, ignorance camp and cover the land and go to bed with many of our future parents.

Mr. President, the United Nations through its many resolutions, committees, councils, general assembly, augmented by the many specialized agencies have striven to put a solid floor beneath an untenable and very slippery world, tottering toward a swift demise. The United Nations calls for world accountability for all nations. But all too many people and nations want the United Nations to act as a supranational authority in solving other peoples' problems, but are unwilling to relinquish their own National Sovereignty when it comes to theirs. In any case, the UN of today is not a supranational Authority.

Mr. President, I have stated time and time again the UN mirrors and reflects the kind of people we are and the kind of lives we live. It's a Human Organization akin to all the frailty of humans. It does give the platform for man to build for his survival and the welfare of mankind. As a matter of fact, I believe that survival and welfare of mankind is the theme of the whole United Nations Charter.

Mr. President, I am the first to admit the UN is not all I would like it to be because of Human Failure. Neither is the church as we know it defending War. Adjusting to Racism, looking the other way while men go to Hell, is a far cry from the example set forth by Him who died that all might be free.

Let us then, keep faith with the UN, for I still believe the United Nations remains one of mankind's best hopes at the respectable age of 25. For it does walk down to many lanes we Christians travel, a warless world, fearless, well-fed, well-read and healthy world. It takes its missions to all parts of the world to meet people where they are, and lends the hand of help to where they ought to be. This is what Jesus did, walked where people were, and took them by their feeble hand and led them out of the muck and mire to higher ground and a better self.

SIDE LIGHTS:

In these turbulent times race relations, it is tragic that this has developed into terrifying proportions in many parts of the world; and moving toward more tragic.

Now just think for a moment of the super-sophisticated means of Mass Destruction deployed by both super-powers U.S. and U.S.S.R.—both now have means to annihilate each other as viable societies, because of the "ICBM'S" which cannot be destroyed in a first strike—a most serious problem facing mankind today.

Many groups come to the UN—I have given many personal tours to the media of "NBC." In this, the second development decade, it is hoped that the "Have not's" will become more a part of the "Haves."

THE WIDER IMPLICATIONS OF THE JUNE, 1969 SECURITY COUNCIL DEBATE ON RHODESIA

On June 25, 1969, the Western Powers in the Security Council demonstrated once again that their governments are incapable of rising above their financial, racial, religious, and cultural attachments to the white minority governments in Southern Africa by rejecting a resolution supported by sixty Afro-Asian nations. Resolution S/2770 put to the Council by five of its members, (Algeria, Nepal, Senegal, and Zambia) called upon all states to; 1.) sever all relations, economic and otherwise with Rhodesia (Zimbabwe), as provided in Article 41 of the U.N. Charter, 2.) condemn the overt and covert assistance given Rhodesia by South Africa and Portugal and call for the extension of economic sanctions to these two countries and 3.) urge the United Kingdom as the "administering power" to use force, if necessary, to make it possible for the African people of Zimbabwe to exercise their right to independence and self-determination.

Although eight nations voted in favor of the resolution, (the five co-sponsors plus the U.S.S.R., Hungary, and China) it was defeated because nine affirmative votes are required in the Council, assuming that none of the Big Five invokes its veto power. Seven Members, the U.S.A., France, Columbia, Finland, Spain, and Paraguay, chose to abstain.

THE COUNCIL SETTING—Throughout the Council sessions, the Security Council Chamber was only half-filled with visitors. There were never more than two to five persons (not all reporters) sitting in the press area. The red seats surrounding the horseshoe-shaped Council table, reserved for Ambassadors and delegation members, were less than one-half filled. Over the past three years, with the possible exception of the two sessions on sanctions, when half a dozen observers were present, only two or three Non Governmental Representatives have attended sessions dealing with African issues, with this observer being one of them. In one couples this obvious lack of interest in African affairs with the failure of the news media to carry accounts of the sessions, it is easy to understand why United States foreign aid to Africa is less than $200 million this year.

Unhappily, and most regrettably, the American people are apparently not interested in the plight of 13 million Black Africans in South Africa, 5 million in Rhodesia, 6 million in Mozambique, 4½ million in Angola, etc. (An important and commendable exception is the deep concern registered by many Americans for the children of Biafra.) This apparent lack of concern for African affairs strengthens the growing conviction among Africans and Asians (and many in South America) that the U.S. is more interested in its own white "kith and kin" in Southern Africa than it is the Black peoples of that continent.

Mr. President, I have attended all the duties of my good offices at the U.S. the Nature of the job is demanding and if continued, needs support, all bodies of organized thought are at U.N., with fat money bags to treat Delegates, and pay secretaries, etc. Need I say More.

Yours truly,

P.S.

The United Nations will be twenty-five years old this General Assembly which will meet in New York in September. It will have many items on its agenda but I want to list four major areas of top concern in this 25th session.

I would say one of the priority items is the question of arms race been a perennial item before the UN since its inception.

Then the question of peace-keeping machinery:

Then the question of development and the second period or decade of development:

Then the question of colonialism and the concern of the New Nations:

The last but not at all least and this makes five instead of four—The reckless breakdown of race relations—This is getting worse all over this small and ragged world.

MINUTES OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE WOMAN'S CONVENTION, AUXILIARY TO THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION, U.S.A., INC., JUNE 12, 1969

The Executive Committee of the Woman's Convention Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., was called to order by the President, Dr. Mary O. Ross, Wednesday, June 18, 1969 at 9:00 A. M. in the Sheraton 4 Ambassador, Miami, Florida.

The purpose of the meeting was explained by the President as clarifying matters of vital importance to us for the Kansas City Meeting.

The Revision of the Constitution was discussed. President Ross consulted Dr. Jackson, who approved of going forward with the revision to be presented to the Parent body for its approval.

A committee with Mrs. Eddie Thomas as Chairman came in to give the Executive committee official greetings on behalf of the Florida State Convention of which Mrs. Susie C. Holley is President. They gave all of us beautiful gifts, for which Dr. Ross expressed deep appreciation on behalf of the members.

The committee members of the Constitution Revision will have it ready to read in Hot Springs Board meeting.

The Theme of the Parent Body is: Our Victory Through Christ.

It was moved by Mrs. Georgia Cayden, seconded by Mrs. Zee Anderson Barron and Mrs. M. B. Gaillard that we use the same theme as the Parent Body, "Our Victory Through Christ," which was carried.

Dr. Henderson of Kansas City informed us that all reservations will be mailed around July 1, 1969 for our annual session.

Those Present were

Dr. Mary O. Ross, President
Mrs. Susie C. Holley, First Vice President
Mrs. Blanche N. Carter, 2nd Vice President
Mrs. Georgia Cayden, Cor. Secretary
Mrs. M. B. Gaillard, Treasurer
Mrs. Zee Anderson Barron, Y. P. Director
Mrs. Mauddeen T. Seward, Recording Secretary

It was felt that mentioning of the Women's Organization should be presented to loyal committees to include in their souvenir programs. The President informed that she had sent $100 with a picture and some statements for the Program.

The President informed us that an invitation had been extended to the first Negro Congress woman, Shirley Chisholm, Brooklyn, N. Y., to speak to us in Kansas City. A discussion of sharing this congress woman with the Convention was entered into.

President Ross quoted Dr. Jackson as wanting to see an increase flow of literature, our publishing house to do the printing as much as possible, and our young people must have objectives.

Some observations on our literature by the President. The Mission is a full time job. Los Angeles, St. Louis Publishing House handled the Mission and have an outstanding bill as of now $7431.25, and they have not said when we will receive it from them. Our Publishing House was late and could not unload without manpower. The amount it takes to operate the mission almost consumes the income.

Mrs. Blanche Carter explained her concern for writers' literature etc., under the Woman's Convention—a Period of Renewal. The idea for early morning study classes. The President asked sister Carter to follow through with some expenses of writers.

Dr. Holley expressed a concern for getting the Literature into a Department with designated personal in charge so the President can be freed from personal responsibility. If anything happens to the President will we do the same thing as in Dr. Burrough's death? The President said all files are in order at the headquarters. There should be a department so an accounting can be made at all times.

We were dismissed to go to the Board and also to Florida A. & M. college before returning to another session of our Executive Committee meeting at 9:00 tonight.

9:00 P. M. THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE RECONVENED

The Business continued with the discussion of Finance. The President continuing her report informed us that the Parent body says our literature must be done by our Publishing House. Many disadvantages were listed such as delay in printing, frustrations, etc., are incurred at this time. The Mission and Young People's Literature involved.

Dr. Holley mentioned the financial handling of the Young People's work. Mrs. Barron suggested all registrations should be together on Tuesday in the same place.

All Young People literature should be published and distributed under the same office as the Woman's Convention's.

Dr. Holley spoke on the Budget and observed that we should try to live within the budget.

It was the consensus of the committee to give recognition to the "District President of the Year" for the meeting in Kansas City in 1969 for bringing the largest number of Missionary Societies.

It was further felt that "A Plaque" should be given to the Congress Woman, Mrs. Shirley Chisholm.

Mrs. Seward spoke on the Sweetheart Rally. It was the consensus that recognition to the State whose contestant wins should be given. A letter composed to that effect would be sent out. The Rally will be held on Thursday afternoon.

8:00 P. M. Congresswoman Shirley Chisholm will speak

7:00-8:00 P. M. Friday, Young People will have their program.

Thursday Afternoon: Queen's Revue at the Parent Body.

Friday Night, Oratorical Contest at the Parent Body.

THEME FOR THE YOUNG PEOPLE: VICTORY THROUGH CHRIST.

Mrs. Barron asked for a dynamic speaker for the Young People. Several names were submitted.

Tokyo, Japan, Baptist World Alliance was the next item of business brought to our attention.

The fact was reiterated that the President, Dr. Mary O. Ross, was elected with all expenses paid as our official delegate at a previous Board meeting.

It was recommended that other expenses of some other officers as delegates should be considered. Maybe an extra effort in connection with the Wonderland dinner on Wednesday night in Hot Springs would be considered. Mrs. Barron should be sent to the Baptist World Alliance as Young People's Director.

It was the consensus that we send the Executive Committee to the Baptist World Alliance for additional representation. We can supplement their expenses. This will be the task of the Board of Directors in Kansas City, Missouri to do the supplementing. Registration blanks may be obtained from Rev. Green and Dr. Deary.

Fund-Raising projects were discussed such as selling hosiery, cosmetics, etc. for a commission.

The need for a Field Secretary was discussed to help promote the work of the Woman's Convention.

Mr. Maxwell of the Metropolitan Ins. Co. brought an annuity plan for the officers of the Convention.

It was moved by Mrs. Gayden, seconded by Mrs. Holley that we ask Mr. Maxwell to work out an annuity program for the President only, which was carried unanimously.

The meeting adjourned.

Dr. Mary O. Ross, President

Mauddean Thompson Seward, Recording Secretary

The Board of Directors of the 88th Annual Session of the Woman's Convention Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., was called to order by the President, Dr. Mary O. The secretary of the Camp, Mrs. C. M. Pearson, was asked to read the recommendations the Camp Board of Directors made to the Woman's Convention. The report will bring the Camp up to date. [see list attached] We need $28,334.10 to complete the work.

Facilities will cost $4,000. Total $36,334.10 for 2 additional cabins.

It was moved by Mrs. Rose Kimp, seconded by Mrs. Henrietta Hopkins that the President and Board to go ahead with the renovation and building program, which was carried unanimously.

Mrs. Coleman felt that it would be more profitable to renovate the farm house for $21,000 or would it be better to add cabins instead.

Dr. Pauline Campbell wanted each state to put a cabin there at the camp.

Mrs. Zee Anderson Berron spoke on the camp also.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

Mrs. Irene Lampkin, Chairman

President Ross, Officers and Delegates:

Wednesday Evening we sat spell-bound, listening to a spiritual, eloquent, and a dynamic address, including reports nationally and internationally of the Stewardship of our President, Dr. Mary O. Ross. Seeing in action and hearing reports of the Officers of our 68th Annual session, there was no wonder why the rule of order was suspended and a unanimous vote was cast, all officers succeed themselves for the year of 1969-1970.

It is a mighty fine and rewarding experience when the voice of the people speak as they did Wednesday evening.

We the nominating committee rejoice in the fact, the Convention voiced our sentiments.

Respectfully submitted,

WOMAN'S CONVENTION GOES TO THE RESCUE OF MISSISSIPPI DISASTER

Submitted by: MRS. C. M. PEARSON

One the greatest demonstrations of Christian renewal, love and concern was exemplified when the Board of Directors of the Woman's Convention decided to put their Christian talk into Christian Action by voting to send help to aid the people in Mississippi who suffered the pains from Hurricane Camille on August 17, 1969.

"HURRICANE CAMILLE"

Hurricane Camille is to be described as the most violent and destructive hurricane ever recorded on the North American Continent. Camille with her winds racing from 190 to 200 miles per hour, left many of the finest homes and businesses as part of a puzzle that can never be put in place. Many lives were lost. The last report held that bodies were still being found and people are still missing. Rich and poor, black and white, educated and uneducated suffered at the hands of Camille. Hurricane Camille left behind her a job for material and spiritual renewal.

THANK GOD FOR THE EXPERIENCE

It is written: "... that all things work together for good to them that love God..." (Romans 8:28). For those who lived in Pass Christian, Long Beach, Gulfport, Biloxi and Ocean Springs where the Hurricane did its work, it was a matter of helplessly facing the Power of God. The people had to accept what had happened and only God knows how and why it happened. I shall always be thankful to our President, Dr. Mary O. Ross and the Woman's Convention for choosing to send me to show forth our Christian love and concern at a time when the need was the greatest.

PRESIDENTS RICHARD NIXON AND MARY O. ROSS

It was reported that President Richard Nixon came and made a speech in front of a church that had been destroyed. At the end of his speech, President Nixon left $10.00, the price of a brick to be used in the rebuilding of the church.

Dr. Mary O. Ross, accompanied by Mrs. Myra L. Taylor, came to the scene, met with the Committee appointed to assist the most needy people in the area. The persons on that Committee were Mrs. Alma Burkes, Chairman, Mrs. Corine Williams, Secretary, Mrs. Fannie Nichols, Treasurer, and working with these ladies were Mrs. Gulca and Mrs. Ruth Hendricks. This Committee was most helpful in distributing the monies and things sent.

President Nixon came, made a speech, gave $10.00 and left. Our President, Dr. Ross, came—talked with the people, met with groups, and left (but with $1,000 to be used to help). This act was the greatest of all acts of love, help and concern.

THE WOMAN'S CONVENTION TO BE HIGHLY COMMENDED:

Women of our National Convention must be commended for sending boxes and money to this cause, the response was great! Mrs. Alma Burkes summed it all up when she said: "Just to think that our Woman's Convention of the National thought of poor ole us enough to come and send us all of this. De Lord knows that we show did need all de help we could get."

THE WOMAN'S CONVENTION AUXILIARY TO THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION
U. S. A., INC.

"He that sat upon the Throne of Grace said, Behold I Make All Things New. Then, He said unto me, speak, for these words are true . . . I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst for righteousness the fountain of the water of life freely. He that overcometh the world shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my child."

Lord, God Almighty, help us to govern our lives according to Thy Gospel, that we may understand Thee more fully and "Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us that we should be called the Children of God." May we ever seek to make:

THY KINGDOM - Our Home
THY POWER - Our Stay.
THY GLORY - Our End.

For Ever and ever. Amen.

VICE-PRESIDENTS, MRS. HOLLEY AND MRS. CARTER, OFFICERS, COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN, CONVENTION WORKERS, DISTINGUISHED GUESTS ON THE PLATFORM AND IN THE AUDIENCE, DEDICATED MESSENGERS FROM ACROSS THE LANDS, FELLOW BAPTISTS AND FAITHFUL FRIENDS:

In this my Seventh Annual Address, I am proud, pleased and privileged to greet you as John the Revelator, greeted the Seven Churches. "Grace be unto you and peace from Him which is, and which was, and which is to come; and from the Seven Spirits which are before His Throne."

Having witnessed the blessed Power and Presence of the Holy Spirit, which is dominating our thinking and influencing our actions in this 68th ANNUAL SESSION of our Convention, I am overwhelmed with happiness and humility this evening. I am happy and proud to salute you and bring loving, sisterly greetings to each of you, who has come to share in the joys and enriching benefits of this Beautiful Baptist Fruitful Fellowship.

I am honored to be a part of a Sisterhood, Royal in deportment, deeds and duties, and most Loyal in loving, lifting and leading in the Cause of Christ.

In the deepest spirit of humility, may I convey my heartfelt joy and profound gratitude to each of you, for the help and happiness, the cooperation in inspiration that you have extended to my family and me during the Seven Years of my Servanthood. My sincere thanks to each of you for affording me this high honor of leadership and for these majestic moments to address you concerning my stewardship. As we continue to grow spiritually together, may God's richest blessings be ours each day as each of us, in his or her own way, strives to extend His Kingdom on earth as it is in heaven.

A SALUTE TO OUR HOST CITY AND STATE

MISSOURI, we salute you and Congratulate you for what you are and for what you are so capable of becoming.

We have come to you knowing that you are known in history as the Mother of the West, and that your nickname is the "Show Me" state; that your Motto is: "Let the welfare of the people be the supreme law"; and that you have already shown the nation your manufactured goods, your agricultural products and your many minerals.

Of course, we can never forget about the Missouri Compromise.

We have come knowing that you have shown that in education, Missouri claims several important "firsts" to name a few:

1. Saint Louis University, the oldest University West of the Mississippi.
2. The University of Missouri was the first State University West of the Mississippi.
3. The School of Journalism at the University of Missouri was the first school in the World to grant a degree in Journalism.
4. The first school of Osteopathy in the United States was founded in Kirksville, Missouri in 1892.
5. The first public kindergarten in the U.S.A., was opened in St. Louis in 1873 by Susan Blow of that City.

Then we have come knowing and Congratulating you upon having produced the famous:

1. Mark Twain

2. Harry S. Truman, 33rd President of the United States
3. George Washington Carver
4. Eugene Fields
5. Langston Hughes
6. T. S. Eliot
7. Sara Teasdale
8. General Omar N. Bradley
9. Reinhold Niebuhr, and all the personalities -- women and men of Missouri who have helped to build our National Baptist Convention.

It is significant that we are meeting in Kansas City, the heart of the greatest wheat belt in the United States. It is equally as significant that we are guests of a City known as the Gateway to the Southwest; and known to be one of our nation's biggest trade and transportation centers, because it was from Kansas City that the pioneer wagon trains of more than 100 years ago left for the unsettled southwest on the Santa Fe Trail.

This modern and beautiful City with her hundreds of public schools, many colleges, and the University of Kansas City -- together with hundreds of good Churches, here on the Missouri River, is just the City for just such a Convention as ours to meet in, 'for just such a time as this'.

Thanks for inviting us. We trust that our brief sojourn here may mean for Kansas City, RENEWAL both socially and Spiritually.

OUR NEW 1969 — 1970 THEME

Acting under the guidance of God, and inspired to do greater things in our world, in the 1969 Meeting of the Board of Directors of our Woman's Convention, at Hot Springs, Arkansas, we enthusiastically embarked upon a New Theme for 1969-1970 Programs. "RENEWAL — IN OUR SPIRITUAL LIFE, IN OUR SOCIAL LIFE, IN OUR STEWARDSHIP LIFE." The Theme was overwhelmingly accepted by each Board Member, and each one, reverently invited the Holy Spirit "to create within me a clean heart, O Lord, and renew a right spirit within me." Our Scriptural background for our Theme (Revelation 21:5) says to us emphatically that the indwelling presence of Christ within each of us is able to transform our wills, our ways and our world into forms of God-Life, God-Light, God-Love, and God-Power — "Behold, I Make All Things New".

Therefore, our Theme is a bold proclamation that we, as Christians, can boldly believe that we are endowed with the Power of His Presence to Lift the Level of Humanity and "Build A World Which Never Was Before." Our Theme calls for immediate action. In this moment, we must make an all-out effort to re-set, re-establish and re-conform our lives to the love of God. There can be no greater hope, no greater stirring of the mind and spirit than that of having our hearts visited by the glory of God's Grace. Then, we with Renewed personalities, purposes and passions can wholeheartedly lift our consciences to God for correction and bid our total selves to express their chosen loyalty to Him in service to a waiting needy humanity.

Our Theme "RENEWAL", offers New Approaches, New Applications and a New Challenge to our changing world. It is sensitive to the religious, moral and social crisis in which all of us are inevitably involved. So, despite the blatant fact that we now live in a deeply disturbed and much troubled world — a world which is ravaged by war; plagued by violence; blighted by poverty and ignorance; corrupted by pride, selfishness, lust and lost in sin — we know, the last word is not condemnation but salvation; not rebellion but repentance; not wickedness but righteousness; not despair but hope and not death but Eternal Life. By God's grace and graciousness and with our Renewed Spirits, "All Things New" will become a reality through the unity and fulfillment of Christ.

Daily, I am dutifully praying:

Send a revival, O Christ, my Lord,
let it go over land and sea,
Send it according to Thy Dear Word,
and let it begin in me.

Send a revival in every heart,
draw the World nearer O Lord, to Thee,
Let Thy salvation true joy impart,
and let it begin in me.

SIGHTS AND SOUNDS OF THE SIXTIES

At this high hour in history, when the sun is setting on the last days of this decade, and when we are still gloating over the fact that mankind has left his Mark on the Moon with his footprints and also our American Flag — let us, for a moment, turn aside from the things that occupy and preoccupy our minds in the daily round, and take a long intimate look at ourselves in retrospect and the Sights and Sounds of the Sixties, that we may determine whether or not we have been MAKING or MARKING time.

During this daring and desperate decade, we have heard the authentic voices of the restless, the rebellious and the revolutionary youth and adults of our nation and throughout the world — both black and white, rich and poor, old and young, the educated and the ignorant — their voices have shaken the soul of our society out of its past apathy and snug complacency. The litany of these cries told us that tension, conflict, frustration and divisiveness were the identifying marks of these turbulent times.

Over and over again, the Sixties have emphasized to us that prejudice and injustice are still realities with which we must cope in the near future. In spite of the progress that has been made in the struggle for Civil Rights and Human Dignity, much is left to be desired. For, in truth, American Democracy is still a falacy; and the black man's burdens are still the white man's shame. Our scientific methods of automation, communication and transportation have made our World a Neighborhood, but we have, yet, to make it a Brotherhood. I deeply and sincerely share the "Dream" of the late Dr. Martin Luther, King, Jr., that "one day men and women of all races, here in America, will be judged by the content of their character rather than by the color of their skin." Too, Racism, in various cases as well as in many places, has set an ugly stage for violence and bred ill-will between people of different racial backgrounds.

Our States, National and International Elections have plainly shown us that there are intolerable political injustices to be corrected, outworn political institutions to be overhauled and new solutions for many old political problems to be found. Nevertheless, we have endured the strain and stress of three Administrative changes here in the United States yet, we remain undaunted by any political twist or psychological strategy of politicians or parties. In many of our prominent cities we were happy and encouraged with elections of several Black Men as Mayors. All of these courageous men are to be heartily congratulated for their perseverance in attaining these high offices; also the proud people who supported and helped to elect them are due honor and praise for backing-up their voices with their votes. I was extremely proud and happy that Mrs. Shirley Chisholm, of Brooklyn, New York, made her unique mark on the pages of progress as the "First Black Woman" in the history of the United States, elected to become a Congressman. I was very proud and pleased that our own Mrs. Nelis J. Saunders was elected to the Michigan State House of Representatives this year. I am sure that each of you shares this joy with me. Throughout the Sixties we have witnessed political success achieved by many Black men and women, and I am proud of their achievements. Success for one of us is success for all of us. Across the nation in many political maneuvers we have definitely seen the Hand of God active in the Affairs of Men.

While newspaper headlines blared the news that Stock Markets were skyrocketing with profits of financial prosperity; and of the "Mistaken War in Vietnam," which cost over thirty billions of dollars a year and a military budget of eighty billions, included with scandalous waste, mistakes and swollen profits -- the Shame of our Affluent Nation was paraded before the world in the faces of families, many with little children, and individuals who were simply hungry. In many instances, the hungry poor could not walk, talk or eat because of malnutrition; and some even had body weights and looks of concentration camp victims -- and, we, called this, in 1969, civilization. I wholeheartedly agree with the following statement: "In our affluent nation, even more than in the rest of the world, economic misery breeds the most galling discontent, mocking and undermining the faith of our Christian principles as well as our political beliefs in our democratic system. Here in the United States, where there can be no economical or technological excuse for it, poverty in the ghettos is not only a private tragedy, but in a sense, a public crime." (The Mission, May, 1969, page 61).

Our youth have left an indelible mark on this decade with their daring actions and adventurous spirits. Addicted to the latest fads and fashions, wearing funny clothes, funny haircuts, they say and do the strangest things. This has produced an unprecedented lack of understanding and sympathy between the generations. Recent research indicates that there are today 25 million teenagers, with 27 million due in five years. For sure, this "now generation" has to be reckoned with, as it has prominently affected every phase of our society. The youth market controls upwards of 30 billion dollars worth of family purchasing, aside from its own spending money. Teen-agers buy 27 per cent of all records; 20 per cent of all cars. They own a million Television sets; 10 million record players and 20 million radios. They buy 45 per cent of all soft drinks; 24 per cent of all wristwatches and 30 per cent of all low-priced cameras. Response to questions on how they feel when shopping reveals that "they are buying not so much material things but adulthood"; in their way, money is a liberating force and spending it is an expression of being grown-up. The fads they adopt are not to be confused with the immutable law which rules every generation of teen-agers -- This law says, "Thou Shalt Be Different." Nevertheless, it is for the same old reason. No matter how odd their behavior, they are responding to the same age-old urge for independence. In spite of all the facts and fiction which this "Now Generation" faces, we know that teen-agers today are confronted with a world that has changed far more between generations than at any time in history. We know, too, that society is providing them with many new devices to make them look mature sooner, but basically each one of them has to stumble and fumble his or her way to adulthood -- according to his or her own schedule, which applies to each alone and which each only dimly senses now. The "Now Generation" is stranded in the present. Like adults, they must realize that the extremely rapid and accelerating social change, as we know it today in America, increasingly entails a psychological distancing of the past, a sense of the unknowability of the future, and a new emphasis on the present. Our youth actions and attitudes have emphatically told us that they are seeking a Moral Code to follow -- a Religious Creed to believe in -- and a Worthy Cause to Serve.

Negro youth, with a new pride of their heritage, stepped stridently upon the scene of these eventful Sixties, wearing the "Badge of Rebellion" -- the badge of their rebellion is their color and it has always been a hang-up for humiliation with them here in America. In the transition from the deep feelings of inferiority to the goal of an effective, consciousness of Black Awareness and belief that Black is Beautiful, the Negro youth has embraced fads and fashions that the whole of society may know they have a new song to sing, a new life to live and a new history to give to mankind. The assertive, insistent, demanding Negro young people reflect a significant racial reality of the present which cannot be ignored and, which may well determine the future of American race relations. With "bushy" hair and dedicated hearts, Negro youth ask to be called "Blacks". "Blacks, in the quest for self-esteem and positive racial identity -- Blacks, who are rebelling against American racism and social hypocrisy -- Blacks, who are no longer content to maintain an anonymous, wishful, protective denial of their race, but Blacks whose motto is to "Say it loud, we are Black and we are proud." "To understand the positions of these young people, one must understand that no group of human beings can move from being the victims of extremes of injustice and inhumanity to the goals of self-acceptance and positive personal and racial identity without a transitional period being marked by turmoil," says Kenneth B. Clark, Staff Psychologist at City College, in New York.

For the first time in history, Black Study Courses have been included in many of our schools curriculum. The rebellious attitude of the Black young people on the numerous campuses across the nations is largely responsible. Truthfully, for a long time there has been dishonesty in the field of education. Until recently, the textbooks completely omitted contributions made by minorities to American Culture. This was no problem for students in ethnic schools and colleges; but those in Northern integrated schools have been led to believe by the history books that the American Culture is exclusively white; and that is what all the noise of Black Studies is about. Of course I do not advocate separate Black Studies; but I believe that textbooks should "tell it like it is" and tell it all, and write history as it actually unfolds -- giving credit to whom credit is due.

In the case of the Church, this decade has marked many of them as being "large in buildings, but small in vision." Without a doubt, there has been conflict between its ideals and its practices. Often, the Church has proclaimed Jesus, then, rejected His followers.

There is a story told a Negro man who went to a white church for Sunday morning Worship Service. He was met at the door by the usher, who asked him what he wanted. The visitor said he came to worship, where upon he was curtly told to leave and that he was not wanted or welcome there. The visitor replied: "I am sorry, I was looking for Jesus and thought I might find Him here since the sign outside says, Church."

The idea and practice of segregation in this Country has been so wide spread that it, ironically, has included the Church, which was guilty of being one of the last of all institutions in desegregation. Georgia Harkness, in her latest book, "Stability and Change," says "that the one thing that the trend of secularism has done is to turn the attention of the Church to the evils of man's inhumanity to man and misery of the underprivileged to the point where it is now supporting Civil Rights, better education, job opportunities and better housing for minority groups; but the Church efforts, thus far, have been feeble probably because the clergymen, for the most part, are afraid to speak out, for fear of offending their congregations or their superiors. Thus, much of the leadership has come from the outside."

While the Church lags, the non-violent methods of change, popularized by the late Dr. M. L. King, Jr., and the moderate approaches of the N.A.A.C.P. and the Urban League, have been exploited by such militant groups as the Black Panthers; Student for Democratic Action, the National Black Economic Conference and others. The ideologies of these groups seem to be separatism, although their ultimate aims are different. From the outset, these groups may have been motivated to eliminate injustice from society, but somehow a violent, revolutionary element crept in.

The Black Economic Development Conference convened in Detroit, Michigan, in April, 1969. Significantly, it was sponsored by the Interreligious Foundation for Community Organization -- a coalition founded by Protestant, Catholic and Jewish organizations. More than 600 delegates from across the country attended the conference, which was called "to bring black persons together to develop economic concepts that reach beyond the current fad of black capitalism, and to develop total community development." This conference was composed of professors, economists, bank presidents, directors of numerous projects and programs, militants as well as the urban and rural poor. At this conference, James Forman, Director of International Affairs for the SNCC, issued the now controversial Black Manifesto -- a demand of 500 million dollars from white Christian Churches and Jewish Synagogues, in reparations to be paid to Black Americans. Mr. Forman says he started with the Church because "the Church is a part of the capitalistic system, and capitalism oppresses Blacks in this country. The Christian Churches and Jewish Synagogues are another form of government because they are used by the government to exploit black people and the people of Latin America, Asia, and Africa. We were forced to work, as slaves, by the military machines and the Christian Church which worked hand in hand. If white Christians and Jews are not willing to meet our demands through peace and goodwill, then, we are prepared to fight by any means necessary. It will ultimately be by force." Some have interpreted the Manifesto as a "Call to Arms" against White America; while others contend that when the document is read realistically it is referring and asking for relief from past oppressions and present difficulties.

Nonetheless, an Episcopalian priest, a Lutheran pastor and a Catholic bishop issued a "White Manifesto", in which they agreed, to a great extent, with the grievances of blacks, and called upon all religions to embark upon radical church reform programs. The five-point Manifesto called on both Protestants and Catholics, in all parts of the U.S. to begin new ecumenical communities under local control. The Manifesto said, "Christians should no longer donate money to bureaucratic church structures, but use it instead to correct social injustice . . . Changes cannot occur at the top, where leaders tied and bound by the establishment are simply not free to act responsibly or creatively, but must instead take place at middle and bottom levels where ordinary people exit."

The Black and White Manifestos are significant of the times and the religious revolution now stirring people in all parts of the world. How much effect the manifestos will have is still to be determined. They may well serve an unforeseen purpose to help the Church say -- "In my sanctuary there is peace for tired minds, rest for weary bodies, compassion for suffering humanity, forgiveness for repentant sinners; communion for saints and Christ for all who seek Him."

Much attention in the 1960's was focused on the new positions of women in church and society. As more women were named to top positions of leadership, they have come to be regarded as the "social conscience of our present-day society." The more thoughtful and vocal women leaders have declared that this is a New Day for Women, therefore, women are no longer to be treated like the little girls of the Victorian Age, who were seen but not heard. Miss Margaret Shannon, Executive Director of Church Women United says, "In these times we could retreat into timid living, limited by some of yesterday's yardsticks; or we could act boldly in the assurance that today and tomorrow is in God's hands. Let us accept the challenge of the young and be ourselves, and in ways appropriate to our vocations answer these questions: Can we be women without embarrassment or apology, living life to the full? Can we be united and organized to penetrate goodwill in the wilderness of this century? Can we be un-tied from our old institutional patterns, free to find responsible ways to be God's instruments of reconciliation in this tom-apart world?" Certainly, this decade has awakened women to become actively involved in world affairs, yet, remain deeply concerned with the institutions of marriage, motherhood and a wholesome family life.

Too, the Sights and Sounds of the Sixties stunned us with five senseless assassinations . . . the horrible results of the Vietnam War, which has created more than 100,000 orphans and made us the first generation to see its nation fighting a war live on television as well as give us a weekly body count . . . overwhelmed us with a society that seemingly has made Sex its god and Loose Living its law . . . Confronted us with the fact that our scientific achievements have, by far, outstripped our moral quality and our religious faith, for many have lifted up their Souls to drugs, senseless inner drives, and drinks. Tuned in on sin, turned on to violence and dropped out of a life of power, purpose and potential possibilities . . . shocked us to ponder why so many Christians were terrified by the "God is Dead" theory and promptly made "Are You Running With Me Jesus" an overnight bestseller . . . and, held all of us spellbound as we watched mankind walk on the moon. An awaiting and apprehensive world was thrilled, but it was forced to ask itself - Will the moon landing be the new beginning of a new way of life for the people of this earth? Miracles in medicine - heart and kidney transplants, enhanced but humbled our spirits.

Yet - - despite the many dangerous, despairing and desperate days of this decade - - we have come to this hour knowing that God has been with us each step of the way. Sustained by His Grace, "we are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not driven to despair; persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed; always carrying in our bodies the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be manifested in our daily lives."

Thanks be to a Loving, Lifting and Living God for Seven Years during this Divine Decade. As time silently seals the Sixties, to solemnize for eternity our words, works, wisdom and welfare of others as well as ourselves, I wish to share with you briefly a Renewed Stance, a Renowned Stability, a Radiant Stamina for Service and Spiritual Strength Renewed as we realize the increasing challenges of the future.

A RENEWED STANCE

"If one does not keep pace with his companion, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer."

"Do you think religion is increasing or losing its influence? - 14% said religion is increasing, 70% said religion was losing its influence."

All about me I hear a worldly chorus repeating - Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord, "Gold" Almighty; and I hear an earthly host asking - - What is really happening in our world? Now, it seems that darkness gathers around us and we are confused in all our counsels. Have we lost faith in God, and having lost faith in Him, we have lost faith in ourselves? Have we turned from God to go our selfish ways? Have we not broken His commandments and often denied His Truth? Have we not left His Holy Altars to serve the false gods of promise, power and pleasure? Today, are we not afraid of the terror that flies by night and the arrow that flies by day, the pestilence that walks in darkness and the destruction that wastes at noon-day? Where may we find the pathway to understanding to secure a safe shelter for our souls? Where may we stand in this disruptive day? Who cares if we perish?

Then, I hear another Voice, a still, small voice saying, "I am the Way, the Truth, and the Light - - Follow Me!"

Christ has taken possession of my heart, which His love has blessed, and enslaved my soul, which God has honored. Therefore, I am persuaded to believe that we must not conform to the crowd, to go along with the group or to fashion our ideals to fit the standard of this "sick" society. I am convinced in mind, moved in heart and dedicated to the belief that we cannot stay in step with ungodly men nor march to the music of the mob. For, even in the midst of perils and pitfalls, we shall insist on marching to the sound of a different drummer.

I am grateful to Henry David Thoreau, for this thoughtful phrase - - "If a man does not keep step with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Let him step to whatever music he hears, however measured or far away."

We, as Christians, ought to march to the call of Christ saying, "Follow Me." There may be a thousand other voices, and scores of drummers beating, and the clanging clashes of cymbals all about, but through it the Christian will always hear the measured cadence of that call. This means that sometimes we will be out of step with the sentiment of the majority in the community, out of step with the crowd on the campus, whether it be high school or college or university. There will be those who will point at us and say, "What's the matter with you. Come on, get in step with us. Get with the group now. You're out of step. What's the matter with you?"

We, who are marching in the Company of the Committed dare not try to keep pace with our uncommitted companions who hear only the music of this world. Our lives ought to be distinctively different in the style of our living. Christ's call, "Follow Me", challenges us to march to the sound of a great purpose and to stand by high principles. We are under the compulsion of Christianity to march to the call of a better life, honorable and worthwhile in the sight of God and man - - what a tragedy it is, that so many people, for the life of them could not tell you what they are living for today. Some of them are very busy - - going here and there, involved in endless activities, but no great end. They have nothing in view. Thus they simply stay in step with the crowd, and the resources God has invested in their lives are wasted.

The hope of the world rests in those who hear the Call of Christ -- "Follow Me." This challenges us to be captured not by the crowd but by a cross -- a cross like unto Christ's.

A RENOWNED STABILITY

Within the deep caves of our hearts and spirits -- far down, under the outward shows of the world and of people; despite continental, constitutional and catastrophic changes; despite the great thoughts and prophetic dreams of men, and the history of races -- we can rejoice in the Renowned Stability of Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, today and forever.

Keith Miller in his book, "The Taste of New Wines," says, "we are more concerned with image building than we are with Kingdom Building." In the process of this image building we often refrain from the truth of our true foundation.

We know that life passes, riches fly away, popularity is fickle, the senses decay, the world constantly changes, friends die. Yet, we are assured that One alone is constant; One alone is true to us; One alone can be all things to us; One alone can supply our needs; One alone can train us up to our full perfection; One alone can give meaning to our complexed and confused lives; One alone can give us contentment in time and consolation in eternity and only One can possess us and bless us and make us a saving grace to humanity.

So, in this day of discord and discount when many of us have lost our way in the "jungle of things" and are worshipping Sex, Speed, and Space; when our homes and our family life as well as our children, our communities, our Churches, our Cities, our Countries and Educational systems everywhere are Walking on the Edge of Emptiness, let us boldly proclaim our Christian convictions in the Renowned Stability of God, who is in the midst of our world reconciling it unto Himself, in the person of His Son, our Lord and Savior. With uplifted hearts and purposes, we must be the bearers of the New Possibilities and Enlarge the Horizons of Hope in all of our human endeavors for stability, in these times of change and upheaval. Let us keep an unflinching faith in an unfailing God.

My hope is built on nothing less
Than Jesus' blood and righteousness
I dare not trust the sweetest frame
But wholly lean on Jesus' Name
When darkness veils His lovely face
I rest on His unchanging grace
In every high and stormy gale
My anchor holds within the veil
When all around my soul gives way
He then is all my hope and stay
On Christ, the solid rock, I stand
All other ground is sinking sand.

A RADIANT STAMINA FOR SERVICE

Under the Mighty Hand of God, many miracles have gone into the making of the sixty-eight years of our Woman's Convention. From our innermost beings we sing exuberant, yet, humble praise for the miracles God has wrought in the hearts of all the women; afire with inventive leadership and backed by committed 'followship', blazed new trails into all areas of human concerns.

Our Convention works with the North American Baptist Women's Union of the Baptist World Alliance, the United Church Women of the National Council of Churches and the National Council of Negro Women.

These past seven years have been especially blessed and significantly marked by, Divine interventions, in our mission-march of progress. Often, we were overwhelmed with abounding gratitude for the wonders God worked with the women of our Convention. As we analyze the scope of our achievements, we can understand Anew what we can accomplish when our purposes, passions and prayers are firm and our intent corporate. With undaunted faith and devoted friends, in spite of shadows of uncertainties and a noticeable lack of funds, we have:

Paid the twenty-five thousand, five hundred dollars ($25,500.00) balance on the Foreign Mission Retreat, and presented the deeds to our National Baptist Convention President, Dr. J. H. Jackson. Forty-four thousand, five hundred dollars $44,500.00) has been spent on the upkeep of the Foreign Mission Retreat which sold for $95,000.00.

We paid the forty-five thousand dollars ($45,000.00) balance on the National Baptist Youth Camp and Senior Retreat, Constantine, Michigan, and presented the deeds to our Parent Body President, Dr. J. H. Jackson. Thirty-three thousand dollars ($33,000.00) has been spent for repairs, improvements and upkeep of the Camp and Senior Retreat. Presently, the Youth Camp and Senior Retreat is engaged in an extensive renovating and building program, to accommodate a larger number of participants, and to stimulate a more wholesome atmosphere for spiritual enrichment and personal enjoyment.

We started from scratch and made THE MISSION, our Official Study Quarterly of The Woman's Convention, an uplifting reality in religious circles. Its distribution now exceeds one hundred and fifty thousand copies (150,000) annually. THE MISSION is an important literary document in some of the most outstanding schools and seminaries in our country. Although it began without capital, it is now clear of debt, and has begun to make financial contributions to our Women's Convention. It belongs to our Convention.

In addition to the publication of our Official Study Quarterly are THE NEW NATIONAL MISSIONARY STUDY GUIDE; LEADERSHIP GUIDELINES; NATIONAL PLAN BOOK; WHO'S WHO; MISSIONARY RECORD BOOK; GEMS OF RAREST RAYS SERENE - history of our Convention; we have a Promotional Magazine, THE NATIONAL BAPTIST WOMAN. This magazine is published quarterly and we hope that every woman in our Convention will share the news events of her Church, Community and Convention as well as be an ardent supporter and subscriber of THE NATIONAL BAPTIST WOMAN. Yes, we have established a Literary Department of our own.

In 1966, we purchased a Jeep Wagoneer and sent it to Mrs. Mattie Mae Davis, our Missionary in Monrovia, Liberia, West Africa. With this gift, she has done much to lift the people there and to labor for the Lord more effectively.

In March, 1969, the Convention established a Memorial to the two past presidents of our Convention the late Dr. S. Willie Layten and Dr. Nannie Helen Burroughs. A plaque was placed on the wall of the main office of Church Women United in the Headquarters of the National Council of Churches, 475 Riverside Drive, New York City, New York.

We have established a Woman's Convention Office, and employ one full-time secretary, one part-time secretary and additional help whenever necessary. These conscientious workers' contributions are worthy assets to our Convention.

We are thankful to God Almighty, for all of these marvelous miracles of wonderment, in which He has guided us in our achievements through fears, frustrations, doubts and debts, into a royal realm of sincerity, faith, fortune, self-respect and service.

A Radiant Stamina for Service to men, women, youth, children and to many programs, projects and individual personalities have been effectively activated during the 1960's, in the following themes by our Woman's Convention:

"CHRISTIAN WOMEN - CALLED, CONCERNED, COMMITTED"

"ENLARGEMENT THROUGH - ENLISTMENT, ENLIGHTENMENT, INVOLVEMENT"

"RENEWAL IN OUR SOCIAL LIFE, STEWARDSHIP LIFE, SPIRITUAL LIFE."

The Woman's Convention extends congratulations to the following persons of our race who received honorary degrees, this year, by some of our large universities, in recognition of the manner in which they have served their communities, their country, and the world, with a Radiant Stamina and Devoted Lives:

Coretta Scott King, widow of Martin Luther King, Jr., - Ph.D., Marymount College and Boston University;

Edward Kennedy (Duke) Ellington, Jazz Musician, Ph.D., Brown University;

Roy Wilkins, Executive Secretary of the N.A.A.C.P., Ph.D., Columbia University;

James Earl Jones, Actor and Award Winner for his outstanding performance in "The Great White Hope," Ph.D., Fairfield University;

Whitney Young, Jr., Executive Secretary of the National Urban League, Ph.D., University of Kentucky (it has been stated that in 1941, Mr. Young was refused admission to this university's graduate school because of his color);

Jessie L. Jackson, Director of Operation Breadbasket in Chicago's Ghettos, D.D., Lincoln University. This University gave Carl B. Stokes, Mayor of Cleveland, Ohio, the D.C.L. degree;

Leontine Price, Opera Singer, Ph.D., Fordham University;

Charles Evers, Mayor of Fayette, Mississippi, Ph.D., Washington University;

Julian Bond of the Georgia Legislature, Ph.D., University of Bridgeport.

May each of us with Renewed Stance strive to keep a Radiant Stamina and Renowned Stability in our lives as we work together in a Courageous, Contagious Cooperation to better the whole of humanity's conditions in our world. May we always remember that we are life's greatest to each other.

RENEWED SPIRITUAL STRENGTH

Though we must walk in the midst of troubles, tensions and tears, torn from without and within, by trials, temptations and tribulations, with a few moments of triumphs scattered along the way -- we have the blessed assurance that the breeze of Divine Grace is ever blowing upon us, and over us stands our God, to give us Spiritual Strength to walk in the Light. To walk in the Light while darkness invades, envelops and surrounds, is to wait expectantly upon the Lord. This is to know and grow in the Power of His Presence. This is to walk and faint not, to run and not be weary. This means to move, with reverence, through all of life, always seeking and finding, always building and rebuilding, always repenting and always rejoicing. This is to walk with God and be of good courage, while we mix and mingle with the multitudes of mankind.

During the years of this President's Administration, the cry of "power" has been echoed around the universe. Different masses and classes of our men, women and youths have claimed our attention with signs and slogans of "black power, white power, learning power, earning power, green power, youth power, woman power, man power, political power, paper power and even pickle power." Some of the cries of power, especially the cry of black power, have shaken the soul of our society.

Nevertheless, we want the whole world to know, that we have not anchored our faith, established our hopes nor labeled our love with any kind of power of men or machines. Thus far, we have inclined our hearts to believe that there is but one Power -- Wonder-working Power -- Blood Power -- Power in the Blood of the Lamb. With God's Power, before and behind us, we have worked willingly and diligently in this decade, with our enthusiasm, devotion and insight, to move to New Levels in Brotherhood, into all areas of Human Concerns and Mutual Respect. As in the past, these shall be our future goals.

Again, we plead passionately to our youth who have "dropped out" to come back in and help us to "Build A World That Never Was Before." If we are to root out the evils, deal with the swift pace of change, meet new conceptions of human need and preserve the vitality of this society -- our homes, churches, communities and institutions of learning must undergo quick and far-reaching adaptations. We believe, that as young people, you are well fitted to Renew all human institutions. You have the necessary freshness of vision, the necessary impatience and you are not yet entrapped in customs. Know that this task will take all the intelligence, energy and noble principles you possess. For surely, the stakes are high but the cause is worthy. Your efforts and effectiveness will not be in vain. With all of us working together we shall be a "kernel of grace", a productive seed in the soil of society. Our world is ripe now for constructive improvement.

As Dawn of a New Decade is almost upon us, let us resolve to let New Thoughts walk across the threshold of our thinking, that a New Day may break clean and clear upon our hearts and in our world — an anxious, but a beautiful world that is watching and waiting for us Christians to comfort, cleanse and conquer it. Let us resolve to Rededicate our Time and Reconsecrate our Thoughts to the unlimited expanse of God's abundance. Let us Expect and Accept God's fulfillment of all dreams, all desires, all hopes for the highest good. Let us resolve to trust the Allness of God's Power and Presence, the unlimited vastness of His Knowledge and accept His availability to us Now.

You ask: "What can I do in times like these?"

You can speak out for Christ when others are silent.

You can think of ways to uplift mankind when others are thinking only of the might of money.

You can keep working for His Kingdom to come on earth while others are playing and forgetting about praying.

You can let your disappointments deepen your determination, let your failures fire up your faith and Be Ashamed To Die until you have won some Victory for Mankind.

You can help to chart the course upon which humanity may safely travel tomorrow, by giving a full measure of travel yourself, that the Church may take up the Cross, the Home may take up the Voice, the Community may take up the Crusade and the World may take up the Challenge to teach this dying generation how to live the Abundant Life With A Living Christ.

68TH ANNUAL SESSION OF THE Woman's Convention Aux., National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc.

THIRD ANNUAL REPORT of the Corresponding Secretary

MYSELF

I have to live with myself, and so
I want to be fit for myself to know
I want to be able as days go by
Always to look myself straight in the eye.
I don't want to stand with the setting sun
And hate myself for the things I have done
I want to go out with my head erect,
For I want to deserve all men's respect.
For here in the struggle for fame and self
I want to be able to like myself.
I don't want to look at myself and know
That I am a bluster, a bluff and a show.
I never can hide myself from me
I see what others may never see.
I never can fool myself, and so
Whatever happens I want to be Self-respected and conscious free.

A-non

President Ross, the Official family, my local, state and district leaders, messengers to the 68th Annual Session of the Woman's Convention. It is in the spirit of the writer of the lines quoted, that I submit my Third Annual Report as Corresponding Secretary of this august body of Black Baptist Women. This was an anonymous quotation, but it is the guiding philosophy which permeates all my daily activities.

Let me express, with deepest humility, my gratitude to you for the opportunity to serve as Corresponding Secretary. Really, it is work. Our sparkling-spirited President goes to bed very late and the Corresponding Secretary goes very early, and rises at 5:00 A.M. Usually, the President gives her a Hat of sympathy, congratulatory messages, or replies for conferences to be sent out by Western Union, before the President retires. The text of the messages require thought, convention wishes and must reflect the wishes of the leader of our Convention, as well as the views of the officers and the President.

This office handles more than four thousand letters, hundreds of telephone inquiries, multiple telegrams and even receives many representation checks to be forwarded to our Treasurer.

We are beginning to feel that it is not so much a job to be done, as an opportunity to do a job.

Many of us have not been able to secure clerical help. Thus, it means that each year letters are returned in bulk quantity, because the postman could not read the address, many people have moved and we do not have computerized change of address systems, and often, we relate to new officers very coolly and say we did not receive the mail, even though it may have been delivered six months ago.

The Corresponding Secretary is suggesting that local, district and state Presidents contact the Better Business Bureau or some source of literature and supply all officers with in-service training material. Since we have been elected, we owe it to our followers to prepare ourselves for the task.

We are still receiving letters from leaders that are written on tablets like my grandmother used for grocery list in Kosciusko, Mississippi. The letters usually contain criticism of one kind, a general reminder of what we used to do, or a comparison of the Women's Convention with some white, wealthy church group. My reply is that for years, I have sat in all strata of groups. They have always been concerned more about talking to us than with us, and about salvation of our souls, but not the starvation of our stomachs. The Corresponding Secretary feels that National Baptist Women have, within our own ranks every possibility—educationally, emotionally and socially as could be found in any group. It may be true that we put our worse foot forward too often, but it is encouraging to know that behind the scene, we have the essence of culture and dignity.

Women frequently feel less secure in a business world, but in the Church, we feel very secure. We maximize our strengths and virtues. The Key to Christianity is not what Christ did in the past, or even how God is involved in the present. Rather, it is confidence that women can participate in bringing about the Kingdom that God promised for the future. The most important religious experience we have is in our session through Faith, Hope and Love. This office has a three-fold operation. It handles more than critical letters, hundreds of telephone complaints and multiple telegrams. It serves as a liaison for National Council of Negro Women, Young Women's Christian Association, National Conference on Crime and Delinquency, National Association of Social Welfare, Student Movements and many Inter-Denominational Groups.

A few weeks ago, the Corresponding Secretary joined 59 representatives from National Black Women's Organizations of varied backgrounds, Sororities, Churches, Fraternities in an Affiliate Assembly under the National Council of Negro Women, the "Umbrella" organization of four million black women. We met in exotic Nassau, Bahama for five (5) days. The agenda included task forces, symposiums, films, lectures and all too numerous committee meetings. Reading material from every Commission in the Federal Government concerned with Health, Education or Welfare. Housing improvements in Mississippi, assistance to families on plantations in the area of developing their farms, live stock and thereby feeding themselves, clinics for pre-natal instructions and care, mobile libraries and person-to-person literary help, which was done by the N.C.N.W. as reported in our Assembly. Many affiliate representatives were not at all aware of the hard work, total concern for, and commitment to the freedom of Black people currently in reality in all sections of the country under the National Council of Negro Women. It was an inspiration to see such a host of black women in all areas of life; doctors, masters, world travelers, wealthy and yet ready to fight for the total liberation of our people.

The Corresponding Secretary was happy to tell N.C.N.W. that National Baptist Women have always played and plan never to stop playing their role in the fight for the liberation of black people. As long as hunger, poverty, disease, discrimination, unemployment and injustice permeate the home of one black family, we will be concerned for and committed to work hard and long for an America that is truly the home of the brave and the land of the free. We are Christian. Thus we must at all times be sensitive to the needs of all people. It is just as wrong for us to hate and mistreat as it is for us to endure hatred and mistreatment.

"Chicken in the pot and two cars in the garage" may be the national goals, but not ours. To me, the goal of National Baptist Women is Christ in the heart of men and two chances: study and live wherever one wishes.

The National Conference on Crime and Delinquency is currently concerned about eliminating storage-type institutions. Many prisons, detention homes, rehabilitation centers are so crowded that rehabilitation is only a term.

As National Baptist Women, representing millions of black women—mothers, teachers, social workers, administrators; we need only a brief visit to the average juvenile court, detention home or prison and we quickly see too many of our youngsters. Some of them are from our churches and we turn our noses up when they are ready for release. One little boy was custodized because he went to a church during a refreshment time, he asked for cake, and the ladies pushed him out. So, the little boy went out, got his friends and went back to the dining room, stole the whole cake and ran to the park. All too often, the first well-balanced meal, clean bed and smile that the child witnesses is in an institution. National Baptist Women are hard at work through the Corresponding Secretary's office, to help service youngsters who need it. This may be through the Day Care Centers, through camping facilities, through after-school supervised play periods, through private tutoring in reading, spelling or mathematics, or just being active, concerned, warm working liaison with volunteer agencies in the welfare, education and health field.

The National Black Economic Development Conference met in Detroit, Michigan on April 26, 27, 28, 1969. On August 28th, the newspapers deplored the fact that the largest organization of Black Baptists had said nothing. The Corresponding Secretary feels that a quiet worker may get more accomplished than one who talks all the time and says and does nothing. She feels personally, that whether we agree with the total pronouncement or not, we must accept the slogan from that conference.

All roads must lead to revolution
Unite with whomever you can unite
Neutralize wherever possible
Fight our enemies relentlessly
Victory to the people
Life and good health to mankind
Resistance to domination by the white Christian Churches and the Jewish synagogues
Revolutionary black power
We shall win without a doubt

This year has found the National Baptist Women speaking to students, adult and young, graduate and under-graduate, rich and poor through the Corresponding Secretary. She has constantly reminded students that "There is still room at the top, but the top is higher than it used to be." If the student happens to be black, it is not only higher but harder to get there.

According to Harold Howe II, higher education in America today is a white upper class enterprise. It is estimated that 5% of total college enrollment is black. This may or may not be factual, but it is our responsibility to seek ways to motivate youngsters to want to study and to force university doors open to all who qualify. National Baptist Women have been speaking forcefully in this area. We seek not to save our students admitted simply because they are black and the quota must be reached, but because our minds and brains demand the opportunity. This has been our voice throughout America, through the office of the Corresponding Secretary.

National Council of Negro Women—say:

"MORE EDUCATION NOW"

Again, I must express sincere, warm thanks to Cornerstone Baptist Church, its zealous minister, encouraging membership and most efficient secretary, Mrs. Walls. Also, I must thank the Staff of the Essex County Youth House, Newark, N. J. for their fine secretarial help, cooperation and enriching resource materials.

I am grateful to the New York Ministers' Wives' for being an umbrella when it rains and a smile in the sunshine. Mrs. H. B. Shaw, Mrs. Janie Jones, Mrs. Frances Strange and Mrs. Mary J. Hookney are my New York leaders. To each of them, a huge bouquet of good wishes and great warmth shall always be tossed.

Thanks to President Ross, the officers, messengers and multimillions you represent for the glorious opportunity to serve. May I close with my favorite Irish Blessing:

May the road rise to meet you.
May the wind be always at your back.
May the sunshine warm upon your face.
The rains fall soft upon your fields and Until we meet again, may God hold you
In the palm of His hand.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,

GEORGIA L. GAYDEN
Corresponding Secretary

WEDNESDAY EVENING

Reassemble—with Mrs. Carol Hernandez of New York, leading the audience singing, "Faith is the Victory." Introduction of speaker—The Honorable, Nelis J. Saunders, State Representative, Michigan Legislature. Mrs. Saunders chose for a subject "Faith Through Christ." She said our Hope of Today and not Tomorrow is our Young People. They are the ones the adults are depending on. How do we play our role in our Church, Community and Politics? Do we understand children of today? Adults do not listen to what the youth have to say. The adults should communicate with young people because they are important. She challenged the youth of today to keep in mind that they are serving Christ not man. They are a part of the total program to do a job in the field known as "Kingdom Building."

We had remarks by Director, Barron and then dismissed to hear President Ross' annual address.

THURSDAY MORNING

1. Key of Maturity, 2. Key to Submission, 3. Key of Love, 4. Key of Communication, 5. Key of Prayer, 6. Key of Christ.

Mrs. Eleanor Keywood presented her group in "What does Audio Visual do for us?" Just to mention a few: 1. Condenses time and space, 2. Gives context toward ideas, 3. Teaches and relays thoughts, 4. Motivates us to take action, 5. Shows relationship, 6. Transmits knowledge.

There are some values in life that can not be bought. Truth never goes on sale. Honesty is ways in style. Grace and salvation are never marked down for sale. There are gods along life's way, tempting us, there are man-made gods, inexpensive and cheap. ev. Wright challenged the youth to make it up in their minds to make their lives worth something. KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI

We are blessed to have the privilege of returning in peace to Missouri — "The Show Me State".

This state has a rich history. Let us review a few significant facts as we begin our session in this state whose motto is "The Welfare of the people shall be the welfare of the state".

The mighty Mississippi River forms Missouri's eastern border and the wide Missouri River winds across the State from West to East.

The state's name came from the Missouri River.

The word "Missouri" probably came from an Indian word meaning "the town of the large canoes." Missouri's nickname, "The Show Me State"—is traced to a speech by Congressman Willard Duncan Vandiver of Missouri who, in 1899, speaking in Philadelphia said, "frothy eloquence neither convinces nor satisfies me. I am from Missouri. You have got to show me".

Missouri is sometimes called the "Mother of the West", because it once lay at the frontier of the United States. The state supplied many of the pioneers who settled the vast region between Missouri and the Pacific Ocean. Westport Landing (now Kansas City) served as one of the jumping off places for the Westbound pioneers.

Missouri ranks 19th in size among all the states, and 6th in size among the Midwestern States.

St. Louis and Kansas City, the largest cities in the state, rank among the leading transportation, grain, and livestock centers of the United States.

About 9 of every 100 Missourians are Negroes. Over half of Missouri's Church members are Protestants. The largest groups include the Baptists.

Kansas City ranks high as an Educational and Cultural Center. The Kansas City Philharmonic and the Kansas City William Rockhill Nelson Art Gallery are World famous.

Although they all did not live in Kansas City, many outstanding Americans have lived in Missouri. They include:

Harry S. Truman, our 33rd President; Mark Twain (Samuel Clemens), creator of "Tom Sawyer" and "Huck Finn"; Eugene Field, the beloved Children's Poet; the writers, T. S. Eliot and Fannie Hurst; General John J. Pershing, commander of U. S. forces in Europe during World War I; George Washington Carver, the great Negro scientist; Joseph Pulitzer, the famous journalist, publisher and endower of the Pulitzer Prize; Dred Scott, the slave whose fight for freedom was carried to the U. S. Supreme Court; and hundreds of others.

"IN MEMORIAM"

In the midst of life there is death. Immediately following the Atlanta Convention we went to Detroit to give comfort and sympathy to our National President Ross in the loss of her precious husband, the scholarly gentleman and Prince of a preacher, Dr. S. D. Ross.

Our National Director Emeritus, Mrs. Frye; Mrs. Carolyn Ealy, our hostess at this meeting; and Michigan B.M.E. State Director Dorothy Robinson lost their husbands. Mrs. Robinson's husband passed while enroute home from the National S.S. and B.T.U. Congress in Miami.

Death also claimed our pioneer Michigan Director Emeritus and long-time Chairman of our Finance Department, Mrs. Georgia Jackson.

Our Camp Director, Mrs. Hattie Drinks, lost her sainted Mother whom we knew and loved as "Maruma Stuckey".

Perhaps the saddest and hardest loss to bear was that of our talented, dedicated Director of Kansas, Miss Dorena Cain. She left Atlanta full of enthusiasm and plans for this Annual Session in Kansas City. To lose one of our hostesses throws a pall of sadness over all we attempt here this week. Miss Cain was the efficient secretary of our Christian Education Department; an accomplished Musician upon whom we could depend in a pinch to play the organ, direct, or sing, and she did it all with a smile. We shall miss her, but we know our loss is heaven's gain. She has joined "The Choir Invisible".

I am sure there are other workers or relatives of workers whose names I have not mentioned; so I beseech you to pray for all of our friends who have been bereft of loved ones. I say to each of you in the language of the poet:

*"Somewhere, beyond the Sunset, There we shall find the friends we've loved and lost,
In days of long ago.*

*"Beyond the sunset, O glad reunion with our dear loved ones who've gone before;
In that fair homeland we'll have no parting.
Beyond the sunset forevermore!"*

BOARD MEETINGS HOT SPRINGS

I am deeply indebted to the large group of Directors, Counselors and Workers who attended our planning Conference in Hot Springs during the Mid-Winter Board Meeting. It was the most fruitful Conference we have held.

Much of the success of the meeting was due to the fact that President Ross permitted us to hold our meetings in a separate place and that Director Stanton was influential enough to secure the Pythian Hotel Conference Room for our meeting.

Your loyal sacrifices are paying off at this meeting. We shall expect you to respond to our call for the 1970 Conference in Hot Springs.

MIAMI

During an Executive Board Meeting in Miami, Florida, in June, it was recommended that the Constitution of the Woman's Auxiliary be revised. The revisions which would include the Young People's Department are to be ready for presentation to the Parent Body in the 1970 Hot Springs Board Meeting.

If you have some suggestions for revision of our Department, please submit them to Director Leak or to me.

Two other important actions affecting our department were:

1. That the Young People's Registration and Finance Committees work jointly with the Senior Women under the overall supervision of Vice President Holley. We are carrying out that order in this meeting.
2. That all literature (including the Young People's) be published by the S. S. Publishing Board.

DETROIT

President Ross issued a call to each State Convention to send a representative to Detroit for the purpose of reactivating the Youth Camp and Senior Retreat Board.

I was sent by my Convention, Mississippi General. I also represented the National Youth Department.

All of the National Regional Directors of our Department were placed on the Advisory Board and your National Director was made a member of the Executive Board.

LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

We are happy to report that we held a most successful Leadership Conference at Camp Constantine, June 30-July 5, 1969. Director Rosa Kimp, Dean Fredi Boone, Rev. Granville Smith, Mrs. Thelma Phillips, Mrs. Sula Price, Mrs. Annie Aills, Mrs. Nora Fant, Mrs. Sudie Tatum, Mrs. W. B. Brooks, Mrs. Hattie Drinks and I made up the Administrative and Instructional Staff. Mrs. Anne West served as Dietitian and Cook, and Mrs. Classic Grant Hostess.

President Ross came and worked as hard as the rest of us. She kept our appetites satisfied.

I am sure those leaders who attended will attest to the fact that they have never received so much material and so much information and inspiration for such a small fee in their lives. I know they will do a better job as a result of their attendance. Where Were You? Remember, Leaders, "You cannot lead where you do not go. You can not teach what you do not know."

YOUTH CAMPING PERIOD

Our Youth Camping Period, July 9-16, was one of the best ever. We had 30 campers and 13 adults. We could have had more, if we had had the bed space. The States represented at Camp were: Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Georgia, Mississippi and Texas. Two bus loads of day campers joined us; one came from Illinois and the other from Michigan.

I am grateful to the following persons who worked with me this year and helped to make the Camping experience a wonderful one: Mesdames Davene McKinney, Myra Taylor, Pinkie Reeves, Thelma Phillips, Julia Childs ("Mamma Camp"—the children called her), Rev. Fred Crouther, Nurse Mary Louise Crouther, Camp Director Hattie Drinks, and Dietitian-Cook Anne West. President Ross came and gave us moral support.

For the first time we had to operate Camp without our Camp Chairman, Mrs. Sudie Tatum. We understand she had an accident and was home nursing broken bones. We missed her guidance very much and pray she is fine now.

I should like to pay special tribute to the loyal Texans who came all the way from Texas and made fine contributions to both the spirit and the program of Camp. Mrs. Geneva Brailsford, State Director of Texas B. M. & E. brought her grandson, Audwin Samuels. Mr. Brailsford's daughter, Mrs. Artie Barrett, brought her daughter, Denise. Mrs. Lucille Proctor couldn't come but she sent her daughter, Shirley. While we appreciate the Texas spirit we are not surprised. They do everything "big" in Texas.

Directors, you are letting your Young People down by not helping them attend our National Camp. They receive something there that they can't get from other Camps.

President Ross, who is Chairman of the Camp Board, assures us that work is underway now and that, by Camping time next year, we shall have improved as well as additional facilities. We shall have our own lake and swimming area, riding range, playground area, renovated dormitory, and an all-purpose building with Messhall, Classrooms and Chapel.

We plan to have two weeks of Camping next year, if possible. We hope to have one week for Junior Campers and one week for Young Adult Campers. We need your children and we need some of you to volunteer your services as Counselors. We especially need some male Counselors.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

Another one of my labors of love is work with the Baptist Student Union — the link between the school and the Church. I serve as local Advisor on my college Campus, also, State and National Advisor.

The National Baptist Student Union Retreat was held at Sophia Sutton Mission Assembly in Prentiss, Mississippi, this year. The Retreat was largely attended. Students came from Colleges and Universities all over the Nation. Everyone left singing the praises of the Mississippi hosts. Your National Director was re-elected National Faculty Advisor.

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

Among the many speaking engagements were two I enjoyed very much. The first one was an Address for the Women of Strangers Home Baptist Church of Greenwood, Mississippi. Rev. David Matthews, pastor. The Chairman, Mrs. Bertha Hilton, and Co-Chairman, Miss Minnie Syfax, are not only personal friends, but very loyal workers in our State and National Young People's Department. Many of the State Workers were present. It makes one feel good when homefolk show appreciation for service.

The second engagement which renewed my spirits was an address for the Women of Friendship Baptist Church, Kansas City, Missouri, Rev. I. H. Henderson, Junior, the dynamic Pastor. He is our host pastor for this Convention. Rev. Henderson, a native Mississippian, has done a Herculean job in the 25 years he has been at Friendship. I'm proud to say — I was his teacher at Jackson College in Mississippi. "By their fruits ye shall know them."

I was happy to have Mrs. Carolyn Ealy, Mrs. Odevia Stanton and a group of Sunbeamers, Mrs. Dorothy McLean. Missionary Verlene Farmer and our Red Circle Pianist, Patty Brooks, share the platform with me. There were several other Counselors, Youth Workers and friends in the audience to give me moral support and make me feel at home.

Rev. and Mrs. Henderson and the Chairman and Co-Chairman of Woman's Day were most gracious with their hospitality. They met me at the Airport, and took me to dinner at The Ramada Inn where I lived during my stay. A fellowship Social following the program gave me an opportunity to meet other friends and workers of Missouri and Kansas. I had a chance to discuss preparations for this session. Again I offer my profoundest thanks to Rev. and Mrs. Henderson, Mrs. Byrd and all of the women of Friendship.

LITERATURE

Although we are not entirely satisfied, we do appreciate the fact that you have increased your subscriptions to The Light and The Guide.

You will note we have made some improvements in The Light. We changed the format, increased the size of the print and the book. This necessitated a slight increase in price. We hope you like it better and that you will increase your orders. In fact, I think you should use it simply because it is our very own, even if you don't like it. I want to see you RENEW your circles this year and use our literature to guide you.

We shall be eternally grateful to the contributing editors who helped us start the magazine and those who have gone beyond the call of duty to keep it going. They are: Director Funches, who has made personal sacrifices financially in order to supply the orders; and Editors: Dr. E. J. Stringer, Directors Bea Bates, Romeo Woods ("old faithfuls"), Ora V. Smith, F. C. Green, Sarah Coleman, and Bertha Winston. We now add to this list of "faithfuls" our new Southern Director, Mrs. Ethel Fallin.

We are happy to welcome Mrs. Fallin and her great talent not only to our Department, but to the Editorial Staff of The Light. You will find her lessons on "Renewal" in the new issue on sale at our literature table. Be sure to purchase your copies before you leave.

If you can write, or if you know of a good writer, please contact me. We need writers.

We promised you a magazine for Junior Matrons. Director Leak, who was spearheading this venture, became seriously ill, so it didn't come through. We thank God she is better now and we look forward to the completion of The Matron real soon.

The Red Circle Supervisors are in the process of preparing some steps toward a Red Circle Magazine, or Manual, so we expect them to have it ready soon, also.

Directors, Counselors and Supervisors, I beg you to please order our literature and use it when you conduct Institutes and Workshops.

Our own Mrs. Ora V. Smith of Denver worked as Teacher-Consultant for some Youth Leadership Institutes and Workshops in Mississippi, sponsored by Southern Baptists under the direction of Miss Waudine Storey, and they sold over $300.00 worth of our literature. If Mrs. Smith and Miss Storey can do it, you can, too.

RED CIRCLE DIVISION

We are happy to report that The Red Circle Division which was reactivated last year is in full swing this year. The Supervisors and Officers are to be congratulated for the fine program they have initiated.

If you have not done so, you should enroll your Junior and Senior Red Circles and Juvenile Bands. We expect you to bring the Red Circle and Juvenile Girls to the Sessions. Although we accept enrollment of Sunbeam Bands, we use the local Sunbeams for the Saturday Program.

Remember, you are a "Gold Star State", if you have societies represented in all divisions and you have contributed to all committees and causes.

1969 CONVENTION THEME: "VICTORY THROUGH CHRIST"

"But thanks be to God, which gives us the Victory through our Lord Jesus Christ."

The recent Apollo Moon Mission is considered by President Nixon to be Mankind's greatest victory since creation.

An estimated 600 million person—about one-sixth of the world's population—watched on live television as Neil Armstrong and Buzz Aldrin took their first steps on the moon. It was, according to Neil Armstrong, "One small step for man, a giant leap for mankind." A French scholar put it this way: "Americans reached out and touched the Moon. But it was a victory for the indomitable spirit of every man."

Yes, after a decade of self doubt, the United States emerged as the most technologically and scientifically advanced of all Nations.

I believe the ultimate victory came through our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, because of the great faith and persistent work on the part of scientists, and prayers of Christian believers.

At a time of unease, of domestic problems, of war, this Apollo Mission victory was a great psychological uplift, for the United States. Our leaders know now that other prophecies can be fulfilled. With faith and continual work—together with God—there can be peace on earth and good will toward men.

Like the scientist, to be consistent and triumphant Christians, one must have a faith that is both logical and creative.

Faith is much more than intellectual judgment. It is an attitude of mind and heart which prompts us to act as though our faith were justified and live as though what we believe is true.

I believe our God is one of truth, justice, morals, mercy and love. I believe He is actively allied with every good cause.

I believe our God will support us in our defense of the right and in our defiance of the wrong.

I believe God will give us a David-sized victory over a Goliath-sized opposition.

In Second Samuel the 23rd chapter and 12th verse we read, "But he stood in the midst of the ground and defended it, and slew the Philistines and the Lord wrought a great victory."

Today it is illegal to mismatch boxing opponents. A lightweight is never matched with a heavyweight. But such rules didn't apply for the David-Goliath match. The rules, set by the Philistine giant, were: "Ho, Ho, Ho! Every Israelite is afraid of me. I challenge anyone of them to fight." How embarrassed the giant must have been when he looked down past his broad nose at his puny opponent. You can hear his fellow soldiers tease him with, "What a sissy you've turned out to be, picking on this poor little boy!"

All he could answer was, "He asked for it."

David refused the King's armor because he hadn't tried it. He stayed with the tried-and-sure methods a shepherd boy constantly used in shagging off wild animals. A few smooth stones and a sling-shot—that's all he needed.

Secondly, David committed himself and his cause to God and trusted in divine energy. Such a committal could challenge the shining armor of any giant. One small man with God on his side reduces the stature of a Goliath considerably. In fact, the size ratio was probably reversed.

What do we do when we have Goliath-sized opposition to some program we've developed? Do we demonstrate David-sized bravery? Do we run from the problem by changing our course of action? Do we think of someone else who would make a better giant-fighter?

Perhaps you've decided to meet your problems head-on like David. But you've heard of some worldly-wise method. You're tempted. Suddenly your soul calls you to try two proven methods—prayer and diligent work—methods you've used in time past to overcome lesser problems. You face the battle and come out victorious. What else would you expect once you're convinced "the Lord of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel" is with you. The size of the opposition is immaterial for the man who has David-sized courage and David-sized belief in God. He would conquer regardless of the size of the giant.

Once you're sure that God is with you, you can be confident in the moment of trial and triumph. Making sure of God's presence requires the maturity of manly humility. Do you possess this? If not, don't expect to conquer even the smallest opponents. You're not entitled to victory. He who would make his Goliath fall must not be a novice in either his methods or his faith. Dare to be a David, for you do not stand alone.

*"On every hand the foe we find Drawn up in dread array;
Let tents of ease be left behind,
And onward to the fray.
Salvation's helmet on each head,
With truth all girt about,
The earth shall tremble
'Neath our tread,
And echo with our shout."*

*"Faith is the Victory!
Faith is the Victory!
O glorious victory,
That overcomes the world."*

THE 1969-1970 CONVENTION EMPHASIS IS:

Renewal-

- In our Spiritual Life
- In our Social Life
- In our Stewardship Life

Since the current issue of The Light carries Scriptures, Lessons, etc., on the Emphasis, I shall not discuss it in my report. I sincerely hope you will use the Emphasis in your Societies and seek "Renewal" in all areas of Christian life.

YOUTH REVOLUTION

Some of Today's Youth have become social revolutionists. Their reaction and resentment are exhibited in their dress, behavior, language and life generally. Some of them go to any extremes to show they are against "the establishment", the "status quo".

We are prone to criticize youth and say they are all crazy, but when we seek to find the reason why the Youth of our Country are rejecting society and its institutions we get this answer—"society fails to practice what it preaches—namely, to provide a meaningful, fulfilling and peaceful existence for all people in our Country and throughout the World."

The Black Student Revolutionists say they are determined that the "have nots" will enter the ranks of the "haves".

Young people today question the sincerity of the Church. They say the Church does not practice what it preaches—that it is hypocritical. Those who have left the Church say they will come back when the Church engages in searching inquiry and social action, and when the minister and the laity become involved in today's problems.

Now, I don't presume to draw any conclusion or condone extreme action, but I do know that we as adults are tempted "to tune youth out". But, my friends, we need to listen to them. We know that covering up our eyes and stopping our ears won't stop them, so we had better listen.

I agree with young John D. Rockefeller III that we as "Adults must re-examine our attitudes, our assumptions and our goals. We must be as dedicated as the young people in fighting injustices and improving our laws". "We must bring together our age, experience, money and organization with the energy, idealism and socialism of the young. We must work on the problems together". We must capture the spirit of the Vista slogan: "If you're not part of the solution, you're part of the problem".

I further believe with Dr. Alvin Loving, Professor of Education at the University of Michigan, that by the year 2,000, equality of opportunity will be a way of life. Social justice will be a reality. This will come through quality education coupled with black pride and proper motivation and by de-emphasizing subcultural differences and giving more meaning to a unified American Culture. This must happen if America is to survive as a democratic Nation.

BAPTIST WORLD ALLIANCE

Before we convene again in Annual Session the Baptist World Alliance will meet in Tokyo, July 12-18, 1970. Some of you have been kind enough to express the hope that your National Director will go. Of course, you know "money talks". Do you have any plans in mind by which the money can be raised?

IN APPRECIATION

As we close the 44th Annual Session of our Convention and the eighth year of my administration as National Director, I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart for your loyal cooperation.

I thank God for you individually and collectively. I thank the National Regional Directors — Mesdames Leak, Fallin, Watts, and Miss Funches who have kept the "grass roots" people informed and inspired. Through them the State Directors have been touched and the States have ignited the Locals. So the chain of service has been linked together strongly and I praise the Lord for you Directors.

I wish to thank God, too, for the Dedicated Director and Dean of Christian Education, Mesdames Bates and Woods; I thank Him for each of the instructors; for Grace Burt Taylor, who works so unselfishly to keep a song in our hearts; for other musicians, and for all of the Junior Officers; for the Worship Chairman; for all of the Committee Chairmen; for the Delegates; for the Editor of our Bulletin; for the All States Tea Director; for the Wedding of The Roses Directors; for Luncheon Chairman Phillips; the Directors' Council and President; the Directors' Chain Rally Leaders; for Sunbeam Director Stanton; for Red Circle Directors Ealy and Smith; for Director Warren and our Ushers; for our Camp Director Drinks and her Staff; the Writers for The Light; for the Committee that sells our Literature; the Past Officers' Council who remain loyal despite opposition; for Dr. Funches and the Business and Finance Committee; for the program participants.

I could go on and on like Tennyson's Brook, because I owe so much to so many. If your name has been inadvertently omitted, please know you are thanked, also, and that I love you too, very much.

My sincere thanks are expressed to President Ross and the Seniors for their guidance. I owe humble thanks to my State Director Covington for her love and care through the years.

I owe a special debt of gratitude to the local hostesses of our Convention. You have really lived up to your nickname and shown us what real hospitality can be.

As I close this message I admonish you:

IN EVERY THING GIVE THANKS

*'Mid sunshine, cloud or stormy days,
When hope abounds or care dismays,
When trials press and toils increase
Let not thy faith in God decrease—
"In every thing give thanks."*

*All things we know shall work for good,
Nor would we change them if we could;
'Tis well if only He commands;
His promises will ever stand—
"In every thing give thanks."*

*He satisfies the longing heart,
He thwarts the tempter's cruel dart,
With goodness fills the hungry soul,
And helps us sing when billows roll.
"In every thing give thanks."*

I pray God's richest blessings may fall upon you.
Please continue to pray for me.

Respectfully submitted,

CHANGED

*Time was, I shrunk from what was right,
From fear of what was wrong;
I would not brave the sacred fight,
Because the foe was strong.
But now I cast that finer sense
And sorer shame aside;
Such dread of sin was indolence,
Such aim at Heaven was pride.*

GREETINGS

President Ross, Officers of the Women's Convention, Directors Barron, Leek, Fallon and Walls, Field Workers, Directors of States, Officers of the Young People's Department.

As we come to the close of another year working in Service to Young People, we pause, to thank God for His many blessings bestowed upon us. During the past year we have had many new experiences. We have put forth a special effort at all times to work in cooperation with the Women's Convention, realizing that the Young People's Organization is a department of the Women's Convention, and if it is to be reorganized it must be done and approved by the Women's Convention.

I was surprised when we met in Hot Springs, Arkansas to find a group trying to reorganize the Young People's Department with a request that they become a part of the parent body. Out of the 33 years of service, I have given to the Young People's Department, more than a quarter of a century, I have never witnessed such an occasion as that.

The National and Regional Directors of the Young People's Department are officers of the Women's Convention and are elected by the Women's Convention and no other group have power to elect them. The State Directors are elected by the State Conventions and they are to support the work of the Young People's Department.

The Officers of the Young People's Department representing all groups are to serve two years only. The reason for rotating is to give all young people a chance. I sincerely hope that the regional directors will assist in the distribution of literature and promotion of the entire department. We have grown from holding meetings in one basement room with 15 or 20 delegates to more than 500 delegates and over 300 State, District and Local directors.

We realize in this Moon age there must be change but we believe that the people elected by their states as Directors are fully capable of helping the National Directors perfect a better organization; in other words, no one has a right to be working officially in a department that does not represent a state and a church. No one has a right to an elected office whose church is not represented in the National Baptist Convention.

IN MEMORIAM

Since we last met death has invaded our ranks and we lost one of our most effective State Directors. Mrs. Dorena Cain, who was also Secretary to the YWCA in Kansas City, Kansas, Secretary to the Educational Department of the Young People and organist for the First Baptist Church, Kansas City, Kansas, Dr. E. A. Freeman, Pastor.

Dr. S. D. Ross, the astute pastor of the Shiloh Baptist Church, Detroit, Michigan, the husband of our beloved President, Dr. Mary O. Ross.

Dr. Owen D. Pelt, the Historiographer and pastor of the Shiloh Baptist Church in Chicago, Illinois and President of the General Baptist State Convention of Illinois. He was also State Representative for the State of Illinois.

*Out of the pain of night-watching removed
Into the sleep that God gives His beloved,
Into the dawn of a glad resurrection,
Into the house of unbroken affection,
Into the joy of her Lord—Thence confessing
Death in disguise in His angel in blessing.*

In these past 12 months the world has witnessed by television, man stepping on the Moon. Now the scientists are looking at pictures of Mars sent back by man launched television equipped spacecraft. Man has accomplished all these fine engineering feats but has not found the secret of living in peace with his fellow man. If man's conquering of outer space could be a beginning to make mankind conquer some of its flaws, then humanity would be greatly enhanced.

Challenge, Change and Conquest of this new era of life is forcing the brave and courageous person to renew his faith in the principle. You give your life away, and behold a richer life comes back to you. You will find yourself growing stronger physically, mentally, socially and spiritually.

Jesus Christ was a working man. He worked with mankind. The desire to begin over again is one of those longings so common to man. The temper of life is to be made good by big, honest blows; stop striking blows and you accomplish nothing.

We must renew our spiritual life to give us strength to look for new approaches to the colossal problems that face us today. The Christian people of today must be disciples of courage, love persistent in their search for truth and ever ready to respond to do God's work. God, your friend is with you, offering every good thing to you!

The current trends of critical issues and how society responds to these areas means that people must be stimulated to renew their efforts to make this social-urban world, one based on the principle of brotherhood. The changes that we face today have come about so fast. In dealing with the change and challenges of today we must always aim at those things that bring peace, and that help to strengthen one another. Everyone must obey the state authorities; for no authority exists without God's permission, and the existing authorities have been put there by God. Thus it is that major participation in all facets of American society is truly one way to accomplish the true ideal of democracy.

We who are strong in faith ought to help the weak to carry their burden. Each of us must renew our stewardship to proclaim fully the Good News about Christ. As the Scriptures say, "Those who were not told about him will see, and those who have not heard will understand." It is our obligation to help the poor, give comfort to the sick, watch out for those who cause divisions and diversions and upset people's faith.

Let us give Glory to God! He is able to make us stand firm in our faith. Your faith, then does not rest on man's wisdom—but on God's power. Using the gift that God gave you, work and stir the springs of justice, and men will go to cleanse iniquities and right wrongs.

This is how I truly feel about life. I believe in my job. It may not be a very important job, but it is mine. Furthermore, it is God's job, for me. He has a purpose in my life with reference to His plan for the world's progress. No other fellow can take my place. It isn't a big place, to be sure, but for years I have been molded in a special way to fill a peculiar niche in the world's work. I could take no other woman's place. She has the same claim as a specialist that I make for myself. In the end that woman whose name was never heard beyond the house in which she stayed, or the shop in which she worked may have a larger place than the person whose name has been a household word in two continents. Yes, I believe in my church. May it be kept true to the task which lies before it—true to myself and to God, who entrusted me with it.

I believe there should be no jealousy in one's heart toward his fellow man. I know what it is to be misunderstood and I know what it is to be criticized.

I know what it is to be misused and accused wrongfully. I know what it is to be loyal and receive disloyalty. I've never sought vengeance because the Scriptures say "Vengeance is mine and I shall repay."

Chapter 40 of Isaiah verses 28-31 also says, "Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the Lord, the Creator of the ends of the earth, faileth not, neither is weary? there is no searching of his understanding. He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength. Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall: But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength: they shall mount up with wings as eagles: they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk and not be faint."

I believe in my fellow men. They may not always agree with me. I'd feel sorry for them if they did, because I myself do not believe some of the things that were absolutely sure in my own mind a dozen years ago. May my fellow men never lose faith in themselves, because if they do, they may lose faith in me, and that would hurt them more than it would hurt me.

I believe in my country. I believe in it because it is made up of my fellow men and myself. I can't go back on either of us and be true to my creed. If it isn't the best country in the world it is partly because I am not the kind of person that I should be.

I believe in my home. It isn't a rich home. It wouldn't satisfy some folks, but it contains jewels which cannot be purchased in the markets of the world for me. When I enter its secret chambers, and shut out the world with its care, I am a lord. It's motto is Service, and its reward Love. There is no other spot in all the world which fills its place, and heaven can be only a larger home, with a Father who is all wise and patient and tender.

I believe in today. It is all that I possess. The past is of value only as it can make the life of today fuller and freer. There is no assurance of tomorrow. I must make good today!

*To keep my health. . . To do my work. . . To live!
To see to it I grow, and gain, and give.
Never to look behind me for an hour.
To wait in meekness and to walk in power.
But always fronting onward toward the right;
Always and always facing toward the light.
Robbed, starved, defeated, fallen, wide astray.
On with what strength I have, back to the Way!*

Respectfully yours,
Dr. Primrose Funches

THIRD ANNUAL REPORT OF
MRS. TINY K. LEAK, Eastern Director
 Young People's Department of the Women's Convention Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc.
 Submitted in Kansas City, Missouri, September, 1969

Let Us Pray—

Heavenly Father, guard with Thy Care those who devote their lives to Thee in the Mission field. Cheer them in loneliness, be near them in fever and sickness, uphold them in temptation, comfort them in sorrow and weariness, and fill them with joy amid all their work. Give them courage to obey the truth as it is revealed, the assurance that at the end of the journey Thou wilt be waiting there, for the sake of Jesus Christ Thy Son, our Lord. Amen.

President Ross, Officers, Members of the Executive Board of the Women's Convention, Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., Director Barron, Regional Directors, State and Local Youth Directors, Officers, Delegates and Friends of the National Baptist Young People's Department: Greeting!

Records show that the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., has convened in Kansas City, Missouri five times in its history. Situated on the right bank of the Missouri river, opposite Kansas City, Kansas. With that city, it has become an important junction for trans-continental train, bus, and airplane travel. Being the second largest city in the state, its chief industries has made it a very progressive city, with beautiful residential sections, unusual park system, art galleries, many educational institutions and a council manager type of government.

We are grateful to our Baptist Hosts for this fifth invitation to return here. We feel very privileged to be able to share in your affluence. We praise God for this experience in Christian fellowship.

MEMORIUM

*One sweetly solemn thought
 Comes to me o'er and o'er;
 Nearer my home today am I
 Than e'er I've been before.
 Nearer My Father's house,
 Where many mansions be,
 Nearer today, the great white throne.*

*Nearer the crystal sea,
 Nearer the bound of life,
 Where burdens are laid down;
 Nearer to leave the heavy cross,
 Nearer to gain the crown,
 Father, perfect my trust!
 Strengthen my power of faith!
 Nor let me stand, at last, alone
 Upon the shore of death!*

We quote the above lines in memory of all those who have departed this life and embraced eternity. The State of Missouri, the Mid-West and Baptists over the Nation will not soon forget our beloved worker—Dorena Cain. Mrs. Carolyn Ealy must surely exemplify the faith that belongs to each of us in our moments of sorrow. Her devoted husband was also called to rest last spring. We offer a prayer of faith for Rev. Henry Houston, President of the Baptist Convention of D. C. and Vicinity whose brother was called to his reward, and for our friends everywhere we continue to pray that faith in times like these will sustain them. The loss of the husband of our esteemed President, Mrs. Mary O. Ross, was keenly felt by friends the world over. From the day our plane departed from Detroit, last September, we have constantly asked our Father to allow the passing of Rev. S. D. Ross be used to His glory in the life of his devoted wife and family. To our great joy in Hot Springs we witnessed an answer to our prayers when the assembly heard President Ross say with great Christian dignity, "the Lord has revealed Himself to me as never before, and all of my tomorrows will be dedicated to His glory."

ACTIVITIES

The District Federation of Young People, Auxiliary to the Woman's Auxiliary to the Baptist Convention of D. C. and Vicinity presented its annual convention echoes and during a special installation service presented to the Woman's Auxiliary the officers of the Young People's Department. The significance being a giant step in the integration of the work of the young people's work with the program of the Woman's Auxiliary.

The Executive Board Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to the New England Missionary Baptist Convention was held December 5, 1968 in Newark, New Jersey. Our attendance there was gratifying. Plans for the young people's department were submitted by us in the absence of our Director Mrs. Bertha C. Winston and unanimously endorsed by the Women's Board.

In January 1969 we attended the Mid-Winter Board Meeting of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., in Hot Springs, Arkansas. To support the efforts of Director Barron, workers from many states came in large numbers, using all available modes of transportation. We assembled in the Pythian Temple with a spirit of togetherness prevailing. Deep concerned for the progressive growth of our National Young People's Department seemed to have been on the hearts and minds of all who were present. Presented to some and introduced to others was our newly elected Southern Director, Mrs. Ethel T. Fallin of Birmingham, Alabama, along with others who were first time visitors to the Annual Mid-Winter session of the Executive Board.

Planning for the Annual Youth Conference and Workshop, sponsored by the Youth Department of the New England Missionary Baptist Convention was to become difficult for us as nature seemed to bring a prolonged period of illness upon us. The Young People's Board, meeting in Brooklyn, New York on January 18, 1969 had served its purpose in constructive planning for our services to be rendered in Baltimore, Maryland, and so through prayer, we decided that physical infirmities would not altogether prohibit our work. We solicited help from as many sources as possible and from our hospital bed, we gave "thanks" upon receiving word from Director Winston that six hundred and fifty persons enrolled in the Workshop, held at Wayland Baptist Church, Baltimore, Maryland—Rev. W. W. Payne is pastor. This was the most successful workshop ever held by our department. In this modern, well equipped sanctuary and educational plant, we reflect with joy that twelve pastors shared the experience eight ministers' wives added to its richness, and there in positions of leadership were Mrs. Hazel Baskerville Nelson, Regional Director, Pennsylvania State Baptist Convention, and Ex-National Director, Progressive Youth, Rev. Reginald Mercer, Pastor of 8th Street Baptist Church, Wilmington, Delaware delivered the keynote address, using the timely title, "Do Your Thing." We shall continue to ask God's guidance for the many youths in our Eastern Region, as we shall wish for even greater progress in the future.

We were invited to serve the Matrons of Indiana General Baptist State Convention, by Director Elsie Warren, at the Annual Matrons Day Services held in Fort Wayne, Indiana. President Mrs. Fannie Therp Dudley made us comfortable in her lovely home. The fellowship was most rewarding for this Director. Supporters from many areas of the State were among those we were privileged to greet at the Saint John Baptist Church.

We are also grateful to Mrs. Emma O. Johnson, President of the Martin Luther King, Jr. Baptist State Convention of Indiana, Women's Auxiliary, for giving me the opportunity to offer the message to the High School Graduates of the local fellowship of the Christ Missionary Baptist Church, Indianapolis, Indiana. It was an inspiration to discover that under the Missionary leadership of Mrs. Johnson, the "La Maison de Duexieme Chance" (House of A Second Chance) for inmates from Women's Prison had been established, and was functioning with all age levels of the church involved. Won't you please pray for all who seek a "second chance" in the name of Jesus?

We were blessed in the Annual Session of the Women's Auxiliary of the New England Missionary Baptist Missionary Convention, held in Newark, New Jersey, June 1969. It is physically impossible for us throughout these vast New England States, as a Body of Baptist Youth to worship, fellowship and share experiences together as we desire. However, with the cooperation of our fine dedicated workers in all of our States we can proudly say that our Young People are second to none in ability and performance. Director Winston's influence follows us so closely that we never lose sight of our direction in trying to reach our goals. We have Mrs. Ruth Wells, President of Matrons Division, N.E.M.B.C., Young People, to personally thank her for her untiring support during our confinement. There are numerous others, whose names should appear in print, but we must apologize for lack of space and for the possibility of an oversight in not remembering everyone, yet with all sincerity we are full of gratitude and wish to express our thanks to each individual. "Youth Night" was in our estimation the highlight of the Convention. The memorial services was a moving tribute to Mrs. Elizabeth Thomas, former president now deceased, followed by an evening of spiritual enrichment in song and sermon will not soon be forgotten.

We are grateful to all of our Local Directors for "bringing" their young people and youth choirs, by the bus loads to participate in "their program."

NEW BODY

We ask you to welcome the New Young People's Department of the Mt. Bethel Baptist Association of D. C., and Vicinity. This enrollment will mark significant growth in our area.

We commend the Pennsylvania Baptist State Convention for showing such "concern" for its young people that a new department under the heading of "The Young Men and Women's Division" has been created. This is a liaison group serving to bridge the "generation gap" between the youth and elderly of the Convention. Mrs. Ruth Wells of Philadelphia is its President. To our knowledge this is a "first" for her, but it is widely known that in God's vineyard there is no finer young woman in Christian service and we wish for her every success.

Mrs. Mary Hackney of Buffalo, New York, President of the Empire State Baptist Women's Auxiliary is the newly elected President of the New England Missionary Baptist Convention Auxiliary. She has already embraced our work in the Eastern Region, and has arranged for representation in this Annual Session of our Young People's Department.

We take this opportunity to express our thanks to several Directors in the East for informing us of local activities. We encourage each of you to do this. Keeping the Regional Directors and our National Director informed is a welcomed practice. It is our desire to have a calendar on each State Convention meeting for reference. We would appreciate this consideration.

August 31, 1969, God willing, we will be in prayerful observation of the 71st Anniversary of the Woman's Missionary Union at the Pleasant Green Baptist Church, Kansas City, Missouri, Rev. Gerald Schiele, Pastor and our own dynamic Mrs. Carolyn Ealy, hostess.

This segment of this report will not be complete without acknowledging the splendid cooperation of the workers in our own State Convention of D. C., and Vicinity, Miss Violet M. Ankrum, President. Her leadership has been an inspiration to each of us in the Nation's Capitol. As we serve we will do well to emulate her actions. The local youth hold her in high esteem and the local directors are quick to attribute her commendable work to her pleasant, Christian manner. We salute, President Ankrum and the Officers of the Woman's Auxiliary of D. C. and Vicinity.

"VICTORY THROUGH CHRIST"

WHEN IF NOT NOW?

WHERE IF NOT HERE?

WHO IF NOT ME?

In times like these, a personal attitude towards the fulfillment of our Christian commitment should be foremost in the hearts of all who ask the Master to assist them in rendering a positive service in our society. Chicago's Jane Addams, asked repeatedly the three questions above.

To plunge more deeply into God's work, we must develop a "personal" desire to examine our thoughts constantly. WHEN should be NOW-TODAY. Whatever opportunity for service the day affords should not be pushed ahead but prayerfully given each day's energies. Luke 4:21 reads, "Today this Scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing." Christians are held accountable for each day as it presents itself. Serve your fellowman in His name NOW, TODAY! Where is the best place to render service? Anywhere we find a need for Christian Ministry. In order to fulfill Luke 4:21 we ought to declare our willingness to serve without the boundaries of prejudice. "Go ye therefore and teach all nations baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world." Without baptized believers, Christ, has not feet but ours, no hands but ours, no voice to speak His praise but ours; Consequently, it goes with saying that, we are the only ones who can tell the story of salvation.

A personal commitment then, would increase the belief that God's grace is sufficient for each of us to give ourselves to individual service. We don't know but that God called each of us to be His witness for such an hour as this, to be a fulfillment of His word.

Let every concerned Christian take personal interest in our young people. There are many young people with problems but none of them are problems themselves. Be reminded that man achieves greatness only when he reaches beyond himself to help others. Make a personal effort to awaken men and woman to an awareness of the breadth and depth of all the social injustice in the world and offer a new ministry that will be "with" our youth instead of "for" our youth. Let "Victory Through Christ" come with more emphasis on "Spiritual Renewal" in our lives. Invite the spirit of Christ to be a part of our social life, as well as our stewardship.

My Thanks

People everywhere in life—from every walk and station,
From every town and city and every state and nation
Have given me so many things, intangible and dear,
I couldn't begin to count them all or even make them clear. . .
I only know I owe so much to people everywhere
And when I put my-thoughts in verse it's just a way to share
The musings of a "thankful heart"
A heart much like your own,
For nothing that I think or write is mine and mine alone. . .
So . . . if you found some beauty in any word or line,
It's just "your Soul's Reflection in Proximity With Mine."

FIRST ANNUAL REPORT

of Mrs. Ethel T. Fallon

Southern Director of the Young People's Department of the Women's Convention Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention U.S.A., Inc.
 Submitted September 1969 in Kansas City, Missouri

President Ross, Officers and Members of the Woman's Convention, Auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Incorporated, Director Barron, Regional Directors, State and Local Youth Directors, Officers, Delegates and Friends of the National Baptist Young People's Department.

We greet you in a deep sense of humility. As I stand before you to make my first Annual Progress report as your newly elected Southern Director, I must admit that I am filled to the overflowing with mixed emotions; a little pride for I know that some abstract and concrete accomplishments have been made; a little humility for the confidence you had in electing me as your Southern Director. Then, there is a feeling of apprehension for I realize and recognize that there is much work to be done.

I am extremely grateful in many personalities for encouragement, information and inspiration as I endeavored to push out in an expanded territory. Just to see and hear our National President, Dr. Mary O. Ross, in her Christian mannerism will make one say, "Here am I, Lord, send me." The admiration I have for her methods of one way into my inner life by her elevating ideas and ideals. Mrs. A. M. Wilson, President of the Alabama Baptist Woman's State Convention, has assisted me greatly with her advice and kindness. She has meant much to my life. Mrs. J. S. Saunders has told me what to do, how to do it and when to do it. Her influence and inspiration has been invaluable. I shall ever be grateful to Director Barron who did not fail to give me information when I needed it. I shall always admire Correne Watts for her helpfulness. Tiny Leak, the Eastern Director has shown kindness in many respects. She has a Christian attitude. Primrose Funches, the Western Director has given many helpful suggestions, to her I shall be ever thankful.

I am deeply aware of the tremendous challenge involved in my new position. However, I consider it a great honor despite the heavy responsibilities. Gladly I am facing it with joy because I know God is on my side. Understandingly, trials, disappointments and tribulations will surely come, but with God I shall not fail nor falter. I shall draw strength from your power, facts from your knowledge and guidance from the everlasting arms of JESUS.

KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI

We are elated to be in Missouri, the "Show Me State." This term is usually traced to a speech made at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania in 1899 by W. D. Vandiver, a Missouri Congressman. In his talk Vandiver said: "I'm from Missouri, and you have got to show me." Again we are glad to be here because of the past history of this great State. Throughout Missouri's history its central position among the states has greatly influenced the social and economic life of its people. Its request for admission as a state brought on the famous Missouri Compromise of 1820. As the United States expanded westward Missouri served as a Natural gateway to Santa Fe, New Mexico, Oregon and California. In the Civil War it was a "border state," loyal to the Union although it held slaves. Missouri has developed its recreational resources until now the tourist business is one of the leading industries in the state.

We thank you for inviting us here under this beautiful atmosphere of cordiality to share with one another the way of the cross.

IN MEMORIAM

There is a land of pure delight,
 Where saints immortal reign,
 Eternal day excludes the night,
 And pleasures banish pain,
 There everlastings Spring abides,
 And never fading flowers,
 Death like a narrow sea divides
 That Heavenly land from ours.

We pause at this moment to mention those who since our last meeting have been invited to cross the chilly stream and surrender their places in this earth in the Southern Region. Some names I have and some I do not, therefore I will not list any. They are now sleeping in that eternal City where the walls are untarnished by the touch of time and where the gates always stand ajar to welcome the tired and weary.

For what is your life? It is even a vapour that appeareth for a little time and then vanisheth away. One writer describes life as a journey. Shakespeare thought of it as a drama. Burke calls it a shadow. Job said, "Now my days are swifter than a post."

McCreary says, "There is no death. The stars go down to rise upon some other shore." These individuals were not perfect, but God gave them to earth for the time and period in which they served. They were the personification of a new era. They were unparalleled for one great hour. No other individual could have done what they did at the time they did it, but when their work was done they slipped away. They are now sleeping in that beautiful City. Dr. D. L. Moody asserts that "It is a city without tears, a city without pain, without sorrow, without sickness or death. A City where temptation cannot come. . . . A City that is not built by hand. A City which glories in having JESUS as its King and whose citizens are saints."

ACTIVITIES

I am deeply appreciative to God and you for the opportunity to serve. It is my prayer, my desire and aim to serve you with dignity and efficiency.

Since my election to this position I have spent much time with God, because a moment spent with God restores the insight that I need. A moment spent with God will prevent a hateful word or deed. A moment spent with God can turn profound despair to hope. A moment spent with God will change defeat to victory.

I have had the opportunity to visit and speak to many and varied groups of young people. However, many of my inner commitments were cancelled because of conflicting dates. We are grateful for the cooperation of all who followed through with plans on both state and local levels. Thanks to Mrs. F. C. Green of Texas, Mrs. Annie Mae Thomas of Arkansas, Mrs. Covington of Mississippi, leaders of Kentucky, West Virginia and many others whose names are too numerous to mention for keeping me informed of the work that is being done in the name of our Master in their respective areas.

Among the new opportunities granted me since my election were sharing with a group of inmates in a state prison, unwedded mothers and a group of deprived boys and girls in various sections of Alabama. This experience was heart-touching to me, but satisfying.

At the annual Mid-Winter Board Meeting of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc., it was our salient honor to represent our undaunted President and members of the board of directors in a response to the heartfelt "welcome" extended by the Women of Arkansas. In April 1969 it was my happy privilege to attend the meeting of the Board of Directors of our National Camp which was held

In Detroit, Michigan. This meeting inspired me to do a more courageous job for God after listening to the dream of our National President. At the close of the meeting we were carried to the beautiful home of our President for a delectable dinner. In this meeting Dr. Ross demonstrated her Dedication to God through her philanthropic expressions.

EXPLORATION

We know many stood in amazement during the month of July when men planted their footprints on the moon. We prayed for this endeavor, yet we remind men not to forget the foot prints of JESUS.

YOUTH EXTREMISM

I had lunch the other month with a young lady who graduated last June from one of the Seven Sisters Colleges. A Woman's College with high scholastic standards and a reputation all through the civilized world. From this prestigious institution she had been graduated Cum Laude. She had won an impressive array of scholarships, a coveted honorary fellowship and a number of prizes for scholastic and literary achievement. Upon graduation, she had stepped effortlessly into an exciting job with one of great American News organizations. She was an attractive young woman, poised, personable, tastefully dressed, articulate, interested and interesting. Yet she was demoralized. As our conversation progressed, as I got behind the polished veneer of her mind, it became painfully apparent that this deluxe product of a deluxe university was dispirited and, in a way confused—that she was without a sense of direction and purpose. She was grasping for a sense of values and a set of standards that were making her an incomplete human being. And I said to myself is this young woman typical of the best that our best American Universities can produce? I hope not. But I rather suspect she might be. If so, the conclusion is inescapable: there must be something wrong somewhere in our Country's educational environment: not the schools alone, but also the home, the Church, the clubs, youth groups and the news media which shape the minds and hearts of our young people.

Illicit sex among young people is not commonplace. Juvenile delinquency is on the rise. On the college campuses, the emphasis seems to be more and more on marks and degrees and less and less on learning. The use of drugs has reached an epidemic proportion. Among our youth, there is more and more disrespect for parents, teachers and authority, the values that made our country great. We must face the facts, ugly as they might be. We have let our young people down. We have failed them. We have not measured up to our responsibilities. For it is self-evident that if they are prone to excesses, if they are without sane guidelines, sensible codes, worthy standards, then the responsibility is ours. They are the products of an environment which we have created.

I think it would be pointless for me to dwell at any length on the many and varied factors that are contributing to the unrest among our youth today (too many). But to sum up, the resolution of today's crisis in American life one must begin with each individual.

RENEWAL

"Create within us a clean heart O God and renew the right spirit for days like these."

The empty tomb is the gateway to the new lamp-lighted City of God. This new city will have no need of the sun, neither of the moon to shine in it. For the glory of God will lighten it.

Once when I was trying to find my new way on a dark night, when clouds shut out all light of the moon and stars, I looked up, and there through the opening between the trees that lined the mountains road was a path of light. I found my way from this new light. To grope in the darkness of human speculation, materialistic philosophy is to go deeper into the darkness, to look up in to find the new light that never fails.

Some authors state we are living in a new era. One thing certain and sure, every sincere Christian is aware that something wrong or strange is happening to this nation. We are pleading with each of us to renew our action, renew our thinking because these are great days and they call for great courage and self-denial.

One day in the garden of Gethsemane Jesus' words threw light on the agony of the cross. He submitted His will to the will of God. He was willing to sacrifice. Listen to Him: In the garden I am He, at court He offered no defense. En route to Calvary He bore His own cross. On the cross He was silent. Are we willing today to renew our whole complex in order that we may carry this kingdom home to God.
