TASK FORCE FOR RELOCATION OF THE CONFERENCE OFFICE:

Mr. Steve McCarroll, Chair, brought the report, reminding the conference that the task force had concluded that Montgomery was the best location for our Conference offices, and moving that this report be approved by the conference. Both Huntingdon College and Dexter Avenue UMC have offered property. The task force has continued to analyze the offers, and they discovered that the initial Huntingdon proposal was not feasible due to parking issues. Huntingdon College then offered Massey Hall, and it had determined the cost to renovate would be $2.3 million. The task force then reconsidered the Dexter Avenue UMC site. The cost would be a monthly lease expense, which is yet to be determined. The task force then approached Huntingdon again for another property possibility and determined a new building could be built for $1,625,000. The major costs are the one time cost of moving the offices from Andalusia to Montgomery at $60,000. In addition there would be savings in the consolidation of offices and the savings that would be $67,800. The sale of the assets in Andalusia would generate $300,000 - $400,000. Mr. McCarroll stated the Bishop felt that funds could be raised from individual sources rather than a financial campaign. This would not negatively impact apportionments or the conference budget. The task force is waiting on more information from Dexter Avenue UMC. Bishop Goodpaster called attention to the hand-out in the delegate's packets. Rev. Michael Pearson, Phenix City 1st UMC asked if the move was contingent upon the sale of the Andalusia property. Mr. McCarroll responded that it was not. Rev. Gary Daniel, 1st UMC Brewton, questioned the cost of a housing allowance in Montgomery. Rev. Bobby Ellisor, St. Paul UMC, Gulf Breeze, spoke raising a question about the reason for moving the conference office. Mr. McCarroll clarified that the issue was no longer centrality but that we would realize a savings by having the conference staff in one location. Dr. Karl Stegall, Montgomery 1st UMC, spoke to the benefits of selecting Dexter Avenue UMC.

Mr. John Sherrer, a Jurisdictional Delegate and member of Church Street UMC, Selma, made a motion to table the report, in light of the fact that detailed information regarding cost, location, housing allowances, travel expenses and plans for the disposal of property in Andalusia had not been presented to the Conference. It was seconded by Mr. Dwight Adams. The motion failed. Rev. Libba Stinson spoke to the impact a move would have on the conference staff, and the answer is that this is uncertain. Mr. Frank Dunnewind noted we would possibly lose some support staff. Mr. Howard Porter, Auburn UMC, asked that an office park location in Montgomery be considered. Mr. McCarroll stated 12,000 square feet will be needed, and the task force has considered that option and will continue to consider all the issues. Mr. Hank Alexander, Foley UMC, asked if the Pensacola staff would also be included in a move to Montgomery. The Bishop and Rev. Libba Stinson both agreed that eventually, all six offices would be brought together in one location. Dr. Herb Sadler offered an amendment. The amendment is that the task force make a final recommendation to the 2006 Alabama West Florida Annual Conference. It was seconded. Dr. Sadler stated the task force has done a good job, but he felt they have yet to finish their work because they have as yet to determine how much money will be needed and where it will come from. Rev. Jim Meadows, Linden UMC, spoke for the amendment. Mr. Lance Limcool, Celebration UMC, spoke against the amendment. Mr. Billy Joe Rish, Port St. Joe UMC, spoke for the amendment. Rev. Danny Morris, Millbrook 1st UMC, spoke against the amendment. Dr. John Thomas, retired, spoke for the amendment. Mr. Robert Powell, delegate at large, spoke against the amendment. A vote was taken and the amendment failed. Rev. Keron Vickers, Blue Lake, asked for clarification about the acceptance of this report. Mr. Carroll clarified. Rev. Neil Epler, Kingswood UMC, spoke against the report and asked the task force to consider the possibility of either moving the conference staff closer to the Gulf Coast due to growth, or dispersing the conference staff to various locations. Mrs. Linda Sherrie, UMW, spoke for the report and commented to the visibility of the United Methodist conference staff being located across from the state capital. Mr. Henry Willis, Fairview UMC, spoke against the report. Mr. Dale Segrest, Tallassee UMC, asked for clarification about funding. Rev. Doug Newton, Atmore 1st UMC, called for the report to be accepted. The question was called, a vote was taken, and the report of the Task Force to move the conference offices to Montgomery and do further investigation on a location in that city was approved and accepted. (See Section XI, G, in this Journal for a complete text of the Task Force's motion.)

CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES:

Mr. Alan Livingston, Chair, brought the report for the Conference Board of Trustees and it was adopted.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS AND PETITIONS:

Dr. Gerald Shelton, Chair, brought the report, noting the committee did not support the language used in the resolution brought by the conference United Methodist Youth on page 183 of the Brochure of Reports, since it called for a boycott and was in violation of the Book of Discipline's standards for implementing a boycott. Mrs. Jeni Lee, Conference Staff, spoke to the language used in the petition and stated it was intended to ask people to simply consider, rather than direct them to, a boycott. Rev. Neil Epler, Kingswood UMC, moved to amend the language to reflect that intention. Dr. Shelton stated the committee did not concur. Dr. Paul Wolfe, Ashland Place UMC, spoke against the amendment. Mr. Phillip Segrest, UMM, spoke for the amendment. Mr. Mark Shafer, Dothan UMC, spoke for the amendment. Bishop Goodpaster ruled the Epler amendment to re-word was out of order because the matter would still be, technically, in violation of the Discipline.

Mr. Dennis Brisolaro, 1st UMC Marianna, FL, suggested that the resolution be amended to constitute simply a "parental advisory." Mr. Woods Lisenby, youth delegate from 1st UMC, Dothan, moved that a line be added that states we support companies that provide positive body images. It was approved. Rev. Ronnie Bearden, Rosinton UMC, asked for clarification of where the conference was in the process of adopting this resolution. Bishop Goodpaster clarified. Rev. Rob Gullede, Government Street UMC, spoke for the amendment and affirmed the work of the youth delegates. The resolution was adopted as amended. Dr. Sheldon stated the committee supported the work of the youth and the committee concurs with the amendment. Mr. Woods Lisenby, youth delegate from 1st UMC Dothan announced the youth delegates have written an eight-week Bible study based upon their resolution and it is available to those who would like to have it. (See Section XI, G, of this Journal for a complete text of this resolution as amended.)

BAYPINES DISTRICT LEADERSHIP COUNCIL

With the restructuring of district lines at Annual Conference in 2004, the Baypines District has taken on a significant change in geographical identity. This first year within our new boundaries, we have spent much of our energy determining how to be in ministry together. That vision is evolving even as we continue the work that was already a vital part of our missional emphasis.

We are grateful to the District Trustees for their tireless efforts in obtaining a new district office and renovating it. Our District office is now located at 301 E. 3rd Street in Bay Minette.

On Sunday, December 19, 2004 the Daybreak United Methodist Church held its first worship service in Elberta, Alabama. Under the direction and leadership of the Rev. Nancy Warner, the new church is continuing to grow. It is now holding weekly worship services in the Library of the Mifflin Elementary School.

Our Leadership Intensive Training Event (LITE) was held in two locations in January with 166 people in attendance. Our District Conference was held in conjunction with each of those events. The District Conference amended the 2005 District Administration Fund to $66,042.00 and passed the 2006 budget for $75,000.00. The District Mission Fund remained at $35,000.00 for 2005 and $40,000.00 for 2006.

The Committee on Global Ministry is involved in several ongoing ministries. Bay Minette UMC and Lillian UMC held fund raisers for the Henderson Settlement. St. Paul UMC and Daphne UMC sent work teams and we continue to promote the Settlement throughout the district. Our San Pedro Hispanic Ministries, under the leadership of Enrique Escobar, is continuing to reach out into the Hispanic community with weekly services. They are planning a weekend Mission Expo at the Foley Civic Center in June. Our "Little Seeds of God Day Care Center" building in Ecuador is complete with several mission teams from our district going for a week of work this summer.

The Baypines District has undertaken to build another Habitat for Humanity house in the year 2005. Fund raising is going on now. We need to raise $38,000.00 by the end of July. Fifteen district churches have committed to participate in this project. Our building event is set to begin in September.

Our United Methodist Women led a Mission Sampler during our Leadership Training Event in January. They held a Mother-Daughter Event at Bay Minette on April 30th and are planning a Day Apart for later in the year.

United Methodist Men are committed to re-energizing United Methodist Men units in our local churches. Plans are underway for a rally in our district later this year to highlight the work of United Methodist Men.

Volunteers in Mission continues to be a vital part of our connectional ministry. This year with the arrival of Hurricane Ivan, our district (as well as most of our conference) has experienced being on the receiving end of Volunteers In Mission and Disaster Relief Teams. Atmore UMC has hosted over 75 work teams working on 183 houses and 6 churches. Gulf Shores UMC has had over 600 volunteers completing 300+ jobs and 5 complete rebuilds of houses. Over the rest of our district, Disaster Relief and VIM Teams have completed 148+ jobs ranging from debris removal to house repair. That is a total of 631 jobs in our district alone. Teams from other United Methodist Churches in our District and Conference, as well as teams from more than 20 other states including New York, Minnesota, Michigan, Colorado have come to help us and our neighbors. These teams have worked out of, East Brewton, Brewton First, Cedar Hills, Evergreen, Frisco City, Uriah and Excel United Methodist Churches.

Hurricane Ivan reminded us graphically that the work of the church is to be in ministry wherever there is need. Individuals and local churches throughout our district have opened their doors, their arms and their resources to help neighbors and strangers put homes and lives back together again. We were humbled by the fury of Ivan but we are strengthened and renewed by the tremendous outpouring of Love reaching out to us from our Brothers and Sisters in Christ.

In the Love of Christ,
Ruth E. Penton, Chairperson
Baypines District Leadership Council

Frederick G. Outlaw, Superintendent
Baypines District

DEMOPOLIS DISTRICT

The Demopolis District CORE Team met on January 21, 2004 at the District Office. This team was organized to replace what was the District Council on Ministries. Our first order of business was the election of officers. Rev. Reba Wiley led a review of Mission-Vision-Priorities of the CORE Team as developed by the Conference CORE Team.

We had a spirited discussion centered on the question "How do we help churches get outside their walls?" We also discussed the CORE Team mission statement.

In our March 18th meeting we formed the mission statement: "Recognizing the valuable connection of every Church and Disciple of Christ in the Demopolis District, we pledge ourselves to Resource, Enable, Nurture, and Encourage the Witness of the family of God." (RENEW).

In our May meeting we discussed special events being held by the UMW during the year, also the subject material that would be presented in the classes for Super Sunday 2005, the program format and location.

From July-December this committee met monthly selecting topics for presentation, format for the programs, date location and presenters. It was decided to use members of the CORE Team to present the following subject material: Building Children of Faith, Missions, Servant Ministries in the local communities, Healthy Life Styles, and Midweek Ministries.

The program format was changed considerably, and instead of having just one Super Sunday at the First United Methodist Church Demopolis; The CORE Team agreed to hold a Super Sunday North at the First United Methodist Church Demopolis on January 9, 2005 and Super Sunday South at Thomasville United Methodist Church on January 16, 2005. There were events for the teens and young children at both locations. The overall attendance was very good and Super Sunday 2005 was very successful.

As Chairman of the Demopolis District CORE Team I express my thanks to Rev. Reba Wiley the Demopolis District Superintendent for her leadership, and to the members of the CORE Team for their insight and hard work that made this a success in accomplishing the goals of the team and the work of the Lord our Savior Jesus Christ.

DOTHAN DISTRICT COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

The Dothan District Council on Ministries mission statement is "Growing Healthy Churches." We supported our Dothan District Churches in 2004 through having planned, coordinated, and implemented a number of outstanding programs and projects that include the following highlights:

The Dothan District Conference and Super Sunday Training Event: This was held on Sunday, January 11, 2004, at Dothan First UMC. Rev. Doug Newsome, song leader and associate pastor at Tabernacle UMC, led the inspirational singing for the worship service. Mr. Roy Watford, organist, Graceville UMC, served as accompanist on the organ. The opening prayer was given by Mr. William Piper, Jr., district lay leader. Dr. Lawson Bryan, senior minister of First UMC, welcomed those who attended. Dr. Herb Sadler presented reports concerning 2004 lay leadership and budget approval. The offertory prayer was delivered by Dr. Imogene Mixson, chairperson, District Council on Ministries. The offering was designated for the Super Sunday District Youth Rally. Ten adult workshops and a Youth Rally were provided, with a total attendance of approximately 550. During the Youth Rally, the youth experienced a time of games followed by praise and worship. The leadership for the youth event included Mr. Chris Lasseter, youth leader, Covenant UMC, and Mrs. Lee Ann Boykin, youth leader, Dothan First UMC. Approximately 264 youth were in attendance. Leadership for the Super Sunday Training Event was provided by Gip Kingry, education coordinator.

Laity Banquets and Rallies: Coordinated by District Lay Leader Gip Kingry, Laity Banquets and Rallies, once again provided great opportunities in the Dothan District for worship, outstanding programs, fellowship, and delicious food. Four rallies were held throughout our district in 2004; March 29, 2004, Pleasant Hill UMC in Ozark; May 24, 2004, Lime Springs UMC near Geneva; August 30, 2004, Ashford UMC; November 22, 2004, Covenant UMC in Dothan. We had many interesting programs and excellent presenters during the year. The March program was coordinated by Curtis Henderson, Conference Director of Missions and Advocacy Ministries, with special emphasis on summer missions opportunities. The May program was coordinated by Rev. Roy Rogers, who presented the Church of the Year Awards. The membership categories and winners were as follows: (1-34) Ham UMC; (35-74) Pinckard UMC; (75-200) Geneva First UMC; and (200 +) Harvest Church, Dothan. In memory of Bill Piper, former Dothan District Lay Leader, and in honor of his many contributions to the Dothan District and Alabama/West Florida Conference, the Bill Piper Annual Award was established to honor the outstanding lay person of the year. Dr. Herb Sadler and Mrs. Kathryn Piper presented the First Annual Bill Piper Award to Dr. Imogene Mixson, based on her long and outstanding work in the Dothan District. The August program was an exciting and meaningful district wide musical program coordinated by Mrs. Susan Farris, director of music, Covenant UMC. The November program was on evangelism and church growth. Three churches in the Dothan District told the story of their growth. The program was coordinated by Dr. Herb Sadler. At the Laity Banquets and Rallies, the connectional features of our church are always emphasized, and we feel this brings our district closer together. We have had very good attendance at these rallies, with 125-150 in attendance.

UMVIM Projects: Thirteen district churches sent 337 missionaries to thirty different destinations at home and abroad. Overseas mission experiences included such diverse places as Samoa, Ecuador, Russia, Sierra Leone, Costa Rica, Panama, & Jamaica. Dothan churches also sent willing servants to Appalachia, New Mexico, as well as back yard mission points such as Gulf Breeze, Mobile, Tuskegee, and Blue Lake. Mission expenditures totaled $166,714 to minister the Gospel message in word and deed. Rev. Glenn Butler provided leadership for our UMVIM Projects.

Small Membership Church Committee: The District Committee on Small Membership Churches continued its commitment to building healthy churches through our 5th Sunday Cluster Group Gatherings. This past year, our District-wide Cluster Gathering was hosted by Rev. Donald Lolley and the congregation at Asbury United Methodist Church, Elba, AL. Rev. Ben McKee and the Men's Club of New Brockton United Methodist Church cooked Ben's famous barbeque chicken for the event. Small membership churches from across the district shared their musical talents, which was coordinated by Rev. Donna and Tommy Cumbie. The event was attended by nearly three hundred people. This past year also marked a change in the way Charge Conferences were done in small membership churches in our district. We formed eight clusters of charges, ranging from three to seven charges per cluster, which met to conduct Cluster Charge Conferences. At each Cluster Charge Conference, individual charges met to do the business of the church, then everyone joined together in a worship service to celebrate what God has done in the local churches, followed by a meal eaten together. This experiment proved to be a resounding success and testament to our connectional heritage as each small membership church participated in various innovative ways to worship and celebrate together the work of God in the local church. Small Membership Church Committee is under the leadership of Rev. Roy Rogers.

District Church of the Year Committee: The District Church of the Year Committee met to select the Dothan District Churches of the Year. This year's categories were based on average worship service attendance. The committee received numerous nominations from churches throughout the district. Ham Chapel UMC, Elba, and Rev. John Baxter received the award for the 1-34 category. Pinckard UMC, and Rev. Don Davitz received the award for the 35-74 category. Geneva First UMC, and Rev. Michael Lawler received the award for the 75-200 category. Harvest Church, and Rev. Ralph Sigler received the award for the 200+ category. The Dothan District would like to congratulate these four churches for their outstanding efforts to take the Gospel of our Lord to their communities. The District Church of the Year Committee is under the leadership of Rev. Roy Rogers.

Dothan District United Methodist Men: Dothan District chartered ten more churches as members of the United Methodist Men and 32 additional men became members of EMS (Every Member Shares). The UMM also sponsored the District's Pastor Appreciation Banquet held at Dothan First UMC in January 2004. There were over 250 pastors, spouses, lay leaders, and PPR chairpersons present to honor their local pastor. A delicious meal was served and a wonderful program followed. Pastor Appreciation Banquet was coordinated by Robert Powell. The Dothan District United Methodist Men is under the leadership of George Tatom.

Dothan District Communications: The purpose of the district Communications is to empower the laity in ministry through providing timely information and training directly to the local church. Dothan District's Communications advises churches on web site design, advertising, office automation, and publishing. The District publishes a monthly "E-News Letter" to help keep the clergy and laity informed of up coming district and conference events. In 2004 our goal was for each church in the Dothan District to have an E-Mail address to improve the timeliness of information to the churches and reduce the cost of mailings from the District. The Dothan District Communications Coordinator is Rev. Michael Lawler.

Lay Speaking Ministries: The members of the Dothan District Lay Speaking Ministries were very active in many areas in the district and conference, and in the world. They were involved in: supplying devotionals in various ministries; visitations and teaching in retirement centers and nursing homes; sermons in the pulpits; teaching and leading Bible studies; teaching Sunday School; leading worship; mission work in countries like Russia and Brazil; working in the inner city missions; supplying transportation to retirement center residents for shopping trips and doctors' appointments; various areas of counseling; working in youth ministries; and helping at disaster shelters. They have been involved in numerous ministries in the local churches. We are proud of the members in the Dothan District Lay Speaking Ministries. Dothan District Lay Speaking Ministries is under the leadership of Grace Kirkland.

Disaster Response: The year 2004 was a very busy year for Disaster Response in the Dothan District and our conference. A continued response was made in Abbeville from the tornado damage of November 2002. With the help of the Wiregrass Unmet Needs, local United Methodist Churches and UMCOR, and work teams from through out the conference the last homeless family from the tornado was moved into their new home. A total of three entire homes were built with the yards landscaped, several damaged homes repaired, and countless people fed during this three year commitment to restore this community. Then came Hurricane Ivan. Initial damage assessment for Dothan District was conducted and coordinated through our Disaster Response Coordinator. Our Disaster Response Coordinator then took needed supplies and assisted the more damaged areas in our conference. Work teams, supplies and money were raised to help aid the people in the worst hit areas. Our Disaster Response is under the leadership of Rev. Marquis Wingard.

Michael Lawler, Chair

MARIANNA/PANAMA CITY DISTRICT CORE TEAM

The Marianna/Panama City District CORE Team is deeply appreciative of the leadership provided by our District Superintendent, Rev. J. Wesley Spivey. Under his guidance the District leadership team successfully made the transition from the former District Council on Ministries structure to the CORE (Connecting our Resources and Empowering) Team structure. Our first task was to formulate a mission statement for our District CORE Team, which was formally adopted at our April 1, 2004 meeting, and has served to guide our work throughout the year.

The CORE Team sponsored a special seminar for both Lay and Clergy taught by Dr. Richard Bennett in late August. Dr. Bennett's subject was the interaction between the Judeo-Christian tradition and the Islamic tradition. Dr. Bennett sought to establish points of contact between the two traditions with the goal of defusing hostilities and anger by creating avenues for engaging in healthy dialogue.

The 2004 District Conference & Celebration was held on November 14th at the Marianna FUMC. Aside from the usual business of electing the CORE Team members for the coming year and setting the district budget, we also joined in celebrating outstanding local church ministries in the areas of: Missions, Vital-Thriving Congregations, and Embracing Creative Ministry in a Changing World. The churches which made power point presentations were: Springfield UMC/Panama City, Altha UMC, and Panama City First UMC/New Vision Mission. The clergy offered a rousing rendition of "Victory in Jesus" as the special music for the service. Our time together was truly a celebration of the goodness of God as well as the enthusiasm and faithfulness of the people of this district.

The most recent event sponsored by the CORE Team was the District Super Sunday held this past January 30th at the Lynn Haven UMC. The Rev. Ken Autrey led us in an opening worship experience, and then participants were urged to attend one of the following training workshops: Staff-Parish Relations, Visioning, Lay Leadership, Evangelism/Outreach (Warmth & Hospitality), Stewardship/Finance, and Sunday School Revitalization.

Our CORE Team is continually seeking ways to assist in "enabling local congregations to make disciples for Jesus Christ through cultivating, developing, growing and expanding vital ministry opportunities within the United Methodist connectional system." As the body of Christ, working together for the common good of all God's people, we pray God's richest blessings upon those who may benefit from our learning and labors.

Tonya L. Elmore, Chair

THE MOBILE DISTRICT

The Mobile District is committed to the mission to make new disciples by deploying the best clergy, empowering the greatest lay leadership, and helping each church define its on strategy for success. From the sands of Dauphin Island to the picturesque pastoral settings of Washington County, we celebrate the many ways God is offering us new wisdom and showing us new and creative ways to build the Kingdom.

This past year, I challenged each of my churches at Charge Conference to work toward the following marks of healthy and growing Church life: to grow worship attendance by 5% as a total church effort, to create an environment where persons would confess their faith in Jesus Christ for the very first time in their lives, to make flood buckets and retain those until there is a need during the next hurricane or flood season, to more fully keep our covenant to pay our Annual Conference and District apportionments, and to realize the need for volunteers to help host the marvelous people of the Alabama-West Florida Annual Conference as the Annual Conference meets in Mobile in 2005.

This year we celebrate three new church starts. We embrace revitalization efforts in several locations around the Mobile District and are working to help all of our churches develop a mission and vision for ministry in the communities they are called to serve. We plan to work with clusters of churches to develop strong small congregations, launch a North Mobile District Initiative of success and cooperation among churches in North Mobile and Washington Counties, and prayerfully equip many of our churches in Natural Church Development.

While we embrace the rich history of Methodism within the bounds of the Mobile District, we look even more forward to creating and recreating, in more imaginative ways, the Kingdom-building spirit that spread scriptural holiness across this land as we serve this present age.

William E. Elwell,
Mobile District Superintendent

MONTGOMERY-PRATTVILLE DISTRICT CORE TEAM

The Montgomery-Prattville District has, over the years, been blessed with having truly outstanding leadership provided by some very exceptional District Superintendents. In 2004, Dr. Larry Bryars and his lovely wife, Vicki, left the district to begin serving a church in Shalimar. They served our district and our Lord exceptionally well during their three years with us and we miss them and wish them well. And, as is so often the case, our Lord (with perhaps a wee bit of help from our bishop and cabinet) saw fit to send as a replacement for Dr. Bryars, an individual who is an equally competent and energetic District Superintendent – Rev. Jim Carpenter who also happens to have a lovely and charming helpmate in the person of his wife, Laura. Rev. Carpenter comes to this district from the former Greenville District where he had been serving as District Superintendent for the past couple of years.

2004 was the last year in which the Montgomery-Prattville District operated under a Council on Ministries system. At our 2004 District Conference, we voted to adopt the CORE Team (Combining Our Resources and Effectiveness) concept beginning on January 1, 2005. There appear to be a great many advantages to using the CORE Team system at the district level and it is believed that, in addition to having a much more streamlined and effective manner of functioning, the district will garner a myriad of other benefits as well.

Rev. Carpenter felt that the District Lay Leader should serve as Chairperson of the District CORE Team and that change took place at the beginning of the new year. Mrs. Helen Edwards of Selma had served as Chairperson of the Montgomery-Prattville District Council on Ministries for four years and, during that time, she did a remarkable job in that capacity. So very much was accomplished in this district as a result of her outstanding leadership.

Helen has been wearing two hats for much of that time in that she also serves as Director of Lay Speaking for our district. It is apparent that under her leadership, the Lay Speaking Ministry in this district has made many great advances. The number and quality of our Lay Speakers has grown tremendously and the annual Montgomery-Prattville District Lay Speaker training events are second to none. She has recently been working with the Conference Lay Speaker Training Team in helping to develop a conference-wide training event to be held at Blue Lake Camp in April 2005. She is also in the process of formulating plans for a Montgomery-Prattville District-wide training event to be held in the fall of 2005. Our thanks to Helen for all that she does for the Kingdom! We hope all pastors will keep her in mind when they need someone to fill their pulpits. We have, without question, some of the finest Lay Speakers in the conference!

2004 was also a year in which we saw many serious problems throughout our area of the country as the result of some extremely bad weather. Particularly adversely affected during September and October was the southernmost part of our conference. Many homes and other buildings, including several churches, were destroyed and/or damaged by hurricanes and tornadoes. As is usually the case, the United Methodist Church responded quickly and efficiently to assist those in need. David Stewart, Disaster Response Team Coordinator for the Montgomery-Prattville District, was one of those who reacted promptly. He very speedily coordinated the activities of 18 individual disaster response teams, ensured that they were equipped with the necessary tools and equipment and then dispatched them to the effected areas with a minimum of delay. He also coordinated the activities of other teams that were sent to assist in the repair of a parsonage that had been damaged by a tornado in Autauga County. David's competent and enthusiastic leadership in those instances contributed greatly to easing the suffering of many who had been affected by the disasters. He is to be commended for his much appreciated hard work in the area of disaster relief.

We are so very pleased with the quality, dedication and commitment of all of those persons within the Montgomery-Prattville District who continue to work so tirelessly and selflessly to ensure that our churches are equipped to reach out to those who need to be brought into closer relationships with our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. May God continue to bless us all as we strive to help His church grow in size, in spirit, and in service!

PENSACOLA DISTRICT REPORT

The Pensacola District began 2004 with the Leadership Intensive Training Event, which was held at First UMC in Pensacola. We offered numerous classes, seeking to equip local church leaders in accomplishing their tasks more effectively. The day also included a District Youth Rally. Approximately 350 adults and 200 youth attended LITE Day.

In February, we held an excellent Day Apart for our ministers, with Dr. Steve Harper from Asbury Seminary leading us by means of the wonderful Distance Learning Center at Gulf Breeze UMC.

Pensacola District United Methodist Women have certainly "gone out of the pews and into the world." In April, they received the 2004 Children's Champion Award, which honors members of the community who enhance the lives of children. UMW President Judy Owen accepted the award on behalf of hundreds of women throughout Escambia, Okaloosa, and Santa Rosa Counties who have filled many urgent needs of our communities. The local newspaper described them as "a cadre of child advocates who bring the needs of children to the forefront in a clear and powerful way." They reported that UMW "provides food and shelter for impoverished families, strengthens education, nurtures young children, and fills many urgent needs." Pensacola District United Methodist Women worked with Strong Voices for Children, providing volunteers and funds for P.A.C.E. Center for Girls, Loaves and Fishes Homeless Shelter, Family Resource Center, Favorhouse, Partner in Education at Ensley Elementary School, St. Luke's Preschool, and Manna Food Pantries. Letters of nomination were sent from Ronald McDonald House, Pensacola Habitat for Humanity, Milk 'n' Honey Outreach Ministries, Family Resource Center of Santa Rosa, and Children's Services Center.

At the June 2004 Annual Conference, four Pensacola District churches were honored for meeting the criteria to be recognized as "A Church for All God's Children." The churches were Allen Memorial, Ferry Pass, Navarre, and Shalimar.

A variety of mission projects were undertaken by many of the churches in our district, including a district-wide project in Peru. District Missions Director Tom Sharron and his support team opened the door for us to take on the project of building 40+ homes in Peru. This will be an ongoing project for the churches within our district.

In the fall of 2004, we hired Shelia Feltner as our new Director for the Wesley Foundations at both the University of West Florida and Pensacola Junior College. Wesley Foundation is experiencing God opening hearts, opening doors, and opening minds at the University of West Florida. Activity has been constant on and off campus. Wednesday night programs and Friday fellowship have gained the interest of students seeking Christian encouragement and support for their week. Sheila Feltner is using her personal motor home for their Fridays on the "Green." It has given students a place set apart from a classroom - an open-door atmosphere that in turn draws more students. Being equipped with three televisions (one outside) lets the bus be a great tool for video studies as well as sporting events and movies. Being a commuter college, Pensacola Junior College has been more of a challenge. We're trying a new approach meeting at Cokesbury UMC, which is across the street from campus. This, too, will give students new scenery outside the classroom to stimulate new relationships.

During 2004 the Pensacola District Lay Speaking Ministries conducted training for one basic and two advanced courses, resulting in five lay speakers being consecrated as certified lay speakers. Also, during this training we had 18 that began the process of being certified lay speakers by attending the adult basic course. As of December 2004 we had 63 local and 88 certified lay speakers. During the year lay speakers filled the pulpit 33 times, conducted a three-day lay speaking revival, and conducted many classes across our district. Three certified lay speakers attended the Southeast Jurisdiction Lay Speaking Training.

On September 15 of 2004, Hurricane Ivan came ashore in Pensacola with devastating effects. All 54 churches within our district sustained damage and many were rendered unusable. This certainly altered many of our plans and programs as we shifted into survival and rebuilding modes. I was very proud of our churches. As they raised their heads following the storm to see all the damage around them, their first thoughts were to reach out to all the hurt and needy around us. Seven of our churches became operational centers for the Red Cross, National Guard, local police and fireman, Search and Rescue, and FEMA, as well as distribution centers for UMCOR. One opened its doors to a local elementary school, which had been destroyed by the storm. Waves of volunteers came daily from those churches in the eastern end of our District -- brothers and sisters in Christ helping brothers and sisters. The Church was really the Church as Christ would have it to be.

Our District Board of Missions assisted in helping local churches recover from the hurricane. The Board also continues to explore opportunities for new church starts, including Pathway UMC in 2004-2005 in western Pensacola.

It is an exciting time in the life of Pensacola District's New Church Start, Pathway UMC. Led by their Pastor, John Akers, the core group has grown to 30+. Pathway is dedicated to contemporary worship, with powerful children's and youth ministries.

The Pensacola District continues to work with the Hispanic population in our district at several locations: Destin at Destin UMC, Ft. Walton Beach at Trinity UMC, and Gulf Breeze at the St. Paul UMC.

BOARD OF CONGREGATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

The Alabama-West Florida Board of Congregational Development exists to lead in planting new churches, and to coach, encourage and resource existing churches toward vital ministry in their respective communities.

In the past year, six more new pastoral appointments to new churches were added to the network of United Methodist ministry across our region. We rejoice in the multiple new ministry sites where a United Methodist witness is now offered.

Recent new church and multi-site projects include:

Church or New Site	Pastor (s)	Year

In addition, we wish to celebrate with the Celebration UMC of Daphne, AL (planted in 1999) in the recent completion of their first phase of buildings on a 25-acre plot of land in a growing area of Baldwin County AND with New Hope, Theodore (2003) upon construction of a sanctuary.

28 pastors recently completed the first-ever Academy of Congregational Development, consisting of five leadership development seminars, led by noted pastors and authors, held over the course of the past conference year. All costs of this Academy were borne by participants, without a dollar of annual conference money in subsidy.

Natural Church Development is a congregational renewal program, sponsored by the Board of Congregational Development. More than 30 guides have now been trained to lead Natural Church Development initiatives in local churches. Trained guides are now available in each district. For more information about NCD, churches need to see their district superintendent.

Dr. Paul Nixon, our conference Director of Congregational Development gave leadership to the above initiatives in addition to direct consultation and/or on-side work with seventy AWF congregations in this past conference year.

Our subcommittee on Church Revitalization approved grant requests to Wesley Chapel (Mobile District), Mt Carmel (Dothan District), Bethel and Marietta (Demopolis District). In addition, four churches were recognized as 2004 Churches of the Year: St James in Montgomery, Grimes in Dothan, St Stephens in Leroy AL, and Altha in Altha FL. Four new Churches of the Year will be recognized at the 2005 annual conference.

Finally, the Ten Dollar Club is now known as Visionary Shares. Our fall offering was delayed until winter due to Hurricane Ivan. Providence UMC our new church in Spanish Fort was the Fall 04 recipient. The Spring 05 offering is for Grimes UMC, Dothan, a church that is experiencing revitalization. Visionary Shares are $10.00 each, with the fall appeal going for a new church and the spring appeal for an existing church that is "becoming a new church" for the people of its community. Delsa Grove is the conference Visionary Shares Coordinator. She works at our Office of Congregational Development in Pensacola, 850 430 4300.

REPORT NO. 3

BOARD OF DISCIPLESHIP

The Conference Board of Discipleship (CBOD) includes evangelism, stewardship, worship, spiritual formation, and education. The goal of the CBOD is to identify and define systems and resources that accomplish the conference's MVPs.

As the following reports demonstrate, over the past year, education, worship, stewardship, and spiritual formation have opened new avenues of service and resources to make our conference more responsive to the needs of local churches and their leaders. Additional plans are underway to provide even greater opportunities in the future! Many thanks to members of the CBOD - Janet Westlake, Education; Carole Lee, Worship; Minta McDavid, Spiritual Formation; Robbins Sims, Stewardship; Bill Kierce, Evangelism; and Bill Price, Emily Garner and Helen Edwards, at-large members - for their dedication, creativity, and hard work.

CBOD thanks Bishop Goodpaster, Libba Stinson and everyone at the CRC, and Laura Hughes in the Bishop's office, who were so helpful to us in the past year, meeting our every request and need with joy and grace. Also, we extend our sincere thanks to Jeni Lee who continues to be the key to our progress and success.

As we move into a new year, we pray the CBOD will become even more productive as a tool and resource for AWF churches and leaders.

Blessings,

DIVISION OF STEWARDSHIP

The stewardship division of the Conference Board of Discipleship is presently implementing its Give Thanks stewardship mentor program. Seventeen clergy and one lay person have been trained as stewardship mentors. Their training includes the theology of stewardship and in practical principles for a year-round stewardship program in a local church. The mentors have implemented the principles in their local churches and reported growth in their congregations' stewardship. Mentors are being assigned to work one on one for a year with local churches that request their assistance.

A second class of mentors is being recruited. Training in the core courses will be held this summer. The second class of mentors should be available next fall.

In addition to the core courses on foundations of stewardship, additional training in specialized areas of stewardship will be offered for members of both classes of mentors. These classes will include training on programs for personal financial management, assessment of the need for and potential of capital campaigns, promotion of estate planning, and promotion of second-mile giving for missions.

The stewardship mentor program aims to help churches make Christian disciples and experience vitality. Congregations are led to embrace stewardship as a spiritual discipline through which God's abundant grace is experienced and shared.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Dr. Robbins Sims

DIVISION OF WORSHIP

The report from the worship team for conference is that we met on Feb 5 in the Bishop's office, had a team building period and discussed our dreams for conference worship. The people that were appointed by the district superintendents were extremely interested and excited about the job ahead and more than willing to shoulder the work required. I couldn't ask for a stronger and better equipped group. Each district is making a banner to be hung in Christ Center expressing God's Abundance as well as taking care of additional responsibilities. Everyone is excited about the Jubilee theme. This is going to be a very different conference and I am really excited about all that is happening. Christ Church is a wonderful facility and we are blessed to have it available.

The Youth Choir Festival is organized and accepting applicants now. There will be a limit of 200. Mark Miller is the clinician for the event and will also serve as organist/pianist music person for conference.

Andy Sistrunk has presented a project that would include organizing a large Ancient/Future Worship Event to be held the Saturday night before Conference begins. The age targeted with this project would be up to age 30. The team expressed positive support for this event and gave him the go ahead with finding funding.

It is our hope that the worship team from GBOD will come to our conference early in 2006 to provide training needed on all areas of worship. We are looking into possible dates for a two day workshop at Blue Lake or three one day events held in various churches.

Respectfully submitted,
Carole Lee
Division of Worship, Chair

DIVISION OF EDUCATION

Camping and Retreat Ministries

The Division of Education works in cooperation with the Camping and Retreat ministries of Blue Lake Assembly. Building on a successful 2004 summer camping season, we are looking forward to an exciting 2005 summer.

Christian Education Consultants

Today's teachers and counselors are very busy people. Very few have time or energy to travel to conference teacher training events. So the Division of Education is now providing Christian education consultants to come into local congregations to offer teacher training workshops. The workshop is scheduled by the local congregation in partnership with the consultant in that district. The local congregation designates the target audience and conduct the promotion within their congregation. The consultant plans and leads the workshop. The Annual Conference provides an honorarium to the consultant and pays their travel expenses. Consultants are currently available for scheduling workshops.

Older Adult Ministries

The Older Adult task force is very active. Dr. Rick Gentzler of the General Board of Discipleship presented his "Graying of the Church" seminar to leaders in older adult ministry in February 2005. The Older Adult event on March 17 focuses on the Dead Sea Scrolls exhibit in Mobile. The Older Adult Assembly is pleased to have Rev. Libba Stinson as the keynote speaker at Blue Lake Assembly on May 9-11. The task force continues to emphasize reaching all God's children through annual conference programming.

Singles Ministries

A new vision for singles ministry has emerged in our annual conference. Training events for leaders in singles ministry are planned for April 16, 2005 at First UMC of Dothan and April 23, 2005 in Fairhope UMC. Rev. Charles Wise of Frazer UMC and Rick Dacus of Christ UMC will speak about their own experiences with successful singles ministries. A "Create-Your-Own" Retreat will be held at Blue Lake on September 16-17, 2005 for singles from around the annual conference.

Youth Ministry Academy

The Youth Ministry Academy continues to equip workers in youth ministry. Participants are actively engaged in learning how to improve their ministry with youth through practical ideas as well as exploring the theology of youth ministry, using the Bible in ministry, and understanding youth culture. Each YMA graduating class influences countless young lives for God through their ministry.

Respectfully submitted,
Janet Westlake
Division of Education, Chair

DIVISION OF SPIRITUAL FORMATION

Goals set :

To bring together a Spiritual Formation team of clergy/laity to mentor their own church and other churches through various spiritual formation resources such as Companions In Christ, Silent Retreats, Emmaus/Chrysalis/Kairos, Labyrinth Ministry, 5 Day Academy for Spiritual Formation, 2 Year Academy for Spiritual Formation, 3 Year Covenant Community, Confirmation Day with the Bishop, Energize Retreat for Youth, Prayer Shawl Ministry, Healing and wholeness and Prayer Ministry and more. To bring this Team together in a Discernment and Visioning Retreat at Blue Lake for personal and corporate discernment for spiritual formation ministries and their passion for and commitment to the implementing of these ministries in our Conference.

A joint effort of the Ala.-West Fla. Conference and the North Alabama Conference for hosting 5 Day Academies for Spiritual Formation ~ Sept. 25, 2005 5 Day at Camp Sumatanga in North Al. and TBA date in 2006 for 5 Day Academy at Camp Blue Lake.

To offer again to laity and clergy of this Conference the 3 Year Covenant Community experience.

The development of a Prayer Labyrinth Ministry. This includes the creation of a labyrinth prayer garden at Blue Lake and/or the purchase of a canvas labyrinth to be shared in churches conference wide.

As a result of goal number 1 and the Jan. 13-14th Discernment and Visioning Retreat at Blue Lake, four of our seven goals have been and/or are in the process of being met. Out of the Retreat came the clear discernment that points of focus for this year would be: Labyrinth Ministry; the beginning of the planning process to offer the 3 Year Covenant Community once again to our members; supporting and promoting through attendance, and encouraging others to attend, the 5 Day Academy for Spiritual Formation in Sept. at Camp Sumatanga; and becoming involved in the planning, supporting and promoting of the 5 Day at Blue Lake in 2006.

In November we purchased an 11 circuit Labyrinth and it was dedicated by Bishop Larry Goodpaster at the Retreat. Ms. Karen Evans is directing the Prayer Labyrinth Ministry. A training day was held on May 14th to train facilitators for this ministry. We seek to have at least two facilitators from each district so that if a congregation wishes to experience the prayer Labyrinth, a trained facilitator would be available.

The 3 Year Covenant Community to be offered in early 2006 is in the beginning planning stages under the direction of Rev. John Bonner. The 3YCC, like the 5 Day and 2 Year Academy for Spiritual Formation, is designed to provide an in-depth and comprehensive experience in spiritual formation for lay and clergy persons who are highly motivated in their sense of call to follow Christ and serve the church and the world.

The Spiritual Formation division of the CBOD has also co-sponsored Confirmation Day with the Bishop and Energize Youth Retreat. We will also co-sponsor the Ultimate Healing Workshop with Evelyn Laycock to be held again at Blue Lake.

Respectfully submitted,
Minta McDavid

CONFERENCE CAMPING & RETREAT MINISTRIES

The 2004 was a very successful year for the AWF Conference Camping and Retreat Ministries. Efforts are still underway to become accredited by the American Camping Association. Great strides were made this past summer to insure that a National Background Check was done by the local church on all of our volunteers. The entire staff received extensive training in CPR, First Aid and in the use of our AED. The Volunteer Nurse Program continues to allow all of our camps access to a registered nurse, on site. The accreditation process is in place with the hope of Blue Lake United Methodist Assembly being fully accredited by summer 2006.

The 2004 Camping and Retreat Ministries sponsored 4 Elementary Camps, Focus on Missions Camp (Elementary), Focus on the Arts (Elementary), 2 Junior High Camp, Camp Quarternote (Elementary Choir), Youth Choir Camp, 1 Junior/Senior High Combo Camp and 1 Senior High Camp. The total combined attendance for all of the above camps was 1038. In addition, 90 campers and volunteers attending from Dumas Wesley and Mobile Inner City Mission attended Camp Discovery.

In addition to the Conference Summer Camping Program, the Camping and Retreat Ministries Task Force sponsored the Elementary Winter Retreat and the Elementary Fall Festival. The Elementary Winter Retreat was attended by 110 3rd, 4th and 5th graders and their adult leaders in January. Designed to be a preview of summer camp, the participants enjoyed a weekend of Bible study, crafts, recreation and fellowship. The Elementary Fall Festival was a 1-day event for children, K-6th grade, and their adult chaperones. Over 270 children and adults participated in numerous activities, including a puppet show performed by the Destin United Methodist Church Puppet Team, a cookout, hayride, crafts, pumpkin carving and more. It is our desire that the children will get excited about playing and worshipping at Blue Lake.

Plans for 2005 included the Annual Elementary Winter Retreat, minor changes to the normal summer camping program, and a new camp, The Great Adventure, an opportunity for elementary campers. This camp is design to develop leadership and team building within the elementary program of the local church.

I would be remiss if I did not mention the need for scholarship funds for the Conference Camping and Retreat opportunities. Many children and youth of this conference would not be able to attend camp if it were not for the availability of scholarships. For information on how to give to the scholarship fund, contact Keron Kyzar, Program Director, programs@blue-lakecamp.com or 334-222-5407.

Should you have any questions about the conference camping or retreat opportunities for the children or youth of your church, contact Keron Kyzar, Program Director, programs@blue-lakecamp.com or 334-222-5407. Should you have any questions for the Conference Camping and Retreat Ministries Task Force please do not hesitate to contact, Rev. Kevin Krist, Chairman, 251-866-7423.

HUNGRY COLLEGE RETREAT

What does the Lord require of you?

January 28-30, 2005 · Laguna Beach Christian Retreat

Young adults from several different colleges were faced with a study on Micah 6:8 this weekend while attending Hungry 2005 in Panama City Beach, FL. During three sessions, we looked at the topics of doing justice, loving kindness, or mercy, and walking humbly with our God.

Catie May, a sophomore at Florida State University, introduced to many the injustice that farm workers in Florida face daily. She really challenged us to seek justice by doing simple things like not eating at Taco Bell, writing letters to our representatives, and praying for change.

Katie McCullough, interim director of Alabama Rural Ministry (ARM), moved Hungry participants to recognize that loving mercy is a daily discipline that requires our constant attention. Her probing questions during small groups led people to try to understand what mercy really is.

Lisa Miller, a nursing student at University of South Alabama, shared her personal story of learning about walking humbly with God. Her experience during hurricane Ivan taught her about releasing control to God—quite a humbling experience! Lisa invited Uday Balasundaram of India to share his story of being called into full-time ministry and how he had to submit to that call, no matter what the cost.

Andy Sistrunk and the rest of the praise band lead us during worship time and Dave Barkalow aided as the emcee. Small groups enabled us to explore more deeply the questions presented to us during the sessions. The discussions were wonderful and allowed everyone to express the views and understandings they had drawn from the message.

The students actively learned more about loving kindness by participating in various service projects in the area. Three teams split up and were able to help with the Loaves and Fishes food ministry at Forest Park UMC, volunteer with the Salvation Army, and make Valentine's Day cards sharing love with those less fortunate. Through these ministry opportunities, everyone felt humbled in their walk with God.

Thank you to everyone who was involved with the retreat. Without you, this annual event would not have been possible. Hungry 2005 was a success, and Christ made His presence clear to all who participated. We will surely continue to do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with our God.

BOARD OF ADVOCACY AND ETHNIC MINISTRY

COSROW

(Commission on Status and Role of Women)

The Commission on Status and Role of Women made its transition into the 2004-2005 conference year at its annual breakfast when leadership passed from Martha Wood to newly elected chair, Ruth Gynther of Auburn United Methodist Church.

"Faith that Leads to Works of Justice" was the theme of the COSROW annual retreat held Jan. 21-22, 2005 at Blue Lake. Leaders Sue McInnish, director of Ala. Civil Justice Foundation, and Linda Tilley of VOICES for Alabama's Children, challenged women to use their faith and their role as leaders to address justice issues, especially those affecting children. Music was provided by Rev. Jackie Slaughter and Elaine Grant. Worship center was created by Rev. Sylvia Pierce.

During the COSROW Breakfast at Annual Conference COSROW will present its Jane Walker scholarship to a woman enrolled in a Methodist approved seminary. The Alice Lee Award, recognizing a woman who has been a bridge builder and barrier breaker for full participation of women in the church, will be presented during the Wed. morning session of Conference.

A new project for the Al-W. Fl. COSROW will be the Monitoring Ministry conducted during the 2005 Annual Conference. The goal of the monitoring ministry is to establish a baseline regarding gender, racial, and age level participation in the Conference's decision making process. The monitoring will be done by trained volunteers based on materials provided by the General Commission on Status and Role of Women which has conducted such monitoring of General Conference since 1996.

DIVISION OF HISPANIC MINISTRIES

First, I want to thank our Lord and Savior, for the growth and the accomplishments made in the conference.

The 2004 General Conference approved the continuation of the National Plan for Hispanic Ministry (NPHM) on the 2005-2008 Quadrennium. I want to thank the conference delegates for their voting support.

As the chair of the Hispanic Ministries Division that is under the Board of Advocacy and Ethnic Ministries, I continue actively participating in the Southeastern Jurisdictional Hispanic Committee Meetings. Since my last report, we have had four members of the AWF conference that participated in the Partner in the Mighty Works of God workshop that was held in Lake Junaluska, NC.

As the acting conference coordinator, I continue participating in district meetings, UMW activities and local church mission fairs and planning meetings. The San Juan Advisory Board hosted and coordinated the first National Plan for Hispanic Ministry Module 1 training in our Conference. This event was held in the First United Methodist Church in Clanton in January. Five Hispanic Lay Missioners were trained that will support current and new outreaches or faith ministries. Additionally, we had the participation of nine AWF Conference ordained members and some of them were trained as Pastor-Mentors under the National Plan for Hispanic Ministries. I want to thank the San Juan Advisory Board for their hard work on this successful event. If you would like to know more about the event, please visit the Conference website.

Currently, these are the areas that I have been informed that have active ministries or outreaches to the Hispanic/Latino communities:

Frazer UMC, Montgomery: Regular Sunday worship services and Bible school, Bible study on Thursdays, Pastoral care, "El Roper", English as a second language classes on Tuesdays, and evangelism.

San Juan Mission, Clanton/Centerville: Regular Sunday worship services, disciple training, a jail ministry, English as a second language classes, translation services at local hospital, evangelism and recreational activities. Two full-time commissioned global missionaries, German and Leticia Gomez, are assigned to this area. This site hosted the Module 1 and is planning to have faith communities or outreaches in Selma, Wetumpka, Jemison, Thorsby, and Dothan. The contract term for German and Leticia as commissioned missionaries was extended for another three-year term.

San Pedro Mission, Summerdale/Foley: Since 1988, regular Sunday worship services, youth ministry, disciple training, English as a second language classes, translation services and evangelism.

Faith Community, St. Paul UMC, Gulf Breeze: Sunday worship services, translation services, evangelism, and Bible studies.

Cokesbury UMC, Pensacola: Prison ministry in Saufley Field, Pensacola. Possible radio ministry is being planned.

Mary Esther: Worship services held on the second and fourth Saturday of every month. English as a second language classes and translation services have been offered by this outreach. Currently, some members of this group are working in establishing Hispanic advocacy associations in this area.

We are facing a rapid growth of Hispanics/Latinos in our area due to Hurricane Ivan disaster repairs. Prior to the hurricane was the increase in tourism and labor demands of the hospitality industry in the panhandle and the Alabama coast. We are encountering a diverse population from Brazil, Haiti, the Dominican Republic, Peru, Central America, Uruguay and South Floridians. Not all are undocumented and/or immigrant workers. The Hispanic/Latino currently is a mobile community. They go where the work is available and when they move, they move as a family unit. The need for seasonal and permanent outreaches to minister these groups is our challenge.

I will be contacting the District Superintendents for the assignment of a representative to the task force that will follow on the recommendations given by Pastor Christian de la Rosa, Module 1 training consultant, and the work already in progress. The consultant recommendations were: Conduct Module III trainings for the current Hispanic congregations and conduct the Module II training 10 - 18 months for the group recently trained. Additionally, the task force will finalize the proposal for a full-time Hispanic Ministries Conference Coordinator.

I pray that God continues to guide us and I ask for your prayers and support for the future challenges. If you need to reach me by email, please send your questions to Hispanic@awfumc.org.

That the peace and grace of God be with you always.

Your Brother in Christ,
Isreal Cruz, C.L.S.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES

(CBGM)

Called to Historic And New Global Effectiveness. Lest you haven't noticed, it says CHANGE, which is no surprise for the beginning of a new quadrennial. That is the challenge for the Conference Board of Global Ministries.

We need to reorganize, restructure, and recast ourselves in defining the work of the conference board while responding to support of the mission priorities of the General Board of Global Ministries. Without the work of the CBGM being effectively applied to local churches, the work of GBGM will not be as effective as it could be. Maintaining the connection throughout all elements of missional emphases is also important - local, regional, national, international.

How we measure our board having global relativity and a global context will emerge through these five divisions of outreach: Volunteers in Mission, Parish and Community Development, Disaster Response, Advance Specials, and Health and Relief Ministries. Mutuality in mission and youth in mission are other areas of focus.

The CBGM has participated in a Mission Education Seminar in New York with the General Board of Global Ministries, developing a better understanding of the work of GBGM. Concerns/issues were shared, questions answered, and a strategy for ministry in the Alabama-West Florida Conference created. With this support and empowerment, the CBGM moves forward to providing opportunities for mission through evangelism in the local church. It has been said, "you can't be in evangelism without being in mission for there can be no mission without evangelism".

Boots Guthrie, Chair

CONFERENCE ADVANCE SPECIALS

The Advance is the official program of the United Methodist Church created to give churches the opportunity to go the second mile in giving. We endeavor to continue to communicate the Biblical call for mission and assist all people through training and leadership development to understand how the United Methodist Church ministers to the needs of the world.

"There may be a conference Advance program, established and carried out in the same spirit of partnership as the general Advance program.

A conference Advance Special Gift is one made to a conference Advance Special project within bounds of the annual conference or episcopal area authorized by an annual conference upon recommendation by the conference board of global ministries or its equivalent structure and consistent with the goals of the Advance. The funds as received shall be administered by the conference board of global ministries or such structure as designated by the conference." The 2004 Book of Discipline, ¶¶ 654.1-2

Our annual conference has approved certain projects as ministries deserving and needing special conference-wide assistance. Gifts to these projects should be remitted on the regular remittance form to the conference treasurer (be sure to clearly identify the project). Gifts go directly to the need specified.

A new church of our annual conference may receive Conference Advance Special Status (CASS) for a maximum of five years. After five years, only specific mission projects or causes may receive CASS.

The following projects, churches, and agencies are submitted for Advance Special status approval by the 2005 Annual Conference.

All of the bathrooms are in desperate need of major repair. The State Health Department has indicated that repairs must be made to correct these problems or Oakwood's original building is in danger of being closed until repairs are completed. The project to renovate all bathrooms in the original Oakwood Lodge will include replacing water lines, shower stalls, bathroom fixtures; repairing all damage and making several bathrooms and shower stalls compliant with accessible standards. The amount needed to complete this project is $150,000.

Persons with mental disabilities share with a staff of caring volunteers a weekend of exploring God's love in the great outdoors of Blue Lake. Sunshine Camp provides opportunities for Christian worship, art, recreation, and music, as well as the possibilities to make and renew friendships. Many of the campers depend on "camperships" to be able to attend the weekend. In addition, the Sunshine Camp requires a large staff to make sure the unique needs of each camper are met. Two nurses are employed to meet the extensive medical needs of each camper. The cost for each camper is $55.00. ## GOLDEN CROSS

The members of our churches have been more generous in their giving to the Golden Cross Program this year.

Each year we wish to encourage the members of our churches to make a generous gift on Mother's Day for our Golden Cross Program. This is our only source of income for the program.

Guidelines we follow in assisting those with medical needs are:

1. Assistance shall be available for United Methodist people of our Conference upon the recommendation of the Pastor or District Superintendent. Upon receiving the request, I will provide a form, which shall be filled out by the applicant.
2. These funds are only to be used to assist with medical needs (hospital, doctor, medications).
3. The amount of assistance granted to any one person shall be limited to $1,000.00 per year.
4. All funds collected by local churches for Golden Cross should be remitted to the Conference Treasurer.

COOPERATIVE SCHOOL OF CHRISTIAN MISSION

The 2004 Cooperative School of Christian Mission of the Alabama West Florida Conference was held July 29 - August 1 at Blue Lake United Methodist Assembly in Andalusia, AL. The school was attended by one hundred and thirty persons, many for the first time. The sponsoring agencies are Church and Society, Global Ministries, Discipleship, United Methodist Women. The first year for the cooperative school was 1968 in conjunction with the North Alabama Conference. The purpose through the years has been to train leaders of local churches for education and action in missions and provide spiritual enrichment and growth in being disciples of Jesus.

Our theme was Prayer, Policy, and Politics. Our prayers permeate and shape our policy and politics as we live in a social context. The specific topics were: Concerning Prayer, Public Education, and Cuba. We pray for many things - peace, guidance, understanding, and wisdom. In our class sessions we remembered the Church in Cuba and the heritage of children given to us by God. Education has always been a value to persons, society, and civilization. These studies called us to be open to God's leading through prayer, to nurture our relationship with Cuban Christians, and to provide all children an opportunity for a quality education.

During the school over $700.00 was received as an offering and divided between two agencies in our conference. They are: Johnson Hill/Tri-County Project in Eutaw and Nellie Burge Community Center in Montgomery. Study leaders from our conference were Lynn Hamric, Jimmy DuFriend, Al Harbour, Joann Ashley, Virginian Lindley, and Virginia Beckham.

The dean for the 2005 school is Beth Bowdin and will be held at Blue Lake on July 28 – 31. God has designed us for mission. Join us as we study these topics: Children of the Bible - Spiritual Growth; India/Pakistan - Geographic; and Public Education - General Issue.

NOAH'S ARK

God still has a place on the beach! Since 1972, Noah's Ark has existed to share the good news of Christ with the thousands of visitors to Panama City Beach each year. Summer and winter, with Snowbirds and teenagers, Noah's Ark continues to make known the presence of God as well as we can to as many as we can in as many ways as we can. On behalf of Christ and the Alabama-West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church, the Ark remains after many, many beach "landmarks" have disappeared or been replaced. We continue to be strategically located in the middle of "the strip," where ten's of thousands of people walk or drive by every day during the summer. To these people we say, "Come on in... you're welcome here!"

During the fall and winter months and even into the spring, we minister with Snowbirds, the month- or season-long visitors to the Panama City Beach area. Each Sunday morning from mid-November through the end of March, we worship God together in our chapel, and the rest of the week we practice and live out the Gospel in which we share on Sunday. During the 2004-2005 seasons, over 800 people have participated in over 80 different activities each week. This is the highest number of participants in years, and one of the busiest weekly schedules in Noah's Ark history. But these numbers tell only a small part of the story. As expected with this age group, there are always health crises in the lives of many winter visitors. At these times, we are privileged to both provide direct pastoral care and to facilitate the ongoing support of the Noah's Ark Snowbird community. Noah's Ark continues to love people through good and bad times, and to help people to get connected or stay connected with God through these experiences.

During the summer of 2004, 55 youth groups spent their summer beach/mission trips with us. Of these groups, 42 of them were United Methodist; 6 of these were from the Alabama-West Florida Conference. Most groups stayed at the Ark for about 4 nights; some stayed for as long as 7 nights. For the summer of 2004, we had an overall occupancy rate of 76.4%, which is a very good percentage. During the 10-week summer season, we ministered to around 7000 people through the musical shows which we presented at 8:00 and 10:00 p.m. Monday through Saturday nights! Not only do we involve groups in ministry at the ark, but we also give them the opportunity to serve at the Panama City Rescue Mission, the Bay County Council on Aging, work projects throughout Panama City, and other such mission experiences. We want to involve groups in ministry and mission, not just provide a place to stay. We will continue to cooperate and partner with local and other missions/ministries, and appreciate the opportunity to do so in this way.

One marketing avenue that is paying off well is the Noah's Ark website (www.noahsarkpcb.com). It gives us international exposure, and most of our new contacts come to us by way of our website. Our toll-free phone number (1-888-438-5561) also helps us to be more accessible. Also, we are an approved General Advance Special (Advance Special No. 721601-1) and a Conference Advance Special (No. 0110-14), so any interested churches can support the ministries of Noah's Ark through the Advance.

Between 20% and 30 % of our annual operating budget comes through UMC sources including the CORE funds, Marianna-Panama City District missions funds, Advance Special gifts. We also are very grateful for many personal and other special donations. The additional funds for operating are generated by Noah's Ark through its summer lodging income and reimbursements for expenses connected with our winter ministry. Our Endowment Fund, created a few years ago, continues to slowly grow and we hope this will become a major supporter for us down the road. We are still 100% debt free and all financial support to the ark is used entirely for ministry expense.

As Noah's Ark continues into the new century, we hope to continue our close relationship and connection within the United Methodist Church. It is only through the continuing support of the church that the ministry is able to stay afloat from year to year. If your church is not supporting Noah's Ark specifically, please prayerfully consider doing so. We would value the opportunity to share about the ongoing ministry at Noah's Ark with your church or other group. The months of April, May, September, and October are our best months for us to travel and share about the ministry. Please give us a call at our toll free number 1-888-438-5561.

The Board of Directors of Noah's Ark consists of: Lee Ann Boykin / Chairperson; Helen Myers, Vice Chairperson; John Hart, Treasurer; Mrs. Boots Guthrie, Secretary; all ordained ministers of the greater Panama City area and an equal number of lay persons from Panama City; Marianna-Panama City District Superintendent; Representative of Conference Director of Age-Level Ministries; Conference and District UMW representatives; representative of Conference Board Of Missions; representative of Conference Council on Youth Ministries; Marianna-Panama City District Missions Secretary; the Executive Director of Noah's Ark and members at large: Rev. ## UNITED METHODIST INNER CITY MISSION

The United Methodist Inner City Mission continues to honor the call of Christ to minister to the needs of those who often times feel isolated from mainstream society. Our task is to interpret the Good News of Jesus Christ in their particular situations arising from the realities of poverty, racism, sexism, and class status. The following are highlights of our ministry since our 2004 Annual Conference.

The Mission on Broad Street

This has been a very exciting and fruitful year for the Mission! Two of the Mission's programs, St. Francis Street United Methodist Christian Center and West Wilmer United Methodist Christian Center, which were worshiping centers with programs for children and youth, have combined to form St. Francis Street-West Wilmer United Methodist Church. Bishop Goodpaster presided over the special chartering service which was held on August 1, 2004, for the church. Reverend Charles Fail, who had been the Director of the Mission since 1993, left the Mission to become a full-time pastor at St. Francis Street-West Wilmer United Methodist Church.

Since June 2004, the Mission has had a new Director, Tonny Algood, who was a practicing attorney with Legal Services prior to coming to work for the Mission. While still practicing law with Legal Services, he had answered the call to become an ordained deacon in the United Methodist Church and is pursuing this call as he serves as the director of the Mission.

The Mission is continuing its full scope of programs and has added new programs to minister to the community. Emergency assistance is provided to families in need of food, medicine, or who needs assistance with rent and utility payments. In the aftermath of Hurricane Ivan, the Mission emptied its freezers and pantry to assist families who were without food. We also served as a distribution center for the Bay Area Food Bank to provide families with food for several weeks after the hurricane.

The Mission worked closely with the United Methodist Church's Disaster Relief and hosted work teams to assist residents with needed repairs and cleanups that were not covered by homeowners insurance. Throughout the rest of the year, the Mission hosted summer work teams, and also weekend work teams, from throughout the Alabama-West Florida Conference. These teams were comprised not only of adults, but several UMC youth groups made up of high school and college students who volunteered their time to perform work in the community.

In addition to these work teams, the Mission hosted summer work teams with members from all over the United States who were with "Taking Back the Cities". These teams painted homes for senior citizens in our community, repaired and painted Sunday school classrooms at St. Francis Street-West Wilmer UMC, and conducted Vacation Bible School at the Mission. During the summer the Mission took fifty children from St. Francis Street-West Wilmer UMC and Taylor Park UMC to Blue Lake for one week. As part of our expanding ministry to our youth, the Mission is sponsoring a new Boy Scout Troup and Cub Scout Pack.

Since many in our community are without transportation, the Mission provides transportation on an as needed basis for doctor visits, appointments with the housing board, social security, and other social service agencies for job interviews. The Mission continues to serve hot breakfast Monday through Friday to indigent residents in our community. The Mission provided two hundred food baskets with turkeys during Thanksgiving and again at Christmas to needy families so they could enjoy a holiday meal. We also served Thanksgiving and Christmas luncheons at the Mission for members of the community. Through generous gifts and donations and Santa Assurance, we were able to provide over $35,000.00 in food, toys and gifts to indigent families during Christmas.

We continue to minister to those whose lives are torn apart by drugs or violence, whether it be assistance in entering rehabilitation programs or hosting a weekly meeting of Narcotics Anonymous. The Mission has received a grant to develop a new program to address the issue of violence in our schools and communities. Through funds received from Volunteers of America Southeast, the Mission offered a forty-hour seminar to train adults to teach non-violent conflict resolution skills to children and youth. Trainers from the Twomey Center with Loyola University in New Orleans taught the seminar.

Our Community Enrichment staff works with senior citizens and youth to improve their quality of life. Daily activities are provided for the "Taylor Park Seniors" including recreation, field trips and music. Those participating range in ages from fifty-eight to ninety-six years old. The staff also worked with the Oakdale Community Service Club, which is a large group of community residents who address a wide variety of issues in the community, from environmental issues (vacant houses and lots need to be torn down or cleaned up) to safety issues (working with the Enhanced Neighborhood Policing to safely report criminal activity such as drug trafficking in a manner that protects the identity of those filing the reports and prevents possible retaliation). This year the group worked closely with the Environmental Protection Agency and monitored the clean up of hazardous waste site that was discovered in the neighborhood. During the aftermath of Hurricane Ivan, the staff and the Oakdale Community Service Club assisted residents in filing claims with FEMA and insurance companies. They also identified residents needing special help with repairs and removal of debris.

Taylor Park Recreation Center

Taylor Park Recreation Center continues to play a vital roll in our ministry to the children and youth in our community. Fifty children participated in our summer enrichment program which included tutoring in reading, praise dancing, Bible studies, music and swimming. Participants were also taken on various field trips outside the community. Children participating in our summer programs were provided a free lunch through our summer lunch program.

The Taylor Park sports program hosted football, basketball, baseball and softball teams, along with cheerleading. The junior girls softball team won the city league championship! Within the past year, several new programs have been added at Taylor Park for our ministry to children and youth in the community. The Mission received funding to purchase ten computers and play stations with accompanying educational software for a computer lab. The lab is also used during another programs, the After School Enrichment Program, which is a tutorial program for at-risk students in kindergarten through eighth grades. We now have nine certified teachers and three teacher's aides assisting students with homework, reading, character development, and computer skills. This program is proving to be very beneficial in assisting students in improving their overall academic performance. We now have sixty-four students participating in the program.

The After School Enrichment Program has grown to the point where we need more space to accommodate the large number of students participating. We need to renovate the upstairs of the Mission which has classrooms that were used for Sunday school during the early sixties. This will mean raising additional funds for the needed repairs. Any contributions from churches or individuals in the Conference to meet this need will be greatly appreciated.

Another new program is our computer classes on Saturday mornings for students in eighth through twelfth grades. We have partnered with Fathers, Inc., a group of successful computer engineers who are successful businessmen and formed this non-profit group to give something back to the community. (Two of them are originally from our community and participated in programs at Taylor Park when they were growing up.) Students are taught not only how to operate a computer and computer language, but how to build a computer and install new parts. Each student builds a computer and when they graduate from the program, they keep the computer they have built and take it home with them. This has proven to be very successful and we have recently graduated our first group of fourteen students.

When prayers go up, blessings come down! As we celebrate our first forty years of ministry and look forward to the next forty years, we ask that you continue to remember the Mission in your prayers and support it with your gifts.

DUMAS WESLEY

Dumas Wesley Community Center has a tradition of community involvement and improving the lives of the people living in the Crichton neighborhood. The mission of the Center is to give every person the chance to live a more prosperous and happy life. Every endeavor we undertake is guided by this principle.

Day Care has always been a major project of the Center. Over one hundred and thirty children are currently enrolled in our day care program. The Junior League of Mobile provides reading buddies and computer classes for our students.

Dumas Wesley provides a children and youth program for neighborhood families thereby creating a safe, non-threatening environment for community children and youth. It exposes them to cultural events; it fosters talents in the arts and sports; and it makes the youth aware of societal dangers that can jeopardize them and prevent them from having a bright and successful future. Activities include:

- After school tutoring
- Sports
- Pregnancy awareness program
- Etiquette class
- Super Saturdays (field trips)
- Arts and crafts
- Career mentoring
- Daily recreation (games, storytelling, etc.)
- School visits (Dumas Wesley youth counselor visits schools)
- Summer recreation
- Summer camp
- Youth projects

Dumas Wesley provides a seventeen-unit transitional housing program for homeless women and children. The Sybil H. Smith Family Village opened its doors in June 1999. To date, over 164 women and 195 children have been served. Eleven United Way agencies, the Department of Human Resources and other community groups in four counties make referrals to the program.

The Sybil H. Smith Family Village assists mothers as they obtain job skills and educational skills so they can financially support their families. It helps women and children recover from and avoid the trauma, which homelessness and lack of economic stability causes to their health, self-esteem and emotional development. It also helps them secure and retain permanent housing when they complete the program.

Dumas Wesley offers a comprehensive SAIL (Senior Activities for Independent Living) program, which enables seniors to participate in daily social activities, health screenings and nutritional meals. Daily transportation to medical appointments is also provided and meals are delivered to the homebound in the community. Work teams repair homes and build handicap ramps during the spring and summer months.

Another component of our program is our outreach services. Dumas Wesley's staff is in daily contact with residents in the Crichton community. Organized meetings provide residents with a forum to express their needs and concerns to elected officials. Organized clean up campaigns take place throughout the year. Blighted areas are reported to the proper authorities on a regular basis. Block captains serve throughout the community to keep the residents informed and involved in improving conditions in the area.

Finally, Dumas Wesley Community Center has stood for a century as a beacon to those who are in need of physical, moral and spiritual help. It has served since its beginning and has evolved to meet challenging conditions as they arose. We thank the many individuals and churches that have given monetarily, volunteered your time and talents and lifted up prayers over the years. We are especially appreciative of the generous donation from the Mobile District, which enabled us to match a $50,000 grant from the Kresge Foundation.

By building on the successes of the past century, we at Dumas Wesley Community Center will continue to meet the changing and growing needs of the neighborhood and families who look to us for help in tough times. It is through God's guidance and your continued support that Dumas Wesley Community Center will persevere in serving those in need during the next century.

ALABAMA RURAL MINISTRY (ARM)

Alabama Rural Ministry (ARM) is a vehicle for hands on ministry responding to people through Christian love with an emphasis on home repair and children's day camp ministries. Using exclusively volunteer labor, we work to repair homes in order to reduce substandard housing in Alabama. Volunteers also assist our staff in our summer day camp program, which provides an opportunity for underprivileged children to learn more about Christ in a safe, loving environment.

Alabama Rural Ministry (ARM) began in conjunction with the University of West Alabama Wesley Foundation in order to meet the incredible need in Sumter County, AL. In 2001, ARM opened its administrative office in Auburn, AL and became a full time ministry. ARM has experienced incredible growth since beginning as a full time ministry. We have since opened two sites in addition to the site in Sumter County. These sites are located in Lee and Macon counties and in West Wilmer in conjunction with the West Wilmer Christian Center. ARM has also experienced a major staff change in the past year. Lisa Pierce, the founder and director of ARM, was deployed with the National Guard to serve our country overseas in Iraq. In her absence, Katie McCullough, has taken over as the interim director in order to continue the growth of the organization in Lisa's absence. We also hired Kristy Brown as our Associate Director.

While we have volunteers come in year round to Lee and Macon counties, the largest part of our ministry runs in the summers. During the summers, we hire 12-15 college students to work for ARM. These students are responsible for the day camps, the construction, the groups who come to serve, and developing relationships with the communities in which they are located. The staff hosts teams from churches all around the country. The majority of these teams are youth groups who come for week long or weekend mission experiences. Not only do they have the opportunity to serve through home repair and day camp, they also have times in the evenings in which the staff present devotional materials, music, and small group time based on a theme set for the summer.

Following are some highlights from our past summer:
There were 38 homes repaired among our three sites.
67 children participated in our summer day camps.
Throughout the summer our three sites hosted a total of 22 teams.
Teams traveled from 5 different states to serve in Alabama.
13 people worked with us this summer of 2004 to facilitate our summer programming.

Following are some highlights of the past conference year:
Our website was updated and continues to be updated regularly.
10 homes have been repaired in addition to those completed in the summer.
Three youth groups and 30 volunteers from the Auburn University Wesley Foundation participated in our Martin Luther King Mission/retreat weekend.
We hosted eight sites for The Big Event, which is a day of service hosted by Auburn University.
We hosted two spring break teams, a Christmas work team, and have had numerous work days throughout the year.

Nellie Burge is a United Methodist Church agency of social concern in Montgomery operating on Christian principles, ministering to children, youth and adults.

The center is a DHR-licensed Child Care Facility serving 76 children ages 6 weeks to 5 years. Breakfast, lunch and an afternoon snack are prepared in our kitchen according to USDA guidelines. Children of working mothers, GED mothers, mothers enrolled in public schools, and on-the-job training are eligible for our Child Care Services.

GED Program – This unique program is designed to meet the special needs of women who have not completed high school. We provide transportation to and from school, a hot lunch, and childcare. Life skills such as cooking, sewing, fashion, nail and hair care, etc. are offered in the afternoon at different times as an opportunity for them to improve the quality of life for them and their children.

After School Enrichment Program – The center offers a supplementary education program to neighborhood children during the afternoon. Snacks, crafts, dance, music, Boy and Girl Scouts, and drama activities help to bring alive the imagination and creativity of youth. We currently have 20 enrolled in this program.

Federal Nutrition Program – Nellie Burge sponsors licensed in-home Child Care providers and assists them with qualifications for the Federal Nutrition Program. Monitors visit the homes to view the number of children in care, meal servings, and bookkeeping.

H.I.P.P.Y. (Home Instruction For The Parents Of Preschool Youngsters) – A teacher attends training by Parents as Partners and receives lessons that she shares with parents so they can teach their children games and learning activities to help them be prepared for school

Food Pantry – Every Thursday food is passed out to clients. ID is required and is only available once a month per person. We have served over 30 people in January dispersing over 450 pounds of food.

Volunteers are needed and contributions are always welcome.

BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

The Alabama-West Florida Conference Board of Church and Society has just sent members to an orientation session March 11-14, 2005 in Washington D. C. We have emerged from that event with a sense that our work is of utmost importance. We also emerged affirming the hope communicated by Christ's declaration, "See, I am making all things new." (Revelation 21:5) Those hopeful words spur us to work for the building of a just global community that nurtures peace, alleviates poverty, and protects the integrity of God's creation. In Washington we discussed such controversial issues as the genocide in Dufur, Sudan; the impact of U. S. policy on HIV/AIDS in Africa; water privatization issues; militarism, terrorism, peace and security; economic justice; protecting God's creation; peacemaking in Israel/Palestine; U.S. - Iran relations; creating a federal budget for the common good; taxation as civil stewardship; justice and the federal prison system; what it takes to escape poverty; health care; the social security debate and more. We also came to see budgets as moral documents, because they reflect our priorities. (That includes federal, state, city, district, conference and local church budgets.)

Here are some questions the Board will be addressing in this new quadrennium: What is God's hope for little children, the working poor, the uninsured, the infirmed, the elderly, the addicted, the unemployed, the homeless, the hungry and the undocumented aliens? What should the church, the public and private sectors be doing to alleviate suffering? Is The United Methodist Church being true to our Wesleyan mandate for social holiness in these matters and others? If the church chooses to "lie low" on these issues will we cease to be legitimate children of the prophets of old?

In order to begin to address these questions the Board intends to identify people in the Conference with a passion for solving problems. Then we hope to enlist them to analyze, organize, then educate and energize the rest of us to work on meaningful remedies. We will network with Conference and Jurisdictional Boards and the General Board of Church and Society to share information and magnify our efforts. None of this will be accomplished easily and without God's help.

In an attitude of Christian ministry, the Board's goals will include the following:

1. Relationship Building (public and private, sacred and secular.)
2. Education (Reflective study.)
3. Mobilization (Beyond study to involvement in the political process.)
4. Servant/Leadership (In areas that will renew individuals, society and the earth.)

Jesus offered the hope of an alternative reality when he said, "Behold I make all things new." (Revelation 21:5) He also offered a marvelous illustration of patience as he diligently taught his stubborn disciples. May we all learn hopefulness, patience and a talent for connected, non-prideful service from our Divine Teacher. Then we, like modern apostles, will be ready to lead our own generation to seek a better world.

Respectfully submitted,
Joe Reams, Chairperson

BISHOP'S INITIATIVE ON CHILDREN AND POVERTY

TASK FORCE REPORT

The pennies, nickels, dimes, dollars, and checks were gathered together during annual conference 2004 in great wicker baskets. The "Change for Children" offering benefiting The UM Children's Home, Nellie Burge Community Center, Dumas Wesley Community Center, and Mobile Inner City Mission had as its goal $20,000. Throughout 2004, the offerings continued arriving and when all funds were tallied $21,229.15 was given to assist these four conference agencies in their work with children in poverty. Your BICAP task force has celebrated not only this important contribution to the work with children in need within the bounds of our annual conference, but also the tremendous creativity employed by our local churches and pastors in raising the funds. With great thanksgiving we express our appreciation for this outstanding offering. Please remember that the funding crisis these agencies are experiencing is far from over. Your continued gifts through the White Christmas offering, Advance Specials, and Memorial and In Honor gifts are still vital in the ongoing work with children and poverty.

In 2004 the task force continued encouraging local churches to observe a Children's Sabbath. Multi-faith resource manuals were made available at reduced costs to help plan these very meaningful services focusing on educating congregations of the needs of children and the poor. The 2004 manual was named "Say That I'm a Child of God: Assuring Justice & Care to Leave No Child Behind." The 2005 manual will be made available this summer. "Putting Our Faith Into Action to Seek Justice for Children: The 2005 National of Children's Sabbaths" includes practical activities for adults and children, worship resources, materials for interfaith community-wide celebrations, and follow-up activities. Contact the Conference Resource Center in late June to reserve your copy.

With great pleasure the BICAP task force certified twenty-six churches as "A Church for All God's Children" at the 2004 annual conference. These churches ranged in size from among the smallest to several of the largest congregations, thus illustrating how well the emphases of the Initiative can be adapted for communities of faith with a desire for ministry with "the least of these." The 2004 churches certified include:

- |                                   |                              |
|-----------------------------------|------------------------------|
| 1. FUMC Fairhope                  | 14. Bradford's Chapel UMC    |
| 2. Providence UMC, Spanish Fort   | 15. Perry Hill UMC           |
| 3. Bethel UMC - Baypines District | 16. Good News UMC            |
| 4. FUMC Demopolis                 | 17. Sneads UMC               |
| 5. FUMC Thomasville               | 18. Chickasaw UMC            |
| 6. FUMC Monroeville               | 19. Dauphin Way UMC          |
| 7. FUMC Greenville                | 20. Kingswood UMC            |
| 8. Brundidge UMC                  | 21. Spring Hill Ave UMC      |
| 9. Park Memorial UMC, Troy        | 22. St. Mark UMC, Mobile     |
| 10. FUMC Auburn                   | 23. St. Stephens UMC, Mobile |
| 11. FUMC Opelika                  | 24. Wesley Chapel UMC        |
| 12. Allen Memorial UMC            | 25. Navarre UMC              |
| 13. Ferry Pass UMC                | 26. Shalimar UMC             |

An elementary child whose family had been touched by the ministry of the St. Stephen UMC was the speaker at the conclusion of the recognition ceremony. She spoke passionately of her desire to enter the ministry and to help others as she has been helped. Challenging other congregations "to wake up and help families like mine", the task force anticipates that she lit a fire that will result in additional churches being recognized as "A Church for All God's Children" at the 2005 annual conference.

On March 29, 2004, Bishop Larry M. Goodpaster joined Florida Conference Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker in supporting Florida legislation that sought to provide meals to more than one million needy children during the summer months. Goodpaster and Whitaker stood along with the Children's Summer Nutrition (CSN) bill's sponsors, Senator Steve Wise (R-Jacksonville) and Representative Ron Greenstein (D-Ft. Lauderdale), at a joint news conference at the Florida State Capitol. The news conference brought attention to the plight of Florida's hungry children and the two bishops spent the day discussing the importance of the feeding program with Florida lawmakers.

The CSN bill, which ultimately failed to get a hearing on the Senate floor and "died," proposed to potentially bring millions of federal dollars to Florida and local economies to feed more than one million children in the summer months when school is out. Florida Impact, a supporter of the bill, says that the 2005 Florida Legislature will be presented with another opportunity to maximize federal funding to feed more hungry children in the summer months.

One program, the federally-funded Summer Food Service Program for Children (SFSP), seeks to fill the gap during the summer months when meals are not always available to all children. The SFSP was created by Congress in 1968 and is an entitlement program designed to provide funds for eligible sponsoring organizations to serve nutritious meals to low-income children when school is not in session.

After the recent BICAP involvement with the Florida Legislature, one United Methodist congregation in Northwest Florida got involved this summer as a SFSP "feeding site." St. Luke UMC, Pensacola, Fla., provided meals for children in their area, illustrating how their church is "A Church for All God's Children."

Esther Felt, Director of Children's Ministries at St. Luke, says that she felt called to the program and wants more churches to get involved in this needed ministry. "I know that our participation has gotten the word out to other churches who may be in better locations, and who want to make a difference in the area of child hunger in the state of Florida."

Bishop Goodpaster and Bishop Whitaker have joined efforts around this legislation again in 2005 and will be supported by United Methodists from both annual conferences, April 6 and 7 in Tallahassee, Florida.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Libba Stinson, Director of Connectional Ministries

BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

SCHOOLS OF THEOLOGY

The Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry (BHECM) has been in significant transition for the past year. Over the past twelve months, our board has been under the leadership of three different chairpersons. The Rev. Bill Elwell completed his quadrennial term as chair in June 2004, having led the board through the transition from the old council on ministries structure to a more streamlined and efficient CORE team model. As the newly appointed chairperson, Dr. Jean Thompson of Greenville began the task of establishing priorities and goals for the next quadrennium at our November 2004 meeting; but due to unforeseen circumstances, Dr. Thompson had to leave her post as chair in December of 2004. Grateful for Dr. Thompson's work and encouraged by the processes of reevaluation and visioning that was begun under her leadership, the board elected to continue to function with an interim chairperson, the Rev. Amy Persons Parkes, for the remainder of the 2004-2005 conference year.

Despite the struggles due to changes in leadership and the challenge of communication issues, the BHECM forged ahead with a visioning retreat set for January 28th and 29th of this year. The visioning retreat was held in conjunction with the annual conference sponsored young adult retreat, Hungry, held annually at Laguna Beach Retreat for the past four years. At that retreat the BHECM members received annual reports from Wesley Foundations, including program reports, budget reports for 2004, budget requests for 2006, and nominations for Wesley Foundation local boards and for trustees from Huntingdon College and Birmingham Southern. The board heard the stories from campus ministry and college representatives of how these arms of the church are developing lay and clergy leaders, planting new and growing existing congregations and faith communities, expanding mission opportunities, and becoming a church for all God's children. In response, we were moved to reexamine our stated priorities and goals for the next year and the next quadrennium. Though the campus ministries and colleges seem to be doing a phenomenal job of fulfilling the priorities set by our annual conference, the BHECM recognizes that to be even more effective in supporting these ministries we must set and achieve two immediate goals.

First, the BHECM understands that we must clarify our role in and relationship to campus ministries and colleges. In particular, we must clarify our expectations of local boards and trustees and our specific functions of support and accountability to and for these ministries. As we examine the standard policies and procedures the BHECM has in place for accountability, support, guidance, and productivity, we find them largely lacking. In an effort to become more efficient and to standardize procedures, we have begun the process of developing a guidebook for the BHECM that will record our policies, ranging from expectations of local Wesley Foundation board members to the "formula" for the disbursement of the monies received in the Wesley Foundation apportionment line item. Our hope is that the new and revised guidebook will clarify expectations for existing campus ministries and for our annual conference-related colleges, as well as provide resources for new and developing campus ministries and their relationship to the annual conference.

Second, the BHECM understands that supporting the campus ministries and United Methodist-related colleges of our conference means finding ways to adequately fund these extensions of the local church. In a world that is now being shaped by people who give to perceived need and not to institutions, the BHECM is becoming more aware that dependence upon an ever-increasing apportionment line item is naive. In response to the Discipline's mandate for the annual conference BHECM, our board takes seriously the role we play in finding resources to fund our campus ministries and colleges. No less important, we also commit to helping equip them to individually locate and depend upon resources outside apportionment giving.

In order to begin addressing these goals, the BHECM has hired Ms. Morgan Hughes, a United Methodist from Dalraida UMC of Montgomery, to work as a summer intern. Ms. Hughes' primary responsibilities are (1) to create a manual/handbook for the BHECM to help the board and ministries for which we are responsible meet the MVP of the annual conference and (2) to identify grant monies available for both the BHECM and local Wesley Foundations. Ms. Hughes will begin her work on May 16, 2005 and complete it by no later than August 2005.

Though we have had a bit of a wobbly start to the quadrennium, we are now focused on the priorities and goals we believe will make a difference as we attempt to fulfill the mission, vision, and priorities of the annual conference. We hope you will read carefully the reports submitted by our colleges and campus ministries and be reminded once again of the power of the church beyond the church walls; of the passion young people have for Jesus Christ; of the undeniable zeal with which they put roofs on homes, pull soggy carpet off flooded floors, and create safe spaces for children to learn the name of God; of a youth and vitality and radical prophetic voice that is embodied in these ministries. Join us in prayerful, physical, and financial support of our young adults in higher education.

Respectfully Submitted,
 Rev. Amy E. Persons Parkes,
 Interim Chair of the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry

BIRMINGHAM-SOUTHERN COLLEGE

Birmingham-Southern College is grateful for the support of the Alabama-West Florida Conference and is strengthened by the great ministry of the annual conference. Lay and clergy from across Alabama and West Florida serve on the Board of Trustees, the Pastoral Advisory Board, The President's Advisory Council, the Norton Board, and advise in areas of Admission and Financial Aid, Pre-Ministerial Advising, and the Center for Ministry. More importantly, daughters and sons of the conference excel as students and lead skillfully and faithfully in service and ministry.

G. David Pollick, the 12th president of Birmingham-Southern, came to us from Lebanon Valley College, a four-year United Methodist college in Annville, Pennsylvania. His wife, Karen Bentley Pollick, is a nationally recognized concert musician and conductor. Their interests and dedication touch the lives of students, and impact the College in positive ways. Dr. Pollick's vision for the College is strong and far-reaching. In his inaugural address, Dr. Pollick stated:

...Birmingham-Southern College will continue in its work on behalf of its community and society as a whole. We will rededicate ourselves to the message of Birmingham. With pride in who we are, questions of human dignity will move to center stage in our consideration of our institutional ethos and programs. And with a clear and loud voice, we will take the wisdom and insight of our hard-earned experience and speak with humility and pride of what we've learned and what that experience may have to offer to a larger world - a world that struggles mightily with the great challenges of peace and human dignity.

Additionally, the College has had and continues to have an extraordinary commitment to the service of our community, student leadership development, and the preparation of young adults for full citizenship through service education. Consonant with our deep and strong dedication to the societal and religious values and principles of John Wesley as expressed through the United Methodist Church, our students embrace their responsibilities to the human family at a level that gives us all pride and, indeed, hope. This is a work that must and will continue. For only young men and women who understand and hear the cries of others throughout the world are fit to lead.

In his remarks at the inauguration, Bishop Will Willimon directed these words to Dr. Pollick:

The Methodist Church dreamed of a college in Alabama, to raise up leaders for the church, to embody our faith that all truth is from God, that all enlightenment leads to God's light. Of all the possible tasks that we could assume in a poverty ridden, enslaved and conflicted region of God's kingdom, we chose to found Birmingham-Southern. Methodists have sacrificed for and stood by this ...college in tough times and for one hundred and fifty years we have been the grateful beneficiaries of its light and life. This school has a special place in the hearts of Methodists in Alabama. We are proud of Birmingham-Southern and love her dearly. This day we entrust to your care a great treasure, a good gift God has given us, a college. When the college is threatened, preserve it; where the college is wrong, change it; where it could be better, improve it. In all ways, love it. Be a good steward of this gift of God, our beloved College.

Dr. Wayne Shew, Ada Rittenhouse Snavely Professor of Biology, was named to serve as interim provost. He is a past recipient of the Exemplary Teacher Award from the General Board of Higher Education. Academics continue to be enhanced by collaborative teaching, by an excellent faculty, and by the Foundations curriculum that promotes life-long learning and experiences across the disciplines.

The college is one of only six baccalaureate-liberal arts institutions in the country classified by The Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching to hold both AACSB International-The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business accreditation and the designation of Phi Beta Kappa. AACSB International is the world's premier accrediting agency for business schools.

Birmingham-Southern receives consistently high rankings as one of America's top national liberal arts colleges. Among rankings this year: U.S. News & World Report Best Colleges of 2004; one of 22 colleges and universities names as "Best Buy" in the Fiske Guide to Colleges; one of "America's Best Christian Colleges" by Institutional Research and Evaluation, Inc.; and one of "America's Most Wired Colleges" by Yahoo! Internet Life.

Birmingham-Southern also is recognized as "one of the nation's top 30 colleges" by The Washington Times, as well as in Loren Pope's 40 Colleges That Change Lives, The Princeton Review's Best 345 Colleges, Choosing the Right College: The Whole Truth About America's Top Schools, Best 201 Colleges for the Real World, and Kaplan Publishing's The Unofficial, Unbiased, Insider's Guide to the 320 Most Interesting Colleges. The college is one of 100 schools nationwide on The John Templeton Foundation's Honor Roll for programs that emphasize character building as an integral part of the college experience. Birmingham-Southern has been on the Honor Roll every year since its inception.

The presence of the United Methodist Church is felt across the campus. In many ways the construction of a new United Methodist Center has presented opportunities to explore the relationship of college and church in new areas. The church-relatedness component of Faculty Institute and Orientation provides faculty, staff and students with a better understanding of 'Southern's close relationship with the Church and the two annual conferences. Staff from Student Affairs, Personal Counseling, Residence Life, Multi-Cultural Affairs, and Church Relations participate in numerous conferences sponsored by the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry and annual conferences. The work of collaborative teams is aided by polity, United Methodist beliefs and the Social Principles as they interact with students.

Staff and faculty who relate to campus ministries also relate to the local church and beyond: teaching Sunday School, preaching, leading retreats and worship, speaking to organizations and mission groups, serving on conference and general church committees, leading camps and conferences, teaching in youth and children's academies, lecturing in Bible conferences, hosting youth planning groups on campus, and partnering in service to communities. Birmingham-Southern offers ministry on and off campus, and is grateful for opportunities to be engaged with local church and conference programs. Faculty and staff are also engaged in leadership and service in their own faith communities.

Religious studies and preparation for ministry remains strong. With the revision of requirements for the Religion major to reflect faculty expertise and student needs, students go deeply into Biblical studies, reach widely to embrace theology, and walk confidently in the footsteps of Jesus, Paul and Wesley to claim the inheritance of our faith. More than 40 students have chosen Religion as their primary study; more than 80 students are seriously considering vocation in ministry; at this February writing, 6 students have applied to seminary and 3 are preparing their applications. Religion courses are in demand from students in all disciplines. Because freshman register after returning students have claimed courses, freshman classes on Wesley and theological responses to environmental crises were added this year (and filled!). Consideration is being given, at this time, to reviving the Religious Education major, and revising the major and minor in Church Music to include contemporary music and styles of worship.

Mentoring and counseling students as they discern their call to ministry or vocation reaches beyond the classroom, the Chapel, Religion courses, and the campus. The Boards of Higher Education and Boards of Ordained Ministry offer support to students and to faculty and staff.

The Dean of the Chapel is engaged in both pastoral care and conversation that help students connect to their truest selves, others and to God. Faculty offer counsel to graduates who hear their call out of other careers. Students contract interim experiences and studies, and plan for summer internships and senior projects. Among the interim contract courses you will find titles such as: George Whitfield: His Life and Ministry, Segregation in Churches, Religious Awakenings: Predictors and Commonalities in Revival Movements, A Study of Literacy Evangelism, Dietrich Bonhoeffer's Theology, Exploring the Postmodern Movement in Christianity, Theology and Community of the Moravian Church in America, and A Theological Look into Hymns and Their Effects in Worship. Summer internships and senior projects will place students in churches, camps, and General Church agencies.

This year we will graduate our first class whose entire college career was shadowed by the events of September 11, 2001. Being in relationship during these formative years, and ministry to many, has been a challenge and a blessing. As spiritual needs and hungers have grown and changed, campus ministry has responded in a variety of ways. Lectionary Bible study, weekly worship, praise gatherings, prayer retreats, and early morning prayer groups make time for students to re-connect with the Sacred in our midst.

Service-Learning continues to be an integral part of the student experience at Birmingham-Southern. Two-thirds of the student body, plus faculty and staff, volunteer regularly for community service. Regardless of the specifics of the work in communities across the world, connecting with people and building relationships is the real work of service-learning. This work continues throughout the year as students spend a significant portion of their time in the community tutoring and mentoring, staffing homeless shelters, and delivering meals to our homebound neighbors. Six ongoing Service-Learning projects in the Birmingham community include: week-day delivery throughout the year of Meals on Wheels; weekly support and leadership for First Light Women's Shelter; international tutoring; sponsoring scout troops, a cheerleading squad, Student of the Month parties, and tutoring at Woodrow Wilson Elementary; and mentoring and tutoring with the Urban Kidz program at Urban Ministry, Inc. Advocacy through programs such as Alabama Arise and the Board of Church and Society are also a part of the experience on the Hilltop.

Our service partnership with new communities continues to grow. For example, in March a new partnership with Bush Hills Neighborhood Association, the Junior League of Birmingham, and other area businesses will build a new playground at Woodrow Wilson Elementary. Spring break will partner students, faculty, and staff and friends in Alabama-West Florida to rebuild areas devastated by Hurricane Ivan.

During January 2005, three teams of students, faculty and staff immersed themselves in communities of Woodlawn, Harlem, and Mozambique. Service-Learning interim participants enjoy opportunities to try out a variety of jobs: concrete block construction and teaching English as a second (or third or fourth) language in Mozambique; teaching and tutoring, and minor construction, at St. Aloysius School in Harlem; and research into Woodlawn's WPA era mural, roofing and tutoring in the Woodlawn community. Over 100 churches supported Interims in Service-Learning through the Loafing Project.

The learning of service-learning is as critical to personal and spiritual growth as service. It is more than the how; it is also the why and the what, the economic and political realities and causes of need, the commitment and faithful response of persons and organizations. As faculty recognize the opportunities for teaching and learning that Service-Learning offers, more and more ongoing courses are including a Service-Learning component.

It is exciting to see the creative ways of bridging community needs and academic objectives. We think John Wesley would be pleased at our turn on uniting "the two so long disjoined, knowledge and vital piety."

HUNTINGDON COLLEGE

Academic Year 2004-2005 marked Huntingdon College's 151st year as a community of faith and wisdom preparing young men and women for a lifetime of service. Over the past year, President J. Cameron West has led the College in the ongoing process of reclaiming its historic mission as a College of the United Methodist Church. The ultimate goal is the combination of excellent academics with the soul of Wesleyan theology. In the Fall of 2004, Huntingdon College announced the establishment of the "Cross and Flame Scholarship." The "Cross and Flame" is a half-tuition award available to all United Methodist students who are recommended by their pastor and accepted for admission to the College. It is the College's hope that Huntingdon will become a college of first choice for the youth of the Alabama-West Florida Conference and the North Alabama Conference.

The freshman class of 2004 is the first class that has experienced Huntingdon's new core requirements, which include New Testament and Hebrew Bible courses. In addition to the new core curriculum, Huntingdon has reestablished three of the College's traditionally strongest majors to meet the current and future needs of the people of Alabama and Northwest Florida. Beginning in the Fall of 2005, students will be able to enter Huntingdon College and major in Accounting, Elementary Education, and Religion, in addition to over 20 other existing major fields of study.

Through the generosity of members of the First United Methodist Church of Montgomery, Alabama, and in honor of the ministry of The Reverend Dr. Karl K. Stegall, the College has established The Reverend Dr. Karl K. Stegall Fellows Program at Huntingdon College. The Stegall Fellowship will provide a two-thirds tuition scholarship to two students in the Fall 2005 entering class who are majoring in Religion with the intention of entering seminary to pursue a vocation in ministry.

The Huntingdon admissions staff has visited almost 80 churches in the Alabama-West Florida Conference and the North Alabama Conference in the last year. In addition, President West and The Reverend Dr. Mark La Branche, Vice President for Institutional Advancement and Church Relations, have preached and taught at over 20 churches in the two conferences. Any clergy who wish a visit from the College are encouraged to contact Dr. La Branche at (334) 833-4528 or mdl@huntingdon.edu. We'll look forward to sharing with you the good news about Huntingdon's mission of "Faith, Wisdom, and Service."

WESLEY FOUNDATION CAMPUS MINISTRIES

ALABAMA STATE UNIVERSITY

Here at Alabama State University, the growth of the Wesley Foundation is continuing to be in the developmental stage. October - December, 2004 our Bible Study was held on Wednesdays at 6:30 p.m. in the Buskey Building. In an effort to make our presence more convenient for the on-campus population, we began meeting in the Alumni Conference room, University Center, 2nd Floor mid-January 2005 on Tuesdays at 6:00 p.m. The Bible Study focus is developing a personal relationship with God.

This approach is being used to encourage and inspire students so that they may understand that God's presence is vital in our daily lives. With this, their questions regarding developing successful personal/intimate relationships challenge me to provide solid, scriptural-based responses to them as they search and seek divine guidance. The study is to provide teaching of valuing oneself according to God's, vision along with unavoidable development of moral values. Scriptures are read and discussed from the Bible and other texts are used for references.

Our efforts to increase participation continues to be word-of-mouth by using resources of our home church, Metropolitan, faculty and staff members of Alabama State University and posting flyers. My plan does include contacting the campus newspaper and the campus radio station to make arrangements for advertisement of weekly meetings and other activities we initiate on campus.

Our future goals include:

Winning souls for Christ.

Collaborating with other campus ministries including those on ASU campus.

Establish a gospel choir.

Have permanent placement on campus superceding the status of student organization.

Have "Talent Show"

Office space with appropriate furnishings and communication equipment and office supplies.

An overall budget increase with accompanying outreach programs that justify the increase.

Conference on concerns of the Christian college student.

Respectfully submitted,

Shelia A. Smith, Interim Director

ASU Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry

BISHOP STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

The Bishop State Community College Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry is actively ministering to the students and staff on four campuses - the Main Campus, Carver Campus, Southwest Campus, and Central Campus that comprise Bishop State.

Our activities include:

Prayer Meeting and Bible Study every Tuesday from 12:00 noon to 1:00 p.m. with an average attendance of 30 students. We reach out to local ministers and pastors to participate in this time of spiritual enrichment. Our Gospel Choir and Praise Dance Team has ministered in songs and holy dance to various functions within the college campuses and community.

Our students participated in the Annual Student Leadership Planning Retreat conducted by the Student Government Association (SGA), and the Campus Ministry Fellowship Empowerment Conference at Stillman College.

During the fall season, we conducted the "Get On Board" recruitment for new campus ministry students. Refreshments, cookies, and bottled water were provided. We also participated in the colleges new student orientation meeting.

The Wesley Foundation Campus Ministry makes a visible impact by also participating in the President's Assembly, College Coronation, Central Weekend Gospel Stage, Christmas Concert, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Gospel Fest, Fellowship dinner, WKRG-TV 5, Comcast Cable Channel 6, WGOK Gospel 900 radio, Concert at the University of South Alabama, Emancipation Proclamation Program, Tribute To M.L.K., BSCC Homecoming Gospel Fest, Jr. Program, and has appeared on local church programs. ## TROY UNIVERSITY

The Troy Wesley Foundation continues to be a place where college students can find a Christian family that will help them grow closer to God. The Wesley Foundation is a home away from home for over 100 students on Troy's campus. Come to our building on any day or night of the week and you will see it overflowing with college students, whether they are there for Monday night P.U.S.H. (Pray Until Something Happens), Tuesday lunchtime Bible study, Wednesday night praise and worship, Thursday night fellowship meal with communion, playing pool, basketball, Mario Cart or Karaoke Revolution, or just hanging out, the students are there. The students are there, forming relationships with one another that will last a lifetime. They are there, learning to be leaders in our local churches. They are there, discerning their callings in life and how they fit into the ministry of all Christians.

In the past year, we have seen many of our visions for the Troy Wesley become reality. We were able to fundraise much of our income this last year as a result of hard work on such projects as our reserved parking during the football season. This spring, we are planning a three-on-three basketball tournament and a golf tournament to continue to fundraise more of our income. We have become much more mission oriented in the past year as well. The students gave up their retreat time this fall to build a wheelchair ramp for a local man in Troy. Each spring break, our students take a mission trip within the United States. This year, we will work with Alabama Rural Ministry. Another vision for this year was to get involved with intramurals on campus again. I am pleased to say that we managed to field a team in girls' volleyball for the fall. While we did not win a game, it was a moral victory just to show up.

The plans and visions for the Troy Wesley Foundation are to continue to provide multiple weekly opportunities for worship and social experiences. Also, we will continue to provide special events such as midnight breakfast during finals, semi-formals with dancing, and campus-wide prayer lock-ins. We also plan to continue to serve our local churches by offering youth nights at the Wesley and local church dinners to help more people in the community churches fellowship together and understand what campus ministry is all about. In the future, we would like to be able to do more international missions trips. We have a wonderful group of student leaders at the Troy Wesley. They are an incredibly responsible and creative group that make ministry fun and exciting. As our ministry has grown in numbers substantially in the last few years, our ministry council of students has grown from about 5 students to 25 students. While this growth is great, we have a lot of work to do in terms of restructuring this council so that it can function more effectively. The Wesley, as a whole, must continue to figure out how to deal with our growth.

There are many ways that you can support the Troy University Wesley Foundation and help us to reach our goals. Let us know if you have youth in your local churches planning to attend Troy University so that we can contact them and get them involved in our programs. Visit us any time during the week, attend a bible study or meal, and just get to know the students. Let them know that you care about campus ministry. Come speak at a Bible study or help prepare a common meal. Consider serving on our Board of Directors. Make a monetary or physical donation to any area of ministry at the Troy Wesley Foundation. Most importantly, you can support the Troy Wesley Foundation by keeping us in your prayers.

Thanks to all the churches in the Alabama-West Florida conference for supporting campus ministry.

TUSKEGEE INSTITUTE

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH ALABAMA

"Where there is no vision the people perish."

The USA Wesley Foundation Board has worked for many years on a campaign to purchase land to build a new building. Their vision is not for an edifice alone. Their dream has been to pray for and support an effective ministry for God's people among the University of South Alabama.

The vision cast by so many years ago is now becoming reality. ...The construction of the 6,000 square foot student center is underway at USA. And in March, Rev. Karen Koons was appointed as campus minister/Wesley Foundation Director.

While it seems that there are many new things happening in our community, the foundation has not altered. Worship remains central to our ministry. Further, we are dedicated to the continuation of Bible Study, small groups, and missional outreach. We are committed to continued efforts to share the Gospel message to the diverse community across our campus. Finally, as we are faithful to worship and study, we also recognize the importance of fellowship and play and maintain aspects of this among our study and core practices through intramurals and a weekly "Lunch Bunch."

Seeds have been planted across the campus over the years by various students, directors, and board members. With God's help those seeds have been nourished. And, today there seem to be strong roots being grounded. We are continually excited about the plans God has for the students and faculty at USA. Wesley keeps in mind that the various lives our ministries touch are the church's future and a part of God's ministry to the ends of the earth.

As always, let us know if you have students coming to be a part of our campus. And as we continue to grow into who God dreams us to be, we solicit your prayers, presence, and gifts to the various campus ministries in our conference.

"Where there is no vision the people perish."

UNIVERSITY OF WEST ALABAMA

The Wesley Foundation at the University of West Alabama joins the Alabama-West Florida Conference in the mission of making disciples for Jesus Christ. Here at UWA we strive to be the hands, feet, and heart of Christ for the UWA Community.

Throughout this year we have continued to see an increase in students interested and involved in the ministries of the Wesley Foundation. We are seeing new faces each week as our students invite others to be a part of our fellowship and mission.

Following is a list of the events and ministries we have sponsored this year:

- "Welcome Back Week" events
- Tuesday Night Dinners (weekly)
- Praise and Worship (weekly)
- Homecoming Float (done jointly with other campus ministry groups)
- Issued a campus and community challenge for supplies and assembled 40 flood buckets for hurricane victims
- Christmas Party
- Super Bowl Party
- Graduation Luncheon for students and families
- All Saints service
- Sunday night Bible Study (weekly)
- Monday night men's and women's discipleship groups
- "Wesley Workouts" exercise groups
- Participated in the conference "Hungry" retreat
- Mission trip to be in ministry with the Blackfeet United Methodist Parish in Heart Butte, Montana

We average 20 students each week for dinner and worship on Tuesday night and 10 for the Bible study and discipleship groups. In addition to these things, individual students have represented us in various ministries: we sent a counselor / resident artist to Blue Lake Worship Arts camp; two students served on summer staff at United Methodist Camp Tekoa in Hendersonville, North Carolina; three students served as counselors at Blue Lake's call-to-ministry retreat last winter.

One of our biggest concerns over the past several years has been the condition of our building which has major structural defects. After many years of examining the problem and evaluating potential solutions, our Board of Directors has finally come to a conclusion: Due to the prohibitive cost and non-guarantee of repairing the foundational problems of our building, we will just live with the problems as long as they can be declared structurally safe. This decision freed us to begin making much needed improvements on the interior of our building. At the end of the 2004 spring semester, and again the week prior to school starting this fall we had "Extreme Makeover" week. During these weeks, students along with several faithful volunteers from local churches donated time, energy, and finances to give us a much needed face-lift. It was a joy to see the look on students' faces when they returned this fall to a transformed building! Because of these improvements, our building is a much more comfortable and inviting space. We are having many more students spend time in our building studying or just hanging out with friends and I believe it is because of these improvements. We have even had a new sign donated to help make us more visible to those who pass by. This fall I plan to issue an "Extreme Landscaping" challenge to local churches to help improve the exterior appearance of our facility.

Following are the goals for our ministry for this year:

Develop and foster relationships with alumni for future support.

Develop a more pro-active mindset within our Board of Directors, allowing them to see themselves as a group with a purpose rather than merely a "rubber-stamping" authority.

Reach out to student populations which we are not currently reaching well (minorities, commuters, non-traditional students).

Increase visibility on campus. We are in a high-traffic location and have a new, more descriptive sign, yet many don't know where we are or that we exist.

Increase participation of our United Methodist students. (The vast majority of our participants come from non-United Methodist backgrounds.)

God has definitely blessed our ministry here at West Alabama. We are thankful for the churches in the Alabama -West Florida Conference who so generously support our ministry. Please pray for us and the ministry we provide to the students at the University of West Alabama.

Rev. Cherie Meadows

Director, UWA Wesley Foundation

UNIVERSITY OF WEST FLORIDA/PENSACOLA JUNIOR COLLEGE

The past three months have been some of the most rewarding and challenging of my life. The last twenty-five years of my life have been a journey with God that I could have never imagined nor been prepared for on my own.

This past summer while facilitating "Experiencing God", that is exactly what happened. God gave me such a desire and direction for campus ministry that I knew I had to act. Our focus has been on my husband's retirement next year and never planned to get committed to anything beyond our local church, but know we are looking at our circumstances of why we moved to Pensacola almost two years ago and the time I will have to devote to God's purposes.

The Wesley Foundation at the University of West Florida and Pensacola Junior College has been inactive since 2004. The previous director, Martha Erinkitola, resigned the first of 2004 and had very little going on in 2003. She pastored a church across town which took more and more of her time. She knew she had to devote more of her time to her church.

I was hired November 1, 2004, after seeking guidance from my pastor, Dr. Henry Roberts, and Rev. Bob Bailey. I explained to them my desires and they directed me to Wesley.

Due to Hurricane Ivan September 16, 2004, most property including churches in the Pensacola District received slight to substantial damage. Both colleges as well as surrounding areas have undergone circumstances beyond their control which makes everyday a different journey than planned. The clean up process has taken months and it will be years before Pensacola will fully recover.

Being commuter colleges, enrollment is down at both colleges and substantially low at Pensacola Junior College. Needless to say, my first year as Wesley Director will be challenging, but the potential for organizing and growth are very obtainable. I have found the desire of God and fellowship stronger than ever. Students have seen how your whole world can be changed in a few hours.

It appears that several types of functions work best for outreach since most students have very different schedules and interests. Wesley is being visible as a support group as well as a fellowship group.

Because the lack of space hinders an atmosphere of ownership, my husband and I decided to use our new motor home as "a home away from home" for the students. I approached the UWF for permission to park on campus one day a week and that finally happened. Now, I park on the "Green" every Friday and we partner with Chick-Fil-A and a local church to provide lunch and fellowship that is open to everyone. Hopefully, more local churches will have the desire and means to supply meals in the future.

This has been an incredible way to be visible and be non-threatening to let students see the interaction of Wesley. We have also taken the motor home to LITE DAY Pensacola and plan to take it out to churches for special events to introduce the community and prospective students to an exciting mission field of the United Methodist Church and to let everyone see "Open Hearts, Open Doors, and Open Minds"!

We were fortunate to find a sponsor at UWF right away after on a phone call. Ms. Lou Ellen Phelps, from the ITS Department, graciously volunteered with enthusiasm. She is a new resident to the college and Pensacola and is a member of First United Methodist Church which helps so very much.

We meet Wednesday evenings in the student center for fellowship, business, and our lesson. After spending time on campus before I started, I realized that relationships were a big part of their day that needed help. So, we are studying Gary Smalley's book, The DNA of Relationships, which is helping to open up a line of communication. We average six students on Wednesday nights and thirty to sixty students on Friday for food and fellowship.

Just because we are new has not diminished being active. Listed below are events we will be participating in at UWF in Pensacola:

February 1 Volunteer Fair
 February 8 Ensley UMC has opened their church for "Purpose Driven Life" during Lent starting with Ash Wednesday service.
 February 10 "Love Fest" (St. Andrew's UMC providing cookies)
 February 8 Mission Fair at Gadsden Street UMC
 February 27 St. Andrew's UMC
 April 21 "Exam Jam" on the Green

Three of our community projects for this year will be promoting Methodist phone cards for soldiers, teaming up with Samford University for Spring Break to repair homes and lives in the Pensacola area, and to participate in Grace Fest, September 16 & 17, 2005.

Pensacola Junior college is taking a slower start and the same approach recruiting ahs note worked well. I will be starting a new approach in February. I will be teaming up with Cokesbury UMC to use their youth building which is directly across the street from the campus. PJC is such a commuter college that students leave campus when they get out of class. Rev. Phillip McVay and Rev. Stuart Worth have been very supportive and I look forward to working with them. Their church plans to hold a midnight breakfast on UWF's campus during finals which will be very well received by tired and hungry students that are up all night.

My goal right now is to encourage students in their daily lives and find a core group that will not only feel ownership, but be an inspiration to other students that witness to them. My vision for Wesley is to be an instrument of God and the Methodist Church to help students in their spiritual walk as well as a liaison for higher education information.

When I interviewed for this position, my vision statement sums up where I would pray Wesley Foundation would be in years to come: "I would love to see the love of Christ and Christian fellowship not only as an option, but flourishing across our campuses".

Thank you for this opportunity to serve,

Respectfully submitted to His Service,
 Sheila Feltner

CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Candler School of Theology is grounded in the Christian faith and shaped by the Wesleyan tradition of evangelical piety, ecumenical openness, and social concerns. Its mission is to educate—through scholarship, teaching and service—faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries in the world. These purposes define Candler's role as a school of Emory University and of the United Methodist Church and point to the unique challenges and opportunities we face in leading a national research university in re-discovering what it might mean to relate to a major denomination.

With the full University community, the faculty has undertaken a strategic planning process. This initiative has allowed the opportunity to reflect on Candler's significant commitments to church and society and to envision goals and investments through 2010. Chief among them is a three-phase building project. Plans are underway to construct a new building to house the Pitts Theology Library, classrooms, a teaching chapel, and the University's Ethics Center. Later, Bishops Hall and the Quadrangle building currently housing the Pitts Theology Library will be renovated. You will hear a great deal about this project once architectural designs have been secured. In the interim, know that this effort is long overdue and speaks to Candler's aspirations to secure facilities that will support the strong educational program already in place here.

Candler's faculty continues to be among the most distinctive in theological education. Forty-four members hold full-time appointment, and one holds a part-time appointment. An additional seven serve in a part-time or adjunct capacity. Thirty Teaching Supervisors support our Contextual Education and Teaching Parish programs. In addition, Woodie White and Jack Meadors serve as United Methodist bishops in residence, and the Right Reverend Frank K. Allan, recipient of this year's Emory Medal, serves as Anglican bishop in residence. Bishop L. Bevel Jones III remains at Candler working with the Development office.

As is typical, Candler faculty continue to provide leadership in professional societies. This year David Petersen serves as president of the Society for Biblical Literature and Roberta Bondi as President of the Society for the Study of Christian Spirituality. Both gave presidential addresses at the San Antonio AAR/SBL meeting in November. Gail O'Day continues as editor of the Journal of Biblical Literature, and Ted Brelsford as editor of the Journal of Religious Education.

Enrollment stands at 536, with 413 in the Master of Divinity program, 71 in the Master of Theological Studies program, 12 in the Master of Theology program, 7 in the Doctor of Theology program and 33 enrolled as Special, Non-Degree students. The number of students committed to full-time education is up with 80% of students enrolled full-time. The student population is 29% non-white, 7% international, and 52% women. More than 52 denominations are represented with 64% of MDiv students being United Methodist from 38 Annual Conferences. Other denominations of the Methodist family represented at Candler include African Methodist Episcopal, African Methodist Episcopal Zion, Nazarene, Christian Methodist Episcopal, and the Methodist Churches of Brazil, Korea, and the Caribbean.

The United Methodist Church elected three Candler alumni as bishops this summer. Mary Virginia Taylor '75T is now the Episcopal leader of the Columbia area; William Willimon '73DST, of the Birmingham area; and Dick Wills '67T, of the Nashville area. With their election, twenty-one United Methodist bishops are Candler alums. Willimon and Bishop Hope Morgan Ward have been elected to the Emory Board of Trustees, replacing retiring bishops Robert Fannin and William Morris.

Great things continue to happen with Candler's continuing and church education efforts. Currently, plans are underway for a fall conference on Music and Worship (October 9-11, 2005). Information about this and other upcoming events is available at <<http://candler.emory.edu>>.

Through the generosity of alumni and friends, Candler's scholarship program is one of the top in the nation. Last year, 87% of eligible students received scholarship support from Candler with an average scholarship covering 80% of tuition. Gifts from the Methodist Education Fund (MEF) have played a large role in this success. However, so much more still needs to be done. More than 60% of Candler's MDiv graduates leave school with educational debt. Your continued support, gifts and prayers mean a great deal as we work to provide a strong educational program and a strong start in pastoral ministry for our students.

For more information about Candler, our extraordinary faculty and dedicated students, I hope you will bookmark <<http://candler.emory.edu/>>.

Sincerely and with Great Thanks,

UNITED THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

UTS Mission Statement: United Theological Seminary is a Christ-centered graduate school of the United Methodist Church that equips leaders for the church in a pluralistic world through the nurture of piety, the love of learning and the pursuit of justice.

We have been entrusted with a profound mandate to prepare spiritual leaders for the church, and to actualize the nurture of piety, the love of learning, and the pursuit of justice. The tradition of our founders was deeply rooted in the proclamation of the Gospel and the creation of dynamic communities of faith and service. In that same spirit we have made monumental decisions to define our tasks within radically shifting contexts, and provide for the effectiveness and sustainability of the seminary. To these ends we spent 2004 making plans in the following areas:

Relocating the Seminary

On Feb. 18, 2005, UTS purchased a new 80-acre campus for the seminary in Trotwood, OH. We now look toward to next steps, which include renovations and transition planning. We rejoice and thank God for all that has been done to facilitate this remarkable transition.

Providing Opportunities for Congregational Development

The Center for Worship, Preaching and the Arts received a grant from the Calvin Institute of Christian Worship which has been used to fund "Come to the Waters," a series of two retreats on leading congregations through the Easter Vigil, and "Come to the Table," a study guide and training session based on "This Holy Mystery."

The Pohly Center for Supervision and Leadership Formation has been working with the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry to provide training in the Pohly model for the Virginia Annual Conference Cabinet in March of 2005. Other opportunities for this type of service to the church exist in several other states.

The Center for Urban Ministry continues in partnership with the Hispanic/Latino Ministries Coordinator of the Southwest Region of the West Ohio Annual Conference by offering a monthly practical ministry training program in Spanish for lay pastors.

The Center for Urban Ministry hosted Toward the City of God, an urban conference, with scholarship help provided by the West Ohio Annual Conference. The West Ohio conference has also designated 15 clergy who will undergo a Doctor of Ministry degree with a focus on urban ministry at UTS with the conference providing half the tuition. The center is also working with the West Ohio Urban Network to provide training for clergy newly appointed to urban congregations.

The Office of Continuing Education continues in partnership with MTSO to offer a Course of Study School in Ohio.

The Institute for Applied Theology continues to plan Teaching Church Network Events in various locations around the region including work with the Holston Conference, TN, First-Centenary in Chattanooga, TN, and continuing education programs in congregational development in Dayton

Growing Enrollment/Flex Semester

We celebrate some enrollment growth in 2004. Fall Semester enrollment was 352 students enrolled, with 141 masters students, 196 doctoral students, and 13 special students. We are pleased that the flex semester system and new curriculum are working well and providing our students with multiple opportunities to take classes and to specialize in a particular work area within the M.Div. program.

Meeting the needs of a Digital Culture

The email newsletter we began in March of 2004 has become very popular and we are adding e-mail addresses on a regular basis.

We have upgraded our website to provide easier access to the expanding number of programs at United through a user-friendly navigation scheme.

We are making major strides toward the development of an online learning program by the hire of a person who will develop meaningful and appropriate courseware for distance learning initiatives.

Collaborating with Others

We are forming some fruitful partnerships as we explore Wellness Education as it relates to UTS. Recommendations for establishing a Center for Wellness Education will be presented to the board in the spring.

A grant from GBHEM is funding a youth event in Ohio in the fall of 2005. At the Threshold: Consider the Possibilities. This event is being planned in partnership with other colleges, MTSO, and the two Ohio conferences. The focus of the event is to identify and nurture young people for professional and ordained ministry.

Preparing Leaders for the Black Church

United's growing Doctor of Ministry program celebrates the addition of new focus groups and mentors that include some of the rising stars in a new generation of church leaders.

We continue our commitment to prepare leaders for the black church and community.

United's D.Min. program represents an ecumenical group of constituents including United Methodists, Episcopalians, Roman Catholics, Baptists, and many other denominations and groups.

The D.Min. focus groups represent a growing number of partnerships that encompass a wide variety of expressions of ministry including pastoral care, urban studies, community development, preaching, and health-related issues.

We continue to diligently plan for the emergence of a dynamic Christ-centered learning community, and we are determined to collaborate with others in the pursuit of our mission, vision, and values. Let us pray and reason together so that United's vision will be of the greatest possible usefulness to Christ and the entire Church here and across the earth.

G. E. Zeiders
President and CEO

REPORT NO. 10 BOARD OF LAITY

CONFERENCE LAY LEADER

I would like to thank the Conference for allowing me to serve as the Conference Lay Leader for the past four (4) years and to serve you again during this quadrennium. It is a distinct privilege to serve as partner in ministry with Bishop Goodpaster and to be a part of the great progress the Alabama-West Florida Conference is making towards developing dynamic thriving congregations. We have an outstanding vision and are well organized to make it happen. I believe in the Southeastern Jurisdiction to lead our Church in this direction.

Primarily, the Board of Laity continues with the same membership as listed in last year's Conference Journal. Linda Sherry, a member of St. Luke UMC in Pensacola, became the new Conference President of the United Methodist Women late last year. We wish to thank Dorothy Booker for her great leadership during the last quadrennium and wish her well. The list of the two (2) clergy members are no longer required and we have added Dr. Steve Furr to the Board as the first delegate to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences. The final change came with the approval to reduce the number of Districts and the loss of the Greenville District. We lost Mary Edwards, an outstanding Lay Leader, who will truly be missed on the Board.

In early January, the SEJ Conference Lay Leaders met in Pensacola with the College of Bishops. It was our third such meeting and we believe we have made significant progress in our relationship. The Lay Leaders provided a list of discussion topics as requested from the College which included the role of the Conference Lay Leader and the SEJ Connectional Table. The Lay Leaders feel very good about the discussions and look forward to future meetings where we can work together for the good of our Jurisdiction.

The Board of Laity met in mid January and established a Task Group to rewrite the policy for election of General Conference delegates. The time table to have the draft new policy written by our Annual Conference in 2005 so it can be circulated for comments and submitted for approval by Annual Conference 2006 as required by Standing Rule 13D. The Board also discussed the paper "A Thriving Congregation" prepared by the Bishop and his Cabinet. The paper identifies 10 qualities, which should be visible and alive in each church in our Conference.

In January and February, Town Hall Meetings were conducted in all eight (8) Districts of the Conference where laity could come and tell or ask the Bishop any of their concerns. It was designed as a listening session. The big plus in my mind was they had a chance to hear the Bishop outline his dreams for the quadrennium - how he sees us accomplishing our goal of 700 dynamic and thriving congregations. The Bishop emphasized three (3) main areas: EVANGELISM, number 7 of the 10 qualities of a thriving congregation. We need to continue our membership growth to 150 by 2005, with every church having at least one new member by profession of faith, which is our challenge for the laity; MISSION, number 8 of the 10 qualities. It involved both local and foreign, with every church having at least one new member in mission, meeting the needs of the people; and STEWARDSHIP. We need to do better in all four (4) of the promises to uphold the church, not just in money. It was great to hear from the laity and know what concerns them and what issues they would like to have improved.

The Southeastern Jurisdictional Laity Retreat this year will be July 21-24 at Lake Junaluska. There will be some significant changes this year as the work shops will include two (2) separate tracks, one for Leadership and one for Young Adults. Each will consist of three (3) 1 ½ hour workshops. The Leadership track is designed for local church Lay Leaders, District Lay Leaders and for anyone wanting to grow as a leader in their congregation. There will also be specially designed programs for Children and Youth. An added plus this year is that Bishop Goodpaster will be the Bishop in Residence for the Retreat. A brochure and registration form is available to download at www.sejumc.org and on the conference website at www.awfumc.org. You can also register by calling 1-888-829-1231 (toll free). The Mission Project this year will consist of donating hand towels (size 15"x25" up to 17"x27") and wash clothes for UMCOR. All participants are asked to bring these items as they will be used for Tsunami relief.

We all look forward to our Annual Conference in Mobile this year. The Laity Banquet on Tuesday night will feature Mary Lou Redding, Managing Editor of The Upper Room Daily Devotional Guide, as the guest speaker and Bob Williams, a member of Dauphin Way UMC in Mobile, as the guest soloist.

LAY SPEAKING MINISTRIES

2004-2005 has been a year of transition for the Lay Speaking Ministries. Wayne Bradshaw of Dothan took over as conference director, and longtime Pensacola district director Carol Martin retired from her position. The ministry is certainly thankful to God and appreciative to former conference director Judy Reiter and Carol Martin for their long, faithful, and fruitful service. The conference committee continues to work (primarily in the districts) to establish and update good databases of all local church and certified lay speakers. In addition, the conference committee is also continuing work on instructor training, ministry development, and lay speaker training. The conference committee sees training as one of its most important functions. To that end, a conference-wide lay speaker training event was held at Blue Lake April 8-10. Approximately 45 persons took the basic course (including 5 youth), with approximately another 60 persons taking various advanced courses. Perhaps half of those taking advanced courses were doing so for the first time, meaning they became Certified Lay Speakers at the end of the training weekend, and thereby eligible to speak in churches other than their own. Various districts held their own training events during the year, and more are planned for the remainder of 2005. For instance, the Montgomery-Opelika district is supervising the annual Lay Academy, Nov. 11-12, at Frazer. The Pensacola district expects to have a training event in August, Selma will have a training September 16 and 17 and the Mobile district expects to have one in July. Ministry development is another area the conference committee is exploring in some depth. Lay speakers are certainly capable of filling pulpits for absent pastors; however, the lay speaker training and calling goes far beyond the pulpit, and finding and developing other areas of service for lay speakers is a major goal of the conference committee. Although precise figures are difficult to give at the moment, it is estimated that there are 400-500 active local church and certified lay speakers in the conference.

The current district directors are:

Baypines:	Sam Crim
Demopolis:	John Stegall
Dothan:	Grace Kirkland
Marianna/Panama City:	Joann Turner
Mobile:	Luke Coley
Montgomery/Opelika:	Ann Varner
Montgomery/Prattville:	Helen Edwards

Mobile District Director

UNITED METHODIST MEN

The United Methodist Men of the Alabama-West Florida Conference enjoy a solid base of support. We do however need to expand and energize that base. In order to do this, we must have effective leadership on the district level. I met with the Bishop Goodpaster and the Cabinet in June, their first meeting after the Annual Conference downsized from nine to eight districts. The District Superintendents voiced their support in identifying new district presidents. We now have, or soon will have leadership in every district in the conference as result of this effort.

The Conference again held its retreat in January, 2005 at Blue Lake with Dr. Reggie Ponder leading a spirit-filled weekend.

The Alabama-West Florida Conference co-sponsored the Men's Rally for Christ in Tallahassee, Florida, in August for the fourth time, along with the South Georgia and Florida Conferences. Since 2004 will be remembered as the Year of the Hurricanes, this event will be remembered as the hurricane rally. As we were having the event, many parts of Florida were evacuating in front of Hurricane Charley, which drastically reduced the attendance. The event went on, and was spiritually uplifting, but left a financial deficit to overcome. With God's help, this deficit has been overcome.

This is the year for the 9th National Gathering of United Methodist Men, formerly known as the Congress, which is held at Purdue University. The dates are July 15-17, 2005. All men are encouraged to attend this once every four year event. A powerful line up of speakers and musicians is in place. You can register on line at www.gcumm.org or call 888-245-0176.

Our Conference is participating in the effort to furnish copies of the devotional book "Strength for Service" for all troops who will be deployed over the next several months to Iraq and Afghanistan. Robert Powell is spearheading the effort for our conference to raise $10,000 in 90 days. Contact him or your District Superintendent to contribute.

The General Commission introduced a new Charge Conference report form this year for local UMM units that will be used for an analysis and status report on United Methodist Men and the Church. Local units are encouraged to use the form as a "self analysis tool" to evaluate themselves and their potential. There was a problem with these forms being forwarded to the General Commission office in Nashville, which should be done immediately after charge conferences. These forms will be with us from now on, so please insure reports are forwarded to Nashville.

Chuck Christian, our Conference Hunger Relief Advocate reported 17 gleaning events with 85 volunteers. Two potato drops were held, one in Pensacola and one at Annual Conference in Montgomery.

Vaughn Nichols, our Conference Scouting Coordinator, attended scouting training at Philmont this year, and is working on securing District Scouting Coordinators. He is inventorying scouting units in United Methodist Churches in the Conference, and is working towards establishing God and Country awards programs in local churches. For Districts without a scouting coordinator, we ask that you appoint someone and notify myself or Vaughn.

Jim Kincaid, the Conference Prayer Advocate, reports that there has been a record number of Upper Room Prayer Line remote answering sites in the Conference this year.

Rev. Larry Teasley was recognized at Annual Conference as the recipient of the G. Ross Freeman Leadership Award for 2004 for his work with United Methodist Men in the Marion First United Methodist Church.

As in the past, we continue to have a problem with United Methodist Men's fellowships chartering and re-certifying each year. If you truly believe in the "connectedness" of the United Methodist Church, you should insure that your local fellowship is connected through the charter system.

As this is my final report to you as Conference President of United Methodist Men because my term is expiring, I want to challenge each local church pastor and lay leader in the Conference to read the article entitled "Why Men Hate Going to Church" by Rev. David Murrow. It can be found at www.pastors.com/article.asp?ArtID=7978. This should stimulate your thinking, and your perceptions on men and the church, and the need for men to be actively involved in the life of the church. I believe that men are important if you are to have "thriving congregation". What do you think?

Respectfully Submitted,
Norman L. Burton
UMMen Conference President

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

United Methodist Women in Alabama-West Conference is alive and growing stronger! Why is this? Because we are first and foremost a Christian organization - rooted and grounded in Christ - reaching out in love to help meet the needs of women, children and youth in our midst and those far from us. Our purpose encompasses three major dimensions of the Christian journey: God-focused, Christ-led and Spirit-empowered spiritual growth, supportive fellowship and mission outreach.

All members of the Alabama-West Florida Conference United Methodist Women are encouraged to put "feet" on the purpose and take advantage of growth opportunities whenever possible. The Conference Spiritual Retreat, "Sowing For The Master", was led by Rev. Tonya Elmore on April 1-3, 2005; and May events were a Mother-Daughter Day at Blue Lake, led by Rachel Baxter, and a Teen Girls Retreat at Noah's Ark. The Cooperative School of Christian Mission, held annually in July, offers church-wide Mission Studies ('04-'05 - Concerning Prayer, Public Education, and Cuba; '05-'06 - repeat Public Education, add Children in the Bible and a timely study on Pakistan and India).

Over 100 women did not let the destruction caused by Hurricane Ivan deter them from attending the postponed Conference Annual Meeting which was held on December 4, 2005 at Dalraida UMC in Montgomery with Rev. Misty Roberts as the guest speaker. A memorial service gave thanks to God for the 152 faithful servants who passed to glory in 2004. Lynn Hamrick, a new Women's Division Director representing AL-W.FL Conference, encouraged the support of Jan Love, the new Women's Division Deputy General Secretary (also a native of the AL-W.FL Conference) and the new spirit she brings to the Women's Division. Dr. Annie Mae Turner of Union Springs, AL was recognized as a woman of courage in crossing barriers in her church and community and applauded for her lifetime work in public education. The three-year old Greenville District was praised for its mission work and its local units were encouraged to remain faithful in service as the District was dissolved and became part of the Montgomery-Opelika, Montgomery-Prattville, Baypines and Demopolis Districts. Appreciation was expressed to Dorothy Ree Booker for four years of service as AL-W.FL President.

More than $149,000 was given in support of mission agencies funded by the United Methodist Women in the US and abroad while over $58,517 was given to support specific mission agencies and projects in Alabama and West Florida such as "Holy Bear" sales providing camperships to Camp Discovery. In addition to monetary gifts, mission projects supported by Local Units over the past years include numerous UMCOR kits and flood buckets (not only for disaster victims in the AL-W.FL Conference, but throughout the US and foreign lands - such as layette items which SIFAT delivered to the babies in the high Andes of Bolivia); wheelchairs for those without mobility in local communities and Costa Rica; personal copies of high-quality story books for children in neighborhoods schools; and countless local mission projects that assist women, children and youth improve spiritually, physically, mentally and emotionally. The social action focus has been on domestic violence, with an emphasis on raising awareness of the problem, identifying assistance programs, and helping in ways specific to various communities.

Local churches are encouraged to participate in Children's Sabbath during the second week-end of October, the purpose being to celebrate and pray for those living in poverty throughout the world. United Methodist Women are willing to assist with this special observance in cooperation with local church staff and lay leadership. Several weeks ago, a fourth verse was written to one of our favorite hymns. I share it with you now in hope that you will respond along with United Methodist Women across the AL-WFL Conference, saying "Here I am, Lord..."

*I, the Lord of youth and child, I have seen them meek and mild,
I desire their hearts and minds; my Spirit guides.
Safety, love, security – this there blessing is to be.
Servants need to be there for them. Whom shall I send?*

AL-WFL UMW President

UNITED METHODIST YOUTH

UMY Meeting #1 at Grace UMC, Auburn AL. August 20-22 2004

Assembled at Grace UMC we identified our statement of purpose for the year:

We desire for the call of God to shine above the secular standards of body image.

In response to this vision, we put together two work groups to address it. One group wrote curriculum (available at www.awfumc.org or in at the UMY table during Annual Conference) while another group worked on legislative approaches to dealing with body image.

Energize Retreat was canceled due to Hurricane Ivan. Energize 2005 will be held October 8 & 9 at Blue Lake Camp. The theme is Created in the Image of God with Bishop Goodpaster as the main speaker.

UMY Meeting #2 at Christ UMC, Mobile AL. March 11-12

This meeting consisted of work groups follow up. The curriculum group put together lesson plans while the legislative group wrote a letter to many publishers about their concern that the images publishers sell to young people are not healthy. In addition, we wrote a petition to the Annual Conference asking for their help in addressing the body image issue and put together resources available for free at the UMY table during Annual Conference. Also, we made plans for Spring Fling Retreat and the presence of the Youth Service Fund during that retreat.

As during all our times together, we shared with each other, prayed together, worshiped, fellowshiped, and played fun games. At our second meeting we elected Woods Lisenby to be our Annual Conference Delegate and Walker Wilson & Gabrielle Ezell (with Kristen Slade as the alternate) to represent us at the SEJ Convo this summer at Lake Junaluska, NC.

Spring Fling Retreat was held April 22-24, 2005 at Laguna Beach Christian Retreat. The theme was Building Bigger Barns as we tried to decide what sorts of things we are storing up in our earthly barns as opposed to our kingdom barns. Rev. Charley Reeb from the Florida Annual Conference inspired us during our main sessions looking at how we support God and the church through our prayers, presence, gifts, and service, and Andy Cloninger and band led us in great music throughout the weekend. Youth Service Fund raised a lot of money through Spring Fling Idol and the Hoe Down Saturday night by selling bandanas, straw hats, and other fun farm items.

Sadly, this year we had to say good bye to Rev. Jack Kale, who has served as advisor to UMY for three years. We are disappointed he will not be with us any longer, but we send him on his way with our love and hope in all that he has to offer in future ministry settings. We will miss the turkey calls, large laughs, and deep challenges he gave to us. We love you, Jack!

HC115: Autograph books of Rosaline Roebuck, class of 1884 of Alabama Conference Female College.

The focus in 2004 was on arranging the Huntingdon Collection in 2004 so that we could find information related to Huntingdon's history that was often needed for Huntingdon's 150th anniversary. During the year we were also happy to receive the personal papers of Andrew Adgate Lipscomb, the first president of Tuskegee Female College and thus the first president of Huntingdon College. Dr. Lipscomb's grandson, Lan Lipscomb, is writing his biography and came to the Archives Center to do research on the college. He gave us information we did not have. At this point I would like to express appreciation to Mrs. Angela Childress for her efficiency and dedication to the Archives Center.

My greatest concern has always been to enhance the access and useability of the Methodist Archives Center. October 25-27, 2004 Dr. Dale Patterson, Archivist for the United Methodist Archives Center in Madison, New Jersey, which is the depository for the archives of the general church, made an on site visit to evaluate our situation and consult with leaders of the college and the church. He met with the elected Commission on Archives and History, held a work shop on records management, and made a written report which is on file in the Archives center. His suggestions will be our guidelines for this quadrennium.

Still the main need is space. As reported last year, we have simply run out of space in the library. There are many contingencies affecting finding more space. At present we have a remote storage area for the charge conference records transferred by the district superintendents in a suite in Jackson Hall. This is the building the college is letting the church use for the offices of two district superintendents and several conference offices. In any case, however, we need to install mobile shelving in the present vault in the library. Mr. Frank Skinner of the W.H. Hopkins Company, visited the Archives Center on October 6 and designed free of charge a mobile shelving plan that would double the shelf space in the vault. With mobile shelving it is my judgment we would have enough growth space for accommodating both collections for the next five years as long as we have remote storage for the charge conference records.

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

"It is the purpose of the commission on equitable compensation to support full-time clergy serving as pastors in the charges of the annual conference by: (a) recommending conference standards for pastoral support; (b) administering funds to be used in base compensation supplementation; and (c) providing counsel and advisory material on pastoral support to district superintendents and committees on pastor-parish relations" (§624.2, 2004 Discipline)

In our desire to help thriving congregations secure an appropriate pastor salary, we recommend the following guidelines to be considered as a church applies for assistance through the Commission on Equitable Compensation.

Only full-time pastors who are full connection, probationary, associate, seminary students, full-time local pastors, student local pastors, and retired pastors (as specified in paragraph 2) are eligible for equitable compensation support. These pastors must be certified by the Board of Ordained Ministry, approved by the Annual Conference, and appointed to a church or charge. Each pastor who is in good standing and who is appointed by the Bishop to less than full-time service is eligible for Equitable Compensation in one-quarter increments. No associate pastor, part-time local pastor, or supply pastor shall receive salary support from this fund.

To receive fully scheduled equitable compensation for the minister's category, the church must pay 80% of the equitable compensation for 2005, except as defined in paragraphs 8-12 of this report.

The amount of equitable compensation a pastor is eligible to receive is based upon the total of his/her salary, travel allowance and utilities and other approved related allowances excluding housing allowance given in lieu of a parsonage.

No pastor of any classification shall receive aid from the fund if he/she receives income from any other church source, if the income, plus salary from the charge he/she serves, is more the equitable compensation, except as approved in paragraph 8-10 of this report.

No person qualifying for equitable compensation, which amounts to less than $600 per year, will receive any equitable compensation. The Commission expects the local churches to take care of that amount.

We recommend that no pastor serving outside the bounds of the Alabama-West Florida Conference be eligible to receive equitable compensation unless there is no appointment available for him/her in the Conference and he/she is assigned by the Presiding Bishop to an appointment outside the Conference, or unless it be a special appointment by the Presiding Bishop. Appointment for the convenience of the pastor shall not be considered sufficient reason to receive equitable aid.

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recognizes there may exist from time to time certain situations within our Conference where special funding consideration beyond the stipulated requirements may assist a church to become self-sustaining more quickly, in such situations, a supplement, determined by the Commission on Equitable Compensation, above the regular equitable compensation may be given the pastor provided the money is available for the purpose. Normally no situation will receive this special consideration for more than three years. Such cases will be called Growth criteria, such as: growth potential, leadership requirements, age of church, and indebtedness. The final determination will be made in consultation with the Conference Board of Global Ministries.

In case of cooperative parish ministries or specialized ministries, the District Superintendent may recommend that the Commission on Equitable Compensation, in consultation with the District Board of Missions, give consideration to supplement the salary of a pastor/director or any associate director of a large parish or specialized ministry even though the person comes under the benefit of equitable compensation, without any reduction in the equitable compensation support.

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recognizes that there may exist from time to time hardship cases, which should be considered for financial assistance. Sensing a need for such assistance for a charge, the District Superintendent should assess the situation, hold the Charge Conference before the November meeting of the Commission on Equitable Compensation, and present the findings of the Commission upon whom rests the final decision.

To motivate churches towards the goal of total pastoral support, the Commission proposes to give the ministerial 60% of a salary increase above the amount currently paid by the church after the minimum required for his/her category has been reached. This would apply to the charge the he/she is presently serving at the beginning of the payment period, January 1. This supplement will be based on the yearly increase of the pastor's salary. The commission recommends the cabinet consider the cumulative amount of part of the salary when appointment is made to another charge. The actions of this paragraph do not apply to newly organized congregations as desired in paragraph 8.

The Commission recommends that all charges receiving equitable compensation assistance develop and continue a program with goal to eliminate dependency on salary supplements for their pastor. The Commission further recommends that no charge be eligible to receive equitable compensation for more than 5 consecutive years. A specific plan of this program shall be submitted through the District Superintendent to this Commission. The Executive Committee will collect plans from three churches that have successfully gone off of Equitable Compensation support to mail out with the application in the fall. To receive equitable compensation support a charge in the past year must have a net gain in membership, a net gain in worship attendance, pay 100% of their apportionments, and have had at least 1 profession of faith.

The District Superintendents are required to review all equitable compensation situations in their districts to ascertain the necessity for such funds and whenever possible seek to reduce the need of this supplement. The Commission recommends that churches or charges, to be eligible for equitable compensation aid, should consist of a minimum of 100 members per charge, except in the case of a new church.

It is the responsibility of the District Superintendents to follow the guidelines set forth by the Commission when recommending pastors for equitable compensation. Also, the District Superintendents shall be responsible for the accurate completion and submission to the secretary of the Commission the forms provided by the Commission for this purpose. The secretary shall not issue a check orders for equitable compensation funds until all criteria have been met. When the status of a pastor receiving these funds change, the District Superintendent should immediately file with the Commission the changed status. Full time local pastors that do not have a parsonage must receive a housing allowance to bring their total plan compensation up to the denominational average compensation of $31,437.

The Secretary of the Commission on Equitable Compensation shall file with the Assistant Secretary of the Journal for publication in the Conference Journal each year a report listing the payment from the equitable compensation fund during the year, giving names of pastors and charges and amount paid to each. This report is to be made by March 15.

The Commission recommends the following Equitable Compensation Schedule for 2006. The figures are rounded to the nearest 0 or 5.

UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC.

The United Methodist Foundation continues to serve the local churches and agencies of the Alabama-West Florida Conference. As an institution of the conference, the Foundation specifically functions to "supervise, protect and administer the investment of the permanent funds of said Annual Conference" and "to aid the Conference and the institutions thereof in the solicitation of gifts, donations, contributions, bequests and devises for the exclusive benefit of said Conference and the institutions thereof.” The services offered through the Foundation strive to offer all local churches and institutions the advantages of church inspired guidance in financial management and administration.

We celebrate the many new partnerships with local churches and donors. In times of natural disasters and an uncertain economy, our church leaders are still dedicated to planning for current and future ministry through Endowment and Planned Giving efforts. This is evidenced by the growth in total assets managed by your Foundation, which now exceeds $46 Million. Using a four-step program offered by the Foundation, numerous churches have started new Endowment Fund Programs in 2004. The program is designed to equip the church to receive larger gifts, providing them with customized guiding documents and schedules for promoting planned giving year-round. Once churches begin to receive gifts, the Foundation offers investment management and administrative services for tracking these funds. The comment most often heard from these churches is “why didn’t we do this earlier”.

Many of the meetings in local churches this year were to learn of the investment options available for existing funds held by churches and agencies. Our goal in these sessions is to identify the long-term needs and objectives for these funds and to offer solutions based on these needs. From these solutions, we have seen great extensions of ministry being funded. Not only have we seen new ministries being funded, we are seeing a new level of confidence in how our local churches are managing their investments.

In 2004 we have also seen a real commitment to education by a number of donors. This year we established six (6) new scholarship trusts. These trusts are designed to benefit either undergraduate students or ministerial students. The Foundation’s Scholarship Committee, designated to oversee a number of scholarship funds, awarded over $31,000 in scholarship funds in 2004. Many of our ministers have been assisted while in seminary and we hope to continue to grow these numbers. For scholarship applications, go to our website at www.alwfmf.org under the heading “publications”.

I would be remiss if I didn’t mention the support and commitment of the Foundation’s Board of Directors. We began 2004 with a well attended spring board meeting that opened in prayer offered by Bishop Carl Sanders. What an honor to have the very first Foundation director join us to share memories of the first years of the Foundation’s ministry. Bishop Sanders always lifts our spirits by reminding us of how blessed this Foundation’s work has been over the last twenty-five years. The Board of Directors are looking ahead and made decisions this year regarding adding greater investment diversification and are planning for added events and services. We offer many thanks to our board for their continued growth of vision and mission for the Foundation.

UNITED METHODIST DEVELOPMENT FUND

As a ministry that enables ministry, the United Methodist Development Fund is the conference agency that offers first-mortgage loans to churches and church institutions. These loans may be used for new buildings, building additions, renovations and purchasing property. In 2004, your U.M. Development Fund closed on five (5) new loans to churches for various building projects. By offering competitive rates and terms and charging no points or closing costs, the Development Fund is serving the Conference in a unique and vital way.

Deposits are placed with the Fund by churches, institutions and church members. We pay a competitive rate on these deposits and in turn use these funds to provide loans to churches. Many of our church and individual depositors are drawn to the fund by the opportunity to “invest in church growth directly”. Our current assets in the Development Fund total $8,604,095.39.

We invite all churches and institutions in our Conference to contact the Development Fund office for information on our loans and deposit opportunities. To learn more or to print an application, go to www.alwfumf.org.

UNITED METHODIST CREDIT UNION

Membership in the Alabama-West Florida Federal Credit Union is open to clergy members of the Conference and family members. Conference employees, local church employees, and employees of institutions affiliated with the Annual Conference may also join. A deposit of $50 is required along with a $1 fee to establish a share account. Dividends are paid quarterly on all share account balances of $100 or more. All deposits are federally insured.

A variety of simple interest loans are available. The credit union will finance new and used autos, boats, RV's, mowers, tractors, and other consumer items. Some real estate loans are available. In addition, signature loans up to $4,000 are available for a term of up to two years.

The credit union is administered by a nine member board of directors elected by those attending the Annual Membership meeting in January. The directors are elected to terms of three years, and they may succeed themselves. The board is required to meet monthly. Dividend rates are set by the board at the last meeting of the quarter.

REPORT NO. 15

BOARD OF PENSION AND HEALTH BENEFITS

REPORT NO. 1 - PENSIONS, ANNUITY RATES, AND APPORTIONMENTS

The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits pursued the goal of a pension rate equal to 1% of the Conference Average Compensation as the Ministerial Pension Plan directs. Local church salaries have continued to move up so rapidly that we had difficulty gaining ground. The 2004 session of Annual Conference approved the recommendation of this board to set the rate at the .93 level for 2005. For 2006 we are recommending moving to the rate of 1.0 which will result in a 3% increase in the annuity.

The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits recommends that for the year 2006, the total annuity rate for service years prior to 1982 be five hundred thirty dollars ($530) per service year with pension credit, the total rate for surviving spouses be three hundred seventy one dollars ($371.) provided that, for those living in homes furnished by the Annual Conference, the pension amounts be adjusted by a reduction of $50.00 per month for ministers and $35.00 per month for surviving spouses.

We recommend that the apportionment to the local church for the pension and benefit program of the annual conference be set at $3,625,600 for 2006.

We call attention to paragraph 621 of The 2004 Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church relative to the requirement that the apportionment for the pension and benefit programs be paid in proportion to the payment of the pastor's salary by the local church. The Discipline gives the church treasurer the primary responsibility for the application of proportional payment. If the church treasurer fails to do this, the pastor is then required to adjust his/her cash salary. Also the Discipline states that the pastor cannot receive a bonus or other supplementary compensation tending to defeat proportional payment. For example, if a church only pays 70% of the pension and benefits apportionment, the minister should receive only 70% of his/her cash salary as set by the Charge Conference.

REPORT NO. 2 - DEATH BENEFIT PROGRAM

Since January 1, 1995 the conference has participated in The General Board of Pension and Health Benefits' Basic Benefit Program (BPP). BPP is an additional death benefit added to the regular death benefit provided by the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) in which each full-time clergy, with a base compensation and housing equal to 60% or more of the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC) and pays the partial premium of $50.00, participates.

2006 Basic Protection Plan Death Benefit

Active participant CPP death benefit: .....	$50,000.00
Active participant BPP death benefit: .....	$25,000.00
Total Benefit .....	$75,000.00

CPP Death benefit: .....	$15,718.20
Retired participants eligible for benefit: .....	$ 5,000.00
Total Benefit .....	$20,718.20

Minimum Surviving Spouse Annuity Benefits

The surviving spouse of an active participant is eligible to receive a minimum annual pension of $10,748.80 (20% of the DAC). The Comprehensive Protection Plan will supplement pension payments as needed to assure that eligible surviving spouses receive at least the 20% minimum pension.

Surviving Child Benefits

Children under age 18: $5,239.40 annually (10% of the DAC).

Children between the ages of 18-25: $10,748.80 annually (20% of the DAC) for up to four years, if enrolled in school full time.

The amounts for surviving children are based on percentages of the DAC in effect on the benefit starting date. Once initiated, these benefits increase 3% annually on the anniversary of the benefit starting date.

REPORT NO. 3 - ALABAMA WEST FLORIDA ANNUAL CONFERENCE
FUNDING PLAN FOR SUPPLEMENT ONE TO THE MINISTERIAL PENSION PLAN FOR PLAN YEAR 2005

The 2005 Past Service Rate (PSR) is $515, or .93% of Conference Average Compensation (CAC). The conference intends to maintain the PSR to CAC ratio between 0.9% and 1.00%. For the past several years, CAC has increased by an average of 5% per year, and we expect that pattern to decrease to 4%. Therefore, we expect future PSRs to increase by an average of about 4% per year.

The conference will fund the benefits through an account established and dedicated to clergy retirement benefits funded by apportionments. Any apportionments not needed for pre-1982 pension contributions may be used for retiree benefits.

The 2005* funding plan numbers are summarized below.

	Funding*
	Present Value Of Benefits* (4% PSR Increases)	Current Assets	Funded Status
Supplement One Funding	$39,297,388	$39,116,764	(180,624)

Total	$39,297,388	$45,592,472	$6,295,084

*As of January 1, 2003 for 2005 funding plan. Assuming 7.5% interest and the RP 2000 Mortality Table and 4.0% future PSR increases.

**Assuming 7.5% interest and $581,484 annual apportionments at end of year.

MINISTERIAL PENSION PLAN

This Supplement One is applicable to the Alabama-West Florida Conference and is effective January 1, 2005. It replaces any previously executed Addendum A (or Attachment 1) and shall be in effect until amended by the Annual Conference in accordance with the provisions of the Ministerial Pension Plan and the Comprehensive Protection Plan revised January 1, 2005.

The MPP contribution base shall be the active participant's plan compensation for a plan year not to exceed the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC). [MPP Section 2.17a, 2.18; CPP contribution base shall be the active participant's plan contribution for a plan year not to exceed 200% of the Denominational Average Compensation.

The MPP and CPP church contribution rate shall be 12% of the MPP contribution base of each active participant. The CPP contribution rate shall be 4.4% of the contribution base of each active participant. [MPP Section 4.01(a) & CPP Section 4.01(a).]

The MPP and CPP church contribution shall be made monthly to the plans by the Annual Conference in accordance with the Plan Document. Such MPP and CPP church contributions shall be transferred monthly from the deposit account of the Alabama-West Florida Conference by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits to each active participant's account and the Comprehensive Protection Benefit Fund, respectively. The Annual Conference shall maintain an amount in its deposit account sufficient to provide for the monthly transfer of the church contributions on behalf of its active participants.

The Alabama-West Florida Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits is hereby authorized, at its discretion, to arrange with the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits for active participation in MPP by persons who are eligible under special rules but not automatically included as Active Participants. [MPP Section 4.01 (l)]

Any full or associate member appointed to a sabbatical leave may continue to participate in MPP, provided the Conference makes the required church contribution based on the participant's annualized Plan Compensation immediately prior to such leave. [Disciplinary Paragraph 350; MPP Section 4.01j(l)]

Any full member appointed to attend school after having served under appointment other than to attend school may continue to participate in MPP to extent allowable under applicable Federal Law. MPP Section 4.01j(1)]

The Alabama-West Florida Annual Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits is hereby authorized, at its discretion, to arrange with The General Board of Pension and Health Benefits for active participation in CPP by persons who are eligible under special rules but not automatically included as active participants. [CPP Section 3.03.(a)]

All full, associate, and probationary members granted a Leave of Absence may be continued in CPP provided the Conference makes a contribution of 4.4% of the DAC. [Disciplinary Paragraph 352, CPP Section 3.02(a)]

All full, associate, and probationary members granted family leave may continue in CPP, provided the Conference makes the required contribution based on 4.4% of the DAC. [Disciplinary Paragraph 353; CPP Section 3.02(a).]

On January 1, 2005, the ministerial pension rate shall be $515.00, and local pastor's pension rate shall be $515.00. Should the pension rate, as a percentage of the 2005 Conference Average Compensation (CAC), be below .9 of 1%, then the Annual Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits shall be authorized, after consultation with the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, to arrange to have the Past Service Pension Rate be the minimum dollar amount which would permit a 12% MPP church contribution rate. If this occurs, the required funding amounts may be different from the amounts listed below, and the Conference would be required to make the revised annual past service deposit. [Disciplinary Paragraphs 1506.2(b), 1506.7, & 1506.21(a); MPP Section 4.01a (1).]

REPORT NO. 5 - CLAIMANTS' MEMORIAL FUND

We recommend the continuation of the Claimants' Memorial Fund, such funds being invested by this Board with the interest being used for the benefits of the Conference Claimants. Individuals and groups are invited to make voluntary contributions in any amount to the fund as memorials to deceased ministers, members of minister families, or lay persons. Checks should be made payable to the Alabama-West Florida Conference and sent to the Conference treasurer, Andalusia, with the name or names of the persons being memorialized. Families of those so memorialized will be notified that a memorial gift was received.

REPORT NO. 6 - SPECIAL APPOINTMENT PENSION RESPONSIBILITIES

In keeping with paragraph 1506.3.a(3), 4g, 4h, of the 2004 Discipline, we recommend that those clergy appointed to extension ministries be approved for pension responsibility on this Annual Conference in the following full time appointments: the director of the Assembly Grounds Commission, the director of Noah's Ark, the director of the Mobile Inner City Mission, the director of the Alabama-West Florida Board of Pastoral Care Counseling and Training and the directors of the University of South Alabama and Troy Wesley Foundations provided such appointments are made as members of this Annual Conference under paragraph 344a(1) of the 2004 Discipline. The district superintendents, ministers appointed to the Conference Council on Ministries and the Fiscal Office are approved with pension responsibility on this Annual Conference.

We recommend that special appointments to the United Methodist colleges and universities and other general agencies shall be listed as with pension responsibility on the institution or agency.

We recommend that chaplains in the Armed Forces be listed with pension responsibility on the chaplaincy of the military service.

We recommend that ministers under appointment as approved evangelists, area appointments and other special ministries shall be listed with pension responsibility on this Annual Conference only upon payment to the Conference Claimants Fund an amount equal to 16.4% of the DAC as determined by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. (2004 Discipline, par. 1506.3a.)

By special arrangement those ministers on leave of absence or probationary members appointed to attend school may qualify for the Comprehensive Protection Plan by a personal payment of 3.45% of the DAC to the Conference Claimants Fund.

We recommend that special appointments to non-Methodist institutions shall be listed without pension responsibility on this Annual Conference

We recommend that all missionaries shall be listed with pension responsibility on the General Board of Global Ministries.

REPORT NO. 7 - DEPOSITORIES

We recommend that the official depository for pension funds shall be the same as that designated by the Conference for other Conference funds as well as the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits of The United Methodist Church.

REPORT NO. 8 - PENSIONS FOR LAY EMPLOYEES

We strongly endorse the Cumulative Pension and Benefit Plan and the Basic Protection Plan administered by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits for lay employees of United Methodist local churches and agencies. We recommend and urge our churches to use these plans provided by the Church to provide pension and death and disability coverage for our lay persons who serve our churches.

Churches and agencies should contact the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, 1201 Davis Street, Evanston, IL 60201.

REPORT NO. 9 - FULL-TIME SERVICE AS A REQUIREMENT FOR PENSION CREDIT

We call attention to the following provisions relative to full time service, rendered prior to January 1, 1982, as a normal condition for pension credit which appears in paragraph 1506.4 of the 2004 Discipline.

- A. Full-time service of a ministerial member or a lay pastor shall be required as a normal condition for pension credit; provided, however, that such credit may be granted for part time service by a three-fourth vote of those present and voting in the Annual Conference, on recommendation of the conference Board of Pensions and Homes for Claimants.
- B. Full-time service shall mean that full time is devoted to the work of a pastor by one who has not attained the mandatory age of retirement for a Conference member, who is not attending school as a regular student, who is not substantially employed in non-pastoral work; and whose cash support per annum from all church sources is not less than the schedule of equitable compensation adopted by the Annual Conference for those in this person's classification.

It should be noted that service of either a ministerial member or lay pastor is without pension credit if it is not full-time service as defined, except in cases of approved part-time service.

REPORT NO. 10 - RESOLUTION RELATING TO RENTAL/HOUSING ALLOWANCES FOR RETIRED OR DISABLED MINISTERS OF THIS ANNUAL CONFERENCE

WHEREAS , the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the Alabama-West Florida Conference is the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for retired ordained or licensed ministers who are members of this Conference; and

WHEREAS , the disabled minister has the same legal relationship to an Annual Conference as does the retired minister, and thus, this Annual Conference is also the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for a disabled ordained or licensed minister who is a member of this Conference;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received by a retired ordained or licensed minister, or 100% of the disability benefit payments received by a disabled ordained or licensed minister, during the year of 2006 be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance, respectively, for each retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister of The United Methodist Church who is or was a member of the Alabama-West Florida Conference at the time of his or her retirement or disability;
2. The pension or disability payment to which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be the pension or disability payment resulting from all service of such retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference, General Agency or institution of The United Methodist Church or any former denomination that is now a part of The United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services related to the ministry and who elected to make contributions to the pension or benefit funds of The United Methodist Church for such retired ordained or licensed minister's pension or disabled ordained or licensed minister's benefits.

NOTE: It should be noted that the above applies only to the minister and not the surviving spouse. The amount you can exclude for housing is the lesser of (1) the amount of your pension; (2) the amount it costs you to provide your housing; or (3) the fair market rental value of your home including furnishings. If you need further information concerning this, please contact your CPA or the Fiscal Office.

REPORT NO. 11 - SPECIAL GRANTS

Oakley W. Melton, III	$300.00 per month
Mrs. June Leiber	$200.00 per month

REPORT NO. 12 - HOMES FOR CLAIMANTS

REPORT NO. 13 - POLICY FOR CLAIMANT'S HOME OCCUPANTS

Should an occupant of a claimant's home choose to relocate from a claimant's home the following policy will apply:

Documented moving expenses not to exceed $2,000 will be reimbursed.

A grant not to exceed $3000 will be given to offset documented closing costs for the purchase of a home or documented rental deposit for an apartment, town home or assisted living facility.

The moving expenses and grant will be available to clergy persons or a surviving spouse occupying a claimant home. It is not available to family members when the home is vacated as a result of the death of a clergy person or surviving spouse.

REPORT NO. 14 - GUIDE FOR NEED BASED HOUSING GRANT

History

The 1992 Alabama West Florida Annual Conference adopted a proposal from the Board of Pensions and Homes for Claimants that changed the direction of homes for retired clergy.

Beginning with the Annual Conference of 2003, the Board stopped purchasing houses or assigning currently owned homes to newly retired clergy.

After 2002, homes vacated were sold and the proceeds placed in a Special Homes Fund.

After 2003 grants were to be made to those who needed help with retirement housing.

Eligibility

Priority for grant applications will follow the guidelines as set forth below

An applicant is to be defined as:

A clergy person who retires with a minimum of 20 years full-time service with pension credit on the Alabama-West Florida Conference and is receiving his/her pension.

An un-remarried surviving spouse of an active clergy person with a minimum of ten (10) years full-time service in the Alabama-West Florida Conference. He/she must have been married to the qualified clergy person during the years of qualifying service. Exceptions may be considered in the case of death prior to 10 years service.

The surviving spouse of a retired clergy person who was married to that clergy person at the time of his/her retirement.

Clergy Persons who are placed on Incapacity Leave by the Annual Conference.

APPLICATION PERIOD:

Clergy that retire June 1, 2003 or thereafter may apply for a grant any time subsequent to their retirement. Surviving spouses may apply within one year of the date of death of the clergy person. Clergy Persons who are placed on Incapacity Leave by the Annual Conference may apply within one year of being placed on incapacity leave or they may apply subsequent to retirement, provided they retire on or after June 1, 2003.

To be considered for a grant, the applicant and spouse's post-retirement earned income from all sources must be equal to or less than the denominational average compensation (DAC) in the year of application.

Applicants must submit the following:

Board of Pension and Health Benefits Financial Statement.
The most recent 1040 Income Tax Form including all schedules.

Applicants must also complete an interview with a Grant Committee appointed by the Board of Pensions.

Funding

In order to maintain and grow the Homes Fund a percentage of the net income will be returned to the corpus of the fund each year. The expectation is that initial grant applications will be numerous in the beginning years, so a higher percentage of net income will be used. A gradual increase to a 80% of net income use and a 20% return to the corpus of the fund is recommended below:

Year	% Return To Fund
2005	5
2006	5
2007	10
2008	10
2009	15
2010	15
2011-Forward	20

If initial eligible applications exceed the income in 2005, the 2003 and 2004 net income could be applied to those grants less a 5% return of net income to the Homes Fund.

Grants are intended to assist retiring clergy to obtain housing. The money granted to applicants should be used to aid with some form of housing such as down payments, closing costs, rental deposits, etc. Grants are awarded on a one-time basis up to $3,000.00, as set forth herein. Grants will be disbursed within 30 day after approval by the Grants Committee.

Grants are not guaranteed but will be awarded based upon the Grant Committee's discretion considering financial need, circumstances, available grant funds and the totality of the overall circumstances.

Amendments.

These guidelines may be amended from time to time by simple majority of the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits

REPORT NO. 15 - HEALTH INSURANCE

The Board is charged with the responsibility of providing the best possible coverage at the most economical rate and is authorized by the Annual Conference to design a plan and establish rates and policies to that end. The partial self-funded health insurance plan has been in operation since February 1991. Blue Cross/Blue Shield of Alabama continues as the third party administrator of the plan. In 2004 income continued to be adequate to cover claims to the insurance fund. To insure the financial stability of our health insurance program we increased the asking in the year 2005 by $70,000, an increase of only 2.03%. This increase was well below the national trend of medical care costs. We also increased the family coverage premium for pastors by 12% and lay employees by 8%. However, we maintained the assessment of active pastors at the 2002 level and set at $85.00 per month the contribution for each retired pastor and spouse and surviving spouse participating in the MEDSUPP insurance plan. The conference health insurance plan for active clergy and lay employees is a PPO plan with copay requirements of $25.00. There are three levels of drug reimbursement - 60% for non-preferred name brand drugs: 80% for preferred name brand drugs: 100% for generic drugs.

The Board continued the policy that coverage will be terminated if premium or assessment payments are over thirty days late.

The Group Health Benefits Plan is not a form of entitlement and it should be noted that Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits, with the approval of the Annual Conference, reserves the right to amend or possibly eliminate both the active and retired plan of benefits.

Local churches may cover their lay employees who work 30 or more hours a week. For information on premiums and enrollment requirements, contact Mrs. Pat Rathel at 1-888-873-3127 or (334) 222-3127.

REPORT NO. 16 - REPORT OF ACTUARIAL VALUATION OF POSTRETIREMENT MEDICAL BENEFITS OF EMPLOYEES AND RETIREES

In response to the direction of the 2000 General Conference, The Alabama West Florida Conference of the UMC retained Aon Consulting to calculate the liabilities associated with providing postretirement medical benefits to current and future retirees in accordance with the terms of its existing plans and contribution arrangement.

The full report presents actuarial liabilities for the plan, as well as the applicable expense and liability amounts that would exist if the conference reported plan financial information in accordance with the Statement of Financial Accounting Standards Nos. 106 and 132.

In addition, cash flow information is presented which projects the future claims and participant contributions for the current group of active and retired employees, along with the resulting employer costs. Cash flows, liabilities, and the net periodic postretirement benefit costs have been calculated based on conditions existing as of the January 1, 2001 measurement date.

Please contact the Fiscal Office at 888-873-3127 if you would like to review the report in its entirety.

In this report (Number 14, Exhibit 1), we summarize the information provided through the valuation.

Currently there is no funding plan established. We fund the annual retiree health costs through apportionments and individual monthly premium payments.

REPORT NO 17 - ALABAMA WEST FLORIDA CONFERENCE POLICY ON INCAPACITY LEAVE AND CPP DISABILITY BENEFITS

TERMS:

Incapacity Leave: A conference relations status of a clergy member who is unable to perform his or her ministerial work because of a physical or emotional impairment, the conference may grant incapacity leave upon recommendation of the conference boards of ordained ministry and pension.

CPP Disability Benefits: Benefits paid by the Comprehensive Protection Plan to clergy persons who are determined by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits to be eligible for these benefits and are on incapacity leave.

Incapacity Leave is granted to clergy who are members of the annual conference who are unable to perform their ministerial work because of incapacity due to health matters and disabling conditions. It is not a status that is used to solve appointment problems.

The 2004 Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church References:

Paragraph 358. Incapacity Leave Resulting From Health Matters and Disabling Conditions

1. When clergy who are members of an annual conference (§ 368) are unable to perform their ministerial work because of incapacity due to health matters and disabling conditions, upon recommendations of the conference board of ordained ministry and the conference board of pensions, and by a majority vote of the executive session of clergy members in full connection with the annual conference who are present and voting, they may be granted annual incapacity leave without losing their relationship to the annual conference; provided, however, that such leave may be granted or renewed only after a thorough investigation of the case by the joint committee on incapacity of the annual conference, which will report its findings to the conference board of ordained ministry and the conference board of pensions. This relationship may be initiated by the clergy member or cabinet with or without the consent of the clergy member through the board of ordained ministry. When incapacity leave is given without the clergy member's consent, reasonable accommodation shall be offered whenever possible. When a clergy member is granted incapacity leave by the annual conference, if the medical evidence has not yet met the standards for the receipt of benefits as set forth in the Comprehensive Protection Plan, section 5.04, the conference board of pensions may authorize payment of the benefits in the amount that would otherwise be payable from the Comprehensive Protection Plan. The payments shall be made by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits as a charge to the annual conference granting the incapacity leave. If payments from the Comprehensive Protection Plan are subsequently approved, the annual conference will be reimbursed for benefits already paid, not to exceed the amount otherwise payable from the Comprehensive Protection Plan. Each incapacity leave granted by the annual conference shall be recorded in the conference minutes.
2. When clergy who are members of an annual conference are unable to perform their ministerial work between sessions of the annual conference on account of health matters and disabling conditions, with the approval of a majority of the district superintendents, after consultation with the executive committee of the conference board of ordained ministry and the executive committee of the conference board of pensions, an incapacity leave may be granted by the bishop for the remainder of the conference year; provided, however, that such leave may be granted only after a thorough investigation of the case including accommodation provisions by the joint committee on incapacity of the annual conference; which will report its findings to the conference board of ordained ministry and the conference board of pensions. When a clergy member is granted incapacity leave by the bishop, if the medical evidence has not yet met the standards for receipt of benefits as set forth in the Comprehensive Protection Plan, section 5.04, the conference board of pensions may authorize payment of the benefits in the amount that would otherwise be payable from the Comprehensive Protection Plan. The payments shall be made by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits as a charge to the annual conference granting the incapacity leave. If payments from the Comprehensive Protection Plan are subsequently approved, the annual conference will be reimbursed for benefits already paid, not to exceed the amount otherwise payable from the Comprehensive Protection Plan.

3. When clergy members on incapacity leave provide medical evidence that they have recovered sufficiently to resume ministerial work, or are able to return through reasonable accommodation, they may receive an appointment from a bishop between sessions of the annual conference, thereby terminating the incapacity leave. Such appointment shall be reported immediately by the cabinet to the conference board of pensions and to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. Such termination of leave, together with the effective date, shall also be recorded in the minutes of the annual conference at its next regular session.

Paragraph 634.2(k): Conference Board of Ordained Ministry

The duties of the annual conference board of ordained ministry shall be...

k) To interview applicants and make recommendation concerning: (1) changes from the effective relation to a leave of absence or retirement; (2) return to the effective relation from other relations; (3) honorable location; (4) readmission of located persons and persons discontinued from probationary membership; (5) sabbatical leave; (6) incapacity leave; (7) appointment as a student; (8) termination; and (9) changes to or from less than full-time ministry.

The board shall keep a record of these changes and the reason behind them and place a copy in the permanent records of the annual conference maintained by the secretary of the conference.

Paragraph 651. There shall be a joint committee on incapacity in each annual conference. It shall be composed of a minimum of two representatives each from the board of ordained ministry and the conference board of pensions, who may be elected by those boards at the beginning of each quadrennium and at other times when vacancies occur, and a district superintendent appointed from time to time by the bishop to represent the cabinet. Unless and until other members are elected, the chairperson and registrar of the board of ordained ministry and the chairperson and secretary of the conference board of pensions, or others designated by them, shall be authorized to represent their respective boards. The committee shall organize at the beginning of each quadrennium by the election of a chairperson and a secretary. The duties of the joint committee on incapacity shall be:

- a) To study the problems of incapacity in the annual conference.
- b) To provide for a continuing personal ministry to any disabled clergy of the conference and to aid them in maintaining fellowship with the members of the conference.
- c) To determine what medical doctor or doctors it will approve for medical examinations and reports regarding disabled clergy, and what medical doctor or doctors it will recommend to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits for that purpose.
- d) To make recommendations to the board of ordained ministry, the conference board of pensions, and the cabinet on matters related to incapacity, including steps for its prevention, incapacity leave, benefits, and programs of rehabilitation.

e) To cooperate with and give assistance to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits in its administration of incapacity benefits through the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund or the Comprehensive Protection Plan.

Going on Incapacity Leave

When an eligible clergyperson requests CPP Incapacity Benefits:

Application is requested from Conference Pension and Benefits Officer or General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits (GBOPHB).

Application is completed:

Form A, Applicant Information for Long-Term Disability Benefits is completed, signed by the applicant, and mailed to the GBOPHB.

Form B, Attending Physicians Statement is completed by the applicant and the physician, signed by the Physician and mailed to the GBOPHB

Form C, Clergy Disability Benefits Application is completed and signed by the applicant including the Authorization to Release Information to the General Board page and mailed to the District Superintendent.

The District Superintendent signs Form C, acknowledging that the individual is applying for disability benefits and mails it to the Conference Pension and Benefits Officer.

The Conference Benefits Officer signs Form C, acknowledging that the individual is applying for disability benefits.

The Conference Benefits Officer contacts by phone each member of the Joint Committee on Incapacity (JCI) to alert them to the fact that the individual is applying for CPP Disability Benefits and signs Form C for the Chair of the Joint Committee on Incapacity.

The Conference Pension and Benefits Officer mails Form C to the GBOPHB.

Form F:

The District Superintendent must state, in writing, that the Bishop has or will grant the individual Incapacity Leave. The District Superintendent must also indicate one of the following:

a. The applicant will be granted incapacity Leave ONLY if disability benefits are approved from the CPP and if approved the date incapacity leave will begin,

b. The applicant has been or will be granted incapacity leave and the conference deposit account should be charged for conference disability grant in the amount of

40% of the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC)

Greater of 70% of plan compensation or 40% of DAC (standard CPP benefit)

Other (specify amount)

c. The applicant has been or will be granted incapacity leave without benefits and the date incapacity leave will begin.

If the conference deposit account is to be charged with CPP benefits (option b), the conference Pension and Benefits officer will coordinate approval with the Executive Committee of the conference board of pension and health benefits.

Form F is signed by the Conference Pension and Benefits Officer and mailed to the GBOPHB.

The Conference Pension and Benefits Officer will provide a copy of Form F to the board of ordained ministry Executive Secretary to insure that the board of ordained ministry takes appropriate action. Because of HIPPA privacy regulations, it will be the standard position of the JIC to recommend to the board of ordained ministry the status recommended by Disability Management Alternatives.

Coming Off Incapacity Leave

Among the reasons a participant will no longer receive CPP disability benefits are the following:

If a participant becomes disabled on or prior to the date he/she attains age 60, and is receiving disability benefits in the Conference year in which he/she attains age 65, and the disability continues, then the benefits will terminate on June 30 following the person's 65th birthday anniversary (if the final day of the regular session of such person's conference falls in the month of May or June, or, otherwise, on the last day of the month in which the closing day of such Conference session occurs) Para 5.04 d. (7) CPP Plan Document

If the participant becomes disabled after age 60, and the disability continues, then the benefits will terminate on the earlier to occur of (i) June 30 following the end of a five-year period from the date the disability was determined to have begun (if the final day of the regular session of such person's Conference falls in May or June, or, otherwise, on the last day of the month following the end of such five-year period in which the closing day of such Conference session occurs); or (ii) June 30 following such person's retirement date (if the final day of the regular session of such person's Conference falls in May or June, or, otherwise, on the last day of the month in which the closing day of such Conference session occurs). Para 5.4 d. (8) CPP Plan Document

If the individual provides medical evidence that they have recovered sufficiently to resume ministerial work, or are able to return through reasonable accommodations a request must be submitted to the Bishop and the Joint Committee on Incapacity.

The Joint Committee on Incapacity, through the Conference Pension and Benefits Officer, will request a referral through the Disability Management Alternatives for the name of a physician available and competent to provide an Independent Medical Evaluation of the individual's request. Because of HIPPA privacy regulations, the JCI will request only a recommendation from the physician as to the individual's ability to resume work and will follow the physician's recommendation as to making a recommendation to the board of ordained ministry. Alternately, and at the discretion of the JCI, the recommendation of Disability Management Alternatives regarding continuation of CPP Disability Benefits may form the recommendation of the JCI to the board of ordained ministry.

Having received the recommendation from the JIC, the Board of Ordained Ministry will conduct the interview required in paragraph 634.2 (k)

If an individual receives an appointment between sessions of annual conference, the cabinet must report the appointment immediately to the conference board of pension and the GBOPH. Such termination of incapacity leave, together with the effective date must also be recorded in the minutes of the annual conference at its next regular session.

Part-Time Appointments

If an individual seeks a part-time appointment in anticipation of coming off incapacity leave the following information is required:

The appointment cannot last longer than 12 months.

The written recommendation of the individual's doctor. The operative word is recommendation. That is, the doctor believes that it is in the medical best interest of the individual to begin part-time service and is encouraging and cooperating with the return to part-time service.

The number of hours that the individual will work.

When the appointment will start.

Will the person serve a church as the only pastor or will the individual serve as an associate of a church.

Approved:

Board of Ministry - 03/01/2005

Report No. 5 – ZERO-BASED BUDGETING

3. At the end of the fiscal year, the unused balances for each board and agency shall be transferred to a reserve account, which shall be designated the “Mission and Ministry Fund.”
4. The Mission and Ministry Fund shall consist of the following:
  - a. Funds remaining in the CORETeam program pool at the end of the year

- b. Funds which may be budgeted for the Mission and Ministry Fund
  - c. Funds received from terminated activities which remain unused for those activities when transferred by the CORE Team
  - d. Interest earned from sources as may be provided by the Council on Finance and Administration
  - e. Funds from other sources that may be deposited by any board or agency or group within the Annual Conference.

Report No. 8 – STEWARDSHIP RESPONSIBILITIES AND LOCAL CHURCH CONCERNS

1. CFA believes that all apportionments are needed in the amounts apportioned. Further, CFA believes that it is within the capacity of the churches to pay the apportionments in full. Effort has been made to hold apportionments for which CFA has responsibility to minimum increases. The 2006 Conference budget reflects an increase of 4.36% over 2005.

2. By action of the 2001 Annual Conference, the following schedule shall be used in setting apportionments for new churches:
  - 1st full year . . . . . no apportionment
  - 2nd year . . . . . 25% apportioned
  - 3rd year . . . . . 50% apportioned
  - 4th year . . . . . 75% apportioned
  - 5th year & following . . . . . 100% apportioned
3. Apportionments shall be made to all churches using the apportionment formula outlined in CFA Report - Formula and Allocations.
4. Local churches shall provide for the audits of local church records as provided in paragraph 259.4c of the 2004 Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church.

Report No. 9 – FORMULA AND ALLOCATIONS

1. The Apportionments shall be developed using a formula based on financial strength of the local churches and the membership of the local churches. Financial strength will be weighted 75% and professing membership weighted 25% in the formula. Apportionments will be determined by local church decimal applied to the amount of each budget item at the conference level.
2. The financial strength of a local church in calculating the decimal formula shall be based on all local expenditures (lines 63-71 of the Local Church Report to the Annual Conference). This eliminates all apportionments and special giving from the formula. (Listing: Standing Rule No. 23)
3. The winter/spring meeting of the Council on Finance and Administration shall be the time for receiving requests from all boards and agencies for the ensuing year. All boards and agencies should be advised that they place their allocations in jeopardy when they fail to submit timely budget requests.
4. The pastor and chairperson of the Committee on Finance or the church treasurer shall sign the annual local church report as being correct. The Fiscal Office will enter the data in the computer, print a copy, and send it to the local pastor to check. The Fiscal Office will establish a date by which it should be notified if corrections are necessary. If no corrections are identified by that date, the fiscal officer will consider the report accurate. When the new year’s apportionments are run in July, there will be only one set of apportionments, which will be the final set. There will not be a “Trial Set” of apportionments.

Report No. 10 - DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS’ COMPENSATION

The Council on Finance and Administration continues to pay very close attention to the subject of compensation for district superintendents. The Council recommends that superintendents’ salaries be based on salary figures from within the conference. The formula we are using for guidance in determining the superintendent’s salaries is based on an analysis of the average percentage raise (from 2003 to 2004) of the top three senior pastors’ appointment salaries from each of the eight districts. After evaluating this percentage increase and with a commitment to fiscal responsibility, CFA recommends that the base salary of the district superintendents be increased by 4% for 2006 from $88,570 to $92,113.

1. The base salary of the district superintendents shall be set at $92,113 for 2006 with travel expense paid on voucher from a travel pool of $82,000. The executive committee of CFA shall adjust the rate per mile, as needed, within this limit.

2. District superintendents shall receive no supplementary travel funds from district administration funds.
3. Each district shall place funds in its budget for district parsonage utilities, up to a total of $4,500, for each calendar/budget year. Utilities to be included are electricity; gas, water sewage, and basic television cable or satellite services, telephone, Internet service, and trash collection.
4. The districts which provide district superintendents a housing allowance in lieu of a parsonage, shall designate the housing amount in the minutes of the District Conference. This designation shall be made in advance of payment of such allowance, either upon appointment or in advance of the calendar year thereafter.
5. Each district shall place in its district administration fund an amount not to exceed $2,000 for continuing education.

Report No. 11 – MOVING GUIDELINES AND EXPENSES

The Tuesday following the adjournment of Annual Conference shall be the official moving date for each conference year. All June salary shall be paid to the incoming minister. No minister shall receive June salary from the church from which he/she is moving.

Upon retirement, disability or death of a minister, the conference shall pay up to $2,500 for documented moving expenses to the first place of retirement or disability or the first place of dwelling for a surviving spouse. Moving expenses to be reimbursed shall not be incurred prior to retirement notification to the Bishop and will be reimbursed after the retirement move is completed.

Guidelines for clergy under appointment:

1. Following notification of appointment change by the district superintendent, the Chairperson of the PPRC should contact the minister to be appointed to communicate the church's policy in paying moving expenses and to discuss moving plans.
2. The receiving church is responsible for the first $2,500 of documented moving expenses and is encouraged to pay all documented expenses for the incoming ministerial family.

Report No. 12 – ANNUAL CONFERENCE EXPENSE

1. A charge of $28.00 per person, per night, will be made for all who use Conference provided housing. (Standing Rule No. 8) CFA will be responsible for studying and investigating possible locations and expenses for future sessions of the Annual Conference.
2. The Brochure of Reports will contain an order blank requiring orders to be placed for the Conference Journal at $18.00, including the cost of mailing. (paid upon order.) Deadline for ordering will be July 31st. Orders received after the deadline will incur an additional mailing charge. Order forms will be available in other places as well. (Standing Rule 15A.)
3. Retired clergy and surviving spouses of clergy may receive one copy of the Conference Journal free, provided it is ordered using the order blank.

We call attention to the resolution adopted by the Annual Conference of 1988, which designated the United Methodist Foundation as the official depository for discretionary endowment funds owned by the Annual Conference and its related Boards and Agencies. Local churches are encouraged to use the Foundation for endowment funds in order to insure proper management and fiduciary accountability.

Maintenance costs on the Andalusia parsonages and Conference Office Building totaled $8,471.99 in 2004.

REPORT NO. 2 - SIGNATURE AUTHORITY

In keeping with Paragraph 2515 of The 2004 Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, the President and any one of the following officers of the Board of Trustees may sign any required written instruments necessary to carry out the action authorized by the Annual Conference regarding the sale, transfer, lease or purchase of Annual Conference property: The Vice President or the Secretary.

REPORT NO. 3 - DESIGNATION OF UMC-OWNED PROPERTY AS CULTURAL, HISTORICAL, OR ARCHITECTURAL LANDMARK

Paragraph 2512.7 of The 2004 Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church directs that "the board [of trustees of the annual conference], after consultation with the conference commission on archives and history . . . shall develop a policy for an annual conference response, on behalf of any local church, church-related agency, or district or annual conference board of trustees located within the bounds of the annual conference, to any governmental effort to designate a property held in trust for the benefit of The United Methodist Church ( 2503) by any such board of trustees as a cultural, historical, or architectural landmark."

Governmental designation of church-owned real property as a cultural, historical, or architectural landmark severely infringes upon and restricts the rights of the church as a property owner and as a religious institution.

Depending on governmental requirements, alterations of the interior may be forbidden without governmental permission.

Improvements (such as buildings) on the property are either forbidden to be demolished, or can be demolished only after extensive and expensive applications and hearings.

Sale of landmarked property, when it is no longer required for church purposes, becomes almost impossible; a buyer is not given the freedom to demolish the structures on the property or to use it as he/she sees fit. Such limitations would render church-owned property virtually unable to be sold in the future.

The church could be blocked from transforming the donations given in the past to establish real property for United Methodist use into new establishments for United Methodist Church use, a promise made to the donors at the time their donations were originally solicited.

In exchange for such limitations on the use of property, governmental bodies typically will compensate the property owner for such reduction in property value and limitations on development and use by allowing federal and state income tax credits against actual expenditures made for future rehabilitation work done to the property. Such income tax credits are worthless to a church, however, because a church does not pay income taxes.

Because of the restrictions and infringements upon the rights of the church as a property owner and religious institution, in general such governmental designations should be discouraged.

There may be, however, instances when allowing such a landmarking to take place is in the best interests of both the public and the church. Therefore, the following principles are established as the policy of the Alabama-West Florida Annual Conference:

1. Any Board of Trustees which voluntarily wishes to cooperate with a governmental body in having that property landmarked which the Board of Trustees holds in trust for The United Methodist Church shall do the following:

a. Comply with the provisions of 2515, 2517.2, 2539, 2540, 2541, and/or 2543 (as appropriate) of The 2004 Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, just as if such landmarking were a sale of the property.

b. Obtain a majority vote of the Bishop and Cabinet, combined, approving such a voluntary landmarking of church-owned property.

2. On behalf of the Alabama-West Florida Annual Conference, the Annual Conference Board of Trustees, as the designated successor in interest to church-owned property held in trust for the United Methodist Church under 2548.3 of The 2004 Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, and as the designated agency "to intervene and take all necessary legal steps to safeguard and protect the interests and rights of the annual conference anywhere and in all matters relating to property and rights to property" of any of its agencies, organizations, or local churches under 2512.4, is directed to intervene, at the request of the superintendent of the district in which the affected property is located, to oppose any governmental effort to involuntarily designate any such property as a cultural, historical, or architectural landmark. This intervention may include engaging whatever legal or professional counsel is needed. Such intervention may include opposing such landmarking designation in any or all state or federal courts, if necessary and appropriate. The Annual Conference Board of Trustees may, at its discretion, undertake such intervention by financial assistance to the affected board of trustees. Such funding shall come first from any positive balance in the fund described below. Additional funding, if necessary, may be requested from the Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

3. The Annual Conference Committee on Finance and Administration shall establish an interest-on-investments account to be used, at the discretion of the Annual Conference Board of Trustees, to help defray the costs of opposing governmental efforts at involuntary landmarking of church-owned property as described above. Funds contributed to this fund may only be used for the designated purpose. Any use of these funds will be reported to the Annual Conference. Income generated from this account may be used by the Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration (or its successor organization) for any purpose it shall designate. The Annual Conference Board of Trustees is directed to a) request monies from the apportioned budget of the Annual Conference, as reasonably available, and b) solicit voluntary contributions, to put into the account to hold in reserve for the designated purpose.

REPORT NO. 4 - GENERAL TRUST GUIDELINES

In the absence of specific guidelines regarding the investment and distribution of gifts to the Alabama-West Florida Conference Board of Trustees, the board establishes these guidelines in order to provide ongoing support of the ministries identified by the donor. The use of "Board of Trustees" in this document refers to the Board of Trustees of the Alabama-West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church.

- The objective of the trust is to conserve principal as an ongoing source of funding.
- Any part of the principal may be withdrawn only in extreme and overwhelming circumstances, bordering on the financial survival of the entity designated by the donor and must be approved by the Board of Trustees.
- Fund management will be provided through the services of the Alabama-West Florida United Methodist Foundation.
- Up to 100% of the earned income may be utilized upon approval of the Board of Trustees.
- Realized capital gains will be treated as an increase in principal value.
- The use of a trust fund as collateral for a loan will be decided on a case-by-case basis by the Board of Trustees.
- Board of Trustees will determine the investment strategy for each fund and any changes in investment strategy will require approval of the Board.
- Any material change to the income distribution policy requires approval of the Board of Trustees.
- Board of Trustees encourages the use of the General Trust Guidelines for all additional gifts.

REPORT NO. 5 - 15 PASSENGER VANS

The National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (see www.nhtsa.gov) is quoted as saying:

Occupants of 15-passenger vans are less apt to wear seat belts.

15-passenger vans are three times more likely to roll over when fully loaded than when they have fewer than 10 passengers.

Federal law does not let car dealers sell the vans for transporting people 18 years and younger.

The South Carolina United Methodist Advocate, dated May 2001 stated:

The Alabama-West Florida Chancellor states, "I believe that the use of these vans should be strongly discouraged by the Conference. There have been studies which tend to show that 15-passenger vans can become unstable in emergency situations where the vans are fully loaded. Where the vans have not been prohibited by the Department of Transportation, the use of fully loaded vans to transport passengers has been strongly questioned. There is evidence that a fully loaded 15-passenger van exceeds the design criteria for the suspension systems of the van. Under emergency braking or handling maneuvers, the van can become unstable and there have been several crashes involving fully loaded vans. Consequently, it is my opinion that the Conference should strongly discourage the use of 15-passenger vans for the transportation of people in our Conference. Although the Conference cannot prohibit the use of these vans, I believe we should strongly discourage the use of these vans due to the liability concerns and safety concerns."

It is the recommendation of the Board of Trustees that churches not use or purchase 15-passenger vans to transport passengers and that before churches do so that they obtain competent legal advise and consult with their insurance company.

REPORT NO. 6 - PARSONAGE STANDARDS - 2005

The Book of Discipline states, "Housing provisions shall comply with Annual Conference housing policy and parsonage standards." In order to establish a housing policy and housing standard the Annual Conference recommends three options available for the local church. The Annual Conference does not put one option above the other.

They are co-equal, depending upon the local situation.

The Charge Conference shall review the recommendations of the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee regarding provision of adequate housing for the pastor(s) of a local Charge. In consultation with the District Superintendent, the Charge shall choose one of these three options.

OPTION ONE

Housing Allowance

Any congregation considering a housing allowance shall consult with the District Superintendent to understand all the positive and negative aspects of housing allowances. Before implementing a housing allowance, a congregation must obtain the District Superintendent's permission. The congregation must present a tentative draft budget for the first two years and demonstrate the impact of the change on the overall fiscal health of the congregation. If the congregation decides to sell an existing parsonage, the church leadership shall follow the Discipline guidelines for selling the parsonage and using the proceeds of the sale.

Upon recommendation of the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee and the Board of Trustees with approval by the Finance Committee, the Charge Conference shall provide an annual housing allowance. The housing allowance shall not be considered as part of compensation or remuneration of the pastor(s).

OPTION TWO

Upon recommendation of the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee and the Board of Trustees with approval by the Finance Committee, the Charge Conference shall provide a parsonage that furnishes only major appliances, installed floor covering and window dressing.

OPTION THREE

Upon recommendation of the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee and the Board of Trustees with approval by the Finance Committee, the Charge Conference shall provide an adequately furnished parsonage, with quality furnishings, that complies with these standards:

CARE OF THE PROPERTY

1. The minister and family should care for the parsonage as good stewards for the Lord's property, carefully avoiding undue wear and tear, but at the same time they

- should "be at home" in the parsonage, knowing that the home and furnishings are to be used with inevitable and expected depreciation.
2. The minister and family are responsible for the repair or replacement of furnishings when, through negligent use of furnishings, breakage results, but ordinary wear and tear, such as is expected when a house is lived in, is the responsibility of the Board of Trustees/Parsonage Committee.
  3. The church shall provide an adequate amount of insurance of the building, furnishings, and equipment and for public liability. The minimum amount of insurance carried on the parsonage should be equal to 80% of the replacement value of the building, furnishings, and equipment. All clergy families are responsible for insuring all of the family's personal items.
  4. There shall be a plan identifying repairs, replacements or additions that need to be made to the parsonage. All broken and worn-out furniture or equipment should be removed.
  5. The Board of Trustees in consultation with the parsonage committee shall keep the parsonage and furnishing in good repair. They shall furnish the clergy family with a list of those church members who can do minor repairs and the names of repair companies with whom the church does business. A list of procedures to follow when repair work is needed should also be given to the clergy family
  6. Regular pest control inspection and treatment, annual termite inspection and annual carpet cleaning should be budgeted.
  7. The minister and spouse should be consulted in the selection of furnishings and equipment.
  8. If the vacating parsonage family had pets they shall be responsible for having the house and yard treated for fleas and other parasites before moving. They shall also be responsible for having the carpeting and upholstery cleaned and must vacate the house early in order to allow for this process to occur.
  9. Each pastoral charge should place an amount in the budget annually for normal maintenance and repairs to the building, furnishings, and equipment or the replacement of same if necessary.

REPORT NO. 7 - POLICY STATEMENT CONCERNING SEXUAL MISCONDUCT BY CLERGY OF THE ALABAMA-WEST FLORIDA CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, INC.

The Alabama-West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc. affirms The 2004 Book of Resolutions, Sexual Abuse Within the Ministerial Relationship and Sexual Harassment Within the Church, which states that sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship and sexual harassment within the church are incompatible with biblical teachings of hospitality, justice and healing. In accordance with The 2004 Book of Discipline ¶161(F), we affirm that all human beings, both male and female, are created in the image of God, and thus have been made equal in Christ. As the promise of Galatians 3:26-29 states, all are one in Christ. Therefore, this Conference of the United Methodist Church supports equity among all persons without regard to ethnicity, situation or gender.

Statement of Purpose

Clergy members of this conference are in a position of sacred trust, responsibility and power which affords the opportunity for unique relationships of grace and caring. Sexual misconduct by the clergy violates this trust and constitutes an abuse of the power and position of the clergy. It is the purpose of this policy to prohibit sexual abuse, sexual harassment and sexual misconduct by the clergy members of this conference in the performance of their responsibilities as ministers of the gospel. It is also the purpose of this policy to provide a method for reporting such misconduct and a procedure for resolution of complaints of misconduct involving clergy members of this Conference.

Theological Foundation

All persons are created by God. Scripture teaches that male and female are created in the image of God, and are of equal value in Christ. Jesus was sent into the world that all persons may experience whole relationships with God and each other. We are called to live in a right relationship with God, with one another, and with ourselves. This calling to live in the fullness of our God-created humanity requires that we sustain a vital relationship to God so that we may maintain the dignity of all life, and treat each other with respect and dignity. The 2004 Book of Discipline states: "We recognize that sexuality is God's good gift to all persons. We believe persons may be fully human only when that gift is acknowledged and affirmed by themselves, the church and society."

Definitions

Sexual harassment is defined by The 2004 Book of Discipline, ¶161(I) as "any unwanted sexual comment, advance or demand, either verbal or physical, that is reasonably perceived by the recipient as demeaning, intimidating, or coercive. Sexual harassment must be understood as an exploitation of a power relationship rather than an exclusively sexual issue. Sexual harassment includes, but is not limited to, the creation of a hostile or abusive working environment resulting from discrimination on the basis of gender." Sexual harassment may occur in any environment where the work of the church takes place. Sexual harassment also includes intimidating or coercive behavior that threatens or results in a tangible employment action.

Gender Harassment is behavior that is harassing in nature against a woman because she is a woman or against a man because he is a man.

Sexual abuse is conduct of a sexual nature that is in violation of the legal rights of others and/or conduct that is prohibit by law. Sexual abuse includes criminal sexual conduct or sexual contact by force, threat or intimidation that is in violation of the laws of the States of Alabama or Florida. As applicable to interactions with children or vulnerable persons, the term "sexual abuse" includes the subjection of a child or vulnerable person to any sexual act by any person responsible for their care in violation of the laws of the states of Alabama or Florida. To uphold the moral standards of the United Methodist Church as defined by The 2004 Book of Discipline, no person under the age of 18 nor any vulnerable adult may give consent to sexual acts.

Sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship occurs when a person within a ministerial role of leadership (pastor, educator, counselor, youth leader, or other person of leadership) engages in sexual contact or sexualized behavior with a congregant, parishioner, client, employee, student, staff member, co-worker or volunteer.

Sexual Misconduct is conduct which is a chargeable offense within the meaning of ¶2702 of The 2004 Book of Discipline. Sexual misconduct may also be an abuse of power through sexual contact or activity (not limited to sexual intercourse) which exploits the vulnerability of a parishioner, client, staff member, or volunteer, or conduct which causes or allows those persons to engage in sexual conduct with a person in a professional relationship (whether paid or unpaid) to this annual conference.

Sexual misconduct may also include any sexual contact or activity (not limited to sexual intercourse) between a person in a therapeutic or counseling role or relationship with a parishioner or client. In such instances, consent is not a defense. Such behavior is inappropriate and immoral.

Policy Statement

Sexual harassment, gender harassment, sexual abuse and misconduct of a sexual nature within the life of the Church interfere with its moral mission. The Alabama-West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc. prohibits and will not tolerate these behaviors, which are sinful, demeaning, abusive and wrong. This Conference commits itself to the fair and expedient investigation of any complaint of sexual and gender harassment, sexual abuse or misconduct of a sexual nature within the Conference and will take action deemed appropriate and in compliance with the Book of Discipline. Further, it shall be the policy of The Alabama West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc. to create an environment of hospitality for all persons, male or female, which is free from this type of sinful conduct and which encourages respect, equality and kinship in Christ.

Procedure for Reporting Complaints

Some instances of harassment can be resolved informally by conversation between the parties or facilitated by mediation. In all other instances, conduct that is in violation of this policy must be reported immediately. Such a report may be made either to the Presiding Bishop of the Conference or any District Superintendent of this Conference. A report of such conduct may be reported to the Presiding Bishop at the Bishop's office in Montgomery, Alabama or to the District Superintendent at any of the District Offices within the Conference. Upon receipt by a District Superintendent of a report of clergy misconduct of a sexual nature, the District Superintendent must immediately report such complaint to the Presiding Bishop.

Non-Retaliation for Reporting

The Alabama-West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church will not retaliate against any person who brings forward a complaint or reports any conduct prohibited by this policy. All staff, leaders and volunteers are expected to immediately report any knowledge of harassment, abuse or misconduct to any one of the persons listed above. Prompt and appropriate investigation and corrective action, where appropriate, will be taken, including discipline. Persons who make false accusations may also be disciplined in the event that the accusations have been proven false.

Investigations

All investigations and remedial measures shall take place according to the pertinent provisions of the Book of Discipline. Nothing contained in this policy shall be construed to in any way alter or enlarge on any requirement of the Book of Discipline. All complaints or reports of conduct that is in violation of this policy shall be promptly and thoroughly investigated in accordance with the Book of Discipline. All investigations shall be consistent with fair process as set forth in ¶2701 of The 2004 Book of Discipline and the Decisions of The Judicial Council of the United Methodist Church.

Confidentiality

While The Alabama-West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc. cannot guarantee absolute confidentiality, it will make every reasonable effort to maintain confidentiality by disclosing information concerning the complaint or the investigation only on a "need to know" basis and as necessary to promote God's call for justice, reconciliation and healing.

Mandatory Reporting

The Alabama-West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc. will comply with all applicable state or federal laws regarding the mandatory reporting of misconduct of a sexual nature committed by any clergy.

Mediation and Reconciliation

The Alabama-West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church, Inc. encourages resolution of disputes and conflicts by mediation and reconciliation. Where appropriate, the Conference encourages parties to utilize mediation in order to reach a just and equitable resolution of the matter, giving due consideration to the severity of the situation, the position of the parties and nature of the conduct involved. Where appropriate, the conference encourages the utilization of mediation agencies such as Just Peace, and appropriate support teams.

PASTORAL CARE, COUNSELING AND TRAINING

Pastoral Care, Counseling, and Training (PCCT) is a ministry of the Alabama-West Florida Conference serving the clergy and their families through subsidized counseling, a christian counseling referral network, and continuing education events.

Clergy and family members may contact Rev. Stephen T. King or Zanatta Hagan at 800-258-6474 or e-mail the PCCT office at pctawf@ala.net to receive subsidy and counselor information. PCCT will subsidize up to eight counseling sessions per calendar year and copay is based upon a sliding fee scale. The counselors are licensed professionals with a desire to be a part of this network and are Christian in orientation and outlook, adhering to a recognized canon of ethics. During 2004, PCCT paid $15,223 in subsidy dollars for 41 clients, 258 counseling sessions, utilizing the services of 33 counselors. Dr. Ronald E. King, Director of The Pastoral Institute, Columbus, GA, continues to serve as Professional Review Consultant for PCCT, evaluating the need for additional sessions beyond the eight per calendar year.

Pastoral Care, Counseling, and Training held the very first on an ongoing series of "Sexual Ethics In Ministry" workshops in August of 2004 at Blue Lake Assembly. The attendance was 120 and the facilitator was Dr. Edwin Chase, Director of Children's and Family Ministries of the South Georgia

UM Conference. Attendance at one of these workshops every three years is mandatory and has been made a requirement for all clergy members of the conference. PCCT will be offering these workshops in various locations every year to accommodate the clergy in meeting this requirement.

The services of PCCT continue to expand each year as the requests for these services continue to grow. The services are geared to crisis intervention, but the key goal remains to be prevention, while maintaining the highest degree of confidentiality and integrity.

METHODIST HOMES FOR THE AGING

The growing age population of America is not only an amazing success story, it is an awesome challenge for our Methodist Homes for the Aging. Since the 1900s the number of persons 65 years of age and older has increased 11 fold, with the number of persons younger than 65 only tripling. Today, approximately one in eight Americans is age 65 or older. Six thousand Americans become 65 every day and by 2012 that number is expected to grow to 10,000 a day.

The oldest -old, people 85 and older, make up the fastest growing population. In 2001 there were 14,702,000 of these seniors living in the United States. As staggering as these numbers are, the picture over the next thirty years will increase dramatically - one in five persons will be 65 years or older and the number of persons 85 and older is expected to increase by millions.

Over the past several years, older Americans are living longer, feeling better and seeing enormous improvements in life expectancy and disability. Technological, genetic and pharmaceutical breakthroughs have helped to add additional years to persons 65 and older.

A tremendous challenge of this century will be to match the success of science and technology and the advances in retirement and health care services. The systems of care must be built to care for the frail elderly and well active elderly. This will involve new services, facilities, financial assistance for those unable to pay for their care, and qualified nurses and other employees to provide quality care. Methodist Homes is committed to meet the challenge of the increasing needs of our elderly.

This year we expect to open a new home in Pensacola (Wesley Haven Villa); begin the renovation of a facility in Daleville (Asbury Heights); continue in our plans and construction of a home in Florence (Asbury Acres); and work toward the development of a home in Tuscaloosa and Mobile. As we open our new homes, we are hopeful that our churches will be supportive by encouraging persons to join our caring staff to provide quality care for our residents.

We have also developed The Fountain of Love Fund to help us meet the growing challenge of providing assistance to those who are living beyond their financial means. The Fountain of Love Fund is maintained for Wesley Manor (Dothan), Wesley Gardens (Montgomery, and Mathison Retirement Center (Panama City), and provides a means of assisting residents who do not have adequate resources to pay for their monthly charges or to purchase needed personal items.

During 2004, many churches of our Conference helped make it possible for this "ministry of caring" to reach out to those unable to pay for their care. The ongoing Fountain of Love Program is a visible and tangible way for Churches to participate in supporting senior persons who have given their best to us in their earlier years. We give "thanks" to those Churches, Sunday Schools, United Methodist Women's Organizations, and others who have continually supported this special ministry. We hope that in 2005 more Churches will seek to be a part of this opportunity to "lend a helping hand" to needy residents in our Methodist Homes.

With your help and support we are meeting the needs and challenges of seniors today as well as preparing to meet the challenges of the aging population of the future. Thank you for partnering with us in this special ministry of providing retirement and health care services to seniors.

BLUE LAKE ASSEMBLY

The year 2004 was another good attendance year with increases across the board. Many organizations saw increased attendance for their various programs, which is very encouraging to the future of Blue Lake United Methodist Assembly. The unfortunate part of this equation is that we continue to turn groups away due to the lack of space. Our total summer camping enrollment continues to increase with the largest we have had in many years with over 1909 in attendance this past summer for all camps. Many needed repairs to equipment and facilities have been made. This has not only added to the esthetic beauty of Blue Lake but has added to the over all safety of our beautiful grounds.

The Board of Trustees offers a very special appreciation to the estate of Eleanor Parrish Wallace for her most gracious gift of $21,708.00 to Blue Lake United Methodist Assembly. Ms. Wallace thought highly of Blue Lake United Methodist Assembly during her lifetime. This is a fine example of perpetual giving and we are deeply grateful for this remembrance.

We are grateful to Rev. Ray and Catherine Whatley for their recent gift of corporate stock shares to be surrendered at a future time to maximize its potential value. The proceeds from the sale of the stock will be added to our Blue Lake Endowment Fund.

We have broken down our report again this year in several sub headings beginning with a listing of our SUPPORTERS. By listing our supporters we are saying thank you for your continued support of Blue Lake United Methodist Assembly. Next there is a listing of our Conference RATES schedule. If you read closely you will find that our rates have not changed for the new year. In fact the rates at Blue Lake United Methodist Assembly have not changed. However the way we access the rates, particularly the room fees, is different. Please review this schedule carefully as you plan your future events. It is important to note that Blue Lake United Methodist Assembly still has the lowest rates of any like religious camp in the Southeast Jurisdiction. Also there is a need to restate our RESERVATION policies. These policies have been in effect for well over seven years with no major change but it is important to restate them for the record. Blue Lake United Methodist Assembly has finally reach a milestone that we have dreamed of for years. We are now the official registrar for every event that takes place at Blue Lake United Methodist Assembly. This does not preclude a group for continuing to have a registrar within the frame work of that group. It is imperative for all groups and their appointed person to work directly with the Blue Lake United Methodist Assembly Registrar when making arrangements for activities. At the end of our report there will be a listing of our current recommendations to the Annual Conference for the Blue Lake United Methodist Assembly BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

OUR SUPPORTERS

Many persons, families, organizations and churches have contributed to Blue Lake United Methodist Assembly in various ways and to many causes. A major portion of our needed revenue comes from our daily operating revenues. This accounts for approximately 75% of all monies received. The next major source of revenue is the local church through the apportionments. These moneys amount to an additional 20%. Our other financial support comes from those who give to special projects and programs.

It is extremely difficult to put a price on the value received by those groups and individual who are involved in our sponsorship program. By sponsoring a Cabin, a Building, or a particular room at one of the camp areas you contribute immeasurably to Blue Lake United Methodist Assembly. It is our custom to honor this support and these supporters by listing them in our Annual Report to the Annual Conference. The Board of Trustees is deeply grateful for all who give of their prayers, their time and their financial gifts. It is a fact that without the untiring efforts of so many lovers of Blue Lake United Methodist Assembly we would not be able to exist.

We are very proud of our 2004 inspections of our food service and housing from the Alabama Department of Public Health. Our lowest grade this year was a 90 which is a common area in the Oakwood gym. The highest grade was a 100 which was receive by the Oakwood Kitchen. The kitchen staff at Oakwood deserve a very special thank you for a job well done. Blue Lake United Methodist Assembly Board of Trustees and the Blue Lake United Methodist Assembly staff wish to thank all persons who have given of their time, talents and financial resources during the past year. ### UNITED METHODIST CHILDREN'S HOME

Imagine a very vulnerable family with a six-month-old child. The mother has borderline mental retardation and the father is being treated for a mild mental illness. The baby needs medical care. After transporting the family to the doctor and returning them home, United Methodist Children's Home caregivers stayed with the family to make sure that the infant's medication was given properly and that they had diapers, baby food, and other basic necessities. As one of our staff was leaving the house, the father said, "I know you guys don't have to do all of this. Nobody has ever cared about us like you. You guys are more than social workers...I think it must be Jesus."

In 1890, ten United Methodist men from the conferences of Alabama and West Florida founded the United Methodist Orphanage in Summerfield, Alabama. Through our Residential Group Care and Therapeutic Foster Care programs, we still serve children who are unable to live with their own families, and we have evolved into so much more. Our family preservation programs and family resource center serve whole families—like the one above—as they struggle with raising and, in some cases, keeping their children.

When we started there were virtually no public child-welfare programs in either Alabama or Florida. As needs have changed, so have we. We now work closely with state agencies to give the best possible care to dependent, neglected and abused children. This collaborative attitude combined with our distinctly United Methodist personality allows us to serve people in ways that are effective, efficient, just and loving.

Our programs are still evolving. In 2004, the number of children placed privately in our care increased five-fold. Normally, state and federal funds pay only about half of what it costs to care for a child in state custody. Each child referred privately requires a much greater financial commitment from the Children's Home. We depend upon private contributions to make up this difference.

New works such as the Birmingham Center for Children and Families now offer support through individual and family counseling, workshops, tutoring programs and therapy groups. In 2004, we started performing home studies in southeast Alabama for families wanting to adopt through other private—including international—agencies. Because of our expertise in this area, we began helping DHR expedite pending foster parent adoptions of hard-to-place children.

We continued to explore ways to expand the ministry of the Children's Home in the West Florida area. As a result, a new foster care program will open in 2005 as other opportunities are developing.

In 2004, we began production of a bi-monthly electronic newsletter, the e-News from Home, and published four print publications of the highest professional quality. We provide three issues of the News and our beloved Children's Art Calendar to our supporters at no charge.

Well-publicized budgetary issues with the state of Alabama, an increase in private placements and a decrease in state referrals were the main causes of less-than-expected revenues in 2004. As a result, we have cut staff and increased private fundraising measures. We have increased efficiency through the use of updated technological tools in the areas of communications, fundraising and human resources.

We are proud to have just completed a five-year re-accreditation process and to be among the top echelon of service organizations in the United States that meet an established national standard of excellence for faith-based agencies. The Educational Assessment Guidelines Leading toward Excellence, or the EAGLE Program, is an accreditation program of the United Methodist Association of Health and Welfare Ministries.

In 2004, we updated our accounting and auditing processes to assure the integrity of financial operations and our accountability to donors. Our audits are conducted in accordance with a higher standard of accounting principles used to measure the accountability of non-profits and government entities worldwide.

And we have prepared for the future. Our Board began an assessment of its leadership role, and we have set measurable goals for every department. The United Methodist Children's Home has had an exciting and successful 114 years of ministry. We are honored to grow with the Alabama-West Florida Conference as we face the changing needs of the children and families in our communities.

Our Bishop was extremely busy in the fall personally visiting hurricane damaged church property in the Alabama-West Florida Conferece.

We are delighted that Bishop Goodpaster and Deborah have returned to be our spiritual leaders for 2004-2008.

Another meeting of the committee will be held in the spring. A report of this second meeting will be presented at Annual Conference.

All of us are to be prayer warriors for our pastors and Episcopal leadership. May God bless us all as we remain faithful in this responsibility.

REPORT NO. 25

SOUTHEASTERN JURISDICTIONAL ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

We continue to celebrate the unique Southeastern Jurisdictional Ministry. Your SEJ staff at Lake Junaluska and the seven agencies (Archives and History, Gulfside Assembly, Hinton Rural Life Center, Intentional Growth Center, SEMAR, SEJANAM, UVMIM) work diligently to provide annual conference and congregational leaders opportunities for connecting, consulting and training in our three centers and around the jurisdiction. We are determined to offer the best discipleship training and spiritual formation opportunities for all ages.

In July 2004, the Southeastern Jurisdictional Administrative Council was honored to once again host the 2004 Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference at Lake Junaluska. It was a pleasure welcoming and serving conference leaders from around the jurisdiction. We appreciate the confidence the delegates gave to the SEJ ministry through supporting our request for funding. We are especially grateful for the special asking of $.50 cents per member for the quadrennium designated to the restoration of the Lake Junaluska dam in order to bring it in line with strict North Carolina structure codes. The fund is to be paid over the 2005 - 2008 quadrennium. The overwhelming support was appreciated.

We served over one hundred twenty nine thousand United Methodist during 2001-2004 in our ministry events, Networking Groups and at Lake Junaluska, Gulfside Assembly and Hinton Rural Life Center. Plus we hosted over one hundred fifty thousand at our conference centers. Many lives are being touched for Christ through your jurisdictional ministry.

In December 2004 we welcomed new elected members to the Southeastern Jurisdictional Administrative Council. During our meeting it was decided to change our operating body to the Southeastern Jurisdictional Connectional Table and to streamline our organization using task groups and less committees. The Junaluska Properties and Services Committee will give leadership guiding our work at Lake Junaluska. Our organizational task group will be joined by four persons from the jurisdiction in order for an intensive study of the jurisdictional organization to be done.

Again I am delighted to report that our Workplace Discipleship Program designed to assist our staff in celebrating their call to ministry and leading us toward being a more inclusive staff continues to be successful. In 2004 we moved from 8% to 13%. Our staff has been diligent with this and I commend each of them for our success.

Great strides are being made toward the capital improvements at Lake Junaluska Assembly. We have seven million five hundred thousand dollars ($7.5 million) committed to the campaign. We have one million one hundred thousand dollars committed to the Bethea Welcome Center and we continue to raise money and hope to begin that project in 2006.

We are in the process of renovating fifty (50) of the one hundred (100) rooms at the Terrace Hotel. The remaining rooms will be finished in early 2006. We plan to have the outside of the Terrace painted and new siding installed by this summer.

We are grateful for the leadership of the elected members of the Alabama/West Florida conference. They are Bishop Larry Goodpaster, John Sherrer, Paul Douglas Wolfe, Libba Stinson and Elene Powell

Continue to pray with us as we strive to serve Christ and the work of the United Methodist Church in the Southeastern Jurisdiction.

Respectfully submitted,
Jimmy L. Carr, Executive Director
Southeastern Jurisdictional Connectional Table

Independent Auditors' Report

Council on Finance and Administration
Alabama - West Florida Conference of
Andalusia, Alabama

We have audited the accompanying schedule of cash receipts, disbursements and transfers of the Council on Finance and Administration of the Alabama - West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church - Conference Administration Account for the conference year 2004. This schedule is the responsibility of the Council's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this schedule based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the schedule of recorded cash receipts, disbursements and transfers is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the schedule. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall schedule presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

This schedule has been prepared on the cash receipts and disbursements basis of accounting, which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than generally accepted accounting principles. Under this method of accounting, revenues are recognized when received rather than when earned and expenses are recognized when paid rather than when incurred.

In our opinion, the schedule referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the cash receipts, disbursements and transfers for the conference year 2004, of the Council on Finance and Administration of the Alabama - West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church - Conference Administration Account on the basis of accounting described above.

Under this method of accounting, revenues are recognized when received rather than when earned and expenses are recognized when paid rather than when incurred.

In our opinion, the schedule referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the cash receipts, disbursements and transfers for the conference year 2004, of the Council on Finance and Administration of the Alabama - West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church - Connectional Ministries Account on the basis of accounting described above.

Council on Finance and Administration
Andalusia, Alabama

We have audited the accompanying schedule of cash receipts, disbursements and transfers of the Council on Finance and Administration of the Alabama - West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church for the conference year 2004. This schedule is the responsibility of the Council's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this schedule based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the schedule of recorded cash receipts, disbursements and transfers is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the schedule. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall schedule presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

This schedule has been prepared on the cash receipts and disbursements basis of accounting, which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than generally accepted accounting principles. Under this method of accounting, revenues are recognized when received rather than when earned and expenses are recognized when paid rather than when incurred.

In our opinion, the schedule referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the cash receipts, disbursements and transfers for the conference year 2004, of the Council on Finance and Administration of the Alabama - West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church on the basis of accounting described above.

He then served as a supply minister until June 1995. He moved to Westminster Village in Spanish Fort in 2000 and was serving as Seniors' Pastor at Westminster for the Spanish Fort United Methodist Church.

The family's thoughts:

John Carmichael was a man possessed of God, family, and people. His life was a transparent testimony of Christ's power to glorify God through the gift of the Holy Spirit. He loved Christ's Church and it showed in the way he lived and served.

The eldest of three sons, he was born on Mother's Day, May 14, 1922, to Jake and Eve Carmichael in rural Crenshaw County, Alabama. From birth, his parents dedicated him to God and reared him in a fashion that found him preaching in churches near his home before he finished high school.

His college years were spent at Troy State University where he met his bride to be, LaMerle Johnson. Both of them graduated as educators but John was called to preach.

The early years were filled with the typical challenges of a young Methodist minister. Ordained an Elder in 1949, he continued his education at Candler School of Theology along with the ministry of a circuit and the completion of the Course of Study. He and LaMerle also celebrated the arrival of the first of two children, a daughter, Keitha Elaine, in 1948.

In 1948 he was assigned to the newly chartered Warrington UMC in Pensacola. The recent end of the war and the Church's proximity to Pensacola NAS meant steady growth under his leadership that lasted for 12 years from 1948 to 1960. It was during this appointment that a son, Daniel Asher, was born in 1952. Little did John know that his long ministry at Warrington would be continued during a second appointment there in 1968. He continued at Warrington until 1975 - a total of 19 years of service to that congregation. John also served two other charges more than once, Columbia near Dothan and the Pike County circuit near Troy. In later appointments, LaMerle would occasionally greet the new congregation saying, "We are honored to be here and hope you like us, for we have been known to repeat ourselves!"

John served the Conference in many ways. He was head statistician during the 50's and 60's, director of Blue Lake Assembly from 65-68, founding member and Manager Emeritus of the Conference Credit Union, and director of Conference Council for homes for Retirees and Claimants in the late 80's.

His ministry also included serving churches in Opp, Elba, Port St. Joe, Mary Esther and Dothan. His itinerancy spanned 42 years and his total service covered 60 years, serving as a supply in his retirement. John and LaMerle moved to their 30-acre farm in 1985 where they enjoyed gardening, entertaining their grandchildren and serving the Goshen charge. John and LaMerle moved to Westminster Village retirement community in 1999, and his last years were spent on staff with the Reverend Chip Hale at Spanish Fort UMC as Seniors' Minister to the Village where LaMerle still resides.

The Reverend Jeffery "Jeff" Blane Dolbare, 57, died on August 12, 2004, at the Jackson Medical Center in Jackson after a six-year battle with esophageal cancer. Born February 3, 1947, the Bigbee, Alabama, resident had represented State House District 65, which includes all of Washington and parts of Choctaw and Clarke counties, from 1990 until his death. Dolbare was an old-style populist Democrat known for his staunch support of K-12 public schools. He was also a retired teacher, principal, and pastor. His wife, Gloria Ann Dolbare, whom he married June 12, 1971, was unsuccessful in a bid to claim her husband's vacant seat in the State House. The funeral was held at the Chatom

Community Center on August 16 at 2 p.m. with the Reverend Tommy Gaillard, the Reverend Reba Wiley, and the Reverend James Allison officiating. Alabama House Speaker Seth Hammett and Dr. Paul Hubbert of the Alabama Education Association also spoke during the funeral. Burial was in the family cemetery in Deer Park/Burbank.

An Alabama State Trooper Color Guard presented the Alabama state flag to the family and Chatom Mayor Harold Crouch presented the family the Chatom flag. Active pallbearers were Benny Dolbare, Bobby Dolbare, Terry Dolbare, Billy Dolbare, Keith Dolbare and Travis McIntyre. Honorary pallbearers were Wayne Blackwell, Joe Cottle, Howard R. Daugherty Jr., Wayne Hinton, Mary Jane Holland, David C. Howell, Thelma A. Howell, Otis James, Kelcey Lee, Wade Lee, Neal Morrison, Jim Overstreet, Paul Parker, Susan Parker and John Turner.

Alabama House Speaker Seth Hammett and Paul Hubbert of the Alabama Education Association eulogized Jeff Dolbare Monday at his funeral in Chatom.

Former Gov. Don Siegelman was among the crowd of mourners at the funeral as were several of Dolbare's fellow Democratic legislators from the House and Senate.

Dan Ireland, legislative liaison for the Alabama Baptist Association was present. Ireland is always a staunch opponent of gambling and liquor issues. Also in attendance was Milton McGregor, Alabama's gambling magnate.

Hammett, D-Andalusia, called Dolbare intelligent and a "zealous advocate for the people he represented." He also said he was a staunch Democrat who could be tough when he had to be in dealing with legislation.

Hubbert, AEA's executive secretary, said Dolbare was a teacher and bus driver in Clarke County when he was hired 30 years ago to work to organize a union for school support personnel. "It didn't take long to decide that Jeff Dolbare was the right person for the job," he observed, noting that Dolbare's hardscrabble upbringing made him especially suited to the job. "He took to it as a duck would take to water." For the first time ever, cafeteria workers, janitors, bus drivers and others had health insurance, retirement, fair pay raises and other benefits. Today, these personnel are members of AEA and Hubbert said Dolbare must be credited. "He had a fierce competitive spirit" but was a "friend to the working people of this district," Hubbert said. He called him a "great friend to education" who did many things for schools in his district and the state that did not garner a headline.

The Rev. Reba Wiley, district superintendent for the United Methodist Church's Demopolis District, referred to Dolbare's dual career as a legislator and lay minister. "He was passionate and compassionate about people," she observed. "He was never one to run from a good fight, especially if it involved principle," she said.

Also speaking during the funeral was the Rev. Tommy Galliard, who pastors United Methodist Churches in Clarke County, and the Rev. James Allison, pastor of the Whistler United Methodist Church. Galliard and his wife, Heidi, and David Howell, a longtime friend of Dolbare's sang specials during the funeral.

An Alabama State Trooper Honor Guard stood at attention beside Dolbare's casket prior to the service. After the burial at the new family cemetery near Dolbare's beloved camp house near Deer Park, the Alabama flag that draped his casket was presented to his wife, Gloria, and other family members and Chatom Mayor Harold Crouch also presented a Chatom flag used during the service.

After hearing of Dolbare's death Monday morning, Washington County Probate Judge and Commission Chairman John H. Armstrong issued the following statement, "Jeff was a dear friend. We had our differences on occasion, but were able to work those out and remain friends. He recognized the tough area and political times he was in and did a lot for this area. I hate to hear that this happened. It will be tough to find a qualified replacement for Jeff. He will surely be missed by his family, friends and constituents."

Survivors include his wife, Gloria Warrick Dolbare, Bigbee, Alabama; two daughters, Candace (Stephen) Johnson, Fairhope, Alabama, and Emily Dolbare, Winston Salem, North Carolina; one son, Jefferson Blane Dolbare, Tuscaloosa, Alabama; his mother, Sybil Roberts Dolbare, Theodore, Alabama; five brothers, Terry Dolbare and Keith Dolbare, Bayou La Batre, Alabama, Benny Dolbare, Irvington, Alabama, Billy Dolbare, Millbrook, Alabama, Bobby Dolbare, Selma, Alabama; two sisters, Ann Aldacosta, Theodore, Alabama, and Arlene Kirkland, Irvington, Alabama; a granddaughter, nieces, nephews and other relatives.

The Reverend Gordon Rush Atkeison, 88, a retired pastor, was born October 28, 1916, and reared in Mobile, Alabama, where he was an active member of, and subsequently ordained in, St. Francis Street United Methodist Church. He died December 12, 2004, in Atmore, Alabama. After graduating from Birmingham Southern College in 1939, Gordon traveled around the United States working as an actor, newspaper journalist, radio personality, and high school English teacher. After returning to Mobile, he was employed by the GM&O Railroad. Gordon married Leo Wise of McCullough, Alabama, in 1943 and they moved to Durham, North Carolina, so Gordon could attend Duke University Theological Seminary - the first of many moves!

Following is a brief summary of his long career: 1944- Clover, Virginia; 1946- Spotsylvania, Virginia; 1949- Grove Hill, Alabama; 1951- Century, Florida; 1952- Alabama-West Florida Conference-wide Evangelist; 1953- Castleberry, Alabama; 1954- Hurtsboro, Alabama; 1955- Brundidge, Alabama; During the 1950s he also spent time each year preaching in Cuba, Guatemala and Costa Rica; 1956- Marian, Indiana, to work with World Gospel Missions; 1957- Saltillo, Coahuila, Mexico; 1958- & Dallas, Texas, (Left WGN due to ill health); 1959- Madison, Virginia; 1960- Batesville, Virginia; 1964- Melfa, Virginia; 1966- Dry Fork, Virginia; 1967- Emmerton, Virginia; 1969- RETIRED; 1970- became funeral director in Arlington, Virginia; 1980- RETIRED and moved to Atmore, Alabama. Gordon subsequently served as a "substitute preacher" in south Alabama and north Florida, then accepted appointments to serve full-time in Lottie, Perdido and Bay Minette, Alabama. Only during his last few years was Gordon actually retired.

Although this list is impressive, in no way does it begin to illustrate what an adventure it was to share Gordon's life! He loved music and shared his musical talents generously until the last couple of years. He was a scholar and loved words - their sounds, their meanings, and the stories they could tell. His sense of humor still has us laughing and he passed on his expertise in purism to his children and grandchildren.

Gordon is survived by his wife Leo and daughter Sarah Atkeison of Atmore, Alabama; his son Bill (and wife Kathy) of Mobile, Alabama; his son John of Wilmington, Delaware; granddaughters Billie (& Stacy) Doods of Richmond, Virginia, and Jessica (& Clint) Woods of Albuquerque, New Mexico; and three great-grandchildren. We miss him!

The Reverend Marcus Jackson Chandler went to be with the Lord on Thursday January 27, 2005. Reverend Chandler was born September 9, 1939, in Monroeville, Alabama, to the late John T. and Ida Cornelia Chandler.

Marcus is survived by his wife of 39+ years, Bonnie Franks Chandler, son Douglas Jackson Chandler and wife Julie; daughter Dana Lynn Chandler Jones and husband Jeff; grandchildren Tyler Chandler, Hannah Chandler, Harrison Brewer, Chandler Brewer, and Tommy Jones; brothers Rev. Edward Chandler of Niceville Florida, and Woodrow Chandler, Tommy Chandler, Roger Chandler, and Cecil Chandler all of Monroeville, Alabama, and one sister Marguerite Morris of Peterman, Alabama. He was preceded in death by two brothers Brady Lee Chandler and Troy Chandler.

Marcus received Christ as his Savior in 1956 and shortly after that he felt the call to become a minister. He attended Monroe County High School and graduated from Asbury College in Wilmore, Kentucky, in 1963 and from Asbury Theological Seminary in 1966. After graduating from seminary he came back to the Alabama-West Florida Conference where he served until he was forced by failing health to take disability leave in 1994. He served churches in Jay, Florida; Centreville, Alabama; Castleberry/Holly Grove, Alabama; and Atmore, Alabama. While serving the Castleberry/Holly Grove charge he was the Director of the Conecuh County Larger Parish for 10 years. Marcus served in the active ministry of the Alabama-West Florida Conference for 30 years.

Marcus had been on disability leave since January 1994 due to osteoporosis and multiple bone problems. The last four years he was confined to his bed and unable to leave home. A constant stream of family, friends, and church members attest to the fact that Marcus lived out these last days what he had been preaching for 30 years. Marcus loved the Lord and never questioned "why me"; he always said the Lord would provide his needs and NEVER wavered from his faith and love of the Lord. Even in his last years his concern was for others and a continued burden for the smaller membership church. He came back to work in his home church, Peterman United Methodist Church, as a member, not as he had hoped to come back and serve as minister in retirement years.

Visitation with family and friends was at Johnson Funeral Home Monroeville, Alabama, on Friday, January 28, 2005. The funeral service was a worship service in celebration of his life on Saturday, January 29, 2005, at Atmore First United Methodist Church with Dr. Douglas Newton, Dr. Douglas Williams, and the Reverend Alan Ferguson officiating. A graveside service followed at Oak Hill Cemetery Atmore, Alabama, with his brother, the Reverend Edward Chandler, officiating. Active pallbearers were nephews of Marcus. Fellow ministers of the Conference served as honorary pallbearers.

Mrs. Agnes Merle Lipford Syfrett, 81, widow of the late Reverend Charles Sidney Syfrett, of Parker, Florida, went to be with her Lord on August 31, 2004.

Mrs. Syfrett was born December 16, 1922, and raised in Jackson County, Florida. She was the last descendant of James William Lipford and Eunice Blair Lipford. She was a graduate of Marianna High School and Hatton College in Tampa. She lived in many places and traveled extensively while her husband served his country in the military.

Mrs. Syfrett worked in civil service in California and taught school in Jackson County during World War II while her husband was serving in the European Theater of Operations. She was a homemaker and a devoted wife, mother and grandmother. She served as a staff correspondent for the Jackson County Floridian, starting at age 11 and for the Times Courier of Marianna, writing social items and feature articles. She also had written for her college newspaper, the Arkansas Press, and the Cypress and Altha News, and most recently was a contributing editor to the Wesley Heirs Newsletter. Later, when her husband joined the ministry of the United Methodist Church, she highlighted each church and its activities. She also helped organize three Methodist churches, the First United Methodist Church in Fairbanks, Alaska, and Hiland Park and Parker United Methodist Church in Panama City. She was an inspiration to many smaller churches, encouraging them to become larger and more self-sustaining in their ministry. She had lots of love and enthusiasm in her work and witnessed for her Savior in so many wonderful ways. In 1999, she and her husband celebrated their 50-year membership in the Order of the Eastern Star by receiving a 50-year certificate and pins depicting the state of Florida with the emblem of the Eastern Star. She was reared in the Freewill Baptist Church, but joined the Parker United Methodist Church in 1946, after her husband received his minister's license in the United Methodist Church in Marianna.

She was a member of Parker United Methodist Church and a lifetime member of the United Methodist Women and the Order of the Eastern Star.

"Our beautiful Mom loved life and endured more pain in her physical body than anyone will ever know. Her spirit was so vibrant and alive up until the day she went into hospice, the Thursday before she died on Saturday morning. Mom loved her church and her class and went as long as her health would allow her to attend. She played piano some time for her class.

*Our Mom was such a strong woman; she was a neighbor to everyone she met. She gave so much considering she and dad were never well off financially. Mrs. Bernice Olive Bradley, wife of the Reverend Dr. Cecil E. Bradley, was born December 10, 1919, and was suddenly called to her heavenly home on Sunday, April 17, 2005. Bernice was the fourth of six children born to Oscar and Ethel Olive of Bascom, Florida. She was reared and nurtured in a Christian home with a strong sense of propriety, duty, family, and caring for others. These traits characterize her life.

The Reverend Cecil Edgar Bradley, a retired pastor and former district superintendent, and Mrs. Bradley had made their home in Tallahassee since his retirement in 1989. She was in the hospital, but all was going well until she apparently had a heart attack and died about 10:30 AM.

Bernice graduated from Malone High School. She received her college education at Bob Jones College and Troy State Teachers College. Upon receiving her teaching certificate, she taught primary grades at Alford, Grand Ridge, and Sneads, Florida. She later returned to the public school classroom for a brief time to teach third grade in Demopolis, Alabama.

On June 28, 1942, she married Cecil Bradley. Their marriage of nearly sixty-three years was a partnership in serving God. She dedicated her life to being a Methodist minister's wife, a homemaker, and a mother. Always a learner herself, she sought information that would make her a better homemaker, a better citizen, a better servant of God. She enjoyed traveling and her visit to the Holy Land held very special meaning, giving her added opportunities to share the Lord of her life. She was a recognized Bible scholar; effectively taught Sunday School classes and led other church groups. Her focus was always her family and serving through the church.

Bernice and Cecil were blessed with two children, Ed and Cecilia. As they became involved in church camps and retreats, Bernice did also, frequently serving as a counselor or chaperone. Her influence on many others as well as her own two children is evident and appreciated today.

Bernice was very creative and frequently shared with friends, family, and through workshops her abilities for crocheting, tatting, knitting, and making crafts. She gave many handmade gifts to friends and contributed countless items to church bazaars. Her son, Ed, recalls that her hands were always busy. Even after a long day when she sat down, she would pick up a piece of needlework. An accomplished dressmaker, she designed and made many of her own clothes and even tailored suits for her daughter, Cecilia.

Her creative talents and sense of design were demonstrated in the ways she made each parsonage a special place for her family. She always wanted to leave each parsonage more comfortable and attractive for the next family. She took pride in her influence on the design and decoration of the new parsonage at DeFuniak Springs First United Methodist Church and the renovation of the parsonage at Richards Memorial in Pensacola, Florida.

A possessor of at least two green thumbs she grew beautiful plants. She reveled in the beauty of each blossom as part of God's great universe. In retirement she especially enjoyed planting bulb beds and roses, eagerly waiting for each to bloom. Perhaps they were tangible reminders of the seeds of love she had sown and seen sprout and grow in the lives she had touched.

A friend and neighbor said, "Bernice was the ultimate image of a true southern LADY." She radiated a beautiful spirit of love that drew people to her, to the church, and to the Lord she served. She had a strong sense of what was right and appropriate and was frequently asked to direct weddings and to assist with many social functions in their churches. A minister said, "At conference and other meetings the Bradley's room was a favored gathering place because Bernice made it so welcoming and he always brought goodies to share."

While holding herself to a strong standard of duty and correctness, she was not critical or demanding of others. She was patient, understanding, and quick to give praise for a job well done and often for a job well attempted. Bernice held dear the simple things of life. She would have counted among her fondest memories times of shelling peas while rocking on the front porch of her family home in Bascom, surrounded by family, laughing and sharing their day to day happenings.

Bernice Olive Bradley's life was an example of love for God, family, and others. She enthusiastically promoted and supported her husband and children in their endeavors and rejoiced in their many successes. Her passing leaves an emptiness that is only relieved when we remember that she is now receiving her reward for a good and faithful life.

She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life.
She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness.
She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness.
Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also,
and he praiseth her.*

Proverbs 31: 10, 11, 12, 26, 27, and 28

Bernice Olive Bradley is survived by her husband, the Reverend Dr. Cecil E. Bradley, of Tallahassee, Florida; one son, Cecil E. (Ed) Bradley, Jr., and his wife, Elaine, of Green Cove Springs, Florida; one daughter, Bernice Cecilia Bradley, of Tallahassee, Florida; two sisters, Leona Olive of Malone, Florida, and Edith Carter, of Ocala, Florida; one brother, Oscar L. Olive, Jr., of Marianna, Florida; and one grandson, Christopher E. Bradley, and his wife, Shannon, of Boston, Massachusetts. Bernice was preceded in death by her parents, Oscar L. and Ethel Olive, of Bascom, Florida; and two sisters, Dorothy Blackmon, of Green Cove Springs, Florida, and Eleanor Kemp, of Jessup, Georgia.

Funeral services were held on Wednesday, April 20, 2005, with visitation from 10:00 -12:00 am at First United Methodist Church, Marianna, Florida. Service followed at 1:30 pm at the church. Burial was in the Mount Pleasant Cemetery on US Highway 90 in Chattahoochee, Florida.

My Mama, Bernice Olive Bradley

As a little tyke I knew my Mama was special. It took a really special person to know all the things she knew and to be able to do all the things she could do. She was absolutely the best story teller. I learned of Daniel and the lion's den, David the giant killer, and other Bible stories. Next to my Big Mama (Grandmother Olive) she was the best cook I knew. She could take a couple of soggy tomato sandwiches and turn them into the most wonderful picnic on a country road as we traveled from one of Dad's circuit churches to another. It took a really special person to remain unflustered when a church member came to call one afternoon and found her handcuffed to the bed. In trying to get me to take my afternoon nap she had allowed me to handcuff her to the bed and then couldn't reach the key to free herself. I'm sure that took some explaining. She was able to stay calm in a crisis like the time my Dad's District Superintendent came for dinner and I overturned a full glass of iced tea into his lap. Most of all I knew she was special because she made me feel so loved, so important, and so secure.

From my earliest remembrances, Mama molded and enforced our family structure. She taught by example what a family should be. She demonstrated that children are to respect and honor their parents by the way she respected and honored her parents. She was dedicated to supporting my Dad's role as a Methodist minister and made certain that our family faithfully represented his beliefs. She was always there for us when we were ill, needed encouragement, or a helping hand.

During my teenage years I'm quite sure I gave my parents more headaches and heartaches than they deserved because I was not the most dedicated student, but Mama never gave up on me and spent many hours helping me study for exams. The thing I appreciate most is that she wasn't critical when I struggled and she demonstrated endless patience with me. It wasn't that she was easy on me; it was just that she let me know that a certain standard of performance was expected and only my best effort was good enough because she was giving her best effort to help me.

It was probably about this same time in my life when I came to realize the influence Mama had on others' lives. She had always been involved in children's and youth activities of the churches served. She was frequently asked to teach Sunday School classes. She had a message about how to live a Christian life that people wanted to hear. Her genuine love and concern for others was evident. Her warm, calm, pleasant demeanor put folks at ease.

As an adult I became even more aware of the special qualities of my Mama. After years of working with thousands of other folks' children, I have an even greater appreciation for the love and guidance that prevailed in our home. She had a strength of character and a life focused on doing for others that was remarkable. Her ability to share her beliefs and talents with others was amazing. In fact, I have come to realize that mere words cannot begin to convey all the special qualities Mama possessed, but those who knew her must surely realize she had a positive influence on the small corner of her world in the Alabama - West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church.

Written by her son, Ed Bradley

My mother

As a child, my mother taught me right from wrong and was my constant companion and source of protection. I always felt safe in her arms. My mother taught me a love for reading and that I must earn respect and privileges; you are not entitled. She taught me the importance of caring for others as we made cancer pads at the church. I watched as my mother prepared meals for those who came to the house seeking food.

As I matured, my mother taught me I could choose any profession and accomplish anything if I worked hard enough. She was always there to encourage and comfort.

I see so many abused and neglected children today and I wonder why I was blessed with such wonderful and loving parents. There love was unconditional and constant. I wish every child was blessed with parents like mine.

My parents taught by example, not just empty words. The church was not just some place we went on Sunday. The church was part of our lives and my parent's love of God was ever present and always certain. I remember my mother often sitting quietly reading her bible, and there was always such a quiet, sweet spirit about her.

My mother left a void that will never be filled. I see it in the eyes of my father, our family and friends and the hundreds of people she touched throughout her life. I feel it in my heart.

I'll never be able to cook or do tatting or teach or do so many of the things she did so well. But I'll be proud if I carry on some of her caring and love so that others will be touched by her— the beautiful, caring life she lived and the example she set for my brother and me and so many friends.

Everyone says the pain will subside with time but I'm not ready. With the pain come the wonderful memories which I will cherish always. Her love will comfort us forever.

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is Not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, thinketh no evil; Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. Love never ends.

My mother was love and our love for her will never end.

Cecilia Bradley

Mrs. Ruby Hardy Zellner, widow of the late Reverend James Abraham Zellner of the Alabama-West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church, died Tuesday, April 19, 2005, in her home in Daphne, Alabama, surrounded by her family. She had resided in Daphne since 1948.

Ruby was born August 15, 1911, in Dale County, Alabama, the daughter of the Reverend John James Hardy and Lettie Jane Hendrix Hardy. She married James Abraham Zellner on December 31, 1935, in Forth Deposit, Alabama, with the Reverend Bob Jones officiating. They were to have five sons, James Herbert (1937), John Robert (1939), Richard Douglas (1941), David Otis (1943), and Malcomb Carey (1945).

They spent their early married life running a soup kitchen and preaching on the streets of Mobile, Alabama, prior to James joining the Methodist Conference and beginning a lifetime of circuit preaching all over small towns in south Alabama and northwest Florida. At one time he served seven churches with only a bicycle, not being able to afford a car.

Ruby was a life long public school teacher and one of the first special education teachers in the state. She was a graduate of Bob Jones College, Lynn Haven, Florida. In addition to her husband, her son, Jim Zellner, also preceded her in death. She is survived by four sons, Bob Zellner of South Hampton, New York, Douglas Zellner of Columbus, Indiana, David Zellner of Rockford, Tennessee, and Malcolm Zellner, of Daphne; eleven grandchildren, 1 great grandchild, other relatives, and many friends.

Funeral services were held from the gravesite Thursday, April 21, 2005, at 10 am, at Greenwood Cemetery in Loxley, Alabama. The family received visitors on Thursday from 9:30 am until service time at the gravesite. Funeral arrangements were by Serenity Funeral Home of Mobile.

DIVISION XI - MISCELLANEOUS

SECTION A

ALICE LEE AWARD

The Commission on the Status and Role of Women, affectionately known as COSROW, was established by General Conference in 1976. Its purpose is to promote full and equitable participation of women at all levels in the life of the church. It grew from the realization that the church cannot become that thriving force that our Bishop has referred to while underutilizing over half its members; that contributions should not be limited to what had traditionally been done; and that change was the right thing to do.

A jubilee that we will celebrate in 2006 is 50 years during which women have been allowed to serve as pastors in full connection. Do you wonder why it took so long? Do you also wonder why the Church so often seems to be a follower rather than a leader in bringing about changes which are so consistent with the teachings of Jesus? We cannot move toward perfection while resisting change.

As a way of promoting the purpose of the Commission, the Alabama-West Florida COSROW instituted the Alice Lee Award to recognize women who have been barrier breakers and bridge builders toward the full participation of women in both the church and community.

Alice Lee, as many of you know, has indeed been a barrier breaker and bridge builder. Now in her 90's, Miss Lee, an attorney in Monroeville, has a long history of service to Methodism. The many capacities in which she has served include being a delegate to General Conference, and she was the first woman to lead our lay delegation at a General Conference.

Thus, the first requirement for one to qualify for this award is the realization—indeed the conviction—that both the church and society need the talents and contributions of all its people!

Today's recipient of the Alice Lee Award is Joyce Maddox. Joyce has served as pastor's wife, Sunday School teacher, caregiver to elderly relatives, and a public school teacher. All this sounds pretty stereotypical when it comes to women's roles. But there's much more! She has gone beyond the traditional to be the barrier breaker in several ways.

She was made assistant principal, then principal in a time and in a place where being principal was a man's job in a man's world. She proved herself in both administrative and people skills. She was described as having a vision for education and was creative in seeking and implementing programs and facilities for her school.

The Church has also benefited from her leadership skills and dedication. She is described as a spiritual person and is certainly a doer. She has served COSROW for many years in many ways. She served as District president of United Methodist Women for two districts, one during a period of transition when her leadership skills were credited for a successfully functioning team.

She was referred to as a role model by several of those who endorsed her. One example was during her service on the Conference Personnel Committee. It is reported that both her grasp of administration and her understanding of how to successfully bring about inclusiveness helped steer that committee.

One of her endorsers said of Joyce, “for me she embodies the phrase ‘Steel Magnolia’. She is a Southern woman with a passion for her home and her family, yet her commitment to her professional life, her intense desire to enable younger women to be able to share their gifts and graces in the church and community, and her love for justice for women and children is inspiring beyond measure.”

Joyce lost her mother just last month and then a special aunt. We extend to Joyce both sympathy for her loss and congratulations for being a role model and inspiration for the full recognition of all God’s children!

SECTION G
REPORTS AND ITEMS FOR ACTION
ALABAMA-WEST FLORIDA CONFERENCE

RESOLUTIONS

Whereas the Book of Discipline has directed the United Methodist Youth within the Division on Ministries with Young People to be "advocating for the issues and concerns of young people in the church and the global community;" (§ 1202.4); and

Whereas teenagers are being pulled between the call of the world and the call of God. This pull can lead to eating disorders, pre-marital sex, drug use, and alcohol abuse. We want to do something to help youth deal with their body image in a positive way; and

Whereas the Alabama West Florida United Methodist Youth (U.M.Y.) desire for the call of God to shine above the secular standards of body image; and

Whereas the U.M.Y. study of following scriptures has led us to such a desire; Jeremiah 1:4, Genesis 12:1-5, Ephesians 4:1-6, 1 Corinthians 12:12-31, Matthew 8:14, Luke 22:19-20, 1 Corinthians 3:16, Romans 8:9-13; and

Whereas a negative body image can be hazardous to yourself and your health, spiritually, mentally, and physically for a lifetime; and

Whereas the UMY have developed and produced a curriculum to teach youth about Biblical perspectives on body image;

Therefore, be it resolved that the Alabama-West Florida Annual Conference, in session at Christ United Methodist Church in Mobile, Alabama, June 5-8, 2005, supports the content of the following letter, which may be signed by the conference lay leader and bishop and sent to publishers who promote an unhealthy body image to youth.

Dear CEO of . . . .

We are the leadership group for the Alabama-West Florida United Methodist Youth, composed of youth from ages 12-18, whose primary responsibility is "to be an advocate for the free expression of the convictions of youth on issues vital to them" (The 2004 Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, Paragraph 648.3b).

We are concerned with the way your publications portray body image. We feel that some of your publications give young people a feeling of imperfection. A negative body image can be hazardous to young people and their health—spiritually, mentally, and physically. We are being pulled between the call of the world and the call of God. This can lead to low self-esteem, eating disorders, pre-marital sex, drug use, alcohol abuse, and depression.

We want teenagers to realize that it is okay to look the way they do and that God created them in His image. We desire to do something to help youth deal with their body image in a positive way. Therefore, we ask that you consider changing your current advertising standards, which exploit the bodies of men and women, to reflect a positive, realistic, average American teenager.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,
Alabama-West Florida United Methodist Youth and
The 2005 Session of the Alabama-West Florida Annual Conference

Be it further resolved that the churches of the Alabama-West Florida Annual Conference respond to the issue of body image with their youth in at least one of the following ways:

Teach the curriculum developed by the United Methodist Youth.

Hand-write letters which reflect the one above proposed by the United Methodist Youth.

Encourage parents to be aware, on behalf of their youth, of magazines and other publications which promote unhealthy body image to youth. Support publishing companies that promote positive body image.

TASK FORCE TO STUDY FEASIBILITY OF THE RELOCATION OF CONFERENCE OFFICES
UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
JUNE 6, 2005

The Task Force to study feasibility of the relocation of conference offices has concluded that all conference offices and staff should be consolidated in Montgomery, Alabama, as reported to and affirmed by the 2004 Annual Conference. The Task Force requests authority to (1) continue and conclude negotiations with one of the two Montgomery sites still under consideration and (2) make a final recommendation to the Board of Trustees of the Alabama-West Florida Conference with regard to the site and facility to house conference offices and staff. The recommendation will be predicated on the following: the relocation will not require an increase in apportionments to the local churches beyond the normal increases caused by inflationary pressures on the budget, and no conference-wide capital funds campaign will be conducted without prior approval by the clergy and lay members of the annual conference.

Respectfully submitted,
Steve McCarroll
Task Force Chairperson

SECTION H PETITIONS AND MOTIONS

The Council on Finance and Administration moves that the Alabama-West Florida Annual Conference meeting in session on June 8, 2005, approve that a feasibility study be done before the 2006 session of the Annual Conference. This study will examine the long-range plans of capital development of the Blue Lake Board of Trustees for our assembly grounds at Blue Lake and the feasibility of entering into a conference-wide capital funds campaign to underwrite these improvements. The Council on Finance and Administration further moves that this study be funded out of the Interest and Investments account up to $20,000, with the money to be repaid if the campaign is conducted. The 2006 Session of the Annual Conference will receive the report of this study and make a final decision regarding the proposed campaign to expand and renovate our facilities at Blue Lake.

SECTION I 2004 GENERAL CONFERENCE The United Methodist Church

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT - I

On May 3, 2004, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, the following Constitutional Amendment was made by a recorded vote of 812 Yes, 72 No. It is now presented to the Annual Conferences for vote.

In the 2000 Book of Discipline, Division II, Section II, ¶12.2, Article I, (2004 Book of Discipline, Division II, Section II, ¶13.2, Article I) amend by substitution as follows:

In the same manner, an annual conference may approve legislation in anticipation of such a change in the Discipline and/or Constitution that would likewise become effective upon the effective date of said Disciplinary Change or Constitutional Amendment.

RATIONALE FOR PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH VOTED GENERAL CONFERENCE APRIL-MAY 2004

The proposed amendment specifies that a fair and open process shall be utilized for the election of General Conference delegates.

The proposed amendment adds home missionaries to the classifications over which General Conference has authority to define and fix powers and duties.

The phrase, proposed to be deleted, applied to annual conference in existence prior to 1981. It is now obsolete and may be appropriately discontinued.

The proposed amendment would guarantee that the person responsible for promoting work of the Mission agency of The United Methodist Church is a member of the Annual Conference. Approximately 30% of Conference Secretaries of Global Ministries are laity. Presently, unless elected by their home church or included under the Conference's equalization rule, this person is not a member of the Annual Conference.

The proposed amendment adds home missionaries under episcopal appointment to the membership of the annual conference.

The proposed constitutional amendment is needed to support the addition of the conference director of Lay Speaking Ministries to the list of lay members of the annual conference in ¶602.4, as passed by General Conference in 2000.

The proposed amendment provides a definition of clergy members of the annual conference.

ORDER OF WORSHIP

The Call to Worship

Invade this week And make it Holy.
Blow upon us Re-creating us, Forgiving us,
And blessing us for God's good work.

Abundance to dry lands and empty waters,
And mobilizes the lion and the lamb to recline in

THE ORDER OF WORSHIP

Prelude

Processional Hymn      For All The Saints How, Williams      UMH #711

Call to Worship and Greeting

Bishop:      We have gathered here to celebrate the lives of those who have served faithfully through the years, and now share the triumph of Christ in glory.

People:      We affirm with praise and thanksgiving the goodness of God.

Bishop:      Let us rejoice in God's presence with us, in death as in life, among those who mourn as with these who now see Christ face to face.

People:      In the midst of our grief we sing with joy, for God's love is over all that has been made.

Blessed be God's glorious name forever.

Bishop:      The Lord be with you.

People:      And also with you.

Bishop:      Let us pray. Tender and compassionate God, we seek to know you through the hearing of your Word and pray that we may go beyond hearing to obeying, as shown by the faithful lives of your departed servants whom we honor today. We know that they are precious in your eyes, worthy of your special attention and ours, for they served well in the task that you gave them. Grant that we may feel your presence as did the followers who knew Jesus in the breaking of the bread, and may we experience the fire within that sent them out to share good news. Amen.

"Remember your former leaders, who spoke God's message to you. Think back on how they lived and died, and imitate their faith. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever."

Special Music      Clergy Ensemble

Invitation to the Table and Call to Confession      Rev. Timothy Thompson

Leader:      Christ our Lord invites to his table all who love him, who earnestly repent of their sin and seek to live in peace with one another. Therefore, let us confess our sin before God and one another.

People: Merciful God, we confess that we have not loved you with our whole heart. We have failed to be an obedient church. We have not done your will, we have broken your law, we have rebelled against your love, we have not loved our neighbors, and we have not heard the cry of the needy. Forgive us, we pray. Free us for joyful obedience, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(All pray in silence.)

Leader: Hear the good news: Christ died for us while we were yet sinners; that proves God's love toward us. In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!

People: In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Glory to God! Amen.

Great Thanksgiving

Bishop Goodpaster and Rev. Frederick Outlaw

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God,

Creator of heaven and earth:
 God of Abraham and Sarah,
 God of Miriam and Moses,
 God of Joshua and Deborah,
 God of Ruth and David,
 God of the priests and the prophets,
 God of Mary and Joseph,
 God of the apostles and the martyrs,
 God of our mothers and fathers,
 God of our children to all generations.

And so with your people on earth and all the company of heaven, we praise your name and join their unending hymn, saying:

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Holy are you, and blessed is your Son, Jesus Christ. By the baptism of his suffering, death, and resurrection you gave birth to your Church, delivered us from slavery to sin and death, and made with us a new covenant by water and the Spirit.

On the night in which he gave himself up for us, he took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you.

Do this in remembrance of me.”

When the supper was over, he took the cup, gave thanks to you, gave it to his disciples, and said: “Drink from this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant. Do this as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.”

And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ’s offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

Pour out your Holy Spirit on us gathered here, and on these gifts of bread and wine. Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ that we may be for the world, the body of Christ, redeemed by his blood.

Renew our communion with all your saints, especially those whom we name before you.

Since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, strengthen us to run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the Pioneer and Perfecter of our faith. By your Spirit make us one with Christ, one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world, until Christ comes in final victory, and we feast at his heavenly banquet.

Through your son Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in your holy church, all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and forever. Amen.
