

All branches of America's fighting forces turned out last week to parade for recruits. Here is a view of infantry passing the landship Recruit, at Union Square.
Photo Kadel & Herbert.

Cadets from West Point in camp, where their training is being rushed to graduate the next class in August, nearly a year ahead of time.
Photo © Underwood & Underwood.

To the left, cleaning house aboard the battleship Recruit. The land-going mascot shares in the excitement of being photographed.
Photo Central News Service.

Above, one of the new light-weight rapid-fire gun outfits featured in the Recruiting Parade. Ahead is an American armored car.
Photo © Underwood & Underwood.

Entrance Day at West Point, newcomers from all parts lined up for their first inspection.
Photo © International Film Service.

Regiment of Engineers, soon to sail for the Polo Grounds at a benefit ball game.
Photo © International Film Service.

Ambassador Sharp (centre) with an attache of the American Embassy and (right) Commander Morton, of the U. S. S. Scorpion, reviews the crew of the latter when it reaches Paris from Constantinople.
Photo © International Film Service.

Miss Helen Gil-leaudeau, who has been attracting much admiration at the Crescent Club tennis matches because of an extra fine game.
Photo International Film Service.