

Warren Jenson Leaving EA as Chief Financial Officer

REDWOOD CITY, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--March 24, 2008--Electronic Arts Inc. ("EA") (NASDAQ:ERTS) today announced that Chief Financial Officer Warren Jenson will be leaving the company. Mr. Jenson has served as EA's CFO since 2002 and will stay with the company to assist with its fiscal year-end close and financial reporting process. He has also agreed to help transition his successor into the role.

"I want to thank Warren for the leadership he has provided in the past six years," said EA Chief Executive Officer John Riccitiello. "He has built a first class Finance Department and has been a contributor to our growth and strategic initiatives."

"My tenure at EA has provided me with many good friends and memories," said Warren Jenson. "It's time for me to write the next chapter in my career - and I wish EA the best in the dynamic period ahead."

EA will announce a new CFO shortly.
