"Up in Walton Hills" albums depict the lives of the people who lived in this community from 1936 until the present year.

How the "Up in Walton Hills" albums were saved and acquired by the Walton Hills Historical Resource Center:

Weekly columns titled "Up in Walton Hills with Country Jane" appeared in the Bedford Times-Register from 1949 until 1963. These articles were written by Bedford Township residents living in the 'Walton Hills' section of the township: Florence Wagner, Ruth Marquardt, Helen Laing and Georgia Pace, all of whom wrote under the byline 'Country Jane.'

Florence Wagner wrote the weekly columns from 1949 until 1955. Armin and Florence Wagner lived at 7450 McLellan Drive. From 1955 until 1958 Ruth Marquardt of Alexander Road wrote the columns. In 1959 Helen Laing wrote the articles. Jack and Helen Laing lived at 160 Walton Road. Lastly, Georgia Pace wrote the columns from 1960 to 1963. Georgia and Ben Pace's home is at 17836 South Meadowpark Drive.

Ludwig Shaner Conelly, owner of The Conelly Realty Co., collected the "Up in Walton Hills with Country Jane" articles, plus other articles, fliers and photos of this part of Bedford Township. General Conelly gave his collection to Betty Walton of Walton Road. Betty Walton continued to collect articles and then in 1980 turned everything over to Joe Mazzone of Carmany Drive. In 1985 Virginia Mazzone gave the scrapbook material to Jean and Bob Kainsinger of Orchard Hill Drive.

In 1999 the Kainsingers assembled the collection of data into albums labeled "Up in Walton Hills." The albums include additional newspaper articles and photos collected by many other local residents. The albums are chuck-full of an assortment of material of local interest.

Origins of the Walton Hills Historical Resource Center

1. Beginning in the 1930s, L. S. Conelly, a local Realtor-Developer, started a collection of articles, fliers and photos that related to the "Walton Hills" part of Bedford Township.
2. Years later L. S. Conelly gave the materials to Betty Walton of Walton Road. Betty Walton put the papers in a scrapbook, and continued collecting material.
3. In 1980 Betty Walton turned everything over to Joe Mazzone of Carmany Drive.
4. In 1985 Virginia Mazzone, Joe Mazzone's widow, gave the scrapbook to Jean and Bob Kainsinger of 18955 Orchard Hill Drive.

5. The "Up in Walton Hills with Country Jane" Articles:

From 1949 through 1963 there was a weekly column in the Bedford Times Register called "Up in Walton Hills with Country Jane."

The articles were written by 4 Walton Hills women, all under the byline "Country Jane." They were Florence (Armin) Wagner of 7450 McLellan Drive, Ruth Marquardt of Alexander Road, Helen (Jack) Laing of 160 Walton Road and Georgia (Ben) Pace of 17836 South Meadowpark Drive. Their years of writing the articles:

Florence Wagner	1949-1955	Ruth Marquardt	1955-1958
Helen Laing	1959	Georgia Pace	1960-1963

6. The current Village Hall Community Room, which was completed in 1972, has shallow hand-crafted show cases and deep hand-crafted cabinets. For the first 16 years, the show cases were empty and the cabinets held a few trophies.
7. When Bob Kainsinger was in Council, the 12 years from 1988 through 1999, he asked Jean to decorate and fill-up the Community Room show cases and cabinets with items of local interest.
8. The Kainsingers transferred the scrapbook material into acid-free pages, assembled them into "Up in Walton Hills" albums, and put them in the Community Room cabinets. The albums include additional newspaper articles and photos that were contributed by several residents.
9. In 1999 the Kainsingers officially turned over the collection of material to the village.
10. With approval from the Village, the Walton Hills Historical Resource Center became a reality.
11. Volunteers Jean Kainsinger and Ruth Money of 7075 Walton Road volunteered to co-chair the Walton Hills Historical Resource Center and through their joint efforts during the past years, the Walton Hills Historical Resource Center has grown from 4 albums to over-flow.

Judge Ralph Bell, of Bedford has been asked to take this appointment if his work permits. Judge Bell has had considerable experience in village administration.

Also deferred until the January 17 meeting were appointments to the planning board.

Under an emergency, suspension of rules, Walton Hills Council at its second meeting of the year, moved to retain the legal services of Richard G. Bell of Bedford as Village Solicitor.

Mr. Bell, who is a partner in the law offices of his father Judge Ralph Bell, has had considerable experience in municipal legal matters. He is, at present, solicitor for Glenwillow, and has assisted Judge Bell in the legal problems of other villages.

Mr. Bell will attend each meeting of council, plus any other meeting at which it would be practical to have his attendance, such as meetings of the Planning Board. Mr. Bell has had a great deal of experience in legal problems pertaining to changes in zoning ordinances.

Samson and Venaleck Are Named to Zoning Board

In consideration of the many problems the village has now and additional problems we may have very soon, the next important piece of business taken care of by Mayor L. S. Conelly and Council were the two new appointments to the Zoning Board.

In addition to Leonard Bidlake and Ferd Fisher, whose terms of office on the Zoning Board are unexpired, Mayor Conelly appointed Councilmen Joseph Samson and Joseph Venaleck to the Zoning Board. These appointments were confirmed by council.

Members of the Zoning Board serve for periods of six years, four years, and two years.

Councilman Jack Laing suggested that, in view of the many new problems confronting the village in zoning, traffic, etc., the Zoning Board meet on a more regular basis than in the past.

In discussing the function of the Zoning Board, Mayor Conelly stressed that each Board member think of the welfare of the village as a whole, rather than his own particular section.

Police Chief Walton Requests Another Full Time Policeman

Police Chief Sterling Walton presented to council, a request to take under consideration the employment of an additional full-time policeman. He submitted the name of part-time deputy Frank Simoni for this position.

Chief Walton stated that, in his estimation, the addition of a second full-time policeman would enable the police department to provide better protection on a 24-hour basis, which is impossible under the present arrangement.

With spring not too far away we are faced once more with the problem of how to keep stray dogs from damaging gardens and other landscaping.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture suggests an easy and effective method of controlling unwelcome visits by dogs to planted areas.

"Simply spray flowers, shrubs or premises with a diluted nicotine sulphate."

This liquid uses the dog's own sharp sense of smell to discourage him from trees and evergreens. Dogs will detour around the landscaped areas.

Here is the recommended formula: Mix two teaspoonsful of nicotine sulphate in a gallon of water. Do not add soap, which hastens release of the nicotine fumes. In this case you wish the nicotine fumes to remain effective as long as possible.

Apply to evergreens about every two weeks and after rains.

Charles M. Gates, herbicide specialist for the Diamond Black Leaf Co., manufacturers of nicotine sulphate, offers these effective application suggestions.

Dip three or four pipe cleaners in the solution, curl tops of the cleaners cane-fashion and hook them over low branches of the evergreens at nose-level of the average dog.

Or, you may saturate a one-inch strip of cloth with nicotine sulphate and wrap it around the tree trunk about the height of a dog's nose.

Dr. while it has been closed to motorists, want to thank all those drivers who had to drive "around" for doing so without complaint.

With the approach of spring, many residents of Walton Hills, have no doubt, been wondering what plans have been made by the East Ohio Gas Company for installation of the proposed gas line in Walton Hills.

Mr. Rodell, a representative of East Ohio appeared at the Council meeting on Tuesday, February 7.

During the discussion, Mr. Rodell stated that the Gas Company's preliminary survey of potential consumers would be taken within two or three weeks.

Only those residents living along the proposed route will be covered in the survey. However, Mr. Rodell said that after the first lines are laid, other villagers might make application for gas service.

In answer to questions from the floor Mr. Rodell said that even residents indicating a desire to use gas for only a one-burner hot-plate would be considered potential consumers.

Another factor of great concern to home owners when contemplating gas service, is the difficulty and cost of converting furnaces now in use, to gas. According to Mr. Rodell, furnaces installed during the past eight years or so are easily converted and the cost, in the long run, is not too great.

The average cost of installing the service line will be approximately $1.50 per foot plus $15.00.

Consumers may install their own gas lines from street to house but such lines must meet requirements and pass an inspection test.

Gas meters will be located at the foundation of the house, providing the house has a set-back of not more than 150 feet.

Traffic Light

At the meeting on Tuesday, February 7, Council also discussed the possibility of installing traffic lights at the following points of intersection: Northfield - Krick Rd.,

Alexander - Walton, Alexander - Dunham, Walton - Egbert, Dunham - Egbert, and Dunham at Tinkers Creek Road.

Mayor L. S. Conelly appointed the following Councilmen to the Streets Committee: Councilmen Tom Young, Don Martin and Don Ralsten.

The Streets Committee will make periodic inspection of village roads and report to Council their recommendations for up-keep and service.

Mayor Conelly also appointed the following Councilmen to the Buildings and Properties Committee: Councilmen Wayne Wagstaff, Jack Laing and Joe Samson.

Coasting

To the evident surprise of Mayor Conelly and several members of Council, the Mayor's gesture in giving permission to residents of McLellan Dr. between Alexander rd. and Orchard Hill, to close the road to motorists during certain hours in order that their children and many other village children might enjoy coasting in comparative safety created a furor among some Council members.

Councilman Don Ralsten questioned whether or not it was within the province of the Mayor to grant such permission without Council discussion.

Solicitor Richard Bell was asked his opinion on the duty of the village concerning roads and read the following statement "...village must keep the roads free from nuisance open and in good repair." pair."

Councilman Wayne Wagstaff introduced the following resolution "That McLellan Drive between Alexander Road and Orchard Hill Drive be closed for sliding at the discretion of the Mayor. The Mayor shall direct the posting of warning signs."

Council was split in voting on the resolution with Councilman Samson, Young and Ralsten voting against, and Councilmen Martin, Laing and Wagstaff voting for. Mayor Conelly also voted for it, and the resolution was passed.

Ladies Attend Style Show Despite Inclement Weather

In spite of the inclement weather last Wednesday, about one hundred women attended the Women's club style show presented by the J. C. Penney Company of Southgate.

A very attractive setting with a spring motif, was provided for the show by Penney's and Mr. Lindgrin of Penney's was narrator.

The clothes chosen for the show were shown to great advantage by Verdon's of Southgate as a courtesy to the Women's Club.

The spring suits and dresses provided a wonderful lift at this time of year, while the summer clothes made everyone plan for occasions at which to wear them!

Although most of the dresses and suits may be purchased ready-made, many of the styles shown for late spring and summer were made from materials found in Penney's yard goods department.

One of these was a lovely dress made of a beautiful lilac print called Lilac Enchantment. The pattern for this dress is an Anne Fogarty original, designed especially for Penney's.

Many of the summer play clothes were also made of materials from Penney's yard goods department. Two of these summer play outfits were made by Mrs. Joseph Venalek for herself and used in the show.

The success of the show was due to the hard work done by Program

Since more people are now thinking about the condition of the soil in their gardens and lawns and what they can do to improve them as inexpensively as possible, the following information taken from Robert Clifford's column in the Cleveland Press may be of interest.

"Homeowners are seldom offered a chance to obtain free of charge a soil conditioning product which will improve lawns, gardens and shrub borders.

"This opportunity is provided by the city, (Cleveland) with officials begging residents to cart away the sewage sludge from treatment plant processes.

"The sludge is absolutely free. It is a good humus, highly recommended as a conditioner for either clay or sandy soils.

"The best time to apply the sludge is right now, either with or without snow on the ground. Some of it is of a "cakey" consistency. Snow, rain, freezing and thawing in the next couple of months will crumble the sludge and mix it with the soil.

George E. Flowers, city commissioner of sewage disposal, said the offer is open to residents of the city or suburbs. "All we want the people to do is bring their own containers," he said. "They can take it away in bushel baskets or by the trailer load."

Here is where the free sludge may be obtained:

Southerly Sewage Disposal Plant 6000 Canal Rd., Cuyahoga Heights Westerly Disposal Plant, east end of Edgewater Park.

Mr. Flowers emphasized that the sludge is much more plentiful at the Southerly Plant on Canal rd.

For more information you may call John Barrett, Superintendent at Westerly. His phone is WO 1-2187, or, Walter Gerdel, Superintendent at Southerly, whose number is MI 1-3334.

Keith Kral Entertains Friends 2-23 1956

At 9th Birthday Party Saturday

Keith Lee Kral, son of Mrs. Lillian Kral, celebrated his 9th birthday Saturday with a party at his home on Egbert Road in Walton Hills.

His very first wish for a Happy Birthday came from Tom Armstrong of WGAR and a wonderful greeting it was. Tom read some excerpts from the newspaper account of Keith's last birthday. He then dedicated the song Keith had requested "goober peas" and when it was finished he told the listening audience how Keith and his little brother, Kim, had invented a new goober pea game last year and it was not until the trees in the orchard were bare that the discovery was made - their Goober Peas, all over the ground, were once beautiful baby peaches!

Guests were Timmy Johnson, Kenny Palgut, Sanford Ralsten, Ronnie Richer, Charles Pike, and Kim Thiel from Keith's Cub Scout Pack and Dickie Jacklitz and Gary Nemeth, classmates from Glendale School. Gifts included 5 car models enough to last him at least a week games, Cub Scout knife, ring and billfold, and a wonderful surprise, a chemistry set, from Sanford and Charles. Hard to tell how he did it but every present was something he really wanted very much!

First contest was a Candy Hunt after which there was a big surprise - the house was still standing! Then a Peanut Relay Race in which the boys pushed peanuts across the room with their noses (later reports indicating that the cheers and yells were heard at least a mile away).

Although the plan was to serve refreshments later, the birthday table held a stronger attraction than games and the boys came storming in and seated themselves, so, there was nothing to do but feed them. A beautiful pink-frosted cake served as the centerpiece, surrounded by bright shiny hats, many-colored baskets filled with candies, yellow pencils for additional favors and balloons of every color suspended from the ceiling. They were forced to sit still - a terrific effort—for only one picture after which the food literally disappeared, including the WHOLE CAKE!

More games and contests ensued to insure each boy winning at least one prize of either a bag of marbles or an airplane. According to Keith, the party ended much too quickly but each boy departed happily carrying prizes, candy peanuts, baskets, hats and balloons with a few extras for those with little brothers at home, thus bringing to a close another happy and eventful day in the life of a little boy.

Mrs. Herot to Lead ^{2/23/56} Walton Fund Drive

Mrs. Frederick C. Herot, 30 Jefferson St., Bedford, is the 1956 chairman of the American Red Cross campaign in Walton Hills. She has chosen as her co-chairman, Mrs. Charles P. Pike, 104 Egbert Road, Bedford. Together they have recruited fund volunteers and will direct their efforts during the drive, which will be held March 5 thru March 19.

Originally from Minnesota, Mrs. Herot has become active in many community projects in the comparatively short time she has been in Walton Hills. She is a member of Walton Hills Women's Club and Kindergarten Parents, and in Flora Stone Mather Alumnae Association. She has two young children, Chris, 4, and Fred, 18 months.

The Residential Division of Greater Cleveland has a quota of $330,000 and Mrs. Herot is confident that Walton Hills can go over the top in its goal of $475. Total goal of the Greater Cleveland Red Cross is $1,442,741.

Your contributions and the work of thousands of volunteers make possible many services of the Red Cross. One of the most important of these is the Cleveland Regional Blood program. Reports from our local hospitals last year showed that 57% of the blood they transfused was provided by Red Cross.

When, at your convenience, you donate blood at the Cleveland Center or on a Bloodmobile unit, it means you have a pint of blood to your credit which may be used when necessary for yourself, a member of your family or a friend in need of it. Red Cross blood is never sold. Red Cross pays the costs of collection and distribution of it from the annual budget. This year $217 has been allocated for this service.

Preceding the regular business meeting of the Walton Hills Co-operative Nursery mothers, the group presented an interesting and informative talk by Dr. Herbert Melnick of Northfield.

Dr. Melnick's subject was the care and health of the teeth, and, more important, according to Dr. Melnick, preventive dental care.

"It is never too early to begin taking your child to the dentist", said Dr. Melnick, "since he not only has no fear, but with early detection of cavities through routine examination and X-ray, most dental work can be done quickly and with almost no pain."

Contrary to popular belief that baby or primary teeth are unimportant, Dr. Melnick pointed out that it is most important to keep these baby teeth in order that the second, or permanent teeth will erupt in proper order and place.

In speaking of the causes and prevention of tooth decay, Dr. Melnick mentioned sweets, soft drinks and gum among other things. The effect of these can be lessened not only by brushing the teeth after eating, but also by merely rinsing the mouth with plain water.

Dr. Melnick had one word of caution regarding toothpastes. The purpose of any dentifrice is to cleanse the teeth, not to prevent decay.

Council Meeting

A new ordinance No. 1956-8, providing for the employment of two part time deputy marshals was introduced and passed under a suspension of rules.

The rate of pay, as provided by the ordinance, will be $1.50 per hour. This will be paid only for actual duty time.

On recommendation of Chief Sterling Walton, Mayor Conelly appointed Donald L. Benjamin of Dunham Road, as part-time first deputy marshal. Council confirmed his appointment.

Mr. Benjamin, who has had previous experience in police work for the village, will begin his duties on April 1.

The new dog control ordinances were given second reading, and will be read for the third time on Tuesday, April 3.

Need Traffic Light

Among other things discussed at the Council meeting was the obvious need for a traffic light at the Krick and Northfield Roads intersection. Mayor Conelly said today that permission had been granted by the county to install this light.

Although tentative plans call for a 'trip-plate' type of light, other types of lights will be considered and a decision will be made at later date.

According to the latest report from the East Ohio Gas Co., the survey has progressed very favorably and the start of installation work is planned for not later than the middle of May.

As the first step in the long-range road work planned for the village, Road Commissioner Sterling Walton was directed by Council to purchase 150 tons of slag.

Acting on a suggestion by Councilman Don Ralsten that an engineer be consulted in order to obtain expert opinion on proper mixtures for the roads, as well as how and when to apply them, Council determined that recommendations previously made by County Engineer Art Dollard be used when writing specifications. Mayor Conelly and council asserted that once the roads are in proper condition, constant and correct maintenance will be required in order to prevent deterioration.

All of us who missed the circus during the winter will be given a second chance to attend with our children, when the well-known Mills Bros. Circus comes to Bedford on April 28.

The Mills Bros. Circus, a three-ring tent type circus, is one of the largest operating in this country today, and spends its winters at the fair grounds in Ashtabula County.

Many of the performers live in neat trailers which are their year-around homes, while the many animals of the circus are taken care of in the sheds and barns at the fair grounds.

As a special treat for the youngsters, the circus will open one-half hour before show time at both the afternoon and evening performances in order that the children may visit the animals.

The Mills Bros. Circus appearance in Bedford is being sponsored by the Bedford Zonta Club, and all proceeds from the ticket sale will be used for scholarships for local fund drives and other services.

Tickets are now on sale and are priced at $1.13 including taxes for adults and children. There is a saving of 40 cents per ticket if bought in advance of April 28, and Zonta Club receives fifty per cent of the ticket price. Reserved seat tickets are also available.

Tickets may be purchased from Mrs. Armin Wagner at 166 McLellan Dr.

Easter Egg Hunt

More than 150 youngsters enjoyed the Easter Egg hunt held by the Walton Hills Estates club on Saturday, March 31 in Walton Park.

United Fund Operation

In spite of the plea from all "please do something" about the innumerable fund-raising campaigns that have kept our doorbells busy, only a handful of residents attended the Women's Club open meeting on March 28 to hear what steps can be taken to initiate a United Fund operation for the community.

The speaker, Russell Richmond, Executive Director of the United Foundation in Summit County, outlined the development of the United Fund Drive and the experiences other communities have had with it.

A report on this meeting is presented in another article in this week's paper.

During the business portion of the meeting, reports were given on various activities sponsored by the club.

Mrs. James Piwonka, speaking for Mrs. Don Martin, advisor to the Walteens, reported that because of lack of interest on the part of the young people, all activities would be suspended until further notice.

Mrs. Ted Hack discussed the continued success of the Cooperative Nursery School and its activities.

The nursery school will have a bake sale on April 21 and will hold open house on May 2.

Plant Sale

The Women's Club will hold its second plant sale on Saturday and Sunday, May 26 and May 27. Plants will be purchased from a reputable nursery and the committee will be happy to order any 'specials' that may be desired.

The April issue of The Emerald Necklace, the newsletter published by the Cleveland Metropolitan Park Board, extends an invitation to visit the planting of flowering crab apple trees along the west side of Big Creek Parkway drive, just north of Snow ROAD. The trees are expected to come into blossom the latter part of this month and the various species will continue through the middle of May.

The various species will be labeled with both common and scientific names.

The 23rd Annual Bird Walk Series, sponsored by the Cleveland Audubon Society and the Cleveland Museum of Natural History, began on Sunday, April 15. These walks will continue through May 20.

Residents of the village interested in participating in these walks have a choice of two meeting places.

Towpath - Brecksville, Bedford Parkway. Meet at corner of Canal and Sagamore Roads.

Bedford - Meet at park entrance off Dunham Road near Tinkers Creek Road.

The meeting time for these walks is 7:30 a.m., each Sunday through May 20.

Taxes

We are all agreed that real estate taxes in the village in previous years were low to the point of being ridiculous. However, the tax statements for 1955 arriving in the village during the past week or so, also approached the ridiculous.

From various sections of the village came complaints on the re-appraisals that raised valuations up to ten times the original.

Vacant lot owners were hit the hardest with taxes, previously paid at the rate of three dollars per lot each half year being raised to eight times that much, with appraisal value of such lots raised to $4400 for each lot.

Upon inquiry, villagers discovered there is nothing to be gained by a community-wide petition; however, Judge Ralph Bell advised, that, if filed in considerable numbers, individual complaints from Walton Hills might result in a village re-appraisal.

On Wednesday, May 2, the nursery school will hold its first open house for mothers and children in the village.

This will be a regular school day and is planned primarily for mothers who have children between the ages of three and five and who may be interested in joining the nursery school group next year.

Square Dance

Don't forget the Estates Club square dance tomorrow, Friday April 20, at the VFW Hall at the corner of Forbes and Northfield Roads.

Dancing will be from 9 to 12 p.m., and the price of admission is $2.00 per couple. There will be regular dancing between square dance sets.

Tickets are available from any of the trustees and the village store.

Refreshments will be available at the hall.

School Bond Issue

Dale Heskett, Superintendent of Bedford schools, spoke before the Glendale PTA on Thursday evening, April 12.

He graphically described the urgent need for passage of the bond issue which will be placed before the voters on May 8.

The growth in the number of youngsters within the past few years, plus the current crop, is responsible for the almost unheard of demand on the public schools at this time.

In the case of the new high school on Northfield Road, the junior high students are attending a school that is not actually ready for students. Only a few of the basic rooms are completed, while the lack of a gym, cafeteria, auditorium, shops, music rooms and the like is preventing the students from enjoying the well-rounded curriculum ordinarily received in junior and senior high school.

It is hoped that the new and outrageous real estate taxes will not adversely affect the passing of the badly needed school bond issue. Actually, the school tax rate is very low in comparison with other cities in Cuyahoga County.

Up to the present time, Bedford has not had to stagger classes in any school, nor will this happen, said Mr. Heskett. However, it is only logical to assume this will happen if additional rooms and new buildings are not forthcoming.

will be held on Saturday, and Sunday, May 26 and May 27.

Cancer Drive

Mrs. Dwight Griffith, chairman, and Mrs. John Sacash, Captain of the Cancer Fund Drive in Walton Hills announced last night that $273.96 was collected in the village.

The usual lull in activities between spring and summer is apparent in the village and shows up most noticeably in the lack of news.

However, with the forthcoming Women's Club plant sale on Saturday and Sunday, May 26-27, the following articles taken from the Sunday Plain Dealer may prove interesting.

Shady Garden Has It's Advantages, Writer Says

Besse Howells, Garden Editor of the Plain Dealer, wrote in her column on Sunday that "shade in the garden area is too often considered as a problem rather than the distinct advantage it can be. Nothing can be lovelier than to sit in the shade of handsome trees on a hot summer day. True, your garden may never be flamboyant panorama of color without full sunshine, but gardens are generally best enjoyed from afar in mid-summer. The shady garden is one you will want to live in.

"Of prime consideration in the shady garden is the circulation of air. However, the roots of plants from shrubs and tree roots is keen. In some instances it is advisable to put 2-foot metal barriers into the soil to keep out encroaching roots.

"Plants which just grow with little sunshine should be given the very best possible soil. Often the soil under trees, particularly the elm, sycamore, maple and beech, is very dry and poor.

"The soil should be prepared deeply for the plants. It should be well mixed with moisture-retaining humus such as compost, peat moss, leaf mold or rotted manure.

"The most colorful and exotic flower for the shady garden is the tuberous rooted begonia. The begonia comes in every color except blue, and in many forms.

"Wildflowers are an excellent choice for the shady garden, for most of them grow naturally in the woodlands. They must be given the same growing conditions they would have naturally. The best practice is to order your wildflowers from a nursery rather than try to transplant them from the

Wolcott Gardens at Kent Has Lovely Lilac Display

An interesting and rewarding ride to take next Sunday would be to the Wolcott gardens at 450 West Main Street in Kent, Ohio.

Although the Wolcott home was built in 1870, the gardens which now cover two acres, were started in 1906 when Daisy and Duncan B. Wolcott occupied the home and set out together to build one of the finest home gardens in the area.

The gardens include more than a hundred varieties of lilacs and thousands of spring flowers, shrubs and trees. All the shrubs and trees in the gardens are labeled for easy identification.

A feature this year is a trial garden of 600 new varieties of imported Dutch tulip bulbs. This addition brings the total to more than 1,600 tulips planted last fall.

A year ago, more than 5,000 visitors from out-of-town viewed the gardens on Mother's Day.

Blossomtime at the Wolcott gardens is expected to reach a peak this week because of the delayed, cool spring weathr.

Picnic Band

If you would enjoy hearing and playing in a band at the annual July 4 celebration, now is the time to offer your musical talents to the new group now being formed.

The music will be simple and will consist of just a few rehearsals. Students in junior and senior high school and adults will be most welcome.

Please call Mrs. Ted Hack at BE 2-3520 for more information.

The Walton Hills Cooperative Nursery School will complete its second successful year with a family picnic on Friday, June 1 at Walton Park.

Mothers and younger brothers and sisters of children attending the nursery school are invited to attend the picnic.

A simple graduation exercise will be presented during the picnic.

A great deal of the enthusiasm with which the nursery school is regarded by the children attending is due to the numerous and varied 'excursions' planned by their teachers Mrs. Ted Hack and Mrs. Walter Ford.

These trips have included visits to the library, Cyrus Eaton's Acadia Farms, others farms in the village, and most recently, the children, accompanied by their mothers visited the Dandee Potato Chip and Pretzel Co.

On Wednesday, June 6, those children in the nursery school who will be attending kindergarten next fall, will visit Glendale kindergarten.

Story Hour

The very popular story hour will begin on Thursday, June 14 at 10 a.m. The story hour, which is a project of the Women's Club is open to all children in Walton Hills from 3 years of age.

The story hour will expand this year in several ways. The bookmobile will be in Walton Hills for the entire morning and, if possible, a story teller will be furnished from the County Library.

A new book club for older boys and girls will be formed this year, and a program of recreation, fun, and stories is the plan for the story hour.

There is no fee but the mothers are asked to help by taking a turn once or twice during the summer at the story hours if possible.

Anyone who would be able to assist with the boys and girls or who would be able to furnish transportation would be most welcome. Please call Mrs. Ted Hack at BE 2-3520 or Mrs. James Piwonka at BE 2-1845 to offer your services.

Women's club

The Women's Club held its final meeting of the current season on Wednesday, May 23.

These driveway drains must be maintained during road construction. Where needed, the Road Committee may require that a larger size drain be installed.

Members of the club were especially pleased to award the scholarship to Ruth since she has proved herself to be a definite asset to our community not only because of her artistic talent, but because of her high standards and her personal efforts toward attaining her goal in the commercial art field.

At a time when so much newspaper space is taken up with stories about the few youngsters who find themselves in difficulties it is pleasant to report the success of a young person who has risen above the crowd through her personal efforts and integrity.

Due to a change in the bookmobile schedule, from 10 a.m. to 9 a.m. the story hour group will meet from 9:30 a.m. until 11:30 a.m.

The annual story hour and bookmobile sessions here in the village afford an excellent opportunity to grown-ups, mothers especially, and children alike to keep up with their reading throughout the summer.

The bookmobile carries books for people of all ages, from pre-schoolers to grown-ups in both fiction and non-fiction. A reading club with a definite project in mind will be formed for older children.

The first story hour and bookmobile session of the current season got off to a good start Thursday, June 14 with an attendance of almost 70 youngsters.

The bookmobile, which arrives at 9 a.m. each Thursday (except the fifth Thursday) is available to anyone in the village who is interested in obtaining books for summer reading.

The story hour section is presented for the enjoyment of all village children from three years of age and older and will be held from 9:30 a.m. until 11 a.m. Arrangements have been made for volunteers from the Women's Club to act as supervisors for the children at all times.

In order to facilitate grouping the youngsters into proper age groups, all children attending the story hour are asked to go directly downstairs in the village hall upon arrival.

"Peter Pan" Theme

Boys and girls old enough to read their own books and give oral reports are eligible for the reading club. Each member reading ten books during the summer will receive a prize at the final meeting of the year.

A series of movies have been picked to be shown at every other story hour. The first of these was shown last week.

Although the older children will visit the bookmobile with their own age groups in order to pick out the books they want to read, the mothers of the pre-school and nursery school children will pick out the books for these younger children.

In response to several queries concerning possible action by the village zoning board, Mayor L. S. Connelly has issued the following statement.

"There are one or two problems in connection with industries coming into the village. One of these is the fact that none of the property on the west side of Northfield Road has been re-zoned for industrial development. The second problem is that the asking price for the property which could be used by industry has been considered too high and has caused one or two industries to lose interest in locating in the village."

At the same time, the Mayor confirmed that an application for a building permit has been made by the T. R. Wigglesworth Company.

"The site of the proposed Wigglesworth plant is on the west side of Northfield Road just south of the Sohio station.

"This permit will be issued on a non-conforming basis, since this land is part of the area zoned for residential use."

According to William Scheele of the Cleveland Press, this is the most critical time in the life of the numerous young birds learning to fly.

"Common birds have from one to three broods throughout the summer months. These young birds develop quickly—the feathers on the wing that enable them to fly are the first to grow out. They enable the fledgling to move about freely on the ground before it can properly protect itself by hiding or flying.

"During the first two or three weeks out of the shell about two-thirds of every bird brood will die.

"Young birds fall victim to many natural enemies, but their human protectors unwittingly, and with the best of intentions, contribute heavily to the death rate.

"This is the season when domestic pets are a genuine menace to wild life. Thoughtful cat owners bell their pets or make some effort to confine the animal to the home when young wildlife is most numerous. House pets are not usually excessively destructive, but they are blamed for the action of free-roaming cats and dogs.

"Most birds that are picked up by human at this time are poorly cared for and they often die. It is unlawful to capture and rear wild birds. The most important reason for this law was the simple fact that well-meaning people do not properly care for the wild things that they try to help."

Mrs. Randall Jones Installed

Mrs. Harold T. Egert, past president of the Federation of Women's Club of Greater Cleveland, was the installing officer.

After installing the new officers, Mrs. Egert complimented the Women's Club on its service to others and reminded the members of the great part in all phases of life that can be taken by an organized women's group.

The new officers taking office on Wednesday, were Mrs. Russell Jones, President; Mrs. James Pionka, Vice-President; Mrs. Joseph Venaleck, Treasurer; and Mrs. Nelson Grashaw, Secretary.

The first summer activity of the Women's Club will be a pot-luck supper and swimming party at Mrs. Charles Hunut's home on Wednesday, July 18.

Although it sometimes seems to the gardener that the only seeds growing are those of weeds, this really is not the case.

According to Besse Hornells in the Cleveland Plain Dealer, "a relatively small percentage of seeds produced by plants ever grow and become new plants, therefore, nature uses many agents to make sure plants are perpetuated by the distribution of their seed.

Seeds are sent far and wide by wind, water, birds and animals. An island in the East Indies on which all life was killed by volcanic eruptions, was found 10 years later to have growing grasses, ferns, beefwood trees, orchids, coconut trees and wild sugar cane although the nearest island to it was 25 miles away. Man had little or nothing to do with this rebirth of land. Still man is by far the most important agent in the spreading of seed.

"The gardener knows that the cheapest way to have new plants is to sow seed. A package of seed will cost less than one mature plant. Of course, you will have to wait a little longer for the plant to bloom and the plants must be cared for in the seedling stages.

Before the end of July early lupines, foxgloves, corabells, meadowrue, thermopsis should be sown. Aconite, gaillardia, platycodon, salvia, scabiosa, Shasta daisy, stokesia and other mid-summer and fall-blooming perennials should be planted from now until mid-August."

Two groups of residents, each with a separate issue to take up with Council and Mayor Conelly, attended the Council meeting on Tuesday, August 21.

The first group, made up of residents from Meadowpark Dr., attended the meeting to voice their objections to the condition of Meadowpark Dr. during and after the storms of the past few weeks.

Their main objection was that Meadowpark Dr. has not, as yet, been dedicated and accepted by the village, and therefore, was not included in the village road program for 1956.

Mayor Conelly, speaking as head of the Conelly Realty Company, to whom the road belongs, said that he was aware of the conditions of the drainage ditches on Meadowpark and explained that even when work was done on the ditches, bulldozers trucks driving in and out of property broke them down before inspection could be made.

Mayor Conelly did say, however, that if the present dry weather continues he would arrange to have the necessary road work done since it is impossible for road work equipment to work on any street during very wet weather.

Traffic Accident

The second group of village residents attended the meeting to back up the plea of Mr. Cwalina of Alexander Rd. that stricter traffic control measures be employed by the village.

Mr. Cwalina is the father of Walter Cwalina, 12, who was struck by an automobile on August 4, while riding a motor bike on Alexander rd.

Mr. Cwalina complained that the driver, a village resident, was not charged with reckless driving. He said witnesses stated that the driver was exceeding the speed limit.

Police Chief Sterling Walton said the boy was operating the motor bike without a license. The law requires a license and a minimum age of 16 years. He said there were no grounds for charging the driver.

Mayor Conelly ended the discussion abruptly, telling Mr. Cwalina and his group that the village would conduct its affairs as it saw fit when the father demanded a definite statement from Council on plans for traffic control.

Later, during the business portion of the meeting, Chief Walton was directed to secure prices of radar equipment for use by the Police Department.

The bookmobile will begin its visits on Sept. 5 and will continue through May 31.

Budget is Discussed at Walton

by Ruth Marquardt

Although only a few village residents attended the public hearing on the 1957 Tax Budget on Sept. 4, the meeting was a lively one with much discussion from the spectators as well as council.

The estimated budget balance for 1957 is $97,990.50, while estimated expenditures amount to $91,731.47, leaving a balance of $6,259.03. The new tax duplicate for the village is estimated at $33 million making Walton Hills the third highest community in the county in size of tax duplicate.

On a question from the floor as to why the high taxes paid by village residents recently did not show up in the 1957 tax budget as part of the village tax duplicate, Councilman Don Ralsten pointed out that village residential value is but a small percentage of the entire village tax duplicate. Councilman Ralsten also pointed out that industry accounts for about 90% of the Walton Hills tax duplicate.

Taxes Go Up

In spite of the high estimated tax duplicate of the village, it is almost certain there will be a slight increase in the village tax rate. This will amount to three cents, bringing the village rate to .15 per hundred dollars. This amount compares favorably with previous rates since in 1954 and 1955 the rate was .18 per hundred, and in 1956 the rate was .12 per hundred.

According to Clerk Merlin Bement, Walton Hills is one of the few communities not in debt and forced to borrow money in order to manage its affairs.

Although the crocus is dear to our hearts because it blooms so early in the spring, it is by no means the only early flower of spring. According to Besse Howells, Garden Editor of the Plain Dealer, one reason more of the early blossoming bulbs, sometimes called the minor bulbs are not more frequently planted is that so many people do not know the names or how to pronounce them.

"One of the earliest bulbs to bloom is eranthis hyemalis, often called winter aconite. This golden-cupped blossom will often appear in late winter. The bulbs should be planted as early as possible about two inches deep and three inches apart. They may be left undisturbed for years and will quickly multiply.

Another bulbous flower appropriately called Snowdrop is often in bloom quite early in February. Snowdrops will thrive in a moist, shady spot and should have a light winter mulch.

The literal translation of the name chionodoxa is "glory of the snow", and this tiny flower is just that. There are white and pink flowered varieties but the most popular is a soft blue.

Other spring bulbs which may be planted in spots which receive sun only in the spring before shrubs and trees blossom are the scilla, sometimes called squill, the snowflake and the grape hyacinth. These bulbs appreciate early planting in clumps as they naturally grow."

Estate Club Sponsors Gala Picnic for Walton Residents

The Estates Club celebrated the Labor Day holiday with a picnic for members and their guests in Walton Park.

Aside from the fireworks, the main attractions of the afternoon festivities were the water ballet and water games, as well as the life saving demonstration by members of the life saving classes.

Members of the water ballet were Linda Baughman, Virgene Thorne, Bonnie Mathieson, Barbara Kray, Sharon Frankish, Joyce Hall, Coralee Keller and Margie Tatham.

There were water games with balloons and tubes for youngsters just learning to swim and speed races of one length for older boys and girls.

Bonnie Mathieson and Coralee Keller took top honors in the back crawl contest.

Members of the life saving

Our local weather during the summer months has not only confused and bothered us, but even the birds have been put off their regular schedule of migration.

Mrs. Don Ralsten and Sanford, report seeing the first migrant of the summer and fall season near their lake.

The Spotted Sandpiper, a rather small bird of about 7", olive-brown on top and white beneath, with a distinct white line through the eye, it's white breast heavily spotted with brown, was seen by the Ralstens last week.

The Sandpipers are equipped with long, thin bills and little legs and feet that seem to twinkle as they run along ocean beaches, mud flats and lake shores in search of food. The spotted Sandpiper may be found all over the United States and Canada in the warmer months of the year.

Another distinctive attribute of the Spotted Sandpiper is the curious "teetering" motion when ious. "teetering" motion when standing still.

The young birds of the year have no spots and the parents lose their spots before going southward in the Autumn.

Children Make Hats to Wear at Party on Aug. 30

About forty children will be eligible for prizes in the Reading contest having read at least ten books throughout the summer.

Mothers who are interested in assisting with the Learn to Swim program are invited to attend this meeting. Supervised play on that day will be handled by the Life Saving class in order that mothers may attend the meeting.

Walton Little Leagues Take Part in All Star Game

On Sunday, August 19 four members of the Walton Hills Little League played in the Valley View Little League Association's All Star game at Valley View.

The All Stars were divided into two teams, the Nationals and the Americans who won the game.

The Walton Hills boys who won places on the All Star Team were Johnny Ignaut, who played 3rd base, Dick Tatham, Center Field, Dave Tatham, Catcher and Ronnie Cray, 1st Base.

These boys, according to Manager Jack Laing, made outstanding contributions to the team throughout the season and helped the Walton Hills team to victory over two of the most difficult teams to beat in the Little League Association.

There was good attendance at all the games, and the Walton Hills team, having completed its second year with four games won, can look forward to an even better season next year.

There will be a special registration for those voters not now registered on Tuesday, September 18. The hours for this registration will be 10 a.m. - 2 p.m. and 4 p.m. - 9 p.m. Registration will be held in the village hall.

With local summer storms providing atmospheric uneasiness and the beginning of the political conventions on Monday, gardeners have been having a windy time of it. However, some relief from both sources of disturbance may be had by settling down with one of several good books on gardening recently published. Many of these are imports from England.

Among these is "The Guide to Roses" by Bertram Park who is vice president of the British National Rose Society..

Park is a photographer and has provided most of the 64 color plates and 16 black and white photographs in the book. The "how-to" photos illustrate effects of diseases, pruning, budding and planting.

"Plant Propagation and Garden Practice" by R. C. M. Wright won the award "gardening book of the year" given by Popular Gardening Magazine in England and has recently been published here.

Wright gives detailed instructions of the simplest methods of propagation to the most complicated. He describes exactly how to increase plants by air layering, cuttings, seed, as well as discussing budding, chemical sterilization, grafting, pollination; thinning and transplanting, vegetation increase and weed control.

"A Field Guide to Ferns" byoughton Cobb is the first completely illustrated guide to the ferns a major portion of the North American continent. This book contains a section on the making and culture of a fernery by H. Lincoln Foster.

Seventy-five children attended last week's story hour, continuing the high circulation of books which makes Walton Hills group one of the highest of the summer reading groups from a circulation standpoint. About 200 books are circulated at each of the Thursday morning story hour and bookmobile sessions.

Thursday, August 23, will be the last visit of the bookmobile so youngsters are cautioned to be sure and return all books at that time.

Although the council meeting of Tuesday, Sept. 18 was lengthy, it proved to be an interesting and informative one with much discussion of various matters of business pertaining to the village.

Solicitor Richard Bell and Police Chief Sterling Walton reported to council that a verbal order had been placed for a radar unit for village use in traffic control.

An ordinance covering the purchase of this radar was passed by council as an emergency measure.

Chief Walton reported that as of Tuesday night, the village had its 76th accident.

Mayor L. S. Conelly's recommendation that Patrolmen Frank Simoni and Ed Bahensky be employed on a permanent full-time basis was considered and a resolution passed to that effect.

Will Purchase Truck

Since the village is considering the purchase of a new truck, a committee composed of Chief Walton, Councilman Tom Young and Patrolman Frank Simoni, was appointed to draw up specifications and investigate which type and make would be best suited for village purposes.

The village intends to use the truck in hauling cinders and salt, and in clearing the village roads with a snow plow attachment.

Jury Trial

Although only a few people appearing before the Mayor's Court have requested a trial by jury, council suggested that the expense incurred by the village in transferring these cases to Cleveland or another municipality might warrant the appointing of a jury in Walton Hills.

The ordinance covering the selection of this jury was introduced and had its first reading by Councilman Wayne Wagstaff. The names from which the jury would be selected, would be taken from our local voting records, and the selection would be made on Jan. 31 of each year. Each registered voter would have the opportunity to serve as a juror.

None of the members of the administrative body nor the police department would be eligible for this service.

A majority of council favored having a village jury; however,

Councilman Tom Young expressed the opinion that "in a small town a jury would go along with the opinions expressed by village officials."

Councilman Don Ralsten moved that this ordinance be continued until the next council meeting.

Harness Racing

Mayor Conelly mentioned to council the petitions being circulated to residents of the village by a racing syndicate interested in purchasing Sportsman Park for the purpose of harness racing.

Although no official action is needed on the part of council, the consensus was that the traffic problems presented by 40 nights of harness racing would be preferable to the traffic problems now in evidence with two or three nights a week of sports car racing.

The signatures of 51 per cent of the residents of Walton Hills are needed in order to change Sportsman Park into a racing track.

Chief Walton Announces Stricter Rules on Motor Bikes

Chief Sterling Walton announced today that stricter measures would be employed in dealing with illegal use of motor bikes and motor scooters. The state law covering motor bikes states that "the operation of a motor bike or scooter must have attained the age of sixteen years and have his operators license on his person when driving a motor bike. He must also have a license for the vehicle."

Bikes will be confiscated from youngsters driving motor bikes or scooters illegally, and parents will be responsible for seeing that their children comply with the law.

If a youngster's bike is taken away, parents will be required to appear before the Police Chief before it is returned.

According to latest information from a former member of the United Appeal study committee, there is, as yet, no hope for a United Fund drive in Cuyahoga County.

Despite the well-known success of United Fund drives in other cities, notably Detroit and in Summit County, Akron, the biggest and most publicized welfare agencies are "tightening up" even more than previously in their efforts to stop a United Fund drive in this area.

Several communities have formed United Fund drives and have been successful in their appeals for funds collected for distribution to the big foundations. However, instead of accepting the money, collected and given with a spirit of wanting to help, the national headquarters offices of most of these agencies not only refuse the money, but revoked local charters and then proceeded to issue new charters to new groups willing to be involved in separate collections.

One question is uppermost in most peoples minds. If private citizens are made to feel a moral obligation to contribute to any and all welfare foundations campaign despite their number, how can these same foundations morally refuse to accept funds collected during a United Fund drive, especially when, in most cases, the amount allocated the various foundations is greater than that collected during individual campaigns.

Council Meeting

The second reading of the ordinance covering village trials by jury was given on Tuesday, October 1. The third reading will be given on Tuesday, October 16.

After hearing a report by Engineer Frank Krause on plans and the cost of installing water lines on Krick Road, Council voted to go ahead with the necessary legislation to cover this installation.

These plans have been approved by the City of Cleveland at which time the use of 12-inch pipe was recommended instead of 8-inch pipe.

According to David Dietz of the Cleveland Press, "This is the week of that celestial treat, the harvest moon. If evening skies are clear, the moon will be more beautiful this week than at any time of the year.

"The harvest moon is the full moon nearest the autumnal equinox. Autumn arrives this year on Sept. 22. Full moon occurs on Wednesday, Sept. 19.

"Actually, the moon will present an equally glorious sight on both Wednesday and Thursday night.

"Because the moon rises more slowly at the time of the autumnal equinox it hangs closer to the horizon for a longer time each evening.

"The moon has a mellow color and when seen in the very early evening, appears gigantic. This is a purely optical illusion which no one has yet explained satisfactorily.

"The angular diameter of the moon is essentially the same no matter where the moon is in the heavens and it always looks the same size in a telescope.

"If you are in an acrobatic mood, try facing away from the moon, bending over, and looking at the moon between your legs. You will be amazed to see it shrink at once to its familiar size."

Walton Couple Are Home from New Mexico ^{10/20/56}

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Mahon, of 119 Walton Road, Walton Hills, recently returned from a six-week visit to New Mexico where they were the guests of their daughter and son-in-law, A/1c Joseph Hicar and Mrs. Hicar and ten-month old Joseph Jr.

While in New Mexico, Mr. and Mrs. Mahon visited many scenes of interest missed on their previous visits to the Southwest.

Mr. and Mrs. Mahon have a new reason for being proud of their children, since Mr. and Mrs. Hicar were honored by being voted the first family of the year, out of the thousand families stationed at Hurler Air Force Base.

The regular meeting of the Walton Hills Women's Club, held on Wednesday, October 24, in the village hall, proved to be the most interesting and productive meeting from a service stand point, that has been presented for some time.

Mrs. Myrtle Delmar, Secretary Manager of the Cleveland District of the Sun Oil Co., member of the Oil Industry Information Committee and secretary of the Desk and Derrick Club of Cleveland was the guest speaker. Mrs. Delmar's subject was "The Magic Suitcase".

The Magic Suitcase was just packed with at least one sample each of nylons, dress material, cosmetics, detergents and jewelry. These varied items are related because of their common beginning in crude oil or its by-products.

Permanent Pleats

Included in the pieces of material was a tiny, permanently pleated skirt. Mrs. Delmar explained that the threads in such material are bent at a very high temperature, making the pleats permanent since no ordinary washing water or iron can reach the same high degree of temperature.

Among the other new products mentioned by Mrs. Delmar, was a new transparent glue, suitable for use in decorating hats or dresses; petrol-based products for use in the manufacture of paper; and "bong pipes", so called by the industry because of the noise when banged together. These bong pipes were coated with a new unchippable coating used for refrigerators and stoves.

Not only did Mrs. Delmar illustrate the luxury benefits derived from oil and its by-products, but emphasized strongly that it is only possible because of the American system of free enterprise and a competitive market. In addition, Mrs. Delmar stated that 42 thousand oil companies are in competition each year for the public's business.

More Services

In addition to the many household items worked on by the petroleum industry to make living easier and cheaper for all of us, Mrs. Delmar also mentioned the road map service supplied by most oil companies. More than 150-million dollars a year is spent on road maps and many companies maintain a complete travel service.

During the business portion of the Women's Club meeting, the members voted to purchase a hospital bed to be used, when needed, by any resident of the village.

Mrs. Frank Parch, of Walton Road, who has been ill for several weeks, and is, at present, still in Woman's Hospital, will be the first to use the bed for as long as it is necessary when she returns to her home.

Since complete recovery, in the case of Mrs. Parch, will be of long duration and involves physical therapy as well as having household jobs done each day, Women's Club members have offered their services to the Parch family for as long as such services are needed.

Volunteers for these services are not limited to the Women's Club. Any trained nurses or therapists in the village interested in helping out would be very welcome.

Estates Club to Hold A Square Dance

Another square dance has been planned by the Estates Club for the evening of Saturday, Nov. 3 at the Golden Glens on Egbert Road.

Price of admission is $2.00 per couple. Beer and set-ups will be available at the hall, but no liquor will be sold.

Guests are welcome, but be sure to wear comfortable square dancing clothes.

Attendance at Bookmobile is Light

The librarian of the bookmobile which comes to Walton Hills every second and fourth Friday, reports a great lack of attendance during these visits.

The hours for the bookmobile are 2:15 p.m. until 3 p.m. and the location is at the intersection of Walton and Alexander Roads.

If attendance doesn't pick up, the bookmobile will discontinue its stops here in the village.

Sportsman's Change-Over Raises Many Questions

by Ruth Marquardt

The Walton Hills Council, at its meeting on Tuesday, November 20, covered a great deal of business of importance to the village now and in the future.

In an effort to clarify the many questions arising from the proposed change-over at Sportsman's Park from stock-car racing to harness racing, Councilmen Don Ralsten and Jack Laing attended a meeting of the Ohio State Racing Commission in Columbus on Tuesday.

According to information received at this meeting, Walton Hills signified its approval of harness racing when 51% of the residents signed the petitions circulated several weeks ago. These petitions were circulated by the present owners of Sportsman's Park, and not by the racing syndicate as residents believed.

Land Purchase Delayed

Although final details on the purchase of Sportsman's Park are being delayed because of lack of agreement on the price of a piece of land now owned by the Ford Motor Company, Mr. Walter Michael, who will manage the track and his associates have a great many plans for the tracks should the sale be completed.

Mr. Michael, who is President of the Locomotive Crane Co., is well known in harness racing circles for his outstanding contributions toward raising the standards of harness racing, and he is constantly working toward improving the standard breed of horses for such racing.

Councilmen Ralsten and Laing were able to talk at some length with Mr. Michael while in Columbus, and he assured them of his understanding of some of the questions being raised by village residents.

Traffic Problem

Michael admitted that traffic control would continue to be a big problem but stated that, if necessary, the track would cooperate with the village in providing a special-service traffic light. In addition, Michael said, the 10 or 12 special policemen employed on track grounds during the races would be used whenever necessary to ease the traffic situation.

In discussing the "so-called" track personnel problem, Michael made it clear that he would make it his own responsibility to prevent such a situation from arising.

Another point on which a question had been raised was the possibility of trailer homes within the track grounds. Michael stated definitely these would not be allowed.

Revenue Source

One point of interest to residents was the possible source of revenue from the race track. According to the Racing Commission, a revenue of one-tenth of 1% of the gross betting figure, not to exceed $10,000, is possible. However, when a track exists in two separate communities as in this case, the state awards the revenue to one community, and, if desired, that community may make arrangements with the other community as to proper division of the revenue.

When asked about construction at the track, Mr. Michael said no basic construction has been planned for 1957 aside from enlarging the track on the East and South sides. Plans for 1958 include enlarging the grandstand, building a clubhouse, stables and proper quarters for service personnel. Until that time, horses would be brought to the track by truck from Grandview.

Mr. Michael impressed Councilmen Ralsten and Laing with his obvious desire to cooperate in every way with village regulations. He stated he would be happy to meet with council to discuss this situation with them.

According to William Sheele's column in The Cleveland Press, man's progress is tough on animals.

"During any autumn that is mild" Sheele says, "fur bearing mammals seem to circulate especially freely in an effort to redistribute themselves according to their food needs and the need for shelter during the bad weather ahead for hibernation. In recent weeks, many of the younger animals have been killed as they endeavor to cross our main highways.

"City Dwellers are always astonished to learn that even in the near downtown sections wild animals other than house mice and rats are present in some numbers.

"Most often the only inkling of these creatures occurs after they have been accidentally killed. The great majority of the animal highway deaths are unavoidable, for nearly all happen after dark when a confused, slow-moving mammal's chance of escape is slim.

"Of major concern to all biologists is the realization that turnpikes and new road nets are creating isolated pockets of living things that can stand little chance of normal reproduction and survival because roads are major barriers to the movements of the animals.

"Occasionally, animal mass migrations are hazardous to traffic - most of these occur during times of unusual weather conditions.

"In Cuyahoga County such movements represent a bursting at the seams of small animal populations. These beasts are isolated by the works of man, and they must escape the confines of his works in order to live."

Since this weather can't stay with us much longer, gardening experts warn us that November is the month to weight loose mulches with bricks or branches to keep them from blowing away. Bring in good topsoil for use in potting house plants during the winter. Mound soil over chrysanthemum clumps after you cut the tops back to six inches.

Mulch areas of ground that you want to keep frost-free until late lily and other bulb orders arrive. Brace newly planted trees and mulch the soil beneath fall planted evergreens if you have not done so already. Soak the soil around your evergreens and shrubs before ground freezes to prevent wind-burn. Begin spraying scale-infested plants with dormant-strength oil sprays.

After the long, rainy summer, we all were grateful for a beautiful autumn season this year. However, it left much to be desired so far as our evergreens and perennial plants are concerned.

Because of the lack of sufficient rainfall this fall, the strong winter winds will cause the dying out of evergreen plants, the heaving of perennials and the destruction of flower buds of deciduous shrubs.

Of several measures which may be used to prevent heavy plant loss due to lack of rain, the most effective is the addition of water to the soil before the really severe freezing weather begins. A hose placed near the evergreens with the nozzle turned to a slow drip will usually provide the needed moisture.

It is usual for plants to lose water at a rapid rate through their leaves in a process called transpiration.

There are many ways of slowing down this moisture loss. One of the best ways is to use evergreen branches over choice perennials. After Christmas, instead of disposing of your holiday tree by burning cut off the branches and use them as a mulch and ground cover as protection against heaving.

Windbreaks built at exposed corners will prevent strong winds from drying out evergreen leaves and needles.

Since young and newly-planted evergreens and landscape shrubbery have not developed a root system strong enough to overcome normal daily moisture evaporation, those of us with new evergreen plants might take advantage of our fairly mild weather to start our moisture loss prevention plan.

Several phone calls from puzzled villagers concerning the possibility of landscaping advice for village residents, as outlined in Mayor L. S. Conelly's letter of Jan. 19, prompted an interview with the Mayor.

Clarifying his statements made in the letter, Mayor Conelly stated: "I do not advocate regimentation of homes and gardens in the village.

"While there are a few people who believe we should have a full-time architect on our planning board to help regulate the size and color of our homes, and possibly the regulation of residential landscaping, I cannot agree that such a move is necessary," he said.

"One of the greatest assets of our village is the variety of homes we have. All of our homes are the expression of our own individuality," the Mayor pointed out.

Concerning the proposed Garden thought such an organization could be of great help to beginners.

"It would be a great place for the exchange of gardening ideas. The experienced gardeners could be of great help to those just starting out, he said.

"At no time," he stated emphatically, "Would the club have any official status. It would certainly not attempt to dictate what any home owner should plant."

Landscaping

Council and the village planning board have been aware for some time the need for advice on future buildings and landscaping, especially in our industrial areas.

At the council meeting on January 15, council authorized the sum of $1,000 to be used by the planning board to cover the costs of two landscaping and building surveys to be made within the village.

According to village officials, one survey will cover our industrial areas, and the second will deal primarily with the present village hall, possible future buildings, the size of them, location and possible varied uses of such buildings.

Council Meeting

Councilman Don Ralston, having completed a successful and helpful year as President pro-tem of Council, passed this position on to Councilman Tom Young. Councilman Young brings to this job several years of experience and good judgement in municipal administration.

During the meeting, Police Chief Sterling Walton requested that council review current police pay rates, and to take under consideration the hiring of an extra police officer.

Chief Walton also expressed to council his desire to resign his position as Road Commissioner. His resignation would become effective in March.

This position requires someone with some knowledge of proper road up-keep and the opportunity to drive about in the village on frequent road inspections.

An ordinance concerning Taxicabs was given a first reading at the January 15 council meeting.

This ordinance is designed to protect village residents from unauthorized persons operating taxi companies within the village area. According to the ordinance a sign with taxi printed on it and placed in a car window does not constitute a legally operated taxi company.

According to council members, the story, that appeared in a Cleveland Newspaper several days ago, stating the sale of land from the Ford Company to Sportsman's Park had been completed, was erroneous.

Apparently, there is still some disagreement between the Ford co and the people interested in purchasing the land. It is expected, however, that some agreement will be reached very soon.

At the Council meeting on Tuesday, January 21, council:

Passed: Ordinance 1958-2 providing for employment of legal counsel for the Village. At the same time, council unanimously confirmed Mayor Young's appointment of Virgil D. Allen, Jr., as village solicitor.

Approved: Councilman Ralsten's suggestion that a letter be sent to former solicitor Richard Bell, thanking him for his services during the past two years.

Received: Report from Mayor Young and Councilman Joe Samson that the long awaited Regional Planning Commission map had arrived. Councilman Samson will use the map in assigning house numbers within the village.

Discussed: Home fires within the village. Two such fires occurred recently, apparently caused by faulty fireplace construction. The building inspection was requested to check more completely on this phase of new construction and to re-check some buildings already completed.

Received: Reports from the following councilmen: Councilman Ralsten informed council there would be a meeting with the Northfield village council on Thursday, January 23 to discuss possible division of income from Northfield Park.

Councilmen Laing and Ralsten reported details of their investigation regarding taxi cab insurance rates. After checking cab insurance rates in twenty-five neighboring communities, Councilmen Laing and Ralsten recommended that the present ordinance covering cab insurance rates be continued. Council voted unanimously to accept this recommendation.

Building Committee members, Councilmen Laing, Samson and Noeth, presented several recommendations for improvements to be made in the village hall. These recommendations included the following tentative changes: 1. Installation of wall partition between basement nursery school room and jail cell room. 2. Water-proofing of jail cell walls. 3. Proper inspection of fire extinguishers. 4. Employment of a part-time maintenance man. 5. Installation of guard rail around outside stairway. 6. Inspection of electrical wiring in village hall. 7. Installation of storm door and storm windows. 8. Coordination of meeting dates of various village organizations.

Passed: Ordinance 1958-3 - consenting to maintenance and repair of county roads by the county.

Passed: Ordinance 1958-4 providing for employment of a part-time first deputy marshal. Council then passed Resolution 1958-2 employing George Furst as part-time first deputy marshal. Council also passed Ordinance 1958-5 providing for employment of a part-time third deputy marshal.

Accepted: Resignation of part time deputy Donald Benjamin.

Approved: Village Clerk Merlin Bement's request for temporary appropriations to cover current expenses.

Discussed: Proper procedures to follow in reporting a fire within the village. Residents are urged to call the Police Department as well as the fire department in order that the police can help in directing fire trucks to the scene of the fire.

For many of us who are interested in birds, bird watching has proved to be a fascinating if uncomplicated hobby. One group of bird watchers, however, really had to work at it last Sunday, since they were the people who took part in the annual Christmas Census of birds.

This year the Christmas count took place on Sunday Dec. 29, from dawn until dark. The census is considered to be so important that regardless of weather conditions two groups gather to participate. Miss Vera Carrothers directed the workers covering the section east of Cleveland while Owen Davies directed the second group working the area west of Cleveland. Each group covered as many types of habitat as possible, such as residential areas, open field, water areas, and the like.

The largest number of wintering birds reported since 1940 was 70 species in 1953. In 1955, the east side group reported 57 species and the west side group reported 50 different kinds. In 1954 the numbers were 26 and 44 respectively.

Metropolitan park reservations are included in this annual bird count. However, since the areas to be searched are set to conform as closely as possible to the National Audubon Society standards of a 7¼ mile radius, it is impossible to include more of the park areas.

Under the auspices of the National Audubon Society, groups of enthusiastic bird watchers all over the country conduct similar counts during the week between Christmas and New Years. Competition runs high between the areas, such as the coast of Maine and southern Florida, where there are great concentrations of birds in the wintertime. Through this nation-wide study, a great amount of information is gained as to the wintering habits of birds.

According to The Emerald Necklace, newsletter of the Metropolitan Park Board, "bird watching has become recognized as the sport that it is. Sporting magazines and the sports section of Time magazine have carried stories about such events as the Christmas-Census.

The Metropolitan Parks with 14-

000 acres of varied topography and habitat make excellent places to study birds at all times of the year.

Did you know that the group of different birds coming to feed in our yards make up a flock.

Although it is true that all the birds become secretive during the nesting season, several species of woods-dwelling birds, the chickadee, titmouse, cardinal and nuthatch are a few; will form a wintertime flock and follow certain feeding routes in search of food. These birds are more noticeable during the winter, but if we watch carefully we'll see them in the spring and summer too since they are year-round residents of this area.

The friendliness of the chickadee is well-known. They will eat from your hand if you have the patience to build up their confidence in people.

The titmouse, however, is not quite so friendly to humans and his feathered crest is a good indication of his feelings. The perky crest is held close to his head when he is at ease and feeding casually. When he is ill at ease and disturbed the crest is carried erect.

Under normal conditions most of these birds consume mainly insect food. The titmouse can be most appreciated in the summer because it eats wasps and similar stinging insects that live in or near our homes.

Once a wintertime flock is formed it stays as a group throughout the winter not only seeking food together but staying in the flock during their sleeping hours.

These birds do not huddle together, but they will sleep in the same or adjacent trees. Very often a dense undergrowth will do, but usually the flock prefers the shelter of evergreens.

Mayor's Letter

In the rush of the holiday season, many of us were not able to fill out and return to Mayor Conelly the cards we received just before Christmas.

The cards should be filled out and may be placed in the mail box at the village hall or given to one of our police officers.

It would be appreciated if these cards could be returned as soon as possible.

The idea of a wintertime bird feeding census has appealed to several residents of the village.

Mrs. Don Ralston of Egbert rd is the first to offer her list of wintertime guests. Mrs. Ralston's list of thirteen different birds include the following: Hairy Woodpecker, Downy Woodpecker, Song Sparrow, Carolina Wren, Blue Jay, Junco, White-breasted Nuthatch, Chickadee, Golden Crowned Kinglet, Titmouse, Cardinal, Flicker, and Chipping Sparrow.

Others reporting having the same birds at their feeding stations were Mrs. Armin Wagner, Mrs. James Piwonka and Mrs. Robert Marquadt.

No doubt there are many other residents maintaining feeding stations for the birds who have seen these and other birds. If any bird watcher has seen any birds so far unlisted please call me so that the new birds may be added to the list.

The increased volume of business transacted at the village hall has made it necessary for village officials to hire a full-time office employee.

The duties of this employee would include maintaining village records, accepting payment of traffic fines, maintaining files and taking over clerical duties which are now performed by various village officials, according to Mayor L. S. Conelly.

A salary has not yet been set for the position. It will depend on the person's experience and background, Conelly said.

A resident of Walton Hills is preferred for the position. Others will be considered, however.

Applicants may call Mayor Conelly at BE 2-3245 or BE 2-2575 for an interview.

Two other positions are also open in the village, that of Director of Civil Defense which has been open for some time, and the position of Road Commissioner, which will become available in March when the resignation of Sterling Walton becomes effective.

Polio Vaccine For Adults

A polio protection program for adults, in Walton Hills would require the purchase of Salk vaccine, hypodermic needles and syringes.

The sponsoring organization for such a program would also have to furnish its own nurses, a place to store the vaccine until it is used and facilities for sterilizing equipment.

This information reported by the Women's Club Service Committee. So far, no organization within the community has announced plans for conducting a polio immunization program for adults.

The 1957 Mothers March on Polio in Walton Hills, held last Thursday night, was successful according to Dr. R. E. Flanigan, chairman. $320. was collected in the hour long march by the men and women volunteers of the Village. Dr. Flanigan wishes to thank the following persons who worked so hard to make the drive a success: Rose Sochacik, Carrie Vlach, Mrs. Nelson Grashaw; Alice Kibler, Kay Sourek, Stella Volpe, Mary Fike, Agnes Persin, Jessie Kaminsky, Collota Venaleel, Mrs. Bell, Jean Ellis, Mrs. Norman Pierce, Mrs. Horace Peck, Georgia Brogliotti, Irene Pallaise, Betty Richer, Bernice Stuart, Betty Frankish, Betty

Most people think of warm spring weather as the only time that birds nest. Owls are apparently the exception to this rule since they are, at present, in the middle of their nesting season.

Smaller local bird residents, such as the cardinal, sparrow and chickadee, however, have already begun staking out their nesting territories.

New migrant birds are coming into our area almost every day. These loose flocks include snow buntings, horned larks and pipits.

Horned larks are easily recognized by their habit of walking instead of hopping and by their swift, low flight from one weed patch to another.

Airports and golf greens come into their own so far as the horned lark is concerned. These birds prefer the huge open spaces provided by these sites where the grass is short and human traffic is light. Actually, most golf courses have more horned larks than members walking their fairways.

The song of the horned lark is a bubbly one especially while the birds are flying in a strong air current.

Besides their happy-go-lucky song which makes them welcome visitors the horned lark will be welcome because of his diet, which consists of almost nothing but weed seeds.

Prompted by the idea that Walton Hills is a "village of country living", a group of residents interested in horse-back riding, have formed the nucleus of a riding club in the village.

Riding, up to the present, has been done on village roads with the exception of the Metropolitan Park bridle path, and such riding presents a dangerous problem to both automobile and horse traffic.

The riding club will try to fill the need for riding enthusiasts to meet regularly in order to learn more about horses and riding; set up traffic safety measures, and provide a suitable, attractive and safe bridle path within the village with protection for residential property and riders alike.

A bridle path covering approximately twenty miles has been mapped out and is now under consideration. This path will encircle the village and connect with the Metropolitan Park path.

Officers of the new club are: President, Ray Brown; Vice-President, Peg Lindauer; Secretary, Lillian Kral; Ass't. Secretary, Bonnie Mathieson; treasurer, Marge Ankney; ass't. Treasurer, Joe Pekar.

Feeling strongly that prevention is the best method of fighting disease, several women residents of the village have initiated steps to provide polio inoculations for adults.

Walton Hills Council indicated its approval of the plan by giving permission to use the village hall if necessary.

Participation in the plan would include the following advantages: Transportation, if needed, a convenient time and place, plus the services of a doctor and necessary technicians.

A survey in the number of people interested in such plan must be taken before any definite arrangements can be made.

With this idea in mind, a volunteer telephone committee has been set up to take calls from all village residents. Members of this committee are: Mary Fike, BE 2-1570; Jean Etchell, BE 2-5933; Ellie Jones, BE 2-2567; Marge Cross, BE 2-1470; Georgia Brogliatti, BE 2-5950, and Frances Frey, BE 2-1352.

Walton Hills Council passed, last Tuesday night, an ordinance covering the employment of Albert Spoto and confirming his appointment by Mayor L. S. Conelly as the new part-time police deputy.

In response to requests from Chief Sterling Walton and Mayor Conelly, council is reviewing the salaries of the two full-time police officers.

Council directed village solicitor Richard Bell to draw up an ordinance covering pay increases, and additional benefits in the form of shortened hours, sick leave and a more complete insurance coverage.

The Police Department is, at present, covered by the Police Pension Fund.

Road Committee

Road Committee Chairman Tom Young presented to the council and Mayor, on Tuesday, the results and conclusions arrived at by the Road Committee after a four-hour inspection ride through the village on Sunday.

Mayor Conelly, in the absence of a Road Commissioner, will attend to the necessary details of bringing village roads back into shape in preparation for further work.

As a member of the village planning board, Councilman Joe Samson has been assigned to map out the necessary details in a plan for allotting proper house numbers within the village.

Pending further investigation into his qualifications, confirmation of the appointment of a resident suggested by Mayor Conelly to fill the clerical position in the village hall, was postponed by council at the March 5 meeting.

This part-time position requires a person familiar with typing, filing and general clerical duties.

Future Appointments

Mayor Conelly indicated at the last council meeting that he would welcome assistance from council members in recommending qualified residents to fill the vacancies of a full-time deputy, a Road Commissioner and a Civil Defense Director.

Issue Warning On Dogs

Walton Hills police this week issued the following statement on dogs running at large:

Stray dogs and dogs permitted to run at large are becoming a nuisance in our village.

Because of numerous complaints of village residents, it has become necessary to call on the County Animal Protective League to pick up stray dogs, and dogs, without licenses. Two children were bitten by stray dogs recently.

Walton Hills now has a dog ordinance which prohibits residents to permit their dogs to run at large. Violators are subject to arrest and a fine.

Dogs need a regular period of outdoor exercise, but the daily workout should be supervised by the owner unless the pet is confined to a fenced area. Otherwise, the dog may wander away from home and become a neighborhood nuisance upsetting garbage cans, barking at strangers, or digging in gardens.

Don't blame your neighbor for being irritated about dog damage to flowers and evergreens. Most dogs like to dig and they cannot be expected to recognize property boundaries. A dog permitted to prowl also is in danger of being poisoned. Your dog should always be "taken out" never "let out", for exercise.

The Walton Hills Police will certainly appreciate the cooperation of every dog owner in the village.

Walton Mothers Make Plans for Rummage Sale

The mothers group of the Walton Hills nursery school will present a combination rummage and bake sale sometime in May. The date will be announced soon.

Walton Hills Council Has Long Busy Meet

by Ruth Marquardt

During a long and busy session on Tuesday, April 2, the Walton Hills Council:

Confirmed: Mayor Connelly is appointment of Armin Wagner to the post of village Road Commissioner under Ordinance 1957 - 13. This is a one-year term beginning April 1, and carries a salary of $600 per year. Mr. Wagner has had previous experience as Road Commissioner, and is well-acquainted with proper road - building procedures.

Directed: Village solicitor Richard Bell to draw up an ordinance creating the position of part-time clerical help for the village. Before action is taken on this ordinance, Councilman Don Ralsten was requested to discuss with Dr. Gary Brazier of Western Reserve University the advantages available to communities in employing graduate students in part-time jobs. The students taking Dr. Brazier's courses already have one college degree and are continuing their work and experience in all forms of government work from the local level on up. Bedford, at present, employs one of these graduate students as Assistant City Manager.

Discussed: The advisability of creating a more forceful ordinance in the control of grass and rubbish fires in the village. This discussion occurred because of the bill presented by the Bedford Fire Department to cover the many man-hours required to put out grass fires occurring within the village a week or so ago.

CONFIRMED: Mayor Connelly's appointment of George Furst as third part-time deputy marshal under Ordinance 1957-14.

RESOLVED: To pay $100 entrance fee required for membership in the Reginal Planning Commission, as recommended by the village Planning Board.

APPROPRIATED: Money for the purpose of cutting an inside door and stairway from the police office to the cells downstairs. The cost of this remodeling will be approximately $180.00.

APPROPRIATED: $500.00 for the improvement of yard behind the village hall. This amount will cover the purchase of drainage pipe and filling in the hole at the rear of the hall.

DISCUSSED: The problem of supervised control on septic tanks maintenance within the village. "Too many of the existing septic tanks in the village have never been given proper maintenance, and not too many home owners and builders have the slightest idea of what proper maintenance is, nor the correct procedure of installing a septic tank system," said Joe Venaack. Mr. Venaack said he was speaking as a member of the village Planning Board and a public spirited citizen.

ISSUED: An invitation to all residents of the village to attend the next council meeting on Tuesday, April 16. Mr. Walter Michaels one of the owners and managers of the new racetrack at Sportsman's Park, will be the guest of council that night. In case you have been toying with the idea of starting some seeds in flats, the garden experts warn, don't start too soon!

Although we see our heavy clay soil all around us, we are apt to forget just how impossible it is to work with until just about the end of May.

Seedlings require adequate light and a period of hardening off, and if started in flats too early they become stringy and will collapse before they can be planted outdoors.

The time to start your seeds, will of course, depend on the type of soil you have in your garden. For example, if garden soil is loamy and easily worked early in the season, seeds could be started now, or within a week or two.

Seedlings need transplanting when they start showing their second true leaves, and such transplanted seedlings require a great deal more space than that required for starting seeds. As many as 40 or 50 seeds may be sown in a five-inch pot, but on transplanting, the seedlings will require 10 to 20 times that amount of space.

Stanley B. Elliott, one of the organizers of the proposed Walton Hills Garden Club said today that "returns have been coming in at a steady rate, indicating a general interest and enthusiasm in the proposed garden club. Until the majority of returns are in, however, no definite time or day of meeting will be arranged. It is expected that all the returns will be in and a time arranged within the next week or two."

As a part of what the Cleveland Plain Dealer called a "Quiet revolution" of volunteers who work for the numerous health and welfare drives in this area, the Service Committee and the Executive Board of the Walton Hills Womens Club urge all members to attend the next meeting on April 24.

At that time the Service Committee hopes to present to the membership a definite plan for conducting some form of a United Appeal in Walton Hills in 1957.

The phenomenal success of the recent Gates Mills National Charities Drive has made a united drive in some form, a more definite reality than was thought possible a year ago.

The guest speaker at the April 24 meeting will be village resident, Joe Pekar, who, with his family recently returned from a long stay in England.

Mr. Pekar will show colored slides taken during the many trips he and his family took through European countries. Among the countries represented in the thousand or more pictures taken by the Pekar's are the Scandinavian countries, Italy, England, France, Germany, Spain and Tangiers, Morocco.

The meeting is scheduled for 8 p.m. in the village hall on Wednesday, April 24.

Cooperative Nursery School

Many of us are right in the middle of spring house cleaning and are wondering what to do with "those" clothes the family has outgrown. Don't throw them away! Please save them for the Walton Hills Nursery school's Nearly New Sale.

You needn't be bothered with keeping these clothes around the house until the sale. Pick-up service is available by calling one of the following nursery school mothers: Bonnie Frankish, BE 2-2071, Betty Pearce, BE 2-5585, or Naomi Kelley, BE 2-5853.

The sale has been scheduled for Saturday, May 4 from 1 p.m. until 5 p.m. at the village hall.

Proceeds of the sale will be used toward the purchase of equipment and supplies for the nursery school.

Little League

A good turn-out of about 40 boys appeared at the Walton Hills village hall on Saturday, to register for the new Little League baseball season. Players are still needed, however, to fill out positions in the older age group from 13 to 16 years of age.

If the weather permits, the first practice session will be on Saturday, April 24. In case of bad weather, a players meeting will be held that day at the village hall.

Horse and Sports Club

Due to the bad weather during the week-end, the scheduled group ride, planned by Walton Hills Horse and Sports Club, was not held on Sunday. The ride will be held on Sunday, April 28, with the group leaving the village hall promptly at 2 p.m.

The ride will cover the Metropolitan Park, bridle paths and everyone interested in riding is invited to attend.

The next meeting of the riding club will be on Wednesday, May 1 at 8 p.m. in the village hall.

Club President Ray Brown hopes to show movies on riding and horses.

Red Cross Drive

The 1957 Red Cross drive in Walton Hills topped its 1956 quota. This was achieved by the wonderful effort made by the volunteer workers. The amount collected was $189.40.

Mrs. Ladd Carol, chairman and Mrs. Edward Grabowski, co-chairman, wish to thank all the ladies who contributed their time. They included Mrs. Charles Pike, Mrs. C. B. Engel, Mrs. Fran Brenner, Mrs. Hallaran, Mrs. A. Kuntz, Mrs. Romanik, Mrs. Peletka, Mrs. Quick, Mrs. Hunt, Mrs. Williab Brown, Mrs. William Frankish, Mrs. Tom Young, Mrs. Toth, Mrs. D. The first step toward a successful Combined Charities Drive in Walton Hills for the 1957-58 season was taken last Tuesday when the six-member executive committee met to discuss campaign plans.

Before definite plans can be made, however, the Women's Club is taking a survey to find out the wishes of residents in the village regarding a single charities drive.

The next issue of the Walton Hills Owl will have a card attached on which each resident may indicate his feelings about this single drive. These cards are already addressed all you have to do is make two check marks and mail back promptly.

Immediate reply is necessary since the success of the drive depends on your willingness to back, in every way, ONE drive combining many health and welfare agencies - or, face another season of a drive a month with constant requests to volunteer your services.

Upon receipt of the survey cards, the executive committee will notify all the health and welfare organizations of our intentions. These agencies will be invited to join our Combined Charities Drive.

Money collected during the drive will be sent to charities indicated by individual residents. It will not be divided among all the agencies on a percentage basis. For example: John Doe wishes to contribute $50 altogether. He tells the worker he wants to give $10 to Red Cross, $10 to Polio, $10 to Heart, $10 to Muscular Dystrophy, and $5 to Cerebral Palsy. His contribution will be recorded and the money distributed in just that way. Mr. Doe will have helped six deserving agencies in only ONE drive.

The success of the Combined Drive depends on the results of the survey—the survey depends on you. Please fill out and return your card promptly.

For more information on the drive you may call one of the following members of the Executive Committee: Mrs. Ted Hack, BE 2-3520; Mrs. Don Ralsten, BE 2-1608; Mrs. Jack Laing, BE 2-2686; Mrs. James Piwonka, BE 2-1845; Mrs. Armin Wagner, BE 2-1210; Mrs. Robert Marquardt, BE 2-0764.

lak and Ron won several prizes. Ron was entered in the freshmen class while Mr. Karlak entered in the open class.

Ron, who is nine, has been building model planes for about a year.

Ron is entered in the Junior Air Racers contest to be held on July 14.

Walton Horse Club Enjoys Slides at Wednesday Meet

The meeting of the Walton Hills Horse and Sports Club last Wednesday was both interesting and instructive, especially to members not having a great deal of experience with horses. Guest speaker, Laddie Anderhazy, at present riding instructor at Lake Erie College, presented slides illustrating points to look for in judging whether or not a horse has good breeding.

Mr. Anderhazy, who is a qualified judge of Arabian horses, is senior judge of the American Horse Show.

Club officers are currently working out methods for securing right-of-way for the proposed bridle paths.

It was announced at the Wednesday meeting that a regular group ride will be held on the second Sunday of each month. The ride will begin at 2 p.m. at the village hall. The next ride is scheduled for Sunday, May 12.

Walton Women's Club Plans Southgate Booth

5/9/57

Forty women of Walton Hills have volunteered to bake the short cakes for the Women's Club Strawberry shortcake booth at Southgate Fair. The Fair will be open, from 5 to 10 p.m., on Thursday, Friday and Saturday night, May 16, 17, and 18, in the front parking lot at Southgate.

The shortcake recipe, to be used, follows:

SHORT CAKE

- 4 c flour (ordinary)
- 8 t baking powder
- 2 t salt
- ½ c sugar
- 1 c shortening
- 1½ c milk

Sift dry ingredients, add shortening as for pie. Add milk all at once, working just enough to hold together. Spread on greased 12 x 15 cookie sheet. Bake at 450 degrees 12 to 15 minutes. When cold wrap in aluminum foil.

Clothing Sale Makes $30 For Nursery School Fund

The nursery school mothers realized a profit of about $30 from the nearly-new clothing sale held on Saturday, May 4. This money will be used to purchase equipment and supplies for the school.

On Wednesday, May 8, the Co-operative Nursery school organized a mother and child trip to Cleveland-Hopkins Airport. The children were the guests of United Airlines and were permitted to go through one of the United Airlines planes. The children were given small wings as a memento of their exciting visit.

The nursery school Mother's Group held their final meeting of the year on Wednesday, May 1. At this meeting members elected new officers and discussed plans for the party held at the close of school.

New officers of the group are: president, Louise Strachan; vice-president, Irene Pallise; secretary, Betty Bozell; treasurer, Eloise Franke; program chairman, Jane Spieth; refreshments, Irene Kohn; Supplies and equipment, Eleanor Telischak; publicity, Jean Hallaran.

Model Airplane Enthusiast Wins Prizes In Contest

Unless there is a model plane builder in our own family we're not likely to hear too much about model airplane aviation. Evidently it's a sport that appeals to youngsters and adults alike.

Proof of this are Michael Karlak and his son Ron Roharik, of Egbert Road. In the Spirit of St. Louis contest held last week at Central Armory in Cleveland, Mr. Kar-

The other meeting place is the entrance to the Metropolitan Park off Dunham Road near Tinkers Creek Road.

The meeting time is 7:30 a.m. and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smiley, who are the leaders of the Bedford bird walk cordially invite anyone interested in birds to attend these walks.

Women's Club Sees Colored Slides Taken In England

Advantage of opportunity plus interest were apparent in the beautiful and artistic color slides shown by a village resident Joe Pekar when he appeared as guest speaker at the meeting of the Walton Hills Women's Club on Wednesday, April 24.

From approximately 1400 transparencies, Joe picked those that would best typify the scenic beauty of the countries visited by the Pekars during their two-year stay in England.

Among the pictures selected by Joe were those taken of people and places in England, Germany, the Scandinavian countries, Italy, France, Switzerland, Holland, Spain, and Tangiers in Morocco.

Joe's camera technique is almost flawless and he was able to take many unusual and beautiful pictures of the scenic beauty of the countries as well as many of the historical sites we've read about.

While all of the pictures were beautiful, one of the most outstanding was that of a beggar in Tangiers. The arrangement of deep shadow and bright sunlight made the finished product a picture a professional photographer could be proud of.

Business Meeting

In the business meeting, Jean Hack reported that Grace Long has volunteered her services as chairman of the combined Story Hour and Bookmobile program for the coming summer. Although final details have not been worked out, some changes will be made in the program for this year. Since Mrs. Long enjoys working with young children and is at present employed as a teacher, it is anticipated that she will work out a pleasant and well-organized program for the children attending each session.

The most important business acted upon by the members attending the April 24th meeting was the almost unanimous vote to sponsor and work in a single campaign to replace the various medical and welfare solicitations.

A similar program has been sponsored by the Community Club of Gates Mills. At the end of their first drive, campaign leaders in Gates Mills reported that all agencies for which money was collected received a larger contribution than they had been able to collect in individual drives.

Although the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis refused to accept the money collected for it the total contribution for polio was almost 90 per cent more than had ever been given for that purpose. The Service Committee of the Women's Club has been given the re- of the campaign and signing up volunteers.

Jeffrey is 5

Because of the Easter Egg hunt, Jeffrey Taussig, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Taussig, celebrated his fifth birthday, on April 19 instead of April 20.

Four of Jeffrey's friends helped him make his first birthday party a memorable occasion. It was truly a boy's party since host and guests refused to wear the party hats provided, although they did manage to take time out for cake and ice cream.

A rousing good time was enjoyed by Tommy Mazzone, Ray Brenner, Brian Coleman, Bruce Strachan and, of course, Jeffrey.

Nursery School

The nursery school mothers remind us that the Nearly-New Clothing sale planned for Saturday, May 4, provides a wonderful opportunity for all village mothers to stock up on clothing needed during the summer. All types of clothing will be available from coats and jackets to shirts and shorts.

The prices too will be attractive to mothers - and fathers. Some socks will be sold for 5 cents a pair. T-shirts can be had for 25 cents and 50 cents and almost everything may be purchased for less than $1.00.

The sale starts at 1 p.m. and continues until 5 p.m. but it might be wise to be early because the best bargain won't be there long.

The Council meeting of Tuesday, May 7, was adjourned to Monday, May 13 because of necessary further discussion on a number of items of village business.

At the meeting on Tuesday, Council:

Discussed, the Krick Road extension and types of material to be used. No action was taken on this. Received, report from Mayor L. S. Conelly on the number and total amount of building permits issued by Building Inspector Dale Keller. Mayor Conelly stated, "that in my opinion there will be more building activity in 1957 than before."

Received and read recommendations, made by the Council Police Insurance Committee headed by Councilman Jack Laing, on the insurance policies best suited for the village police department.

Discussed, various points of the road treatment program with Road Commissioner Wagner stated that although the road building program is somewhat behind schedule, one or two week-ends of fine weather would enable road workers to catch-up. It is still the plan of the village to rent road equipment from the county.

In discussing the dedication of Hicks Road, Mayor Conelly said that residents of Hicks Road were at present working on a plat to be presented to the Council. It was decided that Hicks Road would be treated as any other village road in road maintenance but that it would not be hard-surfaced until its dedication.

Discussed favorably a report from the Executive Committee of the Combined Charities Drive. Individually the councilmen agreed that one drive combining the collection activities of several organizations would be preferred over the previous method of participating in one drive almost every month.

Discussed tentative provisions of an ordinance providing for periodic inspection by the Council is required, action on this ordinance was delayed until the next Council meeting on Tuesday, May 21. All village residents are cordially invited by Council to attend the public discussion of this ordinance before adoption by Council.

Women's Club

The next regular meeting of the Women's Club will be on Wednesday, May 22 at 8 p.m. in the village hall. All voting members of the club are urged to attend as the officers for next season will be elected at this time. Because of the probable length of the business meeting, no guest speaker has been scheduled for this meeting.

Southgate Fair

Today is the first day in the three-day fair held at the Southgate

Shopping Center. The Women's Club and the Walton Hills Estates Club are, as you know, sharing a booth. The speciality of the booth will be strawberry shortcake. Volunteers scheduled to make shortcakes for today (Thursday) are asked to have their cakes at the village hall at 4 p.m. sharp. The fair opens at 5 p.m. and continues until 10 p.m. Proceeds will be divided between the two participating clubs

Combined Charities Drive

Remember to fill in and mail the survey card delivered to you with the last issue of the Walton Hills Owl.

Residents of Walton Hills must make up their minds now whether they want a single combined welfare drive or be irritated with calls to "volunteer" for every drive that comes along during the fall and winter.

In the combined drive, each contributor can name the agencies to which his contribution should go. In similar drives all over the country, all health and welfare agencies participating in the drive realized larger contributions than they had received from single individual drives.

The survey cards on the Combined Charities Drive were sent out in order to determine the percentage of residents in favor of such a drive.

The cards must be filled out and returned before the Executive Committee can write to the various health and welfare organizations, and say, "this is the manner in which residents wish to contribute to your organization." Your written opinion as indicated on the survey cards is important. Verbal approval is not enough.

The majority of the survey cards already returned to the Executive Committee have been strongly in favor of one combined health and welfare drive.

The Walton Hills Men's Club has indicated its approval of the combined drive by advancing $25 to help cover expenses. Further evidence of their approval was the offer by Men's Club members to work in the single collection drive in the industrial area.

The first national organization to indicate its desire to participate in the proposed Combined Charities Drive is the Cerebral Palsy Association.

Members of the Executive Committee will be glad to talk with you on any phase of the Combined Drive. At the Walton Hills Village Council meeting on Tuesday, May 21, Council: RECEIVED the customary progress report on the Walton Hills Cooperative Nursery School from Mrs. Ted Hack, teacher and chairman of the nursery school project.

DISCUSSED and approved the appropriations bill for current expenses and other expenditures for the year ending Dec. 31, 1957.

DISCUSSED and passed under suspension of the rules Ordinance 1957-16 Providing for the inspection, and cleaning, maintenance, repairing and replacement of septic tanks within the village.

Council will designate a qualified firm to make these inspections and the cost will be paid by the village. It will be the responsibility of owners and renters to make available and expose the top of the septic tanks so inspection can be made.

If they prefer, owners and renters may, at their own expense, hire their own inspectors.

The findings and recommendations of the inspectors will be reported in writing to the Inspector of Buildings who may then order the owner or occupier of the property to do whatever is necessary to cause the septic tank to operate at proper efficiency.

Violators of the terms of this ordinance may be fined not more than $500.00.

Pre-Season Warm Up Is Set By Walton Hills Men's Club

While the baseball season is in full swing in the major leagues throughout the country, the major league teams in the Little League are more than anxious for their own season to open.

The Walton Hills Men's Club is sponsoring a pre-season warm-up in the form of a father and son buffet-style dinner on Monday, June 3, at Dranek's Astorhurst.

The supper is scheduled for 6 p.m. In addition to the dinner, a G.E. 17" portable television set, the $50 savings bond and the $25 savings bond, will be given away. The Program Committee hopes to have a member of the Cleveland Indians as guest speaker.

It's not often that fans of baseball teams are able to meet the members of the teams face-to-face but the father-son party will provide that opportunity.

The cost of the dinner is $2 for fathers with no charge for the boys.

The Men's Club cordially invites all men and boys of the village to attend this Pre-Season get-acquainted party.

Tickets for the G. E. Portable Television Set, the $50 savings bond and the $25 savings bond, are still available from the following members of the Men's Club: Jack Laing, BE 2-2686, John Ignaut, BE 2-3937, Walter Ford, BE 2-5526, Ted Hack, BE 2-3520, Al Francis, BE 2-6736, Nelson Grashaw, BE 2-3559, Joe Samson, BE 2-3179, Tony Struna, BE 2-5542.

John Liptaks Lose Use of Back Door as Robins Build Nest There

The John Liptaks of 126 Conelly Blvd. had a surprise waiting for them on their return from a vacation in Florida. During their absence, a family of robins decided that the ledge just above the Liptak's back door was a very safe place in which to build a nest. The only difficulty so far as the Liptaks are concerned is the loss of the use of the back door! Since the ledge is fairly low, and the nest easy to see, Mrs. Liptak cordially invites village children to come and visit at her back door.

Robins aren't the only ones doing ridiculous things, however. This seems to be the silly season for fish too, according to Frank Zgrabik of Dunham Road. On his way to work on Monday Frank almost ran over something on Tinker's Creek Road. Upon investigation it proved to be a fish weighing about a pound and a half. Mrs. Zgrabik is the only one who knows whether or not it made good eating—Frank doesn't eat fish.

The Russell Jones' of Hicks Road were among the early winners of a prize in the current Sohio license plate contest. Their prize was an $18 baseball glove. Ellie thinks they'll keep it for picnics and visitors children.

Last Meeting of Season Draws Large Attendance by Club

A majority of members attended the last regular meeting of the Walton Hills Women's Club for the current season on Wednesday, May 22 in the village hall.

Grace Long, who is the new Chairman of the story hour and bookmobile project, reported on the proposed program for the coming summer. Due to the lack of space in the hall, no movies will be shown this year, but a story teller will be available each Thursday.

It is anticipated that the program will start during the latter part of June and will continue for nine weeks, ending on August 22. Volunteers are needed for this project. Please call Grace at BE 2-1742 if you are interested in helping.

A report from the Service Committee on the Combined Charities Drive survey indicated that from the 380 survey cards sent to village residents only 91 cards have been returned. However, 86 of these cards indicate a strong desire for and a willingness to work in one combined charities drive.

Some method of collecting the remaining cards will be worked out in order that the largest number of residents will be represented in the final result.

Two months remain in which registered voters of Walton Hills interested in running for offices of mayor, councilman, clerk and treasurer may obtain the necessary twenty-five signatures on petitions for these offices. The filing date is August 7, 1957.

Voters in the Bedford school district will elect three new members to the five-member board. Each member of the school board is elected for a four-year term. Seventy-two signatures are required on petitions filed by persons interested in running for the school board. There is no salary connected with this position.

Information received from the County Board of Elections indicates that no petitions have been taken out for any of the above mentioned positions, nor have any been filed.

Nursery School

The Walton Hills Cooperative Nursery School enjoyed its annual picnic-lunch ending the school year on Friday, May 31, at Walton Park.

Friends and former members of the school, now in kindergarten, also attended the picnic to help in giving the new crop of five year olds a warm send-off to kindergarten.

There were no formal games planned, but because of the lovely weather, all the children enjoyed themselves playing in the sand, and on the swings, and just scrambling around the park.

Ten nursery school children, wearing their fathers' white shirts backwards and looking angelic, were presented with crowns in honor of being five and becoming eligible for regular kindergarten in September.

Looking forward eagerly to September are, Bobbie Frankish, Tim Smith, Ray Brenner, Patty Kohn, Connie Laing, Arthur Franke, Barbara Bykiwicz, Janie Pearce, Sue Anne Kelley and Cathy Krol.

On Wednesday, these ten children were taken by Mrs. Ted Hack, Director of the Nursery School, to visit the Glendale School kindergarten and to meet Mrs. Lillian Friedman who teaches kindergarten at Glendale.

The Walton Hills Cooperative Nursery enjoys a high rating on the "recommended" list of the Nursery School Association.

Enrollment at the Walton Hills nursery school is limited to twenty-five children who are guided by teachers well-qualified to work with young children.

For more information on the nursery school please call Mrs. Ted Hack at BE 2-3520.

Story Hour

Grace Long, Chairman of the story hour and bookmobile project of the Women's Club, announced today that Thursday will again be Story Hour Day in Walton Hills.

The bookmobile, provided by the County Library, will be here each Thursday beginning today except in months having five weeks. The bookmobile will not be out on the fifth Thursday.

The bookmobile will be at the village hall from 9:30 a.m. until 10:45 a.m.

The regular story hour program will start on Thursday, June 20 and will have the same hours as the bookmobile — 9:30 to 10:45 a.m., and will continue through Thursday, August 22.

All village children up to and including third grade are cordially invited to attend the story hour sessions and participate in the Reading Contest.

Due to the lack of space in the village hall, children attending the story hour will be divided into only two groups and no movies will be shown.

Many more volunteers are still needed and Mrs. Long is especially interested in hearing from junior and senior high school girls who may be interested in helping out.

For more information or to volunteer your services, please call Mrs. Long at BE 2-1742.

Combined Charities Drive

The recent publicity in the Cleveland newspapers indicates that the "Combined Charities Drive" idea has snowballed and captured the imagination of women in almost every locality.

Some of these communities are farther along in their programs than Walton Hills, but this is not because of lack of enthusiasm for this project on the part of women residents of the village.

Survey cards continue to come in showing unswerving enthusiasm for this plan to take the place of previous month-to-month collections.

In cases where no survey cards have been returned executive committee members are telephoning to get residents' opinions in order that a true survey can be made.

At the Walton Hills Council meeting on Tuesday, June 4, Council Discussed: installation of water line extension on Northfield Road in order to make water available to Northfield Park. A council committee will meet with representatives of Cleveland, and Mr. Walter Michaels and his attorneys in an effort to work out a satisfactory solution.

During the forty-four day racing season, Northfield Park will require approximately 10,000 gallons of water per day, thus making wells impractical, said Mr. Michaels.

Resolved: to request the Illuminating Co. to make a survey of lighting needs in the Krick Road area. Police Chief Sterling Walton, after making a preliminary survey of Krick Road, recommended that no fewer than four street lights be installed. Councilman Don Ralsten requested the Illuminating Co. survey be made since "it would be better to have too many lights than an inadequate system".

Chief Reports

Received: Report from Police Chief Walton that the state has granted Walton Hills permission to add six seconds to the green light facing Krick Road. This will help in clearing traffic from this street during the rush-hour, said Walton.

Received: report that the new mutual aid fire protection contract has been agreed on by the Bedford council and copies will soon be sent to participating communities.

Discussed: set-back restrictions for property owners within the village, Joe Venaleck, who is a member of the village zoning board, stated there were several property owners on Alexander road who might be considered violators of existing set-back restrictions. Venaleck was referring not to residence set-back, but to pieces of equipment placed in front yards and left there for long periods of time.

Rubbish Collection

Renewed: the village rubbish collection contract for the three-month period beginning in June and ending in August.

Allocated: $1,000 to cover the cost of oiling village roads as requested by Roads Commissioner Armin Wagner. Commissioner Wagner said this oiling job could be considered an important part of the road improvement program now in progress.

Men's Club Sponsors Party For Walton Little Leaguers

The buffet supper, presented by the Walton Hills Men's Club on Monday, June 3, provided a pre-season get-acquainted party for the Little League team members and their fans and was a great success from every standpoint.

Wally Scott, Recreation Director of Bedford, was the guest speaker. In his talk, Scott emphasized the important part recreation has in helping to build boy's character, and that almost every boy is helped by learning to work with "the team."

Team Manager Jack Laing introduced the managers and players of the various teams, and gave a brief talk on Little League baseball in which he stressed the importance of moral support for all the teams.

A high spot of the evening was the drawing for the GE portable television set, one $50.00 savings bond and one $25.00 savings bond. Received: report from the council committee on Police Department insurance. The committee, headed by Councilman Jack Laing, recommended that full salary be paid to patrolmen up to the time the insurance takes effect which is the eighth day of illness and the first day of disability. A motion made by Councilman Wayne Wagstaff to accept the committee recommendations was seconded by Councilman Don Martin and passed by council.

Discussed: with Police Chief Sterling Walton and Patrolman Don Benjamin the advisability of arranging the police schedule in order that members of the police department may have the opportunity of attending metropolitan police school classes in addition to practicing on a firing range.

Chief Walton in discussing police schools and target practice said he agreed that village policemen should attend various police schools and have an opportunity to visit firing ranges. However, he said, since the police department is short-handed, he can't release men for further training. Councilman Martin suggested changing the duty schedule around in order to make men available for this training.

Interest in November Election Seems to be Negligible

As of Friday, June 20, no petitions had been taken out by persons interested in running for office in November. Filing date of all petitions for the village is August 7.

Two village officials are definitely not seeking reelection in November. They are Mayor L. S. Conelly and Councilman Don Martin.

Mayor Conelly's reasons, for the most part, were personal ones, while Councilman Martin said business commitments would prevent him seeking re-election.

Beautiful Horses and Expert Riders Feature Horse Show

Members of the Walton Hills Horse and Sports Club who attend ed the Northfield Second Annual Horse show on Sunday, June 23 were treated to several hours of watching beautiful horses and expert riders in action.

Participants in the show came from various sections of Ohio to perform in the final event celebrating the Northfield Sesquicentennial.

The horse show was sponsored by the Northfield-Macedonia Athletic Boosters Club for the purpose of paying for bleacher seats at the high school playing field.

The Athletic Boosters Club was organized for the purpose of raising funds for the improvement of the school system.

Members of the Boosters obviously encourage young people to participate in healthy recreation and are enthusiastic over giving these youngsters the opportunity of showing what extensive training and control can achieve.

This was apparent in the excellence displayed by all the horses and riders in the horse show.

A demonstration of expert riding was given during intermission by Marilyn Brown, daughter of the Ray Brown's of Walton Road. Mr. Brown was General Manager of the show.

The difficult job of judging all classes were handled by village resident Howard Carey.

The next meeting of the Walton Hills Horse and Sports Club will be on Wednesday, July 3 at 8 p.m. in the village hall.

Village residents are aware that results of the recent survey indicated an overwhelming majority in favor of one Combined Charities Drive to replace the outmoded type of one collection a month.

There are one or two things we must not forget. First, in replacing the old method of collecting and giving, we have not replaced our moral obligation to help others less fortunate than ourselves.

In recent welfare drives, most of us gave only token donations. There were and are many good reasons for these donations. However, even a token donation can be a burden when you want to give equally to five or six organizations at one time. Budgets and pay days very often are unable to carry that kind of traffic.

Therefore, by the end of June, every family in Walton Hills will have received a small bank labeled "To Help YouHelp Others". These banks were donated by The Standard Oil Company of Ohio.

It is often easier, for most of us, to save a little at a time than to give a lot all at once. The Combined Charities Drive Committee suggests that a painless way of saving would be to tuck a little bit of money into your bank each week then when October 1 arrives your job will already have been accomplished.

For instance, if you choose to put $2 a week aside beginning the first week in July, you will have $26. to divide between the welfare agencies you want to help.

This is an effortless way of fulfilling the obligation we have to help these worthy causes.

We wanted to give just once. In October the contents of your bank will make our drive a success!

sored by the Northfield-Macedonia Athletic Booster Club.

Proceeds of the show, which is scheduled on Sunday, June 23, will be used for school athletic facilities

The show will be held, rain or shine, at the Northfield-Macedonia Leonard Ave. near old Rt. 8 and Rt. 82. Seventeen classes will be featured with trophies, ribbons, and cash prizes.

Two well-known Walton Hills residents have important positions in the horse show. Ray Brown, President of the Walton Hills Horse and Sports Club is manager of the show while Howard Carey of Dunham road will act as judge.

Mayor Comments On Children's Mental Hospital

"Although Walton Hills has not, as yet, been approached as a possible location for the proposed children's mental hospital. I personally do not feel there would be any objection to having such a hospital within the village providing it was located on the west side of the railroad tracks."

Mayor L. S. Conelly in his statement was referring to the story carried in the Cleveland Press a week ago that representatives of Sagamore Hills Citizen's Survey Committee were protesting the location of the children's mental hospital because of existing new homes on both sides of the site.

Mayor Conelly went on to say that "a hospital such as this for children is certainly needed in order to remove these young mental patients from other over-crowded mental hospitals for adults."

Walton Hills Story Hour

The reading contest will be open to all children through sixth grade. Prizes will be awarded to those children reading ten books as well as those reading the most books during the summer.

Co-chairmen Duncan White and Al Shaffer, of the Walton Hills Learn-to-Swim program are happy to announce that enrollment in swimming classes has jumped from 76 to 107 youngsters within the past few weeks.

Parents, who have been hoping their children would "take to the water," have been amazed at the progress made by individual children. Some youngsters have been passed into the third and fourth phases of the program after attending only three or four sessions.

Children who have attended the sessions from the beginning are, of course, making the greatest progress. Because a certain routine and much practice is important in learning to swim, Co-Chairmen White and Shaffer urge that children interested in attending these classes enroll as soon as possible.

Plans are being made to present a swimming program on Labor Day in order to demonstrate to parents and interested friends and neighbors what has been accomplished in the Learn-to-Swim program this summer.

Members of Slub Explore, on Foot, Proposed Bridle Path

On Wednesday evening, July 10, a small group of members of the Horse and Sports Club explored on foot a part of the proposed bridle path within the village. Future riders over this trail will want to show their appreciation since the exploring proved to be "heavy going" in spots. Members of the exploring party, including the single horse, were happy to get back home to recuperate.

Work progress on the path will be reported from time to time.

The riding club's group ride and wiener roast, postponed twice because of bad weather, was finally held on Sunday, July 14th, in the afternoon.

The riders report they had a lot of fun and they were more than ready for the hot dogs and coffee after their ride.

The club plans to have more group rides in the future and hopes that everyone in the village interested in riding will plan to join members in these affairs.

Village Secretary

Building Inspector Dale Keller has stated definitely that he is unable to take on the duties of village secretary at this time. According to Mayor L. S. Conelly, council is considering changing the job from a part-time to a full-time position.

The horses will be ridden by Marilyn Brown and Ronnie Davis of Chardon and the exhibition will feature points on how to ride and the points on which to judge a good horse.

Combined Charities Drive

The Summer Savings for Fall Giving banks have all been delivered and this is probably the best time for individual families to decide on their goal for October 1.

If, in the past, only token contributions were made because of a large amount given at work, please remember there will be only one drive, October 1 to October 15.

Even token contributions of $2 can be a burden when amounting to $12 to be distributed between six different welfare agencies, if desired.

Plan now on the amount you will be glad to give in October, and start saving itnow.

Letters have been received from both the American Red Cross and the local headquarters of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis in answer to our invitation to join in our Combined Charities Drive.

Stating that the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has a firm policy against any of its chapters entering a combined drive of any description, the Cuyahoga County March of Dimes has declined to join in the Walton Hills Drive.

The Red Cross, on the other hand indicated its approval of such a drive by accepting our invitation and offered to cooperate in every way.

It is to be expected that every participating agency will have a certain goal for our community. The success of our Combined Charities Drive in October will be a matter of village pride if, by planning and saving now, we prove that one drive can meet the needs of agencies and contributors.

Learn - To - Swim Program

The Learn - To - Swim program sponsored by the Walton Hills Estates Club for members, completed its second week with an enrollment of 97 village children from four to sixteen years of age.

Twenty-four mothers and fathers volunteered their services as instructors in the program under the well-qualified co-chairmanship of Duncan White of Dunham Road and Al Shaffer of Alexander rd. Mr. White gained much of his 'know how' during fourteen years participation in learn-to-swim programs.

As there are six phases or classes in the program, each child enrolled is screened before being placed in his proper class. Life-guard Linda Baughman is the instructor in the intermediate and life saving classes.

Classes will be held on Tuesdays and Thursdays except when the temperature drops below 75 de. In that case, classes will be held on the following day, weather permitting.

Following the County Library's plan for summer reading, Chairman Grace Long, announced the reading contest with a Western tang The Summer Reading Round-Up.

This contest is open to all village youngsters having completed the fourth grade last year. They may win their own brands for reading ten or more books in the following categories: Adventure, travel, sport biography, pioneer, animal, folk lore, craft, for fun and free choice.

The reading contest, for children up to and including those having completed 3rd grade last year, has been named Circus Parade and they may read ten or more books of their choice.

Oral book reports will not be given during story hour time this year. Instead, mothers of children enrolled in the reading contest will sign a slip giving the child's name and the name of the book he has read. The children will take these slips to the story hour and receive credit for having read that book.

The story hour program ends on Thursday, August 22 with a movie at this party to those children having read ten or more books during the summer.

Women's Club

Seventy members of the Women's Club attended the installation dinner held on June 26 at Pasano's in honor of the newly elected officers.

Former president, Irene Rizer, presided as installing officer and spoke briefly about the duties of each office and expressed confidence that the new officers would continue the excellent work performed by out-going officers of the club.

In accepting the gavel, new president, Mary Piwonka, thanked the membership for placing confidence in her and said she hoped all the meetings next year would be as well attended as the dinner.

Other new officers installed at the dinner were: Vice President, Mildred Grashew, and treasurer, Kathryn Rockwood. Secretary, Georgia Brogliatti is vacationing in California.

In keeping with the program of pot-luck luncheon's carried on during the winter months, the Womens Club will hold its first summer luncheon on Wednesday, July 17 at 12 o'clock noon at Walton Park.

In addition to the regular accessories such as children, table service and covered dish, be sure to wear your bathing suit.

Although this will not be a formal meeting, there will be an informal discussion of next season's program.

Village women who are not as yet members of the club are cordially invited to attend the luncheon and become better acquainted with members and President Mary Piwonka urges current members to bring a friend.

Groups Show Interest in Combined Charities Drive

by Ruth Marquardt

To date, four organizations have indicated interest in joining with us in our October Combined Charities Drive. These agencies are the Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation, Cerebral Palsy, Nephrosis and the American Red Cross.

The Red Cross drive in Walton Hills has always been successful, with residents consistently over-subscribing the campaign goal. For example, in the last campaign, the goal for Walton Hills was $585, residents raised $789.

For many of us, our donations were given willingly, but without thought of just what our contributions could and would do to help someone less fortunate.

Through a network of over 3700 chapters, every section of the United States is covered by the services of the Red Cross. Walton Hills is in the area served by the Greater Cleveland Red Cross, where year-round activities are carried on to protect the health, safety and welfare of all Cuyahoga Citizens.

Red Cross Services

Many of us are unaware of the Red Cross services which are designed to help in our daily living, and other services available to all of us during personal emergencies.

The service programs of the Red Cross are presented under the following ten headings: Services to the Armed Forces and their families; Services to Veterans and their families; Disaster Services; Blood Services; Nursing Services; First Aid Services; Water Safety Services; Community Services; International Services and Junior Red Cross Services.

Services to the Armed Forces and Veterans and their families include skilled counselling in time of trouble, financial assistance, help with applications for government benefits, and rapid communication and information in emergencies both at home and overseas.

Red Cross Chapters maintain foreign inquiry services which were used extensively by Hungarian people in the Cleveland area during the Hungarian revolt. At present, the Home Service staff is answering questions about the current polio epidemic in Hungary and the means by which Salk vaccine may be sent there by individual Clevelanders.

Bloodmobile

Blood is one of the best medicines in the world, and its only source is - people! Many Walton Hills residents have been donating blood when the Red Cross Bloodmobile visits Bedford or their places of employment. The Red Cross Bank certificate entitles donors to credit in the Blood Bank for one year. This certificate is good anywhere in the country where there is a Red Cross Blood Program.

Although wide-spread disasters are not frequent in the Greater Cleveland area, home fires are. Last year, 871 Greater Clevelanders were assisted by the Red Cross in 118 home fires.

The educational services of the Red Cross, available free to groups anywhere in the County, are concerned with teaching safety rules, and how to help properly in accidents or illness. Invaluable for mothers are the Home Nursing courses dealing with Home Care of the Sick and Mother and Baby Care. A Red Cross instructor will be sent to any group of 20 or more desiring to take these courses.

Water Safety

In the years since 1913, when Red Cross began its water safety program, the annual drowning rate has been cut more than half. In the same period nearly 13,000,000 certificates were issued to young people and adults completing one or more of the water safety courses. Last year nearly 1,350,000 certificates were awarded.

This summer, about 100 Walton Hills children are enrolled in a Red Cross Learn-to-Swim program, under the Co-Chairmanship of Duncan White and Al Shaffer. Mothers and fathers, recruited by Mrs. Garen Kelley, are assisting with the program.

The most important fact to remember concerning all the Red Cross services is that none of them would be available without people, whether through financial contributions or personal time.

Don't forget that small weekly addition to your Summer Savings Bank. A little saved now will help in October.

Cub Scouts

The Walton Hills Cub Scouts travelled on Saturday, August 24, to Dearborn, Michigan, to visit the Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village. Thirty-seven youngsters and 10 adults made the trip in a chartered Greyhound bus. Ray Kaminski and Myron Warnke led the group, assisted by enough additional grown-up help to ensure safe passage for the boys through 14 acres of exhibits in the museum and 200 acres of historic buildings in the village. In spite of the day-long rain the young scouts enjoyed themselves as only youngsters between 8 and 11 years of age can. Of all the exhibits, which ranged from crude plows to one of the largest locomotives ever built, the section devoted to the evolution of the automobile held the most interest for the youngsters. Our travelling correspondent reported that the trip was highly successful, with the youngsters happy and loaded with souvenirs at the end of the day, and the adults more than ready to sit down and doze for the four-hour trip home.

Kindergarten

Mothers of children attending kindergarten this year are reminded to pin name and address tags on their children's shirts and dresses. The tags come in handy at school and are of great help to the bus drivers on the long bus ride home when young children are tired and confused.

Voters will have the opportunity of expressing their approval by writing his name in the blank space on the official ballot in the section devoted to council candidates.

Hicks Road Will Be Dedicated

Preceding the regular Walton Hills Council meeting on Tuesday Sept. 17, residents of Hicks road appeared at the village hall to sign the plat necessary for dedication of their street. One or two signatures are lacking but these will be obtained within a few days. The road crew has already started work on Hicks Road.

During the regular meeting council:

Discussed: New problems that have come up on the Krick Road water situation.

Appointed: Councilman Don Ralsten to inquire into and obtain information on the Cuyahoga County water supply for future action by the village. Councilman Joe Samson reported that several residents in Valley View are without water.

Passed: Ordinance 1957 - 29 accepting the new Fire Fighting Contract. This pledges mutual aid among Bedford, Bedford Heights Oakwood and Walton Hills.

Discussed: Possible construction of a service garage for housing the village truck, snow plow and other equipment, and placement of a service yard where supplies of cinders and slag could be maintained. No decision was reached as council was split on whether or not a garage is needed and, if necessary, where to build it.

Discussed: Placing a guard rail around the outdoor stairway to protect youngsters playing in that area.

health and welfare drives in the Northern Ohio area.

During the past few weeks information has been given on the work performed by the various agencies participating in our combined drive. It is evident from this information that although a small percentage of our contribution is sent to the national headquarters offices to be spent for education and research, the larger portion of our donation stays here in Greater Cleveland and has been used, in a great many cases, to help people in Walton Hills.

Organizations

Seven organizations have been asked to participate in our Combined Drive: They are Red Cross, Cancer, Community Chest, Arthritis, Nephrosis, Cerebral Palsy and Heart.

Many residents have been concerned about contributions made at work. The Executive Committee offers three suggestions. One, if in the past only token donations have been made at home, please make the same donations this year. Two, during the Combined Drive, give to agencies not included at your place of business and three, split your donation equally between work and home. Receipts will be given for all contributions to the Combined drive.

Realizing that it is not possible to answer all questions concerning participating agencies in the publicity that has been given the Combined Charities Drive, the Executive Committee suggest that anyone having a specific question can relay it to the team captains serving their area.

Team captains will have an opportunity to present these questions at the kick-off dinner when Chapter representatives will be present. The answers will then be given to the individuals through the workers assigned to them.

Captains

Following are the name of area captains and streets assigned to them. Helen Laing, BE 2-2686;

None of the funds collected in the Charities Drive will be used for services or supplies. Services have been provided by members of the Women's Club, Men's Club and the Estates Club. Supplies have been purchased out of funds provided by the Women's Club and Men's Club. The Estates Club donated space for publicity in the Owl and printed all filing cards.

Residents of other communities as well as the health and welfare organizations will be watching our village during this drive. Help to make this a successful First Combined Charities Drive.

Up In ^{10/10/57} Walton Hills

with Ruth Marquardt

At the regular Walton Hills Council meeting on Tuesday, Oct. 1, council:

RECEIVED: Letter from the Conelly Realty Co. requesting inspection of Meadowpark, Spanghurst and Woodlake Drives for the purpose of dedication. The Council Road Committee inspected these roads on Saturday and Sunday.

DISCUSSED: Current road program. Although the cost of the program is about $6,000 over original estimate, it was generally agreed that the road job is being well done under the direction of Road Commissioner Armin Wagner.

A delegation of residents from Hicks Road attended the council meeting to request some method of slag dust control. As this dust is caused by an excess of slag there is nothing that can be done to relieve this situation.

DISCUSSED: Mayor Conelly's request for a committee from council to meet with the Northfield Council to discuss a possible division of revenue from Northfield Park. The Mayor appointed Councilmen Ralsten, Laing and Martin.

DISCUSSED: Need for speed regulations on inner roads of the village. A village ordinance requires 25 m.-h. on side roads, and 35 m.p.h. on state and county roads.

Council passed a resolution, introduced by Councilman Tom Young, authorizing Police Chief Sterling Walton to purchase 25 m.p.h. signs and posts. Chief Walton estimated that 15 or 18 signs will be required.

DENIED: Request made by the Wunderlich Plating Co. for a 3" water line, in addition to the 1" line already there. Council denied request on grounds that water is available from Bedford's system and Council must consider needs of the village first.

ACCEPTED: Councilman Don Ralsten's suggestion that council use the septic tank regulations as printed in county bulletins as the basis for a village ordinance regulating the cleaning and maintenance of septic tanks within the village.

RECEIVED: Report from Councilman Ralsten on the availability of water in the village. In a report from the Ohio Division of Water, which is a part of the Ohio Department of Natural Resources it was suggested that when this area is fully developed, there may be some shortages, especially in shale areas. There is no immediate danger of any shortage with one-acre lots.

Council, following Councilman Ralsten's suggestion, will arrange a meeting with an engineering firm for a preliminary survey on the cost of, and size of pipe to be used in bringing city water into the village.

William Lindauer Will Run As Write-In Candidate

Another village resident announced today that he will be a Write-In candidate for council in the November election.

The newest candidate is William P. Lindauer of Dellwood Drive, where he and his wife Peg have lived since 1950. Four boys complete the family along with Patches, Peg's horse and assorted dogs and cats.

Bill is employed at the Stalwart Rubber Co. as Production Manager.

Riding Club Sees Films On Horse Training Technique

A highlight of the October 2 meeting of the Walton Hills village riding club was the showing of films on Dressage. Horses owned by Arthur Godfrey demonstrated the specialized technique used in training horses.

Films were also shown on the trick riding and high degree of training of circus horses.

Eleven members participated in the group ride held on Sunday, Oct. 6. The riders covered all the cleared bridle paths within the village.

Sunday, October 13, will be a work day for members of the club when they meet at 10 a.m. armed with hammers, lumber and nails for a bridge building project. Women members will be on hand to supply coffee for the necessary break.

Sunday, October 27 is the date of another group ride, weiner roast and games on horseback. Further details on time and place will be announced later.

"Come as You Are" Coffee Party Set by Nursery Mothers

The Walton Hills Cooperative nursery school mothers held a "Come as You Are" coffee party on Wednesday, Oct. 2 at the home of President Louise Strachan on Orchard Hill Dr.

Twenty-seven former and present nursery school mothers attended to enjoy coffee and conversation.

The nursery school mothers have planned a coffee hour from 10 to 11 a.m. on Wednesday, October 16 at the village hall for nursery school mothers and guests.

Mrs. Ted Hack and Mrs. Denver Smith, teachers at the school, will report on seminars attended during the past several weeks.

Subjects covered by the seminars include, Literature, art, music and discipline of the pre-school child.

Combined Charities Drive To End on October 15

Please make an effort to have your contributions to the Combined Charities Drive ready for your worker to pick up before October 15 as the drive ends on that day.

There are no campaign expenses to be deducted from contributions as all necessary expenses have been taken care of by the Walton Hills Women's Club, the Men's Club and the Walton Hills Estates Club.

Although you may have contributed to some of the participating agencies last winter and spring, the money collected in the Combined Drive will be used in 1958. There will be no other drive in the village for one year.

Thanks Firemen

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chvatal of Dunham road wish to express their thanks to members of the Bedford Fire department for their promptness in attending a fire at their home.

The fire, occurred on Tuesday, Oct. 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Chvatal also extend their thanks to their neighbors, Mrs. Helen Ridsdale and Mrs. James Hejl for their help after the fire, and to a Cleveland Police man who stopped to help the firemen. The policeman's name was not known.

Although most of the damage was caused by smoke and water and can be repaired, the greatest loss was the destruction of a customers book compiled by Mr. Chvatal over a period of nine years. The book was used in his work as a pharmaceutical salesman.

Be sure to bundle your newspapers and magazines in time for the Cub Scouts paper and redeemable bottle collection on Saturday Oct. 12.

Please make separate bundles of papers and magazines.

Proceeds of the drive will be used for supplies and equipment for the Cub Scouts.

The first Walton Hills Combined Charities Drive was started this week with a Kick-off Pot-luck supper on Monday evening, Sept. 30.

The supper was presented by the Executive Committee, Captains, local representatives of health and welfare organizations and volunteer workers. Chapter representatives of participating agencies were guests at the dinner.

The combined Charities Drive began on Tuesday, October 1 and will continue through October 15. Please cooperate with the worker serving you and try to have your contribution ready as early as possible:

Plan within your own family the amount you want to contribute to the agencies participating in our drive - use the money you have saved in your Charity Savings Bank to help make up this amount

When your worker calls on you, she will leave a card with space for your name and address. There will also be space for entries for three years - 1957 - 1958 and 1959. You are not expected to make a contribution covering three years, only 1957.

The Combined Charities Drive is your drive and the only one we will have in the village this year. Please help to make it the success we want it to be.

Combined Charities Drive

The first Walton Hills Combined Charities Drive came to a close on October 15 and was termed most successful campaign to raise funds for health and welfare organizations ever held in this area.

Almost twice as much money was collected in this single campaign than was collected in all the individual drives put together last year.

With 95 percent of the residents contributing, a total of $4529.80 was collected. A few industrial donors have not yet reported.

Last year, the combined total for all individual campaigns was $2417.48.

With the exception of one, all participating organizations will be given substantially more than they were able to realize through single campaigns.

Percentage increases for the organizations that will share in the Walton Hills drive are as follows: Community Chest plus 75 percent

Red Cross minus 30 percent.
Nephrosis plus 500 percent
Cancer plus 110 percent
Cerebral Palsy plus 125 percent
Heart plus 30 percent
Arthritis (1st time)

Amounts collected for the individual organizations are as follows:
Community Chest $1240.58

Red Cross $553.75
Nephrosis $410.15
Cancer $751.80
Cerebral Palsy $504.00
Heart $650.28
Arthritis $418.74

The cost of the campaign amounted to $55.00. This was donated by the Women's Club, Men's Club and Estates Club.

The organization for the campaign was started last spring. A total of forty-five workers plus a seven member executive committee worked on the drive.

Chairman of the campaign was Mrs. Ted Hackk. The Executive Committee consisted of Mrs. Jack Laing, Mrs. Don Ralsten, Mrs. Jas Piwonka, Mrs. Armi Wagner, Kenneth Decker and Mrs. Robert Marquardt.

An outstanding feature of the drive was the assurance that residents would be asked to give only once during the year. It was felt by the Executive Committee that this, coupled with the fact that donors were given the opportunity to specify the organization to which they wanted their money to be given, was responsible for the overwhelming success of the campaign.

Residents with this form of giving, The satisfaction of Walton Hills and an assurance of the give-once a year plans' future success, is evidenced by the failure of an organization that did not participate in its attempts to organize an individual campaign. Despite repeated efforts to secure a chairman and workers, the organization has not been able to find anyone interested in working on its behalf in Walton Hills.

Approve Bookkeeping Machine

The clerk expects to save clerical expense in his office to replace the $7,000 appropriated by the board for the purchase of a bookkeeping machine. The board has been considering this purchase for several years and took the action when Mr. Vasek told them of the pressure there is on his staff to get out on time the several payrolls of the school system.

Law director Elmer Vanek reported on the status of the acquisition of the land needed for the Rockside elementary school. Papers will be served this week.

on the owners of the lots which have not yet been purchased, notifying them that the board intends to appropriate the property. Because of the urgent need, Mr. Vanek said he had been able to arrange for an early hearing in court.

Ten lots, held by two owners, are needed within about a month, the board felt. Final plans are expected to be received from the architect on Nov. 1, and bids will be taken after four weeks of advertising, with construction to begin as soon as possible after the contract is awarded.

There are 137 persons enrolled in six classes in the adult education program, H. D. Thompson reported through Mr. Hadfield. Classes begin Sept. 2 and will terminate Dec. 12.

Women's Club

Sarah Harding Hunter proved for the second time that people, especially women, are interested in the many facets that go into making up an interesting personality.

More than sixty members of the Women's Club attended the regular meeting on Wednesday, Oct. 23 when Mrs. Hunter appeared as guest speaker.

During the business meeting, presided, over by club president Mrs. James Piwonka, committee chairmen presented reports. Members voted to have a booth at the Southgate Fair in May for the second year. The theme of the booth will Scandinavian and will feature Danish pastries.

Service Chairman Mary Bell, reported that for the present, residents interested in the Red Cross Bloodmobile and Chest X-Ray unit will be notified when these services are in Bedford. Village population does not warrant separate visits.

Vice-President Mrs. Nelson Grashaw announced that printing of the club program had been completed.

Mrs. Grashaw also encouraged members to attend the monthly pot luck luncheons, held on the third Wednesday of each month.

Men's Club

The deadline for reservations for the Men's Club dinner meeting at Astorhurst on Wednesday, Nov. 6 has been set for Saturday, November 2.

Price of the complete dinner including tax and tip will be $3.50.

All men of the village are cordially invited to attend and bring guests. You do not have to be a member to attend this dinner.

For reservations call Bob Marquardt at BE 2-0764, Walter Ford, BE 2-5526, Randall Campbell, BE 2-5482, or Nelson Grashaw, BE 2-3559.

Everyone knows, of course, our custom of inviting family and friends to share our traditional dinner of turkey stems from the first Thanksgiving Day when the Pilgrims invited the Indians to share their harvest.

The Massachusetts Bay Colony celebrated its Thanksgiving in 1630. From 1630 until 1789, when George Washington proclaimed November 26 as Thanksgiving Day, the celebrations were sporadic and at no set date

Abraham Lincoln, urged by a Mrs Sarah J Hale, revived the custom of celebrating Thanksgiving in 1863 and stabilized the month by proclaiming the last Thursday of November as Thanksgiving Day.

The date of Thanksgiving Day remained unchanged until President Roosevelt changed the date to the third Thursday in 1939-40-41.

In 1941, Congress passed a joint resolution decreeing the fourth Thursday in November as Thanksgiving Day, a national holiday.

In spite of the modern approach to so many things, each Christmas when we kiss or are kissed under the mistletoe we are, for that instant, in touch with a tradition older than Christmas itself - the ancient fertility rites of the Druids.

Not every plant of mistletoe was considered holy by the ancient Britons. The mistletoe was held in superstitious awe only if it was found growing on an oak, a tree on which it seldom grew. These oaks, when draped with mistletoe were considered the homes of gods and were worshiped along with the mistletoe.

The oak was also venerated because of what seemed to be an awesome defiance of the elements since it could withstand the force of lightning. Because of this apparent defiance the Druids gave the oak the name "thunder besom" which was once also applied to mistletoe.

When gathered in white cloths with rites in which pure white bulls were sacrificed, mistletoe was a holy object to be worshiped, a fetish that cured diseases and fended the evil eye of witches.

Holly, too, was considered sacred by the Druids and was used in ancient religious rites that pre-date Christmas. Later the near-white wood was regarded as a symbol of purity and taken over by the early church. Many ancient religious reliquaries were made of this wood.

Although the use of Christmas trees was banned by the church as late as 1740, the tradition was revived in Sweden and spread to France and Germany.

Many people believe the first Christmas trees seen in this country were cut from forests during the Revolution by Hessians hired by the British to fight the American colonists.

Civil Defense

"Civil Defense is basically the voluntary efforts of people, individually and in groups, together with governmental agencies to protect themselves, their homes and families, as well as commercial and industrial establishments and community facilities against the effects of warfare and natural disasters."

cited the necessity for helping without interfering with the duties of village administrators; for volunteers helping to keep the cost of running the village down rather than increasing it; for educating residents in proper steps to be taken to prevent accidents, death and fires; for educating volunteer teams for First Aid and fire fighting; for providing Auxiliary Police to work under the supervision of the Police Chief; for providing shelters for residents, supplies and medical equipment.

Five well-known village residents attending Monday's meeting accepted positions as department heads - they were Ray Brown, Assistant Director; Agnes Pekar, First Aid; Harry Mackey, Auxiliary Police; Leonard Bidlake, Supply and Stanley Koltz, Transportation.

The next regular meeting of the Civil Defense group will be on Monday, January 6 at 8 p.m. in the village hall.

Road Department

Road Commissioner Armin Wagner would like to remind residents that since most of the village snow plowing is done at night, the Road Department and the Police Department urge very strongly that residents leave their cars in their driveways rather than parking them on the street.

Cooperation with the Road Department in this matter will eliminate an unnecessary hazard to a job already made difficult by bad weather and poor visibility.

Christmas Trees

The Y's Men's group of the Southeast Y is again providing local residents with an opportunity of helping the Y and at the same time providing themselves with a Christmas tree.

Proceeds of the tree sale will be added to a fund of $1100, also earned by the Y's Men through their broom sales and will be used to purchase a new and badly needed bus for the Y.

The trees, which are Scotch pine and reasonably priced, will be sold from the lot next to the Y on Northfield Road. The sale is on now and will continue until all trees have been sold.

Mayor L. S. Conelly included this statement in a letter to interested residents attending the second Civil Defense meeting on Monday December 9.

In outlining a tentative plan for a village defense program, Mayor Conelly, who is Civil Defense Director, discussed the need for providing good department heads for Auxiliary Police, First Aid, Supply and Transportation Volunteer wardens will also be necessary since present plans call for dividing the village into several sections. One warden will be responsible for each section.

Mayor Conelly's plan presented several points to be considered in setting up a village program. He

After the January 22 meeting Women's Club members should be well on the road to losing the excess weight picked up so easily during the holidays, and, long before.

Paige Palmer, well-known because of her television exercise program, will be guest speaker at the January meeting.

The meeting should be very interesting since Miss Palmer has a reputation for not pampering her clients nor closing her eyes to their figure faults of members of her audiences.

Members are urged to keep January 22 in mind and to make arrangements for baby sitters in order not to miss this meeting.

Walton Hills Horse and Sports Club

Fire Prevention

With two fires occurring in the community within a week of each other, several interested residents requested that information concerning fire prevention be made available to readers of the column, and, more particularly, village residents.

The price of carelessness is tremendous as seen in the following figures. Fires take nearly 10,000 human lives and cost over a billion dollars a year in the United States.

We all are aware of the most common fire hazards but few of us do anything about correcting them. Firemen have a saying that "a clean building seldom burns". They are not referring to dusting and scrubbing but rather to the piles of odds and ends of clothing, rags, old curtains and the like that accumulate in our closets, basements and attics.

Defective wiring comes in for a good share of the blame also, as well as home maintenance equipment and supplies such as paints, thinners and oily rags. The rags, of course, should be stored in airtight containers in a fireproof area.

Everyone knows of the importance of buying fire resistant materials for draperies and slipcovers. It would, of course, be too expensive to replace those you now have, but it is possible to mix a fire resistant solution, for rayons and cottons at home.

Dissolve nine ounces of borax and four ounces of boric acid in one gallon of water. Dip curtains, draperies and slipcovers in the solution. Although the solution will not harm any fabric that is safe in water, fabrics will have to be dipped in the solution each time they are washed.

Fire prevention is a day-to-day business and should always be on our minds. Many of us forget the simple do's and don't unless we are reminded or have them on a piece of paper in a place convenient to each member of our family.

More information on fire prevention will be carried in future columns.

Walton Hills Women's Club

Magic of a new "hair-do" was demonstrated by Verdon of Southgate when he selected Mrs. Chas. Reese of Walton Road as a model at the February 26 meeting of the Women's Club.

About seventy-five members attended this meeting to see and hear about the latest hair styles as demonstrated by Verdon and his models.

Mrs. Lyle Rockwood was the winner of the door-prize which was a fifteen dollar permanent wave.

During the business meeting which followed, Mrs. George Furst who was chairman of the recent Smorgasbord presented by the club gave her final report. A total of 335 people were served and proceeds to the club after expenses were $281.94. Mrs. Furst expressed her thanks to her committee and all those people who contributed to the dinner.

Mrs. Joseph Venaleck, Chairman of the Club's Southgate Fair booth reported that because of the work involved, the Club would not attempt the Danish Pastry. After her report, members present voted to again sponsor a Strawberry Shortcake booth. For more information on volunteering either time or shortcakes, please call Coletta Venaleck at BE 2-1804.

Bob Strachan appeared before the meeting as a representative of the YMCA Membership Drive Committee. After his talk, members voted to donate $50.00 to the "Y".

Main topic of business at the special council meeting on Monday January was the salary increases requested by the village police department.

Council voted to give the following salary increases to members of the police department: Part-time deputies, from $1.75 to $1.90 per hour; full-time deputies $5200 per year, Chief, $5700 per year.

Uniform allowance remains the same except that in their second year of service, part-time deputies will receive $85.00 per year.

In addition to the regular uniform allowance, the police participate in the police pension fund, and are covered by village-paid health and accident insurance policies.

Council also provided for the employment of an additional full-time deputy at a salary of $3300 per year.

On Thursday, January 23, Mayor Young, and Councilman Laing and Noeth met with the Northfield council to discuss the possible division of revenue from Northfield Park.

money collected has been sent to the Heart Research Fund of Lakeside Hospital.

This disposition of the money was made at the request of a representative of the Heart Society since the Heart Society is not permitted to accept money collected in combined health and welfare drives.

Cooperative Nursery School

Walton Hills nursery school will hold its annual Visiting Day for Fathers on Sunday, February 16 at 2:30 p.m.

A typical informal day's program will give fathers an opportunity to see what their children do during nursery school time. Being strictly father's day, several fathers will replace mothers in assisting with the day's program. If time permits, a short movie, "The Frustrating Fours and Fascinating Fives" will be shown.

The nursery school has exceeded its limit of 25 children with an enrollment of 28 children and a waiting list this year. Therefore, a registration date will be set sometime in the spring for next year's enrollment in order to get a better picture of future nursery school demands.

The nursery school, which is on the approved list of the Cleveland Nursery Association, is taught by Mrs. Denver Smith and Mrs. Theodore Hack.

Police Chief Sterling Walton issued a reminder today to dog owners within the village to keep their dogs tied or in yard runs.

Numerous complaints have been received by the police about groups of dogs roaming throughout the village destroying shrubbery and young trees.

Chief Walton also reminded residents that the village does have an ordinance providing for the control of dogs.

Warning tickets have been prepared by the police department although it is not expected they will have to be used when dog owners realize the necessity of complying with the village ordinance.

Correction

Salary of the new full-time deputy will be $4400 per year, not $3300 per year as stated in the column last week. Chief Walton will be happy to talk with men living in the village who might be interested in this position.

Nephrosis Association

On Monday, February 3, Mrs. Tom Young and Mrs. Joseph Venaleck attended a luncheon for Mayor's wives presented by the Nephrosis Association, at which time Mrs. Anthony Celebreeze, Campaign Chairman, and other chairmen were introduced.

ed as guests on Dorothy Fulheim's One O'clock TV program. Nursery School

On Sunday, February 16 at 2:30 p.m., fathers of pre-school age village children will be guests of the Nursery School at the annual Fathers Visiting Day.

Personals

The Charles Pikes and boys of Egbert Road, returned on Tuesday from a six-week vacation in Tampa, Florida, where they were house guests of Mary Jane's parents.

While in Florida, the older boys, Cary, Pat and Tom, attended the mission school of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Ybor City, a few miles from Tampa.

Attending the school was quite an experience for the boys since most of the other children attending the school were of Spanish descent, many of them unable to speak English.

To the boys' regret and Mary Jane and Charles' relief, school work proved to be very much the same as at Glendale.

Mary Jane and Charles attended many PTA activities while in Ybor City and Mary Jane reports the group is a very active and ambitious one.

Upon her return home, Mary Jane began her duties as a new Cub Scout Den Mother, while Chas. is winding up his term as Cub Scout Program Chairman.

Civil Defense

Since many residents of the village have expressed a desire to take a Red Cross First Aid Course, Civil Defense First Aid Chairman Dorothy Colagross has made tentative plans for such a course.

A minimum of ten people must sign up for the course in order to have a representative of the local Red Cross come out to the village as instructor.

An eight-week course and ten-week course are available to anyone signing up. Please call Dorothy Colagross at BE 2-0807 to register for either of these two courses.

Riding Club

Walton Hills Boy Scouts

Seventy visitors attended the Boy Scouts open house held on Monday, February 10 in the village hall.

Parents and friends were given the opportunity of being on hand for typical scout meeting and were given a review of the troops' accomplishments of the past year.

Cub Scouts

Twenty-five village cub scouts attended their various churches on Sunday, February 9, which had been designated as Cub Scout Sunday, and the beginning of Scout Week.

Cub Scout Master Myron Warnke reminded Den Mothers and fathers that regular committee meetings are held in the village hall on the second to the last Friday of each month, while pack meetings are scheduled for the last Friday of each month.

Village residents who regularly feed the winter bird population are aware that some robins have arrived here too early this season and are having difficulty in finding enough to eat.

COUNCIL

In spite of the weather last week the regular council meeting was held on Tuesday, February 18, at which time council:

Passed: The regular resolution providing for rubbish pick-up for the next three months within the village.

Gave: Second reading to the new ordinance providing for the employment of a third full-time deputy. One more reading is required before this ordinance will become effective.

Received: Report from council Road Committee concerning proposed purchase of streets signs within the village. The road committee recommended that plain porcelain enamel signs with four-inch letters be used rather than a more ornate design.

Thirty-six signs will be purchased at a cost of $1500 and work of placing the signs will commence as soon as the ground dries out.

Road Commissioner Armin Wagner and the road committee announced plans for a single surface treatment on dedicated village roads that were worked on last summer. This single surface treatment will be started in the middle or late summer when hot weather can be expected, since the oil penetrates better in heat.

Roads not yet dedicated will receive only an oil treatment this coming summer.

Commissioner Wagner gave a general report on the activities of the road department during the past few months.

Received: Report from Mayor Tom Young concerning the resigning of the mutual aid fire contracts. Village Solicitor Virgil Allen is again expediting the signing of these contracts.

Passed: Resolution giving the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. permission to do necessary maintenance work on telephone lines.

Walton Hills Cub Scouts

Like the mailmen, neither snow, rain, sleet nor dark of night, will keep the Cub Scouts and their families from their appointed rounds.

All but a few of the expected 130 guests appeared at the Cub Scout's third annual Blue and Gold dinner held on Monday evening, February 17.

Table decorations and place mats were planned and executed by the cubs in each den, while their mothers provided most delicious food.

Following supper, there was a short program in which several Cub Scouts received awards for achievements and one boy was taken into the Tenderfoot rank of the Boy Scouts Program Chairman Charles Pike gave a resume of the highlights of Pack 417's activities of the past year, and former Scout Commissioner John Sacash gave a brief talk on scouting activities within the village.

The thoughts and sympathies of everyone at the dinner were with Mrs. Ann Sednesky and her family when they learned of the fire at their home late Monday afternoon. Mrs. Sednesky is Den Mother of Den 6.

At the regular council meeting on Tuesday, March 18, council:

Received: A petition signed by residents of Meadowpark Drive requesting that the name not be changed but providing that one side be known as North Meadowpark and other as South Meadowpark. Council approved this request.

Received: Report from the Metropolitan Park Board informing council of the Board's intention of building a $65,000 club house in connection with the new golf course which will be used by the public. The Board proposed creating an entrance to the golf course on Egbert Road. Several council members were not in favor of this because of the amount of traffic on Egbert.

Passed: Ordinance 1958-15, Authorizing the village to enter into a contract with the County Commissioners of Cuyahoga County to allow members of the Walton Hills Police Department to attend the police training school at Western Reserve University. Two members are scheduled to attend this year one in the spring and the other in the fall.

Passed: Ordinance 1958-16, Authorizing Walton Hills to enter into a Mutual Aid Fire Protection contract with thirteen surrounding communities. To better acquaint village residents with the protection afforded us by the Mutual Aid contract, Village Clerk Merlin Bement has issued the following statement:

"Under the contract, permitted by law in Ohio, firemen and equipment can be called upon in time of emergency to fight fires in Bedford, Maple Heights, Bedford Heights, Brecksville, Chagrin Falls, Oakwood, Orange, Solon, Valley View, Walton Hills, Warrensville Hts., Northfield and the townships of Macedonia and Twinsburg.

Inhabitants of each contract member community, are afforded protection of fire fighting equipment and firemen of the entire group in time of emergency.

It is estimated that the population of the 14 political subdivisions which are participating in the Mutual Aid contract is less than 75,000 persons. Thus it appears that the fire-fighting facilities of the group totaling at least 32 fire truck pumpers and tankers and 2 rescue squads, manned by 250 firemen compares most favorably in terms of equipment and manpower to the City of Cleveland's excellent fire protection."

Cub Scouts

Boy Scoutmaster Dan Taussig was a guest at the Cub Scout Committee and Den Mother's meeting on Friday, March 21 in the village hall.

Scoutmaster Taussig talked about the advantages of starting a training program for Boy Scouts who will function as Den Chiefs in Cub Scout Dens.

Den Mothers reported that dens are planning skits and displays on Alaska for the Pack meeting on Friday, March 28.

Following boys will receive awards at the March 28 pack meeting:

Den 3: Douglas Ellis, 1 silver arrow.

Den 4: Tommy Clark, Denner's stripe; Richard Clark, Ass't Denner's stripe; Jimmy Solomon, 1 silver arrow; Jackie Radicelli, 1 silver arrow. Jackie is in the hospital and will receive his award at the next pack meeting.

Gardening plans, except those on paper, seem a little foolish when there is still snow on the ground, but there are several things we should be thinking of doing in March.

Gardeners interested in growing sweet peas planted them last weekend if possible. Those of not planting sweet peas can start watching for the first snow deops, winter aconite and species crocus.

Don't however, take the burlap covering from new evergreens until March winds are gone and April comes along with its soft rain.

Winter mulch may be cleaned off flower beds before spring bulbs begin to come up, and if leaves were used, add them to the compost heap or dig them into the vegetable or annual beds.

Fire Prevention

Three things are needed to make a fire: (1) fuel to burn, (2) heat to make it burn, and (3) air to keep it burning. Therefore, most fires can be put out in one of two ways: by cooling or by smothering. As a rule, burning liquids, such as gasoline or grease, are smothered. There is a little difference between throwing a handful of soda into a blazing skillet and using chemical foam to blanket an oil-tank fire. The results are the same. Both fires go out for lack of oxygen.

Although we are protected by the Mutual Fire Protection Contract, which provides that the fire fighting equipment of another member community will respond to a fire call from the village when the Bedford Fire Department is occupied elsewhere, there are many small fires residents could take care of they knew what to do and what to use!

Every Fire Department Chief not only recommends that residents clean up obvious fire hazards about the house, but also that every home be equipped with some type of portable extinguisher for use when a fire is small and can still be controlled.

Planning Board Meeting

Acting as a committee, the village Council met on Wednesday April 2 with the Planning Board and representatives of the Illuminating Company, at which time the CEI made a formal presentation of plans for a substation installation they would like to build on Alexander Road.

Fifty-six acres, extending west of the New York Central Railroad and north of Alexander Road will be needed for the installation, with the main installation being located on the rear 20 acres. Plans call for one transmission tower to be placed close to Alexander Rd. Other transformer mountings will be 120' high and will be placed between 600' and 700' from the road.

This installation will be the largest sub-station in the CEI system. It will be used to receive and distribute electrical power generated at the CEI Ohio River generating station.

CEI pointed out there will be no noise, smoke or fumes, and no traffic problem will arise. A complete landscaping job will be performed on the site.

Work on the station will proceed in stages up through 1964 and it will eventually become a $15 million dollar installation.

No action was taken Wednesday night by the Council committee or the Planning Board, although Mayor Young stated that he personally would not care to have that area of Alexander Road zoned for industry.

Mayor Young, as Chairman of the Planning Board and a member of the council committee, advised the representatives of the CEI to consolidate their proposals before presenting them at a public hearing. Village residents will be advised when this public hearing will be held.

At the regular council meeting on Tuesday, April 1, council:

Women's Club

"The times a child is being most unloveable is when he needs his parents' love the most." This was only one of the illuminating ideas presented by Dean Infield of the Bedford School system when he appeared as guest speaker at the March 26 meeting of the Women's Club.

"In order for children to enjoy good mental health they need primarily: Love, acceptance (of himself), recognition, security, (knowing the family is a unit) and personal independence, although they want and need guidance and control. Religious training is also important to a child's well-being."

In talking about mental health for adults as well as children, Mr. Infield stated that individuals must accept responsibility for all acts and actions.

To avoid tensions and frustrations he suggested "getting away from the problem, talking the problem over with someone trained to listen and advise, and digging in and working the problem out."

Estates Club

Estates Club will present its annual Easter Egg Hunt for village children on Saturday, April 5 at 1 p.m. at Walton Park.

Tired scouts returned home about noon-time, foot-sore but making plans for the next hike!

Pack Meeting

Totem poles made of painted boxes and clay, a large map of Alaska and a pair of snow shoes made of grapefruit bags and coat hangers were only a few of the articles on display at the Pack meeting on Friday, March 28.

Exploring Alaska was the theme for March, and provided an extensive field for the boys' imagination.

April will be a busy month for Cub Scouts, for in addition to planning skits and exhibits illustrating the theme 'Keep America Beautiful', Cubmaster Myron Warnke invited all Cubs to prepare entries for the Pack 417 Art Show.

Four ribbons will be awarded in each four divisions: pencil drawing, crayon drawing, Water color and Model Building. Each club may enter one piece in each of the four categories.

Joe Venaleck, who is a professional commercial artist, will judge all entries and his decision will be final.

Parents of Cub Scouts are urged to encourage their cubs to participate.

Den mothers will be responsible for presenting completed entries at the committee meeting on April 18. Winners will be announced and winning entries will be on display at the Pack meeting on April 25.

Combined Charities Drive

While you are enjoying not being called upon to volunteer (?) or to act as chairman for health and welfare drives (there have been four such drives since Christmas) you might like to have the absolutely final figures on our drive last fall. The original totals have been changed because of additional money from industry.

Community Chest, $1,550.33; Red Cross, $875.00; Nephrosis, $436.65; Cancer, $801.30; Cerebral Palsy, $529.00; Heart, $698.78; Arthritis, $442.24 (no collection in previous years).

The total amount collected in the Combined Charities drive was $5,333.30. The total amount collected in previous individual drives was $2,417.48; and increase of $2,915.82.

Cooperative Nursery School

Nursery School Mothers feel fortunate in having the opportunity of presenting Miss Anne Falther, Director of the Family Health Association as guest speaker on Tuesday, April 8 at the village hall at 8 p.m.

Subject of Miss Falther's talk on Tuesday will be 'The Parent Helps The Child'. Inasmuch as her talk will be of interest to all parents of young children, guests and visitors will be welcome at the meeting.

Nursery School Registration, 1958-59

Registration and open house for the Walton Hills Nursery School will be April 14, 16, 18 (Monday, Wednesday, Friday) mornings at the village hall from 9:30 until 11:30 a.m.

Children three to five years of age, residing in Walton Hills are eligible.

Because a large enrollment is expected, and with capacity for only 25 children, early registration is necessary in the event that children may be accepted on some sort of priority basis.

Councilman Samson plans to start the program with a minimum of confusion. He will be glad to answer any questions residents may have concerning the house numbering program.

Discussed: Various effective means of fire prevention. The consensus was that the most effective means of control would be public education of safe methods of burning rubbish, brush and the like. It was pointed out that residents may need to be reminded that the penalty for allowing an outdoor fire to get out of control could be a $500 fine in addition to the law suits resulting from damage to neighbor's property.

Accepted: Councilman Laing's recommendation that the village take over the insurance policies, now held and paid for by the Women's Club, on various pieces of equipment in the village hall.

Learn to Swim Program

Duncan White, who worked very hard last summer in the Learn-To-Swim program, has been named Chairman of this year's program with Lynn Decker as co-chairman.

"Call it a change - call it a sack. A Chemise by any name is still the newest innovation in fashion", said Mr. Minard of Minard's Dress Shop in Southgate, when his shop presented a spring and summer style show at the village hall on Wednesday, April 23.

To prove his statement, almost all the twenty-seven costumes shown in the show were chemise or displayed at least a hint of the chemise influence.

As usual, fabrics were a highlight of the show. This year, drip-dry cottons and cotton knits are the most important fabrics.

Models for the show were Mrs. Garen Kelley, Mrs. Michael Brogliatti, Mrs. R. Maggio, Mrs. Carl Voth, Mrs. Nelson Grashaw, Miss Virgene Thorne and Miss Barbara Reese. Commentary during the show was by Mrs. Joseph Venaleck.

Space limitation does not permit a description of the costumes worn in the show. However, all the models displayed the dresses beautifully and looked lovely wearing them.

Business meeting

Following the style show, the regular business meeting was presided over by Vice President Mildred Grashaw.

Leole Hunt, Chairman of the Nominating Committee, presented the slate of officers nominated by the committee. The nominees are: President, Coletta Vanaleck; Vice president, Bernice Martin; Treasurer, Carol Yurichak; secretary, Elsie Stora.

Members will elect new officers at the May 25 meeting.

Jean Hack, Director of the Co-operative Nursery School, reported on the school's progress and encouraged members to contribute clothing for the school's rummage sale scheduled for early in May.

Jean also discussed the regular summertime visit of the Cuyahoga County bookmobile and story hour program. A chairman is needed for this project which has been so successful since its beginning. This is not a solo job but one for which there are many volunteer helpers. If you think you might be interested in acting as chairman for the 1958 season, please call Jean at BE 2-3559.

New officers who will be installed at the June 25 dinner are: President, Coletta Venoleck, vice pres., Bernice Martin; sec., Elsie Stora, and treasurer, Carol Yurichak.

Members present voted to drop the club's membership in the Federation of Women's Clubs of Greater Cleveland.

Nursery School chairman and Director Jean Hack reported that 26 children have been enrolled for the 1958-59 nursery school session.

The cooperative Nursery School continues to hold a high rating on the list of "recommended" nursery schools issued by the Cleveland Nursery School Association.

This recommendation is made possible through the combined efforts of participating mothers who act as drivers and school helpers, and the time spent by teachers Mrs. Hack and Mrs. Denver Smith in consulting with experienced counsellors of the Nursery School Association, and in attending seminars where they exchange ideas on methods employed in keeping a cooperative nursery school running smoothly.

Refreshment and Decorating Committee Chairman Rose Maggio announced to members that she would be in need of a great many flowers to be used as table decorations the night of the dinner. If you're in the mood to think about one more important item during the summer, place your order now at the library for "Schools Without Scholars," by John Keats. Could be quite an eye-opener.

The story hour, this year, will be incorporated in the village's first recreation program which will be under the direction of a paid supervisor and an assistant. A story teller will be made available by the County Library System, and the program will be open to all village pre-school and elementary school children.

Regular reading contest has been planned for the older youngsters able to read and some form of recognition will be given those who read ten or more books during the summer.

At the council meeting on Tuesday, May 20, council:

Repealed: The 1956 village ordinance which provided for the employment of a part-time village secretary. Council voted on this ordinance after the third reading.

Discussed: Application by the Federal Metals Co. for a building permit. Mayor Young and members of the Planning Board investigated the company's operation and voted to deny the permit.

Mayor Young also reported that with the application of the Weldon Tool Company for a permit to build on part of the land on Northfield Road between Sagamore and Alexander Roads, he and members of the Planning Board will re-evaluate the present industrial zoning regulations for possible re-zoning of this section of Northfield Road. The area is now zoned for residential use.

Received: Request from Mrs. Ted Hack that a portion of the money allocated for Village Recreation be used this summer for the purpose of providing a two-day recreation program for village youngsters.

Mrs. Hack stated that estimated cost of the program would be $500. This amount would cover the salary of an experienced recreation director plus whatever expenses would be incurred for equipment and materials.

After a short discussion, Mayor Young appointed Councilmen Jack Laing and Joe Samson as an advisory committee to meet with Mrs. Hack and make definite plans in order to get the program started as soon as possible.

Several residents from Meadowpark, Woodlake and Spanghurst Drives were present at the council meeting and during a short recess, Mayor Young invited comment from them.

Residents were protesting the non-acceptance of three mentioned roads for dedication by the village council.

Members of council, as well as Mayor Young and Solicitor Virgil Allen, explained that according to the village ordinance providing conditions under which privately owned roads might be accepted for dedication, none of the roads had, as yet, been brought up to specifications.

During the remainder of the formal meeting, council:

Passed: As an emergency measure, an ordinance accepting Hicks Road as a dedicated road.

Road Commissioner Armin Wagner reported that a good job was being done by the road crew hired by the Conelly Realty Company, in bringing other undedicated roads up to required specifications.

Received: Report from Mrs. Ted Hack, and Councilmen Jack Laing and Joe Samson on the progress of their committee on recreation.

Received: Report from Mayor Young on the outcome of a meeting with representatives of the Illuminating Co. several days ago.

Mayor Young stated it was the consensus of everyone present at the meeting that one or two open meetings be scheduled where interested village residents and representatives of the CEI could meet and discuss the proposed installation.

After discussion by council, the dates of Friday, June 13, and Friday, June 20, were chosen for these meetings. The representatives of the CEI will include engineers who will be able to answer questions regarding locations of the installations and future plans of their company.

All residents are invited to attend one or both of the meetings inasmuch as whatever the decision, it will affect the entire village.

Note: The dates of Friday, June 13 and Friday, June 20 were confirmed by the Illuminating Co. last week. The meetings will start at 8 p.m. in the village hall.

One bid, from the Northern Ohio Paving Co. gave a price of $7,072.00 while the second bid, from the Ajax Petroleum Products Co. gave their price as $6,304.00. Boy Scouts Ronnie Check, who became a tenderfoot scout only recently, has been advanced to the rank of 2nd class scout.

Scoutmaster Dan Taussig announced the return of Cliff Curtis as Assistant Scoutmaster for the summer. Cliff has just completed his freshmen year at Case Institute.

Thirty scouts will represent the Walton Hills Scouts at the Scout Camporee to be held in Bedford Metropolitan Park June 13, 14, and 15.

During the camporee troops compete against each other in scouting skills such as signaling, knot tying, fire building and tent pitching. The Walton Hills troop placed third last year but because of hard work hope to be judged the top or A troop in the district in the competition.

A highlight of the camporee will be the flap-jack contest. Contestants have ten minutes in which to start their fires, make a flap-jack 4" in diameter, run to a string stretched 7' high and flip their flap jacks over the string using their frying pans as flippers, run back to their fires and eat the flap-jack completely!! Needless to say, the boys have been requested to bring boxes and pails for the clean-up detail.

Parents and visitors will have an opportunity to enjoy a big scout camp fire on Saturday, June 14 at 9 p.m. when the scouts will present a show featuring songs and Indian dances.

First of the two meetings between village residents and representatives of the Illuminating Company was held on Friday, June 13 in the village hall.

Meeting was successful, in that residents asked and received answers to many questions concerning the proposed CEI installation on Alexander Road. Many of these questions could only be answered by the engineering representatives present at the meeting.

Mayor Young said today he hoped the residents of the village would give him and other village officials their support and understanding in this important question.

Residents should know the facts and the best way to learn the facts and ask pertinent questions is to attend the second meeting scheduled for tomorrow, Friday, June 20. The meeting will start at 8 p.m. in the village hall.

Boy Scouts

Twenty-six Boy Scouts from the Walton Hills troop attended the Scout Camporee in Bedford Metropolitan Park and achieved a well earned second place with 352 points in competition with twenty-five troops from this area.

Troops competed in such events as scouting skills and scout crafts.

Included in Scouting Crafts were neatness of camp site and conduct. The Walton Hills boys placed first in both of these.

The Walton Hills boys again had a winner with their Monkey Bridge. This project, which had to be created at camp, was made of logs and rope lashings and was 60' long and 15' high. Almost 300 persons made the trip across.

Karl Varga placed second in the flap-jack making, eating and flipping contest, and the troop won a second place in knot-tying.

Recreation Program

In spite of the number of village youngsters attending Bible School, and the number of mothers who "forgot", the first official day of the village recreational program was attended by seventy children from pre-school through senior high.

Two popular and well-liked supervisors have been assigned to Walton Hills. They are Barbara Kirkpatrick who taught first grade at Glendale this past school year, and Mr. Estok, who is well-known to junior high students in the village.

Almost all members of the girls soft ball teams turned out for their first game, which was played in the Walton Park.

Schedule for the two-day-a week program is as follows: Wednesday 10:30 to 12:30 a.m., 1st thru 3rd grades, Handcraft and play-village Hall; 1 to 3 p.m. - 4th thru 6th grades, Handcraft and play - village hall. 3 to 5 p.m. Softball for girls - Walton Park.

Thursday: 10:30 to 12 noon Story hour for elementary and preschool with bookmobile, story teller, reading contest and games at village hall. 1 - 3 p.m. Junior and senior high hobby clubs village hall. 3 to 5 p.m. Softball for girls at Walton Park. Free golf lessons for teenagers to be announced later.

Many activities may be incorporated into the teen-agers program if attendance warrants. These include: badminton, volley ball, horse shoes, ping-pong and checkers, with tournaments in ping-pong and checkers.

Reading Contest

Mrs. James Piwonka, Chairman of the Story Hour reading contest requested today that mothers remind their children to register each time they attend the story hour and reading contest session.

Mrs. Smith, who is the Childrens Librarian at Bedford Library, will be story teller this year, while Mrs. Zowski is the librarian on the bookmobile.

In order for youngsters to qualify for their reading certificate they must read one book a week for ten weeks, or ten or more books. If vacations interrupt their attendance, they may report on two books at one time.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ralsten, with Christina, left on Saturday for Louisville Ky. to visit parents and pick up their son. Sant, who went on ahead. From Louisville, they will go on to Louisiana where they will visit with friends before returning home.

Final plans for the riding club's overnight ride on July 26-27 were made last night when the group met at the Olszko residence for an informal business meeting.

The "caravan" will travel on horseback for about four hours toward the Chagrin reservation to a good destination where they will camp for the evening. Food cooked over an open campfire will be very welcome after the long ride.

Necessary supplies for riders and horses will be transported to the reservation by truck.

Everyone participating in the ride is requested to be on time for the scheduled departure from the village hall.

If you are interested in joining the ride please call club president Larry Pohl or any of the members.

Village Recreation

Story Hour: Interest in reading continues to be enthusiastic with almost one hundred youngsters attending the story hour and bookmobile sessions on Thursdays.

Many mothers have discovered the bookmobile carries many of the latest fiction and non-fiction for adults and are making a point to be at the village hall when the bookmobile arrives.

Reading contest, chairman, Mary Piwonka, now has printed book report forms available for written reports. Any youngster going on vacation may pick up several of these forms, fill them out and receive credit for books read.

The children are both entertained by the stories told by Mrs. Smith of Bedford, and in the short games designed to relieve the monotony of sitting still.

Handcraft and games supervised by Barbara Kirkpatrick and Jack Green are well attended with most of the kids wanting to play checkers with Mrs. Kirkpatrick!

Barbara and Jack would like to thank Jim Solomon and Al Spoto for their recent work on the volleyball field adjacent to the village hall. Jim dug post-holes for net poles and Al graded the field.

Personals

While his wife and family, the Charles Pikes of Egbert Road, anxiously await news of his homecoming, Mr. George Showkier is still in Beirut, Lebanon.

Mr. Showkier left the United States on May 15, and after making stops at Cadiz and Barcelona, Spain; Marseilles, France; and Naples, Italy, where he visited the ruins of Pompeii, Mr. Showkier arrived in Lebanon on June 3.

Not given to writing long gossipy letters, Mr. Showkier did tell his family he is at present staying at the beautiful mountain village of Arsaum just outside Beirut.

Farming is the important activity in Arsaum with most work right now being in the apple orchards.

Many Americans are unaware that although the people of Lebanon call themselves Arabs and speak Arabic, Lebanon is the only Middle East state that is predominately Christian.

The ancestors of today's Lebanese were known to themselves and the Bible as Canaanites and to most historians as the Phoenicians.

Mr. Showkier give no indication of being ready to return home as he says, "Here in Arsaum we are as safe as Walton Hills. Everyone seems to think that everything will be settled soon.

I don't believe we will be able to visit Damascus or Palestine as the travel is very difficult because of the turmoil. If matters get worse, the American Embassy will notify us in time for us to get out."

Mrs. Showkier, who has been spending some time with Mary J. and Charles Pike, are at present visiting other relatives in Pennsylvania.

Killed in Farm Tragedy

A tragic tractor accident in Walton Hills on the afternoon of June 24 cost the life of Mrs. Linda Kitson, a 40-year resident of the Village.

The accident occurred during a heavy rain on the Kitson farm, located three quarters of a mile west of Dunham Road on Alexander Rd.. Mrs. Kitson, 64, had been operating a large size McCormick Deering farm tractor equipped with a two row cultivator in a corn field. She was apparently trying to return to the farm buildings because of the rain.

It appeared that the arm and shovel of the cultivator which extend out beyond the rear wheels of the tractor, caught on a large stump in the high grass at the edge of the field. The impact tore off the cultivator arm which was found imbedded in the stump.

The tractor veered sharply to the right and Police Chief S. D. Walton, who investigated the accident, believes that this is when Mrs. Kitson was thrown off the seat, falling backwards into the cultivator's mechanism and striking her head. There were no witnesses to the incident.

She was apparently dragged about 40 feet along the edge of an embankment before the tractor made another sudden turn, lunged 25 feet down the hill and lodged into a group of trees.

Willis A. Kitson, the victim's husband, became concerned when she did not return during the rain, ran to the field and found Mrs. Kitson lying on her back at the edge of the embankment. Her glasses were found eight feet from the stump. The tractor motor was still running when Kitson reached the scene. The victim was pronounced dead on arrival at Marymount Hospital.

Funeral services were held at the Donald B. Johnson Funeral Home on Friday, June 27. Beside her husband, Mrs. Kitson is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Ella Laing and Mrs. Alma Schmidt, and two brothers, Glen and Harlan Alber.

Combined Charities

Jean Hack and Lynn Decker, members of the Walton Hills Combined Charities Board, spoke to the Geauga Federation of Womens' Clubs at Middlefield, Ohio. They outlined the operation of the village successful drive last year.

This year's drive is planned for October. It would be wise to start putting part of our contributions aside each year in anticipation of the collection.

The Ralsten family returned Sunday, July 13, from a trip to Kentucky and Louisiana.

The Ted Hacks have left on the second part of their vacation. They will visit relatives in upper New York State and go on to tour New Hampshire and Vermont.

Recreation Program

Jack Greene, a physical education student at Michigan State University, will take over as director of the village recreation program this week. Greene, now in senior year at Michigan State, is a resident of Bedford. He has had previous experience in directing playground work.

A correction in the recreation schedule for Wednesdays has been announced. The new time for meeting on that day will be from 10:30 a.m. to 12 noon.

The crafts class for grades 4 to 6 which meets on Wednesday afternoon will specialize in leatherwork beadwork, basket weaving, and model airplanes. All youngsters in these grades who are interested in working in these fields are invited to attend the class. It is under the direction of Barbara Kirkpatrick, who teaches the first grade at Glendale School.

The teen-age group will meet at the Village park instead of the village hall.

The attendance at last Thursdays program was over 100, according to Mrs. Jean Hack.

A note on the Thursday morning story hour for pre-school and elementary grade students: Children in grades 1 to 3 will go to the basement for play time first while the pre-schoolers have their story hours and the older children visit the Bookmobile.

Police Chief Sterling Walton reminds children going to and from recreation program activities to

Cooperative Nursery School

Last week the nursery school mothers held their second "come as you are" coffee hour at the home of Bunt Russell on Orchard Hill Drive. None of the past and present members were caught in pajamas this time probably because of the later hour. Two and a half-week old Lauren Fifer made her public debut and slept peacefully throughout the coffee hour.

On Wednesday, July 23, children enrolled in the nursery school last year, and their mothers, visited Cleveland-Hopkins airport where they had the opportunity of inspecting an airplane inside and out. This airport visit is a regularly scheduled one for the nursery school and is always popular.

House Number Markers

Residents are taking advantage of the opportunity of getting their new house numbers easily and helping the nursery school at the same time. The first order for markers, totalling over $100., has been sent in and the markers should be received very soon. There is still time to get your name on the second order. The most popular markers cost about $1.98. For more information and to place your order please call: Mary Wells, BE 2-0148, Jean Arters, BE 2-0196, or Lynn Decker, BE 2-4459.

The nursery school mothers are sending in an order for name tags for clothing for their children. Lower elementary grades, kindergarten and nursery school teachers are pleased when children's clothing is labeled in order to avoid confusion. The mothers are also ordering address labels for envelopes and other personal items. If you would be interested in ordering any of the labels please call Mary Wells, Jean Arters or Lynn Decker.

Combined Charities Drive

Contrary to the newspaper story that the Polio Foundation will conduct collection drives for Arthritis and other allied health groups, such is not the case.

A letter and phone call from the Arthritis group to Combined Charities Chairman Jean Hack, revealed that basic differences in organization and method of operation were responsible for lack of interest in such a merger by the Arthritis people.

The Arthritis Foundation is emphatic in wishing it known they are not being taken over by the Polio Foundation.

Village Recreation Program

The first village-financed recreation program will be officially over the week of August 20 when a party will be held for those youngsters participating in recreation activities.

A highlight of the party will be the awarding of prizes to winners of various contests held throughout the summer.

Activities winding up the season are the Checkers Tournament with Jim Salamon and Kurt Warnke in the 6 to 8 age group; and Tom Hallaran, George and Jim Rada and Ken Palgut playing in the 9 to 13 age group.

A Horseshoe tournament will begin on the week of July 31, and will run through the first week in August.

On Thursday, July 31, a Junior Olympics was held for children of all ages. Prizes will be given to the winners of the Running Broad Jump, Standing Broad Jump, Running race and the baseball throw.

Wednesday, July 30, a Hobby Show was held for members of the junior and senior high age group who have been meeting on Wednesday afternoons.

The girl's softball team, Virginia Mone, captain, played the Ellenwood girl's softball team at Ellenwood on Monday, July 28.

Golf Lessons

Golf lessons may be had at reduced rates for groups of ten or more women and teenagers. Please call Mrs. Walter Ford at BE 2-5526 for further details.

Bookmobile

Many of the children enrolled in the reading contest have completed the required ten books, according to Reading Chairman Mary Piwonka, while others have only one or two books to go.

The boys' checker tournament came to an end last week as Kenny Palgut won by a forfeit in the Junior division (ages 9-13), and George Rada won in the Juvenile division. The girls have yet to complete their tournament but this week the play-off will be held between Karen Kirschnick and Anne Radicelli.

As a climax to the recreation program this year a Field Day has been planned by our two Recreational leaders, Barbara Kirkpatrick and Jack Green.

Scheduled date is Wednesday, August 20 at Walton Park. Activities will begin at 6 p.m.

Civil Defense

In spite of heavy rain on Wednesday, July 30, the Walton Hills Civil Defense Auxiliary Firemen presented a demonstration of their mobile fire-fighting equipment.

Site of the demonstration was Orchard Lake, located at the foot of Orchard Hill Dr. and Walton Road.

Village Auxiliary Fireman Steve Mestnik, Art. Cornell and Frank Duale were on hand, as were the Walton Hills police. Civil Defense teacher Jerry Studman of Bedford also took part in the demonstration.

County-owned equipment used in the demonstration were a tanker and pumper. This equipment is kept available for any emergency disaster within Cuyahoga County.

Besides illustrating how many hundreds of gallons of water could be pumped from the lake, village Auxiliary Firemen had the opportunity of working with various hose nozzels designed for specific purposes.

Attending the demonstration as observers were Mr. Walker, Cuyahoga County Civil Defense Director, Mayor Tom Young, General L. S. Conelly, village Director of Civil Defense, and Mr. Ray Brown, Assistant Director.

After the demonstration, the group met at Frank Duale's home where Mayor Young complimented the village Civil Defense group on its enthusiasm and work, and talked about the advantages available through such a group.

Speaking for the Auxiliary Firemen, on Sunday, Mr. Duale thanked Mayor Young and the others for attending the demonstration and for their consistent support and encouragement.

Many more men, 21 or over, are needed as volunteer Auxiliary Firemen in the village. For more information on duties and training,

The Charles Pikes are breathing a little easier this week with the arrival of a letter from Mary Jane's father, George Showkier in Beirut, Lebanon.

In his letter, Mr. Showkier wrote that he expected to sail for home on Tuesday, August 5 and should be home in about three weeks.

Mr. Showkier wrote that, "all the shops are closed in Beirut because their owners are afraid to stay open. We have not had any difficulties but keep in touch with the American Embassy constantly."

Mrs. Showkier is at present visiting in Fostoria with a son and his family.

Another Showkier son, Kenneth, was in the news a short time ago. An employee of Ohio Bell Telephone, he was one of several persons involved in the rescue of the boys caught in the culvert on the east side.

Hearing a call for help, he soon discovered the boys were trapped and quickly relayed a call to the police.

There is a fairly good chance that a writing class will be made available to residents of the Bedford area this Fall.

Irv. Liberman, successful freelance writer and lecturer in writing at Western Reserve University, has expressed an interest in starting such a class.

Climax of the village recreation program will come next week. On Wednesday, August 20, a Field Day will be held at Walton Park from 6 p.m. until 8 p.m. in order that village residents may see for themselves what the youngsters have been doing all summer.

A Junior Olympic program will begin at 6 p.m. for all village children. Blue ribbons will be awarded for such events as the Standing and Running Broadjump Shuttle relay races, running races, and baseball throw.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Hunt, with young Charles and Jackie, returned this past week-end after a five-week vacation on the West coast.

Leola and the children drove first to Oregon where they spent two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Walters. After a week long business trip to Caracas, Venezuela, Charlie joined them in Oregon.

Combining business with pleasure the Hunts proceeded to Los Angeles and interesting side trips to Disneyland, Catalina Island and Knoxberry Farm.

At Disneyland the boys enjoyed seeing first-hand all the attractions they've seen on television. Catalina Island offered a thrilling ride in a glass-bottomed boat, while Knoxberry Farm presented all the fascination of an old-time western town complete with horses and old-time trains.

Route 66 was their choice for the trip home. On the way they stopped at the Painted Desert and the Petrified Forest. Naturally, they are glad to be home - if only for the sight of the rain - something they didn't have at all during their vacation!

The arrival of their first grandchild, Bradley Marion Featherstun born on July 7, was the most important reason for the Featherstun's trip to Long Island.

The younger Featherstuns will return very soon to Ohio Northern University where Walter will enter his senior year.

Three judges, Barbara Kirkpatrick, Jack Green and Crystal Gladstone made the following awards: Blue Ribbon to Paul Bedo for his labeled shell collection; 2nd place to Eric Ford for his model sail boat; White ribbon to Virginia Mone for her stamp collection.

On Wednesday, August 6, the Walton Hills girls baseball team came through with their second victory when they defeated the Glendale Wildcats, Champions of the Bedford City Pigtail League 10-7.

NESTLED in the hills between Bedford and Northfield is the little village of Walton Hills. And if there is any difference between it and similar communities, it may lie in the extraordinarily cooperative spirit and abilities of the feminine members of its several hundred families.

Take, for instance, Mrs. Matt Mathieson. It has been no uncommon sight to find her in coveralls up on a ladder helping to build the family homestead. She built the stone fireplace and chimney and wielded a busy paint brush in the decorating of the two-story colonial.

And she's not the only wife who has worked with her husband, cutting stone, laying cement blocks, putting down flooring and even shingling the roof of a new home.

It's the "old fashioned type of village life," with the modern touch, that Walton Hills women like to think they practice, neighbor helping neighbor.

One woman, long ill at home, was helped daily by a group, each member assuming a share of the responsibility for the household, continuing in their various capacities until the mother was able to manage for herself.

The Walton Hills Estates Club for years has conducted its "Supervised Play Period" two days a week at the club's park with several mothers directing each session. A "Learn to Swim" program was added, and a softball team for girls 8 to 15 was organized.

Learn to Swim Program

A water show and pot-luck supper has been planned for Labor Day by the members of the Estates Club Learn to Swim program.

A tropical island, lovely native girls, sailors and a water ballet make up the plot of the story written for the water show by Nellie Colagross.

Youngsters from all phases of the swimming program will be featured in the water show.

Everyone is welcome to participate in the pot-luck which will start at 6 p.m. In addition to your supper contribution, please bring your own table service.

The Learn To Swim program those who helped during the summer. Seven lessons were missed: one because of cold weather and six because of rain.

Jack Robinson, Red Cross representative in Water Safety, was on hand for almost all swimming lessons. Since he is a qualified instructor he was most helpful in advising volunteer instructors in proper procedures.

Combined Charities

It's not too early to begin thinking about contributions to the Walton Hills Combined Charities Drive.

Village representatives for the health and welfare agencies covered in our drive are: Community Chest, Maxine Featherston, BE 2-3785; Red Cross, Helen Carol, BE 2-5148; Cancer, Doris Bruggeman, BE 2-1582; Heart Research, Mary Jane Pike, BE 2-5132; Cerebral Palsy, Naomi Kelley, BE 2-5853; Nephrosis, Eileen Warnke, BE 2-6889; Arthrities, Eleanor Gritzer, BE 2-1283. For information about work done by a particular agency, please call the agency's village representative.

The Charities Board will meet Wednesday, Sept. 3 at 8:30 at the home of Mrs. Donald Ralsten, Egbert Rd. This is an important meeting.

low accents on the garage door and street side of the house, to white and a heavenly shade of turquoise. The affect is beautiful and adds a lift to the whole street!

The seven health and welfare agencies for which we collected in our 1957 drive, are joining us again in our second Combined Charities Drive. The agencies are: Community Chest, Red Cross, Heart Research (replacing the Heart Society), Cerebral Palsy, Nephrosis and Arthritis.

In deciding what the amount of our individual contributions will be, we must not forget that many people, stricken with certain diseases, may now be past the dangerous stage but will continue to need financial and medical assistance for many years in order to complete their physical and mental rehabilitation.

While the Community Chest and Red Cross deal with a variety of services to individuals and families, including nursing, disaster assistance, courses in First Aid and water safety, the rest of the agencies deal directly with illness.

In many instances miracle cures seem impossible to achieve, but the research and rehabilitation go on. So must the financial assistance which we as individuals can give.

As a community, we will want our total contribution to go "Over The Top", if only to prove again that our Combined Drive is the best way in which we can help.

Nursery School

New movies of last years' nursery school children will be featured at the meeting tonight of present nursery school mothers.

All members of the group are urged to attend in order to participate in discussions of school procedures and rules.

Tonight's meeting will be at 8 p.m. in the basement of the village hall. Refreshments will be served.

Board of Election Cards

The address verification cards sent to villagers by the Board of Elections must be returned by September 18.

It was learned this week by your reporter that unless the cards are returned your name will not appear in registration lists this fall. This will make you ineligible to vote.

Personals

An eagerly awaited reunion took place on Friday, Aug. 29, when the Charles Pikes of Egbert Road met Mr. George Showkier upon his return from Beirut, Lebanon.

Mr. and Mrs. Showkier, who are Mary Jane's parents, will celebrate their fortieth wedding anniversary on September 15. However, since they plan to leave very soon for their home in Tampa, Fla. the family celebration was held on Labor Day at the Pikes.

We hope to present some of Mr. Showkier's personal impressions of Lebanon in next week's column.

A public hearing was held before the regular council meeting on Tuesday, September 2, to present proposed changes in the village industrial zoning regulations. Thirty-villagers attended the meet-

The principal changes in the zoning regulations were concerned with creating a requirement that no industrial activity shall take place closer than 200 feet to residential property and that a limit was set on the amount of space that can be used by industry on any parcel of land.

Two areas in the village were affected. One is along Krick Rd., where the land is already zoned for industrial use. The other is a parcel of land located on Northfield Road next to the Wigglesworth Co. This was changed to industrial use. It is expected that the Weldon Tool Co. will build a modern, well-landscaped machine tool plant there within the next two years.

The new zoning ordinance also provides that no industry can locate closer than 200 feet to Alexander Road. It means that any industry permitted a building facing Alexander Road must be 200 feet back from the road.

The changes were recommended by the Planning Commission after a thorough study and accepted by council.

The ordinance, numbered 1958-36 was passed unanimously by council under suspension of rules.

During the regular portion of the council meeting legislation was passed creating the post of part-time third deputy marshal. Robert R. Vargo was appointed to the post.

Cub Scouts

The Cub Scouts' annual Little Olympics will be held tomorrow, Friday, September 12 at 7 p.m. at Walton Park.

Boys participating will be divided into two age groups 8 and 9 years old, and 10 and 11 year olds.

Separate competitions will be held in each of the following events 25 yard dash, 50 yard dash, high jump, broad jump, ball throw and half-mile race.

Both groups will participate in the shuttle relay race of 200 yards.

Residents of the village, as well as parents and friends of Cub Scouts, are invited to attend and cheer for their favorite Cubs.

Nursery School

Cooperative Nursery School mothers are also accepting orders for gummed address labels and cloth name tags.

The labels, which are .300 for $1.00 will come in handy in the change of address notices we must mail, while the iron-on cloth name tags are almost a must for nursery school and kindergarten children. Price of the cloth name tags is $1.00 for each fifty tags.

For information or to place your order for any of the above mentioned articles please call Lynn Decker, BE 2-4459; Jean Arters, BE 2-0196, or Mary Wells, BE 2-0148.

Movies of the nursery school children of 1957 as well as a re-showing of movies of the first group of children to attend the Walton Hills Nursery School were featured at the meeting held last Thursday.

A lively discussion period followed Director Jean Hack's talk on nursery school problems and orientation of pre-school children.

Learn - to - Swim Program

A total of 104 Walton Hills children participated in the 1958 Learn To Swim Program sponsored by the Walton Hills Estates Club under the direction of a Red Cross Water Safety Supervisor.

The water show, which had been scheduled as a grand finale to the Learn-to-swim program on Labor Day was cancelled because of inclement weather, was given Sunday, Sept. 7 at Walton Park.

The water show, written by Nellie Colagross, was titled Island of the Sun People, and presented the following village youngsters in featured roles: Princess Nea, Crystal bott and Tom Wagner; Natives, Linda Freibott, Nancy Mathieson, Jimmy and Tony Struna, John Parch and Billy Kray. Duncan White ruled over all as Chief Hum-Hum.

Members of the water ballet were Linda Freibott, Nancy Mathieson and Crystal Gladstone.

Miss Joretta Brown, who teaches Speech and Dramatics at Bedford High School, was the Life Guard at Walton Lake throughout the summer and directed the entire water show and ballet.

Swimmers who passed the intermediate Swimming tests were: Stacy Ankney, Eric and Teddie Ford, Kathy Gartner, Connie Hack Karen Johnson, Keith Kral, Marcia Means, George, James and Mary Rada, Sant Ralsten and Joanne Velanek.

You will not be eligible to vote if your name is not on the list.

Combined Charities Drive

Walton Hills Combined Charities Drive Chairman Jean Hack received official notice this week of the withdrawal of the Cancer Society from all United or Combined drives. Mr. Don Hornbeck, Chairman of the society's Cleveland chapter, stated that in the opinion of the officials of the National Headquarters, united appeals and combined drives had not been a success.

This will in no way affect the forthcoming Combined Charities campaign in the village. Nor will it alter the policy of discouraging individual drives in this community. To permit individual drives would defeat the purpose of the Combined Charities Drive which was to eliminate the constant ringing of door bells and weekly campaigns.

Mrs. Hack indicated that if any Villagers wished to give money to help fight Cancer, it will be turned over to a Cancer Research group in this area.

Co-Op Nursery Tots
 Liven Village Hall

Three mornings a week the sound of childish prattle mingles with the more serious and dignified goings-on at Walton Hills Village Hall.

The little building, originally designed as a grocery store, is the center of all town activities. One of the most successful is a cooperative nursery, now in its fifth year.

From 9:30 to 11:30 a. m. Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays the village's principal full-time employees, Clerk Merlin E. Bement and Police Chief Sterling D. Walton, share the building with 25 three-to-five-year-olds.

Most of the time the children confine their persons and energies to the basement playroom. But once in a while they and their noisy enthusiasm spill over into the official sanctums upstairs.

The school is run by Mrs. Jean Hack, with Mrs. Myrtle Smith as assistant teacher. Two mothers help at each session, chauffeuring the pupils, serving mid-morning snacks and generally helping to prevent pandemonium.

"We always have a waiting list, but 25 is the most we can accommodate," said Mrs. Hack. "We believe our charge of $8 a month is one of the lowest in the county."

Pupils whose mothers can't help out occasionally pay a $10 fee. Mrs. Lynn Decker is president of the nursery school board of trustees.

A number of fathers helped build indoor play equipment and equipment for the playground to the rear of the municipal building at Alexander and Walton Rds. Chief construction engineer was James Salamon, who put up a glider-type swing that's a favorite of the tykes.

Because Walton Hills still has a semirural atmosphere, children at this nursery school are treated to occasional horseback rides, can survey continuously the activities of a flock of chickens next door, and have only to trot up the street with their adult companions to observe grazing cows and sheep.

STORY HOUR FOR YOUNG FOLKS finds all but one listening with rapt attention to the teacher, Mrs. Myrtle Smith.

ROCKIN' THE BOAT IS FUN for these three-year-olds at Walton Hills cooperative nursery school. Gleeful passengers are Lydia Poesse, Robin Moyse, Lori Cantwell, Sandy Salamon, Susie Arters and Dale Lindauer.

Our efforts to conduct a single yearly solicitation depends upon your support of it and your refusal to participate in any individual drives conducted by non-cooperating organizations.

Contributions are tax deductible and one check may be written covering all agencies after you have designated the amount you wish to go to each one.

Money collected in the drive goes directly to charity. Expenses for the drive are covered by: The Walton Hills Women's Club, Walton Hills Men's Club, and the Walton Hills Estates Club.

Walton Hills is again exercising its policy of one drive for all worthy agencies. This in the face of pressure from several national fund raising organizations that have adopted policies which do not permit them to benefit from combined drives such as ours.

Walton Hills is being observed by local as well as national fund raising organizations. This is because of an important difference between our drive and other united fund appeals. In our drive, donors are given the opportunity to designate exactly how much they wish to give to agencies of their choice. In most united appeals the money is divided according to a decision made by a central committee, usually on a percentage basis.

Walton Hills Rangers

Tickets are going fast for the up-coming Hay Ride and Dance scheduled by the Rangers for Oct. 18. The Hay Ride and Dance will be held at the Black Beauty Riding Academy on Dunham Road. Tickets are $2.00 per person and may be obtained from any member of the club.

S-4C Nicholas Mandato son of Mr and Mrs. Antonio Mandato, Walton Rd. returned home September 11 after serving two and a half years with the Army, his last post in Metz, France.

During his stay in Europe, Nicholas visited two small towns of special interest to the Mandato family. The village of Gildone home of his grandparents, and the city of St. Bartholomew, his mother's birthplace.

gathered at the Mandato home for a family party. Nicholas showed his many color slides and movies of the places he had visited.

Nicholas is very happy to be home again, and is now enrolled as a freshman at Kent State University.

Combined Charities Drive

The second Walton Hills Combined Drive starts tomorrow, Friday, October 3 and will continue through Friday, October 17.

Over sixty residents have volunteered their services in an effort to make our second drive an even bigger success than the first. These volunteers include Executive Board members, Agency Representatives, Area Captains and Area Workers, plus the much needed bookkeepers and typists.

Please remember how many unknown people may be helped by just one of your dollars and then think of the number of services provided our village by one or more of these health and welfare agencies.

For more information on agencies participating in our drive, please call members of the Executive Board, Captains and workers and Agency Representatives.

Christian Science Churches

Recognition of man's true nature as God's spiritual image and likeness is a central theme of the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Soul and Body" which will be heard in Christian Science services Sunday.

From the King James Version of the Bible will be read the following (11 Corinthians 5:1): "For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."

Also, bringing out man's spiritual nature is this passage to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:

"Rightly understood, instead of possessing a sentient material form, man has a sensationless body; and God, the Soul of man and of all existence, being perpetual in His own individuality, harmony, and immortality, imparts and perpetuates these qualities in man, -through Mind, not matter" (280:25-30).

ent from our own school days."

In answer to one father's plaintive query "what's become of the multiplication tables?", we learned the tables are still there but are taught in a different manner.

We can be proud of our schools and teachers in the Bedford System and although parents, teachers, principals, et al, probably breathed a sigh of relief when Open House was over - it's like Thanksgiving and Christmas - we're already looking forward to the next one!

A combined parents and Committee meeting will be held on Friday, Nov. 21 at the village hall. Women's Club

Two very interesting ideas were presented as Ways and Means projects at the November 19 meeting of the Women's Club.

The first project involves the sale of handbags. These bags are woven and come in almost every color, either in solid colors or a wide range of combinations, such as navy-white, etc. They are available in two popular shapes, samples of which were displayed at the meeting. For more information about the handbags, please call Carol Yurichak at BE 2-2231.

The Women's Traveling Basket, which has been in circulation for some time, was displayed to the members present at the meeting. At that time the basket contained several interesting items including linen, jewelry, a bath mitt, baked goods and a jar of preserves.

The basket will travel from neighbor to neighbor. When it reaches your house check the contents, select any items appealing to you, and drop what you think they are worth in the donation box which you will find inside.

Anyone wishing to contribute articles to the basket may do so, before passing the basket on. Idea is not to keep the basket in your home more than a day or two.

Other business taken care of during the meeting was the third and final reading of the Board recommendations on By-Laws. A vote was taken and the changes were accepted as read.

Club members wishing to contribute $1 for a Christmas Gift Package for hospital shutins may call Betty Walton immediately. Her number is BE 2-4453.

So often nowadays, young adults are given publicity for doing something "just for kicks" that it is a pleasure when someone like Tom Wagner engages in an activity everyone can be proud of.

Tom, who has proved his ability in matters scientific, symbolizes in a way, all those young people who work very hard at worthwhile things.

If parents, schools, communities and friends must share the blame for delinquency, those same people can share the pride when someone like Tom happens along.

Lots of luck, Tom, and best wishes for success in your chosen career.

Air Force Survival Instructor Jack Tommer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tommer, Alexander Road, is spending the holiday season with his family. He will return to Stead Air Force Base in Nevada on January 5.

There is much activity on hand at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester J. Rondina, McLellan Dr., as the date nears for the coming marriage of their daughter Diane to Mr. Robert Weiland. Robert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Weiland, of Garfield Heights.

Ceremony will be at 10 a.m. Saturday, December 27, at St. Mary's Church, Bedford.

Diane has chosen her cousin, Dorothy Hallohan, as her maid of honor. Bridesmaids will be Mary Ann Salzano and Shirley Biros. Robert's brother Frank will be best man and Tom Bennett and Henry Rondina will serve as ushers.

Diane was presented with a silver tea set at a surprise shower Dec. 5, given in her honor by a group of close friends and neighbors.

Mrs. Charles Pike (Mary Jane) thought the following lines expressed her ideas of Christmas so well she was interested in passing them along to the readers of this column:

"Blessed are the parents who know how big Christmas is and how small.

"Blessed are they who lead the way to the manger, rather than the toy counter, at Christmas time. Their children will follow them.

"Blessed is the mother who stops in the midst of the cookie-making and the turkey-stuffing and the card-addressing to hear the angels sing. Her children will hear heavenly music.

"Blessed are the parents who bring a share of their possessions to the cradle of the Christ Child. Their children will follow them—none of them empty-handed.

"Blessed is the family that knows how big Christmas is—and how small. Their whole year will shine with happy memories".

Our thanks to Ruth Marquardt, who for four years kept us up-to-date and interested in all our village activities. Our congratulations also to Bob Marquardt on his new position in Public Relations with the U. S. Steel Corp. in Pittsburgh.

Call in your news or holiday plans to me at BE 2-2686 or drop a note in my mailbox at 7314 Walton Rd. Remember — the things which are of interest to you will also be of interest to the readers of this column.

Gift Plants

Did you get a poinsettia as a gift this year? You can keep it looking bright and fresh for a month or so and the foilage will stay green even longer.

Plenty of light is important but too much direct sunlight will cause fading. Extremes in day and night room temperatures will yellow the leaves and cause them to drop. Place your plant in a shallow tray with moistened pebbles in a room where the humidity is high and the temperature constant. Once a day water the plant with lukewarm water.

If you wish to hold this plant from year to year, give it a resting period from the last of February to May. Gradually cut down the amount of water until the leaves drop. Place the plant where a 60 degree temperature is maintained. Cut it back to six inches at the end of the rest period and replot in fresh soil. Now you can give it more light and water. You may put it out during the summer but bring it in again in the fall.

Boy Scouts

Faced with the real possibility of having our Boy Scout Troop shifted outside the village or perhaps disbanded due to difficulties in securing a leader, Frank Stevens, Alexander Rd., has volunteered and been accepted as Scout Master. Under the leadership of Dan Taussig and his troop committee of fathers, our scout troop has become one of the finest and most enthusiastic in this area. Mr. Stevens said it would be most regrettable to see it end and that he and his committee, together with the cooperation of the boys and their parents, would strive to maintain the high standards of this group.

Members of the fathers troop committee are: Joseph Samson, Vernon Thiele, Frank Richer, James Piwonka, P. Scimoni and A. DeRussy. A new committee will be formed in March. There is a desperate need for fathers to serve on the committee. This group meets once a month and together with the scout master they plan and outline outdoor activities, skills and all phases of scouting. Much of the scout program is based on what the committee sets up for the boys.

Trained by Mr. Taussig are three scouts, Frank Sorgatz, Johnny Sacash, Ronnie Brown, who with the patrol leaders are doing an outstanding job of assisting in the operation of the troop.

Little League

Any adult male in our village who would like to work with the Little League during the summer, please call Jack Laing at BE 2-2686.

Women's Club

Women's Club had a good attendance at the Jan. 28th meeting. Sixty-eight ladies were present to hear Dr. Winfield Doyle, Curator of Education at the Health Museum, lecture on "Trouble Begins at Forty" in which he discussed the various phases of physical, mental and social well-being as applied to women during these all-important years.

Dr. Doyle praised women of middle age who resisted "hardening of the attitude" and "mental decay" by going back to school, developing hobbies, doing volunteer work, keeping interested in the world around them and left us with the thought "It is better to be 70 years young than 40 years old."

A brief business meeting followed the speaker. Two more Traveling Baskets will be started in areas not yet covered.

A full course turkey and ham dinner has been scheduled for Sunday, March 8 at the Village Hall. Tickets are $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children up to 10 years of age. Tickets are being sold by the following ladies: Giselle Brown, Jean Ellis, Maxine Featherstun, Alice Kibler, Naomi Kelley, Helen Laing, Margarete Noeth and Bonnie Rizer.

A movie on wild life is scheduled for July 13, and some time in July the troop is planning to go swimming at Hudson Springs.

The troop has purchased two new tents and cooking equipment, which will help future campouts run more smoothly.

Scout Master Dan Thiel, has a leave of absence of several weeks this summer, so assistants Ralph Maggio and Frank Stevens have taken over.

The girl's softball team won its first game with Central girls 12 to 8. Sophrona Buzzelli pitched, with Anne Carol Radicelli catching.

The girls wore their new hats, compliments of the Walton Hills Women's Club. This week, they will be sporting their new blouses with Walton Hills written on them.

Anyone wishing to watch the girls in action is welcome to their next two games, Tuesday July 28, Central at Walton Hills; Thursday, August 13, Central at Central.

Junior Olympics:

Those children, Boys and girls, from 9-15 who qualify, may enter the Cleveland Suburban Junior Olympics to be held July 29.

Tom Watson will conduct the test during free time. There are three age groups — 9-12, 12-13, and 14-15. The 9-13 year olds compete for: 50-yard dash, standing broad jump, running broad jump, and softball throw.

The 14 and 15 year olds compete for the same, but have a 75-yard dash instead of the 50-yard dash.

Mr. Watson would like to have Walton Hills well represented, so be sure and see him soon regarding Junior Olympics.

Bike Brigade:

Each Monday at 10:30 a.m. at the top of the hill near the park, 8-14 year olds will receive correct instruction in bike safety and will compete in skill and speed on the bicycle. There may be a grand finale bicycle brigade at the Northfield race track.

Exhibition night will be held Wednesday, July 29 at 6 p.m. Two girls' softball games will be the main attraction. Handcrafts will be on display and probably some Junior Olympic feats will be exhibited. However, if many children are eligible for the Cleveland Suburban Junior Olympics, the exhibition may be postponed until Wednesday, August 12.

Little League

Walton Hills Little League Varsity clinched the first half championship of the Cuyahoga Valley Little League by downing Newburgh Heights in a spine tingling playoff game 1 to 0. Phil Bordonaro struck out thirteen batters while allowing only one hit. Jim Struna got two of the six hits made by Walton Hills. The only run scored was when Tom Strachan singled, stole second base, and scored on a single by Andy Ramos.

Walton Hills had previously beaten Newburgh Heights (The New York Yankees of the Cuyahoga League) and North Royalton, to go into a tie for first place and force a playoff game. Newburgh Heights has won the league championship three years in succession.

By winning the first half championship, Walton Hills automatically qualifies for the league championship game at the end of the season. Congratulations Boys!

Dance Club

The Dance Club held a dinner at Fox Hall last week concluding ten dance lessons. They learned the Fox Trot, Rhumba, Waltz and Cha Cha.

It was a lot of fun and really worthwhile. In fact, it was so popular, many have indicated that they would like to have a refresher course in the fall. Let's see what can be done along those lines!

Personals

UP IN WALTON HILLS ^{8/13/59} Surprise Candidates File At Last Minute

by Georgia Pace

A few more hats were thrown into the ring just before the August 5 deadline for village offices.

Nelson B. Grashaw filed his nominating petition at the Cuyahoga County Board of Elections for the office of mayor.

Other new candidates filing for office of Councilman are Louis J. Carucci, Harold C. Moyses and Benjamin S. Pace.

Recreation Program

Bicycle Brigades are held every Monday from 10 to 11 a.m. at Rotary Drive. Skill and safety in the use of the bicycle is being stressed. Parents should urge their children to take part in this activity for the safety of the children.

Monday afternoons are proving quite popular from 1 to 4 p.m. for the hiking group. They have had lots of fun exploring unusual parts of Metropolitan Park. It's a good idea to take along a snack for rest time.

Golf lessons are continuing on Tuesday and Wednesday mornings with much interest. Some of the young golfers look very good. A golf tournament is being planned at the end of the summer.

Practice for the younger girls' softball team is on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons from 2:30 to 3:30. Tom Watson is trying to arrange a game for them with another team soon.

Future plans for handicrafts include soap carving, paper mache, moccasins for larger sizes and cork work.

Cub Scouts

Cub Scout Pack meeting was held at the village hall instead of the planned Weiner roast at the park because of rain.

It was an interesting meeting, as "Nature" was the theme of the month. The Weblo Den had a display in which Paul Bedo displayed a live toad and gave some informative facts on it.

Three impressive ceremonies were held. Garry Otaviano left Cub Scouts to be a Boy Scout; Kurt Warnke was installed into the Weblo Den and Carl Warnke became a new Cub Scout.

Instead of the August Cub Scout Pack meeting, a hike and weiner roast has been planned for Saturday, August 22. All Cub Scouts are to report to the village hall at 6 p.m. and will hike to the Willis street entrance to Metropolitan Park. Parents and the children are to meet them there at 7 p.m. Don't forget to bring hot dogs and refreshments.

There will be no August Committee meeting.

Combined Charities

Just eight weeks remain to fill the banks passed out to you recently! If you did not get one and would like one, please call Mrs. Walt Kartman, BE 2-1391.

One drive a year eliminates much duplicate work and relieves all residents of nuisance door knocking all year long. For this convenience, residents must support one drive a year with intelligent, planned, generous giving. Walton Hills has had a splendid record in previous drives.

Little League

In spite of a well-pitched game by Phil Bordonaro, the Walton Hills Little League Varsity was defeated by Seven Hills in the Cuyahoga Valley Little League Championship Game played Sunday, August 9, at Seven Hills.

However, the season was a success as this was the highest standing that a Walton Hills team has achieved since it entered the league. Congratulations boys, maybe you can take the title next year.

Combined Charities

The seven charities included in the Combined Charities Drive are: Arthritis, Kidney Foundation (Formerly Nephrosis), Cancer Research, Heart Research, Cerebral Palsy, Red Cross and Community Chest. Have you given intelligent thinking to the division of your gifts to these charities?

Your choice should be based on work of the various organizations, your favorite charities, and how much you would give if each were an individual drive.

Walton Hills Sets Dates For Annual Combined Charities Drive

9/17/59

Walton Hills will hold its 1959 yearly drive for all charities October 5 through 19. The same seven charities that have been included in previous drives will be: Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation, United Appeal (Community Chest, Red Cross and Cerebral Palsy), National Kidney Diseases (formerly Nephrosis), Heart Research and Cancer Research.

Since the National Heart and Cancer Societies do not permit local units to accept money collected in combined drives, Walton Hills, will follow last year's policy including Heart Research and Cancer Research in the yearly drive, to be allocated through the Cleveland Foundation.

The majority of the residents of the village have been pleased with one charity drive a year and have given past drives excellent support through donations and service.

Over sixty workers and a board of directors of fifteen are busy helping Walton Hills residents complete their yearly charity obligation adequately but efficiently in a single effort.

The drive is financed by the Walton Hills Women's Club and Men's Club.

Hospital Soot Walton Hills I

by Georgia Pace

Residents of Alexander Road have complained that their houses, cars and clothes have been spoiled by soot drifting down from the 200-foot smokestack of the power plant at Hawthornden State Hospital.

Mayor Thomas Young said he hopes that a series of meetings with the officials of the hospital will find the cause of the nuisance.

Although the hospital is located about a mile away in Sagamore Hills, the smoke has been drifting in the direction of Alexander Road. Mrs. Clarence Rizer, 14229 Alexander, said that there has been smoke as long as she has lived in Walton Hills — 24 years. In the past two years it has become terrible, she stated.

The hospital superintendent, Dr. Howard Peppel, said the hospital will be glad to correct any deficiencies in its filtering system, but until the real source of the smoke problems is found, nothing can be done.

Estates Club

With summer drawing to a close the Estates Club held its annual Labor Day picnic. About 65 persons attended. The climax of the evening was the special raffle held to offset the tremendous loss suffered in the fire this summer.

Winners were as follows: electric skillet, Dale Keller of Walton Road; electric fry cooker, William Weisenburg of Meadow Park Drive; coffee maker, Walter Featherstun of Orchard Hill Drive; electric portable mixer, Miss Darlene Hoon of Meadow Park Drive; golf cart, Frank Walters of Alexander Road; electric griddle, Al Hook of Bedford; steam iron, Mrs. Lucille Sievers of Orchard Hill Drive; toaster, Joseph Klukan of Stuble Lane; ice crusher, Frank Parch of Walton Road; eight volume encyclopedia, Nick Lippucci of Orchard Hill Drive; hair dryer, Robert of Sagamore Road; bowl-Frank Eckle of Cleveland. Only one-half of the membership participating, a profit of $100 was realized. While this is more than the July 4th raffle, it fell $100 short of the trustee's expectations.

If there are any outright donations for the cause, send them to Mrs. Ben Pace, 17836 Meadow Park Drive, Walton Hills.

Circle September 28 for the annual Estates Club Clambake to be held at Fox Hall. Details will be in a future issue.

Walton Hills Roads Slated For Fall Surface Treating

9-24-1959

by Georgia Pace

At the council meeting held September 1, council

Passed Ordinance No. 1959-29. Authorizing the mayor and clerk of the village to enter into a contract with the lowest and best bidder for the surface treatment of certain streets in the village. Introduced by councilman McCarty.

Passed Ordinance 1959-30. An ordinance providing for employment of a part time first deputy marshal in the village. Introduced by Councilman Ralston.

Road News — Once again your village roads will be, or already are, surface treated. A few of the newer roads, Woodlake, Spanghurst (south) and Meadowpark (north) will be getting three more inches of slag.

Prior to slag application, the roads will be scarified and the B-119 slag worked in and then rolled well and shot with an MC-O road asphalt material. Logan Drive and Stuble Lane will be oiled soon. To repeat an often told message. All the village family asks is that all of us have a little more respect for these roads. They are not built for high speed starts and stops.

Incidentally, village roads carry a slower speed limit, which obviously some of our folks overlook.

Water News

Residents may need water lines in the future, but a village survey shows there's no such need yet.

About one-third of the recently sent questionnaires have been returned according to Clerk Merlin Bement. Only 10 per cent of respondents would like to be served by water lines. At present, the only water lines in the village serve industries on Northfield and Krick Roads.

Apparently, the surveys show the water table is holding for residential use. However, expansion of industry could drain our water supply.

Women's Club

Women's Club is planning a Dessert Card Party and Style Show to be held in Taylor's Auditorium at Southgate October 8 at 7 p.m. There will be door and table prizes. Tickets at $1.25 are available through Mrs. Cliff Curtis, 7275 North Meadow Park Drive, BE 2-4120. Non-residents are welcome.

Road Commissioner Arvid Wagner reported that the contract for double surface treatment on Village roads has been almost completed.

The contract for surfacing of North Meadow Park, Spanghurst and Woodlake has been let and work will begin soon.

Mayor Thomas Young reported to council that he has given strict orders to all members of the village police department that all traffic laws must be strictly enforced especially on all village roads.

The double surface treatment of village roads recently completed cost the village over $13,000. Another contract recently entered into will cost in the excess of $10,000 for three other streets in our village. Hot-rodgers speeding and tearing up these roads will not be tolerated.

Also of utmost importance is the safety of our many school children who now must be on the roads frequently. It simply is not necessary to travel at an excessive rate of speed and all violators will be prosecuted.

These orders have also been issued recently by the Governor of Ohio to the State Highway Patrol. All courts and law enforcing agencies were requested to do everything in their power to stop the increasing traffic accident rate which amounts to a terrific loss in life and property damage.

Mayor Young reported many drivers are ignoring the flash light at the corner of Alexander and Walton Roads, and strict attention is being given this spot. Village inhabitants are violating this sign

Combined Charities

Greater Cleveland is watching to see if Walton Hills will have a successful charity drive October 5-19. Success depends upon each resident giving intelligent, generous donations to the only house to house campaign for charity until the fall of 1960. Charities not included in the drive should receive mail donations if you so desire.

We ask that you support one drive a year for the following charities: Community Chest; Red Cross Appeal; Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation; National Kidney Disease (Nephrosis); Heart Research and Cancer Research.

Here are some questions you should answer before making your donation.

Does this amount include at least the same amount you would give if each drive were individual?

How will you allocate your donations to the seven charities in the drive?

Have you considered pledge cards if you do not have enough cash handy to give the amount you wish at this time?

Can you give a little more than last year?

All charity expenses have been going up. Is it possible for you to make up some of the loss which occurs when someone is unable or unwilling to accept any charity obligation?

Adult Learn-To-Swim

American Red Cross is again offering an adult Learn-to-swim program at the Shaker Heights Senior High School, at Alderside and Lee Streets, the ten-lesson course will start Monday, October 12, a 7:30 to 8:30, and run for ten weeks. Cross water safety instructors. Cost of the program will be approximately $1.

While the program is open to anyone, it is aimed especially at those mothers who will be operating the children's learn-to-swim programs next summer.

The course is the same as that offered to the children starting with learning to get the face into the water and proceeding to rotary breathing, floating, basic strokes and standing dives.

Several from Walton Hills took this training last year. They found it not only strengthened their own swimming, but improved their teaching methods in last summer's swimming program.

For further information, please call Mrs. Kenneth Decker, BE 2-BE 2-1608.

Workers Primed For Charity Drive

by Georgia Pace

The third, once-a-year, house-to-house canvass for all charities will be held in Walton Hills Monday through Monday, October 19.

Community Chest, Red Cross and Cerebral Palsy of United Appeal, Arthritis and Rheumatism, National Kidney Disease (formerly Nephrosis), Heart Research and Cancer Research are included in the Walton Hills drive.

As much as possible, the same workers have not been asked to serve more than once. The Board, or captains, serve for two years and are made up of two representatives from each area of the village.

Each year, one of the two representatives of each area is chosen, while the other representative completes a second year of work.

Serving their third year on the drive are Mrs. Theodore Hack, general chairman; Mrs. Kenneth Decker, banker; and bookkeepers, Mrs. Russell Jones and Mrs. Merle Cross.

The drive has been most satisfactory in Walton Hills, where the number of people to serve, and who are able to serve, is limited.

The majority of the village residents support the drive well and are pleased to have eliminated monthly door-to-door collections by various charities.

No charity has suffered from the combined drive. In some cases, the charities have even received more donations than in individual drives.

Young Faces Three Challengers For Post Of Walton Hills Mayor

10/15/59

A four-way race is lined up for the office of mayor in the Village of Walton Hills.

Incumbent Mayor Thomas G. Young faces three challengers: Nelson B. Grashaw, 135 McLelland Drive; Joseph P. Pidala, 17605 Egbert Road; and Stanley Zejewski, 18374 Jefferson Drive.

Pidala, 37, is an attorney and a veteran. He has lived in the village for three years, is married, and has three children: Ricky, 6, Sherry, 4, and Candice, 15 months.

The youthful candidate attended Fenn College, Cleveland Marshall Law School and Akron Law School. He is a member of the Ohio State, Cuyahoga County, and Cleveland Bar Associations.

He believes that due to the fast growth of the community, new laws are needed to maintain the privacy and protect the property valuation of the home owners.

Such laws, he feels, should govern the construction, size, type and cost of future homes built in Walton Hills.

"Developers should be kept under strict observation and forced to comply with laws relating to the construction of roads prior to the issuing of any building permits", Pidala stated.

"I would attempt to keep unemployment in our village at a minimum. I would make it a point to see that all qualified villagers are gainfully employed by industrial plants near or within our area. "Maintenance of roads, legislation pertaining to safety factors within our village and many of our out-moded ordinances should be immediately investigated to comply with the standards we now enjoy within our village." Pidala told the Times-Register.

"Garbage collections and a continuing road repair service are greatly needed for our citizens," Pidala said. "Present and future recreational planning should be activated for our growing number of children. An efficient and clean government should be maintained with all negotiations kept in the open and made known to our villagers".

Zejewski, a native Clevelander, has lived in the suburb for five years. He is a World War II vet and has been a steelworker with

Jones and Laughlin Steel Corp. for 24 years.

Items in his platform include: "Walton Hills, a growing community, should be provided with bus service. It adjoins Bedford, and arrangements should be made to extend the Bedford bus system to Walton Hills and Oakwood Village.

"Better protection for children as they get on and off school busses.

"Correction of bad drainage sewer systems. Raw sewage presently drains on to roads and then on to people's lots. This should be stopped.

A government more responsible to the citizens. Citizens attend meetings but the Mayor and Council ignore their complaints.

"Better zoning for Walton Hills".

Personals

If this personal column seems to appear rather skimpy, it's because I have nothing to report. I'm sure something interesting must have happened to at least one family in Walton Hills over the week.

Has your neighbor had a birthday party for a member of the family, an anniversary party, a wedding, or just an informal get together?

Have you taken a trip or are you entertaining visitors from out-of-town? People are sometimes shy and feel the news isn't of importance, but don't you enjoy reading about your friends? I'll be only too glad to report any news item you may have. Call me at BE 2-0474.

A reminder that Tuesday, November 3, is the day you exercise your right to vote. Be a good citizen. The only way to help your candidate win is to give him your vote.

Please note - the November committee meeting will be November 13 and the Pack meeting November 20 due to the Thanksgiving holiday.

The Pack would like to thank all the villagers who helped make the paper drive a huge success. The trailer was almost full.

This is an excellent example of the cooperation of neighbors under Mutual Aid.

The agency or charity must be approved by the Cleveland Chamber of Commerce solicitations committee, the village council and or Mayor, and the Walton Hills Combined Charities Board.

Walton Hills Gets $10,000 Chunk Of Northfield Park Track Tax

By Georgia Pace

Mayor Thomas G. Young advised council that the Village of Walton Hills had received from the State of Ohio the sum of $10,259,40, its share of tax on parimutuel wagers at Northfield Park from the two harness horse-racing meets held there during the summer and fall, 1959.

Importance of this collection to taxpayers of the village can be appreciated when it is noted that the village tax levy of $2 per thousand dollars of tax valuation of property will not produce more than approximately $8,700 from residential property valuation of $4,339,370 in 1959.

Largest proportion of taxes in the village collected by the County Treasurer, being $21.90 per thousand dollars of valuation in 1959, is for school purposes. Bedford Board of Education is an independent taxing authority and the school tax is not subject to the control of the council of the village.

In 1957 and 1958 no share of the parimutuel wagering at Northfield Park was received by Walton Hills. Northfield Park is partly located in the Village of Walton Hills through which flows approximately 70 percent of traffic to and from the races held there. All such tax collected was paid by the state to Northfield because of the physical location of parimutuel machines in Northfield Village. In January, 1959 the mayor and council appealed to the Governor and Legislature proposing amendment of the state law which would treat Walton Hills more equitably.

Considerable opposition was encountered in the new and busy 103rd Legislative Assembly, which enacted into law only about one-fourth of all bills introduced.

Ultimately, however, Section 3769.081 of the Ohio Revised Code was amended and the Village of Walton Hills has received $10,259.40 as its share of parimutuel wagering at Northfield Park in 1959.

In fact it was so successful, the club is planning to put into book form all the recipes represented.

After everyone ate their fill and then some, Mrs. Emanuel Stora presented the program consisting of two nationality dances, Christmas carols; "Silent night" sung in French and German as well as English; and representatives of the different countries told of their Christmas customs. ELSIE STORA THERIOT

ELSIE STORA THERIOT wrote this poem in memory of her friend, EVA PARCH.
Eva died in October of 1961.

Elsie penned, "Eva served our Walton Hills Women's Club as secretary (1953-54) and treasurer (1955-56). At the January, 1960 meeting our club recognized the honor bestowed upon Eva when the A. Ladygo Nursery named a beautiful new pink-spoon mum in her honor."

"Fallen Petals"

We're petals of a bloom in life's garden
Born to spread fragrance by kind deeds;
Taught to stand erect to show dignity
To bow our head and ask for our needs.
To be radiant in beauty through happiness
Freshened each morn by the dew of a tear.
When weary, to lift our face to sunlight for strength
Or meditate by night under stars that seem near.
Some petals will cling 'til the winds blow fierce
From the raging storms of ills;
Others depart while yet a new bloom
According to what our Maker wills
But memories live on, and beauty reigns still in "Fallen Petals".
