WINE MERCHANTS SINCE 1820

Dear Client,

I first met Wolfgang Grunewald about twenty years ago, at a Bipin Desai weekend in Los Angeles. At the time, I did not know the depths of his collection or who he really was, only that he knew everyone there, and that he commanded great respect.

Over the next few years, I got to know him a little better every time I saw him, always at a Bipin weekend or tasting, either in Los Angeles or in Paris. Bipin would always take me aside and remind me how tremendous his collection was, eliciting visions of ancient artifacts dancing in my head. When I came up with the idea to do a 'Top 100' wine weekend back in 2004, Bipin and I made a short list of 10-15 collectors from whom to source wines, and Wolfgang was on the list, at Bipin's insistence. And thanks to Bipin, I got to visit Wolfgang's cellar.

That was my first trip to Appenzell, a glorious mountain community about an hour outside of Zurich. I had come to hand-carry wines back to New York (back when you could still do that – I literally had them in the overhead compartment) for my first 'Top 100' weekend in 2004. While Wolfgang had a small cellar in Los Angeles (small by Wolf's standards - $1.5 million at the time!), his main cellar was nestled away in the mountains of Switzerland, his primary residence. The rolling green hills are breathtakingly beautiful, perfect for hiking, and you will see many pictures of life in Appenzell in the catalog. This is a community that still to this day votes on legislative changes in the Town Square by a show of hands! For a New Yorker like me, visiting Appenzell was almost like time traveling; especially when I got to Wolf's cellar. Of course, the cellar was and is temperature and humidity-controlled, all as ideal as you can possibly imagine. Wolfgang is a big humidity fanatic, and many of the greatest collectors, the ones that collect for decades, will tell you the same thing. Monitor your humidity and keep it +70%! If you look at the wines in the catalog, then you can understand what looking into Wolf's cellars for the first time was like for me. Picture eyes brightening, heart rate accelerating, and saliva being wiped from the corner of my mouth.

While Wolf has drunk many of his best and oldest wines down to the last few bottles or magnums, there is still plenty to go around. While he has not stopped buying the newest releases of his favorite producers, he rarely drinks young; meaning a wealth of owc's and young blue chips as well for your collecting pleasure.

That first trip, I came for bottles such as magnums of 1928 Latour, 1971 DRC Montrachet and 1945 Taylor, and bottles of 1929 Latour, 1931 Noval, 1941 Inglenook, 1947 Petrus, 1947 VCC, 1949 and 1961 La Chapelle, 1961 Latour, 1978 Jayers, 1982 Lafleur, 1986 Coche-Dury Corton Charlemagne and 1992 Leflaive Montrachet, amongst others and all in mint condition. Not exactly your local liquor store acquisitions... Many of these wines were some of the best wines that I have ever had – the '47 Petrus, '41 Inglenook and '78 Jayers were near-perfection, and everything else was not that far behind! Needless to say, the fantastic conditions in which these bottles had been stored, was a major factor. It was well worth a trip halfway around the world for a dinner of that magnitude.

While Wolfgang discovered wine before Bipin, Wolfgang credits Bipin with pushing him to discover more and more, and to pursue the grape to the “nth” degree. Most of this pushing began in the early 1970s, and it has never stopped. Thirty years later, Bipin waived his magic wand, having had the same effect on me! And almost fifty years later, Wolf and Bipin still remain the closest of friends.

There were many more meals and memories together, and we grew closer over time, often communicating via email and sharing tasting notes and upcoming plans. One of my fondest memories with Wolfgang was dinner with Aubert de Villaine at Georges V in Paris, when he pulled out a 1978 DRC Montrachet from his cellar that practically brought Aubert to tears; it was that good and that special.

There was the one that got away; the one that I missed: ‘100 Years of Romanee Conti 1899-1999,’ one of the most legendary and exclusive tastings ever conducted, back in 2003 over three days at Taillevent. It was an extremely exclusive event with many of the most famous winemakers in attendance. Fabulous Romanee-Contis and Montrachets were served in addition to Krug contributed by Remi Krug himself, plus Yquem from Wolfgang’s cellars for dessert. Too bad I was not on Wolf’s A-list yet then!

Five years later, I was on Wolfgang’s A-list, and we did an incredible auction together in the Fall of 2008, actually two as we sliced off a million for our second or third Hong Kong auction ever. Everyone who bought anything at that auction only had one regret: that they didn’t buy more.

Wolfgang, now a spry 87 years old, and still quite active, represents one of the last, great collections of the 20th Century, a collection that was built over decades, nurtured and grown case by case, and passionately depleted bottle by bottle, as it should be. He is a true bon vivant, and his cellar is one that merits extra special attention, because there aren’t many like this anymore.

With that said, it is with great honor and pride that I offer to you once again, wines from the legendary collection of Wolfgang Grunewald.

In Vino Veritas,

WINE MERCHANTS SINCE 1820

I have known Wolfgang for almost four decades during which time we have tasted hundreds of wines together, a large number from his cellar. He is a classic collector in many ways: he concentrates on the best properties, makes sure his sources are reputable, and keeps his wines in his immaculate cellar. But he also, quite regularly, shares his wines with friends. At times when he has collected enough quantity of his favorite wines he has organized large vertical tastings with a dozen or so invited guests in full confidence that the wines will show true to their character. Below are some examples of these tastings.

One such event, two years ago, was a tasting of 44 vintages of DRC Montrachet almost all from his cellar. He gathered about a dozen of his close friends over a three day period at restaurants near Zurich close to where he lives. Aubert de Villaine from the Domaine was the guest of honor. Apart from a few, the bottles were exceptional. Quite striking were some of the oldest vintages which were still drinking beautifully, even the 1965, the first vintage from the Domaine, which he had bought in the late seventies. While this was clearly a tribute to the quality of the DRC wines (the 1967 brought by de Villaine was equally youthful) this was no less a testament to Wolf's cellar and the care with which he kept those bottles.

Another example was a tasting, three years ago, of Ch. Lafite of selected vintages. All the wines showed well. Even two of the oldest vintages he served, 1864 and 1870, which he had bought in the 1980's, showed superbly, true to their great reputation. Then again around thirteen years ago at restaurant Taillevent in Paris he served, over a weekend, a staggering number of wines of perfect provenance, Romanée Conti from 1899 to 1999.

His knack for buying from the best properties and best bottles will be on full display at this auction. There is no doubt in my mind that those who bought from his auction in 2008 will confirm that those wines were extraordinary. This time it will be no different.

Dr. Bipin Desai

"Bipin Desai is a world renowned collector. He is a physicist whose legendary tastings and wine-dinners for over forty years are well-known in the U.S. and France. He was a mentor to many great collectors, including Wolfgang, and myself." JK

WINE MERCHANTS SINCE 1820

I have always been fascinated by wine, even as a small boy. As much as I enjoyed some good wine in my early years, I never had access to the icons of the wine world's finest, until I came to the United States in the 1950s. I increasingly tried and tasted many bottles within the reach of my affordability. Things were not as easy back then, as there were very few wine writers. Thankfully, I was lucky to have had excellent exposure and advice from experienced retailers. The most important wine influence in my life has been Dr. Bipin Desai, who has been a very dear friend and trusted mentor for nearly fifty years.

My epiphany bottle that really hooked me was a 1949 Mouton Rothschild, introduced to me by Bipin, of course, in the 1970s. Its elegance, balance and unbelievable finish stunned me. And then came the 1961 Palmer, even in its infancy; a completely amazing wine until today! My first visit to Bordeaux was with Bipin in 1982, during the harvest. That was not the greatest timing for our trip, but it was a one-in-a-lifetime experience, as the Bordelaises were justly delirious about this great harvest. We were treated to many lunches and dinners by some very hardworking personalities. One that stood out was at Figeac under stewardship of the grand seigneur Thierry Manoncourt and his charming wife Marie-France. The highlight was a bottle of 1950 Figeac. I could never find that bottle elsewhere in the world until it was served again years later, blind, at a dinner at Figeac. Bipin amazingly recognized it after so many years.

My love affair with Burgundy actually started in Bordeaux. During one of the unique annual events Bipin hosted at Lafite, I was so enraptured with a red Burgundy that I merely said: "I don't know whether I kiss the wine or the wine kisses me!" A grande dame vintner, one of the distinguished guests at this incredible dinner, retorted: "Monsieur, that is what we call a French kiss!" This exchange brought down the house with laughter as her fast quip couldn't have said it any better! An old saying of mine when it comes to great Burgundy, especially mature red Burgundy, that sums it up best, "I am married to Bordeaux, but my mistress is Burgundy."

Champagne has always been a beverage of choice for me. In the early years, it was mostly Mumm's "Extra Dry", non-vintage. This was actually quite sweet, of course, and not on my table anymore! My first Krug opened my eyes, or better put my palate! Since then, I've been collecting and drinking Krug like Churchill probably enjoyed Pol Roger, "in defeat when you need it and in victory when you deserve it." Visiting Krug's cellars and in particular tastings with Remi Krug made me a devout "Krugist." I never forget a rather nonchalant blind tasting offered by Remi in the lobby of Krug where I shed tears when one of the nectars was revealed to be the 1928 vintage. This was not released to the public and it was still a gem of a Champagne or – better said – WINE. The 1929 is even fresher, but very, very rarely seen today. I checked my old invoices and my purchases of the Krug being offered were made as follows:

In 1997: "Collection" : 1929, 1962, 1959, 1973, 1976;

in 1998: "Collection": 1976, 1973

in 1999: "Collection": 1947, 1949, 1952, 1959, 1962, 1966, and "Clos du Mesnil" 1988

in 2000: "Collection": 1962, 1971, 1979, 1984

in 2002: "Brut" and "Clos du Mesnil": 1990

In general, the majority of my early acquisitions, as well as many later ones, were sourced through Bipin who guided me for most of my “wine life”, especially with his renowned contacts. In Switzerland, where I have been living since 1994, I generally purchased from the importer where the importer can be the wholesaler and retailer as well, such as the aforementioned Krugs. Another invoice I looked up was the 1962 DRC Richebourg that I bought with Bipin in 1982 for $220 a bottle. That was expensive at the time!

Pairing wine and food: much too much has been said and written about it. Of course, the proper pairing is crucial to bring out the best of wine and food, but there are no hard, fast and easy rules. It not only depends on personal preference, but also requires personal trial and error. I’ve hosted great long meals, serving only vintage Port, or Yquem with fish and meat. It worked, depending on the sauces, an art that only few have mastered to perfection like the great Freddy Girardet! Freddy was, of course, one of the greatest chefs of the twentieth century. His eponymous restaurant in Crissier, Switzerland, was my favourite and I still remember fondly taking the train for lunch to drink the 1961 La Chapelle when the price for this legendary wine was quite a bit less than it is now. That’s it. Drink what you like with what you like with whose company you enjoy. Terroir doesn’t end at bottling and the proper setting is crucial. And so my friends, on that note I hope you enjoy these cherished bottles from my vinous journey as much as I have enjoyed them, and that you lovingly take care of them properly as well!

4bn, 12lbl

"Typical of the wines this property made in the late seventies and early eighties, it offers a full throttle style, an opaque dark ruby/purple color with no amber at the edges, and a huge nose of melted road tar, new saddle leather, grilled meats, and black fruits. It is sure to be controversial among those tasters looking for only new oak and fruit aromas. Powerful, spicy, and full-bodied, with surprising viscosity for a 1983, this wine's low acidity allows it to be appreciated now, but there are still formidable quantities of sweet tannins in the finish."(92pts)

27 Château Montrose - Vintage 2010*St. Estephe1x24 half bottle owc*

"...is opaque black/blue, with an incredible nose of blueberry and blackberry liqueur, with hints of incense, licorice, and acacia flowers. Tannins are incredibly sweet and very present. The wine is full-bodied, even massive, with great purity, depth and a finish that goes on close to a minute."(100pts)

28 Château Palmer - Vintage 1928*Margaux*

Its, 1hs, 2lbsl, 2cuc, 2sdc, 1 rebouchee en 1988, excellent color and condition

"The tannins and acidity of the 28 stood out immediately. The nose was deep and brooding with lots of minerals and sinus-clearing freshness. Nut and sweet tobacco permeated the room. Chunks of fruit fattened in the glass, and its rust, vigor and explosive, rocket-like finish were incredibly impressive. Chocolatey flavors emerged in the best bottle of 28 Palmer that I have ever had."(97pts JK)

2 bottles per lot $4000-6000

29 Château Palmer - Vintage 1945*Margaux*

ts, lscl, excellent color and condition

"...is one of the few 1945s that can be called exceptionally opulent, super-rich, and fat in its chewy, nearly over-ripe fruit. It is a rich, succulent, decadently fruity, alcoholic wine that remains in top condition."(97pts)

1 bottle per lot $2000-3000

30 Château Palmer - Vintage 1961*Margaux*

rebouchee en 1998, outstanding color and condition

"The 1961 Palmer has long been considered to be a legend from this vintage, and its reputation is well-deserved. The wine is at its apogee, with an extraordinary, sweet, complex nose with aromas of flowers, cassis, toast, and minerals. It is intensely concentrated, offering a cascade of lavishly ripe, full-bodied, opulent fruit, soft tannins, and a voluptuous finish. This is a decadent Palmer, unparalleled since in quality with the exception of 1983 and 1989."(99pts)

2lbsl, 2ll

"One of the superb wines of the vintage, the 1983 Palmer continues to display a saturated purple/garnet color, and an intense perfume of jammy black fruits, smoked meats, flowers, cedar, and Asian spices. Super-concentrated, powerful, and full-bodied, this huge, unctuously textured wine is approaching its plateau of maturity."(98pts)

35 Château Palmer - Vintage 2009*Margaux*

1x6 bottle owc, 1x3 magnum owc

"An opaque blue/black color suggests a wine with thrilling levels of concentration and intensity, and that's exactly what a "...taster gets. Subtle smoke, incense and Asian spice (soy?) notes interwoven with graphite, blueberry, blackberry and cassis characteristics lead to a full-bodied, phenomenally concentrated, viscous, opulent wine with plenty of sweet tannin."(97pts)

"It's my gut feeling that the 1986 is, along with the 1982, the finest Talbot made at this estate since the legendary 1945. The wine, which has been so special since the first taste from cask, is classically structured, with a penetrating fragrance of peppery, spicy, weedy black currants and tar, an enormous concentration of flavor on the palate, and staggering length."(96pts)

ANGELUS, AUSONE AND CHEVAL BLANC AKA ST. EMILION

The Right Bank is also more than admirably represented by the big three of St. Emilion: Angelus, Ausone and Cheval Blanc. Angelus' re-emergence is documented with several lots from 1988 to 1995, while Ausone celebrates ancient glories such as 1900 and 1926 as well as its renaissance with highly rated vintages from 2000 to 2013. Cheval has a baker's dozen lots going back to 1928 with the triumvirate of 1945, 1947 and 1949 as the centerpiece!

49 Château Ausone - Vintage 1996*St. Emilion*

6lbsl, 1lsl, 1lsl, 6sos

"...boasts a dense, saturated purple color, as well as a tight but strikingly complex nose of violets, crushed stones, and black and blue fruits. The wine's high tannin is nicely complemented by dense, concentrated, purely delineated fruit that cascades across the palate with intensity, but no heaviness. The wine possesses a velvety component (rare for Ausone), admirably integrated toasty new oak, and exceptional length (more than 35 seconds)." (93pts)

6 bottles per lot $2000-3000

50 Château Ausone - Vintage 2000*St. Emilion*

"...has phenomenal presence on the palate as well as astonishing richness and purity. Despite its extract, power, and richness, it is remarkably light, with a surreal delicacy. It is a tour de force in winemaking and a compelling expression of this magical terroir." (100pts)

2 bottles per lot $1500-2000

51 Château Ausone - Vintage 2005*St. Emilion*

1x3 magnum banded owc

"This brilliant, blue/black-hued offering reveals an extraordinarily youthful, but promising nose of incense, blueberries, blackberries, currants, licorice, and crushed rocks. This intense 2005 boasts powerful, super-layered, multidimensional flavors with tremendous extraction, yet they come across as incredibly sublime, even delicate for such a stunningly concentrated, full-bodied effort. A masterpiece of concentration and balance, it will no doubt be drinking well a century from now." (100pts)

3 magnums per lot $6000-8000

52 Château Ausone - Vintage 2006*St. Emilion*

1x1 magnum owc, 2x2 magnum owc's

"Boasting an inky/blue/purple color as well as an extraordinary, precise bouquet of minerals, flowers, blueberry liqueur, and black currants, this wine possesses fabulous fruit and great intensity, but what makes it so special is its precision, focus, and almost ethereal lightness despite substantial flavor intensity and depth. It is a ballerina with density and power. The abundant noticeable tannin is sweet and, not surprisingly, very finely grained." (98pts)

5 magnums per lot $4000-6000

53 Château Ausone - Vintage 2007*St. Emilion*

2x1 magnum banded owc's, 1x3 magnum owc

"...is a candidate for one of the wines of the vintage, rivaling Pavie and Lafite Rothschild. Its deep ruby/purple hue is accompanied by a beautiful nose of spring flowers, raspberries, black currants, and crushed rocks. The wine is dense, medium to full-bodied, and pure with sweet tannin as well as a surprisingly evolved, forward style." (94pts)

5 magnums per lot $3200-5000

54 Château Ausone - Vintage 2008*St. Emilion*

5x1 magnum owc's

"...boasts an inky/blue/purple color as well as a glorious perfume of spring flowers, blueberry and blackberry liqueur, camphor, truffles and crushed rocks. With great fruit on the attack and mid-palate, a medium to full-bodied, multidimensional mouthfeel and a skyscraper-like finish, this prodigious effort over-delivers, even for this phenomenal terroir." (98pts)

5 magnums per lot $5500-7500

55 Château Ausone - Vintage 2009*St. Emilion*

2x1 magnum owc's

"...boasts a dense purple color along with notes of powdered chalk, crushed rocks and wild blue, red and black fruits. Extravagantly rich with great minerality, precision and freshness as well as a voluptuous texture (unusual for a baby Ausone), this is an extraordinary wine." (90+pts)

2 magnums per lot $3000-4000

56 6 bottles per lot $4500-6000

57 Château Ausone - Vintage 2010*St. Emilion*

5x1 magnum owc's

"...struck me as another brilliant, potentially perfect wine, which should come as no shock to people who have been following Vauthier's work over the last decade or more. Backward and intense, this wine offers up notes of crushed chalk/rock minerality interwoven with blueberry, black raspberry and cassis as well as some graphite and vanillin. It is incredibly rich but at the same time precise, fresh and vivacious." (98+pts)

"The 1945 had gorgeous, tender red fruits. Dusty and sandy in its personality, it still had great sweetness in the nose and great flavors to match. Its flavors were more on the citric side of the flavor rainbow, but there was still sweet strawberry as well as flavors of actual straw giving this wine tremendous complexity. The wine possessed superb acidity and was stunningly gorgeous, very fresh and danced in my mouth."(96pts JK)

bn, hbsl, stl, scl, spc, outstanding color

"What can I say about this mammoth wine that is more like port than dry red table wine? The 1947 Cheval Blanc exhibits such a thick texture it could double as motor oil. The huge nose of fruitcake, chocolate, leather, coffee, and Asian spices is mind-boggling. The unctuous texture and richness of sweet fruit are amazing still remarkably fresh, phenomenally concentrated, and profoundly complex this wine has been either perfect or nearly perfect every time I have had it."(100pts)

"The 1961 had a killer nose that was very racy with lots of vigor and t n a. It was also very sweet in a musky, nutty, caramel-y way. There was lots of oil in this rich and nutty wine, and as soon as I tasted it, I flashed to 1971 and 76 Grange. This menthol/eucalyptus craziness was total Grange. It was rich, hearty and full of strawberry flavors. Bipin concurred that this was always one of the sweeter 61 s, and likened it to a bon-bon."(94pts JK)

66 Château Cheval Blanc - Vintage 1982*St. Emilion*

3lbls, 1nl, 1tl

"Revealing considerable amber in its dark plum/garnet color, this intensely fragrant 1982 is somewhat of a paradox in that the front end suggests full maturity, but the mid-palate, finish, and overall texture denote a closed wine. A gorgeously sweet entry displays flavors of caramel, roasted coffee, jammy red and black fruits, coconut, and smoke. It is fat and full-bodied, with considerable tannin, structure, and muscle in the finish. Flamboyantly rich and precocious early in life, it is going through an awkward stage where the tannin is present, but it is also sexy, juicy, and formidably-structured. When the 1982 Cheval Blanc's component parts become totally in sync, it will be capable of meriting a three-digit rating." (99pts)

"...continues to be the most powerful, tannic, and muscular Margaux made in decades. One wonders if the 1928 or 1945 had as much power and depth as the 1986? The black/ruby/purple color reveals no sign of age. The reluctant nose offers up aromas of smoky, toasty new oak and blackcurrants, as well as a few flowers. The wine is mammoth, with extraordinary extract, superb balance, and a frightfully tannic finish. A Margaux of immense stature, it is made in a masculine, full-bodied style that is in complete contrast to the 1990."(96pts)

With loads of blueberry, black currant and violet-infused fruit and a heady alcohol level above 13.5% (although that looks modest compared to several other first growths, particularly Château Latour and Château Haut-Brion), its beautifully sweet texture, ripe tannin, abundant depth and profound finish all make for another near-perfect wine that should age effortlessly for 30-40 years."(99pts)

LATOUR

Chateau Latour flexes its muscles with fifteen lots as well as, particularly two magnums of the magnificent 1961 vintage in excellent condition as well as bottles of 1982, 1995 and 2003.

89 Château Latour - Vintage 1955

Pauillac

*vhs, stl, cuc, scc, illegibly faded cork, outstanding color
"Still very deep, surprisingly intense and youthful looking; a fully evolved bouquet, classic, cedary, fragrant and ageing a little, but faultless on the palate deep, healthy colour; perfect nose, flavour, balance and length. Complete. Faultless." (5 stars MB)*

1 bottle per lot $1000-1400

90 Château Latour - Vintage 1961

Pauillac

*1hs, 1htms, 2vlbsl, 2cuc, outstanding color
"Port-like, with an unctuous texture, and a dark garnet color with considerable amber at the edge, the 1961 Latour possesses a viscosity and thickness. One of the three bottles served at the Château's tasting revealed a surprisingly aggressive, minty, herbaceous nose, but the other two bottles were liquid perfection, exhibiting fragrant, cedary, truffle, leather, mineral, and sweet, jammy aromatics, full-bodied, voluptuous textures, exquisite purity and concentration, and a layered, highly-nuanced finish that represents the essence of compellingly great wine. The 1961 has been fully mature for over 15 years, but it seems to get richer, holding onto its succulence and fat, and developing more aromatic nuances without losing any sweetness or concentration. An extraordinary wine, it is unquestionably one of the Bordeaux legends of the century!..." (100pts)*

2 bottles per lot $4500-6000

93 Château Latour - Vintage 1966

Pauillac

*1vhs, 1hs, 1sdc, outstanding color
"The wine of the vintage a classic, old style Bordeaux that has required decades to become drinkable. A dark, opaque garnet color is followed by a fabulous nose of cedar, sweet leather, black fruits, prunes, and roasted walnuts, refreshing underlying acidity, sweet but noticeable tannin, and a spicy finish powerful, vigorous, immensely impressive, concentrated..." 95 Château Latour - Vintage 1982

Pauillac

Its, 1lbsl

"The dense, opaque garnet-colored 1982 Latour reveals slight amber at the edge. Sweet, smoky, roasted aromas in the nose combine with jammy levels of black currant, cherry, and prune-like fruit. It possesses extraordinary concentration and unctuousity, with a thick, fat texture oozing notes of cedar wood, tobacco, coffee, and over-ripe fruit. Low acidity as well as high alcohol (for Bordeaux) give the wine even more glycerin and textural chewiness. The finish lasts forever." (100pts)

5 bottles per lot $6000-8000

96 Château Latour - Vintage 1990

Pauillac

1x12 half bottle owc

"This is one of my favorite wines ever. Full-bodied, with layers of silky fruit and masses of currant, mineral and berry character. Amazing. It is a wine with perfect structure, perfect strength. It is 1961 Latour in modern clothes. It is hard not to drink it now." (100pts WS)

97 Château Latour - Vintage 1994

Pauillac

"It exhibits an opaque dark ruby/purple color, and a backward, intense textbook nose of walnut and cassis scents complemented by smoky pain grille notes that build in the glass. This full-bodied, powerful, layered Latour reveals high tannin, but no bitterness or astringency. The superb purity, fabulous precision, and remarkable length should ensure 35-40 years of longevity."(94pts)

6 bottles per lot $2000-2800

98 Château Latour - Vintage 1995

Pauillac

Inl

"A beauty, the opaque dense purple-colored 1995 exhibits jammy cassis, vanillin, and minerals in its fragrant but still youthful aromatics. Medium to full-bodied, with exceptional purity, superb concentration, and a long, intense, ripe, 40-second finish, this is a magnificent example of Latour."(96pts)

5 bottles per lot $2000-2800

99 Château Latour - Vintage 2000

Pauillac

"A young wine that electrifies every taste bud in your mouth. Compacted aromas of crushed currants and minerals, with roses and lilacs. Full-bodied, with masses of silky, refined tannins and a finish that lasts for minutes. Stunning. Best Latour since 1990."(100pts WS)

2 magnums per lot $3000-4000

100 Château Latour - Vintage 2003

Pauillac

Inl

"A prodigious effort, it boasts a saturated purple color as well as a gorgeous perfume of smoke, cedar, creme de cassis, flowers, crushed rocks, and blackberries. Massive and multi-layered, with huge richness and low acidity, it is about as unctuous as a young Latour can be."(100pts)

3 bottles per lot $1800-2400

101 Château Latour - Vintage 2005

Pauillac

2x1 magnum owc's

"Dark ruby black in color. Brilliant, intense aromas of mineral, blackberry and currant, with hints of Indian spices and cigar box, lead to a full-bodied palate, with ultrafine tannins and a beautiful balance of blackberry, raspberry and mineral. There's subtlety, yet also great depth. Lasts for minutes on the palate. This is a Latour with fabulous tone and vigor."(99pts WS)

103 Château Latour - Vintage 2009

Pauillac

2x1 magnum owc's

"An elixir of momentous proportions, it boasts a dense purple color as well as an extraordinarily flamboyant bouquet of black fruits, graphite, crushed rocks, subtle oak and a notion of wet steel. It hits the palate with a thundering concoction of thick, juicy blue and black fruits, lead pencil shavings and a chalky minerality."(100pts)

2 magnums per lot $3000-4000

104 Château Latour - Vintage 2010

Pauillac

1x3 magnum owc

"...is a liquid skyscraper in the mouth, building layers upon layers of extravagant, if not over-the-top richness with its hints of subtle charcoal, truffle, blackberry, cassis, espresso and notes of toast and graphite. Full-bodied, with wonderfully sweet tannin, it is a mind-boggling, prodigious achievement that should hit its prime in about 15 years, and last for 50 to 100."(100pts)

Comte Lafon
2x1 bottle owc's
"A touch of wood toast frames discreet and almost reticent mildly exotic notes of anise, peach, pear, citrus, floral, mango and honeysuckle that blend seamlessly into textured, sweet, powerful, robust and almost painfully intense full-bodied flavors that possess a textured mouth feel yet retain excellent precision and cut as well. This is a big Montrachet, even by the imposing standards that Montrachet typically brings to bear and one that should age effortlessly for years to come."(93-6pts)
 2 bottles per lot $2000-2800

121 Montrachet - Vintage 2008
Comte Lafon
2x1 bottle owc's
"The nose is troubled from the very late malo and thus quite difficult to fairly judge but the broad-shouldered and overtly muscular flavors possess serious power and imposing weight while carrying seemingly buckets of dry extract that really coat and stain the palate on the explosive and hugely long finish. It's clear that this is much, much less evolved than the other wines in the range and I suspect that it will develop equally slowly in bottle too."(93-96pts BH)

COCHE-DURY

Coche-Dury is arguably the greatest producer of Burgundy focusing on Chardonnay, and certainly of Corton Charlemagne, of which Wolf offers a dozen lots spanning 1987 to 2003. There are a further dozen lots of Coche's outstanding Meursaults, mostly Genevrières and Perrières, of course. Location, location, location!

123 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 1989

Coche-Dury

1nl, 1vlwrl

"...represents for me the supreme expression of this vineyard masculine power, minerality, breed, intensity and essence of wet rocks the acid fruit/balance relative to the considerable extract is perfect. As if this weren't enough, the length this wine displays is so extraordinary that only a few of the best examples of Montrachet approach it. In short, I was simply in awe of a wine that is knocking on the door of perfection and best of all, this wine is still on the way up." (99pts BH)

2 bottles per lot $7000-9000

124 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 1990

Coche-Dury

2vlscl

"This is a giant of a wine with simply unbelievable aromatic complexity of green apple, obvious minerality, white flowers and a subtle note of anise followed by powerful, full-bodied, sappy flavors blessed with massive amounts of dry extract and length that I could taste 2 days later. This rivals if not surpasses the reference standard '89 and is a genuinely great wine by any definition." (97pts BH)

2 bottles per lot $6000-8000

125 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 1992

Coche-Dury

2vlbsl, 1nl, 1lwrl

"An incredible nose, initially dominated by vanilla, but opening up to reveal aromas of sweet corn, butter, citrus, popcorn, caramel apple (light on the caramel and green on the apple)...toasty, nutty, and oaky without the oak being obtrusive as in you-know-what state...a thoroughbred of a nose...very ripe and oily wine, with a touch of an overbite but not too much...acids buried behind a wealth of fruit...bigger than the Lafon Montrachet but a hint of wild stubbornness...more classic Côte-rot in nose as well... about as much oak as you can have in a white Burgundy and still have perfect integration..." (97pts JK)

2 bottles per lot $5000-7000

126 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 1993

Coche-Dury

lbsl, sdc

"A blockbuster with the finesse to seduce the most demanding aficionados of top white Burgundy. Voluptuous, supple and intense as can be, this opulent crowd-pleaser delivers plenty of toasted oak, apple, citrus and mineral character. Brilliant winemaking at work here. Try in 2001." (99pts WS)

1 bottle per lot $2000-2800

127 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 1995

Coche-Dury

2lbsl, 2nl, 1nc

"Brilliant and very intense. Wonderfully stony, minerally, very toasted from the grilled oak, showing thick weight on the midpalate. This is superimpressive, with a silky texture that's to die for, and all that oakiness will die down given the tight concentration in this full-bodied white Burgundy." (98pts WS)

2 bottles per lot $6000-8000

129 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 1997*Coche-Dury4lbsl*

"Pungent aromas of spiced apple and sweet oak. Even more intensely structured than the Perrières; much firmer due to its strong stony minerality. Yet this is even fatter than the Perrières. Very ripe but sharply delineated. A wine of great finesse and length." (93-95pts IWC)

4 bottles per lot $5000-7000

130 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 1998*Coche-Durynl*

"Someone called this vintage a "hussy" of a Coche, saying that it was sexy now but how long can it be out there? It had a significantly lighter nose, although still had character good dust and minerals to the nose with a little more nut as well had some sweet citrus to it, flirting with grapefruit pretty palate that is lighter at first but more forward at the same time more sweetness and candle wax to the palate nice chalk dust to the nose, while Andy picked up on a touch of botrytis held a greater degree of drinkability to it, and continued to gain in the glass and even surpassed the 2000 by the end of the afternoon!"(94+pts JK)

3 bottles per lot $4000-6000

131 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2000*Coche-DuryIcuc*

"Cool, reserved and incredibly pure green apple and white pear notes blend seamless with an intense yet understated minerality that leads to positively crystalline, dense flavors that deliver the hallmark delineation, power and breathtaking persistence of classically styled Corton-Charlemagne. But this rises to the next level by virtue of unmistakable breed and a certain vibrancy and presence that is rare even among great wines. Extremely impressive and destined for a long life."(94pts BH)

3 bottles per lot $5500-7500

132 Corton Charlemagne - Vintage 2001*Coche-DuryIvlbsl, Icuc*

"A myriad of spices and anise-spiked pears are found in the highly expressive nose of the 2001 Corton-Charlemagne. Medium to full-bodied, with levels of dry extract that would tip the scales, and a supple, fleshy character of intense width and power, this wine is amazing. Magnificently supple, yet focused, boisterous, yet refined, thick, yet balanced, it possesses a finish that easily lasts for over a minute. Moreover, it has all the ear-marks of perfection. This velvety-textured wine is jam-packed with minerals immersed in pear syrup, copious spices (including clove, ginger, and juniper berries), as well as a distinctive note of apple sauce. It is layered, opulent, and sexy, while remaining nuanced and seamless. Wow!..."(98-100pts)

"Knockout nose combines lime, pineapple, apple and wet stone; much more perfumed than the Perrières. Then plush and very ripe but not at all roasted, with strong stony character and harmonious acidity giving verve to the wine's expressive fruit flavors. I would not be surprised to see this wine close down in the bottle. Finishes broad and tactile, with terrific persistence. A star of the vintage."(93+?pts IWC)

"Here there is much more subtle wood influence, allowing the wonderfully and exuberantly spicy aromas of ripe peach and hints of exotic fruit notes to express themselves more clearly. The rich, racy and gorgeously pure flavors retain a superb level of precision and the finish both stains and coats the palate."(91-94pts BH)

"Wonderfully aromatic nose of tangy soft citrus fruits and crushed stone. Dense, silky and sweet, with perfectly integrated acidity framing the rich, broad fruit flavors. A wonderfully complete Meursault whose powerful, explosive fruit builds inexorably on the back end. This must be the best bottling to date from these vines, now 60 years of age."(94pts IWC)

"With only a handful of exceptions, my experience with Coche-Dury's wines has taught me that they are about as profound white burgundies as one is likely to find. The fully mature 1986 Meursault-Les Perrières reveals huge aromas of sweet, buttery, apple fruit, grilled nuts, and smoke. The fabulous texture and richness that Coche-Dury routinely appears to achieve is evident, as well as a fascinating, unctuous richness, enough acidity to provide focus, and a spectacularly long finish."(94pts)

“ An utterly beguiling nose of smoke, minerals and crushed herbs leads to big, muscular, rich and gorgeously nuanced palate staining flavors that offer huge length and real power plus class and breed to burn. “Incredibly powerful. Thick and rich, with loads of toasted oak that tastes a bit hot, burning and bitter. A wine with a great track record (just try the Lafon’s 1989 Perrières, which drinks beautifully), this offers almost botrytislike flavors (honey, dried fruit, fig and date character) along with a thick midpalate. Full in body but medium in acidity, it’s very concentrated. Definitely hold in the cellar.”(95pts WS)

151 Meursault - Vintage 1996*Perrières, Coche-Dury1hwrl, 1ltl*

“When the world’s wine lovers speak of Jean-Francois Coche the words Corton-Charlemagne are sure to follow. Personally, I feel his Meursault Perrières is just as extraordinary, and sometimes more so. This vineyard contributes an element of refinement and class to Coche’s hedonistic, powerful, and intense style. The 1996 is breathtaking because tasting it is a levitating experience. Its beguiling, almost spiritual bouquet is composed of precisely defined minerals. The palate is greeted by explosive, powerful, awesomely elegant, intense, mouth-coatingly sweet and yet bone dry stones, gravel, crisp pears, and toasty oak. This unbelievably dense and complex, yet pure and perfectly defined wine is massively structured and has an unending finish that reveals cardamon, anise, honeysuckle blossoms, and spices.”(99pts)

"The 1989 Montrachet (of which there are 2 barrels from 70-year old vines) attained a natural alcohol level of 14.8%. So much for those oenologist's wines made within safe technical parameters! I realize few readers will ever get a chance to taste this wine, but as you can imagine, it boasts unbelievable concentration and viscosity. It is not as thick and unctuous as the Montrachet made by the Domaine de la Romanée-Conti, but it does possess exquisite balance and length. All things considered, I would wait 10 years before popping the cork. It will drink well for at least the first two decades of the next century. For those Hollywood superstars and multi-million dollar athletes that might be readers, Ramonet still thinks his 1986 Montrachet is the best of the decade, and considers 1989 the pretender to the throne."(97pts)

"We started with a 1990 Ramonet Montrachet out of magnum. The 1990 had an amazing nose full of vigor; it was classic Ramonet all the way. The nose was full of butter, cream and sweet corn combined with the perfect toast, and a perfect minerality. It was seexxy juice. The palate was rich, long and fabulous and also smooth, tasty and classic. If anything negative could be said about the wine, it would be that it was more ready to drink than I would have thought out of magnum. "Wonderfully penetrating nose of razor-sharp delineation and purity that offers white flowers, hazelnut, ripe pear and the barest hint of botrytis, which rather than interfering in the clear expression of the underlying terroir in this case only serves to add to the incredible aromatic complexity. The flavor precision is nothing short of phenomenal as they re dripping with minerality and knockout intensity yet gargantuan scale and raw power are delivered with incredible grace and balance. The intensity builds from the mid-palate and continues on building to a finish that I could honestly still taste a week later. A monumentally great and emotionally thrilling Ramonet Montrachet that cedes nothing to the reference standard Montys from the 82, 83, 85 or 96 vintages, which is simply the highest compliment that one can pay any white Burgundy."(99pts BH)

"Much more discreet and reserved than the B tard with astonishingly elegant aromas of green spiced apple and citrus with intensely mineral flavors that are crystalline in their purity and detail. This is a complete wine with mind boggling purity and a finish that seems like liquefied rock. Stony, intense and brilliantly long. In short, this is a real stunner and if this adds additional complexity, it's not difficult to imagine a higher score." (95pts BH)

DOMAINE LEFLAIVE

203 Chevalier Montrachet - Vintage 2007

Domaine Leflaive

"A strikingly complex nose that is even more complex than that of the Bâtard as there is a great breadth of aromas to the ripe, pure and airy nose of white flower, spice and subtle pear aromas that complement to perfection the rich and mouth coating flavors built on a base of fine minerality, all wrapped in a sappy and mouth coating finish that oozes dry extract. This is really a lovely effort that is almost as powerful as the Bâtard but as one would expect, finer and even a bit longer with an almost painfully intense backend. A very impressive effort that is positively Zen-like in its poise and quiet sense of harmony."(96pts BH)

"Like the Bâtard, here the nose is quite restrained but exceptionally elegant and pure with white flower, green apple, pear and wet stone where the latter element continues onto the rich, full and highly energetic flavors that tighten up considerably on the detailed, minerally and bone dry finish that displays distinct citrus mineral nuances. This is long, tight and linear with huge amounts of dry extract that renders the very firm acid spine almost invisible at present though the finish is clearly shaped by it."(97pts BH)

"Ultimately, the show-stopping Montrachet may merit a perfect score. Ethereal mineral, floral and spicy oak aromas are followed by an incredibly rich, awesomely deep, elegant and full-bodied personality. Layers of oily-textured honeysuckle, white pears, concentrated liquid minerals and buttery oak roll over the palate; the intensely long finish reveals traces of rock and limestone dust. This magnificent, benchmark wine has all the components to age effortlessly."(97-99pts)

ROUSSEAU, DUJAC AND ROUMIER

If one could possibly make one slight criticism of Wolfgang's collection, it would be that there is not nearly enough Rousseau, Dujac and Roumier, but perhaps he drank it all already? What he lacks in quantity, however, he certainly makes up in quality with 1971 Rousseau Chambertins, 1978 and 1980 Dujacs (and '85 magnums) as well as 1961 Roumier Bonnes Mares and 1983 Roumier Musigny. Some amazing bottles!

217 Chambertin - Vintage 1971

A. Rousseau

lblsl, excellent color and condition

"Medium-full color. Fully mature. Fresh, round, full, very classy fruit on the nose. This is a bigger wine than Clos de Bèze; richer, fuller and more vigorous. Lovely fruit. Very fine grip. Very classic. Very clean. Very complex. Very classy. Excellent."(20/20 CC)

1 bottle per lot $4000-6000

218 Chambertin - Vintage 1971

Clos de Bèze, A. Rousseau

cuc, excellent color and condition

"The next magnum was a show-stopper: a 1971 Rousseau Chambertin Clos de Bèze, courtesy of Mr. Robert A. Rosania. It had a spectacular nose that was long, dusty, spiny and full of cherry fruit. It also had this herbal liqueur-like complexity, in only the best way possible. The palate was rich and citrusy, slaty with enormous acidity and what seemed like a 90 second finish! It was so flavorful and tangy, full of zest, zip, vim and vigor...what a wine...Big Boy Style."(98pts JK)

1 bottle per lot $4000-6000

219 Chambertin - Vintage 1990

Clos de Bèze, A. Rousseau

220 Chambertin - Vintage 2000

Clos de Bèze, A. Rousseau

"...offers unbelievably complex aromas and flavors with a dazzling array of spices, herb notes, earth and superb clarity and more minerality than I usually get from this wine. Rich and vibrant with grand cru weight and size."(91-93pts BH)

1 magnum per lot $2400-3500

221 Chambertin - Vintage 2000

A. Rousseau

vlbsl

"The phenomenal aromatic complexity displayed by this wine from cask is still present with relatively tight but not hard frank, direct and robust flavors that have plenty of buffering fat and superb length. As I noted in my original tasting note, this will not compete for the longest lived Rousseau Chambertin yet it is packed, powerful and beautifully complex and is an outstanding wine in any context but particularly so for the vintage. Because there is so much fat, this can be enjoyed now but will clearly offer more fireworks in the future so I would be inclined to let this baby rest for at least another 5 years and longer if you can keep your hands off of it."(93 pts BH)

1 magnum per lot $2400-3500

222 Bonnes Mares - Vintage 1978

Dujac

2lstl, 2lblsl, 2sdc, excellent color

"By the slightest of margins, this is the best of the Dujac '78s, eclipsing even the fabulous EÉchÉzeaux. There is more aromatic maturity present compared to the Clos de la Roche with softer, more perfumed aromas of earth, smoked meat and secondary fruit notes followed by superbly well balanced and still utterly precise medium full flavors that culminate in a powerful, persistent and almost hauntingly beautiful finish. A complete wine that is at once elegant and powerful with years left to go. This merits a "wow!"(95pts BH)

234 Musigny - Vintage 1983

G. Roumier

lbl, ltl, sdc

"1983 Roumier Musigny? Sure, why not? The wine was so forward from the word go, revealing waves of sweet and open fruit. There was the full spectrum of black, red and purple; all the elements of a wine rainbow. What impressed me most here was the sweetness and perfume, and the chewy quality of the aromatics. It was another top '83 that was drinking beautifully. It was definitely fully mature, as all qualities of its finish had melted away and integrated completely into its wealth of fruit. Also sweet on the palate, and fleshy to match without being heavy, this was a love me tender wine that still had a lot to say although certainly at its best. Mark concurred that while it was on the border of 5-star territory (95-6 points), it did not have the staying power to merit that status. I guess the Moose could have used some Wine-agra lol." DROUHIN

Wolfgang's Musigny collection picks up vintage wise with Drouhin where he left off with Vogue. The Drouhins span 2001 to 2012, as he grew fond for the reds, while he always was a fan of the whites, evidenced by a treasure trove of Montrachet from Laguiche spanning 1969 to 2013, crested by an incredible selection of large formats.

After an appetizer of his disciples Rouget and Meo-Camuzet, we hit the jackpot with twenty-one lots from the master himself, Henri Jayer, the late great Godfather of Red Burgundy. Of particular note amidst the grandeur are 1978 and 1979 Echezeaux, 1979, 1980 and 1985 Richebourg as well as 1980, 1988, 1996 magnum and 1999 Cros Partanoux, along with various Meurgers and Brulees, many bottles imported by Martine Saunier. Every bottle of Jayer is the Holy Grail!!!

270 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 1990

Cros Parantoux, E. Rouget

"Absolutely killer nose of stunning complexity, ripeness yet beautiful purity followed by hugely spicy, opulent, dense and rich flavors of real breed and unmistakable class. This is still youthful if no longer young with a finish that is undeniably of grand cru quality and epitomizes power without weight, but beginning to drink well now. While this can be approached now, it will need another 7 to 8 years to really be at its best and it should hold at this superlative level for years."(95pts BH)

Sweet, gorgeously perfumed and incredibly detailed and fresh red fruit aromas that display absolutely no sous bois lead to strikingly elegant and transparent flavors of superb richness, cut and delineation plus that utterly seductive velvet and silk quality on the knockout finish. This is kaleidoscopic in its breadth and scope and it's one extremely impressive wine." (94pts BH)*

1 bottle per lot $8000-12000

282 Richebourg - Vintage 1980*H. Jayercuc"The color is still solid ruby with only the barest glimmer of bricking. An extremely subtle background note of volatile acidity adds complexity to what may be the most complete nose of the so-called "lesser" vintages as it communicates clearly and unmistakably the character of the flavors that will follow, which is to say round, ripe and very powerful full-bodied flavors that are wrapped in a touch of toasty oak and culminate in a sappy, mouth coating and strikingly long finish."(94pts BH)*

1 bottle per lot $12000-18000

283 Richebourg - Vintage 1981*H. JayerImported by Martine Saunier"The 1981 H. Jayer Richebourg was another wine from a vintage that most people have written off by now. Its nose was shier with some alcohol and mineral aromas up front. There was a touch of supportive, green stalk, a flash of plum and red fruits, and a light cedar edge. The palate was taut and on the citrusy side of the flavor wheel; red grapefruits, in fact. There was nice vim but less vigor here, but the wine was rock solid and in a good spot right then and there...it held well for at least an hour. It was excellent for that first hour, but ultimately very good."(92pts JK)*

1 bottle per lot $8000-12000

284 Richebourg - Vintage 1985*H. Jayer1tl, cuc, Imported by Martine Saunier"Heady and wonderfully perfumed of largely primary fruit notes lead to quite dense and still completely fresh flavors of simply unbelievable depth and length. All the more remarkable is how fresh and young this remains with only hints of secondary notes to be found and the velvety finish goes on and on. I could taste this the next day and the ethereal nose is simply haunting and it's frankly difficult to really do justice to the sheer breadth of expression. A wine for the ages and one that should live 25 years, something very few '85s can aspire to. Consistent notes."(97pts BH)*

290 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 1988
Cros Parantoux, H. Mayer
"The 1988 was the first and only wine to show a hint of gamy maturity, that kinky, fleshy style that Mayer transforms into after age twenty or so, plus or minus depending on the quality of the vintage. The 1988 was very sexy, just starting to show some flesh, sweet in its purple and with a splash of vitamins as well. The classic Mayer musk and kink were there, and the palate was chewy and fleshy, no easy task to achieve in 1988, which is a rugged, tannic, structure first vintage. The 1988 was tasty as well. Its delightful drinkability and approachability stood out in this first flight. While the 1988 might not get much better, score one for Mayer. The 88 should still have a reasonably long plateau ahead of it, to be clear."(94pts JK)

Cros Parantoux, H. Mayer
3vlwrl, 2vlscl, 2lvl, 1cuc
" Young, young, young and so tight, observed Chris at first, and yes, he was talking about the wine. Wilf found it impressive. This magnum was not marred by some of the sulfur or gas that I had previously encountered a couple of times with this wine, which was good news for me, as I had almost written this vintage of Mayer Cros P off. It was staggeringly concentrated, especially for a 1996, and flirted with a California impression. Aromas of anise and black cherry jam dominated the nose, which was almost Chunky soupy with its thickness. The palate was very wound and very New World, with a thick finish and lots of cola flavors. There was a muscly, monolithic edge to this infant of a red."(95+pts JK)

292 Vosne Romanée - Vintage 1999
Cros Parantoux, H. Mayer
vlscl, sdc
"Ooh la la, ah oui oui. The 1999 Mayer Vosne Romanée Cros Parantoux redefined the word sexy. Martine hailed it as a wild beast, and Gil observed, gunpowder and Chinese black oolong tea.' There was an ocean of fruit here; one had to swim through it to find structure on its shores. This was 1999 at its finest. The pitch was insane, shattering my nose as if it was meant to be an ear drum, and its perfume lingered like memories of a perfect home-cooked meal from Mom. While adolescent, its creamy, purple fruit said it was ready for the draft, and its nose was described as fireworks,' a chameleon,' and spearmint.' Thierry hailed it as brighter, better and fresher' than the great 1990, a bold statement, indeed. Its flavors were dessert-y without being sweet decadent, exotic, hedonistic, take your pick. Gil observed, caramel Crème brulee, and beef and citrus tried to join the party. This wine was bordering on pornographic, and we were all...in awe :)."(98pts JK)

MOUTON ROTHSCHILD

Ever the artist, Mouton does not want to be left out the party and comes through with magnums of 1947 and 1959 as well as bottles of 1949, 1961, 1982, 1995 and 2000. A chateau with so much momentum, it is the only one to change the 1855 Classification of Bordeaux, “Premier je suis, second je fus, Mouton ne change.”

317 Château Mouton Rothschild - Vintage 1945

Pauillac

ts, lssl, bsl, scc, outstanding color and condition

“A consistent 100-point wine (only because my point scale stops at that number), the 1945 Mouton-Rothschild is truly one of the immortal wines of the century. This wine is easily identifiable because of its remarkably exotic, over-ripe, sweet nose of black fruits, coffee, tobacco, mocha, and Asian spices. It is an extraordinarily dense, opulent, and rich wine, with layers of creamy fruit, behaving more like a 1947 Pomerol than a structured, powerful, and tannic 1945. The wine finishes with a 60+ second display of ripe fruit, extract, and sweet tannin. This remarkably youthful wine (only light amber at the edge) is mindboggling! Will it last another 50 years?...” (100pts)

Pauillac

hs, htl, cuc, scc, partially pitted cork, outstanding color
“I have never had anything but extraordinary, decadent, fabulously rich, concentrated bottles of the 1947 Mouton-Rothschild. The exotic, ostentatious bouquet of ginger, mint, coffee, cedar, and gobs of cassis fruit is followed by a syrupy, viscously-textured, thick, juicy Mouton that is bursting with fruit. Although drinkable since I first tasted it over a decade ago, it exhibits no signs of fruit loss or color deterioration. It is one of the most exotic and opulent Mouton-Rothschilds I have ever tasted.” (98pts)

Exceptionally powerful and super-extracted, with the fruit supported by high levels of tannin and some lusty quantities of It may well be a 100-year wine!...” (100pts)

“At its best the wine is a great Mouton. Huge, cedary, cassis, lead pencil, menthol-like aromas soared from the glass. The black/purple color revealed no signs of lightening or amber at the edge.  "...phenomenally dense and muscular It is immune to oxidation! Moreover, it has a level of concentration that represents the essence of the Mouton terroir as well as the high percentage of Cabernet Sauvignon it contains. Cassis, cedar, spice box, minerals, and vanillin are all present, but this opaque black/purple Pauillac has yet to reveal secondary nuances given its youthfulness. It exhibits huge tannin, unreal levels of glycerin and concentration, and spectacular sweetness and opulence. Nevertheless, it demands another decade of cellaring, and should age effortlessly for another seven or eight decades. I have always felt the 1982 Mouton was perfect, yet this immortal effort might be capable of lasting for 100 years! The fact that it resists oxidation is a testament to just how youthful it remains, and how long it will last."(100pts)

 "At 13.9% natural alcohol, Mouton's director, Philippe Dhalluin, has clearly produced another 50- to 60-year wine that has a chance at perfection in about 15 years time, when I suspect this wine will be rounding into drinking condition. It is dense, rich and full-bodied, with the classic Mouton creme de cassis, forest floor, licorice and floral notes, but also some blueberry and hints of subtle espresso and mulberry."(98+pts)

Representing only 49% of the crop, this blend of 90% Cabernet Sauvignon, 8% Merlot and 2% Cabernet Franc has an inky bluish/purple color, which is far darker than its nearby neighbor, Lafite Rothschild, or even Pontet-Canet. Multi-layered, with rich, concentrated, Crème de cassis fruit, a medium to full-bodied mouthfeel, and stunning purity, this is a major success in 2012."(94pts)

POMEROL

Pomerols are often dubbed the Burgundies of Bordeaux by collectors, so it's only fitting that Wolfgang's collection is flush with the top Chateaux from Merlot's finest terroir. Our palates are salivated by a smattering of l'Eglise Clinet, l'Evangile, La Conseillante and La Fleur Petrus, then we sink our teeth into ten lots of lofty Lafleur stretching over 1971 to 2006, including a bottle of the perfect 1982, while five lots of Le Pin provide a fitting capstone to the section.

339 Château Lafleur - Vintage 1975*Pomerolwasl, lbsl, excellent color*

"Lafleur possesses a mind-boggling inner-core of highly-extracted fruit, something that was not achieved in such great Lafleurs as 1982, 1985, 1988, 1989, and 1990. Still extremely tannic, with an opaque purple/black/garnet color; the wine exhibits a huge nose of jammy black fruits, earth, minerals, and spice. 342 Château Lafleur - Vintage 1982*Pomerolbn, lgsl*

"A spectacular nose of kirsch liqueur, minerals, flowers, and blackberries jumps from the glass of this thick, dark ruby-colored Lafleur. Over-ripeness, a characteristic of many 1982s (I say that in a positive, not pejorative sense), is apparent in this jammy, unctuously-textured, massive wine. Somewhat of a paradox to taste, it offers notes of maturity, richness, and succulence contrasted with massive structure, muscle, and density. Thrilling to drink, despite its youthful, tannic grip, the 1975 and 1979 Lafleurs come closest to this wine's massiveness and formidable intensity."(100pts)

343 Château Lafleur - Vintage 1985*Pomerol4bn, 2ts, 6lbsl, 5lwrl*

"It possesses a very special bouquet suggesting ripe plums, minerals, violets, and an intensity that comes only from old vines. 344 Château Lafleur - Vintage 1989*Pomerol2wrl, 2gsl, 1ll*

"We ended with perhaps my favorite wine from the vintage, the 1989 Lafleur. Tonight was no exception. The nose was brooding, almost like Frankenstein in a trance. It left us all in a trance, digging deeper to get at the core of this extraordinary wine. Its deep, dark nose was full of concentrated purple and black fruits and a touch of currant tang. It had the spice, the spine; this was serious juice with amazing t n a, brood and breed. Ray and I got into an 89 versus 90 Lafleur debate, him being on the wrong side of it with the 90. Hints of raisiny sex appeal rounded out the nose. The finish was huge without being huge, like the 6 8" power forward that can still bring the ball up the court; aka, it was still stylish despite its large frame. It is still my favorite Lafleur of the last forty years, pure class in the glass."(98pts JK)

To put it mildly, this wine is "off the charts." If I had only one Bordeaux to drink, the 1961 Latour a Pomerol would have to be at the top of my list. Given its phenomenal richness and amazing precision and balance, it can bring tears to one's eyes. Still a saturated dark purple color with no signs of amber, orange, or rust, the nose offers extraordinarily rich, intense aromas of jammy plums, black currants, licorice, and truffles. Port-like, with remarkable viscosity and thickness, as well as a finish that lasts for more than a minute, this wine is in a class by itself. Even greater than the 1961 Pétrus and 1961 Latour (two perfect wines), it is phenomenal. PETRUS

It's no surprise that Petrus was Wolfgang's favorite Pomerol and the most abundant of the auspicious Right Bank wines in his collection with nearly two dozen lots, arching from 1945 to 2007. There are only a few precious bottles of each vintage as Wolf certainly enjoyed drinking his Petrus, but many important vintages are still being offered including 1949 magnum, 1959, 1961, 1970, 1975, 1982 and 1990!!!

357 Château Pétrus - Vintage 1945

Pomerol

ts, stl, ltl, cuc, outstanding color and condition

"While the 1947 Pétrus is a big, juicy, succulent, fruity wine, the 1945 remains a backward, tannic colossus needing another 5-10 years of cellaring. The color reveals more purple hues than the 1947, and the nose offers aromas of black fruits, licorice, truffles, and smoked meat. Massively-constituted, with formidably high tannin and extract levels, this sleeping giant may evolve into another perfect example of Pétrus."(98pts)

1 bottle per lot $8000-12000

358 Château Pétrus - Vintage 1949

Pomerol

bn, cuc, outstanding color and condition

"While variable, the 1949 has always been a huge, thick, chewy, immense wine without the unctuousity and port-like quality of the 1947 or 1950. The first time I tasted it a decade ago it seemed to be chunky and one-dimensional, but enormously rich. Since then the wine has begun to display the huge, exotic, fleshiness of Pétrus, as well as marvelously pure, plum, black-cherry, mocha, and coffee-flavored fruit. It is developing well and remains remarkably youthful for a 45-year old wine."(95pts)

361 Château Pétrus - Vintage 1955

Pomerol

2hs, 1ltl, 1lbsl, 2cuc, outstanding color

"Ahhh, the 1955 Pétrus. The nose was a bit shy but still full of the Pomerol plum, earth and mineral as well as the breed of Pétrus. Mike noted the inky trail that the wine left, and the fruit was incredibly sweet, subtle yet gorgeous. The palate had much more strength and was sturdy with great mineral, earth, chalk and slate flavors, all balanced by its plummy and chocolaty fruit. The finish on the Pétrus is better, Mike observed, but Rob countered that everything on the Lafleur is better than the Pétrus, as he was ahead of the curve (as always), just like he is when it comes to the streets of New York. The Pétrus was still extraordinary with the breed of a king and more flavors than Baskin Robbins."(97pts JK)

363 Château Pétrus - Vintage 1961*Pomerol2vhs, 2vlbsl, 2cuc, 1 bottle different importer,outstanding color and condition*

"As they say, it's a tough job, but someone's got to do it! Just to make you even more envious of my good fortune, let me tell you that over the last year I had the 1961 Pétrus out of regular format, twice from a magnum, and twice from a double magnum. Regardless of the size of the bottle, it is a perfect wine. Fully mature, and more evolved than several of its neighbors (i.e., 1961 Latour a Pomerol and 1961 Lafleur), it offers a huge, sweet nose of ginger, mint, exotic spices, and gobs of jammy black fruits. Its extraordinary viscosity, sweetness of fruit, and heady alcohol level, as well as its remarkable extract, make for one of the most sumptuous, hedonistic bottles of wine anybody could ever consume."(100pts)

364 Château Pétrus - Vintage 1964*Pomerolcuc, outstanding color and condition*

"Deep, dark ruby/garnet-colored, with a hint of orange and rust at the edge, the 1964 Pétrus offers a huge, smoky, roasted bouquet of jammy fruit, coffee, and mocha. This huge, massively-endowed wine is packed with alcohol, glycerin, and high tannin. There is stupendous extraction of fruit and amazing length. The only criticism is that it is perhaps too big and robust for its own good."(97pts)

1 bottle per lot $2000-3000

365 Château Pétrus - Vintage 1966*Pomerol2bsl, 1cuc, 1sdc, 2scc, outstanding color and condition*

"Bright nose with lots of expressive aromas - plum, green olives, mocha, minerals, chalk, stone, sweet cherry and a little green bean in there gets honeyed as it stays in the glass a sweet pungency without being too pungent still a little youthful on the palate flashy yet not quite fleshy lots of alcohol on the finish but not in the belly good plum and slate flavors on finish a bit tight on the palate but still all good wintry smooths out and opens up nicely."(94pts JK)

367 Château Pétrus - Vintage 1970*Pomerol2nl, 2lbsl, 1cuc, 1sdc, 2nc,outstanding color and condition*

"...has now hit full stride. It is a profound Pétrus, and certainly one of the great Pétrus' of the last half century. The wine has a huge nose of cedar, caramel, vanilla, tobacco, fruitcake, and licorice-infused black cherry jam. It is unctuously textured and very full-bodied, with extraordinary sweetness and glycerin, and a layered, viscous finish."(99pts)

TROTANOY AND VIEUX CHATEAU CERTAN

The hit parade of Pomerol continues playing beautiful music and it is too much delight to contain in one section. Trotanoy takes up the mantle of the Moueix Right Bank medley with several lots covering 1945 to 2009 while VCC comes through with a couple of mini-verticals documenting its glory years of the 1940s and 1950s. These are as good as it gets!

380 Château Trotanoy - Vintage 1945*Pomerolhs, lbsl, Illegibly pitted cork,believed to be 1945, excellent color and condition*

"The 1945 Trotanoy had a serious nose with great earth and minerality as well as an erotiCôtension between its fruit and structural components. Grape, cassis and chocolate abounded in its nose and on its palate, displaying more milk chocolate in the mouth with smooth flavors, chunky and long." (96pts JK)

LEROY

We are back in Burgundy, celebrating one of its three “First Growths,” one that Wolfgang loved in a big way as we have over eighty lots of this legendary Domaine, showcasing the greatness of both the contemporary Domaine/Estate wines, as well as historical Negociant bottlings, most of which were released long ago, which are much rarer and more sought after than the newest releases. The Domaine gets the first call with six lots of Chambertin, seven of Musigny, six of Richebourg, as well as several of Clos de la Roche, Romanee St. Vivant and other fine crus. Before she purchased some of Burgundy’s greatest terroirs, Lalou Bize-Leroy had a tremendous knack for buying outstanding juice each year and bottling or labeling them under Maison Leroy. There have been several releases of the different cuvees, and Wolfgang bought these many, many years ago. 1955 was Lalou’s first vintage and an epic one at that, admirably represented by Bonnes Mares, Chambertin, Beze, Grands Echezeaux, Mazis, Musigny, Richebourg and Romanee St. Vivant!!! Sounds like a great tasting!!!

387 Chambertin - Vintage 1988

Domaine Leroy

bsl, crc

“Still primary with only the initial hints of secondary complexity coming through. The concentration of the fruit is immediately evident and carries through to the big, rich, intense, indeed massive flavors. The finish is powerful, robust and delivers exceptional length. The tannins are slightly edgy on the back end but there is so much sap that they are largely, if not completely buffered. Deep, stylish and classy wine that should live for decades. Undeniably one of the wines of the vintage.”(95pts BH)

“... a fantastically complex and explosive nose of truffles, tea, leather, fresh earth and minerality is followed by delicious, intense and impressively broad-scaled flavors that are austere, beautifully focused and extremely precise before exploding into a palate staining finish of incredible length and profound complexity. The ‘93 Chambertin has arrived at a point in its evolution where it could be drunk now with pleasure though I stress that there is certainly no rush to drink up; in both cases, after an hour of air the wine was singing so if you’re in the mood to enjoy this wine, don’t hesitate.”(97pts BH)

"...is a show-stopper. It has penetrating aromas of cassia, blackberry, stones, and wild herbs. On the palate, leather, boysenberries, assorted dark fruits, and a myriad of spices can be discerned in its complex and decadently fashioned personality. This 1993 unquestionably has the requisite power, richness, concentration, and density of fruit to stand up to its solid backbone."(98pts)

"Densely fruited with virtually every spice imaginable and the aromas simply explode from the glass framing incredibly dense flavors that are the distilled essence of pinot. Black cherry extract dominates the velvety finish and completely buffers the huge tannins. A massive wine in every respect yet it comes across in the classic Burgundian manner of power without weight, especially on the finish that goes on and on."(97pts BH)

402 Musigny - Vintage 1989

lbsl, sos

"Gorgeous nose of black fruit and incredibly seductive notes of earth, smoked meat and hints of anise and clove that leads to elegant, pure, powerful but not heavy or unduly rich flavors that really are more about finesse than raw intensity. This is still extremely young but possesses everything it needs for a long, and very distinguished future."(95pts BH)

403 Musigny - Vintage 1990

vlbsl, crc

"Wonderfully complex nose of spice, still completely primary black fruit all wrapped in ripe but not roasted earth notes. The massive flavors are big, robust and amazingly concentrated with incredible extract and even though there is so much extract, it is barely up to the task of buffering the prominent, indeed almost aggressive structure. The stupendously long finish just explodes on the palate and arrives with a wonderful rush."(94?pts BH)

"This is a dazzling wine and so fresh that it's like crushing a bunch of pinot noir grapes in your hand. There's an incredible immediacy to this as it's akin to a sensorial assault with its astonishingly complex, plummy and spicy black fruit aromas and powerful, densely concentrated, fantastically intense flavors that culminate in an austere, brooding finish that simply does not end. Despite the austerity of the finish, there is a buffering inner mouth sweetness and for all the power and muscle, this possesses impeccable balance.  "Compared to the reserved and brooding wine that I last saw some nine years ago, this has become quite expressive with a simply stunning nose of spice, blue and black pinot fruit and warm earth nuances leading to seductive, broad and powerful flavors that offer superb depth and intensity plus stupendous length. This is dripping with velvet as the concentrated sap that seemingly suffuses every aspect of the wine. While I appreciate that it sounds contradictory, this is discreetly opulent and yet never loses its remarkable sense of balance and finesse."(96pts BH)

"This is very '59 in character with an exceptionally ripe and now fully mature nose that has gone almost completely tertiary as the sous bois dominates the nose though in the background can be found the remnants of secondary fruit aromas, warm earth and discreet spice and game hints. The deep and still moderately structured flavors possess excellent complexity on the powerful and impressively long, extremely rich and velvety finish that just manages to avoid a sense of heaviness." "Explosively fresh and nuanced red fruit aromas cut with earth and underbrush lead to relatively fine, intense and focused flavors of real breed and class, not to mention impressive length. I very much like the style here and while this is by no means a big Chambertin, it is very pretty and elegant. Enjoyable now as it has softened nicely but it will continue to hold well for decades if stored properly." (93pts BH)

"The highly expressive nose of sous bois, spice, dried flower and sandalwood displays just enough volatile acidity to detract mildly from the overall sense of elegance. Otherwise there is superb complexity to the rich but beautifully well-detailed and gorgeously textured middle weight flavors where the underlying minerality adds a sense of lift to the lingering finish where there is a hint of acid tang poking through, very probably from the VA."(93pts BH)

"A kaleidoscopically broad and wonderfully elegant nose is composed of tea, spice, hoison, soy, clove, dried flowers and plenty of sous bois. The superb depth continues on the gorgeously textured and intensely mineral-driven flavors that remain impeccably well-balanced on the caressing and liting finale. This is no longer a powerful wine, indeed there are elements of delicacy to it, but it is a study in Zen-like harmony."(96pts BH)

 "The Mazis-Chambertin was made from amazingly low yields (9 h/h). Possessing a very dark, almost black color, and an engulfing, deeply intense, brooding nose, this wine's oily texture, wild berries and spices intertwined with minerals and rocks must be tasted to be believed. Highly structured, full-bodied and powerful, this super-concentrated offering needs 7-9 years of cellaring. I suspect it will be at it best over the subsequent 10-14 years." (95pts)

THE FULL MONTY: DOMAINE DE LA ROMANEE CONTI

The near midpoint of our sale hits a high note with the most superlative of white wines made anywhere with the venerated DRC Montrachet. There are nearly forty lots of this most highly sought after grandest of crus spanning 1969 to 2013 and almost all of the most important vintages in between. In addition to the many great bottles, there are rare magnums of 1982, 1996, 1998, 1999, 2001, 2002, 2004 and 2005!

4cm bc, bsl, vlsc, outstanding color and condition

"Firm and sturdy rather than elegant or stylish, but the spicy, smoky pear and apple flavors that echo on the finish balance beautifully." (90pts WS)

475 Montrachet - Vintage 1978

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

4.5cm bc, bsl, outstanding color, excellent condition

"Next up was a most generous gift to all of us from Wolfgang, a 1978 DRC Montrachet, from Wolf's cellars. The wine had an amazing nose and was still possibly the best white wine I have ever had. Wolf's bottle was perfect, amazingly sweet and buttery in its nose with supporting honey, nut and oil. It was deep, long, fat and balanced and had big-time minerals. A botrytis debate developed between Bipin and Aubert about whether there was botrytis in the '78 or not. Bipin felt there was a touch in not only the '78 but also the '71, a claim which Aubert vehemently denied. Wolfgang changed the topic, admiring the '78 and finding it "like being wrapped in feathers." The palate was rich, mouth-filling, long and still young, and its acidity lingered in my belly for an incredible amount of time. There was a small tribute to Bipin by Wolf for introducing him to Burgundy a long time ago, which Wolf called "the epitome of pleasure." The Montrachet had great earth flavors and terroir, and that terroir of Montrachet was clearly evident. There was a touch of benevolent root vegetable flavors, and Wolf likened drinking this wine to a "hole in one - you need a witness." Bipin called the DRC Montrachet "the only white wine that can match the intensity of a red wine." The food made the acidity stand out even more and this was certainly a spectacular experience." 481 Montrachet - Vintage 1990

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

vlbsl, scc, ssos

"Firm and intensely focused, pouring a wealth of pineapple, grapefruit and walnut-tinged pear flavors into a lithe and elegant frame. Built to develop with a certain roughness. This needs until 2000 to 2005 to be at its best." (96pts WS)

Domaine de la Romanée Conti
 3cm bc, vlsc
"Those millionaires lucky enough to have access to this rarity, frequently the most concentrated Chardonnay made in the world, should be pleased with the 1991 and 1990. The 1991 Le Montrachet is a fat, unctuously-styled wine made from yields of only 32 hectoliters per hectare. Although rich, it does not have the depth and power of vintages such as 1990, 1989, and 1986. Soft and precocious because of low acidity..."(90pts)

"Absolutely full blown in style with expressive and classic white burgundy aromas that explode from the glass, merging seamlessly with generous, forward, remarkably soft (but not flabby), powerful flavors of considerable depth and a racy, pure, delicious finish that lasts for minutes. The '93 vintage was relatively concentrated in general but this is extremely dense and the sappy flavors coat and stain the palate. A simply great effort for the vintage and impressive as hell."(93pts BH)

"One of the greatest wines of the incredible 1996 vintage with knockout aromas of white flowers, green apples and a touch of oak spice all framed by an intense minerality followed by discreet, understated flavors that are so focused that they're entirely crystalline in nature. This just oozes class and breed and the balance is perfect with acidity that exquisitely highlights each nuance yet remains in the background as a supporting, rather than a dominating, element. Seamless from the explosive fruit to the finish that persists literally for minutes. This is an emotionally compelling wine and one cannot drink it and remain indifferent. A reference standard expression of the terroir and incontestably one of the finest wines of this great vintage. Beg, borrow or steal but don't miss this wine."(98pts BH)

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

“ The next wine rocked the house, however, and it proceeded to sell out a few more shows after its performance on this night! The 2000 DRC Montrachet was extraordinary. The breed of Montrachet, the style of the vintage and the quality of DRC all came through in this bottle. Unlike the 2002 that I had a couple weeks prior, there was no Caliesque impression to its nose, and even Ray was fully erect, a rare sight when it comes to wine. There were piercing aromas of minerals and stones to its racy nose, a nose full of zip, zing and zoom. There were great, taut flavors with toast, minerals, white fruits, citrus and earth. Ray was gushing about the clarity and purity of fruit while Gorky was admiring its integration and how it is drinking so well, a fact that he interestingly called scary. Ray had to put something down, so he called the DRC twice the wine of the Sauzet which followed.”(97pts JK)

502 Montrachet - Vintage 2005*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

“An opulent, ripe and moderately oaked in-your-face nose explodes from the glass, bringing incredibly complex and layered aromas that run from floral, citrus, spice and a full range of white and yellow fruit notes that complement to perfection the lush, rich and amazingly concentrated broad-scaled flavors that are underpinned by an intense minerality and a palate staining finish of simply unbelievable length. At this young stage, this is a massive Montrachet that is long on power and muscle and while it’s not as elegant as say the 2000, 2002 or 2004 versions, I believe that the refinement one typically finds in this wine will come in time. In sum, for sheer vinous fireworks, this is hard to beat and to call it a “wow” wine would be a considerable understatement. However, note that plenty of time will be required and it will be one of the longest-lived vintages in recent memory. A great, great effort.”(98pts BH)

“As it was originally from cask, the 2006 Montrachet remains relatively discreet with almost shy white flower, grapefruit, mildly exotic orchard fruit and subtle spice notes trimmed in just the right amount of wood that lead to beautifully textured, pure, intense and focused big-bodied flavors wrapped around a firm acid spine and culminating in a wonderfully racy, dry, linear and mineral-driven finish.”(96pts BH)

505 Montrachet - Vintage 2007*Domaine de la Romanée Conti1vlscl*

“As the late picking date would suggest, this is a very ripe and wonderfully nuanced wine with a brilliantly complex nose of white peach, pear, exotic yellow fruits, acacia blossom and citrus hints that complement perfectly the rich and monumentally constructed flavors that possess an almost chewy texture yet the mouth feel is one of satin and silk, all wrapped in a palate staining mildly toasty finish that displays impeccable balance and incredible length. To call this a knockout seems almost like faint praise but it is one genuinely stunning wine that should live for 30 to 40 years.”(97pts BH)

506 Montrachet - Vintage 2008*Domaine de la Romanée Contivlscl*

“Pale, bright yellow. Wonderfully nuanced, perfumed aromas of ripe pineapple, menthol, honey, spearmint, vanilla, caramel and wild herbs; a bit less exotic than usual for this young wine. Outstanding texture and intensity, but with less exotic ripeness (just 14%) and coconutty oak to get in the way of the pure, sharply chiseled notes of acacia blossom, wild herbs, spearmint and soil. Brisk acidity gives cut and penetration to the extremely long, delineated finish. There’s a bit of subtle botrytis character here but it only serves to contribute to the wine’s glycerol texture. Splendid, and built for long aging.”(95+?pts IWC)

507 Montrachet - Vintage 2009*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

“An overtly ripe and moderately exotic yet very fresh nose exhibits a wonderfully complex aromatic profile comprised of a variety of both white and yellow orchard fruit, toasty oak, mango, spice and high-toned floral notes. The exceptionally rich and powerful large-scaled flavors brim with palate staining dry extract that imparts a seductive but also borderline chewy texture to the explosive and still very tightly wound finish. This is a huge Montrachet even by the oversized standards of what is typically the biggest white burgundy of all.”(95pts BH)

508 Montrachet - Vintage 2010*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

“A strikingly fresh, ripe and airy nose displays moderately exotic white and yellow fruit aromas where additional notes of acacia blossom, citrus, pain grillé, citrus zest and fennel hints can be appreciated. There is superb size, weight and detail to the broad-shouldered and breathtakingly concentrated flavors that completely coat the mouth with dry extract before culminating in a driving, precise, linear and impeccably well-balanced finish. There is so much volume that the underlying minerality seems almost lost but I suspect that it will become more apparent as this ages.”(96pts BH)

509 Montrachet - Vintage 2011

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"A notably ripe nose displays hints of exoticism with its dried yellow orchard fruit, pear, white peach, pekoe tea and elegant floral aromas. There is seriously impressive richness, volume, concentration and power to the muscular full-bodied flavors that brim with palate coating dry extract. Interestingly the mid-palate is almost soft yet the explosive and hugely long finish tightens up quickly as the markedly firm acid spine shapes and infuses it with a sense of underlying tension. In terms of where the 2011 Montrachet stacks up relative to prior vintages of this storied wine, I would describe it as one of the more elegant examples that combines finesse with power."(94pts BH)

HAUT BRION AND LA MISSION HAUT BRION

These twin towers of grandeur in Graves have always had their histories intertwined, both due to the shared name but also due to the ownership of the Dillon family, who has owned Haut Brion since 1935 and La Mission Haut Brion since 1983. Haut Brion was arguably the first international commodity in the world of wine, but there is no debate that La Mission can be equally as great, if not greater in some vintages! Both are among Wolfgang's favorite Chateaux, and we are honored to offer a number of lots direct from these legendary Chateaux via Clarence Dillon Wines, their Négociant company. All wines direct from the Chateaux and CDW are indicated with a ^. Haut Brion twirls on the dance floor first with eighteen lots going from 1930 to 2013 and including 1955, 1959, 1961, 1982 and 2005. La Mission is not to be outdone with more than two dozen lots covering 1916 to 2012, crested by 1928, 1947, 1949, 1959, 1961, 1975, 1982 and 2000. The rare white incarnations of both Chateaux are make a fleeting but fruitful appearance with Haut Brion Blanc going back to 1961 and Laville dating to 1947, as well as some the recent reincarnation of Laville in La Mission Haut Brion Blanc. In addition, many bottles are available in large format! This is a spectacular selection of both old and new thanks to Wolfgang and some "old" friends.

"The 1975 La Mission-Haut-Brion has been the most consistent wine of the vintage. Super-concentrated, and now beginning to shed enough tannin so that it can be fully appreciated, this enormously constituted La Mission-Haut-Brion has developed that fabulous Graves set of aromatics - tobacco, black fruits, minerals, roasted herbs, and cedar. Huge, massive, thick, and succulent, with moderate tannin, and some amber notes at the edge... it comes closest in style to resembling the 1945, with a hint of the sweet, ripe 1959."(100pts)

Graves
1bn, 4lbsl
"A thick, unctuously-textured wine with massive richness
as well as abundant notes of black fruits, truffles, creosote, scorched earth, smoke, and camphor, a colossal mouthfeel, a layered texture, incredible depth of fruit and glycerin, and copious, but well-integrated tannins that are largely concealed by the incredible amount of fruit. An old school La Mission, it is a tour de force that should continue to age effortlessly for another 40+ years."(100pts)

medium to full-bodied, admirably concentrated wine's great ripeness and fruit conceals moderate tannin in the finish."(90pts)

powerful, sweet, creamy, and precocious wine is already flattering."(91pts)

- ^549 Château La Mission Haut Brion - Vintage 1998
 Graves
1x12 bottle owc
"A candidate for the wine of the vintage from this somewhat forgotten year, consumers should be seeking out wines from the Right Bank and Graves as 1998 was a great vintage in those appellations. La Mission's 1998 exhibits a healthy, opaque blue/purple color with no lightening at the edge. Thirty minutes of aeration brings forth a sensational bouquet of chocolate, cedar, truffles, graphite, blackberries, cassis and incense. La Mission's so-called scorched earth/charcoal/hot rocks characteristic has not yet appeared. Full-bodied with superb purity, a multilayered texture, sweet tannin, good acidity and a fabulously long finish, this great, young La Mission-Haut-Brion's finest days are yet to come."(98pts)

"...offers a quintessential Graves bouquet of burning embers, charcoal, blackberries, truffles, black currants, and a meaty character. Reminiscent of the 1989, with more structure as well as a longer window of drinkability, the 2005 may be a modern day, improved version of a vintage such as 1955, which was well-endowed, very tannic, and took a long time to come around."(97pts)

- 554 Château La Mission Haut Brion - Vintage 2009
 Graves
1x6 bottle owc, 1x3 magnum owc
"A remarkable effort from the Dillon family, this is another large-scaled La Mission that tips the scales at 15% alcohol. A blend of equal parts Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot (47% of each) and the rest Cabernet Franc, it exhibits an opaque purple color as well as a magnificent bouquet of truffles, scorched earth, blackberry and blueberry liqueur, subtle smoke and spring flowers. The wine's remarkable concentration offers up an unctuous/viscous texture, a skyscraper-like mouthfeel, sweet, sumptuous, nearly over-the-top flavors and massive density."(100pts)

"This full-bodied, colossal giant of a wine is one of the goliaths of the vintage. It may well have the highest level of natural alcohol for any wine from the Left Bank of Bordeaux (15.1%) and has the definite potential to be a 50- to 75-year wine. Dense purple, it offers up notes of lead pencil shavings, charcoal embers, blueberry and blackberry liqueur along with massive concentration, a multi-dimensional mouthfeel and a monumental finish that goes well past a minute, which I think might be a record for a young Bordeaux."(98+pts)

FURTHER NOTABLE RED AND WHITE BURGUNDY

With Wolfgang, we always come back to Burgundy and these more than two dozen lots from several different producers demonstrate his inquisitive nature. Coming to the block are 2001 Dugat-Py Chambertin, 1990 La Romanee, 1985 Engel Clos Vougeot and 2012 LeMoine Montrachet as well as verticals of Faiveley, Gouges, Jadot, Latour and Niellon.

 "Explosive doesn't adequately describe just how powerful and vibrant the black fruit aromas are but as forward and intense as the nose is, the flavors are equally backward, brooding and completely reserved in personality. Thick, palate staining and remarkably dense with length that I could still taste an hour later. This is massive but not hard or one-dimensional and as remarkable as this is already, the potential for future improvement is uncanny - indisputably one of the greatest wines of the vintage and it wouldn't surprise me at all if one day my score proved to be conservative because it is so rare to find this level of extract. In short, this is genuinely awesome."

"This grand cru is unbelievable, possessing everything I could hope for in a white wine. Is this a candidate to merit a perfect score? The profound Chevalier-Montrachet, produced from vines planted in 1968 and 1972, offers a mind-blowingly intricate, precise and refined nose of minerals, chalk, rock dust and flowers. On the palate, this breathtaking wine enralls with its superbly defined and harmonious medium-to-full-body."(99pts)

RHONE

Wolfgang occasionally played outside the sandboxes of Burgundy and Bordeaux, heading South for those cold, Appenzell winters with seven lots of Beaucastel (focusing on its Hommage) and a baker's dozen lots of Guigal La Las going back to 1978 as well as 1990 Rayas, 1989 Bonneau Celestins, 1971 Chave and 1969 La Chapelle. He chose wisely!!

Hommage a Jacques Perrin, Château de Beaucastel

"...represents the essence of Beaucastel. A super-concentrated, somewhat over the top style of wine based on 60% Mourvedre, 20% Grenache, and the rest Counoise and Syrah, they only made 4,000 bottles in 2005. The wine has an inky blue/purple color, a more dramatic bouquet than the regular cuvée, consisting of asphalt, crushed pepper, fres red beef, tar, truffle, and loads of blueberry, blackberry, and cassis. The wine is very full-bodied, extraordinarily powerful, frightfully concentrated, and very tannic and backward."(98+pts)

 "The debut vintage for Guigal s La Landonne continues to live up to the raves it received from cask tastings done in the late 70 s. The intense, almost overdone bouquet of smoky, exotic fruit carries one s nose to the brink of Paradise. On the palate, the wine os explosively rich and full-bodied, has loads of tannins, and should age majestically."(97pts)

La Landonne, E. Guigal
 2lbsl, 1sdc
 "Once again the darkest, thickest, most powerful, and formidably concentrated of Guigal's single-vineyard Côte R ties, the 1985 La Landonne is also the least flattering and most intimidating. Like its two siblings, it is throwing a hefty sediment, with the inside of the bottle resembling that of a 15-year-old vintage port. The color is still a murky, inky purple. The nose offers up aromas of beef blood, vitamins (iron?), minerals, smoke, and truffles. Extremely thick, full-bodied, and massive, with noticeable tannin, this monster wine reveals no hard edges, but it does possess teeth-staining extract and power. It is a remarkable effort!..."(100pts)

616 Côte Rôtie - Vintage 1989*La Landonne, E. Guigal*

9lbsl, 2spc, 9scc, 1sos

"The 1989 single-vineyard Côte Rôties are magnificent. Reminiscent of Guigal's 1985s and 1982s, the black/purple-colored La Landonne possesses fabulous concentration, and a sweet, expansive personality. It has plenty of tannin, but there is so much fruit that the tannin is largely concealed. This is another mammoth-sized wine with extraordinary extract."(98pts)

618 Côte Rôtie - Vintage 1978*La Mouline, E. Guigal*

2lbsl, 1sdc, 2scc, outstanding color and condition

"I have had this wine more than two dozen times (lucky me), and it is one of the most thrilling wines I could ever drink. I loved it when it was an infant, and now that it may, or may not be, fully mature, I still think it is the quintessential expression of Guigal's La Mouline. The color remains an inky garnet, with no perceptible lightening at the edges. The celestial aromas include copious quantities of black raspberries, coconut, smoked duck, Asian spices, and violets. It overloads the olfactory senses. On the palate, this wine reveals unreal concentration, layers of thick, juicy fruit, beautifully integrated acidity and tannin, and a sumptuous finish that lasts for more than a minute. This seamless beauty is one of the greatest wines made in this century. If I were forced to drink just one wine ... let it be this!..."(100pts)

620 Côte Rôtie - Vintage 1983La Mouline, E. Guigal*

2lbsl, 2scc

"This wine reveals a distinctive violet, cassis, bacon fat aroma intermixed with smoked duck and Asian spice components. Extremely full-bodied and sturdy with noticeable tannin, this husky, powerful, concentrated La Mouline in 1983, it behaves more like La Landonne still a wealth of fruit remaining."(100pts)

2 bottles per lot $2400-3200

621 Côte Rôtie - Vintage 1985*La Mouline, E. Guigal*

2lbsl

"One of the all-time great La Moulines, this still youthful and unevolved wine does not have the tannic ferocity of the 1988, or the sheer force and intensity of the 1978, 1976, and 1969, but it represents the epitome of this single-vineyard wine. Everything fits perfectly in this full-bodied, black/purple-colored wine that reveals no garnet or amber at the edge of its color. The nose offers up a formidable array of overripe black raspberries and cherries intertwined with scents of cedar, chocolate, olives, and toast. Extremely full-bodied, with an unctuousness and opulence that must be tasted to be believed, this velvety-textured wine's finish lasts for over a minute. It is one of the most concentrated but profoundly endowed and well-balanced wines I have ever tasted. Like so many of the wines Guigal has produced from this vineyard, no matter how hard one tries to articulate its glories, words are simply inadequate."(100pts)

 "Inching closer and closer to the celestial 1990, is the 1989. This cuvée was fabulous when tasted in Bonneau's cellars, but it closed down after bottling. Possibly even more powerful and tannic than the 1990, as well as more backward, the 1989 looks to be a great classic. It is a Reserve des Celestins to forget for another 3-8 years. It possesses all the characteristics of the 1990, but everything is packed into a more linear personality. Amazing stuff!..." (99pts)

 "Having consistently merited 100 points (if my scoring system went higher, it would be there), it continues to perform like a young wine, yet is accessible enough to be appreciated for its extraordinary combination of power, complexity, and majestic layers of flavor. The color is a dark plum/ruby to the edge. The monumental bouquet offers up aromas of liquified charcoaled beef intermixed with pepper, smoke, creme de cassis, kirsch liqueur, truffles, and new saddle leather. This full-bodied, viscous, prodigious Châteauneuf du Pape must be tasted to be believed." (100pts)

I have been tasting Chave's Hermitage since the great 1978 vintage, and the black-colored 1990 is unquestionably the most massive and concentrated wine he has yet produced. Perhaps the real difference between it and the splendid 1989 is that the 1990 exhibits a more roasted character to its nose, as well as a bit more tannin and concentration in the mouth. "May I boldly suggest that this wine is reminiscent of the 1982 and 1989 Pétrus? There is no Merlot in the blend, yet the wine possesses extraordinary intensity and a port-like viscosity and richness, phenomenal fruit extraction, a huge aroma of roasted cassis fruit, an unctuous, rich, full-bodied palate, and a spectacularly long, super-rich finish. The tannins remain concealed behind the wine's wealth of fruit." (98pts)

649 Heitz Cellars Cabernet Sauvignon - Vintage 1974

Martha's Vineyard

bn, stl, sdc, excellent color

"A monumental California Cabernet Sauvignon, it appears to have approached its plateau of maturity but should easily last for 20-25 more years. There is no rust, amber, or brown to the saturated dark purple color. The spectacular, huge, Mouton-Rothschild-like nose of mint, cassis, lead pencil, and toast is remarkably youthful. Staggeringly concentrated, this full-bodied, super-rich wine possesses moderate tannin, fresh, lively acidity, and a blockbuster, rich, fleshy finish. This is a monumental effort!..." (98pts)

Made in the classic, iconic Screaming Eagle style that the original proprietress, Jean Philipps, first showcased in the early 1990s, before the winery was sold to Stan Kroenke, the inky/purple-colored, seamless 2012 possesses an extraordinary set of aromatics consisting of pure blackcurrant liqueur, licorice, acacia flowers, graphite and a subtle hint of new oak. It's only natural to have some exceptional German wines in Wolfgang's collection since that is his native language! There is a spectacular array of special wines going back to 1937, hitting the key vintages of 1949, 1959, 1971 and 1976 from JJ Prum, Schloss Johannisberg, Thanisch and other great producers. Speaking of great producers, you must try the 1959 Egon Muller Trockenbeerauslese, the best sweet wine Wolfgang has ever had! Impossible to find!

Wolfgang celebrates the pleasures of Tuscany young and old with legendary Biondi Santi going back to 1891, and nine lots of Masseto spanning 1997 to 2011 as well as a magnum of the monumental 1985 Sassicaia.

664 Brunello di Montalcino - Vintage 1964

Il Greppo Riserva, Biondi Santi

4hs, 2ms, 6vlbsl, 6ltl, 4sdc, 1scc, excellent color

"...is off the charts. Dark, deep and dense for a wine of its age, the 1964 impresses from the outset for its pure pedigree. A wine of raw, almost animal power, the 1964 explodes from the glass with huge fruit and tons of pure intensity for a 50 year-old wine. Smoke, graphite, game, tobacco, licorice and dark spices flesh out in an ample, full-bodied Brunello that exudes personality. Wild, gamy notes punctuate the boisterous finish." (97pts VM)

"I had this wine in a blind tasting - I have had it frequently, and have never failed to give it a perfect rating. At the same time, I have often mis-identified it in blind tastings as the 1986 Mouton-Rothschild. In this tasting, the wine was phenomenal. The color remains an opaque purple. The bouquet is beginning to develop secondary aromas of cedar and truffles to go along with its intense cassis, black-raspberry, blackberry, tarry, toasty personality. Exceptionally dense, concentrated, and full-bodied, this wine possesses layers of concentrated fruit that are beautifully balanced by the wine's sweet tannin and well-integrated acidity. The finish lasts for nearly a minute. A monumental Cabernet Sauvignon, it is one of the greatest wines made this century."(100pts)

AFTER DINNER DRINKS

Wolfgang always enjoys an after dinner drink, while enjoying one of his thousands of incredible cigars. A great cigar brings out the best in every Spirit or Port, and Wolfgang kept his cupboard full accordingly. The Ports are especially amazing headlined by very rare pre-phylloxera Taylors from 1855 and 1863 (!!) as well as the celebrated 1931, 1963 and 1997 Noval Nacionals. We cap off the night cap with special Calvados, Delamain Cognacs, Armagnacs, and rare Marcs and Fines from DRC. Goodnight Irene!

700 Quinta do Noval Vintage Port - Vintage 1963*Nacionalbsl, lwrl, ll, wc, bottled in 1965"...possessed a fabulously smoky, cassis, black-cherry, peppery nose. After thirty minutes in the glass, fruitcake notes and more evolved aromas emerged. This port is so concentrated it defies belief, with extraordinary balance, and, like its two siblings, well-integrated alcohol and tannin. The impression is one of a silky, succulent, voluptuously-textured mouthful of exceptionally extracted port. This is a legend in the making."(99pts)*

YQUEM

And Good Morning Yquem! No discussion of the world's greatest dessert wines would be complete without the finest Sauternes of them all, Yquem. Wolfgang's homage is short and sweet with a dozen lots spanning 1921 to 2009.

709 Château d'Yquem - Vintage 1921

Sauternes

ts, hstl, ll, beautiful deep mahogany color

"There is no doubt that the two most profound and mature Yquems made in the 20th century were the 1921 and 1937."(100pts)

1 bottle per lot $4500-6000

710 Château d'Yquem - Vintage 1924

Sauternes

hs, stl, spc, beautiful light mahogany color

"Better on the palate, in fact quite rich"

*(at best MB)

1 bottle per lot $1200-1600

711 Château d'Yquem - Vintage 1929

Sauternes

hs, hbsl, lscl, spc, beautiful deep mahogany color

"...peaches and cream ride uppermost, also apricots peeled sultanas, sometimes slightly chocolatey, always richly penetrating."(5 stars MB)

1 bottle per lot $2400-3500

712 Château d'Yquem - Vintage 1937

Sauternes

bn, bsl, ltl, beautiful mahogany color

"Still sweet, concentrated, ambrosial, untiringly persistent."(5 stars MB)

1 bottle per lot $2400-3500

713 Château d'Yquem - Vintage 1945

Sauternes

bn, hbsl, lscl, hwrl, scc, beautiful mahogany color

"The loveliest of colours, warm gold, pure gold; bouquet perfection, opening up in the glass like a water lily; still sweet, intence, great length."(5 stars MB)

1 bottle per lot $2000-2800

Sauternes

1x24 half bottle owc

"An extraordinary effort, Yquem s 1990 is a rich and fabulously superb, sweet wine. This wine also possesses lots of elegance and finesse. The wine s medium gold color is accompanied by an exceptionally sweet nose of honeyed tropical fruits, peaches, coconut, and apricots. High quality, subtle toasty oak is well-integrated..."(99pts)

24 half-bottles per lot $3500-4800

718 Château d'Yquem - Vintage 2001

Sauternes

2x12 half bottle owc

"...with airing, it offers up honeyed tropical fruit, orange marmalade, pineapple, sweet creme brulee, and buttered nut-like scents. In the mouth, it is full-bodied with gorgeously refreshing acidity as well as massive concentration and unctuousity. Everything is uplifted and given laser-like focus by refreshing acidity. This large-scaled, youthful Yquem appears set to take its place among the most legendary vintages of the past..."(100pts)

24 half-bottles per lot $5000-7000

719 Château d'Yquem - Vintage 2007

Sauternes

1x3 magnum owc

"...shines like a diamond. Nevertheless, it is initially rather taciturn on the nose, eventually opening up beautifully with touches of lemon curd, Mirabelle, and clear honey. The palate is medium-bodied with very fine definition and there seems to be a great deal of energy and vigor dispensed for your pleasure. There is such race and nervousity, and then that finish just purrs with harmony and focus."(98pts)

3 magnums per lot $1400-1800

720 Château d'Yquem - Vintage 2009

Sauternes

1x6 bottle owc

"...has a glorious bouquet with luscious honey, lemon curd, white peach and quince that is crystalline and utterly refined. It demonstrates wonderful delineation and pinpoint focus. The palate is brilliantly balanced with life-affirming acidity. There are notes of quince and white peach once again, marrying with hints of light honey and crushed stone, finishing with convincing confidence on the composed, refined finish."(99pts)

"Marvellously creamy and intensively elegant in a modern, polished way despite muscles as great as the Gluteus Maximus on a thoroughbred. Already fantastically long and homogenous with a colossally compact layer of fruit that ranges from pear to fig."(95pts RJ)

6 bottles per lot $3500-5000

723 Bollinger Vintage Champagne - Vintage 2000

Vieilles Vignes, Francaises

9x1 bottle owc's

"Deep, musky aromas of buttered toast, cherry pit, blood orange, lemon rind, pungent herbs and yellow rose, with mounting spiciness. Deeply concentrated but showing unlikely finesse, with firm, gripping red berry and citrus flavors and exotic notes of candied flowers and smoky lees."(95pts IWC)

KRUG

Wolfgang's collection of Krug is more than exceptional, and in all there are more than forty lots from this most respected of all the great Champagne houses. This is hardly surprising as Wolfgang was good friends with Remi Krug and has enjoyed many wines with him, receiving direct allocations for many of these wines directly from the Swiss importer in the late 1990s/early 2000s. There are nearly twenty lots of Krug Collection arching over 1929 to 1981, created by numerous magnums and incredibly rare vintages. There are also ten lots of Clos du Mesnil going back to first vintage, 1979, as well as numerous other gems from the stable. This is an historic offering of the world's finest Champagne!!!

727 Krug Collection Vintage Champagne - Vintage 1949

1.75cm bc, sos, 1x1 bottle owc, outstanding color

"The next Champagne had everyone oohing and aahing with its white chocolate nose and incredible palate. Big, spiny and fresh yet still mature, it was smooth and superb. As Wendy summed it up, It is a 60 year-old woman in a 25 year-old body. The mature, yellow flavors were delicious in this 1949 Krug Collection, from a bottle whose fill was below the foil." 728 Krug Collection Vintage Champagne - Vintage 1952

1x1 magnum owc, outstanding color and condition

"Next up was an intermezzo, a magnum of 1952 Krug (original bottling, not Collection), which was a perfect pair with the fettucine in cream sauce with white truffles. I highly recommend that combo. yy jumped all over its white chocolate, and Dave was in awe of this great bubbly. The nose was deep and rich with some honey and bread to go along with its white chocolate. There was great freshness and a great finish with vim, vigor and good spritz. The palate was honey and white chocolate city, and this was impressive for an original bottling." (96pts JK)

"Krug '82 will soon join the ranks of the legendary wines. It has all the bricks needed to build a mighty castle. The fruit is enormous, the acidity, the concentration, the house's barrel tones: all are present and correct the most full-bodied wine to come from the property since 1976. The nose's spectrum embraces nuts, coffee, butter, sun-dried sheets, toffee-wrappers, orchids, vanilla, balsam poplars, and oranges. Most of these aromas are found once again in the explosive taste."(96pts RJ)

"At Krug they themselves compare the wine with the '81, the '55, and the '61. Personally, I compare it to the '66 and the ultra elegant '79. The finesse is unbeatable and the acidity very noticeable. This is a wine that is going to be enjoyed by our grandchildren. Most people probably discourage immediate consumption of this young wine, but I am of a different opinion. I believe that a little bit of the subtle feeling of tears of joy disappears when the wine matures."(97pts RJ)

753 Krug Vintage Champagne - Vintage 1996
 1x6 bottle ocb
"Remarkably perfumed nose projects an exotic bouquet of deep, leesy yellow fruit, minerals, honeycomb, smoked meat and flowers, with Asian spices building expanding in the glass. Almost painfully concentrated, offering a surreal parade of orchard and pit fruits, smoked meat, toasted brioche and marrow braced by intensely salty, stunningly incisive minerality. Imagine a Frankenstein's monster of Chablis Le Clos and Clos Ste. Hune-but one with perfect balance, of course-and you get an idea of what I found in my bottle. The energetic, stony character builds exponentially on the finish, which didn't seem to, well, finish. The best analogy I can come up with for the intensity, focus and clarity of this Champagne is liquefied barbed wire. Utterly hallucinatory and one of the most amazing wines I've ever been fortunate enough to drink."(99+pts IWC)

754 Krug Vintage Champagne - Vintage 1979
 Clos du Mesnil
 1x1 bottle owc, outstanding color and condition
"A perfect Blanc de Blancs and a "decent" first try by the Krug family. The nose lives more on finesse than richness. Juicy Cox's Orange apples, Cointreau, and acacia honey raise high expectations for the taste, and they are triumphantly met. There is a wonderfully exotic richness that reminds me of Taittinger Comtes de Champagne, but with an aftertaste even richer in glycerol honey sweetness. One of the true milestones of wine history."(99pts RJ)

757 Krug Vintage Champagne - Vintage 1983*Clos du Mesnil1x1 bottle owc*

"The 1.87-hectare Clos du Mesnil vineyard, in the heart of the village, is a location that sums up all that Le Mesnil's Champagne stands for. In Krug's hands this is the essence of Chardonnay. The '83 has a little way to go before it is fully mature: the color has a clear green gleam, the nose is young, finely balanced, and flowery, with lily of the valley, freesia, and white lilies clearly discernible. There is also a complex, creamy side filled with toasty aromas, young fruit, and damp wool. The taste is long and dry, with massive elegance and feminine frivolity." (93-96pts RJ)

758 Krug Vintage Champagne - Vintage 1985*Clos du Mesnil1x1 magnum owc*

"The height of elegance! The '85 reminds me of the '79, but I wonder if this wine doesn't reach even greater peaks. What balance and indescribable finesse! Sadly it's rare these days that I become so awestruck by a wine that I go through an almost religious experience. This wonderful, lime-fruity Champagne with its polished butteriness and sparkling clarity..." (98pts RJ)

762 Krug Vintage Champagne - Vintage 1990*Clos du Mesnil3x1 magnum owc's*

"The foremost vintage in recent years combined with in my opinion the world's foremost vineyard clear and unexpected aromas of papaya and melon arose. This wave was followed by a spicy breeze, laden with juniper elements incredibly subtle and multifaceted, just as it headed into its last and in my opinion best phase: the Seloisse Phase! Never before have I found a wine with a scent reminiscent of the 1986 Seloisse The last sips were like rekindling an old love in a new body. The fascinating wine journey on which this Champagne will take you will be shortened the longer you wait before opening a bottle." (96pts RJ)

763 Krug Vintage Champagne - Vintage 1996*Clos du Mesnil4x1 bottle owc's*

"The 1996 Krug Clos du Mesnil, however, took things up another notch; its intensity and pitch were noticeably better. Also a Blanc de Blancs cuvée, the Clos du Mesnil was muscular, buttery and rich with massive slate and chalk per BB. This was truly Montrachet, with tremendous acidity and a thunderous personality. Flavors of lime and white chocolate rounded out this insanely complex and spectacular Champagne. BB told all how this was the greatest land in Champagne and how much correlation there is between this vineyard and that of Romanée Conti. It was truly great." (98+pts JK)

"It was halftime; hence a palate-cleansing flight of Champagne. The 1955 Krug Private cuvée Extra Sec had the pure granulated sugar, vanilla, earth and cream in its nose. The nose was fantastic; its vanilla was all that and then some, very buttery and with a touch of antique wood. Rich and with a touch of ice wine' to it, the Krug kept gaining and gaining in the glass until it indubitably reached outstanding status." (95pts JK)

DOMAINE DE LA ROMANEE CONTI

We save the best for last with “The Domaine,” Domaine de la Romanee Conti. We are very fortunate indeed to have more than 150 lots from this legendary estate. Wolfgang’s long love affair with DRC is easy to document with this eye-popping and jaw-dropping assortment of wines from the Domaine, without any “Assortments” ironically enough! Echezeaux opens with ten lots going back to 1966, followed by Grands Echezeaux with sixteen lots spanning 1962 to 2011. La Tache kicks things up a notch with nearly fifty lots going from 1937 to 2013, including the rare and most important vintages of 1937, 1942, 1943, 1945, 1949, 1955, 1959, 1961, 1964, 1966, 1971, 1978, 1980, 1985, 1988, 1990, 1996, 1999 and more. Richebourg comes through with twenty-two lots covering 1943 to 2013, including 1948, 1959, 1961, 1962, 1964, 1971 and more. The greatest of all Romanee Contis, Romanee Conti itself, takes center stage with more than fifty lots, yes fifty lots, arching over 1954 to 2013, including landmark vintages 1959, 1964, 1966, 1971, 1978, 1980, 1985, 1990, 1999 and 2005. There is an outstanding array of magnums as well including 1985, 1988, 1996, 1997, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001 and 2002 as well as most of the vintages from 2003 to the present. Don’t overlook Romanee St. Vivant with lots going from twenty lots spanning 1949 to 2013, including a few golden oldies when it was still Marey-Monge. All in all, this spectacular selection of Domaine de la Romanee is a fitting grand finale for one of the greatest collections and collectors we have had the pleasure to know in twenty years of auctions! Bravo, Wolfgang!!!

766 Échézeaux - Vintage 1978

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

1-4cm bc, 2bsl, 1scc, outstanding color and condition

“Powerful and expressive aromas of spice, sous bois, remnants of red fruit and warm earth lead to more spice and very strong notes of underbrush and decaying leaves on the palate. However, the finish is still very intense and packs very good punch and the backend has more than a touch of rusticity to it. This is still in fine condition and while there is no further improvement to be had, neither is there any risk of imminent decline either.”(91pts BH)

“The soaring nose of spicy cassis, black cherry and violets this displayed from cask has now become very reserved and brooding, merging into rich, full and utterly delicious flavors that possess a beguiling texture and unusually fine tannins compared to what I typically see with the Ech. This is a big wine by any measure with excellent mid-palate density and superb length. Really good stuff and as the “value” play in the DRC line-up, one to strongly consider because it surpasses its normal quality level by more than a fair margin in 2005.”(94pts BH)

Aggressive swirling does, if only grudgingly, liberate the notes of violets and rose petals, hoisin, soy and clove along with black pinot fruit, cassis and plum.  "Drumroll, please. A 1937 DRC La Tâche was next, a bottle from the Drouhin cellars. It was beyond spectacular and clearly wine of the night. The nose was an orgasmic symphony of beef, blood, iron, spine, musk, oil, leather, citrus. RIDICULOUS summed up my notes and the never-ending tale of its aromatic prowess. The palate was also spectacular, showing similar, rich flavors of beef, minerals and blood with an orange twist. Great but the palate had no spin - it was a straight fastball, one that is still good enough to strike out 9 out of 10 hitters! I love the '43s especially La Tâche. It was a true wartime vintage with almost no intervention of any kind; there was no sugar for chapitalization or anything else for work in the vineyards.  "Wow - amazing nose penetrating, sinus-clearing aromas of alcohol (but not too obtrusive), cherry, rose, great Pinot spice, soft and wet leather a touch of mushroomy earth and tang round out the nose a meaty wine with incredible Asian and mineral spice flavors still young and tannic flavors follow the aromatic profile with a hair more liqueur; meat and sweetness incredible wine that is still incredibly young at age 32 gets spicier on the finish and tea flavors develop, with a Beijing duck thing happening, a touch of Asian dry BBQ a pinch of sawdust emerges a massive wine."(98+pts JK)

806 La Tâche - Vintage 1978
Domaine de la Romanée Conti

 "Big Mike pulled out another one of the evening s showstoppers next, a Methusaleh of 1978 DRC La Tâche. It was superb, as good as 78 LT gets, full of rose hips and menthol and all the classic LT earthy sex appeal. The palate was meaty, spicy, earthy, long and rich. Having had this wine on at least a dozen occasions, I can safely say that this bottle was everything that it should have been and then some. For those out there that like to put down DRC in 1978, one sip would have converted you all! This Methusaleh was the Dr. Jekyll of DRC in this vintage, and with secondary traces of beef, garden and tomato, it delivered as much pleasure to those that had it as any other wine on this starry night."(97pts JK)

807 La Tâche - Vintage 1979
Domaine de la Romanée Conti
 1-3cm bc, 2lbsl, outstanding color and condition
 "Ok, enough of those whites, it was time for the reds taste out of Jeroboam Worcestershire and a noticeable whiff of oak were the first things that came to my nose, and while there was just enough cherry and tomato behind those to make the bloody mary, the oak was a bit intrusive. The palate was spiny with lots of acidity, very hearty, edgy and spiny, a bit over the top in that regard."(92pts JK)
 2 bottles per lot $5000-7000

808 La Tâche - Vintage 1980
Domaine de la Romanée Conti
 3.5cm bc, vlbsl, outstanding color and condition
 "Got a quick 19/20 from Tom, and it had that great old tomato sex appeal. Yes, only in wine can old tomatoes have sex appeal, I know. The nose had a lot of other things going on, including cherry, rust, spice, spine and that unmistakable La Tâche terroir, all very balanced and round. There was great finesse and balance to the mouth with touches of spice and spine. It might not ever be better, but it was still outstanding, although Rob had to put it right on the bottom of 5 stars, indicating that he definitely thought it wouldn't get any better."(95pts JK)

809 La Tâche - Vintage 1983
Domaine de la Romanée Conti

 "Sixteen wines were down and only eight to go. Make that nine, as the next wine was served out of magnum, a 1983 DRC La Tâche. The LT had an incredible nose. 'Now that's a real wine,' I wrote. Its sweetness was incredible, as Big Boy quickly called out 'ballgame,' meaning the competition was over. There was also great iron, big Asian spice and musk. Incredible kept coming up over and over in my notes. The palate was off the charts - rich, creamy, luscious, vigorous and spiny, it certainly did not change my opinion that 1983 DRC wines are delicious right now, especially out of magnum."(96pts JK)

 "Divine nose - a sweet, catnip quality cherry liqueur, roses, almost a little grapefruit without the pungency great earth and t'n a r pound out the nose a leathery, rich palate with nice truffle flavors and big alcohol and tannins still present still what I would call tannic, although smoothly so I thought the wine was outstanding with a long life ahead of it..."(95pts JK)

"I cannot think of a more profound, young red Burgundy tasted than DRC's 1990 La Tâche. Although it still requires another 3-4 years of cellaring, it is incredibly endowed, with an extraordinary perfume of Asian spices as well as jammy black raspberries, cherries, and blackberries infused with smoke, toast, and dried herbs. Full-bodied, but ethereal, with layers of flavor, as well as mind-boggling delicacy and complexity..." (100pts)

814 La Tâche - Vintage 1993*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

3lbsl

"The 1993 DRC La Tâche is the forgotten, great young vintage of La Tâche. It really needed some time to open up, at first a bit herbal, very tight and structured. After some time, its density, balance and tannins took over, and its palate and acidity were enormous, even longer than the 99 although not as dense. Rose, iron and tea all reluctantly emerged in the mouth in this Frankenstein of a La Tâche, a Frankenstein that graduated from Harvard, that is." (97+pts JK)

"Fantastically pure with the classic spice box, hoisin and soy nose followed by big, rich, very structured flavors that display notes of earth, leather and tea. The tannins are big, ripe and are completely buffered by the sap with length that is simply phenomenal. This remains completely primary in character and seems not to have budged at all since it was bottled." (96pts BH)

816 La Tâche - Vintage 1997*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"Dark-colored, the aromatically tight 1997 La Tâche reveals Asian spices, pepper, cherries and black currants. This is a velvety-textured, expansive, and massively ripe wine boasting flavors reminiscent of licorice and blackberry jam. It has superb depth of fruit (particularly for this sometimes "simple" vintage), medium-to-full body, and admirable length to its supple finish." (93pts)

"The 1999 La Tâche was/is no slouch, either. Pure game, Pat admired. The LT had a spectacular nose as well. The wine seemed more mature with its gamy notes and animal fat, but it was actually more spiny and full of enough brick to make a very very very fine house. Great appeared over and over in my notes. It was qualitatively equal to the RC yet LT all the way." (99pts JK)

"Quite deeply colored with the classic La Tâche nose of dried rose petals plus a fantastic array of aromas and spices too numerous to even try to describe that lead to fine, detailed and beautifully textured flavors and terrific length remarkably complex and has sneaky finishing intensity. 823 La Tâche - Vintage 2001*Domaine de la Romanée Conti1x6 bottle banded owc*

"Strikingly extravagant nose of rose petals, oriental spices, pungent tea and leather notes plus ultra elegant pinot fruit. The powerful, chiseled, pure flavors are remarkably detailed, precise and fine with mind bending complexity yet for all the emotional drama of this wine, it remains understated and almost aloof at the moment. The finish is dense, structured and quite firm though there is nary a hard edge to be found In short, aristocratic in every sense."(96pts BH)

825 La Tâche - Vintage 2002*Domaine de la Romanée Conti1x6 bottle owc*

"This is very reserved though determined swirling reveals a nose that is exceptionally fine and pure with fantastic aromatic detail and an almost diaphanous transparency of expression that reveals all of the kaleidoscopic La Tâche spice box nose, including anise, clove, plums, high-toned black cherry, crushed red raspberry and more. The broad, expansive and powerful flavors are quite strict on the mid-palate with massive depth yet the finish is round, generous, sappy and superbly complex with a finish that lasts for minutes. Despite the aromatic fireworks and opulent character, there is an underlying tenderness here that suggests that this will be approachable relatively early but the balance is so fine that this should easily age for 30 years, perhaps longer."(96pts BH)

6 bottles per lot $13000-18000

826 1 magnum per lot $4500-6000

827 La Tâche - Vintage 2004*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"This too is sublime in its subtlety and grace with ineffably pure aromas and it strikes a balance between the opulence of the RSV and the restraint of the GE with an expressive yet ultra fine nose of rose petals, violets and seductive spice notes that introduce unbelievably refined flavors that seem crafted from silk and lace, culminating in a linear, mouth coating finish that detonates like a bomb and lasts and lasts."(95pts BH)

1 magnum per lot $3500-5000

828 La Tâche - Vintage 2005*Domaine de la Romanée Conti1x6 bottle owc*

"There is only one word to do the nose true justice and that is kaleidoscopic as the aromatic breadth here is simply dazzling with red and black cherry, cassis, plum and subtle earth notes replete with the same Asian spice cabinet aromas as the RSV displays but here the floral aspect, particularly rose petal, is much more pronounced. However, the '05 LT is almost a combination of the RSV's class, grace and sensuality and the Riche's power, taut muscularity and huge length as the overall palate impact is equivalent to a vinous bomb exploding on the cuts-like-a-knife finish that can be measured in minutes not seconds. This is structured to the point of being chewy yet it is never rustic or coarse because the gorgeously detailed palate is buffered by buckets of dry extract. As readers know, I often use the word Zen to describe the kind of inner harmony of a great vintage of Romanée-Conti but rarely with La Tâche yet in 2005, the LT has this element of inner calm and grace as well. In sum, this is a huge but utterly classy and stylish wine that will undoubtedly go down as one of the all time great LT's."(99pts BH)

829 3 magnums per lot $26000-35000

830 La Tâche - Vintage 2006*Domaine de la Romanée Conti2x6 bottle owc's*

"The positively gorgeous if presently reserved nose offers up the hallmark spice and floral components that are broad and deep though requiring some real glasswork to coax out but it's worth the effort as the nose here, restrained or not, is brilliant. The big and generous flavors are an exercise in contrasts as they are at once round and rich while remaining wonderfully defined and precise with more minerality coming to the fore than any of the prior wines displayed, all wrapped in a linear, precise and palate staining finish that not withstanding the initial aromatic reserve, is indeed explosive."(96pts BH)

12 bottles per lot $20000-28000

831 La Tâche - Vintage 2007*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"A reserved yet equally kaleidoscopic nose of red, blue and violet aromas that is wonderfully broad, spicy, fresh, airy and layered leads to intensely floral, mineral infused and focused medium weight plus flavors that possess a strikingly attractive mouth feel and while in the context of the pantheon of great vintages of this storied wine, the '07 will be viewed as one of the lighter examples, the focus and balance here is nigh on perfect as the finish explodes into a hugely long finale, all underpinned by firm tannins and bright acidity."(95pts BH)

6 bottles per lot $9000-12000

832 1 magnum per lot $4000-6000833 La Tâche - Vintage 2008Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"After aggressive swirling, a highly expressive and kaleidoscopic nose offers up a dazzling breadth of aromas with more rose petal and violet notes combining with those of kirsch, herb and humus, all of which are reflected by the ripe, pure and extremely fresh silkily-textured big-bodied flavors that possess firm tannins that are completely enrobed by the impressive amount of extract that also coats the mouth on the hugely long and ever-so-slightly minty finish."(96pts BH)

1 magnum per lot $4000-6000

834 La Tâche - Vintage 2009*Domaine de la Romanée Conti1x6 bottle owc*

"A discreet but incredibly complex nose features notes of spicy, pure and relatively high-toned fruit that is laced with plenty of rose petal and violet hints. There is excellent energy and freshness to the lacy and stunningly precise broad-scaled flavors that build in intensity from the densely concentrated mid-palate to the explosive and mouth coating finish that seemingly goes on without end. This is a big LT with ample muscle and very firm but not aggressive structure along with superb depth of underlying material and positively mind-blowing length."(98pts BH)

6 bottles per lot $14000-18000

835 La Tâche - Vintage 2010*Domaine de la Romanée Conti1x6 bottle owc*

"This is perhaps even more floral than the Richebourg and every bit as spicy on the ultra-pure, cool and remarkably elegant mix of red and blue pinot fruit, red currant and wild red berries that are openly mineral-inflected. As with all of the DRC '10s, the equally stony flavors and supporting tannins are extremely fine and while there is ample power and vibrancy, the palate feel is all silk and satin. To be sure, this is a big wine with impressive concentration but this is definitely not cut from the same cloth as say the 2005 or 2009 versions are. I can admire both styles but this one is seriously lovely."(98pts BH)

6 bottles per lot $14000-18000

836 La Tâche - Vintage 2011*Domaine de la Romanée Conti1x6 bottle owc*

"As it was from cask this is more restrained than usual and it requires aggressive swirling to coax the pure and spicy essence of red berry fruit aromas to emerge from the glass where there is a slight hint of herbal tea present. There is a similar reserve to the distinctly focused and linear flavors that enjoy a seemingly unlimited reserve of dry extract that renders the fine-grained and silky tannins almost invisible at present though I suspect that they will become much more apparent once the baby fat melts away."(96pts BH)

6 bottles per lot $10000-14000

837 La Tâche - Vintage 2012*Domaine de la Romanée Conti1x6 bottle owc*

"Though this is by no means exuberant, it's clear that there is good ripeness to the spiced green tea, hoisin, soy, anise, sandalwood and rose petal aromas. The cool, pure and seductively textured medium weight plus flavors brim with both minerality and plenty of dry extract that buffers the extremely firm but not hard shaping tannins on the overtly austere if seriously persistent finish."(97pts BH)

“Once again a highly reticent nose only grudgingly gives up discreet, if attractively perfumed, notes of rose petal, spice and an ultra-pure assortment of red berry fruit scents. Like the Riche this possesses that wonderful inner mouth perfume that makes the Vosne grand crus justifiably so famous. "The first wine had a nose that was a bit oaky for my Burgundy, but also lots of citrusy vim, great acidity and vigor, and healthy shots of beef and earth. The palate had incredible texture; it was long, rich and beefy. The palate was huge and extraordinary, but the oak in the nose remained bothersome, at least for me. Muscular, long, beefy and rich, this magnum of 1979 DRC Richebourg was just shy of outstanding due to its oak issues, but excellent nonetheless."(94+pts JK)

"The 93 was shy, coiled and stemmy in its nose, with a milky, rosy and earthy complexity. There were secondary aromas of tea, wood, more stems and sweet cinnamon. In the mouth, the wine was wound and tangy, with a touch too much wood at first, very cedary in its flavor profile. The wine was undoubtedly excellent, with great acidity, and it continued to get more and more complex. Big, cedary and spiny, the palate also had traces of cinnamon and kisses of cedar, and its vitamin components became huge with time, and its musk flavors fattened out and developed nicely."(93pts JK)

2 bottles per lot $2000-2800

852 Richebourg - Vintage 1996*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"The 96 was sensual and classic in the nose with a splash more perfume than usual. It was a lean, mean rose and rust machine with great acidity. It was wintry in a fresh, wet snow way. Minerals were crackling underneath. It was exquisite in the mouth, everything it is supposed to be, someone shared. It was a bit lean yet still somehow meaty, racy yet its finish slow and unwinding. Rose, citrus, leather, vitamin, mineral and stem flavors were all there in this budding beauty."(95pts JK)

854 Richebourg - Vintage 1999*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"When Rory last visited the Domaine, winemaker Bernard Noblet told him that he considers 1999 to be the finest vintage overall in the 1990s. Buyers take note - that is not a statement to be taken lightly considering how great his 1990s are!!! The 1999 had a very fragrant nose - perfumed around a core of ripe cassis and black cherry fruit great Asian spice, purple flowers, and wet earth round out the nose such a baby, yet one that talks a lot! A bit of leather comes out on the nose excellent tannins, long acids, hints of tobacco, and a flash of a ripe cassis core on the palate lip-licking good but a shy wine at age four this wine stands out more and more after tasting others."(95+pts JK)

855 Richebourg - Vintage 2005*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"...swirling coaxes superbly elegant and pure aromas that are wonderfully broad and include red, black, blue and violet aromas as well as seemingly a full cupboard of Asian spices that complement to perfection the extremely rich, full and sweet flavors that are quite floral in the mouth, all wrapped in a detailed and punchy finish where the tannic spine is completely buried. While it sounds moderately odd to describe it this way, there is a swagger to the '05 Riche and this will clearly be one very long distance runner..."(97pts BH)

856 Richebourg - Vintage 2006*Domaine de la Romanée Conti1x6 bottle owc*

"Most impressive and this is a bit like the GE in that the natural elegance of the '06 vintage has tamed somewhat the inherent tendency for there to be a certain robustness in Richebourg to create a harmonious whole. Now that the wine is in bottle, it struck me as a block of stone from which only the vaguest outlines of the final form of the statue have yet to emerge. Superb potential."(95pts BH)

"Bright medium red. Pungent aromas of wild strawberry, minerals, spices and pepper. Not a fat wine but classy and suave, with terrific peppery, minerally lift in the middle palate. With aeration, this classically dry wine showed a stronger soil component and mounting power. Finishes with superb breadth and an impression of weightlessness. I might have initially mistaken this for the RSV-and vice-versa-had I tasted these blind, but this is ultimately the more powerful wine."(93+?pts IWC)

858 Richebourg - Vintage 2009

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"The bottle that I tried displayed a hint of reduction though not enough to hide the intensely floral and notably ripe nose that features fresh notes of plum, mocha and cassis that are sprinkled with exotic spice notes. The expansive and tautly muscular broad-shouldered flavors are, unusually, almost as fine as those of the RSV yet even slightly more complex with the same finely grained tannins. The length is similar but at present, the extra dimension of depth gives this the barest of edges."(97pts BH)

859 Richebourg - Vintage 2010

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"The restrained and markedly cool nose displays an impressive variety of floral and spice hints that add a sense of elegance to the stunningly complex ripe dark berry fruit and plum aromas. While this is almost always a muscular and at times even robust wine young, in 2010 it offers a truly remarkably sophisticated mouth feel because like the RSV, the tannins are refined and fine-grained. Moreover, there is the same knockout complexity that the nose displays on the intensely mineral-driven finish and overall, this is a complete wine of simply fantastic length."(96pts BH)

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"Though it may not be quite as elegant as the Romanée St. Vivant it is arguably even more aromatically complex with a wonderfully fresh if restrained nose of hoisin, black fruit, soy and anise. There is remarkable concentration of dry extract that completely buffers the otherwise tightly wound tannic spine while pushing it to the background as the broad-shouldered flavors culminate in a balanced, long and velvety mineral-inflected finish that delivers astonishing persistence."(95pts BH)

"The 1959 RC showed more of the vintage characteristics than the other two wines; the flight seemed to progress more in that hot, ripe 1959 direction with each glass. Rust, iron, spine, rose, iodine, musk, mahogany and a kiss of gamy maturity completed its nose. Surprisingly, the RC had the lightest mouthfeel but was far from light. The texture was still rich and long; the acidity incredibly long. Some of those hot oat and brown sugar flavors of 1959 were more prevalent here."(96+pts JK)

"A fantastically complex nose that is at once mature yet youthful offers everything that is so admirable about a great Romanée-Conti with depth, breadth and seductive purity that introduces flavors of classic cool reserve and refinement, all wrapped in a wonderfully long finish where the only nit is just a bit of acidity is beginning to poke through. Moreover, there is still moderate structure supporting things and this should easily live another 30+ years if properly stored. Curiously, this bottle was in much better shape than one sampled several years ago at the Domaine itself."(92pts BH)

A simply brilliant nose with a superb breadth of spice, earth, leather and smoky game nuances leads to still vibrant and youthful, very ripe flavors that possess simply knockout complexity and still plenty of vigor on the incredibly long finish. "The wine had a stunning nose of sweet, musky, sexy fruit with great earth, stone and honeyed fruit. The palate was rich, lush, supple and soft with light grit. It was very pure with great smoke flavors, and more grit emerging as its lushness tempered in the glass. The acids came out of their initial hiding; at first I thought the wine was fully mature, but later thought that might not be the case. There was a touch of band-aid, tomato, earth and garden flavors. It was super-tasty out of six-liter and hanging on to its outstanding status for now, at least out of six-liter." (95+pts JK)

"Nice t 'n a in the nose - more alcohol than the 1995, which gives a misleading impression of power palate most round and mature so far a pinch of vitamins emerge...still tannins on the palate, but the first vintage that has a medium body, although structure still excellent that is the greatness of Romanée-Conti the structure. It would be safe to say that collectively tasting all these wines together made it easier to "nitpick" and find flaws. It is also a given in retrospectives that Romanée-Conti needs more time than even the best of wines, and tasting these wines was infanticide, for sure. Almost every one of these wines should have a + next to its rating." (91pts JK)

"This is backward to the point of being almost inexpressive though with extended airing, subtle aromas of black fruit, hoisin, spice, underbrush, anise and violets frame understated, refined, elegant and classy flavors of incredible breed and fantastic complexity. This will live for decades and it is so young that it hasn't even begun to reveal what it will ultimately be capable of delivering. In short, opening a bottle anytime before 2010 will indeed be egregious infanticide." (96pts BH)

877F Romanée Conti - Vintage 1997*Domaine de la Romanée Contivlbsl, spc*

"An intensely floral nose that is surprisingly reserved, particularly for a vintage that in many cases has already peaked, also evidence notes of spice and dried rose petal and significantly, there is no sign of surmaturit or the obverse case of undue greenness. The firm structure underpinning the ripe medium weight flavors remains well integrated and there is good volume if not the sheer depth of the finest vintages. In sum, a deceptively graceful wine that is still on its way up. Multiple, and consistent, notes." (93pts BH)

"Deep ruby. A deeply pitched and distinctly different nose from what one usually finds in 10 year old RC as there are wonderfully dense and layered aromas of orange compote, red and black cherry along with the usual spice and floral notes, which introduces refined, pure and concentrated medium full flavors that possess the usual spectacular detail on the gorgeously persistent finish. This is extraordinarily fine and detailed with length that lasts and lasts. "An exceptionally floral yet restrained nose with aromas of both rose and violets that combine with a panoply of spice notes yet the overall impression is classic young RC as the nose is both cool and reserved yet aristocratic. The sweet, intense, focused, detailed and vibrant flavors offer superb drive and punch though there is not the sheer scale of the LT yet they're finer and somehow even purer; indeed absolutely crystalline though I kept asking myself how this was possible as the purity of the La Tâche is itself mind blowing. The descriptor of 'power without weight' came to mind again and again as the flavors slide down the throat with no sense of heaviness yet the impact and precision of the presently somewhat austere finish is quite simply hard to believe. In a word, this is mind bending and in a visceral sense, this is a monumental wine that of real emotional impact. Genius in a glass."(99+pts BH)

As are all the very best vintages of RC, this is spherical with nothing out of place and this will age effortlessly for decades. 892 Romanée Conti - Vintage 2007*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"I have never been treated to such a profusion of floral perfume from this legendary site as rose over the glass of 2007 Romanée-Conti. Hyacinth, rose, gladiola, and iris are underlain by scents of moss-covered, damp stone, wild ginger, and diverse tiny red fruits. "Romanée-Conti c'est le nez," remarks de Villaine of this almost ethereal Pinot. The contrast with the more fleshly La Tâche could not be more dramatic. But this doesn't pull back on its silken-textured palate, either far from it: along with persistent inner-mouth profusion of floral perfume come savory, irresistibly juicy raspberry and pomegranate as well as an impression of marrow-rich, multi-boned meat stock. A wafting, wave-like finish harbors the sort of exhilarating sheer refreshment one looks for in white wine, and a kaleidoscopic interchange of colorful floral, spice, fruit, carnal, and mineral elements such as few wines of any sort can deliver."(96pts)

"It's a fool's errand to try and capture all of the various nuances but a few of the major components would include dried rose petals, hoisin, clove, anise and cassis that merge seamlessly into regal, pure and gorgeously intense middle weight flavors that possess seemingly limitless reserves of dry extract that almost completely hide the perfectly integrated tannins on the firm, mineral-driven, overtly austere and linear finish. This possesses such a spectacular nose that you don't even have to drink it to be thrilled and the flavors are perfectly spherical." (98+pts BH)

There is a real sense of focused power to the beautifully well-delineated, pure and highly nuanced, multifaceted medium-bodied flavors wrapped in a deep reserve of dry extract before culminating in a breathtakingly persistent finish replete with the hallmark youthful austerity. Like all of the great vintages of this most famous of burgundies, it is almost inconceivably spherical with a Zen-like sense of harmony." (99pts BH)

898 Romanée Conti - Vintage 2011*Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"Discreet wood sets off a wonderfully elegant, airy and ultra-pure dark pinot fruit nose that is perhaps even more reticent and shut down than the La Tâche and only seriously aggressive swirling can reveal stubborn notes of rose petal, spice and menthol influence. The ultra-silky but firm medium-scaled flavors are also blessed with an impressive abundance of dry extract that buffers the prominent but ripe supporting tannins on the moderately austere, deep and palate coating finish. The length here is genuinely amazing, indeed even at this early juncture this is already the longest wine in the range. As it virtually always is at this point in its development, this is an exercise in understatement, poise and controlled power with an unrivaled purity of expression. In sum, this is Zen-like. As to whether it will ultimately be better than the La Tâche in 2011 remains to be seen but for now the two seem to be neck and neck from a purely qualitative perspective." (96pts BH)

899 1 magnum per lot $18000-24000900 Romanée Conti - Vintage 2012Domaine de la Romanée Conti*

"The surprisingly expressive nose is almost completely dominated by various floral aromas that include violets, lavender and rose petal. There is of course a broad array of spice elements to the red and black currant aromas but they are nuances compared to the floral characters. The wonderfully intense and concentrated middle weight plus flavors possess arguably even more dry extract that, for the moment anyway, pushes the firm tannic spine completely to the background and as such the mouth feel is incredibly rich and opulent. While Romanée-Conti is almost always astonishingly complex it is not always more so than the La Tâche but in 2012 the king of complexity in the DRC range is indisputably Romanée-Conti. There is also a remarkable amount of minerality and the overall impression is one of seamless harmony." (98pts BH)

"The kaleidoscopically spicy, floral and complex nose however is a good deal more expressive, indeed almost surprisingly so given that it typically is quite reticent. In the same fashion as the La Tâche one aspect that is immediately clear is that 2013 is an emphatically powerful vintage for RC with its dense, serious and muscular middle weight plus flavors that retain terrific delineation on the extraordinarily pure and refined finish that seems to go on and on." "The 1971 DRC Romanée St. Vivant had a beautiful nose as well, full of strawberry fruit, ice cream kisses and a vanilla creaminess. Rich, long, seductive and sexy, the RSV was unbelievably tasty and long, with the best acidity so far and a tasty minerality." (95pts JK)

"Ripe, rich and spicy aromas of superb complexity with quite supple flavors and excellent richness. Very finely balance and exceptionally long. "had an unmatched level of nuance and complexity to the nose. It was deep, rich and thick as a brick both aromatically and on the palate. Menthol emerged in a great way; this wine was impressive city."(95+pts JK)

- 908 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2001
Domaine de la Romanée Conti

"This displays a positively classic nose of soaring Asian spices, ripe plum and a gamut of ripe, pure and lacy red and black fruits with the latter predominating all wrapped together with a seductive kiss of sweetly scented, highly perfumed violets; the nose is, in a word, intoxicating. All of this aromatic intensity leads to remarkably powerful, linear, borderline robust flavors that show simply unbelievable complexity and stunning length. This will very likely surpass every other RSV from the Domaine in recent memory. A dazzling effort."(96pts BH)

"This is also very primary and backward as hints of supremely elegant and seductive exceptionally ripe black fruit aromas replete with soy, hoisin, clove and anise nuances merge into wonderfully fine and refined linear and firmly structured flavors that culminate in a precise, pure and driving finish that goes on and on. This is a really impressive effort that offers terrific potential but fans of this wine should note that it is arguably more masculine than it usually is yet at the same time utterly seamless. A 'wow' wine that is perhaps the ripest of the DRC '05s. A true knockout that is sheer class."(97pts BH)

"This is more elegant still but equally restrained as the almost discreet nose runs toward the plum and blue berry side of the fruit spectrum. The floral-infused, structured and very serious flavors culminate in a youthfully austere finish offering huge depth and length with both precision and linearity though there is a trace of dryness to the underlying tannins, which presently compromises the balance just enough where this is not quite at the same level as the very best in the range"(93pts BH)

"An ultra elegant, pure and quite delicately fruited and spiced nose that is extremely fresh, floral and expansive that is more layered still as it introduces seductively textured, detailed and gorgeously delineated middle weight flavors that possess laser-like focus if less density than is usually seen with this wine. Indeed, this is rather like a ballerina with limited power and weight but the watch word here is purity, purity and purity. I quite like this but it will strike some as unduly light though I believe the underlying material is present such that it will add weight in bottle as it ages."(94pts BH)

913 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2008

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

Inl

“As one would reasonably expect, this is notably more elegant with a pure, delicate and layered nose of floral notes, in particular rose and violet, along with clove, anise and sandalwood nuances that gracefully introduce rich, forward and generous flavors that retain a wonderful sense of tension, detail and refinement on the precise, textured and focused finish that offers tremendous length.”(95pts BH)

5 bottles per lot $4500-6000

914 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2009

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

1x6 bottle owc

“As it usually the case, here the nose is even more elegant and prettier with a highly perfumed, layered and relatively high-toned aromatic profile that is quite floral along with offering up notes of oriental tea and exotic spice on the mostly red and blue pinot fruit scents. The detailed and ultra-refined flavors are crystalline in their purity and while they don’t have the robust power of the Grands Echézeaux, there is notably more finesse and even a bit more overall length on the mildly austere finish.”(96pts BH)

6 bottles per lot $7000-9000

915 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2010

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

vlsc1

“All that I could think when I first put my nose in the glass was “wow!” as the airy and very cool nose of ultra-elegant spice, floral and herbal nuances greeted me. Add to this plenty of attractive nuances to the kaleidoscopically layered red currant and plum suffused aromas and you have something pretty special. This is, not surprisingly, much more refined than the GrandsEch as the supporting tannins on the silky middle weight flavors are extremely fine-grained yet notably dense as the explosive finish is quite firm. Despite the tightly wound structure the overall impression of the mouth feel is one of delicacy and ultimate refinement.”(96pts BH)

2 bottles per lot $2400-3200

916 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2011

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

“This is certainly one of, if not the, most floral wine in the range in 2011 with the possible exception of the Richebourg. The extraordinarily elegant and airy nose is positively kaleidoscopic in its sheer breadth of spice elements that combine with the stunningly pure red and black raspberry fruit aromas that are liberally laced with rose petal nuances. The lacy, intense and beautifully precise middle weight flavors are harmonious and impeccably well-balanced on the fabulously long and silky finish where a touch of youthful asperity is present. This should be terrific in time.”(94pts BH)

7 bottles per lot $6000-8000

917 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2012

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

“There is an ultra-refined mouth feel to the equally pure, intense, detailed and lilting medium-bodied flavors that appear to possess a bit more volume than usual before culminating in a penetrating and intense finish that is also quite compact and linear at present.”(95pts BH)

2 bottles per lot $2000-2800

918 Romanée St. Vivant - Vintage 2013

Domaine de la Romanée Conti

1x6 bottle owc

“The bouquet is adorable, so pure and comely, with shimmering red cherries, raspberry and orange blossom, a suggestion of cold flint imparting an enigmatic element—a Romanée-Saint-Vivant that is clearly going to bide its time. The palate is medium-bodied with filigree tannin, impressive weight and almost a surfeit of freshness. There is tension from start to finish that effortlessly disguises the weight, the penetration on the sustained finish.”(95pts)

BOTTLE DESCRIPTIONS

BORDEAUX

NECK:

Normal level for all wines. In wines over ten years of age, this level suggests excellent provenance. Rarely used, except to emphasize a particularly good fill level when other fill levels in the same lot are less than perfect.

BASE NECK:

A common fill level at which many Châteaux release their wine. For wines of any age, this level suggests excellent provenance.

TOP-SHOULDER:

Again, a common fill level at which many Châteaux release their wine. For wines of any age, this level suggests excellent provenance.

VERY HIGH SHOULDER:

Acceptable fill level for wines twenty years of age. Suggests proper storage conditions throughout its life. Natural occurrence for wines of this age.

HIGH SHOULDER:

Usually not a problem for wines thirty years of age. This level may be caused by easing of the cork combined with natural evaporation. Check the clarity and the color of the wine in the bottle as a secondary indicator of provenance.

HIGH-TO-MID-SHOULDER:

Refer to High Shoulder and Mid-Shoulder level descriptions.

MID SHOULDER:

May suggest ullage during the life of the wine due to either easing of the cork or inconsistent storage conditions. Not abnormal for wines forty or more years of age. As additional indicators of risk, definitely inspect clarity and color of the wine in the bottle, as well as condition of the cork.

LOW SHOULDER AND BELOW:

Suggests poor provenance. Definitely a risk and generally not saleable, with exception given to rare bottlings and/or labels. (Not recommended for consumption.)

Because the shape of Burgundy bottles does not allow for a level rating system based on the shoulder of the bottle, levels are described by means of centimeters below cork. Generally, Burgundy wines with a four centimeter fill level or above are considered normal for wines younger than twenty years. Wines of twenty or more years of age with fill levels of between four and five centimeters are generally considered to be of sound provenance, though consideration should be given to the clarity and color of the wine in the bottle, as well as the condition of the cork. Bottles with ullage between five and seven centimeters are not uncommon for wines forty years and older and often provide thrilling drinking, but the lower the fill, the higher the risk, so consideration should be given. Burgundy bottles with fill levels lower than seven centimeters may be at risk of being damaged or undrinkable, and therefore may be unsaleable. It should be noted that some Burgundian producers tend to over-fill their bottles during the bottling process which may cause a few drops of wine to become trapped between the capsule and the cork. This should not be confused with ullage, a natural occurrence in older wines, which may be accelerated due to poor provenance.

COLLECTION AND SHIPMENT OF WINES

1. LIMITATIONS ON IMPORTATION

Bidders at auction (“Bidders”) should be aware of restrictions imposed by various jurisdictions regarding importation of alcoholic beverages. It is the sole responsibility of the buyer (“Buyer”) to investigate, apply, obtain, route, and comply with all special permit or license requirements and other restrictions prior to collection or shipment of wine (“Property”) purchased at or from Acker Auction, Inc. (“AAI”). AAI assumes no obligation or responsibility for obtaining permits or licenses on behalf of Buyer prior to shipment, and disclaims all liability for Buyer’s failure to obtain any such permits or licenses. AAI is not the owner or seller of Property (“Seller”), but is a marketing agent which makes delivery arrangements on Buyer’s behalf. Bidders are urged to familiarize themselves with their jurisdiction’s importation laws prior to bidding at auction to determine if, when, and how Property may be legally delivered to their jurisdiction.

2. COLLECTION OF PROPERTY

Complimentary pick-up is available by appointment only. Please schedule pick-up by contacting AAI’s Auction Department at 877-ACKER-47 at least one week in advance. Property will not be released until payment in full has been received and funds have cleared. Buyers paying by personal check should allow five (5) business days prior to release of Property.

3. LOCAL DELIVERY

AAI will arrange free delivery within Manhattan. Delivery can usually be made within one (1) week of Buyer’s request at a prearranged time. Payment for delivery charges must be made in advance.

4. MULTIPLE DELIVERIES OR PICKUPS

Any Lot (as such term is defined below in AAI’s Conditions of Sale) that is split into two or more parts for multiple deliveries or pickups shall be subject to a service charge per split, per Lot.

5. STORAGE

Any Property for which shipping arrangements have not been made or which has not otherwise been collected within thirty (30) days following the auction date may be removed to a third party storage facility by AAI (or, at AAI’s election, stored on-site by AAI) and all packaging, handling, shipping, insuring, and third party storage fees associated with such Property shall be paid in full by Buyer together with any other costs or charges owed by Buyer to AAI prior to the release of such Property by AAI. If any Property is not collected from AAI by Buyer for any reason within ninety (90) days following the auction date then, unless otherwise agreed in writing by AAI and Buyer, AAI is authorized by Buyer to take any action it deems appropriate with respect to such Property. AAI may, at its election, deem such Property to have been abandoned by Buyer and/or, in addition to the imposition of the costs and charges set forth above and any other rights AAI may have at law or equity, AAI shall have the right, at its sole discretion, to re-sell such Property publicly or privately (including at any one or more AAI or other auctions or in one or more retail sales) at any location and for a price determined by AAI, and to deduct from the gross proceeds of any such re-sale its legal fees and expenses and other customary costs, expenses and charges including, without limitation, seller’s commission and buyer’s premium (in the case of auction sales), advertising costs, third party sales commissions, and packaging, handling, shipping, insurance and additional third party storage fees. In no event shall AAI have any liability to Buyer or any other party for any loss or damage to Property not collected within thirty (30) days following the auction date.

6. SHIPPING

Buyer is solely responsible for the shipment of Property and shall assume all obligations for compliance with applicable laws. Subject to applicable laws, at Buyer’s request, AAI may act as an agent to engage a common carrier to deliver Property to Buyer on Buyer’s behalf.

Shipping will be at Buyer’s expense, and must be prepaid or freight collect. Shipments are also subject to service charges. Shipping arrangements can be made once payment has been received in full and funds have been deposited into AAI’s account. Buyers should allow five (5) business days when arranging shipment within the continental United States, and ten (10) business days for jurisdictions outside the continental United States, as well as for international shipments, which may require customs documentation or special routing attention.

In all instances, AAI tries to achieve the safest, most efficient and cost-effective method of shipment on behalf of Buyer. Any loss or damage resulting from shipping Property via any carrier will be the sole responsibility and at the risk of Buyer and/or carrier. AAI is not responsible for any deterioration, damage or loss to Property occurring while in transit.

7. TAXATION

Taxation is determined by the laws of the final destination of shipment. AAI collects sales tax from Buyer on Property shipped to an address in New York, Illinois or California. It is Buyer’s responsibility to ensure compliance with applicable tax laws for shipments to all other jurisdictions.

Buyers holding resale licenses may be exempt from taxation and should present the required documents to AAI prior to purchase. Some jurisdictions may also impose excise taxes on shipments of Property into their territory. AAI may collect such excise taxes from Buyer, where required.

8. INDEMNIFICATION

Buyer agrees to indemnify, defend and hold AAI harmless from any and all demands, claims, suits, judgments, or other liability (including reasonable attorneys’ fees and expenses incurred by AAI in connection therewith) arising by reason of Buyer’s failure to pay any applicable taxes. This indemnification shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

Insurance coverage on shipping does not cover confiscation by any government or law enforcement agency as a result of alleged violations of applicable laws by Sellers or Buyers.

All shipping must be prepaid in full.

BUYERS CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. BUYER'S AGREEMENT.

By bidding at auction, the bidder at auction ("Bidder") agrees that this Buyer's Conditions of Sale ("Conditions of Sale"), together with the Collection and Shipment of Wines, Bottle Description and Absentee Bids, all published by Acker, Merrall & Condit Company ("AMC"), and all incorporated into the Conditions of Sale, constitute Bidder's entire agreement (the "Agreement") with AMC and the seller ("Seller") with respect to the property ("Property") listed in this catalogue. AMC may amend the Agreement from time to time and at any time before, during and after any auction through posted notices, addenda or errata or through oral salesroom announcements during the sale. By bidding at auction, Bidder agrees to be bound by all terms and conditions of the Agreement.

2. AMC As AGENT.

Except as otherwise stated in the Agreement, AMC acts strictly as agent for the Seller. The Agreement for the sale of all Property is therefore between Seller and the highest Bidder accepted by the auctioneer ("Buyer"). Property is divided into separate groupings as solely determined by AMC and each such grouping (a "Lot") is subject to a separate bid at auction.

3. BEFORE AUCTION.

a) Inspection. Prior to auction, Bidder is expressly advised to physically inspect any Property in which Bidder is interested in bidding and to rely on such inspection, as opposed to descriptions in the catalogue or elsewhere. While AMC attempts to describe all Property with accuracy, AMC shall in no event be liable for any oral or written description of Property, or for any errors or omissions relating thereto. ALL PROPERTY IS SOLD "AS IS."

AMC may seek views of outside experts either before or after the sale on certain Property, which may be marked to indicate that the expert has inspected Property. The auction venue has not selected or inspected any Property to be sold at this auction and disclaims any and all responsibility therefor.

b) No Guarantee. In no event whatsoever do Seller or AMC or any of their respective officers, employees or agents make any oral or written express or implied representations, warranties or guarantees as to the merchantability, fitness for a particular use, the correctness of any catalogue description or other description as to the origin, physical condition, quality, rarity, authenticity, attribution, value, estimated value, importance, provenance, exhibition history, potability, historical relevance or bibliographic references concerning any Property.

c) Bidder Registration. To bid at this auction, Bidder must complete and sign a registration form and provide identification and proof of age. AMC may also require Bidder to produce bank or other financial references. AMC retains the absolute right to refuse any prospective Bidder admission to, or participation in, any auction.

d) Importation. Buyer is expressly advised to read the Collection and Shipment of Wines form which is part of this Agreement. Various jurisdictions both within and outside of the United States prohibit the importation, or limit the quantity, of alcoholic beverages that may be brought or shipped into such jurisdiction. In addition, various jurisdictions may require Buyer, Seller or shipper to possess certain licenses or permits. Moreover, local laws may prohibit the importation and/or the resale of wine. It shall be Buyer's sole responsibility to determine if such prohibitions, restrictions or limitations are applicable to Buyer and to determine before bidding at auction whether, and in what manner, alcoholic beverages can legally be brought into any jurisdiction. The prohibition or denial of, or delay in obtaining, any such permit or license shall neither justify the rescission of any sale nor any delay in making full payment for the purchase.

AMC makes no representation or warranty as to the legal right of any party to ship or import alcoholic beverages to, from, or into any jurisdiction. Further, AMC assumes no obligation and bears no responsibility whatsoever for applying for or obtaining any such permits or licenses.

e) Exportation. Property sold at auction may be subject to laws governing exportation from the United States. It shall be Buyer's sole responsibility to determine – before bidding at auction – whether an export permit or license is required for Buyer's purchase and to obtain any such required permit or license. The denial of, or delay in obtaining, any such permit or license shall neither justify the rescission of any sale nor any delay in making full payment for the purchase.

AMC makes no representation or warranty as to the legal right of any party to ship or export alcoholic beverages to or from any jurisdiction. Further, AMC assumes no obligation and bears no responsibility whatsoever for applying for or obtaining any such permits or licenses.

f) Absentee Bidding. Bidders are expressly advised to read the Absentee Bids form which is part of this Agreement. As a courtesy to Bidders neither present at the auction in person nor through an agent or by telephone, AMC will enter written absentee bids delivered to AMC prior to the auction, which may be over the Internet. Absentee bids must be placed in the currency of the place of sale. If AMC receives identical written bids for a particular Lot and these bids are the highest amount for that Lot at auction, such Lot will be sold to the absentee bid first received. The entry of written bids is a free service offered strictly as an accommodation to Bidders and is undertaken by AMC subject to its obligations at the time of auction. Accordingly, AMC is in no event liable for any errors or omissions in executing such written bids or for any failure to execute any such bids.

g) Telephone Bidding. Prior to the day of auction, Bidders may make arrangements with AMC to bid at auction by telephone. Telephone bidding is offered as a courtesy to Bidders who cannot be present at the auction in person, by agent, or by written absentee bid. The entry of telephone bids is a free service offered strictly as an accommodation to Bidders and is undertaken by AMC subject to its obligations at the time of auction. Accordingly, AMC is in no event liable for any errors or omissions in executing such telephone bids or for any failure to execute any such bids.

4. AT AUCTION.

a) Catalogues. Bidders are expressly advised to read the Bottle Description form which is part of this Agreement. While AMC has attempted to describe each Lot in this catalogue accurately, in no event shall AMC be liable for any description or error or omission in such description. AMC retains the absolute right to amend at any time prior to and during the auction and in any manner any description of any Lot. Classifications in the text are for identification purposes only and are based on standard sources. Each statement contained in this catalogue and each other statement, whether oral or written, and whether made in an advertisement, bill of sale, addendum, notice, announcement or other written or oral communication, is a statement of opinion ONLY and shall not be relied upon by any Bidder. Bidders must make appropriate allowances for natural variations of ullages, conditions of cases, labels, corks and wine. In no event shall AMC accept a return, offer credit for, or adjust the price of any Property after delivery except under the terms stated in Section 5 (d) below. Images appearing in this catalogue or elsewhere are for illustrative and informational purposes only, and may not reveal defects or imperfections in any Lot. Bidders are urged not to rely on images in determining whether to bid on Property, and are strongly encouraged both to review the relevant AMC auction catalogue entry and to personally inspect any Property prior to placing bids.

b) Reserve Price. Each Lot is sold subject to a reserve price, which is the minimum price below which the Lot will not be sold. While AMC has the right to raise or lower the reserve price at any time prior to the time the Lot is opened for bidding, under no circumstance shall the reserve price for a Lot exceed the low estimate for that Lot as printed in the catalogue or as amended by oral or posted notices. The reserve price for each Lot is available to prospective Bidders upon request, but AMC shall have no ongoing obligation to notify a prospective Bidder who has been informed of the reserve price if the reserve price has thereafter been changed.

c) Estimates. Each Lot in the catalogue is accompanied by a low and high estimate of the selling price, excluding the Buyer's premium and any taxes. Where possible, estimates are based on past sales of comparable property, and while they are intended as a general guide for prospective Bidders, in no event do they constitute either a representation or a prediction of an actual selling price and should not be relied upon as such. AMC determines estimates in advance of the sale and reserves the right to revise estimates to reflect current market conditions.

d) Bidding. Warranties. By bidding at auction, whether in person, through absentee bidding, telephone bidding, Internet bidding or otherwise, Bidders represent and warrant that (i) they are at least twenty-one (21) years of age, (ii) they have the legal authority, right, and capacity to buy, receive, possess and otherwise deal in any Lot purchased, and (iii) any bids made by Bidder or on Bidder's behalf are not pursuant to any anti-competitive agreement and are otherwise in compliance with all applicable laws.

Bids per Lot. Unless otherwise announced by the auctioneer, all bids are per Lot in consecutive numerical order as they appear in this catalogue.

Bidding up to but not at the Reserve Price. Subject to the auctioneer's discretion, bids shall be entered in the order in which they are received. The auctioneer may open bidding on any Lot by placing a bid on behalf of the Seller. The auctioneer may further bid on behalf of the Seller up to but not at or exceeding the amount of the reserve price by placing successive or consecutive bids for the Lot, or by placing bids in response to other Bidders.

Bidding at and Beyond the Reserve Price. Once bidding has reached the Lot's reserve price, the auctioneer will not bid on behalf of the Seller and will accept bids only from parties other than the Seller or the Seller's agent.

No Sellers Bidding. Sellers have agreed not to enter a bid or to cause a bid to be entered on their behalf on any Lot of which they are the owner.

Bidding by AMC. AMC reserves the right to bid for its own account on any Lot at any auction, subject to the same terms and conditions applicable to all other Bidders and Buyers.

Bidding Not Reaching the Reserve Price. If bidding on a Lot does not reach the reserve price, the auctioneer may remove the Lot from sale. At the time of such removal and before bidding on another Lot begins, the auctioneer shall announce that the removed Lot has been "passed".

Hammer Price. The highest bidder accepted by the auctioneer will be Buyer and the striking of the auctioneer's hammer marks the acceptance of the final bid as the "hammer price" and the creation of a contract for sale between Seller and Buyer.

Passage of Title. Buyer hereby acknowledges and agrees that title of any Lot shifts to Buyer upon the issuance of the final invoice provided to Buyer by AMC ("Final Invoice"). Buyer hereby names and authorizes AMC as Buyer's exclusive agent to store or take any other action authorized by this Agreement until Buyer remits payment for the Final Invoice in full to AMC. Buyer acknowledges and waives the right to take possession of any purchased Lot or Lots until Buyer remits payment in full of the Final Invoice to AMC.

No Liability. In no event shall AMC be liable for any errors in entering any bids or for failure to enter any bids.

e) Parcel Lots. In the event the catalogue lists a sequence of Lots carrying the same estimates and consisting of the same type of wine, quantity and bottle size (a "Parcel"), Buyer of the first Lot in such Parcel may, in the discretion of the auctioneer, be granted the option to buy any or all additional Lots in the Parcel for the same hammer price if there is no higher absentee bid on any subsequent Lot within the Parcel. If the option is not exercised on all such Lots, the auctioneer will open bidding on the next unsold Lot and may elect to offer Buyer of that Lot the option to take any or all of the remaining Lots in the Parcel. Bidding shall continue in the same manner until all Lots in the Parcel have been offered and declared sold or unsold by the auctioneer.

f) Auctioneer's Discretion. AMC and/or auctioneer has the sole and absolute discretion to: (i) withdraw any Lot; (ii) divide any Lot; (iii) combine any two or more Lots; (iv) refuse any bid; (v) advance the bidding, including changing the increments, in such a manner as AMC and/or auctioneer may see fit; and (vi) in the event of error or dispute, in order to determine the successful bidder, to continue the bidding, cancel the sale, or reoffer and resell the disputed Lot. Wherever AMC and/or auctioneer exercises its discretion, its decision is final, binding and conclusive in all respects.

g) Lots in which AMC has an economic interest will be so designated by a * symbol in the header of the first page where such Lots appear, or next to the first lot for the applicable consignment where there is no header.

h) Buyer's Premium. A Buyer's premium of twenty-three and one half percent (23.5%) shall be added to the hammer price.

5. AFTER AUCTION.

a) Payment. When Due. Final Invoices are rendered reflecting the final purchase price within seven (7) days following each auction. Buyer may pay each invoice upon receipt, but in any event must pay each invoice within thirty (30) days following the date of auction. All payments received more than thirty-five (35) days after the date of auction will be subject to an interest charge of 1.5% per month until the invoice is paid in full, notwithstanding any other provision of these Conditions of Sale.

Method of Payment. Payment of each invoice must be made in United States currency. All checks returned unpaid will be subject to a $100 processing fee. Visa, MasterCard and American Express are accepted for purchases of $15,000 and less. No other credit cards will be accepted. By submitting your credit card to pay for your winning bid and/or by filling out a registration form or Absentee Bids form and providing your credit card details, you thereby authorize AMC or its relevant affiliate to charge the balance of your invoice to your credit card upon the acceptance by AMC of a winning bid by you, and agree that you will pay for the purchase in accordance with the issuing institution's cardholder agreement.

b) Release of Purchased Property. Once payment in full of the final purchase price has been received by AMC, and subject to Buyer's compliance with the other terms and conditions of the Agreement, the purchased Lots will be released to Buyer. Any Lot not collected by Buyer within thirty (30) days following the auction will be removed to storage by AMC and the costs of packaging, handling, removing, insuring, and storing that are incurred by AMC in connection therewith shall be assessed as set forth in the Collection and Shipment of Wines form. Any such Lot will be released from storage only after payment is made in full of the aforesaid costs at the applicable rates then in effect.

c) Packing and Shipping. Buyer is expressly advised to read the Collection and Shipment of Wines form.

By AMC. Subject to the terms of the Collection and Shipment of Wines form, all packaging, handling, transporting, insuring, and delivering of purchased Property are the sole responsibility of Buyer and occur at the sole risk and expense of Buyer, whether or not Buyer engages AMC for such purpose. Buyer shall pay AMC in advance for all expenses incurred by AMC in engaging such services unless AMC chooses in its sole discretion to bill Buyer after such services are performed.

By Third Parties. AMC, on behalf of Buyer, will follow Buyer's instructions in arranging the delivery of the purchased Property by a carrier selected by Buyer; provided, however, that AMC shall not be responsible for any acts or omissions of any carrier or shipper, including, without limitation, any packing, handling, transporting, insuring or delivering of any Property and any storage or shipment of Property under inappropriate conditions.

d) Rescission. AMC's Limited Guarantee. If, within ninety (90) days after the auction, Buyer of a Lot notifies AMC in writing that such Lot is short or is in unsound condition (e.g., cooked and spoiled), or that any statement made in AMC's offering materials concerning such Lot is materially incorrect, AMC shall be the sole arbiter, by way of inspection or by such other reasonable means as it sees fit, of the validity of such claim between Buyer and Seller and shall make a final decision binding on Buyer and Seller based on its determination of the validity of such claim. No claim made by Buyer under the preceding sentence shall be addressed by AMC unless all Property in question (i) has the AMC auction sale date reference sticker on its bottle, (ii) is in the same condition in which it was delivered to Buyer, and (iii) has been shipped to and from Buyer and stored under appropriate conditions. Having decided any such claim, AMC may, in good faith, direct that the sale either stand or be rescinded and that the final purchase price be refunded either in whole or in part. By bidding at auction, Bidder agrees for itself and its successors and assigns that (i) it hereby waives any right to make any claim or bring any legal action against AMC resulting from any determination made or failed to be made by AMC under this Paragraph 5 (d), and (ii) in the event that Buyer fails to provide timely and proper notice to AMC under this provision, Buyer shall be deemed to have waived the right to rescission as herein provided.

Rescission Available Solely to Buyer. The remedy of rescission, if AMC elects to rescind under the circumstances, is available solely to Buyer of Property, who must have remained the sole owner thereof with no transfer of any interest therein to any third party.

Buyer's Sole Remedy. The refund to Buyer of the purchase price for Property shall be Buyer's sole remedy for any matter relating to the condition of Property, and such remedy shall be available only if Buyer received such Property from AMC. In no event shall AMC be liable for any indirect, special, punitive, consequential, loss of profit or other damages, including, without limitation, attorneys' fees and expenses, no matter how arising, and AMC's maximum liability shall be the amount paid by Buyer (exclusive of all taxes) for any Property that is subject to return as permitted hereby. Seller shall have no other liability of any nature or kind under this Agreement, in tort or otherwise, whether at law or in equity, with respect to this Agreement or the offer, purchase and sale of any wine comprising the purchase and sale of Property.

Different Importers. Although AMC makes an effort to state in the catalogue if a Lot includes wines from different importers, failure to so state is not grounds for rescission of the sale of any Lot. Similarly, any incorrect statement or omission in the catalogue concerning bottles and/or sequence numbers of Property from those producers that number their bottles comprising Property, is not grounds for rescission of the sale of any Lot.

Different Vintage and/or Producer. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained within these Conditions of Sale, AMC agrees to refund the hammer price to the Buyer of any Property purchased from AMC that is not of the vintage or from the producer as was stated in the catalogue or otherwise represented by AMC, including, but not limited to, Property that is counterfeit, provided that: (i) the Buyer directly purchased the Property from AMC; (ii) the Buyer returns such Property to AMC within ninety (90) days of the date of delivery of such Property to Buyer; and (iii) that Buyer returns such Property in materially the same condition as it was delivered to Buyer.

e) Default by Buyer. If Buyer fails to make payment in accordance with the Conditions of Sale within ninety (90) days following the auction, AMC may, in its absolute discretion:

- i. Cancel the sale;
- ii. Resell Property publicly or privately for Buyer's account and at Buyer's risk and charge Buyer for any deficiency between the final bid in the resale and the final bid placed by Buyer, in addition to all costs and expenses of both the initial sale and the resale at AMC's regular rates and the Buyer's premium due in connection with the initial sale;
- iii. Set off all sums due from Buyer against any amounts which AMC may owe to Buyer;
- iv. Exercise all the rights and remedies of a party holding a first priority perfected security interest in any Property or other property in AMC's possession owned or consigned by Buyer;
- v. Collect from Buyer the total amount due plus any loss, cost or expense incurred by AMC in effecting such collection;
- vi. Charge Buyer interest at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum on all sums due from Buyer;
- vii. Collect from Buyer the fees, expenses, and disbursements of legal counsel to AMC incurred in exercising any one or more of the rights or remedies set forth in this Agreement;
- viii. Not permit Buyer directly or indirectly to participate in future AMC auctions;
- ix. Exercise any right or remedy against Buyer available to Seller; and
- x. Assert any other rights or remedies available at law or in equity.

AMC may, in its discretion, exercise any one or more of the preceding remedies or any combination thereof.

f) Buyer's Indemnity. Buyer shall indemnify, defend, and hold AMC, and its officers, directors, employees, and agents, harmless from any loss, expense (including attorneys' fees and expenses, which shall be paid in advance), liability, costs, or damages incurred by reason of (i) any breach or alleged breach of any warranty herein or breach of this Agreement by Buyer, (ii) any inaccuracy of any certificate, document or instrument delivered by Buyer pursuant to or in connection with this Agreement, and (iii) any act or omission of Buyer, its agents or employees, adversely affecting Property. Buyer's representations, warranties and indemnification will survive completion of the transactions contemplated in this Agreement.

g) Copyright. AMC reserves copyright in all images, illustrations and written material produced by or on behalf of AMC, including, without limitation, the content of this catalogue (collectively, "Material"), and in no event may Buyer or any third party use any of Material without AMC's prior written consent. In no event do either AMC or Seller make any representation or warranty that Buyer will acquire any copyright, reproduction right or any other intellectual property right in any Property.

6. GENERAL TERMS.

a) Headings. The section headings in this Conditions of Sale are for convenience of reference only and shall not be considered as substantive parts of this Agreement.

b) Entire Agreement. This Agreement (including all instruments incorporated by reference) constitutes the entire agreement between AMC and Buyer pertaining to the subject matter hereof and supersedes any and all prior discussions and agreements between them. This Agreement may not be amended, nor shall any waiver, change, modification, consent, or discharge of any part of this Agreement be granted, except by an instrument in writing executed by both AMC and Buyer. Any failure by AMC to enforce any provision of this Agreement shall not operate as a waiver of such provision.

d) No Joint Venture. No provision of this Agreement shall be construed to create any agency, partnership, or other joint enterprise between AMC and Buyer.

e) Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed and enforced in accordance with the internal laws of the State of New York without reference to principles governing conflicts of law.

f) Dispute Resolution. Any and all disputes or controversies arising under or relating to the interpretation or application of the terms of this Agreement or any extension or modification thereof, or the asserted breach thereof by any party, shall be resolved through final and binding arbitration in New York County, New York, by a single arbitrator to be chosen by the American Arbitration Association under its Commercial Arbitration Rules. Any arbitrator so appointed shall be empowered to, in addition to awarding actual money damages (but not punitive damages) against the party found to have violated this Agreement, grant in his award, injunctive or other types of equitable relief, to enforce specific performance of this Agreement, and to prevent any continuing or further violation of its terms. Judgment upon the award rendered in such arbitration may be entered in any court having jurisdiction there. The cost of such arbitration shall be borne equally by the parties, except that each party shall be responsible for its own attorneys' fees.

7. LICENSE NUMBER.

The license number assigned to AMC by the New York Department of Consumer Affairs is 1413658.

AUCTION CATALOGUE SUBSCRIPTION FORM

Auction catalogues may be ordered on an individual or subscription basis. The most economical way to receive catalogues is to become a subscriber. Recipients of our catalogues will receive a list of prices realized shortly after each auction, as well as a calendar of upcoming events. Catalogues are mailed immediately upon release from the printer, usually two weeks prior to each auction. Please complete this form in its entirety and return it to Acker Merrall & Condit by fax or mail to begin receiving your catalogues.
