Among my grandfather's possessions, my mother found a 1911 yearbook from Corning High School. While he ran a business in Corning later in life, no immediate members of my family are represented. Recognizing the value of this to the right person, however, here are the names of all CHS students in that year (see following) in order to help others in their research and, hopefully, get this volume to someone who has family members pictured. The Classes of 1911 and 1912 are illustrated with individual portraits as are the faculty members. The classes of 1913 and 1914 are also shown, but only as a group.
