ABOUT DR. MOBLEY

From the classroom to the boardroom, Dr. Mobley is an upbeat, dynamic speaker to numerous international and national audiences. The positive energy that Dr. Mobley possesses exudes throughout the entire room when she speaks. Since Dr. Mobley is a rarity—a female, veterinarian that rose from lower management to become a member of the CEO's inner circle—she is sought after for her inspiring messages on the many lessons she learned during her journey. Dr. Mobley ultimately became the Vice President, Corporate Diversity for Wyeth (now known as Pfizer) and spoke to global audiences. While she traveled on her journey, Dr. Mobley learned how to manage people, performance and productivity at a premier pharmaceutical company.

Dr. Mobley is a modern day Dr. Doolittle who transitioned from helping animals to have better lives to helping people around the world have better lives and succeed at higher levels. She is a trailblazing woman on the move!
