WORLD AUTISM AWARENESS DAY AND LIGHT IT UP BLUE FOR AUTISM

World Autism Awareness Day that is celebrated annually on April 2nd, is designated by the United Nations Organization to raise awareness of this neurobiological condition.

Albanian Children Foundation through its activities, meetings, regional and national conferences, publishing of books, leaflets, video messages, spots and documentaries, brought the attention to all individuals with Autism in Albanian language speaking territories.

Light it up Blue for Autism, the international campaign inspired by "Autism Speaks", international organization which spreads awareness across the globe and increase knowledge on autism, was embraced by Albania, thus ranking among 157 countries that supported millions of individuals with autism and their families.

Albanian Children Foundation aims to increase awareness and acceptance and bring hope as well as bring attention to the needs of persons with autism regardless of age, severity of symptoms and Social-economic conditions they go through.

THROUGH FACEBOOK, THE SOCIAL NETWORK,
ALBANIAN CHILDREN FOUNDATION
GAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO ITS FOLLOWERS
TO PARTICIPATE IN THE "LIGHT IT UP BLUE FOR AUTISM" AWARENESS
CAMPAIGN THROUGH PERSONALIZED CARD
AIMING TO SPREAD IT TO MANY PROFILES.

THAT'S HOW WE LIT IT UP BLUE FOR AUTISM!

SPECIAL LANDMARKS LIGHT IT UP BLUE FOR AUTISM

The Presidential Building, Bank of Albania, National Historical Museum, the buildings around "Mother Teresa" Square and Tirana International Hotel lit it up blue to bring attention to Autism.

This initiative, undertaken in solidarity by the companies throughout the world, consists of lighting up in Blue symbolic buildings such as historical, cultural, financial, etc. buildings, to support individuals with autism, assess the potentials they do have and bring more attention to their needs.

TEG LIGHT IT UP BLUE FOR AUTISM

Tirana East Gate, the biggest mall in the country, light it up BLUE the externals of the building throughout April, by bringing attention to individuals with autism spectrum disorder.

Inside the premises of the mall, the floor was covered by the Foundation with puzzle awareness messages on Autism, such as:

“Listen to our voice”

“We are your children”

“Come play with me!”

“There is life beyond the walls’

“There is hope beyond the walls”

“April 2nd, World Autism Awareness Day”

DETAILS
SPEAK ABOUT AUTISM...

... All details that made April 2nd , World Autism Awareness Day in Kukës more expressive and more beautiful than ever...

This year, Autism spoke from Kukës through concrete messages...

"AUTISM DOESN'T CHOOSE" PARACHUTE FLYING OVER THE COUNTRY...

The parachute of the famous Albanian Aerial cameraman and photographer, Alket Islami, flying with the Albanian Children Foundation awareness logo and slogan "Autism doesn't choose"!

Awareness throughout the month for Autism from Kukës and all over Albania, because this year Autism spoke from Kukës.

NOT JUST ART, AND ENTERTAINMENT BUT AWARENESS TOO

The Staff of Cavaliero Club, Tirana, joined the awareness month on Autism supported by the Albanian Children Foundation under the slogan "Autism doesn't choose". An excellent performance at the scene of "Cavaliero Club" Tirana, music players and singers wore T-shirts with the words "Autism doesn't choose" while awareness messages of the Foundation campaign displayed all the time on Led Wall: "There is life beyond the walls" & "There is hope beyond the walls".

Thank you!
