

Mike Penberthy

Biographical Information

Born in Los Gatos, California, Mike Penberthy graduated from Herbert Hoover High School at Fresno, California in 1993. He played college basketball for The Master's College in Santa Clarita, California, where he played with distinction, broke numerous school records (including most career points) and was a 2-time NAIA All-American.

Penberthy was a member of the Lakers' 2000-01 NBA championship team, appearing in 56 games for the Lakers during the 2000-01 season. The 6-foot-3 guard from Master's College averaged 16.1 minutes and 5.0 points a game while shooting 39.6% from three-point range and 90.3% from the free-throw line. Following his stint with the Lakers, Penberthy played overseas in Italy and Germany.

Mike is currently on the coaching staff for the LA Lakers. Prior to joining the 2019-20 Lakers coaching staff, Mike was a member of the New Orleans Pelicans staff for two seasons.

Mike and his wife Wendy live in Valencia CA with their three children.