Gap Analysis for the following Action Mode(s):
Fact Finder Gap Analysis: Fact-Finder Alignment 75/100

Where the square is slightly smaller than the triangle in Fact Finder, "close enough" is good enough for the evaluators of this group. Our group members need to fill all the blanks in great detail, even though they perceive their jobs as not requiring as much of this talent as they have available to contribute. This can result in wasted energy if they are not given the opportunity to use this talent.

Where the circle fits perfectly inside the triangle, the alignment with Fact Finder abilities and requirements couldn't be better. This group should have no problem with the process of gathering information. The group possesses the right instincts for dealing with detail.

Evaluators are comfortable with the way team members respond to fact finding. This group will function with just the right amount of accountability for details. Team members do what they need to do, and therefore, get the job done. This team should celebrate the fact that it has what it takes to perform as needed.

Meyers Briggs

Why Learn About Personality Types?

- Understanding your own personality helps you understand what “makes you tick”
 - You will have insights about why you behave, respond to others, process information, communicate and make decisions the way you do
 - As we discuss the different types defined by Myers-Briggs, you can “self-identify” as we go through each type (and complete the MBTI at a later time if you would like to do so)
 - You can then use this information to enhance your success and fulfillment in your work and relationships

Why Learn About Personality Types?

- Understanding the type of other team members will:
 - Help you identify and leverage your team's strengths and address weaknesses or gaps
 - Ensure you're deploying team members to best fit their natural preferences, where possible
 - Help identify areas of similarities and differences so you can be informed when:
 - Communicating with each other
 - Coming to and agreeing on decisions
 - Developing processes
 - Deploying members of the team and creating development plans

Myers-Briggs Key Type Concepts

- We use is the MBTI instrument because it helps enhance interpersonal communications
- The MBTI works under the premise that personality type is:
 - Innate and able to be influenced or moderated over time
 - Observable
 - Not a box
 - Not an excuse
 - An indicator of preferences, not skills
 - A journey

MBTI Theory

- MBTI is based on Jung's theory
 - Two basic attitudes (life orientation)
 - Extraversion
 - Introversion
 - Two basic functions (mental processes)
 - Judging
 - Perceiving
- Katherine Briggs and Isabel Myers expanded it
 - Within Judging are the extremes Thinking and Feeling
 - Within Perceiving are Sensing and Intuition

Preference Dichotomies

Energy

EXTRAVERSION

Being energized through contact with other people or through engaging in activities

(the outer world)

INTROVERSION

Being energized through ideas,
quiet times,
or solitude

(the inner world)

How Are You Energized?

EXTRAVERSION

- External/exterior
- Outside thrust
- Talk thoughts out
- Breadth
- Involved with people, things
- Interaction
- Action
- Do-think-do

INTROVERSION

- Internal/interior
- Inside pull
- Keep thoughts in
- Depth
- Work with ideas, thoughts
- Concentration
- Reflection
- Think-do-think

Extraversion- Introversion

Polling Question

- Based on this description, would you describe yourself as an extravert or introvert?
 - Extravert
 - Introvert
 - Not sure

Information

SENSING

Paying attention to what you perceive through the five senses: seeing, hearing, touching, smelling, and tasting

INTUITION

Paying attention to what might be described as the sixth sense—the unseen world of meanings, inferences, hunches, insights, and connections

How Do You Take In Information?

SENSING

- Present orientation
- What is real
- Practical
- Facts
- Perfecting established skills
- Utility
- Step-by-step
- The five senses

INTUITION

- Future possibilities
- What could be
- Theoretical
- Inspirations
- Learning new skills
- Novelty
- Insight-by-insight
- The sixth sense, a hunch

Sensing-Intuition

I'll need to see more data.

This looks like a great opportunity.

Polling Question

- Based on this description, would you describe yourself as more sensing or intuiting?
 - Sensing
 - Intuiting
 - Not sure

Decisions

THINKING

Making decisions based on impartial criteria— cause-effect reasoning, constant principles or truths, and logic

FEELING

Making decisions based on values-based, person-centered criteria, seeking harmony

How Do You Make Decisions?

Think » Plan » Grow!

THINKING

- Logical system
- Head
- Objective
- Justice
- Critique
- Principles
- Reason
- Firm but fair

FEELING

- Values system

- Mercy
- Compliment
- Harmony
- Empathy
- Compassionate

Thinking-Feeling

Polling Question

- Based on this description, which are you more of -- thinking or feeling?
 - Thinking
 - Feeling
 - Not sure

Approach to Life

JUDGING

Want to live an ordered life, with goals and structure, making decisions so you can move on

PERCEIVING

Want to live a spontaneous life with flexibility, staying open to new information and possibilities

How Do You Approach Life?

JUDGING

- Decide about information
- Regulate
- Control
- Settled
- Run one's life
- Set goals
- Closing off
- Organized

PERCEIVING

- Attend to, gather information
- Flow
- Adapt
- Tentative
- Let life happen
- Seek options
- Opening up
- Flexible

Judging-Perceiving

Polling Question

- Based on this information or your MBTI report, do you think (or feel) that you're more judging or perceiving?
 - Judging
 - Perceiving
 - Not sure

Self-Awareness Is Key

- Understanding your personality type will give you insights so that you can:
 - Tell others what you learned – both good and bad
 - Realize your preferred style is not necessarily others
 - Explore how your personality type fits with those of your team
 - Begin to identify new communication styles, processes and ways to embrace all the personalities on your team

Your team type is then made up of the most common preferences of your team members...

Sample ESTJ Team

- Once you have assessed the personalities of your team members, you can then:
 - Identify the cultural implications of your dominant team types
 - Explore the impacts to the team or clients that you can see from these dominant characteristics
 - Take actions to maximize these strengths or minimize the weaknesses of your team type
 - Explore what works and what doesn't about your type working in this team culture
 - Identify what you could do to embrace all your team members' different styles

Meyers Briggs Success Story

- 11 Partner 90 person accounting firm
- Completing the Myers-Briggs and holding a 1.5 day session on diversity in their team, they:
 - Enhanced their communication, with each other, between departments and among the partner team
 - Built empathy and understanding!
 - Identified new processes and improved – and in some cases tailored – current processes
 - Identified links to performance issues that weren't attributed to technical or motivation
 - Enhanced their mentoring and development of people

Polling Question

- After hearing today's information, do you believe that assessments are worth exploring in your firm?
 - Yes
 - No
 - Maybe
