

Hawaii Fruit Fly Area Wide Pest Management (AWPM) Program

Monitoring: Non Target Species

•To ensure the protection of public and environmental resources from potential adverse effects, HAW-FLYPM closely monitors non-target species as a part of its environmental risk assessment.

•Regular monitoring of non-target species assist HAW-FLYPM in identifying or eliminating risk factors associated with area wide fruit fly integrated pest management suppression techniques.

A Cooperative Project Between USDA-ARS, UH CTAHR, Hawaii DOA, Hawaii's Growers and Communities