Opinion

The day before we were to return home from our Hawaiian vacation, my husband broke his neck snorkeling and had to be flown to Oahu where he was hospitalized for a week. Gamma Phis from all over Hawaii offered their help, support and sisterly love. Marilyn Ednie and her family helped me get in contact with Gamma Phis in Honolulu; Cathy Payne helped me find a place to stay; Ruth Merz brought flowers, visited, arranged for a pastor to call, called frequently; Betty Demarke visited, brought flowers, called daily. Every Gamma Phi I talked with offered help and encouragement that made us feel we were surrounded by friends.

So to all the women of the Hawaii Alumnae Chapter, we send a big MAHALO for your concern, support and especially your sisterly love.

Aloha in IIKE,

Grand President's Message

What an exciting time for Gamma Phi Beta! I feel honored to have had the opportunity to serve as Grand President during this historic time in our 111 year history as the dream of a Sorority owned permanent home office becomes a reality.

Directed by the resolution of the 1984 Convention delegates, Grand Council initiated a study of the feasibility, costs, advantages and disadvantages of a Sorority owned international headquarters. Karen Wander Kline (Iowa St.), immediate past Grand President, prepared this analysis. She presented her findings and an innovative avenue for financing the project at a joint meeting of Grand Council, the Foundation Board of Trustees and the Endowment-Loan Board.

That meeting resulted in a commitment to owning a permanent home office and enthusiasm for a fundraising campaign to endow an educational development fund within the Foundation. This new fund will free the Sorority's present endowment to finance a headquarters facility.

The 1986 Convention serves as a kickoff for the $850,000 Foundation Capital Endowment Campaign. It is a major step forward for Gamma Phi Beta and, by taking it, we demonstrate our faith in the future growth of our Sisterhood.

Public relations was another 1984 resolution which received top priority during the biennium. It has been Grand Council's belief that Gamma Phi Beta's image is directly related to the self-esteem of members and chapters, particularly collegiate chapters. Much of the Sorority's efforts have been aimed in that direction.

The refinement and expansion of our international rush consultant program is designed to help chapters with high potential improve their image through excellence in rush.

Reorganizations of struggling chapters have met with remarkable success. At Florida State and Michigan State, Gamma Phi Beta chapters are thriving and growing as a result of international reorganization rushes and continuing special assistance. In light of these successes, the groundwork has been laid for reorganizations during the next three years at Syracuse, Maryland, Texas Tech, Vanderbilt and William and Mary.

Grand Council is convinced that the considerable volunteer hours and dollars spent to save existing chapters through reorganizations are well worth it. The rewards are increased self-esteem for members and an improved public image for Gamma Phi Beta.

In addressing the other 1984 Convention resolutions:

—PACE packets on eating disorders have been distributed to more than 100 colleges and universities, and made available for alumnae groups to distribute to local high schools.

—A program designed to address the needs and concerns of elderly sisters is in the planning stages.

—Legacy procedures and education have been researched by an ad hoc committee. Its recommendations are printed in the Convention Report of International Officers.

—The Research Committee's study of alumnae taxes resulted in suggestions on timing of mailings.

—The Collegiate Department has distributed suggestions for non-denominational biblical readings and has developed the collegiate standards program.

—Improvements in Convention scheduling, credentials and advance information to chapters have been accomplished.

—An aggressive extension program has resulted in new chapters at Alma College, University of San Diego, Creighton University and Union College. Gamma Rho Chapter at University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh and Delta Chapter at Boston University were both rechartered during the biennium. Of equal importance is the groundwork laid for future colonizations at targeted schools, and the addition of 18 new alumnae groups.

—Extra attention has been given to the southeastern region of the U.S. through special help to existing chapters, reorganizations and the addition of five new alumnae groups in that area.

Besides actions prompted by Convention resolutions, much that is innovative and worthwhile has taken place during the past biennium.

Increased contributions to the Foundation have allowed more financial assistance for scholarships, fellowships and camping related philanthropies. Chairman Jennie Curtis (N. Arizona) organized and hosted the first Foundation officer seminar for National Panhellenic Conference member sororities. With Jennie as a driving force, the seminar has become an annual meeting.

The general fund operated within budgeted limits throughout the biennium. Increased revenues from collegiate and alumnae dues and taxes and Opportunity Fund donations have provided the resources for continued expansion of services. The frugal management of these resources by all international officers, and most particularly our Director of Finance and Executive Secretary-Treasurer, contributed to the budgeting success.

As our Sorority grows and our society becomes more complicated, the responsibilities and tasks of our volunteer officers increase. In an effort to keep those responsibilities more manageable, Grand Council restructured the officer organization. The Collegiate Vice President delegated more authority and responsibility to her assistants to better serve collegiate chapters. Sorority programs that cross departmental lines (e.g. SisterLink, PACE) were grouped together in the new Services Department.

Two major concerns that have occupied Grand Council's time during this biennium and will remain in the forefront in the immediate future are insurance and relations with host institutions.

We are all aware that our society seems to be in an age of litigation mania. This is true in every sector, but has hit the Greek community particularly hard due to incidents of arson, hazing and alcohol related behavior. Gamma Phi Beta has a good record with only one liability claim in our international policy history. Unfortunately, insurance carriers view the Greeks as a whole and calculate us as a high risk group. Our liability premiums have risen drastically. We must augment our risk management awareness and continue to pursue all avenues for maintaining adequate insurance coverage for the Sorority and its Foundation, chapters, house corporations, officers and members.

While many colleges and universities continue enthusiastic support of Greek organizations, recognizing the benefits and opportunities we bring to their campuses and students, an increasing number of institutions are questioning the value of the Greek experience. There is no doubt that we Greeks have brought some of this criticism upon ourselves. It may be unfair but it is a reality. While philanthropic activities, campus leadership development and pursuit of scholastic excellence receive very little, if any, media attention, an incident of hazing or rowdy behavior will be sensationalized in front page headlines.

This visibility and vulnerability of the Greeks have caused some college administrators to either tighten controls over chapters on their campuses or attempt to absolve themselves from any responsibility for the Greeks. As a result, relationship statements and recognition requirement policies are being drafted, revised and debated.

In order to better define Gamma Phi Beta's role within the campus environment, National Panhellenic Conference Delegate Janet Heft Wright (Wichita St.) and her assistant, Sue Konrad, prepared a statement of our philosophy and expectations which has been distributed to the deans of students at each institution which hosts a Gamma Phi Beta chapter.

Generally, enthusiasm for sorority membership is high among college age women. We must continue to use these healthy times to strive for excellence. We must be sure that we are offering the opportunities and rewards that we profess, and that we keep in sight the goals to which we have pledged our labor and loyalty.

We will stay on target if we remember that Gamma Phi Beta is a sisterhood—a family of more than 70,000 women who bring out the best in each other, who demonstrate concern for each other's welfare, who treat each and every sister as a true and constant friend.

Two of the Gamma Phi Beta relatives honored at the legacy luncheon were Alison Shafer Bond and her mother, former Grand President Audrey Weldon Shafer.

Be it resolved that

. . . Grand Council be authorized to withdraw funds from the Endowment Fund to purchase, construct or improve an international headquarters facility provided such amounts are not greater than the total funds accumulated in the new Foundation Endowment Fund.

. . . separate tapes of rush and ritual songs be developed for chapter use.

. . . a list of Convention participants, including maiden and married names, chapter of initiation and current affiliation, be distributed at the first Convention business session.

. . . Grand Council address the issue of staggered terms of office for its members.

. . . Grand Council negotiate for maximum possible property and liability insurance coverage at all levels including, if necessary, a mandatory policy.

. . . the Bylaws Chairman study changing the name of Grand Council.

. . . Grand Council take into consideration the comments of 1986 Convention participants and formulate a uniform legacy policy to be implemented by fall 1987 for trial and to be voted on at the 1988 Convention.

. . . an ad hoc committee composed of the Bylaws Chairman, Nominating Committee Chairman and three additional members be appointed by Grand Council to study the election process of Grand Council, Nominating Committee and Endowment-Loan Board.

. . . an ad hoc committee be appointed to evaluate the sorority's international offices with the option of obtaining professional help to make recommendations regarding the use of alumnae resources; and that an alumnae focus of the 1988 Convention address the issue of the ever increasing number of multi-talented women with limited time to devote to Gamma Phi Beta.

Opportunity Fund Opportunities

Promoting the Opportunity Fund and watching it grow was one of the most challenging and exciting experiences I had as Alumnae Vice President.

What a difference the Opportunity Fund can make to Gamma Phi Beta, its chapters and members! Whereas collegiate fees and alumnae taxes are basic to "keeping the doors open," the Opportunity Fund is vital for Gamma Phi Beta to thrive, expand and attain chapter and programming excellence. It makes the difference between standing still or moving ahead. Between being able to reorganize two chapters last year or three in 1986-87. Between having five Collegiate Consultants a few years ago or employing nine this year. Between six new alumnae groups four years ago or 17 last year.

The Opportunity Fund means the difference between encouraging our alumna advisors to attend Convention or underwriting a portion of their expenses. Between wishing our graduating seniors would become active alumnae or developing Senior Celebration to help them make the transition from collegians to alumnae. It is the difference between watching our NPC sisters start a career network or creating our own SisterLink. Between scheduling only some chapters for Collegiate Consultant visits or having every chapter have one, and sometimes two or three, visits per year.

Gamma Phi Beta is blessed with many capable volunteers who are willing to develop programs and nurture our collegiate and alumnae chapters. We have qualified young women who want to be Collegiate Consultants. But the fact is the Opportunity Fund is essential if Gamma Phi Beta is to fully utilize this interest and expertise.

It is my hope alumnae will realize how important the Opportunity Fund is and will support it to their fullest ability. Opportunities are unlimited in Gamma Phi Beta and so is the Opportunity Fund!

Advisors

Sharing, caring women who make a difference

“You will receive far more from this experience than you'll ever give!” That's how Joan Welty Ingle (USC) sums up her position as alumna advisor for Delta Delta Chapter, California State University-Fullerton.

Both Joan and Sue Schneider (Ohio Wesleyan), alumna advisor for Delta Nu Chapter, Southwest Missouri State University, shared their thoughts and advice about working with collegians. It's clear advisors do make a difference!

Describe a successful advisor.

Joan: She is open, warm, friendly, fair and trustworthy. She is a good mediator, and honestly expresses her opinions when necessary. She is a good listener, enabling collegians to talk about challenges and find their own solutions.

Sue: She must be a good listener. Patience, understanding, accessibility and knowledge of the chapter and community all help. She has the ability to suggest a course of action without demanding.

How do advisors achieve a solid working relationship with collegians?

Joan: We are in touch on a regular basis, serve as a sounding board, and are supportive and positive. We keep up with officers' duties and responsibilities and offer constructive suggestions when necessary.

Sue: We are all visible at collegiate and collegiate-alumnae functions. We enjoy working with the collegians and make every effort to get to know them personally.

What are the rewards of serving as an advisor?

Joan: An advisor's reward is pride and fulfillment in assisting young women as they mature and build self-confidence in making decisions and compromising desires for the betterment of the chapter. Reward comes in the caring and closeness that develops, feeling successful and appreciated, and interacting with cheerful, vibrant young women.

Sue: New friendships between young and old are very rewarding. Another is seeing the chapter accept your suggestions and benefit from them.

Why are advisors successful in working with the chapter?

Joan: Collegians feel their friendship, caring and sincere interest. Advisors advise and do not dictate.

Sue: Collegians realize the extra time it takes to be an advisor and advisors realize how much time collegians spend on the Sorority. We are reaching a good understanding on rules and procedures without dictating.

What chapter strengths do advisors encourage?

Joan: We encourage responsibility to commitments and to each member as a sister and friend. Communication, financial responsibility and learning to live and work with others is emphasized.

Sue: We encourage them to lead themselves and strongly support their plans in any area of chapter life as long as it is within the rules. Utilizing advisors as resources and asking questions also are encouraged.

What are the challenges of serving as an advisor?

Joan: It is frustrating to want to assist and offer suggestions and at the same time be careful not to dictate. Challenges arise in the areas of collegiate responsibility and follow through.

Sue: Challenges are keeping a fresh outlook, encouraging collegiate responsibility and making long-range goals.

What is the best advice for a new advisor?

Joan: Be patient and flexible because sorority life is a tremendous learning and growing experience. Given time, friendly advice and a positive, supportive attitude, the chapter will reach its goals. Most of all, enjoy!

The Advisor's Advisor

The Advisor's Advisor is a monthly newsletter for Gamma Phi Beta advisors. Edited by Province X Collegiate Director Joanne Callis Roman (Vanderbilt), a former alumna advisor, it offers tips and motivational ideas, highlights areas of concern, and recognizes accomplishments and achievements. Advisors are encouraged to submit their questions and ideas for inclusion.

"It is not meant to replace training for advisors," says Joanne, "but hopefully will complement it. It serves as an additional support system for advisors while reminding them how special they are to the chapter and Gamma Phi."

Joanne says advisors provide continuity for changing leadership, help ensure that chapter energies are aimed in the appropriate directions and act as role models. Advisors "are very valuable people" who can offer a different perspective, provide advice when appropriate and help chapters set and achieve realistic goals.

Joanne Callis Roman (Vanderbilt)

"Advisors must let the chapter do the work under the direction of the chapter leaders," Joanne says. "They are there to provide guidance and support, and it is important that Gamma Phi Beta encourage, support, educate and motivate them."

Sue: Never be afraid to say you don't know the answer. Stress your willingness to work with the chapter to find solutions.

Bouquets of pink carnations to Joan, Sue and all the Delta Delta and Delta Nu advisors for their time, talent, expertise and enthusiasm! Other Delta Delta advisors are Cheri Lamont Brumleu (USC), pledge advisor; Mimi Borovinsky (Cal. St.-Fullerton), rush advisor; Alcy Grimes (USC), efficiency advisor; Lisa Bliss (Washington St.), PACE advisor; Sherri Gross (Cal. St.-Fullerton), Panhellenic advisor; Carol Woodruff Pitzer (Cal. St.-Fullerton), philanthropy advisor; Cathy Becketl

Miller (USC), rituals advisor; Marlo Reynold (Cal. St.-Fullerton), scholarship advisor; and Judi Underhill Manis (Cal. Poly-San Luis Obispo), standards advisor. Other Delta Nu advisors are Beth Horn (SW Missouri St.), pledge advisor; Carol Turner (S. Methodist), rush advisor; Shirley Summers Townsend (Kansas), financial advisor; and Greta Gibson Huff (Kansas), house property manager.

Sound interesting? The opportunity may be yours for the asking. How do you become an advisor? Contact your Province Collegiate Director. Her name and address are listed in the directory on page 22.

Extension

Beta Mu Chapter Florida State University

It was a new beginning for Gamma Phi Beta at Florida State University when Beta Mu Chapter was reorganized last fall. Membership had declined over a number of years when Grand Council made the decision to grant alumnae status to the remaining members in the spring of 1984. The chapter was inactive for a year in preparation for the reorganization rush directed by Director of Extension Karen Wander Kline (Iowa St.).

Once pledged, the new Beta Mus spread their Gamma Phi Beta enthusiasm and new image by getting involved in campus activities. They participated in Homecoming, Sigma Chi Derby Week, Hayride, the Lambda Chi Alpha benefit dance, Sigma Phi Epsilon Queen of Hearts Pageant and Greek Week, for which they were paired with Pi Kappa Alpha. Socials were held with Alpha Tau Omega, Sigma Phi Epsilon and Delta Tau Delta, and Christmas Formal was a highlight of the semester.

Many PACE activities centered around rush and gave the Beta Mus the skills and confidence to add 24 mid-year pledges for a total of 71 members. They also held a pledge retreat, learned time management and enjoyed movie night and a barbecue.

Rho Lambda Greek Honor Society honored the Beta Mus at the December Panhellenic Banquet, where they received the Outstanding Pledge Class Award.

January brought the special days of Inspiration Week and initiation. On Love Day they decorated and presented wooden crescents to each other. Labor Day was for rush workshops, and on Learning Day a guest spoke about campus image and rush. Fun songs were learned after dinner together on Laughter Day.

Loyalty Day was the last before initiation and the Beta Mus hosted a reception at Cabot Lodge for visiting alumnae. Initiation was conducted the afternoon of January 25, 1986 by Delta Upsilon Chapter (Georgia). That evening a reception was held at Killearn Country Club.

Alumnae from Tallahassee and Tampa attended the initiation festivities. International officers visiting the Beta Mus were Karen Kline, Alumnae Vice President Phyllis Donaldson Choat (Nebraska), Province VIII Collegiate Director Karen Gamel Urette (Oklahoma), Collegiate Consultant Mary Buchanan (Kearney St.), Extension Supervisor Linda Thomson (Rutgers) and Province VIII Alumnae Director Anne Sturgis Phillips Hartje (Vanderbilt).

Other campus sororities are Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Delta Pi, Chi Omega, Delta Delta Delta, Delta Gamma, Delta Zeta, Kappa Alpha Theta, Kappa Delta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Phi Mu, Pi Beta Phi, Sigma Kappa, Sigma Sigma Sigma and Zeta Tau Alpha.

Fraternities are Alpha Epsilon Pi, Alpha Tau Omega, Beta Theta Pi, Chi Phi, Delta Chi, Delta Tau Delta, Kappa Alpha, Kappa Sigma, Phi Delta Theta, Phi Gamma Delta, Phi Kappa Tau, Pi Kappa Alpha, Pi Kappa Phi, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Sigma Chi, Sigma Nu, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Tau Kappa Epsilon and Theta Chi.

Initiated the same day as the collegians were three alumna initiates. They are Suzanne Bushert, Amanda Moore and Ruth Weise.

Epsilon Delta Chapter Creighton University

Gamma Phi Beta is on campus! That was surely the thought of many as colony members claimed awards and honors, and participated in a multitude of activities at Creighton University, Omaha, Neb.

Pledged last fall, the group earned two first place awards in Greek Week, the Panhellenic Best Rush Award and the Silver Award from United Way for devoted service. They helped organize the first Creighton Parents Weekend and hosted a reception for parents and alumnae. The all-campus effort for multiple sclerosis benefitted from the colony's participation as did the Omaha Food Bank, the Omaha Children's Museum and the all-Greek park clean-up project. Banners proclaiming "Gamma Phi supports the Jays" were seen at campus sports events.

PACE programs included song practices and speakers on alcohol awareness and colors/clothing coordination. Pumpkins were carved for Halloween, and colony members played intramural sports. At the pledge retreat, songs were learned, skits performed and games played. Three dances were held—Around the World, Valentine's Day Crush Party and Spring Formal.

The traditional Inspiration Week preceded the long-awaited installation weekend. Initiation was held February 22, 1986 at St. John's Church on campus. Pi Chapter (Nebraska) conducted the ceremonies under the direction of International Ritual Chairman Audrey Weldon Shafer (Missouri).

At that evening's banquet, Dr. John Cerneck, Vice President of Student Services, welcomed the new chapter to Creighton. Extension Supervisors Kelly Price (California) and Cindy Hansen (Nebraska) introduced and presented gifts to the new initiates. Chapter President Jillyn Gokie was named the outstanding pledge.

Gifts received by the chapter were a silver ladle and candlesticks from Province XV, a pink carnation dried flower arrangement from Gamma Kappa (Kearney St.) and a silver punch bowl from the Sorority. The president's badge given to the chapter had belonged to Irene Pigaga (Nebraska).

Grand President Ann Mullen Bronsing (Indiana St.) presented the Epsilon Delta charter to Jillyn Gokie and colony President Mary Horas. The charter initiates then concluded the evening by singing Sisters.

Other alumnae attending the banquet included Alumnae Vice President Phyllis Donaldson Choat (Nebraska) who served as mistress of ceremonies, Director of Extension Karen Wander Kline (Iowa St.), Province XV Collegiate Director Carol Cartmill (Nebraska), Province XV Alumnae Director Jackie Reid Allee (Michigan), Alumna Advisor Karen Hohenstein (Drake) and Financial Advisor Christine Tabshey (Nebraska).

Gamma Phi Beta joins Delta Zeta, Theta Phi Alpha and Alpha Gamma Delta at Creighton, a private school established in the late 19th Century. The campus is located near downtown Omaha and has approximately 6,000 undergraduate and graduate students.

Charter members are Katie Ahlers, Janet Arnold, Patricia Barrios, Julie Berba, Cyndi Bohner, Jeanne Boland, Michelle Clancy, Tracy Conrad, Margaret Cunningham, Mary K. Curry, Anne Diamond, Kathleen Ferdico, Angie Forister, Wynette Frandsen, Joan Gach, Mary Beth Gloeb, Jillyn Gokie, Mary Laurel Grogan, Linda Homan, Mary Horas, Monica Kocourek, Jennifer Lindsey, Jeanette Lovett, Leslie Marshall, Kelly Marunda, Maureen McManus, Susan Meiwald, Jenny Orth, Elizabeth Osburn, Rosalie Pollpeter, Michele Seger, Janine Shane, Amy Sitzmann, Catherine Smith, Heather Smith, Marian Spaedy, Susan Starnes, Meg Thompson, Linda Tomjack, Patricia Wall, Buffy Welch and Karen Zambri.

Attending the installation banquet were (l to r) Karen Hohenstein and Larry Nelson; Karen and Tom Kline; Carol Cartmill and Scott Miller; Cindy and Rob Hansen; Phyllis and Norm Choat; and Field Representative Sharon Witt Dunham (Nebraska) and Tad Dunham.

Jillyn Gokie opens gifts presented to Epsilon Delta.

This colonization partially funded by the

Epsilon Epsilon Chapter Union College

A new link was added to Gamma Phi Beta in January with the pledging of 48 women at Union College, Schenectady, N.Y. Two years ago Union began investigating the chartering of another sorority chapter on campus and after much research, college officials decided Gamma Phi Beta was the ideal choice to join Delta Delta Delta, Delta Gamma and Sigma Delta Tau.

Founded in 1795, Union has been noted for its competitive academic curriculum, and as the founding site of the fraternity triad. Women were first admitted in the early 1970s. Today, the college continues to compete with prestigious universities in the computer, biological and engineering sciences as well as the liberal arts field of study.

Colony pledges wasted no time getting involved in campus and Greek activities. Winter term was filled with fraternity mixers, Panhellenic Pizza Night, Winter Fest progressive parties and Greek philanthropic events.

Besides becoming known on campus, many members were busy organizing committees, adjusting to their weekly meetings and new offices, and having fun. PACE activities included ice skating, serenading and study breaks. The pledge retreat was the first opportunity to learn more about Gamma Phi Beta, and colony members set goals, learned songs, made collages and experienced their first fireside. Spring retreat was held overnight in the Adirondack Mountains with emphasis on rush. The perfect weather, free time and camping atmosphere brought the colony's enthusiasm for Gamma Phi Beta to a new high.

Inspiration Week kicked off with a fireside on Love Day to prepare the pledges for their final steps into membership. Labor Day brought much enthusiasm as they worked together painting signs and a rock, and assembling displays in preparation for installation weekend. After the pledge final on Learning Day, alumnae surprised colony members with a silk pink carnation and poem for each one. Loyalty Day started with a pizza party and concluded with a special fireside where pledges exchanged inspirational gifts. Extension Supervisor Brooke Bailey (Cal.-Santa Barbara) presented pink carnations and booklets of poems written by colony members.

Finally Epsilon Epsilon Colony had reached initiation day—May 3, 1986. Delta Tau Chapter (Colgate) conducted the initiation ceremonies.

That evening, 145 guests attended the installation banquet held at the Holiday Inn in a room decorated with pink and white balloons, and pink carnations in bud vases. Province I Alumnae Director Anne Layton (McGill) served as mistress of ceremonies. Other international officers in attendance were Grand President Ann Mullen Bronsing (Indiana St.), Director of Extension Karen Wander Kline (Iowa St.), Province I Collegiate Director Becky Taube (Texas Tech), Collegiate Consultant Sheila Newell (Cal.-Santa Barbara) and Brooke Bailey. Representatives of Union College were Dean of Students Joseph Mammola who welcomed Gamma Phi Beta to campus, Panhellenic Advisor Joanne Tobeissen, outgoing Panhellenic President Robin Gross and incoming Panhellenic President Lori Silberg.

Brooke Bailey received a gift from the alumnae chapter in recognition of her work with the colony. Gifts presented to the chapter were a silver punch bowl from the Sorority, and the president's badge which had belonged to a local alumna's mother. The Outstanding Pledge Award was given to colony President Katie Kennedy, and each charter member received a balloon decorated picture frame from Brooke Bailey.

Karen Kline enthusiastically welcomed the new chapter and thanked Union College and those involved in the colonization. Ann Bronsing recognized the excellence of the charter members and presented the Epsilon Epsilon charter to the chapter. The evening concluded with singing, dancing, laughter and congratulatory hugs.

Charter members are Wendy Allen, Tammy Barsamian, Sandi Belson, Valerie Bernstein, Maura Carta, Rita Clement, Nancy Connolly, Claire Cousineau, Chris Debacco, Katie Denoon, Gail Douglas, Lynn Duffy, Ashley Edmonds, Maia Enzer, Margaret Eshoo, Michelle Fontana, Melissa Fredericks, Nancy Grundman, Hilary Henkind, Judith Irish, Mira Keller, Katie Kennedy, Lisa Krajewski, Kelly Larkin, Karen Larsen, Lori Leshner, Karen Levy, Karen Liberman, Krista Mackey, Celia Mann, Lisa Mendelson, Michele Mordeno, Kavita Nanda, Donna Orofino, Tammy Richardson, Kristy Rodenhiser, Ellen Rosner, Nancy Schulz, Jennifer Scully, Tina Sciocchetti, Lori Smith, Jennifer Thompson, Elizabeth Wallach, Carolyn Zutell, Anju Malhotra, Sharon Slotnick, Gina Mancuso and Amy Walsh.

Now's The Time To Show The Way Adapted from My Opportunity by Thomas Simpkin by Dave Thomas, Alpha Tau Omega President

I want that somehow we may live
 Some bit of inspiration give
 Some word or deed of ours be spent
 To lend someone encouragement
 That she may nobler live each day
 For now's the time to show the way

I want us to live and have clean fun
 Enjoy each day from sun to sun
 To have within our hearts real joy
 To be a man and a woman yet keep the spirit of a girl and a boy
 I want us to laugh and sign and play
 But now's the time to show the way

I want ere all our races run
 To see some work of ours begun
 To mark for followers of you and me
 The danger spots so all may see
 To put some beauty here to stay
 For now's the time to show the way

Then I would have us add some sisterhood and brotherhood
 Allay what hate and fear we could
 And whether we be great or small
 See truth and justice govern all
 Help the soul of righteousness to have full sway
 For now's the time to show the way

To use our talents by some plan
 That seeks to serve our fellow woman and man
 To try to soften grief and pain
 And help restore the smiles again
 All this to do while yet we may
 For now's the time to show the way

We pass this way but once 'tis true
 And yet 'tis given to me and you
 To add some happiness and to add some cheer
 For other pilgrims travelling here
 So when we're gone that some may say
 They're glad because we enriched their lives by showing them the way

Gamma Phi Beta

Before I rushed for sisterhood,
 I knew not of sorority.
 Lambda Chi and Alpha Phi
 All were one and greek to me.

I held no thought of anything,
 But parties, not of charity,
 Nor sports nor music, friendships made.
 Oh, so much diversity!

I ventured out to join in one.
 I wished to be a working part
 Of institutions so well-known
 For love and friendships of the heart.

Still unsure I was at first.
 I tottered near decision's edge.
 But smiles and kind words welcomed me;
 I'm now happy I did pledge!

In Gamma Phi I do belong,
 My feelings growing stronger ever.
 I know I'm forming bonds today
 Which will be broken . . . never.

Tittle-Tattle

March began with Parents Day, and moms and dads galore.
 Coffee, punch, tours of the house—
 and cookies falling on the floor.

The Humorology event was soon to follow,
 we practiced every night.
 We danced and sang and had a ball,
 and took second place—
 DYNAMITE!

April brought more than showers,
 our spring formal was at hand.
 Dresses were bought, blind dates were found,
 we displayed our Florida tans.

A chapter retreat was also in store,
 and spirits were at their peak.
 For finals came, goodbyes were said,
 now we look forward to RUSH week!

1986-87 Foundation Awards

This year the Gamma Phi Beta Foundation awarded seven fellowships and 15 scholarships to help members realize their educational goals.

Winning the Lindsey Barbee Fellowship was Vicki Weiss (Syracuse), Binghamton, N.Y., who is a medical student at Albert Einstein College of Medicine and a member of the New York City Alumnae Chapter. Vicki is delaying her third year of medical school to help with clinical research of the new Interleukin-2 cancer treatments at Montefiore Medical Center in Bronx, N.Y.

"This is a golden opportunity," she says, "to participate in a fascinating research project which is at the forefront of chemotherapeutic knowledge and the first novel treatment for cancer in 20 years."

Vicki's goal is an academic appointment at a medical school which would allow her to do research, teach and take care of patients in a primary care setting. She was Alpha Epsilon Delta president and chapter rush chairman and treasurer.

The Founders Fellowship won by Susan Apkon (Northwestern), Framingham, Mass., will enable her to complete her masters in speech-language pathology at Northwestern. After graduation she plans to become nationally certified and eventually may pursue a PhD. She was chapter vice president and Mortar Board president.

Kyle Bryans (Nebraska), Omaha, Neb., received a Founders Fellowship for her final year of medical school at the University of Nebraska Medical Center. Her interests are pediatric medicine and family practice. "The holistic approach has always appealed to me," she says, "because I think it takes more than bacteria to make us sick and more than medicine to make us well."

Vicki Weiss
(Syracuse)

Kyle was chapter scholarship chairman and corresponding secretary.

Nancy Kersey (Wis.-River Falls), St. Louis Park, Minn., was awarded a Founders Fellowship for her second year at the University of Minnesota Medical School. Her goal is to specialize, possibly in pediatrics, and be involved in research. She is listed in Who's Who and was chapter treasurer.

Receiving the Audrey Weldon Shafer Fellowship is Sandra Campbell (Cal.-Berkeley), Mountain View, Cal. She plans to do graduate work in international affairs with emphasis on Soviet studies, and then pursue a career in foreign policy. Sandra was Model United Nations delegate, and chapter song chairman.

Jamie L. Maher (Oklahoma St.), Tulsa, Okla., was awarded the Fern Holcomb Heath Fellowship to help finance her clinical training at University of Oklahoma-Tulsa Medical College. Jamie is a member of the Oklahoma City Alumnae Chapter.

Anne Meeker (Kansas) received a Foundation Fellowship while studying for an M.A. and is the recipient of the same award for doctoral studies in music education. She is a teaching assistant at the University of Kansas and the author of several publications related to music education for handicapped children.

Paulette Pattee (Alma), Snover, Mich., received the Irma Latzer Gamble Scholarship. The award will supplement Paulette's senior year of pre-medicine studies, for which she has a 3.9 GPA. She has been chapter magazine chairman.

Donna Forbes (S. Methodist), Medicine Lodge, Kan., was the winner of the Dallas Alumnae/Alpha Xi Scholarship. She is a senior majoring in electrical engineering, and has been chapter philanthropy chairman.

Ronnie Dillman (Wichita St.), Wichita, Kan., merited one of the Ruth B. Fox Scholarships. She is a senior accounting major and has served as chapter scholarship chairman and standards chairman.

Elizabeth Haley (S. Methodist), Tulsa, Okla., was also a recipient of a Ruth B. Fox Scholarship. She is a senior majoring in chemistry and was chapter pledge director.

Janet Miller (Iowa St.), Fremont, Neb., won the Ardis McBroom Marek Scholarship. She is a senior studying English/journalism/secondary education, and is chapter president.

Laurie Roshak (Arizona St.), Tempe, Ariz., received the Kathryn and John Winchester Scholarship. A senior psychology major, Laurie plans to earn a PhD in child clinical psychology.

Receiving the Ellender Dickson Scholarship was Kristi Floerke

(Denver), Burlington, Colo. She is a junior mass communications major with a 4.0 GPA, and is chapter scholarship chairman.

Tracie Sharp (Washington), Wenatchee, Wash., was the recipient of the Lambda Scholarship. Tracie is a junior majoring in history and is chapter vice president.

Christine Carey (Northwestern), Cincinnati, Ohio, merited the Betty Luker Haverfield Scholarship. She is chapter rush chairman, and a senior studying history and political science.

Betsy Goldberg (British Columbia), Vancouver, B.C., received the Orra Spencer Reid Scholarship. She is a senior political science major, and is chapter house chairman and philanthropy chairman.

Sue Ristow (Northwestern), Pewaukee, Wis., is one recipient of an Arnold/Wittenberg Scholarship. Sue is a senior studying psychology and pre-medicine, and is chapter vice president.

Karen Rivera (San Diego), San Diego, Cal., also was awarded an Arnold/Wittenberg Scholarship. Karen is chapter president, and a senior business administration major.

Michelle Pexa (Mankato St.), Elko, Minn., received a Foundation Scholarship for her junior year of studies in speech and business.

Jane Hartshorn was awarded a Foundation Scholarship. A senior majoring in secondary education, she has a 3.87 GPA and is chapter vice president.

Margot Naudie (McGill) also received a Foundation Scholarship. Margot is a junior political science and international relations major, and served as chapter social chairman.

MAPCA VP

Christi Sayers (Bowling Green) is serving the Mid American Panhellenic Conference Association (MAPCA) as administrative vice president. "My main responsibility is the newsletter and annual conference held in St. Louis," says Christi. She also monitors correspondence from state coordinators and area vice presidents. The association sponsors area and state conferences and offers programming resources and ideas for college panhellenics.

Christi's panhellenic involvement began in high school when she was awarded a scholarship from the Leavenworth, Kan. Alumnae Panhellenic. "It really impressed me how those women could still be involved and excited about Greeks," she says. Although they were very proud of their individual sororities, their one goal was to encourage women to go through rush."

Her honors include Order of

Christi Sayers
(Bowling Green)

Omega, Alpha Lambda Delta and Dean's List, and she has been active on campus in student government and as an orientation leader. Christi is a senior management information systems major, and chapter president.

Honors for THE CRESCENT

THE CRESCENT received two awards in recent competition sponsored by the College Fraternity Editors Association.

The cover of the spring 1986 issue took a top honor. It was voted by College Fraternity Editors Association members as the best magazine cover, earning the 1985-86 Critics Choice Award. Special thanks to Province IV Alumnae Director Julie Wheeler Funke (Indiana) for her imagination and her Gamma Phi Beta Convention paraphernalia.

The fall 1985 Honors section won second place in the Innovative Handling of Routine Material category.

(Grand Council note) THE CRESCENT Editor, Kris Brandt Riske (Wyoming) also has been honored. She currently serves as Chairman of the National Panhellenic Editors Conference, and is a member of the Board of CFEA.

Alumnae

Greater Kansas City, Mo. alumnae held their 25th Antiques and Arts Show last year, celebrating with the biggest and best show ever. To mark the anniversary, all 24 previous chairmen were invited to a luncheon held in their honor. The Preview Showing was attended by 228 Gamma Phi Betas and their husbands and friends, plus 56 antique dealers.

The fundraiser is one of Kansas City's oldest ongoing philanthropic projects. This year, more than $12,000 was raised for distribution to the Kansas City Eye Bank, Harvesters Community Food Network, the local PBS station for Mr. Rogers' Neighborhood, the WDAF Love Fund for Children and the Mattie Rhodes Camping Program. Since 1970 the alumnae chapter has donated more than $110,000 to area philanthropies.

The show, a highlight for Kansas City antique lovers, grew out of a card luncheon fundraiser. Ernestine Dobler McDonald (Northwestern), 1960 ways and means chairman, was planning another luncheon when Diane Allard Saunders (Randolph-Macon) suggested an antique show. A decorator herself, Diane guided the show from "behind the scenes," but Ernestine admits, "We did it without really knowing what we were doing."

From the beginning the show has been popular. Ernestine remembers the excitement of watching lines form the first morning of the first show after wondering if anyone would come. And lines still form.

The first show featured area antique dealers and rooms designed by Kansas City interior decorators. There was also a Country Store, decorated in a harvest theme, that set a country tone for the fundraiser. An old porch rocker pulled up next to a potbellied stove at the opening show became the fundraiser's symbol, and was used until 1985. The pineapple, universal symbol of hospitality, was selected for the 25th anniversary to better reflect the show's depth and diversity.

What started as a challenging alternative to a card luncheon is today a well-known and well-respected antique show, attracting dealers from around the country. More than 4,000 visitors attend the three day event, traveling as far as 500 miles.

In 1985, 18 dealers from throughout the Midwest, New Mexico, California, Kentucky and Pennsylvania offered a broad selection of 18th and 19th century English and American period furniture, as well as primitive pieces. The show is designed for buyers and browsers of all kinds with a wide selection of collectibles and accessory items in addition to major furniture pieces. Specialty items at the 1985 show included paintings, sculpture, rugs, rare prints, toys, quilts and silver accessories.

The first show's Country Store has been replaced by a group of artists and craftsmen who display their wares in a room adjacent to the antique display. Featured in 1985 were decorative gift items such as folk art, dolls and dried flowers. New to the show were handcrafted Original Dickens' Dolls, Carolers and Woods Children, collectors' treasures created by Don and Hanna Gillett of Independence, Mo. Their creations are nationally recognized, included in the collections of four U.S. presidents and on display at the Smithsonian Institution.

Community support for the show has been significant and continues to grow. Donations of goods and services from area merchants and banks are very important to the show's success. Area restaurants donate food for the Country Cafe which serves lunch and dinner daily. Alumnae provide breads and sweets to stock the Bakery Shoppe.

The enterprise takes more than a little time and effort. Carol Neely Bailey (Missouri), 1985 chairman, says more than 300 Gamma Phi Betas were involved in the planning and execution of the show. It is a year-round effort, and working together long and hard on a project that is both fun and rewarding helps keep the alumnae chapter strong and vital.—Phyllis Corkran Ralph (Maryland)

Checking details for the Antiques and Arts Show are Mary Fran Smith, alumnae chapter president; Carol Bailey, chairman; and Nancy Jones, co-chairman.

ΓΦΒ pride spans 80 years

"I belong to Gamma Phi Beta and I'm proud of it!" Notepaper with this heading is proudly displayed by Kathryn Allen Woodward (Denver). From the time she pledged in 1905, she has been an active supporter of Gamma Phi Beta and is referred to by Kansas City alumnae as "our best cheerleader."

Kathryn was honored for her 80 years of service at the 1985 Greater Kansas City, Mo. Founders Day celebration. She was presented a bouquet of four pink carnations (representing the Four Founders), miniature carnations and baby's breath, all tied with brown ribbons. Sydney Stoeppelwerth (Kansas) recited an original poetic tribute to Kathryn, and the Sweet Adelines sang "If They Could See Me Now" in her honor. Dessert for the luncheon was a cake decorated with congratulations for her.

Later that week Kathryn recalled her years as a Gamma Phi Beta. Entering college at 17, she had a choice of two sororities. When asked why she chose Gamma Phi Beta, Kathryn attributed her choice to the rushing of Lucy Moore Lennox and said, "I couldn't have gone anywhere but Gamma Phi or my life would have been wrecked." At that time, Theta Chapter had 18 members and there were only two or three women initiated with her. She served as pledge class vice president and chapter treasurer. Recalling how times have changed, she reminisced about the $15 semester tuition and $10 initiation fee. Her badge, which cost $7.50, was presented to her at Christmas by her family.

Finishing college in three years, Kathryn taught briefly and finished a master's degree the next year. She then went back to teaching for four years until Ned Woodward, her high school sweetheart, was earning enough money for them to marry. She recalled with a chuckle that she was afraid the marriage would be off when her future husband saw her playing the part of a child in a chapter play, wearing a costume that revealed her bow legs (which she calls her "one cross"). About a year after their marriage in 1913, they moved to Omaha, and then to Kansas City in 1920.

In 1923, Kathryn and Esther Hollebaugh (Illinois) founded the Greater Kansas City Alumnae Chapter. Her continuing service to Gamma Phi Beta has been recognized with a place on the Service Roll and selection as the alumnae chapter's Woman of the Year. Kathryn originated the Woman of the Year Award to recognize members who had served long and well without recognition, and each year she is hostess for the Woman of the Year luncheon. But when she is praised for her achievements, Kathryn insists, "I was always a follower. Someone else did the work."

One of the earliest province directors, Kathryn reminisced fondly about her visits to chapters in Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska and Illinois. She admitted that province directors don't always know what is really going on behind the scenes, saying, "The sneaky ones don't get caught." But she is proud of the fact that she kept her chapters financially responsible: "I made them pay their bills!"

When asked to account for her positive outlook on life, Kathryn declared, "I've never had any real worries in my life. Everything's been made easy for me." Although she claims never to have had aches and pains, she does admit to a broken wrist that slowed her down briefly a few years ago. Kathryn said she owes her longevity to a sensible life style, not overeating or partying late. At 97, Kathryn still plays bridge (to win) and belongs to the College Club. Although she has the use of only one eye, she enjoys reading and watching PBS television. Kathryn's niece, Peggy, is a Gamma Phi Beta, but without children of her own she seems to have adopted all Gamma Phi Betas.—Phyllis Corkran Ralph (Maryland)

Linda Ventura Walker (Kansas) and Betty Hailey Crooker (Kansas) congratulate Kathryn Allen Woodward for 80 years of service to the Sorority.

Career

Helen Guthrie Nutritionist

We all see RDA (Recommended Daily Allowance) figures on packages. Dr. Helen Andrews Guthrie (W. Ontario) is an internationally known nutrition researcher who is a member of the committee that sets the RDA. She is a professor and head of the nutrition program at Penn State. In the past 25 years she had conducted numerous studies, much of the research in collaboration with her husband George, professor of psychology.

Helen was chosen to present the 1985 College of Human Development Research Lecture. The lecture, "Infant Malnutrition in the Philippines: A Cross-Cultural Perspective," was a report of numerous studies she has conducted over the past 25 years involving the nutritional health of mothers, infants and children in developing nations, particularly the Philippines. Her research has focused on food distribution, infant feeding practices, dietary adequacy and ways of improving nutritional habits.

The author of more than 85 scholarly papers and two widely used textbooks, Helen has received the American Home Economics Association's Borden Award as the nation's outstanding researcher in nutrition. She has been a member of the Food and Nutrition Board of the National Academy of Sciences, and one of four members of a federally appointed committee charged with preparing a report to Congress on the nutritional status of the U.S. population.

A past president of the Society for Nutrition Education, she serves on the board of the American Dietetic Association and for 10 years was on the board of Nabisco, Inc.

Helen Andrews Guthrie
(W. Ontario)

Helen has a B.S. in home economics, an M.S. in nutrition and biochemistry and a Ph.D. in physiology. She is an active member of the State College Alumnae Chapter.
