DIGITAL EDITION

Nr. 280 - November 2010

editorial

Hallo Laserdisc- und DVD-Fans, liebe Filmfreunde!

So manch einer hat vermutlich seinen Augen nicht getraut als er unseren Newsletter 279 gelesen hat. Da waren doch tatsächlich in den Übersichtslisten der deutschen und amerikanischen DVDs Daten aus dem Jahre 2009 hineingerutscht! So etwas passiert leider ziemlich schnell wenn man unter Zeitdruck sogenannte "Copy & Paste"-Aktionen ausführt. Wie gut nur dass wir so viele aufmerksame Leser haben, die uns auf das seltsame Missgeschick aufmerksam gemacht haben. So konnten wir dann innerhalb kurzer Zeit diesen Fehler beheben und eine korrigierte Version des Newsletters online stellen. Auch die Abonnenten der Print-Ausgabe konnten wir zeitnah mit der korrekten Version versorgen. Herzlichen Dank nochmals an alle für das schnelle Feedback und sorry für das Versehen!

Ob es einem nun gefällt oder nicht: 3D ist in aller Munde. Nicht nur im Kino, sondern inzwischen auch schon im Heimkino. Allen, die sich mit der Materie 3D noch ein bisschen genauer befassen wollen, sei eine Veranstaltung der Schauburg in Karlsruhe ans Herzen gelegt. Dort gastiert am Sonntag, den 5. Dezember 2010, Stefan Dröbler, seines Zeichens Leiter des Filmmuseums in München. Um 17:00 Uhr wird er im großen Kinosaal einen höchst interessanten Vortrag zum 3D-Film halten. Der mit vielen raren Filmausschnitten ausgestattete zweistündige Vortrag umspannt dabei die gesamte Geschichte des 3D-Films, von den Anfängen bis in die Neuzeit. Im Anschluss an den Vortrag beantwortet Stefan Dröbler gerne Fragen aus dem Publikum. Abgerundet wird die Veranstaltung mit einem echten Schmankerl: dem Spielfilm INFERNO aus dem Jahre 1953 mit Robert Ryan und Rhonda Fleming in den Hauptrollen unter Regie des erst kürzlich verstorbenen Roy Ward Baker. Natürlich in der englischen Originalfassung und in 3D. Der Eintrittspreis für den Vortrag inklusive des Spielfilms beträgt EUR 10,-. Keine Frage dass wir uns dieses Event keinesfalls entgehen lassen werden.

Unaufhaltsam nähern wir uns schon wieder einem Weihnachtsfest und damit dem Jahresende. Traditionell damit verbunden sind natürlich wieder unsere Winterferien. Darum jetzt schon vormerken: vom 24. Dezember 2010 bis einschließlich 09. Januar 2011 bleibt unser Büro geschlossen. Ab dem 10. Januar 2011 sind wir dann wieder in gewohnter Weise für Sie da. Aber noch ist es nicht soweit. Den einen oder anderen Newsletter schicken wir vorher bestimmt noch auf die Reise.

Return of the Oldtimers

© Concorde Filmverleih GmbH

Das weiße Kleid betont ihre schmale Taille, der Ausschnitt ist tief und die High Heels lassen ihre Beine endlos wirken. Verführerisch-unschuldig lächelt sie den Wachmann an. Ihm schwirrt der Kopf. Bevor er einen klaren Gedanken fassen kann, schlägt sie ihm mit der glitzernden Handtasche gegen den Kehlkopf. Er geht zu Boden, sie entschwindet.

Nein, hier handelt es sich nicht um Angelina Jolie in ihrem neuesten Actionfilm. Die Rede ist von Helen Mirren – 65, fabelhaft und tödlich im Actionthriller R.E.D. Hollywood ist eine Welt der Extreme. 24-jährige Frauen wie Megan Fox spritzen Botox und Reality TV Stars wie Jon Gosselin schaffen es, trotz acht Kindern, sich Haarimplantate zu gönnen. Es scheint, die Angst vor dem Altern lähmt ganz Hollywood. Ganz Hollywood? Nein, denn eine kleine Gruppe zäher Oldtimer hat sich einen Platz an der Sonne Kaliforniens zurückerobert!

Diesen Erfolg kann man vor allem auf zwei Regisseure zurückführen: Quentin Tarantino und Robert Rodriguez. 2003 holte Tarantino den fast in Vergessenheit geratenen David Carradine zurück vor die Linse und machte aus ihm Bill, einen Bösewicht der Extraklasse. 2005 besetzte Robert Rodriguez Mickey Rourke in Sin City. Der lebenswerte und vollkommen psychotische Marv war Rourkes Comeback-Rolle. Seitdem geht es mit seiner Karriere wieder bergauf, sogar eine Oscar-Nominierung für The Wrestler ist seitdem drin gewesen. Die Stunde der Veteranen war eingeläutet. Sowohl Tarantino als auch Rodriguez hatten keine Scheu, alte Gesichter prominent in Szene zu setzen.

Der Instant-Kultstatus, den Filme dieser Regisseure heutzutage erlangen, dient einer erstaunlichen Umerzweckung eines jungen Publikums. Wir sind es gewohnt, junge, knackige, glänzende Actionhelden zu sehen. Wir wachsen immer mehr in eine Welt hinein, in der Jugendllichkeit das höchste Gut ist. Man sieht es an einem Indiana Jones, dem nicht mehr zugetraut wird, ohne knabenhaften Sidekick durch den Film zu kommen. Und man sieht es an unserem Konsumverhalten. Nur eine Woche, nachdem das iPhone 4 lanciert war, saß ich in meiner Tram auf dem Nachhauseweg. Acht Leute hatten es in der Hand. Darunter Schüler sowie Banker. Mit meinem kaum sechs Monate alten iPhone Nr. 3 erntete ich schon mitleidige "Hinterwäldler!"-Blicke. Brauchbare Dinge werden zum alten Eisen gelegt, nur weil sie nicht das Neueste sind. Aber das Neueste ist übermorgen schon wieder alt. Bei diesem Wahn am Ball zu bleiben, wird immer schwieriger.

Doch mittlerweile scheint sich ein unterschwelliger Wunsch nach Bewährtem breit zu machen. Vielleicht eine unvermeidliche Gegenreaktion auf jugendliche Schnelllebigkeit? Der selbst wir vermeintlich Jugendlichen nicht mehr hinterherkommen? Es muss wohl so sein, denn wie sonst ließe sich erklären, dass der als Parodie gedachte Trailer zu Machete, der 2007 vor Planet Terror lief, jetzt tatsächlich gedreht wurde? Danny Trejos vernarbtes und faltiges Gesicht in extremer Großaufnahme löste solch gewaltig-positive Fanreaktionen aus, dass drei Jahre später Machete als full-length feature in die Kinos kommt. Und Danny Trejo ist nicht der einzige ältere Mann, der in Machete zum Zug kommt. Don Johnson, Cheech Marin, Tom Savini und Steven Seagal sind auch dabei. Hollywoods alte Pferde werden nicht mehr in die Kleberfabrik verfrachtet. Es wird ihnen Kultstatus verliehen. Man sollte jedoch nicht vergessen, dass die Filmwelten von Tarantino und Rodriguez trotz Hommage an die Alten weiterhin mit knackfrischen Apfelhintern, straffen Dekolletés und vollen Lippen bevölkert sind.

Den Schritt weiter wagten nun Sylvester Stallone und Robert Schwentke, die The Expendables und R.E.D. in die Kinos brachten. Sie trauten sich, ausschließlich echte Haudegen und echte Gesichter auf die Leinwand zu zaubern. The Expendables ist ein furioses, urkomisches und stellenweise dennoch anrührendes Actionspektakel. Mickey Rourke, der den toughen

Tätowierer Tool spielt, in Nahaufnahme weinen zu sehen, ist ein wunderbarer filmischer Moment, den kein jüngerer Star so hätte spielen können. Und trotz eines moralisch wertvollen Endes ist man angenehm überrascht, wie frei von Klischees es ist. The Expendables könnte auch deshalb so gut an der Kinokasse angekommen sein, weil Stallone damit Selbstakzeptanz bewiesen hat. Er hat (fast) kein Botox mehr in der Stirn und wirkt dadurch so sexy wie nie. Diese Selbstakzeptanz hat Vorbildfunktion in einer Welt, in der die kleinsten Falten und Geheimratsecken Panik auslösen. Trotzdem: The Expendables ist ein reiner Männerfilm. Mit Helen Mirren in R.E.D. wurden jetzt endlich auch die alten Frauen ins Actiongenre gelassen. Siehe da, es ist bombastisch! Kein Botox, kein Weichzeichner und kein Push-up, der die Brüste unters Kinn hebt. Helen Mirren fühlt sich jenseits der 60 sichtlich wohl in ihrer nicht-mehr-ganz-so-straffen Haut und hat gerade deswegen einen unwiderstehlichen Charme und Sexappeal. Der junge Karl Urban, dessen Figur das verrückte, auferstandene Ex-Agenten Team jagt, kommt Willis, Malkovich, Freeman und Mirren einfach nicht hinterher.

Es wurde Zeit, dass die alte Garde endlich in wahnwitzigen Blockbustern zu sehen ist. Denn zum Umdenken anzuregen, geht besonders in Amerika oft nur mit dem ganz großen Hammer. Die Alten spielen ständig in kleineren Produktionen, doch die sehen die konsumgeilen Adrenalinjunkies meiner Generation fast nie. Dabei haben die es am nötigsten. Nur mit großen Produktionen und Namen, die als kultig und cool gelten, kann man wirklich viele der verlorenen, irregeleiteten Seelen erreichen und ihnen zeigen, dass am Ende nichts attraktiver ist als Authentizität, Humor und Weisheit.

Taipeh – Mon Amour!

Ein taiwanesischer Film mit französischem Flair läutete meine Presse-Woche ein.

AU REVOIR, TAIPEH (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

OT: Yi Yè Tàì Bei / Au Revoir Teipei

Verleih: Arsenal

Land/Jahr: Taiwan, USA, Deutschland 2010

Regie: Arvin Chen

Darsteller: Amber Kuo, Jack Yao, Joseph Chang

Kinostart: 25.11.2010

Kai ist traurig. Ganz alleine sitzt er jetzt in Taipeh, weil sich seine Freundin nach Paris abgesetzt hat und hilft seinen Eltern im Restaurant. Er entschließt sich, ihr nachzureisen. Im Buchladen lernt er aus einem Buch Französisch und lernt dabei die junge Susie kennen. Das notwendige Geld für das Ticket leiht er sich von seinem Onkel, einem Immobilienhai. Der fordert als Gegenleistung einen Gefallen. Das Abenteuer beginnt... Ein Hauch von Melancholie liegt in der Luft, wenn uns Regisseur Arvin Chen und sein Kameramann Michael Fimognari das nächtliche Taipeh mit all seinen Facetten und Farben vorführen. Und irgendwie fühlt man sich an französische Filme erinnert. Komödiantisch, leichtfüßig, romantisch – es scheint fast so, als wäre aus Taipeh das Paris der Liebe geworden. Die fast komplett während einer einzigen Nacht spielende Story ist unterlegt mit klassischem Jazz, der wunderbar zum Rhythmus des Films passt. Eine kleine, feine Komödie mit zarten Untertönen die anzuschauen sich lohnt.

Another Slumdog

Gerade mal sechzig Minuten dauerte die heutige Pressevorführung. Hat sich der lange Anfahrtsweg dafür gelohnt? Lesen Sie selbst...

SOUL BOY (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

Verleih: X Verleih (Warner)

Land/Jahr: Kenia, Deutschland 2010

Regie: Hawa Essuman, Tom Tykwer

Darsteller: Nordeen Abdulghani, Christopher Abuga, Rose Adhiambo

Kinostart: 02.12.2010

Abi lebt bei seinen Eltern in einem afrikanischen Slum. Als sein Vater eines Morgens nicht mehr derselbe zu sein scheint und behauptet, dass ihm die Seele gestohlen wurde, macht sich Abi auf zur Nyawawa. Jene geheimnisvolle Geisterfrau stellt ihm sieben Aufgaben. Erfüllt er diese binnen 24 Stunden, so wird sein Vater wieder seine Seele zurückbekommen... Der 60minütige Kinderfilm entstand im Rahmen eines Entwicklungshilfeprojekts, bei dem filmbegeisterten Nachwuchskräften aus Slums in Nairobi die Gelegenheit gegeben wurde, ihr Können unter Anleitung von Profis unter Beweis zu stellen. Das jenes Projekt erfolgreich war, beweist dieser Kurz-Spielfilm. Fabelhafte Darsteller, ungewöhnliche Drehorte und die kindgerechte Aufbereitung der Story überzeugen. Es gibt zwar verbale sexuelle Anspielungen, doch werden die mit großer Wahrscheinlichkeit von Kindern hierzulande gar nicht wahrgenommen (der Film kommt mit einer Altersfreigabe ab 6 Jahren in bundesdeutsche Kinos). Gute und auch spannende Unterhaltung für Kids.

Die zweite Begegnung mit dem Mythos

Heute nutzte ich die Gelegenheit CARLOS noch einmal anzuschauen – allerdings im Zeitraffer.

CARLOS – DER SCHAKAL (Kurzfassung) (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: Carlos

Verleih: NFP (Warner)

Land/Jahr: Frankreich, Deutschland 2010

Regie: Olivier Assayas

Darsteller: Edgar Ramirez, Alexander Scheer, Nora von Waldstätten

Kinostart: 04.11.2010

Olivier Assayas hat sein großes Terroristen-Biopic über den Mythos "Carlos" nicht nur in der 330-Minuten-Fassung abgeliefert, sondern hat den Film zusätzlich noch in einer Kurzfassung hergestellt. Und die ist immerhin noch 190 Minuten lang! Und auch in dieser Kurzversion wirkt der Film nach wie vor atemlos. Jedoch werden viele kleine, aber nicht unwichtige Details, dem Zuschauer bei der kurzen Version vor-enthalten, wodurch die Zusammenhänge nicht immer klar werden. Wer die Möglichkeit hat, den Film in der integralen Fassung zu sehen, sollte diese bevorzugen. Allerdings werden die Zuschauer mit Mut zur Lücke auch noch bei der Kurzfassung bestens bedient.

Franzoesentag

Gleich zwei französische Filme hatte das Presse-Happening heute für mich im Angebot...

VERGISSMICHNICHT (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: L' âge De Raison

Verleih: Schwarz-Weiss (Filmagentinnen)

Land/Jahr: Frankreich 2010

Regie: Yann Samuël

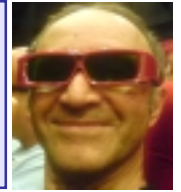

Darsteller: Sophie Marceau, Marton Csokas, Michel Duchaussoy

Kinostart: 23.12.2010

An ihrem 40. Geburtstag erhält Karrierefrau Margaret ungewöhnliche Post – übergeben von einem alten Notar. Obgleich sie die Briefe gar nicht lesen möchte und viel lieber in harte Verhandlungen mit Kunden gehen möchte, kann sie ihre Neugierde nicht überwinden: sie öffnet den ersten Brief und muss feststellen, dass alle übergebenen Briefe von ihr selbst stammen – geschrieben im Alter von sieben Jahren und übergeben an einen Notar mit dem Auftrag, die Briefe am 40. Geburtstag zu überreichen. Margaret taucht wieder in ihre Kindheit, die sie längst verdrängt hat und muss sich der Vergangenheit stellen... Eine gefühlvolle Komödie über eine Karrierefrau in der Midlife-Crisis – bravourös gespielt von Sophie Marceau. Der Film von Yann Samuël geht der Frage nach, ob sich die in der Kindheit gefassten Entschlüsse später im Erwachsenenendasein wiederfinden oder nicht, was aus den Wünschen und Träumen der Kindheit geworden ist. Samuël findet die passenden Bilder und Geschichten dazu und sein Film sprüht dadurch nur so vor Originalität, die – ob gewollt oder nicht – an DIE FABELHAFTE WELT

Wolfram Hannemanns Film-Blog

DER AMELIE erinnert. Wer Filme mag, bei denen Gefühle nicht auf Sparflamme gehalten werden, der ist bei VERGISSMICHNICHT gut aufgehoben.

SMALL WORLD (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: Small World

Verleih: Majestic (Fox)

Land/Jahr: Deutschland, Frankreich
2010

Regie: Bruno Chiche

Darsteller: Gérard Depardieu, Alexandra Maria Lara, Françoise Fabian

Kinostart: 16.12.2010

Die junge Simone heiratet in eine betuchte Familie ein. Auf der Hochzeitsfeier lernt sie den etwas seltsamen Konrad kennen, einen Jugendfreund ihres Schwiegervaters. Doch die Familie macht ein großes Geheimnis um ihn. Als sie merkt, dass Konrad unter Alzheimer leidet, kümmert sie sich um ihn. Stück um Stück beginnt sich das Familiengeheimnis wie ein Puzzle zu lösen... Dreh- und Angelpunkt der Bestsellerverfilmung nach Martin Suter ist der schwergewichtige Gérard Depardieu in der Rolle des Konrad, der hier eine wahre Glanzleistung abliefern. Warum aber Alexandra Maria Lara als Simone gegen Ende des Films fast schon wegdiffundiert und damit ein großes Loch in der Geschichte hinterlässt, bleibt mir etwas schleierhaft. Genauso schleierhaft wie die Tatsache, dass uns heute wieder einmal ein unfertiges Produkt vorgeführt wurde! Unfertig in Bezug auf die Tonspur des Films, die in der uns gezeigten Fassung offensichtlich noch Archivmusik enthielt und nicht den Score von Klaus Badelt, der im Presseheft kommuniziert wird. Ergo kann ich zu diesem Film noch keine endgültige Bewertung abliefern.

Die Nacht zum Tag gemacht

Passend zum Film lud uns der Filmverleih zu fast mitternächtlicher Stunde zum Horrorspektakel ein. Dass wir das Auto direkt vor der Blutzentrale geparkt haben war natürlich kein Zufall...

WIR SIND DIE NACHT (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

Verleih: Constantin
Land/Jahr: Deutschland 2010

Regie: Dennis Gansel

Darsteller: Karoline Herfurth, Nina Hoss, Jennifer Ulrich, Anna Fischer, Max Riemelt

Kinostart: 28.10.2010

Die Kleinkriminelle Lena gerät nachts durch Zufall in einen exklusiven Club, der von der lasziven Louise und ihren beiden Gespielinnen betrieben wird. Sie gerät in Louises Bann und wird von ihr – gebissen! Louise und ihre Mädels entpuppen sich als Vampire. Lenas Verwandlung beginnt – sie wird selbst zum Vampir. Anfangs zwar noch widerwillig, doch schon bald beginnt sie das Leben im Luxus zu genießen. Die Mädchen-Gruppe macht die Nacht zum Tage... Dass ein deutscher Regisseur es schafft, für ein Horrorfilmprojekt Geldgeber zu finden, ist schon eine kleine Sensation an sich. Dass Dennis Gansel dann aber gleich einen so vorzüglichen Film abliefern wie diesen, das ist dann echtes Talent! Gansel und seinem Kameramann Torsten Breuer ist ein greller und richtig stylischer Genre-Film gelungen, der hippe Locations in Berlin extrem gut zu nutzen versteht. Richtig gut ist auch die Besetzung. Denn wenn die Mädels in schicken Klamotten und PS-starken Sportwagen auf Nachtstreife gehen, dann könnten die Gesichter nicht besser passen. "Wir fresen, saufen, koksen und vögeln so viel wir wollen und werden weder fett, schwanger noch süchtig" lässt Gansel seine Vampirin Nora sprechen – besser könnte man die Stimmung wahrlich nicht zusammenfassen. Ein wichtiger Bestandteil des Films ist auch die Filmmusik. Komponist Heiko Maile liefert einen atemberaubenden Score ab, der immer wieder durch stimmige Songs ergänzt wird. Fazit: handwerklich perfektes Unterhaltungskino mit einer großen Portion Blut, Erotik und Fun!

Wolfram Hannemanns

Beziehungen

Ob im Monsterland oder auf der Highschool – in den heutigen Pressevorführungen ging es nur um das Eine: Beziehungen.

MONSTERS (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: Monsters

Verleih: Capelight (SquareOne)

Land/Jahr: Großbritannien 2010

Regie: Gareth Edwards

Darsteller: Whitney Able, Scoot McNairy

Kinostart: 09.12.2010

Im Auftrag ihres Vaters soll ein Fotograf dessen Tochter von Mexiko wieder nach Hause bringen. Ihre Reise führt die beiden durch das mexikanisch-amerikanische Grenzgebiet, welches als "infizierte Zone" deklariert wurde, seit dort eine Sonde mit Außerirdischen gelandet ist. Ein gefährliches Abenteuer beginnt... Wer jetzt aufgrund des Titels an einen "Monster machen Jagd auf Touristen"-Film erwartet, der irrt gewaltig. Es gibt zwar furchterregende Monster in Gareth Edwards' Film zu sehen, doch sein Hauptaugenmerk gilt der Beziehung seiner Protagonisten. Beide haben Probleme zuhause und kommen sich während ihrer unfreiwilligen Reise näher als sie haben möchten. Warum Edwards sein Beziehungs-

Road-Movie ausgerechnet mit Monstern (die mich -nebenher bemerkt – an die unheimlichen Wesen aus DER NEBEL von 2007 erinnerten) garniert, bleibt mir ein Rätsel. Weitaus interessanter finde ich die Tatsache, dass Gareth Edwards nicht nur für die Regie verantwortlich zeichnet, sondern auch das Drehbuch schrieb, selbst die Kamera führte und das Produktionsdesign entwarf. Eine reife Leistung.

EINFACH ZU HABEN (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

OT: Easy A

Verleih: Sony Pictures

Land/Jahr: USA 2010

Regie: Will Gluck

Darsteller: Emma Stone, Penn Badgley, Amanda Bynes

Kinostart: 11.11.2010

Olive ist total durchschnittlich. An ihrer Highschool wird sie so gut wie nicht wahrgenommen, was ihr ziemlich zu schaffen macht. Das ändert sich spontan, als sie unfreiwillig das Gerücht in die Welt setzt, dass sie Sex mit einem Unbekannten hatte. Die Lüge verbreitet sich als Wahrheit wie ein Lauffeuer durch die gesamte Highschool und verhilft Olive damit zu einem hohen Bekanntheitsgrad. Doch eine Lüge gesellt sich zur nächsten und schon bald gilt sie als die größte Schlampe ihrer Schule... Gemessen an den unverhohlenen sexuellen Anspielungen in EINFACH ZU HABEN, waren die Teen-Movies des John Hughes, die in den 80er-Jahren durch die Kinos geisterten und seinerzeit als bahnbrechend galten in Bezug auf die Darstellung pubertierender Teenager, ziemlich harmlos. Denn Prüderie ist in diesem Film wahrlich ein Fremdwort! Das liegt freilich daran, dass sich die Zeiten seit damals sehr verändert haben und einstige Tabus heute keine mehr sind. Ist man bereit, sich darauf einzulassen, so gewinnt man dem Film sicherlich ein paar wirklich nette Pointen ab (unter anderem witzige Referenzen auf die John Hughes Filme!). Doch mit der Zeit wird man der tabulosen Verbalerotik leider überdrüssig. Weniger ist manchmal eben mehr.

Als John noch kein Beatle war

Die interessantesten Geschichten schreibt nach wie vor das Leben. Einen neuen Beweis dafür lieferte das heutige Screening.

NOWHERE BOY (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: Nowhere Boy

Verleih: Senator

Land/Jahr: Großbritannien 2009

Regie: Sam Taylor-Wood

Darsteller: Aaron Johnson, Kristin Scott Thomas, David Threlfall

Kinostart: 08.12.2010

In den späten fünfziger Jahren wächst der junge John Lennon bei seiner gefühlskalten Tante in Liverpool auf. Eines Tages erfährt er, dass seine leibliche Mutter nur eine Meile vom Haus seiner Tante entfernt lebt und beschließt sie zu besuchen. Durch sie lernt er zwar den Rock'n Roll kennen, erfährt aber nie etwas über die gemeinsame Vergangenheit. John entwickelt sich zum Rebellen, bekommt Ärger in der Schule und muss sich schließlich zwischen seiner Mutter und seiner Tante entscheiden... In ihrem sehr liebevoll mit dem passenden Zeitkolorit ausstaffiertem Film schildert Regisseurin Sam Taylor-Wood die schwere Jugend des John Lennon, der ständig von Alpträumen gequält wird. Keine der beiden Frauen in seinem Leben – seine Tante und seine Mutter – erkennt, wie es um ihn steht, wie sehr er unter der Zerrissenheit leidet. In dieser Zeit treten Paul McCartney und George Harrison in sein Leben, mit denen er zusammen eine Band gründet. Der Film lebt von seinen guten Darstellern, von denen mich persönlich Kristin Scott Thomas in der Rolle der Tante am meisten beeindruckt hat. Beeindruckend auch die Tatsache, dass die jungen Darsteller ihre Songs selber singen. Der Film endet mit Johns Reise nach Hamburg, um dort mit der Band aufzutreten. Der Rest ist Geschichte.

Lachend ins Wochenende – oder auch nicht

Das Ende der Pressewoche bescherte mir zwei vollkommen unterschiedliche amerikanische Komödien.

Wolfram Hannemanns

Film-Blog

ICH SEHE DEN MANN DEINER TRÄUME (1:1.85, DD 3.0)

OT: You Will Meet A Tall Dark Stranger
Verleih: Concorde
Land/Jahr: USA, Spanien 2010
Regie: Woody Allen
Darsteller: Gemma Jones, Pauline Collins, Sir Anthony Hopkins, Naomi Watts, Josh Brolin, Freida Pinto
Kinostart: 02.12.2010

Während sich ihre Mutter ständig ihre Zukunft vorhersagen lässt, gerät die Ehe von Sally in eine Schiefelage. Ihr Mann Roy versagt als Schriftsteller und fühlt sich zur attraktiven Nachbarin Dia hingezogen. Sally selbst findet ihren Chef, den Galleriebesitzer Greg, unwiderstehlich. Ihr geschiedener Vater hingegen will ein Call-Girl heiraten... In seinem neuesten und abermals in London angesiedelten Film zeigt uns Woody Allen sein "Business as Usual", indem er die Dummheit der Menschen bloßstellt. Die Beziehungskonstellationen sind allesamt nicht neu und eigentlich reine Klischees, doch in jedem Klischee steckt auch ein Fünkchen Wahrheit. Sein Mikrokosmos ist wie immer äußerst amüsant anzuschauen und hat darüber hinaus eine exzellente Besetzung zu bieten.

STICHTAG (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: Due Date
Verleih: Warner
Land/Jahr: USA 2010
Regie: Todd Phillips
Darsteller: Robert Downey Jr., Zach Galifianakis, Michelle Monaghan
Kinostart: 04.11.2010

Ein unglücklicher Zufall will es, dass ein Architekt und ein angehender Schauspieler auf dem Flughafen von Atlanta Flugverbot erteilt bekommen. Da beide so schnell wie möglich nach Los Angeles reisen müssen – der Architekt wird Vater und der Schauspieler hat ein Vorsprechen – beschließen sie gemeinsam ein Auto zu nehmen. Dumm nur, dass der Eine für den Anderen nur Verachtung empfindet – und er Weg nach LA ist sehr lange... Lose in Anlehnung an John Hughes Klassiker TRAINS, PLANES AND AUTO-

MOBILES erzählt Regisseur Todd Phillips die Geschichte von Feinden, die während ihrer gemeinsamen Reise zu Freunden werden. Doch lieferte Phillips mit HANGOVER noch eine richtig schöne und optisch ansprechende Komödie ab, so enttäuscht STICHTAG leider über weite Teile. Nur gelegentlich attackiert er die Lachmuskeln des Zuschauers und auch nur dann, wenn er politisch vollkommen inkorrekt wird. Mein Tipp: man greife zum Original – John Candy und Steve Martin sind unübertroffen!

Fäkalien fliegen dir um die Ohren!

Am Samstag nutze ich meinen Ausflug in ein Kinocenter in der Pfalz, um einen Film anzuschauen, den sich der deutsche Filmverleiher in Stuttgart nicht der Presse zu zeigen traute. Jetzt weiß ich warum!

JACKASS 3D (1:1.85, 2k Digital, 3D, PCM 5.1)

OT: Jackass 3D
Verleih: Paramount
Land/Jahr: USA 2010
Regie: Jeff Tremaine
Darsteller: Johnny Knoxville, Steve-O, Jason Acuña
Kinostart: 28.10.2010

Wer die MTV-Serie JACKASS kennt und auch die bisherigen Kinofilme gesehen hat, der weiß vermutlich, worauf er sich einlässt. In loser Folge präsentieren Johnny Knoxville und seine Kumpels Stunts, bei denen es nicht darauf ankommt, unversehrt davonzukommen, sondern ganz im Gegenteil: je weher es tut, desto besser! Doch bei aller Liebe zu verrückten Leuten muss ich dringend vom Besuch dieses Films abraten. Hier wird die Grenze des guten Geschmacks auf extreme Art und Weise strapaziert. Hier wird gepinkelt, gekotzt und geschissen, dass man sich nur noch wundern kann, was heutzutage alles von der FSK absegnet wird! Derartige "Unterhaltung" auf unterstem Niveau würde ich als Pornographie bezeichnen. Was die 3D-Technik angeht, so wirkt die nicht immer gut. Zu vermuten ist, dass Sequenzen mit versteckter Kamera in nur in 2D aufgenommen wurden. Aber das ist angesichts des Inhalts des Films auch nicht weiter tragisch.

Seitensprünge

In beiden Filmen heute ging es um Affären. Solche vor und solche nach der Hochzeit.

DERAUFTRAGSLOVER (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: L'Arnacoeur
Verleih: Universum (SquareOne)
Land/Jahr: Frankreich 2010
Regie: Pascal Chaumeil
Darsteller: Romain Duris, Vanessa Paradis, Julie Ferrier
Kinostart: 06.01.2011

Alex ist genau der richtige Mann für einen Seitensprung. Beruflich natürlich. Denn wann auch immer jemand nicht möchte, dass ein weibliches Wesen einem Mann ihr Ja-Wort gibt, steht Alex mit seinem 3-köpfigen Team bereit, um die bevorstehende Hochzeit zu verhindern. Als er im Auftrag ihres Vaters die Hochzeit der jungen Juliette verhindern soll, steht Alex aber bald vor großen Problemen: er verliebt sich in sein Opfer! Was dieser französischen Komödie fehlt, ist der richtige Biss. Denn die Romanze plätschert so richtig saft- und kraftlos vor sich hin. Wenn der Zuschauer bereits von Anfang an weiß, wie der Film enden wird, so ist es umso wichtiger, ihn bis dorthin perfekt zu unterhalten, womöglich sogar ein paar Überraschungen einzubauen. Fehlangeige in Pascal Chaumeils Film. So quält man sich eher gelangweilt durch diese Romantikkomödie, die zwar gut besetzt ist, aber mehr auch nicht.

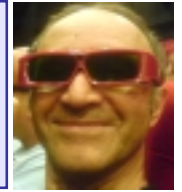

WAS WILL ICH MEHR (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: Cosa Voglio Di Più
Verleih: Alamode (Filmagentinnen)
Land/Jahr: Italien, Schweiz 2010
Regie: Silvio Soldini
Darsteller: Pierfrancesco Favino, Bindu de Stoppani, Alba Rohrwacher
Kinostart: 09.12.2010

Die junge Buchhalterin Anna lebt glücklich mit ihrem gutmütigen Partner Alessio zusammen. Gerade als sich die beiden für ein Kind entscheiden, lernt Anna den attraktiven Domenico, verheiratet und Vater zweier Kinder, kennen und beginnt eine leidenschaftliche Affäre mit ihm. Schon bald gerät das Leben der Fremdgänger aus den Fugen... Kann eine Affäre ein Happy End haben? Silvio Soldinis Film möchte dieser Frage nachgehen und schildert die Affäre von Anna und Domenico sehr präzise, ja fast dokumentarisch, von Anfang bis zum Ende. Er schafft es Dank seiner guten Darsteller den Zuschauer mit den beiden mitleiden zu lassen. Allerdings ist ihm sein Film dabei nach meinem Empfinden etwas zu lang geraten. Statt der 121 Minuten hätten er sein Anliegen sicherlich auch in 90 Minuten auf den Punkt bringen können.

Mittwoch, 03. November 2010

Gruseloper

Für mich als bekennenden Opern-Hasser gab es heute knallharte Kost. 134 Minuten lang.

DER FREISCHÜTZ (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: Hunter's Bride

Verleih: Constantin

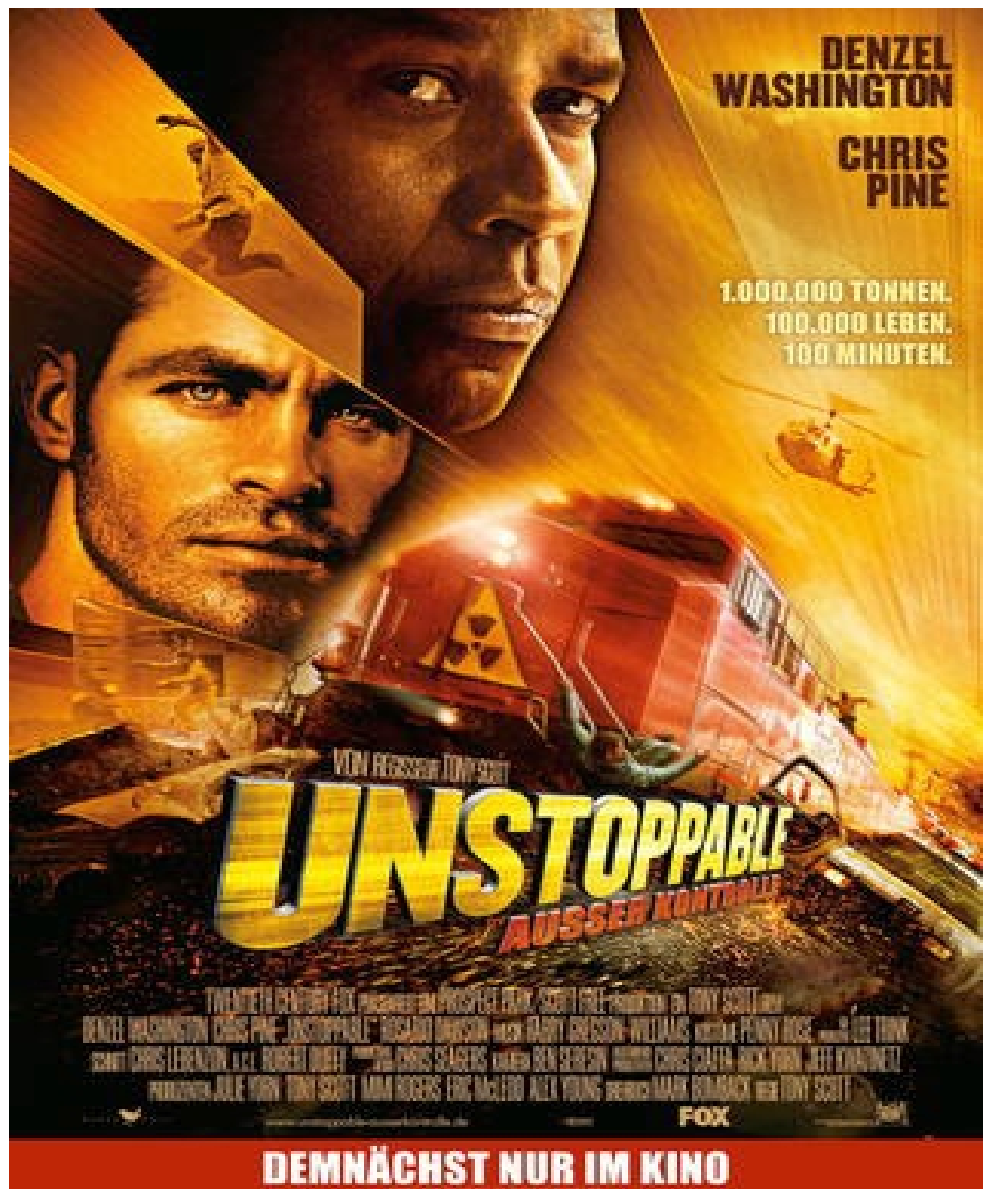

Land/Jahr: Schweiz 2010

Regie: Jens Neubert

Darsteller: Juliane Banse, Michael König, Regula Mühlemann

Kinostart: 23.12.2010

Sachsen während der napoleonischen Kriege. Jäger Max möchte die schöne Agathe heiraten. Ein alter Brauch will es, dass Max seine Eignung als Erbe und Schwiegersohn mit dem sogenannten "Probeschuss" unter Beweis stellt. Doch sein Jägerglück hat ihn verlassen und so sucht Max unter Anleitung seines Kameraden Kaspar Hilfe bei schwarzer Magie... Carl Maria von Webers bekannte Oper wurde unter Regie von Jens Neubert ohne Fördergelder als opulente Filmoper an Originalschauplätzen realisiert. Nicht nur das Ensemble ist handverlesen, auch sein Kameramann, der Däne Harald Gunnar Paalgard, entpuppt sich als Bereicherung für die Leinwand. Der Film schwelgt in bestem CinemaScope! Besonders beeindruckend ist die Tonebene des Films. Die Orchester- und Gesangsaufnahmen sind grandios und nutzen die Möglichkeiten der 5.1 Stereophonie wirklich aus. Wer Opern mag, der wird mit DER FREISCHÜTZ bestens bedient. Und wer keine Opern mag, dem sei gesagt, dass es im FREISCHÜTZ auch gruselige Momente mit Splatter-Einlagen gibt.

Literatur und Katastrophe

Kontraste machen das Leben interessanter. Das gilt insbesondere für das heutige Double Feature, welches kontrastreicher nicht hätte sein können.

HOWL – DAS GEHEUL (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

OT: Howl

Verleih: Pandora

Land/Jahr: USA 2010

Regie: Robert Epstein, Jeffrey Friedman

Darsteller: Jon Hamm, James Franco,

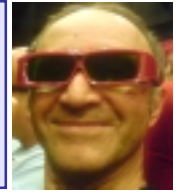

Mary-Louise Parker

Kinostart: 06.01.2011

San Francisco 1957. Ein Gericht soll darüber urteilen, ob das von Allen Ginsberg verfasste Gedicht "Howl" als obszön einzustufen ist oder nicht. Das überraschende Urteil gilt bis heute als die Geburtsstunde der "Beat Generation". – Der Film von Robert Epstein und Jeffrey Friedman basiert auf den Prozessprotokollen von damals sowie auf Interviews mit dem avantgardistischen Poeten Allen Ginsberg und verwebt nicht nur nachgestellte Gerichtsszenen mit ebenso nachgestell-ten Interviewfragmenten, sondern verbildlicht Ginsbergs bahnbrechendes Gedicht "Howl" mit Hilfe von Animationssequenzen. Letztere erinnern sehr stark an jene Animationen, die Pink Floyd für THE WALL anfertigen ließen. Für Fans des verstorbenen Künstlers Allen Ginsberg sicherlich ein sehenswerter Film, für weniger intellektuelle Kinogänger allerdings unbrauchbar

UNSTOPPABLE – AUSSER KONTROLLE (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: Unstoppable

Verleih: Fox

Land/Jahr: USA 2010

Regie: Tony Scott

Darsteller: Denzel Washington, Chris Pine, Rosario Dawson

Kinostart: 11.11.2010

Einem dummen Missgeschick zufolge rast ein mit hochexplosiven Chemikalien beladener Güterzug ungebremst durch Pennsylvania und droht die Großstadt Stanton zu vernichten. Versuche der Rettungsmannschaft, das Unglück abzuwenden, scheitern. Die letzte Hoffnung sind zwei Eisenbahner, die mit ihrer Lokomotive den Todeszug stoppen wollen... Erinnern Sie sich an die Katastrophenfilme der siebziger Jahre, als Los Angeles von einem Erdbeben verschlungen wurde oder ein Wolkenkratzer das Opfer eines Feuers wurde? Ganz im Geiste dieser Filme versteht sich Tony Scotts actiongeladener UNSTOPPABLE. Mit einem optischen und akustischen Overkill verbindet er alle gängigen Klischees des Genres und er macht es wirklich gut. Denn wenn auch die Logik so mancher halbrecherischer Aktion etwas angezweifelt werden darf, so gelingt Scott ein durchgängig spannend inszenierter Film, der zum Fingernägelkauen animiert. Der perfekte Film um sich eine große Tüte Popcorn zu gönnen.

Die Briten können es

Den ersten Film heute habe ich jetzt bereits zum zweiten Male nicht gesehen. Natürlich war es nicht meine Schuld, sondern die des Verleihers, der uns Journalisten zum wiederholten Male die versprochene Filmkopie vorenthielt. Übrig blieb der zweite Film.

IMMER DRAMA UM TAMARA (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: Tamara Drewe

Verleih: Prokino (Fox)

Land/Jahr: Großbritannien 2010

Regie: Stephen Frears

Darsteller: Gemma Arterton, Roger Allam, Bill Camp

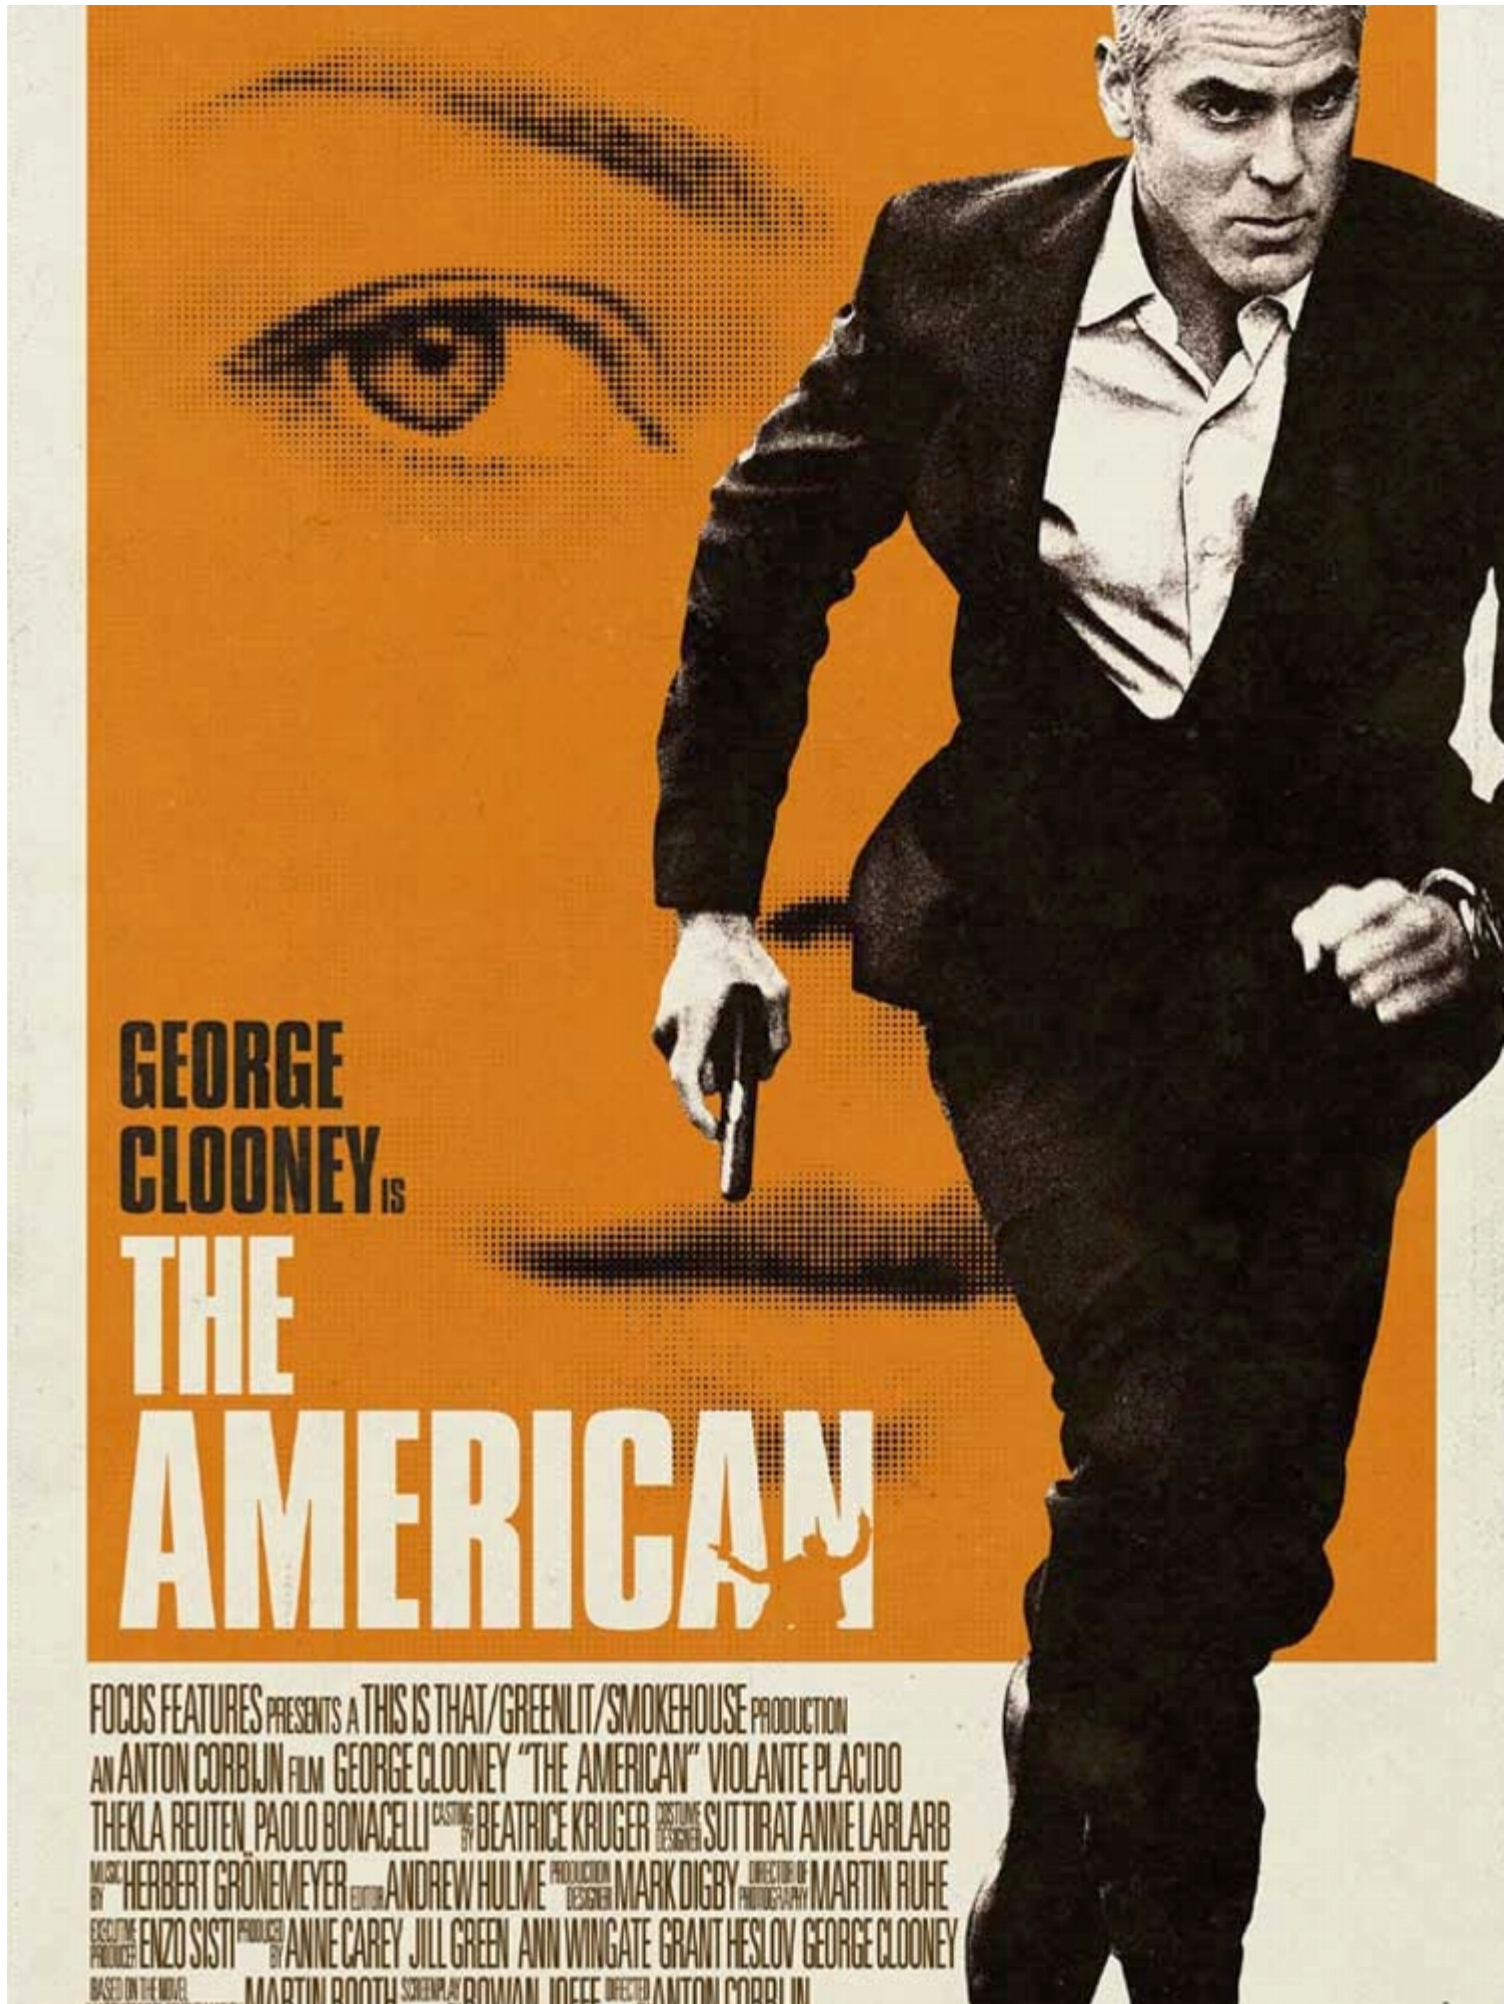

Kinostart: 30.12.2010

Im idyllisch gelegenen kleinen Dorf Ewedown in England betreibt Erfolgsautor Nicholas Hardiment zusammen mit seiner Frau ein kleines Refugium für Schriftsteller. Als vollkommen unerwartet die erfolgreiche und attraktive Kolumnistin Tamara Drewe in dem Örtchen auftaucht, bringt sie das beschauliche Leben dort ziemlich durcheinander... Regisseur Stephen Frears hat eine bekannte englische Cartoon-Serie für die große Leinwand adaptiert. Gelungen ist ihm dabei ein freches, frivoles, manchmal schwarzhumoriges Komödchen mit typisch britischem Witz, der vermutlich durch die deutsche Synchronisation hinweggeputzt werden wird. Sein Darsteller-Ensemble ist köstlich und passt sich wunderbar in die liebliche englische Landschaft ein. IMMER DRAMA UM TAMARA ist "very british" und macht Spaß.

11 Eyes: Complete Collection

Raised in an orphanage after witnessing his sister's suicide, Satsuki Kakeru's life has already been dark and cruel enough. However, when he and his friend Yuka are thrown into an alternate dimension called the Red Night, it takes a gruesome turn from bad to horrific. Now, trapped flickering between our world and the Red, Kakeru quickly discovers that he and Yuka are not alone, and that, together with the other so-called "fragments," they must defeat the malevolent entities known as the Black Knights. Facing monsters from beyond imagination, at the center of a deadly hunt, Kakeru's only chance of saving their lives now hinges on finding the power buried within himself and unraveling the mystery of his own origins and family. If he can survive long enough to do it! The horrors of the Red Night are just the beginning of the nightmare as shocking truths are exhumed in 11 Eyes: The Complete Collection!

Baccano!: The Complete Series

Don't let nobody tell you there's no future in a life of crime, because some rackets can last forever. But we'll get around to all that immortality jazz later. A mafia turf war is raging on the mean streets of the Big Apple, a place where regular joes bounce between backdoor booze joints and the breadline. But this caper ain't about a simple gangland brawl. It's about hoods who can't seem to die proper after catching a bullet or five between the eyes. Sadistic hit-men and the dames they love, mad bombers going boom, monsters going bump and soul sucking alchemists bootlegging an elixir of eternal life. Just remember, Baccano! ain't about beginnings and ends. It's about the twists and turns, bub. Paths don't cross in this story - They collide. Every Dick and Jane plays the lead and it's gonna be a bumpy ride.

Eyeshield 21: Collection 3

As if the Demon Bat's training couldn't get any more bizarre, Hiruma drags the entire team to Houston, Texas for a bootcamp from Hell. But that's the least of the team's problems, as things go unpredictably (or actually, at this point, rather predictably) awry. Not only does Cerberus get "borrowed" by a little girl, but the team must face a grueling death-march, the NASA Aliens are back with a sly and cunning plan to outmaneuver the Demon Bats, and somewhere in the middle is an epic battle over a thousand dollars and a whole lot of barbeque. And then everyone realizes that Las Vegas is "reasonably close" to Houston and the trouble really begins! American style football takes Japan by storm and Japan returns the favor by sending the Demon Bats back to the ranch in Eyeshield 21: Collection 3!

Ghost Sweeper Mikami: Collection 2

When it comes to girls, Tadao Yokoshima has to be the unluckiest guy in Japan. Sure, he works with two incredibly beautiful women, but when it comes to the lovely Okinu... Well, she's actually sort of deceased, which you would think would kind of kill off the odds of scoring. Still, she DOES work as the company's secretary so maybe there's still a ghost of a chance. And as for Reiko Milkami, the owner of the paranormal detective agency that keeps Tadao and Okinu busy (if not gainfully employed,) while she does have designs on his body, it's to use it as a human shield to take all the supernatural damage their business attracts! And the most depressing part of the whole thing is that, if he keeps working for Reiko long enough, Tadao will probably end up in a much better position to date Okinu than he expects! Will Tadao end up a lucky stiff, or will he strike out and keep on living? He may be dying to find out the answer as the occult comedy thrill ride continues in Ghost Sweeper Mikami: Collection 2!

Gintama: Collection 3

Space cockroaches? Shepherding senile fireworks masters? Building snowmen? In a world where aliens run feudal Japan, no job is too strange or bizarre for Gintoki's Odd Jobs agency. Which is a good thing, because things only get stranger and more bizarre as their reputation grows. But when they're called in to assist a certain "reindeer-owning" individual with improving his image and the whole situation devolves into a "very special holiday episode" the level of weirdness may set a new record. Of course, if action and drama are more your thing, let's not forget that oh-so inconvenient case of accidental amnesia, dodging crazed sword collectors, the frantic battle to get a hold of the last copy of a rather popular manga and the unexpected rescue of a.... whoops, getting a bit too close to spoilers there! Suffice it to say that if you're looking for the perfect hybrid of wild adventure and plain old wacky fun, Japan's number one animated comedy delivers again in the third breathtaking collection of Gintama!

Waking up transformed into a beautiful girl might be the stuff of some guys' fantasies, but when the suddenly effeminized Natsuru is informed by a stuffed tiger that he's now a Kämpfer, a mystical fighter who has to fight other Kämpfers in female form, his life becomes a living nightmare! Putting aside the obvious "plumbing" issues, Natsuru's best childhood friend turns out to swing the other way and SHE has a crush on his new female body. Not complex enough? Natsuru's school has separate sections for boys and girls, so he and she are now double enrolled. The rumor-mill has it that he's dating herself. And there are other Kämpfers attending the school who want to take her out, and he's not sure which ones mean "on a date" and which ones mean "permanently." Oh, and did we mention that some Kämpfers use SWORDS and GUNS?! Hormones, fists and other body parts will fly as the daring, new gender-blender defender must become a contender or die in Kämpfer: Complete Collection!

Kimikiss: Pure Rouge - Collection 2

Making a movie is supposed to be difficult, but as production begins on the movie club's film, the complicated web that ties the members together quickly threatens to become far more complex than the movie itself. After all, any problem that occurs in a movie has to resolve itself in just a few hours, whereas things that happen in the real world have ramifications that last forever. As the relationships between Kouichi, Mao, Kazuki and the rest continue to evolve and unravel, however, it soon becomes obvious that the movies and real romance have at least one thing in common: not every ending is going to be a happy one. Get ready for role reversals, cast changes, unexpected exits and 12 episodes filled with heartrending teen drama galore as the drama builds to a cinematic climax in the second stunning collection of Kimikiss: Pure Rouge!

Koihime Muso: Complete Collection

Before Hua Mulan, before Wu Zetian, China bore another great hero, one whose true name was lost to history.... until now. Swearing vengeance after bandits destroy her family and village, a girl named Aisha takes the name Kan'u and sets forth on a journey that will take her across the ruins of a great nation, living not as a woman "should," but by the strength of her own sword and the steel of her own will. And as she travels, her courage and example become a beacon to other kindred souls: women who dare to shatter the shackles of their own traditions and take up arms, to become a force for change. Now, as a new world begins to emerge from the embers of the old, the face of evil must confront its ultimate nemesis, a girl who has become the soul of a new people. An epic battle for the fate of a nation will be unleashed in the complete epic collection of Koihime Muso!?

Nyan Koi!: Complete Collection

When cat-allergic Junpei Kosaka damages a statue of a cat deity, the cats don't just get his tongue, they put theirs in his mouth! Now cursed with the ability to understand felines, Junpei must perform one hundred great favors for cat-kind or face the fate of being turned into a cat himself! (Hey, would you want to spend the rest of your life licking your own backside?) Life quickly becomes a purrfect hell as every cat in the neighborhood starts sending Junpei their list of "requests." And if the kitties weren't already whipping him into a catatonic stupor, the women in his life are making things even worse. His sister, mom and the girl he has secret feelings for are all cat-crazy; the local Yakuza's daughter is playing cat and mouse; the local cat-owning monk's daughters are acting catty; and Junpei's childhood best friend is ready to use him as a scratching post! Get ready for the ultimate catfight on the road to purrdition in this cataclysmic complete collection of Nyan Koi!

Oscar® nominee Mickey Rourke (The Wrestler) is Harry Angel, a down-and-out Brooklyn detective who is hired by the mysterious Louis Cyphre (Oscar® winner Robert De Niro, Raging Bull, The Godfather: Part II) to track down a singer named Johnny Favorite on an odyssey that will take Angel through the desperate streets of Harlem, the smoke-filled jazz clubs of New Orleans, and ultimately to the swamps of Louisiana and its seedy underworld of voodoo in this cult thriller that is at once eerily thrilling, darkly sensual and completely unforgettable. Mickey Rourke is John Sedley, a petty gangster whose facial deformities earned him the nickname "Johnny Handsome." When Johnny and a friend are double-crossed during a robbery by two partners, his friend is killed and Johnny is sent to prison. There, a sympathetic surgeon makes a deal to give Johnny a new face - and a new shot at life. Once on the outside, Johnny discovers that staying straight isn't easy. Between Heaven And Hell

Grief-stricken Mike Taylor witnesses a murder and becomes an unwilling participant in a tangled web of corruption within a small TX town. A rich businessman (Andrew Sensenig) has succumbed to infidelity. His brother, a distressed and embittered detective confronts the mistress and tries to cover up his own sins. The once corrupted police chief (Dennis O'Neil) searches for answers and an end to the town's problems, while reliving the sins of his own past. As Mike searches for answers of his own, he inadvertently starts a chain reaction that forces the whole town to face an important truth: "The choices we make are the only thing we own."

Bitter Feast

A celebrity chef turns the tables on his harshest critic. Peter Grey (James Le Gros), an overly zealous television chef kidnaps J.T. Franks (Joshua Leonard), an influential and notoriously snarky food blogger after a particularly nasty review deals the final blow to Grey's already plummeting career. Sequestered deep in the woods of the Hudson Valley, Grey keeps Franks chained up in a basement, presenting him with a series of deceptively simple food challenges - from preparing a perfect egg over easy, to grilling a steak precisely medium rare - punishing him sadistically for anything less than total perfection. A tense thrill-ride served up with wicked wit and culinary flare, Bitter Feast is an exploration of the creative impulse gone tragically and ferociously awry.

Bomber

Alistair and Valerie are an older married couple planning a purposeful trip to Germany. Ross (Shane Taylor of Band of Brothers), their grown son, stops by the house to wish his parents well on their adventure. What starts as a sendoff, turns into an impromptu family road trip of the most tortuous kind. The trip consists of Alistair needling Ross for all that he is not in life, while Valerie tries her best to keep the peace (happy face!). It is soon discovered that Alistair's reason for the often comic, sometimes painful trip is to shed a guilt he's been carrying for years. And, ultimately, the family members learn each needs one another more than they imagined.

Broadcast News: The Criterion Collection

William Hurt, Holly Hunter, Albert Brooks, Joan Cusack
In the 1970s, the name James L. Brooks (The Mary Tyler Moore Show, Taxi, Terms of Endearment, The Simpsons) was synonymous with intelligent television comedy - his shows were insightful about work and love and always tapped into the zeitgeist. With his transition to film in the 1980s, he became a master Hollywood storyteller, and none of his films was more quintessentially Brooks than Broadcast News. This caustic inside look at the Washington news media stars Holly Hunter (Raising Arizona, The Piano), in her breakout role, as a feisty television producer torn between an ambitious yet dim anchorman (William Hurt) and her closest confidant, a cynical veteran reporter (Albert Brooks). Brooks's witty, gently prophetic entertainment is a captivating transmission from an era in which ideas on love and media were rapidly changing.

Chabrol: Two Classic Thrillers

It's love at first sight when bridesmaid Senta falls into the life of handsome young Philippe at the wedding of his younger sister. As their passion for one another intensifies, Philippe slowly discovers that Senta is shrouded in mystery. When one day she asks Philippe to perform a terrible deed as proof of his love for her, Philippe must come to terms with who his lover might really be. Based on the novel by Ruth Rendell, "the best mystery writer in the English-speaking world" (Time Magazine) and starring Benoit Magimel (The Piano Teacher) and Laura Smet (daughter of actress Nathalie Baye and French rock idol Johnny Hallyday). This is vintage Chabrol: intricate plots wend their way through the elegant homes of several well-heeled French-Swiss, in Lausanne, Switzerland. Isabelle Huppert stars as Mika, the oh-so-perfect head of a company that manufactures Swiss chocolate; Jacques Dutronc is Andre, her suave, concert pianist husband whose first wife died years ago in a mysterious car accident. How is it that Andre's teenage son has no musical talent, while the stunning Jeanne, who shares his birthday, is

In the small American town of New Chatham, Christmas is approaching for the Boyajian family. But father George (Emmy® and Golden Globe® nominee William Devane, Knots Landing), mother Carol (Emmy® nominee Meredith Baxter, Family Ties), and their daughter, Jean (Reagan Pasternak, Jailbait), have lost the desire to celebrate. Immersed in grief since the death of their son on Christmas Eve 1991, in the Persian Gulf War, George and Carol have forgone the familial comfort and pleasures of the holidays. But this year, George's annual visit to his son's grave has renewed faith in a heartsick father. Splitting logs for a Yule fire and retrieving old ornaments from the attic, George is determined to bring his family together. His wish comes true in ways none of them could have anticipated. It begins when George picks up a young man named Matthew (Dean McDermott, Brian's Song), a hitchhiker presumably without a place to stay. Accepting the generous invitation to spend the night at George's house, Matthew also agrees to a well-intentioned charade: to pretend, for Carol's sake, that he knew their beloved son in the

Dances With Wolves: 20th Anniversary

Kevin Costner, Mary McDonnell, Graham Greene, Rodney A. Grant
A "truly spectacular" (The New York Times) film that combines action, romance and breathtaking adventure, Dances With Wolves is "a cinematic masterpiece" (American Movie Classics) that is nothing short of "a triumph" (Roger Ebert)! Sent to protect a US outpost on the desolate frontier, Lt. John Dunbar (Kevin Costner) finds himself alone in the vast wilderness. Befriending the very people he's sent to protect the outpost from, the Sioux Indians, Dunbar slowly comes to revere those he once feared. But when the encroaching US Army threatens to overrun the Sioux, he is forced to make a choice one that will forever change his destiny and that of a proud and defiant nation.

Gangland: Season 6

They rob, kill, and terrorize, and they've left their violent mark on our nation's history. Delve deep into the rich and often brutal bloodlines of gangs across America, from Atlanta to Oklahoma City, Detroit to San Diego, as Season Six of Gangland paints a violently accurate and compelling portrait of gang life in America. Exclusive interviews, rarely seen footage, and unique access to the lives of gangsters provide a solid insight into why gangs exist, how they operate, their increasingly destructive methods, and the alarming rate at which they're spreading to suburban and rural areas. Germany In Autumn

Produced in response to the kidnapping and murder of a prominent industrialist by a German terrorist group 30 years ago, this film will resonate with today's audiences who are all too familiar with political terrorism. Germany In Autumn, straightforward documentary, the film captures impressions of this explosive and emotive moment in Germany's history by several directors of the New German Cinema, including Alexander Kluge, Volker Schlöndorff, Edgar Reitz, and Rainer Werner Fassbinder. In Kluge's segment, teacher Gabi Teichert strives to better understand German history through investigating her country's penchant for strident nationalism. Political history and film history intersect in this dynamic film that deftly combines art and politics. Politics, Documentary, Foreign, German 119min.

Basil Dearden's London Underground: Eclipse From The Criterion Collection

After mastering the mix of comedy, suspense, and horror that helped define the golden age of British cinema, Basil Dearden (along with his producing partner Michael Relph) left the legendary Ealing Studios and, in the late fifties and early sixties, created a series of gripping, groundbreaking, even controversial films. In dealing with racism, homophobia, and the lingering effects of World War II, these noir-tinged dramas burrowed into corners of London rarely seen on-screen. This set of elegantly crafted films - Sapphire, a dissection of a hate crime; The League of Gentlemen, a deft heist adventure suffused with postwar melancholy; Victim, a landmark gay character study, starring Dirk Bogarde; and All Night Long, a provocative transposition of Othello to the swinging London jazz scene-brings this quintessential figure of British cinema out of the shadows. A beautiful female college student is found dead in a public park; the police soon discover that her murder may have been racially motivated. Basil Dearden's bold, direct police procedural, starring Nigel Patrick as the detective in charge of the investigation.

Provocative feminist filmmaker Valie Export offers a killer of a relationship movie - and it's no romantic comedy!!! Journalist Franz S. dallies with four women who think only they are the apple of Franz's eye. Each girlfriend represents a different female archetype: Petra is a sweet kindergarten nurse; Gertrud is an intelligent teacher; Elisabeth the barmaid is always ready for a party; and poor Anna is the long-suffering wife. Eventually, the women want more from life than Franz's attention and use different means to undermine his game.

Prayers For Bobby

Academy Award nominee and Golden Globe winner Sigourney Weaver stars in this emotional true story about a 1970s religious suburban housewife and mother who struggles to accept her young son's homosexuality. Mary Griffith (Weaver) is a devout Christian who has raised her children with a conservative religious perspective. When her younger son, Bobby (Ryan Kelley), reveals that he is gay to his older brother, the entire family dynamic is forever shifted. While Bobby's father and siblings slowly come to terms with his homosexuality, Mary turns to her steadfast beliefs in an attempt to "cure" her son. Alienated and quickly becoming more detached from the safety of his close-knit family, Bobby's depression drives him to take drastic - and tragic - actions.

Raging Bull: 30th Anniversary Edition (Blu-ray + DVD Combo) (Blu-ray)

Robert De Niro, Cathy Moriarty, Joe Pesci
Robert De Niro teams with director Martin Scorsese in this "extraordinarily compelling" (Leonard Maltin) film that introduced unflinching realism to stunned audiences in 1980. An "exceedingly violent as well as poetic" fight picture that maps "the landscape of the soul" (The New York Times), Raging Bull garnered eight Oscar nominations* and won two, including Best Actor for De Niro. De Niro gives the performance of his career as Jake La Motta, a boxer whose psychological and sexual complexities erupt into violence both in and out of the ring. Joe Pesci and Cathy Moriarty are unforgettable as the brother who falls prey to Jake's mounting paranoia and jealousy, and the fifteen-year-old girl who becomes his most prized trophy. A "brilliantly photographed film of extraordinary power and rare distinction" (The Wall Street Journal), Raging Bull is filmmaking at its riveting best.

Release

From the acclaimed team that brought you the hit gay drama Shank, Release is an explosive drama about violence, abuse and budding love behind the walls of a hellish prison. After finding himself locked-up for a serious crime, young priest Jack (Daniel Brocklebank) struggles to adapt to life in an increasingly volatile prison replete with corrupt guards and a vulnerable cellmate (Wayne Virgo, Shank). However, when he meets guard Martin (Garry Summers), a passionate but clandestine affair develops and he gets a new lease on life. But men's dreams of escaping together are threatened as tensions rise and battle lines are drawn, and soon their very survival becomes paramount. More visceral and gut-wrenching than most gay cinema in recent memory, Release's unflinching exploration of justice, retribution, repression, religion and love is an example of British cinema at its most refreshing, controversial and exciting.

After a one-woman assault on the Umbrella Corporation's fortress, Alice's (Milla Jovovich) superhuman abilities are neutralized. Now, fleeing the Undead masses created by the T-virus, Alice reunites with Claire Redfield (Ali Larter) and her brother, Chris (Wentworth Miller). Together they take refuge with other survivors in an abandoned prison, where a savage zombie mob stands between them and the safety of "Arcadia." Escaping these bloodthirsty mutants will take an arsenal. But facing off with Albert Wesker and the Umbrella Corporation will take the fight for survival to a new level of danger.

Return Of Bastard Swordsman

Just when you think you've had enough, the Shaw Brothers turn the brutality up another notch in Return of Bastard Swordsman. Hsu Sha-chiang (Bastard Swordsman, Hong Kong Godfather) is back as Yun Fei-yang, the master of the lethal Silk Worm technique. Cultures clash as Chinese warriors band together to face the treachery of Japan's Ega Clan, who wait in ambush around every corner. Directed by Lu Chun-ku, this sequel to his original Bastard Swordsman reaches new levels of violent intensity. You'll grip your chest and check your pulse when you witness one of the most over-the-top Kung Fu movies ever caught on film: the Phantom technique, a harrowing attack with the power to burst the human heart. Make no mistake-the Bastard is back.

2 Feature Films. This is the heartwarming, faithful retelling of Charles Dickens' classic novel, A Christmas Carol, which tells the story of a miserly miser whose favorite response to Christmas cheer is a disdainful, "Bah-humbug." Scrooge (Seymour Hicks) is an apathetic, heartless tycoon who has only the piles of money he's ruthlessly attained to keep him company. But this Christmas Eve everything is about to change for the miserly, old Scrooge. The ghosts of Christmas' past, present, and future each take a turn visiting him in the night, and by the dawn of Christmas day, Scrooge rediscovers the joy and spirit of the festive holiday. George Melton (Harry Carey), Allan Chadwick (C. Aubrey Smith), and Michael O'Brien (Charles Winninger) are three very rich, self-involved businessmen. Having only each other to spend Christmas Eve with, Melton, Chadwick, and O'Brien invite two perfect strangers to dinner: James Houston (Richard Carlson) and Jean Lawrence (Jean Parker). The Shadow Of The Tower

James Maxwell stars as King Henry VII, founder of the Tudor dynasty, in this remarkable series, the prequel to the BBC's award-winning Tudor histories. The Six Wives of Henry VIII and Elizabeth R. When Henry, Earl of Richmond, ascended to the throne as King Henry VII in 1485, he would not only unite England after the tumultuous War of the Roses, he would herald the end of the Middle Ages and the beginning of the Modern Era. His reign would set the stage for the Protestant Reformation and the cultural revolution brought about by the Renaissance. Although overshadowed in history by his larger-than-life son and his remarkable granddaughter, his achievements can stand proudly alongside anything accomplished by his descendants.

In Spider-Man 2, the latest installment in the blockbuster Spider-Man series, based on the classic Marvel Comics hero, Tobey Maguire returns as the mild-mannered Peter Parker, who is juggling the delicate balance of his dual life as college student and a superhuman crime fighter. Peter's life becomes even more complicated when he confronts a new nemesis, the brilliant Otto Octavius (Alfred Molina) who has been reincarnated as the maniacal and multi-tentacled "Doc Ock." When Doc Ock kidnaps MJ (Kirsten Dunst), Spider-Man must swing back into action as the adventure reaches new heights of unprecedented excitement.

Straight To Hell Returns

Straight to Hell Returns, Directed by Alex Cox, is a new version of Cox's 1986 feature Straight To Hell. Norwood (Sy Richardson), Sims (Joe Strummer) and Willy (Dick Rude) are three black-suited killers-for-hire. Paid to murder one Mr Greenburg, they oversleep and miss their target. To escape the wrath of their employer, Mr Dade (Jim Jarmusch), they head for the desert, robbing a bank en route. When their car dies in a ravine, the robbers bury their money and head for a lonely town to hide out "till the heat blows down". A dead man in an overturned car greets them. Next morning, a horde of bandits, the McMahon clan (The Pogues), descends upon the town. A showdown between the hitmen and the outlaw gang is averted by the arrival of Rusty Zimmerman (Ed Tudor-Pole), who attempts to arrest Bruno McMahon (Shane MacGowan) and his brother Angel Eyes (Spider Stacey). The killers dispatch Rusty and his fellow bail-bondsmen, and are befriended by Frank (Biff Yeager), the leader of the McMahons. An uneasy truce lasts for a couple of nights. Sims and Willy fall in love with two of the local beauties, Fabienne (Jenni

A routine trick propels a tall, dark, cynical hustler (the strikingly handsome newcomer Ben Bonenfant) into a series of life-changing encounters in this stunningly photographed drama. But this amicable and sexually efficient rent boy begins to look at himself differently when he finds himself lost in a maze-like apartment building. On his journey through the building, he tricks with a variety of johns; sex is the commonality, but out of that commodity comes raw, unguarded emotions for all. Witty, sexy and touching. Strapped is an unforgettable look into one young man's moving journey to understanding.

A Summer In La Goulette

The year is 1967 in La Goulette - a small harbor town in the suburbs of Tunis where various cultures have lived together for ages in effortless harmony. Youssef, Jojo and Giuseppe are as inseparable as their three 16-year-old-daughters, Meriem, Gigi and Tina. In a fit of teenage provocation, the three girls swear that they will lose their virginity by the day of the procession of the Madonna. To make matters worse, each of them has her eyes on a boy of a different religion, thus challenging an inviolable taboo. This leads the three families to cut off all ties with one another. But the bonds tying the three fathers are too strong. They end up making up, more like brothers than ever, just before the Six Day War breaks out in the Middle East, tearing apart Jews and Arabs the world over.

The Treasure Of The Sierra Madre

Humphrey Bogart, Bruce Bennett, Walter Huston, Tim Holt

Gold in the hills, avarice in the hearts of men. Two hard-luck drifters (Humphrey Bogart and Tim Holt) and a grizzled prospector (Walter Huston) discover gold. Then greed and paranoia set in. Shot in Mexico, this gritty masterwork cost then-huge $3 million - and led to a showdown. Jack Warner argued top-billed Bogart shouldn't die before the finale. But John Huston stood his ground and won Academy Awards for his direction and screenplay. And his dad took the Best Supporting Actor Oscar. Without awards, but with enduring acclaim, is Bogart's performance, transforming from likable hobo to heartless, greed-sodden thug. Generations later, the powerful gleam if this Treasure still shines.

The Trotsky

In this hilarious comedy, Leon Bronstein (Jay Baruchel, Tropic Thunder) is an unusually intense teenager who believes, with an incredible sense of purpose, that his name defines his destiny. Like his "namesake" Leon Trotsky, the celebrated Russian revolutionary and socialist theorist, Leon must do all he can - using his handy flash cards - to throw off the mantle of the rich and the privileged class. When Leon's father (Saul Rubinek, Warehouse 13) gives his son a part-time job at the family clothing factory and within a day Leon is leading his fellow workers in a sit-down strike, he is punished by being sent to public school. There the would-be revolutionary finds new ways to battle fascism - represented by Principal Berkhoff (Colm Feore, 24) and Mrs. Davis (Domini Blythe), a teacher eager to give her students detention. Leon's pursuit of social justice leads him to Frank (Michael Murphy, X-Men: The Last Stand), a burned-out activist turned college professor, and Frank's girlfriend, named Alexandra (Emily Hampshire) like Trotsky's great love, who Leon believes to be his future bride.

America's Music Legacy: Blues

Blues can be subdivided into several subgenres ranging from country to urban blues that were more or less popular during different periods of the 20th century. Best known are the Delta, Piedmont, Jump and Chicago blues styles. World War II marked the transition from acoustic to electric blues and the progressive opening of blues music to a wider audience. In the 1960s and 1970s, a hybrid form called blues rock evolved. The America's Music Legacy series was recorded 1983-85 and produced by 20TH Century Home Entertainment. It showcases the musical legends performing the songs that continue to attract and entice the whole world, because they truly are the best of all that is America. The program is hosted by Brock Peters and features performances by B.B. King, Buddy Guy, Pee Wee Crayton, Jimmy Rushing, Ernie Andrews, and many more.

Robben Ford: New Morning - Paris Concert (Blu-ray)

This electrifying concert was recorded in May 2001 in the "New Morning" club in Paris, one of the most important European jazz clubs. The packed house experienced Robben Ford in peak form. It was a truly classy performance on the stage that night. Accompanied by Louis Pardini (keyboards), Jimmy Earl (bass) and Brannen Temple (drums) Robben Ford showed every facet of his furious guitar playing. With numbers like "Start It Up", "Moonchild Blues", "Deaf, Dumb And Blind" or "You Got Me Knockin'" the virtuoso excelled himself and played blues rock which simply can't be bettered.

1. Prison Of Love 2. Just Like It Is 3. Nothing To Nobody 4. Start It Up 5. Moonchild Blues 6. Help The Poor 7. Chevrolet 8. Tired Of Talkin' 9. Indianola Blues 10. Deaf, Dumb & Blind 11. Lovin' Cup 12. You Got Me Knockin'

Blu Ray version! If you're not one of the lucky fans who applauded the long-awaited pairing of Larry Carlton and Steve Lukather - Larry, who was named guitarist of the year so often that the title of player emeritus was created for him alone, and Steve (formerly of Toto), a flamboyant guitar hero in his own right - this DVD will blow away your reticence. The 2001 get-together of these two masters at their creative peak was an unforgettable experience fuelled by mutual love and respect, freedom of inspiration and the sheer pleasure of playing.

Kenny Rogers Christmas Special (Bonus CD)

Christmas is all about memories and it's all about kids. Kenny Rogers hand-picked five kids from all across the country for this show?and gave them one Christmas they'll not soon forget! Televised live from the Grand Palace Theater in Branson, Missouri, and overlaid with heart-warming previously filmed footage of Kenny, Boyz II Men, Garth Brooks and Trisha Yearwood candidly interacting with the children as they prepare for the big event. Plus, get an inside peek at Silver Dollar City?a theme park in Branson, Missouri, where Kenny took the children for a special outing. Yes, Christmas really is a special time of year?and our own fond memories of Christmas will always come rushing back to us whenever we hear our favorite carols and songs... It's You and Me and It's Christmas. Sweet Little Jesus Boy. Silent Night. Winter Wonderland. The Old Man's Back in Town. The Birth of Christ. Christmas in the Air. The First Noël (a cappella). White Christmas. Carol of the Bells. O' Holy Night.

Big River Man

In February 2007 Martin Strel began a seemingly insane attempt to be the first person to swim the entire length of the world's most dangerous river, the mighty Amazon. Martin is an endurance swimmer from Slovenia, who swims rivers - the Mississippi, the Danube and the Yangtze to date - to highlight their pollution to the world. A rather overweight, horseburger loving Slovenian in his fifties who drinks two bottles of red wine a day, Martin undertakes a treacherous journey that brings him face to face with many obstacles, including water predators, rapids, and toxic pollution. As the days go by, Strel's physical fortitude is strained, along with his relationship with his son and his grip on reality. Big River Man is a psychological thrill ride that works as both a humorous character study and an enlightening environmental message; it has to be seen to be believed.

Marc Chagall
The artist Marc Chagall died in March 1985, at the age of ninety-seven. For nearly eighty years he painted in a unique style that captivated generations of art lovers and both fascinated and infuriated his critics. This program was made very shortly before Chagall's death and is the last film made about this great artist during his lifetime. It looks at his work through the eyes of a young English painter whose curiosity about the artist is aroused when he finds he is living in Chagall's old studio in Paris.

Drake: Successful - Unauthorized Documentary
It's not every day that an average actor transitions from a TV teen idol to a mega rap star. Clearly Drake isn't your average talent! His unique sound, consistency, and passion has rap critics and fans labeling him an icon. In a few short years he has managed to garner an astronomical international following. He has already won numerous awards and was nominated for a Grammy. This was all before releasing his debut album, which was certified Platinum in Canada alone. This documentary film chronicles the fascinating life of Aubrey "Drake" Graham.

Edge Of Dreaming
Scottish filmmaker Amy Hardie has built a career making science documentaries that reflect her rational temperament. When she dreamed one night that her horse was dying, only to wake the next morning and find the horse dead, she dismissed the incident as a coincidence. Then she dreamed she would die at age 48 - only one year away. When Hardie does get ill, just as the dream predicted, she visits neuroscience experts and eventually a shaman. The Edge of Dreaming is an evocative, intimate chronicle of that year and a fascinating investigation into the human subconscious.

Euphoria
Educator/Writer/Director Lee Boot defines the American Dream as emotional survival. He travels around America invading lives, using improbable props and forming his own language of non-stop visual Metaphor. This genre-jamming film expresses new knowledge and ancient wisdom in unexpected ways. Listen to real people and learn how their lives were transformed when pursuing what was meaningful to them. As Lee untangles the elements necessary for emotional survival, the meaning in our own lives becomes refreshingly tangible.

Ghost Bird
Set in a murky swamp full of birders, scientists and reporters, Ghost Bird explores the limits of certainty, the seductive power of hope, and how one phantom woodpecker changed a Southern town forever. This thrilling eco-noir investigates the strange but true story of a small town in Arkansas overrun by a nation of birders all in search of the Holy Grail with wings - the Ivory-billed woodpecker. Presumed extinct for over half a century, the iconic bird was seen flying through the bayous of eastern Arkansas in 2004 by scientists who announced the Ivory-bill's miraculous rediscovery. Or was it? Despite years of searching, the bird's fate remains a mystery. This witty, intelligent documentary brings the Ivory-bill's blurry rediscovery into focus, revealing our uneasy relationship with nature and the increasing uncertainty of our place within it.

The Great Indian Wars 1540-1890 (Collector's Tin)
5 Part Documentary Series. The year 1540 was a crucial turning point in American History. The Great Indian Wars were incited by Francisco Vazquez de Coronado when his expedition to the Great Plains launched the inevitable 350 year struggle between the white man and the American Indians. From that point forward, the series of battles between the United States and the Native Americans began where blood was shed and thousands of lives were lost on both sides. The Battle of Tippecanoe, the Battle of Horseshoe Bend, all three Seminole Wars and the Battle of Little Big Horn were some of the most important conflicts that led up to the last massacre, the Battle of Wounded Knee, where America's landscape would be forever changed.

Guest Of Cindy Sherman

Paul H-O became a fixture of the New York art scene in the 1990s with his public access show GalleryBeat. Armed with a video camera, he attended art gallery openings, amusing some with his candid, witty assessments of their work, but also winning many fans. Among the latter was Cindy Sherman, the press-shy artist who is internationally acknowledged as one of the world's most gifted and significant visual talents. Cindy invites Paul to her studio for a series of exclusive interviews and through these videotaped encounters, he gains unprecedented insight into her artistic process and a romantic relationship blossoms. Their initial bliss ends when Paul finds himself wracked with anxiety about his own personality becoming subsumed by his role as Cindy's guest at the celebrity-studded openings and dinners she regularly attends.

History Classics: The Mafia

A sweeping saga of bloodshed, betrayal and big business, this comprehensive collection of documentaries from History offers a cold-blooded examination of organized crime, from prohibition and WWII to the hitmen and women who are currently administering the brutal judgments of the mob. A groundbreaking investigation into the origins - and present-day activities - of the ethnic gangs that turned criminal activities into family enterprises, The Mafia exposes an underworld of danger, money, glamour and murder, covering such notorious figures as Al Capone, Lucky Luciano, Carlo Gambino and John Gotti, as well as topics including the bloody mob wars that have recently scarred Philadelphia, the murky past of the Kennedys, the ordinary, privileged, and at times remarkable women who gained stature in a male-dominated world, and the gangster-turned-informants who make it possible to prosecute the Mafia.

History Classics: WWII - Unsung Heroes

A stirring collection of bravery and conquest, WWII: Unsung Heroes details the horror and heroism of some of the most famous campaigns of military history, focusing on the soldiers, sailors, airmen, and Marines whose courage, quick thinking, and sacrifice helped pave the way to Allied victory. From Marine Red Mike Edson, who invented a new kind of high-mobility warfare that helped win some of America's earliest ground battles, to sailor/scientist Swede Momsen, who directed the rescue and recovery of the 33 crewmen of the sunken submarine, Squalus, this inspiring assortment of documentaries from History provides an intimately personal survey of an epic war. Other topics covered include the elite Marine Raider battalions that confronted enemy forces in surprise hit-and-run raids, helping to destroy Japanese supremacy on the ground, and the Tuskegee airmen who, in the face of bigotry and ignorance, shattered racist stereotypes to fight bravely for their country.

Only When I Dance

Only When I Dance is a documentary following two young teenagers, Isabela and Irlan, as they strive to realize an extraordinary dream. One girl, one boy, both black and poor, and living in one of the most violent favelas on the outskirts of Rio, Irlan and Isabela both want to dance ballet, and their ambition is to leave Brazil to join one of the great companies in North America. For them, dance is the way out, an escape, and on stage, it brings them to a state of ecstasy that is rarely found in their day-to-day lives. The question is, can they make it? Only When I Dance.

Walt & El Grupo

It was 1941 - a critical time for the world and for the Walt Disney Studio. When the U.S. Government asked Disney to be a cultural ambassador to South America, the stage was set for Walt's very own real-life adventure. With a group of handpicked artists, later called "El Grupo," Disney's WWII road trip achieved the impossible - goodwill. And in the process, it paved the way for two classic Disney films, Saludos Amigos and The Three Caballeros. Brought to life through rare footage and enriched with unique bonus features, Walt & El Grupo is a story of inspiration, joy and hope you won't soon forget.

World War II 360 (Blu-ray)

It was a war - and a series of military campaigns - like no other. History puts viewers in the middle of the action with two revealing programs that use cutting-edge computer graphic animation and the latest technology to bring a 360-degree view of the Second World War. In Battle 360°, follow the only carrier to be front and center in every major sea conflict in the Pacific. The USS Enterprise and its men fought saw some of the fiercest multi-front battles ever witnessed in modern combat as they fought off the enemy from the air, the sea, and underwater. Then, travel with Gen. George S. Patton, Jr. as he leads his heroic soldiers in North Africa, in the invasion of Sicily, and in the charge across Europe to defeat Hitler's Third Reich. Patton 360° weaves a mix of CGI battle scenes, interviews with historians and men who fought under Patton, and commentary by modern-day military experts, offering a dramatic analysis of the brilliant strategy and leadership Patton exemplified as he beat back the Nazi tidal wave in WWII.

Yankeeography: The Core Four Collection

In a series of small roster moves during the 1995 season, the Yankees laid four cornerstones for the Club's success over the next two decades. Starting in April and concluding in September, the Bronx welcomed the Major League debuts of Andy Pettitte, Mariano Rivera, Derek Jeter, and Jorge Posada. As teammates they've won double-digit division titles, many pennants, and a fistfull of World Series rings. As individuals they continue to climb baseball's Mount Olympus. Yankeeography: The Core Four Collection.
