A CLINT EASTWOOD FILM

Hallo Laserdisc- und DVD-Fans, liebe Filmfreunde!

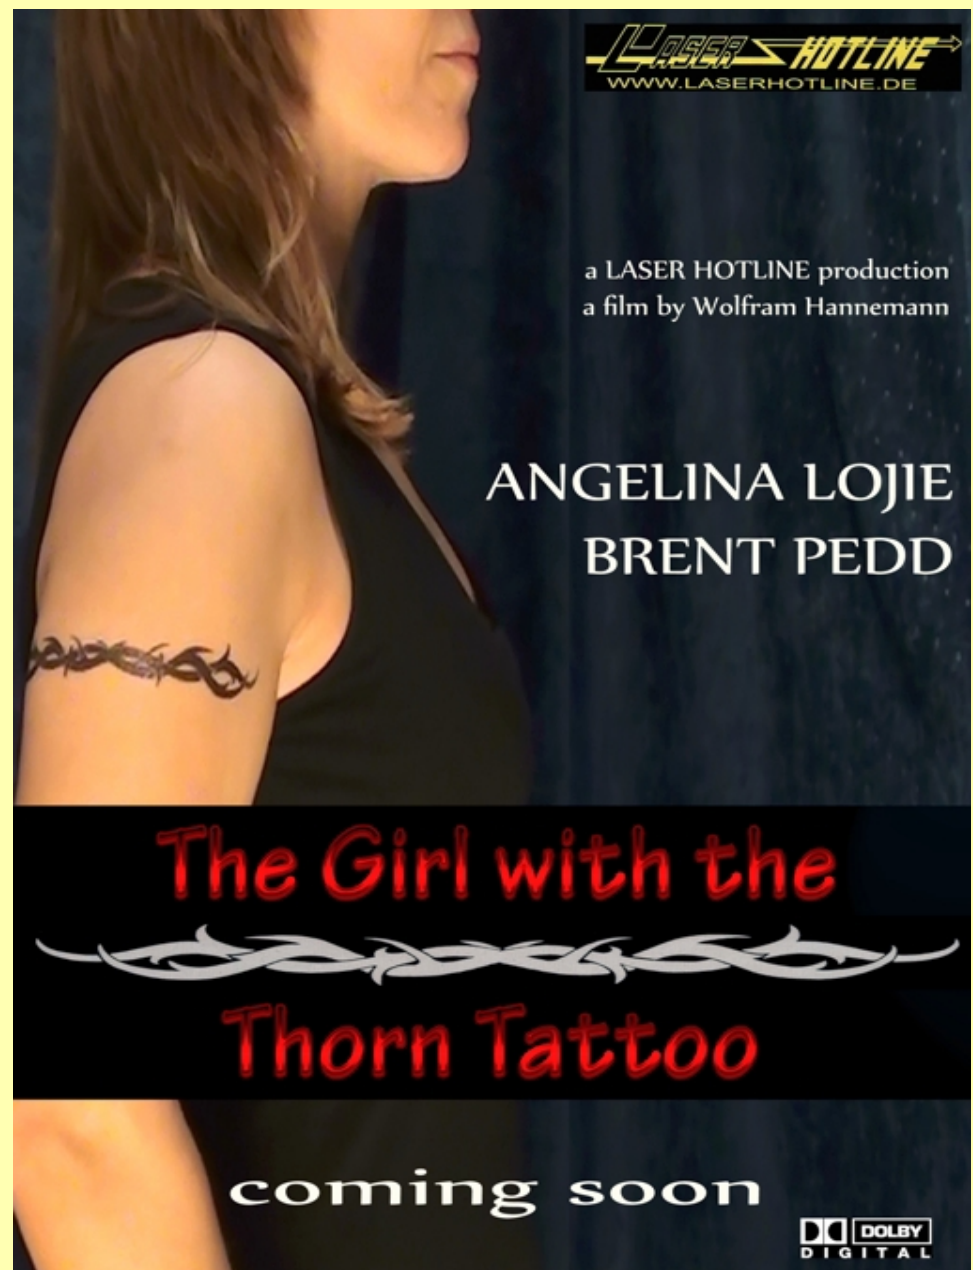

Mit 86 prall gefüllten Seiten heissen wir Sie ganz herzlich willkommen zu unserem ersten Newsletter in unserem Jubiläumsjahr 2012. Gerne hätten wir Ausgabe 305 schon wesentlich früher ins Feld geschickt, doch wie es halt immer so ist: Termine, Termine, Termine. Dafür aber sieht die aktuelle Ausgabe vom Umfang eher aus wie eine Doppelnummer – und das obwohl wir auf Grafik praktisch fast vollkommen verzichtet haben. Aber Sie kennen ja unsere Einstellung: Information geht vor! Auch wenn Sie lange nichts mehr von uns gehört haben, so waren wir doch extrem fleissig. Denn um unser 20jähriges Jubiläum gebührend feiern zu können, haben wir mit der Produktion unseres ersten eigenen Films begonnen. Während wir diese Zeilen in den Computer einhacken, laufen die Dreharbeiten bereits auf Hochtouren. Zuviel möchten wir an dieser Stelle aber noch nicht verraten. Nur soviel sei gesagt: wir produzieren selbstverständlich im kinogerechten 1:2.35-Bildformat und werden den Film mit einer dynamischen 5.1-Tonspur ausstatten. Die ersten Mustervorführungen waren bereits vielversprechend. Seien Sie also gespannt. Wir werden Sie natürlich rechtzeitig informieren, sobald unser Projekt fertiggestellt ist. Denn dann werden Sie den “Director’s Cut” auf unserer Website (www.laserhotline.de) anschauen können. Eine anschließende Kinoauswertung ist übrigens auch nicht aus-geschlossen. Um Ihnen schon einen kleinen Vorschmack zu geben, haben wir auf dieser Seite schon mal das Teaser-Poster abgebildet.

In diesem Sinne – freuen Sie sich mit uns zusammen auf ein adrenalintreibendes Jahr!

Ihr Laser Hotline Team

Roadtrip durch das Fegefeuer

Mein persönlicher Filmjahresauftritt begann ganz bescheiden mit einer Independent-Produktion aus deutschen Landen.

THE BIG BLACK (1:2.35, Stereo)

Verleih: ohne

Land/Jahr: Deutschland 2011

Regie: Oliver Kyr

Darsteller: Heiko Akrap, Paul Barrett,

Delphine Chanéac, Constantin von

Jascheroff, Gerhard Polacek

Kinostart: ohne

Ein junger Mann erwacht in einer Gefängniszelle und kommt in die Freiheit. Alles wirkt wie ausgestorben. Wie kommt er hierher? Was war passiert? Lebt er noch oder ist er schon tot? Erst allmählich wird ihm klar, dass er sich in einer Zwischenwelt befindet, in der entschieden wird, ob er in der Hölle landet oder ob er seinen Frieden finden wird. Mit einem geklauten Leichenwagen mitsamt Leiche macht er sich auf einen bizarren Roadtrip, auf dem ihm ein paar Menschen begegnen. Begleitet vom ehrfürchtigen Kommentar einer Stimme aus dem Off macht sich der Held der Geschichte im Niemandsland auf die Suche nach seiner Vergangenheit. Und damit auch jeder versteht, warum es in Oliver Kyr's Film geht, scheint der unsichtbare Kommentator eigentlich mehr ein Filmerzähler zu sein, erklärt er dem Publikum doch fast jeden Schritt des Protagonisten. Das ist umso ärgerlicher, als der Film durchaus ein großes Potenzial erkennen lässt. Dieses manifestiert sich in der ungewöhnlichen Bild- und Tongestaltung. Mit reduzierten Farben und gelegentlichen Farbtupfern nimmt uns Kameramann Martin Schlecht mit auf die Reise, das düstere Geheimnis des Protagonisten zu ergründen. Mit ungewöhnlichen Perspektiven holt er stets das Optimum aus den Drehorten (stillgelegte Fabriken etc.) heraus und sorgt dafür, dass der Film optisch immer ansprechend bleibt. Ob der Film mit einer 5.1-Mischung ausgestattet wird, ließ sich dem Screener leider nicht entnehmen. Der hatte lediglich Stereo-Ton, ließ sein tatsächliches Potenzial nur erahnen. Dazu gehört auch die gelungene Filmmusik. Insgesamt wirkte der Film etwas zu langsam, was zum größten Teil darin begründet sein dürfte, dass die Story eigentlich nur für einen Kurzfilm ausreicht. Eingefleischten Genre-Fans könnte es hier schnell langweilig werden, weniger Vertrauten dürfte die "Twilight Zone" gefallen. Immerhin handelt es sich um Genre-Kost aus deutschen Landen – ein seltenes Gut.

Flacher Geisterritt und klingende Knabenkehlen

DIE THOMANER – HERZ UND MUND UND TAT UND LEBEN (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

Verleih: NFP (Filmwelt)

Land/Jahr: Deutschland 2012

Regie: Paul Smaczny, Günter Atteln

Kinostart: 16.02.2012

Im März 2012 ist es soweit: der berühmte Thomaner-Chor aus Leipzig feiert sein 800jähriges Bestehen. Grund genug für Paul Smaczny und Günter Atteln einmal einen Blick vor und hinter die Kulissen dieses traditionsreichen Knabeninternat zu werfen. Dabei ist es den Regisseuren gelungen, zwei Fliegen mit einer Klappe zu schlagen. Denn DIE THOMANER fungiert nicht nur hervorragend als Image-Film für das Internat, sondern zeigt zumindest ansatzweise auch die Schattenseiten des Thomanerlebens. Zu Wort kommen Thomaner im Alter von 9 bis 18 Jahren. Allesamt begabte Sänger, die sich der Obhut des Internats gerne anvertrauen, da sie nur dort in der Gemeinschaft ihrer Passion zum Singen ungehindert nachgehen können. Viel Freizeit gibt es da zwischen Frühstück, Schule, Mittagessen und endlosen Proben nicht. "Ich frage mich, was Nicht-Thomaner mit ihrer ganzen Freizeit anfangen" hört man einen der Internatsschüler sagen. Denn nach einer schwierigen Eingewöhnungszeit fühlen sich die meisten Schüler im Internat extrem gut aufgehoben. Ältere Schüler kümmern sich um die jüngeren, für die sie auch Vorbildfunktion ausüben. Einmal im Jahr darf der größte Teil der Thomaner auf Konzertreise gehen. Im Film werden die Jungen bei ihrer Tour durch Südamerika begleitet. "Für uns ist heute Zahntag!" erklärt einer der Schüler begeistert. Denn der Applaus im großen Konzerthaus von Sao Paulo ist Belohnung genug für die Sängerknaben. Aber die Kamera bleibt nicht nur bei den Weltenbummlern, sondern zeigt auch jene, die aus den ein oder anderen Gründen nicht mitgenommen wurden. Nicht alles ist hier nur Friede, Freude, Eierkuchen. Doch was wäre ein Film über Leipzigs Traditionschor ohne Musik. So räumen die Filmemacher speziell der geistlichen Musik von Johann Sebastian Bach, dargeboten von den Thomanern und erstklassigen Orchestern, einen breiten Rahmen ein. Für Musikfreunde wie auch an Hintergrundinformationen interessierten Zuschauern sehr zu empfehlen.

Sexuelle Nötigung, das FBI und Alpträume

Heute gab es mal wieder ein Triple-Feature in der Presse zu bestaunen!

KAIRO 678 (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

OT: 678

Verleih: Arsenal

Land/Jahr: Ägypten 2010

Regie: Mohamed Diab

Darsteller: Boshra, Nelly Karim, Nahed El Sebaï

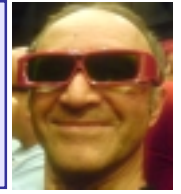

Kinostart: 08.03.2012

Drei Frauen im modernen Kairo teilen sich ein ähnliches Schicksal. Fayza, verheiratet und Mutter zweier Kinder, wird bei ihrer Fahrt im vollbesetzten Bus ständig von fremden Männern begripscht. Die Demütigungen führen sogar dazu, dass sie sich ihrem Mann verweigert. Die in einem Call-Center arbeitende Nelly wird auf offener Straße aus einem fahrenden Auto heraus sexuell genötigt und erstattet Anzeige. Es ist die erste dieser Art in Ägypten. Und Galeristin Seba, einst bei einem Fußballspiel sexuell belästigt, will mit einer Selbsthilfegruppe gegen sexuelle Übergriffe mobil machen. Alle drei Frauen lernen sich zufällig kennen, doch ist es nur Fayza, die als Erste zum Gegenschlag ausholt. Mit einem Messer bewaffnet besteigt sie den Bus... Die Zahl im Filmtitel deutet auf die Buslinie hin, in der sich Fayzas Schicksal von der Gejagten zur Jägerin ändern wird. Mohamed Diabs Film zeigt ein Gesicht Ägyptens, das wohl kaum jemand in der westlichen Hemisphäre kennt. Frauen wurden bis in die Gegenwart hinein wie Freiwild behandelt. Niemand wagte Anzeige zu erstatten. Der auf wahren Ereignissen basierende Film lässt jene Zeit Revue passieren, in der erstmals Frauen in Ägypten öffentlich Front gegen sexuelle Nötigung machten. Der durch die verschachtelte Darstellung der drei Vorgeschichten der Protagonistinnen interessant gestaltete Film überzeugt vor allem durch seine glänzenden Darsteller. Die sind hierzulande zwar vollkommen unbekannt, doch gibt dies dem Film seinen besonderen Reiz.

J. EDGAR (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: J. Edgar

Verleih: Warner

Land/Jahr: USA 2011

Regie: Clint Eastwood

Darsteller: Leonardo DiCaprio, Naomi Watts, Dame Judi Dench

Kinostart: 19.01.2012

Amerika in den Zwanziger Jahren. Angesichts von Terroranschlägen gegen rechtsschaffende Politiker setzt sich der aufstrebende Beamte und Idealist J. Edgar Hoover für die Schaffung einer besonderen Abteilung zum Schutz der amerikanischen Bürger ein. Schließlich wird er vom Bundesstaatsanwalt mit der Aufgabe betraut, tatsächlich eine solche Behörde aufzubauen: das FBI. Mit handverlesenen Mitarbeitern sowie Wissenschaftlern erschafft Hoover eine vollkommen neue Vorgehensweise bei der Aufdeckung von Verbrechen. Doch Hoover hat nicht nur Vorzeigeseiten. Inseheim ist er machtbessenen und neurotisch, will alles und jeden kontrollieren. Für die Durchsetzung seiner Ziele überschreitet er nicht nur seine Befugnisse, sondern greift auch zu illegalen Methoden... J. Edgar Hoover, jene oftmals in schillernden Farben gezeichnete Ikone der amerikanischen Führungsriege, war schon von jeher eine sehr umstrittene Persönlichkeit. Clint Eastwood konzentriert sich in seinem Film insbesondere auf Hoovers dunkle Seite. Während Hoover im gesetzten Alter seine Memoiren diktiert, zeigt Eastwood in ständigen Flashbacks seinen ganzen Werdegang, wie er zu dem wurde, was er ist. Ein wichtiger Aspekt dabei ist Hoovers Homosexualität, die er seiner dominanten Mutter zuliebe verheimlicht und mit seinem Kollegen Clyde nur platonisch auslebt. Leonardo DiCaprio brilliert in seiner Rolle als Hoover und dürfte ein sicherer Oscar-Kandidat sein. Ob den jungen oder den alten J. Edgar – DiCaprio meistert dank exzellenter Maske jede Lebensphase des FBI-Gurus. Auch bei Naomi Watts als Hoovers Sekretärin ist der Alterungsprozess hervorragend gelungen. Nur bei Armie Hammer als Clyde scheint die Maske etwas zu versagen. Tom Sterns fast schwarz-weiße CinemaCope-Fotografie taucht den Film stets optisch perfekt in das jeweilige Jahrzehnt ein. Anspruchsvolles US-Kino.

INTRUDERS (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: Intruders

Verleih: Universal

Land/Jahr: USA, Großbritannien, Spanien 2011

Regie: Juan Carlos Fresnadillo

Darsteller: Clive Owen, Carice van Houten, Daniel Brühl

Kinostart: 19.01.2012

Auf den ersten Blick stehen die beiden Geschichten in keinem Zusammenhang. Der kleine Juan wird in seinen Träumen nachts immer wieder von einem gesichtslosen in Schwarz gehüllten Eindringling heimgesucht. Doch die Alpträume nehmen zunehmend realistische Züge an. Die 12jährige Mia schreibt gerne Geistergeschichten. Auch sie wird plötzlich von einem unbekanntem Eindringling heimgesucht. Niemand will ihr zunächst Glauben schenken. Doch eines nachts macht Mias Vater eine schreckliche Entdeckung... Wie und ob die beiden Geschichten tatsächlich zusammenhängen, erfahren wir erst am Ende des Films. Bis dahin ist es jedoch ein langer, weiter Weg. Denn Juan Carlos Fresnadillos Geisterfilm verspielt viel von seinem Potenzial, indem er Bild- und Tonebene zu "ungruselig" gestaltet. Freilich – Kameraarbeit, Geräuschkulisse, die Sets und die Filmmusik sind sehr gut, aber einfach zu wenig. Schließlich möchte man in einem Horrorfilm auch ein kleines bisschen erschrecken dürfen. Fresnadillo tut leider alles dafür, das genau dieses nicht passiert. Erschreckend indes jedoch die Besetzung mit Clive Owen. Ihm nimmt man den liebenden Familienvater, der tagsüber in schwindelerregenden Höhen auf Baustellen arbeitet, ganz und gar nicht ab. Fazit: für eingefleischte Horrorfans vollkommen unbrauchbar, für Neulinge zu wenig.

Ein Meisterregisseur verbeugt sich vor der Filmgeschichte

Nach THE ARTIST, der Hommage auf die Glanzzeit des Stummfilms, kommt mit HUGO jetzt eine weitere Liebeserklärung an das Kino – und was für eine!

HUGO CABRET (1:1.85, 3D, DD 5.1 & 7.1)

OT: Hugo

Verleih: Paramount

Land/Jahr: USA 2011

Regie: Martin Scorsese

Darsteller: Sir Ben Kingsley, Sacha Baron Cohen, Asa Butterfield

Kinostart: 09.02.2012

Paris in den Dreißiger Jahren. Der 12jährige Waise Hugo lebt versteckt im Inneren des riesigen Räderwerkes der großen Uhr des Pariser Bahnhofs. Seit ihn sein trunksüchtiger, verschwundener Onkel dort aufgenommen hat, kümmert sich um sämtliche Bahnhofszuhren. Seine große Leidenschaft gilt dem Reparieren mechanischer Dinge. Dazu gehört auch ein Roboter, dem ihm sein verstorbener Vater überlassen hat. Ersatzteile besorgt er sich heimlich beim Spielwarenhändler. Der aber erträgt ihm sein auf frischer Tat und entwendet ihm sein über alles geliebtes Notizbuch, ohne das er den Roboter nicht reparieren kann. Die Enkelin des Spielwarenhändlers will Hugo helfen, das Büchlein wieder zu bekommen. Damit beginnt ein großes Abenteuer für die beiden Kinder... Aus seiner großen Leidenschaft für Filme und die hohe Kunst des Filmemachens hat Regisseur Martin Scorsese noch nie einen Hehl gemacht. Da wundert es nicht, dass er mit HUGO jetzt seine ganz persönliche Liebeserklärung an das Kino geschaffen hat. Sein äußerst phantasievoller Film nimmt den Zuschauer mit einer oftmals frei durch den Raum schwebenden Kamera mit auf eine Reise zu den Abfängen der Kinematographie und verbeugt sich im Besonderen vor der schöpferischen Kraft des Georges Melies, der wie kein anderer zuvor das Filmmachen zur Kunst erhob und es damit revolutionierte. Seine Innovationen beeindrucken auch heute noch. Diesem Geiste verbunden realisierte Scorsese seinen geheimnisvollen Abenteuerfilm in innovativem 3D. Billige "Alles-fliegt-Dir-um-die-Ohren"-Effekte weichen hier einer intelligenten Nutzung der räumlichen Tiefe und lassen den Zuschauer sprichwörtlich in die Geschichte eintauchen. Das wunderbare Produktionsdesign mit Hunderten von Zahnrädern und sonstigen mechanischen Gimmicks sowie die gigantische Bahnhofskulisse tun ein Übriges, um die visuelle Kraft zu unterstreichen. Unglaublich gut auch die Tonmischung, die speziell in mit Dolby Surround 7.1 ausgestatteten Kinos ein nahezu holographisches Klangbild erzeugen dürfte. Bei all der überzeugenden Technik und den vielen Verbeugungen vor der Filmgeschichte bildet leider das Drehbuch den Wermutstropfen. Die Geschichte ist sperrig und überlang inszeniert, was Filmfreunde nicht wirklich stören wird, dem normalen Publikum den Zugang zu diesem Film jedoch nicht besonders leicht macht.

Vom Driften in die Obdachlosigkeit und Versinken in parallele Welten

Ein deutsches Doppel war heute angesagt. Richtig überzeugen konnte mich aber keiner der beiden Filme.

DIE SUMME MEINER EINZELNEN TEILE (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

Verleih: Wild Bunch

Land/Jahr: Deutschland 2011

Regie: Hans Weingartner, Cüneyt Kaya

Darsteller: Peter Schneider, Henrike von Kuick, Timur Massold

Kinostart: 02.02.2012

Einst war Martin ein hochbegabter Mathematiker mit guter Anstellung in einer großen Firma. Doch der immer stärker werdende Druck am Arbeitsplatz hat ihn in die Isolation geführt. Ein wochenlanger Krankenhausaufenthalt war die Folge. Selbst nach seiner Entlassung aus dem Krankenhaus muss er noch jede Menge Pillen schlucken, um festen Boden unter den Füßen zu finden. Doch es kommt schlimmer. Seine ihm zuvor in Aussicht gestellte alte Arbeitsstelle will man ihm nicht mehr geben. Martin verfällt in Depression, lässt die Pillen weg. Es folgt die Zwangsraumung. Martin wird obdachlos. In seinem Unterschlupf trifft er auf einen obdachlosen ukrainischen Jungen, der sich mit dem Sammeln von Pfandflaschen über Wasser hält. Die beiden schließen sich zusammen... Was sich nach dem ersten Blick in die Pressemitteilung anhörte wie ein Film über das Phänomen des "Burn Out" las, entpuppt sich letztendlich als eine Film über das Abgleiten in die Obdachlosigkeit und der Suche nach einer alternativen Lebensweise. Zu sehr beschäftigen sich die Regisseure mit der detaillierten Schilderung des Überlebens in verlassenen Häusern und in Wäldern. Dass der Protagonist große Probleme hat, erkennt man unschwer an seiner Zwangsneurose, ständig Zahlen aufsagen zu müssen. Wie es dazu kam, erfährt man leider nicht. Das aber gerade wäre das wirklich Interessante an dieser Geschichte gewesen. Dass zu allem Überfluss am Ende des Films auch noch ein Story-Twist über den Zuschauer hereinbricht, macht eigentlich alles nur noch unglaubwürdiger. Genauso unglaubwürdig wie die junge Lena, die sich von Penner Martin anbaggern lässt. Spätestens jetzt erkennen wir: es ist nur ein Film!

SCHILF – ALLES, WAS DENKBAR IST, EXISTIERT (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

Verleih: X Verleih (Warner)

Land/Jahr: Deutschland 2012

Regie: Claudia Lehmann

Darsteller: Mark Waschke, Stipe Erceg, Bernadette Heerwagen

Kinostart: 08.03.2012

Sebastian und Oskar sind beste Freunde schon seit Urzeiten. Während Sebastian

Physik an der Jenaer Universität unterrichtet und sich über Paralleluniversen philosophiert, arbeitet Oskar am CERN in Genf. Oskars Besuch bei Sebastian und seiner Familie endet mit einem Streit der beiden über Sebastians Theorien – und das vor laufender Fernsehkamera. Als Sebastian am nächsten Tag seinen Sohn ins Ferienlager bringt, verschwindet der spurlos an einem Rastplatz. Da erhält Sebastian einen anonymen Anruf: um seinen Sohn wieder zu sehen, soll er einen Mord begehen... Parallele Welten und Zeitreisen sind faszinierende Aspekte der modernen Physik und liefern immer wieder Vorlagen für Mystery-Thriller. Auch in Claudia Lehmanns Verfilmung des Bestsellerromans von Juli Zeh spielen die bisher noch nicht bewiesenen Möglichkeiten paralleler Existenzen eine bedeutende Rolle und sorgen dafür, dass man als Zuschauer mehr als nur einmal verwirrt wird. Doch der in Bild und Ton handwerklich gut gestaltete Film vermag letztendlich keine befriedigende Lösung für den ablaufenden Plot anzubieten. Zumindest keine, die man selbst als nicht sonderlich agiler Kinogänger bereits frühzeitig geahnt hätte. Wenigstens ist der Film mit Mark Waschke als akribischem und selbstzweifelndem Sebastian sowie Stipe Erceg als zwielichtigem und eifersüchtigem Oskar gut besetzt.

Exorzisten und ein Superproll

Ein aktueller Kassenknüller aus den USA und eine französische Komödie rundeten meine Pressewoche am heutigen Freitag ab.

DEVIL INSIDE (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

OT: The Devil Inside

Verleih: Paramount

Land/Jahr: USA 2011

Regie: William Brent Bell

Darsteller: Fernanda Andrade, Simon Quarterman, Evan Helmuth

Kinostart: 01.03.2012

Vor genau 20 Jahren wurde Isabellas Mutter in eine Nervenheilanstalt eingewiesen, nachdem sie sich selbst bezichtigte, drei Menschen aus ihrem kirchlichen Umfeld brutal ermordet zu haben. Für Isabella ist es nach wie vor kaum vorstellbar, dass ihre Mutter eine solche Tat begangen haben könnte. Und mehr noch: angeblich sollen diese Morde während eines Exorzismus, der an Isabella Mutter ausgeführt wurde, geschehen sein. Die Tatsache, dass die Mutter ausgerechnet in eine Nervenheilanstalt nach Rom überstellt wurde, bringt Isabella ins Grübeln. Zusammen mit einem Dokumentarfilmer macht sie sich auf den Weg dorthin. Ihre erste Anlaufstelle ist die Exorzistenschule des Vatikan... Die Idee die hinter diesem Film steckt ist inzwischen leider schon relativ abgedroschen: man tarnt die Fiktion als Dokumentation. Dieser Filmstil wurde für THE BLAIR WITCH PROJECT entwickelt und bei vielen weiteren Horrorfilmen der letzten Jahre erfolgreich angewendet. Hierzu zählen PARANORMAL ACTIVITY, [REC] und DER LETZTE EXORZISMUS. Auch William Brent Bell versteht es in seiner fiktiven Dokumentation hervorragend, den Reality-Stil zu adaptieren. Dazu gehören Artefakte im Bild genauso wie Störungen auf der Tonspur sowie unbearbeitete Videofragmente. Bell gelingt es auch, seinem Film dadurch eine gewisse Spannung einzuhauchen, die nicht zuletzt Dank seiner guten Darsteller auch weitgehend am Leben erhalten wird. Sogar ein paar wenige Schreckmomente – ausgelöst durch entsprechenden Toneinsatz – kann Bell auf sein Habenkonto buchen. Wer jedoch die zuvor erwähnten Filme kennt, dem wird schnell etwas langweilig werden. Denn Überraschungen oder wohlthuende Variationen des etablierten Doku-Stils hat Bell leider nicht auf Lager. So dürfte DEVIL INSIDE wohl nur Neueinsteigern das erhoffte Gruselgefühl bescheren.

MEIN LIEBSTER ALPTRAUM (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

OT: Mon Pire Cauchemar

Verleih: Concorde

Land/Jahr: Frankreich 2011

Regie: Anne Fontaine

Darsteller: Isabelle Huppert, Benoît Poelvoorde, André Dussollier

Kinostart: 19.01.2012

Galeriebesitzerin Agathe ist eine Frau mit Biss und Haaren auf den Zähnen. Eine Frau, der man besser nicht widerspricht. Ausgerechnet sie stößt mit dem vulgären Patrick zusammen, einem Superproll, dem das Jugendum schnellstmöglich seinen Sohn wegnehmen möchte. Ausgerechnet der ist der beste Schulkamerad von Agathes Sohn. Dass es zwischen Agathe und Patrick läuft wie zwischen Hund und Katz hindert Agathes Ehemann jedoch nicht daran, Patrick mit den Renovierungsarbeiten in ihrer noblen Wohnung zu betrauen. Und schon bald wohnt Patrick im Dienstmädchenzimmer. Doch Agathes anfängliches Naserümpfen über den Proll verwandelt sich allmählich in so etwas wie Zuneigung... Gegensätze ziehen sich bekanntlich an. Kein Wunder also, dass es zwischen Isabelle Huppert und Benoît Poelvoorde Funken muss! Bis es allerdings

Wolfram Hannemanns Film-Blog

soweit ist, müssen noch eine ganze Menge Dosenbier und Schnäpse die Kehle hintergespült werden. Benoit Poelvoorde alias Patrick spielt seine Rolle unglaublich gut und feuert ein wahres Feuerwerk an Unterschichtensprüchen ab. Es darf herzlich gelacht werden! Und Frau Huppert gibt sich als die kühle, unnahbare, rothaarige Galeristin, an der selbst ihr Gatte (prominent besetzt mit André Dussollier) schon lange kein erotisches Interesse mehr hat. Eine typisch französische Komödie, in der Gesellschaftskritik und Liebesgeflüster Hand in Hand gehen und für einen vergnüglichen Kinoabend sorgen werden.

Lisbeth ist zurück

Weil der deutsche Filmverleiher sich aus nicht weiter benannten Gründen weigerte, den Stuttgarter Pressevertretern David Finchers Remake von VERBLENDUNG zu zeigen, habe ich den Film in meinem Lieblingskino in einer regulären Vorführung „nachgegessen“.

VERBLENDUNG (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: The Girl With The Dragon Tattoo

Verleih: Sony Pictures

Land/Jahr: USA 2011

Regie: David Fincher

Darsteller: Daniel Craig, Rooney Mara, Christopher Plummer

Kinostart: 12.01.2012

Der erste Teil von Stieg Larssons "Millennium"-Trilogie jetzt nicht mehr "Made in Sweden"-Produkt, sondern als amerikanisches Remake. Kein Geringere als David Fincher hat sich des Thriller-Stoffes um Lisbeth Salander und Mikael Blomkvist angenommen. Erfreulicherweise wurde die Geschichte nicht in die USA verlegt, sondern bleibt in Schweden. Das erste, was beim Remake auffällt: es ist wesentlich freizügiger als das Original. Und das will für einen amerikanischen Film schon etwas heißen. Und auch bei der Brutalität legt Fincher gegenüber der Schwedenversion einen Gang zu. Waren die beiden Vergewaltigungsszenen in der schwedischen Fassung schon sehr brutal, dann bereiten die Neuauflagen wirklich Schmerzen! Fincher sagte über seinen Film, dass es darin um Gewalt gegen Frauen geht und er nichts beschönigen wollte. Das ist ihm hervorragend gelungen. Überhaupt hat Fincher – wie von einem Regisseur seines Kalibers auch nicht anders zu erwarten war – den Film auch optisch in eine ganz andere Liga katapultiert als das Original. War das trotz CinemaScope-Format visuell vergleichsweise eher noch an sonntagabendlicher TV-Kost orientiert, so kreierte Fincher zusammen mit Kameramann Jeff Cronenweth einen ganz eigenen, faszinierenden Look, dessen Kraft man sich nicht entziehen kann. Zu beglückwünschen sind jene Zuschauer, die in den Genuss einer digitalen 4K-Präsentation des Films kommen und damit das Optimum an Bildqualität erleben dürfen. Was die Besetzung angeht, so gibt es bei Fincher nichts zu mäkeln. Rooney Mara mimt das hochintelligente, bisexuelle Goth-Girl Lisbeth Salander mit Bravour. Waren bei Noomi Rapace in derselben Rolle äußerlich noch liebenswerte Züge zu erkennen, so gibt es diese bei Mara nicht mehr. Auch Daniel Craig als Chefredakteur und außerordentlicher Ermittler Mikael Blomkvist füllt seine Rolle überzeugend aus. Der "Bond" haftet ihm nicht an. Die Handlung des Films wurde an vielen Stellen gegenüber der schwedischen Erstversion einiges geändert. So wurde u.a. das Liebesverhältnis zwischen Lisbeth und Mikael mehr in den Fokus gerückt und wir erfahren auch erstmals, dass Mikael eine Tochter hat. Und die ist es sogar, die ihm den entscheidenden Hinweis liefert. Fazit: wer die "Millennium"-Trilogie mag, der sollte sich Finchers visuelles Upgrade auf die Geschichte nicht entgehen lassen.

Hemmungslos

Wenn uns am Wochenbeginn bereits heisse Sexszenen gezeigt werden, kann man auf den Fortgang der Woche gespannt sein...

SHAME (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: Shame

Verleih: Prokino (Fox)

Land/Jahr: Großbritannien 2011

Regie: Steve McQueen

Darsteller: Michael Fassbender, Lucy Walters, Mari-Ange Ramirez

Kinostart: 01.03.2012

Der schnelle Sex mit einer Unbekannten unter der Autobahnbrücke. Masturbation auf der Herrentoilette im Büro. Heisser Sex mit einer jungen Nutte zuhause. Grenzenlos erotisches Vergnügen per Klick im Internet. Brandon, Mitte 30, gut aussehend und smart, ist sexsüchtig. Gefühlen erteilt er eine Absage und denkt nur von einer Nummer zur nächsten. Als sich jedoch seine jüngere Schwester überraschend bei ihm einnistet, bekommt sein mühsam aufgebaute Gefühlswall die ersten Risse. Auch das Date mit seiner dunkelhäutigen Kollegin, die echte Gefühle für ihn hegt, geht plötzlich mächtig schief: es kommt nicht zum Sex. Erst am nächsten Tag landen die beiden in einem Hotelbett. Und Brandon versagt die Manneskraft. Michael Fassbender liefert mit seiner Darstellung des Brandon das eindringliche Porträt eines Mannes ab, der seine Einsamkeit mit einem ausschweifenden Sexleben im wahrsten Sinne des Wortes "wegvögelt". Das aber gelingt ihm nur solange er freie Bahn hat. Der Einzug seiner Hilfe suchenden Schwester (sehr überzeugend dargestellt von Carey Mulligan) in sein karg eingerichtetes Apartment hindert ihn ebenso daran, seinem Trieb ungehemmt nachzugehen wie das Konfiszieren seines PCs am Arbeitsplatz, dessen Festplatte mit übelster Pornographie vollgepackt ist. Die kalten Bilder (Kamera: Sean Bobbitt) reflektieren hervorragend den inneren Zustand des Protagonisten, ebenso die tragisch angehauchte Filmmusik. Ein Manko des Films ist jene Szene, in der Brandon seine Kollegin in ein feines Restaurant ausführt, ist etwas zu lange geraten.

Musiktherapie

Wieder nur ein einziger Film in der Presse heute...ich bekomme Entzugserscheinungen.

THE MUSIC NEVER STOPPED (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: The Music Never Stopped

Verleih: Senator

Land/Jahr: USA 2011

Regie: Jim Kohlberg

Darsteller: J.K. Simmons, Lou Taylor Pucci, Cara Seymour, Julia Ormand

Kinostart: 29.03.2012

1986: Die Nachricht bricht wie ein Schock über sie herein. Die Eltern von Gabriel sind fassungslos. Nachdem sie viele Jahre lang nichts mehr von ihm gehört haben, liegt ihr Sohn im städtischen Krankenhaus. Die Diagnose: Hirntumor. Die Operation ist zwar erfolgreich, bleibt aber nicht ohne Nebenwirkungen. Gabriel hat kein Kurzzeitgedächtnis mehr. Obgleich die Ärzte jede Hoffnung auf Besserung bereits aufgegeben haben, lässt der Vater nicht locker. Mit Hilfe einer Musiktherapeutin will er seinem Sohn helfen. Bald schon stellen sich die ersten Erfolge ein... Basierend auf einer wahren Geschichte erzählt Jim Kohlbergs berührendes Drama von der therapeutischen Wirkung von Musik. J.K. Simmons brilliert in der Rolle des Vaters – eines Vaters, der vor langer Zeit seinen Sohn im Streit verloren hat und der sich nichts sehnlicher wünscht als die Aussöhnung mit ihm. Im Laufe der Therapie muss er auch über seinen eigenen Schatten springen und lernen, dass es nicht nur "seine" Musik (die der fünfziger Jahre) gibt, sondern auch die Musik, die sein Sohn mit ganz bestimmten Erlebnissen verknüpft. Es ist die Musik der sechziger und siebziger Jahre, zu der Musiker wie Bob Dylan oder The Grateful Dead gehören. Musik, die die gesamte Hippie-Zeit geprägt hat und damit auch das politische Verständnis von Gabriel geformt hat. Jim Kohlbergs Film ist in gewisser Weise auch eine Zeitreise durch eine große und wichtige Epoche der Rock- und Pop-Musik, was sich in der Tonspur des Film widerspiegelt. THE MUSIC NEVER STOPPED ist Kino der leisen Töne, das bewegt und Hoffnung schöpfen lässt.

Die vielen Gesichter der Trauer

Heute gab es leider keine Pressevorführung. Macht aber nichts – es gibt ja noch den Stapel von Screenern, die angeschaut werden möchten.

TAGE, DIE BLEIBEN (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

Verleih: alpha medienkontor

Land/Jahr: Deutschland 2011

Regie: Pia Strietmann

Darsteller: Götz Schubert, Max Riemelt, Mathilde Bundschuh

Kinostart: 26.01.2012

Ein tragisches Unglück bricht über Familie Dewenter ein: Mutter Andrea verunglückt tödlich bei einem Autounfall. Von einer Minute auf die andere verändert sich das Leben von Ehemann Christian, Sohn Lars und Tochter Elaine. Dass der Vater eine Affäre mit einer anderen Frau hat und auch die Mutter kein unbeschriebenes Blatt war, sind nur zwei von vielen Problemen, mit denen die drei Familienmitglieder während den Vorbereitungen zur Bestattung fertig werden müssen... In ihrem Debütfilm beschreibt Drehbuchautorin und Regisseurin den Prozess der Trauerbewältigung, der sich erst ganz allmählich in Bewegung setzt und dafür sorgt, dass die auseinandergelebte Familie wieder zusammenfindet. Jedes der Familienmitglieder geht dabei mit dem Schmerz anders um. Während die 15jährige Elaine mit ihrer Freundin Jungs provoziert und sich ein Tattoo stechen lässt, geht der Vater zu seiner Geliebten und will mit ihr nach Amsterdam verschwinden. Lars hingegen, nach langer Zeit erstmals wieder im Heimatdorf, legt sich mit allen an und versucht seine Flucht mit der spießigen Umgebung zu rechtfertigen. Der Debütfilm zeugt insbesondere bei der souveränen Kameraarbeit von Stephan Vorbrugg und der gut platzierten Filmmusik von Martin Stock von großem handwerklichen Können. Pia Strietmann versteht sich aber auch gut darauf, aus ihrem Darstellerensemble das Maximale herauszuholen. Ihren Figuren haften zwar noch ein paar Klischees an, die deutlich machen, dass wir es mit einem Spielfilm zu tun haben, doch sind dieses kleinen Mankos durchaus tolerierbar. TAGE, DIE BLEIBEN ist ein gutes Beispiel dafür, dass ein Film die Hürde vom Fernseh- zum Kinofilm überwinden kann.

On August 10th of the year 2010 the Holy Empire of Britannia began a campaign of conquest, its sights set on Japan. In the span of one month the island nation was conquered. As a dominion of the Empire the newly acquired territory was renamed Area 11. The rights of its citizens were severely limited and an economic depression followed for the Japanese, now known as Elevens. Just as things seemed at their bleakest one man chose to stand up and fight, the masked crusader Zero. Leading his Order of Black Knights, Zero instigated a full scale revolution against Britannia culminating in one final battle, the Black Rebellion. Heavy casualties were seen by both sides but ultimately Britannia stood the victor resulting in Zero's execution. And thus was history written. The year is now 2018. With Zero dead and the remnants of the Black Knights being swept up by the Britannian forces, a forced state of peace settles over Area 11. The rights of the Elevens remain limited but with no one to lead them and the defeat during the Black Rebellion hanging over them, the Japanese people remain under the boot of Britannia

Grave Of The Fireflies: Remastered Edition

As the Empire of the Sun crumbles upon itself and a rain of firebombs falls upon Japan, the final death march of a nation is echoed in millions of smaller tragedies. This is the story of Seita and his younger sister Setsuko, two children born at the wrong time, in the wrong place, and now cast adrift in a world that lacks not the care to shelter them, but simply the resources. Forced to fend for themselves in the aftermath of fires that swept entire cities from the face of the earth, their doomed struggle is both a tribute to the human spirit and the stuff of nightmares. Beautiful, yet at times brutal and horrifying. Based on the retelling of survivor Nosaka Akiyuki and directed by Iaso Takahata (co-founder, with Hayao Miyazaki, of Japan's legendary Studio Ghibli.) Grave Of The Fireflies has been universally hailed as an artistic and emotional tour de force. Now digitally remastered and restored, it is one of the rare films that truly deserves to be called a masterpiece.

Mobile Suit Gundam 00: The Complete First Season

The year is 2307 A.D. While the Earth's reserves of fossil fuels have been depleted, humanity has obtained a new nearly infinite source of energy to replace them, in the form of large-scale solar powered generation systems based on three huge orbital elevators. However, the benefits of this system are available only to a handful of major powers and their allies. These orbital elevators belong to three superpower blocs: the Union, a coalition of free nations led by the United States of America; the Human Reform League, a socialist group led by China, Russia and India; and the AEU, a parliamentary organization led by the nations of continental Europe. These confederations continue to play a grand zero-sum game for the sake of their own prestige and prosperity. Thus, even in the 24th Century, humanity has yet to unite as one. In this world of unceasing conflict, a private armed organization steps forward, declaring their intention to the eliminate war through martial force. Using the power of their mobile suits combatively, a series of four high-performance machines each dubbed „Gundam“, the paramilitary o

Born on a Baja, California beach in 1959, new hatching Sammy must do what his fellow newborn sea turtles are doing: race across the beach to the ocean before they are captured by a seagull or crab. Thus begins Sammy's incredible fifty-year ocean journey. Along the way he meets his best friend, a fellow turtle named Ray, and overcomes obstacles both natural and man-made while trying to fulfill his dream of travelling around the world. Throughout his voyage, Sammy never forgets about Shelly - the turtle he saved on his first day and loves passionately from afar. Based on the actual trajectory of a sea turtle's life, the film illustrates the dangers humans pose to the species' survival. From deep water trawling to oil spills and garbage dumped at sea, the film combines entertainment with an important environmental message.

¡Alambrista!: The Criterion Collection

In ¡Alambrista!, a farmworker sneaks across the border from Mexico into California in an effort to make money to send to his family back home. It is a story that happens every day, told here in an uncompromising, groundbreaking work of realism from American independent filmmaker Robert M. Young. Vivid and spare where other films about illegal immigration might sentimentalize, Young's take on the subject is equal parts intimate character study and gripping road movie, a political work that never loses sight of the complex man at its center. ¡Alambrista!, winner of the Cannes Film Festival's inaugural Camera d'Or in 1978, remains one of the best films ever made on this perennially relevant topic.

12 To The Moon

Ken Clark, Tom Conway, John Wengraf,
Tony Dexter

This is a manufactured on demand disc that was created using a DVD-R disc. It should play in all standard DVD players.. A group of twelve international scientists are the first to land on the moon. In their exploration of the surface, they run into all kinds of trouble, including threatening messages from alien life forms residing on the moon. Just a short nine years before the historic moon landing, this film's understanding of the science of space exploration is fantastically simplistic, but this well-made science fiction film holds interest with a strong cast and intriguingly strange events, photographed with great style by John Alton. Ken Clark, Michi Kobi, Tom Conway, John Wengraf, and Robert Montgomery Jr. portray the intrepid scientists. Newly remastered.

The Burning Moon

Ain't It Cool News, „They make a f___ing horror movie!“ In 1997, writer/director/special effects master Olaf Ittenbach changed the face of video horror, force-fed its ripped-out eyeballs to screaming audiences, then used a drill, machete and shotgun on its still-twitching torso: Ittenbach himself stars as a degenerate junkie who babysits his young sister with two bedtime stories of the damned. First, an escaped serial killer turns date night into a graphic family massacre. Then a country priest on a rape and murder spree leads to a disturbingly explicit descent into Hell. It became the VHS that shocked America. It has been banned in its Motherland for nearly 20 years. And it remains perhaps the most violent and depraved shot-on-video saga in history. This is The Burning Moon..

They're the best of friends...and they have the scars to prove it! Ed O'Neill of Modern Family stars as Dutch Dooley, a working-class good guy who's the new boyfriend of a wealthy big shot's ex-wife. But when the woman's spoiled son (Ethan Embry of Can't Hardly Wait and Sweet Home Alabama in one of his first film roles) refuses to come home from his Southern prep school for Thanksgiving, Dutch volunteers to pick the bratty boy up for a road trip back to Chicago that quickly goes hilariously wrong. From fireworks fiascos to hitch-hiking with hookers, can a man who's really just a grown-up kid find a way to bring out the child in a little jerk? Christopher McDonald (Happy Gilmore, E.G. Daily (Valley Girl) and JoBeth Williams (The Big Chill) co-star in this comedy hit written and produced by John Hughes (Home Alone, National Lampoon's Christmas Vacation) and directed by Peter Faiman (Crocodile Dundee) about two stranger

McCarthy
*Welcome to quaint Stars Hollow, Connecticut. People often mistake Independence Inn's manager, headstrong single mom
Lorelai Gilmore, and her equally willful teenage daughter,
Rory, for sisters. Lorelai and Rory cope with the same emotional ups and downs, including Lorelai's overbearing, old-money parents and the joys and frustrations of the male gender. This heartfelt, humorous drama appeals to young and old alike with its blend of traditional family issues and hip,

Hollis Frampton Odyssey, A: The Criterion Collection (Blu-ray)

*Icon of the American avant-garde Hollis Frampton made rigorous, audacious, brainy, and downright thrilling films, leaving behind a body of work that remains unparalleled. In the 1960s, having started out as a poet and photographer, Frampton became fascinated with the possibilities of 16 mm filmmaking. In such radically playful, visually and sonically arresting works as Surface Tension, Zorns Lemma, (nostalgia), Critical Mass, and the enormous, unfinished Magellan cycle (cut short by his death at age forty-eight), Frampton repurposes cinema itself, making it into something by turns literary, mathematical, sculptural, and simply beautiful-and always captivating. ## The Last Posse

Wanda Hendrix, Broderick Crawford, Charles Bickford, John Derek
This is a manufactured on demand disc that was created using a DVD-R disc. It should play in all standard DVD players.. Broderick Crawford and John Derek are re-teamed for a third time following All The King's Men (1949) and Scandal Sheet (1952) - two dark, modern dramas - under the direction of Alfred Werker (He Walked by Night, Three Hours to Kill) for an under-the-radar western photographed by noir-DP Burnett Guffey (In a Lonely Place, Human Desire). Crawford plays Frazier, the dissipated sheriff of a town he once ruled proudly. Derek plays Jed, the dominated step-son of Sampson Drune (Charles Bickford), who forms a posse to hunt down a pair of brothers that stole from him. Many of the townsfolk feel the brothers were justly entitled to the money, but Drune is out for revenge. The twists and turns in this story unfold in flashback. Newly remastered.

Even as Joe doggedly pursues his comeback, he finds the odds stacked against him. Becoming the target of a citywide search, Bobby goes on the run when he encounters Lucy (Jaime Alexander, Thor, TV's Kyle XY) a woman he once had an affair with and who is now carrying his child. Faced with the responsibilities of parenthood, Bobby must reevaluate his life of crime and decide if he can ever settle down. Meanwhile both the cops and Bobby's irate fence Jax (Vincent Gallo, Tetro, Buffalo '66), whose underground dealings Bobby has now drawn unwanted attention to, close in from all sides. Facinelli wrote and produced this caper that features a star-studded cast and shows how a good person gone bad can still find opportunities for redemption.*

Lost Keaton: Sixteen Comedy Shorts 1934 - 37 (Blu-ray)

Buster Keaton
For Buster Keaton, the era of the „talkies“ was a tumultuous time. As a result of signing with MGM, the quality, the quantity of his ambitious, eclectic comedies began to decline and in 1934, he signed a contract with Earle W. Hammons's Educational Pictures which, despite its name, specialized in comedy short subjects („The Spice of the Program“). Keaton's move to Educational was a return to his roots, crafting a stream of two reel comedies in rapid succession, as he had done in the early 1920's, when he first refined his cinematic craft. The films Buster Keaton made with Educational Pictures (ALL sixteen of which are collected here) pay homage to his earlier work, but at the same time incorporated the element of sound, all while exploring new possibilities for his recurring comic persona, Elmer.

Greg's quest for approval gets seriously sidetracked as Murphy's Law takes over and a hilarious string of mishaps turns him into a master of disaster and total pariah in the eyes of the entire family... all except his shell-shocked girlfriend, who can't believe she still loves her one-man wrecking crew. ## My Kingdom

Barbie Hsu
A story of honor, love and revenge set against the backdrop of the Chinese opera during its heyday in 1920s Shanghai, My Kingdom centers on two sworn brothers and their quest to regain their master's honor. After years spent training in martial arts, Guan Yilong (Wu Chun, 14 Blades) and Meng Erkui (Han Geng, Beginning Of The Great Revival) pursue revenge and quickly succeed, establishing themselves as the newest sensations of the Shanghai opera scene. They experience fame and love with a beautiful actress, Xi Mulan (Barbie Hsu, Future X-Cops), but soon their collective pasts catch up with them and all three are tangled in a complex web of love, lust, deceit and betrayal. Directed by Gao Xiaosong (Rainbow), with action scenes choreographed by Sammo Hung (IP Man 2), My Kingdom blends martial arts with a suspense-filled love story that „augments the genre's typically thrill-packing action sequences by upgrading them to eye-popping 'opera battles'“ (Slant Magazine).

Pearls Of The Czech New Wave: Eclipse From The Criterion Collection

*Of all the cinematic New Waves that broke over the world in the 1960s, the one in Czechoslovakia was among the most fruitful, fascinating, and radical. With a wicked sense of humor and a healthy streak of surrealism, a group of fearless directors-including eventual Oscar winners Milos Forman and Ján Kadár-began to use film to speak out about the hypocrisy and absurdity of the Communist state. A defining work was the 1966 omnibus film Pearls of the Deep, which introduced five of the movement's greatest voices: Věra Chytilová, Jaromil Jireš, Jiří Menzel, Jan Němec, and Ewald Schorm. This series presents that title, along with five other crucial works that followed close on its heels, one from each of those filmmakers-some dazzlingly experimental, some arrestingly realistic, all singular expressions from a remarkable time and place. *This is a manufactured on demand disc that was created using a DVD-R disc. It should play in all standard DVD players.. In her third marriage to writer Jake Armitage (Peter Finch), Jo (Anne Bancroft) wrangles her brood of five young children with Jake's cheerful support. But Jo's happiness is shattered when she realizes that Jake is not only unfaithful, but that he is constitutionally incapable of monogamy. Pregnant with another child, Jo becomes increasingly distraught, and eventually breaks down utterly when confronted with more evidence of Jake's infidelity. The screenplay by Harold Pinter takes a cold psychological look at the interior turmoil of a middle class wife and mother, and begs the question: what is the ultimate cause of Jo's unhappiness? Is it Jake's unfaithfulness? A lack of fulfillment in her maternal role? A fear of losing her role as her youngest children grow? Director Jack Clayton shines a harsh light on fidelity and marital responsibility in the modern world in this disturbing but sharply crafted drama. *This is a manufactured on demand disc that was created using a DVD-R disc. It should play in all standard DVD players.. ## Romantics Anonymous

Isabelle Carré, Benoit Poelvoorde
A recent surprise hit in France, the delectable comedy Romantics Anonymous tells the story of Angélique Delange (Isabelle Carré, Private Fears In Public Places), an unemployed but gifted chocolate-maker with a lifelong case of uncontrollable shyness that prevents her from properly sharing her confectionary talents. Jean-René Van Den Hugde (Benoit Poelvoorde, Coco Before Chanel) suffers from a similar case of terminal abashment and runs a fledgling chocolate company in desperate need of a new direction. When Jean-René hires Angélique as the new sales associate, the two nervous Nellies must face their deepest fears. With the chocolate business hanging in the balance, they are forced to fess up to their hidden sweet affections for each other. Co-screenwriters Jean-Pierre Améris and Philippe Blasband have prepared a deliciously witty script filled with rich characters that are packed with honesty and humor. Director Améris teases out the fairy-tale quality of this timid romance while grounding the film's charm and spirit firmly in its lovable and authentic protagonists and their quest for emotional freedom.

This is a manufactured on demand disc that was created using a DVD-R disc. It should play in all standard DVD players.. Turhan Bey (The Mummy's Tomb) plays the mysterious spiritualist who convinces a beautiful widow (Lynn Bari, Orchestra Wives) and her young sister (Cathy O'Donnell, They Live By Night), that her dead husband is trying to contact her from beyond the grave. Richly photographed by famed cinematographer John Alton (Border Incident and The Big Combo), the dark, smoky interiors and fog-swept beaches give this a gothic feel that elevates this B-picture to a favorite of noir fans. Co-starring Richard Carlson, Donald Curtis and Virginia Gregg, with stylish direction by Bernard Vorhaus (Bury Me Dead); sadly, this was one of his last films in the U.S. before being blacklisted. This is a manufactured on demand disc that was created using a DVD-R disc. It should play in all standard DVD players.. A new breed of anti-hero appeared in 1970s cinema. Obsession, violence and instability characterized these protagonists, regardless of what side of the law they were on. „Stone Killer“ is underworld argot for these particularly cold-blooded and ruthless characters and New York detective Torrey (Charles Bronson) is just such a man. Chief among Torrey's enemies is mob tycoon Vesperi (Martin Balsam), an old-school capo who has eluded Torrey and is now expanding west. To track him down, Torrey must travel from the seamy underworld of Spanish Harlem and Little Italy to laid-back Southern California - skid row, Hollywood and the canyons. A bad shooting provides the excuse to get Torrey out of New York, where he is viewed as a problem by the police brass. In Los Angeles, Torrey has the same issues, but he finds himself in a very different society. Christopher Lambert is Father Alek, a Polish labor union chaplain at Saint Sebastian's church in Warsaw. All gathered within the great church adore him, save one - the police captain, Stefan (Ed Harris), who believes this priest who dares to mix prayers with politics is a threat to his country. Stefan sets him up for harboring a deserter, but his plan is foiled when his commanding officer (Joss Ackland) releases Alek. For his part, Alek is warned by his bishop to abandon his political activities or be sent to Rome. Sidney Poitier, Lulu, Judy Geeson, Cheryl Lynn Bruce, Sandra Santiago, Daniel J. Travanti, Christian Payton, Michael Gilio

This is a manufactured on demand disc that was created using a DVD-R disc. It should play in all standard DVD players..

*Sidney Poitier reprises his role as Mark Thackeray in To Sir, With Love II, the sequel to the original 1967 classic film To Sir, With Love. It is the eve of Thackeray's retirement from the working class London school where he has taught for the last 30 years. During his speech to the faculty and friends who have gathered to send him off with good wishes, he announces that he has taken a teaching position on Chicago's South Side. But Mark has another reason for wanting to go to the States - to find his first love, a woman he met over thirty years ago when he was a young man in Guyana. The answer to the question of whether and how Thackeray will succeed with his new unruly students will not be a surprise for fans of the 60's classic, but the pleasure is in revisiting the characters and actors from the original film (including Lulu and Judy Geeson, who reprise their roles). *This is a manufactured on demand disc that was created using a DVD-R disc. It should play in all standard DVD players.. Based very loosely on a story by Jules Verne, two men, about to undertake a duel, are thrust into an alternate universe. Finding themselves the only „civilized“ men in a world of cavemen and savage beasts, the two realize they'll have to put aside their differences to help each other survive in this strange new world. Cesare Danova and Sean McClory star, with Joan Staley (The Ghost and Mr. Chicken) and Danielle De Metz (The Magic Sword) starring as the love interests. Directed by Edward Bernds (Queen of Outer Space and The Three Stooges In Orbit), who also wrote the screenplay. ## Vanina Vanini

Sandra Milo, Martine Carol, Isabelle Corey, Laurent Terzieff, Paolo Stoppa

This is a manufactured on demand disc that was created using a DVD-R disc. It should play in all standard DVD players.. Roberto Rossellini (Rome, Open City and Germany Year Zero) directs this politically-charged melodrama about the Italian Risorgimento set in 1824. The princess Vanina (Sandra Milo), daughter of a Roman aristocrat, falls in love with Pietro (Laurent Terzieff), a wounded revolutionary and assassin hidden in her father's palazzo. Vanina nurses Pietro back to health, and naively follows him to northern Italy where she tries to free him of the fervent political commitment which stands in the way of their love. The film takes full advantage of its Romantic era setting in both Rome and the countryside, and the décor and costumes are sumptuous and authentic. This controversial examination of personal desire and political commitment intertwined set the stage for Rossellini's important late cycle of „didactic“ historical works. Yor (Reb Brown, Space Mutiny) is the mightiest warrior of his era. But his own past and true identity are shrouded in the mists of time. He knows he doesn't belong in this world, but his only clues to the fleeting memories of his past are the gold medallion around his neck and the beautiful priestess held prisoner in a forbidden city. She wears a matching medallion. Yor is determined to rescue her to find her and the answers, even at the risk of losing his life. The talisman takes him on an incredible journey, joined first by the sensuous cavegirl, Ka-Laa (Corinne Clery, Moonraker), then by the lusty priestess, Roa (Ayshe Gul). Richard Attenborough's examination of the early life of Winston Churchill - up until his early days at Parliament, before his marriage - is a fascinating look at the formative years of one of the greatest politicians and most influential world leaders in recent history. Played by Simon Ward (All Creatures Great and Small and TV's The Tudors), young Churchill is ambitious and over-eager, with a tendency toward boastful over-exaggeration and opportunism, all of which served him well in overturning the low expectations of his father. The film flashes back through three main periods of Churchill's life narrated by the older, knowing Churchill (well-voiced by Ward, based on Churchill's own autobiography). In boyhood and adolescence, Churchill's self-consumed parents, Lord Randolph (Robert Shaw, A Man for All Seasons) and American-born Lady Jennie (Anne Bancroft, The Graduate), are too busy with their own lives in Parliament and social engagements to see him off to boarding school, a task fu

Prokofiev: The Unfinished Diary

All that is certain about Sergei Prokofiev is that he was a musical genius and one of the greatest composers of the 20th Century. With the discovery of his personal diaries, the mystery that was Prokofiev is about to be revealed. Prokofiev fled Russia shortly after the Bolshevik Revolution. He spent the next eighteen years trying to build a successful career in North America and Europe. Then, he made a decision which stunned the world: he returned to Russia in 1936, at the height of the Stalinist purges. Now more than fifty years after his death, this documentary reveals the largely untold story about the pivotal eighteen years (1918-1936) outside Russia, the years which sealed his fate. Through the intimate, revealing and often heartbreaking words of Prokofiev's diaries, the film investigates Prokofiev's life and art through his own words and the prism of some of his most extraordinary musical creations.

Bag It

Is your life too plastic?. Americans use 60,000 plastic bags every five minutes that are then throw away. But where is „away“? Where do the bags and other plastics end up, and at what cost to our environment, marine life, and human health? Bag It follows everyman Jeb Berrier as he navigates our plastic world. Jeb is not a radical environmentalist, but an average American who decides to take a closer look at our cultural love affair with plastics. Jeb looks beyond plastic bags and discovers that virtually everything in modern society-from baby bottles, to sports equipment, to dental sealants, to personal care products-is made with plastic or contains potentially harmful chemical additives used in the plastic-making process. When Jeb's journey takes a personal twist, we see how our crazy-for-plastic world has finally caught up with us and what we can do about it. The recipient of numerous film festival awards across the nation, BAG IT is a briskly entertaining eye-opening documentary.

The Boy Who Plays On The Buddhas Of Bamiyan

For over 25 years, Afghanistan has been at war. Over two million civilians have been killed. In March 2001, the ruling Taliban destroyed the tallest stone statues in the world, the 'Buddhas of Bamiyan'. Over the course of a year, this film follows the story of one of the refugees who now lives in a cave among the ruins.. an 8-year-old-boy called Mir. British film-maker Phil Grabsky travelled alone to central Afghanistan a few months after the fall of the Taliban. His aim was to produce a cinema film that would explore the lives of ordinary Afghans. One young boy caught the film-makers eye. Mir is ever-optimistic; a smile always on his face. He is cheeky, inquisitive and full of humor. And yet, when the film starts he is living on bread and water, and owns nothing - not one toy or book. Through the summer, winter and spring we follow Mir's life - the scrapes, the fun and the naughtiness - against the magnificent backdrop of Bamiyan and its ruined statues. As Mir grows, the adults around him reveal what life has been like over the past two decades, a period in which hundreds of thousands of children lik

Brazil: An Inconvenient History

As Brazil prepares to celebrate its 500th anniversary in the year 2000, it will display to the rest of the world its most brilliant features - heady carnivals, samba, football and a bewildering ethnic diversity. But behind this glittery facade, lies a much more disturbing story - the history of the biggest slave population ever. Whereas 4% of all slaves went to the USA, 40% went to Brazil. This program looks at those 4 million people on whose backs Brazil was built and without home none of its present day culture would have been possible. Using contemporary accounts, the film reconstructs the world as seen by slaves in Brazil over 300 years. Living and working in squalid conditions on plantations or in other cities teeming with disease, most Africans survived only seven years in the New World. The harsh punishments meted out by their white masters took their toll too, and those that could, fled. But many found a way through the daily oppression by forging a new culture fusing the African and European, a culture which permeates the whole of Brazilian society to this day.

How To Die In Oregon

In 1994, Oregon became the first state to legalize physician-assisted suicide. As a result, any individual whom two physicians diagnose as having less than six months to live can lawfully request a fatal dose of barbiturate to end his or her life. Since 1994, more than 500 Oregonians have taken their mortality into their own hands. In How To Die In Oregon, filmmaker Peter Richardson gently enters the lives of the terminally ill as they consider whether and when to end their lives by lethal overdose. At the heart of the film are the patients themselves, their families and friends, as they grapple with the legal option they are allowed in Oregon.

Through their stories, Richardson examines both sides of this complex, emotionally charged issue. What emerges is a life-affirming, staggeringly powerful portrait of what it means to die with dignity.

To succeed, teams have to create an environment of mutual trust and support. For many kids, being a part of such an environment - in an academic context - is life-changing.*

You Don't Know Jack: The Jack Soo Story

Max Gail, Nancy Kwan, George Takei

You Don't Know Jack: The Jack Soo Story tells the fascinating story of a pioneering American entertainer Jack Soo, who became the first Asian American actor to be cast in as a lead in a regular television series Valentines Day (1963) and later starred in the popular comedy show Barney Miller. The film features rare footage and interviews with Soo's co-stars and friends, including actors George Takei (The Green Berets), Nancy Kwan (Flower Drum Song) and Max Gail (Barney Miller), comedians Steve Landesberg, and producer Hal Kanter (Valentine's Day). The film also explores why Soo, a Japanese American who was interned during WWII, changed his name to avoid post-war racial discrimination and how he used his experiences to create his unique brand of comedy.
