Wolfram Hannemann im Gespräch mit
Filmregisseur Dietrich Brüggemann

Hallo Laserdisc- und DVD-Fans, liebe Filmfreunde!

Es tut sich viel in unserem YouTube-Kanal – haben Sie schon mal vorbeigeschaut? Dort finden Sie nicht nur ein kleines Interview, das unser Film-Blogger Wolfram Hannemann mit einem der begabtesten deutschen Filmregisseure, Dietrich Brüggemann, geführt hat, sondern auch viele neue Premierenberichte. Ob Andreas Dresen seinen Dokumentarfilm HERR WICHMANN AUS DER DRITTEN REIHE vorstellt, ob sich Didi Danquart gemeinsam mit Hauptdarstellerin Anna Stieblich den Fragen der Zuschauer nach der Premiere von BITTERE KIRSCHEN stellt, ob sich Hannes Staudt und Sebastian Metzger sich bei einem begeisterten Publikum nach dem Screening von DICHTER UND KÄMP-

FER bedanken – immer und überall waren unsere Kameras im Einsatz. Anschauen lohnt sich! Und wenn Sie lieber Lesen als Schauen, dann empfiehlt sich unser 80 Seiten starker Newsletter, in dem wir wie versprochen nun auch alle amerikanischen Neuanmeldungen nachholen. Viel zu lesen gibt es auch in “Wolfram Hannemanns Film-Blog”, der Sie über alle wichtigen Kinofilme informiert. Wer jetzt noch unseren Nachbericht zum diesjährigen “Fantasy Filmfest” vermisst, den können wir beruhigen: bereits im nächsten Newsletter werden Sie über alle von uns gesichteten Filme informiert. Also: einfach dran bleiben!

Viel Spaß beim Lesen wünscht

Norman for President!

Im Heimatland der Traumfabrik ist es wieder so weit: die Präsidentschaftswahlen stehen an. Alle überschlagen sich mit ihren Meinungen, die Politiker sind von den Filmstars kaum noch zu unterscheiden; sie treten bei Ellen DeGeneres und Jay Leno auf, werben um die Gunst der Wähler.

Auch Hollywood ist ein Schlachtfeld, auf dem der Kampf um das Präsidentenamt ausgetragen wird. Obama hatte lange die Nase vorn in der eher demokratisch geprägten Welt des Films, aber Ann Romneys Auftritt bei Leno im Lederoutfit und Clint Eastwoods Rede an einen leeren Stuhl haben den Republikanern nicht unbedingt schlecht getan. Doch nicht nur das Fernsehen beteiligt sich am Wahlkampf, sondern auch die Filmemacher selbst. Und manchmal findet man die schönsten Ideen und Hoffnungen an unerwarteten Orten.

Einer davon heißt ParaNorman und ist ein kleiner, aber feiner Animationsfilm, der nicht so erfolgreich war wie erhofft, der es aber in sich hat. ParaNorman erzählt die Geschichte eines kleinen Jungen in einer kleinen Stadt, der Geister sehen kann. Keiner glaubt ihm das außer sein Onkel, der kurz vor seinem Ableben seinem Neffen die Pflicht vererbt, die Stadt vor dem Fluch einer Hexe namens Aggie zu bewahren. Es geht so einiges schief und die Hexe erwacht aus ihrem Schlummer, rachsüchtig und gefährlich. Nun liegt es an Norman, die Stadt vor Aggies Zerstörungswut zu retten.

Klingt bis jetzt noch wie ein Kinderfilm, nicht wahr? Dem ist jedoch nicht so. ParaNorman hat wohl unter anderem deshalb Schwierigkeiten am Box Office gehabt, weil er ein kindlicher Film für Erwachsene ist und sein Publikum nicht finden konnte. Denn in ParaNorman steckt eine geballte Ladung Politik. Man weiß am Ende genau, wen Drehbuchautor und Co-Regisseur Chris Butler wählen wird.

In Zeiten, in denen jedes gefühlte halbe Jahr ein Schulmassaker stattfindet und die US-Gefängnisse mit Millionen von Insassen aus allen Nähten platzen, haben wir hier einen Film, der aus der Tragödie von Columbine gelernt hat. Norman merkt schnell, dass er Aggie nicht mit Gewalt wird begegnen können. In Bowling for Columbine von Dokumentarfilmer Michael Moore wird Schockrocker Marilyn Manson gefragt, was er den Mördern sagen würde, wenn er könnte. Dieser antwortet: "Ich würde ihnen gar nichts sagen. Ich würde ihnen zuhören, denn das ist es, was keiner getan hat." Norman sucht das Gespräch mit Aggie. Sei es an ihrem Grab, inmitten eines magischen Sturms oder reingesogen in ihre Fantasiewelt. Aggie stellt sich stur, aber Norman gibt nicht auf. Es geht ihm darum, Aggie, die aus Angst und Verletztheit böse geworden ist, zu erlösen. Es geht ihm nicht darum, sie einfach nur loszuwerden. Hier zeigt sich auf subtile und dennoch eindrucksvolle Art und Weise nicht nur ein klares Argument gegen die Todesstrafe, sondern auch der Unterschied zwischen Rache und Rehabilitation. Nur Letztere wird Normans Stadt retten können und Aggies Seele mit ihr.

Sehr überrascht war ich auch durch einen Twist am Ende (keine Sorge, dies ist nur ein ganz milder Spoiler), bei dem sich herausstellt, dass der Starathlet der Highschool, dem Normans ältere Schwester den ganzen Film lang näherzukommen versucht, offen und ehrlich schwul ist. Die Debatte um die Rechte Homosexueller wiegt schwer in Amerika, besonders aber in Hollywood. Das 20. Jahrhundert kämpfte um Frauenrechte und die Abschaffung der Rassentrennung, das 21. Jahrhundert beschäftigt sich mit der – lang überfälligen – Legalisierung homosexueller Ehen.

ParaNormans kleiner Einschub, der ohne viel Wirbel trotzdem enorm mutig ist, zeigt dem Zuschauer von heute, was morgen hoffentlich Realität ist: Dass homosexuell zu sein völlig akzeptabel ist und eigentlich niemanden aufregen sollte. Dem amerikanischen Wahlkampf entkommen auch wir in Europa nicht. Aber wenn es so intelligent, rührend, komisch und charmant verpackt ist wie in ParaNorman, dann muss man sich fast freuen, dass es die Politik gibt. Ich wäre für Chris Butler als nächster US-Präsident.

PS: Sollten Sie den Film im Kino verpasst haben, dann ist er in Kürze bestimmt bei der Laser Hotline zu erhalten! Highly recommend by Anna!

Beziehungskisten

Die volle Pressewoche eröffnete bereits am heutigen Montag mit einer angenehmen Überraschung.

DREI ZIMMER / KÜCHE / BAD (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

Verleih: Zorro

Land/Jahr: Deutschland 2012

Regie: Dietrich Brüggemann

Darsteller: Jacob Matschenz, Katharina Spiering, Anna Brüggemann, Robert Gwisdek, Alice Dwyer, Aylin Tezel, Amelie Kiefer, Daniel Nocke, Corinna Harfouch, Herbert Knaup

Kinostart: 04.10.2012

Die Generation Praktikum hat es nicht leicht, weiß sich aber zu helfen. Denn die acht Freunde, die im Mittelpunkt von Dietrich Brüggemanns Film stehen, unterstützen sich gegenseitig beim Umziehen von der einen WG in eine andere WG. Sogar über große Distanzen hinweg wie etwa von Berlin nach Stuttgart und von Freiburg nach Berlin. Aus den unterschiedlichen WG-Konstellationen entspringen in schöner Regelmäßigkeit auch neue (Liebes)Beziehungen. Und es werden alte Beziehungen wieder neu gekittet. Beobachtet werden die Liebesturbulenzen innerhalb eines Jahres: vom Winter bis zum Sommer. Zugegeben: die Beziehungskonstellationen in dieser Komödie mit Tiefgang sind nicht immer einfach zu verfolgen. Das liegt einmal daran, dass sich junge Menschen manchmal sehr ähnlich sehen, aber auch an der oft schnellen Schnittfolge, die zwischen Berlin und Stuttgart hin- und herspringt. Doch hat man sich erst einmal an diesen Rhythmus gewöhnt, so eröffnet sich einem ein wunderbarer Film mit viel Ironie und einigen tieferschürfenden Gedanken zum Erwachsenwerden. Viele der gezeigten Situationen kennt man vermutlich aus seinem eigenen Leben und da tut es richtig gut, wenn man sieht, dass andere mit ähnlichen Problemen konfrontiert werden. Die Jugendfilme, mit denen John Hughes die 1980er-Jahre bereicherte, hatten ein ähnliches Flair wie Dietrich Brüggemanns flott inszenierter Film. Auch hier gibt es immer wieder Passagen, in der nur noch Musik die Tonspur einnimmt, während die Bilder die Geschichte weitererzählen. Zudem weiß Kameramann Alexander Sass das CinemaScope-Format vorzüglich zu nutzen: die Darsteller agieren auch links und rechts und sind nicht nur brav mittig angeordnet. Zum Lachen und Schmunzeln gibt es gleich ein ganzes Sortiment an Einfällen. Das fängt bei den fürchterlichen Weihnachtsfeiern in den Elternhäuser an (das eine Elternpaar eröffnet ihren Kindern, dass sie schon seit 20 Jahren kein Paar mehr sind und das andere Elternpaar zofft sich vor den Augen ihrer Tochter) und setzt sich fort in der deprimierendsten Silvesterfeier der Filmgeschichte. Und das handverlesene Darstellereensemble präsentiert ein ganzes Heer unterschiedlichster Charaktere, bei dem jeder Zuschauer eine eigene Identifikationsfigur finden dürfte. So macht Kino richtig Spaß.

Die isolierte Frau

Einen Filmtag deprimierender Art habe ich heute hinter mich gebracht. Wie nur lösche ich diese Filme aus meinem Gedächtnis?

DIE WAND (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

Verleih: Studiocanal

Land/Jahr: Österreich, Deutschland

2011

Regie: Julian Roman Pölsler

Darsteller: Martina Gedeck, Karlheinz Hackl, Ulrike Beimpold

Kinostart: 11.10.2012

Eine Frau reist mit einem befreundeten Paar in die österreichischen Alpen. Dort will man gemeinsam jagen. Als die Jagdhütte erreicht ist, verlässt das Paar die Hütte um zu Fuß ins Dorf zu gehen. Am nächsten Morgen sind die beiden noch immer nicht zurück. Die Frau macht sich auf die Suche und muss überrascht feststellen, dass das gesamte Gebiet von einer undurchdringbaren und unsichtbaren Wand umschlossen ist. Menschen, die sie auf der anderen Seite der Wand sieht, sind regungslos erstarrt. Eine lange Einsamkeit nimmt ihren Lauf... Den ganzen Film über lauscht man dem Bericht, den Martina Gedeck in der Rolle der isolierten Frau einsam und verlassen in der Berghütte schreibt. Zeile um Zeile erfahren wir mehr über ihr Innenleben, die Freundschaft zu dem Hund, der ihr noch geblieben ist, die weiße Katze, die sich zu ihr gesellt, die Kuh, die ein Kalb gebärt und schlussendlich auch noch der weiße Rabe, der schon immer auf sie wartete. Mit seinem Film beweist Regisseur Julian Roman Pölsler, dass die Buchvorlage von Marlen Haushofer nicht verfilmbar ist. Was sich auf der Metaebene vermutlich die dunklen Gedanken einer in Depressionen verfallenen Frau darstellt, bietet für die Kinoleinwand zu wenig Potenzial um interessant zu sein. So ergeht sich der Film in schier endlosen Monologen, die von Frau Gedeck sehr emotionslos vorgelesen werden. Will man sich damit auseinandersetzen, so empfiehlt sich der Griff zum Buch. Nur dort werden innere Monologe zu einer spannenden Sache.

LORE (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

Verleih: Piffel

Land/Jahr: Deutschland, Australien, Großbritannien 2012

Film-Blog

Kurz vor Ende des Zweiten Weltkrieges irgendwo im Schwarzwald. Lores Eltern, überzeugte Nazis, machen sich aus dem Staub und überlassen die Kinder ihrem Schicksal. Gemeinsam mit ihren jüngeren Geschwistern macht sich die 15jährige Lore auf den Weg nach Hamburg, um dort ihre Großmutter aufzusuchen. Auf ihrer mühsamen Wanderschaft lernen die Kinder die gesamte Grausamkeit des Krieges kennen. Und Lore muss bald erkennen, dass ihre Eltern dabei nicht zu den Guten gehören... Ziemlich wirr gestaltet sich Cate Shortlands deprimierende Kriegsgeschichte. Als Zuschauer weiß man nie, wo sich die Protagonisten eigentlich befinden. Die Personen, auf die sie treffen, werden nicht weiter eingeführt und verschwinden genauso plötzlich wieder. Die Kamera interessiert sich hauptsächlich für Füße und andere skurrile Details, die sie dann großformatig ins Bild rückt und damit versucht, ihnen eine große Bedeutung zu geben. Max Richters Musik wirkt wie aus dem Gleichgewicht geraten zu sein. Sie sollte möglicherweise einen vollkommen missglückten Film noch retten. Leider kann sie es nicht.

MADAGASCAR 3: FLUCHT DURCH EUROPA (1:1.85, 3D, DD 5.1 & 7.1)

Verleih: Paramount

Land/Jahr: USA 2012

Regie: Eric Darnell, Tom McGrath, Conrad Vernon

Kinostart: 02.10.2012

Löwe Alex und seine Freunde sitzen in Afrika fest. Das ist zwar korrekt artgerecht, aber die Zootiere haben Heimweh nach ihrem Zoo in New York, in dem sie so viele Jahre haben leben dürfen. Da nützt dann auch die New York Attrappe nichts, die Alex zu seinem Geburtstag erhält. Also beschließen die Kameraden, sich auf den Heimweg zu machen. Dafür aber benötigen sie das Flugzeug der Pinguine, die gerade in Monaco gemeinsam mit den Äffchen die Spielbank knacken. Kaum dort angekommen, werden sie von einer besessenen Tierfängerin gejagt. Den Gejagten bleibt nichts anderes übrig, als sich bei einem Wanderzirkus zu verstecken. Wenn sie wüssten, auf was sie sich da eingelassen haben... Die Pinguine sind wieder zurück! Einmal mehr ist es der kleine Trupp schwarz-weißer Elitesoldaten, die den Film rettet. Denn wären nicht die souverän und mit technischer Raffinesse agierenden kleinen Helfer, so würde MADAGASCAR 3 ziemlich schnell absaufen. Gemeint ist damit: richtig zündende Gags hat die dritte Auflage leider nicht anzubieten. Technisch zwar gut umgesetzt, fehlt es dem Animationsfilm an grandiosen Einfällen. Hier hat man fast schon das Gefühl, dass es sich um einen fürs Fernsehen gestrickten Film handelt, den man mal eben noch durch die Kinos klatschen möchte. Um nicht falsch verstanden zu werden: kleine Zuschauer werden ganz bestimmt ihren Spaß damit haben, wenn die französische Tierfängerin in schöner Regelmäßigkeit eins auf die Mütze kriegt. Erwachsenen aber wird es schwerfallen, den ganzen Film über wach zu bleiben.

AUF DER SUCHE NACHEINEM FREUND FÜRS ENDE DER WELT

(1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: Seeking A Friend For The End Of The World

Verleih: Universal

Land/Jahr: USA 2012

Regie: Lorene Scafaria

Darsteller: Keira Knightley, Steve

Carell, Connie Britton

Kinostart: 20.09.2012

Es sind gerade einmal 21 Tage bis zum Weltuntergang. Sämtliche Versuche, den gigantischen Meteoriten, der auf die Erde zurast, aufzuhalten, sind gescheitert. Was also noch tun, wo das sichere Ende bereits vor der Tür steht? Während die einen sich wildem Sex hingeben, andere blindwütig alles zerstören und noch andere ihr Leben weiterleben, als gäbe es kein Ende, fast Versicherungskaufmann Dodge den Entschluss, seine alte Jugendliebe aufzusuchen. Begleitet wird er von Zufallsbekanntschaft Penny, die verzweifelt nach einer Möglichkeit sucht, ihre Familie in England zu besuchen, bevor es zu spät ist. Die beiden begeben sich auf einen Roadtrip durch Amerika, auf dem sie nicht nur skurrile Personen, sondern auch sich gegenseitig kennenlernen... Dass das Ende der Welt etwas ästhetisch Wunderbares sein kann, hat unlängst Lars von Trier mit MELANCHOLIA bewiesen. Dass man aber den Weltuntergang mit einer herzzerreißenden Liebesgeschichte koppeln kann, ist neu. Lorene Scafaria erzählt eine solche Geschichte. Und sie tut es so souverän, dass man am Ende des Films Mühe haben wird, Tränen zu unterdrücken. Nicht etwa, weil es so verdammt kitschig wäre. Ganz im Gegenteil: man verspürt Freude und Trauer für das von Keira Knightley und Steve Carell gespielte Paar, das sich auf ihrem Roadtrip nähert. Was hätte aus den beiden werden können, wenn ihnen nicht der verdamnte Weltuntergang in die Quere gekommen wäre. Scafarias Film spielt aber auch einige Szenarien durch, die zeigen, wie sich Menschen im Angesicht des nahenden Weltuntergangs verändern. Man sucht nach Vergebung, will längst fällige Rechnungen begleichen und sich in kein Schema mehr pressen lassen. Automatisch beginnt man während des Films nachzudenken, was man selbst wohl in einer solchen Situation machen würde. Somit regt die tragikomische Geschichte sogar zum Denken an. Der Film ist als Date-Movie der besonderen Art bestens geeignet.

Woody Allen und die Liebe in Paris

Jetzt ist Woody sogar in einem französischen Film präsent!

PARIS MANHATTAN (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

Alice ist zwar etwas neurotisch, dafür aber gut aussehend und schlagfertig. Die Apothekerin Mitte 30 braucht keinen Mann an ihrer Seite – sie hat Woody Allen. Wann immer sie Kummer hat oder einen Rat braucht, unterhält sie sich mit dem riesigen Woody-Poster, das in ihrer Wohnung hängt. Und der Stadtneurotiker spricht sogar mit ihr – in Englisch, so wie das sich gehört. Alices Eltern versuchen ihre Tochter in schöner Regelmäßigkeit mit einem Mann zu verkuppeln. Doch Alice bleibt stets standhaft. Mit einer kleinen Ausnahme: der Alarmanlageninstallateur Victor erscheint ihr sehr interessant. Der aber ist offensichtlich auf keine Eroberung aus... Wie die Protagonistin in ihrem Film so ist auch Regisseurin Sophie Lellouche beken- nender "Woody Allen"-Fan. Da wun- dert es nicht, dass sie Alice anstelle von Medikamenten auch gerne einmal ein paar DVDs mit den Filmen des Mei- sters an die Kunden verteilen lässt – einer für morgens, einer für mittags und einer für abends. Für ihre leichtfüßige Romantik-Komödie ist es Sophie Lellouche sogar gelungen, ihr Regie- Vorbild für einen Gastauftritt zu gewin- nen. Ein genialer Schachzug, auf den man gar nicht gefasst ist. Und Allen wird den ganzen Film über mit Original- stimme zitiert und so seine Ansichten zum Leben und zur Liebe mit der schö- nen Alice teilen. Auch wenn dem Film insgesamt etwas der Pfeffer fehlt, so macht man mit den gerade einmal "Woody Allen"- konformen 80 Minuten Spielzeit nichts kaputt.

Unterwegs in Afrika und Amerika

Die letzten beiden Pressevorführungen der Woche – und danach gleich ins Fantasy Filmfest!

DIE ABENTEUER DER KLEINEN GI- RAFFE ZARAFÄ (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: Zarafa

Verleih: Alamode (Filmagentinnen)

Land/Jahr: Frankreich, Belgien 2011

Regie: Rémi Bezançon, Jean-Christophe Lie

Kinostart: 11.10.2012

Auf der Flucht vor einem skrupellosen Sklavenhändler flieht der kleine Maki in den afrikanischen Busch. Dort trifft er auf eine Giraffe und deren Junges. Als die Giraffenmutter getötet wird, ver- spricht Maki ihr, auf das Giraffenkind aufzupassen. Da erscheint der Nomade Hassan, der die kleine Giraffe als Ge- schenk für den französischen König an sich nimmt. Maki folgt ihm auf Schritt und Tritt. Ein großes Abenteuer be- ginnt... Rémi Bezançon und Jean- Christophe Lie haben sich mit ihrem Animationsfilm gründlich von der Frie- de-Freude-Eierkuchen-Welt von Disney & Co. entfernt. Themen wie Sklaverei, Krieg und Mord sind die Elemente ihrer Geschichte und damit eigentlich nichts für kleine Kinder – obgleich sie offen- sichtlich genau auf diese Klientel ab- zielen. Das verdeutlichen jene Szenen, in denen der alte Erzähler seine Ge- schichte vor der versammelten Dorf- jugend ausbreitet. Doch was die Ge- schichte und deren Moral angeht, so sind diese an manchen Stellen etwas zweifelhaft. So wird beispielsweise der Zoo, in dem die junge Giraffe am Ende landet, als das Beste, was ihr je wider- fahren konnte, dargestellt. Die Animati- on selbst ist ordentlich gemacht und steht im Kontrast zu den überzüchteten Hochglanz-Computeranimationen der jüngsten Zeit. Besonders gut gelungen sind die Wüstenszenen, die zusammen mit der Filmmusik eine Reminiszenz an LAWRENCE VON ARABIEN auf- blinzeln lassen.

ON THE ROAD – UNTERWEGS

Regie: Walter Salles

Darsteller: Garrett Hedlund, Sam Riley, Kristen Stewart, Amy Adams, Tom Sturridge, Danny Morgan, Alice Braga, Kirsten Dunst, Viggo Mortensen, Ma- rie-Ginette Guay, Giovanna Zacarias, Steve Buscemi

USA nach dem Ende des Zweiten Welt- kriegs. Nach dem Tod seines Vaters lernt der angehende Schriftsteller Sal Paradise den charismatischen Dean Moriarty kennen. Dessen Lebenshun- ger reißt Sal aus seiner Lethargie und er schließt sich ihm an gen Westen zu gehen. Fast immer abgebrannt taumeln die beiden fortan zwischen Frauen, Sex, Drogen und dem Jazz. Ähnlich wie in Terry Gilliams FEAR AND LOATHING IN LAS VEGAS geht es auch in ON THE ROAD eigentlich nur um zwei Din- ge: Sex und Drogen. Die Verfilmung des Kultbuches von Jack Kerouac erweist sich damit als überlanges und langwei- liges Road-Movie, in dessen Mittel- punkt die Freundschaft zweier unglei- cher Männer steht. Was vielleicht noch als Stoff für einen Roman funktionieren mag, läuft als Verfilmung ziemlich schief und dürfte eigentlich nur für Kenner der Romanvorlage von Interes- se sein.

Der Gestank sitzt mit am Tisch

Neben dem "Fantasy Filmfest" auch noch Pressevorführungen? Klar, geht alles!

MÜLL IM GARTEN EDEN (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

Verleih: Pandora

Land/Jahr: Deutschland 2012

Regie: Fatih Akin

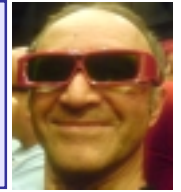

Kinostart: 06.12.2012

Camburnu ist ein kleines Bergdorf in der Türkei. Idyllisch gelegen am Schwarzen Meer betreiben seine Be- wohner schon immer den Teeanbau. Als jedoch im Jahre 2007 von der Re- gierung beschlossen wurde, dort in unmittelbarer Nähe eine Mülldeponie zu errichten, ist es mit der Idylle vor- bei. Über einen Zeitraum von fünf Jah- ren dokumentierte der Filmemacher Fatih Akin den Kampf der Dorfbewoh- ner gegen diese Mülldeponie. Entstan- den ist dadurch ein Film, der ein weite- res Beispiel dafür zeigt, wie Behörden- willkür Leben zerstören kann. Er lässt dabei viele der Betroffenen zu Wort kommen. So beispielsweise der Bürger- meister des Ortes, der den Bau verhin- dern wollte und deshalb von den Be- hörden angeklagt wurde. Oder eine einfache Frau, deren Teernte durch den Kot der durch die Deponie angelockten Vögel verunreinigt wird. Auch der zuständige Ingenieur der Umweltbehörde kommt zu Wort, wiegelt aber nur ab. "Der Gestank sitzt mit am Tisch" sagt eine Dorfbewohnerin. Inzwischen ist die Mülldeponie zu einem echten Politikum herangereift. Die durch sie entstandenen Umweltschäden (Verunreinigung des Trinkwassers) nehmen immer größere Dimensionen an. Am Ende von Akins Dokumentarfilm sieht man den Dorfchronisten mit seiner Kamera losziehen, um einmal mehr die Katastrophe zu dokumentieren. Ein Symbol dafür, dass der Kampf der Einwohner weitergeht.

Telenovelas gibt es auch im Kino

Nicht jeder Film kann ein Meisterwerk sein. Und das ist auch gut so. Sonst könnte man ja Meisterwerke nicht mehr erkennen.

DER DEUTSCHE FREUND (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

Verleih: Neue Visionen

Land/Jahr: Deutschland, Argentinien 2012

Regie: Prof. Jeanine Meerapfel

Darsteller: Max Riemelt, Celeste Cid, Benjamin Sadler

Kinostart: 01.11.2012

Sulamit wächst als Tochter jüdischer Emigranten aus Deutschland im Buenos Aires der fünfziger Jahre auf. Ausgerechnet mit Friedrich, dem Sprössling der Nachbarn, verbindet sie eine innige Freundschaft. Selbst der Umstand, dass Friedrichs Vater ein deutscher Nazi ist, beeinträchtigt ihre Freundschaft nicht. Im Laufe der Jahre entwickelt sich daraus eine große Liebe, die in den Zeiten des politischen Umbruchs einer großen Prüfung unterzogen wird... Mit einer irren Geschwindigkeit hechelt Regisseurin Jeanine Meerapfel durch ihren Film. Oft werden Szenen fast stakkatoartig aneinander montiert, zwischen denen lange Zeiträume liegen. So fällt es nicht immer leicht, sich als Zuschauer im Film zu rechtzufinden. Es gibt weder Einblendungen von Jahreszahlen noch gibt es konkrete Informationen zur politischen Lage in Argentinien. Diese wären aber zum Verständnis des Films wichtig gewesen. Ohne sie reduziert sich Meerapfels Film auf eine Telenovela, was durch die schwülstige Filmmusik noch unterstrichen wird. Insgesamt wird man den Eindruck nicht los, dass es sich bei diesem Drama um einen auf Kinolänge gekürzten Adverts-Vierteiler handeln könnte.

Andere Länder, andere Sitten

Ende der Fahnenstange: das Fantasy Filmfest ist vorbei und die heutige Pressevorführung war gleichzeitig die letzte in dieser Woche.

STILLE SEELEN (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: Ovsyanki

Verleih: Film Kino Text

Land/Jahr: Russland 2010

Regie: Alexei Fedorchenko

Darsteller: Yuliya Aug, Igor Sergejev, Viktor Sukhorukov

Kinostart: 15.11.2012

Eines Morgens wird Aist zu Miron, dem Direktor der Papierfabrik, in der er arbeitet, gerufen. Dieser eröffnet ihm, dass seine geliebte Frau Tanja in der vergangenen Nacht verstorben ist. Miron bittet Aist, ihm zu helfen, Tanja nach alter Merja-Tradition zu beerdigen. Gemeinsam machen sich die beiden Männer auf, Tanja zu ihrer Ruhestätte zu bringen... In extrem ruhigen Bildern und sehr langen Einstellungen nimmt uns Regisseur Alexei Fedorchenko mit auf eine Reise, auf der er uns mit der vom Aussterben bedrohten Merja-Kultur bekanntmacht. Dabei handelt es sich um eine etwa 400 Jahre alte ethnische Gemeinschaft, deren Rituale und Traditionen im modernen Russland nicht mehr viele Menschen kennen. Zu diesen Traditionen gehört auch das "Rauchen". Damit ist nicht etwa der Genuss von Tabak gemeint, sondern das Teilen der intimsten Geheimnisse nach dem Tode eines geliebten Menschen. Das freilich ist für Europäer sehr gewöhnungsbedürftig, wie auch der gesamte Film, der sich europäischen Sehgewohnheiten vollkommen entzieht. Die herbstlich düstere Farbgebung der CinemaScope-Bilder erinnert an typischen Orwocolor-Look. Wer ein Faible für fremde Kulturen hat, dem könnte dieses ungewöhnliche Road-Movie gefallen.

Ein Schlückchen in Ehren...

Die Pressewoche fängt schon richtig gut an – mit einem Film, in dem mein Lieblingswhisky verkostet wird!

ANGELS' SHARE – EIN SCHLUCK FÜR DIE ENGEL (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

OT: The Angels' Share

Verleih: Prokino (Fox)

Darsteller: Paul Brannigan, Siobhan

Kinostart: 18.10.2012

Zusammen mit weiteren Gestrauchelten wurde Robbie zu gemeinnütziger Arbeit in Glasgow verdonnert. Weil seine Freundin Leonie ein Kind von ihm erwartet, möchte er seiner kleinkriminellen Vergangenheit abschwören. Doch die Familie seiner Freundin lässt ihn nicht zur Ruhe kommen. Die will partout und mit viel Gewalt die Beziehung zu Leonie verhindern. Da nimmt sich Sozialarbeiter Harry dem jungen Mann an. Bei einem Ausflug in die Highlands eröffnen sich Robbie neue Perspektiven: er findet Gefallen am Whisky und dessen Kultur. Um Startkapital für ein neues Leben zu bekommen, beschließt er, einen extrem seltenen Whisky zu stehlen, um ihn gewinnbringend zu verkaufen. Drei Freunde aus seiner Sozialstundengruppe sollen ihm dabei helfen... Bis es soweit ist, dass Robbie und seine Freunde in Kilts gekleidet den weiten Weg zu einer Destillerie in den schottischen Highlands antreten, gestaltet sich Ken Loachs Film wie viele seiner früheren Filme: als reines Sozialdrama. Hier gibt es für die Protagonisten kaum ein Entkommen. Doch wenn das Quartett zum Bruch aufbricht, unterlegt mit "I'm Gonna Be (500 Miles)", wandelt sich der Film auf märchenhafte Weise in eine Komödie. Das ist so wohltuend lebensbejahend, dass man es kaum fassen kann! Und man kann es den jungen Dieben letztendlich auch gar nicht übel nehmen, dass sie ein Unrecht begehen. Schließlich entwenden sie praktisch nur den "Angels' Share", jenen verschwindend geringen Fassanteil, der auf mysteriöse Art und Weise bei der Reifung verschwindet. Ken Loachs herzerwärmender Film macht großen Spaß und dürfte ganz besonders Whisky-Feunden gefallen. Na dann Prost!

Wahre Geschichten

Gaumenfreuden in der DDR und Depressionen in der Türkei – der heutige Tag hatte für mich beides im Programm.

SUSHI IN SUHL (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

Verleih: Movienet (24 Bilder)

Land/Jahr: Deutschland 2012

Regie: Carsten Fiebeler

Darsteller: Uwe Steimle, Julia Richter, Ina Paule Klink

Kinostart: 18.10.2012

Suhl in der DDR in den siebziger Jahren. Gemeinsam mit seiner Gattin betreibt Rolf Anschutz den "Waffenschmied", ein Restaurant mit thüringer Küche. Doch der gelernte Koch hat weitaus größere Ambitionen. "Aus Nichts etwas machen" ist sein erklärtes Ziel. Und die japanische Küche hat es ihm angetan. Mit List und Tücke sowie wahrhafter Improvisationskunst und gegen alle Regeln des Staatsapparates macht er sich an die Realisierung seines Traums: ein Sushi-Lokal. Und das ausgerechnet in der Ostzone! Allen Unkenrufen zum Trotz gelingt es ihm, aus dem "Waffenschmied" ein weltbekanntes Lokal mit traditioneller japanischer Küche zu machen. Doch sein geschäftlicher Erfolg bekommt seiner Ehe alles andere als gut... "Frei nach einer wahren Geschichte", wie es im Vorspann heisst, inszenierte Carsten Fiebeler die Geschichte des Rolf Anschutz, der in die Annalen der Kochgeschichte einging. Mit Uwe Steimle und seinem herrlich sächsischen Akzent hat er auch gleich die Idealbesetzung gefunden. Der porträtiert den Mann mit Träumen augenzwinkernd und mit einer Wahnsinnsruhe. Mangels Verfügbarkeit in der DDR werden in seinen Händen Eierbecher zu Trinkschalen, alte Vasen zu Getränkebehältern oder Judo-Anzüge zu Kimonos. Mit hochgesteckten Haaren verwandelt er sogar seine fleissige Bedienung in eine waschechte Geisha. Die Mechanismen des DDR-Regimes, in dem jeder jeden überwacht und sich keiner eine Blöße geben möchte, bringt der Film mehr als nur einmal auf den Punkt und karikiert es köstlich. Köstlich auch die fast schon naive Unerfrohenheit, mit der der Protagonist seinen Individualismus auslebt. Da sagt er beispielsweise zu einem hohen Funktionär, der meint, er müsse auch mal das Sushi-Lokal besuchen: "Falls sie einen Platz bekommen!". Warum der Regisseur den Film aus dem Off durch Anschützs Sohn kommentieren lässt, bleibt indes etwas rätselhaft. Weder ergänzen die Kommentare die Szenen, noch spielt der Sohn eine Rolle in der Geschichte. Auch Anschützs Besuch in Japan verwirrt eher als dass er zum Film dramaturgisch beiträgt. Von diesen etwas unglücklichen Holprigkeiten einmal abgesehen, vermag der Film dennoch gut zu unterhalten.

Als alte Frau schaut die Mutter auf ein bewegtes Leben zurück. Ihr Mann verdiente den Lebensunterhalt für die Familie weit weg von zuhause. Die beiden Söhne musste sie alleine großziehen und sich auch noch um ihre Schwiegereltern kümmern. Weil sie Analphabetin war, kommunizierte sie mittels Tonbandbriefen mit ihrem Mann. Ihr ältester Sohn schloss sich dem kurdischen Widerstand an, ihr jüngerer Sohn gründete eine eigene Familie. Bei seinem Besuch bei der Mutter versucht er nun, alles über seinen Vater, den er nicht kannte, zu erfahren. Ganz langsam und mit Hilfe der Tonbänder gelingt es ihm, seiner Mutter die ganze Wahrheit zu entlocken... Der auf wahren Begebenheiten beruhende Film, in dem die betroffenen Personen selbst vor die Kamera treten, ist im Grunde genommen eine Art von Familientherapie. Hier wird die Vergangenheit einer in der Türkei lebenden kurdischen Familie aufgearbeitet, deren Vater die Kinder praktisch nicht kannten und mit dem sie nur per Tonband kommunizierten. Ein wichtiges Thema – die türkisch-kurdischen Beziehungen – wird leider extrem sperrig inszeniert, mit vielen langen Einstellungen und wenig Dialogen. Ein großes Publikum dürfte der Film dadurch wohl kaum erreichen.

Rätselhaft

Wenn ich einen Film nicht verstehe, dann kann es dafür zwei Gründe geben: entweder bin ich dafür nicht intellektuell genug oder der Regisseur will nicht, dass man seinen Film versteht. Ich glaube im vorliegenden Fall hat der Regisseur gewonnen.

Gerade als sie vom Theaterleiter gekündigt wird, muss eine Schauspielerin erfahren, dass ihre Mutter verstorben ist. Die Reise zu ihrem Heimatort weckt alte Erinnerungen wieder. Sie trifft sich mit ihrer Jugendliebe, mietet sich beim Ex-Freund ihrer Mutter ein und macht sich schließlich auf die Reise nach Auschwitz. Dort will sie der Geschichte ihrer Eltern nachspüren... Der Wechsel zwischen den verschiedenen Zeitebenen geschieht in Didi Danquarts Film fast unmerklich. Das geht sogar so weit, dass der Film ab einem gewissen Punkt ins Surreale abgleitet. Wenn sich die drei Protagonisten bei ihrer Rückfahrt aus Polen zu einer verlassenen Tankstelle verirren und jeder für sich durch die vielen Räume wandelt, dann hat das vermutlich alles symbolhafte Bedeutung. Die aber erschließt sich dem Betrachter leider nur sehr schwer. Ist es Traum oder Realität? Was hat es zu bedeuten? Am Ende des Films wird man sich relativ verstört im Kinosaal wiederfinden und sich fragen, warum man sich ausgerechnet diesen Film angeschaut hat. Die Antwort bleibt der Regisseur schuldig.

Von den Eltern zurückgelassen

Wie ein roter Faden zog sich heute ein wichtiges Thema durch die beiden Presse-Screenings: der Verlust der Eltern im Kindesalter und dessen schwerwiegende Folgen.

DER VERDINGBUB (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

Verleih: Ascot Elite (24 Bilder)

Land/Jahr: Schweiz, Deutschland 2011

Regie: Markus Imboden

Darsteller: Max Hubacher, Katja Riemann, Stefan Kurt, Lisa Brand

Kinostart: 25.10.2012

Ein Schweizer Bergdorf in den fünfziger Jahren. Als Waisenkind wird der junge Max auf den "Schattenhof" geschickt, um fortan dort gegen Mahlzeiten und ein Dach über dem Kopf seinen Dienst zu verrichten. Max kann die extrem harte Arbeit unter dem Patriarchen Bösiger nur durch seine Liebe zur Musik ertragen. Als die 15jährige Berteli, Tochter aus einer Scheidungsehe, ebenfalls dort untergebracht wird, entwickelt sich zwischen den beiden aus einer anfänglichen Abneigung eine innige Freundschaft. Doch Jakob, der erwachsene Sohn der Bösigers, hat ebenfalls ein Auge auf Berteli geworfen. Und kein zartfühlendes dazu... Stellvertretend für viele hunderttausende von Waisen-, Scheidungs- und unehelich geborenen Kindern, die bis in die 1950er-Jahre in der Schweiz durch die Behörden als sogenannte Verdingkinder den Bauern als billige Arbeitskräfte überlassen wurden, schildert Regisseur Markus Imboden das Schicksal von Max und Berteli. In düsteren Bildern fängt Kameramann Peter von Haller den von harter Arbeit und Gewalt dominierten "Schattenhof" ein, der zwar idyllisch gelegen, doch selbst alles andere als ein Idyll ist. Hier regieren die Bösigers (gut gespielt von Stefan Kurt und Katja Riemann) mit harter Hand. Den Frust, den sie tagtäglich mit dem drohenden Niedergang ihres Bauernhofes erleben müssen, reagieren sie auf ihre Weise an den Verdingkindern ab. Max Hubacher und Lisa Brand überzeugen hier als Max und Berteli. Auch wenn er darstellerisch und atmosphärisch überzeugt, leidet der Film insgesamt an gewissen Längen. So hätte manche Szene von einer Straffung durchaus profitiert, kann man doch allzu gut schon erahnen, wie sich die Geschichte fortsetzen wird.

SAG, DASS DU MICH LIEBST (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: Parlez-moi De Vous

Verleih: Alpenrepublik (Barnsteiner)

Land/Jahr: Frankreich 2011

Regie: Pierre Pinaud

Darsteller: Karin Viard, Nicolas Duvauchelle, Nadia Barentin

Kinostart: 01.11.2012

Tagsüber schottet sich die attraktive Vierzigerin Claire Martin ganz von ihrer Außenwelt ab. Nachts aber wird sie zu Frankreichs bekanntester Radiomoderatorin Méлина, der viele Zuhörerinnen ihr Herz am Telefon ausschütten und mit ihrem Rat belohnt werden. Dabei hat Claire selbst mit großen Problemen zu kämpfen. Als kleines Kind wurde sie von ihrer Mutter im Stich gelassen. Durch eine Detektei lässt Claire nach ihr suchen, um sie nach 40 Jahren endlich zur Rede stellen zu können. Zu ihrer Überraschung lebt die Mutter nicht unweit von Paris entfernt. Claire will sie aufsuchen. Doch es kommt anders... Hat meine Mutter mich nicht geliebt? Oder warum sonst hat sie mich als Kind einfach zurückgelassen? Diese Frage treibt die Protagonistin in dem von Pierre Pinaud geschriebenen und inszenierten Film um. Und Karin Viard spielt sie großartig. Ihre Berührungängste und Neurosen, die aus dem Verlust der Mutterliebe resultieren, sprechen hier Bände. Claire ist vollkommen unfähig eine Liebesbeziehung eingehen, solange sie nicht geklärt hat, ob ihre Mutter sie je geliebt hat. Darunter leidet ihre Beziehung zu dem wesentlich jüngeren

Lucas, jenem ältesten Sohn der Schwiegertochter ihrer Mutter, der sich Hals über Kopf in sie verliebt. Sehr sensibel und mit einem Schuss Humor inszeniert Pinaud seine Dramödie, die leider manchmal etwas auf der Stelle tritt, aber dennoch große Gefühle transportieren kann.

Von Einem, der durch das Leben driftet

Filme in Schwarz-Weiß sind eine Rarität geworden. Die Pressewoche begann heute mit einer solchen Rarität.

OH BOY (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

Verleih: X Verleih (Warner)

Land/Jahr: Deutschland 2012

Regie: Jan Ole Gerster

Darsteller: Tom Schilling, Marc Hosemann, Friederike Kempter

Kinostart: 01.11.2012

Seit er vor zwei Jahren sein Jura-Studium geschmissen hat, lebt Niko Fischer nur in den Tag hinein. Ohne festes Ziel tingelt er durch die Straßen Berlins. Doch der heutige Tag meint es nicht besonders gut mit ihm. Erst gibt ihm seine Freundin den Laufpass, dann will es ihm einfach nicht gelingen, eine ordentliche Tasse Kaffee zu bekommen. Als Krönung verschwindet auch noch seine EC-Karte im Bankomaten. Seine letzte Hoffnung: sein Vater. Doch das Projekt scheitert kläglich. Gemeinsam mit Matze, einem Schauspieler, hängt er ab, besucht Dreharbeiten zu einem Nazi-Film (Zitat: "Der Film beruht aber hoffentlich auf Tatsachen?" – "Ja, klar, eben Zweiter Weltkrieg!") und trifft eine alte Schulkameradin wieder. Niko kommt ins Grübeln. Sollte er womöglich tatsächlich sein Leben ändern? Atmosphärische Schwarz-Weiß-Bilder einer großen Stadt, unterlegt mit angenehmen Jazz-Klängen – Jan Ole Gersters Debütfilm erinnert unweigerlich an die Filme von Woody Allen und an MANHATTAN im Speziellen. Das hat der Regisseur so zwar nie beabsichtigt, aber die Filme von Allen gefallen auch ihm. Die große Stadt bei ihm ist natürlich nicht New York, sondern Berlin, durch die er seinen Protagonisten Niko alias Tom Schilling einen ganzen Tag und eine Nacht driften lässt. Niko ist ein junger Mann, der nicht agiert, sondern reagiert. Und er ist ein guter Zuhörer, dem die Menschen ihr Herz ausschütten. Ob es nun der Nachbar von oben ist, der Niko bei Schnaps und Buletten detailliert seine Ehekrise schildert oder seine ehemalige Klassenkameradin Julika, die von ihm wegen ihrer Fettleibigkeit in der Schule immer gehänselt wurde. Zu Nikos Alltag gehören aber auch Begegnungen mit hartnäckigen Straßenbahnkontrolleuren und Macht ausübenden Psychologen. Ganz zu schweigen von seinem Vater, einem etablierten Anwalt, der seinem Sprössling nach einer Partie Golf den Geldhahn abdreht. Gersters Film ist bis in die kleinsten Nebenrollen hinein grandios besetzt. Justus von Dohnanyi als fußballbegeisterter Nachbar etwa, oder Michael Gwisdek als die von Erinnerungen an eine schlimme Zeit heimgesuchte Tresenbekanntschaft. OH BOY ist eine gelungene Mischung aus Melancholie und Humor, der es gelingt, das Lebensgefühl des Protagonisten perfekt wiederzugeben.

Wolfram Hannemanns

DIE FEE (1.1.85, DD 5.1)

OT: La Fée

Verleih: Pandastorm Pictures (Kinostar)

Land/Jahr: Frankreich, Belgien 2011

Regie: Dominique Abel, Fiona Gordon, Bruno Romy

Darsteller: Dominique Abel, Fiona Gordon, Philippe Martz

Kinostart: 06.09.2012

Der hagere Dom arbeitet als Nachtportier in einem abgelegenen Hotel. Und das nicht gerade erfolgreich, hat er doch stets mit der Tücke des Objekts zu kämpfen. Eines Nachts steht plötzlich Fiona vor ihm, die ihm sagt, dass sie eine Fee sei und er drei Wünsche frei habe. Zwei Wünsche fallen ihm spontan ein: er will einen Roller und kostenloses Benzin auf Lebenszeit. Fiona verschwindet in ihrem Zimmer und kurze Zeit später steht tatsächlich ein Roller in der Rezeption... Unweigerlich fühlt man sich beim Betrachten der skurrilen Situationen, die sich Dominique Abel, Fiona Gordon und Bruno Romy für ihren Film ausgedacht haben, an die Filme von Jacques Tati erinnert. Aber auch Laurel und Hardy könnten Pate gestanden haben bei dieser aberwitzigen Burleske, mit der die Regisseure, deren vorheriger Film RUMBA vor vier Jahren im Kino zu sehen war, doch so einige Lachmuskeln in Bewegung setzen können. Das Timing ist zwar nicht immer geglückt (so ist jene Szene, in der Dom von Fiona eine Fußmassage verpasst bekommt, definitiv zu lang geraten!) und an die zusammenhangslos erscheinenden Tanz- und auch Gesangseinlagen muss man sich erst einmal gewöhnen, doch beeindruckt der Film durch seine unkonventionelle Art und Weise. Damit freilich ist das Werk weitab vom Mainstream und wird sich vermutlich nur einen kleinen Zuschauerkreis erarbeiten. Doch wer Absurditäten mag, dem wird dieser kleine in Le Havre angesiedelte Mikrokosmos eine diebische Freude bereiten.

Alice...who the f* is Alice?

Mal wieder ein "No-Brainer" – genau die richtige Kost für eine Pressevorführung in der Abendstunde!

RESIDENT EVIL: RETRIBUTION

(1:2.35, 3D, DD 5.1)

OT: Resident Evil: Retribution

Verleih: Constantin

Land/Jahr: Großbritannien, Deutschland, USA 2012

Regie: Paul W.S. Anderson

Darsteller: Milla Jovovich, Sienna

Guillory, Michelle Rodriguez

Kinostart: 20.09.2012

Aus einem tiefen Schlaf erwacht Alice. Sie ist fast nackt und sitzt in einem High-Tech-Gefängnis. Ausgerechnet ihre einstige Freundin führt ein schmerzhaftes Verhör mit ihr – im Auftrag der Umbrella Corporation, jenes Konzerns also, der das Verderben über die Menschheit brachte. Da weist ihr ein plötzlicher Stromausfall den Weg in die vermeintliche Freiheit. Alice nimmt den Kampf wieder auf – gemeinsam mit ihren alten Feinden. Und sie muss erkennen, dass sie offenbar nicht die einzige Alice ist... Als plötzlich vor ihr eine Vitrine aus dem Nichts erscheint und ein ganzes Arsenal an Waffen freilegt, bringt es Action-Ikone Alice mit nur einem einzigen Wort freudestrahlend auf den Punkt: "Geil!" – Vermutlich werden Hardcore-Gamer exakt dasselbe Wort benutzen, um den fünften Teil des erfolgreichen RESIDENT EVIL Franchise zu beschreiben. Das wundert auch nicht, denn irgendwie scheint der Film jetzt wieder im Game anzukommen. Die Akteure müssen verschiedene Räume (oder besser: Simulationskammern) durchlaufen, um an ihr Ziel zu kommen. Und jeder Raum wartet mit unliebsamen Überraschungen auf – seien es Zombies, die bösen Buben und Mädels der Umbrella Corporation oder ein riesiges echsenähnliches Untier. Der Auftritt dieser unliebsamen Erscheinungen verfolgt freilich nur ein einziges Ziel: es darf nach Herzenslust geballert oder auch mal gedolcht werden! Wie immer spielt Milla Jovovich die eiskalte und unkaputtbare Heldin, die sich in hautenge Sado-Maso-Kleidung zwängt (und damit sicherlich die Herzen männlicher Gamer höher schlagen lässt) und alles unter Kontrolle hat. Aber nicht nur Milla überzeugt zumindest visuell – auch die teilweise gelackten Bilder sind grandios und wirken sogar in 3D. Wenn Alice zu Beginn in einer Art High-Tech-Verließ erwacht, erinnert die Szene irgendwie an Bilder, die Kubrick für 2001 erschaffen hat. Dessen Tiefgang erreicht Paul W.S. Andersons Film natürlich nicht – hier bleibt alles im Trivialen. So trivial, dass die Handlung vollkommen nebensächlich wird. Hier interessiert nur noch der Stil. Slow-Motion, fliegende Menschen und Schwertkämpfe bestimmen über weite Strecken den Film. Leider bleibt am Ende nicht mehr als Langeweile und die Androhung eines sechsten Teils – als ob man das nicht schon geahnt hätte.

Film-Blog

Regie: Niko von Glasow
 Darsteller: Jana Zöll, Nico Randel,
 Mirco Monshausen
 Kinostart: 01.11.2012

Es ist ein unkonventionelles Experiment: da bringt ein Regisseur körperlich behinderte und auch nicht behinderte Menschen zusammen auf eine Bühne, um mit ihnen gemeinsam ein Theaterstück zu entwickeln. Darunter junger Mann mit Down Syndrom, eine Kleinwüchsige im Rollstuhl, eine Blinde, ein Mädchen mit Tourette Syndrom. Die meisten von ihnen Laiendarsteller. Nur die nicht Behinderten sind Profis. Aber sind sie tatsächlich nicht behindert? Regisseur Niko von Glasow ist eigentlich mehr Psychologe denn Regisseur und weiß darum, in das Innerste seiner Schauspieler zu schauen. In der Tat haben auch die äußerlich nicht behinderten Darsteller ihre ganz eigenen, inneren Behinderungen. Während der Arbeit an dem Stück, in dem es um ein Casting geht, zu dem auch Behinderte vorsprechen, ließ von Glasow Kameras mitlaufen, um den Fortschritt zu dokumentieren. Dass jetzt daraus ein Film entstanden ist, war reiner Zufall. Schade wäre es allerdings gewesen, hätte es den Film nie gegeben. Denn die ohne Kommentar zusammengeführten Szenen geben tiefe psychologische Einblicke in die Welt der behinderten Laienschauspieler. Wie ein guter Therapeut versteht sich von Glasow darauf, die Rollen den tatsächlichen (vor allem persönlichen) Gegebenheiten der Darsteller anzupassen. Die Theaterproben geraten damit zu einer äußerst spannenden Gruppentherapie. Nicht umsonst erklärt der Regisseur seinen Darstellern zu Beginn der Proben: "Ihr werdet gestärkt aus diesem Projekt hervorgehen". Die "Therapie" enthält aber auch bewegende und humorvolle Passagen, wenn etwa eine der Protagonistinnen vollkommen in ihrer Rolle aufgeht und die Realität vergisst. Oder wenn sich die blinde Leslie mit dem Regisseur überwirft, weil er, der Contergangeschädigte, sich überhaupt nicht in die Situation eines blinden Menschen hineinversetzen könne. Auch wenn ALLES WIRD GUT vollkommen unspektakulär, geradezu nüch-tern daherkommt, weiß der Film den Zuschauer zu fesseln und ist gleichzeitig ein gelungener Beitrag zum würdevollen Umgang mit körperlich Behinderten.

MANN TUT WAS MANN KANN

(1:2.35, DD 5.1)
 Verleih: Warner
 Land/Jahr: Deutschland 2012
 Regie: Marc Rothemund
 Darsteller: Wotan Wilke Möhring, Jasmin Gerat, Jan Josef Liefers
 Kinostart: 11.10.2012

Zu jedem Topf gibt es den passenden Deckel. Die Kunst ist nur, ihn zu finden. Dr. Paul Schuberth, erfolgreicher Bürohengst, hat seinen Deckel jedenfalls noch nicht gefunden. Trotz intensiver Bemühungen. Die aber führen immer schnurstracks ins Bett zum One-Night-Stand. Vielleicht hilft ja ein Hund gegen die Einsamkeit? Paul will es probieren und wird Pate eines Vierbeiners im Tierheim. Dort lernt er die attraktive Veterinärin Iris Jasper kennen – und verliebt sich spontan in sie. Der Haken: Iris steht kurz vor ihrer Hochzeit... Endlich einmal eine Komödie aus deutschen Landen, die wenigstens eine richtig gute Besetzung aufweisen kann. Wotan Wilke Möhring spielt den smarten und sanftmütigen und dazu noch gutaussehenden Paul, dessen riesiges Single-Reich nach und nach mit seinen an Beziehungen gescheiterten Freunden bevölkert wird. Dazu gehören Jan Josef Liefers alias Guido, sein Kollege, perfekt hässlich gestylt mit schmierigen Haaren und einem Porsche drum herum. Er kann sich nicht zwischen seiner Frau und der Geliebten entscheiden. Auch Günther gehört zu der Männer-WG, ein Computerfreak, perfekt verkörpert vom hageren Oliver Korittke. Der ist zwar unsterblich in die Barfrau Iggy verliebt, ist aber unfähig, ihr seine Liebe zu gestehen. Jasmin Gerat verkörpert die Veterinärin, der sie auch noch einen Hauch Halle Berry verleiht. Bei einem Film wie diesem versteht es sich fast von selbst, dass der Fortgang der Geschichte vorprogrammiert ist und so kaum Überraschungen parat hat. Ein paar witzige Regieeinfälle (z.B. die Liebeserklärung des Computerfreaks) und die Spielfreude des Ensembles machen das aber schnell wieder wett. Etwas störend und fast schon fehlplatziert allerdings die Episode, die Pauls 16-jährige Stieftochter ins Spiel bringt. Die hat dramaturgisch eigentlich im Film gar nichts zu suchen, muss aber letztendlich wohl eine Quote erfüllen (die Tochter outet sich als lesbisch). Eine weitere Hauptrolle in dem Film kommt der Stadt Berlin zu. Martin Langer fängt die Metropole mit sicherem Blick für gute Perspektiven ein und bringt diese formatfüllend auf die CinemaScope-Bildwand. MANN TUT WAS MANN KANN ist passable Kinounterhaltung mit Happy-End-Garantie.

Von Bienen und Hochzeiten

Die letzten beiden Screenings in dieser Woche – honigsüß und wildromantisch.

MORE THAN HONEY (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

Verleih: Senator
 Land/Jahr: Schweiz, Deutschland, Österreich 2012
 Regie: Markus Imhoof
 Kinostart: 08.11.2012

Bienen sind ein ganz persönliches Anliegen von Markus Imhoof. Schon sein Großvater nannte 150 Bienenvölker sein Eigen und verdiente Geld mit ihnen. Doch die Nachrichten der jüngsten Zeit sind beunruhigend. Vom großen Bienensterben ist da die Rede. Was sind die Ursachen, was die Folgen und was die Lösungen? Imhoof holt zweit vollkommen entgegengesetzte Ansichten vor die Kameralinse. Dem einfachen Schweizer Bergmann mit Rauschebart, der seine Bienen ohne Schutzanzug hegt und pflegt, steht der knallharte amerikanische Geschäftsmann entgegen. "Hören Sie das?", fragt er in die Kamera und meint damit das Summen der Bienen. "Das ist der Klang von Geld!" Seine fast 5000 Bienenvölker lässt er die Sträucher einer riesigen Mandelplantage bestäuben. Und er tut alles, damit der Rubel rollt. Dazu gehören auch Antibiotika, mit denen er seine Bienen wettbewerbsfähig "tuned". Bereits dieser krasse Ge-gensatz zwischen Schweizer Bergwelt und amerikanischer Mega-Plantage macht deutlich, dass hier etwas aus dem Ruder läuft. Und da schon seit langer Zeit. Mit beeindruckenden Bildern (dazu gehören auch spektakuläre Makroaufnahmen) schildert Imhoof das Leben der Bienen, begibt sich mit der Kamera hinein in die Bienenstöcke. Einleuchtend erklärt er dem Zuschauer den Biorhythmus, dem die Bienen unterliegen, und zeigt sehr deutlich auf, wo die Stellschrauben sind, die überdreht wurden. Und er zitiert passen dazu Einstein: "Wenn die Bienen aussterben, dann sterben vier Jahre später auch die Menschen aus". Imhoof entlässt seine Zuschauer am Ende des Films mit einem Funken Hoffnung, den er in Australien aufspürte. Und die Hoffnung stirbt bekanntlich zuletzt.

Wolfram Hannemanns

LOVE IS ALL YOU NEED (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: Den Skaldede Frisør

Verleih: Prokino (Fox)

Land/Jahr: Dänemark, Schweden, Italien 2012

Regie: Susanne Bier

Darsteller: Trine Dyrholm, Pierce

Brosnan, Kim Bodnia, Paprika Steen

Kinostart: 22.11.2012

Eigentlich hätte Ida allen Grund um glücklich zu sein. Ihre Chemotherapie ist mit positivem Resultat beendet und ihre Tochter Astrid heiratet in ein paar Tagen ihren Verlobten Patrick in Italien. Ausgerechnet jetzt ertappt sie ihren Mann Leif in flagranti mit seiner Buchhalterin. Vollkommen geschockt reist Ida alleine nach Italien, rammt aber dummerweise noch auf dem Flugplatz das Auto von Patricks Vater Philip. Der aalglatte Geschäftsmann behandelt Ida ganz von oben herab. Zunächst jedenfalls. Denn auf der ausgelassenen Hochzeitsfeier, auf der auch Leif samt Buchhalterin aufkreuzt, kommen sich Schwiegermutter und Schwiegervater näher... Einmal mehr hat Anders Thomas Jensen, Dänemarks bester Drehbuchschreiber, Susanne Bier dabei geholfen, das Drehbuch für ihren neuen Film zu stemmen. Bier, sonst eher eine Regisseurin dramatischer Stoffe, versucht sich hier nun an einer romanti-schen Komödie, was ihr auch durchaus gelingt. Das liegt vor allem an der Chemie, die sich zwischen Trine Dyrholm und Pierce Brosnan entwickelt – sie stimmt einfach und die beiden geben ein wundervolles Paar ab. Aber auch die anderen Figuren in ihrem Spiel sind gut ausgewählt, wie beispielsweise Kim Bodnia als naiver Leif, der gerne Elefant im Porzellanladen spielt, oder Paprika Steen als die total nervende Schwägerin von Philip. Mit wundervollen Bildern von der italienischen Küste sorgt Kameramann Morten Soborg für die perfekte Stimmung. Dass die Hochzeit letztendlich vollkommen anders verläuft, als das geplant war, kann man als Zuschauer zwar erahnen, aber das Drehbuch hält dennoch ein paar nette Überraschungen parat. LOVE IS ALL YOU NEED funktioniert bestens als ein Date-Movie mit Anspruch.

Oma büxt aus

Endlich mal wieder ein prall gefüllter Pressekalender. Und gleich zu Beginn eine Niete. Das ist tröstlich: denn ab jetzt kann es nur noch besser werden!

OMAMAMIA (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

Verleih: Majestic (Fox)

Land/Jahr: Deutschland 2012

Regie: Tomy Wigand

Darsteller: Marianne Sägebrecht, Annette Frier, Miriam Stein

Kinostart: 01.11.2012

Weil ihre Tochter sie in ein Altersheim stecken möchte, büxt Oma Marguerita aus und fliegt von Kanada nach Rom, um dort nicht nur bei ihrer Enkelin Martina unterzutauchen, sondern sich auch vom Papst die Beichte abnehmen zu lassen. Sie staunt nicht schlecht, als sie sieht, dass Martina gar nicht studiert, sondern als Barkeeperin in einem Schuppen jobbt, in dem ihr italienischer Lover mit seiner Band auftritt. Auf dem Weg zur Papst-Audienz läuft ihr auch noch ein graumeliertes Filou über den Weg, mit dem sie etwas widerwillig anbandelt. Dadurch aber gerät die Papst-Audienz zu einer großen Peinlichkeit... Die wunderbaren Aufnahmen aus der kanadischen Bergwelt, die zu Beginn des Films den Hintergrund bilden, vor dem Marianne Sägebrecht alias Oma agiert, machen Hoffnung auf ein wunderschönes Filmabenteuer. Das entpuppt sich jedoch äußerst schnell als eine Finte. Ehe man es sich versieht befindet sich Frau Sägebrecht mitten im pittoresken Rom, während Tochter Marie noch immer in Kanada verweilt. Warum jetzt fortlaufend zwischen Kanada und Rom hin- und hergeschnitten wird, bleibt ein Rätsel. Denn die Handlung führt das kaum weiter. Auch kann man sich des Eindruckes nicht erwehren, dass sich bei diesem Film Drehbuch und Regie vom Klassiker OUT OF ROSENHEIM haben inspirieren lassen – die Ähnlichkeiten sind augenfällig. Wenn beispielsweise Oma Sägebrecht vollkommen fix und fertig von ihrem Flug von Kanada nach Rom bei ihrer Enkelin eintrifft, so hat sie nichts besseres zu tun, als erst einmal die Bude auf Vordermann zu bringen. Wenn sie dann noch rein zufällig ein bayerisches Restaurant in Rom sucht und auch sofort findet (!), kann man sich schon denken, was folgen wird: Oma wird dort zukünftig in der Küche deftiges Bayernmahl zubereiten und das Restaurant zu neuen Höhen führen! Nebenbei sprüht sie dann auch noch ganz ungewollt dem Papst Pfefferspray ins Gesicht, hängt mit der Enkelin in einer Rockbar ab, erwacht mit einem Tattoo über der Brust und will sich sogar noch eben schnell verheiraten, um die Wartezeit für die Papst-Audienz zu minimieren. Tomy Wigand hat da ziemlich viel hineingepackt in seinen Film und es hätte möglicherweise auch etwa daraus werden können. Doch so lieblos wie hier mit dem Schnitt umgegangen wird, kann sich das auch gar nicht entwickeln. OMAMAMIA ist eine Komödie, bei der man einfach vergebens versucht zu lachen.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN VAMPIRJÄGER

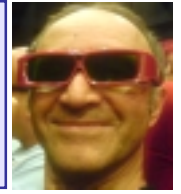

(1:2.35, 3D, DD 5.1 + 7.1)

OT: Abraham Lincoln: Vampire Hunter

Film-Blog

Verleih: Fox
Land/Jahr: USA 2012
Regie: Timur Bekmambetow
Darsteller: Benjamin Walker, Dominic Cooper, Anthony Mackie
Kinostart: 03.10.2012

Als Junge muss Abraham Lincoln mit ansehen, wie seine Mutter von einem Vampir angefallen wird und schließlich stirbt. "Abe" schwört Rache. Als aus ihm schließlich ein junger Mann geworden ist, macht er den Übeltäter ausfindig. Der aber ist recht widerstandsfähig und ist nicht so einfach umzubringen. Nur dem Eingreifen des Vampirjägers Henry Sturges ist es zu verdanken, dass Abraham nicht umgebracht wird. Der rekrutiert ihn sogleich als Vampirjäger und schickt ihn in eine kleine Stadt, wo er tagsüber in einem Laden jobbt und nachts Vampire meuchelt... Timur Bekmambetows Film ist der erste von gleich zwei Filmen über Abraham Lincoln, die in diesem Jahr ins Kino kommen. Der zweite entstand unter Regie von Steven Spielberg und wird ganz sicher kein Fantasy-Konstrukt sein wie es von Bekmambetow inszeniert wurde. Und diese Fantasy gleicht den anderen Fantasy-Filmen, die in letzter Zeit aus Hollywood über uns hereinbrechen. Schnelle Schnitte und düstere Bilder (nicht nur wegen 3D!) dominieren hier. Wenn man nicht genau aufpasst, kann man mitunter schon vergessen, in welchem der zahllosen Fantasy-Filmchen man sich befindet. Die Darsteller wirken fast alle wie aus der Retorte, keiner hat auch nur ein bisschen Charisma. Letzteres hätte aber insbesondere ein Abraham Lincoln schon gebraucht, um wenigstens einen Hauch von Wirklichkeit zu versprühen. Bekmambetow konzentriert sich ausschließlich auf die rasant inszenierte Action und vergisst dabei allzu oft, dass auch etwas Witz dem Film nicht geschadet hätte. Wer comichaft überzeichnete Fights mag, der könnte sich eventuell noch mit diesem Film anfreunden. Mir ist das jedenfalls nicht gelungen.

KILLING THEM SOFTLY (1:2.35, DD 5.1)
OT: Killing Them Softly

Verleih: Wild Bunch (Central)
Land/Jahr: USA 2012
Regie: Andrew Dominik
Darsteller: Brad Pitt, Scoot McNairy, Ben Mendelsohn, James Gandolfini
Kinostart: 29.11.2012

Angestiftet von Gangster Johnny Amato überfallen zwei nicht sonderlich intelligente Kleinkriminelle ein illegales Pokerspiel. Da die von der Unterwelt organisierten und überwachten Pokerspiele danach alle ausgesetzt werden und der Rubel nicht mehr rollt, soll Auftragskiller Jackie Cogan die Schuldigen möglichst schnell ausfindig machen. Das ist aber nicht so einfach, denn auch in der Unterwelt hat die Bürokratie inzwischen Einzug gehalten. Cogan beginnt einen nervtötenden Job... Immer wieder sind auf der Tonspur des Films Ausschnitte aus den Wahlkampfreden anlässlich der Präsidentschaftswahlen zu hören, die Amerika während der großen Finanzkrise im Jahre 2008 auf Trab halten. Das ist kein Zufall, sondern Absicht. Denn die Krise ist Symbol für jene Krise, die die Protagonisten des Films durchleben müssen. Bedingt durch den Überfall auf das illegale Pokerspiel werden alle Spiele ausgesetzt. Geld ist damit erst wieder zu verdienen, wenn die Schuldigen bestraft worden sind und wieder Normalität eingekehrt ist. Also steckt auch die Unterwelt in ihrer ganz eigenen Finanzkrise: was draußen in der Welt im großen Stil passiert, passiert hier im Kleinen. Bis in die kleinsten Rollen hat Andrew Dominik seinen humorigen Thriller mit solchen Schauspielern besetzt, die man als Kinogänger schon immer mit Unterweltlern assoziierte. Der Film bekommt dadurch einen fast schon authentischen Anstrich. James Gandolfini ist einer dieser Charaktere. Hier spielt er einen Auftragskiller, der aus New York eingeflogen wird, aber weitaus mehr an Alkohol und Nutten interessiert ist als an seinem Job. Mit Engelszungen versucht Kollege Jackie Cogan alias Brad Pitt, ihn zu seinem eigentlichen Auftrag zu bewegen. Genauso wie er mit Engelsgeduld mit seinem eigenen Auftraggeber zu verhandeln versucht. Dabei entstehen dann absurde und schwarz-humorige Dialoge, während denen nichts auf der Leinwand passiert. Minutenlang. Trotzdem bleibt man am Ball – vielleicht weil diesen Dialogen immer wieder Szenen harter Brutalität gegenüberstehen. Man weiß nicht, was als nächstes passieren wird. Um die Authentizität seines Films zu erhöhen, haben Dominiks Toningenieure dem Film ein ausgeklügeltes Sounddesign verpasst, das die Tonebene des Films in ein dreidimensionales Klangbild verwandelt. Filmmusik gibt es hier nicht, nur Geräusche jeder Art. KILLING THEM SOFTLY ist ungewöhnliches, augenzwinkerndes Gangsterkino, das einen Kinobesuch rechtfertigt.

Wahlkämpfer und Einzelkämpfer

Heute wurde an allen Fronten gekämpft. In North Carolina gibt es einen Wahlkampf, während in Istanbul ein Vater um das Überleben seiner Familie kämpft.

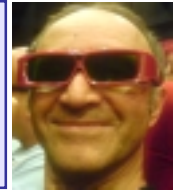

DIE QUAL DER WAHL (1:1.85, DD 5.1)
OT: The Campaign
Verleih: Warner
Land/Jahr: USA 2012
Regie: Jay Roach
Darsteller: Will Ferrell, Zach Galifianakis, Jason Sudeikis
Kinostart: 04.10.2012

Weil sich der Abgeordnete Cam Brady während der Wahlvorbereitungen einen überaus dummen Ausrutscher leistet, stellen zwei millionschwere Geschäftsleute einen Gegenkandidaten auf, mit dessen Hilfe sie sich die Durchsetzung ihrer Profitinteressen erhoffen. Ihre Wahl fällt auf den naiven Marty Huggins. Mit Hilfe eines knallharten Coachs scheint Marty das schier Unmögliche zu gelingen: er steigt in der Gunst der Wähler und überflügelt bald schon Brady. Jetzt kann die Schlamm-schlacht beginnen... Zu einem besseren Zeitpunkt hätte Jay Roachs herrliche Politsatire wohl kaum kommen können: in Amerika tobt momentan der Präsidentschaftswahlkampf und da wird mit harten Bandagen gekämpft. So wie es die beiden Kontrahenten in diesem Film tun – nur eben wesentlich witziger. Auch geht es nicht um das

Wolfram Hannemanns

Film-Blog

Präsidentenamts, sondern nur um einen Platz im Kongress. Letztendlich jedoch ist es vollkommen egal, um welches politische Amt hier gekämpft wird. Die ausufernden Folgeerscheinungen sind immer dieselben. Der filmische Wahlkampf ist hervorragend besetzt. Will Ferrell in der Rolle des skrupellosen Cam Brady, der jedes Fettnäpfchen, in das er tritt, auf dümmlich-naive Weise gewinnbringend umzuwandeln versucht, ist das Ebenbild eines schmierigen, mit allen Wassern gewaschenen Politikers, der nicht das Wohl der Bürger, sondern das eigene im Visier hat. Zach Galifianakis überzeugt als Marty Huggins, der als Joker für die Profitgier eines Konzerns zum Kandidaten gekürt wird. Sein Gang, seine Mimik und Gestik sind einfach nur köstlich und beweisen, welcher Komiker in ihm steckt. Die witzige Sprechweise, die er im Original an den Tag legt, dürfte eine Herausforderung für die deutsche Synchronfassung sein. DIE QUAL DER WAHL ist eine gelungene Politsatire, bei der kräftig gelacht werden darf. In der Tat wurde bei einer Pressevorführung schon lange nicht mehr so ausgiebig und herzlich gelacht!

96 HOURS - TAKEN 2 (1:2.35, DD 5.1 + Dolby Atmos)
 OT: Taken 2
 Verleih: Universum (Walt Disney)
 Land/Jahr: Frankreich 2012
 Regie: Olivier Megaton
 Darsteller: Liam Neeson, Maggie Grace, Famke Janssen
 Kinostart: 11.10.2012

Das hat er nun davon. Bryan Mills, der CIA-Agent im Ruhestand, wird von seiner blutigen Vergangenheit heimgesucht. Denn was der Gute nicht ahnen konnte: einer der Männer, die er bei seinem kleinen Privatkrieg seinerzeit in Paris getötet hat, hatte einen liebenden Vater. Und genau der lässt Bryan mit samt Ex-Frau Lenore bei einem Urlaub in Istanbul jetzt entführen, um den Tod seines kriminellen Sohnes zu rächen. Was der Schurke allerdings nicht weiß: Bryans erwachsene Tochter eilt zu Hilfe... Ganze vier Jahre ist es bereits her, dass Liam Neeson als Ex-CIA-Agent Bryan Mills halb Paris in Schutt und

Asche zerlegt hat und einer ganzen Horde albanischer Mädchenhändler gezeigt hat, wo der Bartel den Most holt. Der alte Mann und sein beachtlicher Body Count waren an der Kinokasse so erfolgreich, dass Luc Besson und Co-Autor Robert Mark Kamen jetzt eine Fortsetzung in die Kinos beamten. Durch den neuen Schauplatz Istanbul erhält der Film jetzt sogar noch ein exotisches Upgrade. Alles andere indes ist gleich geblieben. Bis auf den Filmschnitt vielleicht. Der scheint noch einen Zahn zugelegt zu haben. Liam Neeson muss sich jetzt im Zweikampf gar nicht mehr bewegen, denn die Action entsteht einzig durch die irrsinnig schnelle Bildabfolge. Nach Logik hält man auch in Istanbul vergebens Ausschau. Wenn das Töchterlein beispielsweise immer wieder Handgranaten um sich wirft, um ihrem gekidnappten Daddy akustische Signale zu geben, so scheint das die Einheimischen in keiner Art und Weise aus dem Konzept zu bringen – sie ignorieren es einfach. Business as usual eben. Aber welcher Action-Fan interessiert sich schon für Plausibilität? Hier zählt vielmehr das Wie. Und das ist durchaus gelungen. Die irrwitzige Autoverfolgungsjagd durch die kleinen Gassen Istanbuls macht in der Tat atemlos. Die Verfolgungsjagd über den Dächern der Stadt erinnert jedoch sehr an Tom Tykwers THE INTERNATIONAL (den die Filmmacher ganz sicher kennen). Fragt die Tochter ihren Vater, was er denn jetzt tun würde, da sich die Mutter noch immer in den Fängen der Albanier befindet. “Das was ich am besten kann”, erwidert der. Das Programm hat seinen Startpunkt. Und das Ende ist schon klar. Wissen wir doch alle nur allzu gut, dass gegen die amerikanische Einmann-Armee ganze Heerscharen böser Männer nichts ausrichten können. Ab und zu brauchen wir eben alle dieses sichere Gefühl, das Kino unbeschadet verlassen zu können. Mission accomplished.

Teenagerdrama und Roadmovie
 Das heutige Pressedoppel hatte wieder viel Abwechslung zu bieten.

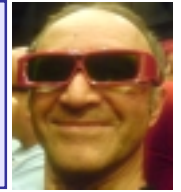

VIELLEICHT LIEBERMORGEN
 (1:1.85, DD 5.1)
 OT: The Perks Of Being A Wallflower
 Verleih: Capelight (Central)
 Land/Jahr: USA 2012
 Regie: Steve Chbosky
 Darsteller: Emma Watson, Nina Dobrev, Logan Lerman, Ezra Miller
 Kinostart: 01.11.2012

Nach einer langen Auszeit, deren Hintergründe erst im Laufe des Films enthüllt werden, beginnt der introvertierte Charlie sein erstes Jahr an der High School. Freunde hat er keine, fristet ein Dasein als Mauerblümchen. Zufällig trifft er seinen Mitschüler Patrick und dessen Stiefschwester Sam bei einem Baseballspiel, die ihn anschließend zu einer Party mitnehmen. Dort wird der schüchterne Charlie unter dem Einfluss von Dope erstmals lockerer und auch “bemerkt”. Zwischen Charlie, Patrick und Sam entsteht eine tiefe Freundschaft. Unmerklich beginnt sich Charlie in Sam zu verlieben. Die aber hat schon einen Freund, der aber gar nicht zu ihr passt. Und auch Charlie wirft sich ein anderes Mädchen an den Hals, das er eigentlich gar nicht haben möchte. Werden die beiden unglücklich Verliebten je zusammenfinden? An dem nichtsagenden deutschen Titel darf man sich nicht stören. Frei übersetzt lautet der Originaltitel in etwa "Die Vorzüge ein Mauerblümchen zu sein". Das passt dann doch gleich viel besser zur Situation, in der Charlie zu Beginn des Films steckt. Erst durch den Kontakt zu anderen Außenseitern an seiner High School (Patrick beispielsweise ist schwul, hatte aber noch kein Coming Out) wird er ganz allmählich aus der Reserve gelockt und entdeckt sogar die Liebe. Angesiedelt ist Steve Chbosky Film, der ihn nach seinem eigenen Roman inszenierte, in den späten siebziger oder frühen achtziger Jahren – unverkennbar an den Cassetten-Decks, mit denen Charlie Mix-Tapes für Sam anfertigt, sowie am Soundtrack des Films, der mit Hits aus dieser Zeit ausgestattet ist. Perfekt trifft der Regisseur damit das Lebensgefühl der Teenager jener Zeit und seine äußerst talentierten jungen Darsteller sind in der Lage, dies auch darzustellen. Zu ihnen gehören Logan Lerman als Charlie, Emma Watson (nicht nur wegen der hübschen Kurzhaarfrisur weit entfernt von "Harry Potter") als Sam und Ezra Miller (WE NEED TO TALK ABOUT KEVIN) als der oft überdrehte Patrick. Just als man denkt, der Film wäre jetzt zu Ende, nimmt uns das Drehbuch an der Hand und erzählt uns, was mit Charlie vor seiner High-School-Zeit tatsächlich passiert ist. Das kommt dann so abrupt und wirkt wie eine Balkonlösung. Hier hätte man sich eine bessere Integration in den Film gewünscht.

PUPPE, ICKE UND DER DICKE (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

Verleih: Drei-Freunde

Land/Jahr: Deutschland 2011

Regie: Felix Stienz

Darsteller: Tobias Böttcher, Stéphanie Capetanidis, Matthias Scheuring

Kinostart: 22.11.2012

Drei Menschen, wie sie unterschiedlicher nicht sein könnten. Da ist der kleinwüchsige Bomber, der gerade seinen Job als Kurierfahrer verloren hat und mit der letzten Fuhre nach Paris durchbrennt. Dann gibt es die blinde Europe, eine gutaussehende junge Pariserin, die ihren Geliebten in Berlin wiederfinden möchte. Zu guter Letzt ist da noch der stumme und übergewichti-ge Bruno, der wie Europe auch von Paris nach Berlin möchte. Verschiedene Zufälle sorgen dafür, dass sich die drei plötzlich in Bombers Auto wiederfinden und gemeinsam nach Berlin fahren. Ein Road-Trip der skurrilen Art beginnt... Mit seinen Freunden zusammen hat er einen Film gemacht: Felix Stienz, ein Newcomer am deutschen Regie-Himmel. Entstanden ist ein skurriles, multilinguales Road-Movie mit Ausflügen ins Surreale. Da gibt es beispielsweise Szenen, in denen die Musiker, die den Soundtrack zur Szene spielen, einfach ins Bild stolpern und den Protagonisten umgeben. Besetzt hat Stienz seinen Film mit waschechten Originalen. Tobi B. spielt "Bomber", den Typen mit ungehemmter Berliner Schnauze; Stéphanie Capetanidis als die blinde "Europe" mit "escht fronsösischem Aksont", und Matthias Scheuring als der stumme "Bruno", dessen voluminöser Körper dafür Bände spricht. Dass das alles dann doch nicht so ganz überzeugt, liegt vielleicht einfach nur daran, dass man skurrile Figuren schon zur Genüge über die Leinwände hat huschen sehen. Aki Kaurismäkis Filme fallen einem da sofort ein. Nicht nur wegen der Charaktere und der Situationen, in denen sie sich befinden, sondern auch im Hinblick auf die Musik. Wer auf seltsame Zeitgenossen steht, der sollte sich von meiner Besprechung nicht davon abhalten lassen, sich ein eigenes Bild vom Film zu machen. Denn der hat immerhin auf einem renommierten Filmfestival den Publikumspreis abgeräumt.

Eisiger Krimi und eisiges Drama

Schnee spielte in beiden Filme heute eine große Rolle.

COLD BLOOD – KEINAUSWEG, KEINE GNADE (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: Deadfall

Verleih: Studiocanal

Land/Jahr: USA 2012

Regie: Stefan Ruzowitzky

Darsteller: Eric Bana, Olivia Wilde, Charlie Hunnam

Kinostart: 22.11.2012

Während ganz Michigan von einem

Blizzard heimgesucht wird, werden drei Aktionen in Gang gesetzt, die unweigerlich aufeinander zulaufen. Da sind die Geschwister Addison und Liza, die auf der Flucht nach einem Überfall mit ihrem Auto im winterlichen Niemandsland einen Unfall bauen und sich danach getrennt durchschlagen. Dann gibt es den Ex-Boxer Jay, der gerade aus dem Gefängnis entlassen wurde und sich auf dem Weg zu seinen Eltern befindet. Und schlussendlich muss sich die junge Polizistin Hanna gegen die Vorbehalte ihres Vaters, dem Oberpolizisten, wehren, was sie schließlich geradewegs in die Hände von Addison treibt... COLD BLOOD ist das US-Debüt des Österreicher Stefan Ruzowitzky, dessen Film DIE FÄLSCHER 2008 mit dem Oscar als "Bester ausländischer Film" prämiert wurde. Nicht nur die Winterlandschaft, die die Bilder dominiert, erinnert hier an den Kultfilm FARGO der Gebrüder Coen, auch gibt es hier wie dort eine ermittelnde Polizistin. Ruzowitzkys Film aber ist nur durchschnittliche Thriller-Ware und kann sich daher kaum messen mit der rabenschwarzen Komödie der Coens. Weder am Cast gibt es etwas zu mäkeln (alle Darsteller füllen ihre Rollen gut aus) noch an der Kameraarbeit von Shane Hurlbut (Blut im Schnee kommt immer gut!). Etwas störend hingegen die etwas übertriebene Gewaltdarstellung, die speziell dort ziemlich aufgesetzt wirkt, wo Eric Bana einen Finger einbüßt.

WINTERDIEB (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

OT: L'Enfant D'En Haut

Verleih: Arsenal

Land/Jahr: Schweiz, Frankreich 2012

Regie: Ursula Meier

Darsteller: Léa Seydoux, Kacey Mottet Klein, Martin Compston, Gillian Anderson

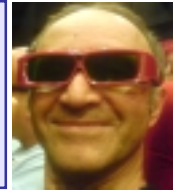

Kinostart: 08.11.2012

Jeden Tag fährt der zwölfjährige Simon aus dem Tal mit der Gondel hinauf in das riesige Skigebiet, in das während des Winters Touristen aus der ganzen Welt kommen. Im Schutz des ganzen Trubels auf der Bergspitze hat er leichtes Spiel, teure Skis und ebenso teures Zubehör zu klauen. Die heiße Ware verhökert er dann im Tal, vom Gewinn kauft er Nahrung für sich und seine junge Mutter. Mit ihr zusammen lebt er in einem seelenlosen Wohnblock. Anderen gegenüber gibt sich Simons Mutter immer als dessen Schwester aus. Ingeheim lehnt sie ihren kleinen Sohn ab. Der aber sehnt sich nach der Liebe der Mutter... In seiner Machart erinnert Ursula Meiers Film an die Filme der Gebrüder Dardenne. Die Regisseurin schildert auf sehr sensible Weise die unglückliche Lage, in der der kleine Simon steckt. Alles würde er für seine Mutter tun, wenn sie ihm nur ein bisschen Liebe schenken würde. Die beiden Hauptdarsteller (Léa Seydoux als die Mutter, Kacey Mottet Klein als ihr Sohn) brillieren in ihren Rollen und geben dem Film dadurch Authentizität. Vollkommen unspektakulär gibt er sich, mit wenig Filmmusik, doch dafür aber umso ergreifender seine Wirkung. Und mit einem Ende, das einem die Tränen in die Augen treibt. Sehenswert.

Läuterung

Ein viel umjubeltes Stück Film aus Südkorea stand heute auf der Tagesordnung.

PIETA (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

OT: Pieta

Verleih: MFA

Land/Jahr: Südkorea 2012

Regie: Kim Ki-duk

Darsteller: Lee Jeong-jin, Jo Min-Su, Woo Gi-hong

Kinostart: 08.11.2012

Lee Kang-do arbeitet als Geldeintreiber für einen Kredithai. Seine Opfer sind die Ärmsten den Armen. Können sie nicht zahlen, macht sie der gewissenlose Geldeintreiber zu Krüppeln, um die Versicherungssumme zu kassieren. Eines Tages folgt ihm plötzlich eine Frau, die vorgibt, seine Mutter zu sein. Der Weise Lee glaubt ihr nicht und stellt sie auf die Probe. Erst als sie die Vergewaltigung durch ihn in Tränen hin nimmt, beginnt er ihr zu glauben. Damit beginnt Lee Kang-dos Läuterung, der schon bald der Gewalt abschwört. Noch ahnt er aber nicht, dass ihm das Schlimmste noch bevorsteht... Späte-stens seit OLD BOY wissen wir, dass sich die Koreaner an ewig langen Racheszenarien ergötzen können. Derartige Szenarien können da schon gerne mal mehrere Jahrzehnte dauern und bei westlichen Betrachtern zu ungläubigem Achselzucken führen. Auch Kim Ki-duks neuer in und Venedig preisgekrönter Film macht da keine Ausnahme. Um was es hier letztendlich geht, verrät der Regisseur erst ganz am Ende des Films. Bis es soweit ist konfrontiert Ki-duk seine Zuschauer mit roher Gewalt, Elendsvierteln, Masturbation und Inzest. Keine leichte Kost. Auch keine, die sich dem Zuschauer schnell erschließen wird. Eben typisch asiatisch. Filmkunst? Womöglich!

Wenn Film so richtig weh tut

Meine letzte Pressevorführung in dieser Woche war gleichzeitig der Tiefpunkt des Monats.

ASTERIX & OBELIX – IMAUFTRAG IHRER MAJESTÄT (1:2.35, 3D, DD 5.1)

OT: Asterix & Obelix – God Save Britannia

Verleih: Concorde

Land/Jahr: Frankreich 2012

Regie: Laurent Tirard

Darsteller: Gérard Depardieu, Edouard Baer, Catherine Deneuve, Bouli Lanners, Dany Boon, Gérard Jugnot

Kinostart: 18.10.2012

Weil Britannien von Caesar und seinen Legionen bedroht wird, soll ein Abgesandter der Königin die Gallier und ihren Zaubertrank zu Hilfe holen. Aber auch die Römer holen sich Hilfe: die bösen Normannen, die endlich einmal wissen wollen, was Angst ist. Diesen Film von Anfang bis Ende durchzuhalten war nicht gerade einfach! Der quält sich nämlich von einem mühseligen Gag zum nächsten – und das fast ganze zwei Stunden lang. Wenn es Schmerzensgeld fürs Filmeschauen gäbe – mit ASTERIX & OBELIX könnte man glattweg zum Millionär werden. Doch da auch jeder Film etwas Gutes hat, sollte das hier nicht unerwähnt bleiben: Hut ab vor Klaus Badelts orchestraler Filmmusik, die ihre Aufgabe mit großer Hingabe erledigt. Dafür bedarf es aber keines Films – da reicht eine Soundtrack-CD vollkommen aus. Zu hoffen bleibt, dass es keine weitere Asterix-Realverfilmung mehr geben wird.

Gewalt in Slow Motion

Heute ging es vom Todd-AO Filmfestival in Karlsruhe auf direktem Wege in die Pressevorführungen nach Stuttgart.

DREDD (1:2.35, 3D, DD 5.1)

OT: Dredd

Verleih: Universum (Walt Disney)

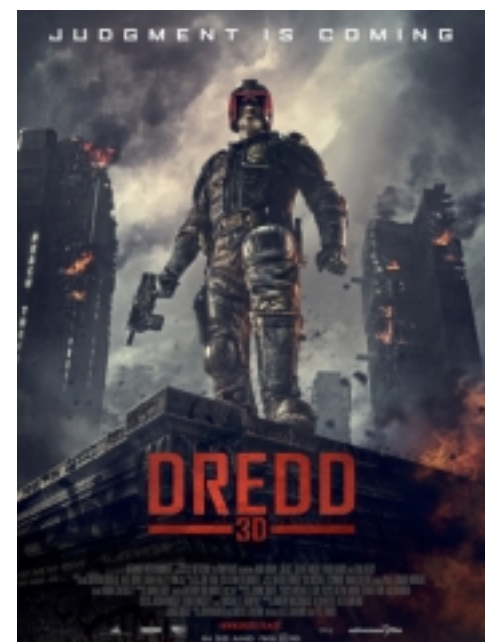

Land/Jahr: Südafrika, Großbritannien 2012

Regie: Pete Travis

Darsteller: Karl Urban, Olivia Thirlby, Lena Headey

Kinostart: 15.11.2012

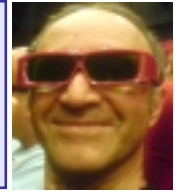

In Mega City One, einer gigantischen amerikanischen Großstadt irgendwann in der nahen Zukunft, herrscht die Gewalt. Sogenannte "Judges" - Polizisten, Richter und Vollstrecker in Personalunion – versuchen gegen die Kriminalität anzugehen. Dredd ist einer von ihnen und der Beste seines Fachs. Gemeinsam mit einer neuen Rekrutin will er der Drogenbaronin Ma-Ma die Hölle heiss machen. In ihrem Labor, das sich in einem hermetisch abgeriegelten Wolkenkratzer befindet, lässt sie eine Droge herstellen, die die Realität in Zeitlupe erleben lässt. Bald schon sitzen

Wolfram Hannemanns

Film-Blog

Dredd und seine Kollegin in der Falle... Breit ausgespielte Gewaltszenen dominieren Pete Travis' Neuauflage der "Judge Dredd"-Comicvorlage. Und sie werden in atemberaubender Technik zelebriert: in extremer Slow-Motion dürfen wir genüsslich zusehen, wenn eine Kugel ein Gesicht zerfetzt oder ein Körper mit dem Kopf voran auf dem harten Beton aufschlägt und zerbricht. Pulsierende Technomusik begleitet die Duelle, die sich die guten Cops mit der Überzahl von bösen Menschen liefern. Auf der Tonebene haben die im Kino installierten Subwoofer eine Menge Arbeit zu verrichten und auch die Surround-Lautsprecher werden ordentlich durchgepusht. Dazu ein betörend depressives Produktionsdesign. Aber wo bleibt die Geschichte? Vermutlich war für ein gutes Drehbuch einfach kein Budget mehr vorhanden. Wozu braucht man das auch? Es kommt ja nur auf den Body Count an. Stimmt der, klingelt's in der Kasse. Das zumindest scheint die Denkweise der Filmemacher zu sein. Verachtenswert.

NIKO 2 – KLEINES RENTIER, GROSSER HELD (1:1.85, 3D, DD 5.1)
OT: Niko – Family Affairs
Verleih: Universum (Walt Disney)
Land/Jahr: Finnland, Dänemark, Irland, Deutschland 2012
Regie: Kari Juusonen, Jørgen Lerdam
Kinostart: 01.11.2012

Es will einfach nicht klappen. Dabei übt das kleine Rentier Niko gemeinsam mit seinem Papa so tapfer das Fliegen in Weihnachtsgeschwindigkeit. Doch es bedarf eines frohen Herzens dafür. Kein Wunder also, dass es bei Niko nicht klappen will. Denn seine Eltern leben getrennt, was Niko ganz traurig stimmt. Als dann plötzlich seine Mama auch noch einen neuen "Ersatzvater" mitsamt dem kleinen Jonni anschleppt, brennt bei Niko eine Sicherung durch. Beim Versteckenspielen im Wald lässt er seinen neu gewonnenen kleinen Bruder alleine zurück. Als sich aber die fiesen Adler Jonni schnappen, bricht in Niko der Beschützerinstinkt hervor: er setzt alles daran, Jonni zu retten... Die Fortsetzung zu dem erfolgreichen ersten NIKO-Film wartet mit interessan-ten Themen auf, die in dem perfekt computeranimierten Kinderfilm spielerisch erarbeitet werden. Da geht es um Patchwork-Familien, Einsamkeit, Freundschaft und Solidarität. Eingeflochten werden diese Themen in ein rasantes Abenteuer, das auch mit witzigen Einfällen und niedlichen Charakteren nicht spart. Kleineren Kindern könnte die Action jedoch schon etwas zuviel werden. Auch gibt es eine paar Szenen, die für die ganz Kleinen zu gruselig sein dürften (z.B. Jonnis Gefangenschaft im Verließ der Adler). Tontechnisch lässt der Film zu wünschen übrig: die Musikaufnahmen klingen wenig räumlich und lassen das Gefühl aufkommen, das mit dem Ton etwas nicht stimmt. Möglicherweise wollte man aber einfach nur eine "kindgerechte" Tonfassung erstellen.

Häusliche Gewalt

Offiziell wusste niemand von der heutigen Pressevorführung, weil die betreuende Agentur ganz offensichtlich vergessen hatte, Einladungen zu verschicken. Aber ausnahmsweise habe ich mal auf die Gerüchteküche gehört und bin auf Verdacht hingegangen – Bingo!

FESTUNG (1:1.85, DD 5.1)
Verleih: farbfilm (24 Bilder)
Land/Jahr: Deutschland 2011
Regie: Kirsi Marie Liimatainen
Darsteller: Ursina Lardi, Peter Lohmeyer, Elisa Essig, Karoline Herfurth, Antonia Pankow, Ansgar Göbel
Kinostart: 29.11.2012

In ihrer Schule ist die 13jährige Johanna eine Außenseiterin. Über die Einladung zu ihrer Geburtstagsfeier lachen alle, beim Sport will sie keiner in seiner Mannschaft haben. Dass die verschlossene Johanna ein Opfer ihres Elternhauses ist, ahnt niemand. Ihr jähzorniger Vater verprügelt Johannas Mutter auch nach Absolvierung einer Therapie nach wie vor. Die ältere Schwester Claudia ist schon längst von zuhause ausgezogen, die kleine Schwester stellt sich einfach tot wenn Papa böse wird zu Mama. Obendrein steckt Johanna mitten in der Pubertät, wünscht sich sehnsüchtig einen Freund, dem sie sich anvertrauen kann. In Christian hofft sie ihn zu finden... Kirsi Marie Liimatains Film ist ein sensibles Drama über häusliche Gewalt, geschildert aus der Sicht einer 13jährigen. Elisa Essig überzeugt als Johanna, die zwischen allen Stühlen sitzt und sich niemandem anvertrauen kann. Gefangen zwischen der zerrütteten Familie und ihrem ersten Freund spiegelt sich ihr Innenleben perfekt in ihrem ernsten Gesicht wider. Auch die anderen Darsteller (Ursina Lardi als die depressive, wehrlose Mutter; Peter Lohmeyer als unberechenbarer, gewalttätiger Vater; Karoline Herfurth als rebellierende ältere Schwester) sind gut gewählt. Auch wenn der Film auf eine explizite Darstellung der Gewalt verzichtet und diese nur akustisch andeutet, ist sie stets präsent und schafft eine Atmosphäre der Bedrohung. Leider verschenkt der Film ein paar Punkte dadurch, dass das Zusammenspiel zwischen den gestandenen Darstellern und den Neulingen etwas holprig wirkt. Der Film wird dadurch immer wieder in die Nähe eines Amateurprojekts gedrängt; es fehlt an Homogenität. Speziell die Liebesgeschichte zwischen Johanna und Christian wirkt recht unbeholfen. FE-STUNG ist Kirsi Marie Liimatains Kinodebüt, mit dem sie einen guten Einstand liefert, dem zwar noch der letzte Schliff fehlt, aber gleichzeitig neugierig auf Folgeprojekte macht.

Donnerstag, 11. Oktober 2012 Verschwörungstheorien und gestrandete Seelen

Die letzten beiden Pressevorführungen in dieser Woche waren den Gang ins Kino durchaus wert.

HARODIM – NICHTS ALS DIE WAHRHEIT? (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

Verleih: Polyband (24 Bilder)

Land/Jahr: Österreich 2011

Regie: Paul Finelli

Darsteller: Peter Fonda, Travis Fimmel, Michael Desante

Kinostart: 08.11.2012

Schon seit vielen Jahren lebt Ex-Navy-SEAL Lazarus Fell im Untergrund. Der Experte für verdeckte Operationen ist offiziell gestorben. Nicht einmal seine Familie weiß, dass er noch am Leben ist. Sein Ziel: ungestört den Mörder seines Vaters zu finden, der als ein hohes Tier des amerikanischen Geheimdienstes bei den Anschlägen auf das World Trade Center ums Leben kam. Jetzt hat er den dafür verantwortlichen Terroristen dingfest gemacht und in sein abgeschottetes Verlies gebracht. Doch bevor er den Bösen umbringt, soll ihm der alles erzählen. Was ihm der Terrorist jetzt allerdings als Wahrheit auftischt, sprengt alle Dimensionen. Ist es nur ein Trick oder soll im Lazarus glauben? Paul Finellis Spielfilmdebüt ist ein kammerspielartiger Thriller, in dem die Attentate vom 11. September als die Spitze einer riesigen globalen Verschwörung entlarvt werden. Die Schilderungen des Terroristen, das Verhör durch Lazarus werden immer wieder mit authentischem Nachrichtenmaterial durchsetzt, das den Zuschauer dazu auffordert, selbst einmal über die Ereignisse nachzudenken. War alles tatsächlich nur ein Schwindel unter dem Deckmantel des Terrorismus? Finelli inszeniert seinen mit kleinem Budget produzierten Film äußerst spannend und zieht zum Ende hin noch einmal kräftig an der Schraube. Unterstützt wird der Film von einem außergewöhnlichen Sounddesign mit Sogwirkung: man wird in die Handlung hineinkatapultiert. Leider schadet der Film selbst seinem Spannungsaufbau indem er bereits im Titelvorspann verrät, dass es nicht bei einem Zwei-Personen-Stück bleibt. Eines aber macht der Thriller gleich ganz am Anfang klar: "Dieser Film ist keine wahre Geschichte, sondern eine Fiktion" steht da zu lesen. Dann aber werden sofort ein paar Passagen geschwärzt, womit dann Folgendes zu lesen ist: "Dieser Film ist keine Fiktion".

PARKED – GESTRANDET (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: Parked

Verleih: Dualfilm

Land/Jahr: Irland, Finnland 2011

Regie: Darragh Byrne

Darsteller: Colm Meaney, Colin Morgan, Milka Ahlroth

Kinostart: 29.11.2012

Uhrmacher Fred ist eine gestrandete Seele. Seit seiner Rückkehr von England nach Dublin ist er arbeitslos. Weil er keinen Wohnsitz hat, wird ihm Sozialhilfe verwehrt. So lebt er in seinem Auto, das er auf einem Parkplatz an der Dubliner Küste abgestellt hat. Eines Tages bekommt er einen Nachbarn: Cathal, ein junger Drogenabhängiger, lebt ebenfalls in seinem Auto und stellt es auf demselben Parkplatz ab. Die beiden ungleichen Männer schließen Freundschaft und unterstützen sich gegenseitig. Cathal hilft Fred bei der Eroberung einer Frau, Fred hilft Cathal bei der Überwindung seiner Drogensucht. Doch Cathal hat Schulden und sein Geldleiher versteht keinen Spaß... Fred (vorzüglich gespielt von Colm Meaney) steht auf dem Sprungbrett einer Schwimmhalle. Er zögert, überlegt. Um dann schließlich das Sprungbrett wieder zu verlassen. Diese Szene symbolisiert den Zustand, in dem sich der Protagonist befindet: sein Selbstvertrauen ist durch seine unglückliche Situation schon lange gebrochen. Noch ein paar Mal im Verlauf des Films sehen wir Fred auf dem Sprungbrett. Den Sprung ins kalte Wasser wird er allerdings erst am Ende des Films wieder wagen. Die Freundschaft mit dem Junkie Cathal (sehr überzeugend: Colin Morgan) bringt erst ganz allmählich Freds Vertrauen ins ich selbst zurück. Das Spielfilmdebüt des Dokumentarfilmers Darragh Byrne weist außer beachtlichen Darstellerleistungen auch eine exzellente Kameraarbeit (John Conroy) und eine wunderbare Filmmusik (Niall Byrne) auf. PARKED ist für die Kinoleinwand gemacht und sollte unbedingt auch dort angeschaut werden.

The Amazing World Of Gumball: The Mystery

Gumball's world is pretty run-of-the-mill. He's chased around school by a T-Rex. He has a friend named Anton who's a piece of toast. He's got a crush on Penny, a peanut with antlers. His dad is a 6'4 - bunny. His mom works at a Rainbow Factory. And his brother is a goldfish named Darwin. Yup, everything looks perfectly normal here.

Bodacious Space Pirates: Collection One

Most families have a skeleton or two in the closet, but Marika is understandably shocked to learn that what her family has been hiding is a skull and crossbones! And while the revelation that her late father was a space pirate would have been earthshaking enough for most teenage girls, discovering that he was the captain of the notorious pirate ship Benten Maru will change Marika's life forever. Because, you see, pirating is a family business, and she's just inherited the position of captain. Not to mention that her father's former crew is quite intent on making sure Marika accepts the job! So what's a girl to do? Well, if you're a high school student whose prior total naval experience has been working at the space yacht club, there's really only one moral dilemma that has to be resolved: are pirates allowed to wear really short mini-skirts? Get ready for intergalactic buccaneering unlike any you've ever seen before as the spaceways get broad-sided by cutting lasses, curvy knaves and the sexiest pirate's chest ever in Bodacious Space Pirates Collection 1!

Franklin: Franklin And The Green Knight - The Movie

Everyone in Woodland is very tired of the winter, and they fear that spring may never arrive. Franklin is particularly excited about the arrival of spring because that is also when his new baby brother or sister will be born. However, Franklin becomes concerned that his mom and dad might not have time for him anymore, and anxious that he will not be a good big brother. In an attempt to prove himself worthy, (and get mom and dad's attention), he decides that he must bring spring to Woodland. Following the lead of a myth his mom has told him, he assumes the role of a Knight and sets out to the woods on a quest for spring. With Squire Snail at his side he encounters some wild adventures and an unusual cast of characters. Although he does not find spring, he does find true friendship with Snail, gains confidence that he will be a good big brother, and is assured that his parents will have enough love for both the baby and him. The story culminates with the birth of a new sister Harriet.

Idolmaster Xenoglossia: Collection 2

Things are getting a lot more complex at Modenkind and some of the things that Haruka is learning about the IDOLS are more than a little worrying. Like the fact that while the mechs aren't free to do what they want, they're not exactly obedient machines either, and how the relationship the IDOLS form with their pilots is much more complicated than master and servant. Especially since Haruka is beginning to realize that her own feelings toward Imber aren't exactly what she'd expected them to evolve into either. But there's no time to analyze what's going on inside her heart, because suddenly all of Modenkind is under siege, hit from both within and without as hidden spies combine with outside attacks and ruthless kidnappings. Who is trying to destroy Modenkind and why? And how is it connected with the real secrets behind the IDOLS? Betrayal leads to betrayal as the stunning second act escalates to a breathtaking conclusion in Idolmaster Xenoglossia: Collection Two!

The Legend Of Heroes: The Complete Collection

Ten years ago, a massive invasion by the Erebonian Empire almost shattered the Kingdom of Liberl, piercing the heart of Capital City before being driven back by a determined counteroffensive led by Cassius Bright. Now, as the invaders pace behind the northern borders, coveting the small kingdom's magic and high technology, Liberl slowly rebuilds with the aid of the Bracer's Guild, whose mystical use of „Craft“ is even more intrinsic to the nation's defense than its own army. For young Estelle Bright, daughter of Cassius, this is all just ancient history that she and her adopted brother Joshua learned as kids. But history has a way of repeating itself, and as they prepare to join the Bracers Guild themselves, sinister forces are preparing to thrust them into the familiar family situation of being in the worst possible place when mayhem breaks out. Because when their father's airship goes suddenly missing, of course it only makes sense to two green, but extraordinarily capable, young teenagers to strike out on a rescue mission of their own!

Rescued by Doctor Easter from a deadly assault on their headquarters by Dimsdale Boiled, Rune Balot finds temporary shelter in „Paradise“, a high-tech laboratory where the Scramble 09 protocol originated. While the severely injured Oeufcoque regenerates in a healing vat, Rune struggles to find the answers within herself that will let her equally injured psyche find some measure of peace. But as the search for clues to the location of Shell's hidden memories continues, Boiled finds them again, and Rune and the Doctor decide it's time to carry the war to the enemy. It's a world of high-stakes gambling and glamour, as Rune struggles to bring the man that murdered her to justice in the second combustible volume of Mardock Scramble!

Mashiroiro Symphony: The Color Of Lovers - The Complete Collection

When boys suddenly get into places where they've never been allowed before, some girls tend to get upset. So when the decision is made to merge the elite Yuihime Girls' Private Academy and the coeducational Kagamidai Private Academy, everyone wants to take extra care in bringing the two Privates together. Therefore, rather than just sticking the Kagamidai boys into the Yuihime girls all at once, a plan is concocted in which a group of test males will be inserted into the Girls' Private Academy first. Thus it is that poor young Shingo finds himself being thrown as a sacrificial lamb to the lionesses of Yuihime, who aren't exactly waiting for him with open arms. Will Shingo manage to survive the estrogen soaked death pit that is Yuihime? Can the girls learn to be more receptive to the boys? And just how long until something involving panties will cause emotions to flare, sparks to fly and the war between the sexes to explode? It's a desperate battle to turn discord into making sweet music together in Mashiroiro Symphony: The Color of Lovers!

Panty & Stocking With Garterbelt: The Complete Series (Blu-ray)

Panty and Stocking - the Anarchy Sisters - are two nasty-ass angels who got booted from the pearly gates for being foul-mouthed bitches! Now they spend their nights blowing up ghosts in the seedy abyss between Heaven and Earth. Panty likes sex, stocking like sweets, their afro-sporting main man Garterbelt has a fetish we can't mention, together, they're turning the mean streets of Daten City into a buffet of bodily fluids. Ghosts don't stand a chance against their lingerie of mass destruction, and if this debaucherous duo can collect enough heaven coins, they just might get their halos back. It's a slim chance in Hell, but anything can happen when you're rolling commando, especially with Panty and Stocking! Now drop those britches, Bitches!

Penguin Drum: Collection One

Once you make a decision, does the universe conspire to make it happen? Is destiny a matter of chance, a matter of choice or the complex outcome of thousands of warring strands of fate? All twins Kanba and Shouma know is that when their terminally ill sister Himari collapses at the aquarium, her death is somehow temporarily reversed by the penguin hat that she had asked for. It's a provisional resurrection, however, and it comes at a price: to keep Himari alive they need to find the mysterious Penguin Drum. In order to do that, they must first find the links to a complex interlocking chain of riddles that has wrapped around their entire existence, and unravel the knots that tie them to mystifying diary and a baffling string of strangers and semi-acquaintances who all have their own secrets, agendas and „survival strategies.“ And in order for Himari to live, someone else's chosen destiny will have to change. Three Fragments Of A Lost Tale

This first stop-motion animated short film by award winning American sculptor John Frame involves thirty-five highly articulated characters that inhabit a world unidentifiable by place or time. LA Times art critic David Pagel writes of Three Fragments of a Lost Tale, „Frame's figures throw open the doors of a world unlike any that has ever existed, yet strangely familiar. Contemporary viewers of his art find themselves in a position similar to that of these characters: awed, even daunted, by the strange, densely detailed world before us-which is nothing like the everyday reality we have left behind.“

Tom And Jerry: Blast Off To Mars (Blu-ray)

Jess Harnell, Kathryn Fiore, Frank Welker,

Brad Garrett, Tom Kenny, Rob Paulsen, Corey Burton, Billy West, Jeff Glen Bennett

Once content to duke it out on Earth, the eternally scrappy Tom and Jerry now boldly go where no cat and mouse have gone before when they get trapped on a spaceship bound for Mars. After their mistaken mission goes hilariously out of control, the tables are turned on Tom when, thinking him a giant outer space monster, the Martians attack! But what really bristles the cat's whiskers is Jerry being hailed as the Martians' long-lost supreme leader! Will the dueling duo put their differences aside long enough to save Earth from invasion? They may need all of Tom's nine lives to succeed in this extraterrestrially funny adventure.

Ultraseven: The Complete Series

This wildly successful follow-up to the original Ultraman series spawned what is arguably the most successful iteration of all Ultraman characters: Ultraseven has appeared in nearly every follow-up series, and has had more exposure than even the original Ultraman. In the not-too-distant future, the Earth finds itself constantly under attack from extraterrestrial threats. To combat them, the Terrestrial Defense Force establishes the Ultra Guard, a team of six elite members who utilize high-tech vehicles and weaponry. Joining their fight is the mysterious Dan Moroboshi who is secretly an alien from the Land of Light in Nebula M-78, also known as Ultraseven.

Young Justice: Season Two - Part 1 - Invasion Destiny Calling

Join Young Justice and watch them battle villains and fight crime in a 2-disc 10 episode collection! For the Young Justice squad being a teenager means proving yourself over and over - to peers, parents, teachers, mentors and, ultimately, to yourself. But what if you're not just a normal teenager? What if you're a teenage super hero? How much harder will it be to prove yourself in a world of super powers, super villains and super secrets? Are you ready to come of age in such a world? Are you ready for life or death rites of passage? Are you ready to join the ranks of the great heroes and prove you're worthy of the Justice League? That's exactly what the members of Young Justice- Robin, Aqualad, Kid Flash, Superboy, Miss Martian and Artemis - will find out - whether they have what it takes to be a proven hero. The latest season of the critically acclaimed series jumps ahead in time 5 years to re-introduce the original squad as well as all new members Nightwing, Wondergirl, Blue Beetle, Batgirl, and Beast Boy as they fight off a secret alien invasion affecting the entire planet.

Michael Gross, Elisa Donovan, Sarah Thompson, Gabrielle Carteris, Fred Willard,

Michael Ciminera, Richard Gnolfo, Peter Sullivan, Jeffrey Schenck, Barry Barnholtz, Peter Sullivan

Having her dog taken away by an uptight landlord was heart-breaking for Laura. Willing to try anything to transform her life - and get her dog back - Laura follows her best friend's suggestion and sets up a session with a life coach. The life coach's unusual character makes Laura skeptical - especially when the coach tells Laura to make 12 wishes for a positive change in her life. Skepticism turns to joy, however, when Laura realizes she can wish for anything and the wish will come true! But before long, Laura realizes that her wishes are sparking unforeseen circumstances, and she must act quickly to get her life - and her dog - back before Christmas.

4 Wedding Planners

Ileana Douglas, Janel Parrish, Mia Riverton, Sung Kang

Matriarch Miriam (Ileana Douglas: Ghost World, Goodfellas) runs a wedding planning business, although love isn't exactly her specialty. Miriam is three times divorced, with one daughter born from each ex-husband. However, it's not just Miriam who is unlucky in love. When eldest daughter Lily (Kimberly Rose-Wolter: Tre, Charlotte Sometimes) rejects her boyfriend's marriage proposal, she returns home to Hawaii for family support. Unfortunately her family is having wedding troubles of their own. Miriam's wedding planning business is being run into the ground by Lily's two half-sisters: Twinny (Mia Riverton: Red Doors, 13 Dead Men) and Hoku (Janel Parrish: Bratz, Pretty Little Liars). Further complicating Lily's life is her ex-boyfriend Kai (Sung Kang: Fast Five, Ninja Assassin). Lily thought she and Kai were finished long ago, but now she's not so sure. Will Lily be able to fix her love life and help her family get their business back on track before it's too late?

Air Force Captain Ted Harduvel (Vincent Spano) was one of the best fighter pilots a country could hope for. Loyal, hardworking, eagle-eyed, he knew enough to rely on the instruments in his plane to guide him safely home. Which is why, when he died in a plane crash in Korea, his wife Janet (Academy Award Nominee-Best Actress 1991; Laura Dern) was astounded to discover that the Air Force had blamed his death on „pilot error.“ Working with her lawyer (Robert Loggia), she discovers that there was every possibility the instruments in the F-16 were at fault, and the military had initiated a cover-up. For Janet Harduvel, her husband's good name is all she had left of him and she'll fight to preserve it. Based on a true story, one woman takes on the military and the makers of the F-16, fighting the only way she knows how-to win.

Anita

Norma Aleandro, Luis Luque

Anita is the story of a young woman with Down Syndrome who lives a happy, routine life in Buenos Aires, being meticulously cared for by her mother Dora. One tragic morning in 1994, everything changes when Anita is left alone, confused and helpless after the nearby Argentine Israelite Mutual Association is bombed (the deadliest bombing in Argentina's history). As Anita wanders through the city, she learns not only to care for herself, but touches the lives of those around her, from an alcoholic to a family of Asian immigrants. Anita is the latest from renowned filmmaker Marcos Carnevale, director of Elsa and Fred. The film stars Academy Award-nominated actress Norma Aleandro, Peto Menahem, Luis Luque, Leonor Manso (named Best Supporting Actress at the Argentine Academy Awards for her performance), and introduces Alejandra Manzo as Anita.

Arbitrage

Richard Gere, Brit Marling, Susan Sarandon, Tim Roth

Dynamic performances by Richard Gere and an all-star cast highlight this riveting, suspense-filled thriller about love, loyalty, and high finance. Robert Miller (Gere) is a New York hedge-fund magnate who appears to have it all - money, power, a loving wife (Susan Sarandon), and a devoted daughter (Brit Marling) working by his side. But behind the gilded walls of his mansion Miller is running on borrowed time, trying to unload his crippled trading company before his frauds are revealed. A deadly error throws Miller's „perfect life“ into a tailspin, raising the suspicions of a detective (Tim Roth) and threatening the future of his financial empire. As the line blurs between what is right and wrong, legal and criminal, Miller is driven to desperate measures to protect the only thing more precious than his considerable fortune: his family.

Asylum (I Want To Be A Gangster)

Jacques Frantz

A small-time crook named Jack (Julien Courbey) wants to move up the underworld hierarchy to become a big-time gangster. After a deadly mistake that almost costs him his life, he gets the opportunity and it's much more than he bargained for! Chained to a tree and left to die with no food or water, he has to use his sharp wits and knowledge to survive this horrible torture. Encountering predators both animal and human, Jack fights for his life as he struggles mentally with his career choice. He wants to be a gangster, but at what cost? Asylum (I Want To Be A Gangster) is a fantastic independent film from French director Olivier Chateau. Shot in standard definition with a strange desaturated sepia color palette and intentionally degraded grainy picture quality, this film has a unique look that sucks you in and never lets you go. Bill & Ted's Excellent Adventure (Blu-ray)

Keanu Reeves, George Carlin, Alex Winter, Keanu Reeves (The Matrix) and Alex Winter (The Lost Boys) deliver „spirited performances“ (The Hollywood Reporter) in the original righteous comedy about the two ditzzy dudes from San Dimas, California. Also starring George Carlin, this hysterically funny historical comedy is a „snappily directed“ (Time), „bouncy good time“ (The Boston Globe) and a party that goes on and on! Bill (Winter) and Ted (Reeves) have spent so much time forming their rock band, The Wyld Stallyns, that they're flunking history. Whoa, duuuude! And when Ted's dad threatens to send him away to military school, Bill and Ted realize it could mean the most heinous end of The Stallyns! Luckily, a guardian angel from the future, Rufus (Carlin), has come to them with a most bodacious solution: a time-traversing phone booth to take them into the past to learn about the world from some of history's most influential personalities. Their journey through time turns out to be a blast...but will they learn enough to pass their class?

Black Magic

Akim Tamiroff, Valentina Cortese, Nancy Guild, Orson Welles, Frank Latimore

Based on a novel by Alexander Dumas, Black Magic stars Orson Welles as the 18th century master hypnotist and charismatic charlatan, Cagliostro. After his mother is executed for supposedly practicing „witchcraft“, young Joseph Balsamo is raised by gypsies. Under their tutelage, he perfects his skills performing magic tricks and selling snake oil in the gypsy's travelling caravan show. Eventually Balsamo meets Franz Mesmer, the famous hypnotist, who convinces Joseph he has even greater gifts which could heal the sick. But Joseph chooses a very different path assuming the name Cagliostro and embarking on a vendetta for power over the man who ordered his mother's death.

The Blue Angel (Blu-ray)

Marlene Dietrich, Emil Jannings

The crowning achievement of Weimar cinema, The Blue Angel is an exquisite parable of one man's fall from respectability, presented in both the newly-restored German and English-language versions. Emil Jannings, the quintessential German expressionist actor, stars as Professor Immanuel Rath, the sexually-repressed instructor of a boys prep school. After learning of the pupils' infatuation with French postcards depicting a local nightclub songstress, he decides to personally investigate the source of such indecency. But as soon as he enters the shadowy Blue Angel nightclub and steals one glimpse of the smoldering Lola-Lola (Marlene Dietrich), commanding the stage in a top hat, stockings and bare thighs, Rath's self-righteous piety is crushed. He finds himself fatefully seduced by the throaty voice of the vulgar siren, singing, „Falling In Love Again.“ Consumed by desire and tormented by his rigid propriety, Professor Rath allows himself to be dragged down a path of personal degradation. Lola's unrestrained sexuality was a revelation to turn-of-the-decade moviegoers, thrusting Dietrich to the f

Blue Lagoon: The Awakening

Denise Richards, Hayley Kiyoko, Aimee Carrero, Alix Elizabeth Gitter, Annie Tedesco, Christopher Atkins, Frank John Hughes, Patrick St. Esprit

Blue Lagoon is a classic love story about two young adults who fall in love despite all obstacles. Emma and Dean are two ordinary teenagers who travel with their school to Trinidad for a charity project. Emma is your 'good girl next door' type of girl, but she has a crush on a cute boy which makes her break the rules for once in her life and that fatal decision will carry on to change her life forever. Dean is your typical bad boy, who is sent on the trip to make extra credit so he can graduate high school. Emma and Dean are worlds apart before departure but this life changing trip makes their lives take a completely new turn, something that they never had imagined possible. There is a big storm one night and Emma and Dean end up stranded on a deserted island, alone but together. They are stuck on the island and they have no choice but to work together in order to survive. As they manage to survive on the island their relationship develops. But will they ever get off the island and can they ever have a normal life together?

Christmas In Compton

Eric Roberts, Orlando Brown, Keith David, Omar Gooding, Miguel A. Nunez Jr.

Big Earl, the owner of a Christmas tree lot in Compton - and a man with a big heart and a big vision - demands success from everyone around him. All kinds of trouble erupts the week before Christmas when his son Derrick, part-time music producer and part-time Christmas tree lot employee, crosses the line to prove to Big Earl that he's a success. The colorful characters who populate the lot cause additional complications for Derrick, as he tries to solve his problems secretly. Things spiral out of Derrick's control, jeopardizing the survival of the lot - and, more importantly, his relationship with his father. What Derrick needs is a miracle...a Christmas miracle in Compton!

Coma

James Woods, Richard Dreyfuss, Ellen Burstyn, Lauren Ambrose, Steven Pasquale
Dr. Susan Wheeler (Lauren Ambrose, TV's Six Feet Under) is a medical student who grows concerned when she notices a pattern of seemingly healthy patients falling into comas while getting routine surgeries. Her sleuthing puts her career in jeopardy even as she finds a sympathetic ally in a young surgeon (Steven Pasquale, TV's Rescue Me). But as the coma toll keeps rising, she traces the victims to a futuristic recovery facility nearby where she uncovers high-tech medical experiments and unspeakable horrors. She escapes only to be hunted by a crazed psychopath and must return to face ugly truths more shocking than she can imagine.

Neil Patrick Harris, Patti LuPone, Martha Plimpton, Christina Hendricks, Anika Noni Rose, Jon Cryer, Craig Bierko, Stephen Colbert, Stephen Sondheim

Set firmly in, and often about, New York, Company follows five married, once married, or soon to be married couples and their mutual friend, Robert, a 35 year old bachelor who has been unable to connect in a long-term relationship. The relationships are presented in a series of vignettes, primarily through Bobby's eyes, so that we see the less than ideal aspects of commitment. However, it is obvious to the audience that the committed are happy. Eventually, Bobby learns that while relationships aren't perfect, they are a necessary part of "Being Alive."

Copper: Season One (Blu-ray + UltraViolet) (Blu-ray)

Ato Essandoh, Kevin Ryan, Tom Fontana, Will Rokos
From Emmy-winner Tom Fontana, Academy Award-nominee Will Rokos and Academy Award-winner Barry Levinson comes Copper, BBC America's first original scripted series. Copper is set in 1860s New York City. The 10-part drama centers on Kevin Corcoran (Tom Weston-Jones, MI-5), an intense, rugged Irish-American cop working the city's notorious Five Points neighborhood. Corcoran is struggling to maintain his moral compass in a turbulent world, while on an emotional and relentless quest to learn the truth about the disappearance of his wife and the death of his daughter. His friendship with two Civil War compatriots - the wayward son of a wealthy industrialist and an African American physician who secretly assists Corcoran with his detective work - takes him to the contrasting worlds of elegant Fifth Avenue and an emerging African-American community in rural northern Manhattan. The three men share a secret from their experience on the battlefield that inextricably links their lives forever.

Gary Oldman, Burn Gorman, Alon Aboutboul, Anne Hathaway, Marion Cotillard, Morgan Freeman, Michael Caine, Christian Bale, Matthew Modine, Tom Hardy, Ben Mendelsohn, Daniel Sunjata, Aidan Gillen
It has been eight years since Batman vanished into the night, turning, in that instant, from hero to fugitive. Assuming the blame for the death of D.A. Harvey Dent, the Dark Knight sacrificed everything for what he and Commissioner Gordon both hoped was the greater good. For a time the lie worked, as criminal activity in Gotham City was crushed under the weight of the anti-crime Dent Act. But everything will change with the arrival of a cunning cat burglar with a mysterious agenda. Far more dangerous, however, is the emergence of Bane, a masked terrorist whose ruthless plans for Gotham drive Bruce out of his self-imposed exile. But even if he dons the cape and cowl again, Batman may be no match for Bane.

The Day He Arrives

Sang Jung Kim

A film director who no longer makes films, Seongjun, arrives in Seoul to meet a close friend. When the friend doesn't show up, Seongjun wanders the city aimlessly. He runs into an actress he used to know, shares a drink with some film students and against his better judgment, heads to his ex-girlfriend's apartment. The next day goes very much like the last; Seongjun meets the actress, has drinks with friends, and falls for woman who looks remarkably like his ex-girlfriend. Each new day plays out like a copy of the previous one, but only Seongjun knows why. Infused with a playfulness and dry wit that recalls the films of Woody Allen and Eric Rohmer, The Day He Arrives is a delightful meditation on relationships, filmmaking, and the unknowable forces that govern our lives.

Driving Miss Daisy (Digibook) (Blu-ray)
Jessica Tandy, Morgan Freeman, Dan Aykroyd, Patti LuPone, Esther Rolle
Hoke Colburn sits in the front seat with his hands on the steering wheel, but the driver's seat is behind him. That's where Miss Daisy sits. She doesn't want a chauffeur and she won't give in. Neither will Hoke. Alfred Uhry's moving Pulitzer Prize-winning play became 1989's Academy Award-winning Best Picture. Driving Miss Daisy tells of genteel but strong-willed Atlanta matron Daisy (Best Actress Oscar-winner Jessica Tandy) and her patient but equally determined chauffeur Hoke (Morgan Freeman). For two so different, they have a lot in common. And the bumpy road they travel leads to the friendship of a lifetime. From the film's nine Oscar nominations, it drove off with two more awards: Best Adaptation Screenplay (Uhry) and Makeup.

Sergei Eisenstein: Battleship Potemkin / Strike (Double Feature) (Blu-ray)
Grigori Aleksandrov, Aleksandr Antonov, Vladimir Barsky
Includes Battleship Potemkin Odessa - 1905. Enraged with the deplorable conditions on board the armored cruiser Potemkin, the ship's loyal crew contemplates the unthinkable - mutiny. Seizing control of the Potemkin and raising the red flag of revolution, the sailors' revolt becomes the rallying point for a Russian populace ground under the boot heels of the Czar's Cossacks. When ruthless White Russian cavalry arrives to crush the rebellion on the sandstone Odessa Steps, the most famous and most quoted film sequence in cinema history is born. Strike The first feature film by the director of Battleship Potemkin, Sergei Eisenstein's Strike is a visual tour-de-force that employs dynamic editing and experimental camerawork to dramatize the saga of a bitterly-fought factory strike in 1903. Often compared to Citizen Kane in terms of audacious directorial debuts, Strike embodies the revolutionary spirit of the Soviet people of the 1920s, cresting the waves of artistic and political idealism. This edition of Strike was mastered in HD from a 35mm film element restored by the Cinémathèque de Toulouse

Even The Rain

Luis Tosar, Gael Garcia

Idealistic filmmaker Sebastian (Gael Garcia Bernal, The Motorcycle Diaries) and his cynical producer Costa (Luis Tosar, The Limits of Control) arrive in Bolivia to make a revisionist film about Christopher Columbus' conquest of the Americas. But as filming commences, the local citizens begin to riot in protest against a multi-national corporation that is taking control of their water supply. With the film shoot in jeopardy, both men find their convictions shaken. Inspired by the real-life Water Wars in Bolivia in the year 2000, Even The Rain explores the lasting effects of Spanish imperialism, still resonating some 500 years later in the continued struggle of indigenous people against oppression and exploitation.

Alex Haw, Jeremy Theobald

Before he became a sensation with the twisty revenge story Memento, Christopher Nolan (The Dark Knight) fashioned this low-budget, black-and-white, 16 mm noir with comparable precision and cunning. Supplying irrefutable evidence of Nolan's directorial bravura. Following is the fragmented tale of an unemployed young writer who trails strangers through London, hoping that they will provide inspiration for his first novel. He gets more than he bargained for with one of his unwitting subjects, who leads him down a dark, criminal path. With gritty aesthetics and a made-on-the-fly vibe (many shots were simply stolen on the streets, unbeknownst to passersby), Following is a mind-bending psychological journey that shows the remarkable beginnings of one of today's most acclaimed filmmakers.

Game Change

Woody Harrelson, Ed Harris, Jamey Sheridan, Julianne Moore, Sarah Paulson, Peter MacNicol

Game Change is a searing, behind-the-scenes look at John McCain's 2008 presidential campaign, from the decision to select Alaska Governor Sarah Palin as McCain's running mate to the ticket's ultimate defeat in the general election just sixty days later. Told primarily through the eyes of senior McCain strategist Steve Schmidt, who originally championed Palin and later came to regret the choice, Game Change pulls back the curtain on the intense human drama surrounding the McCain team, the critical decisions made behind closed doors and how the choice was made to bring Palin on the ticket. The film examines how we choose our leaders by offering a unique glimpse into the inner workings of an historic campaign.

Gandu

As much of an anti-Bollywood film as one could imagine, revolutionary filmmaker Q's Gandu (Hindi slang for Asshole) is a deliriously frantic, music-infused look at one poor young man and his dreams of becoming a rap star. Excitable Gandu lives in Kolkata. Poor, he survives bystealing spare change from the trousers of a man his prostitute mother services. Gandu's lives to be a rapper, and finds a comrade-in-song with another young man, the Bruce Lee-loving Rickshaw. Together they sing, drink, do drugs, wander the city and collectively dream of success. When Gandu wins big in the lottery, all his dreams seem to come true. Or do they? Told in fragmented scenes with pulsating music, the film is surreal, wild, weird, unpredictable, and sexually graphic. Gandu is a startlingly bold and wildlyentertaining example of new Indian filmmaking, and which ironically is banned in India.

H2O: Just Add Water - The Complete Collection

Cariba Heine, Phoebe Tonkin
Watch what happens when three normal teenage girls growing up on the sun-drenched beaches of the Gold Coast stumble upon an ancient cavern that transforms their lives forever. Sure, they face typical teenage problems, but with an added twist - they're mermaids with magical powers. Emma's confident and athletic. Cleo is slightly insecure and awkward. Rikki, the new girl, is „different“ - aloof and smart. For our heroines, life revolves around clothes, the beach, and boys - with school as a minor distraction. That is, until together they discover the power that ensures their lives will never be the same. In addition to turning into mermaids, the girls find they've got extraordinary, magical abilities. Emma can freeze water. Cleo can turn a drop into a bucketful and mold it into any shape. And Rikki can boil water with a gesture. H2O is a teenage adventure drama about growing up and being different and discovering that the only thing greater than a magical power over water is the power of friendship.

I Love It From Behind!

Junko Asanuma

A young girl named Mimei is working hard to get as many „penis prints“ as possible. She's been collecting these works of art since high school, and her goal is to get 100 prints before her arranged marriage within the next month. Seeking help from her lesbian friends Masumi and Rei, she begins chasing various men around Japan. Mimei finally gets her last man and is met with a challenge! He'll allow her to make a print of his penis only if she can make him achieve ultimate ecstasy. She accepts, but finds out getting what she needs is a lot harder than she imagined! I Love It From Behind! is jaw-dropping (and, dare we say, pants-dropping) naughty fun!

Hoping to keep his comrades as young and spritely as ever, Foggy sets up a training course to get Compo and Clegg in shape, but, as usual, safety isn't his first concern. When the trio gets a grill from Auntie Wainwrights, they have a barbecue like never before. Foggy, ever the inspired inventor, comes up with the idea to create bicycle safety underwear and, later in the season, a three man windsurfing sailboard. Finally, in the Christmas special, the trio plan to host a visitor from outer space - or maybe just a neighboring town.

Bob Revere (Marshall Teague), a small-town war hero, is heartbroken when his own son Tom loses his life defending America. Tom left behind a son of his own named Christian, and 14 years later, the young boy and his mother move back to the small town to be with their family for the holidays. Christian disconnects with his grandfather Bob, as they both are going through the pain of losing a dad and losing a son. When Christian is threatened with school suspension for bringing his bible to school, Bob notices that his country is headed in a dangerous direction and that freedom itself is on the line. Encouraged by his grandson Christian, who asks „what did his father die for?“, Bob finally takes a stand for his beliefs and finds himself jailed for putting up the town's Christmas tree and refusing to take it down. In this beautiful story of love and forgiveness, they discover a way to unite and to make a difference in their community by claiming their freedom and standing up for their rights.

Life's Too Short

Ricky Gervais, Warwick Davis, Stephen Merchant

HBO presents a new comedy series from executive producers Ricky Gervais and Stephen Merchant (The Office, HBO's Extras and The Ricky Gervais Show) and starring actor Warwick Davis who portrays a conceited, self-aggrandizing version of himself. In Life's Too Short, Davis' character is an actor desperately trying to jumpstart his waning career and maintain his status as Britain's go-to little person who often seeks advice from old pals Gervais and Merchant in hopes that their A-list celebrity connections will aid his career.

With cameos by Liam Neeson, Johnny Depp, Sting, Steve Carell, Helena Bonham Carter, Cat Deeley, and others, Life's Too Short hilariously charts Davis' every move as he tries to maintain his pride and self-respect in a series of uncomfortable, often-humiliating situations.

15 year-old Lily (Juno Temple) and her best friend Alison (Kay Panabaker) live on the shores of the Salton Sea among rundown trailers parks, rotting household items, drained pools and decaying streets. What was once an oasis for the wealthy and famous has become a near ghost town, leaving its residents fighting for breath in the deep end. Lily feels eternally claustrophobic and rebellious, living with her manic, single mother (Leslie Mann), clinging to hope for something more exciting than visits with her young and already washed up Aunt (Kate Bosworth). When they meet a few visiting street kids, the girls' bond is finally tested and Lily convinces Alison to follow the boys back to Los Angeles. Not intimidated by the journey ahead, Lily is hopelessly drawn to one of the boys and the freedoms of their lifestyle. But in the big city, Lily and Alison quickly fall into the boys' world of scams and petty crime. Lily is determined to stay and make it work, while Alison is overwhelmed and eager to return home. When an idea is hatched to use Lily as bait for men with money to steal, things quickly escalate

Bela Lugosi: Scared To Death Collection

John McGuire, Madge Bellamy, Maria Alba, Bela Lugosi, Wallace Ford, John Archer, Duke Mitchell, Malcom McGregor

Build an instant classic horror library with this 20-film set celebrating the genre's greatest icon! With his penetrating stare, inscrutable smile and inimitably insinuating accent, Bela Lugosi set the standard for fiendish filmmaking during the 1930s, 1940s and 1950s. Covering more than two decades' worth of macabre movies, this collection showcases the sinister star's versatile villainy, presenting him as everything from a mad scientist to a wild-eyed zombie master. Always debonair and charming, despite his monstrous on-screen activities, Lugosi occasionally crossed over from the shadows into the light, delivering charismatic performances as the heroic Chandu the Magician in a pair of mid-1930s efforts and stealing the show as the cruel but civic-minded Monsieur Colomb in the World War Two anti-spy thriller Black Dragons. The Hungarian star eventually achieved such renown that his name made it onto the marquee in the title of 1952's Bela Lugosi Meets a Brooklyn Gorilla (even though he did not play himself in the film)! The Bela Lugosi Collection is guaranteed to provide a whole host of „good eee-ven-i“

The Man Who Saved Christmas

Jason Alexander, Kelly Rowan, Jayne Eastwood, Edward Asner, Kenneth Welsh, Daniel Kash, Ari Cohen, C. David Johnson

The Man Who Saved Christmas is a heartwarming drama based on the life of innovative inventor and toy maker A.C. Gilbert (Jason Alexander, The Grand, Seinfeld), a man with a belief that playing helps children learn, imagine, and dream. With the support of his loving wife, Mary (Kelly Rowan, The O.C.), A.C. and his brother Frank run a successful toy factory. But when WWI breaks out, A.C. is under pressure to let the U.S. Government turn the factory into a munitions plant. With some help from his son and a little holiday magic, A.C. rediscovers his holiday spirit and convinces the U.C. Congress that what America really needs is a little Christmas joy.

Sterling Hayden, Richard Raymond

Films Include Rats: Night Of Terror In the year 225 A.B. (After the Bomb), a group of post-apocalyptic bikers discover an abandoned research laboratory filled with food, water... and thousands of rats. But these are no ordinary vermin; these are super-intelligent mutant rodents with a ravenous appetite for human flesh. Can a bunch of heavily armed but not-too-bright human scavengers survive a night of terror against the most hungry and horrific predators on earth? Venom It was supposed to be the perfect crime: the sexy maid (Susan George of Straw Dogs), a psychotic chauffeur (Oliver Reed of Revolver) and an international terrorist (the legendary Klaus Kinski) kidnap a wealthy ten-year old boy from his elegant London townhouse. But they didn't count on a murdered cop, a desperate hostage siege and one very unexpected houseguest: a furious Black Mamba, the most lethal and aggressive snake known to nature. It can attack from ten feet away. Its bite brings excruciating death, and it is on the loose. Now, terror knows no antidote...and the ultimate in slithering mayhem is Venom.

Since the dawn of recorded history, sacred texts have inspired intellectuals to enlighten the rest of us through their commentaries. To a certain, special kind of person - and if you're buying this 25th collection of MST3K, pal, you're one of them - cheesy movies are sacred texts. And who better to help us navigate the occult meanings of B-movies' holiest scriptures than space captives Joel, Mike and their robot companions Tom Servo and Crow T. Robot? Their running commentaries allow us to laugh at inscrutable plots, painful performances and felonious filmmaking. Here, for the funniest study session you'll ever have, are four more movies unearthed from the ancient caves of Hollywood as interpreted by the long-suffering scholars aboard the Satellite of Love.

Natalie's Rose

Fifteen-year-old Natalie Canton's world is turned upside down when her mother loses her battle with cancer. A fragile white rose becomes Natalie's only tangible link between the mother she lost and the hope she desperately needs to find. Natalie's father sends her to Nevada for Christmas to visit her aunt's ranch. There Natalie meets a pure white horse, presumably a stray. With each passing day as she rides and cares for Rose, Natalie learns to accept death as a season of life.

Die Nibelungen: Deluxe Remastered Edition

Theodor Loos, Hanna Ralph, Margarete Schoen, Hans Adalbert Schlettow, Paul Richter

One of the greatest artistic and technical achievements of the German silent cinema. Fritz Lang's monumental Die Nibelungen is a passionate retelling of Nordic legend, invested with all the resources of the colossal Ufa Studios. Scripted by Lang's wife at the time, Thea von Harbou (Metropolis), Siegfried establishes larger-than-life heroic characters who are defined by tests of valor and rigid codes of honor. In order to win the hand of Kriemhild (Margarete Schoen), Siegfried (Paul Richter) must win a bride for her brother, King Gunther (Theodor Loos). Kriemhild's Revenge begins after the death of Siegfried, and weaves the treacherous tale of his widow's ungodly vengeance upon his murderers. The noble qualities of the first film become liabilities in the second, as the blood oaths and vows of loyalty bring about a maelstrom of violence that results in the slaughter of entire armies (Lang would continue to explore the theme of bloodlust and revenge in such films as Fury, The Big Heat and Rancho Notorious, buy never with such ferocity). This edition of Die Nibelungen is more than 100 minutes long

Gena Rowlands, Rachel McAdams, James Garner, Ryan Gosling, Sam Shepard, Joan Allen, James Marsden

Behind every great love is a great story. As teenagers, Allie (Rachel McAdams) and Noah (Ryan Gosling) begin a whirlwind courtship that soon blossoms into tender intimacy. The young couple is quickly separated by Allie's upper class parents who insist that Noah isn't right for her. Several years pass, and, when they meet again, their passion is rekindled, forcing Allie to choose between her soul mate and class order. This beautiful tale has a particularly special meaning to an older gentleman (James Garner) who regularly reads the timeless love story to his aging companion (Gena Rowlands). Based on the best-selling novel by Nicholas Sparks, The Notebook is at once heartwarming and heartbreaking and will capture you in its sweeping and emotional force.

Red Hook Summer

Spike Lee, Clarke Peters, Nate Parker

The latest in Spike Lee's Chronicles of Brooklyn series (which also include She's Gotta Have It, Do The Right Thing, Crooklyn, Clockers, and He Got Game), Red Hook Summer tells the story of Flik Royale, a sullen young boy from middle-class Atlanta who has come to spend the summer with his deeply religious grandfather, Bishop Enoch Rouse, in the housing projects of Red Hook. Having never met before, things quickly get off on the wrong foot as Bishop Enoch relentlessly attempts to convert Flik into a follower of Jesus Christ. Between his grandfather's constant preaching and the culture shock of inner-city life, Flik's summer appears to be a total disaster - until he meets Chazz Morningstar, a pretty girl his age, who shows Flik the brighter side of Brooklyn. Through her love and the love of his grandfather, Flik begins to realize that the world is a lot bigger, and perhaps a lot better, than he'd ever imagined.

Schoolgirl Report: Volume 9 - Mature Before Graduation

Astrid Boner, Puppa Armbruster, Sandra Atia, Ulrich Beiger

The German Schoolgirl Report films are exploitation classics full of humor, nudity and ridiculous adult situations. With Schoolgirl Report: Volume 9, the series takes an odd turn by basing the sex-charged story around a house party orgy that ends in a disastrous car crash! Like the previous volumes in the series, this film is presented as a series of vignettes based around the events leading up to the tragedy. After an awkward night with her new husband, the 18-year-old Petra decides to celebrate her upcoming divorce by attending the private house party. A young virgin named Tessy is concerned about losing her virginity at the orgy scheduled for the party, so her friend Paul does something sure to help her not get laid. A creepy father sexually assaults his own step-daughter after discovering her having a lesbian encounter and gets himself into hot water after discovering she is now pregnant with his child. Katja and her boyfriend visit her parents on their 20th wedding anniversary, only to discover they've transformed into lame „hipsters“. Claudia is haunted by memories of a flasher wearing a huge did

Snowmageddon (Blu-ray)

Magda Apanowicz, Michael Hogan

When the Miller family discovers a mysterious gift outside their home on Christmas Eve, they could never imagine it would contain the power to doom their idyllic mountain community. The gift contains a snow globe with a perfect reflection of their own town inside. When they shake it, snow even begins to fall - whatever happens inside the snow globe happens to their town for real. But when buttons on the snow globe unleash a series of terrible disasters on the town, the family must band together and find a way to destroy it - before it's too late.

Sokurov Early Masterworks (Blu-ray + DVD Combo) (Blu-ray)

Films Include Whispering Pages (Blu-ray) The pages that whisper through this brooding, beautiful tone poem are from nineteenth-century Russian literature, primarily Dostoevsky's Crime and Punishment. An anonymous man wanders through decomposing, fog-enshrouded catacombs and encounters a series of „the degraded and the humiliated,“ including a holy prostitute and a Kafkaesque bureaucrat. Shot partly in Sokurov's dreamlike black and white with a dense sound track of eerie, echoing voices and bursts of mournful Mahler. Stone (DVD) Save And Protect (DVD) A retelling of Gustave Flaubert's Madame Bovary as a surreal story of universal suffering, the film emphasizes the heroine's internal transformation as she slowly loses her grip on reality. Her erotic fascination with rich clothing and her almost childish desire to seduce and to be lost in passion is brilliantly contrasted with the small-town life that leaves Emma tragically isolated in her passionate attempt to bridge the gap between spirituality and sensuality.

Sometimes A Great Notion (Blu-ray)

Henry Fonda, Paul Newman, Lee Remick, Michael Sarrazin

Paul Newman makes his directorial debut in this sweeping saga filled with complex characters and issues that still resonate today. Based on the best-selling novel about a two-fisted Oregon lumber family, the story focuses on a family that bucks their close-knit timber community in order to deliver a shipment of logs in defiance of a strike. In the process, one man is killed, the family patriarch Henry (Henry Fonda) is injured, and the eldest son Hank (Paul Newman) almost loses his wife (Lee Remick) to his half brother (Michael Sarrazin).

Titanic: Blood And Steel

Chris Noth, Kevin Zegers, Neve Campbell, Derek Jacobi

Belfast, 1909. The Harland and Wolff shipyard has been handed the greatest project in its history. It will build a great, unsinkable ship. And it will be called the RMS Titanic. Titanic: Blood & Steel is the untold story of the building of a legend, and the many lives it affected during its 3-year construction. To its wealthy investors, it was a dream. To the middle class who oversaw the project, it was a challenge. But to the working class who built it, Titanic was the start of a revolution. With Ireland under British rule, and the Protestant and Catholic struggle intensifying, Titanic was more than a ship - it was a symbol of ambition, hope and unity.

The Well Digger’s Daughter

Daniel Auteuil
Twenty-five years after rising to international acclaim in Jean de Florette and Manon of the Spring, Daniel Auteuil returns to the world of Marcel Pagnol for his first work as director with this celebrated remake of the 1940s classic. Auteuil stars as the eponymous well-digger Pascal, a widower living with his six daughters in the Provence countryside at the start of World War I. His eldest, Patricia (the luminous Astrid Bergès-Frisbey), has returned home from Paris to help raise her sisters, and Pascal dreams of marrying her off to his loyal assistant Felipe (Kad Merad). But when she’s impregnated by a wealthy young pilot (Nicolas Duvauchelle) who promptly abandons her for the frontlines, Pascal is left to contend with the consequences. An exquisitely crafted, sun-drenched melodrama, set to a score by Academy Award-nominee Alex-

Acoustic Fingerstyle: Blues & Ragtime

Max Milligan

The acoustic guitar is able to produce a sound that is very different than its electric brother. Its use of natural vibrations, rather than electronic assistance, generates more soothing, calmer tones. In this, the 2nd release of the series, Acoustic Fingerstyle: Blues & Ragtime, our host Max Milligan shows how to get the most out of the acoustic guitar, teaching ways and techniques used by blues guitarists such as Big Bill Broonzy, Mississippi John Hurt and Keb Mo, to develop into a fingerstyle of your own.

El Gato Montes

Veronica Villarroel, Plácido Domingo

Plácido Domingo returns to his musical roots in a rare staging of Manuel Penella's El Gato Montés (The Wild Cat). Verónica Villarroel portrays the peasant girl, torn by her love for the dashing bandit, sung by Justino Díaz, and heroic matador Rafael, sung by Plácido Domingo. Jealous love, misplaced honor and noble revenge all form part of the Los Angeles Music Center Opera's production of El Gato Montés. In a short introduction, Domingo reminisces about performing in, and growing to love, this opera with his parents and sister during his childhood. Recorded at the Los Angeles Music Center in 1994.

Chely Wright

Chely Wright: Wish Me Away is the story of Chely Wright, the first Nashville music star to come out as gay. Over three years, the filmmakers were given extraordinary access to Chely's struggle and her unfolding plan to come out publicly. Using interviews with Chely, her family, her pastor, and key players in the music world, alongside Chely's intimate private video diaries, the film goes deep into her back story as an established star and then forward as she steps into the national spotlight to reveal her secret. Chronicling the aftermath in Nashville and within the LGBT community, the film reveals both the devastation of homophobia and the transformational power of living an authentic life.

2012 US Open: Men's Final - Murray Vs. Djokovic

Novak Djokovic

As the last major of the calendar year, the US Open annually brings down the curtain on the Grand Slam season with some of the most unforgettable matches in tennis history. In 2012, it featured a marquee finale pitting the defending champion Novak Djokovic, pursuing his fourth straight hard-court Grand Slam title, against reigning Olympic champion Andy Murray, looking for his first Grand Slam title in his fifth Slam final. The two men entered the match with much in common. They were born one week apart in 1987 and grew up as junior rivals and subsequently as Top 5 players, each initially sitting just outside the top level set by Roger Federer and Rafael Nadal. But where Djokovic broke through with a transcendent 2011, Murray was still fighting to capture his first major crown. The Scotsman posted his biggest career victory earlier in the summer, taking the gold medal at the Summer Olympic Games, and was hoping to translate that into a victory in Flushing Meadows. Djokovic, however, had no designs on relinquishing his title, hoping to add it to the Australian Open championship he won earlier in the year

Wimbledon 2012 is the definitive story of the 126th Championships. In the Gentlemen's Singles Novak Djokovic was the defending champion and Roger Federer was in search of a record-equalling seventh victory. In the Ladies' Singles Maria Sharapova arrived at SW19 as the world No. 1 while Petra Kvitova was defending her title and Venus Williams was in search of a sixth Wimbledon singles title. Andy Murray once again carried the hopes of the home nation and made history by becoming the first Briton to reach the Gentlemen's Singles final since Bunny Austin in 1938. There was more history made in the Gentlemen's Doubles when the wild card entry of Frederik Nielsen from Denmark and Britain's Jonathan Marray won the title, with Marray becoming the first Briton to win the title for 76 years. In the Ladies' Singles final Serena Williams captured her fifth title defeating Poland's Agnieszka Radwanska, who was playing in her first Grand Slam final. In the Gentlemen's Singles final Roger Federer secured his seventh Wimbledon title beating Andy Murray. His victory equalled the tally of Pete Sampras in the Open Era and

2012 Wimbledon: The Men's And Women's Finals

The Wimbledon 2012 Men's Singles final was always going to be a historic final, regardless of the result. On one side of the net, Andy Murray, the first British man to reach a Wimbledon Singles final in 74 years and vying to become the first British champion since Fred Perry in 1936. But on the other side of the net loomed one of the greatest players of all time, Roger Federer, who, should he win, would equal Pete Sampras' record of seven Wimbledon Men's Singles titles. The Wimbledon 2012 Ladies' Final saw Serena Williams take on Agnieszka Radwanska. Radwanska made her first appearance in a Grand Slam Final and became the first Polish woman to reach the Wimbledon Ladies' final in 75 years. On Centre Court Williams raced to a 5-0 lead, on her way to winning the first set 6-1. After a short rain delay, Williams was quickly back into her stride taking a 3-1 lead and it looked on course to be one of the shortest Ladies' Finals in Wimbledon history. But then Radwanska rediscovered her form and the 23 year old broke back twice to win the set 7-5, in front of a vocal crowd. The third and deciding set began ev

After Kony: Staging Hope

After Kony: Staging Hope follows a team of actors, playwrights, and activists who use theater to help Ugandan teens share their story of resilience through a childhood filled with terror caused by Joseph Kony and the Lord's Resistance Army. Many of the teens were former child soldiers or sex slaves that escaped from their Lord's Resistance Army abductors. By dramatizing their stories, the teens are able to explore their traumatic past, as well as share their voices with the community and the world. The result is an epic play that reveals the vulnerable moments and powerful bonds that connect all of us as humans, no matter where we live or what we have gone through.

Ai Weiwei: Never Sorry

One of the most famous and successful artists in the world, Ai Weiwei has earned international acclaim as much for his provocative art works as for his political activism in the fight against oppression. In Ai Weiwei: Never Sorry, journalist and filmmaker Alison Klayman is granted unprecedented access to Ai to present the first feature-length portrait of the sculptor, photographer, filmmaker and installation artist who was widely praised for his work on the „Bird's Nest“ stadium for the 2008 Olympics in Beijing. But that same year his criticism of the Chinese government following the Sichuan earthquake that claimed thousands of schoolchildren made him a target of the powers that be. Presenting a rare look inside modern China while documenting the courageous Ai's artistic process in preparation for major museum exhibitions, his intimate exchanges with family members, and his increasingly public clashes with the police and the government, Ai Weiwei: Never Sorry is a unique portrait of the man behind the headlines.

Ancient Aliens: Season Four

Could natural disasters really be the work of extraterrestrial forces? In 2011, after a 30-foot tsunami ravaged Tohoku, Japan, the local media reported more than 1,000 UFO sightings over the inundated shoreline. Did otherworldly beings that descended from the sky have anything to do with the abrupt disappearance of the Mayans? Does the Mayan Long Count Calendar, in which the world ends on December 21, 2012, give credence to the Doomsday Prophecies? Are Grey Aliens real? Many have claimed to have been visited and even abducted by them. Is NASA sharing all that it knows about the universe? Or are they protecting us from the truth? Booker's Place: A Mississippi Story

ry
In 1966, filmmaker Frank DeFelitta made a documentary for NBC News about life in the Mississippi Delta. The film outraged many white Southerners because it included an extraordinary scene featuring a black, illiterate waiter at a 'whites only' restaurant in Greenwood, MS, in which Booker Wright exploded the myth of who he was and how he felt about his position serving the white community. The fallout for him was extreme: He lost his job, was beaten and ostracized by those that considered him 'one of their own'. Forty-six years after his televised appearance, Booker's granddaughter, Yvette Johnson, and Frank's son, director Raymond DeFelitta, are in search to discover who Booker Wright was and what led him to commit this courageous act of 'accidental activism'.

Echo Beach

In the 1980's Newport Beach spawned a new era of high performance surfing and entrepreneurship, establishing Orange County as the focal point of the surf industry and a worldwide influencer of youth culture. This group of surfers came from different backgrounds and interests, bonded in their surfing and exploded on the scene, creating a unique look and revolutionary style that paralleled changes in music, culture and the innovation of young surf companies such as Quiksilver, Stussy, Schroff, Rip Curl, McCoy and Wave Tools. Flashy wetsuits, colorful surfboards, and a new wave attitude created a surfing Mecca that was to impact the surfing community around the world and give rise to a global industry. Photographers, surfers, surfboard shapers, magazines and clothing companies all came together to create this movement, which was focused on a one hundred yard stretch of sand known as Echo Beach.

Give Up Tomorrow

As a tropical storm slams the Philippine island of Cebu, two sisters leave work and never make it home. That same night, hundreds of miles away in Manila on a different island, Paco Larranaga, 19, is at a party, surrounded by dozens of reliable witnesses. The missing women, Marijoy, 21, and Jacqueline Chiong, 23, are Chinese-Filipinos. Paco, accused of their rapes and murders, is a Spanish mestizo who belongs to a political clan that includes a former president. Give Up Tomorrow exposes a Kafkaesque extravaganza populated by flamboyantly corrupt public officials, cops on the take, and a frenzied legal and media circus. It is also an intimate family drama focused on the near mythic struggle of two angry and

Lincoln: The One Man Show

Actor Gary Saderup becomes Abraham Lincoln, as he encapsulates Lincoln's entire life, from his early „folksy“ frontier humor to the eloquence of word so well remembered from his Presidential years. He reveals how Lincoln formed his attitude towards life and politics, slavery and war, peace and reconciliation. This acclaimed one-man show takes us from Lincoln's years as a prairie lawyer, to the steps leading up to the Civil War and throughout the war years. Gary Saderup shows us why Lincoln is the president still revered most by a majority of Americans today. We see and hear his Lincoln-Douglas debates; his Emancipation Proclamation; his Gettysburg Address, as well as events in his personal life with Mary Todd and his courageous determination to preserve the Union. Gary Saderup is magnificent as Lincoln and delivers a memorable performance that brings Lincoln back to life in a way like never before. This unique program features a dramatic interplay of Civil War era photos, music and graphics to accompany Saderup's unforgettable on-screen portrayal of Lincoln.

Man On The Moon With Walter Cronkite

Walter Cronkite
This special anniversary 2 DVD set, Man on the Moon, commemorates 40 years of space exploration by America's NASA astronauts, from the first Mercury missions that successfully launched John Glenn into orbit, to the moon landing, Skylab, the shuttle and beyond. Man on the Moon features real-time reporting by Walter Cronkite and CBS News as NASA reached into space to put a man on the moon. From pre-launch preparations to lift off and the culminating achievement of Neil Armstrong and Edwin "Buzz" Aldrin landing on the Sea of Tranquility, Cronkite and his team give you a front-row seat to history. The Apollo program went on to several more moon landings, but none was more dramatic than the Apollo 13 mission. The words „Houston we have a problem....“ have become part of the language since an explosion onboard the Lunar Command Module rocketed the astronauts 200,000 miles into space. Again, Walter Cronkite is there, as ground control and the astronauts struggle heroically and successfully to return the craft to safety.

Tim Marlow With... Gilbert & George

Gilbert & George are two people but one artist. Their remarkable partnership is among the most consistent and long lasting in the history of art. In this fascinating and revealing film the self-proclaimed living sculptures join Tim Marlow in an exclusive walk round their „Major Exhibition“ at Tate Modern and talk frankly about art and life. They discuss why they dislike religion and the countryside, how they went about photographing their own bodily fluids, why they have always worn suits and how they have felt shunned the art establishment and the media. Since meeting at St. Martin's School of Art in 1967 and resolving to make 'art for all', Gilbert & George have pushed at the boundaries of art and society. Their pictures are provocative, humane, disturbing and profoundly moving in equal measure. Their art wrestles with what it is to live in the modern, vibrant, seductive, tension-ridden metropolis of London. "We have inside ourselves a lot of thoughts, feelings, desires, dreams, hopes and fears. And we, as artists, have a great, burning ambitious need to tell these things and put these thi

Monumental: In Search Of America's National Treasure

Kirk Cameron
Monumental is the story of America's beginnings. Presented, produced, and starring Kirk Cameron, the 90-minute true story follows this father of six across Europe and the U.S. as he seeks to discover America's true „national treasure“ - the people, places, and principles that made America the freest, most prosperous and generous nation the world has ever known. Monumental is heralded as „inspiring,“ „beautifully executed,“ „powerful,“ and „one meant to teach.“ Long regarded as „the land of opportunity,“ there's no question the tiny band of religious outcasts who founded this country hit upon a formula for success that went way beyond what they could have imagined. How else can you explain the fact that they established a nation that has become the best example of civil, economic and religious liberty the world has ever known? What formula did they discover? What motivated them to come here in the first place? More importantly, how can we apply these same foundational truths today? Take your family on a new adventure to discover the true national treasure of America.

Objectified (Blu-ray)

Objectified is a feature-length documentary about our complex relationship with manufactured objects and, by extension, the people who design them. In his second film, director Gary Hustwit (Helvetica) documents the creative processes of some of the world's most influential product designers, and looks at the creativity at work behind everything from toothbrushes to tech gadgets. What can we learn about who we are, and who we want to be, from the objects with which we surround ourselves?

The Official 2005 World Series Film: White Sox

Wire to wire. Only four teams in the history of the game had ever been in first place the entire regular season and won the World Series. Old school. Only one team in the last 50 years could lay claim to four consecutive complete games by its starting pitchers in a single postseason series. Historic. No team had ever broken a longer World Series drought. Until now. The Chicago White Sox put to rest 88 years of unfulfilled championship hopes when they swept past the gritty Houston Astros to capture the 2005 World Series. Led by Ozzie Guillen, the first Latin American to manage in the Fall Classic, the White Sox played „Ozzieball“ from Day One and finished with the best record in the American League. Through a combination of hustle, desire and powerful pitching, this band of bunters and bashers swept past the defending World Series champions, the Boston Red Sox, in the Division Series - won four straight against the dangerous Angels in the League Championship Series - and erased the Astros in four games, including the longest-ever World Series game. It's all here. The regular season and the playoff

The Official 2006 World Series Film: Cardinals

It is, quite simply, the beauty of baseball. The 2006 postseason began with a bevy of favorites. The Detroit Tigers tore through the American League with their 100 mph pitchers. The New York Mets laid to waste the National League East Division. The Oakland A's had a starting rotation that frightened most everyone. And the New York Yankees featured one of the greatest lineups of all time. The St. Louis Cardinals were also in the playoffs - but just barely. In the final weeks, the Cardinals lost eight of nine, watched their seven game lead disappear and just missed being eliminated. No team that finished a full season with 83 wins had ever won a World Series championship. According to the experts, the Cardinals had no chance. And that's the beauty of baseball. St. Louis beat San Diego in the NLDS and shocked the mighty Mets in the NLCS. In the World Series, they faced a heavily-favored Detroit Tigers team that had a week's worth of rest. But the St. Louis starters and rookie closer Adam Wainwright held the Tigers to just eleven runs through five games. Yadier Molina, Scott Rolen and Jim Edmonds ca

The Paradise Lost Trilogy Collection

The landmark HBO documentary that sparked an international movement to „Free the West Memphis Three,“ Paradise Lost investigates the gruesome 1993 murder of three eight-year-old boys and the three teenagers accused of killing them as part of a Satanic ritual. From real-life courtroom drama and clandestine jailhouse interviews to behind-the-scenes strategy meetings and intimate moments with grief-stricken families, acclaimed filmmakers Joe Berlinger and Bruce Sinofsky were granted unprecedented access to all the players involved, capturing the events as they unfolded. Revelations delve deeply into the shocking aftermath of the trials, updating the story seven years after the murders. With Damien Echols on death row and Jason Baldwin and Jesse Misskelley Jr. serving life sentences, Purgatory picks up the story and reexamines the horrifying crime with fresh insights that only the passage of time can provide. Facts are reevaluated, new evidence is revealed and new suspects are scrutinized. One of the most celebrated series in American documentary, these films tear the lid off a notorious murder case and cr

Pray For Japan (Blu-ray)

Pray For Japan is the moving documentary about the aftermath of the devastating tsunami and earthquake that hit Japan, focusing on the real-life heroes who fought on behalf of their loved ones and their hometown. On March 11, 2011, Japan's Tohoku coastal region was destroyed by a 9.0 magnitude earthquake and devastating tsunami that followed. Pray For Japan takes place in the devastated region of Ishinomaki, Miyagi - the largest coastal city in Tohoku with a population of over 160,000 people. Filmmaker Stu Levy - an American living in Japan - filmed the tsunami aftermath during his trips to Tohoku as a volunteer and over a period of 6 weeks, captured over 50 hours of footage. Pray For Japan focuses on four key perspectives of the tragedy - School, Shelter, Family, and Volunteers. With each perspective we meet victims who faced significant obstacles and fought to overcome them. Through these four vantage points, you will understand the vast ramifications of this large-scale natural disaster - and the battle these real-life heroes fought on behalf of their loved ones and their hometown. Putin's Kiss

Putin's Kiss portrays contemporary life in Russia through the coming-of-age story of Masha, a middle-class Russian girl and a member of Nashi, a nominally „anti-fascist“ movement whose members are expected to pledge their unwavering support to Vladimir Putin and all his policies. Extremely ambitious, the young Masha quickly rises to the top of Nashi, and is rewarded for her loyalty with an apartment, a car and frequent television appearances as a Nashi spokesperson, while attending Moscow State University. She begins to question her involvement with Nashi when she learns that a radical faction within the organization is supposedly responsible for attacks against political dissidents, and she finds herself faced with a very real dilemma when she befriends a group of journalists critical of Putin's government, one of whom is Oleg Kashin. When Oleg becomes the victim of a violent attack and barely makes it out of the hospital alive, Masha realizes that she must take a stand.

Rehearsal For A Sicilian Tragedy

John Turturro

In Rehearsal for a Sicilian Tragedy, actor John Turturro takes audiences on a haunting, intimate journey to his maternal homeland of Sicily. There, while exploring the island's vanishing traditions, he is taken under the wing of one of the puppet theater's few remaining practitioners, Mimmo Cuticchio, who instructs him in the distinctively Sicilian art of puppetry. Filmed during preparations for the Sicilian Day of the Dead, this evocative, magical-realist documentary was directed by Turturro's longtime collaborator, Roman Paska, himself a world-renowned puppeteer. Both an homage to the art of storytelling and a portrait of a Sicily little known to the outside world, Paska's film brings viewers to an otherworldly place, lost in time.

Rhythm Is It! You Can Change Your Life In A Dance Class

Simon Rattle

The borough Treptow in Berlin on the 28th of January 2003. In a former omnibus depot in an industrial backwater something amazing is happening. 250 pupils from 25 nations are dancing to Stravinsky's 'Sacre du Printemps', which they have rehearsed for nearly three months, trained by the British choreographer Royston Maldoom and accompanied by the Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra under its chief conductor, Sir Simon Rattle. Rhythm Is It! follows the fascinating process leading to the Sacre performance, the most ambitious project in the Zukunft @BPhil program for the year 2003. It shows the first efforts at dancing made by youngsters, few of whom had prior knowledge of classical music and expressive dance; it shows the perseverance, affection and patience with which Royston Maldoom and his assistants Susannah Broughton and Volker Eisenach care for them, and it shows the auxiliary efforts of teachers and the rehearsals of the Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra held during the same period. Through the eyes of three young protagonists we take part in the project's development, its ups and downs, d

Storage Wars Texas: Season One

The stakes are high and the drama intense in the Lone Star State as the hit A&E show Storage Wars expands to Texas. The series follows five Dallas storage unit hunters in their quest for auction treasures. Self-employed Lesa Lewis is searching for items to sell at her brand-new Again and Again Resale thrift store. Her pockets may not be deep, but she is a doggedly determined bidder when she sees a unit she wants. No job is too big for her right-hand man Jerry Simpson, who is always there to lend a hand and share a few laughs. Seasoned bidder Ricky Smith has been in the business since the age of 14 and says he is here to stay. He has spent the past 20 years teaching the tricks of the trade to his nephew Bubba, who now attends auctions with him. New York native Victor Rjesnjansky moved to Dallas four years ago and now bids on storage auctions to fill the shelves of his two Texas stores. Teasing the crowd of high bidders is fast-talking auctioneer Walt Cade, who will do whatever it takes to move the units - and offer each bidder a shot at hidden treasure.

Yoga Body: Hip Opening Flow With Stacy McCarthy

Yoga Body: Hip Opening Flow is a challenging, progressive series of yoga poses, one flowing into the next in a fluid, cardio style that works the entire body while emphasizing the hips. The series is based on standing postures and leg exercises created for all levels familiar with Sun Salutations. Options are given for beginner to more experienced students. It has an emphasis on postures that deepen you backbend, open your shoulders and release the hips. Bonus Feature - Mini maintenance practice: in our fast paced world it is not always easy to set the time for a full yoga practice at all, and it is better to practice a small amount as often as possible rather than none at all. Consistency is the key. The mini maintenance practice is designed to get you on your mat when you're tight on time. Stacy McCarthy is a certified yoga teacher with a Bachelor's degree in Exercise Science. With nearly two decades of yoga & fitness teaching, she offers a contemporary approach to the ancient practice of yoga. Stacy's precise cues on breath, focus and core strength along with her compassion & warmth are reflective of

41

From his beloved summer home in Kennebunkport, ME, where he has come nearly every year since childhood, George Herbert Walker Bush, the 41st President of the United States, tells the story of his life. Capturing the president while driving around the property in a golf cart as he shares the history of the house and its surrounding structures and sitting for one-on-one interviews, 41 offers a rare glimpse at the life and times of a living former president. Over the course of this feature documentary, which deftly weaves personal photos, black-and-white family films, news and archival footage, George H. W. Bush reflects on the highs and lows (including the loss of a 3-year old daughter to leukemia) of his life, sharing personal anecdotes from his childhood, his family, serving in WWII, his political career, and more.
