DIGITAL EDITION

Nr. 330 - Juli 2013

editorial

Hallo Laserdisc- und DVD-Fans, liebe Filmfreunde!

Bestimmt ist es Ihnen als fleißigem Leser unseres Newsletters schon längst aufgefallen, dass wir ganz still und heimlich dessen Erscheinungsfrequenz geändert haben. Waren Sie es bislang gewohnt, alle 14 Tage eine neue Ausgabe in Händen zu halten oder auf Ihrem Bildschirm zu lesen, so passiert dies seit diesem Jahr nunmehr erst alle vier Wochen. Aber keine Sorge: was die enthaltenen Informationen angeht, so hat sich daran nichts geändert. Dafür ist jede einzelne Ausgabe einfach umfangreicher geworden. Das muss aber nicht unbedingt bedeuten, dass es jetzt für immer so bleibt. Eine Rückkehr zur 14-täglichen Erscheinungsweise ist durchaus denkbar, jedoch nicht zum jetzigen Zeitpunkt. Das liegt einfach daran, dass wir neben unserem Kerngeschäft mit Medien seit geraumer Zeit ein zweites Standbein aufgebaut haben: die Videoproduktion. Da es sich dabei um eine extrem zeitaufwändige Angelegenheit handelt und der Tag nach wie vor nur 24 Stunden hat, müssen wir mit der uns zur Verfügung stehenden Zeit haushalten. Nachteile entstehen Ihnen dadurch in keiner Weise. Denn unseren Service in Bezug auf DVDs und Blu-rays halten wir weiterhin mit höchster Priorität aufrecht. Da sich in den letzten Jahren nun doch einige Monatsmagazine in Deutschland etabliert haben, deren Hauptaugenmerk den Heimmedien gilt und die an fast jedem Kiosk zu erwerben sind, herrscht hier längst kein so großes Informationsdefizit mehr wie zur Anfangszeit der DVD/Blu-ray oder der LaserDisc. Die Reduzierung auf eine monatliche Erscheinungsweise unseres Newsletters halten wir daher für angemessen und hoffen auf Ihr Verständnis.

Apropos Videoproduktion: in unserem Youtube-Kanal gibt ein paar Neuzugän-ge zu verzeichnen. Da wäre zum Einen eine weitere Filmpremiere, die wir videotechnisch festgehalten haben: EIN FREITAG IN BARCELONA. Zum Anderen haben wir zwei Videos hochgeladen, die bereits 2011 während des Widescreen Weekends in Bradford entstanden sind: TONY EARNSHAW IN CONVERSATION WITH CLAIRE BLOOM und JOE DUNTON INTRODUCING DANCE CRAZE IN 70MM. Zusätzlich haben wir noch eine Kurzversion unseres BROKEN CIRCLE Videos erstellt, das weitere Musiknummern des inzwischen legendären Konzerts in der Karlsruher Schauburg enthält. Surfen Sie doch einfach mal auf unseren Youtube-Kanal und lassen Sie sich überraschen.

Und jetzt viel Spaß mit der neuen Newsletter-Ausgabe!

“Feminism is the radical notion that women are people”

Regisseur Paul Feig hat es wieder geschafft: Mit The Heat einen Film zu drehen, in dem die Frauen so gar nicht sind wie die Frauen, die Hollywood uns sonst auftischt.

Vor zwei Jahren brach Bridesmaids Rekorde und diesen Sommer ist Feig mit Melissa McCarthy wieder unterwegs. Bridesmaids und The Heat sind besondere Tiere in Hollywood. Beide Filme kommen als chick flicks daher, werden aber mit großem Vergnügen auch von Männern konsumiert. Kassenerfolg vorprogrammiert. Aber was bedeutet es, dass ausgerechnet Filme, in denen die Frauen großmülig, fluchend, ungeschminkt und mit Fäkalhumor ausgestattet sind – alles typischerweise Männerdomäne – einen solchen Erfolg am Box Office haben? Superhelden und Zombie-Killern geht der Hintern gerade auf Grundeis, aber die prude FBI-Agentin und die ungewaschene Polizistin heben ab.

The Heat und Bridesmaids sind mehr als nur Komödien ihres Genres. Die Buddy-Cop-Komödie The Heat hätte man nicht für und mit Männern machen können. Bridesmaids ist nicht The Hangover, nur auf Östrogen.

Das Besondere an Feigs Filmen ist, dass er eine sehr subtile Art von Feminismus in den Raum stellt, die so kraftvoll ist, dass man sich ihr nicht entziehen kann. In Bridesmaids ließ Feig den Fäkalhumor aufleben. Er legte ihn Kreaturen in den Mund, von denen gemeinhin angenommen wird, sie würden nicht mal pupsen, geschweige denn Derberes. Ein Rudel von Brautjungfern samt Braut übergibt sich, hat Durchfall in einem Waschbecken und schiettert letztendlich auch noch auf die Straße. So etwas hatte man in Hollywood noch nie gesehen. Es geht auch nicht darum, ob man Fäkalhumor (pardon) goutiert oder nicht. Ich persönlich habe dafür weder bei Austin Powers noch bei Bridesmaids viel übrig. Es geht darum, was dieses Wagnis bedeutet. Mit diesem Akt der Rebellion – wie anders wäre er zu nennen in der Fabrik der Morgen ohne Mundgeruch und Lipgloss-Lippen – gleicht Feig die Frauen den Männern an. Denn vielleicht geht es beim modernen Feminismus nicht mehr darum, die Männer zu verändern oder zu “zivilisieren”, sondern die Frauen in den Augen aller zu befreien. Sie herunterzuholen von dem Podest, auf das sie ständig, ohne gefragt zu werden, gehoben werden. Wenn Frauen auch die Sau rauslassen dürfen, Körperfunktionen kein Tabu sind und sie genauso derb sein können wie die Männer, dann findet auch die Angleichung statt, die die Feministinnen so sehr herbeisehnen. Nun mag man argumentieren, dass Frauen nicht dasselbe sind wie Männer, egal wie man es dreht. Dass es doch schön ist, wenn eine Frau Benehmen hat, gut riecht, hübsch aussieht. Klar, darf oder sogar soll sie schlau sein, aber bitte, bitte, bitte trotzdem manikürte Hände haben und nach Orangenblütenwasser duften! Genau das ist aber perfider Sexismus. Wir sollen schlau sein, funktionieren und darüber hinaus hinter einer Fassade der Reinheit und Schönheit verschwinden. Ich will Ihnen jetzt etwas verraten: So rein und schön sind wir gar nicht. Keine von uns fällt mit frisch geföhnter, wehender Mähne aus dem Bett, wir werden nicht von kleinen Vögeln in der Früh angekleidet, unsere perfekte Haut ist schwer erkämpft und auch wenn wir sie haben, müssen wir sie trotzdem noch enthaaren, parfümieren und weichschrubben. Noch ein Geheimnis? Wir gehen auch aufs Klo. Wir rülpsen, pupsen und schneuzen jeden Tag, was das Zeug hält. Denn egal wie man es dreht, wir haben dieselben grundlegenden Körperfunktionen wie die Männer. Mehr noch, und schlimmer, wenn man die Menstruation dazurechnet. Minus die morgendliche Rasur.

Aber genug der ekligen Details. Frauen wie in Bridesmaids 2011 und nun in The Heat gibt es wirklich. Dicke und dünne, schwache und muskulöse, geschminkte und ungeschminkte. Es hilft uns nicht weiter, wenn wir Haltung wahren sollen, während die Männer alles dürfen und das mit dem hinterhältigen Vorwand, dass Frauen ja eigentlich besser seien als Männer. Hinterhältig deshalb, weil uns das vermeintliche Kompliment in Schach halten soll und die "Frauen mmmmmh! Männer bääääh!" Ordnung, die traditionell eingehalten wird und in Hollywood zu den Geboten der Traumfabrik gehört, gewahrt werden muss. Wir sind nicht besser. Wir sind ebenso vielfältig und wahnwitzig und kompliziert und einfach. Feigs Filme haben deshalb einen solchen Erfolg, weil er durch seine realistische Darstellung ein Stück weit den Vorhang vor dem Mysterium Frau lüftet. Runter vom Podest, raus ans Tageslicht und schon wird den Männern die (völlig übertriebene) Ehrfurcht genommen und den Frauen Wiedererkennungswert gegeben. Die perfekte Mischung, um beide Geschlechter anzusprechen. Kasse? Klingelt! Feigs Werke differenzieren dort, wo es angebracht ist: im Innern der Menschen. The Heat hat alle Merkmale einer klassischen, großartigen Buddy-Cop-Komödie, aber Sandra Bullock und Melissa McCarthy durch Männer zu ersetzen wäre nicht gegangen. Denn die Agentin Ashburn und Detective Mullins sind Frauen, deren Probleme, Lösungsansätze und Gefühle eben doch äußerst feminin sind. Die Art, wie sich Ashburn in ihre Arbeit versteift, Wunden aus der Kindheit in sich hineinfrisst und sich in schrecklichen Hosenanzügen versteckt, das sind Merkmale, die ich so hauptsächlich bei Frauen finde.

Drehbuchautorin Katie Dippold hatte ein gutes Gespür dafür, wie echte Frauen ticken. Das bedeutet nicht, dass in typischer Hollywood-Manier die zwei Gegensätze nicht grandios zueinander finden, aber zu sagen, dass es etwas anderes als Charlies Engel gibt, das ist Dippold ungewöhnlich gut gelungen. Dafür, dass die Zuschauer Dippolds Figuren genauso haben wollen, spricht auch die Entrüstung über das erste Filmposter für The Heat. Darauf war die wuchtige Melissa McCarthy so fürchterlich von Photoshop bearbeitet worden, dass sie nicht wiederzuerkennen war. Gesicht verschmälert, Taille wie von einem Korsett verbogen, aalglatte Haut ohne eine einzige Pore. Nach Protesten von Fans und Häme der Medien wurde aus dem Foto auf dem Poster Silhouetten gemacht.

The Heat und Bridesmaids beweisen, dass Männer wie Frauen nicht nur oberflächlich sind. Dass wir realistische Figuren haben wollen, in unrealistischen, aber wunderbar unterhaltenden Szenarien. Wir wollen Vielfalt und nicht 90-60-90 und wir wollen herzhaft lachen dürfen über die Dicke, die über den Zaun auf den Verbrecher fällt und die Dünne, die sich auf der Straße das Brautkleid vollschießt. Wir wollen und brauchen einen Feminismus, bei dem Angleichung nicht Gleichmachen ist. Feminismus darf nicht das Leugnen von Differenzen sein. Feig und Dippold zeigen das in The Heat auch sehr genau, wenn Mullins und Ashburn sich ihrer femininen Attribute bedienen, um sich an einen Gangster ranzumachen. Ganz in der Tradition der Frauenfiguren von J.J. Abrams und Joss Whedon wie Sydney Bristow aus Alias oder die Frauen von Firefly. Joss Whedon, übrigens, der einmal auf die Frage "Wie so schreiben Sie solch starke Frauenfiguren?", "Weil Sie mir immer noch diese Frage stellen" geantwortet hat. Frauen sollen dasselbe dürfen wie Männer, aber nicht müssen. Umgekehrt genauso. Nur wenn für beide Geschlechter dieselben Dinge erlaubt sind, können beide sich auf Augenhöhe, ohne Scham und Sexismus, begegnen. Und dann, dann geschieht Magie: Frauen und Männer können sich gleichermaßen aussuchen, wer sie sein wollen, wie sie sein wollen, ihre Emotionen und Konflikte auf ganz individuelle Weise bestreiten, mit all jenen Stärken und Schwächen, die ihnen mitgegeben wurden.

Superman ist schon wieder zurück!

Helden und Totgeglaubte haben etwas gemeinsam: sie leben länger. Die Pressewoche begann heute mit der neuesten Ausgabe von Superman.

MAN OF STEEL (1:2.35, 3D, DD 5.1 + 7.1 + Atmos)

OT: Man Of Steel

Verleih Warner

Land/Jahr: USA, Kanada 2013

Regie: Zack Snyder

Darsteller: Henry Cavill, Amy Adams, Michael Shannon, Kevin Costner, Diane Lane, Laurence Fishburne, Antje Traue, Ayelet July Zurer, Christopher Meloni, Russell Crowe, Julia Ormond

Kinostart: 20.06.2013

Weil sein Heimatplanet Krypton dem Untergang geweiht ist, schickt Jor-El seinen kleinen Sohn Kal-El mit einem Raumschiff auf die Erde. Dort wird er von einem Ehepaar adoptiert und lebt unerkannt als Mensch unter Menschen. Doch es fällt ihm schwer, seine übermenschlichen Kräfte zu unterdrücken. Und genau die werden benötigt, als sich ein Trupp böser Kryptoiden unter Führung von General Zod zur Erde aufmacht, um den Planeten für sich in Anspruch zu nehmen. Ein erbarmungsloser Krieg entbrennt... Auch wenn er mit Filmen wie 300, WATCHMEN oder SUCKER PUNCH zwar nicht beweisen konnte, dass er anspruchsvolle Filme inszenieren kann, so waren Zack Snyders Regiearbeiten zumindest optisch durchaus imposant. Das jedoch trifft nicht auf seine neuestes Werk zu. MAN OF STEEL entpuppt sich als eine vollkommen einfallslose und visuell durchschnittliche Materialschlacht. Charaktere? Fehlanzeige. Spannung? Fehlanzeige. Noch nicht einmal die Musik von Hans Zimmer kann überzeugen. Offenbar hat sich Deutschlands Filmmusik-Export von dem unsäglichen Werk den Wind aus den Segeln nehmen lassen – was nicht weiter verwunderlich ist. Mit Wehmut denkt man zurück an Richard Donners SUPERMAN-Verfilmung, die nicht nur eine gute Story, viel Emotionen und eine gute Portion Humor hatte, sondern auch einen Score (aus der Feder von John Williams), die das Superhelden-Feeling auf den Punkt brachte. Snyders Film ist sehr düster. Und das nicht nur während der Szenen auf Krypton, sondern eben auch während der kompletten Erd-Sequenzen. Verblüffend: nicht einmal in tontechnischer Hinsicht erfüllt der Film die hohen Erwartungen: die Musik klirrt gewaltig! Fazit: wer SUPERMAN sehen möchte, der greife zur 1978er-Verfilmung und meide MAN OF STEEL.

Französisches Doppel

Eine französische Komödie und ein in Paris spielendes Drama machten heute das Desaster von gestern wieder wett.

PAULETTE (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

OT: Paulette

Verleih: Neue Visionen

Land/Jahr: Frankreich 2012

Regie: Jérôme Enrico

Darsteller: Bernadette Lafont, Carmen

Maura, Dominique Lavanant

Kinostart: 18.07.2013

Seit ihr Mann gestorben ist, muss sich die alte Paulette mit einer knappen Rente durchs Leben boxen. Ihr tristes Dasein in einer Hochhauswohnung im Pariser Banlieu sorgt dafür, dass sie immer mürrischer wird. Ein Zustand, der damit begonnen hat, dass ihr kleines Restaurant inzwischen in ausländischer Hand gelandet ist. Kein Wunder also, dass die alte Dame zu starkem Rassismus neigt. Als ihr eines Tages rein zufällig Haschisch in die Hände fällt, kommt ihr eine zündende Idee: sie backt Kekse mit dem gewissen Kick. Und die kommen in der Nachbarschaft extrem gut an... Zugegeben: Jérôme Enricos Film hat gewisse Ähnlichkeit mit dem britischen GRASGEFLÜSTER. Zumindest liegt beiden Geschichten dieselbe Idee zugrunde. Trotzdem – und das ist bemerkenswert – begeistert PAULETTE. Aber das ist auch kein Wunder. Denn mit einer so wunderbaren Darstellerin wie Bernadette Lafont kann der Film nur gewinnen. Lafont spielt ihre Paulette einfach grandios: überzeugt rassistisch. Nur eine Ausnahme gibt es bei ihr: der schwarze Priester, zu dem sie sagt "Sie hätten es verdient weiss zu sein!". Natürlich findet die Grande Dame im Verlauf des Films auch ihr Herz wieder, das sie seit dem Ableben ihres Gatten verloren zu haben scheint. PAULETTE punktet mit vielen witzigen, oftmals schwarzhumorigen Einfällen, bei denen selbst hartgesottene Filmkritiker zum Lachen animiert werden. Einfach herrlich!

MR. MORGAN'S LAST LOVE (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

OT: Mr. Morgan's Last Love

Verleih: Senator

Land/Jahr: Deutschland, USA, Frankreich 2013

Regie: Sandra Nettelbeck

Darsteller: Sir Michael Caine, Clémence Poésy, Justin Kirk, Gillian Anderson

Kinostart: 22.08.2013

Seit seine Frau vor drei Jahren gestorben ist, lebt der Amerikaner Matthew Morgan ganz abgeschieden in seiner riesigen Wohnung mitten in Paris. In Gedanken sieht er immer noch seine geliebte Frau vor sich. Eines Tages lernt der kaum Französisch sprechende Morgan die junge Pariserin Pauline kennen und freundet sich mit ihr an. Nach einem missglückten Selbstmordversuch ist es auch die lebensfrohe junge Frau, die den Witwer wieder ins Leben holt – weit mehr noch als seine kurzfristig aus den USA angereisten Kinder... Einmal mehr darf Michael Caine eine seinem Alter gerecht werdende Rolle spielen: die des Witwers, der durch die Bekanntschaft mit der jungen Französin neuen Lebensmut fasst, sich schließlich mit der Familie aussöhnt und endgültig seine Trauer überwindet. Neben dem sehr überzeugenden Caine brilliert Clémence Poésy als die junge Tanzlehrerin – nicht nur ein Lichtblick für den alten Witwer, sondern auch für den Zuschauer. Der von Sandra Nettelbeck inszenierte Film ist sehr stimmungsvoll fotografiert und mit einem ansprechenden Score aus der Feder von Hans Zimmer unterlegt. Wer Kino mit viel Gefühl und ohne Kitsch mag, der liegt bei diesem Drama richtig.

Wenn die Machete spricht

Wo Männer schweigen, Frauen böse sind und Körperanhänge abgeschlagen werden, da könnte Nicolas Winding Refn am Werk sein. In der Tat.

ONLY GOD FORGIVES (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

OT: Only God Forgives

Verleih: Tiberius (24 Bilder)

Land/Jahr: USA, Frankreich, Dänemark
2013

Regie: Nicolas Winding Refn

Darsteller: Ryan Gosling, Kristin Scott
Thomas, Vithaya Pansringarm

Kinostart: 18.07.2013

Julian betreibt mit seinem Bruder Billy zusammen ein Kickbox-Studio im Rotlichtviertel von Bangkok. Als Billy wegen dem bestialischen Mord an einem Mädchen von deren Vater ermordet wird, sinnt die Mutter der beiden Brüder auf Rache. Doch sie weiß noch nicht, dass sie es mit einem selbsternannten Racheengel mit guten Verbindungen zur Polizei zu tun hat. Und der kann verdammt gut die Machete schwingen... "Irgendwie ist ONLY GOD

FORGIVES wie eine Zusammenfassung aller Filme, die ich bisher gemacht habe.

Ich glaube, dass ich mit Hochgeschwindigkeit auf eine kreative Kollision zusteuere, um alles um mich herum zu verändern". So Regisseur Nicolas Winding Refn über sein neuestes Werk. Sieht man den Film und lauscht man seinen Worten, so könnte das Regie-Wunderkind, welches zuletzt den genialen DRIVE kreierte, auf genau dieselbe "Kollision" (oder besser: Krise) zusteuern wie sein Kollege David Lynch. Das aber hätte zur Folge, dass Refn sein Publikum verliert. Die Charaktere in ONLY GOD

FORGIVES haben allesamt etwas Lynchhaftes. Oft sieht man sie in abgedunkelten, durchgestylten Räumen alleine stehend oder sitzend, aber vor allem schweigend. Überhaupt scheint Ryan Gosling inzwischen auf Schweigerollen programmiert zu sein. Doch so wortkarg wie jetzt hat man ihn noch nicht erlebt. Kristin Scott Thomas spielt Goslings

Filmmutter, eine durchtriebene, böse Frau, die mit ihrem Sohn offensichtlich ein inestuöses Verhältnis hat. Wodurch wiederum Julians gestörtes Verhältnis zum Sex begreifbar wird. Der atmosphärisch sehr dichte wie verwirrende Film verdankt seine surreale Wirkung insbesondere der atemberaubenden Kameraarbeit von Larry Smith, der auch schon für Stanley Kubrick arbeitete. Rot ist in seinen Bildern die vorherrschende Farbe und Refn tut auch alles dafür, dass das so bleibt: er hat seinen Film mit sehr krassen, blutrünstigen Szenen ausgestattet, die mit Sicherheit dafür sorgen werden, dass Jugendliche diesen Film nicht zu sehen bekommen. Ebenso imposant wie die Optik ist auch die Tonspur des Films. Cliff Martinez lieferte eine teils an Bernard Herrmann erinnernde Filmmusik und das Sounddesign schafft eine Atmosphäre ständiger Bedrohung. Insgesamt also überzeugt Refns Film zumindest in den technischen Werten. Was den Inhalt angeht: mehr als Auge um Auge erschließt sich dem Betrachter vermutlich nicht.

Liebe, Schmerz und das ganze verdammte Zeugs

AN IHRER STELLE (1:2.35, 5.1)

OT: Lemale Et Ha'halal
Verleih: NFP (Filmwelt)

Land/Jahr: Israel 2012

Regie: Rama Burshtein, Yigal Bursztyn

Darsteller: Hadas Yaron, Yiftach Klein, Irit Sheleg

Kinostart: 11.07.2013

Als ihre ältere Schwester hochschwanger stirbt, soll die 18jährige Shira deren Mann Yochay heiraten, damit das Bany weiterhin in der Nähe ihrer Mutter bleiben kann. Shira, die eigentlich ihr Auge auf jemand ganz Anderen geworfen hat, kommt in Bedrängnis: soll sie für das Wohl der Gemeinde tatsächlich ihre eigenen Bedürfnisse aufgeben oder soll sie sich verweigern? - Mit ihrem Drama AN IHRER STELLE entführen Rama Burshtein und Yigal Bursztyn ihre Zuschauer in eine vollkommen eigenartige Welt – die der ultra-orthodoxen Juden in Tel Aviv. Deren Bräuche und Sitten erscheinen insbesondere westlichen Betrachtern als ziemlich extrem. Hier steht nicht das Wohl und Glück des Einzelnen, sondern das der Gemeinde an erster Stelle. Dass dadurch einzelne Existenzen zerstört werden ist nicht wichtig. Man sieht es als Kollateralschaden. Mit seiner exzellenten Kameraarbeit, die trotz oder vielleicht gerade wegen CinemaScope die Enge dieser Gemeinde deutlich vor Augen führt, sowie den gut ausgewählten Darstellern, bleibt der Film über seine gesamte Länge spannend und zeigt einmal mehr, dass eine Religion auch Fesseln anlegen kann.

STUCK IN LOVE (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: Stuck In Love

Verleih: Senator

Land/Jahr: USA 2012

Regie: Josh Boone

Darsteller: Greg Kinnear, Jennifer

Connelly, Lily Collins

Kinostart: 19.09.2013

Der Vater trauert noch immer seiner Ex nach, die sich von ihm vor drei Jahren getrennt hat. Sohn Rusty ist in Kate verliebt, wagt es aber nicht ihr zu sagen. Und Tochter Samantha, deren erster Roman kurz vor der Veröffentlichung steht, mag keine feste Bindung, sondern One Night Stands. Doch innerhalb eines Jahres wird sich das alles ändern... Josh Boones Film umspannt genau ein Jahr, nämlich von einem Thanksgiving zum nächsten. Innerhalb dieses Jahres gibt es für alle Beteiligten Entscheidungen in puncto Liebe. Das ist mal lustig, mal traurig, etwas sentimental und auch ein bisschen tiefschürfend, aber immer richtig dosiert. Dank einer überzeugenden Besetzung gelingt es auch, Gefühle in den Kinosaal zu transportieren. Ob die erste eigene Liebe oder auch die erste Trennung – die verzwickten Beziehungskonstellationen bergen für jeden Identifikationspotenzial. Obgleich der Film eigentlich am besten zur Weihnachtszeit passt, bringt ihn der deutsche Verleiher bereits im September in die Kinos. Ansehen kann man ihn sich aber trotzdem.

Animation im Doppelpack

Zum Abschluss der Woche gab es heute geballte Computeranimationspower.

DIE MONSTER UNI (1:1.85, 3D, DD 5.1 + 7.1 + Atmos)

OT: Monsters University

Verleih: Walt Disney

Land/Jahr: USA 2013

Regie: Dan Scanlon

Kinostart: 20.06.2013

Lange war sie geplant – jetzt wurde sie realisiert: die Vorgeschichte zum Computeranimationsfilm DIE MONSTER AG. Wie sie wurden was sie sind – hier wird es gezeigt. Denn Einauge Mike und Kuschelmonster Sullivan waren nicht immer Freunde. Kennenlernen tun sich die zwei Ungleichen während des ersten Semesters an der Monster-Uni, wo sich beide für die Ausbildung zum "Erschrecker" eingeschrieben haben. Doch mit dem Erschrecken klappt es bei Mike nicht so ganz und schließlich soll er deswegen sogar von der Uni fliegen. Aber Mike gibt nicht so schnell auf. Ein anstehender Erschreck-Wettbewerb soll das Ruder herumreißen. Aber es gibt ein kleines Problem: Mike und Sullivan sollen im selben Team kämpfen... Wenn man wie ich den Originalfilm DIE MONSTER AG mag, dann sollte man dieses Prequel meiden. Denn sonst wird man die Enttäuschung des Jahres erleben. Dem Film fehlt es vollkommen an Herz! Stattdessen gibt es nur Klamaus zu bestaunen, über den man kaum lachen kann. Von ein, zwei Ausnahmen abgesehen vielleicht. Technisch ist der neue Pixar-Film ganz sicher wieder allerbeste Sahne, doch was nützt die ganze Technik, wenn den Drehbuchautoren nichts einfällt. Könnte das eventuell bereits das Diktat des Disneys-Konzerns sein, der Pixar vor ein paar Jahren vereinnahmt hat? Hoffen wir es nicht.

ICH – EINFACH UNVERBESSERLICH 2 (1:1.85, 3D, DD 5.1)

OT: Despicable Me 2

Verleih: Universal

Land/Jahr: USA 2013

Regie: Pierre Coffin, Chris Renaud

Kinostart: 04.07.2013

Nachdem ein geheimes Forschungslabor mitten in der Arktis spurlos verschwunden ist und mit ihm eine Substanz, die Lebewesen in Sekundenschnelle in Monster verwandelt, steht der ultrageheime Geheimdienst vor einem Rätsel. Agentin Lucy soll deshalb Bösewicht Gru rekrutieren. Denn wer sonst als ein Verbrecher kann einen Verbrecher finden? Gesagt – getan. Mithilfe seiner kleinen Minions macht sich Gru gemeinsam mit Lucy an die Arbeit. Noch ahnen sie nicht, dass selbst die Minions sowie Grus Adoptivtöchter in großer Gefahr schweben... Der Fortsetzungsfilm zum großen Erfolg ICH – EINFACH UNVER-

BESSERLICH hat alles, was dem zweiten Teil der MONSTER AG fehlt: jede Menge Herz! Und dafür sorgen nicht nur die oft fieseren Späße der gelben Minions, deren Rolle im zweiten Teil mehr Raum einnimmt als im ersten. Auch die drei kleinen Mädels, für die Bösewicht Gru so liebevoll sorgt, sind herzerweichend! Wenn beispielsweise die Kleinste zum ersten Mal Agentin Lucy sieht, steht sie einfach nur regungslos da und blickt mit großen Augen und weit aufgerissenem Mund zu ihrer potenziellen Stiefmutter hinauf. Das rührt ja fast zu Tränen! Man versteht sogleich, warum Gru dem Charme dieser Mädchen nicht widerstehen kann. Gru selbst – man soll es nicht glauben – verliebt sich dieses Mal, ebenso wie die älteste seiner drei Ziehtöchter. Wer diesen Film nicht absolut süß, knuddelig, herzerfrischend und total witzig findet, der hat wohl seine Gefühle verloren. Fazit: das ist der Blockbuster dieses Sommers, den man keinesfalls verpassen sollte!

Die innere Leere

Bildgewaltiges italienisches Kino durfte heute im Kinosaal gegen die Hitze draußen ankämpfen.

LA GRANDE BELLEZZA (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: La Grande Bellezza

Verleih: DCM

Land/Jahr: Italien, Frankreich 2013

Regie: Paolo Sorrentino

Darsteller: Toni Servillo, Carlo Verdone, Sabrina Ferilli

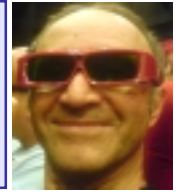

Kinostart: 25.07.2013

Jep Gambardella ist Journalist, hat vor vielen Jahren ein Buch geschrieben und genießt seither das süße Leben inmitten der High Society in Rom. Jetzt jedoch, mit 65 Jahren, fühlt er sich zunehmend von der Oberflächlichkeit der römischen Gesellschaft gelangweilt. Er schwelgt in Erinnerungen an seine erste große Liebe und überspielt seine innere Leere mit Zynismus und Alkohol. Gegenwart und Vergangenheit vermischen sich... Vollkommen entfesselt schwebt die Kamera durch die "Ewige Stadt", zeigt uns japanische Touristen in einem Park, ein paar Nonnen beim Singen, einen Schlafenden auf einer Bank. Die Perspektiven wechseln ständig, die Kamera kommt zu keinem Stillstand. Und so landen wir schließlich auf einer Mega-Party der Schönen und Reichen, wo sich zu lautstarken Techno-Rhythmen alte und junge Körper bewegen. Hier begegnen wir Jep Gambardella alias Toni Servillo zum ersten Mal. Paolo Sorrentinos Film kann hier

Wolfram Hannemanns

Film-Blog

durchaus als eine Hommage an "La Dolce Vita" gewertet werden. Oder vielleicht sogar als eine Hommage an die Filme Fellinis schlechthin, zu deren absoluten Fans sich Sorrentino zählt. Hierfür sprechen nicht nur die unzähligen Partys, sondern auch die vielen skurrilen Gestalten, denen Jep im Laufe des Films begegnet. Sie könnten wahrhaftig alle einem Fellini-Universum entstammen. Trotzdem bleibt der fast zweieinhalbstündige Film über weite Strecken rätselhaft. Vielleicht möchte er sich auch gar nicht jedem erschließen. Doch unabhängig davon liefert Sorrentino gemeinsam mit Kameramann Luca Bigazzi wieder atemberaubende Bilder, die hier die Stadt Rom mit ungewöhnlichen Perspektiven in ihren Fokus ziehen.

Z wie Zombie

Dass auch weichgespültes Zombie-Kino unterhalten kann, bewies die heutige Pressevorführung.

WORLD WAR Z (1:2.35, 3D, DD 5.1 + 7.1)

OT: World War Z

Verleih: Paramount

Land/Jahr: USA 2013

Regie: Marc Forster

Darsteller: Brad Pitt, Mireille Enos, James Badge Dale

Kinostart: 27.06.2013

Gerade einmal zehn Sekunden dauert es, bis sich ein Mensch nach der Infektion in eine aggressive Bestie verwandelt. UN-Mitarbeiter Gerry Lane und seine Familie stecken mittendrin, als sich Philadelphia in einen richtige Kriegsschauplatz verwandelt: Menschen gegen Zombies! Und die Epidemie breitet sich auf der ganzen Welt aus, Millionen von Menschen sind betroffen. Im Auftrag der UN soll Gerry helfen, die Ursache zu finden, bevor es zu spät ist. Getrennt von seiner Familie führt ihn der Weg bis in die Stadtmauern von Jerusalem, wo angeblich das erste Opfer aufgetreten ist. Dort macht er eine Entdeckung, die für das Überleben der Menschheit ausschlaggebend sein könnte. Derweil lauern Heerscharen von Zombies vor den Toren der Stadt... Soviel gleich vorweg: wer jetzt einen richtig harten, mit möglichst vielen Gore-Elementen bestückten Zombie-Film zu Gesicht zu bekommen, der sitzt im falschen Film. Dass Brad Pitt nicht nur in der Hauptrolle zu sehen ist, sondern auch noch mit seiner Firma "Plan B" den Film mitproduziert hat, sollte für die Gore-Fraktion wahrhaftig Warnung genug sein. Im Klartext heisst das: WORLD WAR Z ist weich-gespültes Zombie-Kino. Doch das heisst noch längst nicht, dass der Film schlecht sein muss. So fühlte sich der Autor dieses Textes durchaus gut unterhalten. Regisseur Marc Forster setzt hier nicht auf wirklich krasse Effekte, sondern dreht seine Kamera in den entscheidenden Augenblicken einfach weg oder setzt einen Schnitt an. Trotzdem wirken diese Sequenzen erschreckend, was zu einem sehr großen Teil dem ausgezeichneten Sound-Design geschuldet ist, das sich stets daran erinnert, dass es im Kinosaal eine Vielzahl von Subwoofern zu bedienen gilt. So rummst es immer wieder ganz ordentlich, jedoch ohne zum Selbstzweck zu verkommen, sondern immer dem dramaturgischen Kontext verpflichtet. Die beeindruckendste Sequenz im Film ist dabei zweifelsohne der Großangriff der Zombies auf die Heilige Stadt, Jerusalem, die insbesondere aus der Vogelperspektive gezeigt wird. Hunderte von Untoten türmen sich zu einer Pyramide auf, um so über die Mauern der Stadt Zugang zu Frischfleisch zu bekommen – ein wirklich imposantes Schauspiel. WORLD WAR Z versteht sich als so etwas wie ein Zombiefilm für die ganze Familie und da wundert es nicht, dass sich das Familienmotiv wie ein roter Faden durch den Film zieht: Brad Pitt als liebender Vater tut alles dafür, seine beiden Töchter und seine Gattin am Ende wieder in die Arme nehmen zu dürfen. Mit den verheissungsvollen Worten "The War has just begun" endet der Film und stellt damit gleichzeitig eine Fortsetzung in Aussicht. Werden Zombies jetzt also salonfähig?

Vom Aufbruch in der arabischen Welt

Dass es nicht immer ein Riesenspektakel sein muss, um eine Geschichte zu erzählen, führte der heutige Film einmal mehr vor Augen

DAS MÄDCHEN WADJDA (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

OT: Wadjda

Verleih: Koch Media (Neue Visionen)

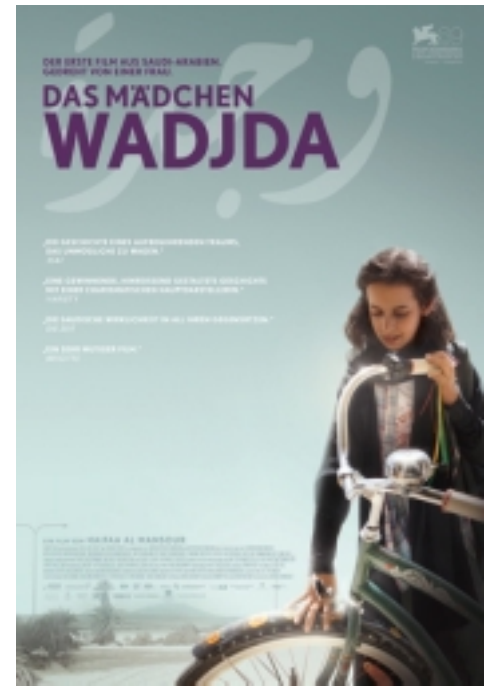

Land/Jahr: Deutschland, Saudi-Arabien 2012

Regie: Haifaa Al Mansour

Darsteller: Reem Abdullah, Waad Mohammed, Abdullrahman Al Gohani

Kinostart: 05.09.2013

Nichts wünscht sich Wadjda sehnlichster als das tolle Fahrrad, das vor dem Spielzeugladen steht. Damit könnte sie den Nachbarsjungen endlich einmal in seine Schranken weisen. Dumm nur, dass es Frauen in ihrem Land nicht gestattet ist, Fahrrad zu fahren. Doch Wadjda ist nicht auf den Kopf gefallen und schert sich nicht so sehr um gesellschaftliche Konventionen. Mit allerlei Einfällen versucht sie, in ihrer Schule das Taschengeld aufzubessern, um sich ihren großen Traum selbst erfüllen zu können. Einen hoch dotierten Koran-Wettbewerb sieht sie schließlich als die große Chance... Das Regie-Debüt der saudi-arabischen Regisseurin Haifaa Al Mansour gestattet dem Zuschauer einen Blick in die saudi-arabische Gesellschaft, in der nach wie vor Frauen Menschen zweiter Klasse sind. Nicht nur müssen sie bereits als Mädchen in der Öffentlichkeit stets verschleiert herumlaufen, auch gilt in diesem Land noch immer die Polygamie, die es Männern gestattet, bis zu vier Frauen zu haben. In ihrem wunderbar erzählten Film steht das Mädchen Wadjda als Symbol für einen Aufbruch: die Zehnjährige widersetzt sich ganz intuitiv den gesellschaftlichen Zwängen, durch die sich die Frauen im Lande geißeln lassen. So endet der Film mit optimistischen Bildern, die sicherlich vorerst nur ein Wunschdenken der weiblichen Bevölkerung sind, aber gleichzeitig auch eine unmissverständliche Botschaft in die arabische Welt hinausschicken.

Flippig und langweilig

Das erste Doppelprogramm der Woche machte mich mit einer Generation bekannt, der ich längst nicht mehr angehöre und nahm mich danach mit auf den gefühlt längsten Ritt der Filmgeschichte

FRANCES HA (1:1.85, 5.1)

OT: Frances Ha
 Verleih: MFA (Filmagentinnen)
 Land/Jahr: USA 2012
 Regie: Noah Baumbach
 Darsteller: Greta Gerwig, Mickey Sumner, Adam Driver
 Kinostart: 01.08.2013

Frances ist 27, flippig, erfolglos. Den begehrten Job als Tänzerin bekommt sie nicht und ist darauf angewiesen, weiterhin bei ihrer besten Freundin Sophie zu wohnen. Als die jedoch mit einer anderen Freundin zusammenziehen will, weil deren Wohnung in ihrer Lieblingswohnlage liegt, bröckelt die innige Freundschaft und Frances zieht in eine Männer-WG... In (fast) Schwarzweiß fängt Noah Baumbachs Film den Rhythmus und das Lebensgefühl der überstudierten, aber unterbeschäftigten Generation der Endzwanziger perfekt ein. Mit schnellen Schnitten, oft unterlegt mit Filmmusik aus der Feder von Truffauts Hauskomponist Georges Delerue, witzigen Dialogen und vor Temperament überschäumenden Darstellern wird eine Generation porträtiert, die zu ihren Freunden eine engere Beziehung hat als zu ihren Liebhabern. Der zeitweise an Woody Allen erinnernde Film ist ein rasantes Feel-Good-Movie mit einer gesunden Mischung aus Melancholie und Komik.

GOLD (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

Verleih: Piffel
 Land/Jahr: Deutschland 2013
 Regie: Thomas Arslan
 Darsteller: Nina Hoss, Marko Mandic, Lars Rudolph
 Kinostart: 15.08.2013

1898 bricht ein bunt zusammengewürfelter Haufen von emigrierten Deutschen in Kanada auf, um auf dem Landweg nach Dawson am Klondike River zu kommen. Dort lockt das Gold, das jeder der Reisenden zu finden hofft. Der Weg dorthin jedoch ist sehr strapaziös und der Anführer des Trupps ohne jegliche Orientierung. Keine guten Voraussetzungen für ein solches Unterfangen... Da reiten die Deutschen also durch Kanadas wunderschönes Land, auf der Suche nach dem großen Glück. Und sie reiten, rasten, reiten, rasten... Das Ganze ist nicht sonderlich aufregend geschweige denn spannend und man fragt sich unweigerlich: wenn ein Spätwestern weder spannend noch aufregend ist, warum gibt es ihn dann? Freilich wird der deutsche Stoßtrupp im Laufe der beschwerlichen Reise unweigerlich dezimiert. Aber interessiert das den Zuschauer? Ganz bestimmt nicht. Betrachtet man sich diesen Filmversuch, so beginnt man zu verstehen, warum das Western-Genre ausgestorben ist. Einen DJANGO UNCHAINED kann halt auch nicht jeder machen. GOLD jedenfalls lädt zum Fernbleiben ein.

Von alten und jungen Menschen

Rentner vs. Teenager – mein heutiges Doppelprogramm.

GLORIA (1:2.35, 5.1)

OT: Gloria
 Verleih: Alamode (Filmagentinnen)
 Land/Jahr: Chile 2012
 Regie: Sebastián Lelio
 Darsteller: Paulina Garcia, Sergio Hernandez, Coca Guazzini
 Kinostart: 08.08.2013

Gloria ist 58, hat eine Ehe hinter sich, zwei längst erwachsene Kinder, die auf eigenen Beinen stehen, und einen Job. Abends tingelt sie durch Tanzlokale, stets auf der Suche nach einem Mann. In dem etwas älteren Rodolfo glaubt sie schließlich den richtigen Partner fürs Alter gefunden zu haben. Die Chemie zwischen den beiden stimmt und auch der Sex macht Spaß. Doch gerade als sich Gloria am Ziel ihrer Träume sieht, bricht das Kartenhaus jäh zusammen... Regisseur Sebastián Lelio, Jahrgang 1974, wollte nach eigenem Bekunden einen Film über die Generation seiner Mutter machen, als er die Idee zu GLORIA hatte. Er zeigt die von Paulina Garcia dargestellte Gloria als eine Frau, die sich trotz ständiger Niederlagen nicht vom Leben unterkriegen lässt. Sein Film ist damit so etwas wie ein Beitrag dazu, dass das Leben mit Ende 50 noch lange nicht vorbei sein muss und dürfte sich insbesondere an das ältere Publikum richten. Allerdings passiert nicht gerade viel in diesem Film, was einen dann schon ab und zu etwas unruhig auf dem Kinossessel herumrutschen lässt.

THE BLING RING (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

OT: The Bling Ring
 Verleih: Tobis
 Land/Jahr: USA 2013
 Regie: Sofia Coppola
 Darsteller: Katie Chang, Israel Broussard, Emma Watson
 Kinostart: 15.08.2013

Aus Langeweile und Übermut heraus kommen die Teenager Marc und seine Freundin Rebecca auf die Idee, in die Villas von Prominenten in Hollywood einzusteigen. Ob ein VIP zuhause ist oder nicht, erfahren die beiden durch gezielte Internet-Recherche, ebenso die Adresse der Villa. Und meistens liegt der Hausschlüssel einfach unter der Türmatte. Schon bald schließen sich dem Pärchen weitere Freunde an, um sich an den teuren Accessoires der Promis zu bedienen. Alles ändert sich, als eine Überwachungskamera zuschlägt... Aus einem kleinen Artikel einen Langfilm zu machen, muss nicht zwangsläufig schiefgehen. Im Falle von Sofia Coppolas neuem Film THE BLING RING jedoch ist dies leider passiert. So tritt der Film bis weit über die Hälfte hinaus auf der Stelle. Da sieht man die Teens beim Einbruch in Promi-Villen, dann wieder auf Partys, dann wieder beim Einbruch, usw. Dazwischen gibt es fast beliebig eingestreute Interview-Segmente, in denen vornehmlich Marc zur Motivation der Geschehnisse Kommentare abliefern. Auch wenn sich die Geschichte, die hier erzählt wird, tatsächlich zugetragen hat, so interessiert es kaum, geschweige denn dass es irgendwie bewegen würde. Allerdings zeigt der Film auch ganz deutlich, dass in diesen Teenager-Kreisen eine schlimme Krankheit grasiert: das Denken in Marken. Wenn kein teures Label drauf ist, ist es völlig uninteressant. Und diese Denkweise ist wirklich erschreckend.

Wenn Musik töten kann

Das Wochenende naht und mit ihm das Ende des Sommers – so scheint es zumindest. Eine letzte Pressevorführung hatte dieser Tag für mich noch im Gepäck.

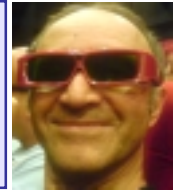

CHORAL DES TODES (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: La Marque Des Anges – Miserere
 Verleih: Senator
 Land/Jahr: Frankreich 2013
 Regie: Sylvain White
 Darsteller: Gérard Depardieu, Joey Starr, Héléna Noguerra, Marthe Keller

Film-Blog

Kinostart: 12.09.2013

Auf dem Boden der Kirche liegen nicht nur die Scherben der zersplitterten Kirchenfenster, sondern auch der Leiter des Kinderchors. Todesursache: Herzinfarkt infolge geplatzter Trommelfelle. Der mysteriöse Tod in seiner Gemeinde ruft den pensionierten Polizisten Lionel Kasdan auf den Plan. Gegen den Willen seiner Ex-Kollegen beginnt er mit eigenen Ermittlungen. Da stößt der hitzköpfige Interpol-Agent Frank Salek zu ihm, den der Fall brennend interessiert, gibt es doch Verbindungen zu einem Fall von Kinderhändlern. Ehe es sich die beiden ungleichen Cops versehen, stecken sie inmitten einer tödlichen Bedrohung, deren Ursprung im chilenischen Exil lebende Nazis sind... Die Verfilmung eines weiteren Romans aus der Feder von Erfolgsautor Jean-Christophe Grangé (DIE PURPURNEN FLÜSSE) erweist sich als solide inszeniertes Thriller-Kino, dem es leider an Spannung fehlt. Das liegt zum größten Teil wohl an der vorhersehbaren Handlung, die eingefleischte Krimi-Fans enttäuschen dürfte. Auch werden gängige Klischees (der Interpol-Mann ist durch ein Kindheitserebnis traumatisiert, der Ex-Cop in Rente kann alles besser als die noch arbeitenden Kollegen) bemüht, die man zur Genüge bereits kennt. Allein die Besetzung der Hauptrollen mit Gérard Depardieu und Joey Starr macht den Film, der seine Deutschlandpremiere auf dem diesjährigen Fantasy Filmfest erleben wird, noch sehenswert. Letztendlich ein Film in der Kategorie "was man sich anschauen kann, wenn nichts Besseres läuft".

Nackte Tatsachen und portugiesische Franzosen

Diese Woche gibt es nur zwei Pressevorführungen und beide am selben Tag – heute!

THE LOOK OF LOVE (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: The Look Of Love
Verleih: Alpenrepublik (Central)
Land/Jahr: Großbritannien, USA 2013
Regie: Michael Winterbottom
Darsteller: Steve Coogan, Anna Friel, Tamsin Egerton, Imogen Poots
Kinostart: 29.08.2013

Innerhalb weniger Jahre gelingt es dem britischen Entertainer Paul Raymond, ein ganzes Imperium aufzubauen, das sich auf nackte Tatsachen gründet. Sein Nachtclub "Revue Bar" wird zum Inbegriff erotischer Unterhaltung, seine Erotikmagazine verkaufen sich tausendfach. Passend zu seinem Metier ist auch sein Lebensstil, bei dem Treue keine Option ist: seine erste Ehe wird geschieden. Doch seine Tochter Debbie ist sein größter Stolz. Sie soll eines Tages in seine Fußstapfen treten. Doch das Schicksal hat etwas Anderes beschlossen... "Sex sells". Keiner wusste es besser als Paul Raymond, der "König von Soho" und einer der reichsten Männer in England zu seiner Zeit. Mit seinem Film lässt Regisseur Michael Winterbottom noch einmal die sechziger und siebziger Jahre im Londoner Stadtteil Soho Revue passieren, indem er Raymonds Aufstieg zum bekanntesten Nachtclubbesitzer erzählt. Der von Steve Coogan gespielte Raymond blickt darin auf sein Leben zurück, das die britische Gesellschafts- und Skandalgeschichte nachhaltig prägte. Eingefangen mit perfektem Zeitkolorit, das sich in Ausstattung und Farbgebung niederschlägt, vermag der Film jedoch nicht mehr zu sein als ein ohne richtige Höhepunkte abgespultes Porträt, das gleichzeitig auch als Sittengemälde des ausklingenden 20. Jahrhunderts durchgehen kann.

PORTUGAL, MON AMOUR (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

OT: La Cage Dorée
Verleih: Prokino (Fox)
Land/Jahr: Frankreich 2013
Regie: Ruben Alves
Darsteller: Rita Blanco, Joaquim De Almeida, Roland Giraud
Kinostart: 29.08.2013

Seit mehr als 30 Jahren arbeitet das äußerst bescheidene portugiesische Ehepaar Maria und José in Frankreich, sie als Concierge in einem noblen Wohnhaus in Paris, er als Maurer bei einem Bauunternehmer. Als die beiden plötzlich ein Haus in ihrer Heimat erben, halten sie es zunächst geheim. Denn sie wollen ihre Arbeitgeber erst schonend darauf vorbereiten, dass sie Frankreich wieder verlassen. Mit der Geheimhaltung klappt es allerdings nicht so gut und so wissen bald alle davon – ohne dass Maria und José etwas davon ahnen. Allerdings sind sie verwundert darüber, dass es plötzlich eine Gehaltsaufbesserung und sonstige Bonus-Leistungen für sie gibt. Die beiden geraten ins Wanken: sollen sie bleiben oder gehen? Als ihre Tochter ihnen auch noch plötzlich eröffnet, das sie mit Papas Juni-orcheel liiert ist, gerät erst recht alles aus den Fugen... Regisseur Ruben Alves weiß wovon er in der französischen Culture-Clash-Komödie erzählt. Denn er selbst ist Sohn portugiesischer Einwanderer und er hat den Film auch sogleich seinen Eltern gewidmet. Darin beleuchtet er auf höchst amüsante Weise, wie Menschen ihre Lebensumstände im Lauf der Jahre der jeweiligen Heimat anpassen können, ohne jedoch die Fähigkeit, das Leben genießen zu können, zu verlieren. Die gute und sehr treffende Besetzung des gesamten Ensembles macht es dem Zuschauer dabei extrem leicht, Sympathien zu entwickeln und sich so in die Lage der jeweiligen Personen hineinzuversetzen. Einfach herrlich, wenn die portugiesischen Eltern auch "große Leute" machen, als die reichen Schwiegereltern in spe zu Besuch kommen! Es muss nicht wundern, dass der Film in Frankreich zum Überraschungshit mutiert ist, denn "Feel Good"-Movies wie dieser garantieren dafür, dass man das Kino auch tatsächlich gut gelaunt verlässt.

Transformers meets Godzilla

Was für ein furioser Start in die Pressewoche! Sagte ich furios? Eigentlich sollte das fürchterlich heißen...

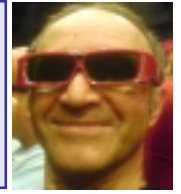

PACIFIC RIM (1:1.85, 3D, DD 5.1 + 7.1 + Atmos)

OT: Pacific Rim
Verleih: Warner
Land/Jahr: USA 2013
Regie: Guillermo Del Toro
Darsteller: Charlie Hunnam, Idris Elba, Rinko Kikuchi, Ron Perlman
Kinostart: 18.07.2013

Irgendwann auf der Erde: grauenvolle Aliens, die aus den Untiefen des Meeres aufgetaucht sind, fallen über die Menschheit her und zerstören deren Städte. Mit riesigen Robotern, sogenannten "Jägern", versucht die Armee gegen die Monster anzukämpfen. Dabei müssen die "Jäger" von zwei Menschen gleichzeitig gelenkt werden, die sich in ihrem Inneren befinden und mental miteinander verschmolzen sind. Die ganze Hoffnung der Menschheit liegt bei zwei Roboter-Piloten, denen man diese Aufgabe ganz und gar nicht zutraut: einem heruntergekommenen Ex-Piloten und einer jungen Rekrutin... Einmal mehr soll Billy Wilder hier zitiert werden: "Drehbuch! Drehbuch! Drehbuch!" Regisseur Guillermo Del Toro wäre gut beraten gewesen auf Wilder zu hören. Denn was bei seinem Film komplett fehlt ist eine Geschichte, die zu erzählen sich lohnen würde. PACIFIC RIM reduziert sich leider auf eine Materialschlacht, die ein Cross-Over zwischen TRANSFORMERS und den japanischen GODZILLA-Filmen darstellt. Überlang und brachial lässt Del Toro hier die humanen Roboter gegen die Seemonster kämpfen, lässt ganze Städte in Schutt und Asche legen. Das alles ist derart ermüdend und langweilig, dass sich der Verfasser dieses Textes ernsthaft in Erwägung zog, den Film schon nach kurzer Zeit zu verlassen. Allerdings hat er das dann doch nicht übers Herz gebracht. Aber nur der Filmkritikerehre wegen. Möglicherweise könne ja exzessive Video-Gamer dem in technischer Hinsicht perfekten (was auch sonst?) Epos etwas abgewinnen. Mit guter Kino-Unterhaltung hat das aber nichts mehr zu tun.

Eine Pilgerreise

“Ommmmmm...” war das Motto des heutigen Tages.

SÂDHU (1:1.85, 5.1)

Verleih: Arsenal

Land/Jahr: Schweiz 2012

Regie: Gael Metroz

Darsteller: Suraj Baba

Kinostart: 22.08.2013

Suraj Baba ist das was man in Indien einen “Sâdhu” nennt, einen Heiligen, der auf der Suche nach der Wahrheit ist. Acht Jahre lang lebte er als Eremit in einer Höhle mitten im Himalaya-Gebirge, direkt am Ursprung des Ganges. Seine Erscheinung ist irgendwie grotesk. Denn einen Heiligen stellt man sich nicht unbedingt mit Brille vor und schon gar nicht westliche Musik auf der Gitarre spielend! Der Schweizer Filmemacher Gael Metroz hat Suraj Baba zufällig kennengelernt und ist irgendwie an ihm hängengeblieben. Mit seiner Kamera und ohne jegliche Crew hat er den Sâdhu über mehrere Monate begleitet. Der nämlich begibt sich nach den acht Jahren vollkommener Isolation auf eine Pilgerreise. Beim berühmten Kumbh Mela Fest, das alle zwölf Jahre Millionen von Pilgern anzieht, will er sich den anderen Sâdhus anschließen. Dort angekommen muss er jedoch feststellen, dass das ganze Fest mehr einem Jahrmarkt gleichkommt denn einer spirituellen Reise. Und so zieht es ihn weiter hinaus in die Welt nach Nepal und sogar bis nach Tibet, wo er an den Heiligen Seen Erkenntnis erhofft. Metroz' Film zeigt die beschwerliche Reise des Suraj Baba, der nur von Almosen lebt und weltlichen Dingen komplett entsagt hat. Und er zeigt diese Reise mit faszinierenden Aufnahmen der für westliche Betrachter vollkommen fremdartigen Welt. Während der gemeinsamen Reise hat sich zwischen den beiden Männern eine tiefe Freundschaft entwickelt und so öffnet sich der Sâdhu immer mehr für die Filmkamera, gibt seine Gedanken preis und musiziert leidenschaftlich. SÂDHU empfiehlt sich als Wegbegleiter für Menschen, die sich selbst schon mit Meditation und der Suche nach der Wahrheit beschäftigt haben. Normale Kinogänger werden weder Geduld noch Verständnis für Metroz' Film mitbringen.

Die Spione die sich liebten

Der letzte Film in dieser Woche entführte in die Welt der Geheimdienste auf internationalem Parkett.

DIE MÖBIUS AFFÄRE (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: Möbius

Verleih: Prokino (Fox)

Land/Jahr: Frankreich 2013

Regie: Eric Rochant

Darsteller: Jean Dujardin, Cécile de France,

Emilie Dequenne, Tim Roth

Kinostart: 01.08.2013

Der russische Geheimdienst wirbt die in Monaco untergetauchte Finanzexpertin Alice an, um ihrem Arbeitgeber, dem russischen Oligarchen Ivan Rostoski das Handwerk mit illegalen Geldwäschegeschäften zu legen. Was die Russen noch nicht ahnen: Alice arbeitet bereits für den CIA, der es ebenfalls auf Rostoski abgesehen hat. Als sich der russische Top-Spion Gregory Lioubov schließlich ohne Wissen seiner Kollegen an Alice heranmacht und sich die beiden kopfüber ineinander verlieben, werden die Karten neu gemischt und ein gefährliches Spiel beginnt... Der Titel des Films bezieht sich auf ein geometrisches Phänomen: das berühmte Möbius-Band hat nur eine Kante und eine Fläche. Innen und außen oder oben und unten lassen sich nicht unterscheiden, sondern werden eins. Genauso verhält es sich auch mit den Figuren in diesem Agentenpuzzle. Man muss sich schon etwas konzentrieren, um die Doppelbödigkeit dieses Spiels zu durchschauen. Anders als in James Bond Filmen setzt Eric Rochant hier nicht auf satte Action, sondern mehr auf Charaktere und deren Verhältnis zueinander, eingebunden in ein politisch-kriminelles Spannungsfeld, das von seiner Konstellation am ehesten noch mit den Krimis von John le Carrée vergleichbar ist. Auch anders als bei Bond gibt es in diesem Film sehr ausführliche Liebesszenen, die Alices alias Cécile de France genügend Zeit für multiple Orgasmen einräumen. Zusammen mit Jean Dujardin gibt die Blondine ein sehr passables Agentenduo ab. Dennoch fehlt dem Film ein bisschen Pep. So dümpelt er über weite Strecken vor sich hin und wird auch noch von einem mit russischem Chor getragenen Score unterlegt – ein bisschen zu viel des Guten. Schauwerte fehlen natürlich auch nicht. Die aber beschränken sich (mit Ausnahme von Frau de France) auf die hübschen Locations in Monaco, Moskau und Brüssel.

PatLabor TV: Collection Two (Blu-ray)

Piloting a giant robot isn't just a job, it's an obsession. At least it is if you're Noa Izumi, the dedicated young pilot of the SV2 Team 1's Ingram, which she prefers to refer to as „Alphonse.“ Unfortunately, Noa's not the only driven female in SV2's lineup, and when fate puts Kanuka Clancy in charge of Noa, not only do fireworks ensue, but Captain Goto decides to throw a little alcohol on the fire! But that's far from the most dangerous situation facing the thin steel line, and between escorting visiting royalty and pop singers at one extreme, and facing off with mysterious phantom robots on the other, there's no rest for the weary, overworked squad. And when someone starts sending threatening messages to Goto and potentially deadly „accidents“ start occurring, it's up to the whole force to band together and find the culprit before someone on the Ingram team has their plug pulled permanently! The bad guys will learn the hard way that you never mess with girls who pilot robots bigger than your getaway car as SV2 stomps out crime in PatLabor TV: Collection 2!

100 Bloody Acres

Angus Sampson
In 100 Bloody Acres, brothers Reg and Lindsay Morgan are struggling to keep their organic blood and bone fertilizer business in motion. Their secret „recipe“ for success (using dead car crash victims in their product) was a huge boon to business, but lately supply has been gravely low. Months have passed since their last find, and an important new customer is now waiting on a delivery. When junior partner Reg (Damon Herriman of Justified) stumbles upon 3 travelers stranded on a remote country road, he cooks up a radical solution to their problem, and a way of finally gaining the respect of his bossy big brother (Angus Sampson, featured in the upcoming Insidious: Chapter 2). But when Reg starts to fall for Sophie, one of the intended victims, things get complicated. A bloody good time, the Cairnes' brothers witty horror-comedy blends sly Australian humor, gory fun, and a clever storyline that gives „recycling“ a whole new context.

3 Films By Roberto Rossellini Starring Ingrid Bergman: The Criterion Collection

Ingrid Bergman, George Sanders, Alexander Knox - Dir. Roberto Rossellini

In the late 1940s, the incandescent Hollywood star Ingrid Bergman (Casablanca) found herself so moved by the revolutionary neorealist films of Roberto Rossellini (Rome Open City) that she sent the director a letter, introducing herself and offering her talents. The resulting collaboration produced a series of films that are works of both sociopolitical concern and metaphysical melodrama, each starring Bergman as a woman experiencing physical dislocation and psychic torment in postwar Italy. It also famously led to a scandalous affair and eventual marriage between filmmaker and star, and the focus on their personal lives in the press unfortunately overshadowed the extraordinary films they made together. Stromboli, Europe '51, and Journey to Italy are intensely personal portraits that reveal the director at his most emotional and the glamorous actor at her most anguished, and that capture them and the world around them in transition. Films Include Stromboli The first collaboration between Roberto Rossellini and Ingrid Bergman is a devastating portrait of a woman's existential crisis, set against the sea

Frankenstein Unbound

John Hurt, Raul Julia, Bridget Fonda, Jason Patric, Nick Brimble - Dir. Roger Corman
For his first film in almost thirty years, the legendary Roger Corman offers up this „monster movie for the thinking person“ (NBC) now on DVD for the first time! Featuring electrifying performances from John Hurt, Raul Julia and Bridget Fonda, this compelling and creepy twist on the classic tale „marks the jubilant return of one of America's great iconoclasts!“ (Egg Magazine) John Buchanan (John Hurt) is a scientist in New Los Angeles, 2031. When one of his experiments fractures the very core of time and space, he is thrust back in time to nineteenth century Geneva where he finds Dr. Victor Frankenstein (Raul Julia) desperately trying to cope with his own disastrous experiment. Impressed with Buchanan's advanced knowledge of electricity, Frankenstein enlists his help with his „creation“ - persuading Buchanan that the only way to stop „it“ from killing is to create a mate. The outrageous endeavor could either save the scientists... or destroy them!

Harriet Craig

Lucille Watson, Joan Crawford, Wendell Corey, William Bishop, Allyn Joslyn - Dir. Vincent Sherman
This is a manufactured on demand disc that was created using a DVD-R disc. It should play in all standard DVD players. Joan Crawford sizzles in this widely-praised remake of Craig's Wife, in which she plays a cold, perfectionist wife who'll stop at nothing to have her house and life run as she wishes. Trapped in her shrewish grip is Corey, her hard-working, mild-mannered husband, who slowly comes to realize his wife's true nature.

Haunting Of Helena

After a divorce, Sophia moves to the south of Italy with her daughter, Helena. The new house, located inside an austere building of the fascist age, hides a mysterious closet and dark secret. After the loss of Helena's first baby tooth, a nightmare begins that could only come from darkness. This is the tale of a mysterious woman: an angel or a witch, a little girl, charmed by the arrival of the „Fairy of the teeth,“ and her mother. Powerless before the transformation of an innocent children's tale into a nightmare coming from afar, Haunting Of Helena does not descend into a splatter film, but rather slides along the sharp blade of psychological fiction.

The Middle: The Complete Third Season

Patricia Heaton, Neil Flynn, Charlie McDermott, Eden Sher, Atticus Shaffer

In Season Three of The Middle, the Hecks tackle the beginning of a new school year, a not-so-relaxing Thanksgiving, and an unexpected wedding. In the midst of it all, Frankie (Emmy winner Patricia Heaton) and Mike Heck (Neil Flynn) attempt to raise their kids with love and a solid Midwestern practicality. Axl, the eldest, is a jock slacker who eats the family out of house and home and walks around in his underwear. Then there's Sue, their extraordinarily ordinary teen daughter who fails at just about everything she tries with great gusto. Finally, there's Brick, their quirky fourth-grader, who reads constantly, whispers to himself and unapologetically marches to the beat of his own drummer.

The Odd Angry Shot

Bryan Brown, John Hargreaves, Graeme Blundell, Graham Kennedy
Tom Jeffrey's classic Australian film, The Odd Angry Shot, is set in the late 1960s during the brutal war Australians shared with the United States: the struggle for Vietnam. Harry (Graham Kennedy), a hard-edged Special Air Service Corporal, meets a new company of soldiers during his second tour in Vietnam. There's the naive Bill (John Jarratt), the easy-going Bung (John Hargreaves), the blunt Rogers (Bryan Brown), the pragmatic Dawson (Graeme Blundell), and the youthful and innocent Scott (Ian Gilmour). Because of their training as professional soldiers from Australia's toughest Army unit, these men believe they can deal with any situation. They pass the time playing practical jokes, getting into drunken brawls and humoring themselves to keep their minds off the war. But, when the first „odd angry shot“ rings out, and an enemy mortar barrage hits their camp causing many casualties, the men realize their protective shield of humor is no defense at all against the harsh realities of armed combat.

Slacker: The Criterion Collection (Blu-ray)

Richard Linklater's Slacker presents a day in the life of a loose-knit subculture of marginal, eccentric, and overeducated citizens in Austin, Texas. Shooting the film on 16mm for a mere $23,000 writer/producer/director Linklater and his crew of friends eschewed a traditional plot, choosing instead to employ long takes and fluid transitions to create a tapestry of over a hundred characters, each as unique as the last, culminating in an episodic portrait of a distinct vernacular culture and a tribute to bohemian cerebration. Slacker is a prescient look at an emerging generation of aggressive nonparticipants, and one of the key films of the American independent film movement of the 1990s.

Taming Of Rebecca / Angel In Distress / Daughter Of Discipline (Triple Feature)

Sharon Mitchell, Stella Stevens

Phil Prince was the last great porn director in New York City, author of some of the scariest, sleaziest, dirtiest porn ever committed to film. Prince's films are a hot shot of pure perversion, sex for people who are so far gone they don't know the difference between screwing and blowing their own brains out. Specializing in hardedge sex and BDSM fetishism, Prince and his circle of conspirators managed to crank out eye-popping smut that also works as a kind of edgy, street savvy melodrama. A denizen of the Avon cinemas, Times Square's most pervert-friendly network of grindhouses, Prince's work stands dick and shoulders above the more polite, domesticated porn of the Big Eighties. The Avon's roster of homebrew features was a staggering testament to sexual depravity, a journey into the narcotized mind of high-frequency porn addicts.

Dougray Scott, David Warner, Emilia Fox, Allan Corduner, Jodie Whittaker - Dir. Dana Lustig

Returning home from work, Mia (Jodie Whittaker - Good, Venus, St. Trinian's & St. Trinian's 2: The Legend of Fritton's Gold) witnesses an aged woman leap from a window. Highly unnerved, Mia begs Max (David Warner - Planet of the Apes, Titanic), the buildings' all knowing custodian, to let her into the deceased woman's flat. While inside this strangely familiar place, Mia recognizes the contents as her own. The We And The I

Workshopped with a group of teens from The Bronx over the course of 3 years, Michel Gondry's The We and The I gives an inside look into the dynamics, drama and hilarity that emerge on a real-time bus ride. It is the last day of the school year, and a group of Bronx high-schoolers board a city bus to make their way home. With the summer break ahead, and feeling more liberated than usual, this colorful crowd of kids—the cool ones, the outsiders, and everyone in between—act out as only teens can when they are among their peers and away from authority figures. Oblivious to the grown-ups in their midst, (who are smart enough to either get out of the way or get off the bus entirely), they gossip and gloat, brag and bully, cajole and confide, exchange truths and tall tales, and spar verbally and physically. In short, they are unapologetically themselves at this pivotal point in their lives when the pressures and realities of adulthood have yet to turn them into someone else.

What If...?

Thierry Lhermitte, Jocelyn Quivrin, Alice Taglioni

Victor and Margot are two lawyers on the fast track to success at a major law firm. They are also a loving couple. After a senior partner at the firm dies unexpectedly, it is decided that either Margot or Victor will be promoted to the important position. The other will have to settle for a supporting role. What If...? cleverly delves into both scenarios: Margot as the new senior partner, breaking down gender barriers and becoming the glamorous new star of the firm, while Victor labors in her shadow; or Victor as the gung-ho, hard-driving new partner, with Margot relegated to serving coffee at the office and caring for their children. In both scenarios, the couple's relationship is rocked by infidelity, family versus career conflicts, and questions about true values. Ultimately the film explores the feelings so many of us have as we question the trajectory of our lives: what if I had done this instead of that? What if this had happened, and not that?

American Drug War 2: Cannabis Destiny

Director Kevin Booth navigates through the cutting edge of Cannabis research while becoming a foster parent to a child court ordered to take powerful mind altering drugs. After surviving brain surgery, radiation, and chemotherapy, a 2-year-old boy lay in a coma not eating for over 40 days. His parents are told to make funeral arrangements. However, his father had read about a version of an ancient drug made from cannabis. Unbeknownst to the hospital staff, the parents start secretly injecting the illegal drug into their dying son's feeding tube and soon a „miracle“ takes place. When the doctors are told that cannabis was the cause of the „miracle,“ they have nothing to say. Every war has unintended victims and it's the children who are losing America's longest running war. From cartel recruiting grounds of Mexico - to a child being removed from his birth mother for smoking marijuana. Is it a conspiracy? Or simple profit motives that continue to keep marijuana inside the black market.

A Girl And A Gun

Bringing a female perspective to the debate that's raging across the nation, A Girl And A Gun explores the intersection of 'girl power' and firepower. Filmed throughout the U.S., the film delves deep into the American gun world to show the relationship between women and their guns. The classic Hollywood portrayals of pistol packin' mamas, tomboy sharpshooters, sexually twisted femme fatales, and high-heeled, cold-blooded assassins are caricatures. In truth, the typical woman who hangs out at rifle ranges and keeps ammo in her purse is the girl-next-door, the single mom, a hard working sister or aunt. Maybe she's a realist or has learned tough lessons from life; either way, she cares about her personal safety and may find salvation, comfort or even something satisfying in possessing a gun. In a word, she is empowered. Breaking through the stereotypes, A Girl And A Gun reveals how some women have embraced this object whose history is deeply bound to men and masculinity. David Chung and Matt Dibble's documentary charts the extraordinary untold history of the Koryo Saram (the Soviet Korean phrase for Korean person), dubbed „The Unreliable People“ by Stalin. Gene Simmons Family Jewels: The Final Season

Gene Simmons

After the show's most successful season ever - who doesn't get excited about weddings? - Gene Simmons Family Jewels on A&E returns for more family fun in Season 7. Will the KISS front man and Shannon Tweed settle into married bliss? Or will the couple's 28 years together and two kids just bring, uh, more reality? Here's the first wrench thrown: Shannon wants to adopt, and Gene and their two kids Nick and Sophie do not. If you know the couple's dynamic, then you can guess the outcome. In other words, Gene better start practicing some serious rocking techniques (and we don't mean rock 'n roll). Gene and Shannon also sit Nick down to discuss the sensitive issue of his finally leaving the house and doing his own thing. Gene opens with an offer of a „nice, big, fat, healthy“ check, but Shannon is far more direct, suggesting that it's time for Nick to „scoot on out there.“ Catch all these gems and more.

Somm

Somm takes the viewer on a humorous, emotional and illuminating look into the mysterious world of the Court of Master Sommeliers and their massively intimidating Master Sommelier Exam. The Court of Master Sommeliers is one of the world's most prestigious, secretive, and exclusive organizations. Since its inception, fewer than 200 candidates have reached the exalted Master level. The exam covers literally every nuance of the world of wine. Those who have passed have put their sanity at risk to pull it off. Shrouded in secrecy, access to the Court has always been strictly regulated, and cameras have never been allowed anywhere near the exam, until now. How much do you think you know about wine?

Triumph Of The Wall

As hilarious as it is meditative, Triumph of the Wall begins as a chronicle about the construction of a 1000-foot stone wall by a novice stonemason in rural Quebec. The stonemason, Chris Overing, sets out to complete the wall within eight weeks; filmmaker Bill Stone plans to document this laborious yet creative task. But Overing has woefully underestimated the time and energy required to construct the wall, and both projects - the wall and the film - evolve into something altogether different. Triumph of the Wall is a film about expectations, about two guys who embark on an eight-week project and spend the next eight years trying to figure out how to finish what they started...a reminder that sometimes art (and life) is as much about the process of creation as it is about the finished product.

Utterly Precarious: A Master Class With Carolee Schneemann

This multimedia publication documents an intensive and lively exchange between artist Carolee Schneemann and undergraduate students at the University of Pennsylvania, filmed within the remarkable walls of The Mutter Museum of the College of Physicians of Philadelphia. Together they explore challenging questions concerning the variousness of influence, the obsessions which sustain Schneemann, and the creative process that informs her explorations from painting and sculpture to performative actions and multi-channel projections. Surrounded by skeletons, embalmed fetuses, and other emblems of precariousness, Schneemann clarifies and deepens the inquiries of these students. Carolee Schneemann is a multidisciplinary artist. Her video, film, painting, photography, performance art, and installation works have profoundly shaped contemporary discourses on the body, sexuality, and gender since the 1960s. Probing the precariousness of nature, art, and life, Schneemann has continually foregrounded the relationship between the artist's body and the social body.

Who Is Delsin?

Steven Bauer, Emilio Roso

In July 2009, Pulitzer Prize winning Journalist Gerard Martinez walked into the Tampa Bay Museum of art and opened fire. He mercilessly killed men, women, and children before turning the gun on himself. The event came to be known as one of the bloodiest crimes in Tampa Bay history. An investigation in to the life of Martinez uncovered hundreds of videotapes documenting his obsession with proving the existence of Mon Protecteur, a mythical French super hero. This documentary is culled together from his original footage combined with interviews with his friends, family, colleagues, and historians in an attempt to expose the truth behind Martinez's obsession, and what ultimately drove him to commit such a heinous crime. The film features interviews with Ricky Wayne (Chaos Experiment), Emilio Roso (Joshua Tree), Steven Bauer (Scarface), Joseph R.
