MOVING IN STYLE

Bolsarium is the answer to many customers who are demanding a change in design and ways of transporting their laptop and accessories.

The bags and accessories were designed by a young, multidisciplinary team and manufactured making use of the best materials and applying production controls, meeting all international quality and safety requirements

Our Story

Bolsarium began in Barcelona, Spain in 2006. Our inspiration comes from the Barcelona lifestyle and the vibrant colors provided by nature.

In 2007 we placed this inspiration to work and we began to design our first collection. Bolsarium bags soon caught the attention of the media and won the most innovative design award at the prestigious Mipel Show in Milano, Italy.

We are delighted that you will now find Bolsarium in 33 countries with the international market making up to 80% of our sales.

The Bag That a Woman Loves

RAVELLA

There are days when a woman cannot afford to travel light and has to carry numerous things. On these days, it is an advantage if she owns a tote bag. It is handy and its size and shape allow storage of many things including all her personal effects and even a book or a laptop as well.

Women know the value of it in terms of its capacity for storage. Its design with a square or a rectangular body with a wide opening and depth is ideal for a woman who always needs to carry a lot of stuff.

Ravella Tote bags come in various colors, and sizes and therefore can suit any outfit a lady wears. It is also a classic item that is always in style and never seems to go out of trend.

The fact that they can carry a lot of items makes it convenient for a woman who is in a rush to go somewhere. She won't have to worry about not looking right - the Ravella tote bag is always a centerpiece that will elevate any outfit.

The great thing about the design of it is that they are embedded with many pockets and compartments. So even if there are lots of things in the bag, it is easy to access them because everything has its own proper place.

One thing that women love about Ravella tote bags is their durability. The umbrella material can last for years. As long as it is properly maintained, it can even last a lifetime.

There is no doubt that a woman who owns one will enjoy it for its convenience and practicality. If you are thinking of buying a bag, try purchasing a Ravella and enjoy its benefits.
