

logainm.ie

Bunachar Logainmneacha na hÉireann Placenames Database of Ireland

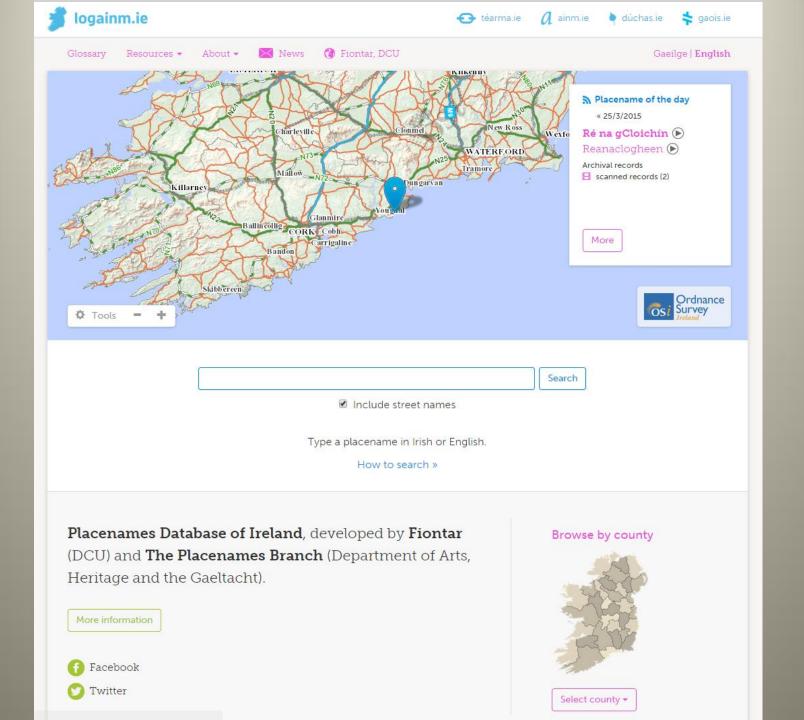

Dr Aengus Finnegan
Fiontar, DCU
Norwich,
28 March, 2015

- Public website containing approximately 110,000 placenames throughout the country
- Launched on 1 Oct, 2008
- www.logainm.ie is being developed by Fiontar,

 DCU in collaboration with the Placenames Branch of the Department of Arts, Heritage and the

 Gaeltacht

Developments 2014/15

- New version for website launched May 16th 2014:
 - Googlemaps replaced by OSi maps
 - 'Clusters' of linked placenames created
 - 147 Distribution maps
 - Redesign of the website (layout etc.)
 - Searchable database of sources
 - 10,000 links with PlacenamesNI.org
 - Sound files now added to all 26 counties

MapGenie Éire

 MapGenie Éire – the most comprehensive and detailed map of Ireland in Irish yet...

But no Irish-language map of Northern Ireland (LPS + OSi = ??)

To be rectified in 2015...

MapGenie Éire

Distribution maps

dair (also: darú)

Details

English

oak

Examples

Cill Dara, Béal Átha Darach, An Dairtheach, Darú,

147 maps

Synchronised monthly with the database

dearg (also: deirg, deirge)

Details

English

red, red one

Examples

An Fhaill Dearg, Deargráth, Rinn na bhFear Dearg, Béal Deirg, Abhainn na Deirge

Part of the 'glossary' project (translations of common elements).

díseart

Details

English

hermitage

Examples

Díseart Nuan, Cill an Dísirt

-text searches

editorial work was required:

doire

English

(oak-)wood, grove, thicket

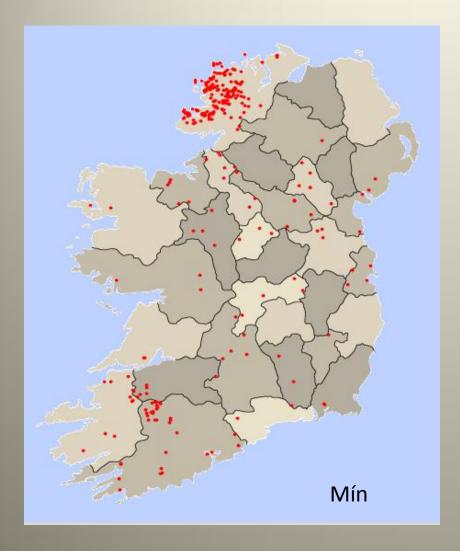

Examples

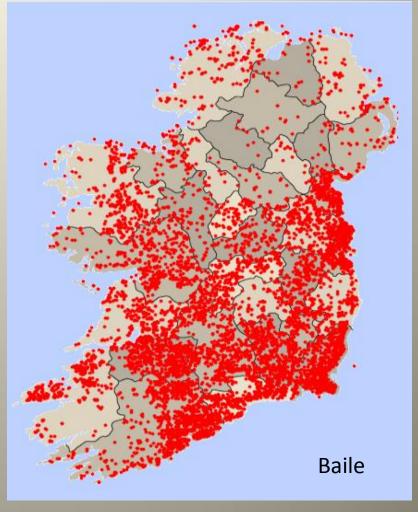

Doire, An Corrdhoire

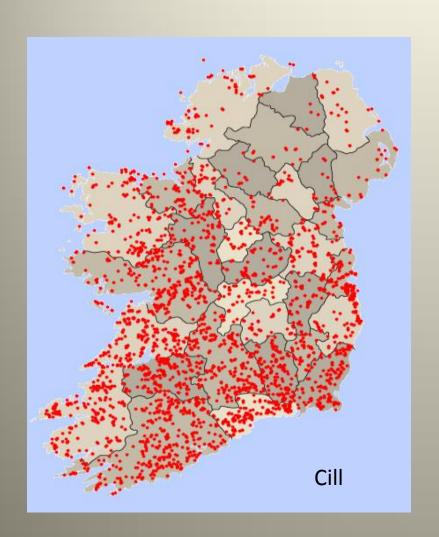

Details

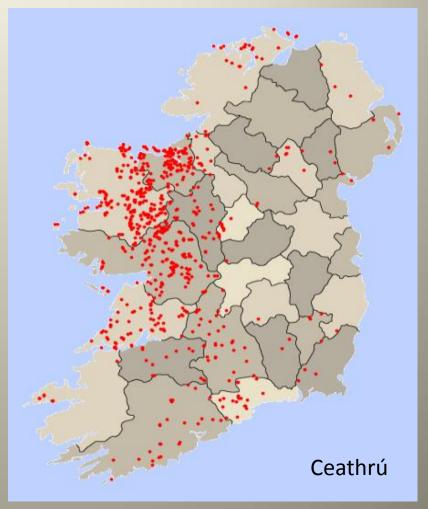

-fionn, dearg, coll, coill, coimín etc. (adject., surnames, personal names etc.)

*Maps based on 75% data coverage

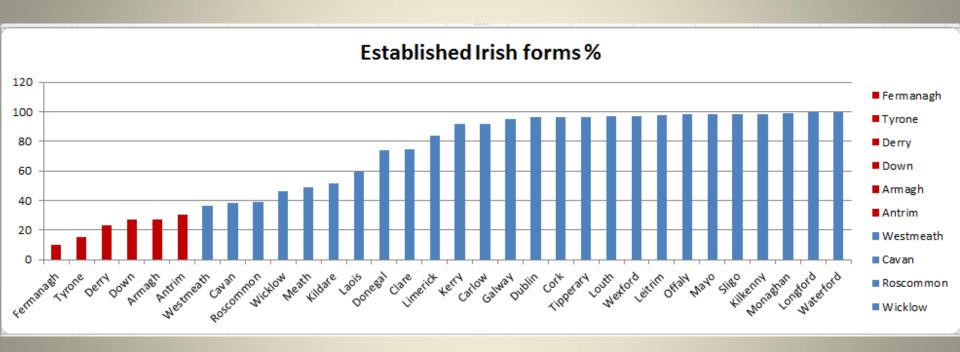

Research completion by county

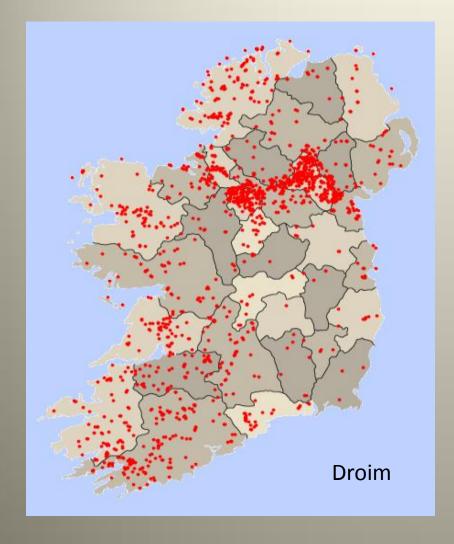

Stats

 Excluding streetnames, c.75% of placenames in the database have a settled Irish form

69.6% of townlands (43,607 out of 61,205) have an Irish form

Drumlins

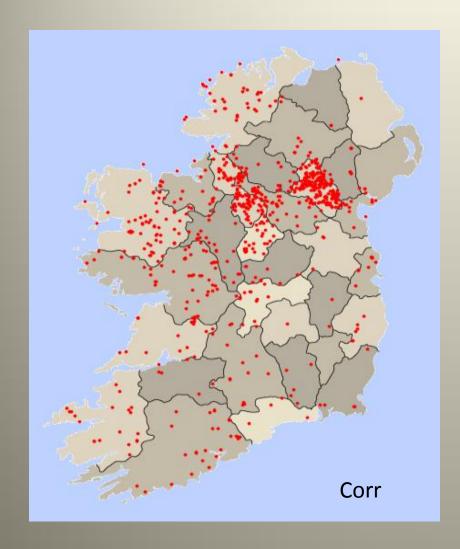

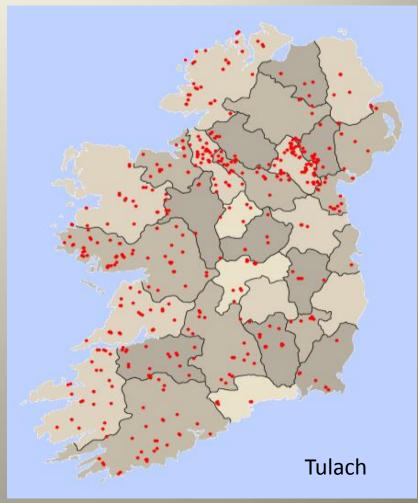

Drumlins

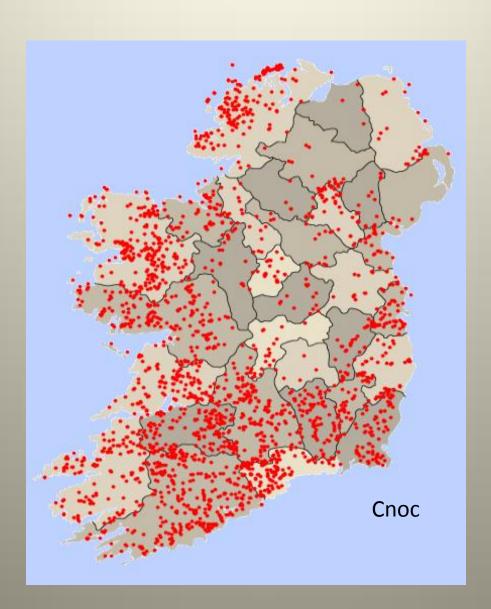

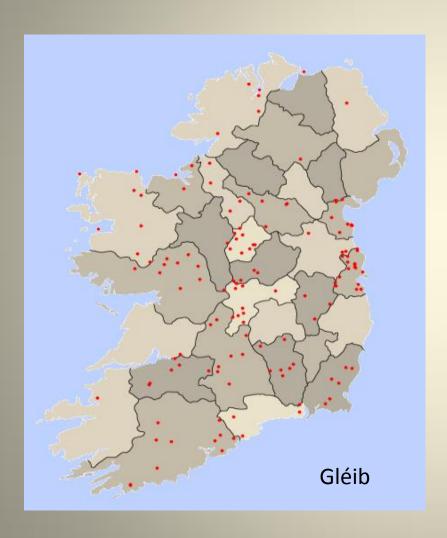

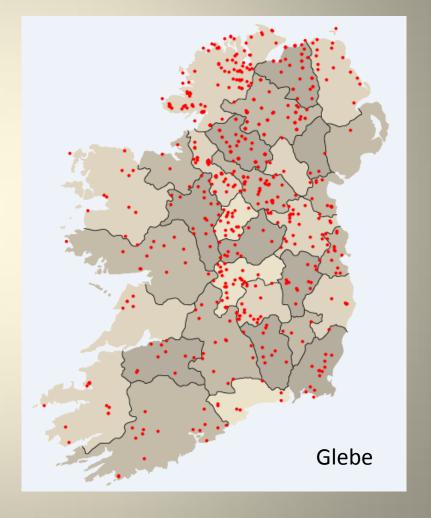

Drumlins?

Cnoc 'hill'

Gléib/Glaidhb/Glebe

Based on gléib search (on website)

Based on glebe search clusters

- Where the same placename occurs in a related hierarchy of admin. units
 - entries were 'clustered' in the database
 - algorithm based on proximity and text

10,000 links to PlacenamesNI.org

Matching two databases:

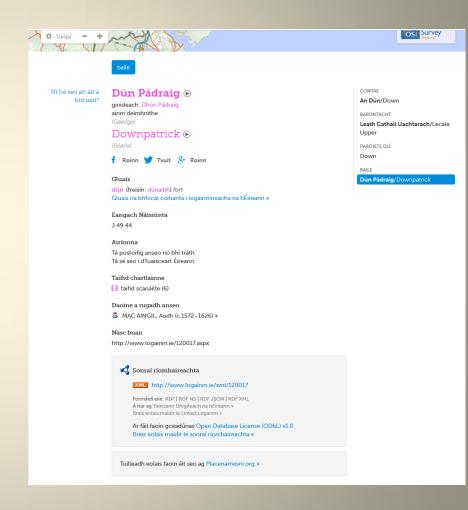

- Automated matching 74.3% correct
- All matches handchecked
- c.160 townlands missing from logainm.ie
- c.40 tlds such as Glenknock or Cloghogle incorrectly entered separately in the database
- Spelling and hierarchical variations

Results:

- 10,000 clickable links
- Improved logainm.ie data for the North

Possibilties:

- Pairs/matches very useful in any further alignment between the two databases
- Sound recordings
- Irish-language map
- Sharing of historical forms?

Two-way clickeable links

Downpatrick, County Down

Show the Map

Origin

Ir. Dún Pádraig '(St) Patrick's fort'; earlier Dún Lethglaise perhaps 'fort of the side of the stream'

Background

County town of Down, 17km NE of Newcastle

par: Down bar: Lecale Upper

Downpatrick, the county town of Co. Down, is situated in the townland of Demesne of Down. The original Ir. name for Downpatrick was Dún Lethglaise perhaps 'fort of the side of the stream'. The fort was a prehistoric ring-fort which formerly stood on Cathedral Hill and within which was constructed an early monastery and the later church and abbey of St Patrick.

The stream in question can only be the river Quoile which flows close to the bottom of Cathedral Hill. Dún da Lethglas is also found as an earlier name for the settlement at Downpatrick and while it is obviously connected with the form Dûn Lethglaise, the exact nature of the relationship is obscure. Another earlier name for Downpatrick was Rathkeltair, from Ir. Rath Cealtchair 'fort of Cealtchair,' the fort being, apparently, the aforementioned prehistoric ring-fort on Cathedral Hill. The Cealtchair referred to was Cealtchair mac Uitheachair, a mythical warrior of the ancient Ulster Cyle of Tales. The fort in question was a prehistoric ring-fort which formerly stood on Cathedral Hill and within which was constructed an early monastery and the later church and abbey of St Patrick. The town's modern name Dûn Pâdraig (whence Downpatrick) is not attested prior to the 17th century. Prior to this in English the town was usually known simply as Down (or Downe), which has been retained as the name of the county and parish.

References

McKay, P. (2007): A Dictionary of Ulster Place-Names, p. 59-60; with additions PT, 2012.

Additional Information

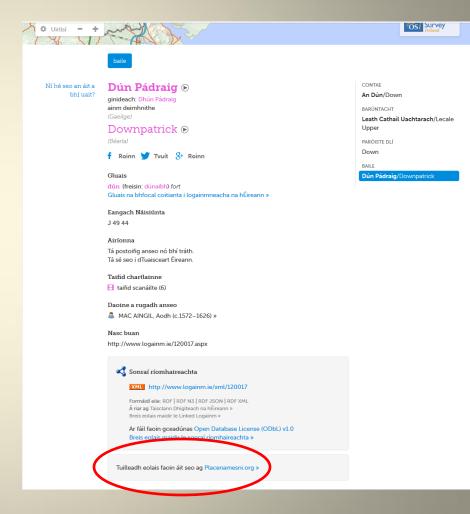

1851 Census. See also the county of Down, the pasish of Down and the townland of Demesne of Down

Find further information about this place at Logainm.ie

Historical name form

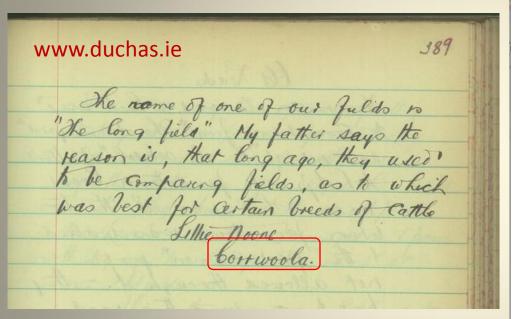

| Old Form | Ref. Date | Reference |
|--|-----------|-------------------------|
| rucsat na daim conici baili it indiu Dún Lethglais | 0900c | Trip. Life (Stokes) 252 |
| | 1100c | TBC (Rec. I) 1.3742 |

National folklore Collection (UCD): Schools' Folklore Scheme (1937-38)

| 1622 | Corboly | · CPR , 514b | | |
|---------|------------|--|---------------------------|--|
| 1631 | Corboly | · Inq., 174 www.l (| ogainm.ie | |
| 1660c | Corbolly | · BSD , 56 | J | |
| 1715 | Corbally | · CGn. , 16.171.7203 | | |
| 1835 | Corbala | · TAB , 5, Note (60:16/10) | | |
| 1835 | Corbola | - TAB (60:16/10) innéacs, 173, Note TAB (60:16/10) innéacs | | |
| 1836 | Corbally | · OD:AL | | |
| 1836 | Corbhaile | · OD:AL | 'odd town' | |
| 1836 | Curbooly | · S&V:AL | | |
| 1836 | Curbola | · HCons PR:AL | | |
| 1836 | Cor-bhaile | · Quinn, E.:AL | 'the odd town' | |
| 1836 | Corbally | · Rowley Map:AL | | |
| 1836 | Corbally | · CM:AL | | |
| 1836 | Corbally | · BS:AL | | |
| 1937-38 | Corbally | · BNS , Volume 210, 308 | | |
| 1937-38 | Corrwoola | · BNS , Volume 210, 389 | | |
| | | © | Government of Ireland 201 | |

An Chorrbhuaile/Corbally, Co. Leitrim

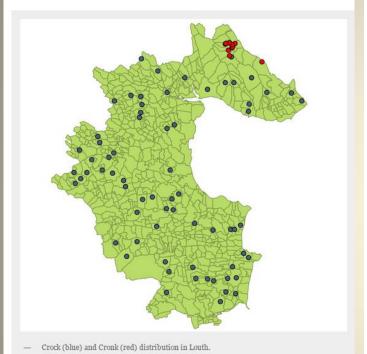

Go back to Main Site Help guide for interactive mapping Meath Field Names KILMAINHAMWOOD GARMANAGH TOWAS CLEAFIN BALLYMAKANE ielALTMUSH ARDMAGHBREAGUE Meath Hield Mames ALTMUS www.meathfieldnames.com

Irish words for hill in Louth: Crock and Cronk

Posted on June 10, 2014

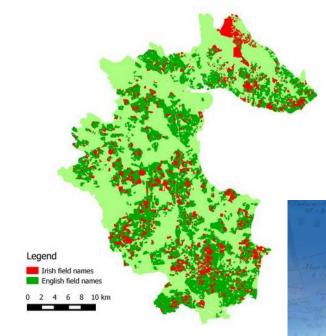

Cnoc, meaning hill, is one of the commonest Irish field names in Louth. There are two distinct pronunciations found in the county. The usual form is Crock found over most of the county (blue on map), while Cronk is found in the Omeath area (red on map).

Language distribution and field names

Posted on July 29, 2014

We now have 11,000+ field names in our database. Of these c.20% have an Irish component. The map below shows the distribution of field names containing an Irish component (red) and those in English (dark green). Aside from a notable concentration of Irish names in Omeath (very NE of the Cooley peninsula) the Irish names have a fairly even spread across the county.

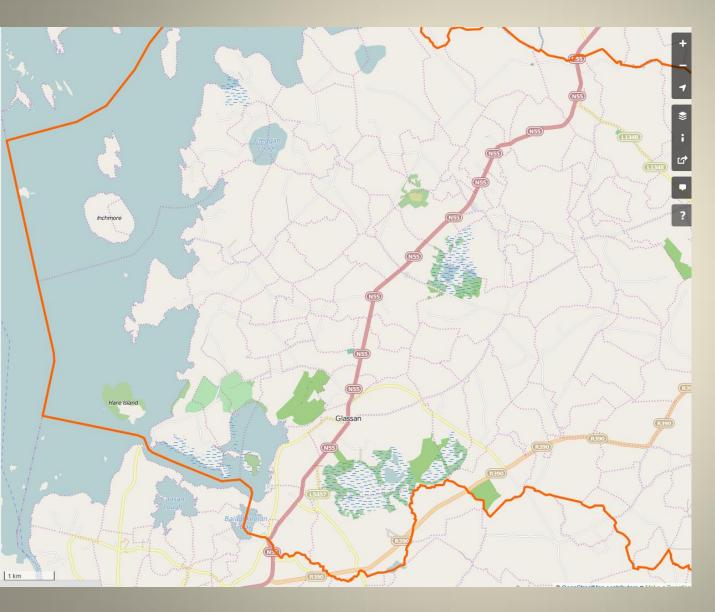

The Field Names of COUNTY LOUTH

https://louthfieldnames.wordpress.com/

Thank you!

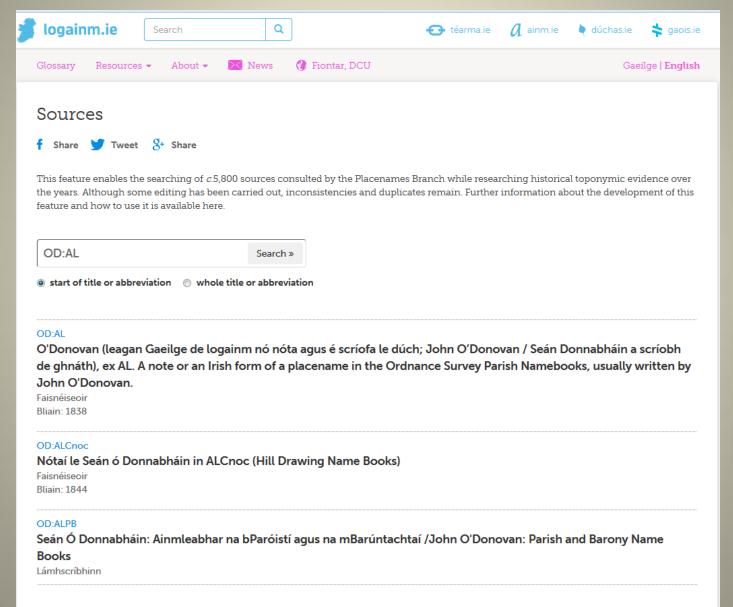

Questions?

www.townlands.ie

Townland
Boundaries (and names) are being mapped onto OpenStreetMap

Database of sources

Alphabetic lists

- Subsequent to the launch some adjustments were made to the indexing:
 - Placenames are now listed alphabetically
- Not by prominence (!) as previously
- Alphabetic listing still not 100%

Fo-aonaid de chuid: Cill Chainnigh/Kilkenny West

Ord liostála

√ de réir ainm Gaeilge de réir ainm Béarla

Scag de réir catagóire

ná scag

✓ baile fearainn mionghné sráid Achadh na Gréine/Auburn baile fearainn contae: An Iarmhí

Baile Uaitéir/Waterstown baile fearainn contae: An Iarmhí

Ballynacliffy baile fearainn contae: An Iarmhí

Ballynakill
baile fearainn
contae: An Iarmhí

Ballynakill Upper baile fearainn contae: An Iarmhí

Bealach Caorthainn Beag/Ballaghkeeran Little baile fearainn contae: An Iarmhí

Bealach Caorthainn Mór/Ballaghkeeran Big baile fearainn contae: An Iarmhí

Beithil/Bethlehem baile fearainn contae: An Iarmhí

Bleanphuttoge
baile fearainn
contae: An Jarmhí

Boardsland baile fearainn contae: An Iarmhí