DeWitt County board members discuss an application for the Blue Iris Solar project.

Blue Iris Solar project approved

Last solar project approved under old ordinance

Gordon Woods
gwoods@theclintonjournal.com

CLINTON — The county, on Dec. 21, approved an application for a 40-acre solar electric generating facility planned for the Farmer City area. Blue Iris Solar originally submitted its application under the previous ordinance language regulating community and commercial solar projects. The county board concluded the project met the criteria under the ordinance.

Board member Buck Carter recommended rejecting the Blue Iris application. He said the project did not meet the ordinance requirements as a community solar project because of its size and the intention of the project.

“This project is tied to the grid,” Carter said. “Also, our ordinance requires five acres or less. This project is 40 acres.”

Carter said he felt the Blue Iris plan “should be under a commercial project and not a community project.”

Attorney for Blue Iris, Ben Jacoby, said the plan was filed with the county under its commercial solar provision.

“It is a community solar, that’s sort of the industry term for the type of project it is,” Jacoby said.

He said the facility would be tied to the distribution grid and then Ameren customers would be able to “prescribe” to the operation for a reduced electric rate.

“It’s a community solar project in that, that’s how it operates,” Jacoby said. “It’s a commercial solar energy facility per your ordinance.”

Board member Joe Witte said the county’s Regional Planning Commission (RPC) recommended approval of the Blue Iris plan in April. In the meantime, revisions were made to the ordinance. So, Witte said he wondered whether the application fell under the old ordinance or the revised ordinance.

The conclusion was that Blue Iris satisfied the requirements under earlier special use permit / site permit language of the ordinance. State’s attorney Dan Markwell said theirs would be the last such project approved in that manner. Subsequent applications of the type would fall under the revised ordinance.

Board member Patrick Ryan read a statement questioning the wisdom of the state’s plan to move to all green energy production by 2045. However, he also said he could not justify voting against the Blue Iris application.

Carter and Megan Myers voted to reject the application.

School board approves more than $2M for football complex renovations

CLINTON — At the Dec. 19 meeting of the Clinton school board, the board unanimously approved a contract with ATG-Ram Industries for renovations to the football complex for track, football field and lights for $2,814,916.

While there was no discussion among board members during the meeting, board president Dan Matthews said, “We say football field, track, and lights, but it’s really for everybody. It’s going to allow us to bring a lot of events and people to Clinton. This is one more thing for us to improve our schools to eventually bring more students, more parents, and more families to Clinton. I think it’s pretty exciting to get it started. We have a lot of plans for the next five years and beyond, so this is just the start of it.”

The board also approved

The school district has voted to authorize a $2 million upgrade to the Clinton High School football and track & field.

the Clinton Elementary School Improvement plans for 2023-24 of which Superintendent Curt Nettles said he was “very proud of the work we’ve done in the first semester. We’ve made a lot of traction so I’m thrilled.”

The plan explains how the school will meet its goals to improve its students’ reading and math skills.

In other business, the board:

- made a motion to issue up to $7,500,000 of working cash fund bonds in the future. “It just gives (the board) the option to borrow up to that much sometime in the future,” said Nettles. “There is not a definitive plan on that at this time.”
- recognized the CHS Scholastic Bowl team.
- heard a presentation from Kari Velman about the PreK/Early Childhood Education (ECE) program. “This is the foundation of everything,” said Nettles. “We should see great strides in the next couple of years.”

- approved the employment / appointments of the following individuals: Betsy Kelley and Kady Patelski, CJHS assistant track coaches for 2023-24; Abigail Byrnside, CHS English teacher; Patti Kinder, food service; and Brigitte Lamar, CJHS nurse.

Prohibition on book bans among more than 300 statutes becoming law effective January 1

Capitol News Illinois

SPRINGFIELD — More than 300 new laws will take effect Jan. 1, ranging from a ban on book bans to the regulation of “deepfake porn” and prohibitions on videoconferencing while driving.

Thanks to a law signed in 2019, workers at the lowest end of the pay scale will see a pay raise with the new year as the state minimum wage increases by one dollar, to $14 per hour.

Gov. JB Pritzker championed and signed that law after it was approved by lawmakers within his first two months of office. The law gradually phases in a $15 per-hour minimum wage starting in 2025.

The minimum wage applies to most workers 18 years of age and older. Teens who work less than 650 hours in a calendar year will go up to $13 an hour while the minimum wage for tipped workers will increase to $9 an hour.

Also come Jan. 1, Illinoisans who own guns, ammunition and accessories prohibited under the state’s “assault weapons” ban will be in violation of the law if they don’t register them with the state.

A federal judge last week chose not to temporarily halt the law's enforcement while a broader legal challenge plays out. The U.S. Supreme Court also recently declined to stay the law.

While permanent administrative rules regulating which guns and ammunition must be registered with the Illinois State Police remain in flux, temporary rules governing registration remain in effect.

Other laws hitting the books include a measure granting paid leave to all workers, indoor vaping restrictions and a ban on youth solitary confinement in state correctional facilities, among others.

Paid leave for all

Starting Jan. 1, anyone who works in Illinois will be entitled to earn up to 40 hours of paid leave during a 12-month period, time they can take off work for any reason, regardless of whether they are full-time, part-time, or seasonal employees.

The Paid Leave for All Workers Act passed during the lame duck session in January – a session that was called primarily to pass the assault weapons ban. Pritzker signed it into law March 13.

“That is a game changer for many employers, particularly those who have not previously offered any type of paid leave to their employees,” Scott Cruz, a labor attorney, said during an interview with Capitol News Illinois in November.

In particular, he said, the law will be a major change for waiters, waitresses and other workers in the hospitality industry who have never received paid leave benefits in the past.

The Illinois Department of Labor has published a list of frequently asked questions to help guide employers and employees through the new law.

Banning book bans

Libraries in Illinois will lose access to grants administered by the secretary of state's office after Jan. 1 if they ban books or other material “because of partisan or doctrinal disapproval.”

The so-called ban on book bans, House Bill

2789, was an initiative of Secretary of State Alexi Giannoulias. The secretary of state in Illinois also serves as the state librarian, which awards millions of dollars a year in grants to public and school libraries around the state.

Under the new law, libraries must either adopt the American Library Association's Library Bill of Rights or develop a written statement prohibiting the practice of banning specific books or resources.

Giannoulias said he proposed the legislation after extremist groups targeted Illinois libraries with efforts to ban certain materials from circulation.

“The concept of banning books contradicts the very essence of what our country stands for,” he said in a statement. “It also defies what education is all about: teaching our children to think for themselves. This landmark law is a triumph for our democracy, a win for First Amendment Rights, and a great victory for future generations.”

Digital forgeries

Lawmakers this spring approved a new protection for victims of “deepfake porn.” Starting in 2024, people who are falsely depicted in sexually explicit images or videos will be able to sue the creator of that material.

The law is an amendment to the state's existing protections for victims of “revenge porn,” which went into effect in 2015.

In recent years, deepfakes – images and videos that falsely depict someone – have become more sophisticated with the advent of more readily available artificial intelligence tools. Women are disproportionately the subject of deepfake porn.

Some sponsors of the legislation, notably chief sponsor Rep. Jennifer Gong-Gershowitz, D-Glenview, have indicated interest in further regulating the use of artificial intelligence.

Zooming while driving

Starting on Jan. 1, it will be illegal for Illinois drivers to participate in videoconferencing or check their social media pages while behind the wheel.

The law adds the use of any mobile videoconferencing software, explicitly referencing Zoom, Microsoft Teams and Webex, to banned actions under existed distracted driving laws.

The law also specifically names social media sites Facebook, Snapchat, Instagram and “Twitter,” which was rebranded to X a few months after the law's passage.

Illinois law currently bans cell phone use generally while driving, although it does allow drivers to use phones through hands-free or voice-activated means. In 2022, more than 24,000 drivers were cited for distracted driving in Illinois, according to the secretary of state's office.

Illinois drivers continue to be able to use cell phones in handheld mode if they are reporting an emergency, are parked on a road's shoulder or if they are stopped due to a traffic obstruction and the vehicle is in neutral or park.

Vaping indoors

People who use electronic cigarettes or vaping devices will now face the same restrictions as cigarette smokers.

It's an update to the state's Smoke-Free Illinois Act, which banned smoking in most indoor public spaces and within 15 feet of building entrances in 2008. “Public places” include restaurants, theaters, offices, stores, libraries, schools, polling places, all government-owned buildings and banks among others.

Tobacco stores and vape shops are exempt from the law, as well as some other facilities, such as smoking rooms at nursing homes, some hotel rooms and tobacco conventions.

The U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention reported this summer that in 2021, nearly 5 percent of adults were e-cigarette users, although that figure was 11 percent among people 18 to 24.

Questions & Answers

General

Question:

How can I get a copy of my Social Security Statement?

Answer:

You can get your personal Social Security Statement online by using your personal my Social Security account. If you don't yet have an account, you can easily create one. Your online Statement gives you secure and convenient access to your earnings records. It also shows estimates for retirement, disability, and survivors benefits you and your family may be eligible for.

To set up or use your account to get your online Social Security Statement, go to www.ssa.gov/myaccount.

We also mail Statements to workers age 60 and over who aren't receiving Social Security benefits and do not yet have a my Social Security account. We mail the Statements three months prior to your birthday.

Question:

What are some of the documents Social Security will accept as proof of identity for a child?

Answer:

While you can use a birth certificate to prove age or citizenship, you cannot use it as proof of identity. Social Security needs evidence of the child's existence after birth. An acceptable document must show your child's name, identifying information, and, preferably, a recent photograph. Your child must be present unless the picture ID also shows your child's biographical information (i.e., age, date of birth, and parents' names). We generally can accept a non-photo identity document if it has enough information to identify the child (such as the child's name and age, date of birth, and parents' names). We prefer to see the child's U.S. passport. If that document is not available, we may accept the child's:

- Adoption decree.
- Doctor, clinic, or hospital record.
- Religious record (e.g., baptismal record).
- Daycare center or school record.
- School identification card.

All documents must be either originals or copies certified by the issuing agency. We cannot accept photocopies or notarized copies of documents. To find out more, visit www.ssa.gov/ssnumber/ssnumber. There, you can also find out what documents you need, fill out and print an application, and then bring or mail the needed information to Social Security. You may also want to read the publication, Social Security Numbers For Children, available at www.ssa.gov/pubs.

Retirement

Question:

My wife and I live in Illinois, but plan to spend the winter in Florida. My wife will turn 62 while we are down south. Can she apply for benefits in Florida or do we have to wait until we get back home to apply for retirement at our local Social Security office?

Answer:

These days, you don't even have to be near a Social Security office to apply for benefits. Regardless of where you and your wife are living, you can apply for retirement benefits online at www.ssa.gov/appllytoretire. It's so easy to do and it can take as little as 15 minutes to complete and submit the application. If she prefers, your wife can file a retirement benefit application at any Social Security office — including the one closest to you in Illinois, Florida, or wherever you happen to be.

Question:

I'm planning to retire next year. I served in the Navy back in the 1970s and need to make sure I get credit for my military service. What do I need to do?

Answer:

You don't need to do anything to apply for the special credit for your military service—it is added automatically. For people who had service between 1957 and 1967, we add the extra credits to their record at the time they apply for Social Security benefits. For service between 1968 and 2001, those extra military service credits have already been added to your record. So you can rest assured that we have you covered. Read our online publication, Military Service and Social Security, at www.ssa.gov/pubs/EN-05-10017.pdf. Then when the time comes to apply for retirement, you can do it conveniently and easily at www.ssa.gov/retireonline.

Disability

Question:

What are the requirements for receiving disabled widow's benefits?

Answer:

You may be able to get disabled widow(er)'s benefits at age 50 if you meet Social Security's disability requirement. Your disability must have started before age 60 and within seven years of the latest of the following dates: the month the worker died; the last month you were entitled to survivors benefits on the worker's record as a parent caring for a surviving minor child; or the month your previous entitlement to disabled widow(er)'s benefits ended because your disability ended. To learn more, visit www.ssa.gov/planners/disability/dqualify9.html.

Dixie Walden

CLINTON — Dixie Darlene Walden, 87, passed away peacefully on December 24, 2023, at Sugar Creek Alzheimer's Care Center, where she had resided during her battle with Alzheimer's. She was surrounded by the love of family and the compassionate caregivers of both Sugar Creek and the hospice staff.

Visitation will be held at Calvert Funeral Home, in Clinton, from 9:30-10:30 a.m. on Saturday, December 30, 2023, with funeral services immediately following with Ernie Harvey, Jr. officiating. Burial will follow at Oak Park Cemetery, Clinton.

In lieu of flowers, it was Dixie's wish that memorial donations be directed to the Warner Hospital and Health Services Foundation or The First Christian Church, in Clinton.

J. Wayne and Geneva Grant (Shewmaker) Rees welcomed their only child, Dixie, into this world on June 23, 1936, in Clinton. She was raised on the family farm just west of Clinton. Dixie graduated from Clinton High School in 1954 and was soon married to her high school sweetheart, Stanley C. Walden, on October 14, 1954.

Dixie is survived by her son, Bruce Walden (Liz), and Paula Nelson (Chuck); grandchildren, Jessica Black (Cory), Jennifer Horn (Matt), and Tyler Walden (Morgan); great-grandchildren, John Horn, Thomas Horn, Izabel Horn, William Black, Benjamin Black, and Madelyn Walden.

She was preceded in death by her devoted husband, Stanley, and her parents, J. Wayne and Geneva Grant Shewmaker Rees.

Dixie began and ended her professional career at DeWitt Savings Bank. Starting as a teller, she eventually became president of the bank, a position she held for 20 years until her retirement.

As a member of the Warner Hospital and Health Services Foundation board, Dixie served in many positions, including president. She was proud of her accomplishments in assisting the local hospital to obtain needed equipment and services.

Dixie enjoyed retirement with her husband Stanley, spending hours on the golf course and traveling to Florida. They loved visiting their son and family in Urbana, watching their grandchildren and great grandchildren grow up, and attending many sporting events. They also visited their daughter and son-in-law often at their farm, helping with chores in the horse barn and growing a garden. Dixie rode Rowdy, her favorite horse, until she was 82 years old.

Dixie's greatest joy was her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. For many years, hosting Christmas was Dixie's favorite grandmother job, and she instilled the love of the season in her family. Dixie had life-long friends who gathered regularly to share family tales, love, and laughter (Girl's Club). Dixie had a very special best friend, Shirley Weikel, with whom she shared a birthday. They celebrated together each year for over 80 years.

Dixie was a member of the First Christian Church of Clinton, which she attended regularly. Mostly, she just liked being with people, helping others and feeling like she accomplished something each day. Dixie's smile will be missed by her family, friends and community.

Don't give up

This is not the world we grew up in, or even the world we knew for much of our lives. If my informal poll of friends and acquaintances is correct, we don't like it much. The current state of the world has taken an emotional, physical and social toll on us. This isn't the retirement we planned.

I hear: We're too trusting and it gets us into trouble when we fall for scams coming to us via phone, email and the internet, and resulting in identity theft and loss of money.

The pandemic locked many of us away, and we haven't surfaced yet because Covid is still out there, as well as the annual flu and RSV (respiratory syncytial virus) this winter. Staying home seems to be the safest way to avoid it all.

And there's the television news. Some of us have started only watching the first five minutes to catch the weather and then turn to a different channel to avoid the political scene and crime reporting, some of which unfortunately is happening in our own

by Matilda Charles

areas. Channels showing reruns of retro programs are getting a lot of our attention now.

No, we don't like it much, and some of us wonder if we're sliding into depression.

But there are ways to regain some of what we've lost, and a trip to our physician might be the best first step. Go, and tell him or her what's going on with you. A simple blood test might point to a change in diet that could help how you feel.

At the same time, he might know of some community resources, even if it's having meals delivered.

Reconnect with friendships that matter (even if it's on the phone), ask if the library delivers books, become a pet foster parent, look for senior exercise videos on YouTube, etc.

Don't give up. (c) 2023 King Features Synd., Inc.

Year's end

The United States appears to have diminished in world standing over the past year. There was a time in the not-too-distant past when the United States was a feared adversary.

To cross the U.S. was not something that most nations or individuals really wanted to engage in.

While the US was known for its humanitarian and economic aid, it was also known as a fierce foe if challenged. We could bring our economic power to bear against those who undervalued their goods. If we were challenged in the military arena, our armed forces could and would simply overpower the opposition.

Regardless of political affiliation, our national sovereignty and strength were used by all national administrations to keep our nation in a world leadership position and above the fray.

That situation has changed of recent times and not for the better. Today our southern border is so porous that 10,000 illegal migrants a day are crossing the border and are literally and immediately being given access to our welfare system. The benefits the government is providing are quite often more than we give our own citizens in need. That 10,000 illegal migrants a day exceeds the population of DeWitt County every two days. The U.S. is rapidly losing its national identity and national sovereignty has become a joke.

In the Middle East we have had our military forces attacked with over 100 hostile actions since the start of the Hamas/Israel war. We have responded a couple of times to attack some warehouses. The Red Sea has become treacherous for international shipping, which will cost Americans more dollars for products transported through the Suez Canal. The US is starting to look and feel like a paper tiger. That is a dangerous position for the world.

On Christmas Day three American servicemen at an American military base in Iraq were injured in a drone/missile attack conducted by Hezbollah militants. To President Biden's credit, the President responded in a manner that previous administrations would have done. Biden authorized military responses against three manned Hezbollah military units in Iraq. The US responded with force to an attack and the President should be commended for that action.

Our border situation has now evolved to the point that Democratic Mayors I New York and Chicago are pleading for federal assistance and review of our border policies. Democratic Congressmen and ladies are now voicing their opinions that the border policy needs to be addressed. There appears to be bipartisan movement to border policy reform.

Are the current movements being put forth too little/too late or are they just in time? Let us hope that they are just in time and that America will go into the new year with resolve to be the leader of the world. Let us hope and pray the President Biden now realizes that true peace and economic prosperity comes through strength and not appeasement.

CHICAGO REMAINS BIPOLAR--In physics we are taught that for every action there is an equal and opposite reaction. Every time I go to Chicago, I question my sanity. There is much about the city that I love and then there is the aspect of the city that I simply detest. Last Friday I got both as always happens. My wife and I ventured

by Dave T. Phipps

north to have a Christmas dinner with our eldest son and his family as they had traveled back from DC. The restaurant was north and east of O'Hare. The traffic was rather heavy, but we had the GPS and it was daylight. I then remembered that our toll road transponder was in the other car which meant I would be paying double for the tolls when I got the internet bill. No problem, we were going to have a good time. We meet at the restaurant and get some unsolicited hugs from our grandsons. Life is good. The food and service were great, as was the conversation.

We were in very good spirits. Then we had to drive home. Did I mention the traffic and O'Hare? The good old GPS took us right back by O'Hare on a Friday night before Christmas. It was dark. It was raining like crazy. The traffic was horrendous, and we were in the middle of a construction zone for miles. All of this is on toll roads, with my transponder in Clinton. My calm and collected wife simply reminds me we had a great time and we will be getting home. We got home. The only thing left is to pay that toll bill. I hope your trips to Chicago are better than mine, but I doubt it. HAPPY NEW YEAR.

Veteran suicides

Operation S.A.V.E. is a Department of Veterans Affairs training program designed to prevent suicide in veterans. While the program is geared for suicide-prevention coordinators, there are points that can be helpful for family and friends of veterans who might be at risk.

The initials themselves outline parts of the program:

Signs of suicide
Asking about suicide
Validating feelings
Encouraging help and expediting treatment

Those who work or live with veterans can help stop many veteran suicides. Here are some must-have resources:

-- Go online and study the program that is given to VA suicide prevention coordinators. Google this title: Operation S.A.V.E.: VA Suicide Prevention Gatekeeper Training.

-- Google "veteran suicide" and look for the PDF titled "Department of Veterans Affairs Operation SAVE Suicide Prevention." As you scroll, don't miss the Myths and Misinformation section, as well as the S.A.V.E. steps.

-- Go to www.mentalhealth.va.gov

by Freddy Groves

and click "Suicide Prevention." You'll find a full menu of choices, including warning signs and resources.

The official guesstimate of the number of veteran suicides is 22 per day. As more people and groups read the "Suicide Data Report," they eventually come to the conclusion that the number is low, for many reasons: Not all states participated in the survey and didn't provide numbers. Information in some cases was provided by funeral homes (who got their information from family members) and not by the VA. Information from states with large veteran populations wasn't used. Information wasn't current, and so on. In other words, the problem might be even worse.

For more immediate help for yourself or someone you know, dial 988 and press 1. Or you can chat online at www.veteranscrisisline.net. Or send a text message to 838255 for free support.

THE ILLUSTRATED BIBLE

When Joseph and Mary had done everything required by the Law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee to their own town of Nazareth. And the child grew and became strong; he was filled with wisdom, and the grace of God was on him.

French cuisine 01

Welcome to my little corner of culinary delights. I am glad to say that France is the last country we shall cover. Since the United States of America is our home, I felt that should be thoroughly covered first. Next would be any countries that have influenced our cuisine substantially. This would clearly include Mexico and China. At the very end would be the two countries I found most important. Countries having profound influence upon our cuisine; Italy and France. Sandwiched between would be a few European countries of some interest.

Let us begin with Northern France. We know it has an impressive coastline. Therefore, there would be a lot of seafoods available nearest that coastline. This region would have a mild climate and plenty of rainfall. Further south we go, the harsher the climate. The western region of northern France is mountains. This is well suited for raising livestock such as lambs, goats, and cows.

Normandy is the region with most of the dairy cows. From the cow's milk, they produce such wonderful dairy delights. For example, cheeses such as Camembert and Pont l'Eveque. I am glad I do not have to pronounce that last one. Cheeses made in France that are common to us are muenster, brie, and Roquefort. Roquefort is generally an ingredient used for making a superb salad dressing. In restaurants, I used to order it all the time. Now when I order it, I get a puzzled look as if they never heard of it. Blue cheese salad dressing makes a cheaper but wonderful substitute. However, cheeses made from sheep and goat's milk are more common than from cow's milk in France. I might later write about making cheese.

Their cream and butter are praised highly. There is a bounty of vegetables and fruits grown in that region. Normandy is well known for its apples. Grains are grown as well. A lot of breads and pastries are made throughout France. This helps to make wheat a preferred grain. For my culinary finals in "International cuisine", my assignment was to make an entrée and dessert from the province of Normandy to serve roughly 100 or more guests. I received high complements on the cookie and requests for the recipe. If there is time and space, I will include that recipe for you.

I will give you a bit of British history regarding Normandy. The Normans crossed over the channel to engage the Anglo-Saxons. The Normans gained the upper hand and took over. From that point on, the English empire was ruled by Normans and their descendants.

Moving eastward along the coast we reach provinces whose cuisine is heavily influenced by neighboring countries such as Luxembourg, Germany and Switzerland. My paternal roots come from both Germany and Switzerland. Do you like Champagne? Well, it is in this province where it is made. I will cover the northwestern region in detail in the next article.

Until next time, peace to all.

Unexpected driving hazards: Don't get caught off-guard

(NAPSI)—The holiday season, with its festive spirit, family gatherings, and vacation plans, can also include some unexpected driving challenges—but you can still navigate them safely.

How to Drive Down Your Risk

Here's a rundown of unanticipated driving hazards of the fall and winter holidays and how to tackle them.

1. Distractions Galore: The holiday season can be distracting with dazzling light displays, roadside decorations, and parades. While they add to the festive spirit, they can divert your attention. Solution? Stay focused. Remind yourself constantly to keep your eyes on the road and be extra cautious in areas with heavy decorations.

2. Early Sunsets: With Daylight Saving Time over, it gets dark earlier. Combined with fog or rain, early sunsets can reduce visibility considerably. Be sure your vehicle has fog lights and that all lights are functioning correctly. Avoid high beams in foggy conditions as they can reflect back and impair visibility further.

3. Increased Traffic: Holiday shoppers, travelers, and delivery trucks flood the roads during this time. Try to plan your trips during off-peak hours and always factor in extra time. Check traffic updates before heading out and consider alternate routes.

4. Unpredictable Weather: Fall and winter bring a mix of rain, fog, ice, and sometimes even snow. Regularly check tire pressure and tread depth. Ensure wipers are in good condition and use defrosters to keep windows clear. If you're driving in snowy regions, consider investing in snow tires or chains.

5. Impaired Drivers: Unfortunately, the holidays see a spike in alcohol consumption, and consequently, impaired drivers. Stay vigilant, especially during nighttime. If you spot a vehicle swerving or driving erratically, maintain a safe distance and consider reporting them.

6. Parking Lot Perils: With malls and shopping centers bustling, parking lot incidents increase. Watch out for pedestrians and cars backing out without noticing. Always park in well-lit areas and be patient; rushing can lead to fender benders.

7. Fatigue: Between holiday preparations and long drives, fatigue can set in. Remember, a drowsy driver is as dangerous as a drunk one. Plan breaks during long trips, share driving responsibilities if possible, and consider an overnight stay instead of driving back late.

8. Wildlife: Fall and winter are active times for wildlife. Deer, in particular, can be more prevalent on roads, especially during dawn and dusk. Always scan the road ahead and use high beams when there's no oncoming traffic.

The holiday season does present unique driving challenges, but with awareness and preparation, you can get around them. As you celebrate and travel, make safety a priority. After all, the best gift you can give your loved ones is ensuring you arrive safely.

CJHS Maroons JV over Raiders, varsity falls in tight game

Marc Rogers
resqmph7@myfrontiermail.com

CLINTON — The Clinton Junior High School boys basketball season has begun. The junior Maroons were found on their home court trading plays with the Central A&M (CAM) Raiders.

The evening began with a whopping surprise as the 7th grade Maroons shot out to a 20-0 lead in just the first quarter. The second quarter saw the Maroons lose concentration, scoring just 8 points but taking a 28-3 lead into halftime.

The Maroons continued the attack in the third quarter, scoring 16 points and then proceeded to destroy the opposition with another 15 points in the fourth quarter, while holding the Raiders to just 3 points in each of those quarters.

The final score Maroons 59-Raiders 9. The 7th graders were led by Bryce Miller (#45) with 14 points followed by Cole Thomas (#10) with 9 points and Evan Newberry (#13) with 7 points.

This brought the hometown fans hope for the second game between the 8th grade teams.

The first quarter was very close with the teams tied at 11 heading into the second quarter. The Raiders took over the game at this point and wreaked havoc on the Maroons.

The raiders went on an 18-9 run in the quarter, taking a 29-20 lead into the halftime break. The second half saw the Raiders keep up the pressure extending the lead to 43-30 at the end of the third quarter.

The Maroons rallied in the fourth quarter, but it was not enough to surpass the Raiders lead and the opposition won 58-48. The Maroons were led by J. Bell with 31 points (including six 3-pointers) followed by B. Stauffer with 8 points.

Marc Rogers / Journal
D. Newberry (#41) goes high for a rebound in the 7th grade game.

M. Fitch (#5) gets the tip off to J. Bell in the 8th grade game.

Maroons' wrestlers fall to Bulldogs ahead of Clinton Invitational

Marc Rogers
resqmph7@myfrontiermail.com

CLINTON — The Maroons hosted the Mahomet/Seymour Bulldogs in a wrestling meet leading into the Clinton Invitational.

The meet started with the junior varsities with no official scores kept, but the home team did not fair well.

Then came the varsity matches and the Maroons took the early lead at 18-6, but this soon evaporated. Based on pins, the home team had 6, while the opposition had 7. However, the other matches tallied up quickly and the Maroons lost the meet 47-28.

DeWitt County Quadrennial Assessment Publication

Notice to Taxpayers in DeWitt County for the following Townships
Barnett, Clintonia, Creek, DeWitt, Harp, Nixon,
Rutledge, Santa Anna, Texas, Tunbridge, Wapella, Waynesville and Wilson Townships

Valuation date (35 ILCS 200/9-95):	January 1, 2023
Required level of assessment (35 ILCS 200/9-145):	33.33%
Median level of assessments for the County:	31.30%
Valuation based on sales from 35 ILCS 200/1-155):	2020, 2021 & 2022

Publication is hereby made for equalized assessed valuations for real property in this County in accordance with 35 ILCS 200/12-10. As required by 35 ILCS 200/9-210 and 35 ILCS 200/10-115, the following equalization factors have been applied to bring the assessments to the statutorily required three-year median level of 33.33%:

Farm Land:	1.0000
Farm Improvements:	1.0000
Non-Farm Land:	1.0600
Non-Farm Improvements:	1.0600

Pursuant to 35 ILCS 200/10-115, the Farm Land assessments for the 2023 assessment year will increase by 10% of the preceding year's median cropped soil productivity index as certified by the Illinois Department of Revenue with data provided by the Farmland Assessment Technical Advisory Board resulting in a $42.61 per acre increase for each soil productivity index.

Property in this County, other than farmland and coal, is to be assessed at a 33.33% median level of assessment, based on the fair cash value of the property. You may check the accuracy of your assessment by dividing your assessment by the median level of assessment. The resulting value should equal the estimated fair cash value of your property. If the resulting value is greater than the estimated fair cash value of your property, you may be over-assessed. If the resulting value is less than the fair cash value of your property, you may be under-assessed. You may appeal your assessment to the Board of Review.

If you believe your property's fair cash value is incorrect or that the equalized assessed valuation is not uniform with other comparable properties in the same neighborhood, the following steps should be taken:

Contact your Supervisor of Assessment's office to review the assessment.

- If not satisfied with the assessor review, taxpayers may file a complaint with the DeWitt County Board of Review. For complaint forms, instructions, and the Rules and Procedures of the Board of Review, call (217) 935-7800 or visit the office at 201 W. Washington St., Clinton, IL 61727
- The final filing deadline for your township is generally 30 days from this publication date. Deadline for filing with the DeWitt County Board of Review is January 29, 2024. After this date, the Board of Review is prohibited by law from accepting assessment complaints for properties in this township. Your property may be eligible for homestead exemptions, which can reduce your property's taxable assessment. For more information on homestead exemptions, call (217) 935-7800 or visit us at www.dewittcountyil.gov.

Your property tax bill will be calculated as follows:

Final Equalized Assessed Value – Exemptions = Taxable Assessment
Taxable Assessment X Current Tax Rate = Total Tax Bill

All equalized assessed valuations are subject to further equalization and revision by the DeWitt County Board of Review as well as equalization by the Illinois Department of Revenue.

Three tips to catch up on retirement savings

(METRO) — One need not look long or far to be reminded of the importance of saving for retirement. Indeed, it's hard to go a single day without encountering roadside billboards, television and streaming service advertisements, and/or promotional emails touting the retirement planning services offered by an assortment of investment firms. If those adds seem ubiquitous, it's for good reason, as saving for retirement is among the most important steps individuals can take as they look to ensure their long-term financial security.

Despite the widely accepted significance of retirement planning, studies indicate that many people are behind on saving and aware that they're behind. According to a recent survey from the online financial resource Bankrate, 55 percent of respondents indicated they are behind on their retirement saving. In addition, a Gallup poll released in May 2023 indicated that just 43 percent of nonretirees think they will have enough money to live comfortably in retirement. The good news for individuals who are behind or concerned about their financial wellness in retirement is that three strategies can help them catch up on their savings.

1. Take advantage of catch-up rules if you qualify. Laws governing retirement accounts in the United States allow individuals 50 and older to contribute more to their retirement accounts than they're eligible to contribute prior to turning 50. Bankrate notes that current laws allow individuals over 50 to contribute an extra

$1,000 per year to a traditional or Roth IRA and an extra $7,500 annually to a 401(k), 403(b) or 457(b) account. In Canada, individuals can contribute the maximum to a Registered Retirement Savings Plan (RRSP). According to the National Bank of Canada, individuals can contribute up to 18 percent of their annual income to an RRSP, and those contributions are deducted from taxable income. That means individuals are potentially saving more for down the road and paying less in taxes today.

2. Itemize your tax deductions. The online financial resource Investopedia notes that taking the standard deduction is not for everyone. Individuals with significant amounts of mortgage interest, business-related expenses that are not reimbursed by an employer, and/or charitable donations may lower their tax obligation by itemizing their deductions. That reduction in tax obligation allows individuals to redirect those funds to their retirement accounts.

3. Cut back on discretionary spending. Perhaps the simplest, though not necessarily the easiest, way to catch up on retirement savings is to redirect funds typically spent on discretionary expenses like dining out or travel into retirement accounts. One way to feel better about this approach is to remind yourself that the less money spent on dining out and travel now means more money will be available to spend on such luxuries in retirement.

Three simple strategies make it easier to catch up on retirement savings.

Financial mistakes anyone can avoid (METRO) — Earnings go a long way toward determining an individual's financial security. However, high wages do not guarantee long-term financial security any more than lower wages ensure a future marked by a lack of financial flexibility. Individuals are a unique variable in any financial equation, and those who can exercise and maintain some fiscal discipline are more likely to secure long-term security than those who cannot.

One way anyone can improve their chances at a secure and flexible financial future is to identify and avoid some common mistakes. Avoiding the following mistakes can increase the chances individuals at various income levels enjoy a secure financial future.

• Delay saving for retirement: Conventional wisdom says it's never too early to begin saving for retirement. Despite that, surveys indicate many adults are behind on saving. A 2022 survey from Bankrate found that 55 percent of respondents indicated they were behind on their retirement savings, while 35 percent reported being "significantly behind."

Though laws governing retirement contributions have made it easier for people to catch up, it's still better to begin saving once you enter the professional arena, which for most people is some time in their early to mid-twenties. The longer you delay saving for retirement, the more precarious your financial future becomes.

• Spending beyond your means: The post-pandemic increase in cost-of-living has garnered considerable attention in recent years, when inflation has driven up the cost of just about everything. There's little consumers can do about the rising cost of living, but making a concerted effort to curtail spending is one way to combat the spike. However, surveys indicate many people earning significant salaries are living paycheck-to-paycheck. For example, a 2021 report from LendingClub Corporation found that nearly 40 percent of individuals with annual incomes greater than $100,000 live paycheck to paycheck, with 12 percent reporting they are struggling to pay their bills. An assortment of variables undoubtedly contribute to that stark reality, and one might be a tendency for consumers to spend beyond their means. Individuals who are struggling to curtail their spending are urged to seek the help of a certified financial planner who can help them devise a budget and alleviate some of the stress and pressure associated with overspending or living paycheck to paycheck.

• Poor use of credit: Credit cards can be a financial safety blanket, but that blanket can soon smother consumers who don't know how and when to utilize credit. Reserve credit cards for emergency situations and resist the temptation to use them for daily expenses, such as groceries and gas. Credit card interest rates tend to be in the double digits, so unless card holders can pay their balances in full each month, they're only exacerbating the already high cost of living by using credit for daily expenses.

• Buying too much house: Overspending on housing is another financial mistake, and arguably the one that's the most difficult to avoid. It can be hard to walk away from a dream home, but such a decision could secure your financial future. Unfortunately, data indicates far too many individuals are spending more on housing than conventional financial wisdom recommends. The most recent Consumer Expenditure Survey from the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics found that spending on housing accounted for 33 percent of the average household's monthly expenses and that the average household spent 88 percent of its after-tax income each month. That latter figure is especially troubling, as conventional financial wisdom recommends a saving rate of 20 percent. Overspending on housing greatly affects a person's ability to save and invest, so resisting the temptation to buy that expensive dream home could be the difference between a secure or scary financial future.

Avoiding some common mistakes can help individuals be more financially flexible and secure over the long haul.

How long to keep your tax returns

(METRO) — As individuals attempt to more effectively organize their homes, they may come across a familiar pile of documents that they might hesitate to discard. Conventional wisdom has suggested taxpayers hold on to their tax returns for at least seven years. However, the Internal Revenue Service indicates that the seven-year timeline is not necessarily applicable to everyone. The IRS recommends taxpayers speak with their insurance company or creditors to see if they require account holders to hold on their tax records longer than the IRS. If they don't, individuals can follow these guidelines, courtesy of the IRS.

1. Keep records for 3 years if situations (4), (5), and (6) below do not apply to you.

2. Keep records for 3 years from the date you filed your original return or 2 years from the date you paid the tax, whichever is later, if you file a claim for credit or refund after you file your return.

3. Keep records for 7 years if you file a claim for a loss from worthless securities or bad debt deduction.

4. Keep records for 6 years if you do not report income that you should report, and it is more than 25 percent of the gross income shown on your return.

5. Keep records indefinitely if you do not file a return.

6. Keep records indefinitely if you file a fraudulent return.

7. Keep employment tax records for at least 4 years after the date that the tax becomes due or is paid, whichever is later.

These can serve as guidelines taxpayers can follow if they are attempting to declutter at home but don't want to discard tax returns they might someday need. Taxpayers also can consult with their accountants or tax preparers for advice on how long to keep their returns. In addition, those who want to keep their returns can scan relevant return documents and then store them digitally on an external hard drive. This frees up space in a home and can calm any fears about discarding returns taxpayers may have.

Young workers and retirement savings

(METRO) — Young adults newly introduced to the professional arena may not immediately be thinking of the future when their careers will come to a close. Retirement may seem like a distant goal when it's 50 years or more away. However, pushing off retirement savings because it is not viewed as a necessity could turn out to be a significant mistake.

According to Mass Mutual, the economic disruption caused by the global pandemic pushed retirement to the bottom of many workers' lists of financial priorities. That was especially so among young professionals. A 2019 survey found roughly half of millennial and Generation Z professionals believe they are not saving enough for retirement. Student loan burdens are another reason why certain people may delay saving for retirement until they are older.

Young workers need to get the facts about retirement. For example, The U.S. Social Security Administration says that Social Security taxes that people now pay into the Social Security Trust funds that used to pay benefits to current beneficiaries, not future ones. The Board of Trustees estimates that, in 2041, and based on current law, the Trust Funds will be depleted since people are living longer and the birth rate is low. The taxes being paid now will not be enough to pay the full benefit amounts scheduled for future retirees.

Young people can no longer rely on Social Security benefits to finance their retirements in the United States. Rather, young workers need to be proactive and take control of their own retirement savings.

- Experts advise following the general rule of saving 10 percent to 12 percent of your salary when you are in your 20s, including factoring in any employer match.

- Working for companies that offer defined-contribution plans like a 401(k) or 403(b) can make it easier for young professionals to begin saving for retirement.

- Setting aside a portion of your income early on in retirement savings ensures more years of savings and investments will benefit from decades of compounding.

- Those who contribute to a retirement plan may receive an immediate tax break because the contributions come out of paychecks before taxes are withheld. Many of these plans also offer the advantage of tax-deferred growth. This translates to not being required to pay taxes each year on capital gains, dividends or other yield distributions if the money is not withdrawn before age 59½. Speak with a financial advisor to learn more about tax-advantaged accounts.

- T. Rowe Price says there are certain benchmarks that can help people save enough money for retirement. By age 30, you should have .5 times the amount of your salary. At age 35, that amount should increase to 1.5 times your salary. These numbers are based on an assumed retirement age of 65 and with a household income growth of 5 percent until age 45 and 3 percent thereafter.

- According to research from Qualtrics, young workers don't plan on working until they can receive full benefits from Social Security. Twenty-four percent plan to retire early, and 41 percent want to do so by the time they turn 50. That could spark more ambition among younger generations to save for retirement and to save more aggressively.

Even if retirement is many years in the future, young workers need to start saving for retirement early on to be able to retire comfortably.
