From the President

On behalf of the Office of Alumni Affairs and the National Alumni Association executive committee, we are pleased to provide you with this 2016–2017 Honor Roll Booklet. As our student-athletes continue to pursue championships in their respective sports, our students, working with their professors, continue to make legendary strides in new discoveries and technologies of the future. The NAA is here to serve and support all of students who grace the Capstone, and these efforts are directly supported by your membership.

Because of the efforts of 34,000 association members and donors, it was possible for the NAA to award approximately $4.8 million in scholarship assistance to more than 2,600 students this year. Your National Alumni Association manages a corpus endowment of over $43 million and added 23 new scholarships this past year. Each and every year your NAA consistently sets new records in the selection and awarding of scholarship monies.

Twenty-five years ago, I too was a recipient of the generosity of NAA members and received an Alumni Leadership Scholarship. I remember the pride that I felt to be recognized for my achievement by total strangers, and I have been forever grateful. No contribution is too small or large, as each and every one impacts the lives of the students we serve. Imagine your donation going to a first-generation college student. The significance of your giving will be far-reaching on his or her life and the lives they may bring into this world. You will be the catalyst for change and, in turn, make our university, state, nation and world a better place to call “home.”

The words “faithful, loyal, firm and true” are contained within our alma mater and are the embodiment of your commitment as alumni to our university. It is my honor to serve as your president of the National Alumni Association. I look forward to joining you at chapter meetings across the state and nation and working with you to give back to the University that has given each of us so very much.

Roll Tide!

Dedication of Denny Chimes

THE DEDICATION of the Denny Chimes occurred at the Chimes Tower at 5 o'clock Monday afternoon. The rain that fell until the hour for the exercises reduced the number of people attending but there was a goodly audience gathered in front of the tower and the streets near by were lined with people in automobiles. The exercises were presided over by Governor Graves, who spoke of the pleasure it gave him as the chief executive of the state to be present on this interesting occasion, praising the movement that brought about the securing of the chimes and the man for whom they were named.

Dr. Geo. Lang delivered the invocation and Jerome Britchey spoke for the student body, having been the chairman of the student committee that raised the money for the Chimes, though it is well known that Britchey himself was the main factor in the movement. He received able assistance from Lewis Smith and Hugh Dowling and many students and members of the faculty. He told of the inception of the movement to purchase the chimes and how it had finally been brought to such fine completion.

THE W.S. HOOLE SPECIAL COLLECTIONS LIBRARY, THE UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA

When Denny took office in 1912, the University consisted of nine principle buildings and 625 students. Under his leadership, the campus grew to boast 23 major buildings, 25 fraternity and sorority houses and 5,000 students.

From the Director

This year's Honor Roll Booklet reflects on pivotal moments in the history of The University of Alabama. The pages of this booklet are limited, so we are restricted to sharing only some highlights of the rich history of the Capstone, but even an abbreviated look back tells a wonderful story, revealing the beginnings of many of the important traditions we enjoy today.

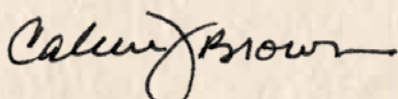

As alumni, it is fascinating to trace the creation and evolution of the National Alumni Association. The first recorded minutes of the "Alumni Society" date back to 1849. One hundred years later, Temple Tutwiler Alumni Hall was built to house the National Alumni Association. Temple Tutwiler, an 1899 graduate, made the gift that funded the new home for our association. The generosity of our alumni over the years has made many dreams come true—for alumni and students alike.

Our Alumni Scholarship Program was established 50 years ago and has evolved into a program that is the envy of alumni associations around the country. It started with a small number of scholarships funded from the NAA operating budget and has grown to be among the largest in the nation. As you have read previously in this booklet, your generosity and the generosity of alumni and chapters around the country has allowed this program to grow to a corpus value of over $43 million. This academic year alone, over 2,600 students will receive nearly $5 million in scholarship support from your National Alumni Association. What a remarkable success this program has become—creating opportunities and transforming young lives, all due to the dedication and commitment of our alumni and friends.

While there have been many periods of great achievement on this campus, I truly believe we are living in what history will reflect upon as The University of Alabama's finest hour. The past 15 years have seen a total transformation of the Capstone. The campus has never been more beautiful, leadership at the highest levels has never been stronger and the student body never more diverse, talented and driven. We have seen the student population grow not only in size, but in academic accomplishment as well. What began with the vision of Dr. Robert E. Witt continues under the strong leadership of Dr. Stuart R. Bell. This is indeed a "golden era" in our history.

It is my hope that you remain engaged with your alma mater and experience the many successes we are currently enjoying. Our strength begins with you—our alumni and friends. We strive every day to build upon our rich history and aspire to even greater heights. As I have said in previous letters, I consider it an honor and privilege to serve as your director. This Honor Roll Booklet is published to honor you. Your member contributions totaled $2,241,289 in 2016. The following list recognizes individuals who gave unrestricted donations of $100 or more during that year.

Thank you for your continued commitment and generous support.

Alumni Honors Scholarship Recipients

Twenty-five high school seniors have been selected to receive a $2,000 Alumni Honors Scholarship each. The students will receive $500 per academic year for four years beginning in September. The scholarships, renewable each year if a "B" average is maintained, are awarded on the basis of merit without regard to financial need or family income. Funds for the scholarships are provided by the National Alumni Association through the Alumni Fund. They give special recognition to the twenty-five incoming freshmen who have shown outstanding achievement in their high school academic work and who have revealed exceptional scholastic potential. At the end of the first four years, a total of 100 students will receive the scholarship each year, making a sum of $50,000 being provided annually by the Alumni Fund for that purpose. Twenty-five alternates have been named in addition to the following twenty-five students selected for this honor:

The University of Alabama purchases the former Bryce Hospital and its surrounding grounds.

The iconic Bryce Main building will house faculty offices and rehearsal spaces for theatre and dance, as well as a welcome center and museums dedicated to University's history and the history of mental health in Alabama. A $60 million Performing Arts Academic Center will be built on the rear of the building. The 168-acre property holds great opportunity for the expansion of campus for decades to come.

Ways to Give

A gift to the Alumni Fund of The University of Alabama's National Alumni Association can take many forms. It can be:

- a gift of cash
- a gift of stocks, bonds, real estate or other property (art, books, etc.)
- a corporate matching gift
- a gift through your will or living trust
- a charitable trust or other life income plan
- a named beneficiary in your retirement, insurance policy or certificate of deposit

You can also use the above options to create an endowment gift to the National Alumni Association in support of its scholarship program. Perhaps the most rewarding aspect of establishing an endowed scholarship fund is that it will allow you to directly accomplish your goals in giving while helping the University achieve its institutional initiatives through the NAA. The principal is invested in the UA System Pooled Endowment Fund for safe growth over time. The annual endowment income from this investment enables the Alumni Association to award scholarships to qualified recipients each year, according to the terms agreed upon by you and the association. Scholarship endowments may be established by individuals, businesses or alumni chapters, and gifts may be given over a period of five years. You can also add to your endowment, beyond the minimum funding level, through lifetime gifts and through a beneficiary designation in your estate plan.
