Pay Observatory for Monitoring of the Kurdistan Parliament

www.payied.org

Pay Observatory has started its activities two years ago and it is a part of the monitoring and evaluation project of the Kurdistan Parliament's works . This website publishes information about the previous parliamentary sessions in both Kurdish and Arabic languages. It has published the personal biography of the parliament members, the presidencies of the Parliament and the laws and decisions issued by Parliament for the first three sessions of parliament.

The fourth session (2013-2018) has published the curriculum vitae of: parliamentarians, the parliament president , the laws and decrees issued by the parliament, the temporary and the permanent committees, the program of work of meetings, the rules of procedure, video clips of parliamentary sessions, all the news related to the parliament and the absence of members of parliament with the list of their phone numbers, In addition to other sections such as the articles published on the Parliament in other media and information on the Parliament of the Afno-graphic, and whatever published on parliamentary work and its publications, and free writers, who wrote on the Parliament. On the other hand pay more attention to the committees and parliamentary blocks' news, provided that they are linked to the issuance of laws and the exercise of control over public institutions.

Pay Institute publicized all the reports concerning the monitoring of parliament and all the other projects the institute works on them. After working on the Arabic part of the website, in the future English part of the website will be added.

With the start of the fifth parliamentary session, the parliamentary oversight project will continue and many changes will be made to the project.

Introduction

One year after the elections were adjourned, the fifth parliamentary elections were held on September 30, 2018. At the beginning of 2018, we published a report on the voter register and problems in this record. In this report, we asked the political parties to participate in the elections and do their best to hold free and fair elections and respect the will of the voter, we asked the Commission to bear the historical responsibility entrusted to them and to implement the instructions legally, but the Parliament, the Commission and the political parties were not at that required level, because of the dereliction of the parliament and lack of political courage of political parties awareness of the seriousness of the stage participated in the elections, as we see its result and all the political parties are dissatisfied with it, and this is the subject of ridicule and question. Because the representatives of the five parties that have the largest number of seats in the parliament are those who conducted the elections and the Commission became a part of the forgery process, and because of the influences of the political parties and the inexperience of a number of members of the Commissioner's Board and not listening to them.

This report is the second (the report of PAY Institute) on the elections of September 30, 2018, and the report focused on the elections of the fifth parliamentary session of the Parliament of Kurdistan and the general voting process as well as the problems associated with the Parliament, the government and the Commission, and violations which were conducted in a Voting day, which was exercised by the political blocks and the security services as well as the Commission, in addition reference to the methods used in fraud and observations about the announcement of 85% of the results and the legal date to announce the results and complaints finally, our observations on 100% of the announcement of the final results.

Elections of the Fifth Session of the Parliament of Kurdistan

According to article 51 of Law No. (1) of 1992 on the elections of the Parliament of Kurdistan, the elections must be held every four years. The elections of the fourth session were held on 21/9/2013, but because of the problems and conflicts between the political parties, the members of Parliament took the oath (6/11/2013) and the Presidency of the Parliament was elected on 29/4/2014. The elections was supposed to be held in September 2017, but again because of the problems and conflicts between the political parties, the elections was postponed on the day (24/10/2017) and by a majority of votes in the parliament (60 out of 71 members) they decided to extend the legal duration of the Parliament elections for two sessions.

And, after that on (8/5/2018) the Prime Minister, in accordance with the powers he has, determined (30/9/2018) the date of elections for the fifth parliamentary session of the Parliament of Kurdistan.

For this purpose, the Elections Commission has taken the procedures for conducting the elections. It then proceeded to draw lots for entity figures on 16/7/2018 and 29 entities and alliances that will participate in the elections were identified.

It should be noted that the entity (Kurdistan Freedom of Society Movement) had submitted a request to the Commission to participate in the elections, and on 10/6/2018 the number of the entity was set which was number number (23), but then the problems were created and was prevented from participating in the elections.

The voting centers were opened at 8:00 am to citizens to vote, which amounted to three million and 85 thousand and 461 people, including 170 thousand and 469 people in a special vote and nearly 2 million 915 thousand in the general vote.

The largest percentage of those entitled to vote were in the province of Sulaimani amounted to 1 million and 196 thousand and 980 people who were distributed to (2,478) on a station, and in the province of Erbil, those who were eligible to vote were one million and 109 thousand and 72 people and were distributed to (2,343) stations, and the number in the province of Duhok was 711 thousand and 218 people and were distributed on (1,453) stations, and in the province of Halabja the number of those who were entitled to vote were 68 thousand and 191 people and were distributed to (138) station.

Of these, there were 29 lists and 773 candidates, including 532 men and 241 women, competing for 111 seats, including 708 candidates competing for 100 seats in the general seats. According to the election system, 11 seats were allocated for the components, five for Turkmen, five for Christians, and one seat for the Armenians. 18 entities represented by 65 candidates participated in this elections, and competed for 11 seats in the components, including 36 Turkmen candidates, 23 candidates for Chaldeans, Syriac Assyrians and six candidates for Armenians.

The elections for the fifth session of the Parliament of Kurdistan were held in a semi-open system. According to this system the candidates are entitled to vote for the list and the candidate together or to vote for the list only, but they are not entitled to vote only for the candidates without the lists, that is, voters in the four provinces have the right to vote for candidates and lists. The blocks had one list at the level of the province, and the elections did not take place as required and all the entities doubt about the intentions of the other blocks and the Commission's actions were not as required due to weaknesses, as a result it has experienced many problems, and here we will classify the weaknesses and problems in this elections: -

First Problems Encountered in the Voting Process

First: Problems Related to the Parliament

1. In accordance with Article (3) of Law No. (4) of 2014 of the law of the Independent High Commission for Elections and Referendum it is responsible only before the Parliament and only the parliament can judge it, but the Parliament failed to judge the Commission and did not provide any facilities to overcome the problems, and also didn't judge it for the shortcomings and violations that were exercised and was not able to monitor the performance of the Commission.

2. Many of the memos were sent to the Commission by the members of the Parliament in order to follow the activities and activities of the Commission, but the Commission did not respond to them and did not care about the memos of members of the parliament.

3. In the meetings held on (23/1/2018) and (7/2/2018) with the Parliament Affairs Committee, the Commission has pledged to send copies of the voters register on CD to the members of the parliament, but so far the voters register has not been sent, and the members of the parliament remained silent about it and relied on a register of voters full of shortcomings and problems. ⁽¹⁾

4. More than once, a number of members of Parliament invited the Commission to attend the Parliament, but the Presidency of the Parliament did not do so. The Commission was invited on (9/7/2018) when there was only two months and twenty days to hold the elections and the goal of hosting them in the Parliament was to provide clarification on the preparations and the extent of refining the register of the voters, and that the time was too late they were unable to do. However, during this session, the Commission did not have sufficient answers to the questions and inquiries of the members of the Parliament, and they pledged to send the register of the voters to all members of the Parliament by CD, but they did not do that and the Parliament had not taken any action.

5. Failure to solve the problems related to the elections and failure to amend regulate and equalize it by the Parliament.

Second: Problems Related to the Government

1. The government interfered in the work of the Commission and that this is contrary to the principles of separation of powers.

2. The government (the institutions concerned) did not provide adequate support to the Commission in terms of providing information, statistics and facilities.

3. The powers of the Presidency of the Kurdistan Region that is specific to the elections were granted to the Prime Minister in accordance with Law No. (2) for the year 2017, but the Prime Minister failed to do his work.

4. The budget for the elections was not allocated on time.

5. The Ministries of Interior, Peshmarga and the Security Council did not provide sufficient support to the Commission in terms of submitting the names included in the special vote in order to separate them from the general vote and to prepare a voter register for the special vote which is free of shortcomings.

(1)–<http://www.perlemanikurdistan.com/Default.aspx?page=article&id=23748&l=3>

Third: Problems Related to the Political Entities

1.The election offices in the political parties were not at the required level and there was no coordination with the Commission, and at issuing laws and regulations they did not have any observations and criticisms, and if things did not harmonize with their attitudes they were talking about it in the media and not in the form of formal notes and appeals.

2.All the political parties wanted to postpone the elections date, but they were divided among themselves into two groups; the first group stipulated the postponement of the elections in exchange for not being held responsible for what happened in the current government and the second group called for postponement of the election for several reasons they could have done through the Commission during the past years (such as preparing a problem-free voter register and holding the provincial and parliamentary elections together) and these conflicts have negatively affected the Commission's performance, and some of them were saying that they knew that there will be counterfeiting in the elections, but we were forced to participate.⁽¹⁾

3.There was a conflict between the political parties because the Commission has been formed by the political parties and it is nominally independent, and that reflected negatively on the members of the Board of Commissioners in the Commission.

4.A number of political parties did not have any observers in some election centers to monitor the election process.

Fourth: Problems Related to the Commission

1.The Commission was under the domination of the parties and that reflected negatively on its work.

2.The Commission has not been able to determine the sufficient time required to conduct the necessary procedures for holding and ratifying the elections, where four months were identified and then three months to carry out the required preparations, which were determined by the Prime Minister without the Commission having any opinion on this period and it was only approved.

3.The Commission has not been able to implement its decisions as it is, and it has retreated from implementing or amending a number of decisions it has taken, for example:

- It was announced by a decision that the vote is only by the Iraqi nationality certificate, but during the special vote other documents were used for voting.

- The vote is by the Iraqi nationality certificate and the civil status identity, which was announced on the night preceding the general vote.

- Preventing photography and using mobile phones.

- Use of the Whatsapp system in the transfer of the information.

4.The Commission was unable to implement the program of work on schedule, where changes have been made in time for more than once, for example:

Date of updating the voter register

Date of registration of alliances

Entity registration date

Date of registration of names of candidates

The date of the commencement of election propaganda

5.The Commission was unable to clear the register of voters

(1)-<http://www.rudaw.net/sorani/kurdistan/>

The Commission was to purify the voters' register but failed to fulfill its pledge, although there were nearly 900,000 deceased and duplicate names, and suspected and unreal names which have been neglected. A new record was relied on depending on the names on the cards, but nevertheless no significant changes have been made and information has been placed in it as it is. For example, of the 280,000 deceased names, only 1900 names have been deleted, and the names of the duplicates and the names of the citizens of other parts of Kurdistan and the disputed areas have not been deleted.

For more information, see the memorandum of PAY Institute for Education and Development sent to the Commission in this regard.

6. The Commission issued a number of erroneous decisions that are contrary to the laws, for example:

A- On 25/9/2018, Resolution No. 51 was issued, which indicated that photographs of voters were taken and that this decision was not legal and that it would have caused chaos and led to the opposition of a number of parties including:

PAY Institute for Education and Development and it issued a statement of condemnation addressed to the concerned parties and the general assembly and called for the cancellation of this decision.

Civil society organizations and they supported the memo issued by PAY Institute and signed the memorandum issued on 26/9/2018. The memo was then forwarded to the UN Human Rights Office in Erbil and the UN Office in Sulaimani. They also reported their dissatisfaction with the decision. As a result of these pressures, the Commission was forced to reverse the decision.

The Independent Commission for Human Rights published a memorandum demanding the cancellation of these decisions.

B- In a press statement on the night (29/9/2018), the Commission announced a number of resolutions issued by the Council of the Commission, including that the election results are approved by the Council of the Commission by a majority (2/3) members of the Council, and this decision is contrary to the laws, and it was opposed by a number of parties, and then the Court of Cassation in the Kurdistan Region issued a decision that the decision of the Council of the Commission that the ratification of the election results by two-thirds of the members of the Board of Commissioners is not true and contrary to the law of the Commission, and noted that the meetings of the Board of Commissioners are carried out by an absolute majority of the members of the Council, and the issuance of laws by a majority of the audience and that in case of equal votes, the votes with which the president is will be the winner, and also noted that the appeals would be of no use because the elections were held on time.⁽¹⁾

C- Depriving prisoners and patients in hospitals from voting.

D- Decision to cancel the votes of 97 voting centers based on the complaints of observers without conducting any investigations.

E- Conducting investigations through telephone.

F- Existence of two types of procedures for public and private voting.

7. Most of the employees who were hired through contracts did not have sufficient skills and experience and were not trained in the form required and therefore were unable to carry out their duties as required and make many mistakes.

(1) <http://www.nrttv.com/News.aspx?id=7346&MapID=1>

Second Violations on the Voting Day

First: Violations by the Entities

1. Some television channels of the political parties continued the process of the election campaign even after the voting.
2. Existence of election propaganda of the entities near the voting centers.
3. Identification cards and pictures of candidates were distributed to voters in a number of the voting centers.
4. Campaigning a number of candidates near the advertising campaign centers and among the voters.
5. Attacking a number of supporters of the entities the voting centers and applying pressure and other people tried to vote by force and that was actually done in a number of voting centers.⁽¹⁾

Second: Violations of the Security Services

1. Presence of a number of officials and senior officers of the Peshmarga forces in the voting centers, and put indirect pressure on voters to vote for certain entities.
2. During the special voting the movement of the voters, whose names were mentioned in the voting centers in other cities, was obstructed at the control points in (Koya, Erbil, Degala and Smaquli).
3. A number of media channels were blocked from conducting media coverage of the voting process. For example, the media staff of (KNN, NRT, K24, Speda, Westga News, G.kurdistan, Rudaw, and Kurdistan Tv) in (Erbil, Sulaimani, Soran, Koya, Raniya, Chwarqurna, Sedkan and Saidaadiq) and were attacked by the security forces.
4. The facilities were provided by the security services to those who seek to vote illegally and have not been prevented.⁽²⁾
5. Forcing citizens to take pictures of the election cards showing their vote in favor of any entity and there is lots of evidence on that.⁽³⁾

<https://www.dwarozh.net/details.aspx?jimare=83513>

Third: the Shortcomings of the Commission

1.A number of procedures and decisions issued by the Commission reached the directors of the centers, stations and employees of the Commission late, for example the decision to cancel the taking of photos issued on the evening of 27/9/2018 and the decision to cancel the use of mobile phones at the voting stations by voters which was issued on 28/9/2018.

2.The lack of adequate training for the staff working in the voting centers, and a number of them did not have sufficient experience on the nature of the work, especially the employees who were appointed by the parties.

3.In some of the voting centers voters were not prevented from taking pictures by mobile phones.

4.The codes and numbers on the voting boxes could be easily cleared and removed.

5.The codes and numbers on the locks were not identical with those on the boxes.

6.The absence of names of a large number of employees of the Ministry of Interior and Peshmarga in the voters registers for private voting.

7.Irregular distribution of voters to the voting centers in the cities and towns, which led to the inability to find their names easily.

8.Lack of presence of a large number of voters' names in the voters register for public vote.

9.Existence of lots of difference in the register of voters and they were not organized, for example the existence of names of the number of voters in the lists located outside the centers, but their names were not in the centers and were unable to vote.

10.Allowing a number of voters in some of the voting centers to vote using copies of Iraqi nationality certificate.

11.Running out of the election cards before the end of the voting process in a number of voting centers, although the percentage of voting was very low.

12.The process of counting and announcing the election results of the special vote had a negative impact on the voting process in the general vote.

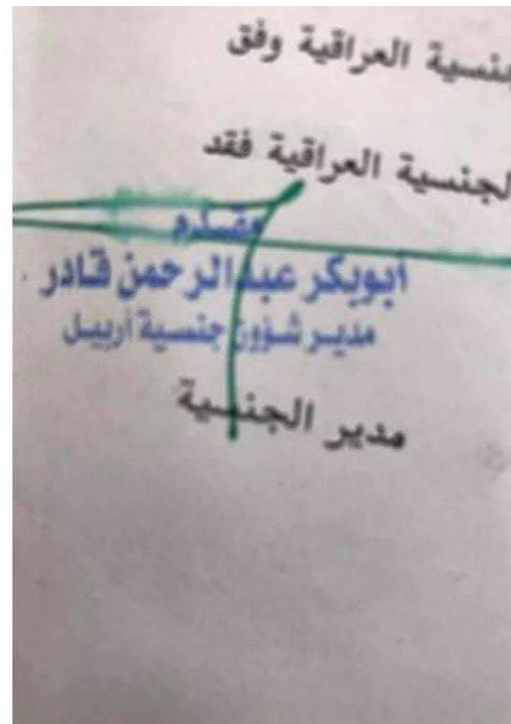

13.A new resolution was issued by the Commission at 10 pm on 29-30 September 2018.

14.Delay in sending the results to the Commission in Sulaimani.

Methods of Forgery Used in the Elections and Some Models Used

During the election process, many methods of fraud were adopted, which greatly affected the voices of the other parties and increased the number of votes of both the Kurdistan Democratic Party and the Patriotic Union of Kurdistan, the most important of these methods:

1. Issuing the certificates of Iraqi citizenship and civil status IDs issued by the two ruling parties for use in voting.^(٢٦)

Announcing 85% of the votes by the Commission

The Board of Commissioners held a meeting at 3 pm on Thursday (October 4, 2018). The issue of announcing the election results and how to announce them was discussed. Both the Kurdistan Democratic Party and the Kurdistan Islamic Group put pressure on the Board of Commissioners to announce the results of the parliamentary elections. The Commission was supposed to prepare a report on the non-final results, publish details of the existing complaints and submit them to the Board of Commissioners, and according to some information, both the Change Movement and the Islamic Union were not with the announcement of the results as for the Patriotic Union of Kurdistan it has committed neutrality between the two parties.

Concerning this subject, Shirwan Zarrar, the spokesman for the Independent Election Commission for Elections and Referendum, states that the final results of the elections will be announced on Thursday, October 4, 2018, after which a decision will be made on complaints and boxes marked with red tape,⁽⁵⁾ and that on the same day and during a press conference the results of 85% of the results was announced as follows:

After the publication of the non-final results, the Commission formed a committee consisting of four general managers and sent them to Sulaimani to investigate the reason for the interruption of communication between Sulaimani office with the Commission headquarters in Erbil and delay in announcing the participation rate in this province, but this committee has not yet published any announcement or any clarification on the subject.

It is surprising that no administrative order has been issued to the non-final results announced by the Commission, which accounted for (85%) of the total votes, and that none of the members of the Board of Commissioners signed the order of the non-final results, and there is no letter signed or sealed until the political entities challenge these results announced by the Commission, and the announcement of the results of the non-final elections not only interfere with the laws only, but lost the status of an institution that considers itself independent.

The worse is when the non-final results of the elections were presented, representatives of all political parties were present, and this is a flaw and a weak point for all the parties and is an indirect recognition of the results of the Commission.

According to law, it was assumed that after the election results were collected and organized, an order would be prepared by the Commission and that the results would be recorded there, and then the members of the Commission would sign them and issue an official order. However, the Board of Commissioners did not reach a conclusion and none of the members of the Board signed the results.

However, a question was raised among the citizens as the Commission has announced the results of 85% of the vote how will the remaining 15% be treated and will it lead to any changes in the results?

It is noteworthy that after the announcement of the final results, Ismail Khormali, rapporteur of the Council of the Commission, that represents the Islamic Union, in a talk show in NTR Channel, said that he was not with the announcement of the final results of the elections and that he informed the members of the Board of Commissioners that these results are informal and would result in the Commission being obliged to do so.

Failure to Comply with the Legal Deadline for Announcing the Results

In accordance with paragraph (1) in section (12) of the rules of procedure of Parliament No. (9) for the year 2018, the process of voting, its sorting and counting are carried out by the Commission, and within 72 hours the Commission announces the results of the final results, but the Commission was unable to do so , and although the Commission announced, on the evening of 4/10/2018, the final results of the votes, i.e, 85% of the votes, but these results cannot be considered the final results of the votes, and then at 12 pm of (21/10/2018), i.e, after 20 days the final results were announced, i.e after 470 hours of the elections, the non-final results were announced as follows:

But it is noticeable that the number and percentage of the votes have changed in a way that led to many doubts about the results, and if the results of (4/10) and (20/10) are compared we will notice:

It is surprising that in the announcement of these results in which there were the observations and critiques of the entities that:

1.The votes of the entities were not identical with the candidates, that is, in case of not counting the votes in the boxes marked with red tapes this was not taken for the candidates as well, since it was supposed not to count the votes of the entities and the candidates together.

2.The total votes of a number of entities decreased rather than increase and this surprised these entities, how the total number of votes by 85% can be more than 100%.

Lists whose votes were reduced after the announcement of 100% of the votes

3.Errors in the announcement of the results of a number of candidates, for example:

The Commission announced that the candidate (Amna Mohammed) from the list of the Change Movement has won the elections though she did not participate in the elections, and she withdrew before the elections, but the Commission announced that she won and got (3,378), in fact, the winning candidate was Dr. Shayan al-Askari who got these votes and in this sequence.

The Commission announced that the candidate (Shukria Shekhani) from the Islamic Group list won the elections and got (1005), but in fact the winning candidate was Rupak Ahmed Rahman who got the votes.

The Complaints

The committee charged with investigating the complaints completed the process and sent a report to the Board of Commissioners.

The head of the complaints committee in the Commission pointed out that part of the complaints were about the attack or entry into the centers by the security services, and control of the election centers by a number of militants, and they will not tolerate the actions and the Council deals responsibly with these complaints.

The Commission spokesman, Shirwan Zarar, said that some of the complaints were due to the entry of the security services into the voting centers, or that the Commission lost control of these centers or there was shot outside the centers and that the citizens were intimidated and did not participate in the vote.^(٤٢)

Ismail Khormali, the Commission's decision, said that the process of following up the complaints about the voting boxes is over, and that they are waiting for the counting of the votes in the boxes about which there are complaints. He also said that there are more than a thousand complaints about the boxes and they have followed up and investigated them, and that 300 of them marked with red tape, and is scheduled to start the process of counting the votes. He further noted that after the discussion of this issue by the Commission he decides to cancel the votes of the voting centers that a security force stormed in and voted by force, and they only proposed to cancel the votes of the parties that have been filed complaints against them and they are discussing this issue, and that perhaps in the investigation stage, the color of the tapes of some boxes are changed from green to red and to be investigated further.^(٤٣)

In accordance with Decision No. (62) issued by the Commission on October 20, 2018, the political entities submitted 781 complaints to the Commission. 1. Most of the voting centers that have been abolished are in Erbil, 59 centers and 27 in Sulaimani and Duhok governorate 11 centers.

2. In the case of the division of the areas of authority, 58 centers are within the influence of the Democratic Party and 39 are within the influence of the Patriotic Union of Kurdistan.

3. The votes of the election centers in Halabja Governorate were not invalidated.

After the announcement of the non-final results, four members of the Board of Commissioners representing the Change Movement, the Islamic Group and the Islamic Union announced in a statement, that the Council of the Commission was unable to achieve parity and were unable to decide on the complaints issues in the form of counting the correct votes from the forged votes .

The spokesman of the Election Commission noted that away from the habits prevailing in the meetings of the Committee and the guidance of the political offices of the Kurdistan Democratic Party and the Patriotic Union of Kurdistan the election results were announced, and they demanded for postponing the announcement of the results to another day, but they did not accept this because they knew that after resolving the complaint forms, the results would change in a way that would conflict with the interests of the ruling parties .

In order to follow up the issue of issuance of thousands of fake Iraqi citizenship certificates by the Patriotic Union of Kurdistan and the Kurdistan Democratic Party in the parliamentary elections in the region, the blocks of the Change Movement and the mobility of the new generation and the Kurdistan Islamic Group in the Iraqi parliament, decided to send a letter to the Iraqi Interior Ministry and to (Qasim Araji) Iraqi Interior Minister, noting that they are informing them about an important and sensitive matter which is the forgery of tens of thousands of certificates of Iraqi nationality and the identity of civil status by the Kurdistan Democratic Party and the Patriotic Union of Kurdistan, which have not been registered in the official records and does not have any priorities, and pointed to the danger to the Iraqi national security , and that these two parties have manipulated the results of the elections and the will of truth for the Kurdish people and therefore a committee of inquiry should be formed on this subject, and they expressed their willingness to provide assistance to the Iraqi government in this issue^(٦) .

Who are those that claim Forgeries?

First: The Political Parties:

1. Patriotic Union of Kurdistan:

At 7:00 pm on September 30, after the start of the counting of votes in the centers and stations, Saadi Ahmed Pira, a spokesman for the Patriotic Union of Kurdistan, announced in a statement to various media that the parliamentary elections witnessed large fraud cases. He confirmed that the Political Bureau of the Patriotic Union of Kurdistan the general secretary of the party decided not to accept the election results and demanded the observers of the Patriotic Union of Kurdistan in the voting centers not to sign the election results and to leave the voting center.

democratic society in the Kurdistan Region, and the peaceful transfer of power he confirmed that this forgery which occurred in the elections was unprecedented in the history of elections in the Kurdistan Region, the PUK and the Political Bureau have decided that these results can not be accepted, and we reject it fully and that we should expedite the convening of a meeting of political parties to discuss the current situation and take responsibility to discuss this issue , he claims that they had information that the personal status department has been cordoned off by the authorities and closed without knowing what happened inside the circle and the results will be used unfairly they should therefore not be accepted.⁽³⁾

But it is surprising that after several minutes on the rejection of the election results by the Patriotic Union of Kurdistan, the news was removed by the media, the pages and sites belonging to this party, and then the president of the Patriotic Union of Kurdistan's list, Qubad Talabani, pointed that it is still too early to accept or reject the election results⁽⁴⁾ .

For his part, Hazhar Mohammed, an official of the media department in third center in the National Union in Erbil, pointed out that in some areas in the province of Erbil, the voting rate was between 110% to 115% and was in the interest of a particular political party, and that if the results of these centers rejected it will affect the results of a particular political party, especially in the regions of Mergasur, Bla u Barzan, each of these boxes contains 500 votes, and the number of boxes that suffer from similar problems are too much.^(٤٣)

Saman Garmiany who is a member of the leadership of the Patriotic Union of Kurdistan pointed out in a statement on the parliamentary elections for the voice of America that the elections have witnessed many cases of fraud, and they are waiting for the results of the elections, at the same time they are with the continuation of the process of peace and democracy.^(٤٤)

The National Union leadership council held a meeting in Sulaimani city on 6 November 2018 under the supervision of (Kosrat Rasool Ali) and noted that the National Union considers the election fraud as illegal and against the principles of human rights and that the party leadership council may discuss this issue, they also reject all things that lead to distorting the facts, and they reject all attacks against the Patriotic Union of Kurdistan.^(٤٥)

2. The Kurdistan Democratic Party

In a statement, Mahmood Mohammed, the spokesman for the Kurdistan Democratic Party states that it is from the principle of complying with the instructions of the Commission, we declare that we will file complaints against all violations and abuses that occurred in some areas under the fundamental procedures followed, he claimed that they will follow them and will not anticipate events and will not prejudge others.

And we reject the accusations or the hostile and unbalanced style of the speaker of the Patriotic Union of Kurdistan, which was corrected by his party shortly after, and we hope that these feelings and anger will not be in response to the strong measures and accurate instructions by the Commission, which led to narrowing the margin of fraud widespread and organized or to cover the Violations and abuses by accusing others.^(٤٦)

The Kurdistan Democratic Party leadership council in Sulaimani and Halabja said in a statement on electoral fraud in the city of Sulaimani that the reference was made to the violations that took place in the city of Sulaimani, which was carried out by one of the Kurdish parties and they support the instructions and decisions of the Election Commission.

Atta Sheikh Hassan, the spokesman for the Democratic Party leadership council in Sulaimani and Halabja, who read the statement, said that any party seeking to steal the votes of citizens would not be able to serve the citizens. It is unreasonable to expel the Commission staff and replace them by the others. and the illegal voting, what happened can not be considered as a voting process. And that any political entity insulting the will of the citizens is a cowardice and will be punished by the citizens, and that in Sulaimani there was a great chaos and the security services were monitoring the voting process, so the participation rate in Sulaimani was low.^(٤٧)

On the other hand, Khasraw Goran, the official of the election system of the Kurdistan Democratic Party, said during a press conference that there were many cases of forgery, especially in Sulaimani and Koya where the observers of the political parties were beaten and

The voting rate in Sulaimani has changed from 35% to 55%, and each of the Change Movement, Islamic groups and the Islamic Union have addressed that you have chosen four members of the Board of Commissioners. The acceptance of forgery and injustice is in their hands and they can reject injustice, forgery, restore hope and restore the status of the elections. They state that what happened was not an election but a farce. In Koya and Shaqlawa, the participation rate was 120%, and there are evidences that one of the officers is a lieutenant in the security services in Erbil entered an election center with a number of gunmen and voted for more than once and threatened everyone and if they refused voting he will arrest them, and said that if the four representatives of the three parties refused to sign the election result, the election will not be ratified , and in the event of signing, they will be involved in the major crime committed by the parties of power^(٣) .

For his part, (Bestoon Faiq) a member of the Parliament of Kurdistan in his page in the social network published a huge number of documents of Iraqi nationality certificates and empty identity civil status of the Directorate of Nationality and Personal Status in Sulaimani II and special to Garmian, located in Kalar, the officers took the keys of these rooms from the official's department and took all the documents, and that is very dangerous, and puts many question marks on the election process and will lead to turn the principle of democracy in the Kurdistan Region to a farce, and he informed the concerned parties and Ministry of Interior in both Kurdistan Region and Iraq by what happened.^(٤)

to any pressure and that after the arrival of the results of the vote will be announced On the Commission website, and that the Commission's instructions were intended to reassure the citizens that they knew all the sources of fraud and violations and their aim was to prevent fraud in the elections.

The Results

These elections showed a number of facts and some of these facts are old have been confirmed and will be listed now as follows:

1 - Parliament has not been at the required level in the control and accountability of the Commission when it cannot perform its duties as required or violation of laws

2-The Government has not fulfilled the required duties and adequate support for the Office

3- The Commission has not been successful in this experiment, as it has issued several resolutions that contradict each other and in violation of the laws and was unable to implement the decisions and regulations issued by it.

4-The majority of the problems encountered by the Commission and the process, were the members of the Council of the Commission responsibility.

5-The members of the Council of the Commission and those associated with the opposition parties (The Change Movement - Islamic Group - Islamic Union) because of the lack of inexperience and stubbornness were not conciliators in their work according to the statements issued by their parties and that the majority of forgery in the elections was because of them as they were supposed to take many steps But they did not.

6 - The Election Court did not fulfill the duties entrusted to it and did not listen to the appeals and complaints of political entities.

7-The Court of Cassation has not able to abide by neutrality and the implementation of laws and not to listen to all complaints submitted and announced the results as they are, and that if the implementation of the laws been done and complaints, so the sequence of winning candidates would change

8-all political parties without exception announced the occurrence of forgery in the elections.

9-The position of international and local observers on the election was negative and most of them talk about forgery in the elections

10-The Commission and the Council of the Commission did not hide the occurrence of large forgery in the elections and all of them have recognized this.

11 - The failure of the Commission in its duties and chaos and lack of experience members of the Board of Commissioners led to major mistakes.

12 - The announcement of the final results 20 days after the election is the evidence of the lack of success in the elections and the lack of transparency in the process

13 - Despite the existence of evidence to prove the increase in the participation rate in the elections for the benefit of the ruling parties, but the lack of participation of 41% of citizens in the elections according to the rates announced by the Commission proves lack of confidence in the legitimacy of the political system in Kurdistan

14-The announcement of the final results of the elections in the late hours of the night of October 20 is an evidence of serious questions about these results and all indicators indicate the existence of an illegal political agreement on the announcement of the results and not by legal means and the transparency of the elections. The letters of the four members of the Commission of Commissioners are evidence for this fact.

15 - After the publication of all the evidence and video sections, which indicate the occurrence of attacks on voting centers by unknown gunmen, had shown the weakness of the Commission and the lack of transparency of the elections

16-The public prosecution did not take any action on the violations that occurred such as the large number of Iraqi citizenship certificates, identities that were forged, fraud in the elections, attacks on voting centers, the attacks on the staff of the Commission, the terrorism, and intimidation that occurred during the elections

17-The lack of participation in the elections and the number of invalid votes showed that most of the citizens of the Kurdistan region lost hope in the elections and they are against the power.

18.The forgery in the elections in Kurdistan Region becomes a habit, as all the elections in the Kurdistan region since 1992, were forged cases.

Recommendations
