FOREWORD

Again we greet our friends and customers far and near. To all of you we extend our warm thanks for your interest and patronage of Merry Gardens. It has been fun raising the thousands of plants we have shipped to all corners of our country and beyond its borders. The pleasure we have had collecting different varieties of rare plants is equalled only by the gratifying response from our customers, and by letters, ideas and suggestions exchanged.

A rare and unusual plant can make a friend, and when you multiply it by many hundreds we feel we have chosen well in concentrating on this type of mail order business, with no side lines except our fine perennials in their season.

We aim not to have the largest collection of any special plant, but the finest varieties of each. You will note some new varieties each year, and in this catalogue many listed in 1952 are again back in stock.

You will find our plant prices reasonable, with no extra charge incorporated for postage. The latter is entirely separate, and that depends upon the U. S. Postal rates.

We personally fill each order, selecting the finest plants and seeing that they are packed carefully so that they will reach you safely.

The Garden Books and Hanging Baskets are again handled by Dorothy Kent of Camden, Maine.

Here's wishing you all a happy growing year, and hoping Merry Gardens will have the pleasure of visits from many of you.

Ervin and Ellen Ross

We welcome you from our begonia greenhouse

We have shipped plants successfully to every state in the Union, to Alaska, Canada, Panama, Puerto Rico, and England. They are guaranteed to reach you in good condition. Beyond that we cannot take the responsibility for their growth. We do make adjustment in case they are badly damaged in transit, if we are notified within ten days after they are received. Our postage rates have proven to be correct for the size plants we ship. It may vary but we delight in tucking little surprises in your order and giving extra care in selecting and packing your plants which we feel more than repays you for the postage-packing charge. We do not substitute unless permitted to do so and acknowledge all orders as soon as received. We ship to avoid delay over the weekend or on holidays.

Prices quoted are for the 2¼ - 2½ inch pot size plants.
