

SIGNS OF SPLIT IN DEMOCRACY

Bryan Sees Wilson as Tool of Reactionaries.

Alabamian Secretary Of Treasury Could Help Wall Street.

(By Louis Ludlow.)

Washington, Nov. 15.—Already there are signs of a break between William J. Bryan and President-elect Wilson. Those who know something of Mr. Wilson's position and Mr. Bryan's dominating and uncompromising disposition predict that these two men will have a falling out within thirty days, at the latest.

Mr. Bryan has certain ideas as to how the cabinet should be made up and he is not likely to agree with Mr. Wilson as to Cabinet members. It is known that Wilson, for instance, has a high opinion of Oscar W. Underwood, Democratic leader of the House and chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, and that Underwood already has tentatively consented for Secretary of the Treasury in the new Administration.

President-elect Wilson likes Underwood as Secretary of the Treasury. He will have on hand, right away, a good-sized row with Mr. Bryan. The Treasurer has no use for Underwood, when he considers a tool of the reactionary interests. Being "the man who put the wall in Wilson" at Baltimore, Bryan will feel that he has a right to demand that Wilson shall have the old shoulder to Underwood and all other Democratic members.

It will be especially interesting that Underwood shall not be made Secretary of the Treasury, thus being put in a position of general availability to serve the Wall Street interests. Whether Mr. Bryan would take a position in the Cabinet is doubtful. The general view is that he would sacrifice his prestige and influence to do so and that he could keep a better grip on the party by "missing the job" from outside of the Administration framework.

At this point there is a clash between the Bryan and Wilson schools of Democracy. The Bryan school is in favor of Wilson's policy, but the Wilson school is in favor of Bryan's policy. The Bryan school is in favor of Wilson's policy, but the Wilson school is in favor of Bryan's policy. The Bryan school is in favor of Wilson's policy, but the Wilson school is in favor of Bryan's policy.

"We favor a single presidential term, and in that we urge the adoption of an amendment to the constitution making the President of the United States ineligible for re-election, and we oppose the candidate of this convention to this principle."

The Wilson men assert that all the platform pledges Wilson to do is to assist in securing a constitutional amendment limiting the presidency to one term, but that if Congress refuses to adopt the amendment and three-fourths of the States do not ratify it before 1916, Mr. Wilson will have a perfect right to submit his claims for a re-nomination to the Democratic National Convention of 1916.

The contention between the Bryan and Wilson men on this point was stated even before the election. In a signed statement published at the close of the recent campaign before the vote was taken, Mr. Bryan said:

"The choice of a President will be Mr. Wilson will be elected for a single term, this platform pledging him to one term, or Mr. Taft will be elected for a second term, or Mr. Roosevelt for a third term."

PRESIDENT TAFT ISSUES PROCLAMATION

Calls On Nation to Give Thanks On November 28.

The following Thanksgiving proclamation has been issued to the American people by President William Howard Taft:

"A God-fearing nation like ours owes it to its inborn and deep sense of moral duty to testify its devout gratitude to the All-Giver for the countless benefits it has enjoyed. For many years it has been customary at the close of the year for the National Executive to call upon his fellow countrymen to offer praise and thanks to God for the manifold blessings vouchsafed to them in the past and to unite in a common supplication for their continuance. The year now drawing to a close has been notably favorable to our fortunate land. At peace with our neighbors, free from the perturbations and calamities that have afflicted other peoples, rich in harvests so plentiful and industries so productive, that the overflow of our prosperity has advantaged the whole world; standing in the staunchest conservation of our rights and firm in the resolve to transmit that heritage unimpaired, but rather improved by good use to our children and our children's children for all time to come, the people of this country deeply acknowledge their obligations to the All-Giver for the past and to unite in a common supplication for their continuance."

Progressive Fight Just Begun.

United States Senator Dixon, Chairman of the Progressive National Committee, has given out the following statement:

"The election returns show that more than 1,000,000 votes have cast under the banner of the Progressive party. They have enlisted for the war. Some of our most enthusiastic leaders had hoped that possibly this might have been 1,500,000. It is evidently 1,000,000. The result of the balloting makes the Progressive party the dominant opponent of the Democratic party, today the old Republican party becomes the third party in American politics."

Wilson & Marshal Presbyterians.

Washington, November 12.—For the first time within the memory of the oldest inhabitants of Washington the next President and Vice President may worship at the same church.

The church has been known as the "Church of the Presidents," by reason of the fact that at least half a dozen of the Chief Magistrates of the Nation have worshipped within its walls. The pew that was occupied by Abraham Lincoln is still preserved intact, and Gov. Marshall sat in it the last time he was in Washington.

WHISKERS BARRIER TO SWEETHEARTS

Pretty Girl Refuses to Marry Lover Until His Hirsute Is Reduced to a Goatee.

Pittsburg, Penn., November 12.—"I just couldn't stand for Raymond's whiskers," said pretty Melinda Brown, here, "but I love him so much. Oh, so much, and when he agreed to cut them off for me I felt every inch of my body keep just a little bit of the beard things on his chin. A goatee, Raymond called it."

With a naive shrug of her shoulders after speaking the pretty English girl turned to her big strong and handsome lover, Raymond Zeland, and holding out her hand said:

"My Raymond with a Goatee, yes, but no whiskers, never, never."

Raymond and Melinda were married here by Justice of the Peace Donald Curley, of West Pittsburg, after a stormy courtship. Two weeks ago Raymond seemed a license to wed Melinda, and they were about to take the initial step when the pretty little bride-to-be demanded that her fiancé be clean of his abundant crop of whiskers, which made his facial contour a matter of guess work.

Raymond demurred at the loss of his beloved hirsute adornment, but Melinda was firm and the wedding was off. Also whiskers, however, though they were of extraordinary texture and growth, could not beat cupid in his own game, and though the intention of kept friends and a little forebearance on the part of both, Raymond and Melinda then finally settled the question.

Shell Taken From Girl's Lungs.

Columbus, O., November 12.—Discovery of a factory unit shell in the lungs of Margie Ray, a ten-year-old girl, by means of an electric light bulb introduced into the girl's body was a surgical operation performed here. The child will recover.

Several days ago she developed what seemed to be a case of pneumonia. It was affecting the right lung and threatening serious complications. A bronchoscope, a long, hollow instrument calculated to pass down through the windpipe into the lungs, on the end of which is attached a tiny electric light bulb, was used.

Girl Betrayer Captured.

One day last week County Attorney C. E. Smith, at the instance of the unfortunate girl's mother, took up with the Chief of Police of Evansville, Ind., the arrest of Harry Hayes who has been charged by a county court warrant since last July of the crime of seducing under promises of marriage, Miss Lillian Gertrude Maddox of Rockport, Ky. The chief went right after Hayes and on Saturday reported to Sheriff T. H. Black that Hayes was in custody and would return to the scene of the crime without requisition papers. Sheriff Black made his arrangements to leave for Evansville Sunday but a few minutes before his departure received word that Hayes would not come without requisition.

NEW PARTY HERE TO STAY

Roosevelt Declares It Unparalleled In History.

New York, Nov. 11.—Theodore Roosevelt made a formal statement tonight bearing on the election, and the future of the Progressive party. In line with previous expressions of his own, and of his colleagues, he reiterates that "the Progressive party has come to stay," and "so far from being over, the battle has just begun."

Hunters Under Fire.

Frankfort, Ky., November 11.—Positive information has been obtained by Justice Chas. C. Brewer, of the National Fish and Game Commission, that 300,000 quail were shipped out of Kentucky during 1911.

He said that he has obtained evidence to secure 25 indictments against offenders. It was reported at the commission here that 9100 licenses have been taken out. At the next meeting of the commission it is likely an attorney will be employed to prosecute the violators of the fish and game laws, as the commission has evidence that in many instances the Court officials are the offenders.

Boll Weevil Great Menace to Cotton Crop.

Washington, November 12.—The cotton boll weevil, the greatest pest of the South, has caused a loss of $125,000,000—represented by 2,500,000 bales of cotton—since the weevil first invaded this country, according to an estimate of the Department of Agriculture issued here. The weevil crossed the Rio Grande into the United States 29 years ago.

Dances With Neck Broken.

New York, November 12.—"The music is too slow; tell the orchestra leader to hit it up a bit," said Winkler Miller, the New Rochelle youth whose neck was broken 18 months ago, as he led the grand march Saturday night at a ball given in his honor.

Socialist Leader Suicide.

Gleed, Kansas, Nov. 11.—"The struggle under the competitive system, isn't worth while, let it pass." This note was found tucked away inside a book on Socialism, which belonged to J. A. Wayland, away of the Appeal to Reason, who committed suicide in his home.

DISPLAY TO COST MANY THOUSAND

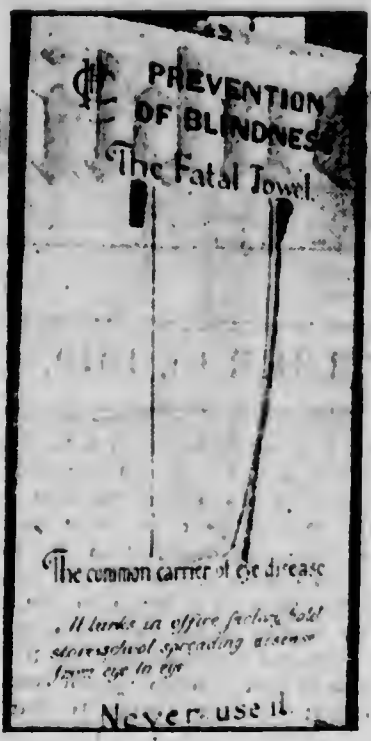

CHILD WELFARE EXHIBIT AND CONFERENCE AT LOUISVILLE NOVEMBER 21-30.

TO BE HELD IN BIG ARMORY

For the Redemption of the Young of the Present Generation and Future Generations Great Meeting Will be Held.

The Kentucky Child Welfare Conference and Exhibit, designed for the ultimate redemption of the children of Kentucky, even until the third and fourth generations, and primarily designed for the redemption of these children of the present generation, will be held in the commodious First Regiment Armory in Louisville, November 21-30. The exhibit proper will be in session ten days. The conference will be in session three days, November 25-27 and the conference will be held in the Warren Memorial Presbyterian Church, corner Fourth and Broadway, one of the most convenient meeting places in Louisville.

That the child is father to the man is the belief of those back of the Child Welfare Exhibit, and to give the child at least an even break for health, lib-used there were used in Chicago, and in addition $50,000 was expended. Their efforts were awarded by an attendance of 419,000. Exhibits have been held in Kansas City and Northampton, Mass., and are to be held in St. Louis and Montreal. Then Kentucky Child Welfare Exhibit has secured nearly $4,000 so far, but much more is needed. Donations may be sent to the Kentucky Child Welfare Exhibit at the Armory.

The Child Welfare Exhibit has been accorded the hearty co-operation of the Board of Health, Board of Tuberculosis Hospital, various charity organizations and the churches. Statistics have been looked up, information of technical character furnished, reports on local conditions in various branches have been submitted and tabulated after being verified. The various committees total 230 men and women. But, as is usually the case, where committees are appointed, a few active spirits do the work and the others come strong on the suggestion end. That the workers, the real workers, have been unremitting in their efforts is shown by the splendid results achieved.

CHILDREN TO ENTERTAIN

Choruses of school children, folk dancing and gymnastic exhibitions, kindergarten and folk-games, drills and athletic contests by the Boy Scouts, Y. M. C. A., Y. M. H. A., the Turners, and many other organizations, will take place in the Central Court every afternoon and evening except Sunday. Free moving pictures on Child Welfare will be given after-noon and evening.

On Friday evening and Saturday afternoon, November 22-23, the Historical Pageant given in Central Park in May, 1911, will be repeated.

The directors and managers of the Louisville Exhibit have been preparing for their great task since the National Child Labor Association held its annual convention in Louisville last January. The enthusiasm and inspiration aroused at that time has been productive of such excellent results that Dr. Strong unhesitatingly asserts that the Louisville Exhibit will be the most enjoyable and successful in the history of the entire movement. She has secured the services of 500 young Louisville girls who are studying their various parts and will devote their full time during the week of the exhibit to explaining the various exhibits and giving information and guidance to visitors.

GREAT SCHOOL CONVENTION.

In connection with the Kentucky Child Welfare Conference and Exhibit, two other notable conventions will be held in Louisville: the Child Welfare Conference proper will be held November 25th and the Exhibit will continue until November 30th. The Southern Educational Association will hold its annual convention at Louisville, beginning November 28th and continuing three days. It is expected that one thousand southern teachers will attend this convention. Mrs. Charles C. Weaver, of Louisville, has taken advantage of the Southern Educational Association and of the Child Welfare Conference, which will be in progress at that time, to call a convention of school improvement workers, the first ever held in the world.

WOMAN IS TO BE THE DIRECTOR

DR. ANNA LOUISE STRONG, EXPERIENCED WORKER, TO HAVE CHARGE OF EXHIBIT.

TO PORTRAY CONDITIONS

Many Deaths Among Kentucky Children Could be Prevented—This will be an Important Subject Before the Conference.

The scope of the Kentucky Child Welfare Conference and Exhibit at Louisville, November 21-30 is limited only by the conditions surrounding child life. Dr. Anna Louise Strong, a young woman in her early twenties, is the Director of the Exhibit. Dr. Strong is a Ph. D. from the University of Chicago and has directed the Child Welfare Exhibits in New York, Chicago, Kansas City and Montreal and is the most notable figure in America in this work. Under her supervision nearly $100,000 was spent in preparing for the New York exhibit. The great bulk of this money was spent in securing views and screens of child life in the school, in its home, whether in tenements or palaces, in settlement and educational movements, recreation grounds and industrial conditions, as well as to show its moral and religious life and to show the operation of phi-lathropic movements and the management of philanthropic homes. To this invaluable collection of screens was added about $50,000 worth of screens prepared for the Chicago Child Welfare Exhibit and subsequently valuable additions were made on account of the Kansas City and Montreal exhibits. All the screens used in the previous exhibits, as well as hundreds of views of Louisville and Kentucky conditions, will be shown at the Kentucky Exhibit and Conference this month.

The officers of the exhibit, who have given generously of their time, money and energy to further the enterprise for the sake of the Kentucky boy and girl, have endeavored to enlist the active co-operation of philanthropic workers throughout Kentucky, but owing to the newness of the venture have met without a great deal of success. However, they have secured reduced railroad rates into Louisville for the occasion and Mrs. Morris B. Belknap, president of the association and chief worker in preparing for the Louisville Exhibit, expresses the hope that every county and community in Kentucky will be largely represented.

Miss Adele Brandeis, a notable settlement worker of Louisville, is the assistant director of the Louisville exhibit.

Then Kentucky officers have compiled statistics showing that a large number of deaths among children can be prevented by proper feeding and care, as well as showing the startling fact that one child died for every four that are born.

In the health exhibit will be shown a milk station, babies' hospital room, dental clinic, pure food show, anti-tuberculosis exhibit and a model dairy. This exhibit will be under the supervision of the Kentucky State Board of Health, which is co-operating with the officers of the Kentucky Child Welfare Association to its fullest extent in an endeavor to exhibit the cause and prevention of feeble-mindedness and blindness. Numerous photographs and charts have been collected along this line.

The larger part now taken by the church in the child's weekday nurseries makes kindergarten real to him than it was to his grandfathers and grandmothers in their boyhood and girlhood days. Under this heading the institutional church will show what they are doing for the reclamation of the children, as well as for the reclamation of the young men and young women. There will be a model Sunday School room with classes going on at suited hours. The Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., the Y. M. H. A. and the Girls' Friendly Society will have photographs and charts showing how they are combining religious, physical and mental training.

Boys and girls learn more quickly when education is varied to meet their individual needs and capacities. One of the largest exhibits will be that of the Louisville public schools, composed of photographs, charts and class rooms, where the parents may see the children actively engaged in kindergarten and primary and other grade work, as well as domestic science, drawing, music, manual training, and other modern school room activities.

Photographs of schools in other cities, with charts giving facts as to cost, equipment and organization, will indicate some of the lines along which the Louisville schools hope to develop. A room will be devoted to an exhibit of the wider use of the School Plant, including Social Centers, School Gardens and Vacation Schools and Parent-Teachers' Associations.

The Kentucky School for the Blind will make an exhibit of its interesting and important work.

Play time can teach children how to pull together and to "toe fair." A model playground, fully equipped, will open to the children under the direction of regular supervisors. Photographs and charts showing what Louisville is furnishing the children in the way of recreation, can be seen here, also some of the future plans of the Board of Park Commissioners. Striking features of moving picture shows, dance halls, and other commercial amusements will form part of this section.

Country Life and Schools.

Kentucky farms, forests and streams are waiting for the boy and girl who is learning to use them. The child in the country needs as fine a school as the child in the city. Conditions that affect child life in the country are distinguished from the city will be made clear. The valuable lessons country boys and girls are learning from the corn and tomato plants will be shown and rural schools and housing conditions explained by photographs and models.

This exhibit will be the first of its kind ever made in a Child Welfare Exhibit.

The Child and the Law.

The laws to protect, not to oppress, the child. This section will show the work and the needs of institutions established by law for the care of neglected, dependent and delinquent children. It will also present the laws now existing for the protection of children, with suggestions for further legislation.

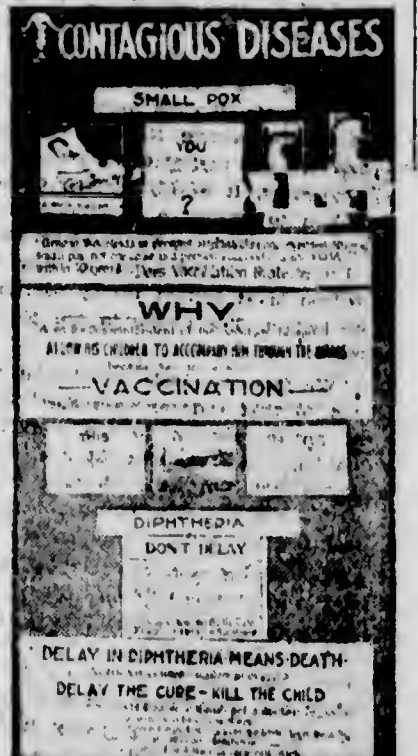

Industrial Conditions.

The wages in a family and the kind of work done decide largely the child's manner of life.

Figures and charts will give the wages of men and women, the accidents to industrial workers, the cost of living, and the result of these wages and accidents upon the child's life. Pictures and stories will show the harm done a child by selling papers, delivering messages and working in doors.

Homes.

The ideal place for the child should be his own home. This section will be one of the most attractive of the whole exhibit. Here will be shown a three-room apartment furnished for a hundred dollars, a model playground with toys that are playable and durable and games and home occupations for children, practical outfits of children's clothes made of materials that will wear well. A display of wholesome food will be on view. Features of good and bad housing conditions in Louisville will form a striking feature of this section.

Philanthropy.

A dependent child is one who by poverty, the illness or death of parents, or bad home surroundings is deprived of a fair chance in life. Philanthropy consists largely in caring for this child. Striking drawings, photographs and statements will show how the child is cared for in its own home, placed in the home or cared for in an institution. This section will also touch on the work with deaf and dumb and crippled children and those unfortunate in other ways.

WHY PURE BREEDS ARE BEST

Well Kept Flock of Thoroughbreds Costs No More to Feed and House Than the Mongrels.

(By Mrs. H. F. GRINSTEAD.)

The person who raises chickens, turkeys, ducks or any other fowl naturally feels a greater pride and interest in thoroughbred stock and, therefore, gives the flock better care than would be given to mongrels.

Plymouth Rocks are First

More Marketable Than White-Feathered Chickens, Says Prof. Lippincott of Kansas.

The most marketable breed of chickens is the Barred Plymouth Rock. This decision, handed down a few days ago by W. A. Lippincott, professor of poultry husbandry at the Kansas Agricultural college, answers a question which long has been discussed.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 15.

We can all be thankful that it is no worse.

The election returns have not changed the Ohio county of interest, anyway.

Their running mate you hear is only the trump of the Democratic brigade.

To call an extra session, or not to call one, that is the question which is worrying President-elect Wilson.

Kentucky Democracy is in the midst of a period of good sized proportions. It is claimed that some one unimpaired with the State convention resolutions at Baltimore.

If Wilson is too reactionary, there stands Bryan. If he is too liberal, Wood Street and the Eastern Democracy will get him.

Before the election the Republicans ordered all supporters of Roosevelt off the committees. Now they are inviting us back to be governed by the same old gang, in the same old way.

Our deepest sympathies are extended to the Democratic "ph" brigade. They seem to be the victims of a Republican trick.

The principles of the Progressive party are as different from those of the Republican party as the Democratic party.

Will the Progressive party stay? Why not. It is no longer a third party. It stands for principles which neither of the old parties dare espouse.

Our Democratic friends are greatly exercised over what to do with "Billy" Bryan. He has been suggested for most all the cabinet places.

The best statement on Tuesday's election is that of vice presidential candidate, Albert Johnson, who says: "The historic and momentous victory was won by the Progressive Party."

In Americanism that means ultimately real progress; a new life in politics that makes a better national existence.

NOTHING TO CROW OVER.

The Owensboro Messenger after looking over the returns from the recent election, says, and adding that Gov. Wilson really ran behind the race Bryan made four years ago talks out in meeting as follows: "Now, honestly, what have we in Kentucky to boast about?"

The War Correspondent Passes.

The day of the war correspondent is drawing to a close. With every succeeding war the reading public has an opportunity to note the increasing brevity of the actual news coming from the front.

The development of modern sources of communication is the reason for the plight of the war correspondent. With telegraphic, wireless and telephonic spread news everywhere advance information as to the movement of troops could be sent to the general's capital and transmitted back to the field before the movement could be executed or even begun.

The obligation to help the man who is down and out is one of the most sacred. In the first place you can never know when you might be in the same fix yourself, and in need of assistance.

Help The Man That's Down.

If those men had helped each other over rough places since the world began, civilization and Christianity would be much further advanced than it is today.

RECEIVES AN ODD BEQUEST

From a Wealthy Citizen of Evansville.

$1,000 Put in Trust, Which the Figures Show Will Grow by Leaps and Bounds.

Evansville, Ind., November 12.—Abolph Melzer, wealthy retired soap manufacturer and leader in movements for prevention of cruelty to dumb animals, has presented the city of Evansville a significant deposit of $1,000.

Mr. Melzer put the money in the City National bank and secured from the bank's officers an agreement whereby they will keep the fund on a 4 per cent compound interest for 25 years, at the end of which it will amount to $1,905.10.

The gift is unique in several respects. It is the first endowment of the kind in the history of American municipalities.

"The city has a bonded indebtedness and must continue to issue bonds in order to make necessary improvements. I have every faith that we will be a compact, progressive nation two and a half centuries hence and that the citizens then will have much the same financial troubles in municipalities that we have here today.

The $1,000 on deposit will grow slowly for 25 years and then it will expand by almost miraculous dimensions. The interest table upon which the amount of the compound principal and interest is figured was supplied by C. L. Delbridge of St. Louis, Mo. He is the publisher of the interest tables used in the United States government and the national banks.

Table showing interest growth over 25 years: 25 years.....$ 2,891.56; 50 years..... 7,214.67; 75 years..... 19,489.47; 100 years..... 52,464.45; 125 years..... 141,266.55.

Official Vote of Ohio County at Recent Election.

Table with columns for Precincts, Wilson, Taft, Prohibition, Debs., Socialist Labor, Roosevelt, Johnson, Thompson, Logan, Bassett. Lists precincts like East Hartford, West Hartford, Beda, etc.

150 years..... 389,231.61; 175 years..... 1,024,425.99; 200 years..... 2,754,611.11; 225 years..... 7,414,339.03; 250 years..... 19,954,460.11.

The total taxable property in the city as shown by the treasurer's books is now $3,000,000. Thus in 25 years Mr. Melzer's $1,000 gift will grow to equal a sum equivalent to one-half the property in Evansville at the present time.

Can the Republican Party be Resurrected?

What will become of the Republican party? The question is on the lips of every man you meet. There is more interest in the fate of the G. O. P. than there seems to be in the probable course of the new administration.

Let us attempt an answer to that question by asking another: Why should the Republican party be resurrected? There is nothing worth preserving in Republicanism that is not represented better by the Progressive party.

Let us ask another question: Who will resurrect the Republican party? The party is owned, body and soul, by the National Committee that betrayed the people and stole a nomination for President Taft.

INSPECTION PROOF

EVERY single shoe that goes through the great "Queen Quality" factory must pass through the hands of no fewer than six different inspectors.

E. P. BARNES & BROTHER, Beaver Dam, Kentucky.

There remains nothing but the empty shell of a name, a name devoid of all its old lure of power in patronage and promise of privilege.

Those who think the Progressives, numbering nearly four and a half millions, will desert their flag and return to the fold, have not reckoned on the fact that victory who went into a flight, leaving their old party affiliation for a cause when that cause had nothing but the prospect of hard battle before it, are not likely to desert when an astounding victory has been won.

A few odd facts and figures will help in the persuasion of the calculating type of politicians. When they reckon up the States in which Roosevelt ran either first or second, and those in which Taft ran ahead of him, they will find that three States have been represented in the Republican convention as they voted at the election, Roosevelt would have had 61 delegates to 54 for the President, giving him a majority of 250.

There is an evident casting about for new leaders on the part of those who entertain the hope of rehabilitating the G. O. P. This is proof that the utter hopelessness of getting anywhere, under present leadership is recognized.

Senator La Follette is spoken of as a man who might undertake the heroic task of reconstruction; but the help of the Wisconsin radical co-operating with the old organization administrations on such a job is too absurd for serious consideration.

And much the same process of reasoning applies to Senator Cummins, unquestionably the strongest man left in the Republican ranks. He retained his party allegiance, eventually, a public enemy repudiating his stake. Senator Cummins cannot affiliate with the standard-bearers. His only logical place is in the new party.

Death of Mrs. C. B. E. Felix.

Clinton, Ky., Nov. 13.—Late on the evening of Sunday November 10th at her beautiful home near Clinton the beloved messenger of death appeared unto Mrs. Nannie Felix, wife of C. B. E. Felix, she expired peacefully into that dreamland sleep, untroubled physically to that great beyond, without any sign of inward distress at her passing, her noble spirit joining the happy throng of those immortal dead who live again in minds made better by their presence.

Mrs. Felix professed faith in Christ at the Clinton Baptist church quite a long while ago and left unexpressed evidence of a glorious hope in Him.

Mrs. Felix leaves four daughters, Mrs. Brandon Carden, Irvington, Ky.; Mrs. A. J. Wilson, Fordsville; Mrs. Jim L. Hoover, Fordsville, Ky.; and Mrs. Sammie Davidson, Harrods Ferry, Ky., and a son, Ernest Young, a former son, who had made his home with them since his early childhood, to mourn her death, besides her husband, Mr. Ulrich Felix and the Walker which includes her parents and other relatives in that family whose names and residences she writes was unable to learn.

Mrs. Felix was about 62 years old and her soul's flight from earth to that celestial home has cast a gloom of sadness over Clinton and surrounding country; a broken home and a multitude of sorrowing friends, but while anguish is sad without tears, its brightest jewels, Heaven is made to rejoice because of their presence and we are led to believe like God intended we should, our own departure we would herald for their Heaven is dearer, its goal secure, its portals yet unsealed.

FOREIGN MISSIONS; MORE ABOUT THEM

Pithy Discourse on Missions From the Bible Standpoint.

Pastor Russell Claims Report of the International Bible Students' Association Committee of Which He Was Chairman Was Too Mild Rather Than Too Severe—Committee Unanimously Stand by the Report and Challenge Criticism—The Committee's Full Report is Now Offered Free to All.

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 10.—Pastor Russell as usual here had large audiences. We report one of his interesting discourses on the Bible subject of Foreign Missions which is stirring Christendom. His text was, "This Gospel of the Kingdom shall be preached in all the world, for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the End come." (Matt. xxiv, 14.) He said:—

A year ago the International Bible Students Association sent a Committee of Seven to investigate missionary prospects in foreign lands—especially in South India, where it is making special effort. I was one of that Committee, otherwise composed of four successful business men, one doctor, and General Hall, of the U. S. A. The Committee made its report to one of the largest Christian gatherings ever held in New York City—in the Hippodrome—on March 31st. Its Report, published in pamphlet form, reached a wide circulation amongst Christian people. I am authorized to offer free, until the supply is exhausted, one copy each to all interested in Foreign Missions. Send postcards addressed to "L. B. S. A., Brooklyn, N. Y.," requesting a copy of the Missionary Report. The Committee, in preparing this Report, laid bare the facts as gently and kindly as possible.

Their Report, which many Christian people gratefully acknowledged, has irritated a few persons. These evidently feared that we have discredited their fairy tales respecting the immediate conversion of the world by human instrumentality and more millions of money. We sympathize with these enthusiasts, who seem to shut their eyes to facts, while hoping against hope to maintain exploded theories. One of these, Mr. W. T. Mills, alias the "Religious Rambler," attacks our Report. Falsely he declares that we journeyed on the same vessel from San Francisco to Shanghai, giving the impression that we merely raced through the country, did not visit all the mission stations, nor talk with all the missionaries.

Our Report tells the facts. The Committee of Seven scattered, and spent six days in Japan, or a total of forty-two days of investigation. Our twenty-three days spent in India would be the equivalent of nearly six months' investigation by one person. We visited and interrogated the people, saw their conditions, attended meetings, etc.

As for myself, this critic charges in one breath that I did not preach the sermons which appeared in the newspapers of the world; and in the next breath that I spent all of my time in preaching, and therefore had not time for investigation. A discerning public can read between the lines of such criticism, what the Bible symbolically describes as "gnashing of teeth." Our Committee took the only proper course for ascertaining the facts. Every missionary and every other person visiting foreign lands within five years, will concede that our Report is very truthful, kind and sympathetic.

Postmillennial Theories Versus Premillennial.

Foreign Mission work taught by the Scriptures generally is wholly different from that which has been attempted during the past century, under the Postmillennial theory—that the Church is to conquer the world for Christ and to bring about a thousand years' reign of righteousness, after which Christ's Second Advent will come, and those blessed conditions obliterated by the burning up of the world. This theory set forth in nearly all of our creeds, is supplemented by the theory that all dying in ignorance of Christ and outside of saintship, are passing to an eternity of torture.

This frenzied view, misnamed Gospel, has been presented to the heathen with little appreciable effect, just as in civilized lands. The whole theory is wrong. What the whole world needs is the True Bible Message, stripped of all the ignorance of the Dark Ages.

The Bible teaches the Premillennial Coming of Christ—that the "Second Coming of Jesus must take place before His Kingdom is established in power and great glory and Satan bound. The dead will come forth. The rising Sun of Righteousness will cause the knowledge of God to fill the earth, dissolving the mists of bigotry and superstition and helping humanity back to perfection.

The text declares the preaching of the Gospel in this Age to be, not for the conversion of the world, but for a witness, to call in Belief Class from amongst mankind to be the Seed of Abraham. (Galatians

PRESIDENT CHARLES C. MOORE OF THE PANAMA-PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION PRESENTING DEED TO JAPAN'S SITE TO COMMISSIONER GENERAL HARUKI YAMAWAKI.

HIS Imperial Japanese Majesty's Commissioners to the Panama-Pacific International Exposition dedicated Japan's site in the Presidio Reservation on Wednesday, Sept. 18, in the presence of more than 10,000 people. The ceremonies were highly impressive and were deeply appreciated by the representatives of the Japanese Government Commissioners, Haruki Yamawaki, Gochi Takeda and Yashikatsu Katayama. The deed to the site was presented by President Charles C. Moore to Commissioner General Yamawaki, who accepted it in behalf of the Japanese government.

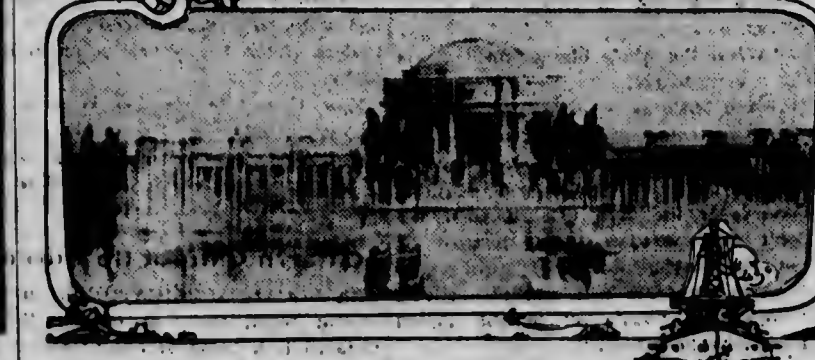

SITE SELECTING CEREMONIES OF HIS IMPERIAL JAPANESE MAJESTY'S COMMISSION TO THE PANAMA-PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION.

JAPAN was first of the foreign nations to select a site at America's great Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco in 1915. The extensive area which has been dedicated to the Japanese government display, five acres, will permit the adornment of the grounds surrounding the Palace of Exhibits with wonderful Japanese trees and shrubs, presenting the landscape effects that in Japan have attracted the attention of tourists and nature lovers from all parts of the world. The Palace of Exhibits will cover an acre of ground in the center of this Japanese garden. The Japanese government will spend $1,000,000.

NICHE IN THE COURT OF THE FOUR SEASONS, PANAMA-PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION.

EACH of the four corners of the Court of Four Seasons will be adorned with groups of statuary symbolical of the seasons—Spring, Summer, Autumn and Winter. The sculpture will be set in niches screened by colonnades and mural paintings; also suggestive of the seasons, will form the background for the setting. The Court of Four Seasons will be 340 feet square. Mr. Jules Guerin, the noted artist, has charge of the color plan, and the designer of the court is Mr. Henry Bacon of New York.

FINE ARTS PALACE, PANAMA-PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION.

THE Fine Arts Palace will be one of the most beautiful structures in its architecture as well as in its location at the Panama-Pacific Exposition. The building, 600 feet in length from north to south, will be semicircular in form and will have as its central motive a low dome arising from a unique base. Forming the foreground will be a great lagoon surrounded on three sides by a sunken garden, which will be designed in romantic Italian architecture. Here will be assembled the notable paintings of history.

Young Women

Read what Cardui did for Miss Myria Engler, of Fairbault, Minn. She says: "Let me tell you how much good Cardui has done me. As a young girl, I always had to suffer so much with all kind of pain. Sometimes, I was so weak that I could hardly stand on my feet. I got a bottle of Cardui, at the drug store, and as soon as I had taken a few doses, I began to feel better. Today, I feel as well as anyone can."

BIG SAVING IN EGG RAISING PLANNED

Plan Would Save $75,000,000 Annually.

Kill Roosters At the End Of Breeding Season Is Advice.

Washington, Nov. 11.—Secretary Wilson of the Department of Agriculture has discovered a method that will save $75,000,000 annually in preparing eggs for market and $6,000,000 a year in the manner of raising eggs for sale.

Experiments have been conducted at the department's headquarters for the past several months and the new scheme has met with popular approval in various sections of the country where poultry raising is conducted on a large scale.

Secretary Wilson, who is regarded as one of the best authorities in the country on matters relating to the raising of farm products, because he is a farmer himself, has introduced the scope of his new idea and inaugurated a separate department of poultry raising in the Department of Agriculture.

Mr. Lammie, who is a New Yorker, has come to the conclusion, after years of study and experiment, that there is a loss of $100,000,000 annually in the loss of eggs in the manner in which the eggs are currently raised.

It is a pleasure to tell you that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best cough medicine I have ever used.

The beautiful babies are not all in the side shows. A marriage certificate is a diploma from the school of experience.

Mr. Lammie states that the scientific study of egg production shows that the fertile eggs degenerate very rapidly, whereas the non-fertile egg will keep from three to five weeks without refrigeration.

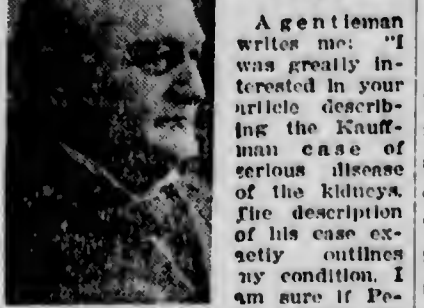

Mr. Lammie is in charge of the Department of Agriculture's program for preparing the general public regarding such important subjects as "Kill the Rooster," "Help Save $75,000,000 a Year by Killing the Rooster," a detailed statement accompanying the plan explaining the reason there bills are also being prepared for the congressional district.

Mr. Lammie also intends to further instruct the farmers and poultry dealers as to the plan by making personal appeals to them from time to time when making trips about the country.

Not only is it a big industry that will be raised by the plan but it will also be a big saving.

A Sick Man

Writes Dr. Hartman About Kidney Disease.

S. B. Hartman, M. D.

A gentleman writes me: "I was greatly interested in your article describing the Kautman case of serious disease of the kidneys. The description of his case exactly outlines my condition."

I would cure me also. I am losing flesh rapidly and the doctors say I have every symptom of Bright's disease of the kidneys. If you think I would be benefited by Peruna I will certainly try some as the doctors have practically given me up, the same as they did him.

If I find that the Peruna is not helping you I will be perfectly frank and tell you so, for I would not have you take Peruna unless it was really helping you.

Kidney disease begins with catarrh of the kidneys. Peruna is a cathartic remedy. Unless the destruction of the kidneys is already too great Peruna relieves the catarrh and the cause of the kidney disease is removed.

I shall anxiously await a report of your case. Remember, all letters are sacredly confidential. I never use any name or address without his written consent.

Up by the large poultry raisers, but it is to be expected that small poultry and chicken raisers can be started near the large where specialties and small flocks are raised and are interested and encouraged by the commission merchants and others in the business in the cities for a daily supply.

What a different world this would be if all of us always wear our coats inside out! A few weeks ago I was on a high mountain, and there were clouds below, bright and shining.

A man can call a woman all his name he wants to and he won't make her half as mad as if he refused to argue with her.

A girl who will elope a fiance when a man is watching her can usually exhibit two good reasons for her action.

A man's idea of nothing to do is to play poker with his wife with angels as chips.

From these comes the world that the sheets are next summer will be even more desolate. Well, they'll have to make them out of hyacinth leaf netting.

A woman never knows the value of her husband until she sees a national company for killing him.

The boy's appetite is often the source of temptation. If you would have such an appetite take Chamberlain's Tablets. They not only create a healthy appetite but strengthen the stomach and enable it to do its work naturally.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Moitooes.

When I was young, enough to want to be older, a dear old lady once gave me the following mottoes which she said would enable me to meet every crisis in life.

"This, too, will pass away," and "Every-thing comes to him who waits." The first enabled her to endure hardships and adversity, and assuredly life had brought a full measure of both to her.

"Or like the book stores and the news stands and the art shops have recognized humanity's need for helpful sayings. Everywhere one may find hundreds of mottoes, especially printed quantities in brief, often suitable phrases—all calculated to help men and women realize that the troubles that beset them are all but a momentary tribulation, and that the world is a great and lovely place, where everyone may live a helpful life and then pass on to a better existence.

Birthdays and Christmases are the specially appropriate times for sending these chunks of cheer to friends, but they are always welcome, they brighten the walls of homes, helpful reminders of the fact that all the time we are in the thoughts of our friends, and that for us life would be full of constructive philosophy.

"I find earth not gray, but rosy; Heaven not grim, but fair to me. Do I sleep? I think I passy. Do I stand and stare? All's blue!"

Some enterprising Chicago firm took his words from their white page and printed them with a beautiful border of poet's metaphors, and thus they became my motto. And many a time since this motto has been wise I say it daily, gray thoughts have passed from me with the reading of it; for me, too, the earth is rosy and blossoming, heaven is fair, and "all's blue."

"The strange side of every cloud is bright and shining; I rise far from my clouds about. And always wear them inside out. To show the lining."

What a different world this would be if all of us always wear our coats inside out! A few weeks ago I was on a high mountain, and there were clouds below, bright and shining.

A tiny little magazine in a rough brown paper covering has a nobility of putting the best of its good things on the back, as editor as a noted maker of epigrams. Making many, he is not always at his best. An epigram, to be effective, must always seem spontaneous, however much care and labor have attended its preparation. Otherwise one is sometimes so conscious of the labor that he fails to be impressed with the thought.

From Robert Browning is the lonely phrase of him who wrote the following is a fair cry, no doubt. The first that illuminated "All's blue" did a "lot of folks a service, else many who have enjoyed the card would never have known the little poem. But a great many people who read much are afraid to attempt Browning. So the man who printed these homely lines on a neat card in letters of white was a benefactor, too; and the man who wrote them, while not in Browning's class, has an appeal for me and for you, who perhaps are not in Browning's class either.

"When the whole blame world seems gone to pot, And business is on the lull, A two-cent girl and a little child, 'Helps some, my boy, helps some.' There are critics who will deny to this writer the high title of poet. We don't care whether he is a poet or not. He has 'helped some.' How many farmers there are who ought substitute "crops" for "business" in the second line and take a breath!

Maybe you do not like to have your walls "chattered up" with cheap carrels to have them at the right height it is necessary to use sticks, and ticks are wads. These are only a few that are on my wattle. I am interested to see the number of visitors who find them pleasing. They help, but to be the most helpful they must be placed where they can be most often seen—where their messages become a daily reminder of a life's aim and a life's worth. Don't put them in the parlor, if you have a parlor. I won't imagine a more useless room, and it is a place every wise man shuns. Place your mottoes where you can see them when you wake up and when you work. They will beautify the walls, and they will help you to live.

Our Confession of Faith.

The Republican is indebted to Mr. W. H. Lorton, City, for the following which was clipped from a newspaper. It is as follows:

We have received the following letter: Dear Sir:— Will you please outline your political policy for your multitude of readers? What party do you belong to? Sincerely yours,

CONSTANT READERS.

Probably, "The party we belong to is a small party with dark hair and blue eyes, white, 122 pounds; height, five feet two inches; age, twenty-seven and then some. We have belonged to this party for several years and have no idea of changing."

We are Episcopalian in belief, but we do not allow this to interfere with our better judgment in the selection of a candidate. We always vote for the best man and for all we care may be an Abolition, a Home-Path, an Osteopath, or a Chiropractor.

We are not a man is wrong politically just because he disagrees with us. We know he is. We believe that in this country, one man is just as good as another, if not in some cases, a little better.

We are irrevocably against the cost of living as it is at present. We believe that where it is so high it should be lowered and where it is too low it should be higher.

We favor a four-day working day. We believe that all bookkeepers should be married. If they are all like the ones we know it would serve them jolly well right.

We believe in father, but not so much as we did when we were younger and were taking more notice. We believe that every member of every family should have his own tooth brush. We have argued this for years.

We are unconditionally in favor of the light skirt, the horseless carriage, the diving right of blues as against ducks or frogs, the four-cent toilet for poorer classes, the straw hat for horses and vegetation as a preventative of over-organized eggs, spinach, rhubarb, or gar.

We are unconditionally opposed to the phonograph, the night-crawling motorcycle, moving picture parlors, spruce stuns, faded hats that drip in the south, the Betty cocktail, girls' skirts and petticoats.

We hope we have made the matter perfectly plain for once and all.

Turn on The Light. The change is boldly made by the Elizabethtown News that the records of the Democratic State convention in Louisville last year were destroyed with after the adjournment of the convention and made to read as giving certain insinuations to the Kentucky delegation at Baltimore which, as a matter of fact, were not voted at that State convention.

Humors in the same effect and also that Mr. Phillips, the secretary of the convention, has documentary proof of these charges. Have they about for some time. If there humors are not founded upon fact, they should be disproved. If they are true the Democrats of Kentucky should be informed as to the circumstances under which the records of their proceedings were altered.

Pro-seedings such as these as to the fountain head of representative government. There were not unnumbered and were, in fact, drowned by the head leaders of the Democratic party in Kentucky.

Now that this election is over this matter should be thoroughly investigated. The Democratic party should inaugurate no such transient device—Browning Post.

"Oh, do look!" shrieked one woman; "she is wearing those new long Russian purple kid boots."

"And purple silk," gasped her friend. And both women turned their heads.
