Taylor Farrer

Breeding Swine and Open Barrows

Taylor Farrer of Royal Center, Ind., graduated from Purdue University with a B. S. in Ag Econ. While at Purdue, he was a member of the livestock judging team. Farrer has judged in 22 states with a variety of species. He currently helps his family operate Farrer Stock Farms where they raise show cattle and show pigs. They also run a boar stud consisting of 10 boars. They have an annual show pig sale in the spring and a show calf and bred cow sale in the fall which is going on its 50th year. Farrer's wife Kristen and kids, Scarlett and Stetson, help out on the family farm.

Thomas Crome

MN Junior Barrow Classic

Thomas Crome of Marshall, Ill. is a graduate of Lincoln Land Community College and Iowa State University. During his undergrad years, Crome was a contributing member of the livestock judging team at both institutions. After receiving his bachelors degree, Crome attended Texas Tech University and completed his Masters degree in Swine Nutrition and Physiology. His research focused on fiber and enzymes in gestating sows. Crome will be returning back to Iowa State University in the fall and will be working towards his PhD in Swine Nutrition and Physiology. His family is currently in partnership with the Rothemel family where they own and operate Jackpot Genetics. Jackpot Genetics is a 20 head sow herd consisting of Spots, Yorkshires, and Crossbreds located in Winterset, Iowa and Marshall, Ill.

Lexi Marek Beeler

MN Junior Barrow Classic Showmansip

Lexi Marek Beeler of St. Louis, Mo. grew up on her family's 6th-generation diversified livestock and grain farm in Riverside, Iowa. Beeler started showing pigs at a young age and she and her three sisters competed at a high level at local, state, and national shows. It was because of pigs that she found her passion for the agriculture industry. Beeler is a graduate of Iowa State University and is skilled in marketing and communications. Her professional background includes roles at a start-up business, a state government agency, and a for-profit corporation. In spring 2023, she became a full-time entrepreneur and launched LMB Consulting. As a marketing consultant, Beeler creates digital and event experiences, specifically tailored to agricultural companies. She currently resides in St. Louis, Missouri, with her husband, Charlie. She still finds herself involved in livestock shows today, either raising pigs with her family's business, Marek Land and Livestock, or working with youth.
