Fine & Rare Wines & Spirits

featuring Ian Mill KC Part III & The Six Pillars of Macallan

The September sale is always one of my favorites. The book is so hefty I've taken to calling it "the September Issue," with a hat tip to Ms. Wintour, of course. The reference is a propos I think, because this catalog is filled with fashionable wines—and I don't mean trends, I mean classics.

Think Ralph Lauren or Diane von Furstenberg.

There's not a single misstep in this book—I hesitate to call a two-day, $10m auction "curated," but that's exactly what this is!

From Burgundy alone we have 4,581 bottles, magnums, jeroboams and methuselahs for sale.

Highlights? We've got a few.

A jeroboam of 2002 Romanée-Conti (lot 586). A methuselah of 1990 La Tâche (lot 319). A swath of Romanée-Conti three packs from 2009, 2016, 2017 and 2019. A jeroboam of 1990 DRC Montrachet (lot 435). A three-pack of 2009 Roumier Musigny (lot 382).

Outside of Burgundy highlights include 1961 La Mission Haut-Brion (lot 265). A full case of 1989 Haut-Brion (lot 220). A double magnum of 1959 Lafite (lot 1182).

There's Screaming Eagle, 1991 Cuvée Cathelin, 2005 Le Pin in d-mag, 1978 Rayas, 1976 Salon, 1934 Ygay, 1978 Monte Bello in 5L, 1989 Haut-Brion blanc magnums, Clos Rougeard, Clos Sainte Hune, 1968 Mastroberardino, and just about everything in between.

The top lot isn't wine at all, but the Macallan: the Six Pillars Collection (lot 1118). The Macallan 50, 55, 57, 60, 62 and 65, all in Lalique decanters and in their original packaging, too. For the Scotch collector there simply is no loftier grail.

We are thrilled as well to be back at Le Bernardin Privé for this auction on September 21 and 22, starting both days at 10am. Please be sure to RSVP to auction@zachys.com to reserve your seat. Can't wait to see you there.

And if this auction is any indication, the market remains on a tear. Please get those lists in to consignments@zachys.com to be part of this auction season!

Best,
Charles Antin

CELLAR OF

(LOTS 1-87)

As we grizzled auction veterans say, “each cellar tells a story.” Much like certain wines resemble their makers, the make-up of a cave can be a narrative describing the collector behind it. The adage certainly holds true in this case, as our consignor is one of the world’s most elegant, interesting, accomplished and generous people, and his cellar more than matches his personality in every regard. From Napa to Champagne, this listing demonstrates both the breadth and depth of the consignor’s interests and access. The heart of both the man and the consignment lies in Burgundy. From DRC-including a solid case of the ageless 2019 Romanée-Conti to Coche, there isn’t a blue-chip producer missing. Every lot is “not to be missed” including a mag of the legendary 2000 Ramonet Montarchet, Bèze and Chambertin from Rousseau, a mixed case of Salon and more. He deeply loves wines from Italy and while he’s rightfully keeping most of his beloved Barolo and Barbaresco, a few bottles of rare ‘78 Roagna managed to find their way into our sale.

This cellar was built bottle by bottle with the most expert advice as our consignor is lucky to count a few esteemed critics as his close personal friends. He travels widely and drinks in circles across the world, at home in Hong Kong and the US in equal measure. We’ve been lucky beneficiaries of his generosity over the years and have shared more DRC and Jayer and Rousseau together than is polite to mention. All of the wines have been sourced from reputable and respected retailers and stored in a professional cellar under constant temperature and humidity control. This is just a bit of cellar pruning as he makes room for exciting new wines. Bid with confidence!

BURGUNDY

ARMAND ROUSSEAU

One will get little argument to the assertion that Domaine Armand Rousseau is the finest estate in Gevrey-Chambertin...

The vintages of the 1980s and 1990s at Domaine Rousseau have produced one of the greatest runs of profound Burgundy ever witnessed by any estate in the region, with the domaine producing legendary efforts in the widely recognized great years of the span from 1985 to 1999. Their two flagship bottlings of Chambertin and Chambertin "Clos de Bèze" have always ranked amongst the top dozen wines to be found in these vintages.

Of the two Grand Crus at the pinnacle of the brilliant portfolio of Rousseau wines, the Chambertin "Clos de Bèze" tends to be the more exotic and spicy of the two wines, with glorious fruit tones of black cherry, plum, blood orange often augmented by notes of Gevrey's grilled meat, chocolate and exotic spices. The Chambertin is typically the slightly slower wine to unfold, with a more understated profile of plum, red cherry and strawberry, coupled with notes of cocoa powder, coffee, grilled meats and violets...impeccably balanced, tangy and never come across as over-oaked. They are amongst the very greatest red wines to be found in the world.

DOMAINE DE LA ROMANÉE-CONTI

The domaine is known for picking very late, sometimes, as in 1978, later than any other producers. They prune endlessly, make many passes through the vineyards at harvest and sort grapes rigorously both in the vineyard and at the winery. Average age of the vines is around thirty-five to forty-five years with yields typically around thirty hl/ha. The wines are aged in new French oak casks for approximately twenty months. There is usually only one racking and since 1985 the wines from all casks in each cru have been blended together prior to bottling to reduce bottle variation. Recently they have been moving towards biodynamic viticultural practices. Like many of the region's leading growers they have seen concrete evidence of soil and vine health improvement. It's hard to imagine that these wines could get better, but that is what separates them from the rest of the pack: an unrelenting pursuit for perfection in the Pinot Noir grape. In addition to the majestic reds, a white is also produced from a plot in Montrachet.

DOMAINE DUJAC

This domaine was founded in 1968 by Jacques Seysses and currently comprises approximately fifteen hectares. Winemakers Jeremy and Diana Seysses have been at the helm of the Domaine since 2001. They believe that the success of their wines lie in the team effort at the Domaine from their Chef de Culture in the vineyard, Lilian Robin, to Jeremy's brother, Alec, and father, Jacques, who contribute in the cellar. In 2009, the Domaine began its conversion to total biodynamic farming practices. The Domaine chooses to emphasize intensity over power and prides itself on producing individualistic wines that are elegant, delicate, and complex.

Pure silk on the palate but with its uncanny thickness of texture leavened by energy. This wonderfully tactile, savory wine saturates every square millimeter of the palate and finishes with powerful medicinal reserve and incredible building length. And yet there's no impression of weightiness here. This could be enjoyed right now with the right piece of meat, but I'd rather lay it down for eight or ten years...97." VM 1/18.

Incredibly full but youthfully imploded, with racy acidity accentuating the wine's perfume. Comes across as cooler than the Clos de Bèze, as Chambertin normally is, saturating the entire palate without leaving any impression of weight. Finishes firmly tannic and a bit austere, with a captivating wildness. Sure to be a long-distance runner, this wine offers great potential...95-98." VM 1/17.

SPAIN

VEGA SICILIA

Vega Sicilia, often called "the Lafite of Spain" for its elegance, is among the oldest extant wineries in Spain and remains among its most celebrated. Toribio Lecanda purchased 2,000 acres of farmland from the Marquis de Valbuena in 1848, but it was not until 1864 that his son, Eloy, began to convert it to viticulture by planting Cabernet Sauvignon, Malbec and Pinot Noir. Originally, he made brandy, and even before it was a winery Vega Sicilia was appointed to be the brandy supplier to the royal family of Spain. Vega Sicilia Único ("unique") and Valbuena both date from 1915, when the vineyards had recovered sufficiently from phylloxera to permit great wine to be made. Único, made only in outstanding years, is typically mostly Tempranillo, with the balance Cabernet Sauvignon, Malbec and Merlot. It spends at least seven years in barrel, and at least three in bottle, before release, and in some vintages, it is aged for astonishingly long periods before it reaches the market. The 1970, for example, was not released until 1995, and magnums did not follow until 2000!

The wine lives up to its designation as "unique." It is intensely fragrant, complex on the palate but also extremely concentrated, with very high acidity to balance the richness. Occasionally, the winery will release a small quantity of wine designated "Reserva Especial," a blend of two or three Únicos; these bottlings are generally considered to be of the same high quality as the single vintage releases.

SCREAMING EAGLE'S BROAD WINGSPAN

It's rare. It's expensive. And there's a mystique about it. But Screaming Eagle Cabernet Sauvignon is no pretender. It's the real thing, and it deserves to be considered among Napa Valley's prestige wines...

You can't make wine this magnificent without fabulous grapes, and Screaming Eagle clearly comes from a spectacular vineyard...on the east side of Oakville, near the Oakville Crossroad...While ripening Cabernet (and smaller amounts of Merlot and Cabernet Franc) is routinely easy in this area, one of the trademarks of Oakville Cabernet is that the wines often display an herbal quality that manifests itself in a variety of subtleties, including hints of anise, sage, dusty berry, cedar and occasionally a whiff of new leather and tar. You find these shades of herb in Cabernets like Heitz Martha's Vineyard (grown on the west side of Oakville), with its signature minty currant personality, or Groth, which is one of the cooler sites on the valley floor. Screaming Eagle captures the best of all these elements. It also epitomizes exquisite balance, managing both to be enormously complex and concentrated, yet elegantly styled, with a smooth, polished texture.

JEAN-FRANÇOIS COCHE-DURY

Jean-François Coche's name is now murmured with the same respectful awe that is reserved for Henri Mayer. In many ways, he wears a mantle in the pantheon of white Burgundy winemakers that Monsieur Mayer wears amongst the red winemakers. From three-starred Michelin restaurants to the auction floors of New York and London, it is the white wines of Monsieur Coche that are the most ardently sought after. For those Burgundy lovers lucky and clever enough to secure bottles of Coche-Dury wines, the treasures that they are able to lock away in their cellars are a fine hedge against the vagaries of growing old. The white Burgundy crown that rests so easily on the head of Jean-François Coche is a rather remarkable achievement, when one pauses to consider his rather meager vineyard holdings versus the scores of white wine-producing domaines whose holdings are chock full of Grand Crus and illustrious Premier Crus.

The two crown jewels amongst the white wines in the Coche cellar are the Meursault "Perrières" and the Corton-Charlemagne. The Corton-Charlemagne's first release was the 1986 vintage, and it is as fine a bottle of Corton Charlie as one can ever hope to find. It is very slow to unfold, and in any top vintage requires a minimum of ten years of bottle age to really blossom and begin to drink well.

The Coche-Dury Meursault "Perrières" is the other twin titan in the cellar. Many Burgundy lovers, often over a glass of inspired Côte d'Or rouge or blanc, like to banter about which vineyards are worthy of promotion in the appellation contrôlée system if the French were ever to open up the Pandora's Box or reclassification. Almost universally, the vineyard of Meursault "Perrières" is mentioned as clearly worthy of Grand Cru status. If one were to choose an example of why this is the case, one could do no better than a bottle of Coche-Dury Meursault "Perrières". This is a complete wine that quite easily rivals the quality of the Corton-Charlemagne in the cellar. In some vintages the Corton looks to be the better of the two, sometimes the Meursault "Perrières". But in virtually every vintage the Meursault "Perrières" is a long-lived wine of uncompromising brilliance, and well worth the price of admission. There are not many Bâtard-Montrachets or Chevalier-Montrachets that I would trade even up for a bottle of Coche-Dury Meursault "Perrières".

PIERRE-YVES COLIN-MOREY

Pierre-Yves Colin had been the winemaker at his father's Domaine Marc Colin since 1995 when, in 2001, he decided to strike out on his own with his wife Caroline Morey, first as a micro-négociant operation, focusing on tiny quantities of the finest fruit he could buy. He has since grown his holdings to include parcels in the communes of Chassagne-Montrachet, Meursault, Saint-Aubin and Santenay. His choice to use larger demi-muid barrels and eschew the use of batonnage makes each one of his bottlings a clear expression of its terroir and a study in mineral-driven Chardonnay, producing wine of extraordinary purity, elegance and precision. Pierre-Yves Colin and his wines have quickly become international stars.

DOMAINE LEROY

How do you determine great? Is it size? Is it quality? Is it price? Is it 'reputation' (whatever that is)? Is it the amount of media coverage? However you do compute it, the greatest domaines of Burgundy today must be those under the control of Lalou Bize: the Domaine Leroy and her own Domaine d'Auvenay. The estates of Jadot, Faiveley and Bouchard Père et Fils are far larger, that of Romanée-Conti the most splendid in terms of the percentage of Grand Cru terroir, but for the nobility of its wines, pride of place must go to Leroy and to Domaine d'Auvenay. The sheer concentration, depth and intensity Lalou Bize manages to squeeze into her bottles is breathtaking.

Lalou, born in Paris, was brought up in Meursault, in the mansion today occupied by her daughter Perrine. "From the word go I was fascinated," she says. "I was a cellar rat, watching and helping the cavistes rack the wines, taste them, bottle them. My mother kept calling me to come out of the cellar and play with my friends like a normal schoolgirl, but as soon as I could I crept back." In 1955 she persuaded her father to let her take over. She was twenty-three. "He gave me carte blanche," she says. "I started as I meant to go on. I bought finished wine, and only that which pleased me." Lalou is now happy at the Domaine Leroy and on her own. "Look at my vines," she will say. "Look how healthy and comfortable they are." And, being Lalou, she will not fail to point out a neighbor's plot of excessively abundant, uncontrolled growth. "And come and taste the wine." Lalou's wines, according to her, are always 'extra'. The one-time cellar rat is now a master in her own right, and the wines she produces are triumphantly brilliant.

WINES FROM A NORTHERN EUROPEAN GENTLEMAN (LOTS 189-197)

From Northern Europe comes this highly-curated, absolutely pristine collection of rare Burgundies.

The wines of Lamy-Caillat—miniscule productions, laser-like intensity, and huge demand, are here in some quantity (at least for such a rare wine). But the bulk of the consignment is the wines of Roumier, featuring several vineyards and capped off with the exceptional and rare Musigny.

The wines in this consignment were purchased direct from reputable retailers or import channels in Europe on release and stored professionally until this auction. They were shipped fully temperature-controlled to New York.

Bid with confidence.

BURGUNDY

GEORGES ROUMIER

The domaine was enlarged a number of times since its inception in 1924, with Georges acquiring a bit more Bonnes-Mares in 1952, as well as two parcels of Clos Vougeot in the same year. In 1953 the Roumiers also purchased the monopole Premier Cru Morey St Denis "Clos de la Bussierre." In 1968, Jean-Marie's wife, Odile Ponnelle, purchased a tract of unplanted Corton-Charlemagne, which was subsequently committed to vine and the first Roumier Corton-Charlemagne was released in the 1974 vintage. In 1978 the domaine finally purchased the small slice of Musigny that they had been sharecropping since the mid-1920s.

Domaine Georges Roumier is one of my favorite domaines in all of the Côte d'Or. In my personal cellar, by quite some margin, I have more Roumier wines than from any other producer. I find them to be extremely reliable for cellaring, and to deliver at their apogees all the majestic complexity for which Burgundy is rightly renowned. Out of the blocks they are not the typically delicate style of Chambolle, but rather wines that are full and well-structured in their youth. For young Chambolles they are atypical, but within the fullness of time, they develop all the silk and perfume for which the wines of this village are so rightly cherished. From the superbly crafted Chambolle-Musigny village bottling that I buy in depth in every vintage to the lonely bottle of Roumier Musigny, these are among the greatest wines that I have in my cellar, and bottles that I look forward to growing old with comfortably.

"Reduction and soft wood nuances are all that can be discerned today. Much more interesting are the super-sleek, velvety and powerful mineral-driven imposingly-scaled flavors that despite the opulent richness retain lovely delineation on the almost painfully intense and hugely long finish. The supporting tannins are the ripest in the range though they make it indisputably clear that this is destined for a very long life, indeed 25 to 30 years would not surprise me yet this is not particularly austere though it may evolve in that direction once it's bottled. #### COMTE GEORGES DE VOGÜÉ

Delicate, feminine and fragrant, the epitome of finesse: lace, silk and taffeta; violets and dog-roses; raspberries and blackcurrants with a finish of liquorice; amplitude and generosity; intensity without a trace of hardness. All this has been said by those attempting to describe the taste of Le Musigny. Le Musigny consists of two sub-climats, Le Musigny itself and at the same altitude next door to the south, Les Petits-Musigny. The lion's share, more than seven hectares, almost seventy percent, and including the totality of Les Petites-Musigny, belongs to the Domaine Comte Georges de Vogüé. This estate proclaims itself the Domaine des Musigny. The domaine also comprise 2.75 hectares of Bonnes-Mares, located entirely in the southern, Chambolle end of the climat, sixty ares of Amoureuses, 1.80 hectares of Premiers Crus (Baudes and Fuées) and a small parcel of village wine. Wines of the domaine are defined as classy and fragrant, very exciting indeed. The domaine is in good hands. The future is bright.

DOMAINE PONSOT

Domaine Ponsot in Morey St Denis has long been one of the most important domaines in the Côte d'Or. It began rather meagerly with just a hectare of vines in the 1920s (according to Remington Norman, though I have seen figures of an initial three hectares elsewhere), but had grown to the six hectares by the last 1940s, when Jean-Marie Ponsot began to work with his father, Hippolyte Ponsot. Jean-Marie succeeded to full control of the domaine in 1957, and his son, Laurent, (the current head of the family domaine) made his first vintage in 1983. Today the domaine is just short of nine hectares, with more than a third of it in Clos de la Roche, of which the Ponsots are the largest landholders. In addition to the family's own vines, the Ponsots had over the years entered into a number of different metayage (sharecropping) agreements, which brought vines under their control in crus such as Latricières- Chambertin, Griottes-Chambertin, Chambertin and Chambolle-Musigny Les Charmes, as well as a bit more Clos de la Roche and Clos St Denis to augment their own holdings.

For years the domaine's wines were reputed to be very inconsistent from vintage to vintage, with their successes amongst the very greatest wines of any given vintage, but the less successful vintages relative failures. Much of this has been attributed to the propensity of both Jean-Marie and Laurent Ponsot to harvest very late, shooting for maximum ripeness to add a powerful dimension to their wines. When this methodology worked, as in vintages such as 1980, 1985, 1989, 1990 or 1991, the Ponsot wines were monumental blockbusters, thick with lush, creamy old vine fruit, strongly marked by their respective terroirs and very complex. In the "homerun" vintages, Ponsot wines are rich, bordering on syrupy (as they have such voluptuous fruit), but with excellent structural elements and fine focuses as well.

COLLECTOR'S

This truly stupendous collection of fine wine comes to us from one of our dearest friends and longtime clients. The majority of wines in this offering have been in Zachys professional storage since the consignor acquired them—mostly from Zachys retail on release and in other instances from specific auctions. Other bottles in the collection came from the owner's custom-built, humidity and temperature-controlled home storage in the New York area.

This offering contains many of the top lots of the auction: a 1990 La Tâche six-liter bottle, for one! But beyond all of the DRC, there's a little bit of everything, with a focus on large formats. For those planning their staff holiday party (Jeff and Don, please take note) there's an 18L of 2003 Léoville Barton, 5Ls of 1982 and 2000 Léoville Las Cases, 6L of 2000 La Mission Haut-Brion, and magnums of the legendary 1953 Margaux. There are also wines from Leroy, Dujac, Ponsot, Leflaive, Masseto, Screaming Eagle, and even a bit of Pappy to finish.

This is truly one of the great American collections—and we're only offering a small taste of it. The Zachys team has tasted dozens of bottles from this collection over the years and had nary a bad bottle.

Bid with confidence.

CHATEAU HAUT-BRION

Haut-Brion has the longest history of all the First Growths. It was even mentioned by Samuel Pepys in his diary entry of April 10, 1663, when he was dining at the Royal Oak Tavern in Lombard Street, London: "...and here drank a sort of French wine called Ho Bryan that hath a good and most particular taste I never met with."

The famous Pontac family set up the estate in the first portion of the sixteenth century. Wealthy and well connected, they had the means to promote the wine in fashionable places, and by the early 1700s it was as well known as a wine of the highest quality.

While parts were split off, the estate stayed with the family until it was passed to Joseph Fumel in 1780. He was largely responsible for creating much of what we see today, including the buildings, the gardens and the general layout of the property. He famously hosted a visit from Thomas Jefferson on May 25, 1787, and became Mayor of Bordeaux three years later.

With its popularity waning under a succession of different owners, the estate was finally put up for auction in 1836, where it was purchased by the Larreau family. Two years later, in 1838, they managed to acquire a further piece of the estate previously lost through inheritance laws.

Although it was included as a First Growth in the 1855 classification of Bordeaux, difficult times lay ahead. A further succession of owners and the depression of the early 1930s forced another sale. This time, successful American financier Clarence Dillon stepped up, and for a little under $200,000 walked away with the estate. It remains in the Dillon family today.

Vineyards, Winemaking and the Delmas Family

No discussion of the wines of Haut-Brion can be complete without a mention of the Delmas family, who have managed the property since 1923—first George Delmas, then his son Jean-Bernard, and today Jean-Philippe. It is not only unusual but also massively fortunate for Haut-Brion to have the care and attention of such a talented family of technical directors.

Jean-Philippe Delmas is a clever, tirelessly devoted man, and the solid support and financial backing of the Dillon family has enabled him and his team to produce an extremely consistent wine. I always look forward to visiting Château Haut-Brion, not just because the wines are superb and the people great, but also because it is unique and has an important place in the history of Bordeaux.

CHÂTEAU MOUTON ROTHSCHILD

Mouton, like much of Pauillac in the sixteenth century, was part of the sprawling Ségur estate. In the mid-eighteenth century the land that is now Mouton Rothschild was acquired by Baron de Brane, who changed the name to Brane-Mouton. Brane sold it in 1830 to an M Thuret; while it was already a notable Château, first appearing in a Christie's catalog in 1834, Thuret did not make maintenance of the Château a priority and resold it in 1853. The purchaser was Baron Nathaniel de Rothschild, at the time head of the English arm of the wealthy Rothschild family.

While Mouton was always a highly regarded wine, a big change came when in 1922, when the twenty-one-year-old Baron Philippe decided to run the Château full-time. An innovator from the start of his tenure, in 1924 he decided that in order to guarantee quality the entire production would be bottled at the Château, and from 1934 he numbered each bottle released. Also, of course, he started the tradition of works of art on Mouton labels, featuring the famous Carlu ram's head from 1924 to 1926, and since a hiatus from then until 1945, each label has either been designed by a major artist or featured a tribute to a significant event in the Château's history.

Perhaps his most significant achievement was persuading the French Minister for Agriculture, Jacques Chirac, that Mouton was and had always been a First Growth that had been wrongly classified. So, in 1973, for the first and only time, a revised edition of the 1855 classification was released with Mouton finally ranked, next to its Pauillac neighbors Lafite and Latour, as a First Growth.

CHÂTEAU D'YQUEM

Château d'Yquem is the apex qualitatively and the centre geographically of the Sauternes area. Each major property occupies its own little hill. Yquem's is the highest. It is also the largest estate, the most perfectionistic, the most consistent. Unlike the rest of the region there was no cutting of corners, no lack of investment, no dip in quality in the sad days of the 1960s and 1970s.

At Yquem we have Sauternes winemaking at its most perfectionistic. The vines are pruned to yield nine hl/ha – one glass per vine (as opposed to a full bottle in a classified growth red wine château). Collection of the grapes is berry by botrytised berry, rather than by bunch or half-bunch elsewhere. The grapes are crushed in a small horizontal hydraulic press in three stages. Unlike in Champagne, for example, the first pressing does not necessarily give the best wine. There is no débourage before the wine is put into cask. Fermentation and ageing is in new oak, of course, the latter taking place in a splendid underground cellar, constructed in 1987. The assemblage is late and the wine is not bottled for three years or more. Only then is it put on the market...

There is something very special, and indeed very consistent, about Yquem. The wine is more oaky than most in its youth. It is by quite some way the richest, most concentrated, most intense wine of its kind. In great years – I have a marginal preference for 1989 over 1990 and 1988 – it is nectar: the liquid quintessence of concentrated sunbeams, to quote Thomas Love Peacock.

JF MUGNIER

For such an important domaine, which in addition to its 1.37 hectares of vines in Musigny proper, also possesses significant holdings in Bonnes-Mares, Chambolle-Musigny Premiers Crus Les Amoureuses and Les Fuées, as well as a monopole on the fine Nuits St Georges Premier Cru of the Clos de la Maréchale...Jacques-Frédéric's great-great-grandfather, Frédéric Mugnier, had been a merchant of spirits in Dijon in the middle of the nineteenth century, and as his business in Dijon prospered, he was able to buy his parcels of vines in Chambolle-Musigny and Nuits St Georges during the nadir in fortunes of the area brought about by the phylloxera epidemic.

The Mugniers added to their vineyard holdings in the area when they bought the Château de Chambolle-Musigny in 1889 (also from the Marey- Monge family), though the house was used primarily as an occasional retreat from the city for the family for many, many years to come, with no one from the Mugnier family settling down in Chambolle until today's proprietor, Jacques-Frédéric Mugnier returned to Chambolle from overseas in 1984. As he relates, "my family were people from the city" so it is not surprising that "I am the first one to live permanently in this house." During the 1920s, the family business was run by five grandsons of Frédéric Mugnier (who had passed away in 1911), with James Mugnier officially in charge of the wine side of the business and the vineyards. Of these five grandsons, only one, Jacques Mugnier, ever married and had children, and it is from this grandson of Frédéric Mugnier that today's proprietor, Jacques-Frédéric Mugnier is related. Making wines of purity and grace, JF Mugnier is surely one of the most sought after producers in all of Burgundy.

LIGER-BELAIR

The current Domaine du Comte Liger-Belair was founded by Louis-Michel Liger-Belair only in 2000, but Liger-Belairs have been growing wine in Burgundy for nearly two centuries, since General Louis Liger-Belair purchased the Château du Vosne in 1815. Over the next century the domaine grew through marriages and purchases until it included the monopoles of La Romanée, La Tâche and La Grande Rue, and substantial holdings in many of the other greatest vineyards of the Côte de Nuits. Unfortunately the passing of Comte Henri Liger-Belair in 1924 and his widow the Comtesse in 1931 meant that the estate was to pass equally to their ten children, and the law of the time provided that for any of the heirs to receive their portion in land rather than cash, all must have reached legal adulthood. Two had not, and when three of the other siblings did not want to wait to receive their inheritance, there was no choice but to put the entire domaine up for sale.

At that auction, Louis-Michel's grandfather Comte Michel and one brother joined to purchase what they could, and walked away with three pieces of vineyard land in Vosne-Romanée, the monopole La Romanée and parcels of Reignots and Chaumes. The wines were released under the names of various negociants until Louis-Michel began to take back vineyards to produce the wines himself. He continues to refine his practices, most recently with a complete conversion to biodynamic farming and to gentler presses, which he believes has improved the quality of the tannins, and has in just a decade solidly re-established the Liger-Belair name as one of the most reliable producers of top class Burgundy.

DOMAINE LEFLAIVE

Joseph Leflaive was a very astute purchaser of vineyard land during the first two decades of the twentieth century, so that today the domaine's roster of vineyards is the greatest constellation of white Burgundy patrimony in the Côte de Beaune. These include just under two full hectares in Chevalier-Montrachet, an equal slice in Bâtard-Montrachet, a bit more than a hectare in Bienvenues-Bâtard-Montrachet (out of a total of 2.3 hectares), just over three hectares in the beautiful Premier Cru of Pucelles, three-quarters of a hectare in Combettes, 1.27 hectares in Folataières, and nearly five hectares in Premier Cru Clavoillon. In 1991, the topping on the cake was added when the domaine purchased a very small, .08 hectare slice of Le Montrachet itself.

GUIGAL

Marcel Guigal - perfectionist, fanatical, pernickety – is the super-star of the appellation and probably sells more Côte-Rôtie under his own label than all the other growers combined. Despite this size, however, the quality is exemplary - as they should be at the prices he charges! He harvests late, insists on very low yields, and keeps the wines in a combination of barrel and small foudres and demi-muids, all newish wood, for up to three and a half years before bottling. Their wines are so concentrated they can withstand this wait without drying out, and remain profound, rich and individual. La Landonne is the Brune, La Mouline the Blonde, La Turque the sort of hermaphroditic mixture. Usually my favourite is the Landonne. The Château d'Ampuis bottling combines elements of both the sectors of Côte-Rôtie, from vines in the climats of La Pommiere, Le Pavillon, La Garde and Le Clos.

BRUNO GIACOSA

Bruno Giacosa was born in the town of Nieve, within the Barbaresco DOCG. As young as thirteen Bruno was assisting his father and grandfather in the cellars, and by the age of fifteen he was fully employed in the family firm. Bruno's grandfather, Carlo Giacosa, started the firm in the late nineteenth century when the wine was sold in demi-johns and not estate bottled. It was not until the 1960s that the Giacosas began to sell more wine in bottle than in demi-john!

Up until 1964 the family did not offer any individual cru bottlings of either Barbaresco or Barolo, and following tradition in the region, they were labeled simply as Barolo or Barbaresco. It is noted that even as far back as Carlo Giacosa's time, the wines were vinified and kept separately in the cellars. The two vineyards which they primarily purchased from at that time, the Gallina and Santo Stefano, were only blended together for the Barbaresco "Riserva Speciale" and therefore all regular Barbaresco bottlings were in effect two distinct Barbarescos released under the same label.

Like so many of the top producers in Piedmont, the Giacosas did not own any of the vineyards from which they made their wines. In 1982, they finally purchased a vineyard holding of their own, the 8.4 hectare Falletto vineyard in the village of Serralunga. This purchase in Barolo was followed up more than a decade later when the Giacosa family bought pieces in two of the greatest terroirs in Barbaresco, the Asili and Rabaja vineyards, in time to produce bottlings of the 1996 vintage.

The style of Giacosa's wines are quite traditional, though the fermentations are not quite as long as many of their neighbors of the "old school". Typically the maceration will now last from fourteen to twenty-four days for the Barbarescos and Barolos, which is quite a bit shorter than a producer such as Giuseppe Mascarello, whose Barolo Monprivato macerates for at least thirty days (down from sixty days in years past). Following this maceration the wines are racked into large casks called botti and aged for three to four years. The control of the winery is now in the capable hands of daughter Bruna Giacosa and Cellarmaster Dante Scaglione.

There are no wines that match the prestige or class of Giacosa's in all of Barbaresco and only a select few which share the crown in Barolo.

GIACOMO CONTERNO

Cantine Giacomo Conterno has stood at the pinnacle of "traditionalist camp of Barolo" for many, many decades, and along with the wines of other Piemonte icons such as Bartolo Mascarello, Mauro Mascarello and Bruno Giacosa, the wines of Cantine Giacomo Conterno have set the standard for excellence in the region for many years. The founder of the estate as it stands today was Giacomo Conterno, who began his own winery in the village of Monforte d'Alba in 1920, and quickly earned a reputation for excellence for the quality of his Barolo. However, the Conterno family's involvement in wine production in Barolo far predates the launching of today's winery in 1920, as the family retains documentation of their wine production ties that dates back to 1770. And in fact, Giacomo Conterno's father was very much involved in winemaking and wine sales from the moment he began his businesses in the region at the beginning of the twentieth century. The flagship Barolo bottling here is the bodega's Monfortino Riserva Speciale, which was first made in the 1920 vintage, and which is unequivocally one of Piemonte's longest-lived and greatest wines.

In many respects, modern Barolo as a long-lived and cellar-worthy wine owes much of its heritage to the visionary efforts of Giacomo Conterno throughout the decades of the 1920s, 1930s and 1940s. It is rather hard to imagine the landscape of Barolo as it is today without his pioneering efforts.

MASSETO

Maseto is the famous 100% Merlot IGT...and is regarded as one of the best expressions of Merlot in the world. The Merlot vines are cultivated in alluvial, sandy-clayey soils that are rich in minerals. The same care and attention is paid in the vineyard as Ornellaia, with meticulous vineyard husbandry and rigorous sorting.

However the vinification is slightly different, with alcoholic fermentation carried out in wooden vats rather than stainless-steel, ranging in size from 65hl to 125hl. The wine is racked and then transferred into oak barriques where it remains for 24 months, with blending at 12 months.

CALIFORNIA

DOMINUS

After mastering wine production at two of the most esteemed wineries in Bordeaux, Petrus and Château Trotanoy, owner Christian Moueix looked toward Napa Valley to create one of tomorrow's classics in California. In 1982 in partnership with Robin Lail and Marcia Smith, Christian founded Dominus, a proprietary red wine produced in the heart of Napa Valley solely from the historic Napanook vineyard first planted in 1836. With the true understanding of terroir, the soil and climate of the Napanook vineyard at the foot of the Mayacamus Mountains was ideal for Cabernet Sauvignon and this is the base of the blend. The assemblage changes each year with varying degrees of Cabernet Franc, Merlot and Petit Verdot used to retain the consistent structure and complexity of the wine while reflecting the uniqueness of each vintage. A series of artists' portraits of Christian Moueix adorn the labels of the first vintages from the Estate (1983-1990) and then beginning with the 1991 vintage a classic Bordeaux styled label replaced the artist series.

The wines are made from grapes grown solely on the Napanook vineyard, allowing them to have a specific identity. They are "estate bottled" in the spirit of the Bordeaux châteaux and from the time of inception have characterized the expression of terroir in their earthy rusticity and complex character. Dominus exemplifies California production in a classic Bordeaux style.

THE WINES OF DOMAINE BIZOT (2011-2017) (LOTS 610-625)

Zachys is thrilled to be offering this extraordinarily rare Domaine Bizot-only consignment. Even though Jean Yves Bizot only has about 8 acres under vine, his wines have become a global phenomenon. The Domaine makes Pinot Noir from miniscule plots in Vosne-Romanée and Echézeaux and this collection features multiple vintages of Bourgogne Rouge La Chapitre, Vosne-Romanée and Vosne-Romanée Les Jachees.

The consignor is a passionate and meticulous oenophile who knew long before the rest of us how exceptional these wines truly are. The bottles were originally sourced from only the most reputable sources in Europe and have been stored in professional temperature-controlled storage in the United States since.

DOMAINE BIZOT

Even though Jean Yves Bizot only has about 8 acres under vine, his wines have become a global phenomenon. The Domaine makes pinot noir from miniscule plots in Vosne-Romanée and Echézeaux, with grapes that are fermented in whole clusters and are not de-stemmed or pressed. The wines are enormously perfumed and are truly one of a kind. Domaine Bizot makes fewer than 1000 cases per year.

FRANÇOIS RAVENEAU

Whichever way you look at these wines they stand up, be it vintage consistency, longevity, intensity of flavor, length and so on- they are just flat out incredible wines and there is nothing else quite like them anywhere. Raveneau's Chablis is now more than ever getting the recognition it deserves and the prices have risen accordingly, but they still represent great values compared to the other top white wines of Burgundy. The only downside is the minute quantities they are typically available in.

History, Vineyards & Winemaking

Domaine Raveneau, today totaling around ten hectares in size, was formed by François Raveneau from small plots passed down from his father and Father-in-law, along with a little land he purchased himself. Today the estate is run by his two sons, Jean-Marie and Bernard, with Jean-Marie taking care of the winemaking duties.

Their cellars, as one might expect from a domaine of such modest acreage, are small and are discreetly located in the village. This is no hi-tech new world winery, but an old-school artisan setup. Dark, cool, and damp with a fine vaulted architectural ceiling, they set the scene appropriately. The secret to these wines is immense care in the vineyards. If ever the term hand-crafted could be applied to wine, it can be here. The wines spend approximately twelve months in barrel, but to retain the benchmark acidity and steeliness the barrels are usually seven to nine years in age, although some percentage of new oak is used. There is a light fining prior to bottling by hand and then the application of the trademark yellow wax capsules.

Domaine Raveneau's vineyard holdings include: Les Clos, Blanchot, Valmur, Bougrots, Montée de Tonnerre, Butteaux, Vaillons, Chapelot, Montmains and Forest. Raveneau's wines are utterly unique, of unquestionable quality and can age as well as a Ramonet or DRC Montrachet. Even for those who don't typically drink white wine, Raveneau's epiphanous Chablis does not disappoint.

KRUG

Of all the wine world's luxury brands, Krug is perhaps the most glittering. No expense is spared in its production, though the techniques used are in fact remarkably artisanal, including fermentation in small, old wooden casks. Time is of the essence: the overall ageing cycle is the best part of a decade here, with all wines being aged for at least six years sur pointes (upended, after the "ordinary" ageing period that follows the second fermentation is concluded). No expense is spared, either, in the pricing of its five wines, the cheapest of which, Grande Cuvée, costs as much as many rival houses' top cuvees. This is a wine of magnificent complexity and layered richness, nourishing and diverting, as detailed and textured as a Gobelin tapestry. It contains wines from a decade's worth of vintages and from at least twenty different crus (not all of them Grand or even Premier, one might note); Krug makes no secret, too, of its need and love for Pinot Meunier. (The Krug 1928 vintage, regarded by the family as the greatest ever, contained twenty percent Meunier, and there is eighteen percent in the finely honed 1988.) There is also a relatively understated rose of pale tawny hue, and a series of vintage wines of magnificent stylistic oscillation, fully respecting the potential of each year. The Collection vintage wines have spent more years in the Krug cellars in Reims; disgorgement took place at the same time as for "ordinary" vintage wines. Finally, a champagne de terroir: the pure Chardonnay Clos du Mesnil, vinified from wines in a genuine 1.9 hectares walled vineyard within the village of Le Mesnil, purchased by Krug in 1971, and released as a vintage wine beginning with 1979. In great years (like 1988) it is magnificent and multi-dimensioned.

GAJA

In the mid-nineteenth century the Gaja family began producing wine in Piedmont. Giovanni Gaja established the winery and Angelo, the fourth generation, joined the family firm in 1961. Angelo Gaja, born in 1940 and the present director of the family firm, has a degree in enology from Alba as well as a masters in economics. In 1974 he went to California, where he presumably fell under the spell of the barrique. Gaja has achieved unequivocal success aging his Barbarescos in small, new oak barrels, where the wine takes on a certain subtlety and suppleness without losing the personality of the Nebbiolo grape.

Gaja is the largest private owner of vineyards in the Barbaresco zone, with 153 acres of vines in Barbaresco, Treiso, and Alba. They own fourteen different vineyards in Barbaresco and Treiso that make up their Barbaresco normale. Besides this regular Barbaresco, Gaja bottles three individual crus. Of the three, Costa Russi matures the soonest. It is the most open, with a sweeter taste and more intense aroma. Sori Tildin is more closed and concentrated; it is firm in texture and holds more in reserve. Sori San Lorenzo is the hardest of all in its youth, requiring age to show its real quality. It is the slowest maturing of the crus as well as the longest lived.

BORDEAUX

CHÂTEAU AUSONE

History

Ausone is named for Ausonius, a fourth century poet and later Consul to Rome who lived in the area, although no proof exists that the current Ausone holdings and Ausonius were connected. What is known is that he owned vineyards in or near Bordeaux, and that since Roman times wine has been made in and around St Emilion.

From the early eighteenth century Ausone was owned by the Cantenat family, eventually passing to a nephew, M. Lafargue. Lafargue is credited with building Ausone's reputation at the time; during his tenure it was considered the finest producer in all of St Emilion. In the early 1890s it passed to Lafargue's niece, Madame Challon, who later married Edouard Dubois. Edouard Dubois-Challon continued the work of Lafargue and by the time of the First World War Ausone was considered the wine of the commune, even greater than Cheval Blanc. This success and reputation enabled Dubois-Challon to acquire neighboring Château Belair in 1916. Alain Vauthier, the current proprietor, is a descendant of the family.

Vineyards & Winemaking

For a long time Ausone had a reputation as an erratic performer, but more recently has begun to achieve its potential consistently. In 1989 Clive Coates wrote presciently in Grand Vins, "I dare say it will not be long before Ausone fetches the same prices as Petrus."

There are two main areas of vineyards in St Emilion, the valley and the slopes. Ausone is in a prime spot on the slopes, a steep plot of 7.3 hectares on a mixture of clay soil and some sandy gravel with a limestone base and subsoil. It is planted with almost fifty percent each of Merlot and Cabernet Franc, plus a few Cabernet Sauvignon vines. Like many of the châteaux on the St Emilion slopes, Ausone's cellars are dug right into the side of the hill. In fact, so much of the hill has been excavated that a couple of years ago a whole acre of the Belair vineyard collapsed.

The wines have a three to four week maceration following fermentation before going into 100 percent new oak barrels for malolactic fermentation and around eighteen to twenty-four months of maturation. The annual production of 2000 cases is then fined with egg whites and bottled without filtration.

"The 2018 Cheval Blanc is dazzling. Creamy, supple and inviting, the 2018 is endowed with phenomenal balance. The tannins and overall structure are imposing, and yet the richness of the fruit and perfect ripeness of the tannin really stand out. In 2018, Cheval is a bit richer than is often the case, but that is not at all a bad thing. I am struck by how much freshness and energy the 2018 has. Hints of lavender, spice and licorice add shades of nuance, but it is the wine's overall sense of harmony that leaves the strongest impression. A precise counterpoint of fruit richness and finesse makes for a truly unforgettable Cheval Blanc...97-100." VM 4/19.

CHATEAU LAFITE ROTHSCHILD

For as long as anyone can remember, Lafite has been the most highly regarded wine in Bordeaux. From their very first book, published in 1845, Cocks & Feret have listed Lafite first, and it was ranked first in the famous 1855 classification of Bordeaux.

Fite is an old French term meaning small hill, rise or mound; it is from this humble feature in Bordeaux' somewhat bland landscape that France's most esteemed producer takes its name. The Château itself is one of the oldest in Bordeaux, with much of it dating from the mid-sixteenth century. It was purchased by the wealthy Ségur family in the seventeenth century, but like much of the region at the time, the land was used for a variety of farming.

Beginning in the 1670s, the Ségurs spent around twenty years converting a large portion of the land to vineyards. With Latour and Calon, as well as Lafite, under their ownership, the Ségurs began to find a market for their wines in London. It was first mentioned in the London Gazette in 1707 and soon became famous: by the early 1730s, it was a favorite of the Prime Minister, Robert Walpole.

Lafite remained in the Ségur family until 1784. It was sold several times, finally to Baron de Rothschild in 1868, by which time there were some seventy-four hectares of vines. It was a new era of industrial wealth and the Rothschild purchase certainly added much celebrity to the area.

CHATEAU LATOUR

CHÂTEAU LATOUR

Some of my fondest wine memories are of drinking wine bottles of the renowned Château Latour. It is, without a doubt, one of the greatest wine estates in the world. While its history goes well back to the fourteenth century, Latour began to be clearly defined as one of the greatest wine estates in the world in the mid-nineteenth century, and amazingly, It has kept that position for the last 150 years. Their wines, which are known for their power, richness and longevity, are sought after by collectors and wine lovers throughout the world.

As Robert M. Parker says of Château Latour in The World's Greatest Wine Estates, "The wine produced here has been an impeccable model of consistent excellence, in great, mediocre, and poor vintages. For that reason, many have long considered Latour to be the Médoc's finest wine... Latour remains one of the most concentrated, rich, tannic, and full-bodied wines in the world."

In 2000, I had the wonderful opportunity to taste over twenty-five vintages of Château Latour, including fourteen wines older than 1961 and four from the nineteenth century. It was an evening I will never forget. The wines were so rich, alive and fresh. What an extraordinary experience it was to be able to taste the 1900 and the 1899 side by side and discuss the differences, or to argue whether the 1955 or the 1949 is showing better right now (at my table we all thought the 1955 had the slight edge). In the end we tasted Latour from a 125 year span and although there was a lot of discussion about which were the better wines, the final conclusion of everyone in the room was that, "Latour makes some of greatest wines that any of us have ever tasted."

CHÂTEAU MARGAUX

Perhaps the grandest of the Bordeaux châteaux, Château Margaux is the epitome of style and refinement. At Château Margaux one has truly arrived at the heart and soul of Bordeaux, the world's most renowned wine region.

For centuries before the French Revolution, the château was owned by the Lestonnac family. The revolution, though, saw the estate's owners beheaded, and when the heirs were unable to pay the costs of running the château, Margaux was put up for auction.

The successful bidder, the Marquis de la Colonilla, demolished the old château, and in 1802 work began on the grand château we know today. The Château was sold several times until it was acquired by the Ginestets, longtime shareholders who finally became sole owners in 1949, with the purchase financed by the sale of their St Emilion property, Clos Fortet. However, First Growth châteaux are expensive to run, and to finance the operations of the estate, the owner sold off the vineyards of Dufort Vivens in the 1960s and transferred Cos d'Estournel to his sister in 1971. Even those moves, though, were not enough, and collapse of the Bordeaux market in the early 1970s forced Ginestet to sell the château in 1976 to Greek supermarket magnate Andre Mentzelopoulos. A serious oenophile, he was also a major shareholder in the French wine firm, Nicolas.

CHÂTEAU LA MISSION HAUT-BRION

Although the histories of Château Haut-Brion and La Mission are entwined, both have always been separate entities, sharing a common family name. It is only since 1983 that they have shared the same proprietor when it was taken over by the owners of Haut-Brion...

On November 2nd 1983, the present owners acquired La Mission after the owner Francis Dewavrin was unable to resolve internal family disputes over the way the property was managed and it marks a convergence of histories between Château Haut-Brion and La Mission, though only in the sense that they share the same owner: Clarence Dillon. He enlisted Jean-Bernard Delmas as Château-manager and there followed a period that has consolidated La Mission's position as one of the greatest estates, hovering just outside the First Growths.

Their commitment to innovation and improvements has been a catalyst for many estates in the Graves region to improve their wines, particularly with respect of clonal selection research. In 1987 the old chai was renovated, a new state-of-the-art cuvier was installed and a new bottling line was implemented in 1996. It must be emphasized that the estates are treated as separate entities, even though at some point the vines of both run side-by-side. In 2003 Jean-Bernard retired and handed the reins over to his son, Jean-Philippe Delmas.

The Wines

Certainly since the arrival of Jean-Bernard Delmas the style of wine has improved: the wine is more pure and the volatile acidity has been eradicated. At its best (the 1966, 1975, 1998) La Mission is a massive, tannic behemoth that has more in common with Château Latour than Château Haut-Brion. It is a powerful, sturdy wine with firm tannins and admirable longevity...

This is definitely one of the most intriguing wines in Bordeaux: the appeal of La Mission is that it seems to avoid the vagaries of wine-making trends and wears its heart on its sleeve. This is a classic wine in every sense of the word and it can make a seamless match with food. A poor La Mission is still a better wine than most; a good La Mission is a great wine and a great La Mission can be a religious experience. I have met few wine-critics who do not hold this estate in high esteem: it is a wine for true wine-lovers.

CHÂTEAU L'ÉGLISE CLINET

Château L'Église Clinet has a long history. It dates all the way back to the back to the late 1800s. Clos L'Église-Clinet was created in 1882. This happened when two families agreed to join together and form a partnership to produce Bordeaux wine together. The families were Mauleon Rouchut of Clos l'Église. And the Constant family, the owners of Château Clinet. From that point forward, until the mid-1950s, their Bordeaux wine was sold under the name Clos L'Église-Clinet.

After that date, the wines were released just as they are today, under the current name of, Château L'Église Clinet. Before Denis Durantou, the current owner and wine maker took over, his great-grandfather managed the property. The elder Durantou spent all his time as a shopkeeper. He did not live at the château. He preferred to spend his time on his dairy farm, located in Courtras.

Denis Durantou took over the winery in the mid-1980s. The property, slowly but surely keeps getting better and better. Today, it is one of the stars of Pomerol! The wine is concentrated, full-bodied, opulent and rich. Everything is in harmony. This special Bordeaux wine offers a purity of fruit, exotic spice components and freshness. The portion of old vine Cabernet Franc, which is close to 70 years of age is part of what makes this wine unique. Those vines are a large component of what separates the style and aromatic complexity of L'Église Clinet from the most of the other top Pomerol wines.

CHATEAU MONTROSE

Château Montrose is a relatively recent estate compared with its neighbors, but in a very short time rose from woodland to second growth status in the 1855 classification. Since 1945 Montrose has been a star performer and while at times it has been undervalued in the marketplace, today that finally is changing.

History

In 1778 some unused woodland belonging to the Ségur family was sold off and purchased, along with Calon Ségur, by the Dumoulin family. In the early 1800s they began to plant vines, and by 1832 vineyards covered over thirty hectares. Around this time, a small château-type building was built and the wine first appeared under the name of Montrose (a name of unknown origin). Though a very young estate, it gained second growth status in 1855, by which time there were almost fifty hectares under vine. It passed to the Charmolue family in 1896, and remains under their ownership.

The Wine

While Montrose was sixty-five hectares in size by the 1890s, unlike many of its peers it has barely grown at all since then and is currently around the sixty-eight hectares mark. The vineyards are planted with sixty-five percent Cabernet Sauvignon, twenty-five percent Merlot and ten percent Cabernet Franc, with annual production of around 25000 cases. Château Montrose is known as a very consistent performer, especially in lesser years when many of its neighbors struggle.

VIEUX CHÂTEAU CERTAN*History

Originally known as Sertan, the château was owned by the Demay family from the 1750s until the mid-nineteenth century when a portion of was sold to Charles de Bousquet (another portion is now Certan de May). Cocks & Feret listed VCC first among Pomerol vineyards in their publication of 1868. It remained with de Bousquet until its sale to Georges Thienpont in 1924, a member of a family of successful Belgian merchants who still own VCC, as well as its neighbor Le Pin.

The Wine

The vineyards have gravel topsoil with an iron-rich clay subsoil, perfect for the Merlot and Cabernet Franc which dominate the blend. A little larger than Petrus, the vineyards cover 13.5 hectares producing roughly 5000 cases annually. The grapes, sixty percent Merlot, thirty percent Cabernet Franc and ten percent Cabernet Sauvignon, are totally destemmed prior to fermentation in tank. Following this they then go into 100 percent new oak barriques for eighteen to twenty-two months before fining with egg whites and bottling.

RHÔNE

CHÂTEAU BEAUCASTEL

Beaucastel's history dates back to 1549 when "Noble Pierre de Beaucastel" bought a barn with its land holdings, containing twenty-five saumees at Coudoulet. More than four centuries later, this remarkable domaine, known today as Château de Beaucastel, has been producing what some acknowledge to be the finest wines of Châteauneuf-du-Pape. In 1953 Jacques Perrin, son of chemical engineer and mathematics professor Pierre Perrin, took over the domaine and introduced many innovations such as improved grape varietals, integrated pest control (after experiencing the ravages of phylloxera), and a flash-heat exchanger.

The vineyards of Beaucastel are treated as a garden: no chemical fertilizer, no chemical weed killers or sprays are permitted. Organic fertilizer comes from compost and only a minimum of traditional sulfur-copper spray is used in the vineyards. At extremely low yields, each variety is harvested separately to ensure optimum maturity. All grapes are picked by hand, de-stemmed, and flash-heated to transfer aromas and color while avoiding additional sulfur dioxide.

Each varietal is vinified separately to maintain its own character and originality. Each variety is carefully tasted before blending, and then transferred to large oak barrels for 1 ½ years of aging. Without being fined or filtered, these blends need to be decanted after only a few years in the bottle.

Since 1978, Jacques Perrin's sons, Jean Pierre and François, have been at the helm and beginning in 1989 in very exceptional years they produce a special cuvee in honor of their father. The Château de Beaucastel Hommage à Jacques Perrin is a special selection of the best of a great vintage, yielding small quantities of intensely ripe and concentrated wines.

(LOTS 963-1117)

From a dear friend of the firm and car racing aficionado comes a truly stunning collection of wines, mainly Burgundy.

All of the wines in this offering were bought on release, many from Zachys retail, and stored at Zachys since release. There is no better chain of provenance.

Let's talk Rousseau: is 160 bottles enough? The wines span numerous vintages and vineyards from the Grand Crus of Mazy-Chambertin, to Clos de la Roche, to Charmes and Ruchottes. There's also an offering of Clos St. Jacques and Clos du Château.

The offering includes more wine from Arnoux-Lachaux than perhaps we have ever offered in one tranche, from the Grand Crus to the Nuits St Georges to the Premier Crus from Vosne-Romanée.

Elsewhere, Lamy's "Haute Densité" cuvees are represented in quantity—from the Criots to the Saint Aubin, so there's a bit of everything.

For those seeking Champagne there's the legendary 2002 Salon to finish off.

Bid with confidence. The wines in this offering have not moved from Zachys since purchase.

BURGUNDY

ARMAND ROUSSEAU

One will get little argument to the assertion that Domaine Armand Rousseau is the finest estate in Gevrey-Chambertin...

The vintages of the 1980s and 1990s at Domaine Rousseau have produced one of the greatest runs of profound Burgundy ever witnessed by any estate in the region, with the domaine producing legendary efforts in the widely recognized great years of the span from 1985 to 1999. Their two flagship bottlings of Chambertin and Chambertin "Clos de Bèze" have always ranked amongst the top dozen wines to be found in these vintages.

Of the two Grand Crus at the pinnacle of the brilliant portfolio of Rousseau wines, the Chambertin "Clos de Bèze" tends to be the more exotic and spicy of the two wines, with glorious fruit tones of black cherry, plum, blood orange often augmented by notes of Gevrey's grilled meat, chocolate and exotic spices. The Chambertin is typically the slightly slower wine to unfold, with a more understated profile of plum, red cherry and strawberry, coupled with notes of cocoa powder, coffee, grilled meats and violets...impeccably balanced, tangy and never come across as over-oaked. They are amongst the very greatest red wines to be found in the world.

ARNOUX-LACHAUX

Many of the great Burgundy houses shift hands from generation to generation, for some of these houses, the "changing of the guard" can be a tumultuous process. Arnoux-Lachaux, however, has changed hands not once, but twice in the last half century, with a graceful ease that is always evident within their wine. The property is not large, standing at about 35 acres, yet boasts wines that even the most accomplished collector desires. Working hand in hand are father Pascal and Charles Lachaux.

HUBERT LAMY

Domaine Hubert Lamy was founded by Hubert Lamy in 1973 and today is run by his son, Olivier. The Domaine has nearly 18 hectares of vines, producing both white and red wines mostly in St-Aubin, a few parcels in Chassagne-Montrachet and a tiny plot in the Grand Cru Criots-Bâtard-Montrachet. Domaine Hubert Lamy's Haute Densité cuvées have become some of the most well regarded and highly sought after wines in all of Burgundy. Olivier is meticulous, uses traditional vinification methods and has certainly become one of the leading winemakers of his generation.

the Six Pillars
Macallan

LOT 1118

Zachy is delighted to offer the pinnacle of spirits collecting: The Six Pillars from Macallan in Lalique.

A partnership between the premier Scotch and the renowned French glass maker Lalique, the Six Pillars offers the collector the opportunity to acquire the oldest and rarest Macallans in custom-made Lalique decanters and accompanying packaging.

It goes without saying that the bottle and the packaging here are pristine. The cracked copper capsule on the 55 we believe to be a design flaw, as it is cracked on all of the 55s our colleagues and collector friends have come across. The collection was bought on release and has had a single owner here in the New York City area. The bottles have, of course, been stored upright and temperature-controlled.

If you would like additional photos, please email us at auction@zachys.com.

The Six Pillars comes up for auction almost never. The bottles are so rare that the ultimate Macallan connoisseurs prefer to have them in the cellar. Do not miss this opportunity.

(LOTS 1119-1166)

This collection features only the finest producers of the Côte d'Or. True Burgundian royalty is present with a spectacular selection of George Roumier (including five vintages of Bonnes-Mares), Armand Rousseau (including seven vintages of Rousseau's Clos St. Jacques), DRC (including a magnum of 2017 La Tâche and multiple vintages of Richebourg), Domaine Dujac (including magnums of 2019 Clos de la Roche and Clos St. Denis) and Coche-Dury (including multiple vintages of Meursault Perrières and Meursault Les Rougeots).

These superb wines have the finest provenance. They were bought on release and are being offered by their original owner. They have remained in professional storage since purchase and are part of a larger collection.

DOMAINE DE LA ROMANÉE-CONTI

The domaine is known for picking very late, sometimes, as in 1978, later than any other producers. They prune endlessly, make many passes through the vineyards at harvest and sort grapes rigorously both in the vineyard and at the winery. Average age of the vines is around thirty-five to forty-five years with yields typically around thirty hl/ha. The wines are aged in new French oak casks for approximately twenty months. There is usually only one racking and since 1985 the wines from all casks in each cru have been blended together prior to bottling to reduce bottle variation. Recently they have been moving towards biodynamic viticultural practices. Like many of the region's leading growers they have seen concrete evidence of soil and vine health improvement. It's hard to imagine that these wines could get better, but that is what separates them from the rest of the pack: an unrelenting pursuit for perfection in the Pinot Noir grape. In addition to the majestic reds, a white is also produced from a plot in Montrachet.

GEORGES ROUMIER

The domaine was enlarged a number of times since its inception in 1924, with Georges acquiring a bit more Bonnes-Mares in 1952, as well as two parcels of Clos Vougeot in the same year. In 1953 the Roumiers also purchased the monopole Premier Cru Morey St Denis "Clos de la Bussierre." In 1968, Jean-Marie's wife, Odile Ponnelle, purchased a tract of unplanted Corton-Charlemagne, which was subsequently committed to vine and the first Roumier Corton-Charlemagne was released in the 1974 vintage. In 1978 the domaine finally purchased the small slice of Musigny that they had been sharecropping since the mid-1920s.

Domaine Georges Roumier is one of my favorite domaines in all of the Côte d'Or. In my personal cellar, by quite some margin, I have more Roumier wines than from any other producer. I find them to be extremely reliable for cellaring, and to deliver at their apogees all the majestic complexity for which Burgundy is rightly renowned. Out of the blocks they are not the typically delicate style of Chambolle, but rather wines that are full and well-structured in their youth. For young Chambolles they are atypical, but within the fullness of time, they develop all the silk and perfume for which the wines of this village are so rightly cherished. From the superbly crafted Chambolle-Musigny village bottling that I buy in depth in every vintage to the lonely bottle of Roumier Musigny, these are among the greatest wines that I have in my cellar, and bottles that I look forward to growing old with comfortably.

JEAN-FRANÇOIS COCHE-DURY

Jean-François Coche's name is now murmured with the same respectful awe that is reserved for Henri Mayer. In many ways, he wears a mantle in the pantheon of white Burgundy winemakers that Monsieur Mayer wears amongst the red winemakers. From three-starred Michelin restaurants to the auction floors of New York and London, it is the white wines of Monsieur Coche that are the most ardently sought after. For those Burgundy lovers lucky and clever enough to secure bottles of Coche-Dury wines, the treasures that they are able to lock away in their cellars are a fine hedge against the vagaries of growing old. The white Burgundy crown that rests so easily on the head of Jean-François Coche is a rather remarkable achievement, when one pauses to consider his rather meager vineyard holdings versus the scores of white wine-producing domaines whose holdings are chock full of Grand Crus and illustrious Premier Crus.

The two crown jewels amongst the white wines in the Coche cellar are the Meursault "Perrières" and the Corton-Charlemagne. The Corton-Charlemagne's first release was the 1986 vintage, and it is as fine a bottle of Corton Charlie as one can ever hope to find. It is very slow to unfold, and in any top vintage requires a minimum of ten years of bottle age to really blossom and begin to drink well.

The Coche-Dury Meursault "Perrières" is the other twin titan in the cellar. Many Burgundy lovers, often over a glass of inspired Côte d'Or rouge or blanc, like to banter about which vineyards are worthy of promotion in the appellation contrôlée system if the French were ever to open up the Pandora's Box or reclassification. Almost universally, the vineyard of Meursault "Perrières" is mentioned as clearly worthy of Grand Cru status. If one were to choose and example of why this is the case, one could do no better than a bottle of Coche-Dury Meursault "Perrières". This is a complete wine that quite easily rivals the quality of the Corton-Charlemagne in the cellar. In some vintages the Corton looks to be the better of the two, sometimes the Meursault "Perrières". But in virtually every vintage the Meursault "Perrières" is a long-lived wine of uncompromising brilliance, and well worth the price of admission. There are not many Bâtard-Montrachets or Chevalier-Montrachets that I would trade even up for a bottle of Coche-Dury Meursault "Perrières".

THE RAREST OF RARE

Are there two more enticing words in the vinous language than “Jayer” and “d’Auvénay?” As the unofficial parents of a certain kind of Burgundy, both legends behind the labels, the late Henri Jayer and the indomitable Madame Lalou Bize-Leroy are the most respected and honored names in the entire region. Though the wines they made are radically different in profile, they shared a fanaticism with low yields and attention to farming. Collectors spend their whole lives chasing down these bottles and those who are fortunate to have shared wines from these producers know that despite the price and challenge in securing them, opening a bottle from the Father and Mother of Burgundy is lifechanging and momentous.

As rare as it is to find a single bottle, it’s even more astounding to find a collection with many of these labels. The consignor was fortunate to catch the Burgundy bug alongside other prominent collectors in the early 90’s, when it was hard but not impossible to secure healthy allocations. He is close friends with the most respected wine critics and was able to purchase directly from Martine’s and other top retailers on release. The wines were stored in a purpose built private commercial grade wine cellar under constant temperature and humidity control prior to release for this sale. His tastes have turned back to Bordeaux and he releases these gems to new homes to make way for cases of Classified Growths. Bid with confidence.

HENRI JAYER

Jayer's emphasis on viticultural practices and the meticulous care that he gave to his vineyards are simply the most obvious facets of his traditional methodology. Henri Jay revolutionized winemaking during the course of his career. Amongst his very many accomplishments was his emphasis on limiting yields in the vineyard, allowing the cooled must to macerate for a few days prior to the onset of alcoholic fermentation to allow colors to set and adding to the aromatic complexity in the finished wine and bottling the wine unfinned and unfiltered. He always spoke of the importance of treating the wine gently during the fermentation and elevage process, which he likened to "moving a sleeping baby who must be carried to its bed from the sofa upon which it has fallen asleep." He also was a proponent of one hundred percent new oak for his wines. This was the one precept of his winemaking technique that cannot be described as traditional, and it is the one most often cited by modern winemakers when they seek to sprinkle a little of the "fairy dust" of Jay inspiration on their own wines. There is little doubt that the concept that a Grand Cru "deserves to be raised in one hundred percent new oak" that is often heard in Burgundy these days can be traced back to Henri Jay and his success with new wood. However, one of the interesting things I have always found about Henri Jay's wines was that I have never tasted one that was over-oaked.

FINE WINES

from an English Gentleman

(LOTS 1205-1255)

Collections like this don't come around too often.

The finest from Burgundy including Fourrier, Dujac, Roumier, Raveneau, Bachelet and de Vogüé—none of which had left the Continent before being removed from professional storage for this auction. The wines here were bought on release from UK retailers and went directly into storage. The wines were then shipped in a refrigerated container with temperature trackers installed.

You may recognize the wines, but with this sort of European provenance the expressions are sure to be unparalleled.

Bid with confidence.

DOMAINE FOURRIER

Jean-Marie Fourrier took over the family property from his father in the mid-1990s and the quality of the Domaine's wines improved markedly and rapidly. Jean-Marie subscribes to the philosophy that great wines begin in the vineyard and he is fastidious about maintaining healthy, well-nurtured vines. He saw firsthand the importance of minimal intervention in the winemaking process (provided one had excellent raw materials from the vineyards), when he studied under the great Henri Mayer in the late 1980s. Fourrier is careful to crush only the choicest fruit, all completely destemmed, in his immaculately clean and recently outfitted with new stainless steel tanks fermentation room. He also limits the use of new oak to around 20% so as to better allow the Burgundian terroir to fully express itself in the glass. The product of all this hard work is wines marked by wonderful purity, transparency, and bright vibrant fruit, wines that are a true testament to the land that Jean-Marie Fourrier so carefully cultivates.

FRANÇOIS RAVENEAU

Whichever way you look at these wines they stand up, be it vintage consistency, longevity, intensity of flavor, length and so on- they are just flat out incredible wines and there is nothing else quite like them anywhere. Raveneau's Chablis is now more than ever getting the recognition it deserves and the prices have risen accordingly, but they still represent great values compared to the other top white wines of Burgundy. The only downside is the minute quantities they are typically available in.

History, Vineyards & Winemaking

Domaine Raveneau, today totaling around ten hectares in size, was formed by François Raveneau from small plots passed down from his father and Father-in-law, along with a little land he purchased himself. Today the estate is run by his two sons, Jean-Marie and Bernard, with Jean-Marie taking care of the winemaking duties.

Their cellars, as one might expect from a domaine of such modest acreage, are small and are discreetly located in the village. This is no hi-tech new world winery, but an old-school artisan setup. Dark, cool, and damp with a fine vaulted architectural ceiling, they set the scene appropriately. The secret to these wines is immense care in the vineyards. If ever the term hand-crafted could be applied to wine, it can be here. The wines spend approximately twelve months in barrel, but to retain the benchmark acidity and steeliness the barrels are usually seven to nine years in age, although some percentage of new oak is used. There is a light fining prior to bottling by hand and then the application of the trademark yellow wax capsules.

Domaine Raveneau's vineyard holdings include: Les Clos, Blanchot, Valmur, Bougrots, Montée de Tonnerre, Butteaux, Vaillons, Chapelot, Montmains and Forest. Raveneau's wines are utterly unique, of unquestionable quality and can age as well as a Ramonet or DRC Montrachet. Even for those who don't typically drink white wine, Raveneau's epiphanous Chablis does not disappoint.

THE COLLECTION OF IAN MILL KC, PART III (LOTS 1256-1643)

In October of 2019, the first part of the Collection of Ian Mill QC was auctioned at Le Bernardin Privé in New York City with stupendous results. Two years later, at the end of 2021, came an equally successful Part II.

Every time you pop a bottle with that small green sticker on it, you pray for the opportunity to replenish your cellar.

Here is that opportunity: IMKCIII. The name may have changed (Ian is now a King's Counsel), but the wines remain the same!

In the introductions to Parts I – II, you learned about Ian as a consumer, collector, investor and restaurateur, involved with Cabotte in London. He is now an investor in a fabulous new wine bar - Maison in Healdsburg.

There is a common thread underlying Ian's wine-related activities and passions. Let's not beat around the bush: Ian is all about Burgundy.

52 bottles and magnums of Coche-Dury. Yes, you read that right, magnums of Coche-Dury, specifically Corton-Charlemagne 1988, 1990 and 1991.

73 bottles and magnums (mostly magnums) of Rousseau, including 1985s, 1990s and 1993s.

7 bottles of Lafon's miniscule production, one-barrel-only Montrachet.

Of course, there is Domaine de la Romanée-Conti. Of course, there is Dujac, including Clos St Denis 1991 and 1993.

There is Roulot, Roumier, Jayer, Lamy, Mugnier and Raveneau.

Should you be one of those rare folks who doesn't need more Burgundy in his life, there's also Clos Ste. Hune from 1979 and 1985, Lafleur in magnums, 1989 Haut Brion rouge et blanc, both in magnums. There's a swimming pool of Champagne including P2 and P3. There's Jamet, Clos Rougeard, 1978 Rayas and 1978 Sassicaia and 1971 Conterno.

It's no exaggeration to say that, in the midst of a two-day, stunning auction at Le Bernardin, this offering stands out. We are delighted to present it to you.

BORDEAUX

Château Haut-Brion 1989

Pessac Léognan, Premier Cru Classé

3cm, scuffed and damp-stained label, signs of old seepage

"The finish is so effortless and yet it changes constantly in the glass, revealing new facets...It is an awe-inspiring Haut-Brion...100." NM 6/18.

1256 1 magnum (1.5L) US$3,800-5,500

CHÂTEAU LAFLEUR

Originally part of the Le Gay estate, Lafleur is owned by the Robin family, also owners of Le Gay until 2002. Today Lafleur is managed by Jacques Guinaudeau, a cousin of the owners. The vineyard is just 200 meters from Petrus and although gravelly in appearance, the soils do contain a fair amount of clay. The vines here are fairly old, having largely avoided the 1956 frost, and the yields are low, just twenty-six hl/ha. The grapes are total destemmed, and the wines spend roughly sixteen to twenty months in fifty percent new oak barriques.

This is an extremely rich and heady wine, like liquid velvet, big and muscular when young, but mellowing wonderfully in time. Unfortunately for the many fans of Lafleur, production is a meager 1000 to 1200 cases a year.

individual original wood case

wine-stained label, lightly protruding cork, signs of old seepage

"...flavors that are rich, powerful, serious and densely concentrated, all wrapped in a silky, palate staining, explosive and colossally persistent finish...98." BH 1/12.

1270 1 magnum (1.5L) US$7,500-11,000

Chambertin Armand Rousseau 2015

Côte de Nuits, Grand Cru

"Here too there is just enough oak to mention but once again it's not really enough to impair the purity of the distinctly cool and ultra-spicy red currant, underbrush, sandalwood, lilac and plenty of earth aromas. The rich, intense and overtly muscular big-bodied flavors possess a similar level of minerality that is borderline pungent and it informs the explosively long, firm and very serious finish. This notably powerful, but not really austere effort, displays magnificent potential and if it develops its usual degree of complexity over time it should merit the upper end of my projected range...98." BH 1/18.

1271 2 bottles US$7,000-11,000

Chambertin Armand Rousseau 2017

Côte de Nuits, Grand Cru

It has an almost extravagant bouquet that delivers plush Morello cherry, wild strawberry and light cassis aromas and with aeration, these ebb to reveal more tertiary notes and a touch of pencil shavings. ## DENIS BACHELET

Like any great vintner, Denis Bachelet has always given credit for his wines to his work in the vineyard. Rooted on the 10-acre Domaine are vines that range between 75 and 80 years. With a focus on quality over quantity, they have kept a small property, yet gained a cult following for their carefully vinified product.

DOMAINE DUJAC

This domaine was founded in 1968 by Jacques Seysses and currently comprises approximately fifteen hectares. Winemakers Jeremy and Diana Seysses have been at the helm of the Domaine since 2001. They believe that the success of their wines lie in the team effort at the Domaine from their Chef de Culture in the vineyard, Lilian Robin, to Jeremy's brother, Alec, and father, Jacques, who contribute in the cellar. In 2009, the Domaine began its conversion to total biodynamic farming practices. The Domaine chooses to emphasize intensity over power and prides itself on producing individualistic wines that are elegant, delicate, and complex.

MÉO-CAMUZET

Jean-Nicolas Méo of Domaine Méo-Camuzet has just celebrated his twentieth anniversary as a full-time vigneron, having first made wine at the family estate in the 1989 vintage. In many ways his two decades at the head of the domaine have dovetailed neatly with the renaissance that has swept through Burgundy in the same period of time, and it is rather extraordinary to see (particularly in a region so steeped in history) Domaine Méo-Camuzet rise to the very pinnacle of estates in Vosne-Romanée in just two short decades. This meteoric rise is directly reflective of Jean-Nicolas Méo's great talent and passion for the wines of Burgundy, coupled to the superb vineyard holdings that were secured by previous generations of the Méo and Camuzet families and the sagacity of the family to early on hire Henri Jayer to manage many of their vineyards and oversee much of their winemaking prior to Jean-Nicolas taking over the reins of the domaine.

DOMAINE HUDELLOT-NOËLLAT

Domaine Hudelot-Noëllat was founded in 1964 by Alain and Odile Hudelot-Noëllat. Their wines have been regarded for generations as some of the best in Burgundy, thanks to their purity, smoothness and complexity. In 1978, the domaine grew considerably with the acquisition of five hectares in Vosne-Romanée from Domaine Charles Noëllat —Odile's grandfather's domaine — including parcels in Richebourg Grand Cru, as well as Premier Cru parcels in Romanée-Saint-Vivant Malconsorts, Beaumonts, and Suchots. Today the domaine owns fifteen appellations spread over ten hectares. The Premier Crus, Vosne-Romanée Les Beaumonts, Les Suchots and Malconsorts are all produced from vines that are 100 years old.

RENÉ ENGEL

René Engel was one of the most famous Vosne-Romanée estates until Philippe, René's grandson, died in 2005. Philippe had been making the wine at his grandfather's estate since the early '80s, under René's watchful eye, of course. The estate was famous for a classic style of Burgundy that focused on finesse and elegance, and less extraction. The Domaine was sold to François Pinault (owner of Château Latour and Christie's, among other things) after Philippe's death in 2005 and is now known as Domaine Eugénie, after Pinault's mother. The wines of René Engel are disappearing quickly as they're not being made, and the collectors who own them can't help but drink them.

ARNAUD ENTE

Founded in 1992, Arnaud Ente is a relative newcomer to the world of fine Burgundy. His wines have been a hot commodity for those that were aware of them; it's only fairly recently that they have been trickling into the auction market, commanding the prices that one of the finest wines in the world deserves. These are micro-production wines made with an intense focus on quality. Arnaud and his wife Marie Odile make wines from En L'Ormeau Clos in Meursault, and bottle them as Meursault, Clos des Ambres, and Sève du Clos, based on vine age and position in the Clos. Ente also makes Puligny-Montrachet Goutte d'Or, Les Referts, and Les Petits Charrons. All of their holding are less than a hectare, and indeed most are a quarter of a hectare—an unfathomably small parcel of wine (to give you an idea, the entirety of Montrachet is 8 hectares). The rarity of these wines is such that demand already outstrips supply, and as Ente's fame continues to grow it would be smart to get in now—not exactly on the ground floor, but nowhere near the top, either.

DOMAINE DES COMTES LAFON

Domaine des Comtes Lafon has been in the Lafon family since 1865. Dominique Lafon took over the domaine in 1983. It is comprised of approximately fourteen hectares situated in the communes of Volnay, Monthélie, Chassagne-Montrachet, and of course, Meursault, where the domaine and its monopole vineyard Clos de la Barre are located. In 1923, Dominique's great-grandfather, Jules Lafon, revived the idea of the traditional Burgundian postharvest meal and held the first Paulée de Meursault at Domaine des Comtes Lafon. 90 years later, the tradition is still going strong!

All of his vineyards are cultivated biodynamically and he now owns every 1er Cru in Meursault. As part of the fourth generation of winemakers in the Lafon family, Dominique and his wines are superstars not only in Burgundy but throughout the world.

DOMAINE LEFLAIVE

Joseph Leflaive was a very astute purchaser of vineyard land during the first two decades of the twentieth century, so that today the domaine's roster of vineyards is the greatest constellation of white Burgundy patrimony in the Côte de Beaune. These include just under two full hectares in Chevalier-Montrachet, an equal slice in Bâtard-Montrachet, a bit more than a hectare in Bienvenues-Bâtard-Montrachet (out of a total of 2.3 hectares), just over three hectares in the beautiful Premier Cru of Pucelles, three-quarters of a hectare in Combettes, 1.27 hectares in Folatières, and nearly five hectares in Premier Cru Clavoillon. In 1991, the topping on the cake was added when the domaine purchased a very small, .08 hectare slice of Le Montrachet itself.

DOMAINE ROULOT

For more than 170 years Domaine Roulot has been an important presence in Meursault. But it was only in the 1920s and 30s that the family, led by Paul Roulot, became grape growers as well as winemakers and distillers. The Domaine as we currently know it was founded by Guy Roulot in the late 1950s and is now run by his son and daughter. The Domaine is comprised of about 11 hectares in the communes of Meursault, Monthélie and Auxey-Duresses. The vineyards are farmed following organic and biodynamic principles. Jean Marc Roulot, a classically trained actor and the current winemaker at Domaine Roulot, has turned this Domaine into one of the most revered of the region. The wines are exceptionally terroir expressive, pure and elegant.

PIERRE-YVES COLIN-MOREY

Pierre-Yves Colin had been the winemaker at his father's Domaine Marc Colin since 1995 when, in 2001, he decided to strike out on his own with his wife Caroline Morey, first as a micro-négociant operation, focusing on tiny quantities of the finest fruit he could buy. He has since grown his holdings to include parcels in the communes of Chassagne-Montrachet, Meursault, Saint-Aubin and Santenay. His choice to use larger demi-muid barrels and eschew the use of battonnage makes each one of his bottlings a clear expression of its terroir and a study in mineral-driven Chardonnay, producing wine of extraordinary purity, elegance and precision. Pierre-Yves Colin and his wines have quickly become international stars.

KRUG

Of all the wine world's luxury brands, Krug is perhaps the most glittering. No expense is spared in its production, though the techniques used are in fact remarkably artisanal, including fermentation in small, old wooden casks. Time is of the essence: the overall ageing cycle is the best part of a decade here, with all wines being aged for at least six years sur pointes (upended, after the "ordinary" ageing period that follows the second fermentation is concluded). No expense is spared, either, in the pricing of its five wines, the cheapest of which, Grande Cuvée, costs as much as many rival houses' top cuvees. This is a wine of magnificent complexity and layered richness, nourishing and diverting, as detailed and textured as a Gobelin tapestry. It contains wines from a decade's worth of vintages and from at least twenty different crus (not all of them Grand or even Premier, one might note); Krug makes no secret, too, of its need and love for Pinot Meunier. (The Krug 1928 vintage, regarded by the family as the greatest ever, contained twenty percent Meunier, and there is eighteen percent in the finely honed 1988.) There is also a relatively understated rose of pale tawny hue, and a series of vintage wines of magnificent stylistic oscillation, fully respecting the potential of each year. The Collection vintage wines have spent more years in the Krug cellars in Reims; disgorgement took place at the same time as for "ordinary" vintage wines. Finally, a champagne de terroir: the pure Chardonnay Clos du Mesnil, vinified from wines in a genuine 1.9 hectares walled vineyard within the village of Le Mesnil, purchased by Krug in 1971, and released as a vintage wine beginning with 1979. In great years (like 1988) it is magnificent and multi-dimensioned.

DOM PÉRIGNON

Dom Pérignon - the name alone makes most of us break out in a delightful smile. When we think of this 17th-century monk from Hautvillers - so often pointed out as the father of Champagne - we either regard him with historical reverence, or associate his name with the proudest of all wine labels and everything else that follows in its glamorous, sparkling wake...

Back in 1936, Moët & Chandon's marketing director Robert- Jean de Vogüé could not possibly have imagined what he had done when he dreamed up the idea of the world's first prestige champagne - a champagne with a sky-high price that was supposed to be even better than the vintage wine, along with a spectacular look that won respect and prompted extravagant enjoyment...

The style itself is ultra-sophisticated, with an amazingly silky softness combined with toasted fireworks, backed up by an exotic fruitiness in a medium body. When Dom Pérignon is at its best I find notes of forest morelles, cream, peach and an overabundance of roasted coffee beans and nuttiness. Dom Pérignon Rosé is an even more exquisite and rare product that has been molded in a similar form, though its full-bodied shape leans more to strawberry or orange, where the whiter somewhat lighter variety becomes exotic and toasted. Dom Pérignon Oenothèque is the latest child in this distinguished family. At Richard Geoffroy's initiative they now release a restricted number of old, well-preserved bottles from Moët's own cellar in different stages of maturity. The wine can be newly disgorged, but it isn't a fixed thing. What is guaranteed, however, is that the wines are in the best possible condition, and that they most likely will act a little more youthfully than the bottles that have been out on the market for a while. This treasure is now decorated with a luxurious black label in unmistakable style.

And speaking of style...In an age when PR people constantly want to minimize labels and change both bottle design and packaging, Dom Pérignon stands there like a Sophia Loren of the champagne world, unchanged and as timelessly sexy. The balance conveyed in the subtly curvaceous shape of the bottle, paired with an olive green label in the shape of a coat of arms adorned with cursive writing, is still as magical as ever. Since 1970 the wine itself is made exclusively in steel tanks and the grapes are mainly Pinot Noir from Aÿ, Bouzy, Verzenay and Hautvillers, as well as Chardonnay in approximately equal amounts from Cramant and Mesnil.

TRIMBACH – CLOS STE HUNE

I don't think anyone would argue that the Romanée-Conti of Alsace vineyards is that of Trimbach's eponymous Clos Ste Hune. It is THE vineyard and THE wine in Alsace and surely one of the greatest single vineyard wines made anywhere in the world today.

Based in the tiny village of Hunawirh it has been in the Trimbach family for more than 200 years and lies in the heart of the Rosacker vineyard, a Grand Cru of course. A mere 1.65 hectare in size it is, needless to say, a very, very rare wine.

GIACOMO CONTERNO

Cantine Giacomo Conterno has stood at the pinnacle of "traditionalist camp of Barolo" for many, many decades, and along with the wines of other Piemonte icons such as Bartolo Mascarello, Mauro Mascarello and Bruno Giacosa, the wines of Cantine Giacomo Conterno have set the standard for excellence in the region for many years. The founder of the estate as it stands today was Giacomo Conterno, who began his own winery in the village of Monforte d'Alba in 1920, and quickly earned a reputation for excellence for the quality of his Barolo. However, the Conterno family's involvement in wine production in Barolo far predates the launching of today's winery in 1920, as the family retains documentation of their wine production ties that dates back to 1770. And in fact, Giacomo Conterno's father was very much involved in winemaking and wine sales from the moment he began his businesses in the region at the beginning of the twentieth century. The flagship Barolo bottling here is the bodega's Monfortino Riserva Speciale, which was first made in the 1920 vintage, and which is unequivocally one of Piemonte's longest-lived and greatest wines.

In many respects, modern Barolo as a long-lived and cellar-worthy wine owes much of its heritage to the visionary efforts of Giacomo Conterno throughout the decades of the 1920s, 1930s and 1940s. It is rather hard to imagine the landscape of Barolo as it is today without his pioneering efforts.

CALIFORNIA

RIDGE MONTE BELLO

The beginnings of this classic estate date back to 1885 when San Francisco Doctor Osea Perrone bought 180 acres on Monte Bello Ridge in what is now the Santa Cruz Mountains AVA. Vineyards were planted in 1886 and the first wine under the Monte Bello label was produced in 1892 from the upper terrace of vineyards. William Short owned the middle terrace of vineyards on the ridge and sold them in 1959 to three scientists from Stanford University. In 1962 the new owners formed a partnership that became Ridge Vineyards, re-bonding the winery so they could again produce wine for commercial sale. In 1966 Ridge purchased the old Monte Bello winery and a small part of the Perrone vineyard property, and Ridge Monte Bello was born. This wine is made from over thirty parcels from the Monte Bello Vineyard vinified separately. The assemblage is made through a blind tasting selection of each parcel over a number of months, primarily Cabernet Sauvignon with a touch of Merlot and, in some vintages, Petit Verdot. The philosophy is for the wines to be born as naturally as possible, with wild yeasts from the vineyard. The wines are rich and ripe and age gracefully. Paul Draper, CEO of Ridge, has been the winemaker for over forty years. A legacy in his own right, Paul has been named "Man of the Year" by Decanter magazine, received the "Distinguished Service Award" from Wine Spectator magazine, was the first recipient of the "COPIA Award" for winemaking, was named Personnalité de L'Anné by Les Grand Prix Du Vin in Paris and was given the James Beard Award for winemaking.

CALIFORNIA

HARLAN ESTATE

Harlan Estate, owned by Bill Harlan, is a luxury, world-class, Cabernet Sauvignon-based wine produced from a steep, terraced vineyard on the western side of Napa Valley, high above Napa's famous Martha's Vineyard. Approximately twenty-four acres are in vine and the yields to date have been very low. Bill Harlan, better-known as one of the principals of Merryvale Vineyards...has only one objective: to produce one of the greatest red wines of California.

The wines are a blend of approximately two-thirds Cabernet Sauvignon and the remainder Cabernet Franc and Merlot.

Bob Levy, Merryvale's winemaker and Michel Rolland, the well-known Bordeaux oenologist, are the architects behind these exceptional efforts. Stylistically the wines are the Napa Valley equivalent of a hypothetical La Mission Haut-Brion/Cheval Blanc blend. They are rich, powerful wines with unmistakable elegance, complexity, and purity.

PETRUS

Petrus today is a little over eleven hectares, including five hectares purchased in 1969 from neighboring Château Gazin. The vineyards have clay topsoil and gravelly subsoil, allowing good initial water retention but excellent longer term drainage. The vines are old, around forty to fifty years, planted with ninety percent Merlot and five percent Cabernet Franc. To increase concentration the vines are pruned extensively and a green harvest is performed. At harvest time, nearly two hundred workers pick the grapes at their peak of balance and ripeness. Sometimes up to four passes are needed but if pressed, as in 1982, the entire harvest can be completed in just one day.

The grapes are partially destemmed and after a fairly lengthy maceration period, sometimes almost a month, the wine spends twenty months in new oak before being fined (but not filtered) and bottled. Petrus is a classic example of careful vineyard management and winemaking yet the result leaves evidence of something even greater. These methods combine with exquisite terroir for Merlot to create something that is, in good vintages, not only earth-shatteringly tasty, but distinctive, lending the name Petrus majesty because of its quality but also its inimitability.

QUINTARELLI

Pioneering Quality and Tradition in the Veneto

For many, the foremost name that comes to mind when considering the wines of Valpolicella is Giuseppe Quintarelli. Even though Giuseppe passed away in 2012, the winery is still run by his family, continuing the legacy of this passionately traditional winery. To drink a Quintarelli wine is to partake in the culture and customs of a bygone era.

Côte de Nuits, Premier Cru
0.5cm, lightly scuffed label

"The 1999 Gevrey-Chambertin Clos Saint-Jacques 1er Cru has long been one of my favourite vintages, not that I get to taste it that often. It has an almost extravagant bouquet that delivers plush Morello cherry, wild strawberry and light cassis aromas and with aeration, these ebb to reveal more tertiary notes and a touch of pencil shavings. The palate displays exquisite balance, this being 1999, more fuller and corpulent than other vintages...97." NM 5/19.

DOMAINE GRIVOT

The Grivot family has been making wines since the mid-seventeenth century, but it was not until after the French Revolution that Gaston Grivot settled in Vosne-Romanée. He purchased a large parcel of Clos Vougeot and his son, Jean, followed in his footsteps by later acquiring 31 ares of Richebourg. Jean's son Etienne took over in 1987, and is the current manager of the domaine along with his wife Marielle and daughter Mathilde, who stands poised to succeed her father in the coming years. In order to obtain balance and harmony in their wines, the Grivot family adapts the wine-making process to the profile of the current vintage, making the appropriate changes when necessary. The Grivot vines are all 40 years and older, and only perfectly ripe and healthy grapes are kept for winemaking. 3 of the domaine's 12.32 hectares are worked by horse, and all treatments are conducted using biodynamic and sustainable organic farming practices with respect for the environment.

GUIGAL

Marcel Guigal - perfectionist, fanatical, pernickety – is the super-star of the appellation and probably sells more Côte-Rôtie under his own label than all the other growers combined. Despite this size, however, the quality is exemplary - as they should be at the prices he charges! He harvests late, insists on very low yields, and keeps the wines in a combination of barrel and small foudres and demi-muids, all newish wood, for up to three and a half years before bottling. Their wines are so concentrated they can withstand this wait without drying out, and remain profound, rich and individual. La Landonne is the Brune, La Mouline the Blonde, La Turque the sort of hermaphroditic mixture. Usually my favourite is the Landonne. The Château d'Ampuis bottling combines elements of both the sectors of Côte-Rôtie, from vines in the climats of La Pommier, Le Pavillon, La Garde and Le Clos.

DOMAINE ROULOT

For more than 170 years Domaine Roulot has been an important presence in Meursault. But it was only in the 1920s and 30s that the family, led by Paul Roulot, became grape growers as well as winemakers and distillers. The Domaine as we currently know it was founded by Guy Roulot in the late 1950s and is now run by his son and daughter. The Domaine is comprised of about 11 hectares in the communes of Meursault, Monthélie and Auxey-Duresses. The vineyards are farmed following organic and biodynamic principles. Jean Marc Roulot, a classically trained actor and the current winemaker at Domaine Roulot, has turned this Domaine into one of the most revered of the region. The wines are exceptionally terroir expressive, pure and elegant.

Most likely needing little introduction, these singular efforts are made by Emmanuel Reynaud from his tiny plot of pure sandy soils located near the center of the Châteauneuf-du-Pape appellation. ## DRC & FINE CHÂTEAUX (LOTS 1834-1854)

A longtime collector and consignor from north of the border has brought some excellent wines to market! In case you missed out on your 2019 DRC allocation, you can pick up those pristine bottles here along with some fine Bordeaux to help fill in those gaps in your verticals.

BORDEAUX

CHÂTEAU CHEVAL BLANC

Cheval Blanc has a relatively short history compared with the other top-rank châteaux of Bordeaux. As recently as the 1830s it was still a part of Figeac. A portion of that estate was sold to the Ducasse family, then owners of L'Évangile, and by twenty years later, when a Ducasse married a Fourcard-Loussac, the property was already some thirty-one hectares in size. The estate remained with the Fourcard-Loussac family until part of it was sold to Bernard Arnault and his company, LVMH, in 1998. Today, along with Château d'Yquem, it is fully owned by Arnault and managed by the dynamic Pierre Lurton.

Cheval Blanc, across the road from Pomerol, has distinctive soil makeup: about twenty percent sand, forty percent clay and forty percent gravel. In the gravelly and sandy areas the roots have to work hard to stay alive and often reach depths of seven to eight meters, compared with two to three meters in the clay areas.

Today the roughly thirty-seven hectares of vineyards are planted with sixty percent Cabernet Franc and forty percent Merlot. Yields are typically thirty-five hl/ha, and the annual production of 6500 to 7000 cases is bottled after eighteen to twenty-four months in new oak.

ITALY

SOLDERA

In Brunello di Montalcino one name more than any other is sought out by collectors the world over, it is that of Gianfranco Soldera at his Case Basse estate in Brunello. These are simply special wines, the hallmarks here are incredible depth, knockout texture and of course supreme complexity.

Although relatively recent when compared to many in the region, beginning only in the late 1970s, Soldera has earned a reputation for quality that is second to none.

Soldera embodies a rare combination of both modern and traditional techniques.

Green harvesting, sorting tables and then ageing for five plus years in large old Slovenian oak casks. The results are remarkable and almost hard to believe, yet year after year the boundary for quality is pushed to its limits, and they age superbly too.

SASSICAIA

Tenuta San Guido is named after the Saint Guido della Gherardesca who lived during the eleventh century. It is located on the Tyrrhenian coast, between Leghorn and Grosseto, in Maremma an area made famous by Italian Nobel prize winner Giosuè Carducci, and it stretches for 13 km from the sea to the hills. Three are its defining characteristics: the Sassicaia wine, the Razza Dormello-Olgiata thoroughbred studfarm and the Bird Sanctuary Oasi di Bolgheri. They divide the estate between the Oasi on the coast, the horse's training grounds on the plain, and the vineyards planted up to 350 meters on the hills.

The latter have been given their own DOC, the DOC Bolgheri Sassicaia, the first, and so far only case in Italy of a DOC contained in one estate. The wedding of Mario Incisa della Rocchetta and Clarice della Gherardesca on October 18th 1930, started it all. They shared a love for thoroughbred horses that made them form a partnership with horse breeder and trainer Federico Tesio. Mario Incisa's love of good wine made him plant Cabernet vines in 1942 for what was to become Sassicaia. Seventeen years later the Oasi of Bolgheri becomes Italy's first Italian private nature preserve. In 1966 it is, with the Oasi of the lake of Burano, the first WWF Wildlife Refuge in Italy.

AN ESSENTIAL COLLECTION OF SINE QUA NON (LOTS 1972-1979)

Before a brilliant wine director drove north from Los Angeles and landed in a garage near Ventura, the phrase 'sine qua non' loosely translated from the Latin meant "a condition without which not" or "an essential condition." Manfred Krankel quickly turned his small bespoke project of Rhône varietals made in extremely limited quantities into an essential staple of nearly every major cellar in America. There's not a Bordeaux, Burgundy or California collector that doesn't stock a case or two of SQN. There's nary a brand director and visits are impossible, but the famously bold and eccentric labels are right at home on tables ranging from Taipai to Tallahassee. The wines are terrifically unique and their place in the world of wine, despite its unlikely origins, is truly essential. All of the cases here were purchased directly from the mailing list and stored in professional storage in the Pacific Northwest.

CALIFORNIA

SINE QUA NON

The ultimate garage wine from southern California emanates from a rusty warehouse that appears to be on the wrong side of the railroad tracks running through Ventura. The winery's name is Sine Qua Non (literally translated from Latin means "without which one cannot"), and as the proprietors' (the husband and wife team of Elaine and Manfred Krankl) indicate on the label of their sumptuous 1997 Syrah called Imposter McCoy, "the truth is inside"...

THE RAREST WINE IN THE WORLD? (LOT 1986)

In 2002 at the Hospice du Rhone, Manfred Krankel auctioned off one full barrel of a Rhone Blend from Alban Vineyard. It was a special 2001 cuvee of 55.5% Grenache, 39% Syrah and 5.5% Mourvedre and produced 24 Bottles, 15 Magnums, and 3 Double Magnums. Like the famous Hospice du Beaune auction, the successful buyers earned the right to place their name on the label.

Buying & Bidding Information

Prior to bidding, all participants must read the Buying & Bidding Information and the Conditions of Sale contained in this catalog that state the terms governing the purchase of alcoholic beverage products sold at auction. Auctions are operated by: (i) Zachys Europe Limited in respect of auctions which are conducted from the United Kingdom; (ii) Zachys Asia Limited in respect of auctions which are conducted from Hong Kong; (iii) Zachys Wine Auctions, Inc in respect of auctions which are conducted from anywhere else in the world; and (iv) in respect of online-only auctions, the entity stated in the auction particulars as operator of the auction, (each referred to as "Zachys") acting as agent for and on behalf of the relevant consignor of the goods to be offered for sale (the "Consignor"). By participating in an auction, an auction participant ("Buyer") agrees to be bound by this Buying & Bidding Information and the Conditions of Sale in this catalog (whether in print or online).

Estimates

Catalog lot entries include a description of every lot and an estimated price range that is our opinion of the price expected at auction. Estimates are a guide for bidders and generally reflect prices recently paid at auction for comparable alcoholic beverage products. Each estimate takes into account, among other things, condition, rarity, quality and provenance (history of ownership, to the extent known). Estimates are determined in advance of the sale and are therefore subject to revision. Buyers should not rely upon estimates as a prediction of actual selling prices.

Estimates do not include Buyer's Premium or sales tax. Certain lots may be noted with "Estimate on Request" instead of a printed value in the catalog. Please contact a Zachys specialist for further information and bidding assistance.

Buyers Premium

A 25% Buyer's Premium (exclusive of sales tax) will be added to the successful bid price of each lot purchased and is payable by Buyer, together with all applicable sales tax, as stated in the Conditions of Sale.

Reserves

Unless otherwise indicated, all lots are sold subject to a reserve. A reserve is the confidential minimum price established between Zachys and the Consignor. The reserve will not exceed the low estimate for the lot. If any lot in the catalog is not subject to a reserve, the lot will be identified by the symbol (▼) next to the lot title.

Examination of Wines

Zachys endeavors to select quality wines for auction and uses leading reputable expert(s) to assist Zachys in examining wines for auction. However, to the fullest extent permissible by law, Zachys and any Consignor disclaim any liability arising out of any description or error or omission in any description or any decision by the Buyer to rely on Zachys or any Consignor. Prospective Buyers are urged and advised to examine any lots carefully prior to the auction at our temperature-controlled warehouse and can do so by appointment. Please contact Zachys at +1.914.448.3026 or +852.2530.1971 to set up an appointment.

Bidder Registration

No person shall bid or buy in any auction (or be shipped any property bought in any auction) who has not agreed (either in writing or electronically) to be bound by the Conditions of Sale and this Buying & Bidding Information. If a prospective Buyer has not previously bid with Zachys, a government issued photo identification (such as National Identity Card or Passport) may be required prior to registration for any sale.

If

a business organization registers to bid in an auction, a Business Registration or a Certificate of Incorporation and/or proof of director may be required in order to obtain a paddle. First time Buyers may settle invoices by wire transfer or check only. Zachys requires front and back copies of all credit cards for new Buyers along with picture identification.

Prospective Buyers are asked to supply a bank reference to register for the auction. To avoid delay in the release of purchases, please pre-arrange check or credit approval through our Finance Department at +1.914.874.8034 or +852.2530.1971.

All bidders who wish to attend the live auction are asked to preregister for a paddle at least two business days in advance of the auction. If you plan to attend the auction, a Bidder Pre-Registration Form is provided in this catalog or at auction.zachys.com. Complete and either fax the form to +1.914.313.2350 or +852.3014.3838 or email the form to bid@zachys.com or asia@zachys.com at least two business days prior to the auction. Bidders should arrive at least 30 minutes before the scheduled sale of the lot on which they plan to bid to retrieve a paddle.

Bidding

Lots are auctioned in consecutive numerical order, as they appear in the catalog. The auctioneer will accept bids from (i) those present in the saleroom, (ii) absentee bidders participating by telephone, online or by written bid provided to Zachys at least 24 hours prior to the first and session of the auction, or (iii) live over the internet. The auctioneer may also execute bids on behalf of the Consignor's reserve; however, under no circumstances will the auctioneer place any bid on behalf of the Consignor at or above the reserve. The auctioneer will not identify bids placed on behalf of the Consignor. Prospective Buyers who have registered to bid by more than one method (for example, both as an in-saleroom and absentee bidder) must monitor all of their bidding activities (including in-saleroom bids, absentee bids, and online bids) to prevent bidding against themselves. Subject to the section headed "Right of Cancellation" in the Conditions of Sale (in the case of consumers only), for all Zachys live and online auctions, all bids are final and will not be cancelled.

Bidding by Zachys

Zachys reserves the right to bid on any lot on its own behalf, subject to the same terms and conditions applicable to all other Bidders.

Parcel Lots

A parcel is a sequence of lots carrying the same estimates and consisting of the same type, quantity and bottle size. In this sale the Buyer of the first lot of a parcel will have, at the discretion of the auctioneer, the option to take any or all further lots in the parcel for the same price. If the option is not exercised on all lots in the same parcel, the auctioneer will open bidding on the next unsold lot and offer the Buyer of that lot the option to take any or all of the remaining lots in the parcel sequence. Bidding shall continue in the same manner until all lots in the parcel have been offered and declared sold or unsold by the auctioneer. Live Online bidders who purchase the first lot in a parcel will be sent a message requesting that they choose how many additional lots in the parcel they would like to purchase. If the Live Online bidder does not respond to the message, the auctioneer will open the next unsold lot in the sequence.

Bids should be placed on the first lot in a parcel. In the event that a bid is placed on a subsequent lot, Zachys will move the bid to the first lot in the parcel. An unsuccessful bid on the first lot in a parcel will be carried to the next lot and executed on that lot. If unsuccessful again, the bid will be carried to the next lot in the parcel until all lots have been offered.

Online, Absentee, & Telephone Bids for Live Auctions

Please note: Zachys offers the following services as a convenience to clients. Zachys is not responsible for any error in connection with or failure to execute absentee, telephone or online bids.

Online Bids

Live auctions will open for bidding on our website at www.auction.zachys.com approximately 3-4 weeks before the scheduled live auction date. Bids may be submitted online during this period.

There are two ways to bid online: (i) submit the starting/next bid or (ii) submit a maximum bid. To simplify the bidding process, Zachys uses predetermined bidding increments. If a maximum bid is submitted, bids will be placed on your behalf only as much as is required to ensure you remain the highest bidder (up to your maximum bid). In cases when two equivalent maximum bids are submitted, the earlier one will hold.

All bids submitted online are immediately executed. You cannot cancel a bid once it has been submitted. You may, however, adjust your maximum bid while it is higher than the current standing bid.

Estimates and Bid amounts may be shown in a secondary currency, shown in parentheses ( ), by the user selecting a preferred viewing currency on the website. Please note these values are only an estimate, based on recent exchange rates, and all bids as well as final payments will be conducted in the sale's primary currency.

Prospective Buyers may also bid during the live auction on our website at www.auction.zachys.com.

By registering and bidding on the internet, prospective Buyers agree to be bound by the Conditions of Sale. Zachys assumes no responsibility for disputes or errors arising from online bid activity. In the event of a dispute, the auctioneer's declaration of winning bid and paddle number shall be determinative. In the event of communication delays or failures, the auction will not be stopped. Live online bidders should consider providing Zachys with emergency absentee bids.

Absentee Bids

If you are unable to attend the auction in person and wish to place bids, you may give Zachys instructions in writing to bid on your behalf. Zachys' representatives will then try to purchase the lot or lots of your choice for the lowest price possible, taking into account the reserve price and other bids. This service is free and confidential. To place absentee bids, use the form provided herein or at www.auction.zachys.com. Be certain to accurately record the lot numbers and the highest hammer price you are willing to pay for the lot.

Please note: Your bid amount does not include Buyer's Premium or applicable sales tax. Buyer's Premium and applicable sales tax will be added to the hammer price of each lot.

Absentee bids must be submitted in consecutive numerical order, or they will not be executed. In addition, please use the bid increments included on the absentee bid form. If bids are submitted incorrectly, Zachys will round your bid up to the next increment. Please place bids as early as possible and at least 24 hours prior to the start of the first session of the auction. In the event of identical bids, the earliest bid received will take precedence. By registering and submitting absentee bids, prospective Buyers agree to be bound by the Conditions of Sale.

Telephone Bids

Prospective Buyers may bid by telephone during the live sale. Telephone bids are accepted only at Zachys' discretion and at the prospective Buyer's risk. Because of limited phone lines in the saleroom, Zachys must confirm arrangements for this service at least 48 hours prior to the start of the first session of the auction. At Zachys' discretion, telephone bids may be limited to lots with a value above US$2,000, HK$16,000 or GBP£2,000 and may be recorded. By submitting a telephone bid, prospective Buyers agree to be bound by the Conditions of Sale.

Bidding in Online Auctions

Bids can be submitted anytime during the course of an online auction on our website at www.auction.zachys.com.

There are two ways to bid: (i) submit the starting/next bid or (ii) submit a maximum bid.

To simplify the bidding process, Zachys uses predetermined bidding increments. If a maximum bid is submitted, bids will be placed on your behalf only as much as is required to ensure you remain the highest bidder (up to your maximum bid). In cases when two equivalent maximum bids are submitted, the earlier one will hold.

All bids submitted online are immediately executed. You cannot cancel a bid once it has been submitted. You may, however, adjust your maximum bid while it is higher than the current standing bid.

Estimates and Bid amounts may be shown in a secondary currency, shown in parentheses ( ), by the user selecting a preferred viewing currency on the website. Please note these values are only an estimate, based on recent exchange rates, and all bids as well as final payments will be conducted in the sale's primary currency.

By registering and bidding on the internet, prospective Buyers agree to be bound by the Conditions of Sale. Zachys assumes no responsibility for disputes or errors arising from online bid activity.

Taxes

Buyers are responsible for the payment of any tax, tariff, duty or other fee which Zachys may be required by law to charge or remit to any authority in respect of or in connection with the sale.

All bids placed by Buyers are deemed to be submitted exclusive of any sales tax which shall (if required) be payable by the Buyer at the appropriate rate. All such taxes shall be paid by Buyer at the time of delivery to Buyer at Zachys' licensed location.

Buyers claiming exemption from sales, use or other tax must provide Zachys with documentation, which, in Zachys' sole discretion and judgment, is satisfactory evidence of such exemption, prior to the release of property to the Buyer. Buyers claiming such exemption who are licensed dealers of alcoholic beverages must submit resale certificates and a copy of their valid licenses to Zachys prior to registering for the sale.

Owned or Guaranteed Property

Zachys offers property consigned by others for sale at public auction. Occasionally, lots are offered which have in the course of the sale process become the property of Zachys. These lots are identified with the symbol (■) next to the lot number.

On rare occasions, Zachys may guarantee a minimum price to the Consignor. Such lots are identified in the catalog by the symbol (▣) next to the lot number. Guaranteed lots may also be sold subject to a reserve.

Successful Bid

The fall of the auctioneer's hammer indicates the final bid, at which time the Buyer assumes full responsibility for the lot. Successful bidders will be notified and invoiced within a few days of the sale. Successful Buyers will pay the price of the final bid plus a 25% Buyer's Premium plus any applicable taxes for each lot purchased.

Payment

Payment for all invoices is due immediately upon receipt.

For zCollections purchases, Zachys will auto-charge the credit card on file for the full invoice amount within 48 hours of the sale close.

For live auction purchases, Zachys will auto-charge the credit card on file for invoices up to US$20,000, HK$150,000, or GBP £15,000 within 48 hours of the sale close. American Express cards may be charged the full invoice amount without limit.

In respect of all other purchases, buyers are expected to pay for purchases within 14 calendar days of purchase for live sales and 7 calendar days of purchase for internet sales. At the end of this 14 or 7 calendar day period (as applicable), Zachys reserves the right to charge the Buyer's credit card on file for any amounts still due. All amounts remaining due after this 14 or 7 calendar-day period will be subject to a 2% per month late charge. In addition, any payments in default after 21 calendar days will incur a penalty equal to 3% of the purchase price. Additional late fees equal to 3% of the total purchase price may be charged for every 14 calendar days past the initial 21 calendar-day period. All payments are made on account until all invoices and all balances due are paid in full.

For US auctions, payment is accepted in United States Dollars.

For Hong Kong auctions, payment is accepted in Hong Kong Dollars.

To request payment in another currency, contact Zachys at +1.914.448.3026 or +852.2530.1971. Zachys, in its sole discretion, shall determine the currency exchange rate.

To avoid delays in the release of your purchases, prospective Buyers are requested to supply bank references prior to the auction.

Payment can be made by credit card, check, money order, or bank wire transfer. In the event of third-party payments, Zachys may require an Authorization Letter from both parties.

Payment by Credit Card

All charges are subject to acceptance by Zachys and the applicable credit card company. Zachys will accept Visa, MasterCard, American Express, Discover and Union Pay. Payment can be made via phone by calling +1.914.448.3026 or +852.2530.1971. For live auctions, the maximum amount allowed to be charged on credit cards is limited to HK$150,000, US$20,000 or GBP£15,000 per auction, with the exception of payments via American Express which has no limit.

Zachys reserves the right to charge Buyer's credit card and to immediately assess a 3% late penalty charge, should payment be past the due date, notwithstanding that the amount of such charge may exceed HK$150,000, US$20,000 or GBP£15,000. Zachys reserves the right to charge Buyer's credit card and to immediately assess the relevant late payment charges set out above, should payment be past the due date, notwithstanding that the amount of such charge may exceed the maximum amount.

When making payment via UnionPay, winning bidder must sign the auction invoice and acknowledge that possession of the wine has transferred from Zachys at time of payment. Signature must be same as the one signed on payslip.

Collection & Delivery

It is the Buyer's responsibility to pick up purchases or make shipping arrangements within 14 calendar days of the auction. Zachys will not automatically arrange for the delivery of purchased products.

After payment has been received, Zachys can assist in the arrangement of packing, transit insurance, and shipping at the Buyer's expense, direction and request.

Please submit the Collection & Delivery Form to expedite payment and delivery for auction purchases.

Export/Import Permits

Alcoholic beverage products sold at auction may be subject to laws governing export from the jurisdiction where the auction was held and import restrictions of foreign countries. Buyers should always check whether an export license is required before exporting alcoholic beverage products. It is the Buyer's sole responsibility to obtain any relevant export or import license. A delay in obtaining licenses shall neither justify the rescission of any sale nor excuse delay in providing full payment for the lot. Local laws may prohibit the importation of some property and/or may prohibit the resale of some property in the country of importation; no such restriction shall justify the rescission of any sale or delay in making full payment for the lot.

Delivery Restrictions

Prospective Buyers are also reminded that various jurisdictions impose limitations on the quantity of alcoholic beverage products which may be purchased and brought into their jurisdiction by a purchaser from another jurisdiction, without requiring the purchaser, a consignor or shipper to possess certain licenses or permits. Zachys shall not as a condition of sale assume any obligation or bear any responsibility whatsoever for applying for or obtaining the requisite permits or licenses in the event the quantity purchased exceeds said limitations. Therefore, all prospective Buyers are strongly advised to investigate the possibility of such limitations and to determine the manner in which alcoholic beverages shall be brought into the jurisdiction so as to comply with all local requirements.

Shipment of Spirits

Prospective Buyers should be advised there are certain restrictions regarding the shipment of spirits. Many countries and states impose limitations on quantity, high duties, and/or taxes, and prospective Buyers should be aware of export and import restrictions.

Auction Results

To obtain results for the auction, please refer to www.auction.zachys.com.

Translation

The terms and conditions have originally been drafted in English. In the event that any translation of the terms and conditions is prepared, the provisions of the English version shall prevail.

Conditions of Sale

These Conditions of Sale are Zachys' and the Consignor's entire agreement with the Buyer with respect to the property listed in this catalog. The Conditions of Sale and all other contents of this catalog may be amended by posted notices or oral announcements made during the sale. The property will be offered by Zachys as agent for the Consignor, unless the catalog indicates otherwise. By participating in an auction, you agree to be bound by these terms and conditions.

1 This catalog endeavors to describe the property listed herein accurately. However, save as otherwise expressly set out in these Conditions of Sale, and to the fullest extent permissible by law, Zachys and the Consignor shall not be liable for any such description and expressly disclaim any representation or warranty regarding the origin, physical condition, merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, correctness of catalog description, size, quality, condition, rarity, authenticity, attribution, value, importance, provenance, previous storage conditions or historical relevance of any property herein. Zachys further retains the absolute right to amend at any time and in any manner any description of any property contained in any catalog, and shall take reasonable steps to inform Buyers of such change prior to the conclusion of any purchase. Classifications in the text are for identification purposes only and based on standard sources. Buyers must make appropriate allowances for natural variations in ullages, conditions of cases, labels, corks and wine. Each statement contained in any catalog and each other statement, whether oral or written, and whether made at an auction or in an advertisement, bill of sale, addendum, posting, notice, announcement or otherwise, is a statement of opinion only and (subject to the next sentence) shall not be relied upon by any Buyer or otherwise be deemed a warranty or representation.

The previous sentence does not apply to the sale of goods acting as consumers in the United Kingdom – Zachys is under a legal duty to ensure that such goods are in conformity with their description. Images appearing in this catalog or elsewhere are for illustrative purposes only and may not be relied upon to reveal imperfections in any products. Zachys and the Consignor make no representation or warranty, express or implied, as to whether the Buyer acquires any copyright or other reproduction rights in any property. To the fullest extent permissible by law, neither Zachys nor the Consignor shall be liable for errors or omissions in the catalog or any supplemental material. Prospective Buyers are urged and advised to inspect the property before the auction, including the cases, labels, corks and wines, and must satisfy themselves by inspection or other means as to all considerations pertinent to any decision to place any bid. EACH PRODUCT AND EACH LOT HEREIN IS SOLD "AS IS," AND, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMISSIBLE BY LAW, BUYERS EXPRESSLY DISCLAIM ANY RELIANCE ON ZACHYS, THE CONSIGNOR, OR THE CATALOG. No provision of the Buyer & Bidding Information or these Conditions of Sale shall limit or exclude Zachys' or the Consignor's liability for: (i) fraud; (ii) fraudulent misrepresentation; or (iii) death or personal injury arising from its negligence.

2 The purchase price payable by the Buyer ("Purchase Price") will be the sum of the final bid price (the "Hammer Price"), the Buyer's Premium and the Protection Fee, when applicable, together with any applicable sales tax. The Buyer's Premium is 25% of the Hammer Price. The Protection Fee is 1% of the Hammer Price plus the Buyer's Premium.

3 Zachys reserves the right to withdraw any property or cancel any sale before or at the sale and shall have no liability whatsoever for such withdrawal or cancellation.

4 Zachys reserves the right to reject any bid. The highest bidder acknowledged by the auctioneer will be the Buyer. In the event of any dispute between bidders, or any other issue with respect to the bidder, the auctioneer will have absolute discretion to determine the successful bidder, to continue the bidding, to cancel the sale or to reoffer and resell the property in dispute. If any dispute arises after the sale, Zachys' sale record is conclusive.

5 In its sole discretion, Zachys may accept and execute absentee bids (written bids submitted to Zachys prior to the sale), telephone bids and internet bids as a convenience to clients who are not present at auction.

6 Unless otherwise indicated, all lots in this catalog are offered subject to a reserve, which is the minimum price the Consignor is willing to accept. This amount is confidential and will not exceed the low presale estimate. Lots not subject to a reserve are identified with the symbol (d) next to the lot number. Zachys shall act to protect the reserve by bidding through the auctioneer. The auctioneer may open bidding on any lot below the reserve by placing a bid on behalf of the Consignor. The auctioneer may continue to bid on behalf of the Consignor up to the amount of the reserve, either by placing successive bids or by placing bids in response to other bidders.

7 Title to the offered lot passes to the Buyer upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer and the announcement by the auctioneer that the lot has been sold, subject to compliance by the Buyer with all other Conditions of Sale and the Buying & Bidding Information.

8 The Protection Fee is 1% of the hammer price plus the Buyer's Premium for all arranged deliveries of purchased property. In return for payment of the Protection Fee, purchased property will be protected against breakage, loss, theft or fire and other losses as covered by Zachys' insurance while in transit to the Buyer's declared point of destination. If Buyer elects to decline the protection afforded by the Protection Fee, Buyer thereupon assumes full risk and responsibility for the lot while in transit.

9 No property may be removed from Zachys' premises until Buyer has paid the Purchase Price in full plus all other fees and taxes (inclusive of any taxes due in the location of the auction on Buyers who are not residents of such location) and has satisfied such terms as Zachys, in its sole discretion, shall require. Zachys reserves the right to withhold all property until such time as all outstanding amounts are paid in full from purchases from any prior auction(s). Upon receipt of full payment, Zachys will issue a Release Order, which must be presented in order for Zachys to release purchases made at auction. Subject to the foregoing, all lots are to be paid for no later than 4:30 PM (local time at the place of the auction) on the fourteenth calendar day following the live sale, and removed from Zachys' premises at Buyer's expense no later than 90 calendar days after the date of sale. If payment is not made within 14 calendar days of purchase for live sales and 7 calendar days of purchase for net sales, Zachys reserves the right to impose a late charge of up to 2% per month of the Purchase Price, in addition to any other rights and remedies available by law to Zachys. Any payments in default after 21 calendar days of purchase will incur a penalty equal to 3% of the Purchase Price. Additional late fees equal to 3% of the Purchase Price may be charged for every 14 calendar days past the initial 21-calendar-day period. If Buyer fails either to timely remove the purchased lots from Zachys' premises or make timely arrangements with New York Fine Wine Storage to store the purchased lots, Zachys may transfer such property to a public warehouse for the account, and at the risk and expense, of Buyer. If a lot has not been collected within 90 calendar days of the date of sale and Zachys does not transfer the uncollected property to a public warehouse, Buyer will be liable to Zachys for interest, storage fees, and handling charges.

10 Zachys is not responsible for acts or omissions by itself or others in packing or shipping, whether or not the carrier or packer is recommended by Zachys. Packing and handling of purchased lots are entirely at the risk of Buyer. Zachys may, at the request and direction of Buyer and for an administrative fee, make arrangements for the consolidated shipment by common carrier of the purchased lots, provided that Zachys is not liable in any way therefore.

11

If Buyer fails to comply with any of these Conditions of Sale, Buyer will be in default and Zachys may avail itself of all remedies available by law, including, without limitation, the right to (i) hold such defaulting Buyer liable for the Purchase Price including all fees, charges and expenses, (ii) cancel the sale of that lot and any other property sold to Buyer, (iii) resell the property without Reserve at public auction or privately on reasonable notice to the Buyer, (iv) pay the Consignor an amount equal to the net proceeds payable in respect of the amount bid by the defaulting Buyer and then resell the property to a third party without Reserve at public auction or privately on reasonable notice to such Buyer, and/or (v) take such other action as Zachys deems necessary or appropriate. If Zachys resells the property pursuant to clause (iii) or (iv) above, the defaulting Buyer shall be liable for the payment of any deficiency between the Purchase Price and the price obtained upon resale pursuant to clause (iii) and (iv) above and all costs and expenses, including, without limitation, warehousing, the expenses of both sales, reasonable attorneys' fees, commissions, incidental damages and all other charges due hereunder. In the event that such Buyer pays a portion of the Purchase Price for any or all lots purchased, Zachys shall apply the payment received to such lot or lots that Zachys, in its sole discretion, deems appropriate. Any Buyer who fails to comply with these Conditions of Sale will be deemed to have granted Zachys a security interest in, and Zachys may retain as collateral security for such Buyer's obligation to it, any property in Zachys' possession owned by such Buyer. Zachys shall have the benefit of all rights of a secured party under the Uniform Commercial Code or applicable law adopted in the jurisdiction where the auction is held.

12

Payment will not be deemed to have been made in full until Zachys has collected good funds. In the event Buyer fails to pay any or all of the Purchase Price for any lot within 30 calendar days of sale and Zachys nonetheless elects to pay the Consignor any portion of the sale proceeds, Buyer acknowledges that Zachys shall have all of the rights of the Consignor to pursue the Buyer for any amounts paid to the Consignor, whether at law, in equity, or under these Conditions of Sale.

Notwithstanding any other terms of these Conditions of Sale, if within 3 calendar days of the date of delivery of the property, Buyer notifies Zachys in writing of a claim that any lot is short, untagged, or has suffered breakage, then Zachys in its sole discretion will decide any such claim as between the Consignor and Buyer and may rescind the sale and refund all or part of the Purchase Price received. This does not affect any other rights of the Buyer at law or under these Conditions of Sale.

Notwithstanding any other terms of these Conditions of Sale, if a Buyer purchased property that is inauthentic and returns such property to Zachys within 90 calendar days of the date of delivery, then Zachys agrees to rescind the sale and refund the Purchase Price received.

The benefit of this Condition of Sale 13 is not assignable and shall be applicable only to the original Buyer of the lot and not to subsequent assigns, buyers, heirs, owners or others who have acquired or may acquire an interest therein.

At its discretion, Zachys will not always cut the bands on original packaging of younger wines. In such cases, Zachys will not accept returns for any issues the Buyer might discover after the band is cut.

14

Alcoholic beverage products sold at auction may be subject to laws governing export from the jurisdiction where the auction was held and import restrictions of foreign countries. Buyers should always check whether an export license is required before exporting alcoholic beverage products. It is the Buyer's sole responsibility to obtain any relevant export or import license. A delay in obtaining licenses shall neither justify the rescission of any sale nor excuse delay in providing full payment for the lot. Local laws may prohibit the importation of some property and/or may prohibit the resale of some property in the country of importation; no such restriction shall justify the rescission of any sale or delay in making full payment for the lot

Prospective Buyers are also reminded that various jurisdictions impose limitations on the quantity of alcoholic beverage products which may be purchased and brought into their jurisdiction by a purchaser from another jurisdiction, without requiring the purchaser, a consignor or shipper to possess certain licenses or permits. Zachys and Consignor shall not as a condition of sale assume any obligation or bear any responsibility whatsoever for applying for or obtaining the requisite permits or licenses in the event the quantity purchased exceeds said limitations.

Therefore, all prospective Buyers are strongly advised to investigate the possibility of such limitations and to determine the manner in which alcoholic beverages shall be brought into the jurisdiction so as to comply with all local requirements.

16a

For auctions that are held not in Hong Kong, the District of Columbia or the United Kingdom, the respective rights and obligations of the parties with respect to the Conditions of Sale and the conduct of the auction shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of New York. By participating in an auction, whether present in person or by agent, by absentee bid, telephone bid, internet bid or other means, Buyer shall be deemed to have consented to the exclusive jurisdiction of the State Courts of, and the Federal Courts sitting in, the State and County of New York. For such auctions, Buyer's sole and exclusive remedy against Zachys and/or the Consignor for any dispute or injury related to the auction or the property listed in the catalog shall be the rescission of the sale and the refund of the original Purchase Price paid for the lot.

This remedy shall be in lieu of any other remedy which might otherwise be available to Buyer as a matter of law or at equity, and neither Zachys nor the Consignor shall be liable, in whole or in part, for any indirect, special, punitive, incidental or consequential damages, including, without limitation, loss of profits.

16b

For auctions that are held in Hong Kong, the respective rights and obligations of the parties with respect to the Conditions of Sale and the conduct of the auction shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region. By participating in an auction, whether present in person or by agent, by absentee bid, telephone bid, internet bid or other means, Buyer shall be deemed to have consented to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of Hong Kong Special Administrative Region. For such auctions, Buyer's sole and exclusive remedy against Zachys and/or the Consignor for any dispute or injury related to the auction or the property listed in the catalog shall be the rescission of the sale and the refund of the original Purchase Price paid for the lot. This remedy shall be in lieu of any other remedy which might otherwise be available to Buyer as a matter of law or at equity, and neither Zachys nor the Consignor shall be liable, in whole or in part, for any indirect, special, punitive, incidental or consequential damages, including, without limitation, loss of profits.

For auctions that are held in the District of Columbia, the respective rights and obligations of the parties with respect to the Conditions of Sale and the conduct of the auction shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the District of Columbia. By participating in an auction, whether present in person or by agent, by absentee bid, telephone bid, internet bid or other means, Buyer shall be deemed to have consented to the exclusive jurisdiction of the District of Columbia courts and the United States District Court for the District of Columbia. For such auctions, Buyer's sole and exclusive remedy against Zachys and/or the Consignor for any dispute or injury related to the auction or the property listed in the catalog shall be the rescission of the sale and the refund of the original Purchase Price paid for the lot. This remedy shall be in lieu of any other remedy which might otherwise be available to Buyer as a matter of law or at equity, and neither Zachys nor the Consignor shall be liable, in whole or in part, for any indirect, special, punitive, incidental or consequential damages, including, without limitation, loss of profits.

17

All offers and sales of alcoholic beverage products by Zachys are subject to the local laws governing the sale of alcoholic beverage products in the jurisdiction in which the auction takes place.

18

District of Columbia and New York State law requires that Buyers of alcoholic beverages must be at least 21 years of age. Hong Kong and English law requires that Buyers of alcoholic beverages must be at least 18 years of age. Buyers should observe and comply with the applicable laws relating to the purchase of alcoholic beverages in the jurisdiction where the auction is held. By participating in the auction, each Buyer represents and warrants to Zachys that he, she or it has the legal capacity to purchase, receive, and possess any lot purchased.

19

Zachys does not ship alcoholic beverage products. As an accommodation to Buyers, Zachys may arrange to have property packed, insured and delivered at Buyer's expense and direction, but (other than as provided in Condition of Sale 8) Zachys shall have no liability or obligation for shipping alcoholic beverage products. Zachys makes no representation, and assumes no obligation, with respect to the legality of shipment of alcoholic beverage products into any jurisdiction. Zachys urges all Buyers to investigate and understand the alcoholic beverage products shipping laws and regulations of the jurisdiction to which they intend the alcoholic beverage products to be shipped prior to the purchase of alcoholic beverage products at auction.

By participating in the auction, Buyer agrees with Zachys and the Consignor that these Conditions of Sale, together with any instrument captioned (i) Buying & Bidding Information and (ii) General Catalog Notes published by Zachys and in effect from time to time and which are incorporated herein by reference as part of this Condition of Sale, shall become the legal, valid, and binding obligation of the Buyer, enforceable in accordance with their terms by Zachys and the Consignor (who is both a party hereto and, with respect to portions hereof between Buyer and Zachys, an intended third-party beneficiary).

21

In the event any one or more of the provisions, or any part or parts of a provision, of these Conditions of Sale and/or the Buying & Bidding Information is determined to be invalid or unenforceable in any respect, the validity and enforceability of all remaining provisions and parts of provisions shall not in any way be affected or impaired.

22

If there is any inconsistency between the English and translated version of the General Catalog Notes, the Buying & Bidding Information, the Conditions of Sale or all other relevant documents, forms, website or emails, the English version shall prevail.

General Catalog Notes

Level/Ullage Descriptions & Interpretations

- IN Into Neck: Excellent for a wine of any age.
- BN Bottom Neck: Excellent for a wine of 10 years or older.
- VTS Very Top Shoulder: Normal for any wine 10 years or older.
- TS Top Shoulder: Normal for any wine 25 years or older.
- JBTS Just Below Top Shoulder: Normal for any wine 30 years or older.
- US Upper Shoulder: Slight natural reduction through easing of cork and evaporation through cork and capsule. Very good for any wine over 40 years old. Excellent for any wine over 50 years of age.
- UMS Upper-Mid Shoulder: Good for any wine 50-60 years of age.
- MS Mid Shoulder: Probably some weakening of the cork. Very good for wines over 50-60 years of age. Estimates usually take this into account.
- LS Low Shoulder: Some weakening of cork acceptable if wine or label is exceptionally rare or interesting.

Because of the slope of shoulder, it is impractical to describe levels of Burgundy-shaped bottles as into neck, etc. Wherever appropriate, the level between capsule and wine will be measured and cataloged in centimeters.

The condition and drinkability of Burgundy are less affected by ullage than its equivalent from Bordeaux. For example, a 5 to 7cm. ullage in a 50 year old Burgundy can be considered normal, indeed good for that age; and 3.5 to 4cm., excellent for that age.

Champagne bottle measurements are done from the bottom of the foil to the level of the wine.

Label & Capsule Conditions

Labels and capsules can become soiled, stained, or otherwise marked, especially with wines over 20 years of age. Unless otherwise noted, label conditions will be appropriate for age, but Buyers should note that normal staining, discoloration or other conditions may not be noted if such conditions are appropriate for the age of the label. Potential Buyers are invited to make appointments to inspect wines personally.

Special Notices

Though every effort is made to describe or measure the levels of older vintages, corks over 20 years old begin to lose their elasticity and levels can change between cataloguing and sale. Old corks have also been known to fail during or after shipment. We therefore repeat that there is always a risk of cork failure with old wines, and Zachys assumes no responsibility for this.

Under no circumstances can an adjustment of price or credit be made after delivery, except as provided in Paragraph 13 of the Conditions of Sale in this catalog.

Unless otherwise stated, Bordeaux are Château bottled.

It is Zachys' general policy to describe levels for vintages prior to 1990. Unless otherwise noted, ullage levels will be appropriate for age.

At Zachys discretion, we will not always cut the bands on original packaging of younger wines. In such cases all wines are sold AS IS and will not accept returns for any issues the buyer's might discover after the band is cut.

At times, bottle numbers will be covered in photos to protect consignor anonymity.

Wines can be picked up from the Zachys Asia warehouse between the hours of 9:30 AM and 5:00 PM Monday through Friday, provided that payment for the lots has been received. Buyers can arrange to collect their wine by appointment by phoning Zachys at 852.2530.1971. Please provide at least 72 hours notice before coming to collect your purchases. Note there is a gate fee charge when picking up from warehouse. Please contact us at asia@zachys.com or call us at 852.2530.1971 for details.

Please Note: For pickups, any additional packaging and/ or handling that is required or requested will be subject to processing fees.

Delivery

Once payment has been received, arrangements can be made to deliver the wines to the Buyer. Purchases will not automatically be shipped. Please email the Collection & Delivery Form (found in this catalog) to asia@zachys.com. For further information on delivery cost within Hong Kong or collection and delivery assistance, please call 852.2530.1971 or email asia@zachys.com. Zachys can assist you in making arrangements to have the wine purchased at auction shipped. All shipments will be subject to a 1% Shipping Protection Fee charge. This Shipping Protection Fee provides protection against only breakage, theft or fire as covered by Zachys insurance with respect to purchased property packed, shipped, and delivered pursuant to arrangements made by Zachys. Zachys and its forwarding agents cannot be held responsible for any other changes to the wines during shipment. Loss or breakage resulting from shipping that Zachys has arranged must be reported to Zachys in writing within three days of delivery of the property, which must be examined in the presence of the carrier on arrival. To ensure the safety of the wines, it may be necessary in some shipments to repack the wines in protective shipping containers and to ship the wooden cases separately at an additional charge. Buyers are also reminded that various jurisdictions impose limitations on the quantity of alcoholic beverages which may be purchased and brought into their jurisdiction by a purchaser from another jurisdiction, without requiring the purchaser, a consignee or shipper to possess certain licenses or permits. Zachys makes no representation, and assumes no obligation, as to the legality of shipment of alcoholic beverages into any jurisdiction. Zachys urges all Buyers to investigate and understand the wine shipping laws and regulations of the jurisdiction to which they intend the wine to be shipped prior to the purchase of wines at auction. The protection afforded by the Shipping Protection Fee does not cover confiscation by any government or law enforcement agency as a result of alleged violations of applicable laws by Sellers or Buyers.

Delivery Charges

Please email asia@zachys.com or give us a call at 852.2530.1971 for local and overseas delivery costs.

Consolidated Shipments

Zachys offers consolidated shipments between Port Chester and Hong Kong several times a year. Please contact us for more information.

Special Notices:

Split lots are available upon request for a fee.

Delivery charges will include any applicable tax, duty, tariffs, or other fees as required by laws. Buyers are responsible for import tariffs at the destination country.

Export/Import Permits

Alcoholic beverage products sold at auction may be subject to laws governing export from the jurisdiction where the auction was held and import restrictions of foreign countries. Buyers should always check whether an export license is required before exporting alcoholic beverage products. It is the Buyer's sole responsibility to obtain any relevant export or import license. A delay in obtaining licenses shall neither justify the rescission of any sale nor excuse delay in providing full payment for the lot. Local laws may prohibit the importation of some property and/or may prohibit the resale of some property in the country of importation; no such restriction shall justify the rescission of any sale or delay in making full payment for the lot.

Currency of fulfillment and applicable fees are determined by the origin of the shipment.

Zachys is not responsible for any acts or omissions of any shipper with whom Buyer, not Zachys, has made arrangements to pack, ship or deliver purchased lots, including, without limitation, any packing, shipping or delivery of purchased lots

Adult signature is required for all shipments.
