Wines for Immediate Consumption and Collection

Zachys Wine Auctions is thrilled to feature several lots in this auction that are available for immediate delivery in the auction room. Winning bidders of "Immediate Indulgences" may pay for these lots at the time of purchase and take possession of the wine as soon as payment has been made. Winning bidders can feel free to enjoy these wines in the room during the sale or can take them to any La Paulée event they wish!

Please note that immediate delivery of these items is not required and buyers can elect to pay for these lots at the time they are invoiced and have these lots delivered with other auction purchases. If you are the successful buyer of one of the following lots, please contact a Zachys employee to assist you with your purchase. Immediate Indulgence lots are marked throughout the catalog as below:

Immediate Indulgences

- Meursault La Sève Du Clos Arnaud Ente 2008 (Lot 489)
- Clos St Denis Dujac 2006 (Lot 726)
- Charmes-Chambertin Vieilles Vignes Jacky Truchot 1995 (Lot 755)
- Meursault Genevrières Coche-Dury 2005 Lot 784)
- Bâtard-Montrachet Michel Niellon 1990 (Lot 808)
- Krug 1979 (Lot 819)
- Gevrey-Chambertin Clos St Jacques Armand Rousseau 1993 (Lot 1041)

Fine & Rare Wines & Spirits

in Celebration of La Paulée

In 2020, the March auction was the last fully “live at Le Bernardin” sale we were able to hold before—well, you know what happened. So it’s particularly sweet to be back at Privé exactly two years later, to sell—you guessed it—the rarest wines in the world, with a focus on Burgundy!

This year, we’ve got two auctions—one an Evening Sale, a single-owner “Collection of a Perfectionist,” followed by this lengthy day sale. As always in the March auction, both sales are filled with “immediate indulgences.” These lots will be on site at Le Bernardin so, if you purchase them and you’re in the room, you can pop them on site. (Sidebar—don’t forget to bring a few bottles to share, on both days! We’re opening up some serious wines, and we expect you to, too!).

It’s impossible to name favorites in this auction, but I’ll try, by starting with the subtitled collections.

More wines from the Vault: what can I say that you don’t already know? These wines are known internationally as the best of the best.

Sui Generis Part II is a second offering from an American cellar we last offered in Hong Kong to great acclaim. The mature Burgundy in this offering is second to none, but the non-Burgundy is just as impressive. How often do you see three liters of Chave’s Cuvée Cathelin. Here’s your answer: not often.

Lot 908 begins one of the core offerings in this auction. What’s unique about this cellar is that it was bought over decades, much of it from Zachys, and it’s one of those rare opportunities to buy DRC—Romanée-Conti and Montrachet magnums included—in large format and in mature vintages.

The Cellar of the Late Mark Tarlov is wonderfully introduced at lot 1214 by my colleague Connor Kriegel. He says it better than I ever could so I encourage you to turn to those lots. Suffice to say, Mark was a wonderful and generous collector and we are honored to have been entrusted with his collection here.

We can’t wait to see you all in person at Le Bernardin on March 10 + 11. Please be sure to RSVP to Amanda at AOPromolla@zachys.com. As those who attend our March auction know, these auctions always end up being SRO, and it’s much more comfortable to drink Roumier while seated.

Cheers!
Charles Antin

FINEST SCHRADER (LOTS 446-457)

CALIFORNIA

SCHRADER

Fred Schrader began his life as a vintner with one defining goal in mind, to create benchmark Cabernets from the best vineyards in the Napa Valley. Fifteen years later with seventeen 100-point scores under his belt from the likes of Robert Parker, The Wine Advocate and James Laube, The Wine Spectator, Schrader Cellars continues to define itself as one of the best producers of Cabernet in the history of American wine. Receiving more 100-point scores than any other winery in the history of American wine, 2016 marks a special year in the lifetime of Schrader Cellars.

The story of Schrader Cellars began in 2001 when Fred met Thomas Brown, a little known winemaker who moved to California by way of North Carolina. Thomas took the helm of winemaking for Schrader and he and Fred never looked back. Thomas' methods of non-interventionist winemaking were a novel idea at the time throughout the valley. He believed in showing the true colors of a vineyard and when working with Beckstoffer To Kalon fruit he had access to nothing short of the best.

After a few years of working together, Fred and Thomas found themselves harvesting the incredibly concentrated fruit of the 2006 vintage. Fred looks back on this time with happiness as the 2006 vintage was the first 100-point scores that a Schrader wine received. The 2007 and 2008 vintages brought with them another pair of 100-point scores for the Schrader CCS and Schrader Old Sparky. This was the first time in the 32-year history of The Wine Advocate that a wine received three consecutive 100-point scores for the same marque and Schrader did this with two of their wines.

FINE WINE FROM AROUND THE WORLD (LOTS 458-469)

We're delighted to present this small selection of gems from a friend and frequent consignator at Zachys. The collection highlights some of the world's most sought-after producers such as Leroy, Chave, and S.Q.N. And don't miss out on those magnums of vintage champagne including the legendary 1997 Salon! All wines were purchased from top retailers and have been stored pristinely in a temperature-controlled home cellar.

SALON

With its first vintage in 1905, Champagne Salon began its tradition of extreme attention to terroir, quality, and precision. The unique vineyard Le Mesnil-Sur-Oger, where the grapes are sourced, is nestled in the heart of the Côte des Blancs – the home of Chardonnay in Champagne. Made with 100% Grand Cru Chardonnay only in the best years, the wines are cellared in bottle for an average of ten years before release. Simply put, this is a grand vin...with bubbles.

DOMAINE DE LA ROMANÉE-CONTI

The domaine is known for picking very late, sometimes, as in 1978, later than any other producers. They prune endlessly, make many passes through the vineyards at harvest and sort grapes rigorously both in the vineyard and at the winery. Average age of the vines is around thirty-five to forty-five years with yields typically around thirty hl/ha. The wines are aged in new French oak casks for approximately twenty months. There is usually only one racking and since 1985 the wines from all casks in each cru have been blended together prior to bottling to reduce bottle variation. Recently they have been moving towards biodynamic viticultural practices. Like many of the region's leading growers they have seen concrete evidence of soil and vine health improvement. It's hard to imagine that these wines could get better, but that is what separates them from the rest of the pack: an unrelenting pursuit for perfection in the Pinot Noir grape. In addition to the majestic reds, a white is also produced from a plot in Montrachet.

DOMAINE D'AUVENAY

Domaine d'Auvenay is the personal domaine of Lalou Bize-Leroy. When we think of Domaine Leroy, we think of tiny quantities of some of Burgundy's greatest wines. At Domaine d'Auvenay the quantities are microscopic, the quality just as high. The estate's entire holdings are around just four hectares. Even by top end Burgundy standards it is tiny. However since she first established the Domaine in 1989 it has gone on to become the stuff of legend among Burgundy collectors and connoisseurs the world over.

These are ultra-rare and the best of the best, no serious cellar is complete without them.

One will notice that many perfectly stored bottles from Domaine d'Auvenay will have assessment notes of signs of seepage. This is due to the fact they are overfilled at the domaine and are not an indication of poor storage conditions.

HARLAN ESTATE

Harlan Estate, owned by Bill Harlan, is a luxury, world-class, Cabernet Sauvignon-based wine produced from a steep, terraced vineyard on the western side of Napa Valley, high above Napa's famous Martha's Vineyard. Approximately twenty-four acres are in vine and the yields to date have been very low. Bill Harlan, better-known as one of the principals of Merryvale Vineyards...has only one objective: to produce one of the greatest red wines of California.

The wines are a blend of approximately two-thirds Cabernet Sauvignon and the remainder Cabernet Franc and Merlot. Bob Levy, Merryvale's winemaker and Michel Rolland, the well-known Bordeaux oenologist, are the architects behind these exceptional efforts. Stylistically the wines are the Napa Valley equivalent of a hypothetical La Mission Haut-Brion/Cheval Blanc blend. They are rich, powerful wines with unmistakable elegance, complexity, and purity.

SCREAMING EAGLE

It's rare. It's expensive. And there's a mystique about it. But Screaming Eagle Cabernet Sauvignon is no pretender. It's the real thing, and it deserves to be considered among Napa Valley's prestige wines...

You can't make wine this magnificent without fabulous grapes, and Screaming Eagle clearly comes from a spectacular vineyard...on the east side of Oakville, near the Oakville Crossroad...While ripening Cabernet (and smaller amounts of Merlot and Cabernet Franc) is routinely easy in this area, one of the trademarks of Oakville Cabernet is that the wines often display an herbal quality that manifests itself in a variety of subtleties, including hints of anise, sage, dusty berry, cedar and occasionally a whiff of new leather and tar. You find these shades of herb in Cabernets like Heitz Martha's Vineyard (grown on the west side of Oakville), with its signature minty currant personality, or Groth, which is one of the cooler sites on the valley floor. Screaming Eagle captures the best of all these elements. It also epitomizes exquisite balance, managing both to be enormously complex and concentrated, yet elegantly styled, with a smooth, polished texture.

DOMAINE RAMONET

Pierre Ramonet was more than a character. He was, to use the old cliché – but it is true in this instance – a legend in his own lifetime. More or less from scratch, by dint of sheer hard work and a genius for wine, he built up one of the finest white wine domaines in Burgundy. Today the name of Ramonet is synonymous with top Chardonnay. The allocations for bottles are fought over, for every collector considers it his or her right to own some. They sell at auction for astronomical sums whenever they appear. On the rare occasions, as in January 1995 at the Montrachet restaurant in New York, when someone puts on a special vertical tasting and dinner, the tickets – and they are not cheap – are over-subscribed ten times. Ramonet in white is the equivalent of Henri Jaye or the Domaine de la Romanée-Conti in red.

Pierre Ramonet died in 1994 at the age of eighty-eight. He is much missed. But his echo lives on, and the wines, in the able hands of his grandsons Noël (born in 1962) and Jean-Claude (born in 1967) since the 1984 vintage (mais sous ses ordres, stoutly avers Noël), continue his reputation. They are very fine. A Ramonet wine is a Ramonet wine before it is a Chassagne, or a Bienvenues, or a Bâtard...or a Montrachet.

GEORGES ROUMIER

The domaine was enlarged a number of times since its inception in 1924, with Georges acquiring a bit more Bonnes-Mares in 1952, as well as two parcels of Clos Vougeot in the same year. In 1953 the Roumiers also purchased the monopole Premier Cru Morey St Denis "Clos de la Bussierre." In 1968, Jean-Marie's wife, Odile Ponnelle, purchased a tract of unplanted Corton-Charlemagne, which was subsequently committed to vine and the first Roumier Corton-Charlemagne was released in the 1974 vintage. In 1978 the domaine finally purchased the small slice of Musigny that they had been sharecropping since the mid-1920s.

Domaine Georges Roumier is one of my favorite domaines in all of the Côte d'Or. In my personal cellar, by quite some margin, I have more Roumier wines than from any other producer. I find them to be extremely reliable for cellaring, and to deliver at their apogees all the majestic complexity for which Burgundy is rightly renowned. Out of the blocks they are not the typically delicate style of Chambolle, but rather wines that are full and well-structured in their youth. For young Chambolles they are atypical, but within the fullness of time, they develop all the silk and perfume for which the wines of this village are so rightly cherished. From the superbly crafted Chambolle-Musigny village bottling that I buy in depth in every vintage to the lonely bottle of Roumier Musigny, these are among the greatest wines that I have in my cellar, and bottles that I look forward to growing old with comfortably.

MORE RARE BURGUNDIES

from a West Coast Connoisseur

(LOTS 589-613)

Another fantastic consignment from one of our favorite cellars on the Gold Coast awaits extremely lucky buyers. We have a long track record with this cellar and the feedback from our clients once they open the bottles has been tremendous. In the course of building and enjoying one of the greatest cellars on the West Coast, this consignor built a system of values. Finding a passion for wine at a young age allowed him to seek out mentors who opened great bottles with him while he was forming his taste. He learned to trust his own palate when making decisions, and to then buy deeply. He took chances on up-and-coming producers and took the time to travel to regions for in-depth study. Early on, the value of relationships with key trade members became apparent and abiding friendships were born. And above all, maintain a cold cellar. The wines listed for sale below need little introduction and include some of the most sought-after wines in the world, including rare bottles of DRC to the best of the best of white Burgundy. A particular highlight is a rare 3-pack of Lamy Criots-Bâtard-Montrachet, one of the rarest wines in the world. This is the "Haute Density" bottling which indicates the incredible high proportion of plant to size, incredibly 25,000 vines per hectares in this case. Only one small barrel is made each year. The majority of our consignor's European wines were purchased directly in Europe and imported privately with Adventures in Wine. The home cellar where these wines enjoyed a long slumber is kept at a constant 48-degree temperature with 63% humidity. Bid with confidence!

DOMAINE FOURRIER

Jean-Marie Fourrier took over the family property from his father in the mid-1990s and the quality of the Domaine's wines improved markedly and rapidly. Jean-Marie subscribes to the philosophy that great wines begin in the vineyard and he is fastidious about maintaining healthy, well-nurtured vines. He saw firsthand the importance of minimal intervention in the winemaking process (provided one had excellent raw materials from the vineyards), when he studied under the great Henri Jayer in the late 1980s. Fourrier is careful to crush only the choicest fruit, all completely destemmed, in his immaculately clean and recently outfitted with new stainless steel tanks fermentation room. He also limits the use of new oak to around 20% so as to better allow the Burgundian terroir to fully express itself in the glass. The product of all this hard work is wines marked by wonderful purity, transparency, and bright vibrant fruit, wines that are a true testament to the land that Jean-Marie Fourrier so carefully cultivates.

DOMAINE FRANÇOIS LAMARCHE

Ancestors of the Lamarche family were already established in the village of Vosne-Romanée as early as 1740. Since the end of the nineteenth century, this estate has grown and stayed in Lamarche hands for five generations: Henri Lamarche, a cooper, married Marie Grivelet from Chambolle-Musigny and founded the estate at the beginning of the twentieth century. He produced, matured, and sold his wines directly from the estate. Their son Henri Lamarche, born in 1903, took over the estate. He inherited La Grande Rue in 1933, the year of his marriage to Aline Demur. They would have four children, including François and Geneviève. François took over the reins of the estate when his father passed away in 1985.

Today, there are two generations to welcome you at the estate. The late François Lamarche's wife, Marie-Blanche, is still in charge of sales. Geneviève Lamarche, sister of François, manages the accounts. Nicole, François and Marie-Blanche's daughter, has now taken over the vitivinicultural part. Nathalie, Geneviève's daughter, manages sales with her aunt.

The jewel in the Lamarche crown is of course the monopole, La Grand Rue. La Grande Rue became a Grand Cru in 1989, with the decree being passed in 1992. If the aspect and terroir of its neighbors are anything to go by, it is one of the finest pieces of viticultural land in the world today. With La Tâche on one side and La Romanée and Romanée-Conti on the other, it is Burgundian terroir at its finest.

DOMAINE ROULOT
For more than 170 years Domaine Roulot has been an important presence in Meursault. But it was only in the 1920s and 30s that the family, led by Paul Roulot, became grape growers as well as winemakers and distillers. The Domaine as we currently know it was founded by Guy Roulot in the late 1950s and is now run by his son and daughter. The Domaine is comprised of about 11 hectares in the communes of Meursault, Monthélie and Auxey-Duresses. The vineyards are farmed following organic and biodynamic principles. Jean Marc Roulot, a classically trained actor and the current winemaker at Domaine Roulot, has turned this Domaine into one of the most revered of the region. The wines are exceptionally terroir expressive, pure and elegant.

ARMAND ROUSSEAU

One will get little argument to the assertion that Domaine Armand Rousseau is the finest estate in Gevrey-Chambertin...

The vintages of the 1980s and 1990s at Domaine Rousseau have produced one of the greatest runs of profound Burgundy ever witnessed by any estate in the region, with the domaine producing legendary efforts in the widely recognized great years of the span from 1985 to 1999. Their two flagship bottlings of Chambertin and Chambertin "Clos de Bèze" have always ranked amongst the top dozen wines to be found in these vintages.

Of the two Grand Crus at the pinnacle of the brilliant portfolio of Rousseau wines, the Chambertin "Clos de Bèze" tends to be the more exotic and spicy of the two wines, with glorious fruit tones of black cherry, plum, blood orange often augmented by notes of Gevrey's grilled meat, chocolate and exotic spices. The Chambertin is typically the slightly slower wine to unfold, with a more understated profile of plum, red cherry and strawberry, coupled with notes of cocoa powder, coffee, grilled meats and violets... impeccably balanced, tangy and never come across as over-oaked. They are amongst the very greatest red wines to be found in the world.

Chambertin Armand Rousseau 2015

Côte de Nuits, Grand Cru

"Here too there is just enough oak to mention but once again it's not really enough to impair the purity of the distinctly cool and ultra-spicy red currant, underbrush, sandalwood, lilac and plenty of earth aromas. The rich, intense and overtly muscular big-bodied flavors possess a similar level of minerality that is borderline pungent and it informs the explosively long, firm and very serious finish. This notably powerful, but not really austere effort, displays magnificent potential and if it develops its usual degree of complexity over time it should merit the upper end of my projected range...98." ICONS FROM BURGUNDY & Beyond

(LOTS 719-747)

We are delighted to offer this selection of gems from a longtime friend of Zachys and frequent consignor. The collection shines with offerings of Roulot, Raveneau, and Dujac. If that isn't enough to catch the attention of the most serious Burgundy lover, behold jeroboams of Mugneret and Mugnier! Never one to play favorites, this consignor dug deep to include magnums of Chave, a jeroboam of Mouton 1989, and Krug Collection 1985 for good measure.

These bottles were primarily acquired on release, as well as from Zachys and a select few other well-regarded auction houses, and stored in NYC-area professional storage. As we have come to expect from this collection, the wines are in excellent condition across the board.

BORDEAUX

CHÂTEAU MARGAUX

Perhaps the grandest of the Bordeaux châteaux, Château Margaux is the epitome of style and refinement. At Château Margaux one has truly arrived at the heart and soul of Bordeaux, the world's most renowned wine region.

For centuries before the French Revolution, the château was owned by the Lestonnac family. The revolution, though, saw the estate's owners beheaded, and when the heirs were unable to pay the costs of running the château, Margaux was put up for auction.

The successful bidder, the Marquis de la Colonilla, demolished the old château, and in 1802 work began on the grand château we know today. The Château was sold several times until it was acquired by the Ginestets, longtime shareholders who finally became sole owners in 1949, with the purchase financed by the sale of their St Emilion property, Clos Fortet. However, First Growth châteaux are expensive to run, and to finance the operations of the estate, the owner sold off the vineyards of Dufort Vivens in the 1960s and transferred Cos d'Estournel to his sister in 1971. Even those moves, though, were not enough, and collapse of the Bordeaux market in the early 1970s forced Ginestet to sell the château in 1976 to Greek supermarket magnate Andre Mentzelopoulos. A serious oenophile, he was also a major shareholder in the French wine firm, Nicolas.

DOMAINE DUJAC

This domaine was founded in 1968 by Jacques Seysses and currently comprises approximately fifteen hectares. Winemakers Jeremy and Diana Seysses have been at the helm of the Domaine since 2001. They believe that the success of their wines lie in the team effort at the Domaine from their Chef de Culture in the vineyard, Lilian Robin, to Jeremy's brother, Alec, and father, Jacques, who contribute in the cellar. In 2009, the Domaine began its conversion to total biodynamic farming practices. The Domaine chooses to emphasize intensity over power and prides itself on producing individualistic wines that are elegant, delicate, and complex.

CURATED GEMS

from a Discerning Palate

(LOTS 748-767)

This highly curated selection of Burgundy comes from one of Zachys' oldest and most discerning friends. This collector sources from only the best cellars, paying careful attention to conditions and provenance. This group of wines was chosen specifically for this special, Burgundy-focused auction, and features superstars such as René Engel and Georges Mugneret. Classic Grand Crus from Joseph Drouhin and a mouthwatering array of whites from Jean-Marc Roulot and Bernard Moreau also appear. The Zachys team has enjoyed many bottles from this gentleman's collection over the years, to their immense satisfaction. These wines were removed from a professional wine storage facility for transfer to Zachys. Bid with confidence and enjoy!

BACHELET & JACKY TRUCHOT FROM A TRUCHOT CONNOISSEUR (LOTS 768-772)

From a friend of Jacky, and a friend of Zachys, comes this amazing collection from the master, all bought on release and stored temperature-controlled. Previous offerings from this consignor have resulted in many a happy Truchot-collector going home with pristine wines. Don't miss out on this opportunity.

BURGUNDY

DOMAINE BACHELET

Like any great vintner, Denis Bachelet has always given credit for his wines to his work in the vineyard. Rooted on the 10-acre Domaine are vines that range between 75 and 80 years. With a focus on quality over quantity, they have kept a small property, yet gained a cult following for their carefully vinified product.

THE MAGNIFICENT MOUNTAIN CELLAR (LOTS 773-826)

Zachys is pleased to present this wonderful consignment, taken directly from an underground, temperature-and-humidity-controlled, cellar. The collector abides by one fundamental principle regarding his collection: "Buy only the best, from the best sources". He has decided that a small cellar pruning is in order and this carefully curated selection is the fortunate result.

Bottle after bottle from this cellar (and this offering represents only a small tranche) has been perfect, reflecting the careful sourcing and storage. The rarity represented in this offering is striking – this is a collection that can be purchased with the ultimate confidence. The collector is a welcomed frequent consignor at Zachys.

JEAN-FRANÇOIS COCHE-DURY

Jean-François Coche's name is now murmured with the same respectful awe that is reserved for Henri Jayer. In many ways, he wears a mantle in the pantheon of white Burgundy winemakers that Monsieur Jayer wears amongst the red winemakers. From three-starred Michelin restaurants to the auction floors of New York and London, it is the white wines of Monsieur Coche that are the most ardently sought after. For those Burgundy lovers lucky and clever enough to secure bottles of Coche-Dury wines, the treasures that they are able to lock away in their cellars are a fine hedge against the vagaries of growing old. The white Burgundy crown that rests so easily on the head of Jean-François Coche is a rather remarkable achievement, when one pauses to consider his rather meager vineyard holdings versus the scores of white wine-producing domaines whose holdings are chock full of Grand Crus and illustrious Premier Crus.

The two crown jewels amongst the white wines in the Coche cellar are the Meursault "Perrières" and the Corton-Charlemagne. The Corton-Charlemagne's first release was the 1986 vintage, and it is as fine a bottle of Corton-Charlie as one can ever hope to find. It is very slow to unfold, and in any top vintage requires a minimum of ten years of bottle age to really blossom and begin to drink well.

The Coche-Dury Meursault "Perrières" is the other twin titan in the cellar. Many Burgundy lovers, often over a glass of inspired Côte d'Or rouge or blanc, like to banter about which vineyards are worthy of promotion in the appellation contrôlée system if the French were ever to open up the Pandora's Box or reclassification. Almost universally, the vineyard of Meursault "Perrières" is mentioned as clearly worthy of Grand Cru status. If one were to choose and example of why this is the case, one could do no better than a bottle of Coche-Dury Meursault "Perrières". This is a complete wine that quite easily rivals the quality of the Corton-Charlemagne in the cellar. In some vintages the Corton looks to be the better of the two, sometimes the Meursault "Perrières". But in virtually every vintage the Meursault "Perrières" is a long-lived wine of uncompromising brilliance, and well worth the price of admission. There are not many Bâtard-Montrachets or Chevalier-Montrachets that I would trade even up for a bottle of Coche-Dury Meursault "Perrières".

CHAMPAGNE

Of all the wine world's luxury brands, Krug is perhaps the most glittering. No expense is spared in its production, though the techniques used are in fact remarkably artisanal, including fermentation in small, old wooden casks. Time is of the essence: the overall ageing cycle is the best part of a decade here, with all wines being aged for at least six years sur pointes (upended, after the "ordinary" ageing period that follows the second fermentation is concluded). No expense is spared, either, in the pricing of its five wines, the cheapest of which, Grande Cuvée, costs as much as many rival houses' top cuvees. This is a wine of magnificent complexity and layered richness, nourishing and diverting, as detailed and textured as a Gobelin tapestry. It contains wines from a decade's worth of vintages and from at least twenty different crus (not all of them Grand or even Premier, one might note); Krug makes no secret, too, of its need and love for Pinot Meunier. (The Krug 1928 vintage, regarded by the family as the greatest ever, contained twenty percent Meunier, and there is eighteen percent in the finely honed 1988.) There is also a relatively understated rose of pale tawny hue, and a series of vintage wines of magnificent stylistic oscillation, fully respecting the potential of each year. The Collection vintage wines have spent more years in the Krug cellars in Reims; disgorgement took place at the same time as for "ordinary" vintage wines. Finally, a champagne de terroir: the pure Chardonnay Clos du Mesnil, vinified from wines in a genuine 1.9 hectares walled vineyard within the village of Le Mesnil, purchased by Krug in 1971, and released as a vintage wine beginning with 1979. In great years (like 1988) it is magnificent and multi-dimensional.

KILLER LEROY (LOTS 827-849)

This consignor has meticulously sourced everything in their cellar, which by the way, is a gorgeous temperature and humidity-controlled space in the home. While everything on offer here is amazing, one simply cannot ignore the 'killer' assortment of Leroy here from the early 2000's, so wave your paddles high!

DOMAINE LEROY

How do you determine great? Is it size? Is it quality? Is it price? Is it 'reputation' (whatever that is)? Is it the amount of media coverage? However you do compute it, the greatest domains of Burgundy today must be those under the control of Lalou Bize: the Domaine Leroy and her own Domaine d'Auvenay. The estates of Jadot, Faiveley and Bouchard Père et Fils are far larger, that of Romanée-Conti the most splendid in terms of the percentage of Grand Cru terroir, but for the nobility of its wines, pride of place must go to Leroy and to Domaine d'Auvenay. The sheer concentration, depth and intensity Lalou Bize manages to squeeze into her bottles is breathtaking. Lalou, born in Paris, was brought up in Meursault, in the mansion today occupied by her daughter Perrine. "From the word go I was fascinated," she says. "I was a cellar rat, watching and helping the cavistes rack the wines, taste them, bottle them. My mother kept calling me to come out of the cellar and play with my friends like a normal schoolgirl, but as soon as I could I crept back." In 1955 she persuaded her father to let her take over. She was twenty-three. "He gave me carte blanche," she says. "I started as I meant to go on. I bought finished wine, and only that which pleased me."

Lalou is now happy at the Domaine Leroy and on her own. "Look at my vines," she will say. "Look how healthy and comfortable they are." And, being Lalou, she will not fail to point out a neighbor's plot of excessively abundant, uncontrolled growth. "And come and taste the wine." Lalou's wines, according to her, are always 'extra'. The one-time cellar rat is now a master in her own right, and the wines she produces are triumphantly brilliant.

THE PRISTINE COLLECTION

of a Northern Virginia Doctor

(LOTS 850-864)

It is a privilege and honor for Zachys to present the first auction offering ever from this longtime collector. With a discerning eye, he curated his cellar over many years, buying almost exclusively from Washington, DC - area retail sources. The bottles traveled no further than the few miles to his temperature-controlled home cellar and have rested there since. The provenance is truly impeccable.

A Truchot collection of this magnitude with such a perfect history is rare, indeed. As the consignor's friend for many years, I have been fortunate enough to share many wonderful wines with him. His magnificent generosity is matched only by the superb condition of the bottles he opens. Bid with confidence, as opportunities like this are seldom seen.

JACKY TRUCHOT

Classic Burgundy, the term that embodies wines that were created underneath Jacky Truchot; fragrant, pure, and elegant are the words that describe his masterfully vinified product. Truchot's style was textbook, no filtration, minuscule amounts of new oak, 100% destemmed, absolutely no cold soaking, and as high of a yield as the AOC allows. Jacky Truchot closed a chapter of Burgundy history in 2005, setting off a scramble for collectors who appreciate the clean style of classic Burgundy.

SELECTIONS from the LEGENDARY COLLECTION of DR. ROB AND LINDA CAINE

(LOTS 865-881)

On February 11th, 2011, the wine-collecting world first experienced The Legendary Collection of Dr. Robert Caine. At the time, it was undoubtedly the most spectacular single auction offering of Burgundy to come to market. Thirty-year verticals of Montrachet from Domaines Ramonet and Lafon, over 100 lots of Coche-Dury, and 90 lots of DRC. The quality and quantity, breadth and depth were, at the time, unheard of in these producers. Dr. Caine's obsessive focus on only the best is the hallmark of his collection. Nearly ten years to the day and those same top-tier producers are offered again, with the exceptional provenance only seen from this legendary collector.

As always, each bottle in this offering has a reason and a purpose. There are no mistakes nor whimsical acquisitions here. Every bottle has been vetted and sourced with only the best provenance. The same traits that made Rob a brilliant surgeon and now a successful real estate developer are reflected in this collection. There is a passion and attention to detail that is unmatched.

Over the last decade (since working on the original single owner sale), I have had the pleasure to get to know the Caines and taste many bottles from Rob's cellar. In fact, all of us at Zachys have gotten to know Rob and Linda. Their generosity is only matched by the quality of wines in their cellar. I'm not alone in these thoughts. In the catalogue for Dr. Caine's 2011 offering, Allen Meadows of Burghound.com said, "It's rare to be able to say that I have never had a poor bottle from someone's collection but in this case, it's true, I have never had a substandard bottle served by Rob...to not have had an oxidized bottle is necessarily due to his judicious sourcing and insistence on impeccable provenance. To the extent that my experience is representative, you can buy Rob's wines with confidence."

A GLOBAL CELLAR

The following lots arrive to the podium from a trusted friend and jet-setting collector. His tastes, and naturally his cellar, span the world and reflect both a classic sensibility (Classified Growth Bordeaux from the august 80's) while still retaining a firm grasp on the vinous zeitgeist (d'Auvenary anyone?). For the classicists, Petrus from the famed '75 vintage, '82 Mouton, a rare '61 Haut-Brion, in excellent condition, as well as the famed '82 await lucky buyers. For the Burgundy lovers, DRC, Leflaive, d'Auvenary and Leroy including one of the highlights of the sale, not 1, but incredibly, 2 bottles of '96 Musigny from Domaine Leroy. With only 594 bottles produced in '96, this is about 5% of the entire production! For the lover of bubbly, a gorgeous case of 1996 P2 Rosé and a case of the famed Chardonnay from Marcassin for good measure. Something for everyone, as long as your taste is confined to the exceedingly rare and globally coveted. All of the wines were purchased from trusted sourced over the past decade and stored in professional grade wine cellars under temperature and humidity control.

BORDEAUX

CHÂTEAU HAUT-BRION

Haut-Brion has the longest history of all the First Growths. It was even mentioned by Samuel Pepys in his diary entry of April 10, 1663, when he was dining at the Royal Oak Tavern in Lombard Street, London: "...and here drank a sort of French wine called Ho Bryan that hath a good and most particular taste I never met with."

The famous Pontac family set up the estate in the first portion of the sixteenth century. Wealthy and well connected, they had the means to promote the wine in fashionable places, and by the early 1700s it was as well known as a wine of the highest quality.

While parts were split off, the estate stayed with the family until it was passed to Joseph Fumel in 1780. He was largely responsible for creating much of what we see today, including the buildings, the gardens and the general layout of the property. He famously hosted a visit from Thomas Jefferson on May 25, 1787, and became Mayor of Bordeaux three years later.

With its popularity waning under a succession of different owners, the estate was finally put up for auction in 1836, where it was purchased by the Larreau family. Two years later, in 1838, they managed to acquire a further piece of the estate previously lost through inheritance laws.

Although it was included as a First Growth in the 1855 classification of Bordeaux, difficult times lay ahead. A further succession of owners and the depression of the early 1930s forced another sale. This time, successful American financier Clarence Dillon stepped up, and for a little under $200,000 walked away with the estate. It remains in the Dillon family today.

Vineyards, Winemaking and the Delmas Family

No discussion of the wines of Haut-Brion can be complete without a mention of the Delmas family, who have managed the property since 1923—first George Delmas, then his son Jean-Bernard, and today Jean-Philippe. It is not only unusual but also massively fortunate for Haut-Brion to have the care and attention of such a talented family of technical directors.

Jean-Philippe Delmas is a clever, tirelessly devoted man, and the solid support and financial backing of the Dillon family has enabled him and his team to produce an extremely consistent wine. I always look forward to visiting Château Haut-Brion, not just because the wines are superb and the people great, but also because it is unique and has an important place in the history of Bordeaux.

CHAMPAGNEDOM PÉRIGNON

Dom Pérignon - the name alone makes most of us break out in a delightful smile. When we think of this 17th-century monk from Hautvillers - so often pointed out as the father of Champagne - we either regard him with historical reverence, or associate his name with the proudest of all wine labels and everything else that follows in its glamorous, sparkling wake...

Back in 1936, Moët & Chandon's marketing director Robert- Jean de Vogüé could not possibly have imagined what he had done when he dreamed up the idea of the world's first prestige champagne - a champagne with a sky-high price that was supposed to be even better than the vintage wine, along with a spectacular look that won respect and prompted extravagant enjoyment...

The style itself is ultra-sophisticated, with an amazingly silky softness combined with toasted fireworks, backed up by an exotic fruitiness in a medium body. When Dom Pérignon is at its best I find notes of forest morelles, cream, peach and an overabundance of roasted coffee beans and nuttiness. Dom Pérignon Rosé is an even more exquisite and rare product that has been molded in a similar form, though its full-bodied shape leans more to strawberry or orange, where the whiter somewhat lighter variety becomes exotic and toasted. Dom Pérignon Oenothèque is the latest child in this distinguished family.

At Richard Geoffroy's initiative they now release a restricted number of old, well-preserved bottles from Moët's own cellar in different stages of maturity. The wine can be newly disgorged, but it isn't a fixed thing. What is guaranteed, however, is that the wines are in the best possible condition, and that they most likely will act a little more youthfully than the bottles that have been out on the market for a while. This treasure is now decorated with a luxurious black label in unmistakable style.

And speaking of style...In an age when PR people constantly want to minimize labels and change both bottle design and packaging, Dom Pérignon stands there like a Sophia Loren of the champagne world, unchanged and as timelessly sexy. The balance conveyed in the subtly curvaceous shape of the bottle, paired with an olive green label in the shape of a coat of arms adorned with cursive writing, is still as magical as ever. Since 1970 the wine itself is made exclusively in steel tanks and the grapes are mainly Pinot Noir from Aÿ, Bouzy, Verzenay and Hautvillers, as well as Chardonnay in approximately equal amounts from Cramant and Mesnil.

AN UNPRECEDENTED CACHE

of Rare Wines from a New York Cellar

(LOTS 908-1005)

Ever so often it still happens: one of our specialists walks into a cellar with no expectations and exits with one of the greatest caches of rare wine we've seen in a long time. The late owner of this wine, it turns out, was a dear friend of Zachys and of Don Zacharia specifically. Many of the wines in this offering were purchased on release from Zachys retail, some decades ago, and some even delivered by Don's own hands (ok, that last part may be speculation).

From Clos du Mesnil to Vega to Yquem, there's something for everyone here. But the real jaw-dropping aspect of this cellar, the part that makes it such a perfect fit for our March auction, is the DRC. The vertical of DRC Montrachet is unlike any we've ever offered. The RC, including 1985, 1978 and a mag of 1986 is stunning. There's 1970 Único, 1982 Petrus, and a huge swath of mature Guigal.

The wines in this offering were stored in custom home storage a stone's throw from Zachys' White Plains warehouse. They were removed in temperature control for this auction. Bid with confidence— collections like this one become rarer and rarer by the auction.

CHÂTEAU D'YQUEM

Château d'Yquem is the apex qualitatively and the centre geographically of the Sauternes area. Each major property occupies its own little hill. Yquem's is the highest. It is also the largest estate, the most perfectionistic, the most consistent. Unlike the rest of the region there was no cutting of corners, no lack of investment, no dip in quality in the sad days of the 1960s and 1970s.

At Yquem we have Sauternes winemaking at its most perfectionistic. The vines are pruned to yield nine hl/ha – one glass per vine (as opposed to a full bottle in a classified growth red wine château). Collection of the grapes is berry by botrytised berry, rather than by bunch or half-bunch elsewhere. The grapes are crushed in a small horizontal hydraulic press in three stages. Unlike in Champagne, for example, the first pressing does not necessarily give the best wine. There is no débourage before the wine is put into cask. Fermentation and ageing is in new oak, of course, the latter taking place in a splendid underground cellar, constructed in 1987. The assemblage is late and the wine is not bottled for three years or more. Only then is it put on the market...

There is something very special, and indeed very consistent, about Yquem. The wine is more oaky than most in its youth. It is by quite some way the richest, most concentrated, most intense wine of its kind. In great years – I have a marginal preference for 1989 over 1990 and 1988 – it is nectar: the liquid quintessence of concentrated sunbeams, to quote Thomas Love Peacock.

GUIGAL

Marcel Guigal - perfectionist, fanatical, pernickety – is the super-star of the appellation and probably sells more Côte-Rôtie under his own label than all the other growers combined. Despite this size, however, the quality is exemplary - as they should be at the prices he charges! He harvests late, insists on very low yields, and keeps the wines in a combination of barrel and small foudres and demi-muids, all newish wood, for up to three and a half years before bottling. Their wines are so concentrated they can withstand this wait without drying out, and remain profound, rich and individual. La Landonne is the Brune, La Mouline the Blonde, La Turque the sort of hermaphroditic mixture. Usually my favourite is the Landonne. The Château d'Ampuis bottling combines elements of both the sectors of Côte-Rôtie, from vines in the climats of La Pommier, Le Pavillon, La Garde and Le Clos.

A PHENOMENAL COLLECTION OF RAREST WINE

———— PART II ————

(LOTS 1006-1048)

Zachys is delighted to offer this unbelievable collection of rare Burgundy, Champagne, Screaming Eagle and Ermitage from an esteemed collector. The heart of the collection is Burgundy— rare and mature Burgundy, aged perfectly and slowly in cool conditions for decades. From La Tâche from lauded vintages like the 1999, to Roumier Musigny, to the rare Armand Rousseau, this collection is the gem-hunter's dream.

Mugnier Musigny? Of course! 1999 Rousseau? We've got that too. The Champagne is equally impressive with the 1996 Salon, and 2012 Cristal making an appearance. The offering from the Rhône Valley focuses on "only" one producer, but that producer is the benchmark for the region: Chave, and if you've never tasted the 1998 Cuvée Cathelin in Jero, then now's your chance!

This offering is part of a much larger cellar, a portion sold to great acclaim previously and some still in storage. The wines were primarily purchased directly through reputable retailers or were brought in for the owner from the wineries themselves. The owner was maniacal about storage and shipping, and everything was stored in beautiful custom-home storage until moved to professional storage. Because of the volume of wines in the cellar, the original sources vary, but all were sourced near time of release through retail or winery channels.

It's rare to have an opportunity like this— bid with confidence.

RHÔNE

JL CHAVE

Considered widely as the quintessential Hermitage producer, Chave typifies traditionalism in both viticulture and his winemaking philosophy. The Domaine, begun in 1481, has been handed down from generation to generation. While Gerard Chave still maintains a presence, it is his son, Jean-Louis who is at the helm making some of the best wines in France, if not the world over. The family owns eight plots of land on the hill of Hermitage and in a time when single vineyard cuvees are all the rage, still holds true to the belief that the assemblage of all of the grapes produces a more complex, powerful and artisanal wine. To Jean-Louis the soil differences found in each plot of land profoundly affect production which is why the expression of the blend is superior to the single vineyard. Chave is passionate about allowing the grapes to achieve complete ripeness via a long hang time on the vine and therefore the wines exude profound extraction as well as substantial alcohol. There is also a natural selection of low yielding fruit due to an average vine age of sixty years or more which adds greater intensity to the wines. The vineyards are farmed organically and the horse and plough are utilized to this day!

The Hermitage Rouge is made of 100 percent Syrah while the Blanc is generally eighty percent Marsanne and twenty percent Roussanne. In vinification, contrary to modernist techniques once again, Chave eschews new oak, using only ten percent for the Rouge and mostly old oak and stainless steel for the fermentation and aging of the Blanc. The white Hermitage has the texture and richness of a great white Burgundy with immense complexity and the ability to age substantially. When serving the Blanc, Jean-Louis advises that they are not chilled too much, and are always decanted for a short period. The Rouge is a highlight.

A PRISTINE SELECTION

of Magnificent Burgundy, Lafite, and Harlan from a West Coast Collection

(LOTS 1049-1168)

What a pleasure to spend most of a day with the consignor pulling bottles from his immaculate custom-built temperature-controlled underground cellar packed with great wine! All single owner wine, all purchased on release from Northern California retailers and importers (with the exception of the two 3L bottles of Lafite which were gifts). The cellar seemed new but was in fact built by the consignor in 1994, when his collecting began in earnest. Bordeaux gave way ultimately to Burgundy, and what Burgundy! Almost entirely Fortune 50, blue chip, Amex blue card, platinum record, quality off the charts; and now spilling out into commercial storage and a second home cellar in the mountains. Hence this judicious pruning of 460 bottles. Stacks of DRCs in their original wooden cases, oodles of Rousseau, Mugnier, Vogüé, Dujac, Roumier. Nice work if you can get it!

CHÂTEAU LAFITE ROTHSCHILD

For as long as anyone can remember, Lafite has been the most highly regarded wine in Bordeaux. From their very first book, published in 1845, Cocks & Feret have listed Lafite first, and it was ranked first in the famous 1855 classification of Bordeaux.

Fite is an old French term meaning small hill, rise or mound; it is from this humble feature in Bordeaux' somewhat bland landscape that France's most esteemed producer takes its name. The Château itself is one of the oldest in Bordeaux, with much of it dating from the mid-sixteenth century. It was purchased by the wealthy Ségur family in the seventeenth century, but like much of the region at the time, the land was used for a variety of farming.

Beginning in the 1670s, the Ségurs spent around twenty years converting a large portion of the land to vineyards. With Latour and Calon, as well as Lafite, under their ownership, the Ségurs began to find a market for their wines in London. It was first mentioned in the London Gazette in 1707 and soon became famous: by the early 1730s, it was a favorite of the Prime Minister, Robert Walpole.

Lafite remained in the Ségur family until 1784. It was sold several times, finally to Baron de Rothschild in 1868, by which time there were some seventy-four hectares of vines. It was a new era of industrial wealth and the Rothschild purchase certainly added much celebrity to the area.

JF MUGNIER

For such an important domaine, which in addition to its 1.37 hectares of vines in Musigny proper, also possesses significant holdings in Bonnes-Mares, Chambolle-Musigny Premiers Crus Les Amoureuses and Les Fuées, as well as a monopole on the fine Nuits St Georges Premier Cru of the Clos de la Maréchale...Jacques-Frédéric's great-great-grandfather, Frédéric Mugnier, had been a merchant of spirits in Dijon in the middle of the nineteenth century, and as his business in Dijon prospered, he was able to buy his parcels of vines in Chambolle-Musigny and Nuits St Georges during the nadir in fortunes of the area brought about by the phylloxera epidemic.

The Mugniers added to their vineyard holdings in the area when they bought the Château de Chambolle-Musigny in 1889 (also from the Marey- Monge family), though the house was used primarily as an occasional retreat from the city for the family for many, many years to come, with no one from the Mugnier family settling down in Chambolle until today's proprietor, Jacques-Frédéric Mugnier returned to Chambolle from overseas in 1984. As he relates, "my family were people from the city" so it is not surprising that "I am the first one to live permanently in this house." During the 1920s, the family business was run by five grandsons of Frédéric Mugnier (who had passed away in 1911), with James Mugnier officially in charge of the wine side of the business and the vineyards. Of these five grandsons, only one, Jacques Mugnier, ever married and had children, and it is from this grandson of Frédéric Mugnier that today's proprietor, Jacques-Frédéric Mugnier is related. Making wines of purity and grace, JF Mugnier is surely one of the most sought after producers in all of Burgundy.

COMTE GEORGES DE VOGÜÉ

Delicate, feminine and fragrant, the epitome of finesse: lace, silk and taffeta; violets and dog-roses; raspberries and blackcurrants with a finish of liquorice; amplitude and generosity; intensity without a trace of hardness. All this has been said by those attempting to describe the taste of Le Musigny. Le Musigny consists of two sub-climats, Le Musigny itself and at the same altitude next door to the south, Les Petits-Musigny. The lion's share, more than seven hectares, almost seventy percent, and including the totality of Les Petites-Musigny, belongs to the Domaine Comte Georges de Vogüé. This estate proclaims itself the Domaine des Musigny. The domaine also comprise 2.75 hectares of Bonnes-Mares, located entirely in the southern, Chambolle end of the climat, sixty ares of Amoureuses, 1.80 hectares of Premiers Crus (Baudes and Fuées) and a small parcel of village wine. Wines of the domaine are defined as classy and fragrant, very exciting indeed. The domaine is in good hands. The future is bright.

THE CELLAR

of the Late Mark Tarlov

(LOTS 1214-1294)

A lunch with Mark Tarlov during the summer of 2009 changed the trajectory of my career and of my life. Mark was a successful film executive, producer and director, and had been a family friend for years. He had a passion for wine, and for helping others. During a lunch at City Hill Restaurant in lower Manhattan, I told Mark and his wife Judy that I was thinking about changing careers and following my interest in wine. Mark's face immediately lit up and he encouraged, in fact demanded, that I head west that October and work a harvest at Evening Land Vineyards, the winery he had founded a few years earlier. I left the restaurant surprised, exhilarated and petrified. A few weeks later, somehow, I was in Lompoc, California, beginning a new chapter in my life.

Mark Tarlov was a wine pioneer. He grew to love wine during his years in Hollywood and started his journey in the wine business with the purchase of a small vineyard called Occidental Vineyard in Sonoma. That started an experiment of how Pinots might differ along the west coast: Oregon, Santa Barbara and Sonoma. He started Evening Land Vineyards in Oregon in 2006, and later Chapter 24. Along the way he hired two legends from Burgundy, Dominique Lafon and Comte Louis-Michel Liger-Belair to create a truly authentic expression of Pinot Noir. He fell in love with the Côte D'Or and in subsequent years, over many dinners, Mark often smiled while talking about his perfect day: a picnic of freshly baked bread and truffles with Judy in the vineyards of Burgundy.

With the mind of an explorer and the passion of a believer, Mark visited, collected, and promoted many of Burgundy's greatest producers long before the region dominated the global stage: Barthod, Coche Dury, Ente, Liger-Belair, Raveneau, Rouget, and Tremblay. He was meticulous about sourcing. Bottles in this offering were purchased in Europe and the United States from only the most reputable sources and stored professionally in New York. Zachys is honored to offer this collection, as it is a reflection of a man who cared deeply about quality and a sense of place.

Mark was a defining personality in the wine world and he will be greatly missed.

HENRI JAYER

It is interesting to reflect upon the fact that in many ways Henri Mayer is portrayed as a modernizer in Burgundy, as many of the techniques that he pioneered in the region have been embraced by legions of vigneron, but in many respects he represented a return to a very traditional approach to winemaking. His emphasis on viticultural practices and the meticulous care that he gave to his vineyards are simply the most obvious facets of his traditional methodology. Henri Mayer revolutionized winemaking during the course of his career. Amongst his very many accomplishments was his emphasis on limiting yields in the vineyard, allowing the cooled must to macerate for a few days prior to the onset of alcoholic fermentation to allow colors to set and adding to the aromatic complexity in the finished wine and bottling the wine unfinned and unfiltered. He always spoke of the importance of treating the wine gently during the fermentation and elevage process, which he likened to "moving a sleeping baby who must be carried to its bed from the sofa upon which it has fallen asleep." He also was a proponent of one hundred percent new oak for his wines. This was the one precept of his winemaking technique that cannot be described as traditional, and it is the one most often cited by modern winemakers when they seek to sprinkle a little of the "fairy dust" of Mayer inspiration on their own wines. There is little doubt that the concept that a Grand Cru "deserves to be raised in one hundred percent new oak" that is often heard in Burgundy these days can be traced back to Henri Mayer and his success with new wood. However, one of the interesting things I have always found about Henri Mayer's wines was that I have never tasted one that was over-oaked.

LIGER-BELAIR

The current Domaine du Comte Liger-Belair was founded by Louis-Michel Liger-Belair only in 2000, but Liger-Belairs have been growing wine in Burgundy for nearly two centuries, since General Louis Liger-Belair purchased the Château du Vosne in 1815. Over the next century the domaine grew through marriages and purchases until it included the monopoles of La Romanée, La Tâche and La Grande Rue, and substantial holdings in many of the other greatest vineyards of the Côte de Nuits. Unfortunately the passing of Comte Henri Liger-Belair in 1924 and his widow the Comtesse in 1931 meant that the estate was to pass equally to their ten children, and the law of the time provided that for any of the heirs to receive their portion in land rather than cash, all must have reached legal adulthood. Two had not, and when three of the other siblings did not want to wait to receive their inheritance, there was no choice but to put the entire domaine up for sale.

At that auction, Louis-Michel's grandfather Comte Michel and one brother joined to purchase what they could, and walked away with three pieces of vineyard land in Vosne-Romanée, the monopole La Romanée and parcels of Reignots and Chaumes. The wines were released under the names of various negociants until Louis-Michel began to take back vineyards to produce the wines himself. He continues to refine his practices, most recently with a complete conversion to biodynamic farming and to gentler presses, which he believes has improved the quality of the tannins, and has in just a decade solidly re-established the Liger-Belair name as one of the most reliable producers of top class Burgundy.

FRANÇOIS RAVENEAU

Whichever way you look at these wines they stand up, be it vintage consistency, longevity, intensity of flavor, length and so on- they are just flat out incredible wines and there is nothing else quite like them anywhere. Raveneau's Chablis is now more than ever getting the recognition it deserves and the prices have risen accordingly, but they still represent great values compared to the other top white wines of Burgundy. The only downside is the minute quantities they are typically available in.

Domaine Raveneau, today totaling around ten hectares in size, was formed by François Raveneau from small plots passed down from his father and Father-in-law, along with a little land he purchased himself. Today the estate is run by his two sons, Jean-Marie and Bernard, with Jean-Marie taking care of the winemaking duties.

Their cellars, as one might expect from a domaine of such modest acreage, are small and are discreetly located in the village. This is no hi-tech new world winery, but an old-school artisan setup. Dark, cool, and damp with a fine vaulted architectural ceiling, they set the scene appropriately. The secret to these wines is immense care in the vineyards. If ever the term hand-crafted could be applied to wine, it can be here. The wines spend approximately twelve months in barrel, but to retain the benchmark acidity and steeliness the barrels are usually seven to nine years in age, although some percentage of new oak is used. There is a light fining prior to bottling by hand and then the application of the trademark yellow wax capsules.

Domaine Raveneau's vineyard holdings include: Les Clos, Blanchot, Valmur, Bougrots, Montée de Tonnerre, Butteaux, Vaillons, Chapelot, Montmains and Forest. Raveneau's wines are utterly unique, of unquestionable quality and can age as well as a Ramonet or DRC Montrachet. Even for those who don't typically drink white wine, Raveneau's epiphanous Chablis does not disappoint.

HEITZ

Heitz Wine Cellars produces classic California wines of elegance and power. Begun in 1961 by Joe and Alice Heitz, this is a true family affair with the winery being passed down through the generations. In 1964, Joe and Alice bought 160 acres in the Spring Valley in Saint Helena, California from which the basic Cabernet Sauvignon is produced. The first vintage of the renowned Martha's Vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon was 1966 upon a handshake agreement between the Heitz family and Tom and Martha May which has lasted for decades. This top tier Cabernet Sauvignon is one of the most sought after California wines in the world. Realizing the great potential and distinction of this wine, the Heitz and May families agreed to place a vineyard designation on the label of the 1966 and thereafter, becoming one of the first in Napa Valley to emulate the wine according to terrior by vineyard bottling and classifying it as such on the label. Bella Oaks, in Rutherford, was next to augment the lineup in 1976, adding elegance to the already classy Heitz portfolio, and in 1989 the Trailside Vineyard rounded out the selection of brilliant vineyard-designated Cabernet Sauvignons. Heitz Wine Cellars is a legendary estate. One of their many accolades is the award from Wine Spectator naming Martha's Vineyard Cabernet one of the Top 12 Wines of the twentieth century.

A FINE COLLECTION (LOTS 1295-1322)

From an avid collector comes this special offering of fine rarities. The collection shines with Coche's Corton-Charlemagne, DRC's Montrachet, Keller's G Max, and more. And if that isn't enough to catch the eye of a serious oenophile, don't miss out on the celebrated 1955 DRC Grands Echézeaux. The majority of these bottles were purchased directly from retail and have been stored in a temperature-controlled home cellar. Raise your paddles fast, for wines like this will be hard to find again!

REFERENCE POINT DRC (LOTS 1354-1355)

Educate yourself and a few friends on the glory of the 1966 vintage with these bottles of DRC. These bottles are offered by only their second owner – our consignors purchased them from a private cellar in Europe, who in turn bought them directly from The Domaine many decades ago. In the States, the wines were stored professionally in the NYC area. Zachys is delighted to provide the original invoice for the sale of these bottles (see photo). Though the labels have deteriorated over the years, the levels are exceptional, and anyone in search of excellent DRC with exceptional provenance should look no further.

BURGUNDY

DOMAINE LEFLAIVE

Joseph Leflaive was a very astute purchaser of vineyard land during the first two decades of the twentieth century, so that today the domaine's roster of vineyards is the greatest constellation of white Burgundy patrimony in the Côte de Beaune. These include just under two full hectares in Chevalier-Montrachet, an equal slice in Bâtard-Montrachet, a bit more than a hectare in Bienvenues-Bâtard-Montrachet (out of a total of 2.3 hectares), just over three hectares in the beautiful Premier Cru of Pucelles, three-quarters of a hectare in Combettes, 1.27 hectares in Foliatières, and nearly five hectares in Premier Cru Clavoillon. In 1991, the topping on the cake was added when the domaine purchased a very small, .08 hectare slice of Le Montrachet itself.

FIRST GROWTH BORDEAUX & MULTIPLE BOTTLES OF D'AUVENAY FROM A DISTINGUISHED (LOTS 1376-1380)

Over the last 30 plus years, this consignor has been meticulously sourcing some of the world's best made wines. Primarily buying for consumption, he has amassed a large collection and has decided to trim down on some of his prized trophy bottles, starting with a major star of Bordeaux: 1982 Lafite. This consignor also had the foresight to see the quality of d'Auvenay whites and although he has drunk his fair share over the years, there are still a few bottles of Puligny-Montrachet Les Folatières 1992 and Meursault Les Narvaux 1995 left over for your bidding pleasure. With exceptional provenance and perfect, temperature-controlled storage, the following lots will be a welcome addition to anyone's collection.

A LATE, GREAT DRINKING CELLAR (LOTS 1381-1396)

Zachys is pleased to offer the following consignment from the cellar of a late collector famed for his generosity and passion for all of life's pleasures. An accomplished man in letters, business, gastronomy and more, this collector enjoyed little more than opening great wines in fine company, always beside his beloved wife. All of the wines were purchased from reputable merchants on the west coast and stored in his state of the art, stunning home cellar outside of Los Angeles.

Extras from a
VERY
Collection

(LOTS 1397-1400)

As you may remember from our February auction: A Very Important Collection, this offering was collected over the course of five decades and stored in professional storage— either at Zachys or in New York metro-area professional storage. This portion specifically features some more pristine 2003 Richebourg from Louis Jadot, the same great wines with the same great provenance!

BURGUNDY

LOUIS JADOT

The Jadot story started with a family purchase in the Beaune Clos des Ursules vineyard in 1826. Then, in 1859 they started formally as a negociant house and have continued a family tradition of winemaking to this very day. The focus here is on two things: quality and tradition. These are wines of terroir made in a time honored fashion.

NOTES

Buying & Bidding Information

Prior to bidding, all participants must read the Buying & Bidding Information and the Conditions of Sale contained in this catalog that state the terms governing the purchase of alcoholic beverage products sold at auction. Auctions are operated by: (i) Zachys Europe Limited in respect of auctions which are conducted from the United Kingdom; (ii) Zachys Asia Limited in respect of auctions which are conducted from Hong Kong; (iii) Zachys Wine Auctions, Inc in respect of auctions which are conducted from anywhere else in the world; and (iv) in respect of online-only auctions, the entity stated in the auction particulars as operator of the auction, (each referred to as "Zachys") acting as agent for and on behalf of the relevant consignor of the goods to be offered for sale (the "Consignor"). By participating in an auction, an auction participant ("Buyer") agrees to be bound by this Buying & Bidding Information and the Conditions of Sale in this catalog (whether in print or online).

Estimates

Catalog lot entries include a description of every lot and an estimated price range that is our opinion of the price expected at auction. Estimates are a guide for bidders and generally reflect prices recently paid at auction for comparable alcoholic beverage products. Each estimate takes into account, among other things, condition, rarity, quality and provenance (history of ownership, to the extent known). Estimates are determined in advance of the sale and are therefore subject to revision. Buyers should not rely upon estimates as a prediction of actual selling prices.

Estimates do not include Buyer's Premium or sales tax. Certain lots may be noted with "Estimate on Request" instead of a printed value in the catalog. Please contact a Zachys specialist for further information and bidding assistance.

Buyers Premium

A 24.5% Buyer's Premium (exclusive of sales tax) will be added to the successful bid price of each lot purchased and is payable by Buyer, together with all applicable sales tax, as stated in the Conditions of Sale.

Reserves

Unless otherwise indicated, all lots are sold subject to a reserve. A reserve is the confidential minimum price established between Zachys and the Consignor. The reserve will not exceed the low estimate for the lot. If any lot in the catalog is not subject to a reserve, the lot will be identified by the symbol(s) next to the lot number.

Examination of Wines

Zachys endeavors to select quality wines for auction and uses leading reputable expert(s) to assist Zachys in examining wines for auction. However, to the fullest extent permissible by law, Zachys and any Consignor disclaim any liability arising out of any description or error or omission in any description or any decision by the Buyer to rely on Zachys or any Consignor. Prospective Buyers are urged and advised to examine any lots carefully prior to the auction at our temperature-controlled warehouse and can do so by appointment. Please contact Zachys at +1.914.448.3026, +852.2530.1971 or +44.20.34758455 to set up an appointment.

Bidder Registration

No person shall bid or buy in any auction (or be shipped any property bought in any auction) who has not agreed (either in writing or electronically) to be bound by the Conditions of Sale and this Buying & Bidding Information. If a prospective Buyer has not previously bid with Zachys, a government issued photo identification (such as National Identity Card or Passport) may be required prior to registration for any sale.

If a business organization registers to bid in an auction, a Business Registration or a Certificate of Incorporation and/or proof of director may be required in order to obtain a paddle. First time Buyers may settle invoices by wire transfer or check only. Zachys requires front and back copies of all credit cards for new Buyers along with picture identification.

Prospective Buyers are asked to supply a bank reference to register for the auction. To avoid delay in the release of purchases, please pre-arrange check or credit approval through our Finance Department at +1.914.874.8034, +852.2530.1971 or +44.20.34758455.

All bidders who wish to attend the live auction are asked to preregister for a paddle at least two business days in advance of the auction. If you plan to attend the auction, a Bidder Pre-Registration Form is provided in this catalog or at auction.zachys.com. Complete and either fax the form to +1.914.874.8034, +852.2530.1971 or +44.20.34758455 or email the form to bid@zachys.com or asia@zachys.com at least two business days prior to the auction. Bidders should arrive at least 30 minutes before the scheduled sale of the lot on which they plan to bid to retrieve a paddle.

Bidding

Lots are auctioned in consecutive numerical order, as they appear in the catalog. The auctioneer will accept bids from (i) those present in the saleroom, (ii) absentee bidders participating by telephone, online or by written bid provided to Zachys at least 24 hours prior to the first and session of the auction, or (iii) live over the internet. The auctioneer may also execute bids on behalf of the Consignor's reserve; however, under no circumstances will the auctioneer place any bid on behalf of the Consignor at or above the reserve. The auctioneer will not identify bids placed on behalf of the Consignor. Prospective Buyers who have registered to bid by more than one method (for example, both as an in-saleroom and absentee bidder) must monitor all of their bidding activities (including in-saleroom bids, absentee bids, and online bids) to prevent bidding against themselves. Subject to the section headed "Right of Cancellation" in the Conditions of Sale (in the case of consumers only), for all Zachys live and online auctions, all bids are final and will not be cancelled.

Bidding by Zachys

Zachys reserves the right to bid on any lot on its own behalf, subject to the same terms and conditions applicable to all other Bidders.

Parcel Lots

A parcel is a sequence of lots carrying the same estimates and consisting of the same type, quantity and bottle size. In this sale the Buyer of the first lot of a parcel will have, at the discretion of the auctioneer, the option to take any or all further lots in the parcel for the same price. If the option is not exercised on all lots in the same parcel, the auctioneer will open bidding on the next unsold lot and offer the Buyer of that lot the option to take any or all of the remaining lots in the parcel sequence. Bidding shall continue in the same manner until all lots in the parcel have been offered and declared sold or unsold by the auctioneer. Live Online bidders who purchase the first lot in a parcel will be sent a message requesting that they choose how many additional lots in the parcel they would like to purchase. If the Live Online bidder does not respond to the message, the auctioneer will open the next unsold lot in the sequence.

Bids should be placed on the first lot in a parcel. In the event that a bid is placed on a subsequent lot, Zachys will move the bid to the first lot in the parcel. An unsuccessful bid on the first lot in a parcel will be carried to the next lot and executed on that lot. If unsuccessful again, the bid will be carried to the next lot in the parcel until all lots have been offered.

Online, Absentee, & Telephone Bids for Live Auctions

Please note: Zachys offers the following services as a convenience to clients. Zachys is not responsible for any error in connection with or failure to execute absentee, telephone or online bids.

Online Bids

Live auctions will open for bidding on our website at www.auction.zachys.com approximately 3-4 weeks before the scheduled live auction date. Bids may be submitted online during this period.

There are two ways to bid online: (i) submit the starting/next bid or (ii) submit a maximum bid. To simplify the bidding process, Zachys uses predetermined bidding increments. If a maximum bid is submitted, bids will be placed on your behalf only as much as is required to ensure you remain the highest bidder (up to your maximum bid). In cases when two equivalent maximum bids are submitted, the earlier one will hold.

All bids submitted online are immediately executed. You cannot cancel a bid once it has been submitted. You may, however, adjust your maximum bid while it is higher than the current standing bid.

Estimates and Bid amounts may be shown in a secondary currency, shown in parentheses (), by the user selecting a preferred viewing currency on the website. Please note these values are only an estimate, based on recent exchange rates, and all bids as well as final payments will be conducted in the sale's primary currency.

Prospective Buyers may also bid during the live auction on our website at www.auction.zachys.com.

By registering and bidding on the internet, prospective Buyers agree to be bound by the Conditions of Sale. Zachys assumes no responsibility for disputes or errors arising from online bid activity. In the event of a dispute, the auctioneer's declaration of winning bid and paddle number shall be determinative. In the event of communication delays or failures, the auction will not be stopped. Live online bidders should consider providing Zachys with emergency absentee bids.

Absentee Bids

If you are unable to attend the auction in person and wish to place bids, you may give Zachys instructions in writing to bid on your behalf. Zachys' representatives will then try to purchase the lot or lots of your choice for the lowest price possible, taking into account the reserve price and other bids. This service is free and confidential. To place absentee bids, use the form provided herein or at www.auction.zachys.com. Be certain to accurately record the lot numbers and the highest hammer price you are willing to pay for the lot.

Please note: Your bid amount does not include Buyer's Premium or applicable sales tax. Buyer's Premium and applicable sales tax will be added to the hammer price of each lot.

Absentee bids must be submitted in consecutive numerical order, or they will not be executed. In addition, please use the bid increments included on the absentee bid form. If bids are submitted incorrectly, Zachys will round your bid up to the next increment. Please place bids as early as possible and at least 24 hours prior to the start of the first session of the auction. In the event of identical bids, the earliest bid received will take precedence. By registering and submitting absentee bids, prospective Buyers agree to be bound by the Conditions of Sale.

Telephone Bids

Prospective Buyers may bid by telephone during the live sale. Telephone bids are accepted only at Zachys' discretion and at the prospective Buyer's risk. Because of limited phone lines in the saleroom, Zachys must confirm arrangements for this service at least 48 hours prior to the start of the first session of the auction. At Zachys' discretion, telephone bids may be limited to lots with a value above US$2,000, HK$16,000 or GBP£2,000 and may be recorded. By submitting a telephone bid, prospective Buyers agree to be bound by the Conditions of Sale.

Bidding in Online Auctions

Bids can be submitted anytime during the course of an online auction on our website at www.auction.zachys.com.

There are two ways to bid: (i) submit the starting/next bid or (ii) submit a maximum bid.

To simplify the bidding process, Zachys uses predetermined bidding increments. If a maximum bid is submitted, bids will be placed on your behalf only as much as is required to ensure you remain the highest bidder (up to your maximum bid). In cases when two equivalent maximum bids are submitted, the earlier one will hold.

All bids submitted online are immediately executed. You cannot cancel a bid once it has been submitted. You may, however, adjust your maximum bid while it is higher than the current standing bid.

Estimates and Bid amounts may be shown in a secondary currency, shown in parentheses (), by the user selecting a preferred viewing currency on the website. Please note these values are only an estimate, based on recent exchange rates, and all bids as well as final payments will be conducted in the sale's primary currency.

By registering and bidding on the internet, prospective Buyers agree to be bound by the Conditions of Sale. Zachys assumes no responsibility for disputes or errors arising from online bid activity.

Taxes

Buyers are responsible for the payment of any tax, tariff, duty or other fee which Zachys may be required by law to charge or remit to any authority in respect of or in connection with the sale.

All bids placed by Buyers are deemed to be submitted exclusive of any sales tax including United Kingdom value added tax and/or any other applicable tax of a similar nature, which shall (if required) be payable by the Buyer at the appropriate rate. Applicable VAT or sales tax is charged on the successful bid price, Buyer's Premium, and any other applicable charges on any other property purchased by the Buyer from Zachys unless Buyer has a valid exemption therefrom. All such taxes shall be paid by Buyer at the time of delivery to Buyer at Zachys' licensed location.

Buyers claiming exemption from sales, use or other tax must provide Zachys with documentation, which, in Zachys' sole discretion and judgment, is satisfactory evidence of such exemption, prior to the release of property to the Buyer. Buyers claiming such exemption who are licensed dealers of alcoholic beverages must submit resale certificates and a copy of their valid licenses to Zachys prior to registering for the sale.

The following information is intended to give general advice to buyers on the VAT and certain other potential tax implications of purchasing at Zachys wine auctions. Reference to the following VAT symbols shall mean those symbols located beside the lot number or the pre-sale estimates in the catalogue.

Buyers are responsible for the payment of any tax which Zachys may be required by law to charge or remit to any authority in respect of or in connection with the sale. All bids placed by Buyers are deemed to be submitted exclusive of any VAT and/or any other applicable tax or duties, which shall (if required) be payable by the Buyer at the appropriate rate.

The following VAT schemes are applicable to Zachys Europe Limited auctions and deliveries within the European Union, as prescribed by the symbols accompanying each lot in this catalogue:

Property with a † (Single Dagger) Symbol

These lots are sold under normal VAT rules. VAT is applicable over the hammer price, buyer's premium and any additional charges (if applicable) at a VAT rate prescribed by law. The goods under † do not qualify for a VAT margin scheme. Terms of delivery and any corresponding VAT charges will be discussed with the buyer after the auction on an individual basis.

Property with a ♦ (Black Diamond) Symbol

These lots remain in bond (i.e. not in free EU VAT circulation). Please note that VAT is applicable upon release of the goods into EU free circulation - on request of buyer - over the hammer price, buyer's premium and any additional charges (if applicable) at a rate prescribed by law which is added to the amount payable by the buyer. Terms of delivery will be discussed with buyer after the auction on an individual basis with corresponding VAT charges if - upon request of buyer - the goods will be released into EU free circulation.

Property with a △ (Open Triangle) Symbol

These lots are subject to a "margin scheme", whereby only the buyer's premium and additional charges are taxed with VAT. The rate of buyer's premium including VAT on lots with this symbol is equal to 29.5%. Buyers eligible for the margin scheme may also opt for the application of regular VAT rules, for example, in case of a delivery of the goods outside the European Union or a delivery within the European Union to a VAT registered buyer. The enhanced buyer's premium amount will be reflected on the buyer invoice. Terms of delivery and any corresponding VAT charges will be discussed with the buyer after the auction on an individual basis.

All questions regarding tax and exemptions should be directed to Zachys Finance Department at +44.20.34758455, +852.2530.1971 or +1.914.874.8034.

Owned or Guaranteed Property

Zachys offers property consigned by others for sale at public auction. Occasionally, lots are offered which have in the course of the sale process become the property of Zachys. These lots are identified with the symbol (■) next to the lot number.

On rare occasions, Zachys may guarantee a minimum price to the Consignor. Such lots are identified in the catalog by the symbol (■) next to the lot number. Guaranteed lots may also be sold subject to a reserve.

Successful Bid

The fall of the auctioneer's hammer indicates the final bid, at which time the Buyer assumes full responsibility for the lot. Successful bidders will be notified and invoiced within a few days of the sale. Successful Buyers will pay the price of the final bid plus a 24.5% Buyer's Premium plus any applicable taxes for each lot purchased.

Payment

For zCollection purchases, Zachys will auto-charge the credit card on file for the full invoice amount within 48 hours of the sale close.

For live auction purchases, Zachys will auto-charge the credit card on file for invoices up to US$20,000, HK$150,000, or GBP £15,000 within 48 hours of the sale close.

In respect of all other purchases, buyers are expected to pay for purchases within 14 calendar days of purchase for live sales and 7 calendar days of purchase for internet sales. At the end of this 14- or 7-calendar day period (as applicable), Zachys reserves the right to charge the Buyer's credit card on file for any amounts still due. All amounts remaining due after this 14- or 7-calendar-day period will be subject to a 2% per month late charge. In addition, any payments in default after 21 calendar days will incur a penalty equal to 3% of the purchase price. Additional late fees equal to 3% of the total purchase price may be charged for every 14 calendar days past the initial 21-calendar day period. All payments are payments on account until all invoices and all balances due are paid in full.

For US auctions, payment is accepted in United States Dollars.

For Hong Kong auctions, payment is accepted in Hong Kong Dollars,

For United Kingdom auctions, payment is accepted in Pounds Sterling.

To request payment in another currency, contact Zachys at +1.914.448.3026, +852.2530.1971 or +44.20.34758455. Zachys, in its sole discretion, shall determine the currency exchange rate

To avoid delays in the release of your purchases, prospective Buyers are requested to supply bank references prior to the auction.

Payment can be made by credit card, check, money order, bank wire transfer or cash. In the event of third-party payments, Zachys may require an Authorization Letter from both parties.

Payment by Credit Card

All charges are subject to acceptance by Zachys and the applicable credit card company. Zachys will accept Visa, MasterCard, American Express, Discover and Union Pay. Payment can be made via phone by calling +1.914.448.3026, +852.2530.1971 or +44.20.34758455. The maximum amount allowed to be charged on credit cards is limited to HK$150,000, US$20,000 or GBP 15,000 per auction, with the exception of payments via American Express which has no limit.

Zachys reserves the right to charge Buyer's credit card and to immediately assess a 3% late penalty charge, should payment be past the due date, notwithstanding that the amount of such charge may exceed HK$1500,000, US$20,000 or GBP 15,000. Zachys reserves the right to charge Buyer's credit card and to immediately assess the relevant late payment charges set out above, should payment be past the due date, notwithstanding that the amount of such charge may exceed the maximum amount.

When making payment via UnionPay, winning bidder must sign the auction invoice and acknowledge that possession of the wine has transferred from Zachys at time of payment. Signature must be same as the one signed on payslip.

Collection of Purchases

Buyers are expected to remove their property within 14 calendar days of the auction. Prospective Buyers' attention is drawn to the Conditions of Sale, including Condition 9.

Collection & Delivery

It is the Buyer's responsibility to pick up purchases or make shipping arrangements within 14 calendar days of the auction. Zachys will not automatically arrange for the delivery of purchased products.

After payment has been received, Zachys can assist in the arrangement of packing, transit insurance, and shipping at the Buyer's expense, direction and request.

Please submit the Collection & Delivery Form to expedite payment and delivery for auction purchases.

Export/Import Permits

Alcoholic beverage products sold at auction may be subject to laws governing export from the jurisdiction where the auction was held and import restrictions of foreign countries. Buyers should always check whether an export license is required before exporting alcoholic beverage products. It is the Buyer's sole responsibility to obtain any relevant export or import license. A delay in obtaining licenses shall neither justify the rescission of any sale nor excuse delay in providing full payment for the lot. Local laws may prohibit the importation of some property and/or may prohibit the resale of some property in the country of importation; no such restriction shall justify the rescission of any sale or delay in making full payment for the lot.

Delivery Restrictions

Prospective Buyers are also reminded that various jurisdictions impose limitations on the quantity of alcoholic beverage products which may be purchased and brought into their jurisdiction by a purchaser from another jurisdiction, without requiring the purchaser, a consignor or shipper to possess certain licenses or permits. Zachys shall not as a condition of sale assume any obligation or bear any responsibility whatsoever for applying for or obtaining the requisite permits or licenses in the event the quantity purchased exceeds said limitations. Therefore, all prospective Buyers are strongly advised to investigate the possibility of such limitations and to determine the manner in which alcoholic beverages shall be brought into the jurisdiction so as to comply with all local requirements.

Shipment of Spirits

Prospective Buyers should be advised there are certain restrictions regarding the shipment of spirits. Many countries and states impose limitations on quantity, high duties, and/or taxes, and prospective Buyers should be aware of export and import restrictions.

Translation

The terms and conditions have originally been drafted in English. In the event that any translation of the terms and conditions is prepared, the provisions of the English version shall prevail.

Conditions of Sale

These Conditions of Sale are Zachys' and the Consignor's entire agreement with the Buyer with respect to the property listed in this catalog. The Conditions of Sale and all other contents of this catalog may be amended by posted notices or oral announcements made during the sale. The property will be offered by Zachys as agent for the Consignor, unless the catalog indicates otherwise. By participating in an auction, you agree to be bound by these terms and conditions.

1 This catalog endeavors to describe the property listed herein accurately. However, save as otherwise expressly set out in these Conditions of Sale, and to the fullest extent permissible by law, Zachys and the Consignor shall not be liable for any such description and expressly disclaim any representation or warranty regarding the origin, physical condition, merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, correctness of catalog description, size, quality, condition, rarity, authenticity, attribution, value, importance, provenance, previous storage conditions or historical relevance of any property herein. Zachys further retains the absolute right to amend at any time and in any manner any description of any property contained in any catalog, and shall take reasonable steps to inform Buyers of such change prior to the conclusion of any purchase. Classifications in the text are for identification purposes only and based on standard sources. Buyers must make appropriate allowances for natural variations in ullages, conditions of cases, labels, corks and wine. Each statement contained in any catalog and each other statement, whether oral or written, and whether made at an auction or in an advertisement, bill of sale, addendum, posting, notice, announcement or otherwise, is a statement of opinion only and (subject to the next sentence) shall not be relied upon by any Buyer or otherwise be deemed a warranty or representation.

The previous sentence does not apply to the sale of goods acting as consumers in the United Kingdom – Zachys is under a legal duty to ensure that such goods are in conformity with their description. Images appearing in this catalog or elsewhere are for illustrative purposes only and may not be relied upon to reveal imperfections in any products. Zachys and the Consignor make no representation or warranty, express or implied, as to whether the Buyer acquires any copyright or other reproduction rights in any property. To the fullest extent permissible by law, neither Zachys nor the Consignor shall be liable for errors or omissions in the catalog or any supplemental material. Prospective Buyers are urged and advised to inspect the property before the auction, including the cases, labels, corks and wines, and must satisfy themselves by inspection or other means as to all considerations pertinent to any decision to place any bid. EACH PRODUCT AND EACH LOT HEREIN IS SOLD "AS IS," AND, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMISSIBLE BY LAW, BUYERS EXPRESSLY DISCLAIM ANY RELIANCE ON ZACHYS, THE CONSIGNOR, OR THE CATALOG. No provision of the Buyer & Bidding Information or these Conditions of Sale shall limit or exclude Zachys' or the Consignor's liability for: (i) fraud; (ii) fraudulent misrepresentation; or (iii) death or personal injury arising from its negligence.

2 The purchase price payable by the Buyer ("Purchase Price") will be the sum of the final bid price (the "Hammer Price"), the Buyer's Premium and the Protection Fee, when applicable, together with any applicable sales tax. The Buyer's Premium is 24.5% of the Hammer Price. The Protection Fee is 1% of the Hammer Price plus the Buyer's Premium.

3 Zachys reserves the right to withdraw any property or cancel any sale before or at the sale and shall have no liability whatsoever for such withdrawal or cancellation.

4 Zachys reserves the right to reject any bid. The highest bidder acknowledged by the auctioneer will be the Buyer. In the event of any dispute between bidders, or any other issue with respect to the bidder, the auctioneer will have absolute discretion to determine the successful bidder, to continue the bidding, to cancel the sale or to reoffer and resell the property in dispute. If any dispute arises after the sale, Zachys' sale record is conclusive.

5 In its sole discretion, Zachys may accept and execute absentee bids (written bids submitted to Zachys prior to the sale), telephone bids and internet bids as a convenience to clients who are not present at auction.

6 Unless otherwise indicated, all lots in this catalog are offered subject to a reserve, which is the minimum price the Consignor is willing to accept. This amount is confidential and will not exceed the low presale estimate. Lots not subject to a reserve are identified with the symbol (d) next to the lot number. Zachys shall act to protect the reserve by bidding through the auctioneer. The auctioneer may open bidding on any lot below the reserve by placing a bid on behalf of the Consignor. The auctioneer may continue to bid on behalf of the Consignor up to the amount of the reserve, either by placing successive bids or by placing bids in response to other bidders.

7 Title to the offered lot passes to the Buyer upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer and the announcement by the auctioneer that the lot has been sold, subject to compliance by the Buyer with all other Conditions of Sale and the Buying & Bidding Information.

8 The Protection Fee is 1% of the hammer price plus the Buyer's Premium for all arranged deliveries of purchased property. In return for payment of the Protection Fee, purchased property will be protected against breakage, loss, theft or fire and other losses as covered by Zachys' insurance while in transit to the Buyer's declared point of destination. If Buyer elects to decline the protection afforded by the Protection Fee, Buyer thereupon assumes full risk and responsibility for the lot while in transit.

9 No property may be removed from Zachys' premises until Buyer has paid the Purchase Price in full plus all other fees and taxes (inclusive of any taxes due in the location of the auction on Buyers who are not residents of such location) and has satisfied such terms as Zachys, in its sole discretion, shall require. Zachys reserves the right to withhold all property until such time as all outstanding amounts are paid in full from purchases from any prior auction(s). Upon receipt of full payment, Zachys will issue a Release Order, which must be presented in order for Zachys to release purchases made at auction. Subject to the foregoing, all lots are to be paid for no later than 4:30 PM (local time at the place of the auction) on the fourteenth calendar day following the live sale, and removed from Zachys' premises at Buyer's expense no later than 90 calendar days after the date of sale. If payment is not made within 14 calendar days of purchase for live sales and 7 calendar days of purchase for net sales, Zachys reserves the right to impose a late charge of up to 2% per month of the Purchase Price, in addition to any other rights and remedies available by law to Zachys. Any payments in default after 21 calendar days of purchase will incur a penalty equal to 3% of the Purchase Price. Additional late fees equal to 3% of the Purchase Price may be charged for every 14 calendar days past the initial 21-calendar-day period. If Buyer fails either to timely remove the purchased lots from Zachys' premises or make timely arrangements with New York Fine Wine Storage or Newcorp Logistics to store the purchased lots, Zachys may transfer such property to a public warehouse for the account, and at the risk and expense, of Buyer. If a lot has not been collected within 90 calendar days of the date of sale and Zachys does not transfer the uncollected property to a public warehouse, Buyer will be liable to Zachys for interest, storage fees, and handling charges.

10 Zachys is not responsible for acts or omissions by itself or others in packing or shipping, whether or not the carrier or packer is recommended by Zachys. Packing and handling of purchased lots are entirely at the risk of Buyer. Zachys may, at the request and direction of Buyer and for an administrative fee, make arrangements for the consolidated shipment by common carrier of the purchased lots, provided that Zachys is not liable in any way therefore.

11 If Buyer fails to comply with any of these Conditions of Sale, Buyer will be in default and Zachys may avail itself of all remedies available by law, including, without limitation, the right to (i) hold such defaulting Buyer liable for the Purchase Price including all fees, charges and expenses, (ii) cancel the sale of that lot and any other property sold to Buyer, (iii) resell the property without Reserve at public auction or privately on reasonable notice to the Buyer, (iv) pay the Consignor an amount equal to the net proceeds payable in respect of the amount bid by the defaulting Buyer and then resell the property to a third party without Reserve at public auction or privately on reasonable notice to such Buyer, and/or (v) take such other action as Zachys deems necessary or appropriate. If Zachys resells the property pursuant to clause (iii) or (iv) above, the defaulting Buyer shall be liable for the payment of any deficiency between the Purchase Price and the price obtained upon resale pursuant to clause (iii) and (iv) above and all costs and expenses, including, without limitation, warehousing, the expenses of both sales, reasonable attorneys' fees, commissions, incidental damages and all other charges due hereunder. In the event that such Buyer pays a portion of the Purchase Price for any or all lots purchased, Zachys shall apply the payment received to such lot or lots that Zachys, in its sole discretion, deems appropriate. Any Buyer who fails to comply with these Conditions of Sale will be deemed to have granted Zachys a security interest in, and Zachys may retain as collateral security for such Buyer's obligation to it, any property in Zachys' possession owned by such Buyer. Zachys shall have the benefit of all rights of a secured party under the Uniform Commercial Code or applicable law adopted in the jurisdiction where the auction is held.

Payment will not be deemed to have been made in full until Zachys has collected good funds. In the event Buyer fails to pay any or all of the Purchase Price for any lot within 30 calendar days of sale and Zachys nonetheless elects to pay the Consignor any portion of the sale proceeds, Buyer acknowledges that Zachys shall have all of the rights of the Consignor to pursue the Buyer for any amounts paid to the Consignor, whether at law, in equity, or under these Conditions of Sale.

Notwithstanding any other terms of these Conditions of Sale, if within 3 calendar days of the date of delivery of the property, Buyer notifies Zachys in writing of a claim that any lot is short, ullaged, or has suffered breakage, then Zachys in its sole discretion will decide any such claim as between the Consignor and Buyer and may rescind the sale and refund all or part of the Purchase Price received. This does not affect any other rights of the Buyer at law or under these Conditions of Sale.

Notwithstanding any other terms of these Conditions of Sale, if a Buyer purchased property that is inauthentic and returns such property to Zachys within 90 calendar days of the date of delivery, then Zachys agrees to rescind the sale and refund the Purchase Price received.

The benefit of this Condition of Sale 13 is not assignable and shall be applicable only to the original Buyer of the lot and not to subsequent assigns, buyers, heirs, owners or others who have acquired or may acquire an interest therein.

At its discretion, Zachys will not always cut the bands on original packaging of younger wines. In such cases, Zachys will not accept returns for any issues the Buyer might discover after the band is cut.

Alcoholic beverage products sold at auction may be subject to laws governing export from the jurisdiction where the auction was held and import restrictions of foreign countries. Buyers should always check whether an export license is required before exporting alcoholic beverage products. It is the Buyer's sole responsibility to obtain any relevant export or import license. A delay in obtaining licenses shall neither justify the rescission of any sale nor excuse delay in providing full payment for the lot. Local laws may prohibit the importation of some property and/or may prohibit the resale of some property in the country of importation; no such restriction shall justify the rescission of any sale or delay in making full payment for the lot

Prospective Buyers are also reminded that various jurisdictions impose limitations on the quantity of alcoholic beverage products which may be purchased and brought into their jurisdiction by a purchaser from another jurisdiction, without requiring the purchaser, a consignor or shipper to possess certain licenses or permits. Zachys and Consignor shall not as a condition of sale assume any obligation or bear any responsibility whatsoever for applying for or obtaining the requisite permits or licenses in the event the quantity purchased exceeds said limitations.

Therefore, all prospective Buyers are strongly advised to investigate the possibility of such limitations and to determine the manner in which alcoholic beverages shall be brought into the jurisdiction so as to comply with all local requirements.

For auctions that are held not in Hong Kong, the District of Columbia or the United Kingdom, the respective rights and obligations of the parties with respect to the Conditions of Sale and the conduct of the auction shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of New York. By participating in an auction, whether present in person or by agent, by absentee bid, telephone bid, internet bid or other means, Buyer shall be deemed to have consented to the exclusive jurisdiction of the State Courts of, and the Federal Courts sitting in, the State and County of New York. For such auctions, Buyer's sole and exclusive remedy against Zachys and/or the Consignor for any dispute or injury related to the auction or the property listed in the catalog shall be the rescission of the sale and the refund of the original Purchase Price paid for the lot. This remedy shall be in lieu of any other remedy which might otherwise be available to Buyer as a matter of law or at equity, and neither Zachys nor the Consignor shall be liable, in whole or in part, for any indirect, special, punitive, incidental or consequential damages, including, without limitation, loss of profits.

For auctions that are held in Hong Kong, the respective rights and obligations of the parties with respect to the Conditions of Sale and the conduct of the auction shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region. By participating in an auction, whether present in person or by agent, by absentee bid, telephone bid, internet bid or other means, Buyer shall be deemed to have consented to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of Hong Kong Special Administrative Region. For such auctions, Buyer's sole and exclusive remedy against Zachys and/or the Consignor for any dispute or injury related to the auction or the property listed in the catalog shall be the rescission of the sale and the refund of the original Purchase Price paid for the lot. This remedy shall be in lieu of any other remedy which might otherwise be available to Buyer as a matter of law or at equity, and neither Zachys nor the Consignor shall be liable, in whole or in part, for any indirect, special, punitive, incidental or consequential damages, including, without limitation, loss of profits.

For auctions that are held in the District of Columbia, the respective rights and obligations of the parties with respect to the Conditions of Sale and the conduct of the auction shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the District of Columbia. By participating in an auction, whether present in person or by agent, by absentee bid, telephone bid, internet bid or other means, Buyer shall be deemed to have consented to the exclusive jurisdiction of the District of Columbia courts and the United States District Court for the District of Columbia. For such auctions, Buyer's sole and exclusive remedy against Zachys and/or the Consignor for any dispute or injury related to the auction or the property listed in the catalog shall be the rescission of the sale and the refund of the original Purchase Price paid for the lot. This remedy shall be in lieu of any other remedy which might otherwise be available to Buyer as a matter of law or at equity, and neither Zachys nor the Consignor shall be liable, in whole or in part, for any indirect, special, punitive, incidental or consequential damages, including, without limitation, loss of profits.

For auctions that are held in the United Kingdom, the respective rights and obligations of the parties with respect to the Conditions of Sale and the conduct of the auction shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales. By participating in an auction, whether in person or by agent, absentee bid, telephone bid, online bid or other means, the Buyer irrevocably agrees that the courts of England and Wales shall have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute or claim (including non-contractual disputes or claims) arising out of or in connection with these Conditions of Sale, the Buyer & Bidding Information or their subject matter or formation. For such auctions, Buyer's sole and exclusive remedy against Zachys and/or the Consignor for any dispute or injury related to the auction or the property listed in the catalog shall be the rescission of the sale and the refund of the original Purchase Price paid for the lot. This remedy shall be in lieu of any other remedy which might otherwise be available to Buyer as a matter of law or at equity, and neither Zachys nor the Consignor shall be liable, in whole or in part, for any indirect, special, punitive, incidental or consequential damages, including, without limitation, loss of profits. In the event of any dispute relating to any purchases made online, the Buyer may refer to guidance regarding online alternative dispute resolution published by the National Trading Standards at www.nationaltradingstandards.uk/contact.

All offers and sales of alcoholic beverage products by Zachys are subject to the local laws governing the sale of alcoholic beverage products in the jurisdiction in which the auction takes place.

17a Right of Cancellation

This section only applies to Buyers based in the European Union or United Kingdom who are acting as consumers (i.e. for purposes unconnected with their trade or business) who have purchased in an auction held in the United Kingdom.

In the event that the Buyer purchases a product in any way other than in person at an auction (such other way being, for example, by way of absentee, telephone and/or online bid), the Buyer shall have a legal right to:

- (i) withdraw any bid at any point prior to acceptance by Zachys (i.e. at the fall of the hammer); and/or
- (ii) cancel any purchase within 14 days, which period shall expire after 14 days from the day on which the Buyer (or any third party indicated by the Buyer to receive such delivery) acquires physical possession of the goods (or the last good, in the case of multiple deliveries as part of the same lot) or,

To exercise the right to cancel any purchase, the Buyer is required to:

- (i) inform Zachys of such decision by a clear statement in writing to auction@ zachys.com by no later than the expiry of the above cancellation period; and
- (ii) send back the goods to or hand over the goods in person at Newcorp Logistics, Sikkell 13, 3274 KK Heinenoord, The Netherlands without undue delay and in any event no later than 14 days from the day on which the Buyer sends the relevant cancellation notice.

Subject to the foregoing, in the event that the Buyer cancels any purchase, Zachys shall reimburse the Buyer all payments received by it from the Buyer, including any costs of delivery paid to Zachys (except for delivery costs exceeding the least expensive type of standard delivery). The Buyer is required to bear the direct cost of returning the goods.

Zachys shall make the reimbursement without undue delay, and not later than: (i) 14 days after the day Zachys receives back from the Buyer any goods supplied; or (ii) if earlier, 14 days after the day the Buyer provides evidence that it has returned the goods. If possible, Zachys shall make the reimbursement using the same means of payment as used by the Buyer for the initial transaction, unless expressly agreed otherwise.

Zachys may make a deduction from the reimbursement for loss in value of any goods supplied, if the loss is the result of handling by the Buyer other than as necessary to establish the nature and characteristics of the goods. For the avoidance of doubt, this cancellation right will not apply to any bottles of wine which have been opened.

District of Columbia and New York State law requires that Buyers of alcoholic beverages must be at least 21 years of age. Hong Kong and English law requires that Buyers of alcoholic beverages must be at least 18 years of age. Buyers should observe and comply with the applicable laws relating to the purchase of alcoholic beverages in the jurisdiction where the auction is held. By participating in the auction, each Buyer represents and warrants to Zachys that he, she or it has the legal capacity to purchase, receive, and possess any lot purchased.

19

Zachys does not ship alcoholic beverage products. As an accommodation to Buyers, Zachys may arrange to have property packed, insured and delivered at Buyer's expense and direction, but (other than as provided in Condition of Sale 8) Zachys shall have no liability or obligation for shipping alcoholic beverage products. Zachys makes no representation, and assumes no obligation, with respect to the legality of shipment of alcoholic beverage products into any jurisdiction. Zachys urges all Buyers to investigate and understand the alcoholic beverage products shipping laws and regulations of the jurisdiction to which they intend the alcoholic beverage products to be shipped prior to the purchase of alcoholic beverage products at auction.

By participating in the auction, Buyer agrees with Zachys and the Consignor that these Conditions of Sale, together with any instrument captioned (i) Buying & Bidding Information and (ii) General Catalog Notes published by Zachys and in effect from time to time and which are incorporated herein by reference as part of this Condition of Sale, shall become the legal, valid, and binding obligation of the Buyer, enforceable in accordance with their terms by Zachys and the Consignor (who is both a party hereto and, with respect to portions hereof between Buyer and Zachys, an intended third-party beneficiary).

21

In the event any one or more of the provisions, or any part or parts of a provision, of these Conditions of Sale and/or the Buying & Bidding Information is determined to be invalid or unenforceable in any respect, the validity and enforceability of all remaining provisions and parts of provisions shall not in any way be affected or impaired.

If there is any inconsistency between the English and translated version of the General Catalog Notes, the Buying & Bidding Information, the Conditions of Sale or all other relevant documents, forms, website or emails, the English version shall prevail.

General Catalog Notes

Level/Ullage Descriptions & Interpretations

- IN Into Neck: Excellent for a wine of any age.
- BN Bottom Neck: Excellent for a wine of 10 years or older.
- VTS Very Top Shoulder: Normal for any wine 10 years or older.
- TS Top Shoulder: Normal for any wine 25 years or older.
- JBTS Just Below Top Shoulder: Normal for any wine 30 years or older.
- US Upper Shoulder: Slight natural reduction through easing of cork and evaporation through cork and capsule. Very good for any wine over 40 years old. Excellent for any wine over 50 years of age.
- UMS Upper-Mid Shoulder: Good for any wine 50-60 years of age.
- MS Mid Shoulder: Probably some weakening of the cork. Very good for wines over 50-60 years of age. Estimates usually take this into account.
- LS Low Shoulder: Some weakening of cork acceptable if wine or label is exceptionally rare or interesting.

Because of the slope of shoulder, it is impractical to describe levels of Burgundy-shaped bottles as into neck, etc. Wherever appropriate, the level between capsule and wine will be measured and cataloged in centimeters.

The condition and drinkability of Burgundy are less affected by ullage than its equivalent from Bordeaux. For example, a 5 to 7cm. ullage in a 50 year old Burgundy can be considered normal, indeed good for that age; and 3.5 to 4cm., excellent for that age.

Champagne bottle measurements are done from the bottom of the foil to the level of the wine.

Label & Capsule Conditions

Labels and capsules can become soiled, stained, or otherwise marked, especially with wines over 20 years of age. Unless otherwise noted, label conditions will be appropriate for age, but Buyers should note that normal staining, discoloration or other conditions may not be noted if such conditions are appropriate for the age of the label. Potential Buyers are invited to make appointments to inspect wines personally.

Special Notices

Though every effort is made to describe or measure the levels of older vintages, corks over 20 years old begin to lose their elasticity and levels can change between cataloguing and sale. Old corks have also been known to fail during or after shipment. We therefore repeat that there is always a risk of cork failure with old wines, and Zachys assumes no responsibility for this.

Under no circumstances can an adjustment of price or credit be made after delivery, except as provided in Paragraph 13 of the Conditions of Sale in this catalog.

Unless otherwise stated, Bordeaux are Château bottled.

It is Zachys' general policy to describe levels for vintages prior to 1990. Unless otherwise noted, ullage levels will be appropriate for age.

At Zachys discretion, we will not always cut the bands on original packaging of younger wines. In such cases all wines are sold AS IS and will not accept returns for any issues the buyer's might discover after the band is cut.

At times, bottle numbers will be covered in photos to protect consignor anonymity.

Collection, Delivery & Storage of Wine

Purchases will be stored free of charge for the first 90 days after the auction at which the wine is purchased. After 90 days, clients will automatically be billed for any future storage.

For US Auctions

Storage

Wine purchased at auction is stored at New York Fine Wine Storage (NYFWS) located in White Plains, New York. The 15,000 square foot warehouse is equipped with a state-of-the-art alarm system that is monitored 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. A 50-ton refrigeration system provides an ideal temperature, and all wines are protected with a temperature alarm system, as well as a backup generator. Rates are competitive, and the merchandise will not have to be moved to another location.

For further information or directions, please call NYFWS at 914.874.8068.

Pickup

Wines can be picked up from the Zachys Wine Auction warehouse or Zachys Wine and Liquor, Inc. store between the hours of 9 AM and 5 PM Monday through Friday, provided that payment for the lots has been received. Buyers can arrange to collect their wine by appointment by phoning Zachys at 914.448.3026. Please provide at least 72 hours notice before coming to collect your purchases. Any additional packaging and/or handling that is required or requested will be subject to processing fees.

Delivery

Purchases will not automatically be shipped. Once payment has been received, arrangements can be made to deliver the wines to the Buyer to the primary shipping address on the account. For further information or collection and delivery assistance, please call 914.448.3026 or email auction@zachys.com.

Original wooden cases and original cartons, when available, will be shipped automatically at $12 per case, unless instructed otherwise.

Zachys can assist you in making arrangements to have the wine purchased at auction shipped. All shipments and pickups will be subject to a 1% Shipping Protection Fee charge. This Shipping Protection Fee provides protection against only breakage, theft or fire as covered by Zachys insurance with respect to purchased property packed, shipped and delivered pursuant to arrangements made by Zachys. Zachys and its forwarding agents cannot be held responsible for any other changes to the wines during shipment. Loss or breakage resulting from shipping that Zachys has arranged must be reported to Zachys in writing within three days of delivery of the property, which must be examined in the presence of the carrier on arrival.

To insure the safety of the wines, it may be necessary in some shipments to repack the wines in protective shipping containers and to ship the wooden cases separately at an additional charge.

Buyers are also reminded that various jurisdictions impose limitations on the quantity of alcoholic beverages which may be purchased and brought into their jurisdiction by a purchaser from another jurisdiction, without requiring the purchaser, a consignor or shipper to possess certain licenses or permits. Zachys makes no representation, and assumes no obligation, as to the legality of shipment of alcoholic beverages into any jurisdiction. Zachys urges all Buyers to investigate and understand the wine shipping laws and regulations of the jurisdiction to which they intend the wine to be shipped prior to the purchase of wines at auction. The protection afforded by the Shipping Protection Fee does not cover confiscation by any government or law enforcement agency as a result of alleged violations of applicable laws by Sellers or Buyers.

Zachys will take precaution to ensure the safety of wines against inclement weather conditions. This may include delaying shipments during times of extreme high or low temperatures.

For Hong Kong Auctions

Storage

Wine purchased at HK auctions is stored at our wine warehouse in Hong Kong. The warehouse is equipped with a state-of-the-art alarm system that is monitored 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. The refrigeration system provides an ideal temperature, and all wines are protected with a temperature alarm system, as well as a back-up generator. There are also security guards on site 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Rates are competitive, and the merchandise will not have to be moved to another location. For further information, please email us at asia@zachys.com or call us at 852.2530.1971.

Pickup

Wines can be picked up from the Zachys Asia warehouse between the hours of 9:30 AM and 5:00 PM Monday through Friday, provided that payment for the lots has been received. Buyers can arrange to collect their wine by appointment by phoning Zachys at 852.2530.1971. Please provide at least 72 hours notice before coming to collect your purchases. Note there is a gate fee charge when picking up from warehouse. Please contact us at asia@zachys.com or call us at 852.2530.1971 for details.

Please Note: For pickups, any additional packaging and/or handling that is required or requested will be subject to processing fees.

Delivery

Once payment has been received, arrangements can be made to deliver the wines to the Buyer. Purchases will not automatically be shipped. Please email the Collection & Delivery Form

Original wooden cases and original cartons, when available, will be shipped automatically at £1 per case, unless instructed otherwise.

Zachys can assist you in making arrangements to have the wine purchased at auction shipped. All shipments will be subject to a 1% Protection Fee charge. This Shipping Protection Fee provides protection against only breakage, loss, theft or fire as covered by Zachys insurance while in transit to the Buyer's declared point of destination. Zachys and its forwarding agents cannot be held responsible for any other changes to the wines during shipment. Loss or breakage resulting from shipping that Zachys has arranged must be reported to Zachys in writing within three days of delivery of the property, which must be examined in the presence of the carrier on arrival. If Buyer elects to decline the protection afforded by the Protection Fee, Buyer thereupon assumes full risk and responsibility for the lot while in transit.

To ensure the safety of the wines, it may be necessary in some shipments to repack the wines in protective shipping containers and to ship the wooden cases separately at an additional charge.

Buyers are also reminded that various jurisdictions impose limitations on the quantity of alcoholic beverages which may be purchased and brought into their jurisdiction by a purchaser from another jurisdiction, without requiring the purchaser, a consignee or shipper to possess certain licenses or permits. Delivery Charges

The following information is intended to give general advice to buyers on the VAT and certain other potential tax implications of purchasing at Zachys wine auctions. Reference to the following VAT symbols shall mean those symbols located beside the lot number or the pre-sale estimates in the catalogue.

Buyers are responsible for the payment of any tax which Zachys may be required by law to charge or remit to any authority in respect of or in connection with the sale. All bids placed by Buyers are deemed to be submitted exclusive of any VAT and/or any other applicable tax or duties, which shall (if required) be payable by the Buyer at the appropriate rate.

The following VAT schemes are applicable to deliveries within the European Union, as prescribed by the symbols accompanying each lot in this catalogue:

PROPERTY WITH A † (SINGLE DAGGER) SYMBOL

These lots are sold under normal VAT rules. VAT is applicable over the hammer price, buyer's premium and any additional charges (if applicable) at a VAT rate prescribed by law. The goods under † do not qualify for a VAT margin scheme. Terms of delivery and any corresponding VAT charges will be discussed with the buyer after the auction on an individual basis.

PROPERTY WITH A ◆ (BLACK DIAMOND) SYMBOL

These lots remain in bond (i.e. not in free EU VAT circulation). Please note that VAT is applicable upon release of the goods into EU free circulation - on request of buyer - over the hammer price, buyer's premium and any additional charges (if applicable) at a rate prescribed by law which is added to the amount payable by the buyer. Terms of delivery will be discussed with buyer after the auction on an individual basis with corresponding VAT charges if - upon request of buyer - the goods will be released into EU free circulation.

PROPERTY WITH A △ (OPEN TRIANGLE) SYMBOL

These lots are subject to a "margin scheme", whereby only the buyer's premium and additional charges are taxed with VAT. The rate of buyer's premium including VAT on lots with this symbol is equal to 29.5%. Buyers eligible for the margin scheme may also opt for the application of regular VAT rules, for example, in case of a delivery of the goods outside the European Union or a delivery within the European Union to a VAT registered buyer. The enhanced buyer's premium amount will be reflected on the buyer invoice. Terms of delivery and any corresponding VAT charges will be discussed with the buyer after the auction on an individual basis.

Dedicated Delivery

Zachys can assist with shipments to many international destinations. Quotes vary based upon quantity and destination.

Please contact us at auction@zachys.com or 914.448.3026 to obtain a quote.

Consolidated Shipments

Zachys offers consolidated shipments between White Plains, Hong Kong and Rotterdam several times a year. Please contact us for more information.

Rotterdam - UK

Zachys offers a free consolidated shipment to the United Kingdom, duty, excise, VAT (if applicable) and local delivery fees will apply.

Special Notices:

Split lots are available upon request for a fee.

Delivery charges will include any applicable tax, duty, tariffs, or other fees as required by laws. Buyers are responsible for import tariffs at the destination country.

Export/Import Permits

Alcoholic beverage products sold at auction may be subject to laws governing export from the jurisdiction where the auction was held and import restrictions of foreign countries. Buyers should always check whether an export license is required before exporting alcoholic beverage products. It is the Buyer's sole responsibility to obtain any relevant export or import license. A delay in obtaining licenses shall neither justify the rescission of any sale nor excuse delay in providing full payment for the lot. Local laws may prohibit the importation of some property and/or may prohibit the resale of some property in the country of importation; no such restriction shall justify the rescission of any sale or delay in making full payment for the lot.

Currency of fulfillment and applicable fees are determined by the origin of the shipment.

Zachys is not responsible for any acts or omissions of any shipper with whom Buyer, not Zachys, has made arrangements to pack, ship or deliver purchased lots, including, without limitation, any packing, shipping or delivery of purchased lots

Adult signature is required for all shipments.

Credit Information

For any purchase under $20,000, your credit card will be charged immediately when the auction ends. For any purchase over $20,000, buyers are expected to pay for purchases within 14 calendar days after the auction. At the end of this 14 day period, Zachys reserves the right to charge the Buyer's credit card on file for any amounts still due. All amounts remaining due after this 14 day period will be subject to a 2% per month late charge. In addition, any payments in default after 21 days will incur a penalty equal to 3% of the purchase price. Additional late fees equal to 3% of the total purchase price may be charged for every 14 days past the initial 21 day period. All payments are payments on account until all invoices and all balances due are paid in full. Please submit the Collection & Delivery Form provided in this catalog to expedite payment and delivery for auction purchases.

To avoid delays in the release of your purchases, prospective Buyers are requested to supply bank references prior to the auction. All charges are subject to acceptance by Zachys and the applicable credit card company. Zachys will accept Visa, MasterCard, Discover (US only), American Express, and Union Pay★ (HK only). The maximum allowed to be charged on credit cards is limited to HK$200,000 or US$20,000 per auction, except for American Express which has no limit. Zachys reserves the right to charge Buyer's credit card and to immediately assess a 3% late penalty charge, should payment be past the due date, notwithstanding that the amount of such charge may exceed HK$200,000 or US$20,000.

In the event a charge or check is not accepted by the appropriate financial institution, Buyer remains liable for all amounts owed on the dates due.

★Card must be present upon payment

First Time Buyers

First time buyers may settle invoices by wire transfer or check only. Zachys requires front and back copies of all credit cards for new buyers along with picture identification.
