Copper Spring Ranch starts with a thoughtful and well-designed breeding program that begins with the meticulous selection of bloodlines. We rely on today's top-performing stallions and exquisite brood mares to produce the perfect progeny — horses with a combination of speed, toughness and intelligence. We remain committed to each of these outstanding animals, nurturing foals with gentle hands and taking the time to provide them with a solid foundation. Our genetics guarantee Copper Spring Ranch horses will be ready for the performance arena, whether it's the rodeo circuit, ranch work, show world or even pleasure riding.

The ranch's state-of-the-art CSR Equine Sports Medicine Center leads the way in the Rocky Mountain west with the most advanced digital equipment and medical technology. Our reproductive specialists handle on-site breeding, embryo transfer and cooled semen.
