“Remembering Ken Peters”

Under Ken Peters’ leadership in the 1950s and 1960s as principal of the high school and then as Superintendent of Schools, BHUSD became recognized as one of the premier public school districts in the nation. I had the privilege of associating closely with him during my tenure on the school board, from 1970 through 1979. Those were years of historic upheaval for public education, including the Supreme Court’s Serrano v Priest decision requiring equal educational opportunity for all children, revised funding of public education in California from local property taxation to a state-wide allotment per student, and the introduction of collective bargaining for school district employees. During those years, his leadership extended beyond the boundaries of our school district, as he participated prominently in national and state-wide forums to address those challenges.

BHUSD thrived under Mr. Peters’ “partnering” relationship with his school boards, wherein they set policy with his advice and guidance, and they evaluated the effectiveness of his management of the schools. As a leader he was steady and firm, good humored, and open-minded. He was able to accomplish so much because he was deeply respected and trusted by all the various elements with whom he dealt, including school boards, district employees, PTA leaders, parents and students.

Mel Spitz
Board of Education member 1971-1979

Ken Peters is a very important person in my life, as he is in many others’ undoubtedly. Mr. Peters hired me to teach French at the high school in August 1957. He asked me if I could teach beginning Latin; I said I could but that my pronunciation of Latin was different from Americans’ pronunciation. For example, I said, “I pronounce Cicero or Caesar as Tchichero and Seesar; Americans pronounce these names Kikero and Kaiser.” He did hire me, anyway, offering me a career that lasted 42 years; the happiest years of my life, thanks to Mr. Peters. One interesting event is that after I retired in 1999, at the beginning of a new school year probably in 2002 or 2003, I attended the opening day district-wide meeting in the auditorium. Mr Peters was

Health and Safety Commission votes to recommend e-cigarette regulation

On November 25 The Health and Safety Commission voted unanimously to recommend linking the usage and sale of e-cigarettes to current regulations of tobacco cigarettes, including the permit process for sale.

This decision comes on the heels of the City's rejection of the commission's previous recommendation for an emergency moratorium on e-cigarette sales. At a meeting on November 5, Council members questioned the urgency of the proposals, agreeing to wait until more data was in to consider enacting a ban. Mayor John Mirisch disapproved of banning the sale of e-cigarettes but leaving tobacco cigarettes untouched: "Even if [the Health and Safety Commission] recommended banning the sale of them, I'm still not going to be in favor of it. It makes no sense to me."

At their November 25 meeting, The Health and Safety Commission reiterated their concerns about e-cigarette regulation. "It seems like this is basically the wild wild west, and what bothers me most of all is the potential for young people to embrace this and become addicted to nicotine. I think back to the day, even 35 years ago, when people were saying that cigarettes weren't that bad," Commissioner Lurie said. "Beverly Hills has always been in the vanguard [with regard to ensuring smoke-free environments...] I think we have really led the way for the rest of California."

Gail Millan

The Commission ultimately decided that in response to the rejection of an emergency moratorium, and in the absence of clear direction from the FDA, Beverly Hills should align e-cigarette regulation with that of tobacco cigarettes, and refrain from banning their sale.

"Our charge here is enhancing the health and safety of our community," said Chairperson Gail Millan.

Safe Climate Caucus Recognizes Milestone of 100th Day of Speeches

On Tuesday, Rep. Henry A. Waxman (D — Los Angeles), chair of the Safe Climate Caucus, spoke on the House floor regarding the urgent need to address climate change. Members of the Safe Climate Caucus have spoken each day since the Caucus's founding in February on climate change, and today marks the 100th day of speeches.

"We are speaking out because we have a moral obligation to protect the atmosphere for our children and grandchildren," said Rep. Waxman. "We have to break the conspiracy of silence and denial that exists in the House about the most serious environmental threat we have ever faced. History will not judge us kindly if we fail to act while there is still time."

Rep. Henry Waxman

The Safe Climate Caucus has over 30 members from across the country, both junior and senior members of Congress, committed to raising awareness about climate change. They have delivered speeches on a wide range of topics ranging from extreme weather to clean energy to the overwhelming scientific consensus on climate change. A member of the Safe Climate Caucus has spoken each legislative day since the Caucus started on February 15, except during the Republican government shutdown, delivering 122 speeches over the 100 days.

Beverly Hills Church of the Good Shepherd Marks 90th Anniversary with Guadalupe Mass

Founded December 12, 1923, Beverly Hills' Church of the Good Shepherd will be celebrating its 90th anniversary with an annual Mariachi Mass for the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe. The only Catholic church in Beverly Hills, this landmark church was the setting for the 1954 film "A Star Is Born" starring Judy Garland and holds a prominent place in the city's ties to the entertainment industry.

The Mass will take place on Thursday, December 12 at 7:30 PM with a reception to follow in the parish hall. The church is located at 504 North Roxbury Drive. For more information, please call the church office at (310) 285-5425 or visit www.goodshepherdbh.org

Named Patroness of the Americas by Pope John Paul II, Our Lady of Guadalupe is an important part of daily life in the American continent, "from Alaska to Tierra del Fuego, from the Pacific to the Atlantic."

Second only to St. Peter's Basilica in Vatican City, Mexico City's Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe is one of the most visited churches in the world, attracting millions of pilgrims a year who flock to catch a glimpse of a simple tilma made of maguey fiber which has remarkably lasted for over 500 years. Imprinted upon it is a miraculous image of the Virgin Mary neither painted nor manipulated by human hands — a scientific marvel.

Stephen S. Wise Temple 50th anniversary Jubilee

Today, Stephen S. Wise Temple launches its 50th anniversary celebration with a Jubilee Kickoff Concert. This concert celebrates the musical legacy of Stephen S. Wise Temple by featuring its very own Cantor Nathan Lam, who is a world-renowned voice teacher to celebrities and Jewish professionals alike, along with nationally-renowned cantors, musicians, and composers who began their musical careers at Stephen S. Wise Temple, singing Jewish and pop music.

According to Cantor Lam, "the celebration of 50 years is really an invitation to shape the next 50 years and create a meaningful legacy for those who come after us." Cantor Lam adds, "if our future is anything like our history, I am sure that the next 50 years will give us ample opportunity to celebrate the many accomplishments of Stephen S. Wise Temple and be ever grateful for this awesome place and for our musical legacy that will continue to grow."

the keynote speaker. As he usually did, he started with some amusing remarks. He recognized some members of the staff in the full auditorium; he recognized me and said, "and there is Sandy Jacquard who pronounces Tchitchero and Sezar". This was a recollection of an insignificant conversation of almost half a century earlier.

I am glad that Mr. Peters had a long life during which he left an important mark on countless people just as he did in my case. May he rest in peace - or as he would have wanted me to say, "Requiescat in pace."

"Infiniti Project"

Today, December 5, the Beverly Hills City Council will hold a study session to consider the implications of a conditional use permit, or CUP, that was granted in favor of Roundtree Automotive Group (Infiniti) as part of a process that many, including Beverly Hills Mayor John Mirisch, have deemed dubious. In its current form, the CUP will allow Infiniti to operate a sprawling maintenance and repair facility, car wash, customer drop-off and parking facility over approximately 2 full city blocks, adjacent to a quiet, family residential neighborhood.

The project will have an immense and deleterious impact on the safety of the nearby residents and their families, their property values, their schools as well as a large synagogue with over 750 families that oppose the CUP.

However, beyond that impact, the residents are deeply concerned about the integrity of the City officials and Infiniti's less than transparent lobbying efforts, and both the City and Infiniti's failure to adequately address the legitimate and reasonable concerns of the residents.

Many residents in the area claim they were not given timely notice or any notice at all of the impending project. Among them, Mayor Mirisch, a resident of Southeast Beverly Hills, who complained that he only read about the project in the local paper. Those residents, who did receive information about the project, were deprived of the 10-day legally mandated notice period preceding the CUP hearing.

In fact, the City rejected a resident's request to delay the hearing until after the Jewish holiday of Passover so he and others can attend. More troubling, however, was Infiniti's more candid response. In an email sent to the City, an Infiniti representative claimed that the resident was playing "the religion card." The City did not seem troubled by Infiniti's seemingly anti-Semitic comment, and did not comment on the matter at the time.

When then Beverly Hills Planning Commission Chairman, Craig Corman, told City staff that his "preference would be" to delay the hearing on the CUP in order for the City to "take public comment," his request fell on deaf ears and the hearing was held during the Passover holiday. Furthermore, Chairman Corman and another member of the Planning Commission were not even in attendance, when Infiniti's CUP was issued.

Why City staffers were so eager to conduct a hearing on Infiniti's CUP notwithstanding complaints by residents that they did not get timely notice, and despite requests for the hearing to occur after a holiday observed by the predominantly Jewish residents of the area, remains unanswered. So too does the question of why the Planning Commission opted to conduct a hasty hearing in the absence of its chairman and another commissioner. What the City sought to gain by ignoring the voice of its residents, while arguably acquiescing to the demands of Infiniti is yet to be determined.

When City traffic engineers and Planning Commission staff raised concerns about congestion and queuing traffic along Olympic Boulevard, Murray Fischer, Infiniti's attorney, responded that the City's "preferred configuration" - so dubbed by the City's traffic engineer - was impracticable due to an alleged "grade differential." The "preferred configuration," which would have had cars enter the maintenance facility via a commercial alley, rather than a residential street, seemed to be more at odds with Infiniti's economic interests than the so called "grade differential" proffered by Fischer.

Fischer also asserted that the ally entry option would eliminate some of the 19 service bays needed by Infiniti. However, Infiniti's own general manager recently wrote that the dealership would only require 14 service bays. And even the most untrained of eyes can see that there is absolutely no significant grade differential that would prevent implementation of the City's "preferred configuration."

All of Infiniti's objections, credible or not, have been sustained, while the concerns of the residents and City staffers have been systematically overruled by the City's "decision makers", Mayor Mirisch not included.

In recognizing the negative traffic impact on the City and surrounding residential areas, a City planner proposed a second solution: build an entry into the mechanic facility on Olympic Blvd. to alleviate queuing and traffic on Wetherly, a nearby residential street.

In response to this suggestion, Fischer took a different approach on Infiniti's behalf, whereby he stated that Infiniti paid over $500,000 to remove a prior tenant so it could take over the subject property for the project. Fischer claimed that the City needs Infiniti's "significant revenue." The residents believe that the implication of these comments made by Fischer, on behalf of Infiniti, is that the City and its planners should cease offering alternatives to Infiniti's preferred plan if they want the revenue expected to be generated by the project.

What's more shocking is that neither the City Council nor the Planning Commission raised so much as a peep to Fisher's irrelevant response, which has nothing to do with the issue initially raised by the City planner: traffic and its impact on surrounding residents and commuters.

These facts were not brought to the attention of the Planning Commission because the City failed to timely respond to a public records request by the residents, which revealed these incriminating facts in email correspondence between Infiniti representatives and the City.

Infiniti conducted a traffic study to be presented to the City in connection with the CUP approval process. However, in response to that study, the City's own traffic engineer writes that he "completely disagree[s]" with Infiniti's traffic consultant's conclusions; a fact apparently not disclosed or ignored by the City officials who approved the CUP.

When residents asked City Manager Jeff Kolin why the City Planning Commission staff and traffic engineer's "preferred configuration" or even the City planner's second suggestion were not adopted, Kolin ironically responded that the "preferred configuration" - using the same words used by City staff - was adopted. Apparently, Kolin didn't read, didn't believe the residents read, or simply ignored the Planning Commission staffer's email stating that the "preferred configuration" was actually entry from the alley.

There are other troubling emails implicating the integrity of this process. In one such email, Fisher - who is on a first name basis with the City officials responsible for the project oversight - asks City officials for help with expediting the CUP. In response, some City officials are eager to comply with Fischer's request.

The City Council reviewed the CUP for Infiniti on April 11, 2013 and found nothing unusual about granting the CUP, despite protests from the residents and the Mayor. However, this approval was issued by the City Council before the City handed over email correspondence to the residents pursuant to a public records request made several weeks before in March 2013.

Now we have the benefit of reading the correspondence between City officials and Infiniti's representatives. Clearly the residents and the City Council would have benefitted from having all the relevant facts at their disposal far earlier in the CUP process.

The City Council again has a chance to address the serious issues raised by the project and the process surrounding the CUP on December 5, 2013. The concerned residents hope that the City Council will order a full independent inquiry of Infiniti's CUP process and consider freezing further work on the project until the results of the inquiry are provided to the Council and the residents.

Moreover, the City Council must insist on incorporating the Planning Commission's staff's "preferred configuration" of alley entry into the CUP.

Finally, it must protect its residents and provide for due process so residents can make comment and be provided a chance for those comments to be seriously considered and incorporated into the project. Short of that, the City Council and City officials should answer for their actions

Connecting Cultures Mobile Museum arrives at Beverly High

The Connecting Cultures Mobile Museum set up camp at Beverly Hills High Monday through Wednesday, aiming to give students more intimate exposure to cultures around the world.

Students got a good look at the insides of homes from over 70 countries.

“For instance, if I was going to go visit you in your house, you would have different things up on your walls as decoration, you would eat different food, you would have your preference for drinks,” said Connecting Cultures Mobile Museum founder Valerie Lezin. “So what we’re doing is showing the kids that throughout the world people are doing the same thing. Everybody has to sleep. But not everybody sleeps in a hammock or a bed.”

The mobile museum aims to promote awareness and acceptance of different cultures in a more integrated global community, while honoring the diversity at Beverly Hills High.

There are about 55 different countries represented at the high school and 35 languages spoken, according to Beverly High librarian Karen Boyarsky.

Students also engaged in hands on activities – grinding spices from around the world and viewing books in foreign languages and different kinds of currency.

“All people primarily live in their neighborhoods and broadening their worldview is in fact the main part of our mission – to give people a sense that there is more than their bubble,” Lezin said. “We don’t want them to be circumscribed by the streets of their neighborhoods. We want them to see that there is a broader world out there, which they are a part.”

“When they [students] enter politics, hopefully we build better relationships with other people,” Boyarsky said.

NOAH KNOWS

Incoming Board of Education president Noah Margo discusses his goals for the coming year

By Nicole Battaglia

How has the landscape of Beverly Hills Unified School District changed since you were elected to the Board of Education two years ago?

We've had some personnel shifts in administration. I think that there is a cloud of legal issues that is threatening more than normal. I think the ripple effect of that affects morale, slightly. And that's morale of everybody: the district, the board members—we all feel it. We need to change the landscape back to the focus on education.

What are your goals for the coming year?

My goals are really to reinvigorate the district and make us a force to be reckoned with—which is easier said than done. I'd like to look at how everybody in the district is evaluated. And I really want to get the focus back to what made the district special years ago – great teachers, and a ton of students willing and wanting to learn.

What's the biggest challenge you face as incoming Board president?

My biggest challenge is getting people to own up and be responsible for their errors, however small or however big. I also would like everybody involved to remember the actual roles they are to be playing while they serve the district, which of course includes parents. I'm a big stickler about that.

How has your experience as an LA Unified teacher influenced your work on the Board of Education?

I can't compare my experience as a teacher to my experience serving on a school board; I can contrast it. My experience in the classroom fortifies me in the areas that the board address regarding the education of children. It's a wonderful point of view to have and a wonderful experience to take with me, but I find that it's not necessarily always useful to decisions that we make. Well, I wouldn't say that it's not useful, but it's not called upon. It is helpful, but it's not called upon.

One may help the other, but they're not similar in a lot of capacities. Acting is one skill that translates to both. As a teacher you're filling the role. You're inspiring. You have to go outside your norms sometimes. As a board member you have to sometimes put on a show. You have to be "on," whether you're on camera or not.

Based on your experience, how would you compare LA Unified to Beverly Hills Unified?

The mission is the same: educating children. But the way you go about it not only is different, but has to be different. LA Unified is much larger; perhaps some think of it as too large. Everything in Beverly Hills seems tangible. In LA Unified, the district is much bigger than you. In our own city, people can feel of more part of the whole.

Is there a flip side to the benefit of a smaller district?

Absolutely. It's a big city mentality in a small town in Beverly Hills. There's a private school mentality with a lot of parents in our district. You don't find that as much in LA Unified. It was fascinating because in LA Unified, at your school, you're kind of an island unto yourself. Being educated in Beverly Hills and having my children in Beverly Hills, I find that everything is more reachable. Children in different schools interact a lot more. Everybody's going to end up at the high school. Children from Horace Mann might know anyone at Hawthorne, but then at the high school they might end up best friends.

—Noah Margo

That doesn't happen necessarily as much in LA Unified, because you're feeding into one of many high schools and middle schools. The dynamic is different.

Your dad and uncle founded the band “The Tokens” in the early 1960's, and you currently serve as the drummer. Do you find it unusual to be a professional musician as well as an elected official?

You flatter me by calling me “professional.” Do I find it interesting? Absolutely but I think its unique properties such as that that make for better governing. People bring unique experiences to the table—literally, to the table. So whether it was my years in teaching, performing, or now as a contractor and a property manager, everything comes with me. That and my laptop.

How would you evaluate the job superintendent Gary Woods is doing?

With an evaluation form, and my colleagues. I believe Dr. Woods is doing an outstanding job in a very difficult time, and I know that he will flourish given the opportunity once we clear the cobwebs, and he is allowed to address his action plan for the district.

Tell us about your family.

My fantastic and supportive wife Laura of 16 years is a nonstop force in our district with the PTA, PTA council, and the foundation. She runs the financial aspects of all our business. She also holds a doctorate in psychology, and she was an extraordinary athlete in high school. She lettered in four sports in her senior year. This is my official public push to get her into the [athletic alumni] hall of fame.

I have three children, whom people often stop and say should be in commercials or in print. Solomon is 13, Jax is 12, Reese is 7, and they're currently all at Beverly Vista. Next year the happy trio is breaking up, and Solomon is going to high school.

How do your kids feel about your role as Board president?

They love it. They're very excited. I think they appreciate the recognition, although it doesn't really play into their daily lives. What it does do is stop them from being able to eat on Beverly Drive at certain times, because I often get stopped by concerned residents. But I do think secretly they love it. They love that I'm a 'D-lister.'

What is one goal you hope to look back on one year from now?

I would love to see a district that every stakeholder is excited to be involved with. Will we have issues? Always. But they will not be what drive us. We will be driven by our success, support, and a positive attitude from everybody involved.

To get specific, I would like to see the financial management move forward with the endowment and start to produce positive effects. To me that means no more 'cut and restore,' and no more fretting about pink slips in the spring. If that all works out, I would love to start instituting new programs to benefit our students.

There are five of us, and everyone has their opinion on what they'd like to see. There's a gamut—foreign language in elementary school, coding classes for middle and high school, and, overall, to start filling in all the little holes we've had to pull back on to make our district more efficient.

Finally, my last goal is to get a shovel in the ground, move some dirt, and build up a school on Robertson and Charleville.

Four BHHS Teams Win Season Openers Boys' basketball tournament to begin Monday at Swim-Gym

By Steven Herbert

The Beverly High boys' soccer team opened its season by defeating St. Monica, 4-1, in a South Bay/Westside Tournament game at Nickoll Field Tuesday night, with David Shanfeld scoring in each half.

Shanfeld opened the scoring in the 31st minute, off an assist by Jacob Price. Price scored in the 41st minute off Justin Kramer's assist. Shanfeld scored again in the 62nd minute of the 80-minute game off Phin Bauer's assist.

The Mariners scored their goal in the 68th minute. Ignacio Gonzalez scored the game's final goal in the 73rd minute, off Price's assist.

Norman goalkeeper Milton Joyner made four saves.

"We looked like it was a first game," Beverly Hills coach Steve Rappaport said. "Defensively, we made one major mistake that cost us a goal, but otherwise we were pretty solid.

"Offensively, we need to create more shots for ourselves. Our movement through the midfield was fine, but we need to improve our attack near the goal."

The Normans led in shots, 16-5.

Shanfeld, Price, sweeper Roman Zaragoza, Kramer, midfielders Sean McAlister and Cole Offer, midfielder-forward Miguel Ramirez, and Bauer drew praise from Rappaport for their play.

Girls' Soccer

Beverly Hills 3, Notre Dame Academy 2

Freshman Tess Reinhard scored twice and sophomore Carly Stein once as the Normans opened their season with a victory in a nonleague game at Nickoll Field Nov. 25.

"The first game I never really expect much, but they played great," said Rinaldi Djafar, who was making his debut as the Beverly Hills coach. "I think we just out-hustled them."

South Bay/Westside Tournament

Beverly Hills 4, Leuzinger 1

Reinhard scored twice and juniors Shannon Haggins and Lauren Kurtz once each Monday at Leuzinger.

"We just out-hustled them and moved the ball," Djafar said.

Boys' Basketball

Beverly Hills 72, South Torrance 49

Siavash Yektafar scored 26 points and Ronan Massana 20 as the Normans opened their season with a victory in a nonleague game at the Swim-Gym Nov. 26.

"Our kids were extremely motivated and hungry to play South Torrance, being that we lost the last two years," Beverly Hills coach Jarvis Turner said.

"We did a good job of making shots and executing. We had a huge size advantage and we used that in our benefit."

Ben Cohen added nine points, Ryan Manoocheri and Eman Rafalian six each, Nima Rafiezedah three and Kyle Young two.

Westchester Tipoff Tournament

Serra 66, Beverly Hills 53

The Normans were plagued by turnovers in their loss to a "bigger, stronger, faster" Cavalier team Tuesday, Turner said.

Despite not playing well and having "a lot of turnovers," Beverly Hills had a four-point first-half lead, "then in the second half, it kind of fell apart," as the right in denying again entitlements to the Kobor family for medical use at their new building at the Northeast corner of Wilshire and Robertson. Now, our City Council must listen to the voice of the unanimous Planning Commission with a 5-0 vote, the City Treasurer, the residents, and parents of students who do not want more traffic at the Wilshire and Robertson intersection. Traffic is our enemy, so we do not need an additional 37,000 cars monthly at that intersection!

The intersection of Robertson and Wilshire is already clogged and already has the lowest level of service, an 'F'! Medical use at the new Kobor building means even more traffic at that intersection. It is undisputed and confirmed by the City's new traffic report. Traffic was the reason that the prior Planning Commission, prior City Council, current Planning Commission, Normans committed 10 turnovers in the third quarter, Turner said.

Massana scored 18 points, Manoocheri 16, Jalen Sands nine, Yektafar six and Young four.

What's Next?

After completing play in the Westchester Tipoff Tournament Saturday, Beverly Hills will face Hamilton in the opening game of the 73rd annual Beverly Hills Tournament at 2 p.m. Monday in the Swim-Gym.

Girls' Basketball

Inglewood High School Holiday Tip-Off Classic

Beverly Hills 60, Sun Valley Poly 40

Junior guard Jessica Melamed scored 27 points in the Normans season opener Nov. 25 at Culver City High School.

Beverly Hills led the pool play game 38-30 entering the fourth quarter, then outscored the Parrots, 22-10, over the final eight minutes with Melamed scoring eight points, including her third 3-point basket.

Melamed scored 10 points, making two 3-point baskets, in the first quarter, which ended in a 15-15 tie.

The Normans outscored Poly, 12-7, in the second quarter with junior forward Natasha Allen scoring six of her 13 points.

Melamed scored seven points in the third quarter as Beverly Hills outscored the Parrots, 11-8.

Natasha Kashani added six points for the Normans, Arianna Mazzarini five, including a fourth-quarter 3-point basket, Robin Ashkenazi four, Asia Meadows three and Lauren Moghavem two.

Beverly Hills coach John Braddell credited the victory to "playing well defensively" and "getting out" on the fast break.

The Normans were "a little shaky" at the start of the game, and its man-to-man defense "looked good in the second half," Braddell said.

Corona Centennial 71, Beverly Hills 25

The Normans "played pretty well to start off" their pool play game Nov. 26 at Culver City High School, Braddell said.

Beverly Hills was outscored 19-12 in the first quarter, in what Braddell called a good quarter.

The Normans were outscored 24-2 in the second quarter to trail 43-14 at half-time and 21-8 in the third as the Huskies increased their lead to 64-23 entering the fourth quarter.

"They kind of wore us down," Braddell said. "We turned the ball over too much. We didn't handle their pressure very well.

"They played at a little higher speed than we did and it was a hard time for us to adjust. They hurt us on the boards. They're a very good team."

Ashkenazi and Melamed both scored seven points, Allen five, Kashani three, Shantel Kahrobaee two and Mazzarini one.

Girls' Golf

Beverly High senior Lydia Choi has signed a letter of intent to accept an athletic scholarship from UCLA, the university announced.

Choi shot a one-under-par 71 to finish in a four-way tie for eighth in the Southern Section individual championships Nov. 7 at Talega Golf Club in San Clemente, five shots behind champion Brittany Farrell of Mission Viejo.

Choi finished in a five-way tie for second in individual portion of the CIF SoCal Championship Nov. 14 at The Golf Club at Rancho California facility in Murrieta, with a two-under-par 70, two shots behind winner Haley Moore of San Pasqual.

Choi finished in a six-way tie for 13th in the CIF State Championship Nov. 20, firing a four-over-par 75 at the Quail Lodge Golf Course in Carmel, eight shots behind the winner, Andrea Lee of Mira Costa.

under oath, which may happen if the residents are forced to seek judicial intervention.

Mayor Mirisch had it right when he said that this is "the very antithesis of what good government should be." We hope that the rest of the City Council recognizes the wrongdoing and makes things right. Otherwise, we are in for a long, persistent journey to expose the improprieties. The residents have hired Beverly Hills attorney, Maurice Pessah, to represent them.

"Planning Commission rejects plans for Kobor Project Building" [Issue 739]

The Planning Commission got it 100%

and the Los Angeles Superior Court rejected the Kobors demand to be allowed to convert their new building to medical use. We have a moratorium on more medical offices in our City for good and well thought out reasons, ie traffic.

The only defense that is cited by some council members in the conditional settlement with the Kobors is that settling with the Kobors eliminates all financial risk for the City because of a pending appeal from the lower court's decision to deny medical use at the new Kobor building. But, caving into greedy developer demands by settling will generate even more litigation and more costs when other developers do not get their way. They too will sue our City knowing that there is a good chance that the City will settle and give them also what they want. When one wins at the lower court based on the facts, there is little chance for the Kobors to win on appeal based on the facts. The City Council should let due process play out. Let the Appellate Court decide whether the Kobors were somehow denied "due process," as alleged by Nancy Krasne in last week's Weekly.

I urge the majority of our City Council to listen to the prior Planning Commission, the prior City Council, the current Planning Commission, the current City Treasurer, and the affected residents who spoke out against medical use at the Kobor building. Do not settle with the Kobors who have already cost our City hundreds of thousands of dollars in defending their frivolous lawsuit.

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of GERMAINE SIMULIS aka GERMAINE GOUGEON

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by Darlynn Morgan in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that Darlynn Morgan be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held on Dec. 18, 2013 at 8:30 AM in Dept. No. 9 located at 111 N. Hill St., Los Angeles, CA 90012.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. HEALTH INSURANCE PLANS ARE CHANGING. MAKE SURE YOUR COVERAGE FOR CEDARS-SINAI DOESN'T.

Do you have non-employer provided health insurance? If so, major changes are coming to the individual health insurance market. That means if you and your family want to have full coverage for Cedars-Sinai, you may need to make changes to your insurance plan. Please review your options carefully, or you may lose full coverage for L.A.'s most preferred hospital for over 20 years.*
