SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 27th • 7:00 P.M.

The Celts present the perfect combination of ancient Irish Carols, contemporary Christmas standards and spontaneous humor. Music that could be performed includes: 'Santa Claus Is Coming to Town,' 'Little Drummer Boy,' 'God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen,' 'Count Your Blessings,' 'White Christmas,' and John Lennon's 'Happy Christmas.' The Celts are world-class musicians.

They use traditional Irish instruments to accompany the singers/dancers. Audiences will be treated to traditional Irish instruments such as the uilleann pipes, Irish whistles, drums, mandolin, fiddle and banjo. No Irish performance would be complete without spirited step dancing. The Celts have performed in venues such as The Grand Ole Opry, Nashville's Ryman Auditorium, and Lincoln Center. They have shared the stage with Vince Gill, Ricky Skaggs, Patty Loveless, John Anderson and Tim O'Brien.

You can't listen to Celtic flavored music and not be happy.

Thank you!

A heartfelt "THANK YOU" to Father John Haugen and Father Paul McManus along with the liturgical team at St. Mary's, Strawberry Point for the beautiful Mass at the time of Lloyd Bergfeld's passing. Thank you to Leonard-Muller funeral home for their expertise and assistance during our time of need. Thanks to Country Rose for the delicious roast beef dinner and to St. Mary's ladies for providing desserts and serving the meal. Thank you to the Legion members for the service at St. Albert's Cemetery. Many thanks to all of our friends for the prayers, flowers, phone calls, emails, cards and memorials. The response was overwhelming. May God bless each and every one of you.
