Meet the dads

NBC explores life after a loved one's death in 'Council of Dads'

By Rachel Jones TV Media

ho would you trust to raise your kids after you're gone? It's a question no one ever wants to think about, but NBC's newest family drama reminds us that, sometimes, life doesn't go as planned. "Council of Dads" bravely covers the emotional journey of a family dealing with the death of its patriarch. It was scheduled to premiere Tuesday, March 10, but in a last-minute decision, NBC pushed the premiere date to Tuesday, March 24, so you'll have to wait a little longer to see it in your TV listings.

The show's drama is kickstarted when a loving father named Scott Perry (Tom Everett Scott, "13 Reasons Why") learns that he has cancer. Naturally, he begins to put some serious thought into his family's future — who will help his wife, Robin (Sarah Wayne Callies, "The Walking Dead"), care for their four children after he's gone?

He evaluates his friends, wondering who he could ask to help support and guide the children through life's challenges in his place. Ultimately, he realizes that no one man has all the qualities he's looking for: he needs a team.

Scott forms what he calls a "council of dads" with three friends he asks to share the responsibility of looking after his kids after he's gone. He picks his oldest friend, Anthony Lavelle (Clive Standen, "Vikings"), along with Larry Mills (Michael O'Neill, "Dallas Buyers Club," 2013), who sponsored him in AA, and Dr. Oliver Post (J. August Richards, "Angel"), one of his own physicians. Interestingly, Post is both his surgeon and Robin's closest friend.

Scott believes that these replacement dads collectively have the skills to stand in for him as his children — Charlotte (Thalia Tran, "Little," 2019), Theo (Emjay Anthony, "Rake"),

Thalia Tran as seen in "Council of Dads"

JJ (Blue Chapman, "Undone") and Luly (Michele Weaver, "Love Is") — grow up.

This new show is based on the 2010 New York Times best-seller "The Council of Dads: My Daughters, My Illness, and the Men Who Could Be Me," by Bruce Feiler, who wrote the novel after his own cancer scare inspired him to form a similar council. While, thankfully, Feiler survived, it is apparent from NBC's emotional trailer that Scott Perry's character does not.

After producing hit shows such as "Parenthood," "Friday Night Lights" and "This Is Us," NBC has a proven track record when it comes to family drama. "Council Of Dads" has the potential to join these ranks and should prove just as magnetic as its predecessors. The series will cover some of the biggest milestones a family can experience: new babies, weddings, first loves and, of course, death. But it also seeks to examine the small, essential moments that pepper each of our lives and the many complexities of working through grief.

No matter how expected it is, dealing with death can put any family into survival mode. The Perry kids vary in age, gender and even race — each has vastly different needs and challenges, and though they have an extremely loving and capable mother in Robin, the presence of this "council" in their lives could make an enormous difference

Along with expected emotional scenes, the show offers some humor and lightheartedness. After all, you think it's tough for a teenager to to deal with one dad? Try having three! And it's not just the kids who struggle. The surly Larry Mills, for example, has a difficult time relating to children, and all three men wonder from time to time why they were chosen for such an important task. As the Perry kids try to find joy and happiness despite their struggles and losses, we get to witness the love and loyalty that these men have for their friend as they step up in ways they didn't even know they were capable of. It's an inspiring series, and it makes it clear that strong families aren't always born, they can be built.

This isn't the first time that someone has attempted to produce Feiler's book for television. In 2011, "Council of Dads" premiered on Fox as a 30-minute TV special starring Kyle Bornheimer ("Marriage Story", 2019). It's no surprise that such a short time frame couldn't adequately capture the power behind Feiler's ordeal. It's safe to assume that NBC's version will be far more successful in communicating the sensitive but important message that the show preaches: you don't have to be family to be a family.

The writers of "Council of Dads" are Tony Phelan and Joan Rater of "Grey's Anatomy," which means they know a thing or two about tugging at our heartstrings. Producers and executive producers include the writers themselves, plus the legendary Jerry Bruckheimer of "CSI" fame — a decent pedigree for a brand-new series. For the first three weeks, the show will follow "This Is Us" at 10 p.m. on Tuesday nights, before moving to the 9 p.m. time-slot on Tuesday, March 31. The show also streams the next day on nbc.com.

There's a good chance you'll need a whole box of tissues for this one, but it will definitely be worth it. Check out "Council of Dads" when it premieres Tuesday, March 24, on NBC.

Spring back

'Baking Championship' returns this week

Clinton Kelly hosts "Spring Baking Championship"

By Michelle Rose TV Media

pring is (almost) here! Daylight is increasing, and if Punxsutawney Phil's prediction holds true, winter should be easing its grip on all of us, barring a few last temperature dips and tantrum-esque storms.

And in the Food Network universe, that means it's time for a new edition of "Spring Baking Championship." A solid ratings performer since its 2015 debut, the perennial fan favorite returns to our screens Monday, March 9, for a sixth season on Food Network.

Host Clinton Kelly is back to welcome a new batch of bakers to the kitchen. And things get off to a quick start in the premiere episode, when the 11 competitors are tasked with making "perfectly patterned spring fruit geometric tarts" that sweetly celebrate spring's beauty.

For the second round, they'll have to create a seasonal transformation-themed fault line think leaves sprouting, flowers blooming, caterpillars becoming butterflies. The decision to feature a fault line cake isn't surprising, given its high visual appeal. It's also the latest trend to have taken the cake world and Instagram feeds by storm, and it's certainly easier on the teeth than the candy-laden geode cakes that made a big impression in

You'll have to keep watching to find out what other confectionary creations will be featured, though I can say doughnuts and eclairs will be on the menu.

Once again, the judging panel consists of Nancy Fuller, Lorraine

Pascale and the ace of cakes himself, Duff Goldman. They'll decide who will be eliminated and who will advance to the final round and get a shot at the $25,000 grand prize in the double-episode finale on April 27.

And considering the trio has presided over the proceedings since Season 1 (2015), one would think it gets tougher every year to impress their discerning, dessertloving palates.

As for the host, this is Kelly's sophomore year after taking over hosting duties from Ali Khan

("Cheap Eats") last year. The lifestyle expert's hosting skills have already earned him an Emmy he won for ABC's "The Chew," but he's also known for his role in TLC's "What Not To Wear." which is getting the reboot treatment this year. In "Spring Baking Championship," Kelly brings a seasonal-appropriate warmth and enthusiasm that is clearly resonating with viewers, who will undoubtedly tune in on Monday when the new season be-

Video releases

Bombshell

This Oscar-winning film is based on the true story of sexual harassment at Fox News and the efforts of some of the network's brightest stars to bring the nefarious behavior to light. Facing criticism from their peers and the media at large, journalists Megyn Kelly (Theron), Gretchen Carlson (Kidman) and Kayla Pospisil (Robbie) struggle with the consequences of coming forward with allegations against Fox News CEO Roger Ailes (Lithgow). The film is an emotional look at the famous case that brought down a media titan and galvanized others to take a stand against workplace harassment. Director: Jay Roach. Stars: Charlize Theron, Nicole Kidman, Margot Robbie, John Lithgow, Allison Janney, Malcolm McDowell, Kate McKinnon, Connie Britton, Liv

Hewson, Brigette Lundy-Paine. 2019. 109 mins. Drama.

Uncut Gems

When a rare black opal is unearthed from an Ethiopian mine, it lands in the jewelry shop of Jewish New Yorker Howard Ratner (Sandler), who immediately sees it as a way to pay off the gambling debt he owes to his brother-inlaw, Arno (Bogosian). But a prominent buyer's interest in the gem isn't enough to save Howard from his high-risk lifestyle, and he must fend off an increasingly aggressive Arno while balancing relationships with his wife (Menzel) and his mistress (Fox), all while in pursuit of the ultimate win. Directors: Benny Safdie, Josh Safdie. Stars: Adam Sandler, Julia Fox, Idina Menzel, Lakeith Stanfield, Kevin Garnett, Eric Bogosian, Keith Williams Richards, Judd Hirsch, Tommy Kominik. 2019. 135 mins. Crime.

Nicole Kidman in "Bombshell"

sноw 6:50 p.m.

This film stars Al Pacino as NYPD whistleblower Frank Serpico, who was ostracized upon refusing to accept bribes. Tired of the rampant corruption, Frank takes a potentially fatal step and breaks the "blue wall of silence" by going public with the story.

The Resident

TUESDAY PRIME TIME

23 8:00 p.m.

When a newborn at Chastain needs an extremely difficult surgery, a distinguished pediatric surgeon is called in to perform in this new episode. Complications arise when Devon (Manish Dayal) realizes that she's in no state to operate.

Bruce Greenwood in "The Resident"

This Is Us

3 9:00 p.m.

Taking place across multiple timelines, this tear-jerking family drama unravels the story of Jack Pearson (Milo Ventimiglia), his wife Rebecca (Mandy Moore), and their three children. In this new episode, the Pearson family visits New York City.

The Revenant

FX 11:00 p.m.

This Oscar-winning western tells the story of Hugh Glass (Leonardo DiCaprio), an American frontiersman who fights to survive after being mauled by a bear, nearly murdered multiple times, buried alive and abandoned in the wilderness in the late 1820s.

Hollywood Q&A

By Adam Thomlison

TV Media

Q:While "Sesame Street" and "Mister Rogers' Neighborhood" have video releases, "Captain Kangaroo" now seems forgotten as vintage children's programming. Is there any chance of an eventual "Captain Kangaroo" DVD release? A: A few years ago, before online streaming services caught on, it seemed as if every show ever made was getting either a DVD box set or a best-of collection. Or almost every one, anyway. This included, of course, "Sesame Street" and "Mister Rogers' Neighborhood," which got numerous releases while "Captain Kangaroo" got zero.

There are a few possible reasons for this, but the most likely one is demand. The fact is that "Captain Kangaroo" hasn't sustained its popularity as well as those others. (This isn't exactly scientific proof, but the most popular "Captain Kangaroo" clip on YouTube has 1.55 million views. The most popular "Sesame Street" clip has 1.3 billion.)

This wasn't always the case. Back in the '80s, when the show was fresher on people's minds ("Captain Kangaroo" aired from 1955 to 1984, with a revival that lasted into the '90s), it got a VHS release, but good luck finding that — or a VHS player — today.

Returning to the more recent past, if DVD box sets had remained as popular as they were in the '90s and early '00s, it's almost certain someone would have eventually gotten around to releasing "Captain Kangaroo."

But that need for content has moved away from the disc business and towards the digital business. Your best chance for finding the show now is checking streaming services. As I said, YouTube at least has small clips available.

I should also note that interest in the show has cropped up again in a surprising place — the mind of action star Mark Wahlberg ("Spenser Confidential," 2020). He said in a 2018 interview with Ellen DeGeneres that he was planning a revival of the show for a new generation of kids, however so far nothing's materialized.

Keeping Up With the Joneses

FX 8:30 a.m.

A marathon of buddy cop comedy movies begins with this film starring Zach Galifianakis, Isla Fisher, John Hamm and Gal Gadot. An average couple spy on their new neighbors, the Joneses, only to discover that they are actually secret government agents.

Hearts of Heroes

⑤ 10:00 a.m. ⑤ 11:00 a.m.

Meteorologist Ginger Zee explores the causes of unique weather events and natural disasters, discussing how to prepare for them in this family series. The show also shines light on those who brave natural disasters to save people in trouble.

Dwayne Johnson in "The Fate of the Furious"

D.B. Cooper: Case Closed

нізт 12:00 р.т.

This two-part documentary looks at a puzzling case that has baffled the FBI for more than 45 years. On Nov. 4, 1971, a man hijacked a flight, demanding money and four parachutes. He hasn't been seen since he jumped from the plane.

The Fate of the Furious

8:00 p.m.

Vin Diesel stars as Dom, the head of a close-knit crime family. When he disappears and returns at the side of a cyber terrorist (Charlize Theron), his team gathers to get him back. Dwayne Johnson, Jason Statham, Kurt Russell and Tyrese Gibson also star.

The Nevada Caucus says they will not use the same app used by the Iowa Caucus. That's right, they're going to go with Tinder.

Two candidates dropped out of the race last night:

procreate with someone who thinks the house you drew was a cat?

The Tonight Show Starring Jimmy Fallon

What an amazing moment

difference between this and a banana republic is that Trump does not eat fruit.

In Nevada, ties in the delegate allocation process will be resolved by drawing cards. High card wins! A little too on brand, Vegas. That'd be like Florida deciding its elections by having the candidates wrestle a methgator.

The Late Late Show with James Corden

The nation's first primary was held today in New Hampshire. Wow, New Hampshire already. It feels like they just started campaigning 600 years ago.

I like Valentine's Day. I do. What's not to like? There's candy, there's chocolates. There's that big hole inside of you you try to fill with candy and chocolates.

The 24-hour roadside chain Waffle House is now accepting reservations for Valentine's Day, and they're even offering a special menu for the occasion. You've heard of restaurants having a blue-plate special? This is more of a red-flag special.

"Parasite" is a South Korean film that tells the story of a family who cons their way into a house they have no business living in, and things go very wrong from there. The American version of it is called "The Trumps."

thought you loved the Bachelor!"

John Kelly defended the newly fired Lt.-Col. Alexander Vindman, which is all well and good, but it's now a year since he left the White House. This is like a smoke detector that goes off after your house burns down.

Late Night With Seth Meyers

Scientists in Oregon believe they have tracked a wolf that walked almost 9.000 miles through California searching for a mate. You think that's a lot of work to get laid? I once bought tickets to the opera.

A candle company in Kentucky has released a "Politics Scented Candle," which they claim smells like "bureaucracy, hypocrisy and old farts." It's called the "Mitch McCandle."

Weekend Update with Colin Jost and Michael Che

On Friday, Lt.-Col. Vindman, who testified during President Trump's impeachment trial, was escorted from the White House and fired. Now, you might recall that Vindman received a Purple Heart due to a wound in combat, while Trump has a purple heart because his blood type is hamburger grease.

Researchers say they have developed a new way to stitch wounds together using a type of yarn made from human skin. They also say where they got yarn made from human skin isn't important.

Fill in the grid so that every row, every column, and every 3x3 box contains the digits 1 through 9. Solution on page 8.

Andrew Yang and Michael Bennet. Andrew Yang told his supporters, "Thank you for this amazing ride," while Michael Bennet told his supporters, "Come on, son, let's go home."

A Little Late With Lilly Singh

If you don't know what a game night is, it's when you get together with your loved ones and slowly learn to hate them over three hours.

Not sure about your significant other? Bring them to game night. That's when you find the weak links. Seriously, who wants to for South Korea. They have "Parasite," they have BTS meanwhile. North Korea is this close to dial-up internet.

The big winner in New Hampshire was Bernie Sanders. You can tell Bernie's fired up: last night he was mixing Metamucil into a shot of Jager. Bernie hasn't been this excited since movies got sound.

The Late Show With Stephen Colbert

So, Donald Trump and his attorney general are using the justice department to go easy on his cronies. The only

Jimmy Kimmel

If you're smart, you'll do what I do on Valentine's — Just hand your wife a single rose and say, "This means you get to stay. What? I
