Stray of one sheep; next: Item, they present one sheep issuing as a stray before shearing, worth 16d, which is claimed by Alice Taillour sold and proved. And it remains until the next [court].

Stray one young horse: The tithingmen of Wescote present one male young horse proved, aged two years, issuing as a stray at the feast of Easter, appraised at 3s. And it remains for the lord.

Law: John Turnour for licence to concord is at law 'by the sixth hand' against the next [court], by pledge of John Donnesby and Philip Martin, that he does not owe to John Haidon 12s, which he paid to John Randolf of Chessam, just as he accounted against him.

Amercement 2d; distraint: John Fleg 2^d in mercy, because he did not appear to answer to Richard Ranulf about a plea of debt, viz 3s, who was attached by one knife and one pair of ?onions of ?amber, one sack, worth 2s, which an order was made to retain, and in the meantime to distraint the same man better before the next [court].

Fine 16s 8d; fealty: At this [court] there came William Godhewe and he surrendered into the hands of the lord one tenement and 19 acres of land in Norwod to the use of Stephen Dyer of Woxebrigg. Which same Stephen surrendered those lands into the hands of the lord to the use of John Borgh. Who is admitted by fine of 26s 8d, by pledge of John Cok and John Bullocherd.
Whereupon nothing befalls to the lord as a heriot. To hold to him and his [heirs] according to the custom of the manor for the rent and services thereupon due and accustomed to the lord. And he did fealty, etc.

Fine one capon: At this court there came Philip the Vicar and he took of the lord one acre of newly broken land from the land of Felicia Fige, lying next to his sheepfold. To hold to him for the term of his life, paying thereupon per annum 4d at the usual feasts for all services. And he gives to the lord as a fine one capon.

Fine 4s; fealty: At this [court] thee came William Longe and he surrendered into the hands of the lord one parcel of meadow from the tenement, late of William Thecher, to the use of John Bereng', son of Walter Bereng', which is in the hands of the same John. To hold to him and his [heirs] according to the custom of the manor by the rent and services thereupon due to the lord, etc. Who is admitted by fine of 4s, by pledge of Richard Randolf. And he did fealty.

Chattels forfeited 20d; ameracements 6d: The 12 jurors present that John Dawe collected in autumn and took from the cornfields of the lord and other tenants, viz wheat and other corn, to the value of 20d, which an order to made to levy to the us of the lord and tithingmen of Estcote ^{6d}, in mercy for concealment of the same.

Fine 2d: At this court there came William Croiser and he gives to the lord as a fine 2d, so that the 12 jurors will place boundaries and 'merestakes' between him and Isabel King concerning two acres of land, whereof one acre lies at Windmyllehull and another acre lies in Whittynggrenesmede.

Fine 2s: At this [court] there came Henry Ballard and he took of Henry Smyth one tenement and one yardland and a half, late of John Phippe, except for the dower reserved to Cecily ?Todgrom for the term of her life, and after her decease it is to
