Welcome to Dyfnant Forest
A great place to ride

Dyfnant Forest is in a part of Wales renowned for its rolling hills, lush green valleys and picturesque farmsteads and villages.

It is an area rich in history, too. Owain Glyndwr, the Welsh prince who fought for Welsh independence and united Wales, once rode these hills.

Nowadays it is well known for the facilities for horse riding and carriage driving.

Home of the Rainbow Horse Riding Trails

Dyfnant Forest is the home of the Dyfnant Rainbow Trails, which were developed in partnership with the Dyfnant and Vyrnwy Horse Riders and Carriage Drivers Association.

- There are nearly 100 miles of tracks and trails
- All trails are all waymarked and colour-coded
- Pen y Ffordd is the hub for the routes for horse riders
- Hendre is the starting point for the carriage driving routes
- Pont Llogel is a small woodland with a waymarked short walk along the River Vyrnwy and access to two longer walks looked after by Powys County Council and Glyndŵr Way National Trail.

Carriage Drivers - How to get to Hendre:
