WE'RE HERE 8 p.m., 10:15 p.m. on HBO

A new episode set in Branson, Mo., finds Bob, Eureka and Shangela traveling to that squeakyclean entertainment capital, which fashions itself as a sin-free Las Vegas in the heart of the Bible belt. There, the trio of queens try to help locals Tanner, Charles and Chris, who are struggling to be their true selves in a hyper-conservative community that prides itself on its traditional "family values."

BROKE 8:30 p.m. on KTVT

Jackie (Pauley Perrette) clashes with Javier (Jaime Camil) yet again when she discovers he has quietly been taking her son Sammy (Antonio Corbo) with him to church on Sundays in the new episode "Losing My Religion." Elsewhere, teacher's pet Luis (Izzy Diaz) is miffed when Elizabeth (Natasha Leggero) joins him for spin class and she steals the spotlight with the instructor (guest star Brandon Kyle Goodman).

FLIP OR FLOP 8:31 p.m., 11:31 p.m. on

In the new episode "Risky Business/Alarming Flip," Tarek and Christina return to the same street in Cypress, Calif., where they previously did a different flip. When they can't agree on a design for the kitchen, they decide to settle matters with a quick game of hoops. Later, as costs mount and the open house looms, they must hustle to make a profit out of the flip.

SEAL TEAM 9 p.m. on KTVT

While Jason (David Boreanaz) is escorting Mandy (Jessica Paré) to pay their last respects to the family of a fallen informant, Ray (Neil Brown Jr.) leads Bravo Team on a critical mission after they receive time-sensitive information on the whereabouts of a terrorist leader in the new episode "No Choice in Duty." During their search, Davis (Toni Trucks) reveals that the terrorist in question is related to a target from Jason's past. Meanwhile, Sonny (AJ Buckley) joins the team in Afghanistan. Adelaide Kane guest stars.

BROCKMIRE

9 p.m., 4 a.m. on IFC

Limon, an Alexa-like digital assistant, begins a sinister plot to take over the game of baseball as part of its pursuit to rule the world through artificial intelligence as this dark comedy wraps its fourth and final season with "The Long Offseason." Jim and Julia (Hank Azaria, Amanda Peet) are left with a difficult decision: whether to embrace this emerging society under machine overlords, or stick with the current dystopian reality, which teeters on the brink of collapse.

THE QUEEN AT WAR 7 p.m. on KERA

Princess Elizabeth of England was only 13 when World War II broke out, but this new documentary — airing some 75 years after that conflict ended — examines how the Second World War set the future queen on her path to becoming a truly legendary monarch. She and her sister Margaret became symbols of hope to their nation as its citizens were assailed by the violent terrors of the Blitz, the trauma of relocating over a million children, and other physical and psychological assaults from that horrific war.

BLESS THIS MESS 7:30 p.m. on WFAA

A violent storm strike in Bucksnort just makes several of the locals even more aware of their already fraught personal situations in the Season 2 finale, "Tornado Season: Part Two." Things between Beau and Mike (David Koechner, Dax Shepard) remain tense over which egg business will land a contract with Dolores' (guest star Celia Watson) restaurant, and a mix-up in pregnancy tests has Rio (Lake Bell), Kay (Lennon Parham) and Jacob's (JT Neal) girlfriend all wondering whether the stork is on the way.

MIXED-ISH 8 p.m. on WFAA

In the Season 1 finale, "You Got It All," Paul and Alicia (Mark-Paul Gosselaar, Tika Sumpter) are excited when they receive offers to work on Jesse Jackson's presidential campaign but Alicia's firm counters with a tempting offer to stay put. Meanwhile, Rainbow (Arica Himmel) struggles yet again with her identity when she must complete a form that requires her to specify either "black" or "white." Christina Anthony and Gary Cole also star.

THE ART OF RACING IN THE RAIN

7 p.m. on HBO

Simon Curtis (TV's beloved TV dramedy "Cranford") directed this sentimental 2019 adaptation of a novel by Garth Stein, wherein an elderly Golden Retriever in his final moments narrates (voice of Kevin Costner) the story of his life with his master, race-car driver Denny Swift (Milo Ventimiglia, "This Is Us"). Amanda Seyfried, Gary Cole, Kathy Baker and Martin Donovan also star.

DEADLY MILE HIGH CLUB

7 p.m., 11:01 p.m. on LIFE

An emotionally unstable (to put it mildly) female flight instructor becomes so obsessed with a handsome male student that she embarks on an insane campaign to use her piloting skills to destroy the important people in his life and seduce him into loving her in this 2020 thriller. Allison McAtee, Marc Herrmann and Anna Marie Dobbins star.

RED JOAN 8 p.m. on SHOW

Probably better known for his prolific theatrical career, Trevor Nunn directed this 2018 British spy drama, adapted from a novel by Jennie Rooney that was inspired by the life of Melita Norwood, who supplied the Soviet Union with nuclear secrets while working as a secretary at a British research association. Judi Dench and Sophie Cookson share the role of the principal character, here named Joan Elizabeth Stanley. Tom Hughes, Stephen Campbell Moore and Ben Miles also star.

ALL RISE 8 p.m. on KTVT

Making a virtue of necessity, this new episode explores how the shelter-in-place rules relating to the COVID-19 crisis affect the criminal justice system. As the episode opens, Judge Benner (Marg Helgenberger) authorizes a "virtual" bench trial presided over by Judge Lola Carmichael (Simone Missick). The other characters including the defendant, lawyers and prosecutors argue their case via such video chat apps as FaceTime, WebEx and Zoom, while also trying to navigate their personal lives in quarantine. Jessica Camacho, Ruthie Ann Miles and Wilson Bethel also star.

AMERICAN EXPERIENCE 8 p.m. on KERA

"George W. Bush" looks at an American president who came into office under fiercely contentious circumstances and took office less than 10 months before the terrorist attacks of 9/11 ushered in a new era of fear and anxiety. Concluding Tuesday, this new profile includes interviews with journalists, historians and such members of "W's" inner circle as chiefs of staff Andrew Card and Joshua Bolten, senior advisor Karl Rove, speechwriter David Frum and press secretary Ari Fleischer.

WESTWORLD 8 p.m., 10:50 p.m., 2:45 a.m. on HBO

Last season, many critics and viewers alike detected a sophomore slump in this high-concept sci-fi thriller, as each episode often seemed more confounding than the one before. Happily, Season 3 has marked a welcome course correction, as the story follows the Al character Dolores (Evan Rachel Wood) away from the titular park and into the wider world. There, a construction worker named Caleb (new series regular Aaron Paul) is teaching her that humans are less two-dimensional than she thought. The season ends tonight in a finale called "Crisis Theory."

How to make delicious meals from the basics on 'Quarantine Cooking Show'

At a time when supplies of some foods are limited and supermarket shelves are bare, being resourceful with what's in the pantry becomes paramount. And with that, Mary Beth Albright can help.

In her "Quarantine Cooking Show," which streams in The Washington Post website's food section, the Post's food editor and one-time "Food Network Star" contestant offers tips and recipes using common nonperishable items that many people already have in-house. In quick three- to five-minute videos, she shows how to make such comestibles as roasted canned tomatoes, coconut rice, salami chips and salmon cakes.

In all cases, these are simple, inexpensive meals that anyone can make, and Albright argues it's not unlike how people ate when eating food made outside the home was a rarity.

"I think honestly that ... this is the way that humanity has cooked for most of our existence," she says. "It's like, what do we have around, and how are we going to make something that's going to be nourishing and delicious out of it? I think in a way it's like, 'Oh, OK, here's the next wave of cooking' things that are going to happen. In a way, it's going back to the way things have always been. (It's) efficient and scrappy."

Albright is somewhat of an authority in the areas of quarantining and food, given her background in emergency preparedness, law, public health and the Surgeon General's Office (she worked for the legendary Dr. C. Everett Koop), and her passion for food issues and cooking. In this challenging time, she wanted to produce something that would enhance people's well-being, show them how to mitigate risk and give them information on how to take care of themselves through food.

Which is why one of her early "Quarantine" episodes walks through the 10 foods to stock up on in case vou're locked down.

"It's really stuff that one might have on hand or might be able to find," she says. "Like, I'm not going to do anything with like ... a steak because I don't know if people can find that right now.

"I don't start off with something that I necessarily have in the house - and I have a lot of stuff in the house when (I) make food videos. That just happens," she says with a laugh. "But I do try to go for the things that I think will be on shelves. You can buy 10 cans of canned salmon right now and just keep them around and make these salmon

And if you need something with which to wash that down, Albright might suggest her quarantini, which she explains in her video is equal parts gin, applejack and lillet blanc wine - which, she explains, "is a fortified wine, so it's actually got a higher alcohol content ... and it's delicious. You could absolutely just use regular wine instead of it but I just like the sort of floralness it gives to the drink. It's more aromatic."
