Two Bolivar residents indicted in MO, OK meth conspiracies

By Jill Way
jillw@bolivarmonews.com

Two Bolivar residents face federal charges related to alleged methamphetamine conspiracies in Oklahoma and Missouri involving a California kingpin.

According to a news release from the Oklahoma Division of Narcotics, 46-year-old Jesus Valdez Martinez, otherwise known as Jesse Martinez and "Hostile," and 40-year-old Renee Lynn Haynes are among defendants from California, Oklahoma and Missouri indicted on various crimes.

Martinez, per online court records, is charged with felony drug conspiracy.

Haynes is charged with felony distribution of methamphetamine, possession of methamphetamine with intent to distribute and two counts interstate travel to aid racketeering, per online court records.

The indictment against Haynes was filed in June, and she's been in custody since July, per online court records. The documents in her case were unsealed last week by order of the U.S. District Court.

An unsealed superseding grand jury indictment, filed Tuesday, Sept. 21, also listed Martinez as a plaintiff, according to online court records.

Martinez is in federal custody for a related case in Montana, the release stated.

The release stated Luis Alfredo Jacobo, an alleged drug kingpin charged with directing a continuing criminal enterprise and organizing and directing at least three separate methamphetamine conspiracies in Oklahoma and Missouri, was arrested in Bakersfield, California, on Monday, Sept. 27.

"Today, a 13-count federal indictment was unsealed charging Luis Alfredo Jacobo with leading a continuing criminal enterprise that brought an estimated 2,000 pounds of methamphetamine into the Northern District of Oklahoma and southwestern Missouri for redistribution," acting U.S. Attorney Clint Johnson said in the release on Friday, Oct. 1. "I appreciate our law enforcement partners that brought this case forward for prosecution. Assistant U.S. Attorney Tom Duncombe will seek to hold Jacobo and his co-conspirators accountable in federal court."

Also arrested were Kelly Wayne Bryan and Curtis Anthony Jones in Missouri, who were charged as part of one of Jacobo's alleged drug conspiracies, the release stated.

The indictment also charged Martinez and Antonio Cervantes Garcia as Jacobo's co-conspirators. Garcia is in federal custody for a related case in the Western District of Oklahoma.

Jacobo, using his Mexican sources of supply and Bakersfield as a base of operations, is alleged to have directed and organized a methamphetamine enterprise that consisted of at least three distribution conspiracies with three separate groups of individuals in northeast Oklahoma and southwest Missouri, according to the release.

National Newspaper Week

For thousands of years, newspapers have been the messengers of history. Today, newspapers are still sharing our stories — in multimedia. National Newspaper Week was initiated in 1940 to celebrate newspapers' impact on communities.

- 598 BC: Earliest recorded newspaper, the Roman Acta Diurna.
- 1447: Johann Gutenberg invents the printing press, beginning the modern newspaper era.
- 1690: The first newspaper in America, the Boston News-Letter, is published.
- 1791: The Hartford Courant begins publishing as a weekly. Oldest US newspaper still publishing. George Washington was an advertising customer.
- 1791: The Bill of Rights added to the U.S. Constitution, guaranteeing Freedom of the Press with the First Amendment.
- 1833: The New York Sun begins selling for 1 cent. The Penny Press revolution made newspapers affordable for the general public.
- 1837: The invention of the telegraph transformed newspapers, allowing for more timely, relevant reporting.
- 1846: Five US daily newspapers create the Associated Press (AP) to share costs of covering international news.
- 1866: Linotype introduced, allowing text to be composed using a 90-character keyboard.
- 1890-1920: Period known as the "golden age" of print media. Newspapers became primary means of disseminating and receiving information.
- 1896: The Daily Graphic (New York) publishes first half-tone rather than engraved reproduction of a photo.
- 1903: Offset press introduced, revolutionizing printing.
- 1980: The Columbus Dispatch is the first online newspaper in CompuServe/AP dial-up experiment.
- 1992: AP records news with digital cameras for the first time at the Democratic National Convention at Madison Square Garden.
- 2015: Digital newspaper audience reaches 176 million.

Newspapers Matter to Our Communities

- Each week, 150 million Americans read a weekly newspaper.
- Two-thirds of residents in small towns and cities read local newspapers and consider local newspapers their primary source of news and information.
- 72 percent of Americans follow news closely, and newspapers are the dominant source of that information.

A newspaper is not just for reporting the news as it is, but to make people mad enough to do something about it. — MARK TWAIN

- Newspapers build civic engagement: The more people read newspapers, the greater their knowledge of American politics and the more likely they are to be active participants.
- Newspaper use by children in the classroom raises standardized test scores.
- The Pew Center for Excellence in Journalism found that 90% of all national newspaper stories cite three or more sources, compared with just 20% of cable television stories.
- 82 percent of Americans regularly read news on newspaper websites.

International Newspaper Carrier Day

During National Newspaper Week each year, we recognize among the former carriers who are now part of the Newspaper Carrier Hall of Fame, initiated in 1960 by the International Circulation Managers Association and now archived by the Newspaper Association of America.

A good newspaper, I suppose, is a nation talking to itself. — ARTHUR MILLER

Bolivar Technical College offers new online RN to BSN completion program

By BH-FP news staff
news@bolivarnews.com

The faculty and staff of Bolivar Technical College are excited to announce the addition of a new online program. According to a BTC news release, the college is now offering the next level of education with its RN to BSN Completion program. This program is designed for nurses who have completed an Associates of Science in Nursing degree and want to continue their education to earn a Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree, the release stated. This program is three semesters and 100% online, so nurses can take classes anywhere, anytime and graduate in just one year.

The new program is currently approved by the Accrediting Bureau of Health Education Schools and requires a Missouri RN license to apply, the release stated.

"Our alumni have been requesting this program for years, and we are thrilled to finally offer it to them," BTC president Charlotte Gray said in the release. "We were able to use funds from our COVID-relief allowance to help build this program and online platform. I can't wait to give back to our healthcare heroes and see how this program impacts these nurses' careers."

This online program will allow RNs to continue working and earning an income while completing the 47 credits of coursework included in the program, per the release.

The release stated there are many benefits of going back to school to earn a BSN degree, including more leadership opportunities at work, the ability to plan healthcare delivery on a larger scale, the opportunity to train the next generation as a nurse educator and more. BTC faculty plan to equip their students with these skills through classes and group discussions, as well as online clinical work. Students will also practice their critical thinking through a virtual clinical simulation program called ShadowHealth.

According to the release, BTC's first RN to BSN class will begin on Monday, Jan. 10, 2022, and nurses can apply online now at bolivarcollege.edu/programs/rn-to-bsn. Financial aid is available for those who qualify. The BTC financial aid office recommends RNs speak with their employer's Human Resource representative to discuss tuition reimbursement options.

The college is also accepting applications for the Practical Nursing program and general education classes that begin in January 2022, the RN Bridge program that begins in May 2022 and the Professional Nursing program that begins in August 2022, the release stated. If interested in any of the upcoming programs, contact the college via phone call at 777-5062, email at info@bolivarcollege.edu, or text message at 771-3543.

FAMOUS MISSOURI JOURNALISTS

JOSEPH PULITZER

Four generations of Pulitzers were involved in what became the St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Joseph Pulitzer I

Through the decades the names "Pulitzer" and "St. Louis" have become synonymous. It all began in 1865 when the first Joseph Pulitzer, an emigrant from Hungary, reached St. Louis following brief Civil War service.

There were four generations of Pulitzers involved in what became the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. Pulitzer learned newspapering on the Westliche Post, the city's top German-language paper. By 1878 he owned the Dispatch, which he later merged with the Post.

From the start, Pulitzer's goal was to produce an "organ of truth" that would "advocate principles and ideas rather than prejudices and partisanship." Crusading became a major objective, with campaigns designed to help the poorer residents in the city.

A few years later Pulitzer was enroute to Europe and while in New York acquired The World, which he turned into the nation's top publication of its time.

Pulitzer was the first to call for the training of journalists at the university level. And at his death, he established the Pulitzer Prizes as an "incentive to excellence."

Since several generations of men were named "Joseph" it became difficult to keep them straight. Biographer Daniel Pfaff numbered them.

We have noted Pulitzer I (1847-1911). Pulitzer II brought the daily national recognition. The second Joseph Pulitzer was born in New York City in 1885. He died in St. Louis in 1955. He kept up with the times, acquiring radio station KSD in 1922 and KSD-TV in 1947.

Pulitzer II was concerned with the editing phase. With an "independent streak," he received such fame that some felt "He left a greater impression on American journalism than did his illustrious father." Pulitzer II hated anything that he considered unjust or corrupt.

The third Joseph Pulitzer was associated with the newspaper until his death in 1993 at age 80. He expanded the operations, adding newspapers, and television and radio stations across America. The Post-Dispatch continued to grow while its competitors, the Sun-Times and Globe-Democrat, folded.

Pulitzer III, a Harvard graduate in the fine arts, began as a reporter, served in World War II, and then came to St. Louis. The Arts and Educational Council of St. Louis presented him its lifetime achievement award for his contributions to contemporary art.

The fourth Joseph Pulitzer, the great-grandson of the founder, published the Post-Dispatch as well and stepped down in 1995 after a long, successful career in management involving marketing, promotion, purchasing, specialty publications and alternate delivery systems.

Here is a family of four generations, with each man pushing the operations farther ahead — and each generation following in the footsteps of the founder.

— Written by Dr. William H. Taft, Missouri Press Association Historian

According to a news release, the American Legion Post 138 members awarded $600 scholarships to 10 students. Auxiliary members awarded $500 scholarships to three students.

The release said these scholarships go to the children and grandchildren of veterans. Recipients were not identified.

"This is possible due to the community's participation in our fundraisers, such as fish fries, breakfast or other events that appear in the newspaper," the release stated. "Appreciation to all that participate."

SBU recognizes CGC Nations Award recipients

Southwest Baptist University's Center for Global Connections honored an SBU employee and an SBU alumnus with its annual Nations Award during the Global Connections Week Chapel service on Wednesday, Sept. 15.

According to a university news release, the award "recognizes an SBU employee and alumnus who have been an integral part of the CGC purpose of promoting ministry, education and missionary development on SBU's campus."

"These honorees have a heart and passion to share the love of Jesus Christ with others and have made a significant impact on our campus as they served in SBU CGC mission endeavors," CGC and travel stewardship director Diana Gallamore said in the release. "We gladly recognize them today for their ministry efforts with the CGC and for the Christian and missionary lifestyle they represent."

The release said Julie Mpfu, '15, admissions and alumni coordinator in SBU's Doctor of Physical Therapy program, was the employee recipient of the CGC Nations Award "for exemplifying a heart and passion for missions."

"Julie is a third-generation SBU graduate who was initially drawn to SBU because of the Christian environment and the many opportunities to participate in international missions," Gallamore added. "As a student at SBU, she participated in a number of local and international mission trips and served as a marketing intern in the CGC office. She participated in teams to South Dakota, El Salvador, Senegal — probably three times — and Contagium, which was a missions-focused training ministry for local youth.

"After graduating from SBU with a degree in web systems and design in 2015, she moved to Zimbabwe to work in marketing and communications for Operation Mobilization Zimbabwe. Since returning to Bolivar to work in graduate admissions at SBU, she has helped lead multiple short-term missions back to Zimbabwe and helps facilitate a missions-focused Community Life + Worship group called 'Be the Salt.' Her family is in the process of establishing an organization in Zimbabwe that fulfills a dream to continue long-term ministry focusing on discipleship and community development in the rural areas."

Mpfu said via the release she is humbled by the recognition and that serving is "just a part of life."

"The honor reminded me that I have been blessed to grow up in a family that faithfully serves the Lord and is very active in missions," Mpfu said. "For me, receiving this award is a testament to those that have impacted my life toward missions and a personal challenge to continue to pass on that legacy to my kids.

"I can't imagine not using my time and abilities to help spread the Gospel, disciple others, and encourage young people to do the same. We serve a God that gave everything for us, so it is my joy to use my life to serve His Kingdom."

The release stated the alumni recipient, anonymous for security reasons, was recognized "for exceptional service in the forgotten corners of the world."

The alumni recipient was active in CGC projects as both a participant and a leader during their undergraduate years at SBU.

"This award recipient represents Christ where He is very much unknown," CGC assistant director Kelly Rehm said in the release. "They share Jesus while building real relationships with people and mentors those already a part of the body of Christ. They have furthered their education and skills for lifelong service there these past few years."

The CGC held its semester Global Fest on Wednesday, Sept. 15, to highlight the upcoming 2021-2022 CGC mission projects.

The release stated 20 mission projects were presented, and participants in attendance were able to visit each booth to learn more about the specific mission, taste some cultural food, see pictures of past teams' ministry and receive information on how they can be involved in an SBU mission.

The releases stated SBU CGC projects for 2021-2022 include the following:

- Year-round projects: Polk County Good News Club, House of Hope, Leviticus 19:32 (Parkview Nursing Home ministry), Catalyst, Exodus, SBU Global, Wild At Heart and Disaster Relief
 - Winter projects: Passion, Montana, New York City and Houston
 - Spring projects: Utah and South Dakota
 - Summer projects: Baptist Hill, Appalachian Trail, Zimbabwe, Pyrenees, Uganda and Kenya

Local Domino's to partner with BCFD, NFPA

Bolivar Domino's, located at 623 S. Springfield Ave., and the National Fire Protection Association are teaming up with the Bolivar City Fire Department to promote fire safety, according to a news release.

From 4 to 7 p.m. Wednesday through Friday, Oct. 6-8, anyone who orders a Domino's pizza may be randomly selected and surprised at the door when their pizza arrives aboard a fire engine.

If the smoke alarms in the home are working, the pizza is free.

If the smoke alarms are not working, the firefighters will install fully-functioning alarms or replace the batteries.

"Fire safety is extremely important," Marty Prather, co-franchisee of Domino's in Bolivar, said in the release. "We're excited to partner with the NFPA and Bolivar City Fire Department for a program that not only promotes the safety of our friends and neighbors, but rewards those who make fire safety a priority."

This year's Fire Prevention Week campaign theme is "Learn the Sounds of Fire Safety."

"In a typical home fire, you may have as little as one to two minutes to escape safely from the time the smoke alarm sounds," Brent Watkins, fire chief at Bolivar City Fire Department, said in the release. "Escape planning and practice can help you make the most of the time you have, giving everyone enough time to get out. These steps can make all of the difference, and we hope to raise awareness about them through our partnership with Domino's."

Customers can call Domino's in Bolivar at 777-7070 to place their order and be eligible for the fire engine delivery.

Community Connections to meet Thursday

Area agencies, volunteers, businesses, churches, schools, not-for-profits and community providers are invited to the Polk County Community Connections meeting at 7:30 a.m. this Thursday, Oct. 7.

This month's meeting will move to a new location in Bolivar First Baptist Church's Rose Building at 114 N. Springfield, Bolivar. The program will feature updates, goals and plans from the group's educational health task team. Humansville R-IV School superintendent, Tammy Erwin, chairs the team.

In a news release, Community Connections Board President Micah Titterington said Community Connections has six pillars of health it focuses on to help improve the overall health of county families – physical, mental, social, spiritual, economic and educational.

"At Thursday's meeting, we'll hear updates from these six areas but will focus on the progress of the educational team," says Titterington. "We are here to help our students, staffs, administrators and our teachers in our county's schools and I encourage anyone interested in helping support our schools to attend Thursday. And, remember we are meeting in a new location this month."

The Community Connections meeting lasts 60 to 90 minutes, the release stated, but those attending may leave as needed in order to get to work or school. Those attending are encouraged to bring materials and information about their business, school, organization, agency or church to share with others.

Community Connections is a non-for-profit 501c3 organization supported by a coalition of volunteers, churches, businesses, agencies, educators and health care providers from throughout Polk County. Community Connections partners with these coalition members to help improve the overall mental, physical, spiritual, social, educational and economic health of Polk County families.

Browns named Polk County farm family

Jered and Ashley Brown and family of Bolivar were among the families honored during the 62nd annual Missouri Farm Family Day on Monday, Aug. 16, at the Missouri State Fair.

According to a news release, the Brown family was selected as the Polk County Missouri Farm Family by University of Missouri Extension in Polk County and the local Farm Bureau.

Each year, the fair sets aside a day to recognize farm families from across the state that are active in their communities, involved in agriculture, and/or participate in local outreach and extension programs such as 4-H or FFA, the release noted.

The annual event is sponsored by five partner agencies: the Missouri Farm Bureau; the Missouri Department of Agriculture; the Missouri State Fair Commissioners; the MU College of Agriculture, Food and Natural Resources; and MU Extension and Engagement.

The event showcases the impact Missouri Farm Families have on the economy and heritage of the state, Missouri State Fair Director Mark Wolfe said in the release.

"These families are involved in agriculture activities in their communities and are active participants in local outreach and extension," he said. "As the premier showcase for Missouri agriculture, the Missouri State Fair is most certainly the appropriate place to celebrate these families."

Halfway's Whistle Stop has new owners after 18 years

By Steve Johnson
Buffalo Reflex

Even though the Whistle Stop Convenience Store in Halfway is under new ownership and management, Vaughn and Rhonda Miller intend to continue the service tradition that the previous owners, Ora and Jill Hostetler, maintained through their nearly 20 years of ownership.

Built in 2002 on property that Hostetlers bought from Tom and Lorraine Redd, the store actually opened in March of 2003. The land housed an old feed mill and a defunct church that were taken down to make way for the new and much needed convenience store. The ground was reshaped by a buildup of five to six feet on the north end and then leveled before construction on the building began.

"The whole idea of purchasing the land and building the store was born on a napkin in a restaurant in Buffalo," said Ora Hostetler, who also owns and operates his own construction company.

"I lived in the Halfway area and realized the need for a store that locals could shop at without having to travel the distance to Buffalo or Bolivar. Our Halfway neighbors, which are like family, have shown their appreciation of the store by doing business and making it successful," he said.

He also gives a lot of credit to his wife, Jill, for her experience and knowledge of how this type of business runs. Her experience with gas station stores goes back to her childhood. Her father and mother bought what is Bates Grocery, situated at Mo. Hwy. 73 and U.S. Hwy. 54 junction just south of Mack Creek, while on their honeymoon trip to Branson in 1947. The Hostetlers continue to own and operate Bates Grocery, and Ora has the old 1952 Phillips 66 station sign hanging in his garage.

Ora's love of trains prompted him to install a G-scale model train and track suspended from the ceiling of the Whistle Stop, and inspired the name of the business. He started collecting 1950 manufactured model trains and accumulated 30 engines and 200 cars. The track at Whistle Stop has over 900 feet of cable running alongside to keep the train from falling if it derails. The little train travels over five miles a day when it is running from morning to night.

In August 2021, Ora and Jill Hostetler decided it was time to move on to a different phase in their lives, and so Vaughn and Rhonda Miller stepped up to the convenience store operation plate on September 1. They look forward to serving the Halfway community in the same manner that Hostetlers did. They do have some improvements planned for the business.

Vaughn Miller was born and raised up in the Halfway area. His wife Rhonda grew up in Hartville and later moved to Pleasant Hope. The Millers have owned and operated Vaughn Miller Trucking for 20 years.

"So many have told me that they're so glad the store is staying in local hands," said Rhonda Miller, who works in the Human Resources department at Elliott Lodging in Springfield. "The town needs this store."

Hostetler already had plans drawn up to add storage space and a loading dock to the north end of the store. The Millers are going ahead with the expansion and Phillips 66 is helping out with some costs. Ora will oversee the construction, which is to start in October. According to the Hostetlers and the Millers, any future Whistle Stop customer can expect the same reliable outstanding service that has always been at the Whistle Stop.

The Whistle Stop store was built in 2002.

Vaughn and Rhonda Miller pose by the Halfway "Knee Deep" Coffee Club sign at the Whistle Stop. Members of the club sip coffee and spread the tales deep enough for shoveling.

Public Notice

For the past year and a half, the Bolivar R1 School Board has repeatedly voted to continue masking of the school children. As the CDC and NIH have both concluded from multiple studies, masking and face coverings do not work in the prevention of the spread of viral illness.

Masking is hurting our children both physically, psychologically, and behaviorally. Side effects include, but are not limited to, irritability, headaches, difficulty concentrating, less happiness, reluctance to go to school, malaise, impaired learning (lower test scores), drowsiness or fatigue, shortness of breath, dizziness, and some unwilling to move or play. More serious adverse reactions include increased viral and bacterial infections (including upper respiratory infections), hypoxia (lack of oxygen), hypercapnia (increased CO2 retention), syncope (passing out), brain damage, and a new concern of the possibility of lung cancer. The board has been made aware of these issues but continues to vote for masking.

If you have a child or grandchild that has experienced any of the issues above, please email your story, including your contact information, to the following address:

Howling for homecoming

By Brittany Gilbert
 brittanyg@bolivarnews.com

Southwest Baptist University celebrated the last day of homecoming week with a parade and a Great Lakes Valley Conference opener. SBU went up against the University of Indianapolis, but the Bearcats were overtaken 77-10 on Saturday, Oct. 2.

In the first 11 seconds of the game, UINDY took ownership of the scoreboard right from the opening kickoff, when a Greyhound caught the ball and raced 96 yards for a touchdown.

After SBU turned over the ball to UINDY, Greyhound Bryce Stancombe passed the ball to an open man down the field, who caught the ball and raced in for another touchdown.

Within just two plays, the teams entered into the weather delay with the Greyhounds up 14-0.

The teams charged back onto the field about an hour later, and with four minutes left in the first quarter, the Greyhounds rested at a 35-0 lead.

With the ball back in the Bearcats' hands, Cooper Callis made a 41-yard pass to Jordan Kent. Then, with 1:47 left on the clock and SBU starting its play with a fourth down, Logan Turner kicked a 51-yard field goal, ticking the scoreboard up to 35-3.

By the end of the second quarter, UINDY had a 56-3 lead.

During halftime, SBU began its homecoming coronation.

As several students walked down the middle of the field, the announcer told the crowd about each of them, including their backgrounds and future plans.

After the homecoming court lined up at the edge of the field, the chosen king and queen were announced. Last year's royals did the honors of crowning SBU's 2021 homecoming king Coleman Yantis and queen Abigail Farris.

week dorm competition results. After a week of challenges like mud-tug and bed races, brother and sister-dorms paired up to win either first, second or third place.

In first place was Beasley-Memorial, in second place was Leslie-Landen and in third place was Woody-Gott.

When the football game picked back up, SBU was the first to score. Callis turned the ball over to teammate Preston Carson, who ran 53 yards into the end zone.

After a successful PAT, the score rose to 56-10. However, by the end of the fourth quarter, UINDY's players had taken a 77-10 lead, which they kept, winning the game.

Aces up their sleeves

By Brittany Gilbert
brittanyg@bolivarnonews.com

The Bolivar and Pleasant Hope varsity volleyball teams are a month into their 2021-22 seasons, and both have been racking up more wins than losses. With one team including ties in its record and the other reaching double digits in wins, both continue to fight each week, bettering their records.

Bolivar

The Bolivar High School team has done well with its “next ball” mentality, according to coach Kyle Smith.

The players have chosen to not give up, he said. In result, the team rests at an overall record of 9-7-3 — wins-losses-ties, respectively.

And, according to Smith, “the potential for where this team could be at the end of the season is limitless.”

He described the Bolivar team as “scrappy” and relentless in its pursuits for the victory.

On this unrelenting team, there is Rachel Carr, a senior who “has been a key player, racking up stats and putting opponents in all kinds of trouble from the service line and attacking in the front row.”

Carr has a total of 35 aces up her sleeve, the most on the team. The same can be said for her .272 hitting percentage. She ranks third in kills.

Also, Smith said, she is state ranked at third for class 4 in aces per set and fourth in total aces.

Grace Hampton and Allison Butler, he added, have together racked up a combined total of 173 digs so far this season.

They have also been “an incredible senior presence on the court,” Smith said.

Junior Cora Roweton plays in the middle of their side of the court. While there, she “has added some layers to her game as a back-row attacker and aggressive server this year,” he said.

Leading the team with 95 kills, Roweton has dealt her hand of 14 aces, the third highest number on the team.

Similar to Carr, she is state-ranked sixth in class 4, her team-leading blocks — 35 in total — earning her that rank.

The only freshman on the team, Megan Howard, “has had a huge impact on our team this year,” Smith said.

In between Carr and Roweton, Howard ranks second on the team with her 23 aces, 12 blocks, 78 digs and 125 assists.

Leading in assists with 131, junior Elliana Partin has grown with Howard “into the setting position,” Smith said.

Both, he added, are also “doing a great job running our offense.”

One player leading in stats, though, “does not compare to the contribution of every single athlete on our team and in our program,” he said.

“The energy they bring to the game and to each other makes them exciting to coach and watch,” he added.

Bolivar’s volleyball season started at Osceola on Tuesday, Aug. 31. The Liberators put up a fight, winning each set 25-15, 25-13 and 25-20, finishing 3-0 in their first game of the season.

The girls kept up a winning streak for four weeks in a row, until they came up against Rolla on Thursday, Sept. 16. They lost each set 22-25, 23-25 and 19-25, totaling a 0-3 loss to the Bulldogs.

Then the Liberators went head-to-head against four other schools at the Buffalo Lady Bison Invitational on Saturday, Sept. 18.

It was there that Bolivar notched not one but two ties to its belt, both 1-1, against Ash Grove and Conway.

They lost against Hallsville 0-2 but flipped the score against Buffalo and won 2-0.

The wins and losses went back and forth for several matches in the following weeks, but the girls picked up another tie at the Stockton Invitational on Saturday, Oct. 2. They got it from a 1-1 score against Hillcrest.

Also at the tournament, Bolivar racked up two losses, and one was against El Dorado Springs 0-2. The other was against Stockton in one of their two matches with the team, finishing 0-2 there, as well.

However, the girls also scored three wins that day. They had a 2-0 win against Liberal, a 2-1 win against Sarcoxie and a 2-1 win in their second match against Stockton.

“I am so grateful for my seniors and what they have done to not only have a great senior season,” Smith said, “but (also) leave an amazing legacy of ‘next ball’ mentality and a positive atmosphere for generations to come.”

Bolivar hits the road on Thursday, Oct. 7, for a game against Glendale, starting at 7 p.m.

Pleasant Hope High School has a surpassing number of wins this season, as the team currently rests at a 13-4 overall record.

According to coach Britany Cheek, Jianna Halbrook and Abbey Swarengen are leading the team in kills.

Overall, though, the team has improved its defense and team work, leading to their wins, Cheek added.

The girls started their season at Everton on Tuesday, Aug. 31. While there, the team finished with a 3-0 win, scoring the sets with 25-20, 25-17 and 25-11.

Pleasant Hope’s loss to New Covenant Academy on Thursday, Sept. 2, was the first — and last — loss for several following matches. The team lost 1-3 overall, finishing the sets with 24-26, 23-25, 25-19 and 22-25.

The girls won a couple more games, and then came the Patriot Invitational on Saturday, Sept. 11, at the School of the Ozarks Tournament.

They came at each team “without dropping a set,”

Cheek said, winning 2-0 in every single match.

The three following games, however, were all losses.

The team lost 2-3 at Pierce City, 0-3 against Stockton and 0-3 at Miller.

The girls turned the streak around, though, with two 3-0 wins over Greenfield and Sheldon and 3-1 wins over Sarcoxie and Diamond.

Pleasant Hope has its next home game against Marionville at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 7.

Rising to the challenge

Bolivar High School's football team went hunting at its game against Waynesville Friday, Oct. 1, and the Liberators captured the win 24-20.

The team's next test is on Friday, Oct. 8, at Hillcrest High School.

In the first of three back-to-back away games, Bolivar will come up against Ozark Conference opponent 0-6 Class 4 Hillcrest.

The Hornets haven't tasted victory yet this season, so they will be "hungry for a win" against the Liberators, coach Glen Johnson said. That means Bolivar will just have to be hungrier.

"This will be another great Ozark Conference battle," Johnson said.

Last season, Hillcrest finished 2-9, including a crushing loss to Bolivar 41-0.

After their second win this season, the Liberators rest at a 2-4 overall record as they enter the seventh week of the season.

Week 6

Prior to Waynesville's band playing the National Anthem, the school asked for a moment of silence for the death of assistant coach Jeff Bramer, who died the morning of Friday, Oct. 1.

"We were heartbroken to hear (of) the passing of Waynesville assistant coach Jeff Bramer," Johnson said. "Coach Haynes and the whole community of Waynesville are in our prayers for the tough days ahead."

Then the night began. At the start of the game, the Liberators kicked off the first play, but the ball bounced out of bounds.

The Tigers then started with a good field position, but they were forced into a fumble, leading to a Liberator recovery on Waynesville's first drive.

The Liberators wrestle against the Tigers, protecting one of their own.

That play led to Colin Ames kicking a 40 yard field goal, and the Liberators took a 3-0 lead.

The Tigers then answered with a touchdown to gain a 6-3 lead.

In another play, Brant Meredith passed the ball to Elijah Roberts, who completed the pass around the 40 yard line. Roberts then raced up the field, Tigers closing in around him.

His feet skimming the boundary line, Roberts pushed past his opponents' claws, leaving them behind and entering followed by another successful PAT.

The last scoring drive of the night was made by Meredith, and the Liberators took — and kept — a 24-20 lead.

"Coach Conrad's offense ate up the last five minutes of the game," Johnson said.

The last play of the night started with three seconds left on the clock, the ball in Waynesville's paws.

When the Tigers threw the ball down the field, though, Liberator Braidyn Spiegel soared and intercepted the ball. His feet touched the ground, and time had run out for the Tigers.

"I was very proud of the display of toughness and growth our team made Friday night," Johnson said. "I think we will look back and say this was the turning point in our season."

The team saw a lot of improvement in this game, he added, and "to go into the half down 10-20 and to pitch a shutout in the second half and score 14 for the dramatic finish was encouraging."

The OC

The Liberators joined fellow Ozark Conference members Camdenton, Glendale, Kickapoo and Lebanon in sixth week victories.

Camdenton, which Bolivar played against for its homecoming game, obliterated the scoreboard with a 54-9 victory over Hillcrest on Friday.

Glendale, also not allowing its opponent into double-digits, emerged victorious with a 34-6 win over Parkview.

Kickapoo kept Rolla at the same score as Parkview, winning 27-6.

West Plains was closer to a win, but the team fell just 10 points short with a 44-34 loss to Lebanon.

CORRECTION
