Saying thank you

Why you're an inspiration to us all.

Each year we honour our brightest and best with our Scouts awards. And each year, I grow more impressed by the true kindness and deep commitment of you, our volunteers.

As you've worked through the challenges of the pandemic, you've helped each other and truly lived our values. You've quietly gone the extra mile to help others and do your best – and it has been amazing to witness.

Our young people continue to shine brighter than ever and our gallantry and meritorious award recipients remind us all who the true heroes are in life.

You all have my heartfelt thanks and congratulations for your incredible Scouting efforts and all you do to make our communities better places for many. These continue to be tough times, but it is for such times that Scouts shine brightest, and your generosity and commitment is so very special.

Thank you again and congratulations to you all.

Bear Grylls OBE
Chief Scout

A moment to say thank you and well done.

These last two years have been some of the toughest we've known in Scouts. As volunteers, you've worked harder than ever to support each other, offer great programmes and keep our groups up and running.

Our young people too have also been outstanding. Our gallantry and meritorious conduct award recipients remind us once again why our Scouts are an absolute credit to the movement. Your courage and kindness is an example to us all.

That's what makes our Scouts awards even more special this year. It's our moment to say thank you and well done to so many of you. You've given so much, and this is one of the very special ways we can shine a light on your incredible contribution. It's such a pleasure to read through the list and see so many familiar names.

I know how much you give, and when I say "thank you", I really mean it. Well done, all of you.

Carl Hankinson
UK Chief Commissioner

Other Awards

The Cornwell Scout Badge

Scout John 'Jack' Travers Cornwell joined the Royal Navy in 1915. Seriously injured during the Battle of Jutland in May 1916, he chose to stay at his post waiting for orders, until he was relieved at the end of battle. Upon reaching the port, he was transferred to a hospital in Grimsby where he died three days later.

For his bravery, he was posthumously awarded the Victoria Cross and the highest Gallantry award a Scout could earn, the Bronze Cross. The Cornwell Scout Badge was introduced in his memory. Today, it's presented to Scouts under the age of 25 who've shown immense courage in challenging circumstances.

In 2021, it was awarded to the following individuals:

England

Eddie Hind (Gt. London North East)
 Finn Eyles (Hampshire)
 Jacob Hare (Kent)
 Kiran Rowntree (South Yorkshire)
 Lochlan Peckham (deceased) (Cleveland)

This award was introduced in 1982 by Chief Scout Major General Michael Walsh. Today, the Chief Scout and the National Awards Advisory Group work together to recognise those who've excelled in a unique way that's not covered by any other award criteria.

Good Service Awards

(Awards issued between 1 January 2021 and 31 December 2021)

For many years, Scouts has recognised the quality of adult service. The first award of this kind – then known as the Gilt Medal of Merit – was made available by Baden-Powell in 1915. Today, Good Service Awards are presented each year to thank, acknowledge and celebrate outstanding members and associate members.

The Silver Wolf

This award is the unrestricted gift of the Chief Scout. It's only awarded for service of a most exceptional nature.

The Bar to the Silver Acorn

Awarded after at least five years of similarly distinguished service after receiving the Silver Acorn.

The Silver Acorn

Awarded after at least 20 years' service, which should be specially distinguished and appreciably better than outstanding.

The Bar to the Award for Merit

Awarded after at least five years of further outstanding service after receiving the Award for Merit.

The Award for Merit

Awarded for outstanding service. It implies keen, conscientious, imaginative and dedicated service over a sustained period, of at least 12 years duration (exceptionally 10).

The Chief Scout's Commendation for Good Service

Awarded in respect of not less than 5 years good service, which stands out. It should be regarded as the Chief Scout's recognition of the very real contribution made to the Scouts by the individual concerned.

Dwayne Fields, Scout Ambassador

Future recognition

Do you know an inspirational volunteer who goes above and beyond what is expected of them? If you'd like to nominate someone for a Good Service Award, here's what you need to do:

Determine if nominee meets the criteria for a Good Service award

Fill out a nomination form and forward it to the relevant individual:

District Commissioners (and above) can approve the Award for Merit and the Chief Scout's Commendation for Good Service.

County/Area/Region (Scotland) Commissioners (and above) can approve the Silver Acorn, Bar to the Award for Merit, Award for Merit and the Chief Scout's Commendation for Good Service.

Only the National Awards Advisory Group can approve the Silver Wolf, and the Bar to the Silver Acorn (but only once support for the nomination has been provided locally).

– Once approved and checked by UK Headquarters, awards are distributed to Counties (unless otherwise specified) on a quarterly basis.

Do you know a young person or volunteer whose show courage in adversity and quick thinking in the face of danger. If so, you might want to nominate them for a Meritorious Conduct/Gallantry award, the Cornwell Scout Badge or the Chief Scout's Personal Award:
